Chapter 601 Don't You Think He Deserves a Beating?

“So do you understand now?”

Shang Ningluo shot him a look, leaving him to process this.

“Understand what?”

Shang Ningshen was confused. What was he supposed to understand?

Was he supposed to understand why Shang Ningluo did not attack Sister Yue? He did not understand why!

“You—” Shang Ningluo almost vomited blood and glared at him again.

“I'm so angry with you. I'm telling you that you can't become stronger by dragging down stronger people. You have to work hard, Third Brother!”

“But Big Brother works very hard!” Shang Ningshen said after some thought.

“Is Qian Jiyun as hardworking as our brother? Obviously not.”

Who would believe that his brother was not working hard? In any case, he believed his brother had been working extremely hard!

Shang Ningluo took a deep breath and exhaled heavily.

She wanted to say that not everything could be accomplished through hard work. How could two people with disparate talents be compared?

Her brother was the one with inferior talent. But she would not say that aloud and only kept it to herself.

“Ningahen, you’re still young. There are some things you don’t understand. You just have to know that true strength isn’t only about one’s cultivation level. One must also be broad-minded.

“Killing people stronger than you doesn’t mean you’re really strong.”

“If that’s the case, this world will be in chaos. What’s the point of cultivating? We can just scheme and kill people stronger than us, right?

“It’s clearly wrong of Big Brother to do this. He is walking into a dead end. He won’t be able to walk out of it without help.

“You should cultivate more when you’re free. Cultivate with Big Brother. If you have nothing to do... praise him more.”

Shang Ningshen was shocked.

Did she ask him to praise their brother? He did not want to die young.

If he praised their brother, wouldn’t he force him to cultivate harder?

He was a human! It was impossible for him to not eat every day and only focus on cultivation. He could not do that. He really could not.

“Second Sister, you should do it. I can’t do it.” He quickly shook his head and pushed it to her.

She was already very good at this. She could sing their brother’s praises to the heavens and the earth.

Most importantly, their brother would not ask her to cultivate with him. He would only happily give her more precious medicinal herbs to practice refining medicinal pills.

There was a huge disparity in how he treated them.

He did not have to think about it to know he was not suitable for this.

“I’d better go out for a walk. I don’t want Big Brother to catch me and force me to cultivate.”

“You lazy thing! You want to run away when you hear you have to cultivate? Is there anyone else like you?”

Shang Ningluo was furious. She stood up and slapped Shang Ningshen on the back of the head.

“Luoluo, why did you hit Ningshen?”

Shang Ningyi happened to lift the curtain and enter just as Shang Ningshen shrieked from the beating.

“Uh...” Caught red-handed, Shang Ningluo was speechless.

However, she quickly found something to say and grabbed Shang Ningshen’s face.

“Big Brother, say something to Ningshen. He objected when I told him to go cultivate just now. He said he wanted to go out for a walk. Don’t you think he deserves a beating?”

“I—” Shang Ningshen looked up at his sister in confusion.

Did she tell me to cultivate just now? Wasn’t it me who mentioned cultivation?

Chapter 602 I’ll Just Admit It

“Second Sister...”

“He deserves a beating.” Shang Ningyi nodded and looked at Shang Ningshen solemnly.

“Ningshen, go cultivate. Don’t go out for the next few days. It’s a little chaotic outside.”

He did not know why the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python had come here. But now that it had come once, it would come again. Allowing his younger brother to go out was not a good idea because his cultivation level was too low.

“I—” Shang Ningshen opened his mouth but did not know what to say.

Why am I always the one being criticized? Is it Second Sister who angered Lord Tang and chased him away, or is it me?

“Second Sister, you clearly didn’t say that just now!” He stomped his feet angrily.

“Then what did I say just now?” Shang Ningluo asked.

“You said... said...”

Say what? If I tell Big Brother what Second Sister said just now, we won’t be able to escape punishment!

He knew he would be punished even more because his brother doted on his sister. Meanwhile, he treated him as if he had been adopted.

In the end, he could only shrink back and say listlessly, “It’s nothing. I said something wrong.”

“Okay.”

What else could Shang Ningshen do? He could not defeat the two people in front of him, so he could only follow their instructions obediently. But so what if he had to cultivate? It would most likely be useless anyway.

