Chapter 1001: Enter An Jiuyue's Body

"Well... Alright."

After hearing the word "family", Bai Ze, who was about to refuse him, lowered his head and agreed.

He glanced at the rope in Qian Jiyun's hand and suggested weakly, "Brother, why don't you tie me up?"

Even he could not predict when his madness would erupt. He did not want to hurt his brother's wife, whom he had painstakingly found.

Qian Jiyun wanted to say that there was no need, but he decided against it when he thought of An Jiuyue.

"Only your hands. "

He eventually used the rope to tie up Bai Ze's hands.

Bai Ze moved his hands, struggling with his injuries. He was worried that the thin rope would be useless.

However, after some struggle, the rope did not budge at all. It did not seem like it would snap.

"Brother, where did you get this rope? Its material must be special, right?"

"Mhm," Qian Jiyun replied softly.

How could An Jiuyue's purchases at the Points Mall be bad?

"Let's go."

With that, he brought Bai Ze to An Jiuyue.

"Jiuyue, this is Bai Ze. Bai Ze, this is your sister-in-law—"

"Mmph!"

Before he could finish speaking, he heard Bai Ze grunt.

He was startled, thinking the demonic energy in Bai Ze's body had acted up again so quickly. However, when he turned around, he saw waves of dark energy emanating from Bai Ze's body.

Because his demonic energy was suddenly extracted, Bai Ze slumped to the ground in pain.

"Bai ze!"

Qian Jiyun was about to reach out to help him when he saw the demonic energy lingering in the air before tlying toward An Jiuyue. It was going to enter her body.

"Jiuyue!"

He was even more shocked and wanted to carry An Jiuyue somewhere else.

"Don't move."

An Jiuyue raised her hand to stop Qian Jiyun.

Qian Jiyun watched the waves of demonic energy enter An Jiuyue's body one by one. Every time it entered her body, it would make a sizzling sound, which sent shivers down their spines.

Even Bai Ze, who was kneeling on the ground, widened his eyes in shock.

He sensed that the demonic energy extracted from his body was the excess demonic energy that would manifest itself every day.

The demonic energy that tortured him to death every day had entered his sister-in-law's body?

"Brother, this demonic energy is strange. Save Sister-in-Law." He spoke through gritted teeth.

The demonic energy felt worse than death for a grown man like him. How could his sister-in-law tolerate it?

"Jiuyue..."

Qian Jiyun frowned deeply. He did not know if he should extend or retract his hand.

"Master, why do I feel like your guesses are wrong?"

Inside the space, Wei Na observed the situation outside and could not help but speak again.

An Jiuyue was utterly speechless.

"I'm not wrong. I only said that there are two possibilities because of your reminder!"

She refused to admit that she had guessed wrongly. She had assumed that there were only two possibilities because of Wei Na's reminder, so she had forgotten that there was another possibility.

Wei Na wanted to ask how this related to him..

Chapter 1002: Not Enough to Overwhelm Me

However, his master had the final say, so he would just take responsibility for it. After all, she was his master.

“This kid really benefited from misfortune. He lucked out,” he muttered again.

After absorbing the demonic energy that Bai Ze had brought her, An Jiuyue stood in the snow for a long time before coming back to her senses and immersing the demonic energy in her dantian.

“I’m fine. A little more or a little less demonic energy makes no difference to me.”

To put it bluntly, she was now an extra-large demonic energy storage device. Anyone with excess demonic energy could direct it at her—she would always accept it.

“It’s good that you’re fine.” Qian Jiyun pulled her into his arms and patted her back gently.

“Sister-in-Law, you...” Bai Ze recovered quickly.

For the first time in many years, he felt his body lighten. It was as if the shackles that had bound him for many years had been removed.

“Have I recovered? I feel like that demonic energy is gone.”

He spread his hands and looked down at his palms. His hands used to emit demonic energy whenever he went crazy. But now there was nothing. “Sister-in-Law, Brother is right. Your medicine refinement skills are really amazing.”

An Jiuyue was shocked.

How was this related to her medicine refinement skills?

“Ahem, that’s right. I’m quite good at refining medicine.” She was not humble at all. She nodded at Bai Ze before looking at Qian Jiyun.

“Untie the rope around his hands. I’ll absorb all the demonic energy around me anyway. He won’t have a chance to go crazy again.”

