Chapter 901: Severely Wounding the Defector Woman

The blue flower was crushed in her hands, as she sprinkled it over her face and hair. Yet, the blood from her abdomen continued to flow. The Empress Concubine's burned purple blue hair once more emitted a deeply colored halo, and as if it was growing like a plant, a portion of it fell onto her bosom while the other portion stuck to her waist.

Her cracked facial skin also began to heal, as she rubbed the flower dust there. Her skin returned to its original white jade.

Chu Mu couldn't help but sneer when he saw that despite the defector woman's abdomen being injured, the first thing she did was recover her appearance.

It seemed that this woman significantly valued her appearance. He began to scheme in his heart whether his next attack should be aimed primarily at her beautiful face that she cherished like her life?

The Dead Dream's seal restriction had a time limit. Chu Mu also knew that flower type creatures innately had very powerful healing abilities. He naturally wouldn't give this woman time to heal.

"Spatial Quicksand!"

Chu Mu lifted his hand a few kilometers away where the Empress Concubine was, and suddenly a strange warping appeared!

Space and time quickly seemed to continuously descend into a swamp. The Empress Concubine naturally didn't have time to heal the wound on her abdomen. Her jade feet stepped on a blossomed lotus, and she dodged the spatial quicksand!

The blue lotus beautiful blossomed. As the flower continuously expanded, it devoured the quick sanding space and time!

The holy blue lotus' devouring abilities included space and time movement, which could also be eaten.

After eating them, the energy transformed into the holy blue lotus' attacking weapon!

“Pu!!!!!!!!!!”

Suddenly, the flower opened its mouth and the dissipated spatial quicksand force transformed into a blue colored energy that spat towards Chu Mu!

“Beng!!!!!!!!!!”

The blue energy wave, when it neared Chu Mu, abruptly exploded. Layer upon layer of waves expanded in all directions, knocking Chu Mu up.

“Hu hu hu hu hu~~~~~”

Chu Mu took a step in the air to stabilize his body. The remaining waves of air made the devil flames on his body dance about.

After maintaining his balance, Chu Mu was a distance away from the defector woman.

Chu Mu then noticed that the defector woman was chanting a long incantation.

The Empress Concubine's purple blue hair fluttered in the windless air. Surrounding her were countless blue motley flowers. Blue leaves began to quickly fly along a certain trajectory!

Gradually, the flowers and leaves began to grow indistinct at this extreme speed. Finally, they all disappeared in the air.

However, while the Empress Concubine prepared her long incantation, Chu Mu finished his.

Chu Mu didn't think about the strange multi-variant other type attacking methods.

Once he finished chanting, his body rapidly flew towards the Empress Concubine!

As he whistled through the air, the silver devil flames on Chu Mu's body gradually grew more intense. In an instant, he had transformed into an enormous flame cloud!!

The flame cloud continued expanding. At the beginning, it was only a hurtling meteor, but as it grew faster, Chu Mu had transformed into a silver blazing sun across the boundless galaxy!!

The blazing sun was massive and boundless. It seemed to occupy the entire space between the heavens and the earth and gave people an intense visual and soul shock!

“Long long long long long!!!!!!!!!!”

The devil flames surrounding the blazing sun were like a violent dragon, reflecting the violence and anger in Chu Mu’s heart!

Xia Zhixian who was hovering in the air stared as the shocking devil flame sun whistle past her. A feeling of helplessness and insignificance involuntarily arose up.

If this energy were to descend on Xiang Rong City, nothing in the entire city would remain!

Right now, Xia Zhixian was helpless. The Dead Dream’s Darkness Restriction ability had prevented her from interfering in the Empress Concubine and silver devil fight.

The devil flames were overflowing. Pretty much everything in the Empress Concubine’s vision had been occupied by this silver blazing sun. The flower and leaves around her transformed into an enormous constellation, attempting to swallow up the silver devil.

However, no matter how powerful the flower and leaves’ cutting ability was, under the stunning devil flame ability, it was clearly insignificant!!

The blue flower and leaves rotating were ultimately unable to stop the blazing sun. Seeing that the devil flames could not be stopped, the Empress Concubine flusteredly retreated!

As she retreated, branches continuously rose out of the ground like a rope reaching towards the heavens, forming a heavenly net defense!

“Pai~~~~ Pai~~~~~ Pai~~~~~”

The omnipresent branches, no matter how many there were or how dense they were, were ultimately burned clean by the devil flames!

Finally, the devil flame blazing sun approached the Empress Concubine.

“Hong long long long!!!!!!!!!!”

Suddenly, the devil flame burning sun blew up!!

A sharp stunning energy surged up, causing the heaven and earth to violently tremble. Instantly, this long area of space within ten kilometers was swallowed by devil flames!!!

A silver flame appeared, imprinting itself at the peak of the sky.

Within the torrential devil flames, a single arrogant silver body stood there. Its gaze was like lightning as it stared at the woman, half kneeling at the bottom of the devil flame sea.

The silver devil flames had burned her body, burning all of her elegant blue clothes to ashes.

Her body was able to stop the burning, but her soul was unable to prevent the devil flames from entering!

The soul burning made her shut her eyes in pain. She grit her teeth, and clenched her fist.

A feeling of humiliation arose in her heart as she clutched the bottom of her stomach. Her perfect naked body was still burning in the devil flames, but the skin gradually began to crack like a piece of jade!

Suddenly, she lifted her head. Her beautiful eyes were full of anger and humiliation!!

Her arrogance didn't allow for any blasphemy upon her. Yet, the silver devil had left a wound on her stomach, caused pain on her soul, and caused her perfect body to crack. These were all deep points of anger upon this woman with enormous ambitions!

"Pu pu pu pu pu~~~~~"

The Sky Butterfly Queen floated over to the Empress Concubine. It had finally freed itself of Dead Dream's seal, but Xia Zhixian could still be regarded as having come late.

"Your majesty, are... are you okay?" Xia Zhixian hastily used soul healing and life force healing on the Empress Concubine.

The recovery abilities of these two techniques were limited. The wound Chu Mu inflicted this time could not be recovered in a short period of time!

The superior appearance of the defector woman had vanished. In its place was a half-kneeling woman struggling amidst the pain with an indignant glare!

Chu Mu looked at her. Her eyes were much like his, back then, when he had lost his first soul, and lost the ability to become a soul pet trainer!

The Empress Concubine's soul was linked with Chu Mu's. Thus, when Chu Mu used the soul devil flames to attack her soul, it was equivalent to attacking his own soul to a certain extent.

However, no matter how much of a powerful soul recoil from the defector woman's soul was inflicted upon him, the smile on Chu Mu's face would only grow more pure!

Chu Mu had said before that he would make this woman kneel in front of him.

And now, she was kneeling in front of him!!

The things that were taken from him, he would retrieve with a vengeance!!

Chu Mu had said before that he would have this betraying and contemptuous woman become his slave. When that day came, it would be like a nightmare descending upon that woman!!

.....

Although the Empress Concubine was extremely angry and hated this silver devil to the bones, she knew that with her attribute being completely countered, she didn't have the ability to continue fighting.

She forcibly suppressed the anger surging out from her heart, and decisively jumped onto Xia Zhixian's Sky Butterfly Queen. She then chanted an incantation!

An enormous blue flower blossomed around the Sky Butterfly Queen, slowly enveloping Xia Zhixian, the Sky Butterfly Queen and the Empress Concubine.

“Yi!!!!!!”

The Dead Dream sensed that the two women wanted to flee. Its black figure darted across the blue sky. Immediately, it appeared in front of the enormous blue flower!

The Dead Dream's sixteen wings flapped and suddenly, sixteen wing prints seemed to arise from its body, striking the flower.

“Pai!!!!!!”

The flower, in an instant, transformed into a starry facula that disappeared with the enveloped Sky Butterfly Queen, Xia Zhixian, and the Empress Concubine in the sky!

Chu Mu arrived afterwards, but when he was about to launch an attack, there were countless rays of light and shadows being released. He was unable to find the defector young woman.

Chu Mu immediately closed his eyes, and used his soul link with the defector young woman to find her location!

If he wanted to get rid of weeds, he had to remove the roots first. This was a rare chance to take down the defector woman. Chu Mu didn't want to let the tiger return to its mountain.

"How..." suddenly, Chu Mu's face was filled with a bit of shock.

Just a second ago, the defector woman was less than half a kilometer away from him, and he could distinctly feel her presence.

However, after the flower had shattered, the defector woman was now 100 kilometers away in the center of Xiang Rong City!

Chu Mu turned around. He stared at the city where the blue plants had covered so much that not even a crack could be seen through. He then stared at the center of the city where the Empress Concubine was, being protected by countless emperor rank puppet flower demons...

If Chu Mu used Displacement Specter, he would only be able to teleport about twenty kilometers.

Yet, the Empress Concubine's technique had moved her an entire 100 kilometers. This was absurd!!

“Could it be the flower type’s Graft Puppet?” Chu Mu’s heart sank.

Chu Mu had learned about the Graft Puppet technique from Xiang Yiyun. This technique was predicated on laying a flower formation first, then forcibly operating the flower formation from a long distance, which expended an enormous amount, to launch long-ranged teleportation!

It was essentially the most powerful escape ability of a peak rank flower type creature.

.....

“Hmph, there’s no use in fleeing. I’ll destroy your flower demon nation first!!” sneered Chu Mu.

Although Chu Mu had already guessed that it wouldn’t be this easy to take down that woman, this didn’t mean that he would let her off so easily. He still hadn’t taken back his interest!

“Yi~~~~~”

The Dead Dream was floating next to Chu Mu. Clearly, its goal was the same as Chu Mu’s. It wanted to completely eradicate the deep-rooted puppet flower demon army of Xiang Rong City!!

Chapter 902: Dancing on Fire in Xiang Rong City (1)

After the long fight, Xiang Rong City’s citizens were hiding deep underground in the shelter cellars.

The ground composition of Xiang Rong City was very sturdy. Unless the people underground were targeted by attacks or there was a dominator rank clash that struck the ground, they wouldn’t be affected by the fight.

However, there were a few courageous soul pet trainers in the city who looked up to strength. When they saw the eminent and unapproachable creatures fight, they had jealously risked their lives to get near the battlefield.

However, when the White Nightmare army appeared, these soul pet trainers laid very low!

The one million Black Fairy Butterflies and puppet flower demon army wouldn't attack humans, so these people that had never witnessed such a breathtaking fight before were able to luckily do so. However, the White Nightmares were known to be savage. Even the spirit emperors went to hide underground!

The fire type White Nightmares had the absolute advantage against the puppet flower demon army. After Chu Mu forced their queen and Xia Zhixian to retreat, the White Nightmares' spirits soared. The original blue sea of plants that had covered the southern city was now enveloped in a white devil flame!

Over ten thousand White Nightmares that looked like Chu Mu. When these creatures burning in rampant white devil flames all gathered together, the combined aura forcing the puppet flower demon to retreat!

Not long after the Empress Concubine and Xia Zhixian retreated, the southern city's puppet flower demons were only left with ten thousand.

