Chapter 711: I Refuse to Acknowledge Him

Fu Ming was also puzzled as to why his second sister-in-law would come here and even kill a demonic beast. He wondered how his second brother could bear allowing her to come.

However, she was already here. What else could he say? He could only put in a good word for his second brother. After all, they were brothers.

“What brother-in-law? I refuse to acknowledge him,” An Zhiyi snorted and said disdainfully.

His sister had suffered a great deal because of this brother-in-law. It was better off not having a brother-in-law like him.

“Pfft!” Fu Ming could not help but laugh when he heard his angry words.

“What are you laughing at?” An Zhiyi turned around and glared at him.

He did not know what was so funny. He refused to acknowledge Qian Jiyun as his brother-in-law. Who could do anything about that?

“I’m laughing at you. You’ve clearly already acknowledged Second Brother as your brother-in-law, but you’re still stubborn.” Fu Ming shook his head and continued laughing at him.

“I didn’t!” An Zhiyi stomped his feet in anger.

He would have yelled at Fu Ming if he had not been worried about disturbing his sister.

“Why not? Didn’t you just say that you refused to acknowledge him? If you truly refuse to acknowledge him, you would just say that he’s not your brother-in-law, right?” Fu Ming imitated his tone and smiled.

“You—” An Zhiyi was furious.

Whats so funny about that? Qian Jiyun is still my brother-in-law, whether I acknowledge him or not. Should I tell my sister to divorce him because of that? How can I break up a couple?

But I won't let Qian Jiyun off easily. I'll make things difficult for him! He thinks he can get my sisters forgiveness so easily? Dream on!

“Forget it. I won't talk nonsense with you anymore. Didn't you say you had something important to do?”

He decided to put aside the conversation for now and focus on settling their matters first. He was unsure of what had happened this time.

Meanwhile, Fu Ming pursed his lips and glared at him.

Talk nonsense? He clearly changed the topic because he can't win against me. How can he say that I'm spouting nonsense?

“Something happened. We'll talk when Second Brother comes.”

An Zhiyi frowned and asked, “Aren't we going to draw the line with him? Why are we still doing things with him?”

“We have to do this together,” Fu Ming whispered.

Initially, this matter had nothing to do with him. However, he discovered that his second brother intended to do it alone and secretly. He felt compelled to follow him since he discovered it.

“Quite mysterious, huh?” An Zhiyi raised his eyebrows and chuckled. He glanced at his sister. “What happened to make you react like this?”

It seemed like this matter had something to do with his sister. That would explain why Fu Ming did not want her to hear what he was saying and whispered instead.

“Shut up.” Fu Ming glared at him angrily.

He was not a fool. How could this kid not understand what he meant?

However, he dared not say that. An Jiuyue was meditating, not sleeping. And even if she did fall asleep, she would wake up if they spoke any louder, wouldn't she?

“If your sister hears this, Second Brother will rip your head off!”

“Would he dare?” An Zhiyi asked Fu Ming.

Fu Ming was rendered speechless.

Of course, Qian Jiyun wouldn't dare to do that! He must be tired of living if he ever tried to attack his brother-in-law!

“Alright, alright. Let's talk outside.”

Without saying a word, he quickly pulled him out of the tent..

Chapter 712: How Dare You Criticize Me? Aren't You Embarrassed?

However, before they could leave, Qian Jiyun walked in with a clean inner core. “Second Brother, did you kill demonic beasts?”

Fu Ming looked at him and could not help but wonder why he had to kill demonic beasts at this time. He should be saving his energy today to deal with that matter.

Why did he kill demonic beasts? That was not normal, right?

“That’s not right.” He shook his head and looked at the inner core that Qian Jiyun was holding.

He could not help but ask, “Could this be the demonic beast that Second Sister-in-Law killed?”

An Jiuyue was meditating to recover her Original Soul energy, but Qian Jiyun did not seem tired at all.

“Jiuyue’s first inner core. Look, isn’t it especially bright?” Qian Jiyun asked with a smile.

Fu Ming, unfazed by Qian Jiyun’s show-off, responded with a smile, “Second Brother, did you help Second Sister-in-Law kill the demonic beast?” “No, Jiuyue killed it alone,” Qian Jiyun said, feeling even more proud.

Fu Ming was shocked.

