

Soul Pets Bk2 951

Chapter 951: Emperor Concubine's Plot

Sealed Tower

In the gray skies, the rusty chains shook back and forth in the rain.

Within the rain, a golden phoenix swung its wings, and caused all the rain to become gold, becoming countless brilliant dots that fell onto the ground.

The golden phoenix was war goddess Mu Qingyi. Over the past two months, she had come to the sealed tower many times, but never found the organism that broke the sky chain.

Over the observations of the past time, Mu Qingyi discovered that the sealed tower had many sealed soul pets that were dying and getting their innard crystals, soul cores, and soul crystals stolen. Many long term prisoners were becoming corpses.

“Yi~~~~~”

Golden pupil crown phoenix king let out a light call, and flapped its wings towards the ground.

Mu Qingyi's gaze immediately fell on the ground between two chains, but she suddenly noticed a blue petal between the chains, unnoticeable unless one was watching extremely closely.

Mu Qingyi furrowed her brows and carefully watched the blue flower petals. In her mind, these special flower petals should be everywhere in the flower queen's palace, yet why were there a few petals here?

The sealed tower didn't belong under emperor concubine's jurisdiction, and only a few people could enter this place. At least emperor concubine's subordinates definitely couldn't enter without giving prior notice.

Just as she was confused, Mu Qingyi suddenly noticed a strange shift in the large cloud in the sky. Soon after, a glow from the heavens appeared, shining radiantly!

"Who opened the totem door?" Mu Qingyi was dazed. Clearly someone was trying to enter sealed tower.

However, the opening and closing of this place were only controlled by Mu Qingyi and lead hero Yuan Sui. No one else should be able to come in!

When Mu Qingyi noticed the issue, she instantly told her crown phoenix to revert back to its skylark appearance and summoned a black cloaked figure; an Evernight Emperor.

"Hide." Mu Qingyi said to her dark type esoul pet.

The evernight emperor swung its cape around, and became a rather dark shadow that slowly disappeared in the rain. Slowly, it moved towards that direction.

.....

“Let’s kill the abyss beast that had been trapped for a hundred years. We’re missing around ten more innard crystals. If we come a few more times, we should be able to fix it.” A man riding a cyan large eagle said.

Mu Qingyi glanced at the man. She recognized him; it was eighth desolation Bing Liao, who was subordinate to emperor concubine!

Beside eighth desolation Bing Liao was a woman. This woman Mu Qingyi had seen before. It seemed to be a very powerful soul pet trainer called Hua Qin.

However, hiding in the rain, Mu Qingyi was incredibly angry because she didn’t expect the sealed prisoners were simply getting killed by Bing Liao and Hua Qin. It seemed also that they had collected a good amount of soul crystals. No wonder there were more and more dead soul pets recently!

Compared to Mu Qingyi, who thought it was Chu Tianmang’s rampant soul pet, if she didn’t specially check this time, she wouldn’t know how many more lives they would have collected.

“However, two people couldn’t possibly have the guts.” Mu Qingyi quickly realized a more severe problem.

Clearly, both of them were emperor concubine’s seals. That meant that the people who were stealing advanced soul crystals from soul tower was likely under orders.

Hearing about that near immortal and pure girl, Mu Qingyi again showed some loss as she tried putting things together. Mu Qingyi was again unsure whether the nice and merciful emperor concubine would truly do such a thing.

“I have to find out!” Mu Qingyi pushed down the anger in her heart and didn’t stop the two from their objectives, deciding to hide along with them instead.

The two didn’t speak much. After opening the seal, they immediately killed the soul pet within it and harvested the innard crystal.

Mu Qingyi calculated that there were many deaths in sealed tower already, of which many were top tier and high class emperor ranks. There were uncountable other emperor ranks too. With such a massive amount of innard crystals, the collective energy was massive. If all this energy were given to one person.....

Either they were plotting a massive scheme, or they were satisfying an enormous greed!

After the two thieves left, Mu Qingyi didn’t follow them. She didn't want to disturb the plotters behind the scene. Instead, she wanted to figure out what was happening step by step.

After Bing Liao and Hua Qin left, Mu Qingyi returned to the sealed tower and her palace.

“Your majesty, did you find any leads today?” Fang Wu walked over and, seeing Mu Qingyi extremely grave expression, she asked.

Mu Qingyi repeated the situation she saw and asked, “Fang Wu, how do you see it?”

“That isn’t likely, it might be Bing Liao’s own greed.....” Fang Wu didn’t want to be suspicious of emperor concubine.

“I feel so too.” Mu Qingyi nodded.

“However, subordinate thinks your majesty should still go and figure out the truth. We’re afraid of the small possibilities too, since this is such a great matter.” Fang Wu said.

“En, when it enters night time, We’ll go into her palace secretly.....” Mu Qingyi didn’t understand the situation and felt that something was off.

.....

Fang Wu had entered the Emperor Flower Palace before and knew the layout well. When it was night time, Mu Qingyi and Fang Wu rode their dark type soul pets and entered the palace secretly.

Emperor flower palace was massive. There were blue flowers all over the palace walls and pillars. When one walks in, its like they entered a heavenly realm. One could easily lose oneself amongst the beautiful palace.

Mu Qingyi and Fang Wu didn’t have much direction. After all, emperor concubine’s bedchambers were definitely heavily guarded, so looking into it would be hard.

“Your majesty, a while ago I saw some traces of special setups in the main courtyard of the emperor flower palace. It looked like a flower diagram. When I went to check it out of curiosity, I was blocked anxiously by flower concubines. I felt like they might be hiding something there.” Fang Wu whispered to Mu Qingyi.

“En, let’s check it out.” Mu Qingyi nodded and told Fang Wu to lead the way.

Two dark shadows passed through the hallway and through many of the courtyards full of plants to near the main courtyard.

Emperor flower palace main courtyard was very large, almost like a small forest. Around it were walls filled with flower stems. There even seemed to be a barrier around it.

The barrier didn’t pose much of an obstacle for Mu Qingyi, so they easily entered the main courtyard.

The main courtyard actually didn’t have a single plant, but it was covered in different shades of flowers. It seemed to join together like strips of color, creating a huge ground painting of a dazzling diagram.

Mu Qingyi glanced over and noticed all the flowers emitting a strange aura. Though they were incredibly beautiful, Mu Qingyi was vigilant.

Mu Qingyi slowly move forward, and suddenly felt some energy escape from underneath her.

She crouched down to throw some dirt aside.

The next moment, Mu Qingyi’s face turned grave as she discovered an extremely high ranking innard crystal!

These innard crystals were buried under the flower branches, and were constantly absorbing the energy within the innard crystals, using it as nutrients to grow.

Mu Qingyi looked in a few more locations and found that almost every inch of this flower garden were filled with innard crystals, soul cores, and soul crystals that were used as energy sources that gave power to the plants above!

“It really is her!” Mu Qingyi’s heart was in turmoil. She didn’t think that emperor concubine truly told people to go steal the lives of prisoners in sealed tower to use their innard crystals and soul crystals for plant fertilizer!

If not for seeing this herself, Mu Qingyi couldn’t believe that emperor concubine’s otherworldly appearance hid such a large appetite and ambition. This was hard to believe!

“Sister Mu, coming so late in the night, why don’t you come to my bedchamber to talk? It’s dangerous outside.” Suddenly, a sonorous voice appeared!

Though this voice was pleasing, it caused Mu Qingyi to shiver. She didn’t expect to be discovered despite her hiding!

“Why do you say such meaningless things, sister, I just want to know why these lives of sealed tower prisoners ended up in your plant garden. Are Bing Liao and Hua Qin bringing these things to you to please you without your knowledge, or did you tell them to do it?” Mu QIng Yi didn’t want to small talk and asked directly.

After speaking, emperor concubine slowly drifted out of the side of the main palace, dressed in a golden silky sleep gown and a golden mask. Her star-like pupils gazed at the darkly dressed Mu Qingyi and couldn’t help but laugh charmingly.

“Sister Mu truly looks valiant in your outfit.” Emperor concubine teased, her crescent brows slightly lifted as she continued, “Do you want to know why all these crystals appeared here?”

Mu Qingyi suddenly felt a killing intent hidden in emperor concubine’s smile and started an incantation.

“It’s because all of this was prepared for Sister Mu.” Emperor concubine’s sonorous voice suddenly turned icy cold as a roar of killing intent went forth!

Mu Qingyi’s face turned pale, because she felt the killing intent come not from emperor concubine but instead from the massive ground painting of flowers!!

Mu Qingyi turned around instantly but noticed Fang Wu quickly retreating already!

“You!” Mu Qingyi’s face went red as her eyes spewed flames!

It was indeed a plot!!!

However, Mu Qingyi didn’t expect this plot to be targeting her!!!

Chapter 952

Killing intent poured forward. Mu Qingyi felt like there were countless ghosts screaming around her ears, causing her mental state to be severely impacted. She couldn’t even cast incantations in that state!

“Leave!” Mu Qingyi bit down on her teeth and gave her Evernight Emperor a command.

Evernight Emperor's cape swept past and immediately, the nearby darkness within five kilometers became darkness. Even the palace lights were devoured.

Evernight emperor didn't dare to stay long, escaping out of the main courtyard with the mentally incapacitated Mu Qingyi.

Yet, the entire courtyard had already formed a massive barrier that encased Mu Qingyi the moment she stepped into the court.

Evernight Emperor could move around infinitely in this darkness, but its darkness cape couldn't pass through the hard barrier.

Mu Qingyi was shocked. This diagram was probably prepared for a while and was just waiting for her to fall into it!

"Don't waste your time and just give up, then I won't make it difficult for sister. Once everything is over, naturally I'll let you leave." Emperor concubine said softly, seeming really like a little sister trying to convince her older sister something.

Mu Qingyi glanced at emperor concubine angrily and finally seemed to see through her false kindness!

Give up? Mu Qingyi knew very clearly that once she gave up, with emperor concubine's power, she could instantly overthrow royal family Mu. Without her, the mu family had no backing, and the entire tianxia realm would be hers!

“Huhuhuhu!!!”

Suddenly, golden flames emerged from Mu Qingyi's shoulder, its blinding flames instantly casting away all the darkness nearby, sending hot holy fire through the world.

Within the raging golden flames, a fire phoenix slowly appeared. Every time it flapped its wings, it would lift up golden flame clouds. Its imposing manner took up the entire palace!

Seeing Mu Qingyi's crown phoenix king appear, emperor concubine's eyes flashed with a slightly careless laugh.

As the incantation was read, countless deep blue flower petals instantly floated around her. These petals were different from those in Xiangrong City. These petals all had a watery sheen to them.

After last time's punishment from fire type, emperor concubine wouldn't make the same mistake. With water type imbued within them, the flower diagram she made was already somewhat resistant to fire type. In addition, she had prepared a large “gift” for Mu Qingyi's crown phoenix king already!

When her incantation finished, the main courtyard suddenly swelled with a massive energy that instantly drained all the soul crystals buried within the ground.

All of these crystals were emperor rank, many of which were even high class emperor rank. Such a large source of power was enough to power the flower diagram to heavily wound even dominator rank soul pets!

The flower stems created a dazzling glow on the ground. Intersecting and blinking, this black space flashed, and caused one to fall into an illusion as a feeling of dizziness stumbled into their mental world.

