Chapter 4291 The Deca-Secret Realm

“Old man, I just realized that you’re quite the chatterbox,” the young man said as he glanced at the old man.

The old man smiled. “Well, your behavior today is out of the ordinary, after all. Anyway, did you meet your junior brother?”

The young man shook his head. “I won’t interfere in his journey so I won’t meet him until he becomes a supreme powerhouse.”

The old man said with a faint smile on his face, “However, based on your character, I think it’s impossible for you to ignore him. After all, he inherited your father’s legacy. How can he be an ordinary person? Moreover, you just said that his attainment in the Sword Dao is comparable to yours. That explains why he was chosen by your father. It’s possible that a profound comprehension of the Sword Dao is one of the requirements to unlock the Aeon Sword legacy that your father left behind...”

“Old man, it seems like you’re familiar with my father. However, I’ve never heard him mention you when he was still alive,” the young man said as he looked at the old man with a probing gaze.

“When the Aeon Sword made a name for himself in the God Defying World, I was just a nobody. Although I’m not a sword cultivator, your father was my idol.”

The young man's eyes flashed as he asked, "Does this mean you approached me because of my father?"

The old man smiled sheepishly. "Maybe..."

The young man did not know that one of the supreme powerhouses who invaded the God Defying World and was killed by his father was the old man's enemy. In the past, the old man's enemy had killed his master who raised and cultivated him. As such, he was grateful to the young man's father for avenging his master.

...

Duan Ling Tian naturally did not detect the presence of the two supreme powerhouses nor was he aware that the duo watched him kill Hong Zhang Yi. He only speculated that his second encounter with Hong Zhang Yi was not a coincidence. The chances that it was truly a coincidence were slim to none.

Needless to say, Duan Ling Tian would never be able to guess that the supreme powerhouse who helped him was the son of the supreme powerhouse whose legacy Feng Qing Yang, his master, obtained.

Feng Qing Yang and Duan Ling Tian were completely unaware of their connections to the supreme powerhouse.

'There's still a lot of time left... I should accumulate more battle merits to open a secret realm. It's easier to obtain rewards and treasures in a secret realm compared to the chaotic region. Only rudimentary Supreme Gods will enter the secret realm with me. This means that all of their battle merits will be mine...'

With Duan Ling Tian's strength now, he was naturally stronger than all rudimentary Supreme Gods. Even Ning Yi Xuan, the former strongest prodigy in the God Defying World, lost to him in a single-person secret realm.

If Duan Ling Tian encountered Ning Yi Xuan in a secret realm again, he had no intention to fight Ning Yi Xuan. On the contrary, he would step back and allow Ning Yi Xuan to obtain the benefits. After all, Ning Yi Xuan saved his life before, and he was not one to repay kindness with ill will.

Duan Ling Tian continued to wander the chaotic region. Based on the lesson he learned, he did not stay in one place for long. As such, it was difficult for others to find him. Moreover, the chaotic region was vast. Unless everyone in the chaotic region searched for him, it would be almost impossible to find him.

...

Five years later.

Duan Ling Tian managed to accumulate quite a lot of battle merits over the years. After that, he did not hesitate to use half of his battle merits to open a multi-person secret realm. To be precise, he chose to open a secret realm that could accommodate ten people, a deca-secret realm. Ten people were also the maximum number of people a secret realm could accommodate.

Needless to say, he had to wait for another nine people to use their battle merits to open the deca-secret realm before he could enter.

‘I can only wait for now...’

Duan Ling Tian knew he would have to wait for a long time before the requirement was fulfilled and to enter the deca-secret realm.

This method was very time-consuming. It would have been faster if he had joined a group of seven or eight people at least with enough battle merits to open a deca-secret realm.

‘I’ll continue to collect battle merits for now...’

After using his battle merits to open the secret realm, he did not have to stay in one place. As long as he remained in the chaotic region, the entrance to the secret realm would appear near him once the other nine people opened the secret realm with their battle merits.

‘If I’m on the Divine Sanction Battlefield, it’ll take at least a few decades up to a hundred years just to accumulate enough battle merits to open a deca-secret realm. After all, there are only people from two Realms of Gods on the Divine Sanction Battlefield. Conversely, there are people from six Realms of Gods in the chaotic region. I think I’ll only have to wait a few decades before I can enter the deca-secret realm.’

Duan Ling Tian was very patient. It was not a problem for him to wait a few decades to enter the secret realm. However, he was unaware that before he opened the secret realm, six other people had already opened the secret realm; he was the seventh person to do so.

For this reason, only four years had passed when the void around him shook and a mysterious portal appeared.

When the mysterious portal appeared, Duan Ling Tian had just teleported to block someone from the Scaling River Land.

Hong Zhang Yi, the grandson of a supreme powerhouse, was from the Hong clan, a prime supreme-rank force in the Scaling River Land. His grandfather was also the only supreme powerhouse in the Hong clan.

The person Duan Ling Tian met was not from the Hong clan and did not recognize Duan Ling Tian. He sneered when he saw the mysterious portal near Duan Ling Tian and said, “You provoked me first. Do you think you can escape from me now by entering the secret realm? You underestimated me.”

Duan Ling Tian was still contemplating if he should enter the secret realm or kill the rudimentary Supreme God in front of him first when a gust of wind blew past.

Following that, the rudimentary Supreme God from the Scaling River Land appeared and stood between Duan Ling Tian and the portal, firmly blocking Duan Ling Tian’s way. Unlike Duan Ling Tian, he had already stabilized his cultivation, but similar to Duan Ling Tian, his strongest law was the law of space. He had used the Teleportation Profundity to block Duan Ling Tian’s way.

The person from the Scaling River Land was a tall and burly middle-aged man. As soon as he appeared, he looked at Duan Ling Tian sinisterly and said, “Young man, I’m going to kill you today.”

Following that, a huge hammer appeared in the middle-aged man’s hand. After a translucent figure appeared above the hammer, he threw the hammer out at Duan Ling Tian.

Boom!

The void rippled as the hammer flew out.

Duan Ling Tian instinctively tried to teleport but discovered that the surrounding space had been disrupted.

“Young man, I knew you comprehended the law of space when you teleported earlier. I won’t let you escape using the Teleportation Profundity!” the middle-aged man said with a sneer.

At the same time, a terrifying spatial energy swept out along with the hammer that was flying toward Duan Ling Tian.

Duan Ling Tian’s expression remained calm when facing the incoming attack. He shook his head and said, “I was still considering if I should let you go and enter the secret realm immediately. It seems like there’s no need for me to consider it anymore...”

Subsequently, a spatial storm began to rage around Duan Ling Tian as countless seven-colored sword rays shot out of his body toward the huge hammer.

Swoosh!

The light from the seven-colored sword rays shone along with the phenomenon of the law that shone for a million miles.

“Impossible!” the middle-aged man exclaimed in disbelief when he saw the phenomenon of the law that shone for a million miles. He knew now that he had greatly underestimated Duan Ling Tian. After all, in his opinion, a new rudimentary Supreme God like Duan Ling Tian was very easy to kill.

Chapter 4292 Free Labor

“There’s the Sword Dao as well!”

The expression of the middle-aged man from the Scaling River Land changed drastically after seeing Duan Ling Tian’s phenomenon of the law that shone for a million miles. When he saw Duan Ling Tian’s sword rays easily suppress his attack, his expression changed again. He was shocked; not only did Duan Ling Tian comprehend the law of space to the point where it could manifest a phenomenon that shone for a million miles, but Duan Ling Tian had also comprehended the Sword Dao, one of the Four Daos of Heaven and Earth. His comprehension of the law of space was far behind that of Duan Ling Tian, and he did not comprehend any of the Four Daos of Heaven and Earth. The only advantage he had was his stabilized cultivation base, but the advantage was gone. How could he be unable to see that Duan Ling Tian was an extremely powerful rudimentary Supreme God who was a match for intermediate Supreme Gods at this moment?

‘He’s comparable to intermediate Supreme Gods!’

The middle-aged man’s eyes widened as a thought appeared in his mind, and he exclaimed “Y-you’re Duan Ling Tian?!”

The middle-aged man finally remembered the monstrous rudimentary Supreme God in the chaotic region who could easily kill most intermediate Supreme Gods. There were rumors that the other party was comparable to a top intermediate Supreme God.

!!

The middle-aged man could not help but lament his bad luck after realizing that he had run into Duan Ling Tian.

“Yes, I’m Duan Ling Tian,” Duan Ling Tian replied expressionlessly as his sword rays destroyed the giant hammer and shot toward the middle-aged man.

The middle-aged man’s expression changed drastically as he hastily retreated. He could no longer teleport away after all. At the same time, he pleaded, “Young Master Duan, please spare me! Forgive me for not recognizing you!”

The middle-aged man knew if Duan Ling Tian intended to kill him, there was no way for him to escape death.

“I gave you a chance, but you didn’t appreciate it,” Duan Ling Tian said indifferently.

The seven-colored sword rays’ speed picked up as soon as Duan Ling Tian’s voice fell. Before the middle-aged man could speak again, the sword rays easily passed through the spatial storm and pierced him.

The middle-aged man’s eyes were filled with despair and regret before he died.

After Duan Ling Tian put away the middle-aged man’s prominent divine artifact, he quickly entered the portal.

‘I didn’t expect to enter the deca-secret realm in just four years. I wonder who the other people are?’

The others had to be all from the Divine Offering Land or groups of people with the same number from other Realms of Gods. This was a rule in the chaotic region.

Those who entered the deca-secret realm were either all from the same Realm of Gods or two groups of five from two different Realms of Gods.