There was a clear difference between the ten thousand puppet flower demons and the ten thousand White Nightmares. The former had lesser strength but initially had greater numbers, thus being able to trap the dominator Chu Mu. Among them were also many emperor and monarch ranks.

But now, most of the high ranking puppet flower demons had been eradicated. The remaining ten thousand were insignificant compared to how many there initially were.

Therefore, when Chu Mu brought a large group of White Nightmares from the southern city up into the skies, the ten thousand puppet flower demons were like small creatures that were being bullied without being to retaliate. They obediently crawled back underground, not daring to show their heads.

Once they hid underground, devil flames couldn't do anything to them.

However, the Dead Dream, which a single pass of its technique could prevent grass from growing over a huge patch of land, didn't plan on letting them regrow and recoup their numbers.

A grey color, like a cloudy shadow, showered down. It even turned the air into a grey tone.

Darkness withering!

The withering force slowly seeped into the ground. The puppet flower demons attempting to dodge the White Nightmares through the ground would be hard-pressed to escape their fate with this poisonous darkness force!

.....

“Destroy them!” Chu Mu waved his hand, and ordered all of the White Nightmares!

“Nie!!!!”

The Nightmare Ruler let out an excited cry. It seemed to have already ascertained its target. Subsequently, it would follow its king to kill and plunder this city!!

Within any White Nightmare was an intense desire to destroy. They were innate nightmares and would commit to burning everything down deliberately before dancing in their own flames!

Looking at this city, it was expansive and flourishing with blue beautiful plants everywhere. There were also countless blooming flowers and pitiable flower demons.

Oh how beautiful it would be to absolutely demolish it and to dance and scream with them in their white devil flames!

“Nie Nie Nie Nie”

“Nie Nie Nie Nie”

The White Nightmares excitedly shouted. They had nothing to fear if they destroyed things with their king!

.....

“Your Majesty, they’re destroying all of the plants in the city.” Xia Zhixian’s expression was unsightly, as she looked at the extremely unsightly White Nightmares.

Xia Zhixian had spent many years creating this city. Although she didn't know that puppet flower demons were attached to the fast-growing seeds the Empress Concubine had given her, this city was ultimately under her own project and care. Seeing plant after plant wither or burn, her heart felt like it was being fiercely wrenched!

Ever since she had become a Hero, she was ostensibly an unparalleled existence in the human realm. There was rarely anyone who dared find trouble for her.

However, today, she had to hide in the main city and watch a group of White Nightmares trample all over her city!

Xia Zhixian's mood was extremely terrible right now, and as the Empress Concubine watched the puppet flower demon army that she put much effort into nurturing being slaughtered en masse, blood was dripping from her heart.

In the entirety of humanity's territory, the only territory that was fertile enough was the kingdom that Xiang Rong City was in. Moreover, 200 years ago, an expert, Chen Mo, had left behind a natural treasure. Thus, she had cultivated an enormous flower demon army that was comparable to an empire!

This flower demon empire was exceptionally crucial to her future rule. She was wounded right now, but she watched with spitting flame eyes as the silver devil wantonly swept through the city!

There was another matter which made her even more angry!

In truth, the Empress Concubine had guessed that the item Chen Mo left behind was a Natural Source. This was a treasure that would enable a plant to obtain a huge resource.

Xiang Rong City's earth was originally fertile, and its resources rich. It was extremely fitting for plant world creatures to mature. Adding on the Natural Source's hidden nourishment, Xiang Rong City's growth had expedited, almost nearing the level of a kingdom.

The existence of the Natural Source was a secret not even known by Xia Zhixian, the original city lord. If it wasn't because the Empress Concubine herself innately possessed Worldly Spirit Sounds, she wouldn't have noticed the existence of the treasure either.

However, Chen Mo clearly didn't want someone with bad intentions to obtain it, so he hid it in Xiang Rong City.

The Empress Concubine had searched in vain for so long. However, she hadn't been helpless.

She discovered that everytime she created plundering puppet flower demon to plunder Xiang Rong City's resources, the resource would be compensated by another energy after a little while. She then guessed that there was some treasure source that was continuously maintaining Xiang Rong City's saturated state.

Therefore, although she wasn't able to find the treasure, she was able to use this method to rapidly breed her army.

To her, Xiang Rong City became an infinite spirit source!

The unceasing expansion of her army also increased her ambitions. Indeed, she never expected that this Natural Resource, even after so many years, showed no signs of waning.

Even a tenth rank spirit source would probably be exhausted after supporting the growth of such enormous creatures!

However, it still existed. Therefore, it meant that this wasn't as simple as a spirit source. Instead, it was an even higher rank than a spirit source. Something that countless peak experts thought was merely an item of legends: a xuan aura source!

Xuan aura source!!!

This was a spirit item that could strengthen dominator rank creatures!!!

The phrase spirit items could no longer describe how valuable it was. Instead, it was a Xuan item!

No one understood how important a xuan item more than the Empress Concubine. There were less than ten people in the human realm with dominator rank creatures. A xuan aura source could create a dominator rank creature; how insane would people go over this!

If it wasn't to obtain the xuan source, why would she, who controlled the present state of humanity, specially come from Wanxiang City to Xiang Rong City? Was it really just to add a bit of prestige to her name?

In order to obtain the xuan source, the Empress Concubine had even considered the appearance of the Dead Dream.

As a dominator rank creature herself, she was able to sense the existence of this territory's true king. She knew very well that the moment she was about to take away this item, the legendary Dead Dream would appear!

Indeed, everything had been as she planned.

She neared the xuan source and the Dead Dream appeared...

However, she did not expect that the silver devil, that had once injured the Heavenly Concubine, Mu Qingyi, had wandered over to this city!

The loss in Tianxia City had already made her feel humiliated, especially since that damn Chu Mu had transformed into a half devil and destroyed her perfect plan to destroy the three great palaces.

Although her subsequent plans had all succeeded, this time, another similar devil person had appeared and stolen such an important xuan item!!

This devil, which the Empress Concubine hated to the bones, had ruined everything!!

Now that her treasure had been stolen and the enormous army she had painstakingly cultivated had been annihilated in front of her eyes, this feeling as even more painful than having her soul burned by devil flames!

Devil, another devil!

After these events, this woman hated White Nightmares, half devils, and devils to the bone. Most likely in the future, if she were to see any creatures related to the White Nightmare, her chest would heavily heave a few times, and she would have trouble maintaining her cool and calm.

.....

Devil?

Suddenly, the Empress Concubine's heart began to violently jump as she abruptly thought of a serious question!

“This fellow. Could it be Chu Mu?!”

Chu Mu had already transformed into a devil. This was an indisputable reality. Ju Que, who had fled in retreat, had seen it himself. This couldn't be fake!

Moreover, it had been a long time since then, and the Empress Concubine hadn't detected his soul at all. This meant that his soul had very likely been completely lost after he transformed into a devil.

“Impossible! Even if his soul still exists, it's merely just a sliver. After transforming into a devil, it's impossible to reawaken! It's also impossible to maintain one's memories!” quickly, the Empress Concubine refuted her own guess.

The ultimate conclusion of a half devil was to either become a human or a devil.

Even if the Empress Concubine believed that the silver devil person that had great hostility towards her was Chu Mu, it was definitely a thoughtless devil without any memories!

Abruptly shaking her head, the Empress Concubine tossed this idea out of her mind.

Chu Mu had definitely disappeared from this world. There was no way he could resurrect! Absolutely no way!

Chapter 903: Dancing Flames in Xiangrong City

From south side to west side of the city, the white flames covered almost every corner.

Emperor concubine, as the leader, could at least restrict Chu Mu slightly. Yet, no matter how large the quantity was of the puppet flower demon army, it was too late now. The moment an advanced flower puppet demon appeared, they would instantly get killed by Chu Mu!

And without advanced puppet flower demons, the lower level puppet flower demons were of no threat. Once white nightmares threw their devil flames forwards, the flames would connect and create a raging flame that caused the entire blue ancestral forest to become barren!

“Go towards north city!” Chu Mu’s gaze fell on the defector young woman that still hid in the center of the city, not daring to come out, and laughed coldly!

Chu Mu didn’t believe this woman would just watch as the massive puppet flower demon army was destroyed without any actions!

From south outer city to west outer city, the amount of puppet flower demons that died to Chu Mu was over 100,000. And, with the white nightmare army, they were very good at teamwork when they were setting things on fire together.

Of course, the way they worked together was very strange. Sometimes, they would challenge a dozen puppet flower demons at once, realize the difference in power levels but insist on killing a few before letting out a string of evil laughs and escaping back to the main army.

Other times, there would only be a few scattered monarch rank puppet flower demons, yet they would create kill circles, bringing a dozen white nightmares to bake them until they kneeled down and almost begged before finally killing them.

All the ones that dared stay above ground were dealt with by the white nightmare. Those that hid underground were dealt with by Dead Dream's black fairy butterfly army.

However, Dead Dream's body this time was clearly less dense as initially, losing its massive size. Emperor concubine's trap for it truly did a lot of damage.

Once they were dominator rank, recovering from wounds took a long time. One could tell that Dead Dream was following Chu Mu and his army to get rid of the puppet flower demons to get rid of all the invasive plants but also because it was impassioned by the crazy white nightmares.

“Nie~~~~~”

White three quickly floated over to Chu Mu's side, and told Chu Mu that nightmare conqueror went to the center city.

Defector young woman wasn't stupid. She definitely couldn't let Chu Mu just destroy her entire flower demon army. While Chu Mu was going along the edges sweeping through, she had already redirected all the advanced puppet flower demons to the center city.

Bringing themselves to the city center on one hand was to guard against the silver devil man and its army from attacking her directly. On the other hand, it was to protect these advanced puppet flower demons, in case they were all killed.

Nightmare Conqueror was always rash. Chu Mu knew this long ago. However, Chu Mu didn't expect that it dared to run to the center city with just a couple of emperor rank white nightmares. It truly didn't take the massive empire of flower demons seriously!

Furthermore, the city center was not far from defector young girl. Even if she was wounded, she was dominator rank. One accident, and the nightmare conqueror and the other emperor ranks won't be able to make it over!

"Why is this guy so restless!" Chu Mu scolded.

Turning around, Chu Mu told the leading white nightmare emperor to collect all the roaming white nightmares aside him.

"Tell your subordinates that once they enter the city center they should all listen to me!" Chu Mu told white nightmare emperor.

White nightmare nodded, immediately using its mental voice to warn all the white nightmares. They had to obey their king's command!

Burning and pillaging for half a day, all the white nightmares knew that the center city puppet flower demons were hard to deal with. However, white nightmares naturally liked challenging things that were hard to do.

Hearing that their king wanted to kill his way towards the city center, they all yelled out excitedly and followed, flying towards the center!

.....

“Your majesty, they truly are coming over!” Bin Liao’s forehead was full of sweat.

“Heng, if they dare come, they won’t be able to leave!” Emperor concubine no longer dared to act kind, her eyes showing coldness.