“Okay.” Qian Jiyun nodded and untied Bai Ze.

After Bai Ze changed his clothes, the three of them began their search for demonic beasts.

However, Bai Ze could not help but worry as he watched the demonic energy surge toward An Jiuyue every time.

“Brother, will Sister-in-Law be alright after absorbing so much demonic energy?” he asked worriedly.

It was good that he was not going crazy, but was it really good for his sister-in-law to absorb so much demonic energy? Why did he have a feeling that something was amiss?

Qian Jiyun had doubts too, but he refrained from asking An Jiuyue since she did not say anything.

She would tell him when she wanted to.

“Jiuyue, you...”

“I’m really fine.”

An Jiuyue did not give Qian Jiyun a chance to ask her anything.

“I’m the successor to the Demon Heart. I have the Demon’s Heart. The demonic energy from the Demon’s Heart in his body is not enough to overwhelm me.”

“The Demon’s Heart? What’s that?” Qian Jiyun and Bai Ze asked in unison.

“Just treat it as a demonic seed.”

An Jiuyue thought for a moment and looked up at Qian Jiyun.

“I’m only the successor. I haven’t fully activated the Demon’s Heart yet, so I need a lot of demonic energy. The Demon’s Heart in him should belong to the High Priest Demon Heart.

“I was wondering how the High Priest Demon Heart could keep her sanity. Although she obtained my Life Stone, her demonic energy cultivation was crippled while she still had the Demon’s Heart.

“I thought the Life Stone’s usefulness was beyond measure!

“But it turns out she tossed this difficult challenge to someone else. She probably couldn’t handle or cultivate the Demon’s Heart for her own use. Hence, she planted the Demon’s Heart on Bai Ze.

“Fortunately, he only has an old Demon’s Heart. If he had a new one, his regular body wouldn’t be able to handle it. He would’ve died long ago..”

Chapter 1003: A Special Demonic Beast

She shook her head and looked at Bai Ze.

“You’re lucky that you’re Jiyun’s brother. I’ll help you transmute the Demon’s Heart in your body on his account. You’ll advance a few levels in your cultivation. I’m afraid you’ll become invincible on Wulong Mountain.”

“Does having the Demon’s Heart turn you into a Demon Heart?” Qian Jiyun asked her.

Wulong Mountain could never possess two Demon Hearts. If the Demon’s Heart within Bai Ze was transmuted, would he not oppose An Jiuyue? “You’re thinking too much.” An Jiuyue grinned at him.

“Ordinary people can transmute the Demon’s Heart, but only the successor to the Demon Heart can let it take root and germinate in their dantian without ever causing any harm to it, even in death.

“My Demon’s Heart is actually a seed extracted from Bai Ze’s Demon’s Heart. That’s why I can absorb all the excess demonic energy from his body.”

She pointed at Bai Ze and explained to Qian Jiyun.

“I see.” Qian Jiyun nodded, indicating that he understood.

“Brother, what does Sister-in-Law mean?”

Bai Ze was stunned. He looked at An Jiuyue and Qian Jiyun, his gaze wandering back and forth between them.

“Are you talking about the Demon Heart?”

He was born and raised on Wulong Mountain. He had grown up listening to the legends of the Demon Heart. How many people on Wulong Mountain would be unaware of the Demon Heart?

He looked at An Jiuyue in surprise.

So his sister-in-law was the Demon Heart of Wulong Mountain! Although she was only the successor, she would still be the Demon Heart in the future. "Did I mishear it? Brother, Sister-in-Law said she is the Demon Heart."

Could that cruel and bloodthirsty Demon Heart be his sister-in-law, who was feeding him gently and even smiling at him? It was unbelievable!

"Your sister-in-law is indeed the Demon Heart. You can't tell anyone about this," Qian Jiyun reminded him.

He would not have told Bai Ze that An Jiuyue was the successor to the Demon Heart if Bai Ze did not have the Demon's Heart in his body.

Now that he knew, Qian Jiyun had no choice but to remind him not to spread the information.

"Brother, Sister-in-Law, don't worry. I won't tell anyone," Bai Ze quickly promised.

He naturally had a cold and reserved personality.

He did not want to talk to anyone else.

"Brother, are we still looking for something on the mountain?" he asked when he saw that they had no intention of leaving.