Unlike deca-secret realms, the other multi-person secret realms would only bring in people from the same secret realms, not counting the gatekeepers. Duan Ling Tian chose to open a deca-secret realm because opening another multi-person secret realm would take a longer time since it took time for people from the same Realm of Gods to accumulate enough battle merits to open the secret realm.

Those who chose to open a deca-secret realm were usually rather powerful. After all, opening a deca-secret realm required a huge number of battle merits. Needless to say, those entering the deca-secret realm with Duan Ling Tian now were top rudimentary Supreme Gods who were capable of defeating weak intermediate Supreme Gods. Alas, they were unaware that there was a monster among them.

Swoosh!

After the darkness lifted, Duan Ling Tian discovered that he had been transported to a vast plain in the secret realm. His eyes swept through his surroundings, and he quickly found four people.

The four people stood with their backs facing Duan Ling Tian as they stared into the distance.

Duan Ling Tian flew higher and saw another five people standing in the distant sky.

‘It seems like there are people from two different Realms of Gods here...’

The deca-secret realm that Duan Ling Tian opened required people from both groups to work together instead of killing each other. However, trust was naturally a major issue when it concerned people from two different Realms of Gods.

At this time, a middle-aged man turned and gestured to Duan Ling Tian. He said, “Brother, over here! We’re from the Divine Offering Land. Those five men seem to be from the Divine River Land.”

Duan Ling Tian naturally had heard of the Divine River Land. It was one of the six Realms of Gods, along with the Divine Offering Land and the Sanction Land, that created the chaotic region.

Seeing that the middle-aged man was rather enthusiastic, Duan Ling Tian flew over to stand with the group from the Divine Offering Land. However, he still maintained a slight distance.

Although the five of them were from the Divine Offering Land, they all maintained a slight distance from each other. After all, they were strangers even if they all came from the Divine Offering Land. As such, no one found Duan Ling Tian’s vigilance strange.

At this time, an old man asked, “What’s going on?”

When the old man appeared, the three men from the Divine Offering Land were already here, and Duan Ling Tian appeared after him.

An average-looking young man dressed in a plain robe asked, “We just arrived not long ago. What’s the plan? Should we work with them, or should we go our own way?”

Duan Ling Tian remained silent. No matter what their decision was, it would not affect him much at all. He would only intervene if the four men wanted to kill the group from the Divine River Land. After all, the group from the Divine River Land was free labor; they would help him pass the tests in this secret realm.

“They are coming over!”

When the group from the Divine River Land came over, they looked at Duan Ling Tian and the others.

Although Duan Ling Tian was now famous in the chaotic region and the various Realms of Gods, not many people had seen him before. It was obvious that the other nine people in the secret realm did not recognize him. Otherwise, it would be impossible for them to remain calm.

At this time, an old man from the Divine River Land said, “Everyone, I think it’s best for us to work together... The tests in this deca-secret realm might be easy in the beginning, but they’ll become progressively harder. If we encounter gatekeepers from other Realms of Gods later on, it’ll be easy for them to defeat us if we don’t work together.”

Although he was old, his voice was filled with vigor.

The people from the Divine Offering Land exchanged a look and discussed among themselves through Voice Transmission before they agreed to join forces with the people from the Divine River Land.

This was exactly what Duan Ling Tian had hoped for.

Duan Ling Tian was very quiet so everyone assumed he was just feeling inferior. After all, they could all sense that he was just a new rudimentary Supreme God. Nonetheless, they did not dare to underestimate him. After all, he was capable of entering this deca-secret realm. A weak rudimentary Supreme God would have to spend at least a thousand years in the chaotic region to enter a deca-secret realm. For this reason, they knew that Duan Ling Tian had to be somewhat strong to be able to accumulate enough battle merits to enter this deca-secret realm.

Shortly after that, the ten people faced the first test.

Duan Ling Tian had no interest in the reward they obtained from the first test at all. In the end, the rewards were split equally among the two groups.

During the second test, only a few people made a move, and they passed the test easily.

This time, Duan Ling Tian saw a reward that caught his attention.

Swoosh!

Duan Ling Tian teleported, and when he appeared, he quickly grabbed the reward.

Upon seeing this, the expressions of the other nine people changed immediately.

Chapter 4293 The Advanced Chaotic Region

Everyone was surprised by Duan Ling Tian's action. Regardless if they were from the Divine Offering Land or the Divine River Land, they were all staring at Duan Ling Tian with menacing expressions on their faces. Earlier, they did not care that Duan Ling Tian did not contribute during the tests. After all, he was just a new rudimentary Supreme God. However, they really did not expect him to shamelessly claim the reward as soon as they passed the second test.

The old man from the Divine River Land grunted as he coldly said, "Boy, you can't take something that doesn't belong to you. I don't care if you don't contribute, but you can't claim the reward. Are you really going to take the reward?"

The old man's expression was dark, and he did not bother to hide his killing intent.

The other four men from the Divine River Land stared at Duan Ling Tian darkly while the four men from the Divine Offering Land frowned.

The four men from the Divine Offering Land could not help but wonder what Duan Ling Tian was thinking. They wondered if Duan Ling Tian thought that they would take his side simply because they were all from the Divine Offering Land.

Not long after the old man finished speaking, the four men from the Divine River Land mobilized their Divine Energy immediately and cast their laws.

Streams of energy in various colors illuminated the surroundings immediately.

Duan Ling Tian smiled and said, "Yes. What are you going to do about it?"

Following that, Duan Ling Tian released his Divine Energy.

At the same time, the phenomenon of the law that shone for a million miles appeared.

Needless to say, the others were shocked to see Duan Ling Tian's display of strength. Even the strongest among them could only manifest the phenomenon of the law that shone for a hundred thousand miles. How could they not be shocked that a new rudimentary Supreme God could manifest the phenomenon of the law that shone for a million miles?

Swoosh!

A sword cry rang in the air as a seven-colored sword appeared in the middle of a spatial storm. Its terrifying aura seemed like it could cleave heaven and earth into two, and the void shook violently around it.

In the next moment, a wave of energy swept over the nine men and easily extinguished the Divine Energy simmering on the surface of their skin. Their expressions changed, and they hastily tried to mobilize their Divine Energies again. At the same time, they quickly brought out their prominent divine artifacts.

Alas, countless sword rays shot out from the seven-colored sword and swept toward them again. In just a moment, their prominent divine artifacts that were shining brilliantly just a moment before dimmed. The energy was so terrifying that it made all of them shudder.

Suddenly, someone from the Divine Offering Land exclaimed, "Y-you're Duan Ling Tian?!"

Needless to say, these words shocked the others.

“Duan Ling Tian! He’s Duan Ling Tian!”

“It’s really him! He entered the Realm Battlefield and the chaotic region as a member of our Divine Offering Land! He comprehends the law of space, the Sword Dao, and the Mastery Dao! It has to be him!”

“Duan Ling Tian is said to possess a seven-colored sword as well!”

“Heavens! He’s really Duan Ling Tian! I didn’t think much of him earlier. Who would’ve known that he’s Duan Ling Tian?”

Compared to those from the other Realms of Gods, those from the Divine Offering Land knew quite a lot about Duan Ling Tian since Duan Ling Tian entered the Realm Battlefield as a member of the Divine Offering Land.

There were also some people from the Divine Offering Land who vehemently denied that Duan Ling Tian was from the Profound Energy Land, and they insisted that he was a native of the Divine Offering Land. After all, they wanted to brag that such a monstrous prodigy, who was known as a heaven-defying rudimentary Supreme God, was from the Divine Offering Land.

Meanwhile, the men from the Divine River Land might not know as much about Duan Ling Tian, but they had all heard of Duan Ling Tian.

“Duan Ling Tian?!”

“He’s Duan Ling Tian?!”

The face of the old man from the Divine River Land turned pale. “Damn it! It’ll be easy for him to kill me if he’s Duan Ling Tian. With his strength, even if all of us join forces with those four from the Divine Offering Land, we still won’t be a match for him.”

The expressions of the four men from the Divine River Land changed upon hearing the old man’s words. However, one of them quickly calmed down and said, “It’s not certain that he’ll kill you. If he wanted to kill us, he would’ve done so earlier. It’s clear that he only claimed that reward because it caught his attention. After all, he didn’t claim the earlier rewards.”

The expressions of the other four men from the Divine River Land eased upon hearing these words. Their lives were not in danger if all Duan Ling Tian wanted was the rewards. They knew the chaotic region was dangerous and could lead to their deaths, but nobody wanted to die if they could survive.

At this time, the person from the Divine River Land who remained calm earlier stepped forward. He bowed and said respectfully, “Lord Duan, the five of us are willing to give up on the rewards you want. In fact, you don’t have to do anything during the upcoming tests. You can leave them to us. If any of the rewards catches your eye, you can have them.”

A hint of cunning could be seen in the man’s eyes when he spoke.

Meanwhile, although the other four men from the Divine River Land were unhappy with these words, they knew they had no other choice. After all, Duan Ling Tian might show mercy to those from the Divine Offering Land, but he definitely would not show mercy to them.

Duan Ling Tian looked at the middle-aged man and said with a smile, “You’re quite smart, and I like smart people. As long as the five of you from the Divine River Land put in all your effort to pass the upcoming tests, you’ll be able to leave the secret realm alive. Even if you’re gravely injured from the tests, I promise not to kill you.”

“Thank you, Lord Duan!”

Although Duan Ling Tian was not even a thousand years old and was younger than their descendants, no one dared to underestimate him. After all, he was someone who defeated Ning Yi Xuan, who was previously the most outstanding young prodigy in the God Defying World. A person like Duan Ling Tian would definitely become a supreme powerhouse as long as he did not die before his time.

Meanwhile, the expressions of the men from the Divine Offering Land after listening to the exchange between Duan Ling Tian and the men from the Divine River Land. This meant that they also had no choice but to allow Duan Ling Tian to claim the rewards he wanted.