The sky flower transformed, and all the flower stems became light blades full of killing intent, filling this dark world. The sword points were as numerous as the stars in the night sky, too densely packed to dodge!

“Kill!” A light yell and immediately, all the light swords flew became a hail of blades that pierced towards Mu Qingyi and Crown Phoenix King.

Crown Phoenix King quickly opened up her fire cloud wings, protecting the fragile evernight emperor and Mu Qingyi underneath it.

Flames darted between crown phoenix king’s feathers, quickly creating a sun shield that appeared around crown phoenix king’s feathers, stopping the light swords!

The golden shield only lasted a moment before dissipating. All the deep blue swords pierced towards the crown phoenix king’s golden body, each sword causing its flames to extinguish a little more!

“Yi~~~~~”

Crown phoenix king let out a painful call. Its back and wings were already filled with deep blue swords, densely spiked into it.

However, new light swords still came regardless, causing the blue swords originally stuck in its body to pierce straight through. This was truly having countless swords piercing one's heart~

“Phoenix!” Mu Qingyi’s eyes turned red as she gazed fuzzily at the golden figure, her heart feeling absolutely torn.

The diagram was far stronger than Mu Qingyi expected. As a dominator rank, crown phoenix king was already nearly dead from getting pierced!

The weak crown phoenix king difficulty lowered its head, and gazed at Mu Qingyi.

“Yi~!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!”

Suddenly, crown phoenix king let out a kingly call, and waved its tattered wings!

Two wing slashes flew through the sky and interlaced in the night, stopping most other spatial swords from landing.

The crown phoenix king’s dark golden fire came back and burned all over its body. The nearly heavily wounded crown phoenix king was finally showing dominator rank aura again.

“I’ve underestimated a phoenix species!” Emperor concubine’s expression changed slightly.

The water poison light blade would cause great depression to crown phoenix king, and under normal circumstances, a phoenix had to have fire to cast rebirth.

However, Mu Qingyi's crown phoenix king fire had been mostly severed, but not completely with water poison.

The reborn crown phoenix king brought Mu Qingyi some breathing space. However, Mu Qingyi couldn't feel lucky because such a rebirth without fire required burning its lifespan in return. She could only keep this up for a very short time.

Crown phoenix king was indeed naturally giving Mu Qingyi time to escape. Mu Qingyi didn't think much, casting an incantation swiftly to summon her silver tiger.

Mu Qingyi decisively jumped onto the white tiger. At this moment, the evernight emperor was already ahead, using its body to slam into the thorny barrier.

This phantom vine barrier was incredibly solid. The evernight emperor's techniques couldn't break it open, leaving only shallow marks. This caused Mu Qingyi to become extremely anxious.

Such a terrifying diagram and sealed barrier meant this woman truly wanted her to die here!!

"Your majesty, why are you in a hurry to leave? Let I, Mo Ling, have a fight with you?" A strange voice came aside, giving Mu Qingyi shivers.

Mu Qingyi glanced over to see the ten meter tall Tai Mountain Giant appear behind her. On its shoulder was end hero Mo Ling!

Mo Ling smiled coldly. Seeing the war goddess so pathetic and hurried, he felt strangely excited!

Beforehand, because the crown phoenix king was definitely dominator rank, Mo Ling always had to kneel before her. At that moment, Mo Ling already felt hatred for Mu Qingyi. Today, after years of planning, Mo Ling had to corrupt the high and mighty woman!

Mu Qingyi's face grew even paler, but her eyes watched Mo Ling calmly and coldly.

Mu Qingyi didn't continue to entertain Mo Ling's mocking and glared at the woman that seemed to be very plain, "You've called all the heroes your own, yet you don't want to be queen of the world?"

"Queen? Not interested, it's just resentment in my mind I can't get over. Emperor concubine said.

After speaking about this, emperor concubine's killing diagram appeared again, stopping in front of Mu Qingyi's Phoenix.

Mu Qingyi turned away but was already crying. What she saw in those golden eyes were only calm and peace. This time, crown phoenix king didn't show any pain on its face.

"Die!!" Mo Ling laughed frenziedly, and told Tai Mountain Giant to punch white tiger and Mo Ling!

The Tai Mountain giant had ten thousand tons of strength. This attack caused white tiger and Mu Qingyi to fly off and land heavily against the barrier, sending blood flying!

Mo Ling followed up and wanted to end white tiger in a single punch. At this moment, evernight emperor flew towards Tai Mountain Giant.

Tai Mountain Giant was just about to drop a punch when suddenly behind it, a shadow appeared. This shadow was almost identical to tai mountain giant. The shadow also threw a punch at tai mountain giant, which caused the giant to shake and lose its balance- its punch instead landed on the barrier!

The entire barrier field shook wildly, and the top showed signs of cracking!

White tiger was already spitting blood, but when it noticed the barrier had cracks, its steel-like body darted out, and heavily clawed at the broken bits.

“Peng!!!!!”

The barrier shattered like a mirror!!

White tiger didn't dare to hesitate at all. One sweep of its tail carried Mu Qingyi onto its back. It then quickly disappeared into the crack without even turning around.

“Garbage- I’ll shatter you!” Mo Ling saw Mu Qingyi was about to escape, yet he was trapped by the evernight emperor. He immediately roared here, and told the tai mountain giant to turn and face it!

Though evernight emperor could be a shadow, its capabilities were rather limited. After a few techniques, the evernight emperor was stepped on by tai mountain giant.

White tiger flew in the skies as Mu Qingyi sat up on its back. She glanced back weakly just as she saw evernight emperor get stepped on like crazy.....

This cruel scene got further and further away from her, but her heart hurt more and more until her soul pact finally broke and she nearly fainted.

Mu Qingyi didn't dare turn around, because she knew clearly that turning back meant white tiger would also die.

The golden flames were still helping make time for her to escape.

Mu Qingyi's mouth corner bled as she stared, her eyes teared up, at the vast wanxiang city.

This city belonged to her, yet she didn't know where to escape to now.....

Chapter 953: Fleeing Mu Qingyi

Late at night, Soul Palace's Deep Palace.

Chu Mu sat alone in his courtyard. Tonight, Ye Qingzi was concocting medicine, so to avoid disturbing her, Chu Mu sat alone in the courtyard scattered with leaves, drinking tea.

In the past, Chu Mu would always hope to cultivate at night. However, there was no more use in cultivating, and Chu Mu also felt that sleeping was a waste, so he would spend his time reading books about soul pet species.

This time, Chu Mu was reading a book about the phoenix species. Chu Mu had many areas about this species which he didn't understand. If he was able to analyze this book, he would be able to conduct his battles and use techniques much more efficiently in the future; it may also make him more decisive.

“Apparently each different attributed emperor species has its own special life-preservation technique. What life-preservation technique is the Dead Dream's?” Chu Mu flipped through this extremely old book.

Unfortunately, this book only recorded two types of phoenix species. One of them was the fire type Crown Phoenix King, which Chu Mu had seen before.

There was also a wind phoenix which was a combination of the wing type and wind type. Presumably, this wind phoenix was the most agile and talented at aerial fights among all species.

As for the darkness phoenix species Dead Dream, there were no human records of it. Chu Mu could only gain an understanding about it through normal phoenix species records.

Chu Mu drank a sip of tea, and flipped to the next page when a cold wind blew through from the small grove next to him.

Chu Mu's courtyard was extremely large and next to him was a tiny grove. This grove connected to Soul Palace's gardens, making the layout rather unique.

Chu Mu's perceptive abilities were very strong. Chu Mu felt something slightly abnormal about the wind, and his eyes flickered with a sliver of silver light as he stared at the pitch dark grove.

Suddenly, from the grove, a pair of snow white eyes with a dull light moved towards Chu Mu.

Chu Mu was stunned. Wasn't this Mu Qingyi's White Tiger?

For some reason, the White Tiger's aura was much stronger than what Chu Mu had seen before. It had probably stepped past the heavenly barrier of the emperor rank. However, this powerful energy was seemingly exceptionally unstable.

This situation would normally appear the moment one broke through. The moment this happened, all of the potential in its body would be stimulated, allowing its strength to temporarily reach its peak. However, the White Tiger's life force was extremely weak, causing it to lose much of its previous majesty. Instead, it seemed extremely tired.

As the White Tiger walked closer, Chu Mu discovered a beautiful and delicate woman lying on its back. Her hair was draping down the side of her face while the other side of her face was incomparably pale. The corner of her mouth was also seeping with blood.

Chu Mu was stunned. Wasn't this woman Mu Qingyi?

Why would a mighty dominator rank appear here in such dire straits? Moreover, her wounds weren't light.

"What happened?" Chu Mu hastily went forward and supported the semi-conscious Mu Qingyi before bringing her to his room.

Mu Qingyi didn't even have the energy to talk. She depended on Chu Mu to reach his room, and only after she laid down did she close her eyes.

Chu Mu could see that Mu Qingyi had relied on her willpower persisting until here. However, he didn't understand why she had come here so wounded.

"Hou~~~~~"

The White Tiger was also full of wounds. It crawled next to Mu Qingyi's bed. Its eyes squinted, not letting anyone near its unconscious master.

Chu Mu could see that the White Tiger was heavily injured as well. He retrieved a healing medicine Ye Qingzi had concocted and gave it to the White Tiger.

"Defend this place. I'll find someone to heal her." Chu Mu said to the White Tiger.

"Hou~~~" the White Tiger roared, telling Chu Mu to stop. It used a mental voice to tell Chu Mu not to let anyone know its master was hiding here.

The White Tiger put Chu Mu in a bit of an awkward spot. Firstly, he couldn't find Ye Qingzi because she was in a closed door state. Disturbing her would cause backlash.

However, if nobody could know she was here, what could he do about her injuries? Would he, who only knew how to treat simple wounds, have to treat Mu Qingyi?

"Ai, whatever. I've already seen it once anyways." since saving her was urgent, Chu Mu didn't think any longer. He retrieved medicine water from his spatial ring that one would soak in to heal.

Waving his hand, Chu Mu's fingers transformed into several aerial blades that easily ripped apart her clothes. Instantly, a naked jade-white body was exposed to his eyes.

Chu Mu momentarily went absent-minded. Soon after, he bitterly laughed. Why was this so similar to last time?

Chu Mu indeed wasn't in the mood to enjoy this because like last time, she had several wounds on her body.

After opening all of his medicines, Chu Mu condensed spatial walls around the bed, forming a container. Then, he dumped all of the medicine inside so Mu Qingyi could soak inside. It would probably take a while before she woke up.

Chu Mu wanted to ask tiger what happened; however, aside from barely being able to comprehend simple communications, there was a huge language barrier that prevented him from understanding everything that happened. Chu Mu could only sit there and wait.

.....

Approximately when the sun was about to rise, the wounds on Mu Qingyi had basically healed.

Of course, these were all outer wounds that had healed. Ye Qingzi's medicine soaking indeed allowed for quick recovery. However, Mu Qingyi's mind had been heavily injured as well, and her soul had been injured. These wound both take a long time to heal.

When the red sun hung on the horizon, Mu Qingyi finally opened her eyes.

The first thing she saw was Chu Mu sitting on a chair, propping his head as he slept. Then, she glanced at her naked body which was exposed before him. Fortunately, his eyes were closed right now, making her feel less embarrassed.

