Chapter 1681: Falling From Star River Into Human Territory

A pair of membrane wings spread open. In one sweep, those Totem Maidens hiding in the barrier were bisected.

After leaving those corpses behind, Heaven Demon Ancestor flapped its blood-stained wings and flew towards the cluster of Crimson Sol energy outside the city.

At the start, the cluster of Crimson Sol energy was like a huge burning fire ball. It looked like the rising sun from afar. However, now, the cluster of Crimson Sol energy was shrinking and gradually became a big cluster of fire aura. The actual burning energy shrank into the heart in Chu Mu's chest.

Thump~! Thump~! Thump~!

Chu Mu could hear his heart beating. Each pulse felt like magma flowing through his blood vessels.

Chu Mu looked down. The hole in his chest had not been completely closed. Looking through his shattered ribs, he could see his heart.....

This heart was implanted in his body and radiated like the Crimson Sol.

Looking beyond the radiance, Chu Mu could see a large and menacing demonic figure flying towards him.

Dust was stirred and trenches were left behind along its path. The demonic aura on its back filled Chu Mu's view.

It was still extremely fast. Chu Mu did not even have the time to react previously.

However, this time, Chu Mu could clearly see its every action. He could see that its claw was reaching for Human Mother's neck.

Human Mother was still focusing on healing Chu Mu, she did not notice the danger behind her.

Chu Mu did not wait for his heart to completely heal. He pushed away Human Mother and stood up within the burning crimson flame.

He clenched his fist and lunged forward like a meteor. His crimson fire fist clashed with Heaven Demon Ancestor Yu Tian's claw!

Crimson flame exploded and swept up a layer of heat wave. The impact repelled Yu Tian.

Yu Tian spread open its wings to mitigate the impact. Sparks appeared on its wings due to friction with the air.

Signs of burns appeared on its long claws. Yu Tian's dark yellow eyes stared at its burnt palm and the muscles twitching on its face became even more menacing!

"You actually believe Human Mother's nonsense?" said Yu Tian, "This woman has never done anything other than deceiving others..... Every time she deceives someone, she will take the appearance of the most important person in your heart. Then, she will lecture you with a serious expression and then watch you work for her with a sneer.”

Chu Mu took a glance at Human Mother. Certainly, her appearance was no different from Ye Qingzi right now. Her aura also seemed really similar when she was healing him.

Was she lying to him?

Chu Mu did not really bother about that. His stance was to oppose Heaven Demons. Be it for the preservation of the human territory, or for Yu Suo’s revenge.

Human Mother did not try to defend herself. She only used her black eyes to focus on Chu Mu and spoke calmly, “Try to lure it away. We will clean up the Heaven Demons.”

Chu Mu nodded. The moment he clenched his fists, crimson flame instantly covered his body, making him look like a burning sun!

Heaven Demon Ancestor slowly opened its mouth and suddenly spat out black-colored poisonous fluid.

The corrosive poison flew along the remnant of the crimson flame. The flame was actually dimmed and extinguished. The poisonous fluid shot towards Chu Mu. Chu Mu put up a defense, but was still blasted away by the poisonous fluid.

Heaven Demon Ancestor flew along the ground surface the moment Chu Mu was blasted away and swept out two claw flashes towards Chu Mu after getting close.

Heaven Demon Ancestor's claw flashes tore from the center of this wheel-shaped continent to one end, almost tearing the continent into two pieces.

The claw flashes stroked past Chu Mu's body. Two long cuts appeared on Chu Mu's body, they were located on his left and right arms!

In the past, the claw flashes would have cut through his arms.

Heaven Demon Ancestor continued its pursuit. A huge soul shadow the size of a planet appeared on its back. This soul shadow flew out from its body and crashed towards Chu Mu.

Chu Mu was still flying backwards and reached the edge of this continent. After getting hit by Heaven Demon Ancestor's terrifying soul shadow, he was flung into the vast star river. His body bumped into those floating meteors.

"Still so weak. Looks like I should be fighting against timespace and not wasting time on you weaklings," sneered Yu Tian as it looked at Chu Mu.

Previously, Chu Mu was unable to defend a single attack from it. His strength was not much different from other era's strongest.

And now, despite possessing a crimson fire heart, he was unable to defend its third attack.

Huhuhuhuhu~!

Suddenly, crimson flame started to burn from that shattered meteor.

The entire meteor turned red from the heat.

Raging flame fluttered. Not only was the meteor burned red, the pitch-black star river was also illuminated.

Countless meteors in the star river started to accelerate. Some fell down into the human territory, some flew further into the star river.

The huge celestial bodies floated in the star river. Even Heaven Demon Ancestor looked like a speck of dust before that huge size.

However, no matter how big the celestial body was, Heaven Demon Ancestor possessed enough strength to destroy it.

Heaven Demon Ancestor watched Chu Mu crawling out from the meteor and stared at his chest.

Crimson fire heart healed Chu Mu's chest. Chu Mu glowed in crimson flame and had completely become the Crimson Sol's child at this moment. It was as if all creations were controlled by those flaming hands.

Displacement Specter!

Hu!

Only a crimson flame silhouette was left on the meteor shards.

Chu Mu already appeared behind Heaven Demon Ancestor!

Palms shaping into claws, Chu Mu was still exuding an evil aura despite possessing the sacred Crimson Sol's power!

This claw strike was a payback to Heaven Demon Ancestor!

The burning claw stabbed into Heaven Demon Ancestor's back. He did not penetrate through this ambitious demon's chest, but forcefully pulled its heart out from its body!

Splat!

Tightening, crushing!

Heaven Demon Ancestor's heart was crushed by Chu Mu. The blood flowed down from Chu Mu's hand.

Heaven Demon Ancestor's body stiffened a little. Blood filled its blood vessels in a strange way as if it was about to die.

Suddenly, this demon turned around with a creepy maddening laughter.

Its claw abruptly grabbed Chu Mu's neck and then folded its wings. It forcefully carried Chu Mu and crashed towards a small celestial body beneath!

Boom~!

The small celestial body was smashed into pieces and became countless meteors to float in the star river.

Heaven Demon Ancestor did not let go. It held onto Chu Mu's neck and continued diving downwards.

The divine speed was extremely fast. They smashed apart multiple celestial bodies along the way. They dove from the star river all the way into the atmosphere, then into the sky above the human territory!

In the vast sky of the pitch-black human territory, a bright streak of flame suddenly fell down. That dazzling light illuminated this continent.

It was faster and more impactful than the falling meteors. Dazzling light shone down from the black sky.

However, when the light fell into the land, the entire world abruptly turned silent!

Boooooom!

The delayed crashing sound finally rang out. This huge impact could be heard everywhere in Zhengming Continent.

The tremor felt as if an apocalyptic meteor was piercing through this continent!

.....

Dust clouds lingered and the earth was scorched. A huge crater that flattened and dented the surrounding mountains was created.

The remnant sparks scattered everywhere. Volcanic ash rose up into the sky.

Be it the humans or soul pets, every living being in the entire continent looked towards the epicenter of the impact which was far away!

People had seen the most dangerous meteor which could turn a mountain into a crater.

However, they had never seen a huge crater which spanned several borders. This would have erased many cities and Bewildering Worlds!

.....

At the bottom of the huge crater, crimson flame was still burning intensively.

Chu Mu, whose back was meshed up, grabbed onto Heaven Demon Ancestor's claw and poured his flame onto Heaven Demon Ancestor.

Heaven Demon Ancestor backed away timely and hovered one thousand meters above Chu Mu with its wings spread open. It laughed menacingly, "How does it taste?"

Crashing down from star river all the way to human territory, this impact could destroy many territories the size of New Moon Land.

Fortunately, the crash site was not at New Moon Land. However, Chu Mu witnessed several cities far away vaporized into nothingness.

Chu Mu slowly stood up and took a glance around.

This place seemed to be the eastern region of Zhengming Continent, near the Edge of the World.

The power of Undying rank was disastrous itself. Once a battle occurred, several borders around the center of the battle would be affected.

Furthermore, the power Chu Mu possessed right now was already not the power of a normal era's strongest. Heaven Demon Ancestor's dive could destroy several border rank cities. Their fight would definitely generate even more terrifying disasters to the human territory.

He must not fight against Heaven Demon Ancestor here. The human territory was already in turmoil due to the Heaven Demons. If even more disasters befell, it would really become hell!

Chu Mu did not want to fight in human territory, but not Heaven Demon Ancestor.

It was clear that Heaven Demon Ancestor which used the puppet Yu Tian to travel around the human territory had seen through Chu Mu's worry. It cracked a smile and spoke, "The war did not destroy your New Moon Land and allowed them to migrate to Northern Territory. However, this time....."

Chapter 1682: One Billion Heaven Demons

"You are no longer a human. Why do you need to take pity on those animals? Why don't you watch them becoming food with me?" Heaven Demon Ancestor raised its head and spat out a miasmic breath.

This gust of miasmic breath rose into the sky and flew towards the northern side of Zhengming Continent as if it was alive.

The miasmic breath had a foul smell. This foul smell was the favorite smell Heaven Demons loved. Chu Mu could see Heaven Demons flying towards the direction the miasmic breath travelled.

In the sky, Heaven Demons appeared from all directions. Some were still chewing on living people while chasing after the miasmic breath.

"Do you want to know where they are flying to?" Yu Tian laughed again, "My army has around one billion in this human territory. I only told them that the people in Northern Territory taste more delicious. I don't know what they will do."

“Of course, I was also a human a long time ago, so I’m not that inhuman. I will leave a few of your acquaintances and teach you how to eat them. As a Half Human, not knowing how to eat a human will be laughed at. You will slowly get used to this. When I ate my wife, I also felt disgusted and wanted to vomit. Now that I recall it, her flesh was rather delicious.....”

Heaven Demon Ancestor kept talking. Its gaze seemed to be looking at an old friend when looking at Chu Mu. Its tone also sounded like an old friend advising Chu Mu.

However, what it said made Chu Mu feel that this Heaven Demon Ancestor was a hopeless lunatic.

He was certain that Heaven Demon Ancestor was also a Half Human. Even the entire Heaven Demon race might be born because of this Heaven Demon Ancestor. Their habit of eating living people was inherited from Heaven Demon Ancestor's perverse behavior.

Chu Mu was also a Half Human, but he had never isolated himself out of the human race. His living habit never really changed compared to the past.

Chu Mu took a glance at that miasmic breath. It was clear that Heaven Demon Ancestor’s breath was gathering the one billion Heaven Demons towards Northern Territory.

How many was one billion?

The weakest rank in Heaven Demon race was Commander rank. Although New Moon Land’s population exceeded one hundred million, most of them were normal people or below Spirit Teacher rank. There were less than ten million people with Commander rank and above fighting strength!

Heaven Demon's number exceeded New Moon Land's soul pet trainers by a hundred times. Once all Heaven Demons gathered there, it would not take a few days before all people in Northern Territory were eaten.

Chu Mu did not dare to hesitate. He flew up and launched a streak of flame to burn this miasmic breath.

Heaven Demon Ancestor did not mind it at all. It had already issued the order. Next, all Heaven Demons in human territory would travel towards Northern Territory to hunt there.