In the end, the middle-aged man, who greeted Duan Ling Tian first earlier, smiled and said, “Lord Duan, forgive us for not recognizing you earlier. The four of us are naturally at your service. We won’t touch the rewards you want.”

With the four men from the Divine Offering Land also currying favor with Duan Ling Tian, Duan Ling Tian’s time in this secret realm was like a personal treasure-hunting trip.

After a few rounds of tests, the nine men could only smile bitterly as Duan Ling Tian claimed almost all of the rewards. In the end, some of them did not even want to look at rewards to avoid feeling frustrated.

Although some of the rewards were useless to Duan Ling Tian, it did not mean that they were useless to his family and friends.

As time passed, Duan Ling Tian would step forward when it was necessary and help the others pass the tests.

The nine men sighed in relief as they watched Duan Ling Tian. They were glad that they did not oppose him earlier. Otherwise, they would definitely die. At the same time, they could not help but curse at the rules of the secret realm. In order to leave, all ten of them had to agree to leave. As such, unless Duan Ling Tian agreed to leave, none of them could leave, and they could only continue to help Duan Ling Tian pass the tests.

...

A few days later.

The tests in the deca-secret realm finally came to an end. They passed all the tests easily.

Under normal circumstances, this was an achievement worth celebrating, but at this moment, the nine men were not in a celebratory mood at all.

‘I gained quite a lot this time... I should continue to accumulate battle merits and open up multi-person secret realms... Hopefully, I’ll have people to labor for me again!’

Duan Ling Tian was the only one who was in a good mood. He ignored the dark expressions on the nine men's faces and said with a bright smile, "I hope we meet again in a secret realm!"

Inwardly, the nine men swore that they would never open a multi-person secret realm again.

Conversely, Duan Ling Tian had no thoughts about opening a single-person secret realm and toiling on his own again after tasting the joy of a multi-person secret realm.

Time flew by, and during this time, Duan Ling Tian gained a lot from a number of multi-person secret realms he opened. His cultivation had also progressed, and he was getting closer to stabilizing his cultivation base in the realm of a rudimentary Supreme God.

Most importantly, the advanced chaotic region would be appearing any time now.

'I might be able to meet Third Senior Brother and Fourth Senior Sister in the advanced chaotic region. Perhaps, I might also be able to meet Second Senior Brother whom I've never met before,' Duan Ling Tian thought to himself.

Chapter 4294 The Chaotic Region Becomes More Chaotic

The years flew by so quickly, and Duan Ling Tian gained a lot during those years. Conversely, those who ran into him suffered greatly.

“Damn it!”

“If I’m lucky and become stronger than Duan Ling Tian in the future, I’ll crush him into pieces!”

“Nice people finish last! That Duan Ling Tian is a bully!”

“Duan Ling Tian’s an animal!”

Duan Ling Tian was unaware that people in the chaotic region were cursing him throughout the years. News of his actions spread widely, and those who were fortunate enough not to run into him felt grateful. Otherwise, the battle merits they painstakingly accumulated would have been in vain.

Nonetheless, even if Duan Ling Tian were aware that his ‘victims’ had been cursing him, he would not have cared at all. If he was ruthless, they would have lost more than just their battle merits. Death was commonplace on the Realm Battlefield and the chaotic region; they were places where the strong preyed on the weak. In such a dog-eat-dog world, no one would show mercy to their opponents. It did not mean that those who killed were evil.

“The competition between the 18 Realms of Gods will begin once the three chaotic regions merged into the advanced chaotic region... At that time, the rankings would be open as well...”

On the day the advanced chaotic region appeared, the base camps did not grow bigger, but the number of people increased greatly.

When the three chaotic regions merged, the places and base camps would overlap. At the moment of merging, many people from the various Realms of Gods appeared out of thin air in the base camps. When some of them appeared, they were so close to another person that they were within kissing distance of each other. In some cases, they would appear on top of another person. There was even a case where three men were stacked on top of each other.

“Who’s that on my head?! Get lost!”

“Damn it! How dare you step on my head?!”

“You stepped on my head! Do you have a death wish?”

“Sorry, I didn’t mean to do that!”

“Why are you so rude? Fighting is prohibited in the base camps! Why don’t you make a move if you have the courage?”

“Do you think I have a choice? It’s the supreme powerhouses who arranged for things to be like that. Why don’t you complain to them?”

Indeed, this was all arranged by the supreme powerhouses.

“Alas, we can’t see the rankings yet. They’ll only appear in the sky of the various Realm Battlefields when the advanced chaotic region closes...”

The advanced chaotic region would close before the Realm Battlefield closed, and at that time, the rankings would appear in the sky.

Those who made it into the top ten would know their ranks, but they would have to check the rankings to see who else made it into the top ten. After that, they would be rewarded accordingly.

“The competition is going to be even fiercer than before.... Blood will flow like rivers in the advanced chaotic region...”

Many people sighed when they thought about the advanced chaotic region.

Since the base camps did not increase in size after the merging of the three chaotic regions, it was only natural that the base camps became incredibly packed now that the number of people increased. However, the number of people in the base camps dwindled quickly as more and more people left the base camps through Transportation Formations.

Most people in the base camps were divided into three types of people. There were those who knew how perilous the advanced chaotic region was so they decided to leave the advanced chaotic region and returned to the Realm Battlefield through the Transportation Formations in the base camps. Their decision was not surprising because the competition would be incredibly intense now that people from 18 Realms of Gods would be competing against each other.

The second type of people were those who chose to stay in the advanced chaotic region. They knew that greater danger meant greater rewards. They were willing to risk their lives pursuing better fortuitous encounters. If they survived, they would definitely gain a lot, and their gains might even be life-changing.

Finally, the third type of people were those who chose to stay in the base camps to monitor the situation in the advanced chaotic region first. If the advanced chaotic region was much more brutal than they had imagined, they would leave. Conversely, if the level of danger was within their expectations, they would venture out of the base camps into the advanced chaotic region to compete with the others from the various Realms of Gods.

“Many people left... However, I think there’s less than a 20% decrease in the number of people in the base camps. It seems like there are more people who chose to stay and observe the situation.”

“I’m going to stay and observe the situation first. I really admire those who ventured out to the advanced chaotic region. They’re paving the way for us...”

Duan Ling Tian heard many similar conversations in the base camp. He was calm as he followed some people who were leaving the base camps. Previously, before the advanced chaotic region appeared, he had entered a base camp first. This was to avoid meeting an advanced Supreme God in the advanced chaotic region when he was unprepared. Although there was a penalty for killing opponents with lower cultivation bases, it did not matter in the beginning since everyone had zero chaotic points anyway.

Duan Ling Tian did not let his fear of advanced Supreme Gods stop him from leaving the base camp, and he did not stay in the base camp to observe the situation first. If he let his fear stop him, then there was no point in staying at all. Now that he was prepared, even if he ran into advanced Supreme Gods later, he still had a chance of escaping from them.

‘Chaotic points are integral to rise in the rankings. Battle merits are still important as well since I can still open secret realms in the advanced chaotic region. The rules from before still apply even though there are new rules in the advanced chaotic region. Due to the rules in the advanced chaotic region, people won’t kill indiscriminately, especially when they begin to accumulate chaotic points. At the same time, the fights between those with the same cultivation bases will become more intense... It’ll also be the norm for strong prodigies to fight those with higher cultivation bases...’

Before entering the advanced chaotic region, Duan Ling Tian had already decided to search for opponents who were intermediate Supreme Gods. Killing intermediate Supreme Gods was the fastest way for him to accumulate chaotic points.

‘I wonder if Ning Yi Xuan has had a breakthrough?’

After leaving the base camp, Duan Ling Tian brought his battle merit token out of his spatial ring and discovered that it was covered with a layer of energy. Following that, another token slowly formed next to the battle merit token. He probed the token with his Divine Consciousness and found the number ‘0’, which indicated the number of chaotic points he had now.

‘I wonder how long it will take for me to obtain my first chaotic point,’ Duan Ling Tian thought to himself.

Since the size of the chaotic region remained the same, the probability of running into other people had increased now that the number of people had increased. As such, everyone in the advanced chaotic region was very vigilant.

...

After wandering for half a day, Duan Ling Tian had yet to meet anyone. In fact, before the three chaotic regions merged, it was quite common to see people flying in the sky. However, up until now, he had yet to see anyone flying in the sky.

‘It seems like everyone is lying low...’

Due to everyone’s vigilance, it was difficult for Duan Ling Tian to find an opponent. At the same time, he was also constantly on guard, afraid of being targeted.

Chapter 4295 I’ll Do All the Work

After the advanced chaotic region appeared, many people chose to stay and observe in the base camps while a group of people left the base camp to hunt for opponents.

The competition was going to be fierce, and those who wished to rank in the top ten definitely would not miss out on the opportunity.

Ning Yi Xuan, who had just broken through and become an intermediate Supreme God, naturally did not stay in the base camp. He quickly entered the advanced chaotic region to look for opponents and accumulate chaotic points.

‘Even if I can’t rank at the top, I have to rank in the top ten...’

Ning Yi Xuan was in high spirits when he left the base camp. He did not think that he would be at a disadvantage even though he had just broken through into the realm of an intermediate Supreme God. In fact, he saw this as a challenge.

When Ning Yi Xuan was first defeated by Duan Ling Tian, he fell into a slump for a while. However, when he got out of the slump, he became even more motivated than before.

Previously, before the advanced chaotic region appeared, the ancestor of the Ning clan had advised Ning Yi Xuan to hold back from breaking through the realm of an intermediate Supreme God. After all, if he stayed in the realm of a rudimentary Supreme God, it was highly likely that he would rank in the top three. However, he did not listen to his ancestor's advice. He had a feeling if he did not break through now, it would be difficult for him to break through in the future.