Mu Qingyi got up, and retrieved a loose robe to cover her dripping wet and alluring body.

She didn't immediately wake up Chu Mu. She just sat next to the bed container and stared with her darker eyes at Chu Mu.

She herself didn't know why she chose to flee here. Perhaps it was because he had saved her before in the Universe Ice Gates. If he wanted to do something improper to her, he could have just killed her then.

Of course, Mu Qingyi didn't know that Chu Mu had actually planned on killing her then...

"Chu Fangchen." softly called Mu Qingyi.

Chu Mu opened his eyes, and saw Mu Qingyi who was now wearing clothes. The truth was that he had just been faking sleeping because he felt that staring at someone else putting on clothes would be too rude.

Unfortunately, the medicine wasn't transparent either, so Chu Mu didn't actually have a chance to admire her unblemished body.

“Nobody knows I’m here, right?” Mu Qingyi bit her pale lips and softly spoke.

Chu Mu shook his head and asked: “Who injured you to this extent?”

Mu Qingyi didn’t answer him. She felt that this matter was unrelated to Chu Mu, so it was best not to involve him.

“Wait for me to recuperate before we head to the demon realm. Is it safe here?” asked Mu Qingyi.

Mu Qingyi recalled her White Tiger back to her soul pet space, so that it could nurse itself at peace. For a moment, the two of them were silent.

Every so often, Mu Qingyi would go absent-minded. Each time she remembered her Evernight Emperor being trampled to death, she couldn’t help but want to cry. Yet, she stubbornly didn’t want Chu Mu to see her like that. Thus, she could only sit there lost in thought alone, and heartbroken alone.

Chu Mu could see that Mu Qingyi’s soul pets had been killed. He didn’t know how to console her and just sat there, looking at her, waiting for her to talk.

However, as she sat there, the corners of Mu Qingyi’s eyes ultimately still got moist.

The Mu Family indeed was the emperor family of Wanxiang Realm. However, after the Mu King went missing, his descendants could only wear the emperor family in name in Wanxiang Realm. The population of the family grew so sparse that Mu Qingyi became the only heir and only branch of the family left.

The present Wanxiang Realm had been partitioned by Soul Alliance, and the three great palaces. The Mu Family was only able to preserve a bit of its ancient authority and had ceded authority over ostensibly every city to the two large factions.

Yet, in the end, their wolf-like ambitions had no room for respecting the Mu Family. Instead, it was her that was eradicated!

Having already given up the country, the Mu Family had chosen to retreat and hide. They even chose to protect the safety of humanity for free. Yet, why did they have to be exterminated?!

Towards this, Mu Qingyi felt an unprecedented humiliation and rage!

“What on earth happened. Tell me.” Chu Mu could see that this obstinate War Goddess could no longer restrain her tears. He sort of couldn’t look on anymore so he spoke.

Mu Qingyi looked up and looked at Chu Mu. Tears were moving in her eyes.

However, she wasn’t used to sharing things with others, and didn’t know where to start.

After all, this matter wasn’t as simple as laying a trap for her. She was certain that in no less than a month, the Mu Family would completely disappear from Wanxiang Realm. There could even be countless more blackened names!

Chu Mu saw that Mu Qingyi wasn't talking and could only sigh. He said: "Whatever, put your mind at ease and heal up. You're very safe here."

After speaking, Chu Mu stood up and walked out of the room. He let Mu Qingyi heal herself alone.

"Can you help me leave Wanxiang Realm?" suddenly, Mu Qingyi softly asked a question.

"Is leaving Wanxiang Realm very difficult?" Chu Mu didn't understand.

"Yes, it's very hard. I tried last night, but no matter which direction I fled, there would always be Soul Alliance people. Ultimately, I could only hide here." said Mu Qingyi.

Chu Mu creased his brows. How strong was Soul Alliance's ability that they could stop Mu Qingyi from even leaving the city.

"It should be fine. Just rest up here. Don't think of anything else." consoled Chu Mu. After speaking, he left the room.

Mu Qingyi watched Chu Mu's calm figure leave, and she slowly went absent-minded. However, her mood seem to dull and she once more sank back into a sinkhole of pain.

Chapter 954: Soul Alliance's Provocation

The change happened very quickly. In a short period of time, Soul Alliance found embezzled funds from the Queen's Palace, and a few Mu Family members relying on their family. Additionally, they announced that these people had stolen the lives of creatures inside the Sealed Tower.

Simultaneously, Fang Wu and a few other concubine servants “divulged” that they had been forced by Mu Qingyi to do many shameful things all for her selfish desires.

All of these sudden accusations and spreading rumours grew in size. Initially, many people didn’t believe them, but gradually as they spread, conversations about the Queen about to inherit the Wanxiang Realm’s King spot could be heard in the streets and alleyways.

“Ai, I always thought she was the same as Her Majesty Empress Concubine - a kindhearted Queen who empathized with her citizens. I never expected her to do these things.” a few old fellows sighed.

“I used to revere her; I would be willing to give up ten years of my life just to see her. Who knew she was actually so wicked.” the emotions of young men were easily affected, especially those that had been attracted by the Empress Concubine.

“No wonder her strength increased so quickly. What genius seldom seen in a thousand years is she? It turns out she was relying on those filthy things. If I had those things, I would also be able to reach that rank!” a few blinded soul pet trainers angrily yelled!

There were truthfully quite a number of admirers of Mu Qingyi. However, under Soul Alliance’s “irrefutable” facts, they were unable to speak up for the woman they trusted and admired. Adding on the fact the person who exposed Mu Qingyi was the noble and virtuous fairy, there was no one willing to believe that this unblemished fairy would frame Mu Qingyi.

For a while, the city was full of gossip about Mu Qingyi, causing her to instantly lose her reputation!

Presumably, aside from those deep-rooted families that supported the Mu Family, she would probably become a royal sinner to be imprisoned in the Sealed Tower no matter where she went in the future.

.....

“If my influence is so meager and I maintain a neutral stance, will my ending always inevitably be like this?” muttered Mu Qingyi with a bitter face.

Mu Qingyi didn’t want anyone aside from Chu Mu knowing that she was hiding here, because she maintained a neutral stance.

She wasn’t sure that the three great palaces would be willing to help her because they ultimately considered her part of Soul Alliance. This could be seen from the precautions back in Snow City.

Therefore, from the perspective of the three great palaces, the sudden events this time was merely a Soul Alliance internal matter. They wouldn’t pay much attention to it and could even try and hit her while she was down in order to obtain benefits from Wanxiang Realm.

Mu Qingyi chose to trust Chu Mu, but she didn’t trust those from the three great palaces.

As for why she trusted Chu Mu, Mu Qingyi could only gamble. Fortunately, this man didn’t sell her out.

“Don’t seal yourself in the room. Walk around the courtyard and breathe in the fresh air.” Chu Mu opened the door to the room. He saw Mu Qingyi sitting there all depressed.

Mu Qingyi hesitated, but didn’t stand.

Chu Mu walked up to her and handed a veil over. He said: “Then wear a veil; you’ll seem more mysterious this way.”

But Mu Qingyi stood up with a stubborn expression and said: “I won’t hide.”

“Fine, then let’s go out and walk. There is spirit grass in the grove here so the spirit aura is rather dense. It will help you recover. Wait for my wife to finish her closed-door cultivation, and I’ll have her help you heal your wounded soul.” said Chu Mu.

Mu Qingyi had just taken a step before stopping in shock. She asked: “Your wife?”

“Yes, she is a soul teacher.” Chu Mu nodded his head.

“Soul teachers can heal souls?” Mu Qingyi then asked.

According to what she knew, there were no soul teachers in this world that could heal souls.

“Yes, she’s special.” Chu Mu didn’t say anything further, and brought Mu Qingyi to the grove filled with spirit grass to walk.

A breeze softly swept past her face, bringing the smell of fresh grass. Mu Qingyi subconsciously smelled it and felt that the fresh air directly entered her lungs before dispersing the haze in her body. Instantly, she felt much more happy and free.

In this period of time, she had been wallowing in sorrow and pain. Adding on the rumours and slanders, she had felt much more sad and depressed. However, when she smelled the fresh air, she felt much more clear about many things.

“Perhaps this is like unloading a burden for me. Now, I can pursue my soul pet path without any more worries.” muttered Mu Qingyi.

She quietly stood there and closed her eyes, enjoyably breathing in the air here.

Chu Mu stood to the side. Seeing that Mu Qingyi’s mood had changed, he let out a slight sigh of relief.

Otherwise, if she went to the demon realm in that state of mind, it would be tantamount to suicide.

“Wu wu~~~~~” the small Mo Xie was lying on Chu Mu’s shoulder. She opened her small mouth, and adorably gave a lazy yawn.

The small Mo Xie wanted to head to the demon realm as soon as possible and fight to her heart's content with the creatures inside. Indeed, staying all day inside Soul Palace was too boring.

Initially, when Mu Qingyi appeared, the small Mo Xie was itching to fight against Mu Qingyi's soul pets. Unfortunately, Mu Qingyi was in no mood to do that, so the small Mo Xie could only continue to boredly lie on Chu Mu's shoulder and sleep. Her nine small tails would occasionally wave around, sometimes sweeping Chu Mu's face, telling him that she was truly very bored!

The small Mo Xie was a lady killer. After acting like a spoiled child, she even attracted Mu Qingyi over with her cuteness. Mu Qingyi wanted to reach out and pet her.

"Let her pet you. Act comforting." Chu Mu spoke mentally with the small Mo Xie, not letting her avoid Mu Qingyi.

The small Mo Xie let out a whimpering, indicating she was opposed to this.

There were countless people who would want to be treated like this, yet this small fellow didn't even care about this level of a beauty.

"Has it always followed you?" Mu Qingyi softly stroked the small Mo Xie's silver fur and softly asked a question.

"Yes, always." Chu Mu nodded his head.

Mu Qingyi looked at Chu Mu, and saw that he had spoken very certainly and using the most simple words. Mu Qingyi could sense that this man saw this soul pet of his as his own life or perhaps even more valuable than his life.

Subconsciously, Mu Qingyi saddened and softly said: “My Phoenix was the same. Although I only signed a soul pact with it after reaching the spirit emperor rank, before then, I had always taken care of it.”

“Could your Crown Phoenix King have also...” Chu Mu was stunned.

If her Crown Phoenix King had perished, that was equivalent to a fatal blow to her!

Mu Qingyi shook her head: “Every phoenix species member has its own fleeing technique. My Phoenix will transform into a pillar of flames and hide in my soul pet space before its life comes to an end. If I am able to find the land where I can let it undergo nirvana rebirth, it will resurrect.”

“That’s good.” Mu Qingyi’s words caused Chu Mu to remember the book about the phoenix species he had read. Inside it was recorded that the phoenix species had its own unique method of preserving its life.

“Someone seems to have come.” Mu Qingyi softly said.

“Then go back to the room first. I also heard a bit of noise outside.” Chu Mu spoke as he brought Mu Qingyi back to her room.

.....

A moment later, a man could be seen grumbling as he walked into Chu Mu’s courtyard.

“Too excessive. Could they want to stir things with our Soul Palace? Those dogs that rely on their masters... if they dare be more arrogant, I’ll beat them up!”