He returned to the tent to daydream. This was something he often did.

“You!”

“Can you not cause trouble for me?”

“Big Brother, I really didn’t cause any trouble or say anything wrong! If you insist that I made a mistake, I’ll just admit it.” Shang Ningluo spread her hands as if to say he was free to do whatever he wanted.

Shang Ningyi was shocked.

Was he not allowed to scold her a little?

“Tang Zhengxiao is narrow-minded. You provoked him today. Who knows how he’ll take revenge on you.” He sighed again helplessly.

He knew what Tang Zhengxiao would do. He would definitely think of a way to get back at Ningluo for what he had suffered today.

Shang Ninyi could not stay in the camp every day either. There would be times when he could not oversee everything.

Shang Ningluo pursed her lips and said disdainfully, "What can he do? Will he send someone to the camp to kill me? We'll have to see if he's capable of that!"

So what if this was something Tang Zhengxiao would do?

She was a medicine refiner. Who said medicine refiners like her could only refine medicinal pills to treat injuries and detoxify poison? If Tang Zhengxiao provoked her, she would reward him with a poisonous pill and make him kneel and beg for mercy!

"Brother, why are you afraid of him? He's the most useless person on Huayan Peak, right?"

"No matter how useless he is, he's still stronger than you!" Shang Ningyi snapped sternly.

Tang Zhengxiao was a lord, after all. He was not an ordinary guardian. Although his Original Soul energy was not high, he had many subordinates.

Women were at a disadvantage in terms of Original Soul energy cultivation. No matter how much Shang Ningluo cultivated, she could not compare to Tang Zhengxiao.

"What should I say about you? Don't you know that Tang Zhengxiao has had his eyes on you?"

"Hmph!" Shang Ningluo snorted. "Is he worthy?!"

Is someone like Tang Zhengxiao worthy of me? Dream on!

"Then what do you want? Is Qian Jiyun the only one worthy of you?" Shang Ningyi glared at her and asked.

Chapter 603 Subdue Men With One's Own Abilities

"You haven't gone out recently, so you haven't heard that Qian Jiyun has found his wife."

He reminded his sister to stop thinking about Qian Jiyun. He had heard that Qian Jiyun doted on his long-lost wife.

Although this bothered Shang Ningluo, she appeared indifferent.

“So what? Would I care about her? She’s just a dispensable woman.”

“You really don’t care?” Shang Ningyi stared at his sister without blinking.

It would be strange if she did not care. His sister regarded Qian Jiyun as a god, right?

He had to admit, even though he did not want to, that Qian Jiyun’s Original Soul energy cultivation level was higher than his. Moreover, Qian Jiyun had been at Huayan Peak for a shorter time.

“That woman made Qian Jiyun chase Ye Chenglin to the Spirit Severing Cliff on her first day here. Ye Chenglin is a medicine refiner!”

“So what?” Shang Ningluo asked again.

That woman, Ye Chenglin, had always been reckless. It was only a matter of time before she would be chased away to guard the cliff.

“Brother, you’re overthinking it. Would I care about an inconspicuous woman? Just watch.”

“Are you really not going to take a look?” Shang Ningyi asked again when he saw her nonchalant expression.

“After the chaos caused by the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python, there are probably not many medicinal pills left in Camp Zhan Yun. Now that Ye Chenglin has been sent to guard the cliff, the medicinal pills are even more scarce. Aren’t you worried?”

“Why would I be worried? What’s there to be worried about?” Shang Ningluo rolled her eyes and retorted.

In short, she would not go to Camp Zhan Yun to gather information on him. She was not stupid enough to be used by her brother.

“Brother, if there’s nothing else, you should go back. I’m a medicine refiner, and I’ve been refining far too few medicinal pills recently. It’s time to work harder.”

With that, she pushed Shang Ningyi away with both hands, refusing to let him stay in her tent.

“Alright, I’ll leave. Take your time refining the medicine.” Shang Ningyi had no choice but to leave.

This girl will run to Qian Jiyun no matter how hard I try to stop her. But she’s refusing to go to Qian Jiyun today!

Is she deliberately going against me, or does she really want to work hard and refine more medicinal pills?

“You’re probably not refining these medicinal pills for us anyway. I won’t disturb you anymore.”