Lianxue Mountain was truly a dangerous place. He had often gone crazy because of his demonic energy, so he did not feel anything other than that the demonic beasts were prey for venting his anger.

However, now that his demonic energy had returned to normal, he felt his hair stand on end.

It had been so many years. Now that fear gripped his heart, he found it an oddly familiar feeling. After all, this was a feeling everyone should have.

However, it had been missing from him for many years.

“I’m also looking for a demonic beast—a special demonic beast,” An Jiuyue replied.

Bai Ze blinked and lowered his eyes to think. He had been on the mountain for so many years and had seen many demonic beasts, including special ones.

However, he did not know what the demonic beast she mentioned looked like. “Sister-in-Law, can you describe the appearance of that demonic beast?” he asked..

Chapter 1004: Seen Such a Large Malevolent Fog Lion

“It..

An Jiuyue opened her mouth to say something.

However, it was as if her tongue was constrained, causing her to swallow everything she was about to say.

“It’s not that I don’t want to say it, but I can’t. I can visualize what the demonic beast looks like in my head, but I can’t describe it aloud.”

She shook her head at them both.

“It’s fine if you can’t say it. Let’s walk a few more rounds on Lianxue Mountain,” Qian Jiyun said.

They would not leave until they found An Jiuyue's natal beast. They had to find it for her safety, and it was an urgent matter.

"I don't think Yan Feng and the others will be able to find you so quickly. We have to find them on the way too. We'll stay on the mountain for a few more days."

The corners of Bai Ze's mouth twitched.

He did not know where Yan Feng was looking for him, but he had already met up with his brother and sister-in-law. Yan Feng had to be so miserable wandering around Lianxue Mountain looking for him.

Bai Ze had stayed at Lianxue Mountain for many years. He knew what it was like and how big it was.

Finding someone on the mountain might be feasible if they stayed put. However, he had to follow his brother and sister-in-law to look for the demonic beast, so he naturally would not remain in one spot.

Yan Feng would probably take a while to find him, right?

"Brother, why don't we send a message to Yan Feng?" he suggested.

"There's no need. Let them train on Lianxue Mountain too. His demonic energy hasn't improved in a long time." Qian Jiyun shook his head. He had never thought of sending a message to Yan Feng.

Yan Feng could continue searching as a form of training. He had not had much time to come to Wulong Mountain all these years. Yan Feng had been busy dealing with Jun Lin Hall's matters and had not improved much.

Lianxue Mountain was a great training site.

Indeed, Lianxue Mountain was a good place to train. However, instead of finding Bai Ze, Yan Feng and the others found a gigantic creature.

“Second Hall Master, is this a demonic beast? Isn’t it a little too big?”

The demonic beasts on Lianxue Mountain were not too big, but they were more lethal than the bigger demonic beasts outside.

However, the demonic beast in front of them was not only large, but it also emitted a black demonic fog. It was clear that it was a difficult one.

“This is a Malevolent Fog Lion. Everyone, be careful. The demonic fog it emits is poisonous,” Yan Feng reminded everyone, bearing his long sword and looking sternly prepared to fight.

This was the first time he had seen such a large Malevolent Fog Lion. He was instantly unsure if he could defeat it.

“Roar! Roar!”

The Malevolent Fog Lion stopped roaring when it saw them.

Clearly, it viewed them as its food. It dug its front hooves into the snow and rushed towards them.

“Dodge!” Yan Feng yelled and dodged to the side.

The others also scattered in all directions. The Malevolent Fog Lion leaped and landed where they had been standing. In an instant, the demonic fog corroded the place.

After missing its target, the Malevolent Fog Lion’s demonic fog became even thicker. Though it remained in place, the demonic fog surged toward everyone and began attacking them.

A few streams of demonic fog attacked Yan Feng at the same time. He gritted his teeth and slashed two with his long sword before gathering demonic energy in his left hand and repelling another two..

Chapter 1005: Sending Him to Die Without a Word

Yan Feng took a few steps back hastily before regaining his footing.

He had narrowly avoided the fog, but the others were not so lucky. The fog hit three of them, and they fell to the ground, wailing.

“Second Hall Master, shall we retreat?”

A few others helped the three injured people up and spoke to Yan Feng.

“Only if we can!”

Yan Feng gritted his teeth. Was the Malevolent Fog Lion an ordinary foe?

