Chapter 1141: Can You Withstand the Demonic Fire?

How could she allow someone like that to live?

She clutched her arm and walked towards Bai Chong. Qian Jiyun came over to support her halfway and brought her to Bai Chong.

“Bewilderment Spell, Golden Dragon Scroll... Bai Chong, what other evil techniques can't you use? You've learned all the vilest techniques in the Demon Heart Hall, right?”

“Someone like you still wants to live? With me around, you can reincarnate in your next life and start a new life!”

As she spoke, Qian Jiyun directed more fire at Bai Chong. The fire burned even more fiercely, and Bai Chong could not survive, even if she wanted to. In the end, she could only burn to ashes.

On the other side, the man was also captured. However, without Zhao Xi and Bai Chong, the man would, of course, not remain alive. Yan Feng killed him immediately.

Just in case, Qian Jiyun also lit a fire on the corpses. Soon, they were burned to ashes.

“Demon Suppression Cauldron!”

He turned to look at Qian Jiyun and asked softly, “Master, shouldn't your demonic fire burn living things? Is the Demon Suppression Cauldron also... a living thing?”

Corpses were considered living things because they were once alive. However, the Demon Suppression Cauldron, although an artifact, was still an inanimate object.

The demonic fire did not have the power to refine weapons. How could it burn the Demon Suppression Cauldron like this?

“It’s alive.” Qian Jiyun narrowed his eyes and watched the demonic fire continue to burn.

An Jiuyue, still supported by Qian Jiyun, stared at the demonic fire with her sharp eyes. She allowed it to burn and did not let Qian Jiyun extinguish it.

“I underestimated her. Not only can she parasitize someone else’s body, but she can also parasitize the Demon Suppression Cauldron. Does she want to become an artifact spirit?”

She was, of course, referring to Bai Chong.

Zhao Xi’s corpse had been burned to ashes, but the demonic fire was still burning. There was only one possibility—Bai Chong’s soul had not been completely burned.

“She’ll get what she wants if she really becomes an artifact spirit.” Qian Jiyun looked down at An Jiuyue.

After becoming an artifact spirit, she would not die as long as the Demon Suppression Cauldron remained. It was a way to live forever. Moreover, her innate abilities as an artifact spirit might become strong enough to leave the artifact and find another corpse for revival..

Chapter 1142: I Really Don ‘t Know

An Jiuyue looked at the fire and said to Qian Jiyun, “Jiyun, add more demonic fire. Even if you have to destroy the Demon Suppression Cauldron, you have to burn her completely.”

“Okay,” Qian Jiyun replied as he raised his hand to send more demonic fire again.

The fire intensified immediately, forming a fire dragon that surrounded the Demon Suppression Cauldron. It burned brighter and brighter until Bai Ze and the others began to doubt what they were seeing because they saw the Demon Suppression Cauldron slowly transform into a golden human figure. “An Jiuyue, you’ll die a horrible death if you want to destroy me.”

“This is truly a boundless world! There are all kinds of strange happenings!” Upon hearing Bai Chong’s voice, An Jiuyue chuckled.

“High Priest Demon Heart, you can go in peace. I will abide by your dying wish and protect Wulong Mountain well for the rest of my life.”

“An Jiuyue, don’t be so smug. Do you think you’ve won? The Demon Destruction Valley has already opened. You’ll still die miserably without me... Ah!”

An Jiuyue did not give her a chance to continue. She struck the Demon

It was already good enough that she knew about the existence of the Demon Destruction Valley. Bai Chong probably allowed her to come here to provide demonic energy to Zhao Xi, just in case.

However, despite Bai Chong’s numerous calculations, she did not expect An Jiuyue to figure out she wanted to rebirth.

“But I’m guessing that since Bai Chong can be reborn through the Demon Destruction Valley, this place must relate to the past Demon Hearts. However, I don’t know what’s the relation yet.”

She turned around and looked at the portal.

The portal was still open and had no intention of closing.

They followed her gaze and looked at the teleportation portal. They wondered why it did not close after so long. Shouldn't this kind of teleportation portal close quickly?