The few high class emperor ranks’ movement were noticed by emperor concubine a long while ago. These powerful white nightmares not only cleared out most of the emperor rank puppet flower demons on the west side of the city, they even dared to chase the top tier emperor rank flower demon emperor and dragon absolute Wen Luo’s soul pets into to the city center.

Once they were in the city center, there were countless high rank flower demons. Emperor concubine immediately told all her advanced flower demons to go around them, and keep them trapped.

Invincible emperor rank nightmare conqueror's existence caused them to kill these white nightmares in a short second, so Xia Zhixian and emperor concubine had to participate to seal the deal.

However, the killing of one invincible emperor rank couldn’t sate the anger in her heart. Thus, she intentionally trapped them to bait the silver devil man and white nightmare back!

In the city center, advanced puppet flower demons were countless. Adding on the hundred emperor rank flower girls who were putting down hundreds of flower type killing diagrams, she could kill any amount of white nightmares. Thus, as long as the silver devil man dared to come, she could tell all of these wild organisms the consequences of provoking her!

“They’re here!” Xia Zhixian stood high up and looked far away at the white devil flame shadows at the edges of the center city!

Devil flames roaring, the cold aura caused all the puppet flower demon forest to feel it.

The flower girls were all seeing the massive white nightmare army for the first time. Feeling the aura buffeting them, they couldn’t help but get shaky.

These hundred flower girls were mostly raised up by emperor concubine. They were all around low class emperor rank. Emperor concubine had limited resources, and couldn’t make any more spirit emperors.

If they were forced to face off against the white nightmares, she definitely wouldn’t like the outcome. After all, the enemies were white nightmares, being able to cause double damage to all plant world soul pets. Even if the flower girls could win, the losses they would sustain would be incredible.

Thus, the best way to do face off was to use their formation, and use cheaper puppet flower demons as a spearhead while the trained hundred spirit emperors were dispersed in the flower diagram in central city. Using emperor concubine’s own dominator rank energy as a guide, she would combine all the spirit emperor’s power and create a flower type killing diagram that could kill even dominator rank soul pets, let alone these white nightmares!

“Hengheng, a group of idiots!” Emperor concubine saw the silver devil man bringing the white nightmares towards the central city and laughed coldly. She could already see the white nightmares getting absolutely demolished.

“You few, bait them closer in.” Emperor concubine glanced at her subordinates and said.

To let the silver devil man relax, the emperor concubine specially told the puppet flower demon army to hide underground. Since the silver devil man came in from afar and were roaming around outside, they knew that there were many enemies in the city center. To convince them to enter deeper, there must be higher ranking bait.

White flames burned all the way to the western central city. From far away, one could see a white army start to collide with the fragile blue forest, connecting with the small spot of white.

“Appear!” Emperor concubine cast an incantation and instantly told all the puppet flower demon underground to appear!

Blue flower forest crazily popped up, creating a magnificent blue scene within central west city. Countless branches swept outwards, turning the prosperous city into ruins!

These puppet flower demons, of course, were used to occupy the white nightmares. They weren’t anything special, they were just as numerous as the grass on the ground.

Grass touching flames definitely would instantly ignite them. Puppet flower demons didn’t truly cause any damage to the white nightmares, but they were useful in obstructing them for a bit.

At this point, emperor concubine’s pupil gazed at center city!

“Deal the fatal blow, ready up!” Emperor concubine decisively gave a command.

“Killing diagram!” with two eyes like daggers, the flower killing diagram technique she was holding was instantly completed.

Raising her lips high, a blue, sun-like glow flew out of her mouth!

Different from her iconic royal blue, this glow had a bleak coldness!

The cold blue glow flew towards the skies, and constantly went up, becoming a cold blue moon that hung silently- mysterious yet strange!

Beams of light fell down from the skies, appearing like rays of radiation that fell accurately on every node of the flower diagram!

Every flower diagram was on the ground, and after receiving blue light, more beam of blue appeared, drawing out an intricate route!

If one saw from the skies down, one would see the cold blue moon using its light to create a scroll connecting hundreds of flower diagrams, creating a massive yet imposing blue killing diagram!!

“Everyone should go die!” Emperor concubine looked at the white nightmares, acting like a tyrannical queen, cold-hearted and without emotions.

The killing diagram opened up and the blue flower type killing diagram opened up to the entire central west city, beautiful yet terrifyingly raining its judgment upon all organisms within it like a smiting from the heavens!

.....

“Huhuhuhu~~~~~”

White devil flames were still burning in central west city. Once they were in central city, they could throw their fire without restraint, pushing the flames forward.

However, after connecting up with the nightmare conqueror, the white nightmare army actually didn't step a single step more.

In fact, just as the blue killing diagram was about to start, almost all of the white nightmares casted their escape technique displacement specter immediately instead of attacking. So, after the killing diagram started, emperor concubine saw a scene that caused her to nearly yell in rage.

The entire white nightmare army instantly teleported back a huge distance the moment the killing diagram activated!!

These fellows seemed to have known of the trap!

It was as if they extended a leg intentionally to trigger the trap, and quickly shrunk back!!

This caused the beautiful woman to clench her jaws, almost shattering her teeth.

Chapter 904: They Have To Gesture After Victory Too

These white nightmares rushed in aggressively, looking like they were going to fight their way straight to the city master fort.

Yet, who could have thought that they were just bluffing? After they connected with the flower armies that acted as bait, they instantly decided to retreat!

Blue killing diagram still created a massive and killing totem, hollow yet beautiful. It caught a small batch of white nightmares with limited movement, but they were still saved by the dominator rank Dead Dream and silver devil man.

A flower killing diagram activating meant a huge consumption of flower type energy. Though emperor concubine was a little too hurried in starting the diagram, it was still unacceptable that she didn't kill a single white nightmare!

Right now, emperor concubine wasn't as worried about the waste of resources in the flower type killing diagram, but instead her mind was just full of how to get rid of the silver devil man!

Sadly, her feasible actions all only worked in the future. At least for now, she could only watch as all the arrogant nightmares flew round outer north city, and continued to sweep out the puppet flower demon.

The lower rank puppet flower demons can't escape from outer city as quickly. These puppet flower demons were low rank, but also makes up a large foundation of her army and had to be rid of.

Not only that, defector young girl's city still had countless puppet flower demon seeds in the city that she would continue to nurture. These seeds couldn't be found by Chu Mu, but a single darkness withering from Dead Dream would have killed all these weak seeds and flowers.

North outer city was the closest to the remembrance memorial, this meant that the puppet flower demon seeds were most numerous. In reality, there were even some emperor rank puppet flower demons that defector young girl couldn't retract.

Now, the original army enough to create a flower demon empire was destroyed. This meant that emperor concubine's massive ambition and ten year plan was destroyed, so her losses were disastrous.

Of course, she also lost the mysterious item that could have created another dominator rank organism!

.....

.....

"Brother is so annoying, not calling us for such a fun activity!"

Hiding in a corner of the city, Ning Maner said gloomily. Going to bully people in the arena, intentionally finding trouble with city guards, none of it was as interesting as putting fire to a city!

At the same time, white nightmare emperor and white four, tasked with protecting Ning Maner, were also getting restless when looking at their buddies.

“What’s in your little head. You two should be quiet too.” Ye Qingzi flicked Ning Maner’s forehead, and also glared at the restless white nightmares.

“Nie~~~~~”

Two white nightmares immediately withered away. It now looked like they weren’t going to get involved with the massive army’s activities; the queen had spoken.

Old blind mister was always sitting on the vine chair, knowing everything in the city from there.

The old blind mister was a hundred years old now. White nightmare army and flower demon army battles was one of the rare massive battles he had witnessed, even though the only scene he could “see” were from sounds, flows of air, and spatial distortions.

Even harder to believe was that the young man had the power to become half devil at will!!!

Without guessing, old blind mister knew that it was the new king of tianxia city - Chu Mu.

For some reason, old blind mister couldn’t calm himself at this thought.

.....

After sweeping through north city, next up was east city.

After clearing through three large outer city regions, there wasn't much suspense left in the outcome. Dead Dream followed swiftly like usual, and became countless black fairy butterflies that sent their black energy out to the city and killed all the invaders.

Chu Mu, brought all the white nightmares back to the south side, after visiting the entire city and watched the center city covered in blue puppet flower demons.

The city center had many advanced puppet flower demons. Emperor concubine didn't dare send them out to deal with the white nightmares because dead dream and Chu Mu were two dominator presences. With no one there to restrict them, the top tier emperor rank puppet flower demons were easily instantly killed. Such a loss was hard to withstand.

“Nie~~~~~”

Suddenly, the troublesome nightmare conqueror rank shouted out, and helped Chu Mu give a command to all the white nightmares!

Ning Maner said that after they won a battle, they had to gesture to the opponent as well, and it could cause their opponents to get furious, no matter how much they were bullied before.

White nightmares all rubbed their heads in confusion, while their other hands all mimicked the conqueror's action with their right hands, pointing their thumbs down!

The center city went silent.

A majestic yet bizarre scene appeared yet again! This time, even the soul alliance members in center city were at a loss of words, their faces twitching.

Standing at the top and watching the scene, emperor concubine's chest started heaving again. The color that returned to her face after Xia Zhixian's healing quickly became steely again!

"Someday, I will wipe out south forbidden realm and remove your white nightmare emperor from this world!!" Emperor concubine swore!

.....

Chu Mu looked far away at the absolutely furious woman and nodded in his mind. It seemed like Ning Maner actually helped him out greatly this time instead of adding trouble.

Knowing when to retreat, Chu Mu knew defector young woman wasn't easily defeated. If they stayed around for too long, soul alliance army would probably arrive and his entire white nightmare empire would get killed.

Chu Mu didn't dare stay around anymore. Seeing all the white nightmares happily gesture, he gave a command and told everyone to fly towards south forbidden realm!

Chu Mu had to give defector young woman an illusion that he was returning to south forbidden realm, or else his future actions would be restricted.

Of course, the white nightmare army also had to return. Bringing around nightmare conquerer was already a pain for Chu Mu. If they brought a huge batch of white nightmares into human territory, though they could bully cities like Xiangrong City around, the human realm would definitely band together soon and wipe them out.

.....

After leaving a few hundred kilometers away, Chu Mu told the army to stop and rest.

White nightmare were all happy, but needed rest after losing so much stamina.

.....

After not too long, white nightmare emperor and white four came over with the protected Ye Qingzi and Ning Maner.

“Nie~~~Nie~~~~~”

This time, Nightmare Conqueror quickly called all the white nightmares together again and told them to pay their respects to their queen and little princess.

Originally, Ye Qingzi saw ten white nightmares all in the form of Chu Mu and already couldn't figure out which one was Chu Mu. Now, with ten thousand Chu Mu's all floating over, her head started hurting and she walked past Chu Mu.

“Are you hurt?” Ye Qingzi was like a gentle wife, asking caringly.