It obviously viewed them as food. One of them would have to die in today’s battle.

“Listen to my orders. Gather everyone and focus on fighting the Malevolent Fog Lion. ”

If they gathered all their demonic energy to fight the Malevolent Fog Lion, they might have a chance at survival.

Otherwise, their corpses would become the Malevolent Fog Lion’s snacks.

Upon hearing Yan Feng’s words, the others immediately gathered next to and behind him. They concentrated their demonic energy in their palms to fight the Malevolent Fog Lion. Wasting time was not a good idea.

It was impossible for them to face the Malevolent Fog Lion individually.

“Second Hall Master, go!”

Everyone concentrated their demonic energy on Yan Feng.

Yan Feng, who was pushed forward, was speechless.

What good subordinates are they! Their sending me to die without a word— Bah!

Die? Who’s dying? I refuse to believe that someone like me, who has been bold on Wulong Mountain for so many years, will die at the claws of the Malevolent Fog Lion!

“Let’s see who’s stronger today!”

He glared at the Malevolent Fog Lion coldly, ready to unleash the demonic energy in his palms.

However, before he could do that, he heard the Malevolent Fog Lion’s miserable roar. It could not care less about humans and ran in the opposite direction.

“It...”

Everyone looked at the panicked Malevolent Fog Lion and did not understand what was going on.

“It... ran away?”

“Why did it run away? Did it find more food?”

They looked at each other, confused. That demonic beast was so powerful. They did not know if they could be its match.

Why did it run away like that?

Yan Feng was confused too, but he was certain that the Malevolent Fog Lion was not dismissive of them. He had clearly sensed its killing intent earlier.

The second possibility was that... an even stronger demonic beast had appeared nearby, so the Malevolent Fog Lion was afraid of it and slipped away first.

“Let’s leave this place immediately.”

Wearing a cold expression, he immediately instructed everyone to leave.

Not long after they left, they saw a small, adorable little fox approaching the spot where they had been, leaving footprints in the snow. Its entire body was red.

As far as they could see, the thick snow along the path it had walked on had melted, revealing a deep trail.

Squeak! Squeak!

Its agile head turned, and its grape-like, big red eyes followed suit, gazing around in different directions.

After confirming that there was nothing, it picked a tree and climbed up nimbly on all fours. It hid among the leaves, curled into a ball, and began napping.

It turned out that it was not here to hunt for food but to find a comfortable place to sleep.

Even if it had no intention of killing, it still terrified the Malevolent Fog Lion into panicking and abandoning the “food” that was about to enter its mouth..

Chapter 1006: Trying to Make Him Die from Anger?

Qian Jiyun and the other two walked around Lianxue Mountain for three days, but they did not see any demonic beasts.

It was not until the fourth day, just before nightfall, that they encountered Yan Feng, who was injured. He was with his group of subordinates, many of whom were wounded. Some even had bruised and swollen faces.

“Bai Ze, why are you... Why are you with Master and Mistress?”

When he saw Bai Ze, Yan Feng wished he could slap himself and faint.

Back then, his mistress had suggested that they set off together. However, he felt that finding Bai Ze would be too difficult and did not want his master and mistress to worry about it. Hence, he suggested righteously that he would bring people to look for him.

How would he have known that his master and mistress would find Bai Ze first?

“When did Master find you? Why didn’t you inform me?”

“Four days ago.” Bai Ze raised four fingers and waved them in front of Yan Feng.

Yan Feng was speechless.

He felt like he was going crazy. That meant that they had found Bai Ze shortly after entering Lianxue Mountain, right? His master could have sent him a message, but...

“Master, you...’

Qian Jiyun was certainly being hard on his subordinates, wasn't he? Yan Feng raised his hand and touched the corner of his mouth. He had collided with a tree trunk while battling a demonic beast.

He had searched for four days in vain. If he had known earlier, he would have stayed by his master's side. He could have come to look for his master. Why would he need to run all over the mountain?

"What about me?" Qian Jiyun glanced at him sideways, a hint of disdain in his eyes. "You're so injured. Don't tell people you're from Jun Lin Hall when you're out."

"Uh." Yan Feng felt a little guilty.

Although the demonic beasts on Lianxue Mountain were powerful, it was embarrassing for him to be so injured.