Chu Mu could see Teng Lang walk over along with his jabbering voice.

“Brother Chu, oh Brother Chu, have you heard about your goddess Mu Qingyi?” Teng Lang saw that Chu Mu was sitting in his courtyard and quickly walked over.

“Please drop the “your”.” Chu Mu’s face went black.

Mu Qingyi probably heard that.

“Ai, it will happen sooner or later.” Teng Lang very untactfully added on.

“I’ve heard. What happened outside?” Chu Mu felt if he continued on with that subject, Mu Qingyi would heard more unpleasant things. Thus, he quickly changed the topic.

“I was about to speak with you about this. Soul Alliance, that group of dogs. They unexpectedly accused us of harboring a fugitive. They said that on that day someone was pursuing nearby and Mu Qingyi had disappeared in our Soul Palace zone. They truly think that just because the forest is big, any bird can be found in it. I can’t believe they found such a stupid excuse to provoke our Soul Palace. In my opinion, even if she’s hidden here, given that she’s such a beautiful and strong woman, if Soul Alliance doesn’t want her, we’ll take her!” solemnly vowed Teng Lang.

Chu Mu bitterly laughed. Did Teng Lang really have to say that last sentence so righteously? It was like he was afraid Mu Qingyi wouldn’t hear him!

“Who has come?” asked Chu Mu.

“The Fourth Hero Mo Ling has brought a group of dogs. They said to let them search or to hand over the person. Otherwise, we had better not blame them for making a big fuss over this. I’ll say, Brother Chu, how can you stand something like this? Soul Alliance has injured your woman, and come to our territory to stir matters up...” blabbed Teng Lang.

“Can we switch to mental communication?” Chu Mu’s face was extremely black.

“How did they injure me?”

Suddenly, a pleasant voice could be heard.

Chu Mu turned around and discovered an alluring and beautiful Ye Qingzi standing there with a face full of confusion, as she watched Teng Lang rant away.

Chu Mu had obviously sensed Ye Qingzi walk over, yet Teng Lang had still been speaking in a loud voice that everyone could hear.

“Eh, nothing. I was just saying that if they dared harm my brothers and sisters... hmph!!” Teng lang reacted exceptionally quickly and instantly spoke with a serious face. It didn’t look at all as if he had changed the content of his words!

Ye Qingzi glanced at these two strange men and figured that since it had been a while since she had come out , she was probably a bit hard of hearing. Therefore, she ignored them and said: “I’m going to rest. You guys talk.”

Chu Mu thought about stopping Ye Qingzi, but after thinking through it, Mu Qingyi was probably hiding. Ye Qingzi would discover her for the time being so there was no need to ask her to stay.

However, things happened to surpass Chu Mu's expectations!

Before the door closed, a ball of dark flames suddenly ignited and the aura of a peak emperor rank Dark Flame Heavenly Devil swept through the area!!

At the same time, a biting cold aura surged forth, smashing into the Dark Flame Heavenly Devil's aura. The ice and fire instantly proliferated, forming a torrential aura that expanded around the area.

Chapter 955: Let Me Deal With It

The palace Chu Mu lived in was fairly sturdy. Normal emperor rank soul pets couldn't mark it at all.

Yet, this dark fire and ice collision clearly both reached top tier emperor rank. The energy instantly caused Chu Mu's vast and luxurious room to turn to ruins, causing Chu Mu to feel a little hurt.

"Who dares atta-....." Teng Lang was furious, and was about to summon a soul pet to take down the killer in Chu Mu's room, when he suddenly saw two women already standing within the ruins. One was Ye Qingzi and her Dark Fire Heavenly Devil, but the other one caused Teng Lang to stare in shock!

Teng Lang stared blankly at Mu Qingyi, and then turned stiffly back at Chu Mu, his heart full of surprise.....

This Chu Fangchen truly hid the wanted criminal of soul alliance, Mu Qingyi, in his room. His guts were truly incredible!!

“Ugh.....I.....I saw nothing.....” After a while, Teng Lang finally realized something, and quickly made a quizzical face at Chu Mu.

Chu Mu originally thought Mu Qingyi could hide well, but Chu Mu clearly underestimated Ye Qingzi’s detection ability. Thankfully, everyone present was trustworthy, so explaining a bit wouldn’t make a big difference.

Ye Qingzi was very observant and smart. Seeing Chu Mu not joining her in the attack, she guessed that the woman hiding in her room wasn’t an assassin.

Thus, she slowly walked back to Chu Mu’s side, but gave him a sideways glance, as if she was going to get very angry if he didn’t explain this well.

“She’s heavenly concubine Mu Qingyi. Because of some recent events, she’s healing up with us.” Chu Mu first explained her identity.

“Oh?” Ye Qingzi was slightly surprised, finally deciding to look Mu Qingyi over more in detail.

Mu Qingyi, no matter what one said, was the strongest female soul pet trainer within the human realm. Many females set her as a final goal for their path. This was Ye Qingzi’s first time seeing such a character too so naturally, she was curious.

However, Ye Qingzi as a soul teacher quickly judged that this female expert that should be nearly invincible within human realm clearly seemed weaker, as if her soul had been recently damaged.

Chu Mu's palace had a spatial barrier around it, so though the commotion was loud here, it didn't spread outwards.

The room and hall were already ruined. Chu Mu could only stand with the other three people in the relatively intact courtyard and explain the whole story.

"Why is it her again." After Ye Qingzi knew Mu Qingyi was framed by emperor concubine, she couldn't help but mutter.

This woman was truly controlling everything, able to cause even the wanxiang realm queen's downfall.

"Qingzi, go rest for a bit and once you're adjusted, help her heal up." Chu Mu said to Ye Qingzi.

"En." Ye Qingzi nodded. Just as she was about to walk towards the room, however; she noticed it was all ruins. She turned around and rolled her eyes at Chu Mu, "Such a nice room and hall, yet they're ruined now. There was a lot of stuff Maner and I bought, too."

"I'll buy it again once you have time. Your soul remembrance got stronger, though." Chu Mu said.

"En, I broke through a few days ago." Ye Qingzi nodded and said goodbye to Mu Qingyi and Teng Lang before walking out of the courtyard, attempting to find another place to rest.

Soul palace had a large number of such palaces. Ye Qingzi could pick whichever she wanted. If Soul Palace had none, nightmare palace would. Presumably, Nightmare emperor Jiang and elders both would love to please Ye Qingzi.

After Ye Qingzi left, Teng Lang suddenly remembered and said using his remembrance very awkwardly, "Everything I said before, she heard it then?"

"Of course, idiot." Chu Mu said without the greatest mood.

"Hei hei, Brother Chu, you truly deserve all my respect. A little more effort, and you can get the other goddess in your hands as well. Then, you'll have completed your dream. Speaking of which, your wife was quite calm about it. Do you hide women in your room that often, to the point where she's used to it?" Teng Lang teased.

"....." Chu Mu was too lazy to continue talking nonsense with Teng Lang.

Ye Qingzi had always been this calm, so sometimes Chu Mu liked teasing her too. Seeing her go bright red caused him to get a little excited too.

"Your majesty, I, Teng Lang, trust that you were definitely framed, so just heal up here, I won't disturb you. I shall take my leave." Teng Lang got up and announced his leaving.

"Teng Lang, she doesn't want others to know she is here, so tell no one." Chu Mu told Teng Lang.

"En." Teng Lang nodded.

After Teng Lang left, Mu Qingyi fell into deep thought. After a while, she said to Chu Mu, “Since they already found their way here already, let’s leave Wanxiang City soon.”

"Wait until you're healed.' Chu Mu said.....

“But, they’ve already come to provoke soul palace. I may have left trails when I escaped here that they might have discovered, so.....” Mu Qingyi was afraid of involving Chu Mu further.

“You just stay here and heal up, I will deal with that.” Chu Mu said lightly.

Before Mu Qingyi’s wound could heal, they couldn’t possibly head towards the demon realm. As for end hero Mo Ling finding trouble with soul palace, that was exactly what Chu Mu wanted to see. He finally raised White Nightmare’s strength. If he couldn’t find someone to test it on, how could he figure out how strong White Nightmare was?

“You don’t need to hide, really. The more you hide, the easier those rumors become reality.” Chu Mu said.

Chu Mu could see that Mu Qingyi was righteous at heart, becoming angry and helping both when the human-realm-threatening dominator rank silver devil man appeared as well as the incident in snow city. Since Mu Qingyi trusted him in keeping her safe from capture, Chu Mu had to take care of this situation!

“My powers are limited, especially with my crown phoenix king becoming ashes.....” Mu Qingyi had no other way.

.....

Mu Qingyi knew the event wasn't small, and soul alliance was sure she was hiding in soul palace. Immediately, three palace and soul alliance's relationship became tense. To soul palace, soul alliance clearly was finding an excuse to start a conflict again!

Very quickly, soul palace's internal board started a meeting to discuss their countermeasures.

In the meeting, diagram supreme sat on the high seat with a worried face, rubbing his temple from time to time. This was a time of many troubles. Soul alliance probably wanted to take a bite out of soul palace.

"Soul alliance truly is a bully. They said we had three days. If they want to fight, let's fight! It's not like we've never fought before anyways." The rash elder Chao said.

"Soul alliance probably doesn't want to fight. After all, this is wanxiang city. Whoever starts the fight first will lose most of the people's support, and will gain the dislike of many powerful recluses." Elder Teng said.

"No hurry, let's wait three days to see who they will send."

After some discussion, everyone decided that it was better to wait for more information. Of course, they had to prepare to fight.

"Chu Fangchen, how is your white nightmare?" Diagram supreme glanced at the Chu Mu, who didn't like to participate in discussions and asked.

Chu Mu hesitated for a moment. However, since soul alliance wanted to take a bite of the soul alliance off, might as well tell them so they could vindicate Mu Qingyi.

“Heavenly concubine Mu Qingyi actually is in our palaces.” Chu Mu said.

Diagram supreme just wanted to ask about his nightmare, so he didn’t see Chu Mu’s sudden announcement coming at all, clearly slightly shocked.

“Chu Fangchen, don’t speak nonsense. Wouldn’t that give soul alliance proof against us? The black-bearded old elder coughed.

Liu Xin continued to look at Chu Mu. To his understanding of Chu Mu, he knew he wouldn’t say such a ridiculous statement and immediately asked, “She really is hiding here?”

“En, she’s in my courtyard healing up right now.” Chu Mu nodded.

Chu Mu’s words immediately exploded within the meeting, lifting up different discussions at once.

“Chu Fangchen, why? Don’t you know she makes many factions angry already?” Diagram supreme said relatively calmly.

“In reality, you’ve seen that whether or not heavenly concubine hides here, soul alliance wants to take a bite out of us. Instead of doing that, might as well accept that we’re hiding her and bring her back justice. An enemy of an enemy is a friend, we all know that.” Chu Mu said.

“Though this was the case, she indeed is slightly sensitive right now. She wasn’t three palace people, so helping her out could lose us even more.....” Elder Teng said.

In reality, many factions knew that Mu Qingyi could have been framed, but who dared to walk out and ask about it?

Soul alliance originally had a small advantage in soul alliance. The reason three palace had an advantage was because of its massive membership and thousands of years of collection of fame. This time, Mu Qingyi clearly lost everything. Standing up for her forcefully would definitely hurt the helper. Most importantly, helping a neutral person was worthless anyway.