“En, some light and medium wounds, help me check it out.” Chu Mu laid against a tree and gave the treatment of his wounds to her. He only needed to close his eyes and rest. This was the fortune of marrying a spirit teacher.

“Seeing you so pleased- you finally got to take revenge, huh?” Ye Qingzi gave Chu Mu a glance and said smiling.

“En, however this girl was much harder to deal with than before.” Chu Mu nodded.

“It was good you retreated at that time, if you went all out then.....”

With both as dominator rank, defector young woman would have a hard time killing Chu Mu without her massive army. However, Chu Mu would also have trouble. If he acted too aggressive, he would fall into her trap.

No matter how much Chu Mu wanted to take revenge, he had to keep his logic against this woman. After all, this woman was too scary. If they had any future plans against Chu Mu, it would be incredibly difficult to defend against.

“However, speaking of which, why did so many white nightmares come over?” Ye Qingzi asked.

“I don’t know.” Chu Mu was confused and just decided to call nightmare conqueror over.

Nightmare conqueror was still around their little princess. White nightmares could all feel the special closeness from Ning Maner, and were trying to show face in front of her. Little did they know that they all looked the same other than the colors of their fire.

“Why did you bring so many white nightmares?” Chu Mu asked.

“Nie~~~Nie~~~~~” Nightmare conqueror said while gesturing to himself, excited.

Ye Qingzi quickly got rid of the flower poison while watching the White Nightmare. However, she had no clue what the fellow was trying to say, and could only wait for CHu Mu to translate.

However, Ye Qingzi noticed that after Chu Mu heard White Nightmare’s explanation, his expression froze.

“What’s wrong” Ye Qingzi quickly asked.

Chu Mu laughed bitterly and said, “They weren’t here out of coincidence. The south forbidden realm master actually wanted to invade the human realm, this group of whit nightmares were sent by the master to scout.....”

Ye Qingzi opened her small mouth and only replied after a while, “Such a huge army just to scout?”

“White one’s little portion was already near an empire’s magnitude. They were just missing a dominator rank king. Great south forbidden realm should truly be a nightmare empire. This ten thousand white nightmare army probably isn’t that much in that empire.” Chu Mu asked.

Before, forbidden realm's empire was beyond massive. Even human realm was just a small piece of land in comparison.

As he got stronger, Chu Mu slowly found that the soul pet world was truly large, and that humans weren't the real masters of this world.

Chapter 905: Dead Dream, Nirvana

"Big brother, let me look at that treasure." Ning Maner ran over to Chu Mu.

Chu Mu opened his spatial ring, and took out the wooden box.

Ning Maner took it with her hands and sat next to Chu Mu. She opened the box with a face full of expectation and excitement.

"Hu ~~~~~"

A mellow fragrance wafted out of the box. It was so rich in spirit aura that Chu Mu nearly went absent-minded!

"What special spirit aura!" Ye Qingzi was a soul teacher, and her sense of smell was very sensitive. She was shocked as she looked at the special spirit branch in the box that looked like ginseng.

The biggest spirit source Chu Mu had seen was the icy spring inside the icy palace. Although this Nature Root was completely different than the icy palace, Chu Mu could sense that it was over a dozen times denser than the icy palace's icy spring!

“Big brother, we’ve struck it big!” suddenly, Ning Maner picked up the wooden box and happily ran around in a few circles.

Chu Mu obviously knew that the treasure they had managed to conveniently take this time wasn’t ordinary. After the shock faded, his face was full of happiness. It indeed was worthy of being the item left by the expert, Chen Mo, 200 years ago!

According to the density of the aura, this was probably extremely close to what Mu Qingyi had called xuan items!

Thus, Chu Mu began to ask questions to Ning Maner, who had an understanding of various spirit items. Presumably, she would be able to provide more accurate answers.

“This is a Nature Root. It should be the root essence of a plant world dominator rank that used over a thousand years to create. It was then preserved using some special method from the expert 200 years ago. This is a genuine xuan item!” Ning Maner’s eyes were smiling like half-moons.

“It really is a xuan item!!” Chu Mu was instantly excited!

He and Mu Qingyi went through a lot of trouble to explore the enormous icy palace. After several months, they were still ultimately unable to find any xuan aura. It could be seen from this how difficult xuan items were to find!

Moreover, in the past there were absolute experts who had reached the dominator rank, but were unable to find xuan items even after entering the very depths of forbidden regions.

The reason why Chu Mu had opposed the defector woman this time was because he didn't want her to have an easy time. He never expected to pick up such an insane treasure!

Chu Mu finally realized why that woman's face was black with rage. What she had truly cared about probably wasn't Chu Mu finding trouble for her, but the fact that Chu Mu had stolen a true xuan item!

"That woman is definitely mad now." Chu Mu was happy in his heart.

The significance of a xuan item was enormous. If it fell into the defector woman's hands, there was a high chance he would have to face an additional dominator rank creature in the future. But now that he ended up with it, this gave him a chance to create a dominator rank creature. This would bring him closer to the day where he could enslave her!

Chu Mu himself was a dominator rank, and with an additional dominator rank creature, even experts of the level of Mu Qingyi would probably have to avoid him. Aside from the profoundly mysterious Alliance Master who had yet to show his face, Chu Mu didn't need to fear anyone!

"Ai, it's unfortunate that it's slightly lacking..." suddenly, Ning Maner let out a sigh.

"Chu Mu immediately returned from his fantasies and hastily asked: "What is lacking?"

It was a second dominator rank. Chu Mu didn't want to be awoken from this.

"A portion of the xuan aura was probably taken by that wicked woman's puppet flower demons, meaning that the item isn't full. Using Big Sister Ye's quality rankings to measure it, it is probably considered a high quality xuan item." said Ning Maner.

“High quality xuan item? What are the chances of success?” Chu Mu looked at Ye Qingzi.

“About fifty percent or above. It depends whether the soul pet has the potential to breakthrough.” said Ye Qingzi.

Chu Mu’s only wood type soul pet was the Devil Tree Battle Soldier. However, it had only reached the high class emperor not long ago. It was too far away from reaching the state of having the potential to break into the dominator rank.

As they were speaking, the Dead Dream that was extremely quiet suddenly shrunk its body to an extreme state. It transformed into a black and elegant small Dead Dream that landed on the root.

The Dead Dream had fallen into the defector woman’s trap, and its differentiating life force had been considerably lowered. The wounds it suffered were much more severe than what Chu Mu suffered.

Right now, the Dead Dream, in its sixteen winged black butterfly dark phoenix state, was lying atop the root, enjoying the xuan item. It closed its eyes, and looked like it was going to sleep.

“Big brother, the xuan aura is weakening...” Ning Maner was extremely fond of the small-sized Dead Dream, but she quickly realized what was going on.

Chu Mu was stunned. Very impolitely, he picked up the small Dead Dream, and glared at its moonlit eyes.

The Dead Dream looked at Chu Mu in its sleepy haze and languidly transmitted a mental sound to Chu Mu.

After Chu Mu finished listening, he put the small Dead Dream back onto the root filled with xuan aura. He then closed the wood box so that it could peacefully sleep inside.

Ye Qingzi and Ning Maner looked curiously at Chu Mu.

No matter what anyone said, Chu Mu had played a huge role in saving Xiang Rong City. If it wasn't because he and the White Nightmare army had taken action, there was a high chance the Dead Dream would have perished into the innumerable puppet flower demon army.

Therefore, Chen Mo's spirit item naturally belonged to Chu Mu after he obtained it. Even if the Dead Dream had come here for it, Chu Mu couldn't surrender it so easily.

Ye Qingzi looked at Chu Mu. She was confused as to when he had suddenly become so generous.

Ning Maner was also confused as to why this big brother, who was monomaniacally focused on raising his strength, wouldn't take the xuan item. With it, there would be a lot of hope for the Devil Tree Battle Soldier would reach the dominator rank.

Seeing the two girls look at him with strange expressions, Chu Mu's eyes were extremely fervent.

"Why are you so happy?" Ning Maner pouted, and spoke discontentedly.

Chu Mu laughed, but didn't respond, feigning mysteriousness. However, even the dim-witted White Nightmares could see that Chu Mu was extremely excited and happy right now.

Chu Mu normally had a blank, grave or cruel expression. It was rare that Ye Qingzi saw him as happy as a child.

"What on earth is it! Tell me or I will get mad!" Ning Maner threw herself at Chu Mu, and used her strength to pinch his cheeks.

"You wild brat. Don't make trouble, don't make trouble!" Chu Mu picked her up, and put her to the side like a wild cat.

"If you don't say anything, I'll also get mad!" Ye Qingzi joined in the liveliness. In reality, she was also very intrigued why Chu Mu was so excited.

Chu Mu had wanted to keep them in suspense, but when he saw their unreasonable expressions, he pointed at the fellow in the box and said: "The Dead Dream is planning on achieving nirvana."

"Nirvana is reincarnating. What does this have to do with big brother?" said Ning Maner.

Ye Qingzi was about to say something, but she thought about it for a second and suddenly came to a realization. Her face broke out in a beautiful and happy smile as she said: "So you're saying that if it successfully nirvanas, it has to start re-evolving from the first phase first stage again?"

Chu Mu immediately nodded his head!

If the nirvana succeeded, the Dead Dream would become a child pet, and would need to re-evolve to the tenth phase!

Chu Mu had dreamed about wanting a wing type soul pet like the Dead Dream. However, he never imagined that he would actually have the chance!

Just now, the Dead Dream had used its mental voice to tell Chu Mu that it was going to use the xuan item to nirvana. If it succeeded, it would become a child pet.

Chu Mu had immediately indicated that he wished to sign a soul pact with it.

The Dead Dream knew that this xuan item should belong to this human. Although it wasn't a wood type creature, it could absorb the spirit of the wood to undergo nirvana.

Therefore, it had very frankly made a dominator rank transaction with Chu Mu.

Chu Mu would help its nirvana succeed, and after it successfully became a child pet, it would sign a soul pact with Chu Mu, becoming his soul pet.

Just as Old Li had said, there were many high ranking creatures that weren't opposed to signing soul pacts with humans. Especially high ranking child pets without any ability to protect themselves. Sometimes they would even seek out humans with a lot of potential and sign a pact with them. Then, they would obtain protection from the human and be able to grow under this human .

The lifespan of a high ranking soul pet was also very long. Therefore, in the view of a few powerful creatures, a human would be able to obtain strength from soul pets, but the soul pets would also use humans a jumping board for their weak and small phase which would allow them to grow stronger.

Once a human grew old or was too weak, the high ranking soul pet would naturally leave the human, and continue its own cultivation path.

After the Dead Dream's nirvana succeeded, it would become a higher ranking young pet.

200 years ago, it had grown under Chen Mo's protection. Unfortunately, Chen Mo already had a wing type soul pet and didn't sign a soul pact with it. Now, 200 years later, it was undergoing nirvana through the spirit item Cheng Mo left behind.

After undergoing nirvana, it would require the protection of others!

Who would take on this responsibility?