If not for the special energy in Wulong Mountain, where injuries would heal the next day, he wondered if he had been beaten up so badly that his mother would not even recognize him.

He scratched his head and explained weakly, "Master, the demonic beasts we've encountered over the past few days are a little powerful."

He was still alright. A look at the people behind him would give an idea of what they had encountered over the past few days.

They were all elites of Jun Lin Hall. They were typically busy with their own tasks. He would not have gathered them if they were not looking for Bai Ze.

But they were now in this state.

It would be embarrassing if word got out. After all, they were from Jun Lin Hall. They were considered higher-ranked than the aristocratic families. They already belonged to the same faction.

"Master, have you found what you're looking for?"

He did not know what his master and mistress were looking for. He only knew they were here to look for something.

However, they did not appear to have found it. Otherwise, they would have forgotten about him long ago and left Lianxue Mountain by now. They might truly forget about this search party in a few days, right?

Bai Ze pursed his lips and said, "You already know the answer."

Would they still be here if they had found it? This place was bitterly cold!

"If you can't find it, how can Sister-in-Law find it? Is your search harder than hers?" he asked them.

Yan Feng was speechless.

When did Bai Ze become so good at rebuking people?

He used to be extremely reserved! But was he trying to make him die from anger now?

Chapter 1007: The Overlord of Lianxue Mountain

"Bai Ze, did the demonic energy in your body disappear?"

Whether Bai Ze rebuked him or not was not important. The main thing was that he could no longer see the abnormal demonic energy in Bai Ze. Bai Ze was much more energetic and did not look like he was about to go crazy.

"No," Bai Ze replied.

Yan Feng raised his hand happily and was about to pat Bai Ze's shoulder when he heard his reply. He was so frightened that he quickly retracted his hand.

Although he retracted his hand, he did not believe it.

He studied Bai Ze but could not see the violent demonic energy he used to have. It had disappeared.

Could it be because he had just fought and had consumed a lot of energy? "I don't believe it. You're completely different from before... Ah!"

His words were cut short by a surprised gasp as he noticed a wisp of demonic energy slip out of Bai Ze and enter his mistress's body.

He was extremely shocked. He could not understand what was going on.

"Master, this is..."

"Since you're here too, keep searching."

Qian Jiyun did not answer him. He held An Jiuyue's hand and continued walking. Bai Ze followed them, staying two steps behind them.

Yan Feng scratched his head. Although he did not understand the situation, he still called for everyone to follow them and continue searching for... something they did not even know.

They kept traveling and stopping every now and then for another two days.

Everyone's sustenance came from the hunting spoils that had left Yan Feng and the others battered and bruised, as well as the fruits in An Jiuyue's space.

Finally, when everyone was a little tired. An Tiuyue saw a path of melted snow.

She crouched down to examine the path, which had patches of snow. It was completely different from other snow paths. After a while, she looked up at Qian Jiyun.

"It's nearby. We can keep searching in this direction."

"Sister-in-Law, are you looking for the demonic beast that eats snow?" Bai Ze blinked and asked.

It was very obvious. An Jiuyue was talking as she looked at this melted snow path, so she had to be referring to that strange demonic beast. He had seen many similar paths in his many years on Lianxue Mountain.

He could not understand why there was a demonic beast eating the snow to make a path when they could simply walk on it.

Did it have nothing better to do? Was meat not delicious? It could eat some grass if it had no other choice. Why did it have to eat snow?

"You've seen it?" An Jiuyue looked at Bai Ze as Qian Jiyun helped her up.

"No." Bai Ze shook his head.

He recalled that he had never seen that beast before.

"I've never seen that demonic beast, but I've often seen paths like this where the snow has been eaten. Is that beast the one you're looking for?" "Yes, that's it." An Jiuyue nodded.

They had finally made some progress after searching for so many days.

"So you're looking for the overlord of Lianxue Mountain!" Bai Ze finally understood.

“Overlord?”

“That’s right! As long as that beast is nearby, the demonic beasts around will run away as if they’re afraid they’ll become food for that overlord,” Bai Ze explained.

“But I’ve never seen that beast. I’ve only witnessed several occasions where it left a path with no snow on it. It must have some form of invisibility skill. Sister-in-Law, it’ll be difficult for you to find it..”

Chapter 1008: Can We Kill That Beast?

“Pfft!” An Jiuyue could not help but laugh.

