

Soul Pets Bk2 71

Chapter 71: Nameless Old Servant

Blink was an extreme speed demon type technique that allowed a soul pet to continuously fluctuate positions and continuously launch attacks!

Mo Xie's strongest talent wasn't in the strength of her attack, but rather her terrifying speed. The moment she used Blink, it was like creating illusions of multiple Evil Flame Six Tailed Demon Fox all launching violent attacks!!

“Shua shua shua!!!!”

The claws carrying flames with the Evil Flame effects consecutively ripped at the Ghost Wing White Bone Blood Devil's body. All the attacks managed to strike the Ghost White Bone Blood Devil's flesh wings!!

The Ghost Wing White Bone Blood Devil had the ability to fly, but from the moment it was summoned, this ghost type soul pet wasn't able to fly any higher than five meters. Mo Xie's fierce and terrifying attacks struck the Ghost Wing White Bone Blood Devil before it had managed to fully ascend into the sky. Unexpectedly, it had ripped its wings into tatters, and the Blood Devil's body was dripping in a rather dark colored blood as it descended to the ground.

Yang Luosen was stunned. His gaze fell onto the terrifying Evil Flame Six Tailed Demon Fox. He did not anticipate an Evil Flame Six Tailed Demon Fox would possess a seal breaking technique. He further did not think that the Evil Flame Six Tailed Demon Fox's speed, strength of its torrential Demon Fire Evil Flame had already completely surpassed a normal commander rank soul pet!

At the same time that Yang Luosen was overwhelmed with shock, the people both inside and outside the battlefield were so stunned that they couldn't speak. In their opinion, the sixth phase fourth stage Ghost Wing White Bone Blood Devil was already an exceptionally terrifying soul pet. If there weren't species like the Blue Nightmare in the commander rank, then what else could be the Ghost Wing White Bone Blood Devil's opponent?

However, presently, everyone was witnessing of the power of one of the most rare soul pets in history, the Evil Flame Six Tailed Demon Fox, and were witnessing what was called a fight that surpassed ranks!!

"This Evil Flame Six Tailed Demon Fox cannot be described by common sense. Its strength is comparable to a high class commander rank pure beast type soul pet. Its flames match a high class commander rank fire type's power. Its speed even surpasses a high class commander rank demon type's agility..." Chu Ming looked at the Evil Flame Six Tailed Demon Fox destroying the Ghost Wing White Bone Blood Devil and slowly spoke.

The Recommendation today had brought Chu Ming too many shocks. Perhaps Chu Ming was somewhat unwilling to believe that the demonic male standing on the battlefield dressed in dark purple clothing was his grandson. He had already reached a level that Chu Ming himself would even find hard to touch!

"Evil Flame Claw!!!!!!!"

The claw blades fiercely tore open the Ghost Wing White Bone Blood Devil's shoulder. The Demon Fire Evil Flame against the claw blade's radiance depicted a gorgeous lustre that, with an extremely sharp edge, ripped apart the Ghost Wing White Bone Blood Devil's long arm.

“Evil Flame Claw!”

The moment Mo Xie landed on the ground, Chu Mu immediately issued a follow up technique order!

Mo Xie’s quick and violent lightning-like body had just landed on the ground before it abruptly turned around. When it ran at a rapid speed, it carried a wild demonic aura, as it once more used Evil Flame Claw on the Ghost Wing White Bone Blood Devil’s body!

The remnants of her ardent radiance from the previous strike had yet to dissipate. The second imposing attack lacerated the Ghost Wing White Bone Blood Devil’s stomach!!

“Flame Dance!”

Mo Xie’s body was still in midair when Chu Mu issued another order!!

Her gorgeous yet wild body made a strange step in midair, and suddenly, at this Flame Dance location, a ring of fire appeared that proliferated like a ripple in water....

Stepping in the air to rapidly pursue, the moment Mo Xie’s attack finished, her Flaming Dance in the air caused her to run in a reverse arc and, using her terrifying speed, she once more rapidly pursued the Ghost Wing White Bone Blood Devil!

As they saw this scene, the tens of thousands of people in the plaza all watched with wide open eyes. They had never believed that an Evil Flame Six Tailed Demon Fox could use Flaming Dance to forcibly change directions. In the shortest amount of time possible, she launched a third attack!

Earlier, the Radiance Lion could also launch a subsequent second attack after its first attack. However, the period of time after its second attack was extremely long and, as long as one had enough speed, it was definitely a situation that was easily avoidable. However, for this Evil Flame Six Tailed Demon Fox, its three attacks were practically like one technique being used. Unexpectedly, they were so perfectly linked together that three exquisite tracks of attacks were drawn out on the battlefield!!

“Illusion Evil Flame Claw!”

Mo Xie’s Flame Dance attack caused its body to astonishingly split into three demonic silver white figures. Her unassailable claws respectively ripped at three vital spots on the Ghost Wing White Bone Blood Devil’s body!!

“Shua!!!!”

The three simultaneous attacks struck open the Ghost Wing White Bone Blood Devil’s flesh. Suddenly, a terrifying Demon Fire Evil Flame rushed into the Ghost Wing White Bone Blood Devil’s body through the three deep wounds and violently began to burn its blood, flesh and skeleton...

“Huowu!!!!!!!!!!”

The Ghost Wing White Bone Blood Devil let out a pained devilish cry. Its voice incomparably and plaintively resonated through the entire plaza. Those who heard it felt their blood run cold!!

Yang Luosen was completely stunned. Carrying a rather scared gaze, he stared at the Ghost Wing White Bone Blood Devil whose body was rapidly being burned by the flames...

The soul pet he was so intensely proud of, in front of a high class warrior rank soul pet, unexpectedly wasn't able to resist very much.

Identical at the sixth phase fourth stage, but its rank was higher by an entire rank. Even if Demon Fire Evil Flame was a definitive counter over ghost type soul pets, how could the difference in strength be so distinct?!

Yang Luosen didn't understand, nor was he willing to believe he lost.

“Hu hu hu~~~~~”

A strange mental ragain fire suddenly threw itself at Yang Luosen's soul!

Yang Luosen's face abruptly changed, and he used the fastest speed he could to create a soul remembrance protection. However, Mo Xie's Evil Flame Invasion had double the damage. The hastily created soul remembrance defense was simply unable to resist the soul invasion of the Demon Fire Evil Flame!

The scorching fire energy burned into the middle of Yang Luosen's soul; moreover, it began to burn his body. Presently, one could clearly see flames flicker out from within Yang Luosen's body!!

Yang Luosen let out a painful howl, and his two hands trembled as he fetched a fire poison resistant medicine, and he frantically poured it into his mouth!

The seventh level fire poison resistant medicine, for one bottle, required a price of nearly 100,000 gold coins. After Yang Luosen poured it into his throat, his body instantly emitted a white gas, and his entire skin was flushed red as he knelt on the ground and gasped for air...

“Mo Xie, kill him.”

Chu Mu didn't have any trace of mercy!

“Wu wu wu!!!!” Mo Xie didn't like to be merciful either. Her body abruptly transformed into a silver light that rapidly charged in front of Yang Luosen!!

Her claws were already extended and, as he watched the terrifying Evil Flame Six Tailed Demon Fox appear, Yang Luosen's pupils ceaselessly dilated. In this instant, his arrogance had been ripped to shreds. So much so, that not even a sliver remained as he felt death approach!!

His soul having suffered from grave burn wounds, Yang Luosen was currently unable to summon any soul pets. The demon aura had already assaulted his senses, and his gaze seemed to be praying as it turned towards the crowd of humans.

A black figure suddenly appeared strangely on the plaza battlefield, and abruptly stood rigidly in front of Yang Luosen!

“Wind Dragon Bind!”

A soft incantation was chanted and instantly, a gorgeous wind dragon wildly coiled up around the black figure's body!!

“Eighth rank Wind Dragon Bind!!!”

A majestic Wind Dragon Bind twisted around the black figure’s body and shockingly, under everyone’s astonished gazes, quickly began to rotate.

The charging Mo Xie immediately smashed into the tenacious wind dragon, and her body was knocked up, flying up a whole fifty meters!

“Mo Xie, Flame Dance!”

Mo Xie’s body fell from a height of 50 meters and as she was ten meters from the ground, her front limbs abruptly took a step in the air, and her body obtained a slight buffer...

A clever way of emancipation, Mo Xie descended onto the ground. Her body still slid back very far, sliding all the way to the Chu Mu before stopping in front of him.

The moment she encountered a powerful opponent, Mo Xie’s vicious tendencies would inevitably be revealed!

Chu Mu creased his eyebrows as he looked at the skinny old man standing in front of Yang Luosen, and his expression clearly changed as well. This old man was able to appear in front of Yang Luosen in such a short period of time while further using the eighth rank effect Wind Dragon Bind; his strength was definitely deep and immeasurable!

“Nightmare Prince Chu, swapping pointers is just swapping pointers. There’s not a need to become a killer, right?” said the old man in a flat tone.

“I am a nameless old servant of Nightmare Palace who follows besides the Luo Region Nightmare Prince, protecting his life. If Nightmare Prince Chu can give up here, this old servant will immediately bring the Luo Region Nightmare Prince away. If you still wish to kill him, then this old servant must commit an offense.” said the nameless old servant.

Although the nameless old servant spoke very flatly, Chu Mu could clearly feel that this old fellow’s manner was a bit contemptuous and aloof. Further, he also possessed a somewhat overbearing loftiness.

“Chu Mu’s gaze coldly glared at the old man and in an indifferent tone he said: “Bring your master and scram.”

The moment Chu Mu said this, the nameless old servant immediately creased his eyebrows. Very evidently, he didn’t expect Chu Mu’s tone to be so impolite.

Yang Luosen was already gnashing his teeth at Chu Mu, since his confidence and dignity had been savaged by Chu Mu in such a way.

“Chu Mu, the only reason why I’m being rather polite to you is because you’ve received the princess’ appreciation. There are many people who are stronger than you...” the nameless old servant’s tone turned rather cold.

“Scram!” Chu Mu simply didn’t wait for this fellow who took advantage of his seniority to finish his sentence as he coldly interrupted!

The nameless old servant’s face instantly ashened. Originally, it was because of the recent clamor of the Prison Island King’s reputation and his identity as a Nightmare Palace youth that he wasn’t willing to argue with him. Yet, he didn’t expect this person from the younger generation to not be satisfied with small gains and be so condescending.

A bit of anger had already risen in the nameless old servant as he began to slowly chant an incantation...

However, the moment he finished half of his incantation, a cold mental voice transmitted into his ear: “Old fool, if you don’t scam within ten seconds, I will kill you as well!”

The nameless old man was stunned. His eye immediately scanned through the crowds of people, and he was faintly able to see multiple figures carrying a cold aura that stood like statues among the crowd...

“Xia Guanghan’s assassins...” the nameless old servant clearly didn’t realize that Chu Mu would still have so many underlings and his face turned unsightly...

This nameless old servant’s strength was definitely above these assassins, but the number of concealed Nightmare Palace assassins in the arena were numerous. The combined strength of these cold-hearted and merciless fellows made it so that killing him was absolutely not a problem.

Chapter 72: Exterminating the Yang Family (1)

“We’re leaving...” the nameless old servant’s expression was clearly rather contorted, yet he chanted his incantation and summoned an abnormally large eighth phase Storm Eagle!

Once the eighth phase Storm Eagle appeared, it immediately caused an uproar around the arena...

The nameless old servant grabbed the extremely weak Yang Luosen, and he jumped onto the eighth phase Storm Eagle’s back. He issued an order, and the Storm Eagle promptly lifted its enormous wings....

“Bring me... older brother, bring me...” Yang Luobin had already learned of Xia Guanghan, this ferocious fellow, from Yang Luosen at an earlier time. There was a high chance his clan would suffer a calamity and, seeing that the nameless old servant was bringing Yang Luosen away, he immediately began begging in a lowly manner.

“Bring him.” Yang Luosen ground his teeth and spoke to the nameless old servant.

The nameless old servant had the Storm Eagle slightly descend, but very quickly he heard Chu Mu’s ice cold voice.

“I only said that you could take your master and scram. I never gave you permission to take away people that I must kill.”

Chu Mu’s gaze coldly stared at the old man. The white colored devil flames on his body were unexpectedly burning on his exterior!

The nameless old servant’s eyes immediately let out a rather cold and ferocious expression. Evidently, he was rather angry at Chu Mu. However, knowing that Chu Mu still had numerous Nightmare Palace assassins near him, he had no choice but to swallow his words and harrumph. He ignored Yang Luobin, and he proceeded to bring Yang Luosen high into the air above the plaza as they slowly disappeared among the clouds.

“Big brother... big brother...” Yang Luobin’s expression instantly paled, and he loudly yelled towards Yang Luosen!

Yang Luosen currently had no more face left. Moreover, he had also sensed the numerous nearby Nightmare Palace assassins, which Chu Mu had brought with him. At once, he no longer dared to stay any longer and flew away with the nameless old servant.

Seeing Yang Luosen leave, Yang Luobin’s face promptly paled. He hastily left the plaza battlefield and ran towards Yang Mancan.

The person Chu Mu wanted to kill the most was Yang Luobin. How could he let this fellow flee?!

Without needing Chu Mu’s order, Mo Xie instantly flew out, and she used Death Assault on Yang Luobin!

No matter whether Yang Luobin ran or not, his speed was not faster than Mo Xie’s. In the blink of an eye, Mo Xie appeared in front of Yang Luobin!!

Yang Luobin’s face drastically changed, and he immediately chanted an incantation, wanting to summon a soul pet to protect him!

“Evil Stare!”

Chu Mu immediately issued an order to Mo Xie!

Mo Xie's demonic pupils released a silver radiance. This eye beam transformed into two, long silver swords that ferociously stabbed into Yang Luobin's mental world!

Yang Luobin was only a fourth remembrance spirit teacher; how could he defend against the sixth phase Mo Xie's mental attack? Moreover, Mo Xie's mental attack technique further received the influence of Chu Mu, this seventh remembrance spirit teacher!

