Chapter 1291: Please Walk Behind Me

“So you’re telling tall tales again, aren’t you?” she asked angrily.

“Uh, well...” Wei Na was rendered speechless by her words.

He wanted to say that he was not telling tall tales; he really did not know what kind of demonic beast it was. However, in a sense, it was not far from telling tall tales.

“Master, why don’t we go closer and take a look? We’ll know what kind of demonic beast it is. Anyway, I know it must be a demonic beast. Besides, look at this place. Does it look like a place someone has lived in for a long time?” he retorted.

An Jiuyue looked around and agreed.

This place did not seem like it had been occupied for a long time. Hence, it should be a guardian beast.

However, Qian Jiyun was speechless at the thought of a demonic beast cultivating Original Soul energy. He had never even heard of it, let alone seen it.

“I only know that the demonic beasts on Wulong Mountain also cultivate demonic energy. I’ve never heard of demonic beasts cultivating Original Soul energy,” Qian Jiyun said when he saw An Jiuyue looking at him.

He had killed many demonic beasts at Huayan Peak and had never seen such a demonic beast.

However, there might be exceptions.

“Let’s go take a look first. It might not be a demonic beast, ” he suggested.

“Mhm.” An Jiuyue thought so too. She had to take a look first.

Worried, she looked at Young Master Nie and the others and reminded them, “Be careful later. If there’s any danger, run immediately. Don’t care about anyone.”

If they encountered danger, they might stop out of hesitation or because they heard their companions calling for help.

A pause like this would often cost lives.

“I know,” Young Master Nie replied cautiously and looked at his guards. “Don’t worry about anyone in danger, including me. Just take care of yourself,” he said.

Since Qian Jiyun and An Jiuyue had said so, it was obvious that even they were cautious of the guardian beast ahead. He could not let anyone do things for him in a situation like this.

“Yes, Young Master, ” the guards replied, but they secretly resolved to protect him.

They had betrayed their original master, the Yueming Emperor, for Young Master Nie. What was the point of living if he was gone? They might as well die with him.

“Young Master, please walk behind me later,” one of the guards said to Young Master Nie.

He could be considered the leader of these guards. Among the guards, his Original Soul energy was the highest. Everyone listened to him. Naturally, he had to stand up and protect his young master in the most critical moment.

“That’s right, Young Master. Please walk behind us. We’ll protect you,” the other guards agreed.

Upon hearing their conversation, An Jiuyue chuckled. "Every pot has a matching lid!"

Previously, Yue Suiyu's guards, including the leader, only cared about themselves when Yue Suiyu was in danger. To survive, they ate the medicinal pill An Jiuyue gave them, even if they did not know what it was.

That was the kind of people raised by the Yueming Emperor.

However, these people, who were also raised by the Yueming Emperor, were different after being sent to Young Master Nie: they were loyal to him.

This must be what people yearned for.

"Jiyun, be careful. If anything happens, don't worry about me," she whispered in Qian Jiyun's ear..

Chapter 1292: What Is That?

She had her space and was not afraid of anything. On the other hand, Qian Jiyun could not enter her space now. He had to take care of himself if there was any danger.

"Understood," Qian Jiyun replied. The two of them approached the source of the pressure.

After walking for some time, they saw a moderately tall stone wall. A golden tree sat at the top, shining with a dazzling light that hurt their eyes.

That was the Divination Jade Tree, and the golden color was only its outer appearance. An Jiuyue knew that beneath the golden radiance lay a golden poisonous fog.

"Everyone, be careful of the golden fog. It's extremely poisonous."

She took out two wet cloths from her space and handed one to Qian Jiyun.

As for Young Master Nie and the others, she believed they would find a way, so she did not need to care about them. She did not want to care about them either.

Qian Jiyun took the wet cloth and covered his mouth and nose. The wet cloth was long enough to wrap around and tie behind his head.

Young Master Nie and the others quickly tore off a piece of cloth from their clothes and wet it with water to cover their mouths and noses.