“This alliance is very much worth having.” Chu Mu said.

As long as Mu Qingyi’s phoenix was alive, soul alliance would definitely have a larger worry from Mu Qingyi. Most importantly, after this time when she recovered her strength, there would be another dominator rank expert there.

Additionally, three palaces clearly underestimated Mu Qingyi’s strength. When Mu Qingyi’s white tiger escaped that night, it broke through. Originally, even if crown phoenix couldn’t revive. White tiger was about to become another dominator rank!

Most importantly, if Crown Phoenix king revived, adding on a white tiger that got through the toughest bottleneck, Mu Qingyi’s strength would be very impressive!

Thus, Chu Mu had to help her this time!

“Heng, Chu Fangchen you shouldn’t worry about such trivial matters. In three days soul alliance people will come along with end hero Mo Ling. Then, who will deal with him?” The slightly fat elder xiao said unsatisfied.

Chu Mu glanced lightly at him and said, “I’ll do it.”

Chapter 956: Underground King, Yi Jun

“You deal with it? What kind of joke is this, do you even know who Mo Ling is?” Elder Xiao said slightly angrily.

Did this man even hear what the others said? Who among the four heroes was easy to deal with? Back in snow city, he heard that two senior elders and five elders combined barely went even against Mo Ling’s Tai Mountain giant!

Though main palace had many elders and experts, if soul alliance dared to start trouble, a huge amount of experts would definitely come forth. Then, if no one could occupy Mo Ling’s Tai Mountain giant, his giant would stand out in strength and cause great damage to the senior elders’ top tier emperor rank soul pets!

“Being unduly humble is bad, but overestimating yourself is also frowned upon. We should take this slowly.” The rather conservative elder Yang Fengyi said.

Yang Fengyi was a female elder. From her appearance, she was around forty, so her actual age wouldn’t be very young. She really admired Chu Mu’s ability, but her conservative thinking caused her to think it was a bad idea to go up against soul alliance head on. Let alone, could this seemingly calm young man really go up against end hero Mo Ling? One had to know barely anyone in soul palace could say that confidently.

Soul palace people who didn’t like expressing their own opinions all mostly agreed with Yang Fengyi’s ideas. Not many people gave their recognition to Chu Mu’s idea.

Taking it from the long term naturally meant talking with the other two palaces. Dealing with soul alliance was a matter of all three palaces. Since soul alliance was incredibly powerful, soul palace naturally had to find others for support.

The second day, three palace's higher level all gathered in soul palace to talk about this issue. Of course, it included whether or not they should help Mu Qingyi bring back justice. After all, everyone knew Mu Qingyi no longer had a dominator rank soul pet, and was much weaker than before....

"Nightmare Emperor Jiang, tell me your thoughts." Diagram supreme Ke Yin looked at emperor Jiang and asked.

Nightmare emperor Jiang instead glanced over at Chu Mu and secretly used soul remembrance to communicate, "Chu Fangchen, are you truly trying to deal with end hero?"

"En." Chu Mu nodded.

"Good resolve! I've gotten tired of that fellow for a while!! Good, we nightmare palace will all support you!" Nightmare emperor Jiang instead laughed in his soul remembrance.

After he spoke, nightmare emperor Jiang stiffened his face and his tone fell colder as he addressed everyone, "I agree with Chu Fangchen, soul alliance doesn't dare start a war with us. They clearly just want to test our limits, so why don't we dull their resolve a little, in case they start feeling too good about themselves?"

Nightmare emperor Jiang wasn't afraid of starting a battle now. All of nightmare palace had been storing up resources for a few years now. If they didn't fight, they wouldn't even know what to do!

“What are your opinions?” Nightmare emperor Jiang asked the other elites of nightmare palace.

“We all agree with Chu Fangchen too!” Elder Han, Shen, and a few others were all in agreement, giving their full support!

Nightmare palace’s bravery caused soul palace’s more conservative people to be speechless. They all cursed secretly at the crazy fools in nightmare palace, actually following a young man willfully!

However, what people didn’t understand was, why did nightmare palace specially note that they agreed with Chu Fangchen, as if they saw Chu Fangchen as their leader?

“Nightmare emperor Jiang, you must know that this time, the person that came forth was end hero Mo Ling.....” Elder Xiao specially emphasised.

“Mo Ling has already scared all of you stiff. Mo Ling isn’t much!” Nightmare emperor Jiang humphed coldly, but in his mind he added, “The young man in front of you killed even nightmare ancestor!

Diagram supreme Ke Yin saw Nightmare palace fully supporting Chu Mu and laughed bitterly. If Nightmare palace truly obeyed this young man, diagram supreme had an answer in mind. Of course, he still had to ask soul pet palace for their opinion.

Soul pet palace remained neutral, so in the end diagram supreme spoke, “Then tell people to spread the word that heavenly concubine Mu Qingyi was framed. Remember not to affect emperor concubine; her influence is too large and can easily bring bad news to us.”

Three palace had a lot of members in almost all cities. If they wanted to spread certain information, it was too easy!

.....

Indeed, the same night, news about Mu Qingyi being framed and someone intentionally confusing the emperor concubine spread out, pointing the spearhead at end hero Mo Ling.

Mu Qingyi originally had a higher status than end hero Mo Ling and had greater influence. Thus, if three palace stands forth, many other factions that favored Mu family would gather together too.

On the third day, the entire Wanxiang city was lifted with a wave of heavenly concubine getting framed, where everyone could be seen talking about it.

“Look, I knew there was something in there that was fishy. Heavenly concubine has always been righteous, so how could she do such a thing?”

“Yes, yes, it’s definitely end hero Mo Ling. More damnable is that he dared lie to the emperor concubine too, he truly is unforgivable!”

“Though Mu family has stepped away from command, I still hear many old people say that Mu family was very forgiving to their people; no emperor family was ever like them.

“I’m not sure if you’ve heard yet, when snow city battle happened between three palace and soul alliance, it hurt countless civilians and immediately- heavenly concubine got furious and scolded end hero Mo Ling for being cold-hearted. She even brought justice for the people under the risk of offending both the factions. How would such a queen be a criminal?”

Rumors continued to spread. Within the short while, wanxiang city’s thoughts on Mu Qingyi split into two clear factions. And, through this trend, as many factions that were loyal to mu family stood out, it could cause the news of Mu Qingyi being framed to become the mainstream story.

.....

“Beng!!!!!!”

A jade desk was shattered in one slam. In the powder, end hero Mo Ling stared angrily at the rows of subordinates in front of him!

“What are you idiots doing, not even able to accomplish such a simple task? Why do I keep you around!” Mo Ling pointed at the people and screamed.

“Boss, three palace just has too many members, especially at the bottom level. In terms of information spreading, we truly can’t do much more..... and, Mu family’s influence is far greater than what we thought. Once three palace stood out, more people were inclined to come help.” The man kneeling at the center said.

“Three palaces! Hengheng, looks like if I don’t show them what I can do, they truly think they can’t be harmed!” Mo Ling’s eyes glinted cold!

The moment he finished speaking, a man cloaked in shadows floated over like a ghost.

Mo Ling saw the shadow and immediately his face changed as he frantically tried to summon his soul pet.

However, Mo Ling was still too slow. The shadow floated past the previously speaking man, and immediately, a line of blood appeared down the man's neck!

“Puchi!”

Blood sprayed out onto the flower carpeted floor. The man blankly held his neck as his body fell down, oozing blood along the way.

The scary scene caused the other kneeling people to have hackles raised. Their entire body started shaking.

“If he can't do things well and uses excuses to hide it, why keep him?” The man said calmly, as if killing the man was as easy as waving his hand.

Mo Ling glanced at this black ghost of a man, and his face turned even more steely, “He was my subordinate, even if he dies, its by my hand!”

“Sometimes you are like a lady and can't make the move so I, Yi Jun, will help you.” The man named Yi Jun said.

Hearing this man call himself Yi Jun, he kneeled down and felt a wave of cold and shock!

Yi Jun. Many people didn't know who this was because this was a person that lived completely in the darkness!

He was the king of underground palace!!

Underground palace was always touted as the fourth palace, but it was clear that they couldn't see the light of day, and thus weren't as powerful foundationally as three palaces.

However, having gathered so many evil killers, prisoners, and criminals, underground palace has never been destroyed. This was not because of how powerful it was or hard to deal with, but rather simply because there was a person that even three palace didn't wish to trouble!

This person was the underground king - Yi JuN!

In the human realm, not many dared to call themselves king. Even Mo Ling wouldn't dare to do that, but Yi Jun definitely had the ability to do so!

"Why are you here!" Mo Ling said hostility.

Yi jun pointed at the corpse and said, "You can't do things well- like him, but sadly I can't kill you, so I can only follow master's wishes and help you clean up."

"Heng, I suggest you don't appear, in case you cause greater problems for us." Mo Ling said.

Yi Jun was indeed powerful, but this person had truly risen to a point where anyone was eager to kill him. If other factions knew that Yi Jun were partnering with soul alliance, soul alliance's reputation will fall greatly.

“Hehe, you care too much. How would I, a sewage rat, possibly come out into the light of day and defile your reputation?” Yi Jun's description seemed mocking, but wasn't delivered as so, as if he enjoyed the sensation of staying underground.

“Then just do your thing.” Mo Ling said coldly.

Mo Ling indeed didn't want to deal with this fellow. Being eccentric and loving killing, there was no telling why this man was so obedient to his master.

Chapter 957: Standoff Between Two Great Factions

Three days passed very quickly and indeed, the angered Mo Ling appeared outside Soul Palace.

Outside Soul Palace was a large city garden filled with various plants. However, Soul Alliance members had now occupied the place. Even the exits out of Soul Palace were surrounded. They clearly were forcing Soul Palace to hand over the alleged criminal.

Soul Palace already knew that Soul Alliance was laying in wait nearby. As long as Mu Qingyi left Soul Palace, they would know about it.

Soul Alliance mobilized numerous experts, so the three great palaces didn't want to display weakness either. Soon, a standoff between the two great factions arose in this zone in the center of the city.

However, neither side was willing to attack first since this place was Wanxiang City, and starting a war would incite the condemnation of countless people.

There were innumerable soul pet trainers in the human realm and not all of them were in Soul Alliance or the three great palaces. These remaining forces, if gathered together, could create a tide of anger that could severely wound the two great factions. Therefore, neither the forcible hegemon of Soul Alliance or the three great palaces which controlled billions of people, were willing to start a war in the city. It would probably end up as a fight between a few crucial people.

“Shielding a criminal is an intentional inversion of justice by your three great palaces! Hand over the person as soon as possible, otherwise don’t blame us for being rude.” said the Fourth Hero Mo Ling with a face of justice!

No matter how large a faction was, or how influential it was, it had to find a reason to convince the masses. Therefore, Mo Ling had spoken so righteously, reiterating Mu Qingyi’s “crimes” in front of the public. He wanted everyone to know that Soul Alliance was acting in the interests of Wanxiang City to apprehend the criminal and not to abuse its power.

Towards this, the three great palaces scoffed.

“This Fourth Hero Mo Ling really likes to act. He clearly has a heart of stone, and is only interested in profiting. Yet here he is, so dignified and pompous. Doesn’t he know that his reputation is bad enough?!” scoffed Senior Elder Teng who had fought him before.