As Yang Luobin began to chant an incantation, his two eyes were instantly flooded by fear and halfway through his incantation, it was promptly cut off. He was somewhat absent minded as he watched the Evil Flame Six Tailed Demon Fox extend her claws!!

“Chu Mu!! If you dare harm my son, I will definitely annihilate your Chu Family!!” In the audience, Yang Mancan, who wasn't able to save him in time, was flushed red as he used soul remembrance to yell at Chu Mu!!

Chu Mu turned his head and indifferently swept his eyes over Yang Mancan. Yet, he still let out a sneer, completely disregarding Yang Mancan's threat; he immediately gave Mo Xie an order!

Evil Flame Claw!!

Long claw blades shockingly ripped open Yang Luobin's neck!!!

“Shua!!!”

Yang Luobin was stuck in his terrified expression, but his head had already begun flying and unceasingly tumbled in the air...

“Pu Chi~~~~”

A geyser of blood abruptly spurted out of Yang Luobin’s neck. It was an obtrusive yet captivating red that caused those that saw this scene to involuntarily suck in a deep, deep breath of air!!

Yang Luobin’s body slowly fell to the ground and, as it lay there, the blood still continued to flow out from his neck...

“Beng~~” The head that flew high into the air created a bloody blossom as it splashed when it finally fell into the pool of blood...

“I’m... I’m going to kill you!!!!”

A mad roar suddenly rang out from the audience. Seeing his son being killed, Yang Mancan was like a wild beast filled with anger. He charged onto the battlefield, and his two eyes were astonishingly filled with bloody slivers!

When Chu Tianheng saw that Yang Mancan had charged onto the plaza battlefield, why would he hesitate? He immediately used Wind Ride on himself, and quickly appeared in front of Chu Mu; practically without any hesitation, he chanted an incantation!

“Eldest uncle, may I create a bloody spectacle?” seeing Chu Tianheng fly in front of him, a demonic and ruthless smile rose upon Chu Mu’s face.

Chu Tianheng was stunned and, as he looked at Chu Mu, a rather questioning look appeared on his face. Chu Mu didn’t wait for Chu Tianheng’s response. He glanced at Chu Tianheng’s seventh phase seventh stage warbeast Mo Ye and slowly raised his left arm...

Chu Mu’s killing of Yang Luobin seemed to have instantly ignited the sparks of war between the Chu and Yang Family. As Chu Tianheng and Yang Mancan faced off, all of the other Yang Family members successively poured onto the plaza battlefield.

The Chu Family people also realized that the clash between the two families had already reached its peak. Chu Ming took the initiative to use a flying type technique and flew over the plaza battlefield...

The old family head was already in a position to attack, so how could the Chu Family members still remain spellbound. In an instant, everyone used their own soul techniques to assemble around Chu Mu’s location.

The two large families of people seemed to all have been gathered in the plaza battlefield; both sides had 56 people each. If they were to summon their soul pets, there would definitely be over 100 soul pets on this plaza battlefield!

It had always been a rare occurrence for a large scale massacre to appear in Gangluo City, because the Yang Family had always overseen the city. However, this time, sparks were flying between all of the people from both the Chu and Yang Family. As long as these sparks were ignited, there definitely would be a large war with a few hundred soul pets on the plaza battlefield!

“Chu Tianheng, I’ll give you ten seconds to hand over Chu Mu so I can personally slaughter this half-breed. Otherwise, today I will definitely massacre your entire Chu Family!!” Yang Mancan had already entered a state of near eruption. His entire being adopted the malevolent and terrifying manner of the seventh phase eighth stage Blood Wing Trioptic Beast that he had summoned.

How could Chu Tianheng hand over Chu Mu? He stood next to his seventh phase seventh stage warbeast Mo Ye without any fear of Yang Mancan’s threat!

“Father, our overall strength is weak, we aren’t the Yang Family’s opponents.” Chu Tianjue glanced at the grave face of Chu Ming and whispered to him.

Matter Having just arrived here, Chu Ming also knew that a great battle was unavoidable. His gaze was keen as he stared at the old Yang Kuo, who continued to sit in the audience with a strange expression!

The over one hundred people from the Yang and Chu Families both had their members use their soul remembrance and were in the process of chanting an incantation. The moment the family head from either side gave the order, there would definitely be a chaotic fight between hundreds of soul pets on the battlefield!

“Sto... Stop, everyone retreat!!”

Suddenly, a loud voice rang through the air of the plaza battlefield!

Everyone was stunned, and their eyes all fell on the old city lord Yang Kuo who sat in his seat with a very puzzling expression.

In reality, many people had noticed that the old city lord Yang Kuo had been abnormal today. During the fight, Chu Mu had killed five young experts of the Yang Family and, moreover, killed Yang Kuo's eldest son's eldest son. In any moment, a great fight was about to erupt. However, Yang Kuo had decided to reach a compromise at this exact moment.

The Yang Family's power was clearly above the Chu Family's. If they were to truly begin fighting, their Yang Family would pay a bit of a price, but would definitely be able to eliminate the Chu Family. Nobody could understand why Yang Kuo would suddenly interfere with this fight!

"Father, what are you..." Yang Mancan had a face of astonishment, as he stared at his own father. The bulging veins on his face were still twitching!

"I said to stop. Could it be you didn't hear me?!!!" angrily roared Yang Kuo!!

Yang Mancan's face was already both black and blue. His entire body trembled, and he clearly could not control the burning anger in his mind. Yet, Yang Kuo had issued this order to compromise!

Chu Mu looked at Yang Kuo, and a smile appeared on his face as the corners of his mouth drew back. He slowly put down the hand he had raised in the air...

Such a simple gesture, yet it had a completely different meaning. This was because as long as Chu Mu closed his left fist, then it would mean that the thousands of members in the Yang Family residence would be buried in a sea of fire!

"Father, could it be that you want me to swallow..." Yang Mancan's face was twitching. He was about to release his anger towards his father, but halfway through his words, numerous black figures jumped out from the crowd. Each one of them stood coldly like ice around the confrontation of the two factions. They emitted a killing intent that caused others to tremble all over!

The black figures continued to increase and before long, there unexpectedly were over fifty extremely ice-cold soul pet trainers. All of these soul pet trainers let off an ice cold feeling, and there wasn't any trace of emotion emitting from their eyes. Instead, their gazes were extremely penetrating!

"This is..." the faces of the Yang Family members that covered nearly seventy meters immediately changed. They stared at the extremely cold Nightmare Palace assassins!

50 Nightmare Palace assassins. Every one of them had the strength of a spirit teacher. Moreover, each one of these assassins had a terrifying Nightmare that could directly destroy a soul pet's soul with fire. The moment these fifty Nightmares were summoned and their soul devil fires were simultaneously released, a majority of the Yang Family would be injured!!

An ice cold frosty aura engulfed the plaza battlefield, and the temperature suddenly dropped. Everyone was able to feel the strange atmosphere, and the spectators on the surrounding outside were very clearly conscious about the possibility of a large chaotic fight breaking out. Those that were afraid of suffering from collateral damage began to flusteredly leave this place!

The Chu Family had about fifty people in total, and among them were many who hadn't reached the spirit teacher level. The Yang Family's strength easily surpassed the Chu Family's.

Nonetheless, as these fifty Nightmare Palace members stood still like statues here, the Yang Family members didn't dare to move at all. The flames of anger that burned through Yang Mancan's body presently had no choice but to be suppressed!

Seeing the fifty Nightmare Palace assassins, the old city lord, Yang Kuo's face was extremely unsightly. Presently, he had no choice but to watch from the high seat onto the plaza battlefield. If he couldn't resolve the grievances this time, their Yang Family would definitely be thoroughly eradicated today.

“Chu Ming, the grievances between our two families has lasted a long time, but in reality, there was never a profound bloody sea debt. Currently, the conflicts between our two families has arrived here. If we were to start a large fight, it wouldn’t be of any benefit to either of our two families. Therefore, wouldn’t it be better if we sat down and slowly talked it out?” the attitude of the old city lord, Yang Kuo, had completely changed.

Listening to Yang Kuo’s words, everyone was extremely shocked. When had the perpetually arrogant and despotic Yang Kuo become so lowly? As for the Chu Family, which had suffered from the Yang Family’s resentments, none of them were convinced, as they looked at this old city lord which would do anything to eradicate the Chu Family.

Nevertheless, Yang Kuo had no choice but to quietly quell his anger. There were fifty Nightmare Palace assassins standing there. Additionally, there was still a portion of them hiding outside their old Yang Family residence. At any moment, they could thoroughly burn down their ancestral residence.

In front of him, there were at least fifty Chu Family spirit teachers. Adding on the Nightmare Palace assassins, this amount of strength was enough to sweep through all of Gangluo City’s factions. If Yang Kuo’s attitude were to even be a bit more unyielding, blood would definitely spill on this battlefield!

“Nightmare Prince Chu, my grandson Yang Luobin has committed may offenses in the past. It is because I, Yang Kuo, did not teach him strictly enough. Now that you’ve already killed him, then regard it as resolving the grievances in the past. In my opinion, if we were to start fighting, your Chu Family will probably suffer injuries and deaths. This is a bit of a hindrance to your Chu Family. Why don’t we gently resolve things instead... I, Yang Kuo, can promise that the territories and industries that used to belong to your Chu Family will all be returned to you. Moreover, our Yang Family will also confer one fourth of our territory to your Chu Family, and one third of our industry profits into your Chu Family’s account books. Why don’t you treat this as payment for the grievances in the past and also as our Yang Family’s sincerity to coexist with your Chu Family in Gangluo City. As for the other details, we can still sit down and slowly talk it out. There’s no need to gather here...”

Yang Kuo's face full of wrinkles would become as petty and low as he needed it to be. Those who knew Yang Kuo were a bit unbelieving, as this now deferential fellow was really that hegemonic and capriciously mule headed Gangluo City city lord.

Chu Ming and Chu Tianheng, these two people in charge of the Chu Family, had their eyes on Chu Mu. Chu Mu's current identity wasn't ordinary. Moreover, he had fifty Nightmare Palace assassins that were comparable to a clan's power. Whatever Chu Mu, who had complete control over the situation, said went.

"I don't want territory or industry. I only want a small amount of circulating capital." Chu Mu barely hesitated before indifferently speaking at Yang Kuo.

Chu Mu's words caused everyone to feel a bit surprised, because the current situation was extremely clear cut. As long as Chu Mu gave an order, with a small price to pay, the group of Yang Family people would definitely be all eliminated. If he was even a bit more unyielding, then perhaps the entire Gangluo City would belong to the Chu Family.

Of course, there were others that faintly let out a sigh of relief. After all, the casualties of a large fight between clans was extremely disastrous. A small careless mistake, and it could deal a fatal blow to the entire clan.

"This... this is easy, this is easy. As long as the Nightmare Prince Chu is willing to give me such face, we will do our utmost best to confer the capital to Nightmare Prince Chu." Yang Kuo instantly put on a smile.

"Then I invite the old city lord to be a guest of our Chu Family for a few days to discuss the agreement, conditions, payments, the contract and others?" Chu Tianheng seemed to understand what Chu Mu wanted to do, and he immediately spoke to Yang Kuo.

Chu Tianheng's words clearly indicated that they wanted a hostage in order to prevent the shameless acts of the Yang Family.

"Father, you can't..." Yang Mancan's blood had already risen to his throat. A little bit more, and it would be spat out in anger. Only, he could see that in the current predicament, if he were to truly make an attack, the one who would die would definitely be him. Moreover, just now, Yang Kuo had used soul remembrance to tell Yang Mancan that there were Nightmare Palace assassins hiding in the family residence.

"Don't worry, don't worry. Such a matter has to be slowly talked over." Yang Kuo's face was all black, but he was still able to feign a smile as he accepted the conditions in an extremely sullen manner.

After agreeing to be their hostage, the old city lord strode forward in solitude and, with incomparable difficulty, walked towards the Chu Family's side.

Yang Kuo, this old fellow, naturally needed Chu Ming to be looked after. Chu Ming immediately stood next to Yang Kuo, and silently chanted an incantation, sealing Yang Kuo's soul remembrance. For a short period of time, Yang Kuo would not be able to use soul techniques or summon soul pets.

After his abilities were sealed, Yang Kuo glanced over at Chu Mu and said: "This old fellow is already so sincere..."

Yang Kuo knew now that everything Chu Mu said went. If Chu Mu didn't nod his head, a massacre was unavoidable.

Chu Mu nodded his head, but didn't give any more conditions.

“Then... then I would invite Nightmare Prince Chu to withdraw your people from my Yang Family residence...” humbly said Yang Kuo.

Yang Kuo’s words immediately caused a wave of shock to run through the Chu and Yang Family people. All of their eyes fell on Chu Mu.

The battle strength of fifty Nightmare Palace assassins was already extremely terrifying. Yet, this still wasn’t all of Chu Mu’s subordinates. Some of them were unexpectedly still hiding outside the Yang Family residence...In this moment, everyone came to a sudden understanding. They also understood why the old Yang Kuo would beg for reconciliation at this moment like an old dog. Simultaneously, everyone felt a shudder; Chu Mu had unexpectedly already predicted all of this would happen. Before the Recommendation had even arrived, he had sent a group of assassins to hide in the Yang Family’s empty residence. Such a method was truly fierce enough!

However, just as everyone felt endlessly shocked by the faction strength of Chu Mu, Chu Mu’s next words nearly caused Yang Kuo and Yang Mancan to spurt out a mouthful of blood!

“All my people are here.”

Yang Kuo had been captured as a hostage. Without this old city lord, who in the entire city of Gangluo City would be able to suppress the Chu Family’s Chu Ming, this spirit master? Therefore, the Yang Family presently didn’t dare to make any rash moves. After the matters between the two families during the plaza battlefield had died down, Yang Mancan, who now held power, could only obediently transfer a large amount of the family capital to ransom back the old city lord.

