

Soul Pets Bk2 501

Chapter 501: Shimmering 2 Billion Gold, Eighth Rank Prisoner Cai Ji

The soul power of soul pet trainers was limited, and if one wasn't able to manage the summoning of soul pets and number of soul pets, one wouldn't be able to summon more soul pets in the later stages of the half a month of the realm breakthrough due to soul power exhaustion. After all, soul power was exhausted rather quickly, while its recovery speed was slow. During these perpetual fights, it would be very hard to find time to silently cultivate.

Jiang Yiteng was thinking about this. It was only still the first day, and if he were to dual or triple control today, his soul power would fall behind if he were to face the strongest people from the various factions at the later stages of the half a month.

On the other hand, Chu Mu didn't have to worry too much mainly because of Ye Qingzi.

Ye Qingzi had brought enough medicine so as long as Chu Mu didn't fight too much, his soul power would normally always be enough. Moreover, Ye Qingzi's healing and recovery abilities were extremely strong so Chu Mu's soul pets would at least be able to double in physical strength, and their wounds would be dealt with quickly

"Only weak people will receive the provocation from other weak people and fight them in anger." Jiang Yiteng said to himself.

Finally, the Nightmare Palace Prince sucked in a deep breath of air and prepared to give up on the fight. In a calm voice he said: "Consider yourselves lucky. The next time we meet, I hope that you'll have enough prisoner rings on you that will make me have actual thoughts of expending my soul power in order to kill you."

Truly smart experts wouldn't fight over such a small matter, and Jiang Yiteng felt that he had to control his temper. If he were to spend time and energy in these troublesome small matters, it would only affect his ability to fight the true experts at the later stages.

"Qin, come back." Chu Mu had the Binding Wind Spirit return to his side. Jiang Yiteng had already predicted this movement.

Chu Mu also didn't plan on revealing his strength too early. Meeting Jiang Yiteng head on was to only have him retreat first. 50 million was money after all, and Chu Mu had always taken money from others, never the other way around.

"You don't mind letting me pass, eh?" Jiang Yiteng had ostensibly restrained his temper and brought his White Nightmare back onto the bridge.

Chu Mu didn't continue to stand at the end of the bridge and continue fighting with Jiang Yiteng, instead letting him walk onto the bridge.

Of course, in order to prevent this fellow from deceiving him, he made precautions to continue fighting.

Yet, Jiang Yiteng did not continue fighting. Instead, he arrogantly walked passed Chu Mu and intentionally took a mental note of what Chu Mu and Ye Qingzi looked like. Then, he continued to walk along the plankway that the Binding Wind Spirit had changed beyond recognition into the mist.

Jiang Yiteng had taken a note of Chu Mu's appearance, so why wouldn't Chu Mu do the same for him?

The only person who was truly threatening in Nightmare Palace was him. Then, it was Lu Shanli, and then Princess Jin Rou who had continuously hidden her strength.

In the subsequent eighth and ninth realms, he would definitely clash with them. If he had a certain degree of understanding towards them, he wouldn't have to be so passive when he fought them.

"Young master, this Nightmare Palace brat is truly arrogant. If he knew that you killed the second grade's strongest, Ling He, I bet that his jaw would fall off." after Jiang Yiteng left, Old Li jumped onto Chu Mu's shoulder as he spoke.

"He really is arrogant, but he's not dumb." Chu Mu nodded his head.

"You killed Ling He?" Ye Qingzi looked somewhat astonishedly at Chu Mu. Chu Mu had glossed over many of the dangerous events in the seventh realm, and had only told Ye Qingzi about the defector young woman puppet for her to analyze for him.

Therefore, Ye Qingzi didn't know that the defector young woman puppet's subordinates that Chu Mu had killed included the Ling He who had the most deeply hidden strength!

Ye Qingzi knew of Ling He's existence through a warning of some old friend. She had previously told Chu Mu that this person was extremely strong and for him to be extra careful. She never expected that Chu Mu had ended this person who had very high hopes of obtaining the ultimate honor in the seventh realm.

Chu Mu nodded his head: "It can be considered unexpected. In a normal situation, it would be very hard for me to deal with him. His strength is stronger than Jiang Yiteng's."

Zhan Ye's ultra strength explosion was truly unexpected. It had even reached the tenth phase peak monarch rank. Such an abnormal strength explosion wouldn't appear again unless something similar to the appearances of the Thousand Legged Centipedes that allowed Zhan Ye's strength to slowly increase also occurred. Otherwise, it would not happen. Furthermore, Zhan Ye had been able to reach the peak class monarch rank from the high class monarch rank because Chu Mu's appearance had genuinely touched Zhan Ye's soul.

Zhan Ye was Chu Mu's present secret weapon. However, he couldn't place his hopes on the unrealistic explosion to the tenth phase high class monarch or even peak class monarch rank.

"How many secrets are you still hiding..." Ye Qingzi grumbled, as she ostensibly couldn't see through Chu Mu.

Chu Mu's half devil transformation had already stunned her. Indeed, back then, he had erupted with fighting strength even more terrifying than an emperor rank Cyan Hidden Dragon and killed the soul pets of countless experts.

Presently, Chu Mu's human-form defector soul pet had appeared, and was even interfering with the Battle of the Realm. Ye Qingzi found this very hard to believe at the beginning since a human-form soul pet really was extremely rare!

"I've told you everything that I should tell you." Chu Mu awkwardly laughed.

"Really? At least according to what you said earlier, you haven't mentioned the secret that Nightmare Palace's young princess knows about you." said Ye Qingzi in a rather cold voice.

After speaking, she chanted an incantation and recalled the Water Moon back to its soul pet space. Only the Nest Wood Spirit remained by her side.

When not fighting, carrying extra soul pets would both easily expose oneself and also decreased the ability one could move at. Ye Qingzi possessed soul power medicine, and didn't care about this sort of soul power consumption.

"..." after hearing Ye Qingzi's words, Chu Mu let out a cold sweat. He didn't realize that Ye Qingzi would be so sharp. It seemed that in the future it would be very hard to lie in front of her.

The secret that Princess Jin Rou knew about regarded Mo Xie. Mo Xie's continuous mutations was something Ye Qingzi didn't know about. It wasn't that Chu Mu didn't trust Ye Qingzi, it was just that he felt that there was no need to tell her.

"Don't be so nervous. There's nothing forcing you to tell me. Keep your secrets stored away and don't let me discover them; otherwise if I expose them, you'll tell me how scary I am again." a faint smile rose on Ye Qingzi's face as she didn't continue questioning Chu Mu.

Ye Qingzi knew that Chu Mu wasn't someone who would reveal everything to others and would tell her about it when the situation called for it.

"Haha, I won't." Chu Mu let out a simple laugh.

"They won't be discovered by me?" Ye Qingzi feigned anger like a little girl.

"I mean that I won't call you scary. You treat me so well." Chu Mu's skin was thick as he got a bit closer to Ye Qingzi.

"Who said I treat you well? You've merely helped me a lot so I should be helping you back..." Ye Qingzi noticed Chu Mu intentionally getting closer to her and her voice grew softer and softer.

Finally, Ye Qingzi ran away in embarrassment to the side as she held her blushing face...

Just now, Chu Mu had deliberately lowered his head in an attempt to kiss her lips, and when Ye Qingzi felt the burning male aura, her heart began to beat wildly.

Chu Mu looked at Ye Qingzi who was avoiding him, and saw the red blush that had arisen on her beautiful cheeks. He couldn't help but crack a smile. It seemed that the time was not right yet and if there was an opportunity, it was probably best to continue to nurturing feelings.

In truth, Chu Mu himself didn't know when he started liking Ye Qingzi. Perhaps, when he had first encountered her and the feeling of elegance, coolness and intelligence she gave him, followed by the continuous interactions between the two did the feelings of affection begin to manifest. Recently, he hadn't felt any feelings of abruptness or distance between the two. Instead, there was only the accumulation of natural good feelings. Chu Mu had only truly realized that Ye Qingzi already occupied a large portion of his heart when he had seen her in a vulnerable state, curled up in the corner of Western Street. At that time, Chu Mu hadn't been able to control his anger and it was then that Chu Mu realized that he really cared about her. He couldn't tolerate it if she suffered any form of hardships or pain.

"Chu Mu, come quickly." suddenly, Ye Qingzi's soul remembrance transmitted into Chu Mu's mind.

Mu came back to his senses and hastily ran up next to Ye Qingzi.

"Hug me." Ye Qingzi suddenly said.

Chu Mu was stunned, but shortly after his eyes lit up. When did Ye Qingzi come to such an amazing realization? Could it be love?

"My Dream Beast detected a soul remembrance pulsating below. Moreover, standing here, I have a feeling that we're being spied on." Ye Qingzi used soul remembrance to speak to Chu Mu.

As she spoke, Ye Qingzi pretended to be intimate with Chu Mu and her arm softly moved around Chu Mu's arm as she took the initiative to embrace Chu Mu's sturdy body.

Chu Mu held his mouth agape. He bitterly laughed as he extinguished the fanciful thoughts he just had.

Chu Mu quickly understood Ye Qingzi's intentions, but he didn't pretend at all. He brazenly embraced Ye Qingzi and savored the soft and wonderful hug from this beautiful woman while releasing his soul remembrance to investigate the situation below the end of the bridge.

Chu Mu didn't sense anything when he investigated the first time, but using his experience, he determined that the chaotic streams of air underneath the mountain cliff could very well mean that someone was hiding there.

Chu Mu specially focused his soul remembrance on that spot and indeed discovered a weak aura. Furthermore, this aura was a bit familiar!

"What's the matter?" Ye Qingzi moved close to Chu Mu's ear and a pleasant fragrance emitted from her pink lips.

"It's the leader of the group of four prisoners from before, Cai Ji!" Chu Mu said softly.

When he was underneath the pond listening to the four people talk, they had revealed that Cai Ji was an eighth rank prisoner.

"They really have feelings. They can't even help but be so intimate in such a place. Truly a group of reckless youngsters. That Nightmare Palace Brat may have not felt like attacking you, but I don't mind!" the eyes of Cai Ji, who was hidden below, turned vicious.

Cai Ji's soul pets were in the process of quietly crawling upwards in an attempt to launch a sneak attack on Chu Mu and Ye Qingzi.

As for the hugging Chu Mu and Ye Qingzi, they weren't intoxicated by their feelings. Their eyes flashed with an intelligent lustre as they silently waited for the 200 million gold to take the bait!

Chapter 502: These Rules Are A Great Opportunity to Make Money

Cai Ji's soul pet launching the hidden attack was a Shadow Raccoon, a tenth phase peak commander rank!

The peak commander had dark strength and could hide in the shadows. Therefore, when the Shadow Raccoon crawled up the rocky wall, it was impossible to see.

The Shadow Raccoon slowly approached and, before long, it was less than thirty meters away from Chu Mu and Ye Qingzi. At this distance, if the enemy didn't have any defenses and was attacked, the soul pet trainer would be instakilled.

