Chapter 551 Empty Shop

“Not for the next few days.”

Shui Liu shook her head and rejected her sister’s suggestion.

Qin Yifeng and Ye Chenglin had already left. If they went to pick herbs, there would be a shortage of medicinal pills.

Even if it was only for a day, they could not leave. She had to consider everyone else.

Of course, the main point was that she did not want Ye Chenglin to return so soon. She knew, however, that Ye Chenglin would not be allowed to stay on the protected grounds for the rest of her life because of Ye Chengzong.

However, if he could make Ye Chenglin suffer more, he should. That would be preferable to her constantly going against their mistress in the camp.

“How about this? We’ll work harder for the next two days and refine more medicinal pills. Then we’ll pick herbs two days after that,” she suggested after some thought.

“Okay.” Shui Xian nodded in agreement.

“Yan Nuo, we won’t disturb you from organizing the herbs. We’ll go back and refine medicine first.”

With that, they got ready to leave. However, when they turned around, they saw their master approaching leisurely, nearly frightening them.

“Master.”

We didn't have designs on these medicinal herbs! Master, please don't misunderstand!

"Mhm." Qian Jiyun nodded at them. "Go and refine medicine."

"Yes, Master." They heaved a sigh of relief in unison and ran away quickly.

"Master, should we send these things to Mistress's tent?" Yan Nuo asked when he saw him.

Their eyes widened when they saw so many medicinal herbs and Flaming Jade, wondering why their master was willing to spend so much money on so many medicinal herbs.

Of course, they answered their questions with the truth: Their master doted on their mistress and was willing to spend money.

Shui Liu and her sister did not say anything else and returned to their tent to refine medicine. They had a lot of medicinal herbs anyway. They would not be able to finish them in such a short time.

After all, they couldn't compete for things with their mistress, could they?

"Once you're done making an inventory of these things, send them to An Jiuyue."

Qian Jiyun nodded and turned to look at Yan Jin, instructing him to buy all the food in the seven-story shop.

"Yan Jin, go to the shopping street. There's a new shop closest to our camp. There's a lot of fresh food inside. Go and buy everything."

"There's food? I'll go immediately." Yan Jin's eyes lit up.

There had to be, because their master said so. The more food and vegetables they had, the better.

Without waiting for Qian Jiyun to say anything else, Yan Jin ran toward the shopping street with inner cores and Original Soul Stones.

15 minutes later, Yan Jin stood in an empty shop with a dumbfounded expression. He blinked and blinked again.

“When did this shop open? We’ve never seen it before!”

“Nobody knows! It didn’t appear yesterday. I heard from the people nearby that it appeared all of a sudden. It’s a pity we can only buy things on the first floor. It’ll be great if we can enter the second floor.”

“That’s right! I wonder what’s up there?”

“Isn’t that obvious? It must be good stuff! And it’s cheap! I’ve never bought such cheap vegetables and fruits at Huayan Peak. These peaches are so sweet!”

When Yan Jin came out of the shop, he saw groups of people crowding around and discussing the shop.

The worst part was that they all had vegetables, fruits, and grains, while he could not buy anything.

Chapter 552 Not a Single Vegetable Leaf Remained!

In Yan Jin’s opinion, everyone holding food radiated an evil aura and was mocking him!

“Why am I so unlucky?”

Master must have asked me to buy food for Mistress! But I couldn’t buy anything! Is this trying to make me utterly aggrieved?

“No, I can’t go back like this. I must think of something else.”

Muttering to himself, he walked towards the people carrying the items, thinking he could buy something from them.

He could offer them a higher price if needed.

However, when they saw him walking towards them, they dispersed quickly!

Yan Jin was speechless.

He had yet to say anything. How did these people know he wanted to buy what they had?

He was unaware that these people also wanted to buy things from others, especially weaker people.

They could tell that Yan Jin was more powerful than them. They would be threatened with selling the food they had painstakingly snatched if they did not flee immediately.

Another 15 minutes passed...

Yan Jin returned with a helpless expression. He was empty-handed and did not buy anything.

An Jiuyue had counted the herbs and was invested in medicine refinement. Qian Jiyun, on the other hand, had been chased out. She had to be focused.