After this matter had passed, Chu Mu's name was known by everyone in Gangluo City. Many days later, the entire Gangluo City was still in a restless state, because there were many people who had predicted that Chu Mu, this Nightmare Palace Nightmare Prince's intervention would cause the entire structure of Gangluo City to completely change. It was very likely that the Chu Family could come to control everything in Gangluo City.

As for those in the Chu Family, Chu Mu's position naturally rose to the top. Everyone looked up at Chu Mu with deferential and respectful gazes; many of those who had offended Chu Mu in the past had offered a humble apology in hopes that Chu Mu, who possessed a force that could rival a clan, would be magnanimous.

For things in the past, Chu Mu was simply disinclined to be bothered about it. He further didn't have the inclination to dig up those in the family who had used to look down on him. In Chu Mu's eyes, these people were already a group of lowly people who didn't have any significance. No matter how much they praised, Chu Mu wouldn't be moved at all.

"Chu Mu, eldest uncle said that the Yang Family has sold several of their territories and has already sent 10 million gold coins..." Chu Ying intentionally ran to Chu Mu's room to speak to him.

After the Recommendation, Chu Ying's attitude towards Chu Mu had done a 180 degree turn. A smile was always worn on her face, and she no longer dared to have a grumbling appearance.

Chu Mu wasn't interested in Chu Ying's appearance and, in reality, Chu Ying would only slander and mock Chu Mu in her words. Perhaps it could be said that those who she didn't look well upon with would be unrestrainedly cursed at. Chu Mu, who understood this eldest young lady's temperament, naturally wouldn't bicker about the matters of the past.

"Mhm, almost there." Chu Mu nodded his head. After speaking, Chu Mu left his courtyard and went towards Chu Tianheng's residence.

Chu Ying still wanted to say something else, but when she saw that Chu Mu wasn't paying any attention to her, she felt a wave of disappointment. Despite wanting to follow him, she didn't dare.

"Young master, you're planning on letting the Yang Family go just like that? But the Yang Family has done such excessive things to you." asked Ting Yu who was following beside to Chu Mu.

Ting Yu essentially understood Chu Mu a bit now. What made her feel a bit outrageous was that Chu Mu's attitude towards the Yang Family seemed to be a bit lenient. Unexpectedly, he only wanted a bit of capital to resolve the grievances between the two families.

Chu Mu looked at Ting Yu and cracked open a smile, saying: "Did I say that I would let them go just like this?"

"Then young master's intention is..."

When he walked into Chu Tianheng's courtyard, Chu Tianheng was seated on a stone chair with a letter in his hands that he was reading.

"Eldest uncle." Chu Mu walked in front of Chu Tianheng.

"Eh, it's Chu Mu." Chu Tianheng nodded at Chu Mu and had him take a seat next to him.

Chu Tianheng saw that Chu Mu's gaze happened to be on the letter in his hand and he immediately smiled and explained: "It's your elder sister Chu Xian. She currently has become an outstanding figure within the inner clans disciples. With a few years of training, she should be able to rank in Luo Region's young battle ranking."

Speaking of Chu Xian, Chu Tianheng's eyes revealed a somewhat gratified expression.

"It's been a long time since I've seen older sister Xian Xian." said Chu Mu.

Chu Mu's memory of Chu Xian was rather profound. She had a beautiful face and a moving body. She always gave others a feeling of young vigor. No matter who it was, he or she would easily be influenced by her smile and beauty. Amongst the entire Gangluo City, Chu Xian's reputation was even above Qin Menger's.

A few years earlier, Chu Xian had been regarded as important by the Great Chu Family and been chosen as an inner courtyard disciple. She had already been cultivating in the Great Chu Family for a long time now.

"She mentioned that she would return to Gangluo City in a year..." said Chu Tianheng.

"Oh, then eldest uncle can write back telling her she doesn't need to return to Gangluo City." said Chu Mu.

Chu Tianheng was stunned. He put away the letter in his hands and stared at Chu Mu.

"Eldest uncle should understand my intentions." said Chu Mu.

Chu Mu essentially understood Chu Tianheng rather well. Chu Tianheng was a steady person, and he was able to hold his temper during a lot of things. Moreover, when he truly was going to make a move, Chu Tianheng definitely would not be compassionate or lenient. He could be classified as a swift person with decisive reactions. In this regard, Chu Mu felt that it fit the demeanor of a family head better than his always apprehensive grandfather, Chu Ming.

Chu Tianheng obviously understood Chu Mu's intentions. Back then, at the Recommendation, Chu Mu had asked him whether he wanted to see a bloody spectacle.

"I understand. Only, how do I put it, that Gangluo City has also been our foundation for 100 years..." said Chu Tianheng.

"This Luo Region is the Yang Family's territory. We will only suffer restrictions here. Moreover, after this affair is over, the Yang Shi Family will definitely interfere..." said Chu Mu.

Chu Tianheng stared at Chu Mu. Looking at Chu Mu's decisive eyes, he suddenly saw the reflection of a certain person and the trace of a bitter smile appeared on his face: "I've already discussed this matter with your grandfather..."

"Grandfather should already understand then." said Chu Mu.

Chu Tianheng hesitated a while. Ostensibly finally making his decision, he said: "Since you want to kill, then be a bit more thorough. Eliminate the root of the problem so that future problems don't arise!"

A bewildered night. A slightly cold and ghostly moonlight slowly fell onto Gangluo City in the dead of night. On Gangluo City's empty streets, in the intricately laced alleyways, a few black figures could be faintly seen flitting by one second, disappearing the next.....

Black clouds rolled gently, and starlight leaked through. Within the leaked glow, black wing typed organisms flew past silently, lifting a wave of cold air as they lightly breezed past the somewhat empty city.

Between the uneven architecture, the night invader Dream Beast maneuvered its elegant and evilly handsome body magnificently through the city skies as it ran straight for the Yang Family mansion.

The night was a Dream Beast's heaven because they could make dreamlands however they pleased.

Furthermore, the dark type Night Thunder Dream Beast was even more the darling of the night. It was full of intelligence and demonic nature, and it also had an arrogance and wildness about it that caused it to look down upon all other trivial and ugly creatures. The dreamlands that he brought were definitely not fake, but of the most real terror!

At this time, it was indeed Chu Mu that was riding his sixth phase first stage Night Thunder Dream Beast through the night skies of Gangluo City. After reaching the sixth phase, the Night Thunder Dream Beast's body shape hadn't changed much. However, its arched dream horns and feathers that smoothly extended until its tail had undergone a clear change. Possessing a Dark Type caused the Night Thunder Dream Beast to be full of the characteristics of darkness and evil. The lightning reserved within its black and flowing feathers added even more to his wildness.

The Night Thunder Dream Beast also had the ability to leap into the night. Once Chu Mu slowly neared the Yang Family mansion, the night's darling ran into the night sky and finally merged completely into it. Even the many soul pets outside of the Yang Family's mansion with strong detective abilities wouldn't be able to capture Night Thunder Dream Beast's Night Dance.

“Night, let these guys feel the power of an invader of the night!” Chu Mu looked down at the Yang Family mansion and said to Night Thunder Dream Beast.

The Night Thunder Dream Beast slowly descended from a high place with vaguely visible dark energy ripples between its two curved dream horns.....

“Dream Underworld!!!”

Dream Underworld- the Night Thunder Dream Beast’s advanced technique. It was a demon type mirage technique castable only at night!

Dreams noiselessly floated into the thoughts of all the Yang Family members. The Yang Family guards patrolling unknowingly felt an irresistible sleepiness attack them, causing even the soul pets that accompanied them to yawn endlessly.

The dream beast’s techniques were one of the most bizarre among the demon type. In Gangluo City, there was almost no one who owned a Dream Beast, so the people of the Yang Family would never have thought that a sixth phase Dream Beast had unknowingly trapped twenty family patrols in a dream land already.

“Chong Mei - Dream Underworld!

Chu Mu’s pupils slowly let out a dark, star-like glow. This glow gradually morphed into a dreamy dark pulse that slowly spread nearby. Quickly, another round of guards that were replacing the first round also fell onto the ground along with their soul pets.....

Wisps of deep blue soul flames slowly rose. It's cold radiance calmly started burning, causing those guards who fell into a dream to turn into ashes without feeling any pain. “Chu Nightmare Prince, twenty killers and thirty Devil Attendants are ready for action.” The Killer leader He Lang said.

As he spoke, the killer leader specially glanced at the slowly disintegrating bodies, and he was secretly surprised. Though this Night Thunder Dream Beast hadn't been summoned at the Recommendation, its power to control dreams was very scary. Additionally, Chu Mu was himself a Seventh Remembrance spirit teacher. Together, they easily dealt with a large batch of Yang Family patrols.....

“En, release your demons.” Chu Mu nodded and told He Lang.

“Yes!” He Lang saluted, and he immediately passed on a command to all the Nightmare Palace members.

Most of the demons had special restrictive abilities that could secretly control demons and kill them effortlessly.

As a killer, what they needed wasn't only a destructive evil soul pet like the Nightmare, but also a demon type soul pet that could stealthily dismantle their enemies. This way, they could kill people before the enemy even had time to summon their soul pet.

Dark night, silence. Only within Yang Family could the occasional clamor be heard. However, these people even now didn't know that the entire Yang Family's outer defenses had already been dismantled by Nightmare Palace's demons.....

“Yi~~~~~”

All of the Chu Family and Nightmare Palace experts had already shown themselves. A sharp sound of a flare blew up in the air and, immediately, over hundreds of soul pet trainers summoned all their long ranged soul pets.....

A long stream of incantations started around the entire Yang Family mansion. Colorful lights immediately appeared, creating a magnificent ring of light around the center of Gangluo City.

In the next moment, sounds of air whistling could be heard!!

The Fifty Nightmare Palace members each had a Cyan Nightmare or Blue Nightmare. All of their soul flames were used to cast the sixth rank fire type technique Molten Fury, crazily exploding in clumps onto the Yang Family’s mansion. Cyan and blue soul flames instantly shrouded the entirety of the Yang Family’s residence, causing shrill screams to start!

“Huhuhuhuhu~~~~”

A large wind violently started, causing a banshee-like screeching sound to start. Immediately, a ten meter tall whirlwind that spiraled into the night sky brought with it millions of rapidly dancing wind blades.....

Before the fire type techniques even withered away, the wind type technique rolled in. A large part of the residence collapsed under the fire that had been scattered all over the place. Between the scattered flames and the ruined residence, one could see the Yang Family members covering their heads and sneaking away like rats.....

Devil flames and wind were only the beginning. Large area of effect abilities quickly followed in the ruthless shower of abilities!!

The sky was covered in the roar of ice. It became a world of ice and snow, freezing the Yang Family and causing everything to fall into fragments amidst the chaos!

The ground split, allowing shocking rock spires to poke upwards and destroy all the houses. They even penetrated some soul pet trainers who didn't summon their soul pets in time!

The dazzling golden light burned with a combination of Light Type and Fire Type. No matter how wide and open the Yang Family residence was, there still was nowhere to escape to!!

Hundreds of soul pet techniques barraged them. The entire Yang Family, under the continuous attack, was quickly destroyed. Burnt to a crisp, frozen, cauterized. There were even a few members who were buried alive in their sleep.....

Immediately, the entirety of Gangluo City was filled with terrifying beast roars. There were over 100 Chu Family and Yang Family experts, and almost every person had two or more close range beast type soul pet. After switching and summoning, the roaring was even more deafening!!!

“Longlonglong!!!!!!!!!!”

The tall outer walls were easily toppled, and the beast wave rolled forward, booming and reducing any obstacle to rubble!!

The genocidal war had started, and the entirety of Gangluo City was startled. In every street and alley, scared shouts could be heard. The wealthy merchants who lived near the Yang Family staggered towards the smoke-filled area of massacre!!

With such a commotion within Gangluo City, it naturally alarmed both the Qin Family and Zhou Family. These two families thought that the battle between families had been settled over at the Recommendation, and hadn't thought that it would be reignited on such a calm night!!

The blood was crimson and eye-shocking. The two families observing from afar didn't intend to interfere at all. Of course, if one party interfered, then the other would definitely not just remain indifferent!

The flames of war blazed through the city, and it caused smoke to fill the air!

When the full moon reached its apex, the battle had converted towards a large scaled skirmish. Chu Tianheng led the Chu Family Guard into the Yang Family's inner residence and fought head on with the Yang Family's soul pet trainers within the ruins!

Chu Tianheng's seventh phase seventh stage Mo Ye was matched against Yang Mansen's seventh phase eighth stage Blood Winged Trioptic Beast. These two strongest beast type soul pets had a powerful impact. Often, one could see a patch of fifth phase soul pets knocked away during the battle between these two beast type soul pets.

Yet Chu Ming, who was even stronger than Yang Kuo, was a key member in this slaughter. His eighth phase commander rank Light Rhinoceros was the single most terrifying soul pet in Gangluo City. Even the old Yang Kuo had to fear it somewhat. Today, that eighth phase Light Rhinoceros was almost unstoppable. Even the vice family head Yang Ling was effortlessly trampled on!

Chu Ming was a spirit master, able to summon four soul pets. Yet, of his soul pets, other than a few old timer experts of Yang Family that could somewhat fend him off, there wasn't a single other soul pet trainer that could. He alone was enough to fight all the experts of his generation within the Yang Family. Yang Kuo's brother and cousins were almost all killed by the techniques of Chu Ming's four soul pets!

The Yang Family's second generation experts were lead by Yang Mansen. The second strongest, Yang Mantian, had long since been killed by Chu Mu. The rest of the people quickly engaged with Chu Tianling and Chu Tianjue. Chu Mu, who should've gone for the third generation Yang Family members, directly joined the battle of the second generations!

The Yang Family's third generation experts had already all been killed by Chu Mu. Chu Xing, Chu Lang, and Chu Ying and the other third generation members were more than enough to deal with the rest and clean it up!