An Jiuyue killed a demonic beast alone? Had she really only recently started cultivating?

He glanced at An Jiuyue, who was recovering her Original Soul energy, before looking at Qian Jiyun. This was really... indescribable.

Comparisons were odious. The ancients were right about that!

He turned around and looked at An Zhiyi. He patted his shoulder and said earnestly, "Zhiyi, you must work hard. Look at your sister. Aren't you embarrassed?"

"Get lost!" An Zhiyi slapped his hand away angrily. "Why would I be embarrassed? You're the one who should be embarrassed, right?"

He had also only been cultivating for a short time. Why should he be embarrassed? Besides, An Jiuyue was his biological sister. He should be pleased that she was talented. How could he be jealous?

"You've been cultivating for many years but haven't improved much. How dare you criticize me? Aren't you embarrassed?"

"1—" Fu Ming was furious.

However, he could not say a word. His talent was just as Qian Jiyun had described it: average. Talent could not be improved simply because one desired to.

"You only dare to say that about me because you're Second Brother's brother-in-law."

"Get lost!"

An Zhiyi's face flushed red in embarrassment, and he glanced at Qian Jiyun awkwardly.

He was not relying on Qian Jiyun! Even without him, he could do well and take good care of his sister.

Qian Jiyun? He was just the icing on the cake.

"Didn't you say we have something to do? Let's go quickly," he said.

"Zhiyi, you don't have to go. Guard your sister."

Qian Jiyun thought briefly and was worried about leaving An Jiuyue here alone.

An Zhiyi wanted to go but was even more worried about leaving his sister alone.

“What are you going to do? Can the two of you do it?”

He had a hunch that whatever they were up to was related to his sister. Despite not knowing the details, he knew it had to be done.

“Give it up. Do you really think we can’t do anything without you?” Fu Ming mocked him angrily.

“Who knows?” An Zhiyi looked at him seriously.

“Why don’t you stay? I’ll go with him. Besides, it doesn’t matter if you go or not..”

Chapter 713: Suffer Greater Injustice Than Dou E

“1—” Fu Ming almost threw up from rage.

What does he mean by “it makes no difference whether I go or not” ? How can he say that? He makes me sound so useless!

“Your Original Soul energy is inferior to mine!” he whispered to An Zhiyi. “So you know.” An Zhiyi pursed his lips and looked at him meaningfully.

Fu Ming was speechless.

He admitted that he was not as talented as An Zhiyi.

However, was he not considered somewhat talented among the guardians he had brought here? Why did An Zhiyi have to look at him with such disdain?

Irritated, he said, "I shouldn't have acknowledged you as my brother. You're simply... sent by the heavens to jinx me, right?"

"That's not true. 1—"

"All of you can go together. I'll be alright by myself." A familiar voice interrupted An Zhiyi.

The three of them turned around simultaneously and saw An Jiuyue, who had recovered, looking at them.

Fu Ming's jaw dropped so wide that a large egg could be stuffed inside his mouth.

"Did we disturb you from recovering your Original Soul energy?" Qian Jiyun approached her quickly.

An Zhiyi followed him while scolding Fu Ming, "I told you to speak softly, but you refused to listen. Look, you disturbed my sister! I should have sewn your mouth shut!"

He even turned around and glared at Fu Ming as he spoke.

"Sister, Fu Ming must've disturbed you, right?"

Smiling, An Jiuyue shook her head and glanced at Fu Ming.

"I was disturbed, but it doesn't matter because I've already recovered my Original Soul energy."

Fu Ming was speechless.

I'm suffering even greater injustice than Dou EO, right?

What does this have to do with me? I've been speaking softly, and An Jiuyue has already recovered her Original Soul energy, right?

"You... recovered just like that?"

Was An Jiuyue human? She recovered her Original Soul energy too quickly!

He had been guarding the protected grounds for the past few days. He also needed to recover his Original Soul energy after killing demonic beasts. However, he never recovered as quickly as An Jiuyue.

She had, if he was not mistaken, just sat down when they entered.

Would she need as much time as Qian Jiyun washing another inner core?

"Second Sister-in-Law, teach me how you recovered your Original Soul energy so quickly! There must be a special method, right?" he quickly leaned over and asked fawningly.