"Don't tell me this portal will only close after someone enters?" Long Xuan could not help but guess.

An Jiuyue raised her hand and touched her forehead. "It won't close after someone enters. It needs the Demon Heart's demonic energy to close."

The Demon Heart's demonic energy was the key to the Demon Destruction Valley's teleportation portal. Without this key, no one could open it.

"My demonic energy has been depleted. I can't close this teleportation portal for a while."

"If it can't be closed, then..." Bai Ze looked at An Jiuyue and then at the teleportation door..

"There won't be anything inside that can escape through this portal... Oh."

Before Bai Ze could finish, Yan Feng quickly covered his mouth. "Shut up. Don't jinx it," he warned.

There might be nothing at first, but what if something escaped after Bai Ze said that?

"Huff!" An Jiuyue exhaled heavily and looked at Qian Jiyun.

"Since we're already here, Jiyun, why don't you accompany me in to take a look?" she asked.

Bai Chong had destroyed all the records of the Demon Destruction Valley. She did not even know what this place was.

This place was important to the Demon Heart. She could not possibly know nothing about it, right? Hence, she had to go in and take a look.

She was supposed to go in alone, but she knew Qian Jiyun would not be at ease and would follow her eventually. She might as well take the initiative to mention it to him.

“Sounds good.” Qian Jiyun nodded and glanced at Yan Feng and the other two.

“Mhm.” An Jiuyue agreed and nodded.

This situation was truly beyond her expectations. There were no demonic beasts, and she did not even see any snakes, insects, rats, or ants. Wei Na could not even sense a third living creature besides her and Qian Jiyun in this place.

“Is this another illusion? No, that’s impossible.”

She would be able to tell if it was an illusion. Even if she could not, Qian Jiyun should be able to, right?

Hm... Why did this sound like Qian Jiyun was better than her?

However, this was undoubtedly not an illusion. It was a real place. But it was too strange.

Other than the flowers and trees, there were precious medicinal herbs and alchemical materials everywhere. There were also some natural treasures that were rare on Wulong Mountain.

A place like this was beyond her imagination.

“What kind of place is this? I’m really... Gasp!”

Before she could finish speaking, the area where they stood became dark suddenly. It was not pitch-black, but the sky was already obscured.

She looked up and saw a bare mountaintop—oh, no—a stone giant standing in front of her and Qian Jiyun..

Chapter 1144: The Next Successor to the Demon Heart?

The stone giant completely obscured the light.

“It... It is... It’s not breathing?”

Stones did not need to breathe, right? That was why they could not sense it. Even Wei Na did not sense any danger.

She turned to look at Qian Jiyun and asked, ‘What is this?’

It was not her fault for looking at Qian Jiyun! She really did not know what this stone giant was.

“Are you Bai Liuyue?”

Before Qian Jiyun could say anything, the stone giant spoke.

Its voice and the sound of its rocks colliding make their hair stand on end.

“The next successor to the Demon Heart hasn’t been born yet. Why are you here?” it asked.

An Jiuyue was speechless.

She also wanted to know why she was here! Suddenly, she blinked and looked up at the stone giant.

However, it still remembered to shield An Jiuyue and Qian Jiyun. The flying rocks did not land beside them.

“Who is he?” it asked when it saw someone next to An Jiuyue.

“My husband,” An Jiuyue replied immediately.

Only the Demon Heart could enter the Demon Destruction Valley. She was afraid that Qian Jiyun would be destroyed if she did not answer in time.

“I depleted all my demonic energy in my fight against Bai Chong. My husband was afraid that I would encounter danger after coming in, so he accompanied me,” she said.

The stone giant nodded its massive head, reluctantly accepting Qian Jiyun.

“He, wait here. You, come with me.”

Qian Jiyun looked at An Jiuyue, worried about her health.

“Don’t worry. I’ve regained some of my demonic energy. I can walk a few steps.

Wait for me here.” An Jiuyue comforted him before leaving with the stone man.

Actually, they did not walk very far. With just two steps, the stone giant covered a great distance.

Meanwhile, An Jiuyue had climbed onto its palm. Qian Jiyun watched as it turned around, and An Jiuyue moved further away from him. They seemed to have climbed over a few tall mountains.

