

Soul Pets Bk2 991

Chapter 991: Birth, Little Dead Dream

Thunder Monarch was incredibly arrogant, not accepting the medicine that Chu Mu threw over. Mo Xie's gestures were wasted. Seeing that thunder monarch wasn't taking it, Mo Xie drank it herself. This caused everyone to be speechless. If Chu Mu threw another one over, thunder monarch probably still would just look over condescendingly. It was trying to tell Chu Mu with its mind that it wasn't thirsty.

Chu Mu couldn't do much about the thirsty little mo Xie. When Ye Qingzi was making these medicines, she even added a fruity taste to them. It made it too appealing for soul pets.....

The two sin foxes let out "wuwu" sounds, and started an incomprehensible conversation.

After a while, the forgiven fox thunder monarch glanced at Chu Mu and left with some resentment.

Little Mo Xie jumped back onto Chu Mu's shoulder, her small snout still lingering with the scent of the medicine.

Chu Mu laughed helplessly as he told her to move closer and used his sleeve to wipe off the remaining medicine and asked, "Did you find out?"

Chu Mu told little Mo Xie to go talk with thunder monarch to see if he could find out how to become a fully forgiven fox.

Little Mo Xie only got half its power unleashed. If it were fully forgiven, its strength should definitely be like thunder monarch's as well.

Using soul items to strengthen little mo Xie was very infeasible, so Chu Mu had to find a way for Mo Xie to atone as well.

“Wuwuwu~~~~~”

The human and fox conversation was only understandable by them. The others glanced at each other in confusion.

However, quickly, they saw Chu Mu smile. Sounds like what they were asking about finally had a solution.

“Chu Fangchen, it told you the way to get forgiven?” Mu Qingyi quickly asked.

“Not really because thunder monarch himself didn’t know how to atone for his crimes. It said it passed through human territory and reached a “Fox Temple” on the east side and finished its atonement there.” Chu Mu said.

“Fox temple? Never heard of it before.” Pang Yue said.

“It’s translated over, so our name for it is probably different. Mo Xie knows its approximate location, so I plan on paying it a visit.” Chu Mu said.

“If its on the east side, it should be the same direction as growth spring.” Mu Qingyi said.

It was temporarily unsure whether the fox temple could truly help Mo Xie finish its forgiven fox transformation. The main mission was to go with Mu Qingyi to get the growth spring and bring up dead dream’s phase in the shortest time possible.

Once dead dream was tenth phase, Chu Mu believed his little hidden dragon, Zhan Ye, and night would probably return. Then, Chu Mu would go fulfill his promise and make the “goddess” his slave!

In the past, having no where to look to retract his first soul pet, Chu Mu felt very hopeless and lost. Soon after, finding out defector young woman’s true strength caused his journey to retract her to exponentiate in difficulty. Thankfully, Chu Mu never gave up and the day was getting closer and closer!

The road back was much simpler. The demon realm guard thunder monarch was already defeated, so they could leave from the front door, not needing to leave from the valley.

Coming off the huge mountain, they weren’t far from the tunnel. The six people came out of demon realm and all greedily took a deep breath of the fresh air outside.

The experts within demon realm were plentiful, forcing them to stay alert constantly. The feeling of pressure caused a great burden on all six of them, so now that they walked out of the demon realm, they felt relieved.

But, speaking of which, demon realm was actually deep within forbidden realm. This meant they were still in a region that was deadly to humans. Only these six would dare to relax and deeply breath this far into the forbidden realm.

The return would take five months. When Chu Mu merged the phoenix blood, it took a lot of his soul power. Though he brought some of Ye Qingzi's soul power medicine, truly recovering it required meditation still.

Once he was eighth remembrance spirit emperor, the complete replenishment of his soul power needed nearly a month.

So, for a whole month, Chu Mu sat on Mu Qingyi's immortal ming bird and meditated. This caused everyone to be impressed by Chu Mu's determination. They couldn't believe he could go a whole month without speaking, remaining in meditation. If it were Teng Lang, who was naturally very lively, he would have gone crazy.

Chu Mu's soul power slowly replenished and, to Chu Mu's surprise, little Dead Dream started hatching when Chu Mu's soul power was fully replenished.

Chu Mu quickly pulled little dead dream out, to let everyone witness the birth of a new life!

“Chu Mu, you truly are a man with great fatherly love, causing little dead dream to hatch so quickly.” Teng Lang glanced at the hatching egg on Chu Mu’s palm and teased.

The others all pushed their heads over to glance curiously at little dead dream about to break out of its shell.

“This is a low class dominator rank soul pet. We very likely are the only humans to witness the birth of a low class dominator rank soul pet!” Pang Yue said excitedly.

Once Pang Yue got close with everyone, she threw away the reserved and gentle nature required of her as a princess. She pushed Shen Mo aside with no trace of remorse and stared starry eyed at little dead dream.

Just as Pang Yue finished, the purple phoenix egg started showing a dense web of cracks, as if a miniature thunder slowly went through the smooth shell.

This small scene caused Chu Mu to be even more excited.

This was the second time Chu Mu watched his soul pet hatch. The first time in immortal city, cyan hidden dragon’s death and little hidden dragon’s birth showed the cycle of life to Chu Mu. At that moment, Chu Mu felt the true meaning of life and shed a tear of utmost sincerity, becoming a monument tear that lasts eternally.

This second time as witness, Chu Mu was watching dead dream reincarnate, holding its original belief and willpower to become a fragile new life and start anew with him on his journey!

“Gezhi~~ Gezhi~~~~~”

The cracks started expanding and slowly took over half of the egg.

Just as they waited for the cracks to continue expanding, a small head poked out of the shell eagerly to look around!

A clean crescent pair of eyes glanced curiously at the six humans aside it. Very quickly though, little dead dream's gaze fell on Chu Mu.

Chu Mu's little dead dream was already bound by soul pact to Chu Mu. Even in its infant stages, it felt a natural closeness to Chu Mu, as if he was its parents.

“Yi~~ Yi~~~~~”

Little dead dream let out a weak call. Its voice was young and cute, like a baby calling out.

Little dead dream struggled out of the shell. Different from other bird species, it was covered in dark purple fur already when it was born, causing the recent born little dead dream to look extremely cute and pretty.

Mu Qingyi and Pang Yue were both women, and felt a surge of motherly love. Blinking, their faces filled with gentle smiles as they extended their pale hands to pet little dead dream's soft fur.

Little dead dream wasn't scared of the unfamiliar and let out a few calls, causing the two girls to smile even larger.

“Chu Mu, do you see, goddess Mu’s gaze is so caring and full of motherly love. You have to try a bit harder and create your very own life crystal.” At this moment, Teng Lang went up to Chu Mu and said.

Chu Mu looked at Teng Lang and was speechless at what he said.

However, at this time Mu Qingyi showed a very rare gentle and cuteness, becoming a naive little girl like Pang Yue.

After a while, Mu Qingyi and Pang Yue didn’t want to let go anymore and gave Chu Mu angry stares, as if they wanted to throw him aside and take little dead dream for themselves.

Enjoying the soft rubs, little dead dream seemed to want to fly and flapped its weak wings.

Chu Mu felt an itch in his hand. No matter how hard little dead dream tried, it couldn’t take off. The little dead dream’s love for the skies was let down, and it looked down in sadness.

“You’re just born, don’t think of flying.” Chu Mu laughed as he rubbed little dead dream’s head.

“Yi~~~~~” Little dead dream let out a young call. Though it couldn’t fly, it could still stand in a tall place.

So, the little fellow stepped forth with its small claws and shambled along Chu Mu’s arm before finally reaching Chu Mu’s shoulder.

“Wuwuwu~~~~~”

Little Mo Xie was taking a nap when she suddenly felt a thing climb over. Opening her eyes immediately, she found little dead dream clambering up to steal her spot!

This was little Mo Xie’s specialty, Usually, it sat on Chu Mu’s left shoulder while its nine tails laid on Chu Mu’s right shoulder. This kind of sleeping was the most comfortable. When little hidden dragon was around, Mo Xie very reluctantly had to give the mischievous little guy half of her space so she could only hang her tails off of Chu Mu’s back.

Now, another little fellow was here to take her spot. This was unacceptable; how could she nap in the future like this?

"Mo Xie, take care of little dead dream." Chu Mu said to little Mo Xie.

Little dead dream was in her infant stages. Though it had already signed a soul pact, its soul wasn’t completely formulated. Summoning it wouldn’t take up Chu Mu’s soul, so little Mo Xie and little dead dream could appear at the same time.

However, after little dead dream reached tenth phase, summoning it would definitely take up a soul.

“Wuwuwuwu~~~~~” little mo xie let out a complaining call. She acted as a maid and bodyguard when little hidden dragon grew up. Now with infant little dead dream, she probably had to stay with it constantly again. If it accidentally lost its life, the loss would be immense, as it was a future low class dominator rank!

It was already winter when the party of six returned to the borders of Wanxiang City.

Snow covered the sky, dyeing the ground with a cold, white color, making everything look that much more serious.

The entire wanxiang city seemed more solemn than usual under the cover of snow. To countless people coming with dreams of soul pet trainers, the already majestic city gained a piercing sharpness. They no longer dared to look up when they entered the city and walk confidently down the dignified roads. Instead, they hung their heads low and sighed as they disappeared into the city.

The city was still bustling and busy. There and back was a long year. Flying in the cold skies, Chu Mu was rueful, and Ye Qingzi's beautiful face appeared in his mind along with Ning Maner's chime like laugh and determined look.

"It's been a year abroad, my mother must be worried. I will say goodbye first and reconvene with everyone later." Chao Lengchuan was like an obedient child. Just as he returned to wanxiang city, he quickly took his leave and returned to main soul palace.

The five people were very speechless about prince chao. He was this old already yet he was still like this. If he didn't come into contact with society more, he was like a kid that never grew up.

Prince Chao saw everyone staring with a look of disgust and was embarrassed. Quickly bowing, he ran away.

"I have to return to nightmare palace, you all take care." Shen Mo learned prince Chao's expression and turned around to leave.

“Take care? Soul palace and nightmare palace are less than ten minutes apart.....” Pang Yue rolled her eyes and gave Teng Lang a stare, “If you mimic them, you’re dead to me.”

“Ugh....” Teng Lang was actually about to but could only give up at that.

Chu Mu didn’t bother with these people fooling around. Seeing Mu Qingyi ride her white tiger, he asked, “You? Are you coming to soul palace with me, or....”

“I’m returning to queen palace.” Mu Qingyi said calmly.

“Goddess Mu wants to reclaim everything of hers. Looks like things will be interesting in the next few days.” Teng Lang heard and laughed, unafraid of the chaos.

“Do you need help?” Chu Mu felt that Mu Qingyi by herself may find things inconvenient. Now that nightmare palace completely obeyed their command, helping Mu Qingyi bring together some people wasn’t too hard.

“No worry, I still have some loyal subordinates. If I have them, it’s fine. You three palace shouldn’t participate in case there’s war ahead of schedule.” Mu Qingyi said.

“En, then you stay safe.” Chu Mu nodded.