"Shadow Blade!" Cai Ji cracked a smile of success, and gave his peak commander Shadow Raccoon an order to attack.

The Shadow Raccoon's body slightly shook as its black body slowly appeared under the cliff. However, it didn't immediately attack, but instead continued to crawl for a certain distance.

"Shadow Blade!!" Cai Ji gave his order to attack again!

A secondary soul pet was a secondary soul pet after all. Even its reaction was slower. If it was his main pet, the main pet would have immediately launched an attack after the order. Thus, a feeling of dissatisfaction towards the Shadow Raccoon arose in Cai Ji's heart.

However, even after giving the second order to attack, the peak commander Shadow Raccoon still didn't attack. Instead, it continued to crawl up the cliff, and was already twenty meters away from Chu Mu and Ye Qingzi!

Cai Ji angrily grit his teeth, but quickly realized something was wrong.

Even if the Shadow Raccoon's reactions were slow, it could still not have attacked after such a long time after giving the order to attack!

"Dream Beast!!" Cai Ji abruptly came to a realization. He shot his gaze over and discovered that Chu Mu and Ye Qingzi's Night Thunder Dream Beast and Purple Robe Dream Beast were using their dream beast dream pupils. A lustre was shining, and they were using their dream abilities to forcibly control the Shadow Raccoon's mind.

"Crap, I've been discovered!" Cai Ji's face turned dark.

If the sneak attack didn't work, he couldn't contend against two people with only two soul pets. Promptly, he ignored his mind-controlled Shadow Raccoon and jumped down the cliff on top of his demon beast towards the incomparably deep valley. He very decisively chose to flee!

“Qin, Hurricane- sweep him back up!” Chu Mu wouldn’t let 200 million gold escape like that, so he had earlier put his Binding Wind Spirit in hiding to ambush!

The Binding Wind Spirit didn’t need to chant and its pair of clear eyes discharged a lustre. A fierce ninth rank Hurricane quickly swept up from the bottom of the valley. It resembled an enormous python that shot up from the depths of the fog-shrouded valley and swept Cai Ji and his demon beast up to the rock bridge.

“His demon is a tenth phase pseudo monarch, don’t be careless!” Ye Qingzi immediately discerned Cai Ji’s demon beast so she gave Chu Mu a warning.

The Binding Wind Spirit’s Hurricane technique could only cause Cai Ji and his soul pet a slight spell of dizziness. Quickly after landing on the bridge, Cai Ji adjusted himself and angrily charged on his tenth phase pseudo monarch towards Chu Mu and Ye Qingzi.

“Night, Night Control!” Chu Mu instantly had the Night Thunder Dream Beast use a domain technique.

Without the Night Control domain, the ninth phase third stage Night Thunder Dream Beast would probably be hard pressed to dodge the tenth phase pseudo monarch’s attack.

It was already night time, and as the Night Thunder Dream Beast gave its call, the entire night environment was covered by a dense dark aura. The entire bridge from one end to the other transformed into a pitch-black domain that starlight couldn’t even penetrate.

The Night Thunder Dream Beast’s dream pupil flickered, fixating on Ye Qingzi. This fixation would allow its domain technique to not affect Ye Qingzi’s sight.

Soon, Ye Qingzi recovered his ability to detect and see. She saw the tenth phase pseudo monarch imposingly charging over. Ye Qingzi gave the Nest Wood Spirit an order, and barbed branches began to sprout out from each side of the bridge, interweaving to form a branch wall.

“Pai!!! Pai!!!!!”

The tenth phase pseudo monarch's strength was shocking, and the wall created by Ye Qingzi's Nest Wood Spirit was only a small obstruction, as it was immediately broken through!

"You want to stop with just this much?" Cai Ji let out a wild laugh. He rode on his tenth phase demon directly towards Chu Mu's Night Thunder Dream Beast. Obviously, he wanted to brave the dangers to save his Shadow Raccoon.

"Beng!!! Beng!!!!"

The sturdy rock blocking the way in front of the tenth phase demon beast was smashed into pieces. The countless shards of rock flew in all directions.

Ye Qingzi's Purple Robe Dream Beast agilely jumped up, and a strange ripple appeared on its dream horn. It created a mental wave that would make people tired, and transmitted to the tenth phase pseudo monarch.

This tenth phase pseudo monarch's savage eyes were hit by the mind exhaustion, and they gradually became lifeless. Its charging speed considerably slowed, and its aura weakened.

When the tenth phase pseudo monarch arrived in front of the Purple Robe Monarch, the tenth phase pseudo monarch looked very tired.

"Don't be influenced by its mental technique!!" Cai Ji felt his soul pet undergo some strange change, and he immediately gave an angry roar.

Cai Ji's soul had been sealed, and he was incapable of using soul techniques. However, he could use his soul remembrance to stimulate his soul pet's mind.

The mental stimulus of a fifth remembrance spirit master was extremely powerful, and it was capable of waking up his tenth phase pseudo monarch from its dream of mental exhaustion.

"Hou hou hou!!!!"

After receiving the mental stimulus, the savage beast immediately let out a roar. Its pair of originally hazy eyes returned to their imposing killing-intent appearance, and it once again charged full of spirit towards the Purple Robe Dream Beast.

The Purple Robe Dream Beast's tail began to shine with a purple lustre that circulated up to its back, causing its body to transform into a purple figure of light.

“Beng!!!!!!” Cai Ji's tenth phase monarch was full of beast attribute strength, and it heavily smashed into an enormous rock. This rock was much sturdier than normal rocks, but several cracks immediately appeared that slowly expanded across the entire rock.

Finally, the enormous rock began to sway and collapsed under the cracks!

The tenth phase pseudo monarch's charging force was rather shocking. If the Purple Robe Dream Beast had dodged any slower, it would have been heavily wounded by the charge.

The opponent's soul pets had retreated so Cai Ji immediately smiled. He was now very close to his Shadow Raccoon, and as long as he didn't lose a soul pet, he would be able to continue ambushing young generation contestants.

Passing through the thick darkness, Cai Ji released his perception ability that had been limited to less than thirty meters of range.

The Night Control effect was very powerful and the string of attacks by Cai Ji earlier were completely reliant on his impressions. However, when Cai Ji released his soul remembrance in the dark Night Control domain to find his Shadow Raccoon that had been controlled, he discovered that he couldn't find a trace of it.

“O~~~~~”

Suddenly, a miserable cry rang out from the Night Control domain and immediately after, a spatter of fresh blood flew up. The captivating red color splattered over the shattered rock next to Cai Ji!

Cai Ji let out a shocked expression and immediately after, the powerful backlash from a mental breakdown smashed into his soul!

Cai Ji's face instantaneously turned pale. His veins began to bulge, and he looked like he was in incomparable pain.

This soul wound was evidently from his Shadow Raccoon. When Chu Mu had the Night Thunder Dream Beast use Night Control to cover Cai Ji's vision and perceptive abilities, he moved himself next to the mind controlled Shadow Panther and easily killed it.

The moment a soul pet trainer's soul was wounded was the moment he was at his weakest. Chu Mu seized this opportunity and had the Binding Wind Spirit launch an attack the moment he killed the Shadow Raccoon.

The Binding Wind Spirit hadn't used an attack in the past two seconds because it used this time to chant a wind type technique!

"Hu hu hu hu~~~~~"

The controlled streams of wind began to drive the mist in the valley as it began to irregularly drift.

The chaotic wind's wind force, at the start of the technique, could only move a pebble. But gradually it transformed into a black claw that left deep scars left on incomparably sturdy rocks!

"Wu wu wu wu!!!!" the sound of the wind turned into whistles that ear-piercingly clawed through Cai Ji's ears. The location Cai Ji was at had nowhere he could hide. His tenth phase pseudo monarch broke into a run in an attempt to run to an area of less pressure.

"Natural Wood Chains!"

Ye Qingzi's Nest Wood Spirit wasn't just there for decoration. The tenth phase pseudo monarch had just barely begun to move when enormous chain-like branches began to twist around the demon beast's four limbs, firmly locking it down to the ground.

An expression of fear finally appeared on Cai Ji's pale face. He opened his eyes wide and stared at the chaotic wind in the fog that resembled an enormous phantom. His body couldn't help but tremble with fear.

The chaotic wind that transformed into a phantom illusory extended its long arms. Its left and right arm crossed one another and it swept forth with two nearly hundred meter long chaotic wind ghost blades!

“Dao!!!! Shi!!!!!!”

Two air-breaking noises rang out. The black chaotic wind blades flickered with an abnormal silver light, transforming into two interweaving black sword awns that deeply printed themselves into the tenth phase pseudo monarch’s body.

The tenth phase pseudo monarch’s body was hit by the chaotic wind ghost blade’s attack and flew backwards, smashing into the rock wall behind it. It created a large pit in this rock wall.

And in the four corners of the pit were two interweaving scars that were so deep that they nearly cut into the mountain!

“Puchi~~~~~”

Fresh blood splattered out of the tenth phase pseudo monarch’s body reaching a distance of ten meters away.

Chu Mu knew that the Binding Wind Spirit’s attack wouldn’t be able to kill the tenth phase pseudo monarch, and he immediately had the Night Thunder Dream Beast use Destructive Ray.

Ye Qingzi’s Nest Wood Spirit and Purple Robe Dream Beast also launched attacks, smashing the tenth phase pseudo monarch even deeper into the pit. The entire rock wall began to shake under the continuous bombardment of attacks. It looked like it was going to collapse.

After the continuous string of attacks, Chu Mu and Ye Qingzi finally stopped.

“There’s no more life force aura left. We’re about to get 200 million.” a smile rose on Chu Mu’s face and he gazed at the destroyed rock wall pit.

“Look at you eh? You look like you’re about to salvage a whole sum of money in this eighth realm.” said Ye Qingzi.

Strengthening the Binding Wind Spirit required a large sum of money. Aside from the Binding Wind Spirit, the other soul pets also required a large sum of money to strengthen. Chu Mu really had to take advantage of the rules this time to make enough to cover these enormous expenses!

“These rules are a great opportunity to make money!” Chu Mu began to laugh.

Chapter 503: Ninth Rank Prisoner, Duan Xinze

If Chu Mu wanted to strengthen Binding Wind Spirit to high class monarch, he needed a lot of gold. A soul item worth 1 billion was enough to give Binding Wind Spirit a chance to become high class monarch. However, rather than using a billion to buy something that could fail to strengthen Binding Wind Spirit, Chu Mu would rather directly pay a higher price for a higher success rate, adding another high class monarch to his soul pet formation!

So, in this eighth realm, Chu Mu had to collect a large amount of prisoner rings to have a chance of entering ninth realm with another powerful soul pet!

Qingzi nodded and jumped onto Purple Robed Dream Beast’s back to follow Chu Mu.

Seeing Chu Mu’s back image while walking ahead, Ye Qingzi pursed her lips and thought quietly for a bit before her eyes were overtaken by a special color. Using a very quiet voice, she asked Chu Mu, “Chu Mu, after Battle of the Realm, where do you plan on going, stay in Tianxia City?”