This was his first encounter with such a manner of advancement.. Marching and fighting like this would be quite convenient!

Chapter 1145: Some People Never Change!

Unfortunately, this was the Demon Destruction Valley. The stone giant should not be able to leave.

He could sense that the stone giant's aura was very similar to An Jiuyue's Life Stone. It had also said that the next successor to the Demon Heart had not been born.

The birthplace of the Demon Heart successors was probably the stone giant itself, right?

"I didn't expect An Jiuyue to be born this way. Could I be born this way too?" he asked, propping his chin on his hand.

Meanwhile, the stone giant had taken An Jiuyue to another place. "Wow, there are so many books!"

There were many books again. This time, they were not in a cave but everywhere on the ground. There was almost nowhere for her to stand.

Moreover, these books were different from the ones she had seen before. When she picked one up, it seemed to have split into two. There was an identical book on the ground.

"This is..."

"This is the Book Shadow Tomb. Only book shadows can be taken from here. Of course, all the books in your Demon Heart Hall are book shadows taken from here."

The stone giant answered her question.

An Jiuyue raised her eyebrows. So there was something like this? She had learned something new!

“Since you’re here, take another copy of the book shadows out with you.”

The stone giant continued to speak when it noticed that An Jiuyue was silent. It waved its huge arm in the air a few times, and An Jiuyue saw a beam of light from the book shadow in its hand.

Then it handed her that beam of light.

“This is demonic will. You can hide everything inside, but it can only exist for half a month. When you return to the Demon Heart Hall, release all the book shadows from the demonic will. As for the book shadows from before, burn them all.”

“The Demon Heart Hall is gone.”

The corners of An Jiuyue’s mouth twitched. After receiving the demonic will from the stone giant, she had no choice but to tell it what Bai Chong had done 20 years ago and how the Demon Heart Hall had disappeared from Wulong Mountain for 20 years.

“Some people never change!”

After hearing her words, the stone giant only exclaimed four words.

Back then, it could tell that Bai Chong was extremely selfish and unscrupulous.

However, it did not expect her to be so bold as to harm her successor. Was she certain she could obtain eternal life? Hmph! Was she worthy of that?

“Your Life Stone has been crippled. Leave it here for now. I’ll repair it for you.

You can come back and take it three years later.”

It kept An Jiuyue’s Life Stone and told her about the Demon Destruction Valley. It turned out that generations of Demon Hearts were born with the power of heaven and earth.

However, Wulong Mountain centered on demonic energy, so it nurtured Demon Hearts.

“All the Demon Hearts were born in the Demon Destruction Valley. However, something unexpected happened in your generation.” The stone giant looked at An Jiuyue with its large stone eyes.

An Jiuyue could not tell if it was blind or not.

She reckoned it should be able to see—it should be a living stone! It was the largest existence in the Demon Destruction Valley.

“Are you talking about my memory and twin souls? And the Life Stone?” she asked.

“No.” The stone giant shook his head.

“For generations, Demon Hearts could only give birth to one child. However, in your generation, there are twins..”

Chapter 1146: Let Him Fend For Himself

An Jiuyue was confused.

rftvins? Was it what she was thinking?

Twins? Did this mean she had a sister? Or a brother? But where were they? Why could she not remember them, and why had she never seen them before?

“Why don’t I remember this?” she asked immediately.

“In other words, apart from me, my brother or sister can also become a Demon

Heart?”

She could not help but wonder if her twin was Zhao Xi, whom she had just killed. It could not be that coincidental, right?

“Who... who took her away? Bai Chong?”

“No.” The stone giant continued shaking its head.

“He’s considered your younger brother. He was born without the Demon’s Heart, so he can’t succeed the Demon Heart Hall. The demonic energy in his body is pitifully little, so I made the decision to raise him until he was three years old. I threw him to a corner of Wulong Mountain and let him fend for himself.”

An Jiuyue was shocked.

What did it mean by letting him fend for himself? He was still a human!

However, she knew she could not argue with this thing in front of her. Although it could talk and communicate with her, it was still a stone.