After speaking, Chu Mu and Mu Qingyi decided to say goodbye to Pang Yue. Yet, they noticed the two had backed off a long time ago, and were even more speechless.

Wanxiang City was indeed large, but they all lived in inner city and near wanxiang altar. Seeing them wasn't too hard, so everyone split ways after speaking some more, leaving just Chu Mu and Teng Lang.

“Chao Lengchuan truly is inconsiderate. It's like we aren't soul palace, not even waiting for us to go back together.” Teng Lang complained.

Soul palace's two young masters were both very low profile, deciding to enter through the front gate.

After entering the main soul palace, Teng Lang had to go report to his father and waved goodbye.

Chu Mu walked along the palaces until he reached the large courtyard at the back, wanting to give his little wife a large surprise after a year of being apart.

Yet, entering the courtyard, he didn't see Ye Qingzi, Ning Maner, or even the restless white nightmares.

“Ah, young master, you're back.” Little servant girl held a basin. Seeing Chu Mu standing outside, she smiled shyly and said.

“Why isn't there anyone here?” Chu Mu asked.

“Lady went to the supreme palace, and is probably by the lake right now.” Little servant girl said. Chu Mu nodded and walked to Ye Qingzi’s normal medicine making room. After putting down some more valuable gemstones he found there, he reasoned he had nothing better to do, and went towards the supreme palace.

The lake pavilion Chu Mu had been to a few times. The view was good, likely accentuated with a special touch by the snowy season.

The lake was already frozen like a hazy mirror. Some flakes of snow lazily floated through the air, tracing elegant paths through the sky.

Walking to the wooden walkway, Chu Mu saw a beautiful and calm girl sitting in the pavilion. Wearing a snow white fur robe that brought out her noble and curvaceous body, she stood like an angel in this winter day, pure and untainted.

Chu Mu saw her and was stunned.

This figure was familiar yet strange. In the past, when he saw her, her chilling apathy caused Chu Mu to feel scared and cowardly. He never understood why his father was so easily approachable yet his mother was this unaccepting.

Now, Chu Mu slowly understood that she was simply born this way; no one could approach her easily. Her stories instead hid under her icy cover. Her emotions were hidden behind calm and lonely eyes, much like the snow covering up everything else.

Chu Mu lost his thoughts staring at her. Only after a while did he finally make his way along the wooden corridor.

She clearly hadn't noticed him yet. Chu Mu just walked up to her slowly and smiled, calling out "Mom."

Liu Binglan's body shivered. Turning around, a handsome smile fell into her view. The confidence and ease in the smile radiated a man's unique charm, almost confusing Liu Binglan as to whether this was her husband that wanted to roam the world and regain all he lost, or was it the determined worker pushing towards a goal in his heart.

"Chu Mu....." Liu Binglan's cold heart melted instantly, becoming the moisture in her eyes.

From Ye Qingzi, Liu Binglan already knew that Chu Mu was still alive.

Yet, when Chu Mu truly stood in front of her and smiled as he called her mom, all her emotions finally broke through the dam in her heart, revealing her most sincere and vulnerable side.

The heart wrenching grief she felt after Chu Mu became a devil, as well as the tears of joy from the reunion created a juxtaposition between heaven and hell. Even Liu Binglan didn't realize she was suffering this much mental stress over the past years. Seeing her son well, she choked on her words as she hugged Chu Mu's shoulders tightly.....

Chu Mu looked at his crying mother and felt waves of warmth course through his heart. No matter where he went, she was always thinking of him, worrying for him.

Chapter 993: Stronger Feelings After a Long Time Away

Chu Mu had just reunited with Liu Binglan when he heard about the bad news about Ning Maner from her.

When Chu Mu had returned to Wanxiang City, he hadn't felt a spiritual fluctuation from her, making him feel strange. He figured she was in some restricted area, playing around. He didn't realize that she had been taken away by people from the Dark Sky Ocean World.

Chu Mu had signed a soul pact with this girl, so her being taken away left a bitter feeling in his heart.

Chu Mu spent a long time talking with Liu Binglan and gave her an approximate account of what happened. Liu Binglan had already heard Ye Qingzi tell her this before, but as a mother, she wanted to hear it from Chu Mu himself.

Chu Mu's version was had obviously taken out any of the dangers he was in. Nonetheless, after undergoing the devil transformation, Chu Mu was no longer as weak as before. He wouldn't constantly be in danger...

As they talked, the topic arrived at Ye Qingzi.

"She's encountered a bit of trouble." Liu Binglan had come to know this daughter in law of hers for a year now. She was rather satisfied with her.

"What trouble?" Chu Mu wasn't very happy about this. He had left for a year, and in this period of time, someone found trouble for her?

"She wanted to help me concoct a few spirit items. I went with her to the Eastern Wild Forest and encountered a wounded person deep in the forest. Out of kindness, she helped heal that person and his soul pet. Somehow he managed to find out that Qingzi was in Soul Palace and often comes here..." said Liu Binglan.

At this point, Chu Mu more or less understood what was happening. The person who Ye Qingzi had saved out of kindness went so far as to court Qingzi. That was something, eh. He absolutely had to trample on this fellow!

"Who is that person?" asked Chu Mu with a blank face.

"This person is a bit of trouble..." said Liu Binglan. If it was someone normal, Liu Binglan could get rid of him herself. There was no need to wait until now.

But why would it be troublesome for Chu Mu? Even if that person was the Hero Chief, Chu Mu would still make him understand that his woman couldn't be provoked just like that!

"He's called Wu Kuang. If I'm correct, he should be the Alliance Master's disciple. In Wanxiang City, he is called the Son of Heaven. He is the most outstanding person in the younger generation." said Liu Binglan.

Chu Mu slightly creased his brows. He never expected it to be the mysterious and unfathomable disciple of the Alliance Master who Teng Lang had told him about.

"Was it a coincidence or intentional?" Chu Mu immediately asked.

Chu Mu knew that after he defeated the Fourth Hero Mo Ling, he would probably be followed closely by a lot of people. There was even a chance he could be noticed by the powerful and unknown Alliance Master. If the Alliance Master had sent the Son of Heaven, Wu Kuang, to follow Ye Qingzi in order to inquire about him, this would be troublesome.

Although the Alliance Master could be suppressed by the Holy Region's Seven Saint Kings, Chu Mu could only single control right now. The Dead Dream's phase also hadn't been raised yet. If they were to fight, he would be in trouble.

If it was just a coincidence, then this would be a matter of that man being jealous of a rival in a love affair.

"It should just be a coincidence. When we entered the depths of Wild Forest, there was a spring there where experts often rest. After washing away our fatigue, we encountered him there and the wound on his body was real." said Liu Binglan.

If Liu Binglan had known that person was the Alliance Master's disciple, Wu Kuang, she definitely would have gotten rid of him. Liu Binglan couldn't afford to allow a person who could threaten her child survive.

Liu Binglan would be able to kill him in the wild, but once back in Wanxiang City, she no longer dared. Indeed, this person was the Alliance Master's disciple who was someone who could change the entire situation with a single movement.

"If it's a coincidence, then it's fine." Since it was a coincidence, Chu Mu didn't need to worry too much. He would still beat him up since he was also a young generation member. As long as he didn't kill him, it wouldn't affect the general situation.

Moreover, Teng Lang had told him before that in the subsequent period of time, there would probably be a contest between the young generation. Since the Son of Heaven had appeared in Wanxiang City, this fellow would probably challenge him, who had already shown his ability. Only, he had an extra reason to hate him because of Ye Qingzi.

Liu Binglan wasn't well-positioned to handle this so she endorsed Chu Mu's decision to deal with it himself. However, she told him to be careful because the Son of Heaven's strength was definitely above Chao Lengchuan.

Chu Mu and Liu Binglan's relationship couldn't be known to the public, so he didn't stay long before leaving.

After returning to his courtyard, Chu Mu's powerful sense of smell managed to pick up the fragrance from Ye Qingzi when she would walk through it.

Chu Mu was the most familiar with this fragrance. It was a mix of fresh flowers, both alluring and fresh. It would always intoxicate Chu Mu.

After walking past the front courtyard, Chu Mu made his way to the back medicine garden. He spotted the sexy and bewitching Ye Qingzi crouched over a flower medicine. She was carefully examining the growth of the plant and her small red lips were muttering something.

Chu Mu was like a phantom that silently reached Ye Qingzi's back. Yet, he heard her mutter, "If Ning Maner was here, it would be good. These spirit plants are growing so slow..."

Chu Mu's lips curved into a wicked smile. His hand silently reached towards Ye Qingzi's ass and he abruptly grabbed it.

“Ah!” Ye Qingzi jumped in fright and let out a delicate cry.

But when the familiar scent reached her nose, her heart began to beat quickly like a small deer and her face instantly turned red.

A lovely smile blossomed on her beautiful face. The colorful and fresh spirit grass and flowers paled in comparison. She lovingly turned around and looked at the handsome face still with a wicked smile...

“Did you think of me?” Chu Mu hugged her thin and flexible waist, and asked her with his head pressed against her smooth forehead.

“Yes.” Ye Qingzi nodded her head.

After a long period of time away, their feelings for each other were even stronger. Seeing Ye Qingzi’s increasingly beautiful and moving figure, Chu Mu couldn’t help but be entranced. He tilted his head down and his lips planted on Ye Qingzi’s red lips. He would have a passionate kiss with her before they continued talking.

Ye Qingzi’s thin arm was already wrapped around Chu Mu’s neck, holding him tightly. She gave a slightly embarrassed response to Chu Mu’s mouth of a wolf...

“Scoundrel... not here!” as they were passionately kissing, Ye Qingzi suddenly felt something and she feigned anger. Her face was already flushed red.

“Don’t worry, there’s no one here. Trust my dominator rank perception.” Chu Mu’s lust had been triggered and couldn’t care less where this was.

Ye Qingzi small fists punched Chu Mu’s chest. This was what this fellow used his dominator rank strength for?

Ultimately, Chu Mu was unable to convince his conservative wife. He picked her up and glanced at the room...

A silver colored devil flame ignited on Chu U and Ye Qingzi. Chu Mu couldn’t wait any longer and didn’t hesitate to use Displacement Specter.

Flames burned over his entire body, even igniting the love and desire in his heart.

Tonight would probably be a sleepless night...

In the morning when golden rays of sunshine spilled into the white wintery courtyard, the morning dew sparkled in the beautiful light.

A young servant girl was carrying hot water and lightly knocked on the door from outside.

“Xiao Xin, bring it later.” Chu Mu heard the door and quickly sent her away.

It had been a long while before he had slept so comfortably. Chu MU was lying under the cosy cover and in his arms was the sleeping Ye Qingzi whose face was a rosy red.

Ye Qingzi had already woken up. Normally, the two of them were used to waking up early to work hard, but today they were lazing around in bed and weren't willing to get up. The night of passion clearly wasn't enough to satisfy the yearning they had for each other in the past year.

The two of them just lay there talking. After speaking many words of love, gradually, the topic shifted to Ning Maner.

"About Ning Maner..." Ye Qingzi softly said.