“Didn’t you say there was a guardian beast? Why don’t I see it?”

Young Master Nie was extremely puzzled. After arriving here, he could no longer feel the powerful pressure. It was as if the suffocating sensation he had before was just a dream.

A guard pointed in a direction and said nervously, “Young Master, over...

there...”

The other guard looked in the direction he was pointing and asked, “What’s wrong? Why are you so nervous... Huh?!”

When he saw what he was pointing at, he was genuinely frightened.

“What is that?”

They noticed a dark shadow standing under the tree. It was not truly dark either; the creature had fair skin and was staring at them fiercely.

Qian Jiyun and An Jiuyue also saw it and took a step back subconsciously.

An Jiuyue could not help but ask Wei Na, "Wei Na, tell me, what is that?"

She could see a humanoid creature about five meters tall with smooth skin. However, this creature had animal-like limbs, including two sharp horns that clearly resembled dragon horns.

There was not a single piece of cloth on that person. It just stood there.

"Master, this is really a demonic beast. I'm not lying to you." Wei Na felt a little aggrieved. Although it looked like a human, it was indeed a demonic beast.

"I never expected that the humans in this plane would go this far! They mated with demonic beasts and gave birth to a beastman!"

"What the hell? You.." An Jiuyue wanted to scold him, but she had to admit that it was really a beastman.

She reminded Qian Jiyun, "Jiyun, be careful. This is a beastman. It can switch between using Original Soul energy and beast energy. Once it has used one type of energy, it can switch to another."

No wonder it used Original Soul energy to warn them! It was a beastman!

"Leave quickly!" She turned around and shouted at Young Master Nie and the others.

Before Young Master Nie and the others could react, the beastman moved. It dropped all four limbs to the ground and roared at them murderously..

Chapter 1293: Don 't Let It Hurt You

"Roar!"

“Ah!” Young Master Nie and the others were sent flying far away by the roars almost instantly.

An Jiuyue was speechless.

There was no need for them to walk off on their own. They were sent flying instead!

She was fine. Although she was not ready, Qian Jiyun protected her in his arms, so she was safe.

“Jiuyue, be careful. I’ll stall it. You go and pick the Soul of the Divination Jade,” Qian Jiyun whispered in her ear.

However, the beastman heard them and bared its teeth at them, as if it were about to attack them immediately.

The Divination Jade Tree belonged to it. No one could snatch it away.

“This guy understands us? It must have been raised by a human for a while,” Qian Jiyun added.

“Mhm.” An Jiuyue nodded.

It should be one of its parents.

They did not know who mated with a demonic beast to create such a peculiar thing. It was terrifying to look at!

“Be careful. Don’t let it hurt you.”

She glanced at Qian Jiyun before shifting her gaze to the beastman because it might attack them at any moment.

Soon, as Qian Jiyun and An Jiuyue split up, the beastman could not restrain itself anymore. It roared and charged at An Jiuyue.

“Roar!”

Beastmen and humans would always view females as weak and attack them first.

However, it had miscalculated this time.

The whip in An Jiuyue’s hand cracked, sending a streak of demonic energy toward the beastman.

The beastman only knew how to use beast energy and Original Soul energy. It had never seen demonic energy before and did not know how to dodge, so it was hit and sent flying.

However, to protect what belonged to it, it would not surrender so easily. Realizing its attacks were ineffective on An Jiuyue, it changed directions and rushed towards Qian Jiyun.

This was exactly what Qian Jiyun wanted. He wanted to stall the beastman so that An Jiuyue could obtain the Soul of the Divination Jade.

He was not in a hurry to chase the beastman away and cautiously parried a few of its blows. Meanwhile, Young Master Nie and the others finally regained their senses after they were sent flying.

“Young Master, this thing is too scary! Is it really a hybrid of humans and beasts?”

The guard was still in shock. His face was pale, and his legs were weak from fear. He could barely stand and looked at his young master with trembling eyes.

Young Master Nie was also frightened out of his wits. If Qian Jiyun and An Jiuyue had not been interested in that thing, they would have suffered worse.