Previously, when Ning Yi Xuan was defeated by Duan Ling Tian, he almost formed a Heart Devil. In his opinion, if he had held back from breaking through to compete with rudimentary Supreme Gods, he would likely form a Heart Devil. At that time, it would be difficult for him to become an intermediate Supreme God.

In the history of the various Realms of Gods, there were many prodigies who formed Heart Devils for various reasons. In the end, their progress stagnated, and they slowly disappeared from the public eye.

After considering everything, Ning Yi Xuan told the ancestor of the Ning clan about his thoughts and the reason why he decided to break through into the realm of an intermediate Supreme God. Although the ancestor of the Ning clan felt that it was a pity, the ancestor ultimately agreed with Ning Yi Xuan's choice.

'It doesn't matter if I've yet to stabilize my cultivation base after becoming an intermediate Supreme God. Duan Ling Tian had yet to stabilize his cultivation base in the realm of a rudimentary Supreme God, but he was peerless among the rudimentary Supreme Gods in the chaotic region before this. His strength is comparable to the powerful intermediate Supreme Gods. As such, it's not impossible for me to be peerless among intermediate Supreme Gods as well. If he could do it, there is no reason why I can't do it. Moreover, now that I've broken through, how can I not be as good as him?'

Ning Yi Xuan had always been very confident about his strength. Even before his breakthrough, he was capable of defeating intermediate Supreme Gods who had stabilized their cultivation bases. It was due to this that he was acknowledged as the strongest young prodigy in the God Defying World.

‘Now that I’m an intermediate Supreme God, how many intermediate Supreme Gods are a match for me?’

After a few months, Ning Yi Xuan hunted down several intermediate Supreme Gods one after another. As such, his confidence continued to soar. He was so confident that he boldly extended his Divine Consciousness to probe his surroundings, and when he detected an intermediate Supreme God, he did not consider how strong the other party was and immediately flew over.

In Ning Yi Xuan’s opinion, no matter how strong the other party was, the other party was just an intermediate Supreme God. Even if he could not defeat the other party, it also would not be easy for the other party to defeat him unless the other party was among the strongest intermediate Supreme Gods in the God Defying World. However, there were very few intermediate Supreme Gods like that.

Meanwhile, a white-clad young man, who was hidden at the foot of a mountain, looked at Ning Yi Xuan, who flew out, in shock.

‘He’s just broken through into the realm of an intermediate Supreme God recently and his cultivation base isn’t stable, but he dares to come to me after he sensed my presence? Does he have a death wish?’

Yang Yu Chen did not expect another person so soon after he left the base camp. Moreover, the person who came for him was a new intermediate Supreme God who had yet to stabilize his cultivation base. He wondered if everyone was so arrogant nowadays.

Yang Yu Chen complained inwardly, 'Do you think you're like my junior brother who's invincible among rudimentary Supreme Gods despite not having stabilized his cultivation base yet?'

Compared to the others, Yang Yu Chen heard about Duan Ling Tian's feats in the chaotic region much later since he was on the Profound Zen Battlefield not the Profound Energy Land. He only heard about Duan Ling Tian when he was in base camp on the Profound Zen Battlefield before the advanced chaotic region appeared. He did not expect that Duan Ling Tian would become so famous on the Divine Sanction Battlefield in just a few decades.

Yang Yu Chen knew that Duan Ling Tian was a rudimentary Supreme God who was not even a thousand years old, but he really did not know when Duan Ling Tian comprehended the law of space to the point where he could manifest the phenomenon that shone for a million miles. Clearly, Duan Ling Tian's comprehension of the law had caught up to his.

Yang Yu Chen also heard that Duan Ling Tian's Sword Dao and Mastery Dao had grown stronger and that Duan Ling Tian was now on par with intermediate Supreme Gods like him. Apart from that, he also heard that the descendants of the supreme powerhouses were searching for Duan Ling Tian, but their search was futile.

After hearing about Duan Ling Tian, Yang Yu Chen felt that he had found a treasure for the Myriad Laws Academy's Inner Palace faction. He had long known that his junior brother was extraordinary, but he did not expect his junior brother to become famous so fast. Currently, there were likely not many prominent figures in the Realms of Gods who had not heard of his junior brother.

Yang Yu Chen sighed emotionally. 'He's even more famous than I am... Among the members of the Inner Palace faction, his fame in the various Realms of Gods is only second to that of Eldest Senior Sister...'

At the same time, Yang Yu Chen was speechless and baffled as he watched the new intermediate Supreme God flying toward him.

‘Is he trying to be like my junior brother? Do I look like an easy target? What an arrogant kid! Let me teach you a lesson!’

With this thought in mind, Yang Yu Chen, who was sitting cross-legged at the foot of a mountain, rose to his feet and flew out to meet the young man.

In just a blink of an eye, the duo stood across from each other.

Before Yang Yu Chen could speak, the young man, who was a new intermediate Supreme God, made a move and revealed his strength. With this, he finally realized why the young man was so confident.

‘He’s just become an intermediate Supreme God, but he’s so strong... Wait, this law and bloodline power...’

When the young man used his bloodline power, a name appeared in Yang Yu Chen’s mind. It was the name of a person who was famous in all Realms of Gods; Ning Yi Xuan, the peerless prodigy from the Ning clan!

‘Is it really him? He didn’t suppress his cultivation and broke through into the realm of an intermediate Supreme God instead? Isn’t he aware that it’s going to be much more difficult for him to rank in the top ten in the intermediate Supreme God ranking?’

It did not take long for Yang Yu Chen to confirm that the young man was Ning Yi Xuan, the prodigy of the Ning clan, who met his junior brother once and was almost killed by his junior brother. At that time, it was the ancestor of the Ning clan who saved Ning Yi Xuan’s life. He also heard that when his junior brother was surrounded and almost killed by a group of intermediate Supreme Gods, Ning Yi Xuan had saved his junior brother’s life.

‘I thought I’d be able to accumulate chaotic points... I didn’t expect to meet him. Considering that he saved junior brother, I can’t kill him. However, it doesn’t mean that I can’t teach him a lesson. Coincidentally, after I’ve grown stronger, I’ve yet to test it out against powerful intermediate Supreme Gods...’ Yang Yu Chen chuckled inwardly as he finally made his move.

Yang Yu Chen remained silent and did not reveal his identity. He planned to teach Ning Yi Xuan a lesson first.

Meanwhile, Ning Yi Xuan, who took the initiative to attack, was in a good mood as he thought to himself, ‘Although this guy has already stabilized his cultivation base, it seems like he’s not very confident about his strength. Otherwise, he wouldn’t have hidden at the foot of the mountain. I think I may be able to kill him within three moves. Look at him rushing toward me recklessly...’

In Ning Yi Xuan’s eyes, the young man flying toward him was no different from a dead man walking at this moment. However, in the next moment, just as he thought he had gained the upper hand, his expression changed dramatically. He realized that he had been greatly mistaken; the other party was a top intermediate Supreme God!

Boom!

At this time, Duan Ling Tian was in a different area in the advanced chaotic region. Over the past few months, he had killed several rudimentary Supreme Gods and two intermediate Supreme Gods.

He would obtain one chaotic point when he killed a rudimentary Supreme God and obtain two chaotic points when he killed an intermediate Supreme God.

Currently, he had accumulated a decent number of chaotic points.

‘I gained quite a lot of battle merits as well... Should I open a secret realm for fun?’

The corners of Duan Ling Tian’s lips curled up into a smile when he recalled how he had robbed the rewards in the multi-person secret realms he opened from a group of people. He would gain even more if he opened a multi-person secret realm in the advanced chaotic region and killed everyone there.

‘However, am I being too ruthless?’

Duan Ling Tian felt slightly guilty when he thought about attacking the people in the secret realm.

‘Moreover, if they’re from the Divine Offering Land, I won’t get chaotic points from killing them... Forget it... I’ll just settle for the rewards from passing the tests. I wonder if I’ll be rewarded with a lot of chaotic points?’

In the end, Duan Ling Tian used a lot of battle merits to open a deca-secret realm. The rules were similar to the ones before. Those who entered the secret realm would either be from the same Realm of Gods as Duan Ling Tian or they would be two groups of people from two different Realms of Gods.

‘This time, I won’t let them make a move. I’ll do all the work this time... I’ll kill whoever dares to make a move!’

After all, unlike before, the chaotic points one would be rewarded within the secret realm depended on how much one contributed.

Chapter 4296 Prime Divine Artifact

Duan Ling Tian was already very familiar with the process of opening a multi-person secret realm. He had opened a few multi-person secret realms in the past years, and they were not ordinary multi-person secret realms. The multi-secret realms were rather impressive, and those who entered the same secret realms were so impressed that they would never forget their experience for the rest of their lives.

‘Thinking about it now, I feel a little guilty for making everyone do all the work previously...’ Duan Ling Tian thought to himself with a sigh, ‘This time, I’ll be kinder. If I meet those people from before, I’ll repay them for their previous efforts!’

Since Duan Ling Tian had accumulated a lot of battle merits, he still had many battle merits left after opening the deca-secret realm. He did not use too many battle merits to open the secret realm because if he had done so, it was likely he would not be able to enter the secret realm even after the advanced chaotic region and the Realm Battlefield closed.

The battle merits had to be in the same range for everyone to enter a multi-person secret realm. For example, if Duan Ling Tian used 1,000 battle merits to open the secret realm, only those who used 800 to 1,200 battle merits during this time to open a secret realm would be assigned to the same secret realm as him. Those who spent below 800 and above 1,200 battle merits would not be assigned to the same secret realm as him. This was a rule as well.