"Yes, tell me what happened." said Chu Mu.

When it came to this topic, Ye Qingzi's heart contained anger. Promptly, she told Chu Mu about those people who kidnapped Ning Maner at night and the extremely arrogant and ruthless Border Guard who subsequently appeared.

After Chu Mu finished listening, his eyes became extremely cold.

That person had been so arrogant as to tell him, the guardian, to go to the Dark Sky Ocean World to find him for revenge. What Chu Mu couldn't stand the most was that he had used the lives of the White Nightmares and Ye Qingzi into forcing Ning Maner to willingly follow them back!

“How is Third White?” Chu Mu said in a low voice.

“I saved him, but its abilities have been completely lost...” Ye Qingzi was only able to save Third White whose life force was rather tough. The other White Nightmares had all perished.

“What about First White and the others?” Chu Mu’s heart sank and he continued inquiring.

“First White and the others are fine. They are currently training hard in the Nightmare Holy Region. They were waiting for you to return. You only need to tell them that you’re going to the Dark Sky Ocean World and they will immediately round up a Nightmare army from the small Southern Forbidden Region and the large Southern Forbidden Region to kill their way over there.” said Ye Qingzi.

Ye Qingzi was unable to swallow this, especially when she thought of the Border Commander’s arrogant words.

After dealing with the matters here, Chu Mu would fly over to the Dark Sky Ocean World and raze whatever area Zheng Wu was in!!

In the sky above the Wanxiang Altar.

A mighty and imposing White Tiger was stepping on the clouds in the sky. Its icy pupils were staring down at the Queen's Palace situated high up.

The entire Wanxiang Altar should have belonged to the Mu Family. However, even the final Queen's Palace had changed masters, becoming the territory of Eight Desolations Fang Wu.

Mu Qingyi stood next to the White Tiger, staring down at the person who had sold her out and stolen her palace.

"Tai, go down." Mu Qingyi jumped onto the White Tiger's back.

The White Tiger didn't step its way down. Instead, it shot straight down!

Its white mighty body fell from the blue sky and white clouds. The Queen's Palace was defenseless right now and they abruptly landed in front of the palace!!

"Beng!!!!!"

The incomparably sturdy crystal rocks on the ground were shattered and the servant girls and servants who were busily moving in and out of the palace jumped in fright. They all fell backwards to the ground and stared with shock at the White Tiger with godly might and the woman with cold dignity - even more cold than chilled ice - who sat on top!

Chapter 994: Blood Dyed Queen Palace (1)

"Your Majesty Heavenly Concubine!!"

All of the servants going in and out went pale with fright. All of these people were holding on to items from Mu Qingyi's bedroom palace because the Queen's Palace had changed owners. Fang Wu had ordered them to move out these items that belonged to Mu Qingyi, and to move in new items.

These people didn't dare to disobey and followed these orders.

However, when they saw their majesty appear in front of them and next to her an imposing White Tiger, they immediately felt ashamed and cowardly as they kneeled down.

At this point, a few of the concubine women saw Mu Qingyi. They stood there, their legs shaking, but their faces forcibly remaining calm.

"You... you ruthless and vicious woman. You dare appear here!" the captain of the concubine women, Zhuo Yun's face was flushed red as she spoke.

Zhu Yun had naturally been brainwashed by Fang Wu. Moreover, everyone here knew that the Mu Qingyi of present was not the same Mu Qingyi. Without the Crown Phoenix King, she may not even be stronger than Fang wu.

"Senior Fang Wu gave you a way out to let you survive. Yet, you are unwilling to accept her kindness!" next to her, a young concubine woman suddenly began to jeer back.

Presently, a violent wave of opposition towards Mu Qingyi had arisen in Soul Alliance and Wanxiang City. These people here were at the core of this wave.

In the past, these concubine women with evil intentions had feared Mu Qingyi. Now, there was no need to fear because there were experts in the Queen's Palace that could deal with her.

“What are you kneeling for? She is no longer the owner here. Stand up!” Zhuo Yun flew into a rage out of humiliation as she saw the servants all kneeling on the ground and began to yell at them.

These servants looked at Mu Qingyi, before looking at Zhuo Yun. For a moment, they didn’t know whose order to listen to...

Mu Qingyi’s eyes were cold and arrogant. Now, even the Concubine Women Captain dared to act so arrogantly in front of her.

However, Mu Qingyi couldn’t be bothered to care about a single Zhuo Yun. In the past, she didn’t even know what this woman’s name was. She didn’t need to waste time on this sort of person.

She stepped forward and ignored them as she brought her White Tiger straight inside the Queen’s Palace.

“Go and notify Senior Dancing Desolation and Senior Tie Xin.” the Concubine Woman Captain saw that the situation was not good and hastily spoke.

Mu Qingyi wasn’t in a rush. Since someone was going to notify those two bastard followers, she could just wait in the palace for them.

It wasn’t that she was unwilling to just kill her way in, but she was afraid that in a fit of anger she would destroy the Queen’s Palace. That would be letting down her own family.

Mu Qingyi entered the front palace and sat on the owner's seat, waiting for her two female disciples.

The White Tiger lay next to the Queen's seat, causing those concubine women who only dared stay a certain distance away to tremble with fear.

Eight Desolation Fang Wu was giving orders to the servants inside the Queen's Palace. Although she couldn't be the Queen, the Queen's Palace would belong to her. She was going to get rid of everything related to Mu Qingyi and replace them with her own items.

Fang Wu and Mu Qingyi were female soul pet trainers of the same generation; in fact, Fang Wu had made a name for herself even earlier than Mu Qingyi.

However, Mu Qingyi had ended up rising to power and no matter how hard she tried, she was far from being able to match up to Mu Qingyi.

The main reason for this was the Crown Phoenix King. Without it, Fang Wu was confident she would be able to defeat her!

In truth, she had been devoted to Mu Qingyi; nonetheless, that was a few years ago. After being constantly suppressed under the golden divine glow of this woman, the resentment began to accumulate.

Yet, Fang Wu didn't have the courage to take action against her because no matter if it was her status of the imperial family or her strength, Fang Wu was still unable to challenge her.

It wasn't until she obtained a chance opportunity by Fourth Hero Mo Ling who referred her to the Empress Concubine where she obtained the Empress Concubine's recognition.

Fang Wu felt that the Empress Concubine was far mightier than the Heavenly Concubine. Her two eyes were practically capable of seeing through one's heart. Moreover, her schemes were extremely profound. How was she like Mu Qingyi at all who would offend the Heroes just to save a few insignificant people? Mu Qingyi always took pity for no reason and had no ambition of a queen. How could she have the qualifications to become a queen?!

Therefore, the Empress Concubine gave her instructions and an ample opportunity. Fang Wu began to send people to commit some atrocities and pushed the blame onto Mu Qingyi. Simultaneously, she hid these acts until they had accumulated right to the brink where she unveiled them all at once and pushed Mu Qingyi into a plight of no reprieve.

Of course, the most important thing was to get rid of the Crown Phoenix King. This was a world dictated by experts. A mere slandering was unable to influence Mu Qingyi's status. Only by greatly reducing her strength could they overthrow her.

Unexpectedly, all of this had gone smoothly!

Fang Wu's current state of mind could even be described as great. Without Heavenly Concubine Mu Qingyi, her status in Wanxiang City and Soul Alliance was completely different than before. The feeling of controlling everything and living in the Queen's Palace while receiving respect was something incomparable to a lowly follower!

"Take these items and move them in. If you damage them even a bit, I will have your heads!" Fang Wu was personally overseeing these things since they were going to decorate her own bedroom.

“Take these all out and burn them. If you dare take them for yourselves, hmph!” harrumphed Fang Wu as she looked at the pile of Mu Qingyi’s things like she was looking at trash.

The servants didn’t dare make a sound and did as told.

“Se... Senior Fang Wu, Her Majesty.... Her Majesty is in the great hall!” a concubine woman flusteredly ran in while panting.

“Her Majesty Empress Concubine? Why has she honored us with her presence?” Fang Wu was confused. She was actually a bit afraid of this woman because she had control over everything, even Soul Alliance. A single stamp of her foot was capable of causing Wanxiang City to tremble.

“No... No, it’s Her Majesty Heavenly Concubine!” hastily said the concubine woman.

Fang Wu fiercely glared at this stupid concubine woman and said: “You’re still calling her Majesty?! How many time do I need to say it!”

“Yes... yes. This servant will not dare to in the future. That.... She’s in the Queen’s Front Palace.” the concubine woman clutched her face and spoke in an extremely quiet voice.

“Hmph, that slut dares come here. Go to Fourth Hero’s palace and inform Senior Fourth Hero. Also notify Her Majesty Empress Concubine.” coldly sneered Fang Wu.

Fang Wu was currently unafraid of the stray dog-like Mu Qingyi. Last time Mo Ling had been unable to take her down because had lowly relied on help from the three great palaces. Now that she had presented herself to them this time, this would definitely be her burial ground!

Fang Wu summoned Tie Xin and brought a group of betraying concubine woman quickly to the Queen's Front Palace.

"She really came?" said Tie Xin with a slightly strange look.

Tie Xin couldn't be considered one of the betrayers. Unfortunately, Mu Qingyi had been heavily injured, left in dire straits and her reputation had been badly damaged. To save herself, she could only stand with Fourth Hero and Fang Wu.

"What are you flustered for? The two of us can combine forces and deal with her!" said Fang Wu.

Tie Xin's emotions were a bit strange. Having to face Mu Qingyi made her heart a bit of a mess.

Mu Qingyi had many disciples. Fang Wu was the strongest and Tie Xin after her.

Fang Wu and Mu Qingyi were about the same age while Tie Xin was older than Mu Qingyi. The two of them had followed Mu Qingyi for a relatively short amount of time, only after Mu Qingyi had become famous and defeated them. However, those disciples that she had raised herself were all very loyal and didn't dare disobey her.

Unfortunately, Mu Qingyi had only been a teacher for a short period of time and these disciples all had limited strength. They either ran away or were exiled to other places. Mu Qingyi could only take back her position to summon them back.

On the Queen's seat, Mu Qingyi sat there like normal. Her cold eyes stared at her two strongest disciples that were walking in the large palace as well those concubine women who had steeled their hearts and betrayed her.

The Queen's Palace was primarily composed of women. To promote her cause, Fang Wu had called upon all of the experts. There were a total of 30 female spirit emperors with unordinary strength.

"Mu Qingyi, have you come to surrender yourself for your crime?" Fang Wu sneered and looked extremely contemptuously at the woman who dared sit on the Queen's seat.

Mu Qingyi's eyes were rather normal. If it were before, Mu Qingyi wouldn't have hesitated to have the White Tiger smack Fang Wu to death with one paw. This time, however, she was calm.

She didn't respond to Fang Wu. Instead, she glanced at Tie Xin whose head was lowered.

"Tie Xin, I'll give you a chance. Turn and leave right now and I won't follow up. But if you stay here..." Mu Qingyi's words were very clear.

Tie Xin didn't even have the courage to look up at Mu Qingyi.