“Probably not, I’ll continue east.” Chu Mu answered.

“Why?” Ye Qingzi asked.

“An old man told me that east is the way of progress.” Chu Mu didn’t turn around, simply answering and continuing to walk.

Qingzi nodded and stopped talking.

Chu Mu seemed to have noticed something. Turning around to look at Ye Qingzi, he found Ye Qingzi had her head lowered thinking about something. He couldn't help but start smiling naturally and asked, "Qingzi, will you go with me?"

"Perhaps." Ye Qingzi nodded.

"Perhaps?" Chu Mu lifted an eyebrow and emphasized.

"For sure." Ye Qingzi gave Chu Mu a white eye and said with a quieter voice.

"Then good."

The noon sunlight shined on the bare Heavenly Life Mountain. The grey and dark rocks absorbed all this energy, slowly causing the entire mountain to become boiling.

The moment the Heavenly Life Mountain became cloudless for miles, the entire mountain would start steaming, like a sweating black giant.....

On the meandering rock paths, a man in simple and crude clothing walked along the rocks barefoot.

Every step this man took caused a puff of white steam to come up. His steps were extremely slow, like a beaten refugee, slowly walking up this mountain.

His hands were shriveled. On his index finger joint was a specially shaped ring. It wasn't a spatial ring that every soul pet trainer had, but instead, it was a prisoner ring!

"Beng~Beng~~~Beng~~~~~"

Suddenly, soul pets' running sound came from behind the man!

With rolling smoke, under the mountain came six prisoners riding tenth phase commander ranks tiredly. They ran over arrogantly and with momentum, all complete destitute criminals!

“The fellow in front, stop!” The leader was a man in his forties. This man wore the clothes of younger soul pet trainers, clearly having robbed a few eighth realm young generation members. The eighth rank prisoner ring on his hands revealed his true identity.

“Shi Yong, this person seems familiar.” The seventh rank prisoner aside the leader said in a small voice.

“The Maze Prison is only so large, how many prisoners would we not find familiar?” Another seventh rank prisoner laughed and mocked.

“No matter who he is, if he doesn’t enter, he will die.” The prisoner leader called Shi Yong said.

After speaking, the leader Shi Yong noticed that the prisoner simply continued to climb, completely disregarding the existence of his group of people!

“Daring to ignore me, Shi Yong, you truly have lived enough!” Prisoner leader Shi Yong showed some anger and directly rode his soul pet towards the lone prisoner, wanting to crush him!

“Beng~~~Beng~~~Beng~~~~”

Shi Yong rode a five meter long Armored Beast Commander. This beast’s stampede caused the entire mountain path to shake. If it ran across a human, the man would definitely be pulverized!

“Go die!” Shi Yong’s expression became cruel. When only twenty meters from the lone prisoner, he even directly told the Armored Beast Commander to cast a technique!

Yet, that lone prisoner finally realized that there was an attack behind him. He suddenly stopped in his steps. He stepped around calmly on blistered feet, and suddenly released a beast-like glint from his abnormal yellow triangle pupils, coldly staring at the top tier commander rank Armored Beast!

His powerful soul remembrance instantly formed an icy energy that shot out of the prisoner’s eyes, entering the mental world of the Armored Beast!

The Armored Beast’s body shuddered and its five meter long massive body came abruptly to a halt. Its previously violent eyes were suddenly bulging with fear!

At the same time, the eighth rank prisoner Shi Yong also felt this terrifying gaze, causing his entire person to become a stiff.....

“You, you are...” While previously he came intimidating, his expression became extremely strange as sweat poured down from his forehead, causing him to shudder!

“Du-Duan Xinze, you are Duan Xinze!” Finally, prisoner leader Shi Yong recognized the terrifying prisoner!

Shi Yong was an eighth rank prisoner, so he was the leader of a group of seventh rank prisoners, acting domineering.

Yet, in front of him was Duan Xinze, a ninth rank prisoner!!

This ninth rank prisoner, who caused people to shiver in fear, wasn't anything a forty year old normal soul master like Shi Yong could handle!

When the prisoner turned around, the other five seventh rank prisoners all turned pale, as they stared fearfully at this notorious prisoner of Maze Prison.

Duan Xinze and his brother Duan Xinhe was the same, having an abhorring yet terrifying face. When he laughed, it was even more hair-raising.

Shi Yong had self-awareness. Even if Duan Xinze only had one soul, he definitely could deal with his group of people. That is because the one soul pet he had left was the man-eating Gluttonous Insect Monster!

“Duan.... brother duan, we...we're currently in the same situation, so...so...” Shi Yong jumped off the Armored Beast Commander flustered.

“What did you just say, something about joining or dying?” Duan Xinze's gaze on Shi Yong became more playful.

“No no no, we’ll, we’ll enter your team, we’ll listen to all of your commands.” Shi Yong said in a low voice.

“Brother Shi Yong”, at this point, the soul remembrance of a seventh rank prisoner transmitted to Shi Yong’s ears. “Brother Shi Yong, I heard Duan Xinze had all his Gluttonous Insect Monsters above monarch rank killed or sealed. He can summon at most a tenth phase top tier commander rank Gluttonous Insect Monsters. You don’t have to be afraid of him!” “Are you sure?” Shi Yong quickly asked using soul remembrance.

“Incredibly sure. Think, if he didn’t have his strength restricted, how could Battle of the Realm let him into the eighth realm of second tier. Wouldn’t that be condemning all the second tier young generation to death?” The seventh rank prisoner said.

Duan Xinze and his brother were the same. At their peak, they could match the strength of many tenth level titles of big factions. Yet, with all their powerful soul pets killed, Duan Xinze didn’t have many powerful Gluttonous Insect Monsters left!

“Why didn’t you say so earlier? None of us can use soul techniques, so it doesn’t matter how high his remembrance is. If so, just kill him!!” Shi Yong suddenly rose up!

This was a perfect chance to kill Duan Xinze. Once this guy died, then after he reduced his sentence, he won’t have to fear this person’s might!

“So you’ve become trash, haha!” Shi Yong started laughing out loud.

“Trash? I am indeed trash now.” Duan Xinze said.

“Brothers, let’s kill him now!!” Shi Yong started moving immediately, jumping right onto his Armored Beast and summoned his other pseudo-monarch tenth phase soul pets.

“Kill!!!!!! Kill!!!!!!!!!!”

After the other five seventh rank prisoners knew that Duan Xinze was already trash, they weren’t afraid either. They all commanded him to attack Duan Xinze.

Duan Xinze still stood there, his sundried face smiling, as scheming and ugly as before, but at the same time full of a cruel killer's intent.

“But, even if I'm trash, getting rid of all of you are more than enough!!”

Duan Xinze's eyes were already showing killing intent. He approached numerous soul pets, calmly casting an incantation, causing a bloody glow to blossom near him.....

The afternoon sunlight was still poisonous as ever as it shined upon the black rocks, causing the entire mountain face to crack.

An odor of burntness wafted through the air - it was the smell of blood.

No matter if it was fresh blood or dried blood, Chu Mu could nimbly capture. When Chu Mu and Ye Qingzi rode Dream Beast along the mountain path, the two stopped walking.....

Because, ahead of Chu Mu and Ye Qingzi were many soul pets and soul pet trainers laying around in disarray!!

“Blood was in the sun for about six hours, they all would've been killed at noon. Speaking of which, these claw marks seem familiar.” Chu Mu walked over without taboo and flipped over the corpses to check.

“Chu Mu, none of these prisoner rings have been taken.” Ye Qingzi pointed at a few bloody prisoner rings and said.

Chu Mu looked unexpectedly, finding that the prisoner rings were indeed still there.

“The competitors powerful enough to easily kill these prisoners should know the reward of prisoner rings, so the chances that they were killed by another prisoner was even higher!”

Chapter 504: Lost Sword Winged Tiger, Seriously Hurt Shang Heng

“What kind of person would it be? It’s only the second day, so there probably aren’t struggles of interest between prisoners, since there is no need for fighting amongst themselves yet.....” Ye Qingzi thought.

“This prisoner is extremely powerful.” Chu Mu circled the corpse-ridden battlefield and made his own judgement.

“Why do you say so? Maybe it was a fight between two groups of prisoners.” Ye Qingzi said.

“These corpses all suffered the same claw attacks, technique marks, and movement trails. And looking at these dead soul pets, they were all very frantic. One almost can’t see any trace of evidence left by the soul pet killer. This means that the soul pet is an agile and stealthy beast, but it also means the opponent has less than three soul pets.” Chu Mu said.

These deductions based off tracks were taught to Chu Mu by an old prisoner on prison island. However, when this old prisoner faced danger in the island, he decisively abandoned Chu Mu and ran away himself.

People temporarily teaming up on prison island was an occasional occurrence; people agreed to not attack each other until they escape from danger, which they will then split ways.

This was from a few years ago, and Chu Mu had almost forgotten about this old prisoner. In reality, if not for that old prisoner, Chu Mu probably wouldn’t have survived until now. While Chu Mu learned some of his survival techniques himself, that despicable old prisoner taught him a large chunk.

“He probably isn’t too far away from us. I think our choice of waiting half a day before entering wasn’t very smart; we’ll meet less enemies, but the ones we meet will all be powerful.” Ye Qingzi said lightly.

“You’re right. If they’re an eighth rank prisoner, fighting against them for 200 million isn’t very worth it.” Chu Mu laughed bitterly.

“However, we at least gained an eighth rank prisoner ring and five seventh rank prisoner rings without any effort. That totals 450 million. Adding on the previous amount, we have a total of 700 million. 700 million in a day is something we had to collect painstakingly previously.”

Chu Mu also jumped onto the Night Thunder Dream Beast's back. Holding six bloodied prisoner rings, he laughed openly.

Seeing Chu Mu laugh so brightly, Ye Qingzi shook her head helplessly. Who else could stand by a pile of corpses and laugh this happily.....

Chu Mu was naturally used to all the killing. As the saying goes: high risk, high reward. No wonder so many people came for the Battle of the Realm. Once they were in eighth realm, it was like gold was layering the streets. If they could persist for even a small while, they could gain a huge amount of cash to increase their soul pets' strengths.

Of course, 700 million wasn't too much, since they had to split it between two people. Chu Mu needed at least a huge sum of 3 billion gold, which meant they needed to gain 6 billion gold.....

6 billion gold was a massive number; Chu Mu couldn't wait to release his talent in killing!

Chu Mu and Ye Qingzi intentionally slowed down their pace. Neither of them wished to meet the powerful prisoner that could kill six people by himself.

As they walked forward, the corpses on the road increased at some rate. Interestingly enough, many players seem not to know of prisoner ring's secret. When they killed the prisoners, they didn't collect the rings.

Chu Mu and Ye Qingzi were almost the last ones going up the mountain, so Chu Mu collected six rings simply from the corpses.