“Young Master Qian’s strength is truly unfathomable,” he sighed.

“It’s not just Young Master Qian, right? It’s the same for Madam Qian. I’ve noticed that Madam Qian isn’t using Original Soul energy,” a guard said.

He was the first to regain his senses. He saw An Jiuyue whip the beastman and send it flying.

The beastman did not dare to attack An Jiuyue after that and attacked Qian Jiyun instead. An Jiuyue’s strength was not to be underestimated.

“We can’t afford to offend either of them,” Young Master Nie said after taking a deep breath..

Chapter 1294: There Must Be a Limit to Fantasies

While they were discussing Qian Jiyun and his companion, Qian Jiyun struggled against the beastman.

This beastman’s cultivation level was clearly higher than his. Moreover, it could switch between Original Soul energy and beast energy freely, making it a tougher opponent.

The beastman was clearly enraged after exchanging attacks for over ten rounds.

It had been unable to take down the person in front of it, and the other person was about to reach the top of the mountain and pluck the Soul of the Divination Jade.

That was its possession! How could it let these humans take it away? It would not agree to it, no matter what. Hence, it had to defeat this person as soon as possible.

“Roar! Roar!”

It roared at Qian Jiyun, trying to scare him away.

However, its threats were useless. It did not scare Qian Jiyun away, but rather wasted time and allowed An Jiuyue to advance a few steps.

“Roar!”

Time was running out. It swung a paw at Qian Jiyun viciously and charged at An Jiuyue as he dodged.

Qian Jiyun would not give it a chance to reach her. He had been on guard since the beginning.

The beastman had only taken a few steps when Qian Jiyun stopped it again. He thrust his long sword at him, and it quickly dodged.

“Roar! Get lost! Mine!”

The beastman could not take it anymore. Not wanting its possession to be stolen, it was forced to speak.

That’s right. Although it was a combination of a beast and a human and always had the appearance of a demonic beast, its father had taught it to speak human language. It was considered half-human.

Upon hearing its voice, Qian Jiyun was stunned.

He did not expect the beastman to be able to speak. However, this did not deter him from preventing it from approaching An Jiuyue. “Want to go there? Die!” it said bluntly. “Roar, roar, roar!”

The beastman was furious and attacked Qian Jiyun fiercely.

Since the item belonged to it, it must always belong to it. No one could snatch it away. Even if they did, it would snatch it back!

An Jiuyue was already very close to the Divination Jade Tree on the mountain peak.

A thick golden aura rushed towards her. If it weren't for the protection of her space, she suspected she would have died from poison immediately. She had no idea how to make a move.

"Wei Na, do you have any way to get close to it?" she asked Wei Na, standing still.

She could already see the Soul of the Divination Jade, but she could not approach it because its aura was too strong. If she got closer, its aura might even enter her space.

This was not what she wanted.

"I don't have any way either. The Divination Jade Tree is legendary. It's really difficult to get close to it. Maybe that beastman can," Wei Na said. An Jiuyue turned around and looked at the beastman fighting Qian Jiyun.

Would it pluck the Soul of the Divination Jade for her?

"There must be a limit to fantasies. Wake up," she said.

The corners of Wei Na's mouth twitched.

"Then what should we do? Should we transfer and plant the entire tree in the space?" he asked.

"Hm?" An Jiuyue's eyes lit up.

Why didn't she think of that? She could plant the Divination Jade Tree in her space! She could just choose a piece of land slightly further away and reclaim it.

Besides, she did not plan to use the Soul of the Divination Jade. She just did not want the people here to covet it anymore..

Chapter 1295: Mutated?

“That’s a good idea. We can pack up the entire tree and carry it away. We won’t have to worry that it’ll bear fruit again. Wei Na, you’ve done well this time.”

Inside the space, Wei Na was speechless.

He did not want the credit at all.

Besides, was his master serious? Was she really going to plant the Divination Jade Tree in her space?