“You’re indeed so falsely righteous. You suffered a lesson once, and you still haven’t learned. You’re so stupid that you can’t be saved. Do you really think you’re the same as before? Please use your stupid brain and think what exactly you’re relying on to speak like that? Could it be that man surnamed Chu in the three great palaces? How laughable. You’re a woman of the imperial family, yet you sold your body to a man and begged the three great palaces for protection.” Fang Wu’s words were cutting and harsh.

Mu Qingyi took in a deep breath as her chest angrily heaved. So these people had already spread such rumors about her, even going so far as to accuse her of selling her body for protection!

“Your majesty, you truly made an enemy of too many people for no reason. This is too much for me to swallow...” Tie Xin lowered her head and slowly spoke.

Experts had rules among themselves. Mu Qingyi had never followed these rules and always operated by some fantasy ideology.

Due to her strength, nobody had dared say anything to her in the past. However, she had lost everything now and Tie Xin could only choose to side with the stronger side.

Mu Qingyi looked at Tie Xin who had made her decision. A disappointed feeling welled up in her heart.

Mu Qingyi had always been very lenient towards her own disciples. Yet, she never expected her own leniency had aided in the growth of their ambitions.

“Fine, since you have chosen your path so don’t have any thoughts of regret. It’s best if you become like Fang Wu and adhere to your path right to the end. Don’t leave any margin for change, otherwise it will be very difficult for you to rise above others...” softly sighed Mu Qingyi.

The remnant of goodwill left in Mu Qingyi had vanished. Her eyes turned from helplessness to coldness as she slowly said: "Only, these words of mine are directed towards your descendants."

The moment her voice faded, the White Tiger next to her stood up. Instantly, an enormous killing intent and coldness filled the Queen's Palace!!

Mu Qingyi really wanted to be merciful. But when she thought of her Evernight Emperor that had died and her disciples that had been persecuted...

Today she would dye the Queen's Palace in Blood!!

Chapter 995: Blood Dyed Queen Palace (2)

"Don't panic!" Fang Wu's expression grew solemn. Seeing everyone's expression change, she quickly suppressed everyone's voice and summoned a soul pet immediately.

As one of the eight desolations, she had quite a few top tier emperor ranks. She relied on a bloodthirsty emperor to sit within the ranks of eight desolation.

At this time, she summoned her bloodthirsty emperor. After the incantation finished, the blood incantation created a bug organism covered in blood armor. This way, the palace quickly gained an aura of blood.

"Vicious Thirst!" Fang Wu said to her bloodthirsty emperor.

The red mist covered all the concubine's heads, sending a violent and bloody scent into their noses. It retracted all the fear they had of Mu Qingyi and exacerbated their ambition, causing them to be violent too!

Feeling the blood, Tie Xing was the first to chant an incantation. She had no other choice and had to go to the end of things and help Mu Qingyi reclaim her spot or else she wouldn't have a great end either.

Tie Xing summoned her two strongest soul pets, Cyan Pupil Devil and Poison Teeth Demon!

These two soul pets were both violent beasts. Under the blood fog, it became even fiercer, ready to devour its enemies alive!

The next ones that summoned were concubine guard leader. These guard leaders that handled a large amount of guards were all high class emperor rank. Only main guard leader Mu Long had top tier emperor rank soul pets. However, the main guard leader already was killed by the current guard leader Zhuo Yun!

Those who didn't want to obey and be subordinate to Mu Qingyi all either escaped or were exiled. The more adamant ones were killed. Fang Wu's merciless ways were very scary.

Seeing the entire palace instantly get filled with fiendish soul pets, Mu Qingyi's gaze became even colder. She knew that everyone present had once harmed her utmost loyal followers. She had to use their lives to commemorate their fallen souls!

"Leave no one alive!" Mu Qingyi said coldly and gave white tiger an attack command!

“Houhouhou!!!!!!”

White tiger let out a roar that nearly collapsed the front palace. The sound shook so hard that the elemental world soul pets’ incantations were all interrupted!

“Houhouhou~~~~~”

After roaring in anger, white tiger again opened its mouth, and shot out a fierce winter storm!

The temperature nearby quickly fell and, as the storm raged forth, the entire palace gained a thick layer of frost. The biting cold and piercing wind caused the lower level concubines to all be shivering already!

“Huhuhuu~~~~~”

The storm broke through their palace gate. The concubines without high class emperor rank soul pets were all frozen into statues under the storm, their soul pets perishing alongside them!

Fang Wu, Tie Xing, and Zhuo Yun were all dazed by the storm. When they came back to their senses, they found that a third of all the soul pets were frozen by the frost!

“Beng~~~~~”

All the frozen soul pets and concubines were shattered under the violent stamp, causing the ground to become a palace full of cracks!

Standing within the shattered corpses, Zhuo Yun was shocked.

If she were frozen there as well, she would have been shattered along with the rest of them, scattered all over the ground. The look alone was worthy of fear.

A technique and a follow up alone instantly killed a dozen middle class emperor rank and high class emperor rank soul pets. Such powerful strength instantly subdued all the concubines. Facing the icy cold white tiger, their original blood induced violence instantly disappeared, replaced with a terror that struck straight to their soul!

“This.....this white tiger.....” The concubines present were all subordinates of Mu Qingyi. They knew what soul pets Mu Qingyi’s soul pets were and what strength they were approximately.

What they didn’t expect was after Mu Qingyi lost crown phoenix king, her white tiger actually became this powerful, able to match end hero Mo Ling’s Tai Mountain Giant and was a near dominator rank organism!

To people without even a top tier emperor rank, the near dominator rank soul pet wouldn’t take any effort killing them.

At this moment, their bodies were shaking. The corpses on the ground repeated a truth: Mu Qingyi was still Mu Qingyi!

“We.....we aren’t her opponent.” A few concubines turned pale, losing the courage to continue fighting.

One technique was enough to kill a huge chunk of them. Staying around was just killing themselves!

Another third of the concubines ran away in fear, not wanting to die here in vain.

Seeing these useless things all escape, Fang Wu’s expression turned sour. She hadn’t expected Mu Qingyi’s white tiger to have a breakthrough. No wonder this woman could stand here so confidently!

Tie Xing was completely stunned. Seeing the unbelievably powerful white tiger, seeing the apathetic Mu Qingyi, Tie Xing was already regretting her decision.....

Mu Qingyi slowly chanted her incantation. If a minute ago, these people chose to leave the palace, Mu Qingyi may have spared them. But, the moment they summoned their soul pets against her, it was destined that they would die!

Mu Qingyi summoned her demon and without her command, the demon easily passed through the soul pets subdued by white tiger, going towards the concubines attempting to run away.

“Ah!!!!!!”

A cold glint sent blood down. The concubine and the half flying Four colored bird were ripped in half, half falling back into the palace while half falling down the steps.

The grisly scene caused the escaping concubines to shout out. They ran out with all their might to avoid the invisible reaper's claws.

However, more and more corpses mixed with the snow. Blood of soul pets and concubines caused the palace to fill with blood.....

“Your majesty.....your majesty..... Please have mercy on us!”

A young concubine that ran outside after being sprayed with the blood of her fellow concubines quickly ran back to the palace. She kneeled down and started banging her head on the ground to ask for mercy from the steely faced queen.

“Please, forgive us, we will never, we promise we will never go against you again. We will be your servant for anything....” Very quickly, the other concubines realized they couldn't escape from the demon and, while the demon was chasing others down, they ran back with tears to beg for mercy.

“You.....you can tell us to do anything.”

The five concubines shook as they kneeled there, doing their utmost to atone.

They didn't want to die, especially not this way. Seeing their fellow concubines getting decapitated and bleed to death, their last defenses in their hearts were destroyed.

“You know your crime?” Mu Qingyi looked at the bloody servants and asked calmly.

“We know, we know we’re wrong, please forgive us!” The concubines quickly bowed their heads in fear.

“I forgive you.” Mu Qingyi said.

Mu Qingyi said and instantly the concubines were overjoyed. Their bowing became even more sincere as they spewed words of praise and thanks.

“Don’t thank me so quickly. I forgive you, but you have to find forgiveness from the concubines you harmed....” Mu Qingyi said.

The concubines all looked at each other in confusion, not knowing how to beg for forgiveness from dead people.

At this moment, they noticed Mu Qingyi close her eyes and her cold face showed some unwillingness and determination.....

Seeing that expression, they suddenly realized what she meant.

“Shua!!!!”

A cold glint passed through all the bowing concubine's necks and their heads flew off without any warning.

Their long hairs splayed out and were dyed red with blood. Five skulls, five beautiful young faces full of disbelief.

Maybe until death, they still wouldn't understand why the merciful majesty wanted to kill them.

The palace was full of blood scent. Now, the only ones intact were Fang Wu, Tie Xing, Zhu Yun, and seven other concubine guard leaders that were restricted.

Beforehand, the concubines were all not high ranking. Their deaths didn't take long, but in this short time, the blood dyed their queen palace red, causing all the people that wanted to revolt against Mu Qingyi to turn cold!

They all followed Mu Qingyi, and knew that she normally would never kill unless they were truly utmost evil people.

Yet, they saw their majesty's merciless side today, killing twenty concubines that were her old followers, only closing her eyes when they begged for mercy.....

Even the begging ones at the end were killed. Such determined killing intent caused them to be in disbelief.

“You are left.” Mu Qingyi didn’t look at the corpses, and their gaze fell on the core ten people that lead the revolt.

Mu Qingyi didn’t even move. Killing, to dominator rank Mu Qingyi, was truly easy. Yet, someone once told her that killing wasn’t true power; true power was being able to kill but deciding to protect and forgive.

She wanted to forgive everyone because they all followed her for many years and helped her. And in reality, she was in tears in her heart already.....

But, she couldn't. Forgiving them meant disrespecting all the other loyal and determined souls!

Chapter 996: Mo Ling, I’m here to take your life

She just had to stay alive until End Hero Mo Ling came. Otherwise, she wouldn’t have any path to live.

Bloodthirsty emperor stepped forward heavily. When Mu Qingyi killed the concubines, she already silently commanded bloodthirsty emperor to set down a net of blood!

“Gulu!!!!” Bloodthirsty emperor opened its jaw and suddenly pulled its sticky blood web tight, tightly binding the white tiger in front of it!

Bloodthirsty web was as dense as a spider web as it covered the white tiger. The powerful blood poison started corroding the white tiger’s skin.

The white tiger was almost completely covered, but remained standing as an ice sculpture, staring coldly at the bloodthirsty emperor!

Seeing that her bloodthirsty emperor couldn't even drag the fierce white tiger, she immediately gave everyone a look and told them all to attack.

Fang Wu summoned three top tier emperor ranks, while Xing summoned two top tier emperor rank and three high class emperor ranks. The other concubines all summoned high class and middle class emperor ranks. These ten soul pets caused the palace to look very squeezed. After they trapped the white tiger, they all roared and killed towards the white tiger.

Seeing the ten soul pets almost come at once, the white tiger struggled free from the laughable web and charged towards all the emperor ranks.

“Houhou!!!!!!”

