Chapter 1671: Severing Heaven Palace's Lifeline

The Heaven Demons inhabiting below Heaven Palace were all high rank. If these 30,000 Heaven Demons appeared in the human world, no armies in the human territory could oppose them.

Meanwhile, Yellow Spring Emperor's strength was also fully displayed now. It did not use any powerful technique, but bore through a bloody hole from the crowd of monsters using brute force.

"Let's go. It has not enjoyed a slaughter for a long time. Let it have its fun," Hades Fox God told Chu Mu.

"....." Chu Mu was a little speechless.

He could tell that it was really difficult to find an opponent to spar with after reaching Undying rank. That explained why Yellow Spring Emperor did not want to use any technique so that it could enjoy this slaughter for a bit longer.

Alright, the life of an Undying rank was actually rather boring.

With Yellow Spring Emperor opening the path, those Heaven Demons could not hinder their advancement at all.

The densely packed Heaven Demons were swept away by Yellow Spring Emperor's tail and became jam on the walls around. The path ahead was immediately emptied.

Hades Fox God was clearly a clean freak. It did not even want to touch those disgusting monsters. It passed through those grouped up Heaven Demons easily.

After crossing through this clearing under Heaven City, the caves in front became much more complicated.

The caves led to all directions and everywhere was filled with Heaven Demon's excretions. They did not know which cave actually led to Heaven Demon's real nest.

Chu Mu took a glance at Dragon Maiden and asked, "Didn't you guys manage to advance into their nest before?"

"The location of their nest will change..... But I should be able to find it. Follow me," said Dragon Maiden.

Dragon Maiden took the lead. She used her sense of smell to look for the nest.

Along the way, they could see the coldly glaring eyes. After they saw Undying rank like Chu Mu charging in, they fled cowardly like rats and bats.

After crossing through a long underground tunnel, Chu Mu faintly felt some heat.

The heat came from another rugged cave, different from the path Dragon Maiden took.

"Wait, walk this way," Chu Mu stopped Dragon Maiden.

“That place is too hot, Heaven Demons will never build a nest there,” said Dragon Maiden with certainty.

“I’m just here to confirm one thing,” Chu Mu did not let Dragon Maiden continue and walked towards the other path.

Hades Fox God casually followed Chu Mu towards the source of the heat.

Dragon Maiden was frustrated, but still followed Chu Mu.

.....

The temperature was getting higher and higher, even the stone wall was heated red.

Chu Mu took a deep breath and sensed the familiar heat aura blowing towards him.

“It should be here,” said Chu Mu.

He began accelerating towards the source of the heat.

Huhu~!

Flames started to spew out from the cracks between rocks. Due to the high temperature, there was no Heaven Demon around here.

Dragon Maiden had two doubts. The first was why there was such a powerful heat source here. There should not be such a thing below Heaven Palace. The second was why Chu Mu came to this place without any Heaven Demon even though he was looking for Heaven Demon's nest.....

The intense heat rumbled towards them. Dragon Maiden began to feel uncomfortable under such high temperature.

Chu Mu and Hades Fox God both possessed fire property. This temperature was nothing to them, only Dragon Maiden started sweating and turning pale.

"This..... Just what is this heat....." asked Dragon Maiden.

This heat was very familiar. Dragon Maiden felt that she had sensed this somewhere before!

"You definitely know what it is," Chu Mu did not give a straight answer.

Dragon Maiden frowned and rebuked, "Impossible. This must be the formation Yu Suo set up. The Crimson Sol energy she stole is stored here."

Chu Mu smiled at the sudden realization that this Dragon Maiden was really stupid.

“The Crimson Sol energy she stole is here,” Chu Mu pointed at himself.

Yu Suo passed all the Crimson Sol energy to Chu Mu, so she would not be secretly hiding any herself. She was unable to absorb this tyrannical heat, so it could not be used to strengthen herself.

Then, what was the Crimson Sol energy ahead of them?

Dragon Maiden’s heart sank.

She had seen so many Heaven Demons hiding in the clearing below Heaven City a moment ago, which was already unbelievable. And now, the Crimson Sol energy which should be gathered in Heaven City had somehow been stored underground.....

Could it be that other than Yu Suo, there was someone else stealing Crimson Sol energy?

Impossible!

Yu Suo did not work as a Totem Divine Maiden for a long time. However, she had certainly learned how a Totem Divine Maiden set up the diagram. It was reasonable that she could steal Crimson Sol energy.

However, who could the second thief be?

There was nobody else who could steal Crimson Sol energy.

Huhuhuhuhuhu~!

The intense heat radiated from the front.

Dazzling redness dyed the vision and stung their eyes.

Before them, there was a deep and huge well. A cluster of burning flame ball was hovering inside the well.

The flames danced and magma spilled out. It looked as if they were standing on Crimson Sol.

They were so close to this crimson flame and the high temperature made Dragon Maiden feel as if her lungs were burning.

Crimson Sol energy!

This was the purest Crimson Sol energy. Shouldn't it be stored in Heaven City by Totem Divine Maiden's Solar Eclipse formation? Why did it appear here???

“What..... What's going on!? Why is this happening!?” Dragon Maiden was shocked by the scene.

Crimson Sol energy could be said as the source of life to Heaven Palace. Their lifespan was sustained by letting Totem Divine Maiden convert this energy into God Dew, then distributing the God Dew to every Heaven Palace member.

Although Yu Suo stole the very first and purest Crimson Sol energy, she only stole a portion. For the following Solar Eclipse period, Crimson Sol energy would be absorbed by Solar Eclipse formation, then refined by totem Divine Maiden and used to sustain the survival of Heaven Palace.....

However, if Crimson Sol energy was gathered in this well, how was Totem Divine Maiden supposed to produce God Dew??

“Who..... Who stole this energy.....” Dragon Maiden was becoming hysterical.

There was a large number of Heaven Demons gathered under Heaven Palace waiting to make a move.

The entire Heaven Palace was completely clueless.

The Crimson Sol energy they depended on for survival actually gathered in this well, it was the same as Heaven Palace’s lifeline being severed.

Human Mother said ‘Heaven Palace is about to perish’. Was it really becoming a fact? If not, just what did she witness?

Hades Fox God turned to take a glance at the despaired Dragon Maiden and snorted, “Sometimes, you should not believe too much in things you believe in. Didn’t Human Mother tell you? Heaven Palace itself is destroying Heaven Palace.”

“There are only two people who can change Solar Eclipse formation. One is Yu Suo who stole Crimson Sol energy once, the other is your current Totem Divine Maiden. The energy Yu Suo stole is in me, then who transferred the energy to here..... Is it hard to guess?” said Chu Mu.

Dragon Maiden stiffened.

Totem Divine Maiden.....

The current Totem Divine Maiden, how could she do such a thing??

That’s a rebellion!

“How interesting. Even the Totem Divine Maiden has fallen to the demon’s side. It’s difficult for Heaven Palace not to perish,” Hades Fox God was totally acting like a spectator.

“There must be a conspiracy. How can Totem Divine Maiden do such a thing, that’s impossible!” Dragon Maiden did not want to believe.

Chu Mu smiled coldly, “You still don’t understand??”

“Understand what? It must be Yu Suo. She collaborated with the demons..... She already tried to rebel when she was the Totem Divine Maiden,” roared Dragon Maiden hysterically.

“You’re really hopelessly stupid. Is Heaven Palace still unwilling to review that incident even now?” said Chu Mu.

“Which?” asked Dragon Maiden.

“The death of the previous Totem Divine Maiden, Yu Qie,” said Chu Mu.

“She..... She received punishment for her sister.....” as Dragon Maiden spoke, she suddenly realized something.

She stared hard at Chu Mu and spoke after a long time, “You..... You are saying that Yu Qie was sabotaged by the current Totem Divine Maiden.....”

“I can’t be sure if she’s the culprit, but one thing’s for sure. Heaven Demons made use of internal members of Heaven Palace to lure Yu Qie to that land where they prepared an ambush. Their original intention was to kill her directly so that the current Totem Divine Maiden can take over her spot. Unfortunately, Heaven Demon Ancestor did not kill her and let her escape.....” said Chu Mu.

Chu Mu saw Yu Suo’s memory, he was clear of the truth.

The person who set this up was obviously Guardian Palace’s Yu Tian. Yu Tian clearly made a certain trade with Heaven Demons. Otherwise, he would not have made use of Yu Suo to set up such a trap.

Next, the verdict Guardian Palace made towards Yu Suo and Yu Qie was even more funny. Even though Heaven Palace was severely damaged, they just had to force the Totem Divine Maiden even Heaven Demon Ancestor could not kill to death.....

Heaven Palace's laws could not be changed?

What a joke. Someone must have interfered and was determined to execute Yu Qie.

Meanwhile, it was also Guardian Palace's member who exposed Yu Suo's fake Totem Divine Maiden identity and resolutely disallowed Yu Suo to be the Totem Divine Maiden.

In addition, Yu Suo already hated Heaven Palace, so she was exiled again.

Hence, the new Totem Divine Maiden took over the position.

Perhaps, Chu Mu was unable to be certain that the current Totem Divine Maiden was in cahoot with Heaven Demons. However, he could be sure now since, other than Yu Suo, only the current Totem Divine Maiden could transfer Heaven Palace's lifeline to here and sever Heaven Palace's lifeline!

Chapter 1672: Black Sol's Child

"How can Dai Qing do this!" "Nothing is impossible. Could you imagine a Heaven Demon nest to be directly under Heaven City before?" said Chu Mu coldly.

As expected, Yu Qie's death was not coincidental. There was a huge conspiracy that would destroy Heaven Palace in the dark.

Chu Mu could not help but smile bitterly.

It was obvious that Yu Suo already knew the truth. However, she wished to see Heaven Palace's destruction more.

She had entrusted the goal of killing Yu Tian to him, it was the same as opposing Heaven Demon. That Yu Tian was not a normal Heaven Palace member. He was either completely corrupted by Heaven Demon, or a total maniac. It would not be so easy to kill him.

"Then, we can be certain that Totem Palace and Guardian Palace are actually controlled by those in cahoots with Heaven Demons," said Hades Fox God.