As for all of the Yang Family's external experts and loyal servants, they had either run away, died, or been dealt with by the Nightmare Palace killers and Devil Attendants!

Chapter 74: Exterminating the Yang Family (3)

Yang Mancan was already fuming with anger. He never would've thought that the Yang Family would be in such a position because of a trash that should've died four years ago.

Yang Mancan's eyes were fiercely fixed upon Chu Mu. Suddenly, he let out an angry roar, " Even if I die, I'll kill you!!!!"

Yang Mancan's eighth phase sixth stage servant rank was originally fighting with Chu Tianheng's seventh phase first stage Light Rhinoceros. After suddenly struggling free, it actually ran straight towards Chu Mu, who was currently killing Yang Kuo's fourth son, Yang Fu.

"Chu Mu, careful!!" Chu Tianheng communicated with Chu Mu through remembrance immediately!

Chu Mu quickly started an incantation, and added a layer of Ice Armor to himself!

The Ice Armor's effects could allow Chu Mu's defense to reach near eighth rank. Unless Yang Mancan's eighth phase sixth stage servant rank Bloodthirsty Beast's claws were above the eighth rank, it was impossible for it to breach Chu Mu's defense.

Servant ranks might easily make it to the eighth phase, but Yang Mancan's Bloodthirsty Beast's claws were clearly only at the seventh rank. Adding on the effects of Blood Ripping Claw, it could just barely break Chu Mu's defense.

"Shua!!!!!"

A scratch went past, and it left a bloody line on Chu Mu's chest. This wound wasn't deep, though, as it just barely ripped through Chu Mu's skin.

"Wuwuwu!!!!!"

Seeing Chu Mu hurt, Mo Xie immediately let out an angry roar!

Mo Xie immediately broke away from her opponent and cast Death Assault, becoming a silver blur that went towards the Bloodthirsty Beast, knocking a few soul pets in front of her away on the way!

“Six Tail Lock!”

Chu Mu calmly stared at the Bloodthirsty Beast who continued to attack, and he commanded Mo Xie!

Under the effects of Violent Blood Pupil, Mo Xie’s power was already at the sixth phase eighth stage. Her silver body passed right in front of the three meter long Bloodthirsty Beast. Her long and chain-like six tails flipped upwards, and they actually lifted up the three meter long Bloodthirsty Beast!!

“Wuwuwu!!!!

Mo Xie let out an angry roar at the cold moonlight. Immediately, a pale glow fell upon Mo Xie, and her massive demonic aura was released at the same moment!!!

Feeling such a powerful aura, everyone nearby immediately let out expressions of shock, eyeing the devilish Evil Flamed Six Tailed Demon Fox that contributed to everyone’s shock!!

The gentle yet gorgeous Evil Flamed Six Tailed Demon Fox’s silver fur danced in the air. Compared to the Bloodthirsty Beast’s three meter body, she seemed relatively fragile, but this Bloodthirsty Beast was directly picked up by the tail lock of hers and raised high up!!

“Gezhigezhigezhi~~~~~”

The six tails started constricting, causing a hair raising sound to rise. The Six Tail Lock's follow up technique, Bone Lock, caused a soul pet's muscles and bones to be rawly snapped by the six long tails!!!

Under the effects of Violent Blood Pupil, Mo Xie's power was already at the sixth phase eighth stage. With the species ability kept through Mo Xie's mutations, under the effects of Moonlight, her power spiked up even further. Six Tailed Lock's power was even more terrifying than Mo Xie's claws. Even an eighth phase sixth stage Bloodthirsty beast couldn't block an attack from Mo Xie at her peak!

Bones twisted. The powerful and hard to defeat eighth phase sixth stage Bloodthirsty Beast was crippled under this scary atmosphere.....

However, Mo Xie's Six Tail Lock followup abilities hadn't finished. The splendid silver fox tails suddenly burst into demon fire evil flames, burning the eighth phase sixth stage Bloodthirsty Beast's body!

After seeing this scene, Yang Mancan's face paled. The following evil flames that invaded also instantly burnt his soul!

Seeing Yang Mancan's soul damaged, how could Chu Tianheng let go of this opportunity? Immediately, he commanded his seventh phase Light Rhinoceros to attack Yang Mancan!

Horn Kill!

The Light Rhinoceros morphed into a massive diamond shaped light horn, and its long horn drove straight through Yang Mancan's fifth rank soul armor defense, piercing his body!

"Ao!!!!" The Light Rhinoceros whipped its head upwards, and Yang Mancan's body was thrown straight up!!

The Light Rhinoceros then leapt upwards, its two claws ripping two dazzling and intersecting light blades into the air!!!

"Shuashua!!!!" As the two claws ripped open the dark night, it also shredded Yang Mancan's body to pieces!!

Blood and meat fell from the skies and onto the ground, disgustingly pasting onto the floor.....

Seeing Yang Mancan's dead body, all of the Yang Family members were dazed. Once Yang Mancan was dead, who else could stop Chu Tianheng's soul pets?!

After killing Yang Mancan, Chu Tianheng swiftly commanded his soul pets to defeat the remaining soul pets of Yang Mancan.

"Chu Mu, are you alright?" Chu Tianheng looked at the mark on Chu Mu's chest and asked.

"It's of no importance." Chu Mu glanced at the Yang Family mansion which was in ruins, and he opened his mouth to say, "Uncle, we're more or less done."

Once Yang Mancan died, the Yang Family had no power left to defend. Very quickly, the battle became a one-sided slaughter.

Blood soaked the floors, reddening a large area, and even soaking into the streets. Soul pet corpses and human corpses were strewn everywhere.....

Before dawn, there was always the darkest part of the night. Yet, as this moment came, the entirety of Yang Family only had the defenseless, the old, the pregnant, or the weak.

Nightmare Palace killers had no feelings of pity. As long as they were on the enemy's side, they would kill them all ruthlessly, definitively leaving none alive.

The Chu Family was different. They only got rid of Yang Family's soul pet trainers and, as long as the rest weren't in the way, they wouldn't kill them.

"What do we do about the rest of these people?" Chu Xing glanced at the remaining hundred members of Yang Family.....

Chu Tianheng looked immediately to Chu Mu, wanting to know Chu Mu's solution. From what Chu Tianheng understood, with Chu Mu's current status in Nightmare Palace, he wouldn't have any mercy for these people. After all, there were a few young generation trainers of the Yang Family still alive.

"Uncle, bring our Family members and leave, this Luo Region isn't fit for us anymore." Chu Mu didn't look at the remaining Yang Family members and said to Chu Tianheng.

"And those people?" Chu Tianheng said surprised.

“Let them perish by themselves.” Chu Mu said lightly, yet not providing any explanation for his actions.

Chu Tianheng blanked, and his eyes observed Chu Mu, yet he couldn’t read even a little hint of mercy in Chu Mu’s cold and apathetic eyes.

“Okay, let’s leave here.” Chu Tianheng nodded and didn’t ask Chu Mu for a reason, as he started to gather all the members of direct descent of Chu Family.

In reality, before they even started to exterminate all of the Yang Family, the Chu Family had already quietly sold all of their wealth, and they were ready to start a Family migration with everything they had.

The suggestion of migrating the Family was raised by Chu Mu. In the entire Luo Region, other than the Luo Region Sect with experts everywhere, it was almost the land of Yang Family’s everywhere. Dealing such a destructive blow to Gangluo City’s Yang Family meant they would definitely suffer revenge from the Luo Region Yang Family, so the Chu Family definitely couldn’t stay in the Luo Region for any longer.

In reality, from the very beginning, Chu Mu had already made plans to migrate the Family, so when the Yang Family suggested a peaceful solution, Chu Mu only wanted the Yang Family to pay enough money. As for territory and industries, he didn’t ask for them because of the Family migration this time.

This time, the Chu Family’s migration only included all the direct descendants of Chu Ming as well as important Family servants. Before Chu Mu returned to Gangluo City, the Chu Family was weakening by the day, and non-direct descendant members were fewer and fewer. Because of that, after making the decision of moving the Family, Chu Ming and Chu Tianheng also bluntly dismissed all those who weren’t core members, and they started a migration.

The location of migration had been discussed a few days ago, and they planned to move to South Region, which was even more south than the Wo Gu Region.

Now, the Chu Family had pillaged near 30 million gold's worth of assets. Adding on the selling of all Chu Family property, they had almost 60 million gold. Once these assets were brought to the South Region, they could buy any piece of land and make it the base of the Family for future development.

30 million was enough to buy a seventh level territory. With a seventh level territory, the Chu Family could barely return back to its original state. Rather than trying to develop under the suppression of the Yang Family in the Luo Region, they might as well just exterminate the Yang Family of Gangluo City and migrate to the more remote yet less restricted South Region in order to create a land of Chu Family.

Of course, Chu Mu had another very important reason for telling the Family to migrate.

Having the Hidden Dragon Egg that was split off from the Empyrean Cyan Hidden Dragon, Chu Mu knew that many people wanted it. If Chu Mu stayed as Xia Guanghan's subordinate and Xia Guanghan found out, with Xia Guanghan's character, he would definitely kill him with no mercy and steal the Hidden Dragon Egg.

However, the Hidden Dragon Egg wasn't Chu Mu's greatest worry. His real worry was still the continuously mutating Mo Xie. Xia Guanghan had already seen Chu Mu's Moonlight Fox on Cyan Nightmare Main Island.

Three years later, Chu Mu owned a Evil Flamed Six Tail Demon Fox, and after a while, if Mo Xie continued to mutate, Xia Guanghan would definitely realize that Chu Mu wasn't just switching soul pets and that it was his Moonlight Fox mutating instead.

A continuously mutating soul pet was truly a priceless treasure that would make anyone's eyes red. Continuing as Xia Guanghan's subordinate was definitely very dangerous, so Chu Mu wanted to leave Xia Guanghan's control in the near future.

Freeing himself of Xia Guanghan's control wasn't too hard, yet his Family in Gangluo City could easily be affected because of him. If they moved to somewhere far away, Xia Guanghan would be hard pressed to take revenge on the Chu Family, and Chu Mu would then be no longer bound by anything, becoming truly free.

Chapter 75: Advancement, Eighth Remembrance Spirit Teacher

Dawn broke, dispelling the darkest moments of the night.

As the first morning light fell, what twinkled under it wasn't the usual dew on the plants in the Yang Clan's mansion, but was crimson blotches.

This ray of sun witnessed a revolution of Gangluo City in the past ten years. The largest and most powerful Yang Clan of Gangluo City, in one night, was strewn with corpses and bathed in blood, leaving less than one hundred dependents shivering in the blood, with the rest running away. The old city master mansion was now blood-stained grounds.

Yet, one of the four big clans of Gangluo City, the Chu Clan, also disappeared without a trace. No one noticed when this clan left. It was as if they had evaporated into thin air, leaving only messy horse tracks that lead eastward.

Gangluo City's east side had two roads, one was northeast towards the Jia Region, and the other went towards Huiyan City, which was the road at where Chu Mu had robbed the Yang Clan's money.

On the way to the Jia Region, Chu Mu rode his Night Thunder Dream Beast along to constantly create messy horse prints.....

Chu Mu originally only wanted to check when it would rain, but he unexpectedly noticed a fire red organism fly close by from Gangluo City.

The fire red organism slowly approached Chu Mu, and it fell in front of him.

Chu Mu recognized this organism. It was naturally Qing Menger’s Flame Bird, and the person on it was the gentle and moving Qing Menger.

Seeing Qing Menger, Chu Mu smiled and asked, “What is it?”

“Are you leaving?” Qing Menger’s gaze flickered. Before, Qing Menger had heard from Chu Mu that after he was done with the Yang Clan, he would leave. Thus, once the bloodbath ended, Qing Menger immediately headed towards the Chu Clan, only to find that everyone had left already, so she chased the horse prints east.

“En, there’s still much to do.” Chu Mu said.

Chu Mu had already heard some news of his father from Chu Tianheng and Chu Mu, but Chu Mu temporarily couldn’t go searching for his father, because Nightmare Palace had already sent him news to meet up with Princess Jinrou at the Jia Region.

To garner the most time for the Chu Clan to finish migrating, Chu Mu still couldn't openly disobey the wishes of Nightmare Palace. Therefore, Chu Mu still had to go to the Jia Region to look after Princess Jinrou.

"Then.....then we.....how will I be able to find you....." As she spoke, Qing Menger's eyes already started tearing up. When there is a slight loss of control in emotions, tears will start falling.

"There's no need. You can cultivate well in the Luo Region Sect, and the Gangluo City will become the city of the Qin Clan....." Chu Mu looked at the poor Qing Menger. In reality, most of Chu Mu's feelings for her were brotherly love and nothing more. As for the marriage, it seemed to have long since been disbanded, and only Qing Menger herself still cared about it.....

As Chu Mu saw it, after the clan moved, he probably wouldn't have anymore interactions with Qing Menger, unless she was willing to move with his own clan to the South Region.

"Why is there no need....." Qing Menger felt that Chu Mu didn't care about her, and tears instantly slid down her cheek, as she looked awfully wronged.

"I won't stay here, if there's a chance in the future.....let's leave that for the future." Chu Mu extended his hand and wiped the tears off of the pitiful girl.

Qing Menger looked teary eyed at Chu Mu and murmured, "I have something to tell you....."

"Maybe next time, saying it now isn't meaningful." Chu Mu shook his head and glanced at the flickering shadows within the forest.

Chu Mu had already disbanded all of the Nightmare Palace's killers. These killers were Xia Guanghan's people, so Chu Mu didn't wish for them to find out the direction of the Chu Clan's migration. Yet, if Qing Menger kept in contact with him now, once he struggled free from Xia Guanghan, Qing Menger could very likely become a target of Xia Guanghan.

Qing Menger looked dazed at Chu Mu. The Chu Mu four years later suddenly felt incomprehensibly foreign. Such unfamiliarity made it hard for her to stop her tears.