The white tiger ran and swiped, sending shattering ice energy through the air. The two high class emperor ranks were instantly kill. Soon following, the white tiger's body dashed through the group of emperors and killed its way to the center with ease!

To white tiger, an organism near low class dominator rank, only top tier emperor ranks actually threatened it.

Of course, Mu Qingyi couldn't possibly let white tiger fight so many emperors by itself. After all, there were nearly 20 of them. If they got together, it would be equivalent to 4 top tier emperor ranks and could actually threaten white tiger.

After the white tiger killed its way into the emperor rank formation, Mu Qingyi summoned Immortal Ming Bird, and Nine Colored Phoenix.

Immortal Ming bird and Nine Colored phoenix were both invincible emperor rank organisms. In this palace, they couldn't fight to their max potential but they were still invincible emperor rank. To defeat high class emperor ranks needed no effort!

The battle was very one sided. Once immortal ming bird and nine colored phoenix joined, white tiger's cruel claws fell only on top tier emperor ranks.

In the short time, Tie Xing's Cyan Pupil Devil and Fang Wu's main soul pet was shredded to pieces. They didn't even have time to retract their soul pets.

Blood started flowing more and more, flowing down the steps into the snow. Many corpses were mashed into meat within the palace. The palace was also shaky from the emperor ranks' attacks, finally collapsing!

Many times, a cruel battle would alarm the entire wanxiang altar. Countless experts were standing far away from the queen palace. They watched as in the collapsing palace one after another emperor died.....

"What's wrong, who dares to be so brazen, killing so many spirit emperors within wanxiang altar!!"
A hermit stared in shock at the queen palace.

“It’s heavenly concubine! She came back to exact revenge.” A soul alliance member pointed at the white tiger that darted out of the queen palace and said surprised.

“No wonder. This will lift up a bloody scene!”

More and more people gathered in queen palace, but no one dared to stop the events.

One has to know that Mu Qingyi summoned two invincible emperor ranks, a near dominator rank white tiger, and a top tier emperor rank demon. This was an incredibly powerful roster. High class emperor ranks were like kids in front of her. These people most likely didn’t even have a high class emperor rank, so who dared to come stop her?

The spirit emperors on wanxiang altar all quickly looked at end hero.

End hero Mo Ling rode his Black Winged Demon as he brought all his subordinates towards queen palace.

“Wasn’t Mo Ling’s Tai Mountain Giant killed by soul palace Chu Fangchen? How does he dare to fight Mu Qingyi still?”

“Who said so, his tai mountain giant didn’t die!” The spirit emperors discussed from far away.

The people in soul alliance were unrelated to them, including the fight between three palace and soul alliance. But, they definitely would come up if something happened!

When Black Winged Demon neared, Mo Ling instantly saw the rampaging Mu Qingyi.

However, he also quickly noticed Mu Qingyi's abnormally fierce white tiger. Originally, Mo Ling had the chance to kill her along with her white tiger, but for some reason when the white tiger was heavily injured, it suddenly exploded with speed. Mo Ling could only watch as Mu Qingyi escaped with it.

Mo Ling didn't expect that Mu Qingyi had the courage to come back!

"Walking the road of death. Mu Qingyi, are you here to die?" End hero Mo Ling said, coldly gazing at Mu Qingyi standing in the ruins.

Fang Wu and Tie Xing saw end hero Mo Ling appear and they all felt as if they gained a new life, quickly hiding behind Mo Ling.

Mu Qingyi was truly powerful. He didn't expect that, even without crown phoenix king, Mu Qingyi could kill them so easily. With white tiger's presence, it was like a nightmare where they had no way of fighting back.

Mu Qingyi lifted her head and saw the arrogant end hero Mo Ling. Her eyes flashed with anger and said, "Mo Ling, I'm here to take your life!"

"Haha, haha, you?" Don't you see where you are? Even if I don't fight, I can cause you to die painfully." Mo Ling said with disdain.

As he spoke, Mo Ling waved his hand and immediately, a large crown appeared around the queen to attack it.

These people were all part of Mo Ling's personal army. There were two thousand people all of which were elites of the kingdom he managed. Mo Ling had confidence that they could defeat all of Mu Qingyi's invincible emperor ranks with this army alone. As for the white tiger, Mo Ling would naturally fight himself!

"End hero, kill her quickly, don't let her get away again!" Fang Wu's face turned pale and said flatteringly.

"I don't need you to say that." Mo Ling waved his hand in disgust.

Giving the command the two thousand soul pet trainers narrowed their encircling.

Mu Qingyi didn't even bother looking around, as if the armies around her didn't exist. She sat calmly on nine colored phoenix's back and hovered in the sky.

Mu Qingyi coldly glanced at the concubines scared out of their minds and said, "Do you know why I only summoned four soul pets?"

The moment she said that, Fang Wu and Tie Xin's faces changed.

Indeed, Mu Qingyi didn't summon a fifth soul pet, but Mu Qingyi had many top tier emperor ranks, so there was no reason why she didn't summon more. Why was she keeping a slot open?

Just as they were confused, they suddenly noticed that the terrifying woman started radiating a piercing gold light!

The concubines all followed Mu Qingyi, so they knew very clearly what this incantation glow meant!

However, wasn't the soul pet already killed? How could she summon it again?

The golden flames burned violently, causing the freezing winter season to become a blazing sunny day!

A sun-like flame fell into humanity, its massive flaming aura buffeting everyone. Within its range, one could see the sacred and arrogant phoenix's figure appear, too dazzling to stare at!!

There was only one soul pet in this world able to release such a dominating fire field and only one soul pet able to be this holy and arrogant!

“Crown.....crown phoenix king!!!!!!”

After Tie Xing saw this, she yelled out in disbelief, face full of shock!!

Crown phoenix king really revived? With crown phoenix king’s strength, even end hero Mo Ling had to back off.

However, with Mu Qingyi also having a white tiger that could fight tai mountain giant as well as other invincible emperor ranks, she was truly at the top of human realm!!

White tiger already caused them to all know what killing and cruelty meant. Originally, Mo Ling’s appearance made them think that they were saved. Who knew Mu Qingyi would summon crown phoenix king. At this moment, Fang Wu and everyone who revolted against Mu Qingyi were in despair!

They knew very clearly that Crown Phoenix King Mu Qingyi was truly a queen. Their lives were completely in her control.

“Crown phoenix king should be dead, I saw this happen!!!” Mo Ling’s face was twitching. He saw the crown phoenix die himself, yet now he saw it resurface!

The flame aura slammed into his face. The crown phoenix king’s golden eyes were locked onto Mo Ling. Mo Ling’s Tai Mountain giant was tiny in front of this true dominator rank!

Chapter 997: Son of Heaven, Wu Kuang

Mu Qingyi swept her gaze around the surrounding people and sneered.

When she had lost her Crown Phoenix King, they had spread very debasing words and planned a myriad of ways to kill her.

Now that they saw the Crown Phoenix King appear, none of them had the guts anymore. They didn't even have the courage to heckle her. It was truly laughable.

Today, Mu Qingyi wasn't only going to clean up the palace. She was also going to take revenge for the Tai Mountain Giant crushing the Evernight Emperor. Therefore, as long as a person was one of Mo Ling's subordinates, Mu Qingyi wouldn't be merciful towards them!

“Yi~~~~~”

It lightly beat its wings. and a golden ardent flame, like a fiery rain spilled down. It carried a destructive aura as it smashed into Mo Ling's army of 2000 subordinates!

This army of 2000 was suppressed so badly by the dominator rank aura that they couldn't even breathe, let alone summon soul pets to fight. Under the terrifying burning dominator rank flames, they could only summon soul pets to escape in an incomparably wretched manner from the Queen's Palace.

The moment the army was unable to stay together, they would be unable to deal much damage to a high ranking creature. After the Crown Phoenix King's angry flames descended upon them, a huge portion of the army was burned to death. Thus, it was unable to create a genuine fighting force.

The raging flames were torrential. Mo Ling's face was ashen as he watched his elite army throw down their armor and weapons in the flames.

A dominator rank creature was this domineering. Without an enormous army, it was impossible to oppose.

In an instant, the army collapsed, and the Crown Phoenix King's oppression couldn't help but make the spirit emperors watching in the distance exclaim!

"Kill them!" Mu Qingyi swept her gaze over Fang Wu, Tie Xin, and the other concubine women who betrayed her.

She had to kill these people and wouldn't show any mercy!

Fang Wu, Tie Xin, Zhuo Yun, and a few concubine women who had managed to luckily survive saw the Crown Phoenix King flyover, and their faces instantly went deathly ashen.

"Hu hu hu hu~~~~~"

A raging flame swept across and these female soul pet trainers didn't even have the ability to flee. They were engulfed by this orbiting flame room.

The flame room was like a burning stake that forced them all to the center. After, a golden colored flame of execution would slowly spread towards them. Being confined by wing type strength, they were unable to move. They could only watch the golden flames approach and feel the slow and long pain of being burned to death!

The enormous stake was erected above the Queen's Palace. Thus, even the residents in the inner and middle city could watch this golden punishment.

There were a total of eight female soul pet trainers on the burning stake. Their clothes had been burned to ashes and they were stuck in the center.

Nobody spectating the fight could bear to watch them because their hair was burned first before their skin was burned until it split, and then flesh spilled out!

“Aaah!!!! Aahhhhhhh!!!!”

“Forgive us... Your Majesty... Forgive us!”

“Kill us.... I’m begging you to kill us.... Ah!!!!”

Miserable and sharp cries reverberated through the Queen’s Palace. It also reached the ears of the spectators.

This cruel burning at the stake was witnessed by everyone. How much of an enmity was there for this War Goddess to be so ruthless!

The golden flame continued to burn. It didn’t kill them, instead forcing them to endure the most painful type of punishment. She wanted to firmly imprint this pain into the depths of their souls so that their descendants would never commit such an atrocity!

“Your Majesty, kill them. This is a bit too inhumane.” an old soul pet trainer could no longer look on and from higher up, he used a mental voice to speak.

Mu Qingyi apathetically raised her head and glanced at this flowery white bearded old man. She felt sorrow in her heart. Why didn't these people call her "Your Majesty" just before? All of a sudden they had switched back to this respectful address. These people understood how to switch sides depending on the situation, but it was also because of these people that Wanxiang City was in such turmoil!

"I am punishing my disciples. Does this require your worry?" Mu Qingyi didn't care what sort of status this old soul pet trainer had and coldly spoke.

The old soul pet trainer's expression froze, but he didn't dare say anything.

"Hua Qing, Her Majesty is acting for heaven while also warning all of her traitor disciples that ultimately, they will not have a good ending!" Nightmare Palace's Old Hermit, Old Jiang, who had already made his way over here, looked at the old soul pet trainer with disdain as he spoke.

Hua Qing's eyes carried a trace of anger, but he could only obediently retreat to one side.

The smell of burning began to spread around the area. It was pungent and nauseating. Those female soul pet trainers had now been burned into mummies. Nobody could see their flowery-jade like female appearance. Ostensibly the only thing left on them was their bony face which still wore expressions of extreme pain and fear.