Naturally, it would be Chu Mu who had saved its life. His strength wasn't weaker than its own while it was at its peak state. Moreover, the Dead Dream could see that he was an extremely young human soul pet trainer!

The Dead Dream didn't reject humans because it had been raised by a human expert. Indeed, at a young age, it had heard of the wonders of Chen Mo's world and developed an extreme longing for even higher and even stronger realms in this world.

This time, the appearance of the xuan item and Chu Mu were precisely an opportunity to advance another level. Therefore, although it would become a child pet again, it decided to do so, since it wanted to fly to even further worlds!

Its future destiny would belong to this human whose aura was made it feel a sense of familiarity.

Of course, all of this depended on whether this human could help it successfully nirvana. As a dominator rank, this was considered the first test it was giving this human.

If it failed, the Dead Dream could only continue to stay in its territory. After all, having lived 200 years, it didn't believe that it could listen to the orders of a twenty year old human.

Nirvana was the creation of another life force. It would forsake its original memories and body, and start a brand new destiny.

The Dead Dream's forsaking of its memories and body would likely be viewed as difficult in the eyes of humans. However, for the Dead Dream, which was a creature that truly sought "strength", it was nothing.

Chapter 906: Next Stop, Wanxiang City

"Big brother, is it really willing to become your soul pet?" Ning Maner's face was full of expectation!

If Chu Mu obtained another dominator rank creature, then it would be an additional powerful protection for this wild girl. Moreover, being able to soar through the air on the Dead Dream would definitely be extremely fun and exciting!

"Pretty much. But I need to help it successfully nirvana, which is no easy task." said Chu Mu.

Nirvana was indeed no easy task. After all, after the nirvana finished, it would have additional species advantages, and if it reached its peak strength again, it would be even stronger than before.

“Chu Mu, do you know how to undergo nirvana?” at this point, Ye Qingzi asked a very crucial question.

Chu Mu was stunned. He returned from his euphoria and bitterly shook his head: “I don’t know...”

“Dead Dream didn’t tell big brother?” asked Ning Maner.

“It just said that it was related to the Phoenix species. It didn’t know about the specifics either.” said Chu Mu.

If Dead Dream could complete the nirvana itself, it would have done so. Why would it need to find Chu Mu?

Dead Dream knew that humans had unique understandings of various soul pets, and that they knew of various ways to increase a soul pet’s strength. Therefore, it had to find Chu Mu this time to undergo nirvana, while it could only sleep on the wood xuan item. This would allow its wounds to recover and for it to absorb enough xuan aura in preparation for its nirvana.

“Let’s go ask the old senior. That old man seems to know everything.” Chu Mu thought aloud.

“That’s right. The old senior left a letter for big brother. He said that after you finished reading it, there would be no need to see him.” Ning Maner suddenly thought of something, and hastily retrieved a letter from her spatial ring.

“No need to see him?” Chu Mu was confused. He opened the letter and stared at the words imbued with force.

Chu Mu read very slowly. It was as if every word was extremely important to him. As he read, his expression began to change.

Ye Qingzi and Ning Maner saw his changes, and wondered what was written. However, Chu Mu’s expression was serious and they didn’t dare disturb.

After a while, Chu Mu took in a deep breath and put the letter into his spatial ring.

Ye Qingzi saw that his mood had somewhat relaxed and softly asked: “What is the matter?”

“Chu Mu shook his head and said: “Some matters related to my father.”

“The Sealed Mouth Event?” asked Ye Qingzi.

“Pretty much. The Sealed Mouth Event was actually just an excuse for that person to get rid of a few people. There are still a few secrets within it. Those secretive old people aren’t saying anything probably because they took a soul pledge.” said Chu Mu.

“Then what about your father?” Ye Qingzi was also curious about Chu Tianmang.

Chu Mu raised his brows and said: “Why is it “your father”? You need to say “our father”...”

“...” Ye Qingzi was speechless. Just now Chu Mu had been all serious and quiet. She thought that it was because there was some extremely serious problem in the letter. But now looking at his shameless expression, what serious problem was there?!

Ye Qingzi pinched Chu Mu as punishment. Additionally, the wedding hadn’t finished, so how could they be considered as married!

However, when she thought of having to call Chu Mu’s father, “father”, in the future, Ye Qingzi felt a bit embarrassed. A red blush involuntarily appeared on her face.

Chu Mu looked at the silly smile on Ye Qingzi’s face. Ever since he had eaten the forbidden fruit, Ye Qingzi had lost her usual coldness, and was now more charming. This charm was reserved in her elegance and gentleness. It would only subconsciously reveal itself in front of him. This made Chu Mu fall more and more in love with his wife...

“What are you up to! Speak of serious matters!” Ye Qingzi feigned anger. Why were Chu Mu’s mischievous eyes fervently staring at her.... Ning Maner, this young girl, was still next to them, and not far away there was a large group of White Nightmares.

Chu Mu returned from his daydream and lightly laughed: “It’s actually nothing. He just told me about a few things when he was very young.”

There wasn’t any important information inside the letter. Perhaps at this age, this old man no longer cared about grudges and disputes. Instead, the only thing in his mind were reflections upon memories.

From the words themselves, Chu Mu could feel that the old man doted on and had expectations for Chu Tianmang like he was his son. This made Chu Mu think of how Chu Tianmang treated him; his face was always wearing a smile.

When he was younger, that smile just seemed to be the kindness and the norm of a father. However, in truth, that smile was full of many things. The older he got, the more he was able to read into it...

.....

“Big brother, isn’t the soul pet of that woman called the Heavenly Concubine a Phoenix species? Perhaps she knows about the nirvana process.” said Ning Maner.

“She’s the only one in our human realm with a Phoenix soul pet. I remember that in the final chapter of the Pet Encyclopedia the Crown Phoenix King is listed.” said Ye Qingzi.

War Goddess Mu Qingyi was probably known by everyone in Wanxiang Realm. The dominator rank soul pet that represented her, the Crown Phoenix King, was also known by everyone. In Wanxiang Realm’s Pet Encyclopedia, where the Crown Phoenix King was listed, it was even specially indicated that “only the Heavenly Concubine possessed it”.

“I wonder if her Crown Phoenix King has undergone nirvana.” Chu Mu thought aloud.

Nirvana and rebirth were two different things. Nirvana meant that strength would rise or greatly rise.

On the other hand, rebirth was merely recovering its physical state, life force, and fighting strength to their original perfect states.

Chu Mu only knew that Mu Qingyi's Crown Phoenix King possessed the ability to undergo a flaming rebirth. He didn't know whether it had undergone nirvana.

"Don't you have a relationship that is out of the ordinary with her? When you go to Wanxiang City, you can go ask her." Ye Qingzi looked at Chu Mu.

"This... I only recognize her." Chu Mu could feel that Ye Qingzi's gaze was getting fishy.

Done for... Chu Mu glared at Ning Maner, that damned brat.

Originally, Ye Qingzi didn't think that there was anything between Chu Mu and Mu Qingyi. However, Ning Maner then told her about Chu Mu and Mu Qingyi going to the Universe Ice Gate, and had strongly emphasized that Teng Lang and the other two women had returned two months earlier than them...

There were a total of five people. Three of them returned first. As for who was still left, Ye Qingzi could easily guess.

"Then is our next stop Wanxiang City?" Ye Qingzi changed the topic.

It wasn't that Ye Qingzi didn't care about the matter with Mu Qingyi. However, Chu Mu's calm and collected expression meant that he wouldn't even bat an eyelid if he lied. It was impossible to inquire anything from the few words he said.

“Yes, let’s go to Wanxiang City.” Chu Mu nodded his head.

Wanxiang City. The city where humanity’s true experts gathered! There would definitely be more opportunities and challenges there!!

Chapter 907: Thousand Insect Desolation Ground

In the far away north insect empire, there was a piece of eternally desolate land. This land was either covered by the greyness of the forest, or filled with cratered ground or hives!

The territory’s resource situation became worse and worse as the greedy heavenly devil insect empire endlessly reproduced. The skies were often filled with thick swarms of bug type organisms flapping their wings, soughting out their same species with cruel eyes!

Once their resources became limited, there were only two solutions: Expanding their territory or killing each other!

Expanding their territory wasn’t something completed in a day or two. This was also a large magnitude of resource shortage, meaning that even while expanding their territory, it would be hard to prevent killing each other. In the yellow sky, one could always see patrolling insect type armies.

On the ground, there were more rotten or fresh corpses.

There were corpses everywhere, causing all the parasitic bug type species that scavenged from corpses to have the strongest development, getting stronger by the day.

Bug type parasitic species were always notorious. Many times, even the heavily wounded advanced soul pets were very scared of these parasitic insects because the moment they appeared, it meant none of your wounds would ever heal and could even be exacerbated. Then, their life would just continue to decrease until they died a slow death.....

Parasitic organisms also had ranks, but they always were a complete life in swarms, being unable to function if they were missing any part!

Just like how a complete organism needed vision to observe, olfactory senses to smell its prey, claws, teeth, and horns to attack prey and thick skin to prevent attacks, parasitic organisms had these abilities too. The difference was, these abilities were all split up onto different parasites.

A complete parasitic organism species would have ones with specialized vision, ones for smelling to track prey, the two that take up most of a parasitic species group, combined being able to reach anywhere.

Following that, there were a few that were tasked with spreading poison and dissecting blood and flesh. These offensive parasitic bugs couldn't even beat a servant rank organism by themselves, but once they gathered together, even wounded emperor ranks viewed them as nightmares!

Finally, there were a few specialized in defense or were used as decoys when they met their natural predator. These parasites ensured the entire swarm didn't die at once.

In the bug type empire, the parasitic organisms were a very weak group. Their only way of survival was relying on corpses of soul pets.

However, as the entire bug type empire fell into chaos after the scarcity of resources, the parasitic species truly had a space in the empire, becoming the bringer of death in the entire region!

In the past, only when a soul pet completely died did they dare to climb onto their bodies and feast. Now, even bug type soul pets hiding somewhere licking their wounds could be targeted. And once they were, a terrifying phenomenon would appear - Communal Feasting!

As this developed, the parasitic organisms seemed to have changed their taste. They were starting to like to eat living organisms more and were looking for higher and higher ranked organisms!

This time, the scouting parasitic organisms again found a heavily wounded soul pet hiding far away in a rock cave!

The scouting parasites all knew that this heavily wounded organism was a very powerful emperor rank. The giants near here were almost all killed by this organism. The battle was truly shocking, causing all the parasitic organisms to hide far under ground, not daring to even peek their heads.

Only long after the fight finished did a few ant like parasitic organisms dare to climb out and secretly follow the extremely powerful emperor rank.....

“Zhizhizhizhi~~~~~”

The grey yellow parasitic organisms crawled into the dark cave and immediately smelled blood.

From the thickness of blood, they could tell an organisms' life force. They were calling out gleefully because they could tell this super emperor was near its death, its life force incredibly weak!

Super emperor, this would be a real feast. If they could decompose it, their entire species would get much stronger!