He caught sight of Yan Jin, who had returned, just in time.

“Where are the things I asked you to buy?”

Yan Jin looked down at his hands before looking up at his master. He opened his mouth several times but could not say anything.

Qian Jiyun waited for a long time before Yan Jin finally exclaimed, “Master, you should have reminded me earlier!”

If his master had reminded him to buy vegetables as soon as he returned to the camp, he could have obtained something.

He could not get anything, even though he was only a few minutes late and had even rushed there. He watched others carry food, vegetables, and fruits and listened to them discuss when the shop had opened.

“I arrived to find an empty shop. There was nothing inside. Those starving people bought everything! Not a single vegetable leaf remained!”

He was regretful. If he had run faster, he could have obtained something. He watched helplessly as the last person carrying a quarter kilogram of potatoes brushed past him at the door.

He had thought this person was so poor that he could only buy a quarter kilogram of potatoes. If it were him, he would definitely buy everything.

How could he have known that that person only bought a quarter kilogram of potatoes because that was all that remained?

Qian Jiyun was stunned.

He anticipated that selling the items on the first day of business would take some time. He did not think his arrangements would be in vain.

“It’s fine if you can’t buy them,” he said calmly to Yan Jin.

“How can I let it go?” Yan Jin’s eyes widened as if he could not let this matter rest.

If there were no vegetables and An Jiuyue did not come, it would have been fine if he could not buy them.

However, she was here and should eat the best vegetables. He was disappointing. The shop sold so many things, but he could not buy any!

He could not let it go, right?

Chapter 553 What Should I Do if I’m in a Bad Mood?

“No, Master. I’ll go tomorrow. I refuse to believe I can’t buy anything!” He encouraged himself.

I’ll have Yan Nuo accompany Mistress tomorrow while I go there and wait! I have to buy something! I have to buy something!

“I heard from the other people that the food in that shop is fresh and cheap. It’s not the same price as the vegetables sold in the past.”

Qian Jiyun was quiet.

Looking at his subordinate’s determined expression, he really wanted to say, “The shop won’t be there tomorrow. Where will you buy it?”

Huayan Peak was enormous. Who knew where the shop would open next?

“If you have the time, cultivate. Don’t think about those unnecessary things.”

With that, he left.

Yan Jin, who was behind him, was shocked.

Didn't Master ask me to buy it? Why does he look so happy when I can't buy it?

...

In the microcosmic space...

An Jiuyue was curious if the items listed in the shop could be sold. After all, she would not be revealed outside if she walked around the shop in her space.

However, she saw an empty shop as soon as she entered. There was nothing inside.

"Jiu Jue, where are the things in the shop?"

An Jiuyue had named the paper effigy in the shop Jiu Jue.

"Master, everything is sold out," Jiu Jue replied respectfully.

An Jiuyue was surprised.

Sold out? How long has it been? An hour? I don't think so, right?

All the items were sold out, and not a single leaf remained. She checked and confirmed that not even a single green bean remained. Her shop had evidently sold out.

"The demand for vegetables and fruits here is really high."

She sighed before sinking her consciousness into the Points Mall and examining the points that were distinct from the others she had obtained. She had earned more than 200 points in an hour today.

Today's income was not insignificant. Apart from points, she also earned inner cores and other things.

She could earn 7,000 points per month if she earned around 200 points per day. She could earn more points here than before.

Of course, she would definitely earn even more points if she acquired the food directly from the Points Mall. However, she could earn other things, right?

"I earned a lot of points too."

"Master, your expense is high too." Wei Na approached her and whispered in her ear.

An Jiuyue was surprised.

That's right. I've already reclaimed five plots of land. I'll need 4,700 points to reclaim the sixth.

In other words, the points earned through the shop in the next two months would only be enough to reclaim two plots of land. She would not have enough points in the following month and might need two months to reclaim a plot of land.

Besides, there were ponds and pastures, which required points to be accumulated.

Her expenses were quite high.

"Can you not remind me? What's wrong with letting me be happy first?" She glared at Wei Na angrily.

A large basin of water was dumped on her just as she was feeling happy. What if it shocked her so much that she became ill?!