Fourth Hero Mo Ling hovered in the air. He saw the entire burning at the stake. He didn't realize this woman had such a ruthless side to her, and a trace of fear welled up in his heart.

However, he knew very well that the moment he moved, the Crown Phoenix King and White Tiger would rush over towards him immediately. The reason he was still standing there was because he was waiting for assistance from other Soul Alliance members and Hero experts.

If it were somewhere else, Mu Qingyi, with her Crown Phoenix King and White Tiger could have easily killed him. However, this was Wanxiang Altar where practically all of Soul Alliance's experts were gathered. Nobody would stop Mu Qingyi from cleaning out her palace. But if she wanted to kill him, she would be stopped by experts of Soul Alliance. Heroes couldn't be killed that easily. Nobody dared disobey the Alliance Master's orders!

Soul Alliance.

"Brother Chu, Goddess Mu engaged in mass slaughter in Wanxiang Altar. She's too mighty and domineering!" Teng Lang hastily ran to Chu Mu's courtyard and began yelling without even taking a look around the situation.

Ye Qingzi happened to walk out of a room in the courtyard and glanced at Teng Lang. Was this fellow really a young master? He was more like a servant who brought information.

"Chu Mu is outside the city training Little Dream. He probably detected such a huge activity." Ye Qingzi spoke to Teng Lang.

"Oh, oh. Do you want to go look? This will probably cascade into a huge event." said Teng Lang.

Ye Qingzi pondered about this. Mu Qingyi challenging the traitorous Queen's Palace alone would definitely cause her to suffer injuries. Ye Qingzi had just happened to finish organizing her materials. She might as well head over and look to make sure nothing unexpected occurred.

There was no way the three great palace members didn't detect such a huge event. Especially those living in Wanxiang Altar. They had already grouped together and were spectating from above the Queen's Palace.

This time, the three great palaces were naturally watching with folded arms. Indeed, Mu Qingyi was cleaning out her palace while also finding trouble for Soul Alliance's Fourth Hero!

"Isn't... isn't that the dominator rank Crown Phoenix King?!" Soul Palace's Senior Elder Xiao pointed at the golden blazing sun pet. His face was full of astonishment as he spoke.

Senior Elder Xiao wasn't the only one in shock. Everyone who saw the Crown Phoenix King had an expression of disbelief.

"She was unexpectedly able to revive the Crown Phoenix King!" when the higher ups of the three great palaces saw the Crown Phoenix King appear, each one of them had different thoughts.

The senior elders from Nightmare Palace and Soul Pet Palace who had initially planned on helping Mu Qingyi were pleased at their initial choice. This would bring the three great palace's another powerful ally.

"Take a look. Didn't I say not to look down on others? Now that the Crown Phoenix King has been revived, Young Lady Mu has definitely stabilized her position as one of the strongest soul pet trainers. Who still dares to oppose her? You people are so short-sighted. Thank goodness Chu Fangchen knew how to hide his light under a bushel!" these senior elders began to sigh with emotion.

However, since Senior Elder Xiao was one of the conservative members, he didn't utter a word. The reality was in front of him right now. Their three great palaces had nearly offended a god!

“Oh, who is that? He dares appear and stop Young Lady Mu?” Senior Elder Teng pointed at the man who suddenly appeared in front of Mu Qingyi and asked in a bit of shock.

Everyone knew about Mu Qingyi’s enmity with Fourth Hero Mo Ling. Now that she had revived her Crown Phoenix King, she definitely would want to fight to the bitter end with Mo Ling who had killed her soul pets. Such enmity, unless another Hero expert appeared and made her slightly afraid, couldn’t be stopped. However, a young man who they had never appeared had managed to suppress Mu Qingyi’s anger. This was a bit strange.

In the half-ruined Queen’s Palace, Mu Qingyi quietly stood there, arrogantly. All around her were corpses running red with blood and burned.

This was the first time in her life she had engaged in such mass slaughter. Her anger still hadn’t died. Only when these people gave up their lives and only could their lives make those people with ulterior motives and plots understand that Wanxiang Realm wasn’t a place they could do as they pleased!

Mu Qingyi had to take Mo Ling’s life.

However, she knew that it wouldn’t be easy to do so in Wanxiang Altar because the Alliance Master kept an eye on the Hero experts and gave them many privileges. Moreover, only one Hero had to appear and her chance of killing him would become very slim.

However, she never expected that this person would appear in between her hatred for Mo Ling!

Not many people knew of Wu Kuang’s existence. However, he indeed was like a son of heaven. Living in Wanxiang Realm, he didn’t have any reputation or holy light about him. However, merely as the disciple of the Alliance Master gave him the qualifications to sit equally with the Four Heroes and Two Concubines!

“It’s been many years, but Young Lady Mu still remembers me...” a smile rose on the Son of Heaven Wu Kuang’s face.

Wu Kuang’s figure was well shaped and his appearance was average. If it wasn’t for his perpetually confident smile and brightly lit eyes that exuded the calm and cool of an expert, he would easily be mistaken as someone average when placed into a crowd.

Even Fourth Hero Mo Ling and the other Soul Alliance members expected this young and average looking man would be the Son of Heaven Wu Kuang!!

When the three great palace members learned that this person was the crux of Soul Alliance’s younger generation, Wu Kuang, their expressions turned a bit unsightly.

Because this young man who represented the Alliance Master had appeared, did this mean that a storm was about to engulf Wanxiang City?

Chapter 998: Invitation to Fight

“This person is Wu Kuang, the disciple of the Alliance Master?” the three great palace’s senior elders creased their brows.

Soul Alliance's Alliance Master hadn't participated in the fight between the three great palaces and Soul Alliance because ostensibly in his eyes, a fight like this was a secular world thing that he could ignore.

However, his disciple represented Soul Alliance's younger generation, and would definitely enter the conflict between the two sides. Ignoring his strength for now, purely his sensitive identity made the three great palaces not feel good.

Ultimately, even if this person did something excessive, they wouldn't dare make a rash move.

The anger in Mu Qingyi's heart naturally hadn't disappeared. However, the appearance of this person was even more tricky than the appearance of the other Hero expert.

"This is a grudge between me and Mo Ling. I hope you don't involve yourself." said Mu Qingyi.

"I'm not willing to involve myself either, but my master has orders that I must obey. At least until you find a suitable replacement for the Fourth Hero, he cannot die." said Son of Heaven Wu Kuang.

Son of Heaven Wu Kuang's words made Mo Ling wear an unsightly expression. What "until you find a suitable replacement"? Could the Alliance Master have already decided on replacing him?

"Son of Heaven, I, Mo Ling, was also just following orders..." at this moment, Mo Ling planned on selling out the Empress Concubine.

Son of Heaven Mo Ling turned around and looked calmly at Fourth Hero Mo Ling: "Whose orders were you listening to? It's been many years since master has been in Wanxiang Realm."

Mo Ling suddenly froze. His words just now had been hinting to Son of Heaven Wu Kuang that the person who wanted to get rid of Mu Qingyi was the Empress Concubine. However, Wu Kuang's retort clearly indicated that he had to shoulder the blame!

If it was the past, Mo Ling would have just shouldered it; indeed, he was unhappy with Mu Qingyi. However, now that Mu Qingyi's Crown Phoenix King had revived and the White Tiger was also this mighty, if nobody was protecting him, Mu Qingyi would definitely find him for revenge.

"As long as I am in Wanxiang Realm, Wanxiang Realm cannot hold Mo Ling. I don't care what orders the Alliance Master has. After I take Mo Ling's dog life, I will naturally go to the Alliance Master to ask for forgiveness." indifferently said Mu Qingyi.

"This..." Wu Kuang never expected Mu Qingyi's attitude to be so firm. She even dared disobey the Alliance Master's orders.

Nonetheless, that being said, Mu Qingyi's strength had already far surpassed Mo Ling. Mu Qingyi and Mo Ling were like fire and water and if he had to make a choice...

"If you want to stop me, you can try your hardest." Mu Qingyi didn't give Wu Kuang much face.

Mu Qingyi understood that her real enemy wasn't Mo Ling but the Empress Concubine whose hands already covered the sky.

She knew that the present her was not the opponent of the Empress Concubine's massive influence. However, she couldn't just swallow this. Since Mo Ling's attitude was so unyielding, she wanted to make that woman understand that provoking her wouldn't lead to an easy end!

Right now, the other Hero experts hadn't appeared. To a certain degree, this meant that the Empress Concubine was going to protect her reputation and wasn't planning on helping Mo Ling.

Wu Kuang's face froze. He seemed to not expect his face to be of no value.

However, this also meant that Mu Qingyi's anger was truly deep. Adding on her present strength, there really wasn't a need to be so afraid.

As for the Alliance Master, Wu Kuang had truthfully only used his name for intimidation effects. The reality was that the Alliance Master didn't care about this. Even if he did care, he would definitely save face for the Mu King, and be lenient in dealing with this matter.

The troublesome and conniving Empress Concubine could often wantonly destroy the Mu Family without fear. However, the Alliance Master ultimately lived in this era, and he knew of the Mu Family's power and flourishing back then; that was also when he could have received favors from the Mu Family. Therefore, to save their face, Mu Qingyi could not be attacked.

"It seems that Young Lady Mu is a bit prejudiced now. Even if there is some animosity between you two, now isn't the time to deal with it. You cannot kill Mo Ling, but your enmity cannot be removed. Then how about we deal with this using the most ancient dueling method." said Wu Kuang.

"Son of Heaven, this is unacceptable!" the moment he heard the word duel, Mo Ling's face blackened!

A duel was a fight between two people without any interference by others. This was unquestionably even crueler because the moment the duel started, Mo Ling had to fight Mu Qingyi. What difference was that from just sending her his head? If there was any difference, it would just be the manner in which he sent himself to death! In a duel, it would be more ceremonial and proper!

Mu Qingyi's eyes showed a trace of suspicion. A duel would be beneficial to her. By suggesting it, why didn't Wu Kuang just outright side with her? What was the need for all this useless talk?

"Don't be hasty." Son of Heaven Wu Kuang glanced at Mo Ling who was letting out a cold sweat in fear. His eyes fell on Mu Qingyi, "I will participate in this duel too. If Young Lady Mu can kill Mo Ling with my participation, Young Lady Mu will be able to take revenge. Moreover, I can take responsibility so that you will not be punished by my master. However, if Young Lady Mu cannot kill Mo Ling in this duel, then could Young Lady Mu please lay down your anger. You are both influential people in Wanxiang Realm and if any one of you is to perish, it will be a loss to our human realm."

Wu Kuang's words immediately incited an uproar.

Regardless if it were the three great palaces or Soul Alliance, they never expected Wu Kuang to suggest this method of resolution. Could Son of Heaven Wu Kuang be that confident in his strength that he could deal with the Crown Phoenix King and White Tiger possessing Mu Qingyi?

Indeed, the current Mu Qingyi could only be opposed by the Hero Chief!

"Of course, Mo Ling and I are two people. This would be unfair to Young Lady Mu. Therefore, Young Lady Mu can choose any expert you believe in to fight against Mo Ling and I in a two versus two." continued Wu Kuang.