A demonic beast that ate snow? That had to be the funniest joke she had ever heard. How much snow would her natal beast have to eat every day?

“Flame Foxes don’t eat snow. It’s just that its element is fire, so the snow will melt wherever it walks,” she explained.

She could not describe the Flame Fox’s appearance to them, but she could tell them other things about it. She could also say its name. “Huh? So it’s not eating snow?”

Bai Ze scratched his head and looked at An Jiuyue innocently.

“But it can turn invisible. Sister-in-Law, how are you going to find it?”

Things that could become invisible were the most difficult to find. Even if they kept an eye on where the snow melted, they might miss the fox if it climbed up a tree.

“It can’t turn invisible.” An Jiuyue was very certain.

“It can’t turn invisible?” Bai Ze frowned, disbelief in its eyes.

That was impossible. Every time the overlord appeared, people would mistake it for eating snow, but no one had ever seen it.

“Wait.” Yan Feng raised his hand and interrupted them.

“Is that beast you’re talking about very powerful? The one who makes other demonic beasts flee when they sense its presence?”

“Yes! You’ve seen it too?” Bai Ze turned to look at him and asked.

It was not surprising that he had seen it before. As long as that beast remained at Lianxue Mountain, it would be like the sky. All demonic beasts feared it, but strangely, it never killed other demonic beasts unless it was hungry.

“I didn’t see it, but when we encountered a Malevolent Fog Lion previously, it fled after exchanging a blow with us. I think it sensed its existence,” Yan Feng said.

“I think so.” Bai Ze touched his chin and nodded.

Every demonic beast feared it. Was it too powerful or something?

“So you’re really looking for that beast?” Yan Feng was horrified.

There were so many of them, but even if they joined forces, they might not be able to kill the Malevolent Fog Lion. However, the Malevolent Fog Lion ran away quickly when the Flame Fox arrived.

How could they fight that beast?

The corners of his mouth twitched as he looked at An Jiuyue and asked, "Mistress, can we... can we kill that beast?"

"Who asked you to kill it? I want to bring it back." An Jiuyue glared at him.

This guy is really something! He wants to kill my natal beast? Does he think I've lived too long?

"Let's not talk about this first. Jiuyue, let's catch up to it first."

Qian Jiyun kept silent for a long time. When he saw that they were done chatting, he led An Jiuyue in the direction where the Flame Fox had gone.

The Flame Fox slept soundly on a big tree.

However, it felt a familiar sensation approaching and woke up quickly.

"Squeak, squeak!"

It called out from the tree branch and leaped down. When all four legs landed on the ground, the snow beneath them melted quickly. It was too fast!

It did not wake up and jump down the tree because it sensed its master but rather because...

If it did not wake up soon, the tree it slept on would be burned.

Its name was Flame Fox. It constantly radiated heat all over its body, especially when its master was not around. It was simply a reliable cooking instrument..

Chapter 1009: Flame Fox, Come Here!

Hence, even if the Flame Fox enjoyed sleeping in trees, it could not sleep for too long. It was afraid that its beloved big tree would be burned to ashes, so it had to leave and sleep somewhere else.

In fact, it did not need to eat much because it spent most of the time sleeping. It could sleep for 23 hours a day, and the remaining time would be used to eat, walk, and exercise.

Unfortunately, it could not afford to do that here. It could only sleep for a bit before finding another place to sleep.

“Squeak, squeak!”

It scratched its face with its front paws and proceeded in a certain direction.

Yet, after just a few steps, it sensed an inexplicable aura approaching. It turned around to look, and its initially brisk pace slowed down.

Before long, it started to turn around every few steps, eventually coming to a stop.

“Squeak, squeak, squeak.”

The Flame Fox wondered why the aura felt so familiar, as if it had sensed it elsewhere before. It felt especially at ease.

However, it had become used to roaming around Lianxue Mountain over the years. Even if a familiar presence approached it, it had to decide whether or not to approach it.

It had doubts. If it left the mountain with this aura in the future, would it be able to eat and sleep every day?

If it could not, it would rather stay on Lianxue Mountain.

Qian Jiyun and the others soon arrived near this little one. However, besides An Jiuyue, no one else could see it. They only saw a large circle.

The snow inside the circle had already melted and formed a little pool of liquid.

An Jiuyue could see Flame Fox and pointed at the center of the pool.