Upon hearing that, Wei Na drifted away like a gust of wind. There was no benefit in angering her. It should not have said anything. Master knew these things best.

“I’m in a bad mood. What should I do?”

Chapter 554 Didn’t You Hunt It?

An Jiuyue glared at Wei Na’s departing figure. Her head hurt at the thought that her points were insufficient.

“Who cares? We have to take things one step at a time. I can’t reach the top in a single step. I’ll fall down immediately. I still have some wild boars, right?”

Shall I roast one to eat?

She raised her eyebrows and considered retrieving a wild boar from her space for everyone to eat happily.

Zheng’er and Rong’er could not enter the space anymore. They could only stay outside. She did not care what the others ate, but her two precious sons had to eat good food, right?

Therefore, she decided to eat a wild boar!

She decided to put medicine refinement on hold for the time being and retrieve a wild boar first.

In the camp...

Qian Jiyun had something to do. The two children had already come out.

Even though the warrior-servants were protecting them, they could not do anything else. Hence, he began teaching them how to cultivate Original Soul energy.

Cultivating Original Soul energy on Huayan Peak was much easier than it was in Daqing Kingdom. The spiritual energy in this place was abundant.

The two children occupied a corner of the bed and meditated with their eyes closed. Qian Jiyun guarded them to prevent anything from happening.

An Jiuyue called Yan Jin to a remote place.

“I heard you went to buy vegetables and couldn’t buy anything?”

She had just left the tent when she overheard Yan Jin complaining to Yan Nuo that he could not buy anything. He had taken a huge blow and kept muttering that he must wait earlier tomorrow.

Of course, she knew Yan Jin could not do so. After all, even she did not know where the shop would open tomorrow.

“That’s right, Mistress. Have you heard about it too?”

Yan Jin was not surprised to hear An Jiuyue mention this. After all, word had spread in many camps here, and he was the one who spread the news in theirs.

He patted his chest and said, “Don’t worry, Mistress. I’ll wait there tomorrow morning. I’ll definitely buy the vegetables.”

An Jiuyue was surprised.

What's the point of waiting? It's useless, okay?

She looked up and glanced at Yan Jin. Although she knew it would be useless, she could not say it aloud. Otherwise, she would be exposed.

She pointed behind her and instructed Yan Jin, "Since you didn't buy anything, help me gut this. Just say you hunted it."

"What?" Yan Jin looked behind An Jiuyue instinctively.

What a sight! A massive wild boar lay there, obviously dead.

"Mistress, where... where did this come from?" He was shocked.

It was a massive wild boar, even larger than the Flaming Antelope they had eaten earlier. If they gut it, they could have a good meal tonight.

However, he wondered if they had been eating too well these days.

Wealth would lead to complacency. They could not afford to be complacent on Huayan Peak.

"Didn't you hunt it?" An Jiuyue asked.

"I—"

Yan Jin was dumbfounded. It took him a moment to realize that she was the one who brought it here. However, he could not say that she was the one who did it, so he had no choice but to be held accountable for it instead.

However, he looked at her helplessly.

Chapter 555 Could Transform Into a Human

“But... Mistress, there are no wild boars on Huayan Peak!”

That was not entirely right. There were wild boars, but the wild boars here were different from ordinary ones.

Besides their cubs, the wild boars on Huayan Peak weighed more than 500 kilograms. They were also a type of demonic beast. In attacks, their fangs were not to be trifled with.

The two horns on their heads could definitely pierce through a person. They looked completely different from this wild boar.

Would anyone believe him if he told them?

“Now there are. Is that impossible?” An Jiuyue looked at him, raising her eyebrows.

Yan Jin was speechless.

Can I say it's impossible? But I suspect we won't be able to eat wild boar meat if I say that. I'd be a fool to say no to meat, especially on Huayan Peak.

“That's not true. It might have barged in accidentally from another plane. It's not impossible,” he said calmly, becoming serious in a second.

Since humans like them could enter, there was no reason why wild boars could not, right?

Hence, the wild boar came to Huayan Peak by accident and was caught red-handed. The people from Camp Zhan Yun deserved to have a good meal.