“Zhizhizhi~~ Zhizhi~~~~~”

The grey yellow little fellows all waved their little crawlers around, clearly overjoyed!

Very quickly, a few hardly visible bugs climbed out of the bloody cave and disappeared.

“Hu~~~~~”

Inside the black cave, a completely black organism full of wounds laid there silently, breathing heavily.

It was too tired to open its eyes, its wounds even more lethal than before.

However, no matter how tired or weak this organism seemed, its powerful and mighty body as well as invisible aura caused many organisms standing outside the cave to be wary of doing anything to this organism!

This was a true expert's aura!

Even near death and weak, it still had tremendous intimidation!

One had to know that many of the organisms outside were still emperor rank!

“Gug~~~~~Gu~~~~~” A bloodthirsty insect emperor let out a call.

This Bloodthirsty Insect Emperor was signalling for all the bug type emperors to fight their ways in together and kill the powerful emperor!

The other emperor ranks were all heavenly insect monsters. They flapped their ten meaty wings but showed cowardice in their red eyes.

When the super emperor fought their commander just now, they were so shocked they were still heaving the experience. Thinking about the techniques that were powerful enough to instantly kill them multiple times over, the ten wing heavenly devil insect truly had no courage left.

Ten wing heavenly devil insect always used their wings to make sounds and communicate. Since they all knew the bloodthirsty insect emperor was middle class emperor rank, they motioned for it to scout the way and ensure the opponent truly only has a breath left before they all attacked.

“Gugu!!!” The bloodthirsty insect emperor yelled out angrily, using its gaze to look down on the fellows with no guts at all. No wonder they were all still low class emperor rank!

“Zhizhizhi~~~~~”

“Zhizhizhi~~~~~”

Suddenly, the green ground seemed to be painted over. With the front as a line, extending until far away, all of the land became a grey yellow!

The four bug type emperors were all taken aback at this. Looking closely, however, they were shocked to find that they were the reapers of Thousand Insect Desolation Ground - Parasitic Species!

The grey yellow constantly expanded, becoming vaster and vaster, covering all the ground that they could see. The grey yellow ant like organisms caused all the emperors to shake because they couldn't even find a single patch of emptiness amongst all the organisms!!

It was as if a grey yellow flood came in from all directions, threatening to devour everything!!

The dark skies, the grey yellow ground, countless parasitic organisms in the millions crawling swiftly, the bloodthirsty bug emperor and heavenly devil insect emperors were all shocked that the species they could usually squash easily had developed to this magnitude!!

This was a calamity. Putting aside wounded and nearly dead organisms, even them as emperors, completely healthy, would probably get eaten by these billions of parasitic organisms!

“Wenwenwen!!!!!!”

The three heavenly devil insects were very fast and quickly flapped their wings into the skies.

They were sure that if they stayed for even a second longer, their lower limbs would be rendered fleshless!

“Gugugu!!!!!!” The blood thirsty blood insect was furious!

Clearly, this damned parasitic species wanted to steal the wounded super emperor!!

The cave had an extremely powerful super emperor that they all witnessed. Whoever ate its innard crystal would definitely grow in strength greatly. This bloodthirsty insect emperor had this ambition, yet he didn't expect the weak parasitic emperor to also come for a share!

Unforgiveable!

These things that relied on eating corpses wanted to steal from it, a middle class emperor rank?

The blood thirsty insect emperor didn't fly up and stood in place, sending an insect beam into the flooding parasitic insects!!

The insect glow exploded a few thousand meters away, sending an energy out that destroyed all the insects within that region!

Seeing the insects so fragile, the bloodthirsty insect emperor let out a mocking laughter.

Sadly, before it could even start laughing, the flood like grey yellowness instantly filled in the clearing!

In fact, the bloodthirsty emperor's feet were already covered by the parasitic insect army. One after another parasitic insect climbed onto the emperor's body!

Initially, the bloodthirsty emperor's any technique could kill thousands upon thousands of these weak lives.

However, no matter how many they killed, how fast they could cast their technique, the parasitic army was like an endless wave that collided into it.....

"Gugu!!!!!!" finally, the bug type emperor let out a shrill shriek!!

Soon following, the emperor's lower limbs were dissected and its body fell onto the ground.

Losing its limbs, the grey parasitic insect army covered over the emperor's body!!

"Zhizhizhi~~~~~"

In a few short seconds, the bloodthirsty insect emperor's entire body was completely broken down, leaving only some of its bones.

These bones scattered amongst the army, falling over and killing a few little parasitic insects that couldn't get out of the way in time.....

The parasitic species, though so weak it could be killed by falling bones, just dissected an entire middle class emperor rank!!

The three heavenly devil insects flew in the skies, their red eyes staring shocked at this scene. They were secretly glad that they had decided to run on time, or else they would suffer the same outcome as the bloodthirsty insect emperor!

Chapter 908: Super Emperor, Black War Tiger

The entire parasitic army usually had a commander that was slightly bigger than the other parasitic soul pets.

However, these commanders weren't like bug type empresses that had their lives connected with the entire colony. The commander of parasitic species were purely just a leader, able to be replaced when it died.

The grey yellow parasites already appeared on this cave. They weren't stoppable, easily passing through the rocks and quietly climbing onto the nearly dead organism.

“Huhu~~~~~”

The super emperor in the cave was still breathing heavily and nursing its wounds, not knowing what was happening outside.

At this moment, the parasitic commander was outside the cave. Its beady little eyes stared at this super emperor from afar.

By its body size, this super emperor was a massive meat mountain in their eyes; laying there gave them incredible pressure already.

However, any powerful organism couldn't avoid the destiny of getting old and dying. Seeing this nearly dead super emperor, the emperor rank parasitic commander let out a cold squeak of laughter.

When they were living, these soul pets were all hegemons, able to destroy the heavens and earth, completely able to disregard the weak parasitic organisms. Now, it didn't matter how powerful they were, they were still becoming the food of the parasitic species!

The strong preying on the weak was a rule that didn't apply to the parasitic species!

“Zhizhizhi~~~~~”

The parasitic species commander let out a command, and told all the billions of insects in its army to attack!

The parasites couldn't let this super emperor have the time to recover its wounds. Even if they lose a lot of members, they had to expand its wounds and let it die in pain!

Grey yellow came in from all corners of the cave, crawling from cracks, the tunnel, and even the ceiling, filling it with these tiny organisms!

Layer after layer, in the limited space, the entire army climbed over each other to get onto the super emperor.

“Hu~~~~~”

Suddenly, a heavy breath was spat out.

This heavy breath was like a terrifying storm for these parasites. Countless insects were blown away.

This breathing caused the entire parasitic army to stop, not daring to go forth.

The parasitic army was laying in the thousand insect desolation ground. They knew that this super emperor had just killed the true leader of this thousand insect desolation ground. That leader was a heavenly devil insect emperor that could kill half of their species with just a stamp of its feet.

If this super emperor in the cave still had any stamina, their entire species would instantly get killed.

For a second, none of the insects dared to go forth.

“Zhizhizhizhi!!!!!!”

Commander yelled out angrily again, and told its fellow species members that it was already on its last breath. If they waited until its wounds recovered, they wouldn't have another chance.

The parasites didn't dare to go against the commander's instructions, so they slowly started getting nearer.

The scouting parasites could in reality tell from wounds whether an organism still had the ability to fight. When the scouting insects found that it truly was on its dying breath, they finally all welled forth!

“Hua~~~~~”

The grey yellow parasites became a flood that instantly covered over the black super emperor, frenziedly invading all the wounds on it!

“Huhu!!!!!!!!!!”

Suddenly, the super emperor opened its eyes!

The pair of black pupils blossomed with sharp intent in the darkness like two arcs of thunder slicing through the darkness!

The super emperor finally noticed these stealthy little insects and anger spewed out of its eyes!!

“Houuuuuuuu!!!!!!!!!!”

The super emperor stood up suddenly and opened its mouth, causing a huge roar like a clap of thunder to sound out!!

“Longlonglong!!!!!!!!!!”

The entire cave started shaking as rocks fell down, unable to withstand the roar!

The sound wave spread forth and all the parasites that entered the cave instantly were shattered. Not a single one survived!

Cave collapsed and, within the falling rocks, a black and handsome figure dashed out. Like a hammer that came from the skies, it fell heavily on the ground filled with grey yellow parasites!

“Beng!!!!!!!!!!!!!!”

This stamp caused all the land within ten kilometers to shake. Countless cracks appeared, shattering the ground and sending out the shattering energy to all the grey yellow insects on the ground!!

“Hu~~~~~”

The grey yellow powder created a huge sand cloud that lifted off from the shattered ground!

There were billions of parasites in that army. In direct combat, they could even eat a high class emperor rank organism alive.

However, the stamp instantly killed the entire army, causing them to become grey yellow powder!

“Weng~~~~~”

In the sky, three shaky heavenly devil insect emperors stared at the broken ground and they all felt relieved that they escaped from certain death!

If they were as greedy as the bloodthirsty insect emperor, they would definitely be dead.

On the shattered ground, the war tiger covered in black armor stepped forth, throwing its steel-like tail towards the shattered cave.

A few steps out, it suddenly lifted its head and gazed coldly at the three heavenly devil insects in the sky.

The three heavenly devil insects suddenly noticed that the bloody wounds on the super emperor had healed and it seemed completely recovered in fighting strength!

Once its wounds were healed, this fellow was like a killing machine. The three heavenly devil insects were like easily frightened birds, quickly flying away from the scene, even bumping into each other in their panic!!

Seeing the three weak heavenly devil insects escape, the war tiger didn't chase after them and instead stepped into the cave and sat proudly yet lonely on the top of the ruins.

Not long after, from the shattered ground, a short legged raccoon like half human half soul pet ran over, stopping by the black war tiger but skidding far away before it could stop fully.

“You seemed to have failed. We said you had to defeat the bloodthirsty bug commander without using broken limb rebirth.” Half human half soul pet said.

“Hou~” Black war tiger seemed angry.

“Haha, no wonder, its the parasitic species, whatever, I’ll count that as a pass.” The half human and half soul pet said.

The ones speaking were naturally north forbidden realm training Zhan Ye and Old Li.

In this time period, Old Li almost never stopped the training for Zhan Ye, and Zhan Ye was incredibly hardworking, so its strength raised much faster than even Old Li imagined.

“Since you used broken limb rebirth once, then let’s delay the battle with that dragon. The opponent is the Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon, so you have to maintain your best state.” Old Li said.

Zhan Ye nodded, remaining silent.

“Just now, I did some scouting and found that the others aren’t here for the Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon. Speaking of which, not many people dare to come out here.” Old Li seemed to be saying to Zhan Ye, but seemed to be speaking to himself as well.

Zhan Ye closed its eyes and seemed to be listening or just resting.

.....

.....

On the south side of the thousand insect desolation ground was a tenth rank heavenly devil insect tribe. Normally, there were almost no traces of humans this deep into the forbidden realm, yet in this world full of craters and hives, four humans rode their soul pets deeper inwards.