Confused, An Jiuyue looked at him calmly and asked, "Is there a need for a special method?"

She had no idea how it happened either. Her Original Soul energy simply recovered quickly.

Previously, while refining medicine in her space, An Jiuyue believed that the rapid recovery of her Original Soul energy was due to being in the Medicine Spirit.

It seemed like that was not the case. However, it probably still had a lot to do with her space.

“Your Original Soul will become stronger if you fight more demonic beasts for a few more days. It should be able to recover quickly,” she said.

Fu Ming pursed his lips.

If only it was as simple as she made it out to be.

Recovering Original Soul energy had always been difficult. Those who recovered quickly did so only because they did not expend much Original Soul energy in the first place.

If he exhausted it entirely and tried to recover it...

How could someone like him recover in less than a day? On top of that, how could he do so without consuming some food with spiritual energy above Huayan Peak’s level?

Chapter 714: The Familiar “Pagoda”

An Jiuyue looked at Qian Jiyun and said gently, “Jiyun, if you all need to head out, go ahead. I’ll be fine here.”

If he had something important to do, he should do it. What would happen to her here? The guardians of Camp Zhan Yun were present, so who could harm her?

Qian Jiyun thought about it and eventually agreed.

“Then be more careful. Although the demonic beasts here are not very powerful, they can still kill. You should work with the other guardians to kill them.”

Most importantly, the place they were going to was indeed quite dangerous. Two people might not be able to do as much as they would like.

However, if three people were to go, they could do everything they needed to do.

“Yes, I will.” An Jiuyue nodded.

However, she was worried, so she turned to look at An Zhiyi and reminded him, “Zhiyi, when you go with Jiyun, you must listen to him. Don’t always go against him.”

“I didn’t go against him, Sister!”

An Zhiyi refused to admit it. Why would he go against Qian Jiyun? He did not do that. He refused to admit it.

An Jiuyue looked at him seriously and asked, “You didn’t?”

Alright, An Zhiyi admitted that he had gone against Qian Jiyun.

However, he had a reason. He would not go against Qian Jiyun all the time.

He knew when to do the right thing.

“Don’t worry, Sister. I’ll listen to him this time.”

“That’s good.”

Since he promised her, she believed him.

The roars of demonic beasts could be heard outside. Soon, Qian Jiyun and the other two left. She sat in the tent for a while longer. After completely recovering her Original Soul energy, she prepared to leave.

However, she was stunned when she walked out.

She looked up at the familiar “pagoda” that was as tall as a high-rise building. She was really...

“What a random shop! It even opened for business here.”

She never expected her shop to be right outside her tent as soon as she stepped out. The feeling was really... indescribable.

“Master, why don’t you go in and take a look?” The corners of Wei Na’s mouth twitched.

Although he was also rendered speechless, he still suggested that his master go in and take a look. After all, this was his master’s shop. Was business good...?

There was no need to wonder. Business had always been good. They were always able to sell out.

“That’s what I meant. Let’s go in and take a look—”

“Everyone, get up! There’s a shop here! The shop that appeared in the camp is here!”

An Jiuyue heard an excited voice before she could finish her sentence.

Before she realized what was happening, the guardians who were sleeping in the tents next to hers bolted out like crazy.

Although this shop had only appeared once on their side, it had already become the talk of the town.

Not only was the food sold there delicious, but it was also cheap. Everyone would regret it if they did not hurry to buy some.

“F*ck! Wait for me, you guys!”

As everyone hurriedly entered the shop’s first floor, the first person who had noticed the shop finally reacted and rushed over as well.

“Why did I shout stupidly? Wouldn’t it be better to grab everything in the shop for myself?”

Chapter 715: Their Plans Were in Vain

As he ran, he muttered regrets to himself, almost pounding his chest and stamping his feet. He realized he had made a blunder. Otherwise, everything in the shop would have been his.

An Jiuyue watched as the quiet temporary camp sprung to life.

Everyone geared up to raid the shop, looking as if they had not eaten or drunk for days. Her hair stood on end as she watched.

“Isn’t this too terrifying?” Wei Na could not help but exclaim.

He could not enter the shop and did not know what was happening inside. But it was eye-opening to watch the commotion from outside!

“Master, judging by the momentum of this business, we don’t have enough stocked goods,” he reminded her softly.