“Right?” An Jiuyue looked like she was about to laugh. “Go and gut the wild boar. We’ll have a good meal tonight.”

“Alright, I’ll do it now,” Yan Jin replied, dragging the wild boar away immediately

“Master, we lost many points,” Wei Na’s voice sounded in her mind.

Indeed. A wild boar could be sold for many points in the Points Mall, but all of that would be lost with a meal.

“Cut the crap. It’s because you can’t eat anything.” An Jiuyue shook her head angrily.

“I don’t have anything to eat, to begin with.”

Wei Na did not deny it. It could not eat it, so it could only watch on enviously.

“Alright, alright. Go and slice a piece of the snowfish,” An Jiuyue said, helpless against Wei Na.

“For real?” Wei Na perked up at the mention of slicing the snowfish.

It could transform into a human if it absorbed the nutrients from the snowfish. Although it still could not eat, it would at least look like a human, right?

“If I’m not for real, am I faking it?” An Jiuyue was amused and replied with a question.

“If you think I’m lying, let’s not slice the snow—”

“I don’t care. This is real. It must be real. It must be real. Even if you’re faking it, I’ll think of a way to make it real.”

Before An Jiuyue could finish speaking, Wei Na interrupted her hurriedly.

It was anxious to see how it looked in its human form. It must be a handsome man, right?

“Go on. Be careful. Don’t damage the entire stalk when you cut it. Herbs cannot always be preserved, so don’t damage them,” she cautioned.

“Got it. I’ll be careful. I’ll be 100,000% careful, okay?”

Wei Na was no longer thinking about the wild boar weighing hundreds of kilograms. It was only thinking about when it could transform into a human.

After handing the wild boar to Yan Jin, An Jiuyue went to the two children’s tent to take a look. When she saw Qian Jiyun guarding them, she was relieved.

When Qian Jiyun saw her coming, he glanced at the two children. Having ensured that they were fine, he stood up and walked out of the tent.

Chapter 556 Bitten by a Scaled Viper

“Why did you come out? You’re not refining medicine?” he asked.

“I just went to the shop. I didn’t expect it to be sold out so quickly,” An Jiuyue replied honestly.

She had not even been to the Suspended Pavilion, so she had not started refining medicine.

“I heard you sent Yan Jin to the shop to buy something.”

“I wanted to buy some goods.” Qian Jiyun did not deny it.

He could not take her vegetables directly, but he could buy some. This reason was good enough, right?

“But you didn’t manage to buy it. My business is really good,” An Jiuyue said.

Even she was surprised that the shop, which had only recently opened and had not even been advertised, was doing so well.

“I heard from Yan Jin that the vegetables in your shop are cheaper,” Qian Jiyun said, looking at her.

His words were a little implicit. Things that everyone would fight over must be very cheap. They were definitely much cheaper than other items on the shopping street.

“I know what you want to ask.” An Jiuyue pursed her lips and shrugged helplessly.

“But that’s not something I can decide. The price... is entirely up to the shop.”

However, if she had control over the prices, she might not be able to manage them well. After all, Huayan Peak was definitely a place of inflation.

She did not even understand the basics, let alone the prices.

“But I’m not losing out. I can still earn points. This shop will only grow bigger and bigger. I won’t earn less than others. After all, the profit is small, but the turnover is high.”

Qian Jiyun was quiet.

Small profit but high turnover? There was no such thing on Huayan Peak.

It would only be possible if the land here changed and the odor disappeared. Of course, that was impossible. This was a challenging place to survive.

“Jiuyue, you—”

“What’s wrong? What’s going on? How did this happen?”

They were about to continue their conversation when they heard screams and questions from afar.

Soon, a group of people who were working in the camp gathered around. What were they looking at?

“What happened?”

They turned in unison, but so many people were clustered together that An Jiuyue could not see what was happening.

“Let’s go see.” Qian Jiyun’s expression darkened as he walked over.

When they got closer, they realized someone had been poisoned by a demonic beast while killing it. His skin had turned purple, he had gained a lot of weight, and his clothes were bursting at the seams.

“Who’s this?”

Although Qian Jiyun was their lord, he could not tell which subordinate this was.