She could not expect it to have human feelings.

It was already good enough that it did not kill her brother after discovering that he was useless.

But despite her thoughts, she still felt something was wrong. She wanted to beat up this stone giant!

However, she could not do that.

“Then... Can you tell me what’s my brother’s name? What if I know him?” she asked.

Perplexed, the stone giant asked, “You want to look for him?”

It felt that it was already good enough that it did not destroy that useless thing. Why was she looking for him now?

And what was the point of looking for him? So he would snatch the Demon Heart Hall from her? That useless thing had to be capable of doing something like that in the first place! But he was practically a nobody, okay?

Clearly, it did not understand why one of them was a genius while the other was nothing.

“Why are you looking for him? He’s a useless piece of trash. He might have died in some corner long ago. Even if he’s not dead, he won’t be of much use. Finding him will only be a waste of time.” An Jiuyue was extremely shocked.

She really wanted to beat up the stone!

Her time belonged to her. She was willing to waste it. Was there a problem with that?

She was born from the heavens and had no parents in the first place, but she finally found out that she had a younger brother—one that was biologically related to her. How could she not find him and become a loving sister and brother?

“I’m just thinking that I can’t stay in the Demon Heart Hall every day. If I let him stay in the Demon Heart Hall, he can help me handle some matters in the future. Isn’t that great? It’s killing two birds with one stone, isn’t it?” She took a deep breath and looked up at the stone giant as she explained.

“Maybe he’s already gone.”

The stone giant hesitated for a moment before continuing, “It’s fine to tell you.

Although he’s useless and not worthy of entering the Demon Destruction Valley, I named him Bai Ze back then.”

“Ahem, ahem, ahem.” An Jiuyue was shocked by the name.

Was it the same name? Or was the person Qian Jiyun had picked up when he was young really her younger brother?

“If I want to find him, how should I do it?” she asked weakly..

Chapter 1147: Exactly the Same

“Although he’s useless, there’s an mark of the Demon Destruction Valley on his left shoulder. It’s a Demon Heart Flower. You can use that to find him,” the stone giant said.

An Jiuyue was speechless. If she did not already have some guesses, was the stone giant expecting her to rip a man’s clothes every time she met one to find the mark of the Demon Heart Flower on his left shoulder?

Alright, she did not want to complain anymore. She was tired, and her heart was even more tired.

After chatting with the stone giant for a while, An Jiuyue felt that she did not want to stay here any longer. She left to look for Qian Jiyun.

Of course, the stone giant gave her a ride on the way back, but she was alone when she returned to Qian Jiyun.

This was because the stone giant said it was going into hibernation to grow the next successor to the Demon Heart. It also said it did not know if it was because something had happened in her generation, which caused it to be unable to give birth to even a single strand of wool for 20 years.

It did not know when the next successor to the Demon Heart would be born.

Of course, she did not want to care about that. She sent all the natural treasures she could gather into her space as she walked towards the teleportation portal. By the time she returned to the teleportation portal and saw Qian Jiyun, it had been a day and a night.

“You’ve been gone for a long time. Did you talk a lot?”

When Qian Jiyun saw her return, he immediately welcomed her and pulled her into his arms.

“Are you tired?”

“Why would I be?” An Jiuyue chuckled and shook her head.

Since this was the birthplace of the Demon Heart, she would not be tired here.

After staying in the Demon Destruction Valley for a day and a night, she felt that her demonic energy had restored a lot. At the very least, she would not be utterly defeated in a fight.

Recalling Bai Ze, she looked up at him and said, “Jiyun, I have something to ask you.”

“Ask away.”

Qian Jiyun sat on the grass and placed her on his lap.

“You picked up Bai Ze. Does his body have any... marks or something?” An Jiuyue did not ask where he had picked up Bai Ze and only asked about the marks.

“You’re talking about birthmarks, right?” Qian Jiyun asked.

“Yes.” An Jiuyue nodded.

“Yes.” Qian Jiyun thought for a moment and nodded.

“There’s a strange birthmark here. It’s purple... I can’t tell if it’s a flower or grass birthmark. It’s light purple. Very light. It’s so light that it’s almost indistinguishable.