"I wanted to tell you since last time....." Qing Menger seemed to muster the courage, yet she then she remembered the embarrassing nature of her next sentence and lowered her head, unable to look at Chu Mu's eyes.....

Finally, Qing Menger said what she wanted to say to Chu Mu. Once she said it, Qing Menger's face was already bright red, tender and alluring.

Yet, when she rose her head and tried to take a peek at Chu Mu's reaction, she stared dumbfoundedly.

Qing Menger looked on as she saw Chu Mu had long since rode away on his Night Thunder Dream Beast. A sour feeling welled up in her heart, and the tears in her eyes couldn't help but drip down her face in heated trails.....

This moment was like four years ago again, when she hesitated and didn't speak, wanting to find a better moment to tell him. Yet, in a moment, this person disappeared completely from her life.....

On the empty roads, Chu Mu sat alone on his Night Thunder Dream Beast, running towards the Jia Region. With a low emotional quotient, he didn't notice that the girl he left behind already had a face covered in tears.....

Four years of killing made Chu Mu distinctly slower in such thoughts. Yet, even if Chu Mu noticed, he would at most have given a promise to Qing Menger- a meaningless promise. Rather than that, it would be better to think of such problems in the future when they meet again. Then, there wouldn't be that many restraints.....

Gangluo City was in the northeast part of Luo Region. Passing through a few cities and finally reaching the regional boundary meant the arrival of the Jia Region.

After running for an entire night, Chu Mu also felt tired, so he randomly picked a little city and landed.

As usual, when night fell, Chu Mu fed his soul power to his White Nightmare, and immediately he felt white flames appear on his body.....

Chu Mu furrowed his brows. The spontaneous ignition of the white soul flames meant that the White Nightmare's power had increased another stage, and it also meant that Chu Mu would have to withstand the burning pain of the white soul flames as it grew.....

Such pain was completely unbearable to the normal person, as dying probably felt better. Yet, with years of training, Chu Mu's soul was, to some degree, resistant to white soul flames already, so the pain was somewhat weakened.

“Sixth phase fifth stage.....” When the white flames slowly died down, Chu Mu smiled bitterly. If it were at the sixth phase fifth stage, Chu Mu would have to feed most of his soul power to it again.....

When Chu Mu hit seventh remembrance spirit teacher, he could gradually use forty percent of his soul power. However, once the White Nightmare grew, he would only be able to use thirty percent.

Helplessly shaking his head, Chu Mu could only close his eyes and continue to cultivate to let his soul power recover swiftly.....

Yet, what made Chu Mu happy was, just as his soul power was moderately recovered, he suddenly felt a relaxation throughout his body as his remembrance also increased!!

“I’ve advanced!” Chu Mu felt joy. He didn’t think that after he exterminated Yang Clan, he would reach the eighth remembrance spirit teacher!

A soul pet trainer’s real power was mostly concentrated on the soul pets they controlled, and their personal cultivation level was second. In reality, many soul pet abilities were affected by the soul pet trainers’ level, receiving certain boosts.

For example, the power of Mo Xie’s Evil Stare was decided by Mo Xie’s own mental strength. However, it also accounted for Chu Mu’s soul remembrance. If the opponent’s soul remembrance were lower than Chu Mu’s, Evil Stare would definitely work very well against their soul pet. The same was true vice versa- if the opponent’s remembrance was higher than Chu Mu’s, then Mo Xie’s Evil Stare would be less effective.

Chu Mu also had the soul technique Chong Mei, which allowed Chu Mu to copy his own soul pet's ability. The copied ability's power was also decided by Chu Mu's soul remembrance and technique level!

Eighth remembrance spirit teacher, when looking through all of the Luo Region, was still considered top tier. In fact, amongst the younger generation, there were very little people with a remembrance as high as Chu Mu.

Chu Mu's cultivation speed was very fast, especially in the four years where he signed the pact with White Nightmare. The White Nightmare constantly ate at Chu Mu's soul power. Once Chu Mu didn't have enough, it would eat Chu Mu's soul. This way, Chu Mu was constantly spurred on, completely excavating all his potential in training. Reaching the eighth remembrance spirit teacher at the age of eighteen was rare, even in Nightmare Palace.

"Two more remembrances. Though my increases in power have been getting slower and slower, I'm certain I'll get to spirit master....." Chu Mu smiled and said confidently.

Once he reached spirit master, Chu Mu would be able to summon three soul pets. With three soul pets, he would no longer be at a disadvantage against other spirit teachers.

More importantly, once he reached spirit master, Chu Mu would finally be able to summon the terrifying monarch ranked white nightmare that he had been feeding for the past four years!

According to Chu Mu's estimation, the monarch rank white nightmare's fighting strength was even higher than the unmutated Mo Xie, and the White Nightmare would possibly be at the seventh phase at that time.

Once the seventh phase monarch rank was summoned, Chu Mu's power might no longer be restricted to the younger generation. Many soul pet trainers would no longer be his match.

Also, Chu Mu's spatial ring still had a Hidden Dragon Egg. If Chu Mu didn't guess incorrectly, it was also at the monarch rank. Once he reached spirit master, Chu Mu could start training the offspring of the powerful Empyrean Cyan Hidden Dragon.

Reaching the eighth remembrance, as the remembrance went up, Chu Mu's perception increased as well. At that moment, Chu Mu also released his remembrance to see just how far he could perceive now.....

Chu Mu originally just wanted to test out his stronger remembrance, yet he suddenly noticed a tiny energy ripple that came from above the house, seemingly to sneakily approach his room!!

Chapter 76: Meeting a Powerful Enemy Alone

Chu Mu was alarmed. To the constantly killing Chu Mu, such a tiny energy ripple and reserved aura was too familiar. It was the hidden ability of some night attacking soul pet!!

"Wuwu~~~" With her strong perceptive abilities, Mo Xie also immediately sensed that something was off, as she quietly let out a muffled hum and bared her teeth, her silver eyes silently watching outside the window.

Chu Mu looked gravely out of the window, and he quietly casted an incantation to add the effects of Ice Armor onto himself.

Mo Xie had already lightly jumped onto the floor. Her four paws quietly started burning with Demon Fire Evil Flames, ready at for the appearance of the soul pet any time!

Outside the window, a black head suddenly appeared. Hanging downwards, its green eyes looked straight into Chu Mu's room, emitting a dangerous light!!

“Wandering Eyed Ghost!”

Chu Mu, in one glance, figured out the organism that had poked its head out.

Wandering Eyed Ghost: Undead World - ghost type - Wandering Eyed Ghost species - middle class commander rank

In this area, ghost type soul pets should be very rarely seen. Yet, in front of him was one, and it was clearly going for him. At this moment, Chu Mu already guessed something!

“Mo Xie, Evil Flame Claw!!” Chu Mu immediately commanded!!

Mo Xie had long been waiting to attack. The moment Chu Mu gave the command, her body darted forward. When she was still airborne, her body suddenly blazed with demon fire evil flames, almost instantly removing her Pitiful Appearance as transformed into the Evil Flamed Six Tailed Demon Fox, directly ripping towards the Wandering Eyed Ghost!!!

The Wandering Eyed Ghost originally wanted to ambush Chu Mu, yet it didn't foresee that Chu Mu had already discovered it, so it didn't have time to dodge. A large gash was instantly inflicted by Mo Xie onto its pale face, causing her demon fire evil flames to dart into this ghost type soul pet's body!!!

“Ewu!!!!” The Wandering Eyed Ghost immediately let out a vicious scream, and its white, pall-covered body fell backward from the third floor, and it heavily landed on the somewhat unfrequented streets!!

“Damn it!!”

“Vine Dragon Dance!”

The old man immediately sent a command to his soul pet.

Chu Mu in his room suddenly felt the entire room start shaking. Quickly reacting, Chu Mu immediately jumped out the window.

“Beng!!!!”

Almost just as Chu Mu jumped out of the window, the room that Chu Mu was in suddenly made a loud noise, and the entire four-floor building collapsed amidst the rumbling sound!!

When Chu Mu was still in the air, he started to chant an incantation, and very decisively summoned his Night Thunder Dream Beast. The Night Thunder Dream Beast ran out from the dark and, almost just as Chu Mu was about to land, appeared under Chu Mu and carried him forward swiftly.....

“Hong hong hong hong!!!!”

Ten meters of housing fell towards them. The Night Thunder Dream Beast continuously made a few lightning quick dodges and narrowly brought Chu Mu out of the collapsing house and into the empty streets.

Upon reaching safety, Chu Mu also turned around, and he suddenly saw a giant vine appear from the rubbles of the hotel!!

This vine was twenty meters long and was completely from the bottom of the hotel. As it waved around, it waved the entire structure to the ground. It openly extended onto the houses on this street, as if it was a flexible plant constantly waving around!

“Heavens, what is that?!”

“Is that a Devil Vine!!!!”

Screaming sounds immediately echoed through the little alley, and the nearby residents awoken by the terrifying creature ran far away!

Seeing the massive dragon and snake-like organism, Chu Mu couldn't help but draw in a breath. Even if he had sixth rank soul armor, if he took a hit from that massive vine, he would be injured!

“Little kid, you seem to be quite fast at reacting. But, if you obediently take this death, maybe you'll be spared from the pain.” From the other house, a somewhat bony old man stood there and watched Chu Mu from above with his brown eyes, like an eagle.

Seeing this old man, Chu Mu immediately creased his brows. This old man was someone that Chu Mu recognized- it was the unnamed servant that Yang Luosen brought. Chu Mu didn't think that the old man actually chased him and harbored a killing intent for him!

Chu Mu naturally knew that the old man was very powerful so, without any hesitation, he started chanting another incantation.....

Chu Mu's two eyes slowly became red and let out a ruthless aura. This aura slowly infected Mo Xie, who was facing off with the ghost type Wandering Eyed Ghost.....

Mo Xie's pupils slowly turned red and blinked demonically. This glow then slowly burst open and fell upon Mo Xie like a blood red armor.

Violent Blood Pupil!!

As Chu Mu's remembrance increased, the effects of Violent Blood Pupil also increased significantly. Mo Xie's power abruptly increased from the sixth phase fourth stage to the sixth phase ninth stage, raising a total of five stages!

"Wuwuwu~~~~" Her long fur danced in the wind as she showcased her demonic aura and braveness, facing off against the seventh phase second stage Wandering Eyed Ghost!!

The Evil Flamed Six Tailed Demon Fox's talent was, in itself, comparable to many commander rank soul pets. Mo Xie's continuously mutating soul pet talent was even higher than normal, and when combined with Chu Mu's type strengthening on her, simply speaking from talent, Mo Xie was already comparable to a high quality high class commander rank. Thus, fighting the seventh phase high quality middle class commander rank Wandering Eyed Ghost wasn't unimaginable.

The always wild Mo Xie was almost without any fear, jumping straight towards the elusive Wandering Eyed Ghost!!

The Wandering Eyed Ghost’s face was torn by Mo Xie, and it was already furious. When Mo Xie charged towards it, it also let out a shrill ghost scream and pounced at Mo Xie!!

“Beng!!!!!!”

The terrifyingly destructive Devil Vine again appeared with its massive vine, and it actually laid across the entire street, shattering the limestone pavement and toppling a bunch of houses on both sides!!

Chu Mu was just about to ride his Night Thunder Dream Beast that way for escape, but he was immediately blocked off by the Devil Vine. Without another choice, he could only switch directions!!

“Yi!!!!!!!!!!!!”

A shrill sound came from the air and a dark, cyan, and massive figure brought a scary gale with it as it dived down. Instantly, the entire alleyway was in turmoil, and the ruins created by the Devil Vine flew up into the air!!

Realizing the terrifying power of the eighth phase Storm Eagle, Chu Mu didn't dare to fight it head on, so he immediately commanded his Night Thunder Dream Beast to cast Night Dance in order to merge with the dark!

The Night Thunder Dream Beast took strides and continued to run, its black body slowly merging into the darkness with Chu Mu as it ran, disappearing into the night.

“Heng, an insignificant little trick, think you can escape?” The nameless old servant snickered but immediately casted an incantation!

When the spell was uttered, the nameless servant's eyes suddenly glinted with a piercing light that shrouded the night with its sharpness, almost instantly seeing through the Night Thunder Dream Beast's Night Dance!

“Wing Slash!”

Finding Chu Mu's tracks, the nameless old servant instantly commanded his storm eagle to attack Chu Mu!!

“Yi~~~~~”

The storm eagle let out a sharp scream, and its dark cyan wings violently flapped once, bringing it into the air so it could quickly divebomb again as it extended its blade-like feathered wings!!

“Shuaa!!!!!!”

The dark cyan Wing Slash was ten meters long, and it was like a long crescent blade, chopping from above!!!

“Peng~~~~~”

The Wing Slash fell straight onto Chu Mu, and his Ice Armor instantly shattered. The sixth level soul armor shined dimly, and even its defenses were also almost broken through.

“Demolition Wave!!”

Chu Mu tightly held onto Night Thunder Dream Beats and commanded it to cast its ability!!

“Hui!!!!”

An electric like dark pulse immediately appeared on the Night Thunder Dream Beast’s dream horns. With a neigh from the Night Thunder Dream Beast, the dream horn shot out a dark energy entity!!

“Weng~~~~~”

A dark light shot past, and dark ripples went out with the dark light as the center. The ripples transformed into a vibrating energy that shattered everything nearby!

“Yi!!!!!!!”

The Storm Eagle's body was very quick. Just as the Night Thunder Dream Beast emitted its Demolition Wave, the eighth phase soul pet had already flown into higher clouds, causing its dark cyan body to disappear.

“Ye, dodge!”

Just as the Night Thunder Dream Beast finished its attack, its body immediately leaped to the side continuously.....

“Beng!!!!!!”

A large bang exploded under the Night Thunder Dream Beast, and the massive snake-like vine again poked out of the ground, brashly brandishing its fearful body!!

Countless thin vines suddenly extended from the huge vine, and the Night Thunder Dream Beast kept jumping around, constantly switching positions.