Wasn’t it a little dangerous? After all, this was a harmful thing. “Master, are you sure you want to put this thing into the space?” he asked.

“Uh-huh.” An Jiuyue nodded.

“We can plant it farther away. If it doesn’t work, we can buy a protective shield from the mall and cover it up. That way, no one will be able to get in,” she said.

“That... works too.” Wei Na considered it and agreed.

The protective shield in space would only be used to keep the poison from leaking out of the Divination Jade Tree. Nobody would come and destroy it. “Master, how are you going to bring it in? You can’t enter either,” he asked.

An Jiuyue did not think much of it. It was true that she could not get through the protective shield, but she could still plant a tree in her space.

“There are many Plant-Anchoring Charms in the Points Mall. We can just buy one.”

As she spoke, she took out a Plant-Anchoring Charm and struck the Divination Jade Tree with it.

Wei Na was speechless.

As expected, she was accustomed to using points. How could she buy a Plant-Anchoring Charm that cost 1,000 points so casually?

However, now was not the time to be concerned about points. The Divination Jade Tree was considered valuable. Although it was covered in poison, it could be used for good and produce unexpected results.

With that in mind, he did not feel sorry about the points and let her do whatever she wanted.

Most importantly, even if his heart ached for the lost points, his master would ignore him.

“Master, you haven’t reclaimed a piece of land yet,” he reminded her. The Divination Jade Tree was moved in, but there was no place to plant it. She was doing things out of order.

“No need.” An Jiuyue shook her head.

She only found out after buying the Plant-Anchoring Charm that it could not be used on reclaimed jade land. As long as the Plant-Anchoring Charm was in effect, she could plant the tree anywhere.

After a while, Wei Na heard a rumbling sound from outside the space. The entire mountain sank into a massive pit.

At the same time, a tall and shiny Divination Jade Tree appeared far away in the space. This tree was much larger than when he had seen it outside. "Could it have mutated after entering the space?"

Little did he know that the divination jade tree had absorbed the spiritual energy in the space, causing it to grow exceptionally large.

"Roar, roar, roar! It's mine! Ours!"

The beastman was stunned when he saw the entire Divination Jade Tree vanish. He leapt toward the mountain.

It was not very angry initially. Even if they took the Soul of the Divination Jade, it could still wait for it to grow.

But now, the two of them had destroyed the entire tree. How could it not be angry?

"Die, die! All of you, die!"

Chapter 1296: Long Passed the Point of No Return

"Come back!"

Qian Jiyun would not let it leave so easily. He immediately unleashed a burst of Original Soul energy at the beastman.

"Mmph!"

The beastman was caught off guard and collapsed on the ground, leaving a deep mark on the ground. However, it still struggled to get up and leaped toward An Jiuyue.

Its father had warned that without the Soul of the Divination Jade, it would be doomed. It would never attain a human form in this lifetime. It would forever remain in this half-human, half-beast appearance.

It had its own thoughts and emotions, felt shame, and understood etiquette. It did not want to live this way for the rest of its life.

Therefore, it needed the Soul of the Divination Jade.

Qian Jiyun would not let it attack again when he saw how persistent it was in rushing towards the mountain peak.

“Who are they?” the guard beside Young Master Nie exclaimed. Such a massive tree had disappeared without a trace.

Even they were shocked, let alone the beastman.

“They’re not ordinary people,” Young Master Nie replied.

He could guess that An Jiuyue had relocated the Divination Jade Tree to a specific place where only she could see it in the future.

This might be a good thing. No one would covet the Divination Jade Tree anymore.

“Young Master, can we still return?” the guard asked, looking at his young master worriedly.

“Ha!” Young Master Nie chuckled. “We’ve long passed the point of no return.”

When Yue Suiyu insisted on seeking revenge on Qian Jiyun and An Jiuyue, they had already passed the point of no return.

Even if they did not look for Qian Jiyun and brought the item back to Yueming Empire safely, would they be able to survive? They would probably all die except for Yue Suiyu.