Chu Mu did not possess an army of one billion derived creatures. He sent his mental voice to all of his soul pets, telling them to return to Northern Territory immediately for defence.

Kaboom~!

A terrifying air pressure descended from the sky!

The earth sank down a little and cracks formed as the space was compressed!

Chu Mu felt a little daze. When he recovered, Heaven Demon Ancestor had already appeared right before him. It opened its mouth and revealed its horrifying esophagus, it was about to swallow Chu Mu.

Chu Mu jumped up and transformed the crimson flame on his body into countless Devil Fire swords.

The swords hung upside down from the sky. When Heaven Demon Ancestor opened its mouth, those swords pierced through its throat and skewered its esophagus!

The wounded Heaven Demon Ancestor became furious and swept across its sharp claws. In an instant, a large crack was formed before Chu Mu, almost severing the entire world into two!

The huge crack did not disappear, but started to expand instead, gradually becoming a black hole that would swallow everything.

Spatial storm began pouring out from the black hole. The surrounding dust and shards were swept in. The dark sky immediately became turbuluous.

Spatial cracks would be automatically repaired right after appearing. However, the spatial crack Heaven Demon Ancestor made was clearly expanding.

Chu Mu remembered that back in Imprint Valley, when he tore open the space a little, the crack would rapidly become a black hole and the entire space would collapse!

“It’s already at the limit?” Chu Mu watched the black hole expanding.....

This scene was really too familiar. Abyss cracked open everywhere, black holes opened up in the sky. Spider-web like spatial cracks spread out, living beings running in panic. They were either swallowed by black holes or fell into the bottomless abyss in the end.

It was total chaos!

Chu Mu originally thought that Heaven Boundary Monuments could still sustain for a while, at least a few years.

He never imagined that those Heaven Boundary Monuments would start to collapse now after losing energy.

The space did not repair itself. That meant the world was unable to support itself. The sky would become heavier and lower. More and more abyss appeared on land. Boiling magma rumbled beneath the abyss.....

The billowing apocalyptic wind covered everything in a layer of certain doom. This pressure was suffocating.

“Don’t look so worried, this is the normal Solar Eclipse phenomenon. That world collapse is just a lie fabricated by Heaven Palace. Also, that stupid Human Mother injected all the Crimson Sol energy into you. If what she said is real, then this world is hopeless,” Heaven Demon Ancestor was still chattering with its terrible voice.

Chu Mu had never responded to Heaven Demon Ancestor once until now, yet it seemed to enjoy talking to him.

However, this foe was definitely very strong. Chu Mu’s swords skewered its esophagus, yet the wound already healed when it talked.

This recovery was even faster than Zhan Ye's Broken Limb Rebirth. It felt like all parts of its body could be regenerated.

If that was the case, how should he kill this monster?

All Heaven Demons were derived creatures from Heaven Demon Ancestor. If he could kill this main body, the one billion Heaven Demons would be erased.

However, even with the crimson fire heart, Chu Mu found it difficult to kill Heaven Demon Ancestor.

Of course, it was also not quite possible for Heaven Demon Ancestor to kill Chu Mu. Undying rank was difficult to be killed in the first place, and Chu Mu was not much weaker than it now.

Heaven Demon Ancestor knew about this, that was why it changed its focus to Northern Territory.

In Northern Territory, there were people Chu Mu wanted to protect. It could not kill the Crimson Sol's child, but it could kill all those important people to Chu Mu.

Chapter 1683: Flying Towards Crimson Sol

.....

There was not much time left. Heaven Boundary Monuments were collapsing, Chu Mu did not know how long they could last.

Meanwhile, one billion Heaven Demons were gathering towards Northern Territory. If he could not kill Heaven Demon Ancestor soon, everything would end.

Not only the people Chu Mu cared about, Chu Mu's soul pets as well.

Chu Mu did not know how many people he could save once the world collapsed. However, one thing was certain. If he lost any of his soul pets or someone he cared about, that feeling would be heartbreaking!

Chu Mu looked up at the Crimson Sol which only showed a corona.

He leapt up and flew away from the earth surface.

A streak of blinding crimson flash pierced through the sky and shot towards the star river.

Heaven Demon Ancestor saw that Chu Mu actually ignored the one billion Heaven Demons in human territory and sneered.

It spread its wings and flapped powerfully, sweeping up a storm.

The storm lifted Heaven Demon Ancestor up and it chased closely after Chu Mu.

Space-tearing claw flashes approached Chu Mu from below. While Chu Mu dodged them, he began using spatial power to pull in meteors!

Meteors fell from the sky in a barrage, then exploded right in front of Heaven Demon Ancestor. Waves after waves of explosion shockwaves spread out, illuminating the earth.

Through the flashes of light, Chu Mu saw countless black dots gathering towards the north side of human territories, and the number was increasing!

Those were Heaven Demons occupying human territory. From this height, Chu Mu could clearly see them all swarming towards Northern Territory.

Chu Mu did not know how long Northern Territory could defend. However, judging by the rate of collapse, the world might be destroyed before those one billion Heaven Demons destroy Northern Territory!

Whoosh!

Claw flash tore open a large spatial crack, as well as Chu Mu's skin.

Heaven Demon Ancestor's strength was terrifying. If such a demon was allowed to destroy the world as it wished, nobody could stop it.

Chu Mu gritted his teeth and continued flying higher.

Heaven Demon Ancestor kept up behind him as expected. After all, only Chu Mu could obstruct it from absorbing Crimson Sol energy now.

It was difficult for Heaven Demon Ancestor to kill Chu Mu. However, the more difficult it was, the more reason it had to eliminate him.

.....

The two of them flew at an extraordinary speed. They passed through the atmosphere and flew further away from the star river.

Heaven Demon Ancestor Yu Tian noticed that Chu Mu had no intention of stopping and seemed to have realized something. It raised its head and took a glance at Crimson Sol.

He wanted to absorb more energy by going to Crimson Sol!

Heaven Demon Ancestor immediately understood what Chu Mu intended to do.

A creature which could absorb the source energy of the world must not be left alive. Furthermore, he was clearly flying into Crimson Sol to obtain an even greater power.

Crimson Sol energy was the greatest in the world. It maintained the world and created all existences. Nobody would know how powerful this Half Devil would become after charging into Crimson Sol and receive its baptism!

Chu Mu must not be allowed to fly into Crimson Sol!

Heaven Demon Ancestor furiously grabbed a meteor even larger than a mountain and threw it towards Chu Mu.

The meteor shot forward like a bullet and was blasted away by Chu Mu's fist.

Chu Mu did not slow down and continued flying towards Crimson Sol.

Crimson Sol was extremely far away from the world. Chu Mu was also unsure how long he had to fly to reach it.

With the current speed, he should be getting closer and closer to Crimson Sol. Chu Mu could already feel an even more intense heat ahead of him.

The heat also affected Heaven Demon Ancestor. Heaven Demon Ancestor became very irritated and angry right now. It kept chasing after Chu Mu to prevent him from absorbing more Crimson Sol energy.....

In the empty star river, between the messy meteors, in the pitch-black space, two Undying rank Half Humans travelled at extreme speed as they slowly approached the real Crimson Sol.

.....

The wheel-shaped continent became a piece of burning land. Solar Eclipse formation lost its effect and Crimson Sol's light ray burned everything red.

The earth cracked and a slim silver figure leapt out from the abyss below the crack.

Its skin and fur showed clear signs of burns and it looked a little weakened.

Its long tail was carrying a person with an extremely pale face. That person seemed to have suffered severe damage to his soul.

“What..... What happened to me?” Bai Yu looked at himself in a daze.

He only remembered a devil burning in black Devil Fire pouncing towards him and nothing afterwards.

When he woke up, he saw a completely foreign land and the highly hanging Crimson Sol. It seemed that there were two figures below the Crimson Sol. They were fighting at the highest point in star river.

“You were possessed by Black Sol’s child and almost had your soul swallowed by it,” said Hades Fox God.

Bai Yu raised his head and pointed at the figure below Crimson Sol, “That person is.....”

“Chu Mu. He requested me to save you, but.....” Hades Fox God’s expression was stern.

The other figure fighting Chu Mu was clearly the strongest Heaven Demon Ancestor. However, even if Chu Mu lacked the energy to kill Heaven Demon Ancestor, he should not be flying towards Crimson Sol. Did he not know that Crimson Sol was the most terrifying hell?

“Are you able to walk by yourself?” asked Hades Fox God.

“I can, but many things seem to have happened,” Bai Yu took a glance at the bloody city ahead.

In that Heaven City, countless membrane-winged monsters were fighting against white-armored soul pet trainers. Meanwhile, above the melee between the army and monsters, there were many powerful figures attacking a phoenix radiating white light.

“Go to the center of Heaven City and find a woman you recognize,” said Hades Fox God.

After that, Hades Fox God turned into a streak of silver light and flew towards Heaven City.

Right after it flew away, a Dragon-Unicorn suddenly broke through the ground and appeared. Countless rumbling waves coiled around its body, making it look majestic.

“Why did you take so long?” Hades Fox God looked at Yellow Spring Emperor.

“I encountered a Heaven Demon Lord, killing it took some time. What’s going on? Why is it so chaotic?” asked Yellow Spring Emperor.

“Chu Mu absorbed all the energy for Solar Eclipse formation. Now, he is even stronger than us. He is luring Heaven Demon Ancestor towards Crimson Sol,” said Hades Fox God.

Yellow Spring Emperor raised its head and saw the two figures under Crimson Sol.

“He absorbed Crimson Sol energy, then Heaven Boundary Monuments.....”

“They are already collapsing. I suppose many bottomless holes should be appearing in your Eternal Ocean,” said Hades Fox God.

“What should we do!?” Yellow Spring Emperor also panicked a little.

When Heaven Boundary Monuments collapsed, the world would also collapse. The two Undying Legends wanted to protect their race. They would not want to watch their race perish while they were in a prosperous era!

“I don’t know. First, we need to make those foolish era’s strongest stop. Perhaps Human Mother has some method to salvage the situation,” said Hades Fox God.

.....

Human territory. A man with perplexed gaze was slowly walking on a dusty plain.

Suddenly, a group of winged monsters flew towards the north side above him.

The man slightly frowned. That direction was the Northern Territory.

“Go take a look,” The man told the Strange Mane Demon next to him.

Soon, Strange Mane Demon returned from the sky.

“You are saying that they are all gathering towards Northern Territory?” asked the man.

Strange Mane Demon nodded.

The man’s expression changed and he rapidly chanted an incantation.

Black armor and claws, a Battle Beast Mo Ye exuding an unusual aura appeared.

A huge and intimidating soul shadow also manifested on its back. As it roared, the entire region was filled with its powerful aura!

“Go to North City!” said the man.

As the Monument Tear Inheritor, he could clearly sense Heaven Boundary Monuments collapsing.

At the same time, Chu Tianmang saw a horrible scene which looked familiar. That was the cracking of the sky, the sinking of the earth, the same scene back when Imprint Valley collapsed!

Chu Tianmang knew that something major would happen in the final era of the wheel. If this world was really going to collapse, then he would only want to reach the person he cared about the most as soon as possible.

.....