“I know.”

How could An Jiuyue not know?

However, she had no choice. She had limited land, comprising only a few pastures and ponds. She was already doing her best by selling the goods from these resources every day.

“We shouldn’t bite off more than we can chew. Let’s take it slow. We have plenty of time,” she said to Wei Na. Her words were also meant to comfort herself.

“No, I have to go in and take a look too.”

With that, she walked into the shop. Although the people inside had already bought all the food and were paying, she still walked in slowly.

She looked at the shelves, which were so clean that there was not a single vegetable leaf. She was really impressed by these buyers. They did not even bother being picky with their purchases and bought everything just like that.

They were all tycoons!

However, if everyone could hear her thoughts, they would probably shout at her.

What was the point of being picky? If they were picky, someone else would snatch the item away. It wouldn’t be a matter of being picky anymore, but rather a matter of crying over the missed opportunity!

Hence, they eagerly grabbed all the vegetables and food before anything else.

“I’ve only heard about the shop. I thought it was just a rumor, but it turned out to be true! And this shop is incredible! We can’t even leave unless we pay!” An Jiuyue turned around when she heard someone muttering.

She did not even know him, yet he wanted to take her food and leave without paying. He was definitely not from Camp Zhan Yun. People from Camp Zhan Yun would never do something like that.

Another person in the queue turned around and asked, “You even know that? Have you tried it before?”

“When did I try it? Don’t slander me!” The person who had just spoken cried out when he heard him.

The shop looked extraordinary. He did not want to offend the people in the shop and end up being unable to buy anything in the future.

“I was just too eager to grab the food earlier. I don’t know who bumped into me, but I was almost knocked out of the door, but something blocked me,” he quickly explained.

He had really felt an air wall blocking him.

“That person bumped into you, right? From Camp Ning Se.” Another person pursed their lips, gesturing at someone nearby.

The people from Camp Ning Se were the most domineering. They were probably jealous of this person for grabbing so many things, so they deliberately bumped into him.

However, little did they know that they would not be able to leave the place without paying, so their plans were in vain..

Chapter 716: Cut the Eternal Black Vine

“These people only know how to resort to dirty tricks. If you have the guts, confront me openly,” the man spat hatefully. He knew who had bumped into him.

“Forget it. They’re just mad dogs.” The person who stopped him shook his head gently.

Although he was a guardian of Lord Tang’s camp, he could not stand the guardians of Camp Ning Se either. However, it was pointless. His lord had always been on Shang Ningyi’s side. What could he do?

“Just avoid them in the future.”

“Hmph !”

That person snorted and continued queuing up to pay for the food.

An Jiuyue left when she saw that there was nothing more for her to do. Before she left, she heard everyone talking about how it was a pity that there were only vegetables and no meat in the shop.

She muttered to herself that she wanted meat too! However, she had just unlocked her pasture. If they wanted meat, they would have to wait until next time.

She would definitely raise fish, chickens, and ducks for everyone’s benefit.

Black Pact Forest...

Qian Jiyun brought Fu Ming and An Zhiyi to the Black Pact Forest.

An Jiuyue had no idea and never imagined that Yu Beast City was actually very close to the Black Pact Forest.

The route from Camp Zhan Yun to the Black Pact Forest was very different from the route to Yu Beast City. Qian Jiyun had previously taken An Jiuyue to the north of the Black Pact Forest, but this time they were in the south.

“Why is this place so gloomy?”

An Zhiyi followed Qian Jiyun, and the hairs on his body stood on end.

He could not help but rub his arm hard. His large eyes darted around as he muttered softly.

Fu Ming nodded in agreement with An Zhiyi. "This place is really gloomy."

"The climate in the Black Pact Forest is different from others. It's cold through all four seasons, and even colder during winter. The entire place will be completely covered in snow," Qian Jiyun explained to them as he walked forward.

Being covered by the accumulated snow was still fine. What was terrifying was that there was a demonic beast in the Black Pact Forest that only appeared after the forest had been covered in snow. They dwelled beneath the snow. Of course, it was not snowing yet, so they would not encounter it.

"Second Brother, why are we here?" Fu Ming asked.

Qian Jiyun continued walking as he replied, "To cut the Eternal Black Vine." "What's the Eternal Black Vine? What's its use? Is it a medicinal herb?"