“Thunder Tailwhip!”

“Hui!!!!!!”

The Night Thunder Dream Beast's white tail was quickly charged with purple lightning. With a sweep of its long and elegant tail, it broke off dozens of vines that tried to bind the Night Thunder Dream Beast's body.

“Kid, weren’t you so arrogant that day in Gangluo City? Why are you like a dead dog now, dodging left and right? Let me see your arrogance again!” The nameless old servant laughed out loud.

In Gangluo City, Chu Mu had a group of Nightmare Palace killers, so the old servant was wary, naturally causing him not to dare to attack. Yet, now that Chu Mu was alone, the old servant had to wash away his former shame and also take revenge for Yang Luosen’s Ghost Winged White Bone Blood Demon!

Chapter 77: Wanting to Kill, Acting an Escape

Nightmare Palace had clear rules that young members who had the title of Nightmare Prince wasn’t subject to allocation by any high level member. Even if they committed heinous crimes, only the eighth level title Lu Shanli and the Inner Nightmare Palace elders were qualified to adjudicate them.

Also, in order to protect the younger generation’s power, the higher generation members were not allowed to fight against the younger generation members. After all, with a difference in age came a difference in power.

The nameless old servant was clearly an older member like such. An old member that was still a spirit teacher without even an eighth phase commander rank was definitely a third-rate character among the Nightmare Palace older people.

Yet, such a third-rate character of Nightmare Palace was still an unprecedentedly strong foe to Chu Mu, who was still in his teens!

Out of all of Chu Mu’s soul pets, other than Mo Xie, who was imbued with Violent Blood Pupil and Blood Light, who could compete against the old fellow’s Wandering Eyed Ghost, Chu Mu’s other soul pets would be hard pressed to deal with the eighth phase second stage Storm Eagle and the seventh phase third stage Devil Vine.

Upon meeting such a strong enemy, Chu Mu decisively chose to run. However, this old fellow was very experienced in controlling his soul pet, so even when Chu Mu was riding the extremely agile soul pet Night Thunder Dream Beast, he was still limited by the Devil Vine, making it hard for him to leave the battlegrounds.

“Honghonghong~~~~~”

On the sides of the street, another group of structures fell. The Night Thunder Dream Beast suddenly sped up and started running very quickly over the rooftops.

“Change position!”

Chu Mu naturally knew that the Devil Vine had more than one giant vine, so he immediately told his Night Thunder Dream Beast to switch directions!

“Honghong~~~~~”

Indeed, the room ahead suddenly collapsed, and another massive vine lifted up from below, like a green monster that escaped the earth!

The Night Thunder Dream Beast had already switched positions, perfectly dodging the next attack.

“Mo Xie, run!” After merging into the night, Chu Mu immediately told Mo Xie through remembrance.

Mo Xie's body immediately morphed into three mirages to dodge the Wandering Eyed Ghost's claw, and she ran towards Chu Mu's position.

The nameless old servant let out a humph, naturally seeing Chu Mu's attempt to escape and immediately sent a command to the eighth phase Storm Eagle!

“Yi!!!!!!!!!!!!!!”

The massive Storm Eagle let out a shrill screech, and dived down from the skies. A cyan color covered the steel-like feathers, and the eagle became a dark cyan meteor, splitting the night sky of the little town and falling straight down!

“Huhuhuhu~~~~~”

A swirl of spinning air pressured from above. When Chu Mu lifted his head, he was surprised to find the cyan colored bird already falling from above.

“Mo Xie, Molten Fury!”

“Wuwuwu~~~~~”

The running Mo Xie immediately let out a long call, her blood razed pupils burning with the most vigorous flames!!!

“Hong!!!!” A dazzling hot fire lotus suddenly exploded above Chu Mu, its piercing fire light lighting up this little night town, illuminating all the buildings bright red!!

Fire light marked Chu Mu’s face. The head raised Chu Mu discovered that the eighth phase Storm Eagle’s body only slightly paused under the power of Molten Fury. Relying on the powerful stream of air surrounding it, it travelled straight through the exploded Molten Fury, still charging straight towards him and his Night Thunder Dream Beast!

“Night, Extreme Speed!” Chu Mu immediately casted and added the effects of Wind Ride onto his Night Thunder Dream Beast,.He then told his Night Thunder Dream Beast to cast an acceleration technique.

“Hui!!!!” The Night Thunder Dream Beast let out a neigh, and its handsome running body suddenly sparked with messy purple electric light!!

“Sou!!!!!!!!!!!!!!” The Night Thunder Dream Beast suddenly sped up, and the electric light traced the path of the Night Thunder Dream Beast as it sped across the night sky.....

The effects of Extreme Speed and Death Assault were different, as it couldn’t instantly cause a soul pet to double its speed, but it could allow it to be 30% faster for a long period of time.

With the Wind Ride that Chu Mu applied as well, the Night Thunder Dream Beast’s speed was increased by 50%!!

The Storm Eagle’s Starfall ability fell, and it heavily dropped into a citizen’s house, instantly causing a shattering force field to proliferate wildly outwards from the point of landing!!

The eighth phase Storm Eagle's Starfall was at least at the seventh level, and it could cover a radius of twenty meters. With the Night Thunder Dream Beast's 50% increased speed, it could barely run out of the attack range!

"Huhuhu~~~~~" The terrifying energy gushed towards Chu Mu from behind. Chu Mu turned around to look at the house that had turned into a crater, and he also had a lingering fear.

This eighth phase Storm Eagle's techniques were all of the seventh level. With Night Thunder Dream Beast's defense, once it was hit, it would definitely be heavily wounded.

Seeing Chu Mu's Night Thunder Dream Beast being this swift, the nameless old servant's expression became gloomy, and his eyes quickly noticed the Evil Flamed Six Tailed Demon Fox that lagged a few steps behind.

"Don't let that Evil Flamed Six Tailed Demon Fox leave!" The nameless old servant commanded immediately!

The Storm Eagle flew out of the shattered ruins and locked onto the charging Evil Flamed Six Tailed Demon Fox.

Its dark cyan wings quickly flapped, and the storm eagle flew back into the air in a spiral. As it was spiralling, it again used its immense power to make a huge gust of wind turn into a powerful whirlwind!!

The Storm Eagle's Whirlwind was formed very quickly, and it could reach ten meters in range. Turbidly, it stood in the middle of the town. Even the residents far away were fearful of this sight!!

If the Whirlwind was only at the sixth level, then Mo Xie could completely rely on her speed and run straight through. Yet, this whirlwind was clearly at the eighth level, so charging in would definitely cause her to get sucked up and ripped to pieces!

Mo Xie's escape route was sealed, and the smart Mo Xie immediately switched directions of escape, instead running towards the main road!!

“Beng!!!!!!!!!!”

The empty limestone road exploded suddenly, and the omnipresent Devil Vine appeared again, crashing straight into the running Mo Xie from below!

“Wu~~~~~”

Mo Xie let out a whimper, and her soft body was tossed into the air before heavily falling into the streets had long since been in shambles!

“Kill this Six Tailed Demon Fox first!” The nameless servant knew that chasing Chu Mu back was difficult, so he immediately commanded his three powerful soul pets to attack the injured Mo Xie.

Mo Xie's defense wasn't that strong. That hit to her abdomen had clearly caused a very serious wound, affected her speed heavily. She could no longer explode with the speed she had before and, with the continuous attacks of the Devil Vine, Mo Xie's space for evasion slowly shrank.

Not far off, Chu Mu turned around to look at Mo Xie, who was surrounded by three soul pets and his face became grave!

“Wuwuwu~~~~~”

Mo Xie’s voice immediately travelled into Chu Mu’s mental world. Seeing Mo Xie dragging her wounded self, constantly dodging through the shattered streets and houses, Chu Mu gnashed his teeth even harder!

“Night, Night Dance!” Chu Mu immediately commanded his Night Thunder Dream Beast.

Night Thunder Dream Beast turned around, and firmly ran into the darkness outside of town, its figure slowly disappearing into the night.

The nameless old servant glanced at Chu Mu, who abandoned his own soul pet and smiled, saying condescendingly, “Also a craven and cowardly person only interested in living. Heng, without this Evil Flamed Six Tailed Demon Fox, he is but trash- easily killed at any time!”

Chu Mu had killed Yang Luosen’s strongest main soul pet Ghost Winged White Bone Blood Demon, and now the old servant was going to kill Chu Mu’s Evil Flamed Six Tailed Demon Fox. It could be counted as revenge for Yang Luosen.

The sparse black clouds slowly dispersed, causing the hazy moonlight to become brighter, falling upon the constantly rumbling town.

The denser the moonlight, the stronger the effects of Moon Essence. Mo Xie's abdomen wound was currently quickly healing, and her speed slowly became 30% faster than her normal speed.

"Ugh~~~~~"

The blood colored ghost claws ripped through the black night and slashed across Mo Xie's body. Just as it was about to rip through Mo Xie's neck, Mo Xie's figure suddenly became a phantom and slowly faded in the moonlight.....

Mo Xie's real body slowly appeared in the silver light. Suddenly, she stepped onto her devil flames and casted Flame Step to bizarrely change direction, running instead in the opposite direction.....

"Pupupupupupu!!!!!!!"

Like a storm, dark cyan feather blades rained down from above, covering Mo Xie's original route. Yet, having cast flame step to gorgeously change directions, Mo Xie ran right in tangent of the feather rain, just managing to dodge the Storm Eagle's ability.

"Damn it, what variety is this Evil Flamed Six Tailed Demon Fox, why is its speed and dodging capabilities so abnormal!" The nameless old servant cursed!

The effects of Moon Essence and Violent Blood Pupil caused Mo Xie's power to be raised to the seventh stage, yet with an outstanding talent in speed, Mo Xie, in the encircling of the three soul pets, though pressed and hurried, hadn't really been locked down. Within the encirclement, Mo Xie's absolute speed was displayed brilliantly.

"Wuwuwuwu~~~~~"

Suddenly, the repositioned Mo Xie let out a call, and her two eyes burned with a crimson red flame!!!

Molten Fury!!

Mo Xie's Molten Fury was cast again. The sixth level Molten Fury, under the effects of demon fire evil flames and her amazing control of flames, had the reached seventh level!

Mo Xie's attack wasn't directed towards any soul pet but was sent straight towards the nameless old servant!!

The old servant laughed coldly, and he very leisurely casted a spell, applying the seventh level defensive skill Gem Armor onto himself. Such a seventh level fire attack couldn't do anything to him, at most wasting some of his soul power.....

“Chong Mei - Molten Fury!”

Suddenly, a cold voice sounded out in the dark night, lowly echoing through the nameless old servant's ears!

The old servant was startled, and he bewilderingly turned around. Shocked, he found a pair of pale white flamed pupils staring at him hidden in the night!

Chapter 78: Greater Fame

A lot of the time Chu Mu and Mo Xie's synergy didn't need any form of communication. Not only that, Mo Xie was Chu Mu's first soul pet, so how could Chu Mu abandon Mo Xie and run away himself!?

The pale soul flames of anger burned brightly, and it revealed Chu Mu's tall and straight figure!

Though the flames were silent, they emitted the coldest of auras, making even the nameless old servant feel waves of coldness, causing his soul to shiver under the influence of this soul flame!

Right after Chu Mu fed his White Nightmare, he reached the eighth remembrance spirit teacher, and the soul power within him was perfectly at its full capacity. Even after giving Mo Xie Violent Blood Pupil, he could still cast Molten Fury!

“Wuwuwu~~~~~”

Mo Xie's Molten Fury had been completed already. The crimson demon fire evil flames violently exploded where Mo Xie's gaze fell, causing an even more shocking fire lotus to cover the skies of the town. The waves of flames were burning bright red as they came crashing down with all its heat!!

At the same time, the pale white fire lotus blossomed within the red demon fire evil flames. Demonic white, lavish red, and the ghostly burn of the soul coupled with blazing heat of the evil flames!

The sixth level technique Molten Fury had reached the seventh level under the casting of the eighth remembrance soul pet trainer Chu Mu. With the soul burn of the pale white soul flames, the technique neared the eighth level!

Yet, this wasn't all its power. Mo Xie's demon fire evil flame Molten Fury interlaced with Chu Mu's, causing this technique to reach the terrifying power of the eighth level!!

The Seventh level and eighth level were only one level apart, but it was a distance countless soul pets could never leap. Once leaped, their power would increase by a large amount!

Chu Mu and Mo Xie's Molten Fury overlay was double the strength of the most basic eighth level technique. Such an attack would seriously wound even an eighth level defense, let alone the puny seventh level defense of the nameless old servant!

“Honghonghong!!!!!!”

Pale white and vibrant red!

They magnificently blew up above the entire little town, sending scary fire energy rippling outwards. Everything in a fifty meter radius was toppled, and the destructive fire waves got as far as hundreds of meters away, starting a wave of panicked screams among the citizens of the town!!

The unnamed old servant wore a fifth level soul armor. Under the effects of the seventh level technique Gem Armor, it caused his defense to barely reach the eighth level. However, the power of the Molten Fury that costed Chu Mu more than half his soul power was immense. With the addition of a molten fury cast by the seventh phase Mo Xie, its power was even stronger than double a basic eighth level ability!

Eighth level power was something only an eighth phase high quality commander rank or seventh phase Monarch Rank could use. Even though the nameless old servant had thought Chu Mu might come back to catch him off guard, he never thought that Chu Mu had such a potent combination of techniques hidden!!

At the Recommendation, the battle with Yang Luosen was single control. Though almost every soul pet had been summoned and had used all their power, a Chu Mu forced to do single control was definitely not on the same level as a Chu Mu that was completely unrestricted. This was true especially when he had enough soul power, Chu Mu could borrow the White Nightmare's flames without any apprehension!!

The blazing flames of fury immediately engulfed the nameless old servant's body. His pupils continuously dilated as he looked shocked at the consuming flames, yet he couldn't put up any resistance!!