“Bzzzzt~! Hissss~!”

Bat-like yet snake-like screeches filled the sky of Northern Territory. Man-eating demons could often be seen chewing a certain person’s corpse.

All the city gates in Northern Territory were shut tight. All soul pet trainers stood on the erected strongholds made of plant and rock, watching the tsunami of Heaven Demons flooding towards the city with horror!

Heaven Demons were endless. The more they killed, the more gathered towards the various cities in Northern Territory!

Chapter 1684: He Must Be Fighting

“Si la!!!!!!!”

A crack suddenly appeared from the southern end of the plains. Like a savage beast, it hurtled towards Northern Territory City.

The city's walls were split by the crack. It passed through the city's streets and defenses. From above, it looked like the city had been chopped into two.

Within the crack was a bottomless chasm. A panic arose the instant the city was split into two.

The terrifying crack not only appeared in Northern Territory City; it also appeared in the large cities across the human territory.

Large groups of black-winged creatures flew out from the chasm. Their eyes were a dark yellow color and the instant they saw a living human, these eyes would color with greed.

The city was chaos. The city guards not only had to defend the boundaries of the city, but also had to deploy more forces towards the crack.

The roars of soul pets and cries of demon devils could be heard everywhere. Nothing could be seen in the darkness, and it was these moments that were the scariest. When humans couldn't acclimatize to the situation, their imaginations wouldn't run wild. And when these terrifying faces suddenly appeared in the darkness, their fear would know no bounds.

There were comparatively more average citizens in the city. It was very likely that these average citizens would immediately lose their lives to an attack of a slightly stronger monster.

New Moon Palace's people were already working their hardest to eliminate these monsters. However, they didn't only have to deal with the countless Heaven Demon Devils pouring in, but also the hand of death tearing apart the ground and space.

.....

A black light flew across the chaotic city and landed in the city lord's residence.

Chu Tianmang jumped off of Zhan Ye's back. He immediately saw the restless and worried Liu Binglan.

When Liu Binglan saw him, a faint expression of happiness appeared on her face.

Chu Tianmang felt a wave of gratification. He walked up to her and said "Don't be afraid. Nothing will happen."

"Why does it feel like this space is going to collapse?" asked Liu Binglan.

"It's not this space. It's the entire world. Zhengming Continent, Wupan Continent, the eastern side's flower territory, Eternal Ocean, the western side's demon territory, Ghost Land, Beast Ridge Territory. These are all going to collapse," said Chu Tianmang.

Liu Binglan watched him, mouth agape. She wanted to say something, but didn't know what to say.

The whole world was going to collapse??

What on earth did this mean?

It wasn't only Liu Binglan. Almost everyone didn't understand what the collapse of the world meant.

To them, the world was too large. In fact, there were some people that didn't even leave their own cities through the course of their life. When talking to these people about the world, these matters ostensibly had nothing to do with them.

Even if the advent of destruction was upon them and they had nowhere to run, these people would only think that the place they lived would no longer exist and then believe that there would be some other place that was safe.

When all living creatures encountered danger, they would subconsciously leave the space that fell into disaster.

However, the collapse of the world meant that when you tried to flee the disaster and leave it far behind you, another disaster, even more terrifying than the first, would be upon you. These situations of sudden despair after escaping the first disaster would appear at every corner of the world. This wouldn't only occur to you, but also everyone you knew, everyone who you'd only met a few times, and even strangers. Whether it was before or after you, they would all meet the same despair and death.

All living creatures would from henceforth cease to exist. There would be no more power, wealth, prestige, love, friendship, kinship, bravery, cowardness, greed...

Everything would be useless in a disaster!

.....

When he saw Liu Binglan's lost expression, Chu Tianmang began to regret telling her the cruel truth.

"Don't worry, nothing will happen to you," Chu Tianmang hugged her shoulder.

"Then what about them..." Liu Binglan's eyes were somewhat blank as she looked at the city that was filled with fear.

Chu Tianmang remained silent.

The collapse of the world meant that only undying rank experts would be able to survive. Chu Tianmang himself couldn't be sure if he would be able to protect Liu Binglan.

The collapsed space would be filled with windstorms that could easily rip a living person to shreds. These windstorms were so strong that they could instantly kill an immortal rank creature. Any slight carelessness could lead the person being protected to be ripped to shreds.

When he thought of Liu Binglan disappearing in front of his eyes, Chu Tianmang's lips turned pale.

He hadn't truly stepped into the undying rank. How would he be able to protect her...

"What about Chu Mu... what about Chu Mu?" suddenly, Liu Binglan remembered something.

Chu Tianmang looked up and stared at the pitch-black sun.

“He’s there.” Chu Tianmang pointed.

Liu Binglan looked up absentmindedly at the faint flicker of light from the sun.

“What is he doing there? Why isn’t big brother returning to us?” Ning Maner walked over and looked confused at Chu Tianmang and Liu Binglan.

Everyone could feel that the strange crisis had arrived.

New Moon Land had experienced many calamities of many sizes. And each time it had safely survived.

However, all of a sudden, someone was now telling you that the world was going to collapse. That everything was going to perish. Besides despair, there was also disbelief and suspicion.

Was the world really going to collapse?

Was it just a fantasy?

But as the sky grew heavier and heavier, the air began to fill with dust and the earth started crumbling and cracking, it felt as if it was all real.

At the end of the day, everyone relied on Chu Mu. If a calamity that they were powerless before appeared, they were used to Chu Mu appearing.

Because Chu Mu would resolve the calamity every time for them.

Liu Binglan was like this, Ning Maner was like this, and Ye Qingzi was even more like this.

When Chu Tianmang told them that the world was going to collapse, their first reaction after panic was, where was Chu Mu?

If everything was going to disappear, why wouldn't Chu Mu accompany them? Could there be something else in Chu Mu's heart that was more important than them?

The silence lasted for a long time. Nobody spoke in the hall.

The outside was filled with clamors and howls. The Heaven Demon Devils seemed to have invaded the city center. The outcome for these people was to become food for the Heaven Demon Devils or be swallowed by a black hole.

"He's definitely doing something for us..." a while later, Chu Tianmang spoke and broke the terrifying silence.

If Chu Mu was still fighting when everything was about to collapse, that meant he was fighting for them.

Chu Tianmang didn't know exactly what creature Chu Mu was fighting under the sun. But he was certain that it was a demonic creature that threatened the existence of the world.

It could be the creature behind the destruction of the Heaven Boundary Monuments; it could be the highest commander of the Heaven Demon Devils; or it could be some great enemy that was stopping him from returning.

He was definitely doing something.

He would never abandon these fights or flee from them.

Weren't all his soul pets currently around the city protecting them?

If the world was rapidly collapsing and he hadn't appeared in front of them, the only reason was because he was giving his all to save them!

It must be like this. They all understood Chu Mu.

Chu Mu wasn't a man of many words. He often used his actions to express his words. And every time it was like this!

If Chu Mu was giving it his all to save them, then what were they doing just waiting around?

Regardless if the world collapsed or not, the Heaven Demon Devils would still be rampaging through.

They all knew that Chu Mu's heart wasn't big enough to aspire towards protecting everyone. If he wanted to save this collapsing world, he was doing it for the people standing in the hall right now.

What they had to do was get rid of these disgusting creatures flying around his home before he came back all tired.

Chu Tianmang initially came back with the intention of just waiting here with them for the world to collapse.

However, when he saw Chu Mu still fighting on the sun, he knew what he needed to do was not only protect them, but also get rid of these human eating Heaven Demon Devils!

He hadn't stepped into the undying rank and he was unable to affect the Heaven Palace fight. However, he was more than enough to get rid of these Heaven Demon Devils!

"I'll put up a spatial protection for you guys. The spatial protection can withstand a certain amount of spatial fissures. I'm going to get rid of those Heaven Demon Devils from that large fissure first..." said Chu Tianmang.

However, before Chu Tianmang finished speaking, Liu Binglan said: "Let's go together. We're also soul pet trainers."

Whether it was Liu Binglan, Ye Qingzi or Ning Maner, they all had fighting strength that far surpassed ordinary people. They had taken the same path as Chu Mu. Their power had gradually approached the peak of humanity and they weren't useless.

“Ok, but don't stray too far away from me. Spatial windstorms appear randomly.” Chu Tianmang nodded his head and spoke in a serious tone.

When they left the city lord's hall, they immediately saw very familiar figures.

These were the Little Hidden Dragon, the Ghost King, and the Devil Tree Battle Soldier.

They had clearly been protecting this place from the beginning.

Ye Qingzi subconsciously looked up and glanced at the sun.

Although she couldn't see anything, nor could she see Chu Mu's fight, with these familiar soul pets by their side, it was like Chu Mu was standing right by them. It gave them an indescribable feeling of safety.

The others from New Moon Land, for example Ye Wansheng, Chao Lengchuan, Mu Qingyi and Yuan Sui, were in other important cities. In all likelihood, they were diligently fighting the endless Heaven Demon Devils. Ye Qingzi silently thought to herself that she hoped she would be able to see them in the future...

.....

Scorching fires filled the air. Everything in his vision was a crimson heavenly fire.

There were resplendent stars under his feet and a scorching crimson sun above his head. The enormity of the crimson sun was hard to believe and Chu Mu even felt that it was larger than his world which was home to all living things.

The surface of the crimson sun spat out tongues of flames. These flames angrily burned. They were inexhaustible and inextinguishable.

The closer he got to the crimson sun, the stronger Chu Mu felt his strength was.

As for Heaven Demon Devil's Ancestor, Yu Tian, his face was growing increasingly malevolent. How could he allow for this man to be stronger than him? Back then, he had eliminated the Totem Divine Maiden - Yu Qie - who had a temperament of water and outstanding talent, before she was allowed to develop. How could this devil person, who had relied on the crimson sun to reach such heights, step on his head?!

Chapter 1685: Eternal Imprisonment

Chu Mu battled and retreated. He was finding a way to enter the Crimson Sol.

He needed the Crimson Sol's energy, even if he didn't know whether the unrefined Crimson Sol energy could give him enough energy.

The tongues of flames at the surface of the Sol already was by Chu Mu. The temperature was something Chu Mu had never felt.

Since birth, he was bathed in this sunlight. This glow was like air, easy to neglect but crucial for survival.

Chu Mu had never thought he would feel the flames of the skies this close up. In fact, if he flew any further, he could reach the surface of the Crimson Sol.

The high temperature was too familiar. Chu Mu felt that he was constantly communicating with this high temperatures.

Chu Mu glanced at the chasing Heaven Demon Ancestor and glanced back at the human world.

From this height, the human world truly was tiny. Chu Mu couldn't see anything even if he tried.

Suddenly, the star river revealed a very familiar figure that flew over.

The dazzling star river, within the space, a flowing ribbon was tied around her soft waist. Her long hair brought out her noble and elegance. The delicate face was much more fascinating than any star river.

Chu Mu was slightly dazed by the view. Why was she here.....

Strange, she changed.

Like Ye Qingzi, calm like water yet hiding a calm and wisdom behind the gentleness.

Princess Jin Rou, having a ghostly appeal to her sacredness, along with a splash of pampered nature.