An Jiuyue was also a medicine refiner, so he assumed the Eternal Black Vine was a herb.

He only knew that Qian Jiyun came to the Black Pact Forest for her.

"No." Qian Jiyun shook his head.

"It's not?" Fu Ming was even more puzzled.

What was the Eternal Black Vine used for? Was it used to weave baskets?

"Jiuyue uses a whip. I made do with giving her a Purple Vine Core Whip, but it's not tough enough. The Eternal Black Vine is the toughest rattan on Huayan Peak. It's perfect for a whip.

"However, there are very few Eternal Black Vines in the entire Huayan Peak," Qian Jiyun explained.

“That means there are other places, right? Why must we come to the Black Pact Forest?” Fu Ming asked pitifully.

He was really a little afraid when he fought that huge python last time. It was said that the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python was in the Black Pact Forest.. If they encountered it, they would probably not be able to escape, right?

Chapter 717: Ignite Such Fervor in Them

“Why don’t we look elsewhere? We might be able to find it somewhere else,” he suggested.

“Other places won’t do.” Qian Jiyun rejected Fu Ming’s suggestion.

“There’s Black Heart Miasma in the Black Pact Forest. Only Eternal Black Vines that have absorbed it over the years are tougher. The person wielding a weapon made from it will find it easier to handle.”

Fu Ming was speechless.

Second Brother, you dote on your wife so much! You’re risking your life in the Black Pact Forest so An Jiuyue can wield her weapon more effortlessly! “But there’s the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python in this forest. Isn’t it

“If you’re scared, then go back! Why are you being so naggy?” An Zhiyi interrupted him.

His sister deserved the best. What was wrong with cutting some Eternal Black

Vines in the Black Carving Forest? He would get the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python’s bones, let alone the Eternal Black Vines, if she wanted to make a whip out of them.

Fu Ming was shocked.

Of course, you're not naggy! Shés your sister, not mine!

He wanted to shout back at him, but he dared not do so for the sake of his life. After all, these two held An Jiuyue in high regard.

"Second Brother..."

"Pay attention to staying concealed."

He wanted to say a few more words to Qian Jiyun, but the latter was clearly uninterested. He reminded him to stay concealed and continued walking.

"Zhiyi, follow me."

When An Zhiyi heard this, he quickened his pace and caught up with him. As he passed Fu Ming, he cast a disdainful glance at him.

Fu Ming was shocked.

Are they trying to anger me to death? How can they bully me like this? We're brothers, aren't we?

He had such thoughts but still hurried along and caught up with them. He had to find the Eternal Black Vine, even if he did not want to. If they found more, he might be able to make a weapon to protect himself.

Yu Beast City...

The roars of the demonic beasts continued. Waves of demonic beasts emerged from the vortex, only to be met by waves of guardians engaging them in combat.

Apart from the first Iron-Armored Beast, An Jiuyue never killed another demonic beast alone.

She was not sure if she could deal with these demonic beasts alone, so she joined forces with the guardians of Camp Zhan Yun to kill them.

However...

When she stepped up to fight, she primarily looked for the weak spots of demonic beasts with Wei Na's help.

If she could not reach a weak spot, she would let the guardians by her side attack it. Just like that, the guardians of Camp Zhan Yun each obtained two inner cores in half a day.

And with the guardians from Camp Zhan Yun taking a larger share of the demonic beasts, the guardians from the other camps were also significantly relieved.

They were also grateful to the guardians of Camp Zhan Yun.

However, some people were green with envy because Camp Zhan Yun's guardians had killed more demonic beasts and obtained more inner cores.

For example, the guardians of Camp Ning Se and Lord Tang's camp, who harbored ill intentions, glared at An Jiuyue. Their intense glares nearly pierced her body with hundreds of holes.

She was just a woman. How could she ignite such fervor in everyone from Camp Zhan Yun, driving them to kill the demonic beasts so quickly?

Yu Beast City was a large place, and the demonic beasts arrived in waves. However, they did not even kill half the number of demonic beasts that Camp Zhan Yun had killed..

Chapter 718: That Woman Is No Ordinary Person

The captain of the team from Camp Ning Se extended his hand to call forth a guardian and whispered instructions, "Old Fang, go and find out who that woman is."