Needless to say, this constraint did not apply to single-person secret realms. If one spent a lot of battle merits to open a single-person secret realm, one did not have to wait to enter the secret realm.

After entering, one would go through the tests alone and had to defeat gatekeepers from other Realms of Gods, who were dragged into the secret realm, alone.

‘Under normal circumstances, I should be able to obtain more chaotic points in multi-person secret realms compared to single-person secret realms that are opened with the same number of battle merits. If all ten people use 1,000 battle merits to open a deca-secret realm, it means that the deca-secret realm is opened with 10,000 battle merits. How can it compare to one person using 1,000 battle merits to open a single-person secret realm? The value of the single-person secret realm is only one-tenth of that of a deca-secret realm!’

After thinking about it, this was the conclusion that Duan Ling Tian came up with.

“After considering everything, it’s better to open a multi-person secret realm... Just like before, I’ll open a deca-secret realm first before opening a hepta-secret realm and a nona-secret realm. As news spreads, people will find out that I’m a kind person who does all the work... They’ll definitely pity me at that time...”

Previously, after leaving the deca-secret realm, news of Duan Ling Tian taking almost all of the rewards in the secret realm began to spread. As such, no one dared to open a deca-secret realm for quite a while. As such, he opened a hepta-secret realm, a secret realm that could accommodate seven people. Similar to before, news of his actions spread, and people stopped opening hepta-secret realms. The same thing happened when he opened a nona-secret realm, a secret realm that could accommodate nine people, as well.

Duan Ling Tian had randomly changed up the multi-person secret realms he opened, and the unlucky people who did the same thing to avoid Duan Ling Tian were still pulled into the secret realm as him.

‘Wait... To throw them off, perhaps, I should open a deca-secret realm twice in a row...’ Duan Ling Tian thought to himself.

While he waited to enter the deca-secret realm, he continued to wander the advanced chaotic region. Needless to say, he maintained a low profile. Whenever he killed someone, he would immediately leave the area. Apart from that, the places he traveled were random to avoid being tracked and targeted.

After all, currently, not only were descendants of supreme powerhouses after him, but some members of the Yun clan and others who saw him as a threat were also after him.

Meanwhile, Yang Yu Chen and Ning Yi Xuan’s fight in another area of the advanced chaotic region finally ended after a few dozen moves.

Unsurprisingly, Ning Yi Xuan lost. He looked at the white-clad young man in front of him and said solemnly in a deep voice, “You’re very powerful. I’m sure you’re not a nobody in the Realms of Gods. What’s your name, sir?”

Ning Yi Xuan did not expect to lose at all. He had assumed his opponent was weak because his opponent was hiding. To his surprise, his opponent was much stronger than he had expected. In fact, his opponent was more than capable of killing weak advanced Supreme Gods.

Yang Yu Chen no longer intended to keep his identity a secret at this time. Hence, he said, “My name is Yang Yu Chen. I’m just a nobody. You might not have heard of me, Young Master Ning.”

Ning Yi Xuan's eyes widened as he exclaimed, "You've already figured out my identity?"

Yang Yu Chen said with a faint smile, "You just became an intermediate Supreme God, but your combat power is very strong. In the God Defying World, except for Young Master Ning, I couldn't think of anyone who's capable of such a thing. Moreover, your law and your bloodline power also gave you away..."

In fact, Yang Yu Chen had figured out Ning Yi Xuan's identity through Ning Yi Xuan's bloodline power and law when Ning Yi Xuan made a move.

'Yang Yu Chen...' Ning Yi Xuan found the name familiar, but he could not figure out where or when he heard it before. He was familiar with the names of outstanding prodigies and had a slight impression of second-rate prodigies. He frowned as he continued thinking to himself, 'It's impossible for me to not know such a powerful intermediate Supreme God! Who is he?'

Yang Yu Chen could not help but laugh when he saw the skeptical expression on Ning Yi Xuan's face. He said, "Young Master Ning, there's no need to think so hard. As I said earlier, I'm just a nobody."

Upon hearing this, Ning Yi Xuan asked in a deep voice, "Did you only grow stronger recently? You weren't this strong before, right? I find your name vaguely familiar, but I don't know why..."

Yang Yu Chen smiled slightly and said, "Young Master Ning, it's only natural that you've not heard of a nobody like me." He paused briefly before he continued to say, "However, there's one thing I'd like to tell you. I spared your life today to repay you for saving my junior brother's life."

Ning Yi Xuan frowned upon hearing these words. "Your junior brother? Who's your junior brother?"

Ning Yi Xuan did not understand what Yang Yu Chen meant by ‘repay you for saving my junior brother’s life’.

In the next moment, before Yang Yu Chen could reply, the figure of the person he last saved appeared in Ning Yi Xuan’s mind. It was none other than Duan Ling Tian. Following that, he recalled that Duan Ling Tian was from the Myriad Laws Academy, and he finally figured out who Yang Yu Chen was.

Yang Yu Chen was the Vice Academy Master of the Myriad Laws Academy, and he was the youngest intermediate Supreme God in the Myriad Laws Academy. He was a prodigy in his own right and was famous in the Profound Energy Land.

Ning Yi Xuan had heard of Yang Yu Chen in the past, but he did not pay much attention at that time. In his eyes, Yang Yu Chen was just a second-rate prodigy and could not be considered among the top prodigies in the God Defying World. In his opinion, Yang Yu Chen was not in the same league as him at all.

However, after his encounter with Yang Yu Chen today, Ning Yi Xuan had revised his opinion of Yang Yu Chen. Currently, he no longer thought that Yang Yu Chen was a second-rate prodigy, and he was convinced that Yang Yu Chen was a top prodigy. Yang Yu Chen’s age and strength undoubtedly made Yang Yu Chen a top prodigy.

“Your comprehension of the law has improved, and your Mastery Dao is much stronger than rumored...” Ning Yi Xuan said, surprised, “So you’re the Vice Academy Master of the Myriad Laws Academy.”

Although Ning Yi Xuan acknowledged that Yang Yu Chen was a top prodigy, his voice remained indifferent as he said, “You said that you spared my life to repay me for saving Duan Ling Tian? Don’t you think you underestimated me? Although I’m not as strong as you are, if I want to escape, you won’t be able to stop me, right? As such, how can it be considered as sparing my life?”

At the end of his words, a mocking smile could be seen on Ning Yi Xuan's face.

Yang Yu Chen smiled when he heard Ning Yi Xuan's words. He said, "Young Master Ning, the result has been set in stone. I'll give you a chance... If you can escape for half a mile before I catch up to you, I'll admit that I'm unable to stop you. At that time, I'll naturally rescind what I said about sparing your life because you saved my junior brother."

Although Yang Yu Chen spoke calmly, his eyes were brimming with confidence.

At the same time, Ning Yi Xuan smiled coldly after listening to Yang Yu Chen's words. He said, "Very well. Vice Academy Master Yang, please show me your ability."

Following that, Ning Yi Xuan did not waste time and left.

Yang Yu Chen made a move as well.

Ning Yi Xuan burst forth with power, trying to stop Yang Yu Chen while he escaped. However, as soon as he released his energy, he discovered that Yang Yu Chen did not use his weapon from earlier. Instead, Yang Yu Chen switched to a weapon that resembled a ribbon sash.

The ribbon sash looked ordinary, but as it moved, it began to lengthen continuously and circled the surroundings. When it moved, the void shook and ripple in its wake.

In just an instant, Ning Yi Xuan felt a terrible oppressive force pressing on him from all directions.

“Prime divine artifact!”

Ning Yi Xuan’s expression changed immediately.

In the next moment, the ribbon sash bound Ning Yi Xuan until he resembled a mummy. Only his head was exposed in the end. He struggled with all his might and tried to escape, but he was completely powerless and unable to free himself.

Swoosh!

A gust of wind blew past, and Yang Yu Chen appeared in front of Ning Yi Xuan. He said with a smile, “Young Master Ning, what do you think now? If I want to kill you, do you still think you’re capable of resisting? Unless you use another life-saving jade token from your Ning clan’s ancestor, it’ll be hard for you to survive, right?”

Yang Yu Chen stared at Ning Yi Xuan intently as he continued to say, “I don’t know if you still have a life-saving jade token now. However, even if you do, are you going to use it instead of accepting this as me sparing your life for saving my junior brother? You should know that your ancestor was punished for breaking the rule previously.”

At the end of his words, Yang Yu Chen’s gaze turned piercing.

Chapter 4297 Second Senior Brother, Hong Yi Feng

“Yang Yu Chen, you actually possess a prime divine artifact!”

Ning Yi Xuan looked at the ribbon sash in Yang Yu Chen's hand in shock. Although he, who was highly favored by the supreme powerhouse in the Ning clan, did not need to collect fragments of prime divine artifacts, he would not be bestowed with a prime divine artifact until his strength had reached a certain level. This was an agreement made between the supreme powerhouses.

The supreme powerhouses kept each other in check. They were worried some descendants would use prime divine artifacts to kill talented prodigies without a strong background.

In the God Defying World, most supreme powerhouses were once ordinary cultivators with no background. Very few supreme powerhouses were born with silver spoons in their mouths, and very few of them were descendants of supreme powerhouses.

Many of those who were born with silver spoons in their mouths were used to living comfortable lives and lack the motivation to grow stronger. They were unlike ordinary people who could only rely on themselves for everything. Only by becoming a supreme powerhouse would they be able to control their own destiny.

!!

Due to Ning Yi Xuan's privileged life, he did not expect Yang Yu Chen to possess a prime divine artifact when he did not even have one.