On Soul Palace’s lofty stairs were numerous experts that covered the three great palaces. In the plaza on top of the stairs in front of the palace were countless soul pet trainers gathered. Next to each of them was an elemental world soul pet!

These elemental world soul pets were different colors. Their bodies either wrapped with fire, attached with water, weaved with lightning or surrounded by sand...

When their number reached enough, they formed an elemental color diagram. The elemental energy, fluctuating in the air, exuded an enormous pressure!

These elemental soul pets were restraining their hostility. The moment Soul Alliance made any brash moves, from the high ground they would definitely deliver a baptism of anger onto them!

Chu Mu glanced at the high ranking stone stairs. It was clear that in terms of army strength, the three great palaces had the absolute advantage. It was no wonder that although Soul Alliance was powerful, they didn't dare make any rash moves

"Who is here from Soul Alliance?" Chu Mu asked the adjacent Senior Elder Liu.

Senior Elder Liu knew about Soul Alliance's situation obviously like the back of his hand. Promptly, he pointed at the strange woman next to Mo Ling with half her face covered by hair: "That's Mo Ling's concubine, and she is also a very strong poison ability female soul pet trainer. She should be a bit weaker than Poison Desolation Nie Yunbin. If we have to deal with her, we probably have to mobilize another elder."

"The fellow behind Mo Ling with the face full of poison spots is Nie Yunbin. You've seen him before. He's probably come this time to seek revenge from you. You need to be a bit careful."

"That person in the long robe is Eight Desolations Bin Liao. he's very strong, and is very hard to deal with. Behind him is his trusted aide, Zhang Yincheng who is also a peak emperor expert. However, his strength is a bit weaker than the Sixteen Absolutes."

“That semi old man is one of the Sixteen Absolutes, the Night Absolute. This older fellow’s strength only broke out later in life. While he was young, he was insignificant, but he now sits in the top five of the Sixteen Absolutes.”

These people Senior Elder Liu was telling Chu Mu about all head peak emperor rank soul pets. It could be seen that besides the Eight Desolations and Sixteen Absolutes, there were still many peak emperor rank experts without a title who served Soul Alliance.

Although the three great palaces also had experts like this, their higher up strengths were clearly lacking. They mainly relied on numbers.

“Hmph, someone leaked the information. The person harboring the criminal is your Soul Alliance’s Chu Fangchen. No wonder you protected him like that. It turns out there was something fishy between the two of them already!!” angrily berated Nie Yunbin.

After Nie Yunbin was brought away by Soul Palace, Soul Alliance used a huge piece of territory in exchange to take him back. However, while he was incarcerated, Nie Yunbin was tormented by a number of Soul Palace members. So today, Nie Binyun wanted to return the humiliation onto Soul Palace, especially Chu Fangchen and the fallen Mu Qingyi.

“Senior Tan, the three great palaces harboring a criminal is clearly intentionally opposing us!” Mo Ling glanced at the white haired old man and spoke in a slightly respectful tone.

“You are certain the Mu woman is hidden inside Soul Palace?” asked the white haired man.

“Absolutely certain!” Mo Ling was extremely certain.

On the stairs, Chu Mu was paying attention to the situation. He discovered that no matter what Mo Ling said, he was always asking for instructions from this white haired old man. He couldn't help but ask Senior Elder Liu: “Who is that old man? Why does his status seem to be very high?”

“He is Hero Chief Yuan Sui's teacher. His status in the soul pet realm isn't inferior to the Mu King from back then. There was a time when he was the strongest person. Although he has gotten old now, his reputation still exists. The reality is that there are numerous people like Tan De in Wanxiang City who don't pay attention to worldly matters. They don't care who is in control of Wanxiang Realm. The only thing they care about is ensuring the city doesn't end up in turmoil. Sou Alliance is restrained by people like this, which is why they don't brazenly dare wipe us out. However, I'm not sure who managed to convince a number of people of his rank to believe that the Mu woman committed crimes...” said Senior Elder De.

Chu Mu nodded his head. Each period would have their own respective strongest figures. Perhaps ten years ago these old men were as all-powerful as Heroes and Kings. As time wore on, they gradually retreated from the limelight; yet, they still would affect several generations of people. These sorts of virtuous and honorable people were indeed not easily swayed by factions.

“Senior Tan, with what you understand of the Mu woman, how could she do such baseless things? This is all part of Mo Ling's strategy, who wants to manipulate the situation for his personal gains.” The person in charge of the situation, Great Senior Elder Chao, spoke warmly to that old man.

“It's not something that I, whose eyes have gone bad and hands shaking, can make a decision on. I only hope that neither side makes too big of a fuss over it. Moreover, this place used to be the Mu King's territory. No matter how you think of it, it's best to be respectful towards his descendants, even if she committed a crime...” said Tan De.

Tan De's words were very impartial. Clearly he wouldn't help either side. However, since he had mentioned the Mu King, the person who countless people revered and respected, he was telling Mo Ling that he couldn't have any killing intent towards Mu Qingyi and had to forgive her.

"With Elder Tan saying those words, Mu Qingyi cannot thank you enough." suddenly, a spirited voice rang out.

Everyone's eyes immediately fell on the woman slowly walking down Soul Palace's stairs.

The reality was that most people present hadn't personally seen Mu Qingyi before. Now as they watched this somewhat pale-faced outstanding beauty walk down the stairs, they all showed different expressions on their faces. Most of them were stunned by her beauty and many thought to themselves: Did this otherworldly woman truly commit the crimes Mo Ling alleged?

"So you still have the face to appear in front of everyone. The Mu King is indeed worth respecting; however, your actions have made such a mighty king feel humiliation!" said Mo Ling.

Mo Ling knew how to use his words, intentionally separating Mu Qingyi from the Mu King, and seemingly acting in justice's interests!

Although there were perhaps a number of people who knew the truth behind his acting, he still had to act it perfectly because when he controlled the situation, the acting would become real!

Despite Mu Qingyi being full of anger and wanting to hack the shameless Mo Ling to thousands of pieces, she didn't want to argue right now with him. She showed herself because she didn't want the Mu Family to be shamed; an emperor family could not receive infamy because of her. She could choose to hide and walk on her soul pet path, but she had to let everyone know that this was a conspiracy and an attempt to frame her. It was what happened when every ancient family reached the end of its era and would be unfairly pushed aside and plotted against.

“Your majesty, you can clear up the truth. Especially how the Crown Phoenix King entered the dominator rank so quickly. Make clear whether it is like Mo Ling said; selfishly stealing the life force energy in the Sealed Tower and selfishly harming numerous experts, stealing their resources...” said Tan De.

There were many small details that lined up with Mu Qingyi’s alleged crime. For example, inner crystals had been constantly taken from the Sealed Tower, and Mu Qingyi would often enter the Sealed Tower. In her inner palace and a few other places were hidden her personal stash. Most of these resources had come from unknown sources or blackmarket dealings such as assassination, coercion, or enticement...

“Blackmarket dealings can be made up as long as the people closest to me have betrayed me. Moreover, there are some details that I didn’t pay attention to that allowed her to make up a story that even I feel indignant at justice at.” Mu Qingyi’s eyes were not as dignified as the past where they shined upon everyone like the sun. Instead, they contained more calmness and arrogance.

She was currently staring at Fang Wu, who was among the crusade. This was a person who Mu Qingyi hadn’t been on guard at all against. Yet, she was the one to stab the deepest sword in her back!

Fang Wu evaded her eyes, not daring to look at Mu Qingyi’s eyes.

However, this woman was extremely fierce. Since she had taken action, she had to take Mu Qingyi completely down!!

Chapter 958: It’s You Who Are Too Weak

“The evidence is like a mountain, and you still want to refute. From the very beginning, the Dancing Desolation has been pressured by you, not willing to publicize your crimes. Even now, you still wish to threaten her into hiding for you? That’s impossible!” Mo Ling pointed at Mu Qingyi.

As Mo Ling spoke, he took a few steps forward, displaying an overbearing aura. Clearly, he wanted to take down Mu Qingyi with his hard-line approach!

A counter trap had already arisen in Wanxiang City. In order to not prolong it, the best course of action was to capture or kill Mu Qingyi now. If she was dead, there would be no evidence, meaning that whatever Soul Alliance said would be the truth. Therefore, Soul Alliance had come to Soul Palace without any intentions of retreating!

Mu Qingyi's eyes were filled with anger. She wanted nothing more than to rip apart this incomparably shameless person!

However, her wounds had yet to recover, and the White Tiger was also still healing. She was not Mo Ling's opponent!

Yet, every time she thought of the Tai Mountain Giant killing her Evernight Emperor, Mu Qingyi was unable to quell her anger. Seeing Mo Ling overbearingly step forward, she planned on chanting an incantation. However, a smooth voice walked in front of her, standing in between her and Mo Ling.

"I'll deal with it. You've already said what you needed to say. Whether they believe it or not is up to them." Chu Mu's tone was calm.

Mu Qingyi was stunned. Looking at this man, she didn't know what to say for a moment.

Mu Qingyi also had disciples in Soul Palace, and she learned from them that the storm of outrage on her behalf had arisen in Wanxiang City was because he had convinced the three great palaces to help her.

Now that he was standing in front of her, although Mu Qingyi knew he wasn't Mo Ling's opponent, his actions that required no justification caused her cold heart to warm.

"It's best if you just bear it." Mu Qingyi quietly said to Chu Mu.

Mu Qingyi was convinced that with so many experts, Mo Ling wouldn't dare let his Tai Mountain Giant run amok. Mu Qingyi also didn't want Chu Mu to completely offend Mo Ling.

Chu Mu was indifferent. He just stood there, staring at the Fourth Hero Mo Ling.

Chu Mu was someone who held grudges. He had yet to settle his debt for sending Chen Fang to kill him. Today was a perfect chance to do so!

"Brat, I really never imagined that you would be so daring. You even dared offer your care to our grand Heavenly Concubine. Could you two have already done some secret things? Or perhaps you were involved in her matters. Otherwise, how would your strength have risen so quickly in such a short period of time?" Fourth Hero Mo Ling saw Chu Mu step forward and let out a laugh.

"Senior Fourth Hero is correct. Chu Fangchen isn't even forty and already has a peak emperor rank soul pet. He has definitely done something improper. Him stepping forth this time to protect a criminal means there's definitely some shady dealings involved!" Nie Yunbin immediately added.

The moment the two of them spoke up, instantly countless lackeys began to clammer, indicating that they would also take Chu Mu down.

“Everyone here is someone with status. Why is there a need to shout like a bunch of shrews?” suddenly, Senior Tan De spoke with discontent.

His words contained a mental force that instantly quieted the shouting. Nobody was daring enough to continue randomly shouting.

When Senior Tan De saw that everyone had quieted, he immediately turned towards Chu Mu and asked: “You are Chu Fangchen?”

“Yes.” Chu Mu nodded his head. During the clamor just now, Chu Mu’s expression hadn’t changed at all. While facing enemies, his face would be as staunch and cold as iron. His emotions would never break because of enemy provocations. Even Mu Qingyi was surprised by how calm this man was. Ostensibly, no matter what happened, nothing would affect him.