“Brother, you’re wrong about that this time. I’m really refining my medicinal pills for us. Stop nagging. I’m busy.” With that, Shang Ningluo pushed her brother out of the tent.

Her worst headache was that her brother, who hated her visiting Qian Jiyun, kept bringing him up.

If she did not have this little bit of intelligence, she would have long since dug her own grave at Huayan Peak. She would not have the chance to chat and refine medicine here.

It was pointless to discuss whether Qian Jiyun’s wife was capable. Wrapping Qian Jiyun around her little finger was an ability in and of itself.

One had to subdue men with one's own abilities.

She lacked the ability to subdue Qian Jiyun—that was entirely her fault. What did it have to do with that woman?

Did her brother want her to attack that woman? That would be the biggest mistake.

If the two camps were in disarray, who would go to the protected grounds to kill demonic beasts? The demonic beasts would come and kill them!

Chapter 604 Both Sides Will Suffer

“Qian Jiyun!”

Outside the tent, Shang Ningyi turned to look at the tightly shut curtain. When he turned around again, his expression had already darkened.

He had always known that Qian Jiyun was stronger than him.

Some things could not be forced. Talent and ability were inherent. Shang Ningyi could not be stronger than him, and there was nothing he could do about that.

However, since his sister had taken a fancy to Qian Jiyun, that man must not have any other woman.

He was serious about this!

Since Qian Jiyun dared to bring a woman to Huayan Peak so openly, he had to be prepared for his revenge.

He had seen how Ningluo had been wooing Qian Jiyun all these years. Even a man made of iron should be moved, right?

However, Qian Jiyun ignored Ningluo. How could he not be angry? She was his biological sister. How could Qian Jiyun look down on her?

Hence, he had to teach Qian Jiyun a lesson this time.

Expanding the camp was not simple. He had to agree to some of their conditions.

Even though their discussion did not go well, they could still deal with Qian Jiyun. What kind of person was Tang Zhengxiao? Would he allow Qian Jiyun to take advantage of him?

He had a hand in defeating the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python last time.

With Qian Jiyun wanting to expand his camp, how could Tang Zhengxiao resist asking for his share?

Qian Jiyun was too optimistic. Tang Zhengxiao was standing by, ready to make a request. And if Qian Jiyun made an exception for him, he would have to do the same for everyone else.

Qian Jiyun might have to spend a lot this time.

“Discussing how to deal with me?”

Two people stood under a tree. One of them was the gray-robed lord from Ning Se Camp.

Qian Jiyun chuckled and asked, “Who wants to deal with me? Shang Ningyi? Is he capable of that?”

The gray-robed lord looked at Qian Jiyun seriously and said, “Qian Jiyun, you must admit that Shang Ningyi is capable of dealing with you.”

“And then?” Qian Jiyun continued to look at him.

“Then, of course, both sides will suffer,” the gray-robed lord shrugged and admitted.

Between the two, Shang Ningyi would definitely be the one to suffer the most.

However, they would still be the ones to suffer losses. Moreover, it was undeniable that the protected grounds would be unstable if something happened between the camps.

“That settles it, doesn’t it?” Qian Jiyun sneered and patted his shoulder. “Beiye, unless Shang Ningyi is crazy, he won’t provoke me.”

“Then let’s hope Shang Ningyi won’t become a lunatic,” Zhan Beiye said calmly, smiling.

“But you can’t deny that Shang Ningyi is too ambitious. If he stays this way all the time, it’s okay, but if it gets a little higher, something will happen.”

He had to remind Qian Jiyun and himself.

Something could happen if Shang Ningyi continued doing this. Besides, he was not the only one in trouble. There were other camps, too.

He spread his hands and said helplessly, “Lack of virtue is a thorny problem.”

“His ambition is related to the environment he lives in.”

Qian Jiyun only said this about Shang Ningyi.

Chapter 605 When Are We Gathering?

If Shang Ningyi had a good father who could make him feel safe, he would not be constantly thinking about obtaining a higher status and everything else he desired.

Unfortunately, he could not obtain everything he wanted at Huayan Peak.

“You can’t say he’s lacking virtue. He just wants too many things.”

Zhan Beiye looked at Qian Jiyun and said, “It’s the same thing.”