These six rings were all seventh rank. This meant that, by the third day, Chu Mu had gotten 1 billion gold.

This speed of earning money was unthinkable. One has to know that a one billion dollar bounty of ninth level would need a ninth rank title holder to spend at least a month of hard work to complete. Chu Mu had only entered the eighth realm for three days and had already completed what a ninth level title holder would do in a month.

However, by the fourth day, the rings on the roadside corpses all disappeared. Clearly, the news of the prisoner rings had spread, meaning Chu Mu probably wouldn't find any easy money anymore.

“Hui~~~~~”

The highly sensitive and alert Purple Robed Dream Beast let out a call, alerting Chu Mu and Ye Qingzi of the presence of an organism ahead.

Ahead were two massive rocks that created a narrow passageway. It could only fit about two people through at once.

Chu Mu obviously wouldn't take such a path with no place to dodge. He rode his Night Thunder Dream Beast up onto the smooth rocks and looked down from above.

“Hou~~~~~”

Chu Mu and Night Thunder Dream beast jumped down and turned around to see a purple-furred soul pet ahead of the rocks, as if hiding there. Its fur was matted down with blood, while its powerful four limbs were all clearly wounded. Even worse, its purple feathered wings were tattered and completely broken!

“Thunder Sword Winged Lion?” Chu Mu looked at this hurt high class commander rank soul pet and specially detected its aura using his soul remembrance.

Every soul pet, even of the same species, had different auras. Chu Mu felt a familiarity from this Thunder Sword Winged Lion when probing with his soul remembrance.

“Qingzi, let your Nest Wood Spirit heal it.” Chu Mu said to Ye Qingzi on the other side.

Ye Qingzi also rode her Purple Robed Dream Beast down from the rocks above. Seeing this hurt soul pet, she didn't ask any questions, simply telling her Nest Wood Spirit to start casting life healing techniques.

“You recognize this soul pet?” Ye Qingzi finally asked.

Chu Mu’s kindheartedness had limits. He wouldn’t inexplicably help a soul pet that could be a trap or danger without a good reason.

“En, its Shang Heng’s Thunder Sword Winged Lion. When fighting with Shen Yichen, I saw him summon it and remembered its aura.” Chu Mu walked forward and lightly patted the hurt Thunder Sword Winged Tiger to calm it and accept Ye Qingzi’s healing.

The Thunder Sword Winged Tiger was previously still baring its teeth, seeming ready to attack at any moment. However, with Chu Mu’s simple comforting, this smart soul pet recognized Chu Mu and released any enmity towards him, releasing a low howl to tell Chu Mu something.

“You heal up first. Once you can run, then you can bring me to your master.” Chu Mu said.

“Hou~~” Hearing Chu Mu’s words, the Thunder Sword Winged Lion started shaking. It forced itself up and stood up bloodily, as if ready to run.

Chu Mu blanked, looking at this bloodied but determined soul pet stand up.....

Chu Mu quickly realized the Thunder Sword Winged Tiger’s mind. Its owner must be in danger.

“Qingzi, you stay here and take care of it, I’ll go ahead and check things out.” Chu Mu stood up and said to Ye Qingzi.

“En, most of its wounds are outer wounds, so it will be able to move soon. I’ll catch up quickly.” Ye Qingzi nodded.

“If you encounter any situation here, have your Purple Robed Dream Beast tell Night immediately.” Chu Mu reminded Ye Qingzi and rode off towards the front.

Same species soul pets had a special telepathic sense. If they didn’t have this special connection, Chu Mu naturally wasn’t at ease with leaving Ye Qingzi alone.

“Huhuhu~~~~~”

Wind buffeted Chu Mu’s face. The wind came from the front. Chu Mu took in a deep breath intentionally to sense the bloodiness in the air.

“Very close?” Chu Mu quickly sensed a very thick blood scent waft over from ahead, which was quickly approaching.

Chu Mu told Night to hide in the shadows of the rocks, waiting for the bloodily scented man to appear.

After a moment, around the corner appeared a soul pet trainer riding a Lin Yin Beast.

This soul pet trainer was covered in blood, and the normally majestic and glowing armor of the Lin Yin beast was shattered, seemingly broken in every possible manner, clearly suffering from serious damage.

“Who!!” Shang Heng was still in a tense state. Hearing someone yell his name, he even immediately commanded his Lin Yin Beast to pounce towards it!

“I’m Chu Chen.” Chu Mu and Night Thunder Dream Beast’s figures slowly appeared from the shadows.

Shang Heng quickly stopped Lin Yin Beast’s attack and looked overjoyed.

Yet, this happiness didn’t last long. He specially looked behind himself and said frantically, “Quickly leave, it’s very dangerous here!”

“Follow me.” Chu Mu said as he rode his night Thunder Dream Beast ahead of Shang Heng.

Shang Heng didn't insist, immediately riding his hurt Lin Yin Beast behind Night Thunder Dream Beast.

Very quickly, Chu Mu brought Shang Heng back to Thunder Sword Winged Tiger's healing place, where Ye Qingzi had already fixed all the issues with its legs.

The Thunder Sword Winged Tiger sensed its owner nearing, as well as its wounds closing and solidifying, so it stepped forward and approached Shang Heng's location.

Seeing the Thunder Sword Winged Tiger around the corner, the tired and battled eyes of his immediately wettened. He quickly leaped off his Lin Yin Beast and hugged the Thunder Sword Winged Tiger's furry head, incredibly excited.

"What happened?" Chu Mu asked.

Shang Heng's strength was something Chu Mu saw. He at least had three ninth phase middle class monarch ranks now, so there was no reason to be this pathetic.

"Chu Chen, we have to leave here. A group of prisoners is chasing me, I'm very sorry for dragging you into this as well." Shang Heng said.

"How many people do they have?" Chu Mu asked.

"They have five people, all seventh rank. I don't have much fighting strength left, and you two can hardly take on that many people." Shang Heng said worriedly.

"En, that's 250 million gold. Qingzi, prepare for battle." Chu Mu smiled.

This madman directly converted the prisoner count to gold!

Chapter 506: Annihilating Prisoners, Elemental Group Slaughter

"Chu Chen, don't try to be brave. These five prisoners all have tenth phase high class commanders and tenth phase peak commanders. Even if you have three ninth phase middle class monarchs, you can at most deal with two of these prisoners." anxiously said Shang Heng.

The five prisoners had a total of ten soul pets all together. A tenth phase high class commander's strength was similar to a ninth phase low stage middle class monarch. Even if all of Ye Qingzi's soul pets were at the ninth phase middle class monarch rank, it would be difficult to deal with these prisoners. These were five middle aged soul pet trainers and if they could only dual controlled, then they would be able to control their soul pets strength to the utmost.

Chu Mu ignored Shang Heng's worries and chanted an incantation, summoning the Devil Tree Battle Soldier.

The Devil Tree Battle Soldier had already reached the ninth phase second stage. The roots on its body dug deep into the incomparably sturdy rock before spreading its roots into the surrounding. It was prepared at any moment for the attack of these pursuing prisoners.

Ye Qingzi chanted an incantation. The fusion of two high rank elemental crystallizations, the bone-chilling high rank towering ice and scorching hot high rank blood flames, slowly formed the outline of an Ice Fire Demon Fairy's body.

The majority of soul pet trainers which possessed multiple attributed elemental world soul pets would focus on strengthening the attribute the soul pet was talented in. The others would be secondary attributes and only strengthened to a certain extent.

Raising one attribute to a third grade high rank state would cost an enormous sum. Raising two attributes not only required the capital to acquire the spirit items to raise another innate attribute, but also required the expenses for spirit items to prevent the two attributes from conflicting with each other.

Therefore, raising two attributes ostensibly required three times the capital of purely raising one.

Therefore, under normal circumstances, soul pet trainers would rather put these resources into strengthening a single attribute. Rarely would two attributes be strengthened equally.

However, Ye Qingzi's Ice Fire Demon Fairy had two attributes increasing together. The ice element and fire element crystallizations had both reached the third grade high ranking state.

This was extremely rare among raised elemental world soul pets. It was probably only people like Ye Qingzi who could concoct expensive eighth rank spirit items who would be able to sustain “Dual main attributed low class monarch. This is even stronger than a middle class monarch!!” Shang Heng was stunned and looked a bit astonishedly at Ye Qingzi’s Ice Fire Demon Fairy.

Ninth phase first stage low class monarch. Two attributes had reached the third grade high rank state so its true strength was higher than a ninth phase first stage low class monarch by two levels!

This was equivalent to a ninth phase middle stage low class monarch, and was not inferior to Chu Mu’s Binding Wind Spirit!

The Ice Fire Demon Fairy was Ye Qingzi’s main pet and as its phase and stage increased, the advantage of two main attributes would gradually manifest. If Ye Qingzi was able to raise its blood flame and towering ice to the fourth grade, its fighting rank would be even more terrifying!

“Qingzi, hide your Ice Fire Demon Fairy at a higher location.” Chu Mu said to Ye Qingzi.

Elemental world soul pets required space to use techniques and the Ice Fire Demon Fairy’s destructive power would be able to deliver a fatal blow to the five prisoners!

“Yes.” Ye Qingzi nodded her head. She had her Ice Fire Demon Fairy float up to the top of the mountain path, looking down from high above.

“Devil Tree, stop them and don’t let them approach.” Chu Mu said to the Devil Tree Battle Soldier.

The Devil Tree Battle Soldier broke into a stride and walked forward. At the same time, Ye Qingzi’s Nest Wood Spirit chanted an incantation, bathing the Devil Tree Battle Soldier’s body with wood spirit dew!

The Devil Tree Battle Soldier’s life force was two times a normal ninth phase second stage soul pet. After the wood spirit dew, its life force grew to three times a normal soul pet.

The life force increase not only increased the Devil Tree Battle Soldier’s defensive abilities, but also increased the speed at which it absorbed life force!

After adding the additional life force, the Nest Wood Spirit followed the Devil Tree Battle Soldier forward and went to ward off the enemies together with it.

“Long long long long long~~~~~”

The rock structure on the mountain wasn't very sturdy, and when a group of large soul pets charged on top of it, the mountain path would vibrate.

The five prisoners were riding on different strength type demon beasts along the mountain path. As they stepped on the ground, a wave of dust would rise. Even though they were a distance away, it was possible to sense their wild beast aura.

The agility type demon beasts began to jump up the bumpy and uneven mountain ramparts and craggy rocks. They were very adept at rushing up and clearly had soul pets that had undergone speed training for a long time. Their movement abilities were much more skilled than young people that possessed even higher ranked soul pets and even if the mountain was craggy and uneven, they seemed to be treading on flat ground.

Of the prisoners' soul pets, aside from beast type and demon type soul pets, there were also two wing type soul pets.

These two wing type soul pets were flying against the wall. They knew that if they flew too high, they would become a target and be knocked back down. Flying along the wall, however, the two wing type soul pets didn't drop too much in speed. They glided and swayed, easily dodging the protruding rocks, passing through with ease...