Suddenly, the woman flying over changed again to become the valiant and determined Mu Qingyi.

Strangely, the mature Mu Qingyi switched into the mischievous and cute Ning Maner that constantly hugged him with her beautiful body, looking for warmth and comfort from him.

Suddenly, she changed again.

It became a cold, stubborn, beautiful, yet emotionless face that he hated but was helpless about. She acted reckless and teased incessantly sometimes, switching between two extremes. However, Chu Mu always saw the same person.

How is it her??

Chu Mu was staring in shock at the woman approaching.

No matter Ye Qingzi, Bai Jinrou, Mu Qingyi and Ningmaner all were women Chu Mu were very familiar with. Even if he never proclaimed his love for the ones after, he still had affection. It just wasn't as deep as the first two.

Chu Mu knew the person approaching was Human Mother. Only she could change this much. The reason Ning Maner and Mu QIng Yi appeared was because he stayed with them for a long time and naturally developed some affection. Chu Mu wasn't surprised to see them on Human Mother.

What Chu Mu couldn't accept was why he saw Yu Suo on Human Mother!!

Was it because of that ridiculous incident within Wheel Palace?

Though her body indeed caused one to be drunken, it didn't mean he left her a spot within his heart.

While Chu Mu was shocked, Human Mother's appearance changed again.

She always seemed so cold and unapproachable, but her heart was filled with gentle kindness, and her laugh was so beautiful.

Seeing Human Mother's shift again, Chu Mu understood.

The projection of Human Mother wasn't only women he had affection or love for. As long as they left a deep memory, they all may appear, including Yu Suo, whom he didn't even know how to feel about.

"Chu Mu, what are you doing?" Human Mother said with her mental voice from afar.

As Human Mother's mental voice echoed through Chu Mu's ears, he glanced up at the Crimson Sol, the bloody red burning sky body.

What was he doing? Chu Mu had never asked himself that. Many things felt almost instinctive now, including what he was doing now.

Chu Mu didn't reply, instead glancing at the Heaven Demon Ancestor.

Chu Mu also felt it funny. This Heaven Demon Ancestor funnily matched the evil monsters he fantasized about as a kid. A deep yellow eyes filled with greed and murder, a half-human and half demon face, a pair of sky covering black wings, and a pair of all-shredding claws.

Chu Mu had also fantasized that he would be the great hero to save the world. Who didn't want the respect and cheers of others as a child? That feeling could prove that he was living his best.

However, the cruelty and reality of life caused him to extinguish these thoughts, keeping his mind on surviving.

Slowly, when his power was strong enough to affect the world's survival, Chu Mu still kept his ideals of staying alive. He kept his protection to a very small range. A piece of land, a species, or more accurately, just a house with a few people within it.

Yet, because of those few people, he was now standing at the surface of the Crimson Sol and fighting a world-destroying demon.....

Chu Mu didn't deny that he was forced.

To Chu Mu, stepping into top tier Immortal Rank was enough. He had all the soul pets he wanted and they all stood at the top of their realms.

Stepping into undying rank was because of the threat of the Ancient Flood Dragon Person and the gift of power from Yu Suo.

Closely following, the reason he got power to fight the Heaven Demon Ancestor was also because the Human Mother created a flaming crimson heart for him.....

He was forced to take this power twice.

However, now that he had the power, he couldn't possibly back off. Since he had the power and could save everyone, backing off was not an option.

He could only think of one thing..... Hopefully, he still had another way out.

Chu Mu's eyes glazed over as he looked unmovingly at the Heaven Demon Ancestor.

The Heaven Demon Ancestor was already flying over with its claws. Chu Mu didn't back off this time, grabbing straight for the Heaven Demon Ancestor's neck and wings!

His burning devil flame claws grabbed Heaven Demon Ancestor tightly, imprisoning it with his spatial powers.

"Are you looking for death?" Heaven Demon Ancestor Yu Tian laughed.

In close combat, his claws could easily rip this devil man into shreds!

“I want to see who dies first.” Chu Mu smiled as well.

The Heaven Demon Ancestor had been incessantly talking since the start of the fight, yet this was Chu Mu’s first time speaking.

Sharp claws pierced into Chu Mu’s body, starting to crush Chu Mu’s organs.

Chu Mu completely ignored the Heaven Demon Ancestor’s attack. He grabbed onto the Heaven Demon Ancestor’s neck and wings and became a ball of fire as they both flew towards the Crimson Sol.

.....

The Human Mother’s flying speed was too slow. She couldn’t chase after Chu Mu and Heaven Demon Ancestor.

When she saw Chu Mu forcefully grabbing the Heaven Demon Ancestor towards the sun, she was stunned.

“What are you doing Chu Mu!!!” The human mother questioned again.

Chu Mu still didn’t respond. His hands around the Heaven Demon Ancestor didn’t loosen. The Heaven Demon Ancestor kept being dragged into the Sun with him.

Power on this world was no longer enough to defeat the Heaven Demon Ancestor. Only the Crimson Sol's true flames could burn this old demon away permanently!

Chu Mu knew clearly that the unrefined Crimson Sol energy couldn't give him energy. At most, he could be undying within the flames, but he could never kill the Heaven Demon Ancestor!

However, the Crimson Sol could do that. If he dragged the demon into the Crimson Sol, the Sol could burn him into ashes!

This was the only way for Heaven Demon Ancestor to die. Chu Mu won't let go!!

"Chu Mu, stop! Organisms with souls can't near the Crimson Sol!!" Human Mother came back to her senses and quickly yelled after Chu Mu.

Chu Mu still didn't respond.

1 billion heaven demons were already stomping into North City. Chu Mu had no other way to kill the Heaven Demon Ancestor in time.

As long as he killed the Heaven Demon Ancestor, all 1 billion heaven demons will also dissipate.

"Chu Mu, Crimson Sol can't be neared even if you have the power of the Crimson Sol!!" Human Mother yelled again.

The Crimson Sol and Black Sol were the greastest forbidden realms for Undying Ranks.

The Black Sol imprisoned a devil that was one of the oldest lifeforms in this world. It was a black nightmare.

It was foolishly arrogant to think it could cultivate within the Black Sol. However, it got trapped within it.....

It was even more powerful than the Heaven Demon Ancestor, but ever since it flew in, it had no chance to ever go back.

Both the Black Sol and Crimson Sol were true hell. Even if one surpassed Undying rank, one couldn't ever escape!

“Chu Mu, stop! That's eternal imprisonment!!!” Human Mother's voice was growing hoarse as she yelled with all her might, scared her voice can't enter Chu Mu's mind.

Human Mother's words resonated in Chu Mu's ears.

Eternal Imprisonment....

Could it be that, in the Evil Temple, the organism on the Black Sol was trying to tell him this?

However, how would it know he would walk on a similar path??

“That’s good, at least I won’t die,” Chu Mu said lightly to Human Mother.

After speaking, Chu Mu sped up and grabbed the crazy Human Demon Ancestor became a tiny flame meteor that crashed towards the Crimson Sol.

Human Mother was far away. From far away, she saw a brilliant path fly through the sky, slowly disappearing into the deep flames of Crimson Sol.

This..... Truly was the only way to kill the Heaven Demon Ancestor.

However, Human Mother didn’t understand why he dared to accept this eternal imprisonment.

He was Undying Rank and made with Crimson flames. Similar to the Black Nightmare within the Black Sol, he would never die and would forever be imprisoned.....

Chapter 1686: The Crimson Sol with No Escape

Heaven Demon Ancestor finally showed terror on his face.

Crimson Sol’s temperature was something he had never experienced before.

He had also hated the glow of the Crimson Sol since birth. The light could burn its skin and could even cause his body to slowly wither with time.

Imagining himself turning into ashes after entering the Crimson Sol, the Heaven Demon Ancestor started ripping frenziedly at Chu Mu wanting to tear him apart!

Chu Mu not only grabbed the Heaven Demon Ancestor by the body, he also grabbed its soul.

At their level, even with a completely shattered body, an intact soul was enough to revive it. Thus, Chu Mu wouldn't give this Heaven Demon Ancestor any chance to escape!

“Huhuhuhu~~~~~”

Flames pounced forth, revealing a brilliant red scene!

Flames curled around, lava sprayed forth, and bellows of flames roared.

At this moment, the cratered surface of the Crimson Sol was already visible. It was filled with burning hot material.

When Chu Mu flew towards the Crimson Sol, he clearly felt that he went through a thin film of restriction.

The restriction didn't have much power. It felt almost as if he simply pushed through a door.

However, this was when the Heaven Demon Ancestor started going crazy, ripping Chu Mu nearly to shreds. Its fangs nearly ripped apart Chu Mu's head. Chu Mu's body was flowing with lava-like blood.

However, the raging flames surrounded him. Even if he were completely torn to shreds, Chu Mu could easily reconstruct his body as long as his soul was intact.

The flames quickly raveled around Heaven Demon Ancestor's body. In human soil, Heaven Palace, Heaven Demon Ancestor was the strongest of even undying ranks. He was strong enough to threaten the very survival of Heaven Palace purely with his underlings.

In the Crimson Sol, under the burning of the sacred flames, even the heaven Demon Ancestor seemed weak.

The burning flames constantly burned at its body. Starting from the skin, to the muscles and even further within.

No matter how strong the defense, it was like a thin piece of paper in front of the Crimson Sol, especially because the Heaven Demon Ancestor itself was very fearful of flames.

Chu Mu wouldn't give the Heaven Demon Ancestor any chance to escape. He grabbed onto the Heaven Demon Ancestor's burning body and slammed it straight towards the surface of the Crimson Sol.

The Crimson Sol was filled with burning rocks and lava amongst the craters.

Chu Mu grabbed the roaring Heaven Demon Ancestor and slammed him straight into a crater filled with lava. It immediately created a tide of flames!!!

The flames covered the endless star river, shining the light of flames on the dark territory.

The sun became filled with light, dispersing the darkness in the world. Countless flying heaven demons scattered in the presence of the sunlight, hiding into underground caves.

The sky was bright!

People who lived through the seemingly endless eclipse nearly forgot what light was like.

It felt as if the entire world lifted their heads to stare at the brilliant light in the sky.

Even though their eyes were burning, they still kept their eyes open to feel the warmth of the light!

In the northern territory, Chu Tianmang watched the scattering heavenly demons and looked up at the ball of flame.

The sun-like rays of light fell on his stalwart yet world-weary face.

The light was dazzling. Ye Qingzi forced back the pain in her eyes as she stared at the flames.

Was the apocalyptic night finally ending? Will light come back to the world??

Yet, why did Ye Qingzi feel as if she saw Chu Mu's back image amongst the flames?.....

He seemed to be flying- flying further and further away from them.

Was this just an illusion, or was it a terrifying foresight?

The world again bathed in sunlight; plants, beasts, elements, and even the undead who don't enjoy the light.

Zhengming Continent, Wupan Continent, in countless cities, humans who felt the glow walked out of their houses to stand in the streets with joy.

It felt as if a ten year drought was finally ended with a bountiful storm.

In reality, losing the sun was much scarier than a drought!!

This ray of energy's warmth instantly scattered a built-up fear felt by the masses. Many illnesses seemed to somehow be cured in this moment too.