"Yes. With this, they can easily make use of Heaven Palace's invitation to make the nine Undying rank attack Heaven Palace. Then, they can just benefit from the side," nodded Chu Mu.

"Then, did Human Mother ask you to confirm this matter?" asked Hades Fox God.

"More or less. She personally picked the Totem Divine Maiden and granted the power. She cannot be sure that the Totem Divine Maiden she chose herself would actually betray her," said Chu Mu.

Compared to Yu Suo's action, the current Totem Divine Maiden Dai Qing did a far more horrible thing.

Without Crimson Sol energy, the entire Heaven Palace would lose the means of extending lifespan. This would be forcing every member of Heaven Palace to death.

“Then what now?” Hades Fox God seemed lazy to think.

“We need to take this energy away. This not only concerned Heaven Palace’s continuation,” said Chu Mu with a serious expression.

Hades Fox God lazily swung its tail and spoke, “No wonder Human Mother requested your help. Only you can touch this energy, even someone with fire property like me dare not approach Crimson Sol energy.”

Chu Mu nodded. It was indeed what Hades Fox God said. If they wanted to take away this Crimson Sol energy, only Chu Mu could do it as only he could come into contact with this tyrannical energy.

However, Chu Mu was also in a difficult situation. The energy here clearly surpassed the amount Yu Suo stole. It would not be an easy matter to take it away. He would be burned if he was not careful.

“Maybe, you can absorb this energy as well. Its origin is unclear anyway.”

Chu Mu found it reasonable. There was plenty of energy here, he might become stronger after absorbing it.

“No!” shouted Dragon Maiden!

Crimson Sol energy was used to produce God Dewes. They also needed this energy to oppose Heaven Demons, since Heaven Demons were most afraid of Crimson Sol energy.

Hades Fox God turned around to take a glance at the emotional Dragon Maiden, its gaze was composed.

Actually, it was just making a casual comment. It was still a question whether Chu Mu could absorb this energy or not.

Suddenly, an unusual aura could be felt from another place in the cave.

Hades Fox God sharpened its gaze and immediately locked on to the opposite end of this burning tunnel.

A demon's sensing ability was extraordinary. Chu Mu had yet to sense anything, yet Hades Fox God had already discovered something approaching them.

"A troublesome fellow," Hades Fox God whispered to Chu Mu.

Chu Mu also frowned. His gaze crossed through the intense flame and focused on the figure walking towards them.

That person was wrapped tightly in a windbreaker next to the crimson flames, his face could not be seen properly.

Since he could approach this Crimson Sol energy cluster, he must be an Undying rank. Chu Mu could also tell from his aura that this person was very strong, not someone who just reached Undying rank.

“Who are you!?” shouted Dragon Maiden as she pointed at the man!

“Who?” That man laughed creepily, as if he was looking down on the identity of a human.

He was in a semi-levitating state, burning flame tongues danced around him. Even Hades Fox God could hardly endure such temperature, yet that guy seemed to be fine!

“I haven’t come out for a long time, and so many nameless juniors have appeared……” The man slowly floated towards them. His pair of white pupils looked at Chu Mu, Hades Fox God and Dragon Maiden with disdain.

The nameless juniors he mentioned not only referred to Chu Mu, it seemed that even Dragon Maiden and Hades Fox God were included.

Hades Fox God’s gaze turned sharper and sharper, it used mental voice to remind Chu Mu, “This fellow is not from our wheel.”

One wheel was ten thousand years.

Not belonging to this wheel meant that this ‘person’ before them was the wheel’s strongest from other wheels.

“You are the mastermind manipulating everything!” said Dragon Maiden as she continued pointing at the man.

“I can’t be bothered with that. I only made a trade with a certain fellow..... Of course, we can also do a trade. You two attack Heaven Palace with other era’s strongest obediently, I can treat as if you have never come here. If you are eyeing on this energy.....” snorted the man.

He grabbed onto his windbreaker and casually tore it.

The entire windbreaker was torn open and burned to ash by the flames.

Under the windbreaker, a cluster of black Devil Fire shot up and crazily swept up the surroundings!

Black Devil Fire filled this man’s entire body, his hair, eyes, limbs and torso. That evil aura did not lessen at all next to Crimson Sol energy!

Black Devil Fire!

Chu Mu could not be any more familiar with this black flame. Before absorbing Crimson Sol energy, he also possessed this black flame.

However, the Half Devil before Chu Mu had cultivated the power of black Devil Fire to the extreme!

Chu Mu stared at the man in a daze.

Black Nightmare? Could this guy be the Black Nightmare ruling over the Sequence Lands?

No, Black Nightmare was a pure Nightmare race. The person before him also contained human aura.

He was a Half Devil!

A black Half Devil!

“Black Sol’s child,” said Hades Fox God in a deep tone.

Black Sol’s child had existed for an unknown number of years. It was said that it had always been slumbering under Black Sol.

Meanwhile, its father seemed to be locked inside Black Sol. It was rumored that this crazy devil had always been trying to release its father.....

The objective it wanted to release its father was not due to familial love, but to devour its father’s soul to become the strongest devil in the world!

This was an extremely dangerous yet maniacal creature. Hades Fox God had long heard of its reputation.

It never imagined that this fellow was actually hiding in Heaven Palace and seemed to be one of the decision makers in Heaven Palace.....

Chapter 1673: The Possessed Bai Yu

Dragon Maiden was easily enraged, especially after realizing that this kind of people would actually hide inside the sacred Heaven Palace. She could not calm herself down and stared furiously at Black Sol's child.

The skin on her face started to change and gradually became dragon scale. Her hands also began morphing into sharp claws.

Her body merged with Imperial Concubine Dragon and Dragon Maiden rapidly transformed into a half human half dragon form!

Black Sol's child watched Dragon Maiden's transformation in disdain and simply allowed her dragon breath hit him.

Chu Mu, Hades Fox God and Dragon Maiden were all Undying rank. Since this Black Sol's child dared to stand before them alone, it meant this Black Sol's son was confident to take on three Undying rank all by himself.

"What's wrong? Is this fellow making you uncomfortable?" Suddenly, Hades Fox God asked Chu Mu.

Chu Mu had been maintaining a strange expression, partly anger, partly astonishment.

Chu Mu did not answer, but his eyes started to burn as he stared hard at Black Sol's child.

Black Sol's child appeared in Half Devil form.

There were only two Half Devils in this world. One was Chu Mu, the other was Bai Yu!

After looking through the flames covering Black Sol's child, Chu Mu saw the identity of the figure was..... none other than Bai Yu.

However, for some reason, Bai Yu's body was controlled by the soul of this Black Sol's child.

"What did you do to his soul?" Chu Mu coldly stared at Black Sol's child, his gaze sharpened!

As expected, the Royalty had an ulterior motive for taking Bai Yu away!

"Oh, so you recognize him?" Black Sol's child raised his eyebrows and seemed to be examining Chu Mu, then slowly spoke, "You should know that Demon Gods like us who have lived for a really long time always require younger and more powerful hosts. This body is quite decent, just that his soul is a little too stubborn..... It's fine though, he will be completely digested by me soon."

Hearing this, Chu Mu's rage instantly flared up!

This guy actually devoured Bai Yu's body and soul!

Hu~! Suddenly, a cluster of silver Devil Fire surged up from Black Sol's child's body, the creepily laughing face of Black Sol's child revealed Bai Yu's face faintly.

The silver flame was immediately twisted and overtook by the black flame of Black Sol's child. Chu Mu could see Black Sol's child agonizing after suppressing the silver flame.

“This kind of possession can easily cause backlash, even if there is a great difference between the new host and the soul. After all, the capacity of the body could only contain the original soul..... Silver Devil Fire appeared just now, that means your friend has not died,” Hades Fox God told Chu Mu.

Chu Mu nodded.

He would never allow Bai Yu to become the sacrifice of this monster from some place!

Chu Mu's skin began to burn crimson.

Crimson flame and black flame seemed to be the polar opposite.

Black Sol's child seemed to have noticed that it had not completely taken over this body and did not dare to waste anymore time. It flew towards Chu Mu, Hades Fox God and Dragon Maiden with a menacing expression.

The black flame was filled with evil aura. This evil flame swept across Imperial Concubine Dragon Maiden's body.

Imperial Concubine Dragon Maiden immediately created a blood red water shield in front of her, covering Chu Mu and Hades Fox God as well.

However, this kind of water type defense could not sustain long in an environment filled with fire elements. As streaks of black flames hit the shield, Imperial Concubine Dragon Maiden's shield was immediately shattered.

The black flame hit Imperial Concubine Dragon Maiden's body and caused severe burns on her scales.

The intense flame not only burned her body, but also tortured her soul. Chu Mu could hear her pained shrieks!

"Weakling!" Black Sol's child waved his hand and the black flame turned into a flaming monster, madly charging towards Imperial Concubine Dragon Maiden.

The huge flaming monster clashed into Imperial Concubine Dragon Maiden and flung her onto the burning cave wall.

Chu Mu and Hades Fox God took a glance at the injured Imperial Concubine Dragon Maiden.

Although this place was filled with flames and water type creatures obviously could not perform well, Black Sol's child was really strong as it could injure the Undying rank Imperial Concubine Dragon Maiden in a few hits!

Imperial Concubine Dragon Maiden climbed up from the rubble, her eyes filled with rage and frustration.

Imperial Concubine Dragon Maiden flew up again. Those crimson scales on her body turned into countless sharp blades and danced around.

Black Sol's child stretched out his hand and tightened into a fist. In an instant, all the dragon scale blades turned into ash.

He spat out a breath, the black magma-like energy beam accurately hit Imperial Concubine Dragon Maiden. She was blasted away again.

Despite getting more burns on her body, she got up again without giving up.

She believed that the mastermind behind Heaven Palace's crisis was the person before her. As long as she killed this person, Heaven Palace would not perish. So, she would kill this Black Sol's child even if she had to sacrifice her life.

Dragon Maiden did not give up and continued to attack.

Meanwhile, the silver Hades Fox God suddenly stood before her and stopped her attack.

"What are you doing?" asked Imperial Concubine Dragon Maiden confusedly.

"Little girl, a battle is not a clash between brute strength. In such a place dominated by flames, you can't defeat him," said Hades Fox God coldly.