“They... They've come!” Shang Heng's expression changed.

The opponents had a total of ten soul pets which had all reached the perfect tenth phase. Adding on the control ability these middle aged prisoners possessed over their soul pets, a brief moment of inattentiveness would make one incapable of fighting back!

Chu Mu's gaze fell first on the two wing type soul pets flying along the wall. Flying soul pets had huge impact on a battle as they could attack a soul pet at any moment. Therefore, in a fight, Chu Mu had to get rid of them first.

“Qingzi, can your Purple Robe Dream Beast deal with them?” asked Chu Mu.

“No. One of these wing type soul pets is a peak commander. My Purple Robe Dream Beast can only deal with that one. As for the other...” Ye Qingzi didn’t try to be brave, instead speaking truthfully.

The one controlling the wing type soul pet was a middle aged soul pet trainer and Ye Qingzi didn’t overestimate her ability to control her Purple Robe Dream Beast. She knew she couldn’t deal with two tenth phase commanders.

“I’ll deal with the other one. Since we’re going to fight, let’s fight!” Shang Heng wiped the blood off his face and grit his teeth as he spoke.

Two third grade members had no fear as they challenged the grade above them. Thus, how could Shang Heng, a true second grade member representing Soul Palace, cower in fear?!

“Yeah, you only have to watch that wing type soul pet, I’ll deal with the others!” confidently said Chu Mu.

“Haha, another two competitors!” this seventh grade prisoners immediately saw Chu Mu and Ye Qingzi. Quickly, his eyes fell on Ye Qingzi before immediately lighting up. He let out a little perverted expression and yelled, “There’s a female soul pet trainer among them. From her figure, she looks very good. She belongs to me!”

After speaking, the seventh grade prisoner gave his Barbed Rhinoceros an order for it to increase speed; in this crazy way, he couldn’t wait to get on with it.

“Are you joking? Belongs to you? This was discovered by everyone!” laughed the prisoner ten meters up riding on a wing type soul pet.

“Then we’ll see who catches her first!” said the Barbed Rhinoceros’ trainer. He completely ignored Chu Mu and Ye Qingzi’s soul pets.

Behind these two prisoners, the other three prisoners all had excited lights flash through their eyes. They had already committed too many evils to reform themselves and didn't care about adding on another criminal charge!

The prisoners' scorching gazes carried a powerful invasive quality and Ye Qingzi could understand what sort of filthy thoughts were in these prisoners' minds.

However, Ye Qingzi didn't get angry over this. Instead, her eyes remained calm, and she coolly ordered her Nest Wood Spirit to attack.

“Pu!!! Pu!!!!!!!!!!!!”

The Nest Wood Spirit was full of sharp roots that suddenly shattered through the rocks, spreading underneath the Barbed Rhinoceros' feet in an attempt to bind the Barbed Rhinoceros charging at extremely quickly.

The seventh rank prisoner gave a laugh in contempt and promptly had his Barbed Rhinoceros jump up, easily dodging the small trap laid by the Nest Wood Spirit.

“Truly childish. Is this technique meant for young children to play with?” sneered the seventh rank prisoner.

“Then let's play some adult games with her!” another prisoner let out a perverted laugh. From what he could see, they didn't need to be so serious in this fight.

“Adult games? Then isn't that slaughter?! How fitting, it matches what I wanted to do!” Chu Mu faced the prisoners mocking Ye Qingzi and his face showed a rather ruthless smile.

In Chu Mu's opinion, a true man should struggle amidst blood, and not have his mind filled with  women. Therefore, until now, even if Chu Mu was fighting a female soul pet trainer, he wouldn't lose his mind or go easy!

As for these so-called cruel and savage prisoners, they clearly hadn't reached the realm of fighting and slaughter that a true slaughterer saw. This was because they had to pay the painful price of underestimating the enemy and separating their mind.

The Devil Tree Battle Soldier’s Natural Wood Trap had been laid earlier on the only mountain path. Its width reached a shocking thirty meters!

The rock layer composition of the Heavenly Life Mountain was extremely closely knit. Under normal circumstances, the Devil Tree Battle Soldier’s trap could reach a hundred meters. However, a thirty meter trap was more than sufficient to deal with that Barbed Rhinoceros coming back down from the air!

“This trap is meant to confound me?” the seventh rank prisoner let out a big laugh once more.

The Barbed Rhinoceros in midair suddenly slightly raised its front limbs. A brown beast type strength condensed on its large iron feet and as it let out a roar, a destructive strength fiercely smashed downwards from its front limbs. The destructive strength smashed into the Natural Wood Trap causing the roots placed by the Devil Tree Battle Soldier to instantly be crushed into a wreck.

After the Natural Wood Trap was destroyed, Chu Mu wasn’t flustered. Instead, he calmly order the Devil Tree Battle Soldier: “Wood Finger Prison.”

Chapter 507: Annihilating Prisoners, Elemental Group Slaughter

The Devil Tree Battle Soldier’s palm was already pressed against the ground and the moment the Barbed Rhinoceros stomped on the Natural Wood Trap, ten sturdy wood fingers abruptly appeared from around the trap. They intersected above the trap, right above the top of the Barbed Rhinoceros’ head!

“O!!!!!!!”

The Devil Tree Battle Soldier gave a roar and fiercely pulled back its palm, and the wood fingers enveloped the area above the Natural Wood Trap!

The Wood Finger Prison’s iron-like roots didn’t rein in the Barbed Rhinoceros. Instead, it trapped it inside the trap, making it incapable of freeing itself for a while.

Ice Fire Obliterating Diagram was a dual attributed seventh rank technique, but it was stronger than a single attributed eighth rank technique. The moment it was used, the high ranking blood flame and high ranking towering ice would overlay, making it even more possible for it to manifest as a ninth rank middle stage destructive force!!

The ice and fire interweaved, creating a contrast of bone-chilling versus scorching temperatures. An enormous elemental aura caused the unbridled prisoner to finally realize how terrifying the opponent’s technique was!!

“Save... save me!!!!” the Ice Fire Obliterating Diagram’s might reached its peak and even though the Barbed Rhinoceros was covered in armor, it wasn’t able to ward off its might, especially since it was situated at the center of the technique!

“Hong Hong Hong~~~~~”

The ice and fire aura forced the prisoners to come to an abrupt halt. If it was a single attributed attack, perhaps they could have defended against it with a countering attribute, but the mix of fire and ice was not something even a full defensive rock type could withstand. The four prisoners could only open their eyes wide, and stare at the prisoner being tortured in the midst of the fire and ice.

“Qin, Nine Hurricanes!”

Wind type techniques had the widest destructive range so the Binding Wind Spirit had no need to care about the number of enemies. As long as it had enough space to use a wind type technique, all of the enemies would suffer the ravage of its storm!!

The one second Nine Hurricane technique required two seconds of chanting time by the Binding Wind Spirit. This full chanting time would allow the technique’s might to right by a few times!

“Hu hu hu hu!!!!!!”

The wind was whistling and fierce, making it hard to listen to. Countless fragmented rocks were swept up into the air by the wind force and began to spiral in the storm. Quickly, it all transformed into nine, incomparably dark hurricanes!!

The nine hurricanes appeared on the mountain path, mountain rampart, mountain cliff and mountain top. There were ostensibly no gaps and it resembled nine enormous creatures devouring the entire rock mountain range. It was incomparably tyrannic as it swept across the entire mountain!

“Soul Palace... Soul Palace’s Seven Diagram Saint Pet - Binding Wind Spirit!!” the three Prisoners riding on beast type and demon type soul pets had pale faces as they stared in terror at the tiny soul pet flying high above that was capable of brewing such a majestic storm!

Shang Heng’s Linyin Beast was also one of Soul Palace’s Seven Diagram saint pets, but compared to the Binding Wind Spirit, its strength was a bit weaker!

Chu Mu’s Binding Wind Spirit was already near the high class monarch rank and in terms of phase and stage, it was slightly higher than Shang Heng’s Linyin Beast. The aura of a fully casted wind type technique’s destructive power alone was capable of making someone’s legs tremble!

Long long long long!!!!!!”

The Nine Hurricanes swept through and the rocks on countless rocks were thrown up into the air. They spiralled high up along with pieces of dust and shattered stones. It caused an enormous area to be covered in dirt!

The miserable cries of soul pets and prisoners were swallowed up by the rumbling storm. The weaker physiques of the demons were unable to withstand the mighty wind power and were thrown up into the air before being ravaged by the high ranking chaotic wind!

The prisoner soul pets that originally had range were swept up by the Nine Hurricanes being completely scattered. Only the two wing type soul pets were able to fly up high enough, escaping the attack range of the Binding Wind Spirit’s wind type technique.

“Wang Zhuo, quickly have your wind type soul pet lock down the Binding Wind Spirit. Don’t let it use any more wind type techniques!!” one prisoner’s voice rang out from amidst the turbid and rock scattered area.

Wang Zhuo was the prisoner riding on the two wing type soul pets. He was precisely skilled with wing type soul pets!

With the powerful destructive force and large area covered by the wind type soul pet, it had to be stopped. Otherwise, the close ranged demons and battle beasts would not be able to be of any use. After the Binding Wind Spirit’s ninth rank technique swept through, the prisoners’ six soul pets were all wounded. If another few of these techniques hit them, all of their soul pets would lose the ability to fight.

The two wing type soul pets quickly locked onto the Binding Wind Spirit. They let out sharp unpleasant cries and flew together at the Binding Wind Spirit.

These two wing type soul pets had feathers as sharp as swords and as they rapidly flew, they resembled two sharp cold lights of flying swords as they pierced towards the tiny body of the Binding Wind Spirit!

The Binding Wind Spirit rapidly used Wind Path and nimbly dodged the attacks from the two wind type soul pets. As it dodged, it continued to chant an incantation.

If it was a normal elemental world soul pet, it definitely would be unable to continue chanting an incantation as it received attacks like the Binding Wind Spirit. The Binding Wind Spirit was the species advantage of a middle class monarch!

“It’s our turn to fight!” Shang Heng’s eyes focused closely on the high class commander wing type soul pets as he jumped onto the slightly healed Thunder Sword Wing Lion.

The Thunder Sword Wing Lion’s body released an angry lightning. It forcibly brandished its unhealed skeleton and flew up into the air. It unbridledly controlled its lightning power to strike the high class commander.

The Thunder Sword Wing Lion was Shang Heng’s main pet, and even if it was wounded, this soul pet with incredible willpower didn’t show any signs of cowardice. After its consecutive lightning attacks were unable to hit the enemy, it immediately used its enormous body to charge into the large bird species soul pet.

When the Thunder Sword Wing Lion flew into the air to fight, Ye Qingzi's Purple Robed Dream Beast quietly appeared next to the peak commander. It used the dream pupil to create a dream realm technique, invading the peak commander's mind, preventing it from being able to use a powerful technique.