“Great elder, we haven’t found anything in so long, let’s just return. Recently there has been a lot of trouble. If we stay for too long, we would be wasting too much time.....” A man with a large forehead said.

This man seemed to be very wary of his surroundings, but his furrowed brows showed his impatience.

“Zheng Bang, you mean finding medicine for my daughter is just a waste of time?” The man called the great senior elder turned around and stared coldly at the man named Zheng Bang.

Zheng Bang’s expressions lightly shifted as he didn’t meet the eyes of the great senior elder. However, from his expression, one could tell he was angered but didn’t dare to speak back.

“Elder Pang, Zheng Bang is just worried about the bigger picture, don’t blame him.” the gentle woman said.

This woman was very pretty, giving off a noble feeling from between her brows. Though her eyes were gentle, they commanded respect. It was likely a very powerful female soul pet trainer.

“Lady Xiao, I, Old Pang, just lost control of my emotions due to my worry for my beloved daughter and due to the time restriction. Help me say sorry to Zheng Bang.” Elder Pang was slightly softer in his tone, but he didn’t apologize himself. One could see he didn’t like that person much.

“My husband spoke of this place. There is even a Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon without a territory here. Elder Pang’s emotions are something I can sympathise with, but we still have to remain careful. We may be able to escape from a heavenly devil insect tribe surrounding us, but once we trouble the Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon, our lives will be gone.” Lady Xiao said solemnly.

Elder Pang and Zhen Bang all paused and glanced over at Lady Xiao.

“Aunt Xiao, is that Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon truly that powerful?” A younger woman asked.

Lady Xiao nodded and continued, “Its strength is just a small step away from dominator rank. With enough time, it will become a true dominator rank organism.”

“That.....that means its as powerful as last hero Mo Ling’s Tai Mountain Giant?” Zhen Bang paused before asking fearfully.

The Tai Mountain Giant, which needed eight elders to barely restrict, was naturally powerful and Zhen Bang knew that. If this Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon was truly just as powerful, weren’t they jumping into a death trap right now?

“It can only be stronger.” Lady Xiao’s voice was very low.

This sentence immediately caused the other three's faces to go pale!

Chapter 909: Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon

The person who paid the most attention to the Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon was Senior Elder Pang.

His daughter, Pang Yue, had befallen Poison Desolation Nie Yunbin's plot after offending him, and was poisoned.

Although the three great palaces hadn't started a war with Soul Alliance in Wanxiang City, fights in the shadows were constantly occurring. Nie Yunbing had used a crafty method to poison Pang Yue and had proposed that she marry him. Shamelessly, he would only cure her if she married him. As a father, Senior Elder Pang had nearly brought Soul Pet Palace's army to invade Wanxiang Altar!

Pang Yue was Soul Pet Palace's first princess and was the representative person of Soul Pet Palace's young generation. She was also a famous beauty in Wanxiang Realm and even now, her father, Senior Elder Pang, had yet to find someone fitting for his own daughter.

Ignoring the fact that Poison Desolation Nie Yunbing was a sworn enemy, his extremely ugly face and evil heart made it so he would rather his own daughter be poisoned to death than marry him!

Nobody could cure Pang Yue's poison, so Senior Elder Pang could only request assistance from the noble and virtuous Madam Xiao.

Madam Xiao herself was from Soul Pet Palace. Although she had already retired, she still had influence in Tianxia Realm and Wanxiang Realm. Moreover, she had extraordinary abilities.

Madam Xiao knew how to cure the poison. Unfortunately, the items required were too hard to find. She had only heard of them appearing in the Thousand Insect Desolation Ground's northern side.

The four of them had come here this time in order to find the Ground Heart Insect that was capable of curing Pang Yue's poison. Madam Xiao and her husband had come here before, and she couldn't ignore Soul Pet Palace's matters. Therefore, she had come here with Pang Xing.

Senior Elder Pang, Pang Xing, was trying to save his daughter so he didn't care how dangerous it was. He would still go himself.

Zheng Bang was a Hunting Association expert, and was rather familiar with bug type emperors. Pang Xing had spent a lot of money to invite him, but he didn't realize that this fellow was a coward. Thus, he was extremely dissatisfied.

The other person Madam Xiao brought was called Zhang Ying. He was a support soul pet trainer. Without a support soul pet trainer to heal soul pets when entering such a dangerous place, the losses would be horrible.

En route, the four of them had encountered many troubles, but ultimately reached this land.

In truth, the Ground Heart Insect wasn't a very high ranking soul pet. They practically had no offensive capabilities. Their only ability was to suck out the poison in a creature's body and transform it into their own energy.

Ground Heart Insects were exceptionally rare. Due to their special ability, if one appeared, they would normally be recruited by the leader of a territory so that when they were poisoned in a fight, the Ground Heart Insect could detoxify them.

.....

The four of them passed through the Heavenly Devil Insect Tribe's thousand Insect Desolation Ground and reached the northern side's blood colored forbidden region.

The majority of creatures that lived here were Bloodthirsty Insects. Indeed, it was a Bloodthirsty Insect tribe.

If it was merely a tribe, even a tenth ranked one, with the four of them, it wouldn't be a problem to either escape or fight. However, after they heard from Madam Xiao that there was a Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon here, they became extra cautious. They were deeply afraid of provoking this esteemed magnate.

The Bloodthirsty Insects were also called Bloodsucking Insects. Ground Heart Insects could be considered a mutated species of Bloodthirsty Insects. Therefore, there was a chance they could appear in the Bloodthirsty Insect's territory.

"Aunt Xiao, why haven't you said anything from just now?"

"I remember that Thousand Insect Desolation Ground should have a few peak emperor rank creatures. Why hasn't anything happened since we've passed through their territories?" said Madam Xiao.

"Hopefully those magnates killed each other." said Zhang Ying.

It was naturally a good thing that they were able to peacefully traverse through these territories. Zhang Ying didn't want to be surrounded by another tribe's army and then have to face the ferocious looking insect emperors.

Madam Xiao intentionally looked back at the Thousand Insect Desolation Ground. She didn't think about this question again. Perhaps they really did kill each other.

A moment later, Pang Xing and the others arrived in the middle area of the Bloodthirsty Insect Tribe.

The entire tribe's territory was vast and barren. As far as they could see, aside from blood colored rocks with fissures through them, the only things there were low ranking Bloodthirsty Insects wriggling about.

The territory occupied by the tribe probably wasn't any less than a tenth rank kingdom. Trying to find a white colored Ground Heart Insect from such a large piece of land was practically like finding a needle in a haystack. It was no wonder that Zheng Bang thought they were wasting time here!

The four of them were extremely cautious, and tried their best not to be discovered by the Bloodthirsty Insect army.

However, after aimless searches over many days, they weren't able to discover any traces of Ground Heart Insects.

There wasn't much time left. If they couldn't find it, Pang Yue wouldn't be able to wake up again. Senior Elder Pang was growing more and more restless.

“Today is the last day we search. If we can’t find it, we can only enter the Bloodthirsty Insect tribe’s nest. If the Bloodthirsty Insect Emperor has discovered a Ground Heart Insect, it definitely is raising it to detoxify poisons. The chances of finding one there are higher.” Madam Xiao creased her brows.

“This... isn’t too good, eh? This tribe should be about the tenth rank.” Zheng Bang didn’t want to take a risk like that.

Pang Xing glared at Zheng Bang. If he knew this fellow was so cowardly, he wouldn’t have spent so many spirits to invite him.

.....

After searching for a day, they weren’t able to find anything. Thus, they changed their target to the main nest of the Bloodthirsty Insect tribe.

Bloodthirsty Insects had extremely powerful bloodsucking abilities. Being able to recover fighting strength from sucking enemy blood made them a species that was extremely hard to deal with.

Fortunately, the four of them were prepared and had a high chance of dealing with them.

The four of them first snuck nearby the Bloodthirsty Insect’s main nest. Madam Xiao’s demon went to scout for whether there was a Ground Heart Insect in the main nest.

"Hu hu~~~~"

A moment later, the demon returned.

“So?” Pang Xing hastily asked. This main nest was his last hope. If there was no Ground Heart Insect, his daughter would truly be poisoned to death.

Madam Xiao revealed a happy expression: “There really is a Ground Heart Insect. Let’s do as we planned.”

The worried expression on Pang Xing’s face vanished. He emphatically nodded his head: “Then I’ll go and lure them.”

The plan was very simple. It was to lure the tiger out of its den.

Pang Xing, Zheng Bang, and Zhang Ying would anger the master of the nest and lure a big portion of the powerful Bloodthirsty Insects away. Then, Madam Xiao would make her way into the nest, and take the Ground Heart Insect.

Pang Xing was anxious about saving his daughter. He didn’t say anything else, and promptly urged his Large Spirit Armored Beast to charge at the Bloodthirsty Insect nest.

Since Pang Xing had already began, the other two could only hastily follow.

As for Madam Xiao, she patiently waited in her spot.

Approximately an hour later, countless enormous hill-like Bloodthirsty Insects rushed out from nearby Madam Xiao. Where these Bloodthirsty Insects crawled, they would leave deep tracks in the ground. From top to bottom they were covered in bloodsucking poison. They looked exceptionally malevolent and disgusting.

Madam Xiao hid herself using her demon and waited for the Bloodthirsty Insects to chase past her before silently making her way around to the main nest.

She knew that there would still be a powerful Bloodthirsty Insect Emperor defending there. She intentionally summoned her beast emperor and vine type emperor outside the nest. She deliberately had them exude their auras to lure the defending Bloodthirsty Insect Emperor out of the nest.

Madam Xiao was extremely strong. Perhaps she herself would be able to annihilate a normal tenth rank tribe. However, en route, her main pets had grown exceptionally tired. Annihilating a Bloodthirsty Insect tribe may not be too hard, but after doing so, it would be practically impossible for the four of them to safely return to human territory.

“It’s come.” seeing the fat and enormous Bloodthirsty Insect Emperor appear, the corners of her lips slightly raised. She knew that her plan had probably succeeded.

This was the last peak emperor rank Bloodthirsty Insect in the main nest. After luring it out, there would be no creature that could stop her demon from taking the Ground heart Insect.

“Sou~~~~~”

A moment later, the demon indeed grabbed the white wriggling insect. A smile of relief appeared on Madam Xiao’s face.

“Return!” Madam Xiao chanted an incantation and decisively recalled the vine type emperor and beast type emperor fighting a large group of Bloodthirsty Insects back to their soul pet spaces.

“Let’s leave and meet up with them.” Madam Xiao said to her demon.

The Bloodthirsty Insects moved as a group. They were in the process of surrounding two powerful invaders, but in the blink of an eye, they disappeared. The only thing they saw was a human woman riding on an extremely fast creature as she disappeared from nearby their nest!

The Bloodthirsty Insect Emperor instantly let out an angry roar. It had the Bloodthirsty Insect army chase in the direction that human woman fled!

Madam Xiao’s demon was already nearing the paragon emperor rank. The Bloodthirsty Insects were clearly inferior. Even that peak emperor rank Bloodthirsty Insect could only watch as that human traversed as it pleased with rapid speed through its territory, much less the army.