“Flame Fox, come here!”

She stretched out her hands to the Flame Fox, who was standing in the water.

The Flame Fox blinked cutely and scratched its face with its front paws, as if wondering if it should go over.

This aura was the one it had sensed earlier. It also realized that the owner of this aura knew its name and could see it.

It had been invisible to everyone ever since it arrived at Lianxue Mountain. Humans and demonic beasts would only think they had encountered a snow-eating monster with the ability to turn invisible.

He could not see anything. All he saw was a steaming pool, and he wanted to go and soak in it. After all, he had not showered since arriving at Lianxue Mountain.

He had also been killing demonic beasts on Lianxue Mountain. Though his injuries could be healed, his clothes and body were filthy!

“Is this a hot spring?” he asked again.

“There are no hot springs on Lianxue Mountain.” Bai Ze rolled his eyes at him.

He had been here before. Hot springs? He had never seen water on Lianxue Mountain, let alone here. There was snow everywhere.

Whenever he was thirsty, he would grab a handful of snow and stuff it into his mouth.

“If there’s no hot spring, then this place is...”

Yan Feng wanted to say something, but he could not bring himself to say it.

An Jiuyue once said that she was looking for a fire-elemental beast. So did that little thing create this large pool?

That was too impressive! The pool was steaming too!

Chapter 1010: It Could Not Cultivate

Yan Feng thought that if An Jiuyue managed to subdue this beast, she would not need to boil hot water for the winter. She could simply toss the little creature into the water, and that would be instant hot water.

Yan Feng truly had some wonderful ideas!

“Squeak, squeak, squeak.”

After a brief moment of hesitation, the Flame Fox surrendered and walked towards An Jiuyue.

After all, it was An Jiuyue’s natal beast. Besides, An Jiuyue was holding some fragrant meat and fruits.

With the idea that taking advantage of a good opportunity was the way of the smart, it approached An Jiuyue swiftly. It scampered on all fours into her arms and settled in her arms.

“Squeak!”

“I heard it. I heard its sound.”

Yan Feng was immediately excited. Although he could not see what the little beast looked like, he could hear it.

The others were also excited! They had actually encountered an invisible demonic beast. Moreover, it was the overlord of Lianxue Mountain!

They wondered if their mistress really subdued it.

The little one did not have the time to care about them. It was focused on battling the food in An Jiuyue’s hands.

Although it did not eat much, why would it resist good food?

It finished all the food in An Jiuyue’s hands in no time. Not a single bite was left... No, not even a single bone was left.

“He devoured everything!” Bai Ze was secretly speechless.

Shouldn’t it at least spit out the bones? It is too voracious! Can Sister-in -Law afford to raise this glutton?

“It’s not that voracious.” An Jiuyue reached out and patted the little one’s head.

Of course, to others, she looked like she was just waving her hands in the air.

“Little guy, you’re too useless. It’s been so many years, but you haven’t leveled up? Aren’t you weak?” she asked, poking the Flame Fox’s head with her index finger.

“Squeak, squeak!”

It waved its front paws at An Jiuyue, as if to explain that it was no longer weak.

It could intimidate so many demonic beasts now and do whatever it wanted on Lianxue Mountain. How was it weak?

It was clearly very strong!

“You’re not weak?” An Jiuyue pursed her lips, feeling a little exasperated.

Being able to intimidate demonic beasts did not mean it could actually fight. There was something called an imposing aura. As long as one had an imposing aura, even a baby who did not know how to do anything could frighten others away, let alone a demonic beast that had yet to cultivate.

“Your level-one skill is transformation, right? If you’re not weak, can you show me your transformation?”

As soon as it heard her words, the little creature instantly looked listless. It was not that it refused to transform; it simply did not know how to. In fact, it could not even use the level-one skill.

However, it was not its fault. It had not been by its master’s side all these years. Sleeping was the most important thing in its life.

It enjoyed sleeping so much because it could not cultivate without its master.

Since it could not cultivate anyway, it slept as long as it could.

“Squeak, squeak, squeak.” It let out a flurry of squeaks at An Jiuyue again.

Regardless, as long as it returned to its master’s side, it would be able to learn the level-one skill in a few days and transform.

“Sister-in-Law, what’s its level-one skill?” Bai Ze asked An Jiuyue..