He was insistent on getting something even though it belonged to someone else. Was it that simple?

He was after someone else’s things, so others might also be after his. Could he give them up?

Obviously not.

“What are you going to do? Tang Zhengxiao looked scheming. He left in a rage, but he won’t forget this. You must start planning in advance,” he reminded him.

Even he could not stand against Tang Zhengxiao’s despicable actions. He had too many sinister moves. It was excessive.

Shang Ningyi had instigated a person like him. Who knew what he would do?

“It doesn’t matter if we fight or not. We’ll deal with whatever comes our way,” Qian Jiyun said with a shrug.

“The only person who would say something like that is you. If it were someone else, they probably wouldn’t be able to sleep at night and would only think about how to guard against Tang Zhengxiao. His righteous name is in vain<sup>1</sup>,” Zhan Beiye said, laughing.

“By the way, I heard you found Sister-in-Law. When are we gathering?”

He suddenly mentioned An Jiuyue.

“In a few days. She’s been busy,” Qian Jiyun declined.

His wife was so busy refining medicine that she even refused to see him. She only cared about the two children’s daily meals.

“Alright.” Zhan Beiye did not pressure him.

“Have you really thought it through? Must you expand it? This isn’t your idea, right?”

He returned to the subject of the camp’s expansion. Many Original Soul Stones and inner cores were used to fund this expansion. Everyone’s cultivation level was built on these things.

How much loss did Qian Jiyun suffer? He would probably lose everything he had worked so hard to earn over the past few years, right?

“Expansion is always necessary,” Qian Jiyun said very seriously.

“If you have spare money, you should expand it too. Do it while you can still catch your breath now.”

“Tsk!” Zhan Beiye rolled his eyes and slapped his chest.

“If I had spare money, I’d work hard to increase my cultivation level. Expand the camp? Our old emperor wants to send more people here. That depends on whether I’m willing to let that happen.”

He wanted to expand his camp too, but he had a headache every time he thought about how the people the old emperor had given him were all arrogant and useless.

The expansion of the camp had repeatedly been postponed. It had never been realized since he took over running the camp from his third uncle.

The camp expansion was only an idea. Implementing it was too difficult.

“I can’t stay any longer. In any case, be careful.”

Zhan Beiye decided to return to his camp when he realized it was getting late. It was not good to let others know he was on good terms with Qian Jiyun.

He would hide it for as long as possible. Otherwise, Shang Ningyi would go even crazier.

“Be careful,” Qian Jiyun reminded him.

“I know!” Zhan Beiye waved at him as he walked forward.

Chapter 606 Shopping Makes People Happy

Everyone had their hardships and paths to take. For example, he had a venomous snake lying beside him in the ambush. Moreover, it was a blood relative of his who wanted to eat him.

Hence, he had to be careful with every step he took. One wrong step, and he would die without a burial place.

In the microcosmic space...

An Jiuyue looked at the pill-refining furnace in front of her and then at the herbs beside her.

The paper effigy girl, Jiu Bing, informed her with a serious expression, "Master, the medicinal pill you need to refine still lacks two medicinal herbs."

An Jiuyue was speechless.

That was not necessary to say. She was already aware of it. She was lacking two medicinal herbs, and they were the two most crucial ones.

Hence, she had to wander the forest and gather some medicinal herbs to make pills.

"I won't go today. I'll go tomorrow."

She thought about it and realized that more than half the day had passed. She would not be able to pick many medicinal herbs if she went out because it would take a long time to get there and back.

Hence, she would go tomorrow. Today... she would spend some points.

Of course, Qian Jiyun had bought her so many medicinal herbs so she could refine other medicinal pills. However, she had been refining medicinal pills for several days. She had to rest occasionally, right?

"They say shopping makes people happy. I shall be happy today."

With that, she returned to the Suspended Pavilion. When she later emerged from it and stood in her space, Wei Na happened to walk by and saw two tokens in her hands.

He was stunned and asked in a daze, "Master, what are you holding?"

After receiving nourishment for a few days, Wei Na had grown accustomed to walking. He was not the same Wei Na who would easily stumble anymore.

However, just because he could walk did not mean he could not see what his master was holding.

“The tokens! Can’t you see it?”

An Jiuyue looked down at the tokens in her hand, then up at Wei Na.