“Then can you explain how you were able to increase your strength to such a shocking level in such a short period of time?” asked Tan De.

Tan De’s question immediately made the three great palaces somewhat discontented. Why did he have to explain just because he was strong? Everyone had their own encounters. There would always be people on the cultivation path who would act in their own self interests just reach the very top. Who hadn’t done anything shady to reach those heights? The only difference was that some people had a bottom line while others didn’t.

“Senior, he definitely used Mu Qingyi’s embezzled resources!” Nie Yunbin spoke very certainly as if he had seen it himself.

When Chu Mu saw Nie Yunbin grit his teeth and threw a glance at him as he indifferently said; “Just because, I’m strong I need to give an explanation? That can only mean that you’re too weak.”

Chu Mu's words were like a meteor that exploded in the crowd!!

There were ten people present with peak emperor ranks or higher. If you included those not from the two great factions, there were more. Thus, the present crowd could be described as a gathering of experts. Thus, the words "You're too weak" caused Soul Alliance and the old experts in control of the situation to turn ashen!

Soul Palace's people looked unsightly as if they had eaten a mosquito while the three great palace's people stared with their eyes wide open, exclaiming to themselves: The brat Chu Fangchen was too arrogant!

However, his arrogance this time had made them pleased. These people didn't want to make trouble for no reason, or be accused of a crime they didn't commit. Thus, why not just use strength to talk!

When Mu Qingyi, standing behind Chu Mu, heard his explanation, she couldn't help but laugh.

If Mu Qingyi had to explain why she was so strong, she wouldn't be able to. Her talent, effort, and encounters other people hadn't had were not easy to explain.

On the other hand, Chu Fangchen's words represented the most simple stream of logic while also delivering a slap to that group of people with jealous eyes. He was telling these troublesome people that if their strength was weaker, they couldn't blame it on others!

"Chu Fangchen, you really have the guts! Even Senior Tan De doesn't dare speak like this. Yet, you, a young man, dares to say such arrogant things! Are you looking down on everyone here?!" Nie Yunbin was so angry that his eyes nearly popped out.

Senior Tan De had been so shaken by Chu Mu's words, that he didn't know what to say. He was silently cursing to himself that this brat was too irrational!

There were things that everyone knew, but once voiced, they would incite hatred and abhorrence.

Clearly, this brat wanted to flip the table, and stop anymore condemnations!

"I indeed am looking down on you." indifferently said Chu Mu.

His words caused Nie Yunbin to seethe with anger. His face full of poison spots began to flush red!

"Chu Fangchen, do you dare fight me here?!!" Nie Yunbin roared!

"If you lose, you'll bring your group of barking dogs away from here?" asked Chu Mu.

"Fine!" Nie Yunbin heard Chu Mu agree to his fight so he immediately answered yes. However, when he felt a cold wind behind him, he realized that by saying yes, he had admitted that the people behind him were a group of barking dogs!

Nie Yunbin had gone mad with anger and he began to curse again!

"If you lose, then... then you won't involve yourself in this matter!" said Nie Yunbin.

Nie Yunbin hadn't completely lost his mind. He understood that their real goal this time was to take down Mu Qingyi.

"Sure." Chu Mu nodded his head.

"Fine, then could Senior Tan please act as the witness!" Nie Yunbin cracked a malevolent smile. The time had come to purge his humiliation with blood!

Tan De looked at the two young experts. Presumably, these individual fights would be the best at resolving things and he nodded his head in affirmation.

"The two of you are both from the young generation; thus, this is a fair fight." said Senior Tan De.

"Senior Tan, they both have peak emperors. You probably don't want the city to be too destroyed or even people to be affected. Why not have one pet decide things?" the Diagram Supreme spoke up.

Senior Tan De emphatically agreed and nodded his head: "Yes, one pet to decide the winner."

"This..." Nie Yunbin was a bit hesitant.

"If you don't have the guts, then scram." calmly said Chu Mu.

Nie Yunbin immediately reacted and straightened his posture: "Why wouldn't I dare?!!"

“That’s good. Then everyone step back. We will create a barrier in the city forest to prevent energy from leaking.” said Senior Tan De.

The three great palace members still occupied the stairs and the plaza. The fight would occur underneath the stairs in the city forest.

The city forest was about a kilometer in area. Such a small space was not a suitable space for peak emperor rank creatures to fight. Therefore, to uphold justice, Senior Tan De had people clear those living nearby and formed a barrier in the area.

Thus, the battlefield enlarged by several times. When the residents within a few kilometers had heard that Soul Alliance and the three great palaces would have a standoff, they had already cleared the area. They couldn’t stay where they were because if a war broke out, they would suffer from the disaster.

After the enlargement, the battlefield became the huge city forest in front of the main palace of Soul Palace, the living residential area of the Huang Family which was adept at using plant world soul pets and a rather busy merchant district.

Due to the news of conflict between these two great factions having already spread, these areas had already been cleared earlier. Changing these areas into a battlefield wasn’t hard. They just had to send a few people to protect the buildings by creating a large barrier.

As for whether things would be destroyed, the rich and imposing Soul Palace and Soul Alliance probably wouldn’t care. Indeed, reconstructing things was easy. Fast construction earth type soul pets would be able to create a building within a day...

Chapter 959: Seven Sin Fox Battles Cyan Hidden Dragon (1)

Diagram supreme Ke Yin specially told them to fight with one soul pet, because he knew that Chu Mu could only control one soul pet.

Originally, Diagram supreme thought Chu Mu would summon the white nightmare with nightmare ancestor's inheritance. However, Chu Mu didn't cast any incantation, instead telling the cute little silver fox on his shoulder to jump forward. This caused diagram supreme to have nothing to say.

To deal with Nie Yunbing, if he had to tell white nightmare to fight, it would be overestimating Nie Yunbing.

Most importantly, Mo Xie truly was bored right now. If she didn't get some fighting practice, her strength would probably start falling backwards.

Mo Xie's strength was always very stable. Chu Mu had a lot of faith in Mo Xie, especially in a one on one situation. Chu Mu believed that none of Nie Yunbing's soul pets would be able to beat Mo Xie.

"Heng, I knew you would let this seven sin fox fight!" Nie Yunbing stood on a treetop far away and laughed coldly.

Immediately, Nie Yunbing casted an incantation to start his summon.

Cyan patterns swept through, and countless light spots interlaced amongst the treetop, becoming countless brilliant symbols that covered the entire summoning diagram to create a majestic cyan green shadow!

The cyan green dragon slowly became solid. First, its powerful wings drooped down. Next, its majestic and imposing head extended forth. Finally, its body covered in thick scales and power appeared!

The forest plants were all around fifty meters tall. Yet, when this cyan organism was summoned, its wings pushed the nearby plants downwards. Standing at the center, its head was already above the treetops. Its towering stature caused even the people spectating from afar to gasp!!

“Cyan hidden dragon!! It’s cyan hidden dragon!!!!”

“This should be poison desolation Nie Yunbing’s strongest soul pet. Clearly, it was an invincible emperor rank with claws full of poison!!”

“Dragon species’ type were all very powerful. If it were invincible emperor rank, its strength was definitely higher than that of similar species. How could it be match for poison desolation’s cyan hidden dragon!”

Countless discussions started with the sight. Everyone could tell that the cyan hidden dragon was easily an emperor amongst emperor ranks. Its defense, attack, and speed were all insurmountable. Adding on the poison desolation’s poison effects present in every soul pet, it caused this emperor rank cyan hidden dragon to become even scarier!

Hearing the discussion come from afar, Nie Yunbing couldn’t help but smile.

If not for this cyan hidden dragon, how would Nie Yunbing dare to fight Chu Fangchen with just a soul pet? Nie Yunbing counted before; probably not many top tier emperor ranks in all of three palace could beat his cyan hidden dragon in a one on one situation.

“Chu Fangchen, my cyan hidden dragon was sleeping, or else you would have been very dead the other day!” Nie Yunbing pointed at Chu Mu and said evilly.

At this moment, Nie Yunbing noticed the opponent’s expression clearly change from its previous calm composure, and Nie Yunbing smiled even wider. Looks like he didn’t expect a cyan hidden dragon to be summoned either.

Chu Mu stood there and had a change in expression, but it wasn’t fear that they displayed.

“It has a soul, but it had fallen already.” Chu Mu mumbled.

When meeting the cyan hidden dragon in tianxia city, it was going through the wash of memory fluid, almost losing its ability to become the slave of the soul labor

Yet, Nie Yunbing summoned a cyan hidden dragon that had its own soul. However, this soul already was obedient to Nie Yunbing. In fact, even if Nie Yunbing told it to attack the empyrean cyan hidden dragon, it probably wouldn’t hesitate in the slightest.

Empyrean cyan hidden dragon already had missing memory after the soul alliance’s torture, so after it escaped, Chu Mu couldn’t allow its descendants to stand amongst the soul alliance faciton!

Thus, since it had fallen already, Chu Mu wouldn’t show any mercy, even though cyan hidden dragons were virtually of the same species to him.

In such a case, Chu Mu wouldn’t worry about if it were right or wrong. As long as he thought it should be done this way, he wouldn’t hesitate!

“Wuwuwu~~~~~”

Little Mo Xie laid on Chu Mu’s shoulder, and could feel Chu Mu’s inner vicious tendencies and let out a battle hungry call.

She also knew very clearly that Chu Mu wanted more than the victory, but also the death of this cyan hidden dragon who had lost its soul to soul alliance already.

“Help me kill it, can you?” Chu Mu said icily.

“Wuwuwu!!!!” Mo Xie jumped down from his shoulder onto the ground, her silver noble fur instantly lifting up, creating an imposing scene!

Red flames spread out, and became a swirl that surrounded Mo Xie’s body. Mo Xie slowly extended, and grew under the enveloping of the flames!

“Huhuhuhu~~~~~”

Nine tails danced in the red flames. These were the special traits Chu Mu inherited from royal flame nine tail inferno fox. This caused Mo Xie to be different from a true seven sin fox. While she was soft, demonic, wild, she was also dominating!

After Mo Xie became seven sin fox, her aura clearly became stronger. The flaming light caused the entire city forest to become red, unable to stare directly at it. Compared to the beast covered in cyan scales, her aura wasn't any weaker!

Many people had never seen a real seven sin fox before. The moment Mo Xie transformed, it caused many people to yelp in surprise. This was going to be a very glamorous battle!

Mo Xie's red flames were burning brighter than usual. On one hand, she hadn't fought for a while and was excited at fighting a powerful opponent. Her blood was nearly boiling. On the other hand, it was naturally because of Chu Mu's soured emotions after seeing the enslaved cyan hidden dragon, empowering Mo Xie with a determination to kill!!

"Wuwuwu!!!!!!!!!"

Mo Xie's eyes were calm yet excited, nearly crazed. She let out a call and the flame enwreathed body almost instantly disappeared. Everyone could only see a crimson after image flash through the forest and light up the entire forest on fire!

"Looking for death!! Step it into the ground!" Nie Yunbing humphed and said with resentment!

Cyan hidden dragon flapped its wings and became a large cyan light that darted into the clouds.

Right after, it fell down, its massive cyan body becoming a cyan meteor that flew right at the path Mo Xie was about to take!

"Honghonghong!!!!!!!!!"