After that, Hades Fox God's silver fur began fluttering!

Devil aura and purple flame were released simultaneously. Hades Fox God's aloof, solemn and lazy aura instantly changed to wild, tyrannical and intimidating!

Chu Mu and Imperial Concubine Dragon Maiden were forced to take a few steps back after sensing this aura!

Chu Mu had always thought that Hades Fox God should only be a little stronger than Imperial Concubine Dragon Maiden. However, when it completely released its aura, he knew that he was totally wrong!

This lazy Hades Fox God was much stronger than Ancient Flood Dragon Person. At least, from the aura it was giving off, Chu Mu had no confidence to oppose it.

"I will save your friend, do what you need to do," Purple flames flashed in Hades Fox God's pupils!

Black Sol's child already started frowning and faced Hades Fox God with a grim expression.

Demon race's Demon Ancestor, Hades Fox God, was clearly not as simple as his estimation.

If this was the case, let alone one versus three, Black Sol's child was not even confident of defeating Hades Fox God alone!

"Damn, they gave me wrong information!" Black Sol's child cursed in his heart!

Amongst the nine era's strongest, the strongest was undoubtedly Limbo Flower Queen with the highest racial rank.

The second was not Yellow Spring Emperor or Underworld Demon Lord, it was clearly this Hades Fox God!

He had to admit, Hades Fox God had really hidden its strength well. Judging from the aura it was exuding now, two or three new Undying rank might not be her opponent!

This was really a powerful enemy!

Seeing that Hades Fox God had become serious, Chu Mu nodded, "He is a person I respect very much, please, Fox God."

Chu Mu took a last glance at Black Sol's child.

It was possessing Bai Yu's body and soul.

Chu Mu clearly remembered that when he was still a weak soul pet trainer in New Moon Land, the name of Nightmare Emperor Bai Yu had appeared many times. When he actually met him, it was him turning into Half Devil and attacking Tianxia City.....

As a fellow Half Devil, only Chu Mu could understand how painful it was to wander between devil and human.

Chu Mu was lucky to be reborn in Monument Tear.

However, Bai Yu's humanity was awakened by his daughter using soul sacrifice.

It was because of this heartbreaking story etched in him that he went on a journey to search for the resurrection technique. He never gave up no matter how bleak the chance was, he never wavered no matter how difficult it was.

Now, Bai Jinrou had gained a little lifespan, she could be considered resurrected. However, Bai Yu himself had walked into Heaven Palace's conspiracy and became a sacrifice for others.

"Relax, possession is not a technique the Nightmare race is good at. You leave your respected friend to me, I leave the lives of my kin to you. Hopefully, we will not disappoint each other," Hades Fox God told Chu Mu.

Chu Mu was startled.

How did Hades Fox God know.....

"Not only Human Mother knows that Heaven Palace must not perish. Go, those foolish era's strongest are probably fighting Heaven Palace now. Don't let that maniac's plan succeed," said Hades Fox God.

Chu Mu nodded solemnly.

There was not much time left. He had to bring this Crimson Sol energy back to Heaven Palace, or the consequence was unimaginable.

Chu Mu did not think any further. He passed through the black Devil Flame deployed by Black Sol's child and flew straight towards the Crimson Sol energy cluster.

Black Sol's child knew what Chu Mu was about to do and immediately tried to obstruct him.

At this moment, Hades Fox God appeared right before Black Sol's child with an extremely fast speed!

Nine fox silhouettes abruptly manifested. The long fox tails became shackles of imprisonment, forming into a matrix and forcefully trapping Black Sol's child!

Soul extraction!

Hades Fox God sharpened its gaze. Its tail shackles turned into soul extraction chains and forcefully separated Black Sol's child's soul from Bai Yu's body!

"Grr!" Black Sol's child yelled maniacally. It stretched out its long claws like a devil tearing apart its disguise!

Bai Yu's body was thrown aside. Black Sol's child transformed into a cluster of black Devil Fire. The long black Devil Fire horn stabbed towards Hades Fox God!

Chapter 1674: Totem Divine Maiden Dai Qing

Purple flame and black flame clashed fiercely with crimson flame's illumination as background!

Hades Fox God was extremely agile, the black flame and Black Sol's child could not even touch it.

As it dashed around, its bloody claw had already torn open Black Sol's son's skin!

Imperial Concubine Dragon Maiden hovered at the side and watched this battle.

She was unable to join in a battle on this level.

They were very expertized in their control of power. Every attack unleashed was like deploying a chess piece in order to prepare for injuring the opponent in the next move.

Just as Haze Fox God said, a battle was not a clash of strength. Haze Fox God's battle taught Dragon Maiden a lesson.

Dragon Maiden had always assumed the strongest creature was in Heaven Palace. However, it seemed that this Black Sol's son and Hades Fox God possessed strength on par with Heaven Palace's strongest!

Chu Mu took a glance at the battle, Hades Fox God's strength certainly surprised him. After all, Chu Mu just reached Undying rank, even though he controlled the strongest flame, Crimson Sol flame, in this world, he was not as proficient in using it as these two.

However, he did not have the time to spectate the battle.

Human Mother told Chu Mu a very cruel fact. It was the secret between Heaven Palace and Heaven Boundary Monument. Chu Mu had no choice but to protect Heaven Palace. Otherwise, this ten thousand year wheel would be the final wheel of this world!

Crimson Sol energy rumbled before Chu Mu, the fire element aura had reached the peak.

This was the purest Crimson Sol energy, much more than the amount Yu Suo stole.

Hades Fox God and Black Sol's son were both fire type creatures, but they did not dare to approach this cluster of crimson fire directly. Different types of flames would generate an extremely powerful rejection.

Chu Mu's Undying rank strength originated from Crimson Sol. Only he could carry this Crimson Sol energy.

Chu Mu took a glance at this cluster of flame hanging like a sun.

After gritting his teeth, he stretched out his arms and lifted up this cluster of Crimson Sol energy!

A ring of strange diagram appeared around Crimson Sol energy. When Chu Mu was forcefully lifting it up, this diagram shone brightly!

A layer of restriction immediately covered Crimson Sol energy, preventing Chu Mu from carrying it away.

Chu Mu frowned and shattered the diagram restriction with brute force!

Wam!

The entire cave trembled violently along with the Crimson Sol energy, as if the cave would be collapsing.

Chu Mu raised the energy sphere and flew out of the well. The heavy weight caused his hands to tremble and veins to pop up.

Like the sun rising up from the horizon, Chu Mu flew faster and faster, and this cluster of Crimson Sol energy was brought out of the Heaven Demon cave.

Hissss!

Suddenly, many sharp screeching sounds rang out from the tunnels in the surroundings.

They possessed dark yellow eyeballs, membrane wings and snake-like tongues.

The light ray from Crimson Sol energy shone onto the cave walls. Those Heaven Demons swarmed out from the surrounding caves and stared at Chu Mu greedily.

Chu Mu continued to fly upwards. The group of Heaven Demons revolved around the Crimson Sol energy like a huge colony of bats while making strange screams.

“They are actually not afraid of light!” Chu Mu coldly looked at the monsters.

Heaven Demon should be a monster with darkness property and beast property. Burning flames and light rays like this should cause severe burns to them.

However, Chu Mu noticed that the Heaven Demons surrounding him seemed different from those Heaven Demons before. They were not afraid of Crimson Sol’s light ray at all, but seemed to be enjoying this radiance like moths flying towards the light source!

“Are they mutated Heaven Demons??”

Chu Mu frowned.

If a certain Heaven Demon mutated in property, then its offspring might also possess this mutation.

The offsprings would reproduce more offsprings. Eventually, the Heaven Demons would become able to fly and hunt during daytime!

Furthermore, Heaven Demons were derived creatures. This type of creature reproduced even faster than snakes and rats. If the future Heaven Demons were all not afraid of sunlight, then the Heaven Demons which already dominated the human territory could continue to hunt even after the Solar Eclipse ended!

“They made use of Crimson Sol energy to mutate Heaven Demon’s property!” Chu Mu now understood why Crimson Sol energy would appear in Heaven Demon’s cave.

Chu Mu remembered that Heaven Demons seemed to possess a little bit of human bloodline. They probably also knew the adaptation training used by human soul pet trainers.

Old Li once said before that maternal family creatures like these could also be seen as human soul pet trainers and soul pets. The maternal body would be the soul pet trainer, while derived creatures would be the soul pets. Maternal body would strengthen the derived creatures. This was similar to humans strengthening soul pets.....

Chu Mu felt an even greater burden after making this hypothesis.

The Heaven Demon race clearly possessed very high intelligence, and they were strong enough to overthrow Heaven Palace.

If they really became the ruler of Heaven Palace, they would treat the human territory as their dining table!

It was horrifying just from the imagination!

.....

Hissssss~!

The Heaven Demons had gathered and blocked the path above Chu Mu.

It was obvious that these monsters in the middle of absorbing Crimson Sol energy would not allow Chu Mu to take it away!

Seeing these foolish Heaven Demons circling around him, he sneered.

With an incantation, silver and black flames sprouted out from Chu Mu's body.

The two types of flames separated from Chu Mu and rapidly turned into flaming silhouettes.

The silver silhouette and black silhouette did not possess any soul, they were just illusions created by Chu Mu.

The two flame silhouettes possessed a portion of Chu Mu's strength, enough to annihilate these Heaven Demons!

Silver and black flames weaved above Chu Mu. Those Heaven Demons approaching Chu Mu were burned to ash and fell into the Crimson Sol energy.

The energy absorbed by these Heaven Demons would return to the cluster of Crimson Sol energy after they were killed.

Although each Heaven Demon could only absorb a tiny bit of energy, Chu Mu intended to completely annihilate these man-eating monsters which could act during daytime!

The well was very deep. There would be a layer of restriction after a certain height.

In order to preserve stamina and energy, Chu Mu simply borrowed the Crimson Sol energy to unleash his own technique, blasting the restriction blocking the way.

.....

Heaven Palace.

The entire city was shaking violently. High above Heaven Palace, a huge beast silhouette blocked everything using its enormous size. The terrifying beast aura shrouded the entire city.

