Chapter 731: Why Didn 't You Say So Earlier!

He glanced at Qian Jiyun and said to Fu Ming, "He's not wrong."

"What's not wrong?" Fu Ming did not understand what he meant.

What was "not wrong"? Shouldn't An Zhiyi become enraged after discovering that Qian Jiyun had deceived him?

Why was he so calm? Was it because An Jiuyue was present?

An Zhiyi said firmly, "You do lack experience. Hurry up and go to the swamp to kill demonic beasts. Yu Beast City is not suitable for you at all!"

"Uh!" Fu Ming was rendered speechless. Why did it seem like everything was his fault?

It was fine if Qian Jiyun said that about him, but why was his stinky younger brother also saying that about him? What did he do to offend them?

"Zhiyi, 1—"

Before he could speak, An Jiuyue, who was treating Qian Jiyun's wound, snapped, "Zhiyi, assign him another partner. Don't let him die in the swamp. I'll also send him more pills."

Fu Ming was shocked.

He offended all three of them the moment he opened his mouth, right?

They were all attacking him! What was happening? Was he that easy to bully?

“No, Second Sister-in-Law, I didn’t say anything.”

An Jiuyue said coldly, without looking at him, “You should train more because you don’t trust even your second brother.”

“Uh.” Fu Ming was stunned again.

He realized none of them believed that Qian Jiyun was putting on a ruse of self-injury.

“Third Brother.” An Zhiyi raised his hand and patted Fu Ming’s shoulder.

“The Eternal Black Vines were wrapped around me. Even if Qian Jiyun shrank me and placed me in his palm, the Eternal Black Vines would still attack me. Do you understand?”

How could he not know what Fu Ming was thinking? Fu Ming thought Qian Jiyun was exaggerating. He thought Qian Jiyun could have simply pulled him away.

Everything would have been alright if Qian Jiyun had been able to do so. There would not have been so much trouble.

“Why didn’t you say so earlier!”

Fu Ming was furious and almost slapped him with his claws.

However, when he thought about how the person in front of him had two backers, especially those two backers, he did not want to provoke either of them. He could only put his claws behind his back and pretend not to know anything. He sneered at An Zhiyi.

An Zhiyi was helpless. Did Fu Ming give him a chance to speak?

When Qian Jiyun was injured, the top priority was to bring him back, right? But Fu Ming kept blabbering on like he was cracking wise.

“You’re the one who talked the most,” he said, gesturing with his hands.

Fu Ming was speechless.

So what if he talked the most? He would not let an opportunity to mock his second brother pass.

However, he never expected his second brother to be serious. If he had known, he would not have given Qian Jiyun a reason to punish him.

“Second Brother, why don’t I go to the Spirit Severing Cliff? The swamp is really...”

“Go to the swamp. I’ll transfer PO Kong to you.”

Before he could finish his sentence, An Zhiyi interrupted him and said, “Among us, PO Kong’s Original Soul energy is second only to mine. If he works with Fu Ming, I don’t think there will be any issues in the swamp.”

Besides, Fu Ming’s team would not be the only one in the swamp. There were other teams. Would they watch Fu Ming suffer under the claws of a demonic beast?

Fu Ming was speechless.

What sin did he commit? Why did he have to suffer at Huayan Peak?

Chapter 732: The Purple Scarab Beetle’s Venom

These three people were inhumane! How could they send a newcomer like him to a place like the swamp? Did they want him to die? Or did they want him to be half-dead?

Could he choose not to go?

“Second Brother...

“Zhiyi, bring him there.”

An Jiuyue interrupted him before he could plead for mercy again. She glanced

“Okay.”

An Zhiyi did not waste any more time. He tugged Fu Ming’s arm and pulled him out of the tent, unconcerned about what he was shouting.

“You went to chop the Eternal Black Vines?”

An Jiuyue had already treated Qian Jiyun’s wound and bandaged it before looking at the Eternal Black Vines thrown in a corner.

According to Wei Na, dealing with these black vines was challenging. Moreover, they had to grow in specific places. They were useless if they did not grow in good locations.

It was evident that Qian Jiyun and the other two had spent a lot of effort chopping them.

“They won’t move now.”

Qian Jiyun looked at the black vines and was about to get up to retrieve them when An Jiuyue glared at him.

“They won’t move, but you can’t move now either,” she snapped.

“Uh.” Qian Jiyun was stunned by her words.

“I’m fine. I’ll recover after resting for a few days,” he explained, looking up at her.

“Are you sure?” An Jiuyue asked, an icy expression on her face. “The Eternal Black Vine is poisonous. Don’t you know that?”

Of course, Qian Jiyun knew that. However, he had already taken an antidote pill, so the poison was already neutralized.

“That bit of poison isn’t—”

An Jiuyue did not give him a chance to finish his sentence and said, “In addition to the Black Heart Miasma, there’s also the Purple Scarab Beetle’s venom.”

The poison from the Black Heart Miasma could be neutralized. She had given Qian Jiyun many medicinal pills, including one that could detoxify the poison. He would be fine after eating one.