Camp Zhan Yun had lost Ye Chenglin. Could it be that more medicine refiners had arrived?

But she would only be a medicine refiner. How could she be so powerful? How could she lead the guardians so effectively in killing demonic beasts as if it were as easy as chopping vegetables?

Initially, it was easy to estimate the number of people in Camp Zhan Yun.

However, Fu Ming had brought a large group of people over a few days ago. If someone said that there were a few more women in Camp Zhan Yun, they would believe it.

Naturally, they never suspected that the woman standing before them was none other than Qian Jiyun's wife, whom he had personally brought back.

"Alright, I'll go now."

Old Fang nodded and looked at Camp Zhan Yun's guardians, who were killing demonic beasts with ease.

No wonder everyone was talking about it. Even he was envious! If he could be like the guardians of Camp Zhan Yun, effortlessly killing demonic beasts every day, they would become rich!

He was more acquainted with the people from Camp Zhan Yun and wanted to find out who that woman was.

After Old Fang left, another guardian walked forward and whispered in the captain's ear, "Captain, that woman is no ordinary person."

Glancing at him with a dark expression, the captain snapped, "Why would I bother asking Old Fang to find out who she is if she were just an ordinary person?"

The guardians from Camp Zhan Yun were killing demonic beasts with a few strikes. The demonic beasts were not even spilling much blood.

It was evident that they had killed these demonic beasts with clever tactics. However, they were not as clever previously. They only moved so quickly after this woman arrived.

It had to be related to this woman.

Once Old Fang knew who she was, he intended to look for his lord and win her over.

If they could not win her over, they had to make her disappear from Huayan Peak. They could not allow the people from Camp Zhan Yun to reap the benefits.

His lord was already especially afraid of Qian Jiyun. Now that another woman had arrived at Camp Zhan Yun, Qian Jiyun would probably rise to a higher level in the future.

His lord would never allow that.

"I see that the people from Camp Zhan Yun are giving in to that woman," the guardian observed as he watched them collect inner cores.

"If you can make our team kill demonic beasts so quickly, I'll have everyone give in to you," the captain said coldly.

"Uh..." The guardian was stunned and embarrassed.

Although it was true theoretically, it was not good to say it aloud.

Could they not have said that those men were giving in to that woman because she was good-looking?

If that woman was on their team, he would also give in to her because of her beautiful face.

Meanwhile, Old Fang approached Camp Zhan Yun's guardians with a smile and watched them collect the inner cores.

"Oh my, Brother Yu, you've had a great harvest today."

Yu Di, also known as Brother Yu, was not the captain of the team stationed at Yu Beast City, but he held some influence within the team.

He stepped aside when he saw Old Fang and smiled as he spoke to him.

"Old Fang, why are you here?"

"I came over to congratulate you all. I saw how many demonic beasts you've killed," Old Fang said, patting Yu Di's shoulder with a smile..

Chapter 719: It's All a Coincidence

"You guys did great today! How come you're so powerful? You're killing those demonic beasts like you're chopping melons. Even our captain is envious of your speed.

"Let me tell you a secret. Our captain asked me to come over and ask if you received guidance from some expert."

He leaned closer to Yu Di, whispering in a half-joking manner.

"What expert?" Yu Di smiled and waved at him.

Of course, he would not reveal the secrets of his own camp to others.

Even though he was on good terms with Old Fang, he did not forget that the people from Camp Ning Se had been causing trouble for Camp Zhan Yun.

“It’s just a coincidence! We didn’t expect to kill so many demonic beasts. The heavens must have taken special care of us today, don’t you think?”

Upon hearing that, Old Fang rolled his eyes internally.

What do I think? They definitely became more successful at killing demonic beasts after that woman showed up! Whats the point of bluffing me?

Although he felt extreme disdain in his heart, he still wore a smile on his face as he looked at Yu Di.

“Brother Yu, if you put things that way, how are we supposed to live after killing only a few demonic beasts?”

“Live however you like.” Yu Di shrugged and looked at him casually.

“Killing demonic beasts also depends on luck. Weren’t we also only killing a few demonic beasts a day? Sometimes, we don’t even have enough inner cores to distribute one per person.”

They had killed more demonic beasts today, but it was just today. He was unsure of how many he could kill tomorrow.