Although the Myriad Laws Academy had connections with a few supreme powerhouses, it was impossible for those supreme powerhouses to give the Myriad Laws Academy a prime divine artifact for no good reason. Under normal circumstances, ordinary people could only obtain a prime divine artifact by collecting fragments of prime divine artifacts.

If one were lucky enough to stumble upon the place where a supreme powerhouse fell, one might be able to find a prime divine artifact among the possessions of the supreme powerhouse. In the Outer Boundary where supreme powerhouses died in fights, one might even find two prime divine artifacts.

Ning Yi Xuan thought that Yang Yu Chen was very lucky if Yang Yu Chen truly found a prime divine artifact. However, if Yang Yu Chen's prime divine artifact came from the Outer Boundary, then it could only be said that Yang Yu Chen had an amazing Eldest Senior Sister.

Ning Yi Xuan had heard of Yang Yu Chen's Eldest Senior Sister from the ancestor of the Ning clan before. Most importantly, the ancestor of the Ning clan had nothing but praise for her. The ancestor of the Ning clan had said that as long as she did not die prematurely, she would definitely become a supreme powerhouse. At that time, he had asked the ancestor of the Ning clan how he was compared to her, and the ancestor had said that there was no comparison. The ancestor had said that he lived a sheltered life while she was a prodigy who fought all the way to where she was today. She might not be as strong as he was at his age, but few people could compare to her now. At that time, he had been very dissatisfied with the answer, but as time passed, he was convinced of her strength. She was even stronger than he had imagined if she truly found a prime divine artifact for Yang Yu Chen. Even if the prime divine artifact in her possession was given to her by a supreme powerhouse, there was no doubt that she obtained Yang Yu Chen's prime divine artifact on her own.

Yang Yu Chen only shook his head and smiled when he saw Ning Yi Xuan looking at his prime divine artifact with a mixture of shock and horror. He said, "What a pity, Young Master Ning... Your strength isn't at the point where the Ning clan will bestow you with a prime divine artifact yet... If you possess a prime divine artifact, I really might not be able to stop you. Anyway, what do you think, Young Master Ning? Do you think I'm capable of killing you now?"

Yang Yu Chen's smile widened at the end of his words.

Ning Yi Xuan said resentfully, "Yang Yu Chen, you didn't win because of your strength!"

In Ning Yi Xuan's opinion, without the prime divine artifact, Yang Yu Chen would not have been able to stop him from escaping.

"I didn't win because of my strength?" Yang Yu Chen raised an eyebrow and said with a smile, "Young Master Ning, don't you think you're too naive? This prime divine artifact belongs to me. Why can't I use it? If you possess a prime divine artifact, would you not have used it earlier?"

Ning Yi Xuan's face turned red when he heard Yang Yu Chen's questions. In the end, he had no choice but to say, "I'll consider the favor repaid. I won't ask for Duan Ling Tian to repay the favor from now on."

"That's more like it, Young Master Ning," Yang Yu Chen said with a slight smile as he put away his prime divine artifact after letting Ning Yi Xuan go.

After regaining his freedom, Ning Yi Xuan left without looking back.

Yang Yu Chen looked at Ning Yi Xuan's back and sighed softly. "Junior brother, I can only help you with this. Perhaps, it won't be long before I'll be of no help to you..."

Yang Yu Chen had been amazed when he heard about Duan Ling Tian's progress. He even felt that it would not be long before Duan Ling Tian surpassed him.

'Second Senior Brother should be in the advanced chaotic region as well... I'm sure he must have heard about junior brother. Alas, he probably doesn't know that Duan Ling Tian is our junior brother. He'll feel greatly pressured if he finds out Duan Ling Tian is our junior brother, right?' Yang Yu Chen could not help but smile when he thought about this.

In the past, when Yang Yu Chen first joined the Inner Palace faction, his innate talent and comprehension skills had greatly pressured his Second Senior Brother. At that time, his Second Senior Brother had worked very hard.

When the Realm Battlefield opened, his Second Senior Brother entered the Realm Battlefield, and there had been no news of him since then.

“I wonder how Second Senior Brother is doing now. Is he close to becoming an advanced Supreme God?”

...

While Yang Yu Chen was thinking about his Second Senior Brother, a range of volcanoes in the advanced chaotic region began to show signs of eruption.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

It did not take long before the volcanoes erupted. Magma rained down from the sky and flowed on the ground, spreading in all directions.

Swoosh!

A figure flew up from the belly of a majestic volcano. The figure belonged to a tall and strong young man. At this time, his energy was chaotic and turbulent, but he was laughing.

The young man's body was shrouded in flames, and after a while, a figure emitting a golden light shot out of his body. As the flames rose, the golden light grew brighter as well. Following that, two phenomena that shone for ten million miles appeared.

The muscular young man laughed wantonly, looking a little arrogant as he said, "My law of fire is now capable of manifesting a phenomenon that can shine for ten million miles. With my true body and doppelgangers from the law of fire and the law of metal, who under the realm of an advanced Supreme God can defeat me?"

"This time, I, Hong Yi Feng, am determined to rank first in the ranking for intermediate Supreme Gods in the advanced chaotic region!" the young man said with bright eyes and a confident expression on his face.

After a moment, he seemed to have discovered something and quickly looked east with burning eyes. "Two intermediate Supreme Gods? Since you're here, don't even think about leaving!"

The muscular young man flew out. He moved as fast as lightning. In just a blink of an eye, he arrived near two intermediate Supreme Gods, who were attracted by the volcanoes' abnormal movements here.

Following that, two phenomena of the law that shone for ten million miles appeared in the sky, easily suppressing two faint phenomena that shone for a hundred thousand miles.

In just a few breaths, two huge figures rose in the sky and let out a cry before they crumbled to the ground.

Just like that, two intermediate Supreme Gods died.

“They’re too weak...”

After Hong Yi Feng put away the two intermediate Supremes’ prominent divine artifacts, he flew away. Although his strength had improved, he continued to keep a low profile. After all, he had yet to break through and become an advanced Supreme God. There were quite a few advanced Supreme Gods in the advanced chaotic region after all. He was confident that he would be able to deal with ordinary advanced Supreme Gods, but he was worried about running into powerful advanced Supreme Gods.

“I wonder if that monstrous prodigy, Duan Ling Tian, is from our Inner Palace faction? If he is a member of the faction, Third Junior Brother must have recruited him after I left. In any case, he’s really amazing. He just became a rudimentary Supreme God, but he can already kill most intermediate Supreme Gods. Well, it doesn’t matter. I’ll be able to confirm if he’s from the Inner Palace faction when I meet him or when I return to the Myriad Laws Academy after the Realm Battlefield closes!”

At this time, Hong Yi Feng was unaware that his Third Junior Brother, Yang Yu Chen, was also in the advanced chaotic region. If he were aware of this, he would have scolded Yang Yu Chen for running to the advanced chaotic region after their Eldest Senior Sister asked Yang Yu Chen to guard the Inner Palace faction.

After all, Hong Yi Feng was unaware that his Fourth Junior Sister, Lang Chun Yuan, was now a rudimentary Supreme God and had been entrusted by Yang Yu Chen to guard the Inner Palace faction. Naturally, he was also unaware that Lang Chun Yuan had sent the doppelganger from the strongest law to the advanced chaotic region as well to join the fun.

At this moment, Lang Chun Yuan’s doppelganger, whose strength was comparable to that of a top rudimentary Supreme God, was wandering fearlessly in the advanced chaotic region. Needless to say, it was fearless because it was just a doppelganger. She continued to kill all the rudimentary Supreme God she came across. Occasionally, she would run into one or two intermediate Supreme Gods she was unable to defeat, but it was not a problem for her to escape from them.

After the advanced chaotic region appeared, among the three members of the Inner Palace faction, Lang Chun Yuan killed the most people. The number of people she killed was double that of Hong Yi Feng, who was in second place.

“I can’t let junior brother surpass me! The first place for rudimentary Supreme God ranking belongs to me!”

...

At this time, Duan Ling Tian, the youngest in the Inner Palace faction, was also wandering the advanced chaotic region.

While he looked for opponents, he would stop by the base camps to look for his wife; Ke’er, his mother-in-law; Linghu Ren Feng, and his sister-in-law; Linghu Chu Yin. However, as time passed, his heart grew heavier and heavier. He could not find any of them at all. In his opinion, since he could not find them in the base camps, it was likely that they were in the advanced chaotic region. This was extremely dangerous for them.

“I hope they’re all safe and sound...”

In fact, with Duan Ling Tian’s fame now, if he had asked for help in the base camps, many people would be willing to help him look for Ke’er and the others. However, he did not dare to do that. After all, although he would have many people helping him, there would also be people who schemed to use Ke’er and the others to threaten him or force him to show up. In the end, after weighing the pros and cons, he decided to look for the trio on his own.

Chapter 4298 Yun Qing Yan's Choice

For Yun Qing Yan, the recent years had been the gloomiest years of his life. His marriage had been called off by his father, Yun Ting Feng. Although he was unwilling, there was nothing he could do. It was impossible for him to disobey his father.

Previously, Yun Qing Yan had never felt that his father looked down on him. However, after Duan Ling Tian killed him, he felt that his father's actions after that were humiliating.

His father prohibited him from leaving the Yun clan's estate and even ordered people to keep an eye on him. His father said that it was to 'protect' him, but he knew very well that it was surveillance. If he tried to leave the clan's estate, those people would stop him immediately.

For decades, Yun Qing Yan felt conflicted. Finally, he decided to leave the Yun clan even if it was risky.

!!

The advanced chaotic region and the divine fountain gave him hope that he would be able to grow stronger quickly. All he had to do was rank in the top ten in his category.

For this reason, he used every means to escape the people keeping an eye on him and successfully left the Yun clan. He wasted no time in entering the Divine Sanction Battlefield and the advanced chaotic region.