“Master, it’s Wei’an. He was bitten by a Scaled Viper,” a man in the same group as Zhao Wei’an answered.

He was overcome with emotion as he watched his companion get bitten by a Scaled Viper, an extremely venomous snake. Only antidote pills refined by an intermediate, high-grade medicine refiner could neutralize the toxin.

As he spoke, Shui Liu took out an antidote pill and stuffed it into Zhao Wei’an’s mouth with the help of a guardian next to them.

“This is an intermediate, medium-grade antidote pill. It can only delay the eruption of the toxin in his body. It can’t completely detoxify it. I have to find an intermediate, high-grade antidote pill.”

She looked up at everyone after feeding the medicinal pill to Zhao Wei’an.

Chapter 557 She Would Refuse to Hand It Over!

There were many medicine refiners at Huayan Peak, but few wanted to refine intermediate-level, high-grade pills, let alone advanced or special ones.

If there was a medicine refiner like that in any camp, they would be treated like a Buddha.

“I think Ye Chenglin has one. It was given to us after we saved someone from the west. Ye Chenglin kept it,” Shui Xian said.

The four medicine refiners were picking herbs when they came across a demonic beast chasing a person. The four of them worked together to save him.

He gave them an intermediate, high-grade antidote pill and other medicinal pills to thank them.

However, Ye Chenglin used Ye Chengzong’s power to take everything. She even said she wanted to study them and see if she could advance to the intermediate, medium-grade level.

Her research yielded no results, even after a year. They also used most of the medicinal pills given to them.

However, she remembered that the antidote pill was unused.

“Yan Jin, bring Ye Chenglin back immediately,” An Jiuyue instructed Yan Nuo decisively.

Yan Jin glanced at Qian Jiyun. When he saw that he did not say anything, he tacitly agreed. He turned around and hurried to the Spirit Severing Cliff.

I didn't expect to have to get that woman back in just a day. And it's all because she has an intermediate, high-grade antidote pill?

Zhao Wei'an got injured at the wrong time!

"Send him to his tent," Qian Jiyun instructed.

"Yes, Master," a few replied and began to carry Zhao Wei'an into the tent.

As An Jiuyue watched the group send Zhao Wei'an to the tent, she was deeply moved and said to Qian Jiyun, "Jiyun, stay here. I'm going to study medicine refinement."

"Go ahead. I'm here." Qian Jiyun nodded at her.

"Mhm." An Jiuyue nodded and turned to leave.

After she returned to the tent, Qian Jiyun gave instructions to Yan Nuo, who had just arrived.

"Yan Nuo, go to Uncle Wang's place and see if there are any intermediate, high-grade antidote pills."

He did not want Ye Chenglin to return and cause trouble in the camp again.

"Yes, Master," Yan Nuo replied and left.

Honestly, 80% of the people in the camp did not want Ye Chenglin to return, right?

However, it was clearly not up to them to decide now. If they really could not find the antidote pill, they had to ask Ye Chenglin for the one she had.

But they were concerned that...

She would refuse to hand it over!

“Master, even if you want to refine medicinal pills, you can’t suddenly refine intermediate-level antidote pills. Why don’t you rest?”

As soon as An Jiuyue returned to the tent and entered her space, she heard Wei Na’s discouraging remarks.

She turned around and glared at Wei Na.

“Can you say something nice? Do you believe I’ll extinguish that with a basin of water?”

She looked coldly at the piece of snowfish under Wei Na. It emitted a fragrance as Wei Na absorbed it.

“Uh!” Wei Na was stunned.

Fine, I’ll stop talking. Why does she have to threaten me?

Besides, didn’t I say the truth? Master hasn’t refined Huayan Peak’s medicinal pills yet, but she’s thinking about refining intermediate-level medicinal pills. How is this even possible?

“Alright, Master. I was wrong. I was wrong. You will succeed.”

Chapter 558 Winning the People’s Hearts

An Jiuyue rolled her eyes at Wei Na.

What do you mean I will succeed? No matter how hurried I am, I have to take it one step at a time. I'm not even a junior medicine refiner yet, but I'm thinking about refining intermediate-level medicinal pills? Does Wei Na think I'm stupid?

"Did I say I wanted to refine intermediate-level medicinal pills?" she asked.