As everyone was still in shock, Wu Kuang's next set of words swept up a wave of astonishment in both sides!

Wu Kuang and Mo Ling combining strengths to fight Mu Qingyi already made both sides astonished at the Son of Heaven's strength. Yet, Wu Kuang even permitted Mu Qingyi to invite an expert!

Mo Ling's Titan Giant could at most fight the White Tiger to a standstill. If Wu Kuang wanted to save Mo Ling, he had to possess a dominator rank creature that could stop the Crown Phoenix King!

By indicating he would participate in this fight, Wu Kuang was undoubtedly telling everyone present that he was an expert with a dominator rank.

Moreover, his final words indicated that his strength was far from as simple as a dominator rank!

This logic was plain and simple. How could the three great palaces not understand this?

However, the conclusion reached using this logic undoubtedly was deadly to them!

It had taken them great difficulty to obtain the assistance of Mu Qingyi, this expert who could oppose the Hero Chief. This had greatly expanded their power in the fight against Soul Alliance.

Chu Fangchen, Chao Lengchuan and Liu Binglan were all experts that could hold their own. They gave the three great palaces the qualifications to fight against Soul Alliance's higher ups.

However, an increase in strength didn't only happen on their side. As they continuously pumped out experts, Soul Alliance also managed to produce the same level of experts.

Even if the three great palaces were prepared, they never expected Son of Heaven Wu Kuang to reach such a degree of power!

"Are you sure about that?" Mu Qingyi stared at Son of Heaven Wu Kuang's confident eyes and spoke.

Son of Heaven Wu Kuang nodded his head and said: "Didn't Young Lady Mu say that if I wanted to stop you, I could try my hardest? I'll give it a go."

"Ok, we'll do as you say." said Mu Qingyi.

"Then five days later on Wanxiang City's eastern Wanxiang Plains." Son of Heaven Wu Kuang directly spoke the location and time of the duel.

Mu Qingyi just nodded her head, not saying anything more.

Wu Kuang saw that Mu Qingyi agreed and he wore a smile on his face. He turned around and looked at Mo Ling, who didn't look too good. He said: "What? You don't have the confidence in me?"

"I dare not. I dare not." Mo Ling hastily plastered a smile.

In truth, Mo Ling didn't have the confidence. Ultimately, Wu Kuang was part of the young generation and his strength had to be at least equal to Mu Qingyi in order to save his life because the person Mu Qingyi would ask would be Chu Fangchen.

Son of Heaven Wu Kuang was indeed very strong. This had always been the rumor; the rumor of his strength even surpassed his own. However, Mo Ling was still unsure whether Wu Kuang had equivalent strength to Mu Qingyi.

Most importantly, the purpose of this duel was for his life. If Wu Kuang couldn't beat Mu Qingyi, he could just step to the side and his life would be over. Wu Kuang himself didn't have a stake in this fight. He just had to say so and his life would be over...

Right now Mo Ling could only hope that Wu Kuang indeed could rival Mu Qingyi. Otherwise, his life would not be able to be preserved.

"Then wouldn't Young Lady Mu like to clean up the Queen's Palace? After all, this place was left by your ancestors. It being dyed in blood and in disarray like this..." said Son of Heaven Wu Kuang.

Mu Qingyi didn't want to say anything more. She swept her eyes over the Queen's Palace servant girls and concubine women hiding in the distance.

These servant girls, servants and concubine women had seen the end of the fight. The anger of the Queen had dissipated and smartly, they chose this time to return. They began to clean up the corpses and skeletons in the Queen's Palace.

"So it turns out this many people had arrived. It seems that the day of the duel will be very lively." Son of Heaven Wu Kuang surveyed the surrounding members from the three great palaces, Soul Alliance and neutral factions as he calmly spoke.

The Soul Alliance and neutral faction members all politely greeted him and spoke words of praise.

Wu Kuang ignored them. Instead, his eyes fell on to the three great palace's faction. Suddenly, a glimmer sparked in his eyes. He wore a smile as he said: "Young Lady Ye, you've also come. I happened to be looking for you."

As he spoke, Wu Kuang began walking to Soul Alliance. He ostensibly ignored the hostile situation between the three great palaces and Soul Alliance!

Yet, his words caused everyone's eyes to fall on Ye Qingzi!

There had been a rumor recently that Chu Fangchen's woman had gotten involved with someone. When the rumor started, everyone felt that this person was just asking for trouble; but none of them expected it to be Son of Heaven Wu Kuang!

Amidst Soul Alliance, Ye Qingzi creased her brows seeing Wu Kuang walk over.

However, just at this moment, a familiar handsome figure walked up to Ye Qingzi and adeptly grabbed her waist before pulling her into his embrace...

Ye Qingzi was initially stunned, but shortly after smiled, giving this fellow who truly knew how to pick his entrances a coquettish fake-angry stare.

This shameless fellow gave Ye Qingzi an unconstrained smile in response before looking apathetically at the person walking over to Ye Qingzi!

Chapter 999: Shedding all Pretenses

Son of Heaven Wu Kuang's expression stiffened. He specially went up to say hi to the outstanding female soul teacher, yet some damned fool came up and hugged her. If this wasn't mocking him, what was?

Wu Kuang met Ye Qingzi by the fountain in Eastern Wild Forest. He was indeed injured from a bad fight, and Ye Qingzi's appearance caused him instantly to gain good feelings for this beauty with outstanding soul art prowess as well.

Wu Kuang was the kind that must claim anyone he had good feelings for. Coming back to wanxiang city and asking around, he found out that she was the fiancée of the recently famous Chu Fangchen.

She was already someone else's girl. This caused Wu Kuang to feel slightly down. However, stealing a girl from an incredibly famous young expert seemed to be a better challenge.

Because of his initial good feelings for Ye Qingzi as well as wanting to taunt three palace's top person Chu Fangchen, Wu Kuang appeared more and more frequently in places Ye Qingzi usually visited, causing many people to know there was someone who had a death wish that was trying to bother Chu Fangchen's woman.....

Of course, Wu Kuang didn't think he was the one with a death wish. Instead, the show-off Chu Fangchen would be the one with the death wish if he isn't tactful!

Wu Kuang slightly paused but continued, saying with a face full of confidence as he continued towards Chu Mu and Ye Qingzi, "You must be Chu Fangchen? I heard of your name even in the east side of wanxiang realm."

The three palace and soul alliance people saw Chu Fangchen and Wu Kuang meet face to face and started discussing amongst themselves.

These two people represented the strongest young generation members of both sides. It was rumored that Son of Heaven Wu Kuang wanted Chu Fangchen's fiancée. No matter what, these two young experts would have to fight eventually!

"Wu Kuang, right?" Chu Mu glanced calmly at the seemingly arrogant man and said back with equal arrogance, "Leave my woman alone in the future!"

Wu Kuang heard this and his expression stiffened. He didn't expect the young man to skip over all the pretenses and pleasantries, going straight to their conflict!

Three palace elders and soul alliance experts all stared wide-eyed at Chu Mu too!

Did Chu Fangchen know who he was talking to?

Son of Heaven Wu Kuang was soul alliance's brother, and giving this challenge meant that he was very powerful. Chu Fangchen may not be his match, yet he was still speaking with such a condescending tone!

"Chu Fangchen, who gave you this courage? Don't you know who is standing in front of you?" Mo Ling already hated Chu Mu's guts and immediately yelled back!

Chu Mu glanced at Mo Ling and completely ignored him. He replied calmly, "Also, three palace doesn't welcome you here, don't think you can just come and go from three palace's property freely."

"After speaking, Chu Mu glanced at the three palace elders and continued, "In the future, if we see him stepping into three palace, expel him immediately!"

"Expel.....that's....." the elders all glanced at each other!

Son of Heaven represented soul alliance. Though such a character was clearly on the opposite side, if he wanted to step into three palace, as long as he didn't do anything blatantly mocking, they couldn't interfere. No one expected Chu Fangchen to rip away all pretenses without hesitation, telling them to expel him too. This caused the elders all to be shocked for a second.

"Chu Fangchen, let's not give commands to all of three palace on a whim, especially one pointed directly against the son of heaven Wu Kuang. After all, his background....." Elder Xiao said tactfully.

"Yes, don't affect the greater picture because of your personal feelings." The old men again started trying to convince him, afraid Chu Fangchen would accidentally start the war early. After all, Wu Kuang indeed had the power to harness soul alliance. If they angered him, it could become a huge trouble.

"His command is my command. Fellow palace guards, sacred guards, and leaders, from today on, forbid Wu Kuang from entering three palace." Suddenly, a cold voice came that suppressed the voices of all the elders.

Right as it was spoken, the noble Liu Binglan slowly walked up under the escort of many servant girls. She was noble and elegant, her beautiful appearance accentuated by a coldness and dignity.

Three palace people saw female supreme walk over and all saluted.

Wu Kuang gazed, displeased at Liu Binglan. Trying to keep calm, he said, “Why do you have to be like this? Do I, Wu Kuang, have to play any plots against three palaces?”

“Since we’re on separate sides, we might as well draw the line clear. If son of heaven had the time to visit three palace, you might as well spend more time managing your subordinates in case they make trouble again. The fighting between the two sides is our matters, so it shouldn’t affect other factions, families, and cities.” Liu Binglan said.

This was something son of heaven Wu Kuang couldn’t refute. He replied with an insincere smile, “Then if you say so, I have nothing more to say.”

After speaking, Wu Kuang glanced at Chu Mu and said with disdain, “Since female supreme pushed me completely towards the enemy side, if we ever meet somewhere in the future, don’t blame me for being cruel. Also, Chu Fangchen, a near dominator rank white nightmare is far from enough to defeat me. As long as I’m around, you may have to avoid walking around me in the future!”

Wu Kuang’s unmasked threat meant that one of the two would have to fall in the future. This immediately exacerbated the situation to a peak!

“If stepping over you counts, then I agree.” Chu mu replied.

Wu Kuang humphed and glanced at end hero Mo Ling before leaving.

Mo Ling quickly followed Wu Kuang. If Mu Qingyi rode her crown phoenix king out, he wouldn't be alive anymore, so he could only follow this protector closely.

The three palace people quickly spread out. However, about the final battle in three days, the high level people would have to discuss a bit. After all, it involved the stance of Mu Qingyi as well as the life or death of end hero.

Soul alliance members left surrounding son of heaven Wu Kuang. Wu Kuang told all the elites to gather in hero chief palace to discuss the final in three days too.

"Son of heaven, do you truly have confidence in defeating Mu Qingyi?" End hero couldn't help but ask.

"Heng, how are you doing this, either pull the Mu Clan out from the roots and don't let them get back up ever again, or don't mess with them. Look at what you've done, leaving me this trash to fix!" Wu Kuang said, still angry from the previous ordeal.

"There.....there were too many accidents and coincidences. First, Mu Qingyi's white tiger broke through. Then, Chu Fangchen's white nightmare inherited nightmare ancestor techniques. Speaking of Chu Fangchen, Mu Qingyi will likely tell him to battle.....son of heaven, what do you think?" End hero said.