However, when people lifted their heads to watch the brilliant light, no one knew it was actually the flames arcing off of the Crimson Sol as a soul pet trainer slammed the root of the apocalypse into it.

Watching the glow always hurt their eyes. Many people couldn't help but tear up. Maybe this was destined.....

.....

In the Crimson Sol lava pool.

Even if Chu Mu's body was completely burnt through, his hands never let go of the Heaven Demon Ancestor's throat.

Very soon, the flames reached Heaven Demon Ancestor soul.

The Heaven Demon Ancestor's soul was very powerful. He wasn't completely dead even after that.

It threw away its flame-scared body and became a wisp of a ghost that escaped.

Chu Mu leaped out the lava pool, passed through heavy waves of flames and flew towards the Heaven Demon Ancestor's soul.

The heaven demon ancestor's soul was flying outside. It must leave soon or else its soul will quickly dissipate too.

After escaping, the Heaven Demon Ancestor's soul flew very fast. Chu Mu couldn't catch up with it.

This caused Chu Mu to be incredibly anxious, even as his body was burning.

Couldn't let it escape or else the troubles are endless.

Chu Mu chased all the way to the outer flame region.

Suddenly, Chu Mu noticed that the Heaven Demon Ancestor no longer ran further. As if it was caught by something, it was sent back down.

“Hou!!!!!!!!!!!!!!”

The Heaven Demon Ancestor's soul let out a terrifying roar, its soul constantly slamming into something!!

Its collision strength was incredibly strong, sending flames outwards constantly.

Even as a soul, the apocalyptic demon was still incredibly powerful.

It kept attacking, yet there seemed to be a very thick wall in front of him stopping its escape.

Seeing the Heaven Demon Ancestor's soul unable to escape the Crimson Sol, Chu Mu suddenly remembered that he seemed to break through a restriction when he slammed into the Crimson Sol. It didn't have much resistance, easily opening up.....

However, this door was easy to push open, but impossible to pull open.

“Eternal prison.....”

This was when Chu Mu finally remembered Human Mother’s words.

This was a one-way restriction that imprisoned the world’s first black Nightmare too?

How long was it imprisoned for??

Seeing the slamming Human Demon Ancestor soul on the Crimson Sol jail, Chu Mu no longer chased after it. His expression fell dim.

The Heaven Demon Ancestor’s soul wouldn’t be able to handle this heat. Without Chu Mu doing anything, it will perish in anger, frenzy, and roaring.

Yet, as for himself.....

Other than feeling a bit of heat, he didn’t seem to feel any discomfort, as if this was his home.

Chu Mu turned around to look at the Crimson Sol’s surface.

Crimson Sol was massive. It may be millions of times larger than the living world. However, there isn't a single lifeform on it, only calm lava and flames.

Underneath him was a lifeless star, while in the distance was a flimsy star river that extended into endless void....

Looking down, it seemed to be the compass shaped Heaven Palace.

Further down was the human world, filled with light.

Chu Mu's vision was good enough to see very far. Wherever the light could reach, he could see. It seemed to be something Crimson Sol gave him.

.....

After not too long, Heaven Demon Ancestor's soul disappeared in a scream.

This was real hell for it, a hell not worth living in. Any struggle was meaningless.

Chu Mu turned around to face the massive flaming star with an unprecedented loss and aimlessness in his eyes.

He didn't even try to break open the barrier that the Heaven Demon Ancestor's soul couldn't breakthrough. He suddenly felt that he had lost everything.

Chu Mu walked around the Crimson Sol's surface and started walking.

Everything on the surface of the Crimson Sol was the same. Flames, rocks, lava, mountains.....

Chu Mu walked around himself like this, continuously without an end in sight.

Finally, he was tired.

He found a rock filled with flames and climbed to the top.

He put his hands behind his head and laid there silently, watching what was supposed to be the sky.

When watching from below the Crimson Sol, he saw the human realm.....

Chu Mu laid there without a movement as he gazed down.

Light shone on the Northern Territory. From there, Chu Mu saw countless Heaven Demon bodies.

He saw Chu Tianmang killing the remaining Heavenly Demons, trying his best to protect Liu Binglan, not letting her leave his side.

It's good that they're back together.

Chu Mu saw that Liu Binglan was always watching Chu Tianmang, except her expressions didn't easily give away her thoughts.

Chu Mu smiled slightly. Though it was slightly late, it wasn't too late. They should be able to get back together well.

After resting enough, Chu Mu continued forth.

Since it was a restriction, there has to be a way out.

Chu Mu wouldn't give up just because of Human Mother's words, nor would he be discouraged by the Black Nightmare's eternal prison. He would walk across the entire Crimson Sol to find a way to leave. He would find it.....

Chapter 1687: Without Chu Mu

The sunlight only appeared for a brief moment and didn't last long.

The world fell back into darkness. Even more terrifying was multiple black holes appeared in the sky, forcefully dragging things on the ground into a death realm.

The ground continued to crack, revealing an endless abyss. The moving spatial storm rolled through human realm, rendering countless careless organisms into blood rain.

The human realm was filled with black, so Chu Mu on the Crimson Sol couldn't see anything.

However, he knew the world was on the verge of breaking, and the Northern Territory wasn't spared!

As the world was getting more and more destroyed, Chu Mu's emotions grew more and more irrational. He started slamming the restriction uncontrollably just like the Human Demon Ancestor.

He had to go back, or else all his loved ones will perish with the world!

“Chu Mu!! Chu Mu!!!!”

Suddenly, a voice came from the star river.

Chu Mu thought he was hallucinating and didn't even acknowledge it.

Slowly, the voice got nearer. When he lifted his head, he saw an elegant and soft beauty fall into the Crimson Sol, towards him.

Chu Mu paused. Ye Qingzi?

How did she know he was here, and why did she come to the Crimson Sol?

No, if she enters here, the flames will turn her to ashes!

Chu Mu wanted to yell out to stop her, but she suddenly changed into another person.....

The flames didn't engulf her as she got ever closer to Chu Mu. In fact..... She also opened the gates of hell and threw herself into this eternal prison.

Chu Mu looked at her with utter confusion but also some loss.

"Why is it you?" Chu mu looked at her and said despondently.

"I don't have much time, so let's not talk about that. The Totem Maidens have already created the solar eclipse diagram but we won't be able to gather enough of the Crimson Sol's energy before all the Heaven Boundary Monuments are destroyed. We need your help." Human Mother said.

"What do I need to do?" Chu Mu immediately asked.

He didn't want to see this world get destroyed. Seeing his loved ones wait for death in an apocalypse was worse than anything he had experienced!

"They'll activate the Solar Eclipse Diagram soon. You need to control the Crimson Sol's energy and pass it through the Solar Eclipse Diagram's link to empower the Heaven City. Only then can we have a chance to gain enough energy for the Heaven Boundary Monuments to stay intact!" Human Mother said.

Chu Mu nodded seriously and started doing as she said.

“Help me create a diagram here that can connect with the one in Heaven City. That will speed up the energy transfer.” Human Mother continued.

Chu Mu hadn’t even had the chance to ask Human Mother why she wasn’t dying to the flames when she already started using her totem powers to create a diagram.

.....

She spent a long time drawing. Chu Mu noticed that four Heaven Boundary Monuments had already collapsed.

Without the support of those four structures, the world truly couldn’t withstand the damage. Over 20% of all living organisms had already perished.

Finally, Human Mother’s diagram was complete.

She told Chu Mu to stand in the center and use his heart to bring in the power of the entire Crimson Sol.

Very quickly, the twelve bridge locks appeared once again, piercing their way from the Heaven City straight to the Crimson Sol.

Chu Mu didn't think much and started absorbing the crimson Sol energy into the Heaven Palace, hopefully, to protect the fragile world before more Heaven Boundary Monuments collapse....

Human Mother also stood by Chu Mu. Though she may not be able to help with the massive energy transfer, she could at least alleviate some of Chu Mu's mental weariness.

The flaming hot energy fell from the skies and turned the Heaven City red, threatening to burn everything down.

The Undying rank experts finally realized that Human Mother wasn't just fearmongering and the world was truly collapsing.

They started using their own undying rank power to help transfer the energy Chu Mu send down towards the Heaven Boundary Monuments to buy time.

After an immeasurable amount of time, the energy transfer actually seemed to start working. The continuously worsening world noticeably paused.

After another long period of time, the shattered spaces around the world started recovering.....

Once recovery appears, it means the world is getting better. No Heaven Boundary Monuments collapsed anymore.

.....

When the world stopped, Human Mother finally let out a breath.

She saw the tired Chu Mu and said in a low voice, “There’s something I never told you.”

Chu Mu glanced at her and said nothing.

“When I created that Crimson Flame heart for you, I had already planned to use this method to save the world, so..... Sorry, I didn’t mean to lie to you, but I didn’t expect you to.....” Human Mother was clearly ashamed.

“Can we leave here?” Chu Mu interrupted her and asked a simple question.

Human Mother stared into Chu Mu’s eyes. Only after the longest time did she lower her gaze and shake her head.

“No matter what, you killed the strongest demon in the world. You fixed the greatest danger Heaven Palace had faced before. I thank you in the name of all creatures in the living world.....” Human Mother said.

Chu Mu shook his head. He didn’t need the thanks of all living creatures. He was simply protecting those he cared for. It had nothing to do with any other living being.

He only wanted to leave this hollow flaming world and return to their sides. It really was lonely there, too lonely.....

Human Mother saw what Chu Mu really wanted and extended a hand onto Chu Mu's arm.

She bit her lips and said in a barely audible voice, "I'll accompany you here."

When she said that, Chu Mu almost felt as if Ye Qingzi was saying that to him because the Human Mother truly was too similar.

It if really was Ye Qingzi, Chu Mu might feel comforted.

Yet, Human Mother was Human Mother, Ye Qingzi was Ye Qingzi. Even if Human Mother could constantly shift and appear as the woman he was thinking of, she was ultimately just a substitute.

"I can't stay with you for too long....." Human Mother said softly.

"You can leave here?" Chu Mu asked.

"No, your heart is made with the crimson sol so this is your territory. Any other organism coming near the crimson sol would become ashes. The reason I can enter here and not instantly burn to death is because I've spent countless years nurturing my body with the God Dew. Even so, i can only survive for around a year." Human Mother said.

"A year.... That's pretty long already," Chu Mu said.

She shook her head.

A year?

A year was very, very short. With Chu Mu's current lifespan, he could basically live the duration of the Crimson Sol's life as well.....

After a year of company, what Chu Mu faced was a lonely ten years, hundred years, thousand years, ten thousand years.....

Or even, countless years more than ten thousand years.

Compared to ten thousand years, a year was nothing.

Let alone, Chu Mu was about to face endless ten thousand years.

In these endless years, Chu Mu would only be able to live off his memories, until one day even the deepest memories would fade with time. Then, he would become a walking, living corpse roaming the Crimson Sol aimlessly.

.....

.....

Finally, the Heavenly Boundary Monuments were re-erected.

The uneasy world was once again stabilized.

The Crimson Sol finally returned to its normal routine and warmth returned to the world.

Morning sun, fog, crisp air, glistening dew, running soul pets.