“The Yueming Emperor won’t let us live. We can only find a way out ourselves.”

The guards considered it and agreed. If they really brought this thing back, would the Yueming Emperor let them live? If he spared their families, that would already be fortunate.

If they no longer appeared in Yueming Empire, he would think they had died while searching for the Soul of the Divination Jade.

“You want the Soul of the Divination Jade?”

After being beaten up by Qian Jiyun countless times, the beastman stood up again and walked up to An Jiuyue. When he heard her words, he staggered and looked at the woman in front of him in a daze.

“I want it.”

After a long time, it spoke.

How could it not want the Soul of the Divination Jade? That was the reason it had protected the tree for all those years!

Its father had guarded this Divination Jade Tree for the same reason until he died of old age.

The beastman nodded.

Of course, it knew. If the Soul of the Divination Jade had ripened, it would have plucked it long ago. It would never have been snatched by these outsiders.

An Jiuyue smiled and suggested, "You can stay by my side. The Soul of the Divination Jade will be yours once it has ripened. How about that?"

Upon hearing her words, the beastman was visibly puzzled.

Weren't they here for the Soul of the Divination Jade? Why would they offer it the Soul of the Divination Jade so kindly? It felt like a trap.

"Are you lying to me?"

"No." An Jiuyue shook her head.

She had a whole new level of respect for this beastman. He even knew that others might lie to him..

Chapter 1297: Can It Enter Your Space?

"To be honest, the Soul of the Divination Jade is useless to me and my husband. I took it because it can harm people. If you want it, I can give it to you.

However, you have to stay by my side and serve me in the future," she said.

"Jiuyue, are you taking it in?" Qian Jiyun approached her and protected her in his embrace.

This beastman exuded a very hostile aura. It might turn against them if they were not careful. He was worried about letting this beastman remain by An Jiuyue's side.

“You don’t like me?” Before An Jiuyue could say anything, the beastman spoke to Qian Jiyun.

Qian Jiyun and An Jiuyue were speechless.

No one would like a beastman with such a terrifying appearance, right?

Did it not see how Young Master Nie and the others had been forced to retreat far away and were still trembling? Maybe it should drag one of them here and ask if they liked it?

“Jiyun, listen to me.” An Jiuyue placed a hand on Qian Jiyun’s arm and explained calmly, “Actually, it’s not a complete beastman. It still has a chance to become a normal human. The hostile aura it has is not something it desires.”

“The Soul of the Divination Jade?”

Qian Jiyun had long suspected that this beastman’s transformation into a true human was dependent on the Soul of the Divination Jade.

That would explain why the beastman was so agitated when it saw the Divination Jade Tree disappear. It did not even care about unleashing a lethal blow and ran towards the mountain peak.

“That’s right. If it consumes the Soul of the Divination Jade, it can turn into a real human. It’ll be even more effective if the Soul of the Divination Jade is refined into medicinal pills.”

An Jiuyue nodded and glanced at the beastman.

“The Soul of the Divination Jade is really useless to me. I might as well find a use for it once it has ripened.”

It was also compensation for this beastman. After all, it had guarded the Divination Jade Tree painstakingly for so long, but she had taken it away.

“If you think it’s feasible, then let’s do it.”

Instead of stopping her, Qian Jiyun decided to follow her plans. However, he glanced at the beastman hesitantly and could not help but look at her again.

“It’s neither human nor beast. Can it enter your space?” he asked.

An Jiuyue was quiet. This was a problem. She did not know if this guy could enter her space.

“It can. It can,” Wei Na quickly said when he heard Qian Jiyun’s question.

He had been hoping for this for a long time. Finally, there was a living being—not a demonic beast or poultry—in the space. One that could speak, think, and even occasionally listen to his chattering!

How could he give this up? He had to trick that beastman into accompanying him in the space.

He had no idea when the Soul of Divination Jade would ripen. It might take another three to five decades! He could talk to the beastman to pass the time when he was bored, right?

“Wei Na said it could,” An Jiuyue replied.