In an instant, Heaven City fell into panic. It was not only because of that huge raging Demon Lord, there were also Evil Dragon, evil Black Nightmare and chained Ghost Lord.....

Many era's strongest broke out of the barrier Heaven Palace used to restrain them and started to take revenge on Heaven Palace furiously.

Grandiose palaces were erased one after another by the techniques of these Undying rank creatures. The powerful Forbidden army amounted to nothing before these Undying rank creatures.

Heaven Palace had never been so devastated even when Heaven Demons attacked. Those experts guarding Heaven Palace never showed up for some reason. The army kept getting reduced to corpses and vaporized under the tyrannical power of Undying rank.

At the center of Heaven City, twelve light rays continued to bind Crimson Sol. Energy was constantly injected into this Solar Eclipse formation.

At the center of the diagram, a woman was still kneeling down and constantly chanting.

Solar Eclipse formation possessed an extremely powerful restriction. Even if Heaven City was destroyed, this restriction might not be broken.

As if hearing the sound of destruction, while Totem Divine Maiden was chanting, her lips curved up slightly.

It seemed that everything was going according to plan.

Suddenly, an unusual power was transmitted from the other end of the Solar Eclipse formation!

A spatial tremor rippled out amongst the Totem Maidens. A few high ranking Totem Maidens turned pale from the shockwave and almost broke the chanting.

Totem Divine Maiden Dai Qing frowned. Who is making trouble?

Could it be Yu Suo again?

A trace of anger flashed across Dai Qing's face.

Previously, the purest and most powerful Crimson Sol energy was stolen by Yu Suo. This was already an extremely humiliating matter to her. That foolish woman was still going to oppose her now?

Hu~!

A gust of wind blew past and Totem Divine Maiden Dai Qing opened her eyes. She saw Human Mother standing before her.

Dai Qing squeezed out a smile, "What's the matter, Human Mother?"

Human Mother's expression was extremely dark.

At first, she was unwilling to believe that the Totem Divine Maiden she picked would do such a thing, but she now knew that this celestial-like woman was actually a greedy devil!

Pa! Human Mother stretched out her hand and heavily slapped Totem Divine Maiden Dai Qing!

This slap was very loud, all the chanting Totem Maidens were alerted. When they opened their eyes, they saw one side of Totem Divine Maiden Dai Qing's cheeks turned red, and blood seeped out from the corner of her mouth.

Totem Divine Maiden Dai Qing did not become angry from this slap. She was only laughing, laughing maniacally.....

“You only noticed now? Too late,” sneered Totem Divine Maiden Dai Qing.

“Why are you doing this!?” Human Mother’s cold gaze focused on Totem Divine Maiden Dai Qing.

Chapter 1675: Heaven Palace Which Was Destroyed Four Times

The surrounding Totem Maidens were shocked. They did not know what happened.

The light barrier protecting the formation kept shaking. The Undying rank energy shockwave destroyed everything around the formation.

Wind swept up the ash, the entire Heaven City looked like it experienced apocalypse. No matter how bright the radiance was in the sky, the land was assaulted by terrifying energy shockwaves.

Human Mother stared furiously at Totem Divine Maiden Dai Qing.

Human Mother had also watched Totem Divine Maiden Dai Qing grow up. In the choice of Totem Divine Maiden, although she chose Yu Qie and Yu Suo, Dai Qing’s position was actually not low as well. She was even nurtured the same way as a Totem Divine Maiden candidate.

After Yu Qie and Yu Suo stepped down, Human Mother let her become the next Totem Divine Maiden without any hesitation.

However, Human Mother had never imagined Dai Qing to do such a lunatic thing.

Seeing Dai Qing's cold and mocking expression, Human Mother suddenly felt sorrowful.

Yu Qie, Yu Suo and Dai Qing were all nurtured by her from young. Why did they choose a path away from Heaven Palace in the end.....

Could it be that Heaven Palace had really become a cold palace that only possessed merciless and cruelty. Was it already no different from Heaven Demons?

Perhaps, that was really the case. Otherwise, Heaven Palace would not be filled with those Heaven Demons now.

Human Mother did not want to hear the reason anymore.

Perhaps she was just like Yu Suo who hated Heaven Palace more than hating Heaven Demons. If Yu Suo had to choose, she would rather let Heaven Demons destroy Heaven Palace, because it was not the Heaven Demons which killed her sister. No matter how strong the Heaven Demons were, they could not kill the strongest Totem Divine Maiden Yu Qie.

However, Heaven Palace killed her. Due to the horrifying doctrine of Heaven Palace, Yu Qie did not even resist.

This was the most horrifying part about Heaven Palace.

“If you still possess any humanity, please transfer the leftover Crimson Sol energy to Heaven City,” said Human Mother as she watched Totem Divine Maiden Dai Qing disappointedly.

“I cannot. Extending the lives of these trash is even more terrifying than feeding those Heaven Demons!” said Dai Qing coldly.

Heaven Palace started to compromise towards Heaven Demons from an unknown time ago, even to the point of using living people to feed them. This cruel method was used to exchange a momentary peace.

However, did those decision makers know that those people eaten alive due to this decision might not mean anything to Heaven Palace, but it was everything to a certain person?

Dai Qing witnessed her mother getting divided and eaten by three Heaven Demons.

This mother had always been reminding her to work for Heaven Palace, to be loyal to Heaven Palace, to not give up no matter how hard the training was.

Dai Qing was already a Totem Divine Maiden, she knew the current situation of Heaven Palace very well.

She knew that Heaven Palace was definitely going to perish. It would either be overthrown by those era’s strongest or devoured by Heaven Demons. Upon reaching this wheel cycle, the creatures had become even stronger, the built up potential threats had also increased.

Rather than letting Heaven Palace struggle until the next wheel, she would rather end Heaven Palace in this wheel.

Dai Qing did not want to obtain anything from Heaven Demons. She only wanted to let this Heaven Palace end now to prevent more tragedies.

In a system, if even the system manager felt that the system had been sullied, then the system was really not far from breaking down.

When Human Mother asked her why she was doing this, the reason Dai Qing laughed was because she was laughing at Human Mother's pedantry.

Despite knowing the many problems in Heaven Palace, Guardian Palace already taken over by Heaven Demons, and many people had sold their souls to Heaven Demons, she was still struggling to protect that laughable and meaningless justice.

"Change a batch of rulers. Or rather, this world does not need any ruler. We were originally the stronger group of people from human territory anyway. Why must we leave them and live in this barren land? There's no season, no culture, no scenery, no feelings....." said Dai Qing as she calmly watched Human Mother.

"Even if you are disappointed towards Heaven Palace, you should not hand it over to Heaven Demons. Do you know the reason for Heaven Palace to exist!?:" Human Mother's face was turning red from anger.

"What meaning is there? If you can tell me a reason I can accept, I will stop....." said Dai Qing plainly.

"You....." Human Mother took a deep breath.

After staying silent for a while, Human Mother finally suppressed her anger and spoke, “You know that the world is divided into three layers of sky and three layers of earth. Do you know why the other dimensions are fragmented apart from this world?”

Dai Qing shook her head.

“Foolish!” scolded Human Mother, “It’s not that Heaven Palace has never been destroyed before. Just as what you can see, there have always been many problems in Heaven Palace. However, we still persist in protecting it not because we are greedy for authority, not because we want to keep living, but we have no choice but to live on!”

“No choice but to live on? Human Mother, Guardian, Wheel? Is there still some secret you are hiding which you can’t tell? Heaven Palace is about to perish anyway, why don’t you tell me? Also, you said Heaven Palace had been destroyed before?” Dai Qing took a glance at the half-destroyed Heaven Palace.

The Totem Maidens had already stopped chanting. They already knew from the conversation between the two decision makers that Heaven Palace was facing the greatest crisis.

Heaven Palace had been destroyed before?

Shouldn’t Heaven Palace be ever-lasting? How could it be destroyed?

“Four times,” said Human Mother coldly.

“Four times??” Dai Qing opened her mouth but did not know what to say.

Four times, Heaven Palace had been destroyed four times??

Suddenly, Dai Qing recalled something and looked at Human Mother in astonishment.

“You mean, the third layer of sky, second layer of sky, second layer of earth, third later of earth.....”
Dai Qing was shocked.

“Yes, those four times. The price of destruction each time is the collapse of the world!” said Human Mother with a grim tone.

Various isolated spaces existed in the human territory. Those isolated spaces were like lone islands, existing alone in the void space.

In the past, there were five dimensions in the world.

Now, there was only one dimension, the other four dimensions had become isolated spaces.

Many human researchers had been studying the origin of those isolated spaces.

If they heard the conversation between Human Mother and Dai Qing, they would realize that those isolated spaces were the remnants of the four collapsed dimensions.....

Totem Divine Maiden was shocked. She did not know this secret. Human Mother never told her, Heaven Palace had also never recorded this matter.....

She hated Heaven Palace, she offered her help when she knew that Heaven Palace was about to be taken over by Heaven Demons, so that everything would end faster.

When Heaven Demons became the rulers, at most, the human race would be exiled, while other races would still live normally in this world.

However, she never imagined that if Heaven Palace was destroyed, the entire world would collapse. Be it the human race, Heaven Demons or the other races and continents, everything would shatter.

Dai Qing was not a pure betrayer. She only wanted Heaven Palace to change a batch of rulers. However, she never thought that the price for changing a batch of rulers would be the destruction of the world.....

Furthermore, it seemed to be the final chance of this world, because four dimensions were already destroyed previously. Only remnants in the form of isolated spaces were left, just that nobody knew those were remnants from the other dimensions.

Human Mother looked at the despaired Dai Qing and said, “Heaven Palace is very fragile. The destruction of four dimensions already indicated that Heaven Palace is not an ever-lasting existence. So we need to keep creating a fake image that Heaven Palace is powerful.....”

“Then, the Crimson Sol energy?” asked Dai Qing.

“A portion is used to produce God Dew to sustain our lifespan. Another portion is used to maintain the energy for this world to continue existing. The world is supported by ten Heaven Boundary Monuments. They are deployed in various parts of the world and became the pillars of the world. Once the ten Heaven Boundary Monuments run out of energy, void will crush the world!”

“Why didn’t you tell us?” said Dai Qing.