When Yun Qing Yan entered the advanced chaotic region, it had been open for quite a while. After entering the advanced chaotic region, he quickly accumulated a lot of battle merits by relying on his strength as a top rudimentary Supreme God. Those who were stronger than him did not kill him since their chaotic points would be deducted. For this reason, his journey in the advanced chaotic region was rather smooth.

“I’ve accumulated so many battle merits... Should I open a deca-secret realm? I’ll be able to obtain chaotic points faster in the secret realm...”

In the end, Yun Qing Yan spent all his battle merits on a whim and opened a deca-secret realm.

After that, Yun Qing Yang went to the base camp. When he was in the base camp, he coincidentally heard that Duan Ling Tian had opened many multi-person secret realms in the past and had obtained all kinds of treasures and rewards. His expression darkened immediately.

‘Duan Ling Tian did that? Did he open a deca-secret realm recently? Is it possible that we’ll enter the same secret realm?’

Yun Qing Yan broke out in cold sweat when he thought about this. Apart from fear, he also felt deeply humiliated. In the past, Duan Ling Tian was no different from an ant in front of him. However, the last time they met, Duan Ling Tian nearly killed him. If he did not use the life-saving means his father had given him at the critical moment, he would have died. After a long time, this was still a nightmare for him.

‘Should I enter the deca-secret realm when it appears? It took me nearly ten years to accumulate so many battle merits and open the secret realm. It’ll be a waste of my effort if I don’t go in, right?’

Yun Qing Yan felt frustrated and conflicted. Whenever he thought about the possibility of meeting Duan Ling Tian in the deca-secret realm, he could not help but shudder in fear.

‘However, it’s also possible that I won’t meet him...’

...

Deep down in Yun Qing Yan’s heart, he really wanted to take the chance. However, half a year later, when the portal to the deca-secret realm appeared next to him, he began to waver again.

“Should I enter?”

...

While Yun Qing Yan was wavering in front of the portal of the deca-secret realm, the portal to the deca-secret realm, which Duan Ling Tian opened a while ago, finally appeared next to him.

Duan Ling Tian was not occupied at the moment so he entered the deca-secret realm immediately.

“I can finally enter the deca-secret realm! This time, I’ll change my ways! I won’t let them lift a finger, and I’ll do all the work for them!”

Duan Ling Tian was in a good mood. He was determined to do all the work, and he would not allow his ‘comrades’ to do any work at all. He would kill those who went against him.

After the darkness lifted, Duan Ling Tian found himself in a golden wheatfield. It looked like the season of harvest at this time.

Duan Ling Tian soared higher into the sky and saw portals appearing one after another before figures appeared one after another as well. There were people of different ages; old, middle-aged, and young, but the majority of them were middle-aged.

It did not take long for Duan Ling Tian to discover that they were all from the Divine Offering Land.

After eight people, excluding him, appeared, Duan Ling Tian looked at a lonely churning portal in confusion. Nobody could be seen at all.

“Why hasn’t the last person come in?”

Apart from Duan Ling Tian, the other eight people were looking at the churning portal in confusion as well. All the portals had disappeared except for one.

The eight people began to discuss among themselves.

“Hey, why isn’t that person here yet?”

“Was he or she killed at the moment the portal appeared?”

“That’s possible. It’s not like it’s unprecedented. I wonder who he or she is though...”

Duan Ling Tian shifted his eyes away from the churning portal. If what the other people said were true, then the tenth person was truly unlucky.

Duan Ling Tian was unaware of the person standing on the other side of the portal. Otherwise, he might have forcefully entered the portal to kill the other person. It did not matter even if he could not re-enter the deca-secret realm and lost the chance to obtain more chaotic points. He would have no regrets at all if he could kill the other person.

In the end, no one emerged from the portal, and the portal disappeared into thin air.

“It seems like he or she died!”

“He or she definitely died! Otherwise, why would he or she not come in after the portal appeared?”

“This deca-secret realm requires a lot of battle merits to open... Unless you’re crazy, how can you not enter if you have a choice? It’ll be a waste of battle merits if you don’t enter!”

“Alright! Everyone, we’ll compete fairly for the rewards and treasures! As for chaotic points, we’ll earn them according to our abilities!”

“I have no objections!”

“This is how it should be!”

The eight people quickly reached a consensus. After that, they turned to look at Duan Ling Tian in unison. Up until now, he had yet to express his opinion at all. Seeing that he continued to remain silent, their eyes glinted coldly.

Chapter 4299 Twenty Years

Yun Qing Yan watched the portal to the secret realm in front of him gradually disappear before he heaved a sigh of relief. The decision had been taken out of his hands now that the portal had closed. Even if he decided to enter the deca-secret realm, it was no longer possible not that the portal was closed.

Although Yun Qing Yan felt that it was a waste of his battle merits, there was nothing he could do now.

“I’ll just accumulate chaotic points by killing people... It’s too risky to enter multi-person secret realms, but I can enter single-person secret realms. I’ll accumulate battle merits and open a single-person secret realm. The gatekeepers for single-person secret realms definitely won’t come from the Divine Offering Land. Even if someone from the Divine Offering Land appears, I can leave whenever I want. I don’t have to worry about having to face Duan Ling Tian there...”

After that, Yun Qing Yan quickly left the area and continued looking for targets, hoping to accumulate as many battle merits and chaotic points as he could.

...

Duan Ling Tian was naturally unaware that he had just missed out on a chance to kill Yun Qing Yan. Otherwise, he would feel very regretful.

At this moment, Duan Ling Tian looked at the eight rudimentary Supreme Gods who were staring at him and said nonchalantly, as though he was talking about some important matter, “I’ll take care of all the tests in this deca-secret realm. Those who want to make a move... can do so at their own peril...”

The expressions of the eight people darkened immediately upon hearing these words. Following that, a few of them seemed to have thought of something, and their expressions changed again.

Finally, someone asked tremblingly, “Y-you... You’re Duan Ling Tian?!”

As soon as these words were said, the others who had yet to recover their senses turned to look at Duan Ling Tian in shock and fear. They were all familiar with this name. They knew that Duan Ling Tian was from the Profound Energy Land, but he had come to the Divine Sanction Battlefield through the Divine Offering Land. Needless to say, his identity in the advanced chaotic region was still that of someone from the Divine Offering Land.

Most of them did not expect to meet Duan Ling Tian in the secret realm that they opened. However, a few of them did consider the possibility of meeting Duan Ling Tian and decided to take the risk and open the multi-person secret realm anyway, thinking that they would not be so unlucky to run into Duan Ling Tian. They truly regretted their decision at this moment. Who knew they would really run into Duan Ling Tian here?

“You know me?” Duan Ling Tian looked at the person who had spoken, slightly surprised.

The person who had spoken was an old man whom Duan Ling Tian had never met before.

“So you’re really Duan Ling Tian?”

The old man’s skeptical expression was replaced by fear, and his face paled immediately.

After receiving Duan Ling Tian’s confirmation, the other seven people’s expressions changed again.

‘So he’s really Duan Ling Tian?’

Although most of them were shocked and frightened, they still felt slightly apprehensive. They were not completely certain if the purple-clad young man was Duan Ling Tian. Nonetheless, none of them dared to question him. What a joke! It would be fine if he was not Duan Ling Tian, but if he was truly Duan Ling Tian, they would definitely die if he chose to kill them for questioning him. As such, no one dared to voice their doubts.

Finally, a middle-aged man took the initiative to say, “Sir Duan, since you’ve already spoken, I naturally won’t make any move at all. You can deal with all the tests in this secret realm...”

The others followed suit and echoed the middle-aged man’s sentiments, saying that they would not make a move and compete for the chaotic points with Duan Ling Tian.

A few of them even took the initiative to flatter Duan Ling Tian.

“Sir, I’ve long heard of your name. It’s an honor for me to be able to witness your strength in this deca-secret realm...”

“Sir...”

All of them currently shared the same thoughts. They wanted to see Duan Ling Tian make a move to further verify his identity. If he was Duan Ling Tian, they naturally would keep their words and not make a move. After all, they were afraid of offending him, and he was not someone they could afford to provoke. However, if he was proven not to be Duan Ling Tian, they would join forces to kill him. They had nothing to fear if he was not Duan Ling Tian, after all.

Duan Ling Tian was unaware of the eight people's thoughts, and even if he was, he would not care at all. After all, he was really Duan Ling Tian.

Duan Ling Tian dealt with the next test alone. His movements were as fast as lightning, and his phenomenon of the law that shone for a million miles shocked everyone.

During the later tests, Duan Ling Tian frightened the rudimentary Supreme Gods from the Divine Offering Land when he used his Sword Dao and Mastery Dao, revealing his combat strength that was comparable to a top intermediate Supreme God.

“There's no doubt that he's Duan Ling Tian!”

At this point, they no longer had any doubts about Duan Ling Tian's identity, and they could only lament their bad luck. It took them a long time to accumulate so many battle merits to open a deca-secret realm, hoping to gain chaotic points and obtain treasures, but alas, they ran into Duan Ling Tian. With Duan Ling Tian around, they knew it was impossible for them to gain anything from this secret realm.

“Forget it... Just treat those battle merits as the price we paid to watch Duan Ling Tian's performance...”

Duan Ling Tian was a rudimentary Supreme God who had yet to stabilize his cultivation base, but he was shockingly strong. His performance was an eye-opener for the eight rudimentary Supreme Gods from the Divine Offering Land. He almost made them realize the insurmountable gap between them. They had no doubt that they would die in fewer than ten breaths even if they joined forces to deal with Duan Ling Tian. Duan Ling Tian was just too strong.