Qian Jiyun nodded and looked at the beastman coldly.

“It will be easy for the two of us to handle you. You know that, so you should refrain from entertaining any unnecessary thoughts,” he warned.

“I know,” the beastman replied.

It did not have any ulterior motives. Its only desire was to obtain the Soul of the Divination Jade and use the poison to become a human..

Chapter 1298 Killed by the Yueming Emperor

It was willing to do anything as long as it could become a real human.

Soon, Young Master Nie and the others could no longer see the beastman. It had disappeared like the Divination Jade Tree. He guessed that Qian Jiyun and An Jiuyue had taken it in.

If they could even take in a monster that was neither human nor beast for their own use, there was nothing they could not do.

They no longer found the triceratops they had previously seen odd.

“Young Master, they’re coming down.”

The guards stepped back when they saw Qian Jiyun and An Jiuyue walking towards them.

“Are they going to kill us?”

There was no need to ask why he would assume so. Qian Jiyun and An Jiuyue had achieved their goal. Since they had taken the Divination Jade Tree, Young Master Nie and the guards were naturally useless to them.

If it had been the Yueming Emperor, none of them would have survived.

Hence, there was no guarantee that Qian Jiyun and An Jiuyue would spare them, right?

“What nonsense are you spouting?” Young Master Nie turned around and rebuked the guard.

If they truly intended to kill them, they would not have reminded them to run earlier. It would have made things easier if the beastman had killed them.

Hence, they did not have to worry for their lives. However, it seemed like there might be trouble ahead.

Their future seemed bleak. They could not return to the Yueming Empire and could not blend in with the commoners if they went to the Zhanling Empire either. The Yueming Empire and the Zhanling Empire were currently at war.

This was a headache. He could only take things one step at a time.

Chapter 1299: What’s the Point of Keeping Her?!

“We’re going to the Zhanling Military Camp. Do you want to take a look together?”

“Huh?” Young Master Nie was stunned by his words.

He invited them to go to the Zhanling Military Camp? But they were from Yueming Empire! It would not be appropriate for them to go to the Zhanling Military Camp, right?

“Well...

‘Why? Do you have elsewhere to go?’ Qian Jiyun asked.

“Uh...” Young Master Nie was stunned again.

Qian Jiyun’s words were true, but for some reason, they made him feel embarrassed.

He and his guards had nowhere to go. However, he did not want to lose face. After all, he was a man, so he could not admit that he was incapable, right?

However, his pride seemed to be useless now, right?

“Why are we going to the Zhanling Military Camp?” he asked.

“You’ll know when we get there.” Qian Jiyun ignored them and left with An Jiuyue.

An Jiuyue glanced up at Qian Jiyun as they moved away from the others. “Have you taken a fancy to that kid’s ability and want to find a helper for Zhan Beiye?”

“Zhan Beiye will treat him well.” Qian Jiyun did not deny it. He wanted to find a helper for Zhan Beiye.

Zhan Beiye had been severely bullied in Zhanling Empire. Even his father saw him as a thorn in his flesh and wished he could kill him quickly.

Qian Jiyun even suspected that Zhan Beiye was not the Zhanling Emperor’s biological son like him.

However, that was different. If Zhan Beiye had not been the Zhanling Emperor’s biological son, he would have died earlier and would not have achieved what he had today.

“That’s true.” An Jiuyue nodded.

A good horse deserved a good saddle.

Young Master Nie would not have to endure the treatment he received in the Yueming Empire, where even menial guards dared to give him attitude.

“You’re so thorough about this.”

“Ha!” Qian Jiyun chuckled.

It was not that he was thorough, but these people were not the sort who had done all kinds of bad things. He did not want to kill them all.

Instead of letting them fall into the Yueming Emperor’s hands again, he could do a good deed and give them to Zhan Beiye. Even if it caused Zhan Beiye a headache, he would let him have it.

Meanwhile, Zhan Beiye was not having a headache.