Noon, blazing sun, warmth and heat, the sweat of soul pet trainers, the bloodshed between soul pets in battle.

Evening, sunset, brilliant hues of red and purple. Weary travelers coming home, demons laying in caves in slumber.

As the sun went up and down, days passed by without event.

All living beings slowly forgot the period of darkness and stepped back into the path to become the strongest through battle, fighting, and killing.

All of this fell into the eyes of one person.

He laid in the burning hot flames and stared at the living realm with his hands behind his head.....

Wherever the light could reach, he could see.

After the woman who stayed with him for a year left, he lost all thoughts of looking for an exit. Many times, he didn't even feel like moving. He liked just laying there silently, watching the soul pets and people he was familiar with, seeing how they could live on happily even without him.

Ning Maner stepped onto the path she always wanted to be on. She learned all kinds of abilities to alleviate pain and illness for people. She brought life back to droughts and calamity inflicted areas. She roamed all parts of human soul and gained countless people's respect and following.

Little Dead Dream stayed with her and never left her side like a loyal guard.

Ye Qingzi stayed in North City. She grew a delicate medicinal garden. When the spring came, the mountainside was filled with breathtaking beauty. She was always there, carefully and slowly taking care of them.....

Chu Tianmang and Liu Binglan weren't as close as Chu Mu imagined, but they at least weren't like sworn enemies anymore.....

They probably still needed a longer time to get closer.

Princess Jin Rou got healed by the Limbo Flower. She seemed noble and elegant, but the adventurous spirit within her bones caused her to follow her father Bai Yu around to solve the mysteries of the world.....

Ye Wansheng, the playboy that he was, finally decided to marry Shen Yue and they had two kids together.

Mu Qingyi finally found a person that wouldn't give up chasing her, yet she never could truly open herself up to that man.

Chao Lengchuan was still waiting. Xia Zhixian hadn't come back in a long time. He was really worried that Xia Zhixian had abandoned him completely.

However, Chu Mu knew it wasn't the case.

Xia Zhixian was following by Yu Suo this entire time to take care of her.

Yu Suo seemed to have completely changed. She never stepped back into the grimy world and instead took off to travel the world.

From the beautiful mountains to the ice rivers, from deserts to magnificent oceans.....

That made sense. When she was in Heavenly palace, she had longed for the human realm. When she finally resolved everything else, her wish had always been to walk around and explore.....

They were all doing pretty well, not nearly as bad as he had feared. This was one thing Chu Mu was happy about.

It made sense, too. People always say that they can't continue living if they lost someone, but in reality, when the person truly disappears, life still continues. Everyone gets used to it eventually.

.....

Chu Mu thought this way, but it was also his way of comforting himself.

Was reality really what he saw though?

Every night, after the sun sets, when Chu Mu couldn't see them, their tear-filled faces were something Chu Mu never saw.

There were always some people that never cried under the sun in case someone could see.

Instead, they would find dark corners and hide there instead.....

.....

Whenever night fell, Chu Mu would look for an exit.

He still was unwilling to give up because he was very afraid of one thing; he didn't want to see all these people he knew slowly grow old and pass away.....

He should be with them growing old, so he never gave up on finding an exit.

.....

On a flaming rock mountain, Chu Mu opened his sleepy eyes and subconsciously tried to hug the sleeping person beside him.

Yet, no one was by him.

He almost forgot that the person that stayed with him for a year was devoured by the emotionless flames already.

She originally was an irrelevant person to him, but Chu Mu still felt excruciating pain when she finally left this world. He had never thought that loneliness would be this scary.

Chu Mu closed his eyes and continued to sleep. Only with sleep could he forget some things.

“Wuwuwuwu~~~~~ wuwuwu~~~~~”

Suddenly, an extremely familiar voice came from afar.

Chu Mu opened his eyes.

The time was noon, and the Crimson Sol was right above the center of the Myriad Heaven Dragon Abyss

The sound came from there!!

He looked down and saw a figure Chu Mu couldn't be any more familiar with.

She had silver fur, a pair of soft ears. She waved her nine long tails as she lifted her head to call towards the Crimson Sol.

“Mo Xie...” Chu Mu jolted awake.

“Wuwuwuwu~~~~~”

The winds blew around her as her silver fur danced. She stood, alone, at the edge of the Myriad Heaven Dragon Abyss as she called towards the skies with all her might.

She slept for a very long time within the Myriad Heaven Dragon Abyss.

When she woke up, the world seemed to have completely changed, yet it also seemed to have stayed the same.

None of this was important to her, however. Most importantly, Chu Mu hadn't returned yet.

Like a kid who lost her mother, she started running around the Myriad Heaven Dragon Abyss desperately.

She spewed flames everywhere as she roared into the skies.....

The desperate cries and anxious calls caused Chu Mu to lose control of his emotions too.

He could stand a physical distance from his loved ones, he could say farewell to his friends, but how could he have left Mo Xie alone when she awakes from her slumber?

On the flame mountain, the once silent Chu Mu dashed forward again.

He became a human meteor that slammed straight towards the Crimson Sol's restriction!

“Beng!!!!!!!!!!!!!!”

“Beng!!!!!!!!!!!!!!”

“Beng!!!!!!!!!!!!!!”

Again and again, he slammed into the restriction. Chu Mu created flaming glows on the Crimson Sol that emanated through the entire world.

Chu Mu had never felt fear like right now.

He could watch the people he knew slowly grow old and disappear because, other than Chu Mu, they all had other things worth living for within their lives.

Yet, Mo Xie had nothing else.

All Mo Xie had was Chu Mu. If she didn't have him, where would she go, and what would she do?

She was too used to Chu Mu's shoulder already. How could she ever get used to the cold hard surfaces of rocks.....

.....

“Wuwuwuwu~~~~~”

Mo Xie's cries echoed through the Myriad Heaven Dragon Abyss.

She seemed to know that Chu Mu was at a much higher place. She stepped forwards through the space and started running like crazy, her silver fur flowing with the wind.

Yet, suddenly she stopped running.

Her steps slowed down and she turned back to the Myriad Heaven Dragon Abyss.

She blew a small ball of flame towards an indent within the ground and extinguished it, choosing it as the place she would lay down.

Her tails curled around her as she used one as a chin rest. Soft cries left her mouth still.....

.....

The falling sun painted Mo Xie's silver fur red, elongating her body.

Seeing the slowly falling sun, Mo Xie's furry ears suddenly perked up and she propped herself back up.

She walked to the edge of the mountain, her eyes staring unblinkingly at the falling sun, her nine tails still lightly waving.....

Slowly, the falling sun fell down the horizon, as if a red pupil filled with tears that would fall at any time.

Mo Xie stood unmovingly, gazing at the sunset.....

Finally, the sun disappeared behind the horizon and the world was again enveloped within darkness.

Mo Xie's eyes also dimmed as the night fell. She slowly turned back and laid down where she was, spiritless.

.....

The first ray of dawn reached Myriad Heaven Dragon Abyss.

While still in darkness, a silver and elegant little fox quickly ran towards the east side of the Myriad Heaven Dragon Abyss to enjoy the first ray of sun.

At night, the little fox would again run hurriedly towards the west edge of the mountains to watch the sunset.....

.....

.....

Under the Myriad Heaven Dragon Abyss, three massive figures slowly appeared.

One was an immortal rank Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon. The other two were extremely rare wing type species that haven't been recorded in any books.

All three soul pets had a soul pet trainer behind them, two male and one female.

“Hei, Tang Jun, what did I say? The Myriad Heaven Dragon Abyss has no dragons. They’ve been gone for many years, yet you don’t believe me.” The tall man on a wing type organism said.

“Indeed, but standing at the highest point in the world is still a good experience to have.” The young man called Tang Jun replied.

“Ah, what a cute little fox!!” Suddely, the female soul pet trainer let out a surprised call.

Tang Jun and the tall man glanced over and indeed found a small but cute little fox laying there. Its small, delicate and cute body made one want to hug it.

“Nine tails, silver fur? What fox is this, it must be a rare species.”

“What is the little fellow doing laying here?”

Chapter 1688: How About I Call You Mo Xie?

“I heard the seniors say that this place has a small fox. I didn’t realize it was true!”

The female soul pet trainer wasn’t particularly vigilant. She carefully walked up to the small silver fox lying there.

“Hey, small fellow. What are you doing here?” the female soul pet trainer blinked her eyes and looked at the small silver fox.

The small fox slowly turned its head and glanced indifferently at the female soul pet trainer.

“Wu wu wu~~~~~” it let out a faint cry, but wasn’t particularly interested in the female soul pet trainer. Thus, it slowly lowered its head again.

“Feed it something. Small pets are always gluttons.” said the tall soul pet trainer.

The woman hastily took out a snack from her spatial ring that she normally used to feed her soul pets. She carefully handed it over to the quiet small fox.

The small fox sniffed at it, but didn’t eat it.

This is the best pet food available. Do you not like it?” asked the female soul pet trainer.

"Why are you ignoring me?"

“Can I hug you?”

The female soul pet trainer carefully stretched out her hand and stroked the fox’s silver fur.

The fur was neatly combed and soft. It was a very comfortable feeling.

Who on earth had left such an exquisite and adorable noble fox here?

The female soul pet trainer felt curious and slowly tried to hug it.

The fox turned around and apathetically stared at the soul pet trainer who had bad intentions. Suddenly, the fox got up and jumped somewhere else.

“It’s not letting you hug it, haha. It’s rare to see a small soul pet that won’t receive our young lady’s affection.” laughed the tall soul pet trainer.

“Hmph, we’ll see!” the female soul pet trainer flashed an arrogant expression and chased after the small fox again. She stretched out her arm to hug it.

The small fox’s ears shot upright and its body flashed, instantly disappeared from its location. It appeared somewhere else and then listlessly lay back down.

"That small fellow is rather fast." laughed the tall man.

The female soul pet trainer didn’t give up. She chased after the small fox again.

“You’re not allowed to run!” the female soul pet trainer chanted an incantation, using her soul immortal rank soul remembrance to lock down the small fox.

“Hey, Qin Yue, what are you doing!” Tang Jun was somewhat dissatisfied as he berated her.

Was Qin Yue crazy? Using a soul immortal rank soul remembrance to deal with a small soul pet. That would damage its mind...

“Wu wu wu wu!!!!”

But before Tang Jun could stop her, a wild cry suddenly rang out!

The cry came from the small silver fox. A visible purple flame wrapped around its body and an aura of evil energy suddenly transformed into a terrifying storm that swept outwards from the top of Myriad Dragon Heave Abyss’s mountain peak towards the blue sky!

Amidst the onslaught of demonic energy, the three soul pet trainers saw the small fox transform in the purple flames. Its nine tails were as large as a mountain ridge and when they danced amidst the demonic energy and purple flames, they exuded the prestige of an emperor!

Its silver fur also fluttered in the demonic energy while its four paws stepped on the purple flames. Its body was filled with strength and beauty, while its proud eyes coldly stared at the female soul pet trainer called Qin Yue!

Qin Yue and the other others were stunned. They never expected a tiny pet to suddenly exude such a terrifying aura. They lacked the strength to fight against it!