Wei Na was speechless.

He knew they were tokens, but why was his master suddenly holding them in her hands?

He had been keeping an eye on the points in the Points Mall and had not noticed any changes. Now that he checked again, he discovered they had lost more than 10,000 points!

Needless to say, the tokens were meant to reclaim two pieces of land.

“Why did you buy land-reclaiming tokens without saying anything?”

He was caught off guard! He wondered why she did not discuss this with him. If he had not seen it, he would have thought there was a problem with the Points Mall because they suddenly lost over 10,000 points!

An Jiuyue pursed her lips and said, “It’s fine. We have to buy them anyway.”

She had always wanted to buy a pasture. She had been debating whether to buy it for a long time. She did not want to hesitate anymore. She had earned points that she could put to use.

“Now that the shop is open, I have to grow more grain and vegetables, right?”

“That’s true.” Wei Na nodded.

It only made sense to have more grain. That way, the shop could sell more goods.

It would also save them from having their store emptied in less than five minutes every day, preventing customers from shopping.

“What crop do you want to grow?” he asked.

He could plant it immediately after she decided what she wanted to grow.

Chapter 607 It's Not Easy to Earn Points

“I've decided to look around tomorrow and pick some herbs to plant on these two plots of land,” An Jiuyue said.

Wei Na was confused.

Did I mishear her? Didn't Master say she bought these two plots of land because she wanted to grow more grain and vegetables? Why did she decide to grow medicinal herbs in the end?

“What about the vegetables? Are we not planting them anymore?” he asked.

“We are.” An Jiuyue nodded.

“I'll plant vegetables and grains on unused land tomorrow when I return from picking herbs,” she said.

“Oh, okay.” Wei Na nodded in understanding.

There must be a lot of unused land. How much land would they need to grow the number of medicinal herbs they gather in one day? It would be good enough if they could occupy a corner of one piece of land.

He had to think about which vegetables to grow. It would be ideal if they could grow vegetables currently in short supply.

“Master... Master, what did you buy this time?”

He was about to ask her which vegetables she wanted to grow when he noticed another token in her hand. Just like that, another 2,500 points were gone with a clang.

Needless to say, this was for the second pond, right?

An Jiuyue looked at him innocently and said, “A pond! Don’t you think the little fellows in the first pond are outgrowing it?”

Wei Na was speechless.

He desperately wanted to yell, “You can sell them if there’s no more space! Master, what is your shop for? You can sell aquatic products too!”

However, he could not say that. There would be nothing left if they sold them. The aquatic products in a pond would not be enough to sell for a few days. Hence, they had to excavate a few more ponds and raise more.

“We’re indeed running out of space, but the points...”

If this continued, her points would hit rock bottom soon!

“Master, aren’t you spending a little too much? It’s not easy to earn points,” he advised earnestly.

She would soon run out of points if she kept spending them like that. What would she do if she ran out in the future?

“No, I’ll take out all the medicinal pills I’ve refined over the past few days and give them to Qian Jiyun to treat the people in the camp. We can earn points from that,” An Jiuyue replied.

She had long thought it through. She must reclaim more land.

She could earn points if she began refining medicine. She could earn them back as long as the medicinal pills she refined were needed.

“There are many benefits to reclaiming land. Wei Na, don’t be too fussy. Besides, you should have noticed that the second floor of the shop sells medicinal pills. How can I refine medicinal pills if I don’t have enough medicinal herbs?”

“Alright, Master, you’re right.” Wei Na nodded reluctantly.

He did not say that reclaiming land was wrong. They had to reclaim land sooner or later anyway. The earlier they reclaimed land, the earlier they could plant crops, right?

“But Master, you can’t spend all your points,” he reminded.

“I know. I won’t buy another one.”

An Jiuyue gave Wei Na a smile that seemed to say she knew better than him.

“That’s good. Master, what... what did you buy again this time?! Ah!”

He wanted to cry. Although they had earned many points recently, they could not afford to spend so much! Was she trying to cut his flesh by spending 30,000 points at once?

Chapter 608 Why Were the Points Expended So Quickly?

They have reached rock bottom! They have reached rock bottom!

“Master, did you buy another... pasture?”

Not only were the points in the Points Mall depleted, but he was also about to cry.