However, the Purple Scarab Beetle’s venom was not as easy to detoxify, and it was certainly not something that could be resolved simply by consuming advanced-level antidote pills.

“Have you heard of the Purple Scarab Beetle?” she asked him.

“I’ve heard of them, but I’ve never seen them.” Qian Jiyun nodded.

Everyone on Huayan Peak had heard of the Purple Scarab Beetle. However, the younger ones on Huayan Peak had probably never seen it before.

It was said that the Purple Scarab Beetle had already gone extinct. However, he unexpectedly encountered one today.

“So I’m poisoned by the Purple Scarab Beetle?” he asked.

An Jiuyue exhaled heavily and nodded.

Qian Jiyun heaved a sigh of relief and said, “It’s alright. It’s only the Purple Scarab Beetle’s venom.”

It would be disastrous if it were a more aggressive and potent venom. The Purple Scarab Beetle’s venom did not require antidote pills; he could recover from it naturally over time.

“Only?” An Jiuyue glared at him again.

The Purple Scarab Beetle’s venom was not particularly scary, but it could cause a temporary loss of Original Soul energy. People would only recover their Original Soul energy after their bodies were detoxified.

“You can’t even use your Original Soul energy for at least a month. Do you still think it’s fine?” she asked him.

She was worried. After all, he had many enemies on Huayan Peak. He had just defeated Ming Fucheng, but they did not know if he would retaliate.

Shang Ningyi would, obviously, also want to attack Qian Jiyun as soon as possible.

Given such a situation, how could he think that everything was fine? He could fall into their traps before fully recovering from the venom..

Chapter 733: Qian Jiyun’s Shamelessness

“No one else knows.” Qian Jiyun smiled at her.

An Jiuyue was speechless.

He meant that he could pretend to know nothing because others were unaware of his situation, right?

However, she could not say anything. She could not possibly go out and announce that Qian Jiyun was poisoned by the Purple Scarab Beetle.

That explained why she had asked An Zhiyi to bring Fu Ming out. Fu Ming had been with Shang Ningyi and the others. Who knew if he would get drunk and expose this one day?

“Are you staying here or going back to camp?” she asked him.

“Let’s return to the camp,” Qian Jiyun said.

An Jiuyue thought so too. It was impossible for them to stay in Yu Beast City forever.

“Let’s go back then. We’ll leave when a new batch of demonic beasts arrives,” she said.

No one should know that Qian Jiyun was injured. Moreover, there were many people in Yu Beast City. They had to be careful.

“Eat this medicinal pill first.”

She took out a porcelain bottle from her space, poured out a pill, and brought it to his mouth.

“I’ve already eaten a Healing Pill.” Qian Jiyun could not bear to eat another pill.

He knew she had worked hard to refine these pills. He could not possibly eat them like candy, right?

“This is a Tissue Regeneration Pill. I refined it yesterday and haven’t tested its effectiveness yet. I’ll use you to test it.”

An Jiuyue stuffed the pill into his mouth unhappily and poured a glass of warm water on the table for him to drink.

She could not detoxify the poison, but she could heal the wound on his shoulder as quickly as possible. That way, no one would suspect anything.

“People shouldn’t be able to tell you’re wounded after eating the Tissue Regeneration Pill, but you still can’t recover from the venom yet.”

“So be it,” Qian Jiyun said casually with a smile.

Apart from battling demonic beasts, he rarely used his Original Soul energy on Huayan Peak. He would typically not kill demonic beasts unless there was a shortage of inner cores in his camp.

“I’ll recover when the time comes.”

“You’re so magnanimous.” An Jiuyue rolled her eyes at him but did not say anything.

However, based on her calculations, it seemed like it would take around three months for them to return to the capital.

Their two-month return trip plan was about to go down the drain. Her academy was still waiting for her to open for business and earn her points. She was quite anxious.

If she had known, she would not have used her points so thoroughly. She could have saved them for a more crucial moment.

“Roar!”

Soon, the roars of demonic beasts could be heard from outside. An Jiuyue knew that a new wave of demonic beasts had arrived.

An Zhiyi also entered the tent and looked at her.

“Sister, are we leaving now?” he asked.

Leaving when a new wave of demonic beasts arrived would be advantageous for them as it would allow them to evade detection

“Mhm.” An Jiuyue nodded and helped Qian Jiyun stand up.

“Sister, let me help him.” An Zhiyi immediately pushed his sister away and held Qian Jiyun’s arm.

He’s a grown man! Even if he’s injured, there’s no need for my sister, a lady, to support him. Does he have no strength at all?

He sneered inwardly and criticized Qian Jiyun for his shamelessness.

Although he knew the situation back then had been dire, Fu Ming was right about one thing: Qian Jiyun wanted to use a ruse of self-injury—not directed at him but at his sister..

Chapter 734: You Still Have the Cheek to Say That!

Even if he had not planned it in advance, it had to be a spontaneous idea that arose after their return.

Look, Qian Jiyun had a reason for An Jiuyue to take care of him because he was injured. An Zhiyi refused to let Qian Jiyun have his way. Qian Jiyun was injured because he saved him, so it would be enough for him to take care of him.