“Wu wu wu wu wu!!!!!!”

The cry contained both anger and a sadness that was difficult to understand. Mo Xie, who had transformed into Hades, glared at the three humans.

Qin Yue and the tall soul pet trainer didn't dare move, while their soul pets prostrated themselves on the floor, trembling. They lacked all courage to fight.

A while later, the Hades transformed Mo Xie still hadn't attacked. Instead, it arrogantly turned around and walked to the edge of the mountain peak.

It dragged its nine tails behind it. From behind, it looked exceptionally stunning.

The three humans stared at it while it retracted its terrifying aura and once more lay down next to the mountain peak's cliff.

A few of its nine tails spread out on the ground while a few of them curled up. One of its tails acted as a headrest under its pointy chin. It seemed like it was going to take a nap there...

It was a while before the three soul pet trainers recovered from their fright.

"That's... that's Hades, one of the five undying legends!" the tall man lowered his voice.

Qin Yue's face was filled with disbelief. Just now it had been an adorable and pitiful small fellow. Then, in a instant, it had transformed into the supreme flaming fox emperor.

“I just saw a soul pact imprint on its forehead... it seems to be someone’s soul pet.” said Qin Yue.

"Anyone who has such a soul pet must at least be of the leader rank. Who’s soul pet is it?” said the tall man.

The young man called Tang Jun was silent for a long while...

A scene from many years ago flashed through his mind.

In a city filled with icy monsters, a man riding a black dream beast darted through chaotic packs of beasts, alone, as if he was the only one there.

That powerful figure had left Tang Jun with an impression that he would never be able to forget. That person was someone Tang Jun would forever worship and feel grateful towards!

Although many, many years had passed, he still clearly remembered it. On that stoic man’s shoulder lay a sleepy small silver fox .

Practically every sculpture of that man in Northern Territory’s plaza also had that small silver fox on it.

Moreover, everyone from New Moon Land knew that their King Chu had an undying Hades next to him. They were inseparable and it was possible to frequently hear tales about this one man and one fox.

Tang Jung stared blankly at the back of the Hades Purple Emperor...

“Tang Jun, have you seen it before?” Qin Yue recognized Tang Jun’s expression.

Tang Jun vigorously nodded his head as he said: “It is our King Chu’s soul pet.”

“King Chu?” Qin Yue didn’t recognize the name.

“New Moon Land’s Devil Person Chu Mu. The only human to have stepped into the undying rank. Your words helped me remember him. I heard that he’s accompanied by a Hades soul pet. Could that be the one??” the tall soul pet trainer spoke with shock.

“But... but, according to the rumors, hasn’t Devil Person Chu Mu already died?” Qin Yue spoke in a very quiet voice.

Tang Jun fiercely glared at Qin Yue.

Qin Yue realized she said something wrong. She knew that Tang Jun came from New Moon Land and apparently when he was younger, was saved by Chu Mu from Ice City when it was filled with monsters. Without Chu Mu, Tang Jun could not have his present success...

“He hasn’t died. He definitely hasn’t!” said Tang Jun, with no doubt in his words. He intently watched the Hades Fox as it lay on the edge of the mountain peak.

It was waiting.

It was definitely waiting there for him...

It was lonely and lost. However, it refused to leave this place.

“Let’s go.” a while later, Tang Jun spoke in a soft voice.

“That thing happened a long time ago. It’s probably waited a long while.” said the tall soul pet trainer.

“Ya...”

The three of them didn’t have the heart to disturb the fox and quietly left Myriad Heaven Dragon Abyss’s mountain peak.

“Wu wu wu wu~~~~~”

The fox lifted its head and let out a cry.

It watched the sun set before slowly closing its eyes.

Tang Jun turned around and glanced at Mo Xie. His heart felt even more bitter...

Tang Jun knew in fact that he was just deceiving himself. If that person was still alive, why hadn't he appeared? Otherwise, why were the rumors all over Northern Territory, Zhengming Continent and Wupan Continent that he had already died?

Everyone knew that he had disappeared for many years. Even New Moon Land's people had already accepted the reality of his eternal departure. So why was it still waiting here?

Was it Chu Mu that made it stay here to wait for him?

Otherwise, why would it just wait here?

A few years ago, a senior who had come here told them that there was a strange small fox here.

A few years later, the fox was still here.

.....

.....

In a medicine garden in Northern Territory was fully blooming flowers accompanied by the sweet smell of medicine. A woman wearing simple yet elegant clothing and with a saintly aura quietly examined the growth of the medicine.

“Aunty, aunty. You have mail...” a lively young girl whose hair was combed into two pigtailed rushed over. In her hands was a letter.

The young girl reached the woman’s side, but the woman didn’t react.

The young girl turned around questioningly and looked at her father who was standing behind her, stroking his beard and acting wise and experienced.

“Qingzi.” that father called out.

Ye Qingzi finally came back to her senses. She looked at the extremely adorable young girl. A smile rose on her face and she lightly patted the young girl’s head.

“Aunty, your letter!” the young girl shook the letter in her hands.

Qingzi looked questioningly at the letter as she received it. She slowly ripped open the letter.

There were only a few short lines of words on the letter, but Ye Qingzi read it for a long time...

Her eyes gradually clouded over with a layer of mist and drops of tears began to fall onto the letter.

Ye Wansheng jumped in fright and he hastily walked up to hug her: “What is it? What is it?”

Ye Qingzi hurriedly wiped her tears and shook her head.

Ye Wansheng grabbed the letter and read it.

“My name is Tang Jun. A year ago myself and some friends went to Myriad Heaven Dragon Abyss. There, we saw a small fox. I think that might be King Chu’s Mo Xie. It’s probably waited there for a very long time and I’m sure it’s very lonely. It won’t let other people touch it, but I think only you might be able to bring it home...”

Ye Wansheng also read the words for a very long time.

“I always thought Mo Xie was with him...” Ye Qingzi almost couldn’t speak through her crying.

Only Ye Qingzi knew that Chu Mu could get used to being alone. Indeed, before there was her, Chu Mu had always been alone. However, no matter how used to being alone he was, Mo Xie had always been with him.

Then if he was still alive, how had he coped through the many years without Mo Xie with him??

“So Mo Xie was there the whole time. Let’s go and bring her back...” Ye Wansheng softly said.

“Yes.” Ye Qingzi vigorously nodded her head.

.....

Ye Wansheng and Ye Qingzi were very fast. It didn't take them too long to make a round trip across Zhengming Continent.

They climbed up Myriad Heaven Dragon Abyss's mountain.

The peak of the mountain was bare, except for a few rocks scattered here and there.

Suddenly, a figure of bright moonlight passed right in front of them.

The creature was nimble and adorable, but also looked pitiful and lonely. It ran from one end of the peak to the other, watching the sun set.

“Wu wu wu wu~~~~~”

Mo Xie seemed to know something and as she kept crying out to the setting sun. It wasn't until the sun fully set did she slowly walk back to her place of rest.

Ye Qingzi and Ye Wansheng didn't dare walk over.

They had never seen Mo Xie so sad before, nor had they ever seen Mo Xie so lost before.

Ye Qingzi had brought Mo Xie's favorite snacks. But the instant she saw Mo Xie, having stayed on the mountain peak for so long alone, she didn't even have the courage to go up and talk with her.

.....

Ultimately, Ye Qingzi didn't take Mo Xie away with her.

Everyone gradually grew to accept this reality. They were dejected and sad, but eventually chose to forget.

Only Mo Xie always believed that Chu Mu would return.

Ye Qingzi believed that Chu Mu was trying very, very hard to undo his shackles. If he could see Mo Xie that had always stayed here - not even leaving half a step - he would never give up...

.....

.....

Indeed, on the Crimson Sol, that person who was walking alone on the surface of fire was still searching.

Every day when the sun rose, he could see Mo Xie run out from the darkness of the mountain peak to a place bathed by the morning sunlight. He was able to hear her cries.

Every day when the sun set, he could see Mo Xie from behind as she turned around.

During these many years of solitude, Chu Mu hadn't stopped his search for an exit from the crimson sol for a single day.

Over the years, Chu Mu managed to find a single place on the crimson sol that was different from the rest.

It looked like an altar with swelling fire stones and heavy flames.

Chu Mu walked up the fire stones and stood on the crimson sol's altar.

Chu Mu couldn't see anything on the altar.

This was the only different place on the crimson sol. Unfortunately, there was nothing there.

But he didn't despair. He merely lay there and did the same thing he did every day: watch the humans from above...

Suddenly, Chu Mu sat up.

"Strange..."

Chu Mu muttered to himself.

It was very strange because Chu Mu discovered from this place that he was able to see the entire living world. Most importantly, he was able to see all of the heaven Boundary Monuments at once!

Eleven monuments...

Weren't there only ten Heaven Boundary Monuments? Why could he now see eleven Heaven Boundary Monuments?

"Could it be that every ten thousand year wheel, an additional Heaven Boundary Monument is added?" Chu Mu

Chu Mu could look down on the world. During this time alone, he began to analyze the markings on the Heaven Boundary Monument.

Heaven Boundary Monuments not only recorded the stories of many strong creatures, but also recorded the lifespan of the world.

The world had its own lifespan. Even with the crimson sol's energy pouring in, the Heaven Boundary Monuments would not last forever.

However, this limited timespan was extremely long to living creatures.

Every Heaven Boundary Monument recorded the exact same lifespan amount. Every year, one of the numerous markings on a Heaven Boundary Monument would disappear. This would continue until all of the year markings disappeared, and then the world would come to a stop...

Chu Mu didn't know whether he would have to pass the year markings on the Heaven Boundary Monument like this in the future.

However, Chu Mu was puzzled why another Heaven Boundary Monument had appeared in the living world. Moreover, the lifespan markings on this Heaven Boundary Monument were different from the other ten.

"One marking, two, three..."

Chu Mu carefully counted and abruptly discovered that the world lifespan on the eleventh Heaven Boundary Monument wasn't even ten years!

"Why is it like this..." Chu Mu was shocked.

He clearly remembered Human Mother telling him that the moment the markings on the top of the Heaven Boundary Monument disappeared, it meant that the living world had reached its end.

When the solar eclipse had happened, the markings on the top of the Heaven Boundary Monuments had all disappeared. That was a sign of the world stopping and world destruction.

Strangely, the other ten Heaven Boundary Monuments indicated that the world's lifespan was still very long. It was only the eleventh Heaven Boundary Monument that had mysteriously appeared that only had ten markings. Only this monument indicated that the world would be destroyed in ten years.

For a moment, Chu Mu's thoughts were thrown into chaos. There were eleven world time wheels. Ten of them told him that the world still had a long lifespan. But one of them told him that the world only had ten years left...

.....

.....

The sky was covered by dense clouds, filling the air with a murky feeling.

A torrential rain poured down on the highest part of Myriad Heaven Dragon Abyss, landing on Mo Xie.

Mo Xie's purple flames slowly dimmed as if they were being extinguished by the heavy rain.

After the downpour, Mo Xie's body no longer burned with purple flames. In fact, her fur began to fall off and was replaced by new fur...

“Wu wu wu wu wu wu!!!!!!!!!!!!!!”