Without the threat of wing type soul pets, the Binding Wind Spirit and Ice Fire Demon Fairy, these two elemental world soul pet, were able to wantonly and fearlessly use their techniques!

High rank chaotic wind, high rank towering ice and high rank blood flame. These three elemental forces formed the fatal attack on the prisoners.

The Devil Tree Battle Soldier had the tyrannical aura of a defender. Its three times the normal life force caused its defensive strength to increase by several times. Despite receiving several simultaneous attacks from tenth phase beast type soul pets, it only received medium degree wounds.

When the Devil Tree Battle Soldier's roots passed through the enemy bodies, the life force absorbing caused the Devil Tree Battle Soldier's life force to recover. It could be said that the Devil Tree Battle Soldier was relying on its own strength to tie up four commanders. It didn't give them any chance to kill or flee.

The other two commanders were being tied down by the Nest Wood Spirit that could simultaneously use four techniques at once. Adding on the Binding Wind Spirit and Ice Fire Demon Fairy's powerful elemental group slaughter techniques, the entire mountain pass immediately devolved into miserable cries!

The prisoners were riddled with wounds. They, who were normally used to looking down on young generation competitors, would never have expected to encounter such abnormal young experts here. Right now they had no evil thoughts in their minds and only hoped to be able to survive from this terrifying elemental group slaughter.

Shang Heng was flying high above but he looked on in shock at the coordination between Chu Mu and Ye Qingzi's four soul pets. Of these four soul pets, none of them were a mainstream beast type. Instead, they were composed of mutual coordination between plant world and elemental world soul pets. Yet, they were able to fight fiercely to the point that the prisoners didn't even have the ability to retaliate.

Storms were brewing and fire and ice covered the sky. Each technique had a ninth rank power!!

The prisoners that attempted to flee were always hauled back by the Nest Wood Spirit and Devil Tree Battle Soldiers while the Binding Wind Spirit and Ice Fire Demon Fairy's elemental destructive power were released without restraint, causing the prisoners and their soul pets that were pursuing him to fall under these fierce techniques.

A black stream of air rushed forth and the final prisoner riddled with wounds was ultimately unable to withstand the Binding Wind Spirit's attack, being fiercely knocked high into the air. Immediately after, black wind blades appeared from all directions and swept across the soul pet's body at high frequency...

This commander had only suffered certain burn wounds when it had been knocked into the air, but by the time it landed back onto the ground, it was covered with blood. Even the prisoner wasn't so lucky as two fresh scars appeared on its face.

The prisoner that had charged over first and fallen into the Natural Wood Trap had pretty much been killed and right now, the other three prisoners weren't so lucky either. Their own corpses as well as their soul pets' were lying disorderly on the mountain path.

The seventh rank prisoners were still a threat to prisoners at the publicly known top of the second grade, but to Chu Mu, who had already reached the qualifications to be a hidden expert, they were equivalent to sending him gold!

Chu Mu raised his head and watched the fight in the air.

The aerial fight had neared its end, and when Chu Mu's Night Thunder Dream Beast entered the fight, the final prisoner was killed and its corpse landed at Chu Mu's feet.

Chu Mu quickly put the prisoners' rings into his hands while giving one of them to Shang Heng. He said to him: "This is yours."

"No need, if not for you guys, I probably would have been eliminated." Shang Heng threw the ring back to Chu Mu. He glanced at the seventh rank prisoner corpses as he bitterly laughed and spoke.

“Chu Chen, hasn’t your strength risen too fast? A few months ago it took you a lot of effort to deal with two of Shen Yicheng’s soul pets. But right now competitors of Shen Yicheng’s calibre are easily stomped by you!”

Chu Mu only let out an indifferent laugh in response. He didn’t say anything.

This strength increase was the result of Chu Mu exhaustingly earning the highest honors before using them to strengthen himself. Compared to a few months ago, there was clearly a huge increase.

“Why are you travelling alone?” Chu Mu asked.

Shang Heng had a certain amount of influence in Soul Palace and it was unlikely that he would be pursued by himself by five seventh rank prisoners.

“Myself, Ting Lan and Li Zhan were together, but we encountered a large group of prisoners. There were about five eighth rank and a dozen seventh rank prisoners. We were forced into a situation where we had nowhere to go so I could only act as bait to lead them away. I don’t know where the two of them are at now.” said Shang Heng.

After Shang Heng finished speaking, Ye Qingzi suddenly knit her brows. Her expression turned serious as she said: “It seems that their situation is not good.”

“How do you know?” Shang Heng asked curiously.

“I smelled medicine. It’s the surrender medicine the competition authorities gave us earlier.” responded Ye Qingzi.

After Shang Heng heard this, his face immediately changed!

Since they were going to open the medicine bottle, it meant that their lives were in danger and they required the saving of the competition authorities!

However, the competition authority guards, even if they were fast, required at least five minutes. In a normal situation, they needed nearly ten minutes to reach a competitor’s location.

Chapter 508: Bloody Nature, Furiously Killing Prisoners (1)

“Chu Chen.....”

Shang Heng knew that Chu Mu was now much more powerful than he was. Before, Shang Heng, Li Zhan, and Ting Lan fell into danger, and only Chu Mu and Ye Qingzi could help them. Or else, with the prisoners' abusive attitudes, Ting Lan and Li Zhan wouldn't simply be captured and handed to the competition guards.

“Chu Chen, you must think of a way to earn ten minutes for Ting Lan and Li Zhan. In that group of prisoners, there was an incredibly powerful eighth rank prisoner. Their target is Ting Lan. Once they are captured, Ting Lan will be in great danger. So, Chu Chen, you must participate. If you just delay them for ten minutes, once the competition staff comes, they will be fine.” Shang Heng asked very earnestly.

All the experts in eighth realm were pretty much only looking out for themselves. Shang Heng knew that asking for such meant dragging Chu Mu down as well, putting him in danger.

But, Shang Heng didn't really have any other alternative. As a soul pet trainer, he had looked past life and death already. The only thing he couldn't accept was that, as one of the only female soul pet trainers, if the competition guards didn't come on time, she will have to suffer the ravaging of these prisoners.

“Qingzi, can you find which the direction the smell is coming from?” Chu Mu opened his mouth to ask.

Qingzi knew what Chu Mu meant, and immediately jumped onto Purple Robed Dream Beast, riding it to lead the way.

Chu Mu didn't say much, riding his Night Thunder Dream Beast tightly behind Ye Qingzi.

Shang Heng stared blankly. He originally thought that, facing eighth rank and seventh rank prisoners, Chu Mu would hesitate. After all, the opponent was so powerful.

Yet, Chu Mu didn't hesitate at all. Before he could even finish, he had already gone towards the killers' locations.

Watching Chu Mu's running back image, Shang Heng's heart roiled, emanating a genuine respect and gratitude for Chu Mu!

After a long winding mountain path, there would be rows of towering cliffs lifting out of the ground.

This was Heavenly Sky Mountain's greatest gap. The difference between the high and low ground was over a hundred meters, but the entire mountain was nearly vertical. If they wanted to continue to higher grounds in the mountain, they would have to use all their abilities to cross this barrier.

The gap was near two hundred meters in width. Other than the meandering path that had a small slope, the other two sides were all almost vertical cliffs.

The mountain valley was blowing with a gale, creating a natural, turbid wind zone. Even wing type soul pets were incredibly strained if they wanted to fly here. As for other soul pets, if they wanted to go up the two walls on the side, it will be even more difficult. If the high ground had any enemies, once techniques were cast from above, any soul pet would die from falling back down with no place to dodge.

It was in such a situation that Li Zhan and Ting Lan were pushed into- an inescapable situation. They had no place to go!

There were a good number of eighth rank prisoners and seventh rank prisoners!

Every prisoner had two soul pets, adding up to a good number of tenth phase soul pets!

In the skirmish before, Ting Lan and Li Zhan killed eight tenth phase commander ranks. But, the commander ranks firmly restricted them in this situation, causing their lives to be truly threatened!

Li Zhan and, as the third strongest soul palace expert, didn't have an issue facing all these seventh and eighth rank prisoners. However, he never would have thought that the usually scattered prisoners would gather in such great numbers!

Once the prisoner count reached a certain magnitude, even the rank one of each faction couldn't deal with them!

"Ting Lan, you will be fine, trust me!" Li Zhan stared gravely at the quickly approaching commanders coming from above.

Ting Lan was pale-faced. Her beautiful pupils lost their usual calm and she was terrified.

Her fingers were slightly shaking. Every time she heard the prisoners' violent and perverse laughs, she would feel incredibly disgusted but also cold all over.

From these prisoners' burning gaze, Ting Lan knew that once she fell into their hands, she would suffer a horrible end. She was already regretting that she didn't immediately call for the competition guards' help instead of barely persevering.

"Haha, the two soul palace young generation members, their seventh diagram sacred beasts are still weak. You having them is a waste!" The lead prisoner started laughing unrestrained.

In reality, the prisoners on stage all had been incredibly jealous towards these competitors. These middle age soul pet trainers were all thirty years old before they could truly master middle class monarch rank soul pets. However, in the eighth realm of Battle of the Realm, there were many young generation members with true monarch rank soul pets. One had to know that these prisoners, at their age were, at most, using commander ranks.

"Peng~~~~~"

Finally, Ting Lan's ninth phase Lin Yin Beast was still hard to with the pseudo monarch rank tenth phase organisms, getting slammed into the cliff and being embed deep inside.

Closely following, Ting Lan's elemental soul pets were also tightly restricted by a few demons, not able to cast even a single elemental technique.

In such a situation, once it was attacked, it would definitely be instantly killed. Ting Lan didn't want to see her soul pet die like this. When his elemental soul pet completely lost its ability to fight, it even cast a technique to cast it back to the soul pet space.

Ting Lan had four soul pets out, but in one wave of attacks, Lin Yin Beast was heavily injured. The elemental soul pets were retracted. As for her secondary soul pets, they couldn't even escape death if they were summoned either!

“Sila!!!!!!!!!!!!!!” Four beast type commander ranks all extended their claws, heavily swiping past Li Zhan's Multi Colored Devil Tiger.

The Multi Colored Devil Tiger was already full of wounds. This attack was even more lethal. Finally, it fell over in a pool of blood.

The soul pact snapped, causing Li Zhan's face to become even paler!

His eyes were bloodshot, as he stared at the disfigured Multi Colored Devil Tiger. “Just give up, we won't kill you. We'll only give you to the competition guard, so why waste your soul pets' lives?” The eighth prisoner smiling wickedly said with false goodness.

In reality, if Li Zhan gave himself up and gathered up all his soul pets, he wouldn't lose anything, and would probably live.

However, watching as Ting Lan fell into danger, as a soul palace soul pet trainer with true character, Li Zhan couldn't do that!

From what many soul pet trainers saw, many things were more important to protect than their lives; one such thing was the soul palace's mission.

Li Zhan knew Ting Lan since he was young. Because of their identities, Li Zhan was also always Ting Lan's guard, silently protecting this daughter of Immortal Ming Palace elder, serving his duty as one of Soul Palace!