“Besides, we only encountered small demonic beasts today. We didn’t even see a single larger demonic beast. However, if I’m not mistaken, your team already snatched several large demonic beasts, right?”

The people from Camp Ning De were like this. When they saw a large demonic beast, even if they were in the middle of fighting another one, they would pretend to give it up to other teams.

However, they actually looked down on small demonic beasts and wanted a variety of larger demonic beasts.

After all, there was a significant disparity in the inner cores between the two. The energy contained within the inner cores of large demonic beasts was much greater than that of smaller and more easily defeated ones.

The people from Camp Ning Se were so shameless. However, they could not ignore them since they came to talk to them. After all, they were all here as guardians of Yu Beast City.

“Uh.” Old Fang’s expression darkened instantly.

They had killed a few large demonic beasts, but these demonic beasts were also the most time-consuming and drained their Original Soul energy the most. They had to make sacrifices to receive the corresponding rewards.

However, the people from Camp Zhan Yun looked different today. They did not have to sacrifice much. They only had to follow the young lady and kill demonic beasts.

Yu Di smiled and replied, “Yes, it’s all a coincidence.”

If you say it’s a coincidence, then it must be a coincidence! Everyone is the same anyway.

“Haha...” Old Fang laughed awkwardly. He was tired of talking and really wanted to give up and leave.

However, he did not forget why he was here: he wanted to know where the young lady had come from.. He could not return without finding out anything, right?

Chapter 720: I’ll Tell You When I Find out

He glanced in An Jiuyue’s direction and whispered again.

“Brother Yu, I saw a young lady in your team just now. Was she sent here as punishment because she did something wrong?”

Yu Di also looked at their Mistress but quickly turned around and glared at Old Fang disapprovingly.

“What are you talking about? You’re making it sound like the people in our camp are not united.”

“I’m just asking casually.”

Old Fang felt even more awkward. He never said that the people in Camp Zhan Yun were not united!

Everyone knew that Camp Zhan Yun was the most united in their plane. Otherwise, their lord would have conquered Camp Zhan Yun long ago. “I heard that a lady from your camp was sent to the Spirit Severing Cliff as punishment,” he said.

“That’s an exception. Do you think everyone is like Ye Chenglin?” Yu Di rolled his eyes at Old Fang.

Ye Chenglin was like a rat that ruined a pot of porridge. She almost ruined Ye Chengzong’s reputation and even almost killed him.

Women like her were an anomaly. Not every woman was like this.

Old Fang saw that Yu Di was about to get angry and hurriedly said, “Then I must’ve misunderstood. I’m just worried about you. What if another person with bad intentions comes to the team?” “No.” Yu Di shook his head.

How could their Mistress have bad intentions?

Did they not witness how they had killed so many demonic beasts as soon as their mistress arrived? She was the good news of Camp Zhan Yun!

However, he would not tell Old Fang this secret. Even if he wanted to find out, he would not succeed so quickly. Yu Di knew that the people from Camp Ning Se must be up to no good again.

“You’re overthinking it.”

“It’s good if it’s just me overthinking.” Old Fang patted his chest as if genuinely concerned for Yu Di and the others.

“By the way, what’s her name? Since we’re here in Yu Beast City, we’ll often meet in the future. If we know her name, we can greet each other when we meet in the future, right?”

“Her name?”

Yu Di looked at him and snorted internally when he saw how anxious he looked.

Do you think I’m an idiot or a fool? Do you think I can’t tell when someone is trying to get information from me?

“Yes, yes, yes. What’s her name—”

Old Fang nodded repeatedly, wanting to know the woman’s name. However, Yu Di interrupted him before he could finish speaking.

“I don’t know either. I’ll tell you when I find out.”

Old Fang almost cursed when he heard that he did not know either.

What the f*ck? How can he not know the name of someone on his team? If he doesn’t want to say it, so be it. Why is he looking for an excuse?

“You don’t even know that young lady’s name yet?”

Although he was angry, he did not show it on his face. He still looked regretful.

“Yeah. How would I know?” Yu Di looked at him seriously and shrugged.

“After all, she’s not from our team. The Lord just asked her to come here to train in case she ever encounters demonic beasts and can’t even deal with them. She’ll probably return soon.”

How could their Mistress stay here forever? He had heard she was a medicine refiner..