“Wu wu wu wu wu wu!!!!!!!!!!”

She let out a long cry towards the sky.

The cry spread a long, long way and nearly the entire world could hear it.

Another flame began to burn on Mo Xie's body as her fur completely changed. Her body was more slender and exuded a mysterious feeling!

Her cry went on for a long, long time, as if she was crying.

.....

On the crimson sol, Chu Mu could clearly hear Mo Xie's cry.

She would often cry out, but it was never as mournful and penetrating as this time!

The damned clouds were blocking his vision and he was unable to see what Mo Xie was doing.

However, Chu Mu had a feeling that Mo Xie's body and soul were changing...

Species mutation??

It was a species mutation!!

Up till now, Chu Mu had thought Hades was Mo Xie's final mutation. He never expected her to have another mutation.

What would she mutate into??

Chu Mu really wanted to see what Mo Xie would mutate into, but with the clouds blocking him, he couldn't see...

During these past ten years, Chu Mu had been counting the markings on the eleventh Heaven Boundary Monument.

That day had finally come where the markings were all gone. But Mo Xie had completed her species mutation on this day towards a higher bloodline species...

"What's going on? Why does the end of the world's lifespan happen to coincide with Mo Xie's species mutation??" Chu Mu was confused.

He stared at the living world that was blocked by the clouds.

For some reason, it felt as if everything had suddenly gone quiet...

The clouds weren't moving at all. Anywhere he was barely able to see was deathly still...

A standstill!

Everything had come to a standstill. Chu Mu couldn't hear any more noise.

The living world had come to a standstill and Chu Mu couldn't see any creature moving...

"What's going on... why is it like this?" Chu Mu was dumbfounded.

It felt as if time had stopped!

Chu Mu looked at the eleventh Heaven Boundary Monument and discovered that the final marking on the monument had completely disappeared. It was the instant the final marking disappeared that the living world came to a stop in time.

"Do you still not understand??"

Suddenly, a voice rang out in Chu Mu's ear.

The voice was old and carried immeasurable loneliness.

“Who... who are you!!” the same instant Chu Mu was stunned, he also felt wild with joy.

There was life here! There was some other form of life on the crimson sol besides him!!

“It’s not important who I am. Have you not figured it out?” the voice rang out again.

“Figured what out?” Chu Mu asked, confused.

“Although the world hasn’t collapsed, it’s come to a stop.”

“A stop? Why would it stop? Can time stop?” Chu Mu was astonished.

“Of course time can stop. In fact, time can reverse itself...” the voice drifted over.

"Who are you?? Tell me how I can leave this place!" Chu Mu said with lots of vigour.

“Leave? I’m very sorry, but I’m also looking for a way to leave. Moreover, I’ve been looking for one longer than you have...” said the voice.

Chu Mu went silent.

So did the crimson sol truly not have an exit then?

A while later, Chu Mu looked at the world that had completely come to a standstill. He asked:
“Why did time stop?”

“Because a certain small fellow isn’t willing to let it flow...”

“A small fellow?” Chu Mu felt that the tone was familiar.

“Don’t bother looking. She’s no longer here.” the voice seemed to know what Chu Mu was looking for.

“What do you know?” asked Chu Mu.

“I know what you know. But I happen to know one more thing than you.” said the voice.

“What?”

“Her mutation this time is called the Reincarnation Fox. Next, I’ll let you see some things...”

.....

After the voice rang out, the world seemed to have resumed flowing. Chu Mu could see the clouds slowly part.

After the rain, Myriad Heaven Dragon Abyss seemed extremely clean. However, it was now filled with countless dragon cries!

“Ao!!!!!!!”

“Ao hou!!!!!!!”

“Ao!!!!!!!”

Suddenly, noisy dragon cries had filled the skies of Myriad Heaven Dragon Abyss.

The rain water was mixed with blood. The mountain peak on Myriad Heaven Dragon Abyss's mountain peak was now filled with fresh blood and enormous dragon corpses.

Both miserable and angry roars rang out together. There was also the cruel laughter coming from certain people.

As he watched this scene, Chu Mu was stunned.

Didn't the dragon species go extinct already from Myriad Heaven Dragon Abyss? Where did these dragons come from??

Also, where was Mo Xie? Why couldn't he find her??

Groups of dragon flew close together in the sky and near the mountain abyss. They looked restless and uneasy.

Corpse after corpse dropped under the cliffs. Some of these bodies were even cleaved apart in midair...

The entire Myriad Heaven Dragon Abyss was pervaded by the bloody wind of slaughter.

“Sha sha sha~~~~~”

A cyan Hidden Dragon whose body was riddled with wounds landed on the mountain peak of the Myriad Heaven Dragon Abyss.

On its back was a fierce-looking flying centipede that was attempting to kill it.

The cyan Hidden Dragon stumbled away in an attempt to flee. Its body accidentally smashed into a time rock.

The time rock looked like a sculpture. When the cyan Hidden Dragon smashed into it, a very, very normal looking soul pet egg rolled out from within.

Whose child was this?

This place was too dangerous!

The cyan Hidden Dragon hurriedly picked up the small soul pet egg with its mouth. Then, it exerted force to beat its wings and flee westward.

The cyan dragon flew out of Myriad Dragon Heaven Abyss.

It kept flying, all the way until it reached a tiny crescent moon-shaped territory.

“This... this is...”

Chu Mu was stunned and almost couldn't believe what he was seeing.

The cyan Hidden Dragon that had fled Myriad Heaven Dragon Abyss with a soul pet egg of mysterious origins in its mouth...

Wasn't that the Empyrean Cyan Hidden Dragon???

Hadn't the Empyrean Cyan Hidden Dragon already died? What was the soul pet egg in its mouth...

Chu Mu proceeded to watch the most shocking thing in his life.

He watched the Empyrean Cyan Hidden Dragon as it was captured by Soul Alliance and its memories forcibly erased by memory fluid.

It only subconsciously managed to protect the soul pet egg it picked up from Myriad Heaven Dragon Abyss...

Chu Mu watched it escape from Soul Alliance and watched it fly to Cyan Nightmare Island, where it transformed into a tiny cyan colored insect...

.....

“Eat, eat. I hope you’ll be able to bring me good luck.” a young man with black eyes and black hair bitterly laughed as he split half a piece of his rations and handed it to the cyan colored small insect.

After the cyan colored small insect finished eating it, its eyes flashed with a clean light.

.....

“A Blue Star Fox. Why is it another small fox...” the young man was nearly speechless as he looked at the small fellow that had stepped into his trap.

.....

“What kind of situation is this... it’s another young fox....”

A tiny Moonlight Fox appeared in front of the young man. The young man was flabbergasted.

He needed to catch a soul pet that was powerful enough to make him the strongest soul pet trainer, not this weak and voracious small Moonlight Fox...

Wait, that wasn’t right. Suddenly, the young man sensed something.

The young man was overcome with joy.

Species mutation. This was a soul pet that had mutated species. Moreover, it was continuous species mutations!!

.....

“Fourth soul pact, open!”

.....

“Quiet, gentle and beautiful. But also dynamic, sharp and evil. How about I call you Mo Xie. It’s very suitable for a crafty small fellow like you.” happily said the young man.

“Wu~~~~~” as if it didn’t like the young man’s words, the small fox let out a grumbling cry.

.....

This scene should have been from his memory, but Chu Mu was now watching it from the crimson sol.

“How about I call you Mo Xie.”

“How about I call you Mo Xie.”

For some reason, when he heard the young man say those words, Chu Mu’s eyes were filled with tears.

After time had stopped, why did he see the past??

But then, if this was the past, why were there eleven Heaven Boundary Monuments?!!

“She’s called a Reincarnation Fox. The only ability she wields is the one to control time and reincarnation...”

The old and lonely voice rang out in Chu Mu’s ears.

“She wasn’t able to wait for the person she was waiting for. So she chose to reincarnate.”

Chu Mu stood there like he had been struck by lightning.

Continuous species mutations...

That was because her soul had already cultivated to a very high realm. Even after reincarnating to the past, she was still able to break the natural laws of the world.

Chu Mu had tried to guess countless times why Mo Xie was able to continuously mutate species. However, he never expected the answer to be this.

“She’s living in the past...” Chu Mu muttered to himself.

In order to continue lying on his shoulder, she had reincarnated to the past.

“She’s living in the past, but how do you know that you’re not in the past?” the voice drifted in.

Chu Mu was stunned and suddenly understood something!

He was extremely shocked, but when he thought of it, he felt like his brain couldn’t accept this reality.

Reincarnation. Mo Xie had returned to his side from the previous life.

Then was the reincarnation he was in really the first reincarnation?

Had Mo Xie already reincarnated multiple times before him? Was his own journey only one period of Mo Xie's journey?

When he left her in Myriad Heaven Dragon Abyss and told her to wait there for him, didn't that mean that it wouldn't be long before Mo Xie mutated species in the downpour and returned to the tiny Nightmare Island...

Thus, time after time, she would undergo reincarnation after reincarnation.

How long had her soul accompanied him for??

"Now you understand. How many years does a Heaven Boundary Monument represent?" the voice slowly rang out.

Ten thousand years. That's right. One Heaven Boundary Monument represented ten thousand years.

The world he lived in only had ten Heaven Boundary Monuments.

But if another Heaven Boundary Monument had appeared, it meant that if time hadn't stopped because of Mo Xie's reincarnation, another ten thousand years should have passed under normal circumstances.

"I don't know how she appeared besides that Chu Mu in the very first life. I also don't know when time entered this endless cycle, endlessly cycling over this period of time. It's reached ten thousand years... perhaps the appearance of the eleventh Heaven Boundary Monument will tell that Chu Mu of the truth."

"A new Chu Mu is continuously born in the reincarnations, but there is only one of her. It accompanied Chu Mu starting from Nightmare Island until the end in Myriad Heaven Dragon Abyss."

"Then, she enters reincarnation and appears once more before you just to hear you give her a name again."

"She definitely knows that the past cannot be changed. Therefore, even if she still has her reincarnated memories, she won't dare break the cycle."

If Mo Xie remembered...

In other words, when she was a Moonlight Fox, she knew everything that would happen to him in the future.

She had parted with him in Myriad Heaven Dragon Abyss and waited for him, alone, in Myriad Heaven Dragon Abyss for several tens of years.

After mutating species, she entered reincarnation and started anew.

She used her clear eyes to look at the young version of himself. Her ears perked up as she listened to him laugh and say “How about I call you Mo Xie.”

The truth was that she knew she was called Mo Xie. This name had accompanied her for a long, long time already.

But every time she heard Chu Mu give her this name, she would still be very happy and wave her small fox tail.

.....

The surging magma spluttered around him as the scorching tongues of flames danced.

Chu Mu curled up into a ball, like a child, on the altar. He was crying so hard he couldn’t make any sound.

His shoulder felt empty...

.....

“I hope that the appearance of the eleventh Heaven Boundary Monument - this new variable - will be able to tell this Chu Mu the truth. I hope that he will be able to fulfill Mo Xie’s wish.”

The voice faintly rang out, before gradually fading away. For a moment, the only thing that could be heard in the crimson sol was the heartbroken crying of a soul pet trainer.