If he pushed Ting Lan to the hands of these prisoners just to live, he wouldn't forgive himself for the rest of his life!

“Lady Ting Lan, do you still have wing type soul pets?” Li Zhan tightened his fists and said weakly.

“En, we must push them back once for my wing type soul pet to take flight.”

Ting Lan retracted the elemental soul pet being restricted to prepare to summon her wing type soul pet.

“I will use a light type technique. The moment I cast this technique, you will cast your incantation and summon a wing type soul pet. I will try my hardest to keep them occupied while you fly your wing type soul pet upwards.....” Li Zhan said with his soul remembrance to Ting Lan.

“And you?” Ting Lan said worriedly.

“I will summon my wind type soul pet and throw myself upwards. Remember, don’t stop at all, if you have any hesitation, your soul pet will be dragged down.” Li Zhan said very seriously.

“But its your wind type soul pet...” Ting Lan said faintly as her heart ached.

“Don’t say any more!” Li Zhan stopped Ting Lan, starting an incantation while his soul was still damaged.

Once their soul was , it was incredibly hard to cast a soul technique. Yet, Li Zhan managed to force his way to finish a light type technique without being interrupted!!

Blinding Light!

Immediately, glaring golden glares shot outwards!!

This glow was nearly impossible to block, instantly burning all the soul pets’ and prisoners’ eyes, causing even their remembrance to be locked in by the powerful light type technique!

At this moment, Ting Lan didn’t dare to hesitate in the slightest, summoning her wing type soul pet with an incantation.

She quickly leaped onto her wing type soul pet, and specially turned around to look at Li Zhan, who was still emitting burning glows.

“Fly!! You have to reach a height where they can’t reach you!!!” Li Zhan roared, as the glow on himself became more radiant, not giving the prisoners a chance to lock onto Ting Lan.

Ting Lan immediately told his wing type soul pet to fly to the cliff face vertical not far away. The glaring glow shined on Chu Mu and Ye Qingzi’s face, causing them to immediately close their eyes to prevent burning.

“They’re there.” Chu Mu lead the charge, telling Night to cast Extreme Speed and raise its speed once more.

A black arc flew past the sloped mountain path. Chu Mu’s back merged with the black Night Thunder Dream Beast, bringing a thick dark aura while leaving a demonic afterimage.

Ting Lan was already a hundred meters into the air, easily able to dodge most attacks!

Yet, it was at this height that Ting Lan’s whole body suddenly started shaking, because it was then that she realized Li Zhan had no wind type soul pet!!

Li Zhan didn’t have a wind type soul pet, so with his soul wounded, he could never reach such heights instantly!!

Chapter 509: Bloody Nature, Furiously Killing Prisoners (2)

“Li Zhan!” Ting Lan was motionless as she stared downwards with reddened eyes at Li Zhan! The burning glow started dimming as Li Zhan was slowly exposed in front of the prisoners’ soul pets. With Li Zhan’s technique, all the prisoners’ soul pets were angered, trapping Li Zhan

Many techniques are already ninth rank. No matter how powerful Li Zhan was, he couldn’t possibly stop the attacks of all these soul pets!!

“Longlonglonglonglong!!!!!!!!!!!!!!” The entire gap started shaking violently as techniques rained down from above. Li Zhan and his three soul pets were completely consumed by the destructive attacks!

The lower end of the gap immediately blew up, creating a powerful shockwave that sent a powerful shockwave towards all four directions!! With such a terrifying attack, unless he had ninth rank late stage defense, he wouldn't possibly live! The shaking blast nearly shattered Ting Lan's eardrums, to the point where she couldn't hear a single thing. Ting Lan's face was completely lifeless, as her entire person became a statue.....Ting Lan didn't think that Li Zhan would lie to her like this. And the result of the lie was that this man had to suffer the killing of the reaper himself. How heartbreaking and cruel was this lie!

"Hahahahah~~~~~" The thundering sound slowly calmed down as the prisoners' impudent howls started.

"What a dumbass. Just give up and he wouldn't have died!!"

"Yes, haha. It's just a chick. When would you ever lack women? You have to be cruel when you need to be. These young fellows just have mental issues, not knowing how to do what needs to be done!" Looking at Li Zhan's corpse buried under the mass of rocks, all the prisoners started laughing out loud in mockery. Li Zhan was a second tier member and was third in all of soul palace. His future was immeasurable. Even the prisoners knew that, with just a few more years, he could single-handedly destroy them all at their peak! However, his adamance wasn't something he could handle, causing him to hand his life to others to control.

The prisoners had long since lost all their morals, and couldn't comprehend the value of another person's life over themselves. So, to them, Li Zhan's act of saving someone was the most childish and stupid action. Prisoners' shrill laughing caused Ting Lan's eyes to spray flames out. This anger completely burned up her logic!

"You group of evil people, I will kill you!!" Ting Lan screamed her lungs out. Starting an incantation, Ting Lan only wanted to kill all these inhumane prisoners, taking revenge for Li Zhan who sacrificed himself for her! Seeing Ting Lan stop and start an incantation, the lead disheveled prisoner smiled evilly, having achieved his goal. He was the lead person to ridicule Li Zhan.

His final goal was to stimulate Ting Lan into losing her reason to fly back down and fight them. Indeed, the woman lost her reason. She completely forgot that she couldn't possibly fight against this many prisoners!

"Dadada~~~~~Dadada~~~~~" Suddenly, a strange eloping sound came in the skies! The black and demonic figure quickly leaped over the prisoners' heads, bringing a special shadow. As all the prisoners lifted their heads, they only saw a white feather amidst the dark and handsome figure, while the rest of the organism hid completely in the shadows of the steep cliff, hard to catch! Watching just as Ting Lan was about to continue to battle, the prisoners were stunned as this black figure jumped in front of her and stopped her. Ting Lan's motions halted as she stared blankly at the man who rode such a black handsome soul pet! His eyes were apathetic and cold, yet full of spirit, calm and collected as a result of thousands of crises!

“Chu Chen.....” Ting Lan’s pure red eyes stared at Chu Mu. With her emotions in shambles, she didn’t know what to say anymore. “They aren’t laughing at Li Zhan’s stupidity, they’re laughing at yours!” Chu Mu’s tone suddenly became acrid. Ting Lan stared blankly as the sentence stabbed into her heart like a cold blade, instantly cooling her head down.

She understood what Chu Mu meant. However, Li Zhan’s death still kept her tears rolling. Ting Lan’s experiences weren’t as plentiful as other soul pet trainers. Most of her experiences were through proper competitions. Such soul pet trainer was destined to crumble under the cruel truth in Battle of the Realm! Hidden experts and those touted by the public were separated by exactly this. Hidden experts could stay calm under any situation, no matter how angry or resentful they felt in heart!

“Who is it?” The prisoners’ gazes fell on the meddling Chu Mu. “Another player, this time we can’t kill this one, we need him alive!” The prisoner lead said sternly. “Don’t worry, we’ll make sure the woman is alive too!” A few prisoners with wing type soul pets answered. Angering Ting Lan gave them enough time to ride their wing type soul pets into the skies, so Ting Lan won’t escape either. “They.....they’re coming.” Ting Lan still had tears in her eyes as she looked at the swiftly approaching wing type soul pets. “Can you deal with three wing type soul pets?” Chu Mu didn’t panic, saying in a very level voice.

“Yes, but.....they have so many people, Chu Chen..... you should run, don’t get dragged down by me, I don’t want someone else to die again.....” Chu Mu’s stern words woke Ting Lan up completely. She knew she did something incredibly stupid. If she jumped down without reason, she would only be insulting Li Zhan’s sacrifice. Since Chu Mu appeared, he wouldn’t just sit and watch. However, even if Chu Mu appeared, he couldn’t compete with that many prisoners. After all, with Ting Lan’s knowledge of Chu Mu, this cross-tier challenger wasn’t even as good as Li Zhan. Of course, Ting Lan trusted Chu Mu’s abilities. He could definitely bring her away from these prisoners’ attacks. So, running away was the most sensible choice. “If possible, you face the three wing type soul pets.” Chu Mu said.

“But.....” Ting Lan wanted to convince Chu Mu otherwise. “Just do as I say.” Chu Mu didn’t waste any more time talking, as he swiftly rode his Night Thunder Dream Beast into another direction. Ting Lan stared absentmindedly at Chu Mu. From Chu Mu’s eyes, she didn’t see escape, but another cold emotion. This was something that Ting Lan was curious about, a natural quality that came from battling and killing intent!! However, compared to previously, this man’s eyes were multiple times brighter than when he went against Guo Peng.

This gaze caused no one to make eye contact with him. It was a killing aura that was nursed through countless killings! Ting Lan felt that Chu Mu had completely become a different person. He was staring at these prisoners like a reaper would stare at dead people!! “Since you turned yourself into a beast, I will treat you like beasts too!” Chu Mu’s killing intent was sharp. His cold voice transmitted into every prisoners’ ears! Bloody, violent, killing. When a person grows up enduring all this, they naturally have this nature under their apathetic cover when they mature!

Chu Mu was trying his hardest to control the bloody nature he got during his growing period. He didn’t want to become an emotionless killer machine, nor did he want his evil tendencies to grow in his heart, growing until it devours his reason and humanity. However, holding it back didn’t mean Chu Mu could forget this instinct! Once he felt that he needed to be merciless and needed to kill, he would definitely not hold back, because even full of all negative emotions, he still was himself!

“Wuwuwu!!!!!!” Feeling Chu Mu’s killing intent inside, Mo Xie inside his soul pet space immediately called out! “Ye, come back!” Chu Mu cast an incantation, retracting Night Thunder Dream Beast back into the soul pet space! After retracting it, Chu Mu slowly started burning with Nine Underworld Devil Flames. This special devil flame caused Chu Mu to float in the air, like a violent devil, coldly staring at the prisoners! With the incantation, Chu Mu’s side slowly started burning with nine sprouts of blood flames and demon fire evil flames!

“Wuwuwuwu!!!!!!” As if she hasn’t killed in so long, Mo Xie’s body slowly appeared amongst the nine flames in the air. The demon aura of the nine tail inferno flame pushed down from above like a storm!! Chu Mu’s Mo Xie had reached ninth phase third stage after seventh realm. The full moon in the sky laid down a thin veil of moonlight, falling upon the flaming and silver Mo Xie! The thin veil of moonlight caused Mo Xie to raise his strength, reaching ninth phase sixth phase!! Nine tails unfurled in the air freely. The dark night floated with silver shadows, full of arrogance! Mo Xie’s four paws burned with royal flames silent in the air. Her pupils blazed with the same emotions as Chu Mu, looking down upon all the enemies like an emperor! “It’s a ninth phase middle stage middle class monarch rank!!” Prisoner’s faces were overcome by confusion as their eyes were lit red by Mo Xie’s flames.