The Molten Fury burned. The nameless old servant's three soul pets had also been blasted away from the flame's impact. Within a hundred meter radius, all the streets, residences, and shops were decorated with two different colored flames.

Dust permeated the space, and everything was in shambles. The thousand or so residents of the town had mostly moved far away as they looked worriedly at their burning village, showing emotions of great shock.....

This little town's strongest soul pet trainer was but a spirit soldier that had a fifth phase high class warrior rank- the Raging Flame Fairy. It hadn't even learned the technique Molten Fury, and its strongest attack could, at most, cause a building to be set on fire.

Now, compared to this terrifying Molten Fury, the Raging Flame Fairy's fire type abilities were like a little candle compared to the raging fire- not even worthy of mention. After seeing this frightening fire, the little city's soul pet trainers had no other emotion than shock. They didn't even dare to band together to protest against Chu Mu, who had damaged the entire town.

Standing on the streetside with flames dancing everywhere, Chu Mu retracted his Night Thunder Dream Beast, who was somewhat afraid of fire and looked towards a hidden figure at the end of the street!

With her silver fur floating around, Mo Xie also jumped out of the ruins and slowly walked up in front of Chu Mu, her demonic eyes watching the shadow that was trembling with trepidation.

“You think I can’t detect you just because you didn’t attack?” Chu Mu’s eyes suddenly glowed with a demonic silver glow!

Chong Mei, Evil Stare!!

After using almost fifty percent of his soul power, the recently leveled up Chu Mu could still cast a lower cost technique!

Evil Stare. Even though it was only a fifth level mental technique, because Chu Mu was a full four remembrances higher than Yang Luosen, this demon type mental technique could cause a formidable mental attack towards Yang Luosen!

In the far end, Yang Luosen’s face was already pale to the extreme. At the Recommendation, his soul had already been burned by Mo Xie’s demon fire evil flames, and he had already been hurt. Though there were still two souls untouched, if he had to summon again, it would definitely increase the burden on his soul. Not to mention that all his powerful soul pets had been damaged by Chu Mu already.....

Yang Luosen could trust the nameless old servant, and thought that he could easily deal with Chu Mu. However, he didn't think that even under the three powerful soul pets, Chu Mu could still run away and turn around to burn the nameless old servant to death!!

A deep chill suddenly settled on his entire body. At this point, Yang Luosen could only pray that the three soul pets of the old servant that were sent flying would quickly come back and preoccupy Chu Mu.....

However, the Molten Fury that was double the strength of a beginner eighth level move had blasted the three soul pets over a hundred meters away. The Devil Vine and Wandering Eyed Ghost, who were afraid of fire, didn't dare to come near, and the Storm Eagle was still buried in the ruins.

“Mo Xie!”

Chu Mu flipped over and landed on Mo Xie.

If Chu Mu cast the double molten fury against a powerful opponent, Chu Mu would definitely not cast it lightly and would instead choose to cast it at a crucial moment instead. The most important thing was to cast it while the opponent was looking at one without alarm, or with belittlement. One could then kill them out of surprise. Since Yang Luosen saw this, how could Chu Mu still let him leave alive?!

“Wuwuwu~~~~~”

After Chu Mu sat still, Mo Xie rose her head to howl. Her speed suddenly increased twofold as she casted Death Assault.

Evil Flame Claws!!

The flames imprinted their light onto the little town, and a flaming red edge passed over!!

The crimson blood was splattered out in the flames, yet in the next moment, disintegrated in the flames. Invading his inner body, the flames burned Yang Luosen's body to ashes!

The Luo Region Nightmare Prince, other than Luo Region Sect experts, was the strongest teen of all. Yet from that day on, the Luo Region Nightmare Prince Yang Luosen would no longer exist. The entirety of Luo Region would never again hear about him intensely defeating some powerful expert. He would only evaporate into thin air, and slowly become forgotten under everyone's confusion and doubt.

But not long ago, the news of the Prison Island King defeating the Luo Region Nightmare Prince Yang Luosen had already been spread. In a short few days, the Prison Island King Chu Mu became even more famous, becoming known by almost everyone within Luo Region!

The Recommendation of Gangluo City had tens of thousands of people as witnesses. The news of Prison Island King Chu Mu defeating Luo Region Nightmare Prince Yang Luosen spread quickly. With Luo Region as the center, it spread towards the nearby regions. In a month, the news reached Nightmare City and caused countless powerful characters of Nightmare Palace to let out exclams in admiration.

Chu Mu beating Tian Ji caused his fame to quickly rise in Nightmare Palace, as well as regions near Nightmare Palace. Yet, with this battle of Gangluo City, Chu Mu's fame would become even more widespread, moving him from semi-top tier young expert to a true top tier young expert. Surely, many regional top tier young experts were already rolling up their sleeves, eager for a battle, hoping to meet this Nightmare Palace Nightmare Prince that had become famous in the past half year.

The Luo Region Nightmare Prince Yang Luosen found Chu Mu not purely because he heard of Chu Mu and wanted to compete; he also received instructions from Blue Nightmare Palace master.

Yet, knowing that the Luo Region Nightmare Prince, who was even stronger than Tian Ji, had lost to Chu Mu, the Blue Nightmare Palace master's expression became even more unsightly.

Now, the Blue Nightmare Palace master was somewhat sure that the reason the Princess told Xia Guanghan to stay low-key and pick a close squire was to find a backup member for the Fight Under the Heavens. Now that Chu Mu displayed a power worthy of the top tier young experts, if he could completely emerge in the following time, in ten years, he would definitely have a position matching Xia Guanghan.

One Xia Guanghan had already made Blue Nightmare Palace master have a headache. If there was another Chu Mu, it was likely that, in no time, his Blue Nightmare Palace would be stolen by Xia Guanghan, who was trying to become a palace master!

Cyan Nightmare Palace, Blue Nightmare Palace, and the White Nightmare Palace. The three palace masters were all tenth level titles. Xia Guanghan, in recent years, was like a rising sun, having a ninth level title already. One mishap could mean Xia Guanghan taking his position as Nightmare Palace master.

"This Chu Mu can't be left unmanaged. I need to think of a way to get rid of him!" The Blue Nightmare Palace master had already gnashed his teeth. He didn't dare to attack Xia Guanghan, but Chu Mu of the younger generation was easier to deal with. The Blue Nightmare Palace master naturally wouldn't let Chu Mu continue to develop.

“Master, I have a person to recommend. This person may be able to rid you of this worry.” The Blue Nightmare Palace master’s old servant obsequiously said.

“Speaking of which, it better be a young generation expert, or else it would likely bring blame upon me.” Blue Nightmare Palace master said. Deaths and injuries between young generation experts were very common. The Blue Nightmare Palace master’s position had already been impacted by Xia Guanghan, so he didn’t want any unhealthy news of him to reach the elders of the Palace.

Chapter 79: Ancient City on the Plains, Jia City

“This person is named Zuo Xiao, and he happens to be an expert from the younger generation. However, he is not one of our Nightmare Palace people. He is a vagrant assassin, and he resides in the Northern Kingdom Region. His reputation is very high, and the peak experts of many regions are somewhat afraid of him. This assassin has most recently been roaming about our Blue Nightmare City. I can have others use a large amount of gold to hire him.” said the old servant.

“If it’s an assassin, then why would I need to have a young person do the job. I might as well hire an older assassin to deal with it.” said the Blue Nightmare Palace Lord.

“There is something that Master doesn’t know about. This Zuo Xiao is apparently Kang Cheng’s disciple. If he is to undertake the task, then even if he kills Chu Mu, with Kang Cheng’s existence, it would be hard for even Senior Yuan to look into it. Such fire will not burn your body.” A devious smile sure of success appeared on the old servant’s face.

“Oh? Surprisingly, he is the madman Kang Cheng’s disciple, eh? It’s been a long time since I’ve heard news of that madman... Zuo Xiao, right? Then it will be him!” said the Blue Nightmare Palace Lord.

The Blue Nightmare Palace Lord could dispatch a few experts to kill Chu Mu, but in the future, Chu Mu would probably be beside the Princess very often, and he would receive the attention of a few experts. The moment an expert not in the younger generation attacked Chu Mu, those people definitely would not sit back and watch. The best plan was to have a peak expert in the younger generation to get rid of Chu Mu in a fight where outsiders couldn't interfere.

The news of Chu Mu defeating the Luo Region Nightmare Prince quickly spread to Jia City.

Jia City couldn't be considered to be far from Nightmare City. Moreover, one quarter of the cities in the Jia Region were controlled by Nightmare Palace. Despite Jia Region being a part of the Jia Family's control, they still maintained an amicable and low key relationship with Nightmare Palace.

With the Nightmare Palace's Princess Jin Rou's arrival, the head of the Jia Family in the Jia Region naturally had to personally receive her, and then invite her into the city lord's residence.

Princess Jin Rou's travels were relatively frequent, so many bodyguards didn't have any breaks. It was only because Chu Mu was a peak expert in the younger generation and Nightmare Palace valued letting experts from the younger generation roam about in order to fight and temper themselves that peak experts from the young generation didn't have that many restrictions. If the princess didn't firmly request for it, Chu Mu didn't have to follow beside the young princess as a bodyguard.

Chu Mu himself didn't like being restricted. If Xia Guanghan hadn't issued an order, then Chu Mu wouldn't have intentionally headed in the opposite direction of his migrating family towards Jia Region to meet up with the young princess.

The Jia and Luo Region were neighboring regions. Without any surprise, the news of the fight in Gangluo City should have arrived at the young princess' ears. Young Princess Jin Rou had felt rather astonished, not expecting Chu Mu to have such potential to defeat the Luo Region Nightmare Prince, Yang Luosen, who had a quite a bit of reputation.

Inside the luxurious residence of the city lord

“Princess, your new bodyguard’s strength is rather strong.” the personal servant of the princess let out a faint laugh as she spoke to Princess Jin Rou.

“Mhm.” Princess Jin Rou merely nodded her head. Distantly, she thought of a scene three years ago. An indifferent young man sat on the protective railing on the deck as the ocean waves crashed against the boat. He faced the blowing ocean wind, and he practiced a poor quality Adhering Flame technique with concentration. On his shoulder would always lie a gentle and beautiful small fox that was extremely adorable.

“I remember at that time that it was only a Moonlight Fox, right? Have you replaced it?” Princess Jin Rou lowered her head and pondered.

“Princess, what did you say?” respectfully asked the servant. She thought that the princess was giving a command.

“Nothing.” the princess shook her head. She didn’t say anything else, and she slowly got up, delicately undoing the thin skirt. She strode towards the bath while giving off a delectable heat...

The various painted curtains under the mist from the water became rather transparent. Through this thin shower curtain, one could faintly see this princess’ elegant figure after undoing her garments. Even if it was only faintly discernible, it still gave off a feeling of enticement that was hard to resist...

In the northern part of Jia Region, Chu Mu rode on the Nightmare Thunder Dream Beast as they slowly entered the eighth rank city.

Compared to the Luo Region, the Jia Region's territory was clearly narrower. Chu Mu rode on the Night Thunder Dream Beast for nearly ten days during his journey and had almost reached the southern center of the Jia Region.

Jia City was situated in the southern center region. After passing through the eighth rank city in front of him and then traveling another day, he would be able to reach Jia City and reconvene with the small princess' ranks.

Although he had a rather good impression towards this Jin Rou Princess, Chu Mu didn't want to follow along beside her. Presently, Chu Mu wanted to migrate with his family towards the northern area and reach the Wogu Region's Great Chu Family. Then, he could make sense of why his father still hadn't received news of his survival and returned.

When Chu Mu returned to Gangluo City, Chu Ming had immediately written a letter to Wogu Region's Great Chu Family to inform Chu Tiancheng of the news.

Chu Mu had already stayed in Gangluo City for three months. If Chu Tiancheng was in Wogu City's Great Chu Family, he would have definitely obtained the letter. Furthermore, he would have already returned to the family.

Only, in these past three months, not only did Chu Tiancheng not return, he hadn't even sent back a letter in reply. Chu Ming expressed that he didn't know what was going on. Chu Mu was a bit worried, and he wanted to go to the Great Chu City to see what was going on.

However, after dealing with the matters involving Gangluo City's Yang Family, Xia Guanghan ordered that Chu Mu had to head towards Jia Region. Chu Mu, who was still under Xia Guanghan's control, could only head first to the Jia Region.

After resting in the city for a day, Chu Mu rode on the Nightmare Thunder Dream Beast towards Jia City on the second day.

Jia City was a tenth rank city, and it was naturally located in the heart of the Jia Region. Although it wasn't as boundless and developed as Nightmare City, its scope wasn't that small.

After crossing over the slowly undulating hillside, as he stood at the top of the hill, he could see a gentle and smooth plain. At the very end of his field of vision happened to be a city wall that stretched to either end of the horizon. Underneath the clear blue sky, it was exceptionally grand, and it gave off a strong aura of an ancient city on the plains.

“Yi~~~~~”

In the sky, a wing type soul pet fledged past. Chu Mu didn't know the name of it, and it spread its wings and soared into the vast space between the heaven and the earth. When the wing type creature gradually began to disappear into the blue sky, Chu Mu had already ridden his Night Thunder Dream Beast down the gradient slope of earth, slowly transforming into a black speck that gradually approached the ostensibly ancient and vast Jia City.

The Nightmare Thunder Dream Beast, this kind of soul pet, was able to travel in the city. After entering the city gates, Chu Mu didn't have to recall Night.

The strength of a soul pet determined the status of a soul pet trainer. The sixth phase Night Thunder Dream Beast in Jia City was considered a relatively outstanding creature and, after entering the city, Chu Mu's didn't suffer from any obstructions. He easily entered the main street that led towards the city lord's residence in a straight line.

Chu Mu didn't hastily head towards the city lord's residence to see the princess. Instead, he conveniently visited the Soul Pet Palace and the auction.