The cyan energy spread outwards, causing the entire well decorated city forest and nearby streets to get destroyed. The running red flame fox shadows all became leaves that shook within the energy shockwave.

With four paws lit with flames, the slightly off balance Mo Xie stepped in the air multiple times and readjusted herself to become a fox shadow that flew through the seeping cyan energy and charged directly towards the cyan hidden dragon's body.

The fox shadow flew past and its nine tails danced visually shockingly as it slammed heavily into the cyan hidden dragon's body!

Cyan hidden dragon didn't dodge. Instead, it used its powerful armor defense to block the attack and let the flames burn its armor while its claws slammed towards the fox fire shadow!!!

“Pa!!!!!!”

The fire fox shadow immediately blossomed into a fire lotus that continued to burn the cyan hidden dragon's body!

Cyan hidden dragon let out an angry roar. Clearly, that wasn't the seven sin fox's real body, instead an image conjured purely by flames. It turned its head around to look for the seven sin fox's real body!

However, the cyan hidden dragon was already too slow. When Mo Xie sent a fire fox shadow forth, she already used nine tail confusion to appear behind the cyan hidden dragon!

Comparing nimbleness, cyan hidden dragon couldn't even compare to Mo Xie!

Mo Xie's nine tails quickly wrapped around cyan hidden dragon's body and, with a call from Mo Xie, its massive body was lifted right up into the air, and swung in an arc back into the ground!!

“Beng!!!”

The city floor shook with the cyan hidden dragon's landing. However, Mo Xie's attack didn't seem to stop with it falling. As her eyes blazed with flames, the sky quickly conjured a flame cloud!

The flame cloud, controlled by Mo Xie's evil pupil, became gusts of sun-like flame that fell down from the blue skies, leaving long tails of flames behind them as they descended with destruction!

Cyan hidden dragon climbed out of the pit slightly dizzily, and was just about to fly up when the massive flames fell down, and cause it to get sent back into the ground!!

The flames nearly destroyed the entire forest, and Nie Yunbing's ugly emotions were clear to everyone by firelight.

He was at a disadvantage at the beginning of the fight, which caused Nie Yunbing to be even more sullen and caused him to yell angrily at Cyan Hidden Dragon!

The cyan body stood up slightly shakily from the flame covered ground. The normal flames on the grounds couldn't affect its thick armor, but there were two clear burn marks on its body already!!

“Aohou!!!!!!!!!!!!!!”

The cyan hidden dragon's eyes were already bright red. This was the first signs of it getting angry. Its wings stirred up the air nearby and with a quick flap, all the nearby flames were extinguished!!

Cyan hidden dragon lifted its head and conjured cyan energy within its throat while also enshrouding this energy with a green poison gas.

With an angry roar from the dragon, the poisonous dragon beam flew parallel to the ground, through dozens of structures and straight towards Mo Xie!!

Chapter 960: Seven Sin Fox Battles Cyan Hidden Dragon (2)

With Mo Xie's dodging abilities, such a far attack could hardly hit Mo Xie. What was hard to deal with was, when the dragon beam flew out, the poison fog constantly spread out and covered Mo Xie's area.

Chu Mu's understanding of poison wasn't lacking. He knew that such a poison could easily go through the pores of a soul pet and into their body to cause their mobility to decrease. If she stayed in the fog for too long, her speed and power would all be severely weakened.

A large cloud of poison blew up in the dragon light like a sandstorm, filling up the position Mo Xie was in.

Mo Xie quickly ran out of the reaches of the poison fog. However, the poison fog was something even the fastest demon couldn't completely dodge. Slowly, Mo Xie felt her bones starting to numb, and that she couldn't use all her speed when she ran.

“Without speed, she’s waiting to die!!” Nie Yunbing watched the seven sin fox slow down and his eyes sharpened, immediately commanding cyan hidden dragon to chase after.

Cyan hidden dragon continuously flapped its wings to near Mo Xie and circle above Mo Xie.

Cyan hidden dragon’s wings started flapping faster and faster, causing it to start spiraling faster and faster as well. Slowly, people could see a cyan shadow constantly spinning above Mo Xie.

A wave of cyan dragon power slowly lifted up around Mo Xie, creating a spatial disturbance that gradually formed a whirl!

The cyan hidden dragon’s wings started flapping even faster. The cyan energy was already forming a massive dragon power storm that forced Mo Xie off the ground!

Suddenly, Cyan hidden dragon stopped spiraling, but the dragon storm was already fully formed. Mo Xie, in the storm, already lost her balance and started wavering amongst the violent energy.

Within the storm, the cyan hidden dragon’s angry eyes locked onto Mo Xie, its massive body slamming towards her!

Mo Xie could hardly keep her body steady now. Seeing the cyan hidden dragon barrel over, she could only use her nine tails to create a fan to block the cyan hidden dragon’s attack.

“Hong!!!!!!”

Cyan hidden dragon slammed into Mo Xie and instantly the dragon exploded with power, causing the entire storm to dissipate and send Mo Xie flying to the edge of the entire battlefield!

A long gorge was created from the city to the business district. The nearby structures had already all fallen, lifting up a wave of muddied dust.

At the end of the gorge, the flaming Mo Xie stood up shakily, and her snout was slightly oozing with blood.

Mo Xie's defense wasn't high. In such a battle, if she got hit one more time, the wounds would really affect Mo Xie's ability to fight. This could be a large disadvantage at high class emperor rank. After all, the three main types of Mo Xie's couldn't provide her an invincible emperor rank's life and defense. If not for nine tail shield's hardness blocking most of the damage, she could even get instantly killed by a powerful organism like cyan hidden dragon!

Mo Xie stuck her tongue out, and licked away the blood. Instead of showing pain from the wound, her silver demonic eyes instead lit up with excitement and blood lust!

The taste of blood was something she hadn't tasted in a while. Especially when fighting against someone stronger than her, the near-death experience she had constantly during the fight caused Mo Xie to focus completely, allowing her to enjoy the danger, excitement, and blood burn!

“Huhuhuhu~~~~~”

The airflow moved irregularly and created a raging wind that lifted up countless yellow dust around Mo Xie. Mo Xie's silver fur danced among the wild winds, her nine flaming tails also waving along!

“Sousou!!!!!!!!!!”

Suddenly, within the opposing winds, Mo Xie’s burning silver body disappeared!!

Everyone saw a string of red footprints come along, but strangely, when the prints reached a certain place, it split into seven and quickly went into the skies!

Nie Yunbing stared blankly. He couldn’t tell which set of prints were the real seven sin fox and dind’t know how to respond accordingly.

Cyan hidden dragon’s judgment was even more limited. It constantly turned its head around to try to find one special one amongst them all. However, the foxfire shadows were identical in every way, even in speed!

The seven sets of prints dind’t go directly towards the cyan hidden dragon, instead making seven elegant paths to the surrounding of cyan hidden dragon!

“Huhuhuhu!!!!”

Immediately, strange flames started rising, connecting each shadow with another!

Slowly, the flames started becoming more and more dense and people suddenly discovered that the seven fox in the sky had their tails connected and interlaced, like flame chains that created a three dimensional flaming diagram!

A shocking flame tail diagram caused cyan hidden dragon to fall into a massive trap. As Mo Xie called out, all of her locking tails started pulling taut!

Facing such an attack, cyan hidden dragon had nowhere to hide. As countless flaming tails pulled tight, the cyan hidden dragon didn't even have the ability to move. No matter how powerful it was, it couldn't struggle free of Mo Xie's soft, resilient foxtails!

“Gezhi!!!!!!!!!!!!”

Cyan hidden dragon's defense couldn't do much under this technique. The tight chains directly destroyed the bones. Even an organism as powerful as the cyan hidden dragon would have to break a few bones under the power of this!

“Aohouhou!!!!!!!!!!!!”

Cyan hidden dragon's meat wings were the first to get nearly snapped. The pain caused it to roar out and struggle to try to break free!

Mo Xie's attacks didn't stop because of the wings snapping. When all the clones started disappearing, Mo Xie's real form still had its nine tails around the cyan hidden dragon as it ran away from the ground!

Mo Xie flew down and left a string of footprints that instantly brought the massive cyan hidden dragon into the clouds.

Just when everyone was wondering what technique the cyan hidden dragon was going to cast, in the clouds, the silver body appeared and hurtled towards the ground like a meteor!

Behind this silver comet, the struggling cyan hidden dragon was also pulled downwards!

The moment before the silver meteor was about to hit the ground, her tails heavily slammed downwards, sending the massive cyan hidden dragon into the ground head first like a cyan hammer!!

This technique was the simplest close combat technique Mo Xie knew, nine tail hammer. However, after the nine tail chain diagram and the help of elevation, this nine tail hammer became extremely terrifying!!

Nine tail hammer itself was supposed to create a concussive effect. The larger the being was, the stronger the defense was, the more damage the organism would have to sustain. After this nine tail meteor hammer landed, the cyan hidden dragon wouldn't be able to stand up in a short while!

“Beng!!!”

Cyan hidden dragon's thick body fell into the ground and, the ground in a few kilometer radius all started cracking, densely spreading out. The rocks all flew upwards, spreading through the barrier protected battlefield!!

Outside the barrier, everyone looked at the cyan hidden dragon fall down and felt a shiver down their spines as their own necks shrunk in dread!

Anyone could see that the two continuous techniques caused great damage to cyan hidden dragon!

Indeed, within the dust, cyan hidden dragon's wings were snapped and its body was already out of the crack. However, when it stood up, it constantly shook and shivered, unable to stand up straight. Its massive head clearly was tilted sideways as well and its eyes were no longer violent, instead showing dizziness and loss, unable to know what to do next.

“Chu Fangchen's understanding of battles is very high. Since the beginning, he never wanted to make the seven sin fox rip through the cyan hidden dragon's defense, nor did he want to whittle through its massive life force. Instead, he used a soft strategy to directly affect the cyan hidden dragon's bones, causing its armor and meat shield to instead be its lethal weakness, while its self-regeneration would be useless as well.” Diagram supreme Ke Yin smiled with satisfaction and analyzed the battle.

“Your majesty, you mean that Chu Fagnchen is about to win?” The elders said quickly.

Cyan hidden dragon seemed to only have some misshaped bones and didn't have any wounds. It should still have a lot of life force and the battle shouldn't end yet.

“En, this battle is over. Cyan hidden dragon doesn't seem to be wounded, but its bones are definitely severely broken. A few more attacks and the cyan hidden dragon won't be able to stand up.” Diagram supreme Ke Yin said.

.....

Chu Mu smiled, confident yet coldly. Chu Mu knew cyan hidden dragon species even better than Nie Yunbing. It was powerful, had good defense, powerful life force and regeneration. It sounds unstoppable, but it had a lethal blow. Once it gets hit and loses its balance, it will cause great damage to all its bones!

Chu Mu told Mo Xie to use a soft strategy since the start and target the cyan hidden dragon's bones. As long as Mo Xie didn't get heavily wounded first, cyan hidden dragon will definitely feel restricted fighting against Mo Xie, and it won't have a complete bone after!

Now, the cyan hidden dragon's skull, neck bone, chest cavity were all severely wounded. Following this, Mo Xie no longer needed to worry about defeating it; she needed to explode with even greater strength and directly kill this cyan hidden dragon by breaking its bones!!