She just thought it would not be easy to obtain that intermediate, high-grade medicinal pill from Ye Chenglin.

"My Points Mall is not a decoration. There are many medicinal pills inside. I can just spend some points to get one. What are you thinking?!"

"I see." Wei Na understood.

She made the people think she had gone to refine medicinal pills and would present an intermediate, high-grade antidote pill to save Zhao Wei'an, right?

"Master, your method of winning the people's hearts is not bad."

Wei Na also felt that Ye Chenglin would not hand over the pill so easily.

Even if they made an effort to get it from her, she might not give it to them because that woman did not know when to quit. She still believed she was amazing and that the camp could not function without her.

"Scram!" An Jiuyue scolded Wei Na.

Win the people's hearts? Did she need to do that?

Even if she really took out an antidote pill, she would only hand it to Qian Jiyun secretly for him to deal with.

She was not that stupid. If she pretended she could get to that level when she clearly could not, she would be the one suffering the backlash in the end.

She would not daydream like that.

An Jiuyue had only been to the Suspended Pavilion a few times because she could not access many books.

However, An Jiuyue saw that all the books on one of the bookcases were now accessible. They did not appear to be gray.

“Medicine spirit?”

She looked up and saw the words “Medicine Spirit” written on the top of the cabinet with spiritual energy.

It seemed like the books in this bookcase were medicine refinement books.

“Since it’s unlocked, I better hurry and read the books.” As she spoke, she walked over, squatted down, and reached out to pull out the book at the front.

A strong suction force, however, drew her in just as she reached out.

A vortex formed, and her vision went black. She was in another place when it lit up again—a room about the size of the Suspended Pavilion.

There were many bookshelves inside, and all the books on them could be read.

In the center of the room was a circular table with a pill-refining furnace. A person could stand on the table and move around.

“Isn’t this my pill-refining furnace?”

An Jiuyue recognized the pill-refining furnace on the table. It was the one she had obtained from the Points Mall.

It’s here? But I saw the pill-refining furnace stored aside when I was talking to Wei Na. Why is it here?

“Did this space dispatch itself?”

She looked at the medicinal herbs on the table and found them familiar.

An Jiuyue was speechless.

Aren’t these the herbs Qian Jiyun sent me earlier? They’re here, and everything has been sorted out.

Chapter 559 Could Not Help but Feel Happy

Did that mean she could pick up the medicinal herbs she needed to refine medicine here without having to do anything else?

“Master, do you want to refine an antidote pill?”

“Huh?!”

Suddenly, an unfamiliar voice sounded behind her, scaring her so much that she nearly jumped.

She turned around and saw a serious-looking young lady standing respectfully. She looked at An Jiuyue with her big eyes, waiting for her reply.

“Phew!” An Jiuyue exhaled heavily.

She would have been frightened to death if she had not gotten familiar with the paper effigies earlier.

“Yes, I want to refine an antidote pill.” She nodded.

The young lady walked towards the circular table and removed all the unnecessary medicinal herbs, leaving only those required for the antidote pill.

An Jiuyue watched as the young lady brought a can of clear water and placed it beside the pill-refining furnace. She then brought a book and set it aside.

After seeing how the young lady had prepared everything so well for her, An Jiuyue wiped her face and walked over to pick up the book. She read it carefully.

It was an introductory book for beginner medicine refiners. There was no prescription for the antidote pill.

Of course, she had seen the prescription for the antidote pill in the Building of Years earlier. She still remembered it, so there was no need to take it out to read.

An Jiuyue lit the Flaming Jade, and the young lady retreated to the side to keep watch.

Medicine refinement was not that simple. An Jiuyue had done so in Daqing Kingdom in the past. Ordinary medicine pills differed from those with spiritual energy.

Refining medicine at Huayan Peak required Original Soul energy.

An Jiuyue had just started cultivating her Original Soul energy and would have to expend most of it in one refinement.

She tidied up the medicinal herbs beside her and began to invest all her energy into the pill-refining furnace. She carefully placed the medicinal herbs in it.

The fire in the furnace grew slowly, endless flames flickering in An Jiuyue's eyes.

...

"You want the antidote pill?"