Didn't she just buy a pasture? Why does she need to buy another? Is it easy to earn points? These are points! Very useful points! How can I not feel heartbroken about losing them all at once?

"I'm going to pick medicinal herbs tomorrow, right? I might encounter little demonic beasts! I can raise them in the space, but I can't keep them with domestic poultry, right?"

"Besides, there are only two pastures. If I had more, I'd raise all the poultry separately," An Jiuyue explained logically.

In short, unlocking this pasture was necessary.

"That... seems to be the case," Wei Na replied weakly, but he was already wailing internally.

What was happening? They had depleted the points they had worked so hard to accumulate. Why were the points expended so quickly?

"I'm not talking to you anymore. I have to choose where to place these tokens."

The land could be reclaimed next to the existing ones. The new pond could be linked to the existing one as well.

The new pasture, however, could not. Even if it was near the existing one, she had to pick a good angle to position it.

When she set the token down for the second pasture, she realized that spending 30,000 points on it was worth it.

"This pasture is actually this gigantic?!"

Even Wei Na was surprised. This pasture was a little too big. It was several times larger than the first one.

“Master, why do I have the impression that pastures become more worthwhile the more you buy them?” he asked, looking at his master faintly.

“Is that possible?”

An Jiuyue touched her chin. She did not think the pasture was particularly larger just because it was the second one.

“Maybe there’s another reason.”

Ignoring the newly reclaimed pasture for the time being, she took the pond token and went to the existing pond. She bent down and set down the token.

As expected, the new pond was several times larger than the previous one.

“Wow, Master, this pond is much bigger! We can raise many things. We won’t have to worry about not having enough to sell!”

Wei Na was excited. He clapped his hands and felt that the points were not wasted.

An Jiuyue glanced at him indifferently.

She walked to the back of the fifth piece of land and placed a land-reclaiming token down.

“Mmph!” Wei Na was stunned.

“That’s not right, Master. Why is the land so much bigger? It... spans several pieces of jade! What’s going on?”

“If I’m not wrong, this should have something to do with us coming to Huayan Peak. Because this is a world of spiritual cultivation, the reclaimed land is different,” An Jiuyue answered, placing the last token down.

As expected, the final token unlocked a sizable plot of land that was entirely different in size from the previous five tokens.

“In that case, as long as we reclaim land here in the future, won’t we always have such large pieces of land?” Wei Na was even more excited.

The more land they had, the more crops they could plant Good news! It was good news!

Chapter 609 Stop Defaming Your Brother

“That should be the case.” An Jiuyue touched her chin and looked at the two pieces of land.

I hope it’s not what I think it is. Otherwise, it may not be a good sign.

“I’ll dig up some medicinal herbs to grow tomorrow. Perhaps...”

She raised her eyebrows and thought she could ask Qian Jiyun to collect some medicinal herb seeds for her to plant. They were all the same. However, seeds needed time to germinate, whereas herbs could be planted right away.

The growth rate of crops in her space was indeed quite slow initially.

However, the growth rate gradually increased. Now that the growth rate was maintained constantly, plants would grow much faster inside than outside. Moreover, they would have more and more land. They could harvest more and more quickly indoors if they planted crops and medicinal herbs.

At the Spirit Severing Cliff...

Ye Chenglin had been here for a few days.

Life at the Spirit Severing Cliff was definitely not easy. Every day was worse than death for her.

Everyone had hunted demonic beasts and obtained several inner cores. Even Qin Tingfeng had acquired four inner cores. Meanwhile, she only had one.

Everyone could not stand how idle she was all day. Sooner or later, she would starve to death. Hence, they reluctantly came together and gave her an inner core.

“Qin Tingfeng, you’re very smug, aren’t you?”

It was their turn to rest. Ye Chenglin was furious as she watched Qin Tingfeng wipe the inner cores.

Another day had gone by, and she still had not obtained an inner core. Meanwhile, Qin Tingfeng, who had only been here for a few days too, acquired two inner cores today. The other guardians praised him.

“Look at how smug you are! It’s only for today! Let’s see if you can get two inner cores in the future!”

Qin Tingfeng looked up and glanced at her indifferently. He stayed silent and continued wiping the inner cores. He was happy today and would not lower himself to Ye Chenglin’s level.