Of course, end hero was most worried about whether this unknown son of heaven could defeat Mu Qingyi.

"You thought I proposed a final just to save your worthless life?" Wu Kuang said disdainfully.

“Son of heaven means.....” Mo Ling wasn’t stupid and instantly thought of a reason, “You intentionally lured Chu Fangchen out?”

“My teacher roams far away but heard of news in Wanxiang City and felt that he may be a threat, so he told me to get rid of him.” Wu Kuang said.

Mo Ling and the others heard and quickly realized that son of heaven truly had thought of everything before doing things.

“Then son of heaven has a certain chance of success?” Another expert said.

“My teacher told a soul pet of his to stay by my side and protect my safety. In special situations, I can also command it in combat.” Son of heaven Wu Kuang said.

The other experts all showed shock as well. They didn’t expect Wu Kuang to have a soul pet of alliance master. If so, Wu Kuang could walk sideways straight through all of wanxiang city without obstruction!

Since its soul alliance master’s soul pet, it had to be dominator rank!

Wu Kuang himself also had a dominator rank soul pet. With two and adding on Mo Ling’s own soul pet, they had a sure chance of winning.

“Mu Qingyi is too powerful, so killing her will be hard. However, it’s much easier to kill Chu Fangchen!” Wu Kuan’s gaze flashed with a resentment.

Thus, son of heaven had started planning long ago! Intentionally approaching Chu Mu’s woman just to anger him- son of heaven’s mind is truly overwhelming.

Wu Kuang lifted a mouth corner. Ye Qingzi thought it was just a coincidence, but for some reason Chu Fangchen didn’t care about him at all. Wu Kuang’s anger became worse as he promised he would step on this kid!

“Son of heaven, where is soul alliance master’s current position? The three palaces were places they weren’t necessarily afraid of, so there’s no point in hiding.” Mo Ling asked questioningly.

“Not yet, soul palace's seven sacred kings aren’t decoration. Soul palace is very sensitive right now. To protect their thousand years long tradition of their name, they will definitely burn one’s bridges and summon the seven sacred kings.....” Wu Kuang said.

Three palace had their own or else anything will die before dominator rank in other cases!!

“No worries, I can deal with it.” Son of heaven Wu Kuang said. Son of heaven Wu Kuang had a lot of self-confidence.

Chapter 1000: Sacred Region, Black War Tiger

Mu Qingyi originally didn’t want to let Chu Mu join in on this. After all, Chu Mu already helped her a lot.

However, Son of heaven Wu Kuang and he had exchanged hostile words. Presumably, even if Mu Qingyi didn’t want Chu Mu to participate, Chu Mu wouldn’t choose to back off.

However, Mu Qingyi was uneasy. If son of heaven dared to propose this method, he must have some certainty; he wouldn't just go through the formalities and let her kill Mo Ling.

Mu Qingyi was alone and had to face that many enemies; it was inevitable that the soul pets were wounded.

“Stop exacerbating things to the worst with a few sentences, at least wait for your soul pets to come back first before being brash.” Ye Qingzi gave him an eye roll, and felt that Chu Mu was overly extreme.

“He came to find trouble with me and can't even avoid it, so why be kind? Also, I can't allow other men to hang around you or else I won't be able to be safe.” Chu Mu said.

Ye Qingzi pinched Chu Mu and secretly glanced at Mu Qingyi, who wasn't far away, and grumbled that he never spoke according to the occasion.

However, seeing Chu Mu treat his rivals in love so seriously, ye Qingzi felt very happy.

“That person may be very powerful, if you only have a white nightmare, how will you defeat them?” Ye Qingzi said.

“Don’t I have Mu Qingyi too?” Chu Mu lifted an eyebrow and glanced at Mu Qingyi, who was tending to her soul pets.

“So you were just counting on her..... I thought you had some trump card, or else why would you be this confident?” Ye Qingzi said.

“Eh.....I do have a trump card, but it’s inexplicable.....” Chu Mu scratched his head and said.

“What do you mean ‘inexplicable’?” Ye Qingzi asked hastily.

Chu Mu felt like he couldn’t explain it well and just shook his head.

“Yi~~~~~”

At this time, little dead dream woke up and called out in Chu Mu’s soul pet space.

Dead dream’s phase was rather low and needed a lot of time outside. Chu Mu told little Mo Xie to go back to her space and summoned Dead Dream out.

Dead dream’s purple feathers were clean and pretty. Its little and delicate appearance garnered everyone’s favor. Ye Qingzi saw Chu Mu summon little Dead Dream and immediately extended her hand to offer her palm up.

Little dead dream often ate Ye Qingzi's soul items and nutritious foods and so it often stuck around Ye Qingzi all the time. Many times, Chu Mu was skeptical at whether this greedy little phoenix was even his soul pet, and not Ye Qingzi's.

"The little guy is one phase six stage, does it have any techniques?" Ye Qingzi rubbed its fur and said in a soft voice.

"Yi~~~~ Yi~~~~" little dead dream immediately flapped its wings and circled around Ye Qingzi multiple times. Along its flight path, dark purple lightning hoops appeared that dispersed into small arcs, resembling mini dead lightning crowns.

Ye Qingzi looked at little dead dream showing off its dead thunder energy crystal. Little dead dream's own species rank was high, or else Ye Qingzi didn't really know how she would create a dead lightning type soul item to strengthen little dead dream in the future.

Chu Mu didn't want to add other types to dead dream, so in its training, Chu Mu could use soul items to quickly power low phase dead dream with soul items. He wouldn't need to find multi type soul items like he had to for little hidden dragon when he added ghost type.

"Chu Fangchen, I feel Wu Kuang should have some trump card too. Be careful then, we can think about how to kill Mo Ling some other time." Mu Qingyi slowly walked over and said to Chu Mu.

Mo Ling was just a lackey in the grand picture. Mu Qingyi wanted to take his life as an example. If Chu Mu came into danger for this conflict, then it wouldn't be worth it.

"In reality, I only wanted to know what strength Wu Kuang has. If we don't force him to show his hand, it would be even harder to defend against. He's always going to be a threat in the future ." Chu Mu said seriously.

“That makes sense, but you should treat it with caution. If things aren’t going well, we can give up.” Mu Qingyi wanted to play it safe.

Chu Mu nodded. He had a dominator ranked defense, so Chu Mu wasn’t worried if he was in danger. In terms of victory and defeat, Chu Mu wasn’t too worried. If he really could understand Wu Kuang’s strength, Chu Mu didn’t mind losing; it wasn’t embarrassing at all.

Let alone, the overpowered Mu Qingyi was right aside. Chu Mu didn’t think he had no hope.

“I’m going out the city, Qingzi, will you accompany me?” Chu Mu didn’t like wasting time. He wanted to go out of the city to the plains and forest to find low phase soul pets to train dead dream.

“En.” Ye Qingzi wasn’t busy recently. Training small soul pets was very relaxing to do.

Soul pet palace

Soul pet palace, like soul palace and nightmare palace, had its own sacred realm.

What was different was the sacred region’s soul pet species was incredibly complicated. Soul pet palace couldn’t create something like the nightmare species or the seven diagram sacred pets, so soul pet palace members have varying soul pets with no clear inclination towards a species.

Soul pet palace's young pet resources also came from its sacred realm. Members who often went to soul pet palace also treated this place as a training ground and entered and left frequently.

Soul pet palace's sacred realm was very expansive and created a massive organism ladder!

From the lowest servant rank to emperor rank, or even the dominator rank deep in the sacred realm, soul pet palace's sacred realm could fulfill the needs of almost any soul pet trainer.

Soul pet palace's entry barrier was always very low, choosing to bring in soul pet trainers of all levels. However, sacred realm wasn't some place anyone could enter. Because of the resources were so rare, soul pet palace had a rule that stated only inner members could enter.

Inner members meant the direct family line of tenth rank titles. As for other members, they could only go to other realms that belong to soul pet palace to train unless they stepped into that inner member list.

In the past, Pang Yue usually trained within the sacred region. This time, after going to demon realm with Mu Qingyi and Chu Mu, Pang Yue's rewards were much better than multiple years in the sacred realm. For this, Pang Xing was extremely excited. Presumably in no time, his daughter could become the next senior elder!

"Pang Yue, once your soul pet improves, you can go deeper into sacred realm. We only have a few people in the palace who dare to go that far." Pang Xing said to Pang Yue.

"En." Pang Yue nodded. Remembering something, he asked, "Speaking of which, did the old man that saved me come back from sacred realm yet??"

“Yes, it brought the Mo Ye deep into sacred realm and has been gone for a while. He said he needed one more soul item to improve the soul pet, and wanted to see if sacred realm had it. They’ve been gone for a year and a half.” Pang Xing said.

Pang Xing originally thought Old Li and Zhan Ye stopped around soul pet palace to give them some help and anchor. Who knew that they entered a sacred realm right after they reached soul pet palace and didn’t come out for a year. They sent someone to track them but found their tracks went even deeper into sacred realm than anyone dared to follow.

In the large sacred realm, countless soul pet palace members never brought back news from the end of sacred realm.

Many people have guessed countless whether sacred realm was another world, one even vaster than the one humans were on. However, it wasn’t any less dangerous than forbidden realm and couldn’t be fully researched.

Sacred realm was split into three regions, outer, middle, and deeper region.

The outer region was very vast and inhabited countless low level soul pets. Low class soul items could also be seen anywhere and young soul pets were everywhere; it was the heaven for rookie soul pet trainers.

Every soul pet trainer had to go through a low phase, and no matter which era, this rank soul pet trainer was always the largest.....

“That black tiger-like organism, is it a commander rank Mo Ye?” A young man brought his warrior rank soul pet and companion behind a bush and looked at a powerful organism from far away.

“Indeed, its a Mo Ye, and it definitely is tenth phase. Why is there such a powerful soul pet in the outer region.” The middle aged man who came with the young man furrowed his brow.

The middle aged man was only a spirit teacher. With his remembrance, he could at most tell it was a tenth phase organism, but he couldn’t tell its exact rank from the aura.

“Why does it have no aura.” Young boy said curiously.

“This.....it may be because this organism is extremely powerful!” Middle aged soul pet trainer said in a low voice.

The young man nodded with half-understanding.

On the grass, the black and mighty Mo Ye stepped forth slowly and headed towards sacred realm.

It had been a dozen days of constant running. It was now tired, which was why it slowed down and moved forward slowly. In the normal case, the young man and middle class soul pet trainer couldn’t even see a shadow of it.

“Sometimes, the more you want to find something, the less you can find it!” Old Li sat on Zhan ye’s back and said angrily.

“This soul pet palace sacred realm truly is unreliable. Such a large place, and we went through over half of the deeper region yet we found nothing good.” Old Li continued.

“Ai, whatever, let’s go back. Three palace and soul alliance seemed pretty chaotic. Let’s go find female supreme to see if we can help in any way..... Who’s female supreme? Stupid, Chu Mu’s mother..... Of course, we have to help.... Don’t worry, as long as you don’t get surrounded, you should be able to handle any situation. If you are surrounded, just run. Didn’t I teach you this simple strategy countless times.....”