.....

“Hu hu~~~~”

While running, Madam Xiao’s demon seemed to have sensed something. It let out a sound that resembled a wind calling.

“They’ve encountered danger?” Madam Xiao was stunned.

Senior Elder pang's strength was not much inferior to her own. Added on Zheng Bang and Zhang Ying, even if they were surrounded by the army, it probably wouldn't be much of an obstacle to them.

Madam Xiao had her demon speed up as she rushed towards the others.

“Ao Hou Hou Hou~~~~~”

Suddenly, an earth and heaven shattering dragon cry rang out from in front!!

A powerful sound wave was released, causing tens of thousands of low ranking Bloodthirsty Insects to instantly explode!!

Blood and flesh splattered over the ground. Madam Xiao, riding on her demon, went pale because an enormous bloody figure proudly appeared in front of her. It dominated this barren earth!

“Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon!!!” Madam Xiao cried out in shock.

She condensed her soul remembrance and look in the distance. She discovered in horror that Pang Xing and the two others were extremely close to the Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon!!

Clearly, their fight with the Bloodthirsty Insects had provoked the dominator of this bloody land, the Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon!!

Chapter 910: Mo Ye, Alone Versus the Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon

Its bloody wings were enormous, and its skeleton that extended from the ground to the clouds was like a towering spire. Its enormous body was majestic and proud, giving people the pressure of an enormous mountain. Its pair of bloody pupils were perpetually filled with anger and violence. It didn't matter who provoked it, but that creature would definitely suffer the savage wrath of a dragon!!

The closer she got, the more pressure Madam Xiao felt. This creature, a perfect combination of the beast and insect type, could probably create heavenly destructing strength with a casual wave of its claws!

Although Madam Xiao had known that it was extremely terrifying, when she personally saw it, she couldn't help but tremble!

"Aunt Xiao, quickly come and save us!!" Zhang Ying saw in the distance that Madam Xiao was rushing towards them. His fearful eyes revealed a trace of hope!

The Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon was much stronger than they had imagined. The three of them had summoned all of their soul pets. However, a single clash with the Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon had led to two emperors of Zhang Ying and Zheng Bang being instantly killed. They weren't even able to use a single technique.

Zheng Bang was one of Hunting Alliance's top experts. His main pets had also reached the peak emperor rank. However, they weren't able to escape the fate of instant death. The difference in strength made even Senior Elder Pang flabbergasted!

Pang Xing's five soul pets had simultaneously thrown themselves at the Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon. Pang Xing had one paragon emperor and four peak emperors. His five soul pets together had barely managed to stop the Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon's offense and saved Zhang Ying who was shouting to Madam Xiao for help.

Zhang Ying had felt an enormous dragon claw brush against her shoulder. She had been so scared she was slightly paralyzed on her soul pet's back. A little bit more, and her life would have been gone!

"Hurry up and leave!" Madam Xiao quickly chanted an incantation and summoned the beast type emperor and vine type emperors beside her.

The beast type emperor was a horned beast emperor. Its body was covered in golden and silver armor. When the horned beast emperor charged at the Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon, its enormous horn flickered with dazzling light.

"Keng!!!"

The Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon's body slid back a little bit. Only a light scratch was left on its scales where the horned beast's light horn had struck it. Even its defenses hadn't been broken!

"This..." Madam Xiao was stunned.

Her horned beast was a genuine paragon emperor, and its light horn was its strongest offensive weapon. Even a peak emperor with extremely high defense would likely be pierced by it.

However, it was not even able to break apart the Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon's defense!

How strong did its scales have to be to stop such a powerful attack!

“Split up and escape!!” Madam Xiao recognized that their soul pets were simply not its opponents as she yelled towards the other three.

Why would the other three insist on fighting? They all rode on their fastest soul pets and fled in different directions.

Splitting and fleeing wasn’t an infallible plan because the moment a person was focused, that person was dead.

Unfortunately, even with this plan, the Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon wasn’t going to let them succeed. The dominator of this bloody land let out a roar at the sky!!

The roar rang throughout the entire area. Suddenly, countless large bodies surged out from the earth. They attempted to surround the four fleeing people!

“Gu gu gu gu gu~~~~~”

The Bloodthirsty Insect army had covered the area, and had forced the fleeing humans to return. There was nowhere to run.

“These things are listening to the Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon’s orders!!” Zheng Bang’s face was pale and his hand subconsciously trembled!

A single Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon had already scared their spirits. Added on the enormous tenth rank tribe of Bloodthirsty Insects, they really were going to perish in this desolate region.

Madam Xiao, Pang Xing and Zhang Ying had all been forced back as well. Now that their plan had failed, they had to stand together if they wanted to survive longer. Otherwise, if they were attacked one at a time by the Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon, none of them could even think about leaving alive.

“I’ll delay the Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon. You guys try your best to kill your way out!” Pang Xing gritted his teeth!

It wasn’t important if he died here. Pang Xing didn’t want to hinder Madam Xiao who had helped him out of kindness. Nor did he want his daughter to be poisoned to death.

“Senior Elder Pang...” Madam Xiao glanced at Pang Xing.

“Madam Xiao, I entrust my daughter to you!” Pang Xing had already made up his mind. After speaking, he ordered his five soul pets to charge at the Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon!!

Zheng Bang and Zhang Ying were both stunned. They looked in shock at Pang Xing’s lone figure leave. For a moment, they had bitter feelings in their heart.

Senior Elder Pang would be unable to return. Thinking of a senior elder from Soul Pet Palace perishing, a dense haze shrouded their hearts.

“Let’s go.” Madam Xiao was very decisive. She indignantly and justly ordered her three soul pets to open a bloody path.

Zheng Bang and Zhang Ying didn't dare stop here. They closely followed beside her and charged at the large and fat Bloodthirsty Insects.

“Ao!!!!!!!!!!”

The Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon's eyes were bloody and savage. Seeing the human bring his five soul pest to kill it, it looked as if it was watching tasty prey. It madly stepped forward, barging through and knocking Pang Xing's five soul pets away!

Pang Xing himself was knocked flying. He dizzily turned around and climbed up, only to see the Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon unscathed. He was even more stunned!

This Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon was too strong. He thought that he would be able to stop it for a moment, but ended up being dispensed with so easily. Pang Xing knew that he would be able to last for a few minutes at most!

“Sou sou sou~~~~~”

Pang Xing was about to stand up, when suddenly a black figure moving at extreme speed flashed past him. In the blink of an eye, it appeared in front of the Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon. It extended its armor spikes glistening in cold light, drawing a dark cold light that pierced the Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon's scaled abdomen!

“Pu!!!!!!”

The armored spike pierced the Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon's body without resistance. The Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon let out a pained roar!!

Pang Xing opened his mouth wide and stared in shock at the black figure. Even Madam Xiao's horned beast emperor was unable to break apart the Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon's defenses. Yet, this mysterious Warbeast Mo Ye had managed to wound it!

“Ao!!!!”

The Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon angrily tossed Pang Xing's demon aside, and its claws fiercely swiped at the Warbeast Mo Ye on its abdomen!

The Warbeast Mo Ye recalled its armor spikes and nimbly transformed into a black shadow, dodging its attack. It once more returned a thousand meters away!

“This is...” Pang Xing looked on, flabbergasted, at this Warbeast Mo Ye.

He was certain that this Warbeast Mo Ye was extremely strong. It was even stronger than Madam Xiao's horned beast emperor. However, despite looking in all directions, Pang Xing was unable to find another soul pet trainer. Moreover, this powerful Mo Ye Emperor had no reason to save him.

“Ao~~~~~”

The Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon's eyes were dense like blood, filled with bloodthirstiness and savagery. The moment it was angered its anger would become even colder. It stared intensely and the black colored war tiger that had injured it. It used its roar to tell this thing, courting death, that it had better be ready to pay its life for provoking it!

“Let’s deal with it together!” Pang Xing used this opportunity to call the five soul pets back to his side, rearranging them into a formation.

Pang Xing knew that now wasn’t a time to ask questions. Since this powerful Mo Ye Emperor was willing to help him, they should combine their strengths to deal with this Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon. After all, it the Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon was very close to the dominator rank!

The Mo Ye Emperor ignored Pang Xing. It just calmly stood there.

Pang Xing didn’t know what this Mo Ye wanted to do. He asked again, but received an astonishing answer.

“You... you don’t want me to interfere?” Pang Xing was somewhat skeptical whether he misinterpreted this Mo Ye Emperor’s meaning.

However, when he discovered the Mo Ye Emperor slowly take a step forward and approach the Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon, alone, he realized that he hadn’t understood incorrectly. This Mo Ye wanted to fight the Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon alone!

“Just get rid of those Bloodthirsty Insects. Don’t disturb its fight with the Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon.” at this moment, a half pet half human raccoon jumped out, appearing in front of Pang Xing.

“Why is it you, you rotten old fellow!” Pang Xing was stunned as he pointed at Old Li.

“Haha, it’s me.” Old Li profoundly stroked his silver beard and spoke proudly.

“That Mo Ye Emperor is...” Pang Xing never expected to encounter this famous, strange thief here.

“It’s a brat’s soul pet. I felt that it had potential so for the past few years, I’ve been training it in the Northern Forbidden Region. This Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon is its test to see the results of its training. Don’t steal it from the Mo Ye.” laughed Old Li.

When he had scouted around earlier, Old Li had only seen the other three people. He didn’t realize Pang Xing was here.

Old Li had previously stolen many items from Soul Pet Palace. As a senior elder, Pang Xing naturally recognized this strange old fellow.

“Only a demon would steal it from the Mo Ye!” cursed Pang Xing.

The Blood Barbarian Hidden Beast was such an extraordinary existence that if it wasn’t to protect Madam Xiao and the two others, Pang Xing obviously wouldn’t have fought with this creature, much less steal it? Was he mental?

“It’s good that you’re not stealing it. It was even scared that you would use up the Blood Barbarian Hidden Beast’s strength. If that happened, then it would be unable to prove its strength.” said Old Li.

Pang Xing’s face immediately turned black. What was this fellow saying? The only reason the Mo Ye Emperor saved him earlier was because it didn’t want him to interfere?!

“Whose soul pet is this? It seems to be very strong, but it cannot be the Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon’s opponent!’ Pang Xing seriously said.

“Chu Mu’s. Whether it’s an opponent, we’ll know once they finish fighting.” said Old Li.

“Chu Mu? Which Chu Mu? Pang Xing thought for a while, but wasn’t able to think of an expert called Chu Mu.

“You don’t even recognize Tianxia Realm’s King?!” Old Li rolled his eyes.

Pang Xing was stunned. His face was immediately filled with shock, “You’re talking about the brat who transformed into a devil?”

“Yes.” Old Li nodded his head.

Pang Xing had heard of Chu Mu. His gaze immediately shifted to the Warbeast Mo Ye that was so strong it was going to fight the Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon alone...

Senior Elder Pang had heard that Chu Mu was a soul pet trainer with extreme potential. However, he never expected that his soul pet would be so strong!!