“It typically can’t be seen at all. It’s only visible after he soaks in hot water. I only saw it when I bathed him when I was young. I haven’t seen it since we grew up.”

“Ha!” An Jiuyue could not help but laugh.

She did not expect a grown man like Qian Jiyun to bathe a child. Moreover, the person he served was her younger brother.

However, it was not the time to mock Qian Jiyun. She raised her hand and pulled down her collar, revealing the purple Demon Heart Flower mark on her left shoulder.

“Does it look like this?”

“This is... How can this be? Jiuyue, how did you have a birthmark like this? It’s exactly the same.”

Qian Jiyun was shocked. This birthmark was identical to the one he had seen on Bai Ze. It had never changed in color or size.

An Jiuyue straightened her collar and continued explaining..

Chapter 1148: Too Cruel!

“This is a Demon Heart Flower. Only Demon Hearts born in the Demon Destruction Valley will have the mark of a Demon Heart Flower on their body, and only one that grows in the Demon Destruction Valley.”

“So Ah Ze is also...

Qian Jiyun could not believe it. How could Bai Ze be born in the Demon Destruction Valley?

“That’s not right, Jiuyue. You’re mistaken. When I met Ah Ze, he was... He was almost the same age as you. Can there be two people born in Demon Destruction Valley at once?”

Was the Demon Destruction Valley more than just a place that only birthed Demon Hearts?

An Jiuyue understood the confusion in his eyes and explained, “The Demon Destruction Valley is indeed a place to breed Demon Hearts. But sometimes, things can go wrong.

“Bai Ze was what went wrong. He and I were born twins, but he didn’t inherit any demonic energy, let alone the Demon’s Heart. Hence, he was destined to be abandoned.”

She spread her hands helplessly at Qian Jiyun and told him what the stone giant had told her about Bai Ze.

“How can this be? This is too cruel!”

Qian Jiyun was furious. Did they not ask for Bai Ze's opinion? They should at least raise him as a human! How could they abandon such a young child to fend for himself?

An Jiuyue touched her forehead. She also felt that it was cruel. However, no matter how angry she was and how unjust she felt for Bai Ze, there was nothing she could do.

"Jiyun, calm down. We can't possibly expect a stone to understand human feelings, right?"

Fortunately, Bai Ze was alive and well and had returned to her side. Otherwise, she was sure she would develop a twisted personality one day.

He could not expect a stone to have human feelings, but he was still really angry about what had happened to Bai Ze.

However, compared to what Bai Ze had undergone, his Jiuyue was not much better. She was even worse. If Bai Ze had been regarded as a genius back then, his circumstances would have been even worse.

Fortunately, Bai Ze had been by his side all these years, so he had been alright.

"Then are you going to reunite with him as siblings? "Uh." An Jiuyue was stunned by his words.

Reunite as siblings?

How should she put this?

She wanted to do that, but what if she did not have the guts? She looked up and stared at Qian Jiyun silently, as if asking him how to reunite with Bai Ze as siblings.

"Jiyun, if it were you, how would you reunite with your younger brother?" she asked.

Qian Jiyun was also rendered speechless. How would he do it? This was a very difficult problem. How would he tell Bai Ze that he was also from the Demon Destruction Valley but that he was the one who was abandoned?

He could not say that. He believed An Jiuyue would find it even harder to say that.

Besides...

“Then don’t do it. Besides, everyone is in the Demon Heart Hall. What difference does it make whether you do it or not?” he suggested.

He suddenly remembered that that brat was especially affectionate with An Jiuyue without knowing that she was his biological sister. If he knew the truth, how could this brother-in-law stand a chance against their sibling relationship?

Bai Ze could remain his younger brother. That would make him keep a distance from An Jiuyue so that he would not be squeezed into a corner. “He’s my younger brother, so he’s your younger brother, right?”

“That’s true.” An Jiuyue nodded in agreement.

There was really no difference whether they acknowledged each other as siblings or not. She would dote on him and give him everything he needed. It did not matter if she was his biological sister or his sister-in-law..

“I’ll tell him when the time is more ripe.”