Chu Mu currently had 10 million gold coins. Although this money temporarily couldn't be used to purchase seventh level soul crystals to train his own soul pets, Chu Mu could afford to generously purchase some soul equipment to increase his soul pet's fighting strength.

Mo Xie's fighting strength was rising. She possessed absolute speed dominance, abnormal attack talent, and a powerful fire type attribute. Amongst the commander rank domain, she was relatively perfect.

However, any soul pet could unceasingly pursue even more strength. Mo Xie's defense was clearly a weakness, and if she were able to reach the seventh stage, Mo Xie would be able to become perfect.

Therefore, Chu Mu felt that it was necessary to purchase a piece of soul armor to increase Mo Xie's defense.

In order to raise Mo Xie's defense to the seventh stage, Chu Mu had to purchase a sixth level soul armor and combine it with Mo Xie's natural sixth level flexible fur.

However, a soul armor would always be the most extravagant item in the domain of soul pets. Even if it was Chu Mu, who had the enormous sum of 10 million gold coins, he felt that it didn't just mean he could be prodigal with it.

According to Chu Mu's estimates, a sixth level beast type defense soul armor's price probably wasn't any less than the sixth level soul armor on his own body. It required at least 5 million gold coins.

As for Zhan Ye, its attacking power that was extremely weak was a very serious problem. Chu Mu felt that in order for Zhan Ye to be able to become a soul pet that truly surpassed its rank, phase, and stage when it fought, without any special soul items to strengthen its beast attribute, he had to use soul armor to increase Zhan Ye's fighting strength.

Zhan Ye currently was at the fifth phase first stage. Its attacking claws were only at the fifth stage and, without Violent Blood Pupil, even with a technique's effect, it could only barely scratch open the sixth stage defensive skin of a soul pet. However, if he combined its souls onto the soul claw, its attacking power would immediately increase.

The soul claws were similar to that of a soul armor in that it was also a soul equipment, but was meant for offense. It allowed this soul claw to combine with a soul pet's soul. Often times, the soul claw didn't take any form; when the soul pet used its claws to attack, the moment the soul pet thought of it, the soul claw would appear, and the outside of a soul pet's claw would form a sharper energy claw blade...

The price of a soul claw wasn't lower than a piece of soul armor. If Chu Mu was to spend a large sum of money to purchase the sixth level soul armor and soul claw, 10 million gold coins would definitely be instantly spent.

Moreover, if the price of these two expensive soul equipment were to still go up, Chu Mu would be so broke that he wouldn't even be able to purchase the minimum baseline of food for his soul pets.

As his strength increased, a soul pet trainer's soul pets would also increase. Furthermore, placing a soul pet into a soul pet space didn't signify that the soul pet didn't need to eat. Therefore, towards high ranking soul pet trainers, while the one time use of a soul core was a large consumption, when it was added up, the sum was considerably terrifying. Especially for Chu Mu, who was a soul pet trainer that strove to provide top quality food.

Presently, Chu Mu's soul pets were all being fed with sixth level soul cores. Practically every two days, they had to be fed one core. Occasionally, a soul pet would throw a tantrum and, after giving it a midnight snack, Chu Mu, who treated all of them equally, had to give the rest of his soul pets a midnight snack. Thus, several thousand gold coins were instantly exhausted.

This was still merely sixth level soul crystals as food. When the time came to feed seventh level soul crystals, Chu Mu couldn't guarantee that he would spend up to a million gold coins in one month. Therefore, ten million gold coins, to Chu Mu, was definitely not enough...

Chapter 80: Coincidentally Encountering Princess Jin Rou

The capital garnered from Gangluo City's auction hall was naturally inferior to the auction halls of the tenth rank city, Jia City. In Jia City, it was relatively easy to purchase a sixth level soul equipment, as long as one had enough capital.

When Chu Mu entered the auction hall, he searched through the auction list of the day and quickly found the sixth level full form offensive soul equipments.

Soul pet species were different, and their methods of attack were different. Soul claws were, in fact, a restricted concept and merely portrayed the soul equipment transforming into a claw. In reality, offensive soul equipments could transform into a weapon on any part of a soul part's body, for instance its talons, teeth, bone horns, wing blades, arms...

Soul claws merely only reflected the structure of a claw as they were made. Once the soul pet used its idea to transform it, the soul equipment's effect could then be applied onto a claw.

A full form offensive soul equipment was at an even higher level. It could transform into any method of attack for a soul pet, suiting its needs.

Once equipped with this full form offensive soul equipment, the moment a soul pet used its thoughts to control it, the soul equipment's effects would adhere to any attacking part of the soul pet.

For instance, in Zhan Ye's case, if it were using the Ink Armor Spike technique, the effect which was originally attached to its claws could identically be used on its ink armor spikes, causing the might of this technique to instantly increase.

On the list that Chu Mu saw in the auction hall, he didn't immediately search for a soul claw. Instead, he found a sixth level full form offensive soul equipment....

Without any doubt, the full form offensive soul equipment's price would be much more expensive than that of the single form offensive soul equipment.

"A full form offensive soul equipment is extremely suitable for Zhan Ye. This soul pet that has numerous methods of attack..." when he saw the sixth level full form offensive soul equipment, Chu Mu was tempted.

Zhan Ye had many methods of attack: his claws, horn, armor spike, and iron tail. If such a soul pet were to have a full form offensive soul equipment, its fighting strength would then holistically rise!

“The base price is 5 million gold coins...” when Chu Mu saw the base auction price, his heart cooled off. With a base price of 5 million, its true price would definitely be over 10 million. Chu Mu only had so much capital on him...

Chu Mu hesitated a long while at the auction hall. Ultimately, he decided to try and contest for it. If he could purchase it for 10 million gold coins, Chu Mu would still grind his teeth and buy it. After all, such a soul equipment was really worth the fighting value it brought.

The fifth phase Zhan Ye definitely could not merge a sixth level soul equipment into its soul at the moment. If he was able to obtain it, this soul equipment would be used on Mo Xie first to increase her fighting strength. When Zhan Ye reached the sixth phase, he would then wear this full form soul equipment that was suited for it.

Chu Mu entered the auction hall, which had many items that Chu Mu was interested in. There was one time when Chu Mu figured that 10 million gold coins wouldn't be able to purchase the full form offensive soul equipment, and instead wanted to buy a sixth level black crystal soul pearl that would increase attribute damage.

A black crystal soul pearl; this soul equipment was created by smelting the souls of powerful black crystal soul pets. This ice soul pearl would then merge into a soul pet's soul, and the soul pet would be able to create black crystals.

During the Recommendation, when the Ice Air Fairy had fought the Black Crystal Ice Air Fairy, the turning point of the battle had occurred when the Black Crystal Ice Air Fairy used its black crystal effect.

Black crystal had effects similar to the Demon Fire Evil Flame, and it could directly allow the damage of a soul pet's ice type techniques to increase a few times.

As for the black crystal soul pearl, it allowed a few ice type soul pets to directly have control over black crystals, making the damage of their ice type techniques increase.

The soul pearl on the auction was a sixth level black crystal soul pearl, and it could increase the damage of ice types by at least fifty percent. If he could equip it to the Ice Air Fairy, then its ice type damage would increase by a large margin. Simultaneously, its defense, because of the black crystal, would increase. Therefore, when the black crystal soul pearl hovered around the price of 6 million gold coins, Chu Mu was a bit tempted...

However, Chu Mu ultimately didn't shout out a price. The price Chu Mu could accept for the black crystal soul pearl was 5 million gold coins. Spending an extra 1 million gold coins for this equipment was a bit of a concern for Chu Mu.

The full form offensive soul equipment which was identically at the sixth level, if its price surpassed 10 million which was what Chu Mu could sustain, Chu Mu would also unhesitatingly forsake this purchase.

Chu Mu himself could also be considered someone who started with nothing. Of his 10 million gold coins, 5 million would not have easily obtained without the Nightmare Palace assassins. Chu Mu wasn't Mr. Moneybags, and when it came to purchasing things, the items still had to be at reasonable prices!

"Ning, in the future, I'll buy you an even better one." Chu Mu specially consoled the Ice Air Fairy.

"Ling~~~" Although the Ice Air Fairy which had followed Chu Mu for three years was experienced at fighting and mature, its intelligence was still like a slow minded child- very naive.

Not long ago, the Devil Tree Battle Soldier had obtained the Demon Wood's Heart. The Ice Air Fairy naturally didn't have any objections as the Devil Tree Battle Soldier was honest and considerate. When it came to throwing tantrums in order to eat midnight snacks, the Devil Tree Battle Soldier would always be very calm...

As for the Night Thunder Dream Beast, Chu Mu had an extreme necessity to purchase it a speed type soul equipment.

Finally, the sixth level full form offensive soul armor was being auctioned off.

It had to be said that Chu Mu was lucky. After unceasingly calling out prices with the other few competitors, Chu Mu unexpectedly purchased the full form offensive soul armor for a low price of 8.7 million...

Chu Mu was extremely surprised that he was able to acquire the sixth level full form offensive soul equipment at this price. After all, 10 million for such a soul equipment was fitting or perhaps even a bit low.

In reality, during the auction, Chu Mu had felt that the auction's atmosphere was extremely strange. However, Chu Mu didn't think too much about it, and had raised the price according to his own standards. Finally, it had mysteriously ended up in his hands.

Inside the VIP auction room.

“Hmph, go and find out which fellow dares to come in and look for trouble!” said the Jia City vice city lord, Jia Qing, whose face looked a bit unsightly.

“Forget it. The princess doesn’t have a strong desire to purchase it...” said the princess’ maid, Jin Kui.

Princess Jin Rou didn’t say anything and slowly stood up, walking outside. The four dainty maids followed her, followed by the eight Nightmare Palace bodyguards...

The smile of the Jia City’s vice city lord, Jia Qing, froze and his gaze ferociously swept over that unsensible fellow in the other room.

The princess has gone on a tour of Jia City and had planned on sitting in on the auction once she got there. Jia Qing, who had pretty much followed along, intentionally had someone instruct officials of the auction hall to get rid of the bidding of other people. This way, the princess could purchase the items she wanted at a low price.

For such a task, Jia Qing naturally had to subvert the prices. However, in order to make the princess satisfied, changing the prices was something Jia Qing was still able to manage. Yet, who expected that an unintelligent fellow would appear halfway through the auction and purchase a full form offensive soul armor for a low price of 8.7 million.

The princess didn’t like having others bid, so Jia Qing planned on using his own funds to bid for the princess. Yet, he was refused, and this full form sixth level soul armor that was underneath the standard price by about 2 million gold coins was purchased by this fellow from somewhere unknown.

As for Chu Mu, he naturally didn't understand the reason. He still believed that his luck today wasn't bad, while simultaneously inwardly rejoicing that he didn't spend 6 million to purchase the sixth level black crystal soul pearl.

"Father, I've discovered that the young man wearing black garments is the customer in the VIP room." said the eldest son of Jia Qing, Jia Luoming.

Jia Qing's gaze immediately swept forth and quickly discovered Chu Mu walking out of the auction floor and into the auction hall's long hall.

"Go and teach that fellow a lesson!" whispered Jia Qing.

The princess hadn't bought the sixth level full form offensive soul equipment, but Gu Qing himself had to replenish the nearly 2 million gold coins from the lowering of the price. Even if he was the vice city lord, he wasn't generous enough to allow someone else to take advantage of such a large convenience.

Jia Luoming immediately nodded his head and brought two family henchmen. They quickly walked towards Chu Mu, who had just finished the transaction procedures.

“What hole did you run out of? You don’t understand customs at all and unexpectedly stole the princess’ item. Do you even know how to write ‘death’?!” sneered Jia Luoming.

When princess was mentioned, Chu Mu’s gaze immediately went to the splendid hall in the auction hall and as expected, discovered that not too far away were numerous bodyguards and maids who were escorting an elegant woman. This woman was slowly walking out of the auction hall’s long hall.

Seeing Princess Jin Rou, Chu Mu finally responded. It seemed that this full form sixth level soul armor hadn’t been acquired at such a low price due to his own luck. Instead it was that he happened to encounter Princess Jin Rou...

“Princess, that black clothed young man seemed to have been fighting over items with you?” when they walked out of the auction floor, Jin Jui quickly noticed Chu Mu who walked out of the auction hall’s long hall...

“Mhm.” Princess Jin Rou merely nodded her head and didn’t even look in Chu Mu’s direction. As a princess, she didn’t have to care about everything.

“Princess, don’t worry, we’ll give that untactful brat a lesson.” immediately said Jia Qing.

Princess Jin Rou glanced at Jia Qing. She seemed to feel that Jia Qing’s flattery was a bit low level. In one glance, Jia Luoming had already found that person for trouble and she indifferently said:

“The price competition was fair. Being overbearing like this isn’t good. There isn’t a need to make things difficult.”

“Princess is truly kindhearted and generous.” instantly praised Jia Qing. Yet, he didn’t call Jia Luoming back; instead he respectfully brought the princess out of the auction hall’s long hall.

After walking out of the auction hall’s long hall, a golden colored princess carriage was already stopped outside. On the street, numerous people had surrounded it, forming a circle as they jealously talked about whether this was the Nightmare Palace’s young princess’ imperial carriage.

When Princess Jin Rou, wearing a thin purple colored veil, walked out, a sigh rang out in the surroundings...

“Princess, just now, that person was a bit familiar. He seemed to resemble that new bodyguard a bit.” whispered the princess’ maid, Jin Kui, as she helped the princess into the carriage.

“Huh?” Princess Jin Rou faintly raised her curved and long shapely eyebrows.

“Beng!!!!”

Suddenly, a loud clamor rang out of the auction hall’s long hall, giving way to a panicked shout.

Princess Jin Rou spread open the curtains and stared at the spacious entrance of the auction hall. She happened to see the tall and straight figure of a handsome man, full of a cold aura, walk out of the long hall. Following beside him was a Evil Flame Six Tailed Demon Fox with six glorious tails, carrying a rather demonic charm....