Human mother laughed with a pale expression.

Could such secret be told?

If told, it was none other than telling those creatures with ulterior motives the method to destroy this world.

The stable-looking world was actually really fragile. There was no need to gain the power to destroy the continent. They only needed to destroy Heaven Palace, destroy the Solar Eclipse formation.

Some creatures desired chaos. Undying rank creatures could survive even if the world collapsed. However, those below Undying rank would be completely annihilated.....

What Human Mother told Dai Qing now was also what she told Chu Mu.

Human Mother knew that what Chu Mu cared about was human territory. More accurately speaking, those he wanted to protect in the Northern Territory. Telling him this secret would surely make him move.

Certainly, Chu Mu had to stand on Human Mother's side.

Imprint Valley's collapse left a really deep impression on Chu Mu. At that moment, the sky was shrouded by a blackhole. The earth broke apart and revealed a bottomless abyss. Creatures in Imprint Valley began running around in panic, trying to find a safe shelter. However, what awaited them was death no matter where they ran to.

In a collapsing space, one could only wait for the moment of death, just like the two Seven Sins Fox Light King.

Chu Mu personally witnessed the cruelty of dimension collapse, and that was just a small Imprint Valley.....

If the entire world collapsed like that, billions of creatures would be wiped out. Chu Mu would also be watching everyone else perishing other than the few Undying rank like him.....

Such a scene was horrifying just from the imagination.

Hades Fox God also knew this secret. So, despite possessing enough strength to destroy Heaven Palace, it chose to take Chu Mu's side. Similar to Yellow Spring Emperor, it also had its kins to protect, they were the gods of Ocean Species and Demon race.

As gods, they did not rule, but shoulder the fate and responsibility when the disaster arrived!

The other era's strongest were enraged. Even if Human Mother told them the fact about the collapse of the world, they would not believe it.

However, Chu Mu, Yellow Spring Emperor and Hades Fox God chose to believe it. Even if this was a lie made by Human Mother, they would not allow this world to be destroyed in their era.

Chapter 1676: Ten Thousand Year Wheel Level Phoenix Ancestor

“Hahaha, so weak, so weak!” Underworld Demon Lord stepped on the rubble of a palace and its explosively muscular body occupied the space in Heaven Palace.

Behind Underworld Demon Lord, Inferno Ghost Lord manipulated the blood and skewered the corpses of those Heaven Palace Forbidden army soldiers which were killed. Right now, the chain already skewered a few hundred corpses, just like a collection of trophies!

Limbo Flower Queen stood between the two ferocious monsters and appeared like a misfit.

However, the blood mist lingering around it indicated that this publicly acknowledged strongest Undying rank was also very angry.

She did not make a move, only glaring at the chaotic Heaven Palace with a cold gaze.

Other than these three Undying rank, Ancient Flood Dragon Person was already destroying Heaven Palace and Heaven City.

This Evil Dragon ate a large group of Forbidden army soldiers, instilling fear into the rest of them.

The Black Nightmare from Sequence Lands began to throw a barrage of black flame. This devil could keep laughing creepily and those who approached it would be burned by its Devil Fire, including the souls.

Meanwhile, Five Element God was similarly tyrannical. Water, thunder, earth, wind and fire elements gathered in its body. Any technique it unleashed covered a wide area, as if apocalypse was approaching.

“Huo!”

Suddenly, a thunderous roar rang out from a certain palace in Heaven Palace.

This palace was filled with lightning restriction. However, the restriction exploded as the roar rang out!

Limbo Flower Queen turned its gaze towards the exploded palace and saw a robust figure standing there!

“Finally come out?” Limbo Flower Queen’s gaze turned sharp.

“Huo!”

That figure roared again. It leapt up and flew towards Ancient Flood Dragon Person which was destroying Heaven City!

Its huge wings almost covered all the light, casting a huge shadow above all Undying rank experts.

Blinding radiance shone from the white light. When Ancient Flood Dragon Person reacted, the cluster of light was already flying towards it with extreme speed!

A pair of sharp claws dug deeply into Ancient Flood Dragon Person's flesh!

The enormous Ancient Flood Dragon Person was lifted up by the creature in that cluster of light.

Ancient Flood Dragon Person possessed an enormous body, and it also possessed tremendous strength.

However, that creature in the cluster of light was even more tyrannical. It actually caught Ancient Flood Dragon Person like catching a small snake!

With a fierce swing, Ancient Flood Dragon Person was flung out of Heaven City. It crashed heavily into the rocky mountain and swept up a dust cloud!

Everyone in Heaven City was panicking due to Ancient Flood Dragon Person. However, when they saw the Undying rank Ancient Flood Dragon Person getting thrown out of the city like that, they simply looked at that cluster of light blankly!

The cluster of light was absorbing Crimson Sol energy. Its silhouette could vaguely be seen in the dazzling light!

Totem Divine Maiden Dai Qing looked at the cluster of light in the sky and mumbled, "Wheel already cannot sit back anymore?"

Human Mother slightly frowned.

The real enemy had not shown up, yet Wheel Palace's Wheel God had to make a move first.....

Next, the various era's strongest would definitely attack Wheel God together. The situation would become harder to salvage.

"It's the first time seeing its actual appearance....." Dai Qing smiled miserably.

There was no point even after she knew about the truth of world collapsing, it was too late. Heaven Palace had become too corrupted.....

Human Mother did not pay attention to Dai Qing anymore. She immediately flew into the sky.

The reason she did not make a move was because she did not want to anger those era's strongest further. What Heaven Palace should face were not those era's strongest, but Heaven Demons.

However, Wheel could no longer tolerate these era's strongest rampaging around anymore.

Ten thousand year wheel, the ruler of Heaven Palace's Wheel Palace was the previous wheel's strongest. This was a true ten thousand year wheel level creature.

The power that Wheel displayed just now was already astonishing. Ancient Flood Dragon Person was thrown out of Heaven City like a little snake. It would probably not wake up for a while.

The moment Wheel showed up, Five Element God, Black Nightmare, Underworld, Inferno and Limbo stopped. Their gaze focused on this cluster of white light.

Within the light, a pair of holy wings slowly appeared. They flapped lightly and feathers scattered down.

As those feathers fell, the wounded Heaven City's Dragon army and Beast army received healing and were covered by a layer of protection shield.

People raised their heads and watched the actual Wheel God.

Only when this Wheel God made a move, could the situation be under control.

"Nirvana Rebirth, Phoenix amongst phoenix!" Limbo Flower Queen focused on the cluster of light.

Limbo Flower Queen was the first era's strongest. Only it knew who was the previous wheel's strongest.

It was currently staying in Heaven Palace and became a godly existence.

Since a long time ago, Limbo Flower Queen had wanted to face this senior. The rampage this time had completely enraged this wheel's strongest!

“Limbo!” Ten thousand year wheel Phoenix Ancestor looked down from high above. Its voice was solemn and cold!

“Long time no see,” Limbo Flower Queen smiled. It looked not much different from a normal human woman.

However, its face and skin were covered by flower patterns. Its eyes showed no emotions at all.

“You should know the consequence of such a rampage!” said Phoenix Ancestor angrily.

“I never did anything,” Limbo Flower Queen grinned.

Certainly, it did nothing.

However, it just allowed Underworld Demon Lord and Inferno Ghost Lord to slaughter and destroy.

“Ao~!”

Ancient Flood Dragon Person crawled out from the rubble. It seemed to have suffered some sort of humiliation. This Evil Dragon charged back furiously and used its dragon horn to crash into Phoenix Ancestor!

Phoenix Ancestor was a Light Phoenix and had reached the peak through Nirvana Rebirth. Facing the ferocious Ancient Flood Dragon Person, Phoenix Ancestor was unconcerned and casually flapped its wing. Ancient Flood Dragon Person was slapped back to where it crashed.

Ancient Flood Dragon Person charged back again and Phoenix Ancestor chanted an incantation. A light prison was immediately created and imprisoned Ancient Flood Dragon Person outside the city!

“Five thousand years, is it still not enough to tame your mad temper? Compared to White Ocean God, you are really much worse,” said Phoenix Ancestor disdainfully.

“Then, I, Underworld, wants to test it,” Underworld Demon Lord opened its fang-filled mouth and grinned menacingly.

The few Undying rank knew that the ten thousand year wheel level Phoenix Ancestor would definitely be the strongest.

However, these era’s strongest which had reached the peak never really acknowledged that the previous wheel’s strongest would definitely be the strongest in the current wheel.

Just like how Limbo Flower Queen thought, these era’s strongest would never know if the wheel’s strongest senior had been disqualified by time without actually testing it.

Phoenix Ancestor swept a glance and noticed that there were only six era’s strongest present. The other four did not seem to be in Heaven Palace.

At that moment, Human Mother already flew to Phoenix Ancestor’s front and spoke with mental voice, “Wheel.”

“Where are the other four?” asked Phoenix Ancestor.

“Fourth era’s strongest already died, the other three are helping us to fight Heaven Demons,” said Human Mother.

“Looks like there are still clear-minded era’s strongest,” said Phoenix Ancestor.

Human Mother took a glance at the six era’s strongest.

It was clear that they were about to attack Phoenix Ancestor.

Only the wheel would want to eliminate them. They believed that nobody was willing to give up the spot of the Wheel God to the new era’s strongest.

“I will delay these troublemakers, find Slaughter Demon as soon as possible,” said Phoenix Ancestor.

“Will you be fine?” asked Human Mother worriedly.

“Limbo is a little difficult to handle, the others..... Heh, just a bunch of clowns!” snorted Phoenix Ancestor.

Only a wheel's strongest could look down on these Undying rank era's strongest.

"Is there any way to prevent Limbo from attacking?" said Human Mother.

Phoenix Ancestor shook its head, "It's hard to tell from its temper."

Only Limbo Flower Queen could cause Phoenix Ancestor to be on guard.

As the first era's strongest, Limbo Flower Queen was actually very close to Phoenix Ancestor's era.

Furthermore, Limbo Flower Queen was indeed very strong. With Resurrection technique, there would probably be no creature that could kill it in this world.

Even those teaming up with it could be resurrected after getting torn to shreds.

"If Evil Good Ancestor is still alive, Limbo could be handled," said Phoenix Ancestor.