“How are things now? Are you going back?” Qian Jiyun asked her.

They could forget about Bai Ze's matter for the time being, but they could not remain here forever.

"Well...

An Jiuyue did not know how to answer the question.

"Well... I still have to go to the Blue Sun Space. Why don't you accompany me?" she asked.

There were three places in the Demon Heart Vortex, and one of them was the Blue Sun Space. She had come to the Demon Destruction Valley this time and learned many things from 20 years ago.

Amongst these was Bai Chong's release of the Evil Spirit Universe into the Blue Sun Space for her selfish reasons.

Of course, An Jiuyue was partly responsible for Bai Chong releasing the Evil Spirit Universe because she wanted her Life Stone.

"This is the Ice Waterside Glutton? It's not that powerful."

After the demonic beast died and fell to the ground, Yan Feng walked over and kicked the Ice Waterside Glutton.

He had heard how difficult it was to kill the Ice Waterside Glutton. All the demonic energy cultivators on Wulong Mountain kept a respectful distance from them. However, it did not take much effort for the three of them to kill it.

Was this Ice Waterside Glutton an easy kill because it was too incompetent?

"It's not that the Ice Waterside Glutton is not powerful. We're much better than before we entered Demon Heart Island," Bai Ze said to Yan Feng with his arms crossed.

Regardless of whether there were any changes in their demonic energy, their adaptability had improved significantly. This was related to the many demonic beasts they had killed here.

Combat strength was not only dependent on one's cultivation level. More importantly, one's adaptability on the battlefield was crucial.

That could only be trained through continuous battles.

"As expected, Demon Heart Island is the best place to train."

"How many Demon Heart Hall disciples have trained on Demon Heart Island? There is an absolute advantage here," Long Xuan said.

This was Demon Heart Island! Before his father asked him to come with his master, he had repeatedly reminded him that, apart from protecting his master, the most important thing on this trip was to train on the island..

Chapter 1150: What It Looked Like

"I heard that the Ice Waterside Glutton is a tyrant in the Demon Heart Vortex.

It's very powerful."

"Of course." Bai Ze nodded.

However, at the mention of the Ice Waterside Glutton, he remembered that his sister-in-law had said she wanted the Waterside Glutton Stone.

With that in mind, he called Yan Feng to flip the Ice Waterside Glutton over to take its Waterside Glutton Stone. He could give it to his sister-in-law when she came out of the teleportation portal.

“I wonder if there’s a Waterside Glutton Stone in this Ice Waterside Glutton.” Please visit novel-next.com website to read fastest update

Yan Feng still felt that they only killed the Ice Waterside Glutton so easily because it was too weak.

He wondered if the weaker ones had any Waterside Glutton Stones.

He had only read about the Ice Waterside Glutton in books. He had never seen the Waterside Glutton Stone in its body, so he would only find out after digging it out, right?

Just as they dug out the Waterside Glutton Stone and were about to destroy the Ice Waterside Glutton, An Jiuyue and Qian Jiyun came out of the teleportation portal.

He remembered that An Jiuyue wanted Waterside Glutton Stones. He had one now, but she still needed four more. Besides, he wanted to collect more Waterside Glutton Stones for An Jiuyue.

Qian Jiyun shook his head and patted Bai Ze’s shoulder.

“Jiuyue and I still have to go to the Blue Sun Space. It won’t be too late to look for Ice Waterside Gluttons after we come out.”

Bai Ze and the other two exchanged glances.

An Jiuyue could go wherever she wanted here. They could not say anything.

“Then let’s go with you. We might even encounter Ice Waterside Gluttons on the way,” Yan Feng said.

However, he found it strange. They had only seen one Ice Waterside Glutton on this trip. Were there very few Ice Waterside Gluttons in the Demon Heart Vortex?

If that were the case, they would have to stay here for a long time.

However, it did not matter. Since they were already here, they had to gather all the Waterside Glutton Stones she needed. They could not come here for nothing.

“Let’s go. We’ll talk on the way.”

An Jiuyue also wanted to reach the Blue Sun Space quickly to see what the Evil Spirit Universe Bai Chong had released looked like..