“You—”

Ye Chenglin was even angrier when Qin Tingfeng ignored her.

“Qin Tingfeng, if you ignore me, I’ll ask my brother to kill you!”

Unconsciously, she brought up her brother, Ye Chengzong, again. She had always done this in the past.

However, she forgot that Ye Chengzong had not asked anyone to look after her for days. He did not even want to inquire about her anymore because he was too angry and wanted her to suffer.

“Chenglin, stop defaming your brother, okay? He can’t stand against you defaming him like this, no matter how capable he is!” A guardian on the other side finally had enough and advised, vexed.

For the past few days, they had heard Ye Chenglin use her brother’s name to make threats daily. She would either threaten to kill someone or transfer them to more challenging and terrifying places.

However, she never considered if she was capable of doing any of that.

Even if Ye Chengzong wanted to transfer someone, he could only mobilize his subordinates in his team. Moreover, he could only mobilize someone with his master’s permission.

If Ye Chenglin could do any of that, would she have been sent to the Spirit Severing Cliff?

“What has this got to do with you? I’m talking to Qin Tingfeng. Do you have nothing better to do?” Ye Chenglin frowned and scolded him when she heard him interrupt.

Chapter 610 I’ll Kill All of You Once I Have Power!

“You—”

That person was enraged. He raised his hand and was about to slap Ye Chenglin.

He was not Ye Chengzong, Ye Chenglin’s older brother. He would not tolerate her tantrums. She did not even look at herself—she was a criminal!

Why was she still yelling at them instead of killing demonic beasts and returning to the camp as soon as possible?

However, before he could hit her, the person beside him stopped him.

That person glanced at Ye Chenglin disdainfully and said bluntly, "Why are you arguing with a crazy woman? If you injure her, she'll have a reason not to kill the demonic beasts tomorrow. Then it'll be your fault."

"Third Brother Wu, how dare you say that about me?!"

Ye Chenglin widened her eyes and looked at the person talking about her, Third Brother Wu.

He was also from Camp Zhan Yun. However, unlike her, Third Brother Wu could occasionally return to the camp. He was not a criminal.

"Why wouldn't I dare? Who do you think you are? You despise this and that, but why don't you consider how there's no one more useless than you on Spirit Severing Cliff?"

Third Brother Wu did not stand on ceremony with her and spoke even more bluntly.

Ye Chenglin had caused trouble for him back then and even slandered him. He hated this woman the most.

"Are you jealous of Qin Tingfeng for acquiring more inner cores? If that's the case, you'll have to stay jealous. Many people here get two inner cores a day.

"You're the only one who only got one after several days. And it was given to you by someone out of pity!"

"Third Brother Wu!" Ye Chenglin's eyes reddened, and she almost cried.

She had suffered enough over the past few days, but no one cared about her. Even her brother ignored her.

Now, even Third Brother Wu, whom she had once defeated, dared to criticize her?

“Just wait. I’ll kill all of you once I have power!”

She stood up from the rock and ran into the distance, crying.

“This... Will something happen to her?”

The person Third Brother Wu was holding back turned to look in Ye Chenglin’s direction with worry.

He was not worried about Ye Chenglin, but they could not lose a helper at the Spirit Severing Cliff. Ye Chenglin still had to kill demonic beasts with them tomorrow.

With just one fewer person, they might not be able to manage.

“What would happen to her? She’s afraid of dying,” Third Brother Wu said with a cold smile.

“She always hides in the back whenever a large demonic beast appears. Then she dashes forward to stab it when she notices it drawing its final breath.

“She believes that everyone is stupid and that only she is intelligent. Why should we be worried about someone like her? She won’t die. Don’t worry.”

Everyone looked at Third Brother Wu and smiled.

He was right. It was true. This was what Ye Chenglin had been doing over the past few days. However, no one was stupid. They would not allow her to deliver the finishing blow.

Of course, they had to take their inner cores. They would be stupid to give them to Ye Chenglin for free.

“Tingfeng, you’re quite happy today.”

They ignored Ye Chenglin and looked at Qin Tingfeng instead, chatting and laughing.

“Yes, my sister returned to the camp.”

Qin Tingfeng grinned. He was happy when he remembered how the camp had sent word that their master had requested his sister’s return.