On the Spirit Severing Cliff, Yan Jin called Ye Chenglin over and asked her for the antidote pill.

Ye Chenglin's heart skipped a beat. She looked at Yan Jin suspiciously.

"The medicinal pills I used to refine are all in the camp. There are also antidotes. Didn't you see them?" she asked.

Indeed, according to camp rules, the medicinal pills they refined every day had to be stored in a specific place.

They only did their best to refine medicinal pills. These pills did not belong to her but to the camp. The same was true for the other medicine refiners.

She had to report what medicinal pills she needed before she could refine or obtain them.

So why did Yan Jin come here to look for her to ask her for an antidote pill?

“Shui Liu said you have an intermediate, high-grade antidote pill?” Yan Jin did not have time to waste on her and asked directly.

“I—”

Ye Chenglin opened her mouth and was about to reply that she did.

But then she remembered her current situation and could not help but feel happy.

Master sent Yan Jin to ask me for an intermediate, high-grade antidote pill. This means that someone in the camp has been poisoned, and the medicinal pills we refined previously are ineffective, right?

I was cursing An Jiuyue just now and didn’t anticipate such a good opportunity!

She looked at Yan Jin carefully. “Is someone poisoned?”

If that’s the case, the heavens are on my side! Master will definitely agree to my conditions in exchange for the antidote pill, right?

Chapter 560 Are You Happy That Someone Has Been Poisoned?

She would not ask her master to send An Jiuyue away. She only wanted to return to the camp first.

She fully understood how cruel the protected grounds were. They were actually battling the Grim Reaper here. If they were not careful, they might die.

She could only deal with An Jiuyue if she returned to the camp.

I won’t be stupid and deal with An Jiuyue openly this time. I’m a medicine refiner. I can kill someone secretly, can’t I?

Master will no longer care about An Jiuyue after she's dead. If I stay by his side and console him, he'll definitely fall for me.

"I have the antidote pill, but it's not with me now."

She could not help but smile secretly. She was so happy that her wounds did not hurt much anymore.

Yan Jin saw her gloating and questioned her coldly, "Ye Chenglin, are you happy that someone has been poisoned?"

Ye Chenglin guessed that someone had been poisoned. But why did she not ask who was poisoned? How was that person poisoned? Which poison did he get? How was his condition?

Instead, Ye Chenglin was happy?

Was she overjoyed because she believed she had the right to negotiate with their master now?

He knew very well what this woman was thinking.

Mistress is right. There's no such thing as repaying kindness! This only fuels Ye Chenglin's arrogance. We can't let this continue in the future.

"I... I'm not." Ye Chenglin refused to admit it and shook her head.

So what if I'm happy? I can return to the camp and deal with An Jiuyue secretly. How can I not be happy?

"I was just wondering where I put the antidote pill. I really can't remember."

She raised her hand and knocked her head, pretending she could not remember anything. However, her slightly curled lips betrayed her.

She was happy. How could she not be?

She finally had a chance to return to the camp. She would no longer have to kill demonic beasts at the Spirit Severing Cliff and be looked down upon by the other guardians.

Anyone who wanted to continue suffering could do so; she was done with it.

“Is that so?” Yan Jin looked at her coldly, furious.

“What if I say it was your brother who was poisoned?” he asked.

He wanted to see how cold-hearted this woman could be. She should be anxious now that he said her brother was poisoned, right?

“What?!” Ye Chenglin was stunned.

How can it be my brother? My brother is a captain. I’m counting on him to back me up so I can marry Master smoothly in the future!

How can something happen to him? Absolutely not!

However, her expression quickly relaxed. She remembered that her master would definitely not let anything happen to her brother.

My brother is Master’s right-hand man. How can Master let anything happen to him? If I refuse to hand over the antidote pill, Master will send me back to the camp for my brother’s sake.

“Where did I put my antidote pill? Where did I put it? Let me think, let me think carefully... Oh, Yan Jin, I really can’t remember. Why don’t we go back and think about it along the way?”

She suddenly looked up at Yan Jin and suggested.

“Haha.” Yan Jin laughed. He really laughed.

Why would a woman who could disregard her own brother stay on their team?