“It isn’t even tenth phase, so there’s nothing to be afraid of, my soul pet can handle it!!” The messy haired prisoner leader said without care. “But, it has demon fire evil flames and blood flames, it has royal flame side type, so its fighting strength is at least another level higher. This is a ninth phase ninth stage middle class monarch!” The middle-aged prisoners all had insane judgment, instantly judging what Mo Xie’s strength was!

“Why are these eighth realm young generation members all abnormal beasts, having this level soul pet!”

Some prisoners started screaming!!

Chapter 510: Bloodthirsty Nature, Angrily Slaughtering Prisoners (3)

Moon Essence's effects caused Mo Xie's strength to rise from the ninth phase third stage to the ninth phase sixth stage.

The secondary royal fire attribute also allowed Mo Xie's strength to rise again, making her comparable to a ninth phase ninth stage middle class monarch!

The fighting strength rank of practically all the second grade's experts were at the middle class monarch level and their phase or stage was stuck at the ninth phase low stage.

Those possessing ninth phase middle stage middle class monarch soul pets were peak experts in the eighth realm. And those with ninth phase high stage were at the very pinnacle of young competitors!!

"Chu Chen." Ting Lan looked closely at Chu Mu and her eyes flickered with a bit of disbelief.

Ting Lan was astonished because she had recognized Chu Mu for so long, but didn't know he had such a powerful soul pet!!

Chu Mu already had a ninth phase middle stage Binding Wind Spirit as well as several ninth phase low stage middle class monarchs. If he added on the Royal Flame Nine Tail Inferno Fox that had strength comparable to a ninth phase ninth rank, his strength wouldn't be any inferior to Soul Palace's second strongest, Luo Bing!

Ting Lan would only see Chu Mu in Soul Palace every few months, but every time she saw him, his strength would explode. She knew that his strength increase was exceptionally ridiculous, but didn't realize it was to this extent...

Ting Lan truly found it hard to believe that just about a year ago, Chu Mu was still this third grade expert fighting Luo Peng. When she had summoned her Linyin Beast, it had forced him to surrender...

But right now, he had completely surpassed her, and stepped into the top ten ranks of the second grade's strongest!!!

"It's just stronger than my peak commander by one level. Perhaps its fighting strength is equivalent to a small child. Even if my peak commander is weaker by a level, it will still be able to easily beat it!" the scraggly hair prisoner laughed with contempt.

The prisoners' ranks were determined by the crimes they committed. The eighth rank prisoner Cai Ji Chu Mu had killed earlier was considered rather strong because he possessed a tenth phase pseudo monarch.

The reality was that there were extremely few eighth rank prisoners with tenth phase pseudo monarchs.

The strength of a tenth phase pseudo monarch was comparable to a ninth phase peak middle class monarch. If all the eighth rank prisoners had tenth phase pseudo monarchs, a great number of the competitors would die because the only competitors with soul pets this strong would only be the top three hidden experts in each large faction!

The average strength of seventh rank prisoners was in between tenth phase middle class commanders and high class commanders, or in other words, in between the eighth phase high stage middle class monarch and ninth phase low stage middle class monarch. The reason why a young competitors strength would stick out was mainly due to a fortuitous encounter allowing their soul pets' ranks to rise. As for a middle aged competitor, it was due to the advantage of age that allowed them to possess perfect phase and stage soul pets.

The prisoners had 21 soul pets and six of them were peak commanders, 10 were high class commanders and five were middle class commanders.

Even if Chu Mu's Royal Flamed Nine Tail Inferno Fox was stronger, it couldn't fight so many soul pets!

The Royal Flame Nine Tail Inferno Fox's strength was one higher level than peak commanders and it being able to deal with two peak commanders would already be extremely incredible. Therefore, there was no suspense to this fight!

"Chu Chen, we're still not their opponents." although Ting Lan was shocked at Chu Mu's strength, she recognized that they were helpless because the prisoners simply numbered too many!

“Focus on your battle.” Chu Mu said to Ting Lan.

Ting Lan had to fight three high class commander rank wing type soul pets. These prisoners were all old crafty fellows and even if Ting Lan’s soul pets were slightly higher in strength, if she wasn’t careful, she would still be defeated.

Ting Lan bit her lips and decided to fight. She couldn’t hesitate and had to trust Chu Mu right now!

“Advent of the Demon Moon!!!”

Suddenly, a gorgeous silver moonlight carrying a demonic characteristic began to illuminate amongst the thin moonlight!!

The moonlight immersed Mo Xie’s body, causing her silver fur to carry an even more elegant demonic evil!!

Advent of the Demon Moon was Ye Qingzi’s Water Moon’s new technique!

This technique would only have a purifying effect on the majority of soul pets, but to Mo Xie, which had the Moon Essence species technique, it was undoubtedly the best supportive technique!

“Wu wu wu wu!!!!!!”

The moonlight grew denser and denser as Mo Xie’s Moon Essence effect grew stronger and stronger!!

In this moment, Mo Xie’s demonic aura grew stronger and an ice cold aura rushed onto the prisoners’ soul pets!!

Originally only the high class commanders and middle class commanders were somewhat afraid of Mo Xie’s aura. But the Advent of the Demon Moon’s effect caused Mo Xie’s strength to rise by a level and the six peak commanders all grew wary!

“He still has other comrades!” the prisoners abruptly realized that a soul pet appeared behind him!

“Hahaha~~~ it’s another female soul pet trainer. We’re really lucky today!! What is everyone waiting for, let’s finish the fight fast!!” several eighth rank prisoners began to laugh.

Both Ting Lan and Ye Qingzi were absolute beauties and before these prisoners had entered prison, they rarely saw these sorts of women, let alone in prison!

When Ye Qingzi faced this large group of prisoners, she was much calmer than Ting Lan. She had already summoned her main pets and was ready to fight at any moment.

She had summoned a ninth phase middle stage middle class monarch War Court Black Beast, a ninth phase low stage low class monarch Ice Fire Demon Fairy, a tenth phase middle class commander Water Moon and an eighth phase ninth stage middle class Nest Wood Spirit.

Ye Qingzi’s four main pets all had special abilities and their strengths weren’t reflected merely by their phase and stage and rank. Therefore, they weren’t easy to fight, especially the War Court Black Beast and Ice Fire Fairy!

“Chu Mu, my War Court Black Beast can deal with two peak commanders, but there still remain many. You should have your White Nightmare or Zhan Ye come out and fight.” Ye Qingzi used soul remembrance to speak to Chu Mu.

Ye Qingzi would always conservatively estimate her own strength. If she said she could deal with something, it meant she could kill them. Chu Mu knew that Ye Qingzi’s War Court Black Beast was an extremely mysterious soul pet with a great amount of potential!

“There aren’t that many enemies.” Chu Mu’s tone was indifferent as he spoke, but amongst that indifference was a trace of powerful killing intent!

Chu Mu daring to stay here meant he had enough confidence. This was because Ye Qingzi was here and Chu Mu didn’t need to conserve soul power!

Nine Underworld Devil Flames suddenly shot out of Chu Mu’s hands. The ice cold flames from the nine underworlds suddenly enveloped the area on top of the prisoners’ soul pets!

“Nine Underworld Thirteen Inferno Hells!!! Chu Mu chanted this technique’s incantation!

This time, Chu Mu had chanted the Thirteen Inferno Hells technique, but this was the true eighth rank technique!! It could use the entire might of an eight rank fire technique!

“Wu wu wu wu~~~~~” Mo Xie also completely finished her technique while the prisoners were astonished. She let out a howl underneath the moonlight that was clearly more imposing and tyrannical!

The prisoners were middle aged and had ample soul pet experience, but their underestimation of the enemy ended up being their fatal blow!

Right now, if the White Nightmare were to appear, Chu Mu's three layered Thirteen Inferno Hell would create a technique nearing the tenth rank in might and was capable of instakilling all of the prisoners here.

However, to deal with these prisoners, only Mo Xie's layer would be needed and the true might of the Thirteen Inferno Hells would leave behind his genuine enemies!

Nine Underworld Devil Flames, Blood Flames and Demon Fire Evil Flames created an enormous fiery lotus in the air. Immediately after, intense flames began to tumble down from the air and even the air was ignited!

Mo Xie's strength climbed to the peak of the ninth phase so the Thirteen Inferno Hells had extremely powerful destructive force against this level of soul pets!

As for Chu Mu's Nine Inferno Devil Flame Thirteen Inferno Hells, it was even stronger. After all, Chu Mu was using the White Nightmare's fourth rank devil flames!!

The enormous three flames burned in the air above the prisoners. The aura of fire faced them head on and right now, these prisoners all had their eyes wide open as they showed expressions of fear!

If they knew that Chu Mu could combine two types of flames to reach the power of a ninth rank full stage technique, they would have instantly stopped Chu Mu.

However, because they had underestimated the enemy, they missed this chance to stop him while Chu Mu didn't hesitate to use his soul power. The reason why he remained floating in the air was to give himself enough time to chant his incantation.

“Beng!!!!!! Beng!!!!!! Beng!!!!!!”

Finally, several inferno hells began to descend in different trajectories and transformed an enormous area that the prisoners were in into a prison!!

“Beng!!!!!! Beng!!!!!! Beng!!!!!!!!!!”

Thirteen inferno hells and as each inferno hell layered on top of one another, it meant that the prisoners had to deal with three different types of flames!!

The layer of rock began to rupture under the destructive flames. In the seventh realm, Chu Mu's Thirteen Inferno Hells had ruined an entire mountain peak. This Thirteen Inferno Hells was slightly weaker, but it was obvious that these prisoners with weaker defense would be slaughtered!!

“Ah!!!!!! Ah!!!!!!”

“Ah!!!!!!!!!! Ah!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!”

The miserable howls of prisoners rang out. Their souls, bodies, and blood were all burned. Such pain wasn't something a normal person could handle!

Three light from different colored flames reflected onto the face of two prisoners. These two prisoners were both riding on their wing type soul pets. It was essentially because they were in the air that they managed to escape this catastrophe. Otherwise, under the continuous subsidence, the ones howling in pain from the continuous inferno hell attack would be them.

Right now, these two seventh rank prisoners had faces full of fear. They couldn't believe that a single young competitor was able to create this fire type technique with such terrifying destructive force!!

“Beng!!!!!!”

Finally, the last inferno hell descended!

This inferno hell became the death sentence of most of the middle class commanders. There were a total of five middle class commanders and among them, only the rock type elemental commander survived. The rest were all buried under the sea of flames, instakilled!!

Of the ten high class commanders, at least five suffered serious bodily and soul wounds while three lost the ability to fight!

The defensive and reaction abilities of the six pepak commanders were rather powerful and when the Thirteen Inferno Hells descended, they began to mad dash to the edges of the technique. Of them, only two had sustained mid-degree damages!

When Chu Mu used the Thirteen Inferno Hells, he had intentionally extended the range to ensure the scattered prisoners would all be enveloped.

If he had concentrated the Thirteen Inferno Hells on the same location, even a tenth phase pseudo monarch would have been instakilled!