The one with a headache was Ming Fucheng. Watching Yue Suiyu bound on the city wall and unable to speak, the veins on his forehead throbbed incessantly.

“That idiot! We’ve given her so much time, but she can’t escape! What’s the point of keeping her?!”

He sat on his horse, bitterly staring at Yue Suiyu, wishing he could shoot her with an arrow. That way, he would no longer have any scruples.

However, he could not do that.

Many soldiers were watching. If he killed her now, he would no longer have to fight this war.

“Your Highness, what should we do now? Zhan Beiye is obviously using the Princess to threaten you,” a deputy general said to Ming Fucheng.

They utterly hated this princess! Why did she come to the border? Was she here to cause trouble for them on purpose?

Everyone was already in a bad mood because of the repeated defeats in the war, and now there was this additional trouble.

“Zhan Beiye is a spineless coward. If he has the guts, fight me head-on.” Ming Fucheng took a deep breath and gritted his teeth.

Zhan Beiye had personally brought people to burn his food and firearms. Now, he was even threatening him.. How despicable could he be?

Chapter 1300: Fast Runner

“Let’s withdraw the troops first.”

He had no choice. He could not let the soldiers watch Yue Suiyu die under his arrow.

The deputy general was momentarily stunned before coming back to his senses. He turned around and instructed the soldiers behind him. The army withdrew shortly.

“Mmph, mmph!”

On the city wall of Zhanling Empire, Yue Suiyu wanted to shout as she watched her brother leave.

Unfortunately, her mouth was gagged, so she could not say anything. She was even more anxious. She wanted to let Ming Fucheng know that An Jiuyue and Qian Jiyun had tricked her.

Even if she was destined to die, she did not want to let them off.

She might not be able to kill them, but Ming Fucheng could. She knew he would not spare anyone who disrupted his plans.

This included Zhan Beiye. As far as she knew, this war started because Zhan Beiye helped someone and provoked Ming Fucheng.

Suddenly, she seemed to have thought of something, and her eyes widened.

That man's surname was Qian, right?

She remembered Ming Fucheng mentioning that the person who offended him was also surnamed Qian. Could those two people be the ones who had offended him at Huayan Peak?

Although it seemed unbelievable, she felt that it was very likely.

However, how did those two people get from Huayan Peak to their plane? Surely they did not belong on their plane?

"He's a fast runner."

Zhan Beiye, who was standing near Yue Suiyu, sneered when he saw Yue Ming's army retreat.

There would probably be no peace tonight. Ming Fucheng, that lunatic, was capable of anything. Yue Suiyu's life would probably be in danger.

Everyone from Yueming Empire was up to no good.

"You're really lucky to have a biological older brother like him," he said to Yue Suiyu with a smile.

"Mmph!" Yue Suiyu glared at Zhan Beiye fiercely, so angry that she wanted to kill him.

Even if she had to die, she had to die meaningfully. She had to tell Ming Fucheng everything she knew and let him avenge her.

She could choose not to hate Ming Fucheng for trying to kill her, but she had to take revenge on Qian Jiyun and An Jiuyue for plotting against her. None of them should escape, not even young Master Nie and those worthless guards!

“Hm?” Zhan Beiye raised his eyebrows. “Do you know something? Tsk tsk!

What a pity!”

He instructed someone to gag Yue Suiyu and prevent her from shouting and causing chaos among the Yueming Military to avoid unnecessary trouble.

From the looks of it, he was right. Did this woman think of something and want to inform Ming Fucheng?

But that would be up to whether Zhan Beiye would even allow her to do that, right?

He looked at his deputy general and remarked, “It seems like we can’t let you keep your throat and your hands anymore.”

The deputy general immediately called for soldiers to drag Yue Suiyu away like a dead dog.

“Mmph, mmph!” Yue Suiyu stared at Zhan Beiye with regret.

She should not have acted like she knew something in front of Zhan Beiye. She no longer had the chance to inform Ming Fucheng!

She knew that Zhan Beiye would not give her another chance, and Ming Fucheng would definitely send someone to kill her tonight..