They watched Duan Ling Tian pass test after test and receive reward after reward, but none of them dared to covet the rewards. At most, they only felt envious. They deeply understood the feelings of those who entered the same secret realms as Duan Ling Tian in the past at this moment.

“Compared to the others, we’re quite lucky. At least, we don’t have to do the work...”

The eight rudimentary Supreme Gods felt a little better when they thought about this.

After passing all the tests in the secret realm, Duan Ling Tian smiled at the eight rudimentary Supreme Gods. Before they were sent out, he said, “Everyone, I’ve always felt guilty about making others work for me previously. To make up for it, I decided to do all the work. I hope we’ll have the chance to meet again in another secret realm.”

Upon hearing these words, the eight people, who were yet to be transported, felt as though they were going to vomit blood.

‘Please don’t compete with us and let us contribute! In the advanced chaotic region, we can only obtain chaotic points by contributing!’

The eight people did not know how many chaotic points Duan Ling Tian obtained from this secret realm; all they knew was that they did not obtain any chaotic points at all since he had robbed all of the chaotic points.

...

After leaving the secret realm, Duan Ling Tian opened another deca-secret realm.

While he waited to enter the deca-secret realm, news of him ‘selflessly’ doing all the work in the deca-secret realm began to spread. The news stirred up a commotion immediately.

The wolf was back! It was not enough for him to plunder all the rewards in the chaotic region’s secret realms, and he was now plundering all the rewards in the advanced chaotic region’s secret realms!

“Hey, the next time Duan Ling Tian opens a multi-person secret realm, what do you think the limit of the number of people will be?”

“Who knows? Previously, there was no rhyme or rhythm to what kind of multi-person secret realm he opened...”

“It all depends on your luck. If you’re unlucky, there’s nothing you can do about it...”

“That’s right. We can give up on opening multi-person secret realms just because we’re afraid of Duan Ling Tian, right? After all, multi-person secret realms are the easiest places to obtain chaotic points.”

“Even if we enter the same secret realm as Duan Ling Tian, at most, our battle merits will go to waste. We don’t have any enmity with him so he won’t bother to kill us.”

“Previously, when he was in the chaotic region’s secret realms, not only did he not kill those from the Divine Offering Land, but he also didn’t kill those from the other five Realms of Gods. It’ll be fine as long as we cooperate with him. Even if we meet him in a secret realm, we’ll be fine...”

In the end, most people did not give up on opening a multi-person secret realm. After all, it was the best place to obtain chaotic points, and there was no danger as long as they did not provoke Duan Ling Tian. At most, their battle merits would go to waste if they met Duan Ling Tian. This was a risk they were willing to take.

Needless to say, this did not apply to those who had enmity with Duan Ling Tian like Yun Qing Yan.

Duan Ling Tian did not tire of doing all the work for those he met in the secret realms.

“You’re welcome...”

“You’re welcome. It’s a pleasure for me to be able to do so...”

“I know you feel grateful, but this is just a trivial matter. I look forward to meeting you again in another secret realm...”

The multi-person secret realms had become precious places for Duan Ling Tian to obtain chaotic points. Over the next twenty years, his chaotic points skyrocketed at an exaggerated speed.

“At this rate... It shouldn’t be a problem for me to rank first on the rudimentary Supreme God rankings, right?”

Over the past twenty years, as Duan Ling Tian continued to clear the multi-person secret realms on his own, people also stopped complaining about how overbearing he was. Instead, they began to pay attention to his performance and strength.

“Up until now, no matter how difficult the tests in the secret realms were, he’s still able to deal with them alone...”

“How strong is he now?”

“How terrifying!”

Chapter 4300 The Sword Dao Prodigy

Over the past twenty years, there was no doubt that Duan Ling Tian was the most famous person in the advanced chaotic region. Not even intermediate and advanced Supreme Gods were as famous as him, let alone rudimentary Supreme Gods.

Duan Ling Tian monopolized all the multi-person secret realms he entered. Even if it was a deca-secret realm, he plundered all the rewards and treasures.

There were rumors that even prodigious rudimentary Supreme Gods, who were capable of defeating ordinary intermediate Supreme Gods, did not dare to defy Duan Ling Tian when they met him in a secret realm.

...

When Duan Ling Tian became famous in the advanced chaotic region, an advanced Emperor of Gods skilled in the Sword Dao was gaining fame as well. However, no one knew he was. Although many advanced Emperors of Gods had met him, they did not recognize him.

“Did you hear? There’s a shockingly strong advanced Emperor of Gods who’s imitating Duan Ling Tian’s way of doing things. He prohibited others from making a move in multi-person secret realms and gained a lot of chaotic points.”

“There’s an advanced Emperor of Gods like that?”

“Where did this monstrous prodigy come from?”

“Even if he’s imitating Duan Ling Tian, the fact that he’s successful in doing so proves that he’s invincible among advanced Emperors of Gods...”

“I heard that a famous and prodigious advanced Emperor of Gods from the Scaling River Land, who managed to kill a rudimentary Supreme God, refused to give in to his domineering behavior. As a result, that person from the Scaling River Land was defeated with just a strike of the sword!”

“He’s a sword cultivator as well?”

“Yes! Similar to Duan Ling Tian, he has also comprehended the Sword Dao. According to those who had seen him in action, his Sword Dao is possibly stronger than that of Duan Ling Tian!”

“He must be a Sword Dao prodigy!”

“No one knows who he is... It’s said that he’s a reclusive powerhouse...”

“I heard that he killed a descendant of a supreme powerhouse recently. To be precise, the person he killed was the beloved great-grandson of a supreme powerhouse. That person was an advanced Emperor of Gods who wasn’t even three thousand years old, and his talent was considered to be at the top...”

“Wouldn’t someone like that possess a life-saving jade token?”

“Yes. Indeed, he possessed a life-saving jade token that could summon the manifestation of a supreme powerhouse. However, before he could use it, that person killed him!”

“What?”

“Isn’t he too terrifying?”

The person who died was a descendant of a supreme powerhouse. He was highly favored by the supreme powerhouse and even possessed a life-saving jade token. Needless to say, his death stirred up a commotion.

When the supreme powerhouse, whose descendant died, received news, he was naturally furious. Even supreme powerhouses were exempt from emotions and desires. As soon as he found out about the death of his descendant, he quickly issued an order.

“Find the person who killed my great-grandson and kill him! Whoever manages to kill him will be rewarded with five fragments of prime divine artifacts and ten drops of supreme powerhouse’s Divine Energy!”

Naturally, the order was issued to those within the supreme powerhouse’s circle. The order was passed down to his subordinates and to his subordinates’ subordinates and descendants. They were mostly intermediate and advanced Supreme Gods.

The supreme powerhouse naturally could not publicly issue such an order. He had to preserve his pride and reputation, after all. It would be detrimental to him if people found out that he spent so much just to kill the person who killed his great-grandson.

After the order was issued, there was an influx of intermediate and advanced Supreme Gods in the advanced chaotic region who inquired about the whereabouts of the advanced Emperor of Gods who recently became famous and was skilled in the Sword Dao.

It did not take long before news began to spread again.

“It seems like someone’s trying to avenge that descendant of a supreme powerhouse!”

“Perhaps, that supreme powerhouse ordered people to deal with that person? Recently, many people have been inquiring about his whereabouts!”

“That’s unlikely, right? Supreme powerhouses are lofty and aloof. How can a supreme powerhouse deign to deal with an advanced Emperor of Gods? In my opinion, those people who have been asking around must be trying to curry favor with that supreme powerhouse.”

“I agree!”

...

Although many people heard that a group of intermediate and advanced Supreme Gods was looking for the advanced Emperor of Gods in the advanced chaotic region, most of them did not think that it was the work of the supreme powerhouse.

Only other supreme powerhouses knew that it was an order from the supreme powerhouse whose descendant died.

The advanced chaotic region was vast, and it was divided into a few areas. Each area had two supreme powerhouses overseeing it.

At this time, an old man came to the cultivation ground of a young man and complained, “Old He is getting more and more childish and petty. It was his great-grandson’s fault for not being strong enough, but he still insists on avenging his great-grandson. Most importantly, that person who killed his great-grandson has the potential of becoming a pillar of our God Defying World!”

Upon hearing the old man's complaint, the young man's gaze suddenly sharpened. "Old He? You're talking about the advanced Emperor of Gods who killed Old He's great-grandson some time ago?"

The old man nodded. "That's right. Currently, many intermediate and advanced Supreme Gods are looking for him. They want his life. I can't believe Old He did such a thing. He's just bullying that advanced Emperor of Gods because that advanced Emperor of Gods doesn't have a strong background. I heard that the advanced Emperor of Gods uses doppelgangers so there's no doubt that he's from the lower realms. It's said that he was a sectless cultivator from the lower realms. For him to be able to climb so high up, he's definitely a monstrous prodigy. He's no worse than the members of the Myriad Laws Academy's Inner Palace faction in the Profound Energy Land."

The old man shook his head with a regretful expression on his face at the end of his words. In the next moment, he watched in shock as the usually indifferent young man scoffed coldly before turning into a sword ray and leaving.

"Huh? What's going on?" the old man muttered, baffled.

After a moment, a thought appeared in the old man's mind, and his eyes widened. "Could it be... No... Is he..."

The old man finally recalled the young man's junior brother, whom the young man spoke of previously. The young man's junior brother came from the lower realm and was also highly skilled in the Sword Dao.

'If that advanced Emperor of Gods is his junior brother... He... Is he going to settle accounts with Old He?'

The old man's eyes brightened when this thought appeared in his mind.

‘It seems like there’s going to be a bloodbath this time. Old He is in trouble now... I’m going to watch the show!’

The old man vanished into a puff of green smoke, leaving no trace behind.