Evil Good Ancestor was an even earlier wheel's strongest. However, its lifespan had reached the limit. It was buried under the cliff behind Heaven Palace after its death.....

Evil Good Flower race should have gone extinct after Evil Good Ancestor's death. In that case, there was really no creature in this world which could suppress Limbo Flower Queen which had Resurrection technique.

Of course, even if Evil Good Flower race still existed in the human world, before reaching Undying rank, Ancient Flower Ancestor might not be able to oppose Limbo Flower Queen. After all, Limbo had always been acknowledged as the strongest species in the flower race.

Ancestor was not the strongest. Phoenix Ancestor was not the true ancestor of the phoenix race. It became the strongest phoenix through repeating Nirvana Rebirth. However, normally speaking, ancestor type creatures greatly suppressed their future generations. For example, Evil Good Ancestor's evil property was the best suppression towards Limbo Flower Queen's good property!

Chapter 1677: The Approaching Collapse Of Heaven Boundary Monument

Boooooom!

Thunder roared above the land in the northeastern part of Zhengming Continent. The green forest became eerie under the illumination of the white lightning.

The earth was covered by a layer of green grass. The dark clouds pressed down gloomily, the green grass was already beginning to change color due to the loss of light over a long time.

A river flowed in this land, and an exquisite wooden house was built next to the river.

Lightning and thunder rampaged in the sky above the wooden house. One streak of lightning crashed down and hit the earth next to the wooden house.

At the door of the wooden house, a young and beautiful lady stood there and watched the gloomy sky.

The atmosphere and cloud were already pressing down close to the earth. It felt as if everything on earth would be flattened if they pressed down any further. The billowing wind carried the smell of destruction.

“It seems that the sky is changing,” mumbled the beautiful lady.

After that, she went back into the house.

The interior of the wooden house was simple. There were not many decorations, but it was very clean.

A woman with unparalleled beauty was lying on a wooden bed peacefully, totally unfitting of this simple wooden house.

“Master, ever since Solar Eclipse occurred, everything seems to have changed,” said Xia Zhixian.

“Just call me by my name,” said Yu Suo calmly.

“Do you want to eat anything?” asked Xia Zhixian.

“No need, no appetite,” answered Yu Suo.

Yu Suo took a glance outside the window and frowned, “The atmosphere is a little strange.”

“Yes, it’s the same everywhere..... feels like the sky is pressing down,” said Xia Zhixian.

Xia Zhixian rushed over from Northern Territory. The sky was similarly low in Northern Territory. It felt as if the sky would collapse any moment. Even after arriving at the eastern region, this phenomenon did not change. This meant that the strange phenomenon was occurring in many parts of the world.

Solar Eclipse, sky collapse, the originally beautiful world suddenly became a dangerous and despairing place.

“This place is close to one of the Heaven Boundary Monuments, right?” said Yu Suo.

“It seems so.....”

“Let’s go there and take a look,” Yu Suo got up.

Xia Zhixian stretched out her hands to help Yu Suo.

“I’m fine,” said Yu Suo.

“No matter how strong a woman is, this period is her weakest moment,” said Xia Zhixian with a serious expression.

Yu Suo did not rebuke her and allowed her to support.

.....

Northern Territory.

There was only North City emitting a feeble light in this land shrouded in darkness.

The Solar Eclipse had continued for far too long. The anxiety caused by darkness had accumulated more and more.

Parents would always console their children that the sun would rise up the next day.

However, in the end, it was another dark night the next day.

Elder Li stood on the light tower and stroked his beard. His expression was stern.

Mermaid princess hovered there and looked at the sky with worry.

The sky was pressing down a little bit every day. The world was shrouded in darkness. If even the volume was shrinking day by day, what would this world become of in the end?

“Is what our ancestors told us actually real?” said Elder Li slowly.

“Heaven Boundary Monument does not lie,” said mermaid princess.

They were the agents of their race, as well as the agents of all living beings in the world. They still had one important mission, which was to record everything told by Heaven Boundary Monuments.

Many years ago, Heaven Boundary Monument told them a horrifying fact.

However, this fact was slowly forgotten over time. Only when the fact was actually happening, they suddenly realized that what was happening was told in the ancient prophecy.

Perhaps, that should not be called a prophecy.

It should be a warning from the ancestors from their bloody experience.

The third layer of sky, second layer of sky, second layer of earth, third layer of earth, as well as the world where all living beings lived in now.....

In the past, were there really five worlds where living beings could live in?

However, why was there only one now? Void and chaos filled the space between isolated spaces.

Meanwhile, those isolated spaces appeared like lone islands floating in the sea of death. Some were self-sufficient, some perished gradually.

If this world also shattered, would it become similar to the other dimensions? Would there only be a tiny bit of land for the living beings to live in?

Before a collapsing world, creatures of any rank would become insignificant.

Fighting for wealth, authority and glory would become meaningless.

Would this day really come??

.....

The distant ocean was roaring furiously, as if trying to completely break something down.

The sky was still pressing lower and lower, trying to squash everything on earth.

Cracks abruptly appeared on mountains and in plains, silently expanding.

Everything looked so fragile and would collapse any moment.

Yet darkness shrouded everything and demons still rampaged around. Not many people noticed the change in environment.

They would occasionally see white lightning flash in the sky and saw a glimpse of the collapsing world.

However, the truth was that if the darkness was lifted, people would realize that the world they lived in had completely changed after getting covered by Solar Eclipse for a long period of time.

No living world was eternal. Life had its lifespan, the living world also had its lifespan. It was just that the living world's lifespan was much longer. Compared to the entire world, the lifespan of an individual life form was just a tiny portion.

.....

Chu Mu had always remembered the sentence Messiah Tree told Ning Maner: You can only see the full picture of some things only when you stand at a certain height.

In the past, Chu Mu had always stood below the Heaven Boundary Monument and looked up at it. Heaven Boundary Monument was like a mystery shrouding his heart.

Now, he was standing on Heaven Palace and could look down at those Heaven Boundary Monuments.

He clearly saw the Heaven Boundary Monuments erected all over the world.

From New Moon Land's position, Eternal Ocean, Demon Continent, Human Territory, Flower Territory and Ghost Territory branches. They were not monuments of history, nor the grave of a certain era's strongest creature. They were the spines of the entire living world!

This spine was erected above the land and ocean, supporting the heavy sky, preventing void and chaos from crushing the space filled with air, water and life forms, which was this world where all living beings lived in.....

Heaven Boundary Monument was not eternal. It required energy, it required a vast amount of energy to sustain this state.

What Heaven Palace had to do was to inject new energy into those Heaven Boundary Monuments every cycle when the energy was exhausted, in order to maintain the next cycle.....

This would be repeated every cycle. Once Heaven Palace was destroyed in a certain cycle. The world would end by then.

Chapter 1678: Demon Transformation, Yu Tian

The grassy land became sand.

This was a piece of land clear of plants. Dust danced in the wind.

Xia Zhixian rode on Sky Butterfly Queen and descended from the sky. Then, she helped Yu Suo who appeared to be a little plump at the abdomen area down.

They stood under the Heaven Boundary Monument and could see an obvious crack on it.

This Heaven Boundary Monument was located between human territory and flower territory.

There was no clear boundary between human territory and flower territory. Some rural human citizens even lived in flower territory. However, most people did not know Flower Demons actually had their own civilization.

“Heaven Boundary Monument seems to be cracking,” said Xia Zhixian in astonishment.

Yu Suo did not answer and seemed to be deep in thought.

Could it be what her sister Yu Qie said was real? Totem Divine Maiden managed time. Once Totem Divine Maiden did not manage time properly, the lifespan of the world would come to an end.

“Never mind, let’s leave this place,” Yu Suo took a last glance and turned around.

“Are you feeling uncomfortable?” asked Xia Zhixian worriedly.

“A little,” said Yu Suo.

Yu Suo did not return to the direction they came from. She abandoned that little wooden house and continued walking towards flower territory.

After traveling some distance away from Heaven Boundary Monument, the soil was covered by green grass again. Some wild flowers swayed in the wind.

Some little creatures ran around the grass plains. They seemed to have adapted to the darkness and did not seem so afraid.

Suddenly, a little demonic rabbit stepped into a thorny area on the flower. It rolled out with its fur stained in blood and stopped next to Yu Suo.

Yu Suo slowly bent down and hugged this little demonic rabbit. She slid her finger over its body and the wound on that little demonic rabbit immediately healed.

Little demonic rabbit licked Yu Suo's finger and seemed to like her aura. It did not leave immediately.

Xia Zhixian stood at the side and watched the gentle Yu Suo.

When she first met Yu Suo, she felt that Yu Suo was scary and unpredictable.

However, no matter how scary she was, her temper should have turned gentle now.

"Have you thought of the name?" asked Xia Zhixian.

"Name?" Yu Suo was startled.

“Are you still not mentally prepared?” asked Xia Zhixian.

“She should stay safely in my womb, outside is dangerous.”

.....

Heaven Palace.

A cluster of crimson energy slowly appeared from the horizon like the rising sun.

Accurately speaking, it should be breaking out from the ground. This cluster of crimson energy rose up from underground.

The burning ball rose higher and higher and had completely left the ground.

Meanwhile, around this crimson ball, there was a large group of bat-like creatures screeching furiously. However, they were soon wiped out by a cluster of black flame.

Human Mother saw the cluster of burning energy and Chu Mu who was below that energy. She immediately smiled in surprise. It seemed that Chu Mu really found the stolen Crimson Sol energy.

As long as this energy could be returned to Heaven City's Solar Eclipse formation, there was still hope.

Above the piece of blackened land, Chu Mu held up the cluster of Crimson Sol energy and looked at the chaotic Heaven City.

What he could do now was to deliver this energy back to Heaven City and let Human Mother personally inject the energy into Heaven Boundary Monument.

Heaven Boundary Monuments were starting to shatter. Once Heaven Boundary Monuments could no longer support, the collapse in Imprint Valley would happen in the human territory.

While carrying the huge fire ball, Chu Mu began flying towards Heaven City.

From Chu Mu's position, he could see Ancient Flood Dragon Person which was imprisoned outside Heaven City.

Chu Mu was shocked to see an existence powerful enough to imprison Ancient Flood Dragon Person like that.

Taking a glance towards the city, there was a large cluster of light hovering high above Heaven City. The majestic silhouette of a phoenix could be vaguely seen within the light. That aura actually suppressed the other Undying rank and prevented them from wrecking a havoc.

"Is that guy the previous wheel's strongest?" muttered Chu Mu.

Yellow Spring Emperor had told him that the wheel's strongest chosen from the era's strongest would stay in Heaven Palace. It was clear that the Light Phoenix was the strongest in the previous wheel and stayed in Heaven Palace for ten thousand years.

Chu Mu had no concept how long ten thousand years would be. Someone like him who had not even lived for a hundred years felt that a few decades of experience was already plenty.

Of course, strength could not be measured by age most of the time. The era was changing, more powerful creatures would be born from the nature eventually, then lead its race towards glory.

.....

The burning energy released similar light as Crimson Sol. For a moment, people in Heaven City felt as if there was sun hanging high in the sky and another sun rising up from the ground.

The intense heat spread all the way to Heaven City, heating up the soil until it turned red.

Solar Eclipse formation began to shake under the chaotic impacts. The totems seemed to be almost shattering.

Human Mother saw the twelve chain pillars starting to dim and hurriedly flew back to the formation.

"You can still make it in time if you change the formation now. He will deliver that energy here!" Human Mother told Totem Divine Maiden Dai Qing.

Dai Qing's gaze was already a little hollow. She looked at Chu Mu who was holding up the Crimson Sol energy and spoke, "He cannot reach Heaven City."

"Why?" Human Mother was confused.

"He won't let anyone ruin his plan," said Dai Qing.

Saying so, Dai Qing turned her gaze towards Guardian Palace.

Human Mother followed her gaze and saw a person standing at the highest point of Guardian Palace. He was showered in light, yet exuded an eerie chill. That pair of demonic eyes stared hard at Chu Mu!

Human Mother was shocked, that person was Yu Tian!

However, it did not seem to be so simple. Yu Tian did not reach Undying rank, how did he possess such a terrifying aura?

Furthermore, his eyes were filled with pure rage and greed!

Those dark yellow eyeballs almost popped out from his eye sockets. A trace of sharp light flashed past his eyes and he unleashed his killing intent!

Bzzzzt!

The fabric on Yu Tian's back suddenly tore apart. Blood-stained bones grew out from his back and slowly became a pair of bloody membrane wings!

The wings flapped and this half human half demon monster flew towards Chu Mu's location with a terrifying speed. Even Phoenix Ancestor was unable to intercept!

Chu Mu was also shocked.

A pair of wings was actually grown from the body! That shape looked like Heaven Demon's membrane wings!

Shouldn't that guy be a human? Why did he have Heaven Demon's wings?

Chapter 1679: Heaven Palace Melee!

A gust of wind blew past.

Chu Mu saw a pair of menacing wings and a sneering face.

However, in the next moment, a claw suddenly appeared!

Chu Mu was unable to react. This guy's speed was too fast!

The claw stretched out and pierced through Chu Mu's chest!

Da~! Da~! Da~!

Blood seeped out from Chu Mu's chest, flowed along this demonic hand and dripped onto the ground.

Chu Mu's hands were still holding up the Crimson Sol energy. When he looked down, he saw this demonic claw already penetrated through his body!

Chu Mu's expression turned into disbelief.

It had always been him who dug out his enemy's heart to crush. He never expected someone to pierce his chest while he was defenseless!

Yu Tian began to laugh maniacally. That human face's muscle started to twist and a strange rash began to appear. That appearance looked extremely disgusting, like a demon that tore open its human mask.

"You are not the only Half Human in this world," Yu Tian made a creepy smile.

He raised his hand and held up Chu Mu, then flung him as well as that cluster of Crimson Sol energy away.

Bam!

Crimson Sol energy crashed into the ground and churned up a heat wave.

The blood-stained Chu Mu laid within the cluster of Crimson Sol energy.

Blood kept pouring out from the hole, and his heart was crushed by that claw. Large volume of blood poured out from the shredded heart. The blood kept flowing into this cluster of Crimson Sol energy.

An Undying rank creature would not die even if he heart was crushed.

Chu Mu did not die. He only felt intense pain in his chest, and the bleeding caused his body to feel weak.

For some reason, the world seemed to be silent from his perspective at that moment. He could only hear the sound of rumbling flame.

Blood flowed even faster, yet seemed to be slowly flowing back.

Fresh red blood flowed out, yet what flowed back seemed to be something else which was red.

Undying rank creatures would not be killed so easily. Furthermore, Undying rank's source of power came from Crimson Sol. It could be said that as long as the soul was undamaged, Chu Mu could be reborn within Crimson Sol energy.

He slowly raised his head and looked at that arrogant demonic figure!

Heaven Demon Ancestor!

The being that could heavily injure him could only be Heaven Demon Ancestor.

However, Chu Mu never expected Heaven Demon Ancestor to be able to transform into human form!

Perhaps, Yu Suo already knew this Yu Tian was Heaven Demon Ancestor's human form. That was why she said that he was the person she hated the most in this world!

Then, what about that Yu Tian he saw in the human world?

Chu Mu could sense two different auras from the same person. Although the Yu Tian that appeared in the human world was strong, but that Yu Tian was definitely not an Undying rank existence.

Puppet!

That must be a puppet!

It might be because of Yu Tian's puppet that so many Heaven Demons appeared in the human territory.

Back then, the person who deceived Yu Suo to the darkness cliff and lured Yu Qie out was also Heaven Demon Ancestor. Everything would make sense.

While lying in Crimson Sol energy, Chu Mu smiled bitterly.

He originally thought that killing a Heaven Palace member, Yu Tian, should not be too difficult. After all, he was already an Undying rank. Hence, he agreed to Yu Suo's condition without hesitation.

Now, it seemed that Yu Suo still tricked him.

This Yu Tian was not a human, but Heaven Demon Ancestor who had gained the ability to transform into a human!

The terrifying strength displayed by Heaven Demon Ancestor a moment ago showed that it was much stronger than Chu Mu!

"Chu Mu..... Are you alright?" A worried voice called out to Chu Mu.

Chu Mu had been lying there and bleeding.

He turned his head to the side and saw Ye Qingzi squatting down next to him and appeared to be anxious.

“Of course,” Chu Mu smiled.

“That’s good,” Ye Qingzi heaved a sigh of relief and spoke, “It’s very strong. Phoenix Ancestor is pestered by those era’s strongest, Dai Qing is already fighting it. However, Dai Qing is still far weaker than Yu Qie, so she cannot hold back Heaven Demon Ancestor for too long.”

Hearing Ye Qingzi’s words, Chu Mu’s mind slowly cleared up.

The woman before him was not Ye Qingzi, but Human Mother.

However, the two felt like the same person, Chu Mu was unable to distinguish for a moment.

“What about you? You can’t fight it?” asked Chu Mu.

Chu Mu was still in a weakened state and could not fight. He had to wait until the spilled blood flow back into him.

“I’m not much stronger than you,” said Human Mother.

Chu Mu raised his head a little and saw Yu Tian with an ugly pair of wings fighting a woman.

That woman was naturally the Totem Divine Maiden. However, was that woman crazy or something?

She was helping Heaven Demon Ancestor to steal Crimson Sol energy a moment ago, yet she was now opposing Heaven Demon Ancestor.

“How is your condition, can you still carry this Crimson Sol energy?” asked Human Mother while healing Chu Mu.

“You need to at least pull that guy away. If it is around, I cannot even approach the city,” said Chu Mu.

Human Mother nodded, “We will. We will open a path for you.”

After that, Human Mother already flew back to Heaven City.

The current Heaven City was already in complete chaos.

The rampage from those era’s strongest struck fear into Heaven City’s citizens. Now, the terrifying Heaven Demon Ancestor also appeared.

Before the clash between Undying rank, they were really too insignificant.

The sky was in chaos and so was the city. Human Mother flew to the sky above the city and chanted an incantation.

A disc-shaped light ray appeared above Heaven City, in the star river.

An ancient and complicated totem sigil slowly manifested within the bright light.

This sigil beat like a heart. As the light shone down into the city, every person in Heaven City was instilled with such a unique sigil. The sigil was imprinted into their hearts.

A sentence from Human Mother was contained in this sigil.

She told everyone that Heaven Palace was not the ruler, but the protector of all creatures.

Every person born in Heaven Palace had been instilled such a sigil at birth. That would be to stand up without hesitation during a crisis.

It could be said that this was a curse, it could also be said that this was an irrefutable mission.

Currently, Human Mother chanted this incantation only she could activate. She was telling everyone that the moment for them to stand up had arrived.

The solemn words pressed down on the entire Heaven City. People in Heaven Palace might have already been instilled with fear towards Heaven Demons due to the long period of compromise. However, when this protection sigil was activated, their fear disappeared and only rage towards Heaven Demons remained!

White armors, soaring dragon figures, white beasts.

Under the summon from Human Mother, every Heaven Palace army reorganized themselves. A total of over 50,000 people rode on their soul pets and gathered!

50,000 soul pets flew into the sky and covered the sky above Heaven City. They surrounded Heaven Demon Ancestor which was fighting Totem Divine Maiden Dai Qing!

The energy shockwave seeping out from the clash between Totem Divine Maiden and Heaven Demon Ancestor could easily crush these people. However, these soldiers seemed to not fear death anymore.

Blood could be seen staining on the white armor and white beasts from every energy ripple.

Even the powerful dragon race amounted to nothing before Heaven Demon Ancestor's sharp claws.

Nobody knew how long this 50,000 army could last before Heaven Demon Ancestor Yu Tian.

Blood and corpses rained down from the sky. Chu Mu raised his head and watched the densely-packed figures as well as the battlefield where those figures were shredded.....

These 50,000 soldiers would only be equivalent to two era's strongest. However, Heaven Demon Ancestor's strength was clearly much stronger than era's strongest. Even wheel's strongest Phoenix Ancestor might be no match for it, those people would only be suiciding.

After the summon, Human Mother immediately returned to Chu Mu's side.

Chu Mu still needed treatment. Whether Heaven Boundary Monument could continue to support this world or not depended on whether Chu Mu could deliver the Crimson Sol energy back into Solar Eclipse formation. She had to do her best to heal Chu Mu.

"They are suiciding," said Chu Mu as he watched the rapidly reducing army.

"This is their responsibility," said Human Mother expressionlessly.

Since they were from Heaven Palace, they had to be prepared to be sacrificed.

Heaven Palace had existed for a long time. Countless generations of people lived a peaceful life. This peacefulness gradually made them assume themselves as the rulers of all creatures.

Then let them assume that.

However, they should know that once the world faced a threat, their lives would be even cheaper than those creatures living in the world below.

Hence, regardless of their will, Human Mother had to use the sigil to forcefully activate their will of protection and sacrifice. If Heaven Boundary Monument was destroyed, these people in Heaven Palace would lose their meaning to exist!

“The problem is, not only your Heaven Palace has an army to sacrifice,” Chu Mu raised his hand and pointed at the barren land.

Human Mother looked over and saw cracks opening up on the surface.

Menacing monster crawled out from those cracks. They had long claws, sharp fangs and a pair of disgusting membrane wings!

These creatures even crawled out from the cracked streets within Heaven City.

They swallowed the city like a tide.

Heaven Demon army!

Derived creatures always had a large population. As Heaven Demon Ancestor Yu Tian roared, the entire city was covered by those monsters!

Chapter 1680: Crimson Fire Heart!

The city fell into panic!

Heaven City had always been safe, nobody expected these man-eating Heaven Demons to suddenly appear in the city!

These Heaven Demons flew into the sky. They used their claws to tear apart Forbidden army soldiers, ate their flesh and drank their blood.

They swept across Heaven City like a storm. All the Forbidden army soldiers panicked and became a mess. It looked like a clash between two forces of completely different levels.

Those Heaven Demons which were fed for a long time were much stronger than the Forbidden army. Now, they possessed the absolute strength to overthrow this corrupting city.

Blood rained down, battles and slaughters occurred in the entire city.

The bloody scene turned the white Heaven City into a bright red color. Blood flowed along the streets and soaked the tattered corpses.

Heaven Demon Ancestor Yu Tian's laughter was horrifying. As the Forbidden army soldiers looked up even further, they noticed that Totem Divine Maiden Dai Qing had lost an arm unknowingly!

This arm was held in Yu Tian's hand, then eaten directly!

This monster was way too strong. Even Totem Divine Maiden who had inherited the Totem's power was no match for it.

Totem Divine Maiden Dai Qing returned inside the formation barrier with a pale face.

As she retreated, Yu Tian's slaughtering became even more terrifying. Large groups of Forbidden army soldiers were getting killed every instance.

50,000 Forbidden army could not endure for a long time. Heaven Demon Ancestor did not intend to leave Totem Divine Maiden Dai Qing alive. This demon crashed down from the sky and stepped on the Solar Eclipse formation barrier.

The barrier was shattered in one stomp. The shockwave of destruction spread out within Heaven City. Those buildings which still managed to keep intact were instantly vaporized. Even more innocent citizens were erased.

“Come out now, I will return your arm to you. You will still be my loyal servant,” Heaven Demon Ancestor Yu Tian cracked open its big mouth and spat out the arm.

The flesh on that arm was gone and only bones left. Heaven Demon Ancestor Yu Tian was clearly toying with Totem Divine Maiden Dai Qing.

Dai Qing did not leave the barrier. Crimson Sol’s flame was filled inside the barrier. Yu Tian would not dare to barge in recklessly. She could use this chance to heal herself.

“What? Changed your mind? It’s too late to regret now. This Heaven Palace is already mine. Or rather, it had become mine long ago,” mocked Yu Tian as it stood right outside the barrier.

Its dark yellow eyes were inspecting those Totem Maidens. That man-eating gaze struck fear into those Totem Maidens.

Dai Qing was working hard to heal herself and absorbing God Dew’s energy.

Yu Tian watched Dai Qing's actions and continued to mock, "Don't forget, who allowed you to become the Totem Divine Maiden? Furthermore, even if you become the Totem Divine Maiden, you are weaker than the previous generation."

Dai Qing stared at Yu Tian furiously. It was correct, this position was given by Yu Tian. However, before that, Dai Qing did not know that this Yu Tian was actually Heaven Demon Ancestor disguised as a human. When she found it, Heaven Palace was already corrupted by this guy.

Dai Qing took a glance outside the city with a pale face.

Outside the city, that cluster of boiling Crimson Sol energy was still rumbling. The heat was extending towards here.

Chu Mu was still lying down inside the energy cluster.

The hole in his chest was horrible. If one took a close look, the blood flowing out now was eerily spreading inside the Crimson Sol energy, as if the blood was flowing into a new vessel.

.....

"What are you doing?" Chu Mu looked at Human Mother confusedly.

Human Mother was certainly healing Chu Mu, but he could sense Human Mother injecting a certain energy into his body at the same time.

What she injected was not pure energy. She spread Chu Mu's blood into the entire cluster of Crimson Sol energy. When the blood flowed back into Chu Mu, Chu Mu absorbed even more Crimson Sol energy!

Chu Mu reached Undying rank through Crimson Sol energy, so the absorbing process was very natural.

"I'm building your heart," said Human Mother with a serious expression.

"Building my heart?" Chu Mu was dumbfounded.

His heart was crushed by Heaven Demon Ancestor's claw. If healed normally, his heart could actually be regrown.

However, as Human Mother injected the unknown energy, Chu Mu noticed that his heart was not the same as the original one. It was becoming a crimson flame heart.

Chu Mu's heart was a Half Devil's heart after all, it was the integration of human and Nightmare heart. As the vast energy from Crimson Sol energy was injected, Chu Mu's heart was filled with a rampaging energy.

The heart was the pumping machine for blood to the rest of the body. When Chu Mu used soul remembrance to examine his body, he realized that the blood this flame heart pumped to the rest of his body actually looked like magma!

Magma blood??

Chu Mu was astonished.

This magma blood carried almost all the Crimson Sol energy gathered by Solar Eclipse formation into his body.

Chu Mu did not mind obtaining more power, but the problem was that this power should be used to power up Heaven Boundary Monuments. Without this energy, Heaven Boundary Monuments would collapse!

“Are you crazy?” questioned Chu Mu.

This energy was the supporting pillar of the world. If the energy was injected into his body, the entire world would collapse!

“I’m not crazy,” said Human Mother calmly, “Heaven Demon Ancestor already possessed strength not inferior to the wheel's strongest long time ago. It had infiltrated Heaven Palace for so many years, its strength had grown much stronger. It is currently in an almost invincible state!”

Chu Mu looked at Heaven Demon Ancestor’s figure inside Heaven City with a grim expression.

The demonic aura exuded by Heaven Demon Ancestor covered the entire Heaven Continent. Groups of Heaven Demons were flying everywhere in the sky.

Tens of thousands of Forbidden army were no match before it. Even those Undying rank generals from Totem Palace and Wheel Palace were easily defeated.

Totem Divine Maiden Dai Qing had one of her arms eaten by it. Phoenix Ancestor was facing the wrath of multiple era's strongest and had a hard time. That was because Limbo Flower Queen joined in the fight now.

Those era's strongest held a grudge towards Heaven Palace long time ago. They would rather stand on Heaven Demon's side than to see Heaven Palace which ruled over them continue to exist.

As for the world's collapse, they would rather believe that this was a lie Heaven Palace made to ensure its continuity.

"Heaven Demons are afraid of crimson flame. Once your crimson fire heart is completed, we need you to take it on," said Human Mother.

"What about Heaven Boundary Monuments?" asked Chu Mu.

There was a big crack next to Chu Mu. Looking down from this crack, he could see a minimized human territory.

The human territory was shrouded by air currents, spatial cracks and swirls appeared above the air currents.

Those cracks and swirls were signs before the black hole. Soon, the human territory would be sucked into black hole like Imprint Valley.

“Kill it first,” said Human Mother.

With Heaven Demons occupying Heaven City, talking about salvation was pointless.

Chu Mu nodded and did not speak any further.

This was Chu Mu’s second time absorbing Crimson Sol energy. Compared to the first time, the Crimson Sol energy this time was even more tyrannical. However, Chu Mu’s body naturally absorbed it.

The heart was connected to the blood vessels. This time, Human Mother had injected almost all the energy absorbed by the Solar Eclipse formation into Chu Mu’s body.

This energy was supposed to be used to recharge Heaven Boundary Monuments to support the world!

It was difficult to describe the amount with words.

.....

Heaven Demon Ancestor turned its head to look outside the city.

It could feel that the Crimson Sol energy was getting absorbed by someone!

It was that Half Devil!

Yu Tian's expression turned menacing. That guy could actually absorb the most tyrannical energy!

Totem Divine Maiden Dai Qing also looked towards there.....

She did not expect the Undying rank Half Devil born through Crimson Sol energy was actually starting to absorb the entire cluster of Crimson Sol energy!

It must be Human Mother, she was reconstructing him!

Human Mother was not very strong herself, but Totem Divine Maiden's strength came from her.

Because she was the strongest constructor in this world!

"Crimson Sol's power," Only Totem Divine Maiden Dai Qing understood how vast the amount of energy the Solar Eclipse formation had taken in. If this energy was used to construct an individual.....

Dai Qing's pale face revealed a smile. Her smile was a little hysterical and charming, "Yu Tian, didn't you say that there is nobody in this world stronger than you??"

Yu Tian's expression became even more menacing.

“They are digging their own graves!” said Yu Tian coldly.

How would it not know that this Crimson Sol energy was supposed to be used to maintain those Heaven Boundary Monuments?

Human Mother injecting this energy into that Crimson Sol kid was equivalent to sacrificing all living beings in this world for the sake of creating an individual capable of opposing it.

Human Mother turned crazy, she was going to let the ten Heaven Boundary Monuments collapse like that.

She was sacrificing all living beings in this world.....

Heaven Demon Ancestor was not afraid of the world collapsing. Heaven Demons were derived creatures. As long as it remained alive, this race could be reproduced easily.

However, the other races would not be able to survive in the collapsed world.