“Sister, I heard someone ask you to get your inner cores. I heard you killed many demonic beasts. Go quickly. You probably won’t be able to come tomorrow,” he said to his sister.

An Jiuyue, who had been shoved aside inexplicably, fell silent.

It was no wonder An Zhiyi could become friends with Fu Ming. They were really similar.

However, her younger brother was still a little more mature than Fu Ming. She was rather relieved by this.

“No, I won’t go. My inner cores won’t go missing if I leave them with them.

Let’s return to the camp first,” she said.

“Okay then. ”

An Zhiyi nodded and turned to face Qian Jiyun, whom he was holding by the arm.

“Lord Qian, I’ll hold you. Be careful.”

Qian Jiyun was confused.

He was only injured. He was not old, weak, sick, or disabled, was he? Wasn’t it enough for An Zhiyi to support him while walking? Why was he still so meticulous about reminding him to be careful? What was happening?

He raised his uninjured hand and patted An Zhiyi's hand that was holding onto him. "Zhiyi, I can walk by myself. I can't let the people outside notice anything amiss."

An Zhiyi immediately retracted his hand. "Alright then, you can walk on your own."

Qian Jiyun did not want his help, and An Zhiyi did not want to help him either. Walking alone would be easier, right?

He was not really terminally ill, and he did not hurt his leg. He could still walk perfectly fine, but he had let An Jiuyue help him earlier. The mere thought of it made An Zhiyi angry.

However, he decided not to argue with Qian Jiyun because he had saved him earlier.

"Second Brother, are you leaving? Do I leave with you?"

Fu Ming was outside the tent. When he saw Qian Jiyun and the other two, he hurried forward and suggested it with a smile.

An Jiuyue looked up and glanced at him.

She reminded him, "Lord Fu, remember your identity. You and Qian Jiyun are enemies. Do you understand?"

If people saw Qian Jiyun leaving with Fu Ming, Shang Ningyi and the others would not support Fu Ming as much anymore. They would gather people to kill him secretly.

Fu Ming rolled his eyes secretly. He was helpless.

He had portrayed himself as a scumbag who would do anything for his future. However, Shang Ningyi and the others saw him as a motivated young man.

But they probably assumed that anyone who wanted to deal with Qian Jiyun was good.

“Second Sister-in-Law, it’s not as serious as you think. It’ll look like we just happened to return together. What’s the big deal? Besides, Zhiyi is my brother. He’s been staying at Camp Zhan Yun anyway. No one said anything.” “Oh,” An Jiuyue replied softly.

“Fu Ming, you still have the cheek to say that!” An Zhiyi was furious at the mention of this.

He was only staying at Camp Zhan Yun temporarily. However, Fu Ming did not even prepare a bed for him at his camp.

He felt like hitting him! He wished he could give him such a beating that he would look like a panda!

He gritted his teeth and said, “I’ll see where you stay when I get back!”

“Where else can I stay? 1—”

Fu Ming wanted to retort, but his expression darkened when he realized what An Zhiyi meant..

Chapter 735: Are You Teasing Me?

Was An Zhiyi planning to take Fu Ming’s tent for himself? Was that what he meant?

“Zhiyi, between us brothers, shouldn’t we be understanding and considerate of each other? We shouldn’t do things that would harm each other, right?” An Zhiyi sneered at him and cursed, “Hmph! Brothers? Bullsh*t!”

If his sister really ended up with Qian Jiyun, they would have to reassess their relationship. Brothers? Fu Ming and Qian Jiyun were brothers, but he was not!

“I’m telling you, empty your tent for me. Otherwise, I’ll make sure you have nowhere to sleep,” he said.

Fu Ming was speechless.

My younger brother used to be a gentle and obedient person. How did he become like this? Is this because of Second Brother?

It must be! He dares to do whatever he wants because he’s Second Brother’s brother-in-law. Unfortunately, I can’t do anything to him.

If I dare to try something, Second Brother will do something to me first! So I really don’t dare to do anything.

“Zhiyi...”

“Hurry up and leave. You’ll delay our return. Can you bear the responsibility if others see that your second brother is injured?” An Zhiyi pushed him away and turned to see that Qian Jiyun had already changed his clothes and walked out of the tent.

He was stunned. He did not understand where Qian Jiyun’s clothes came from. There were none in this tent, right?

However, it was not the time to care about this. They had to leave Yu Beast City first.

“This is so inconvenient. I’ll definitely get a horse carriage next time,” An Jiuyue muttered as she carefully helped the man.

She had to rely on her two legs to travel here. Being injured was inconvenient. She also knew that it was difficult for animals like horses to survive here because there were many demonic beasts.

However, she had her own space. Even if she did not use a horse, she could use a demonic beast.

It would be possible after she refined the Taming Potion.

Qian Jiyun lowered his head and whispered, "Yes, let's get a few carriages next time."

The demonic beasts on Huayan Peak could not be tamed at all. Xiang Qiyun had mentioned that they had Taming Potions on their plane, but they could not bring them to Huayan Peak.

Only a supreme-level medicine refiner could refine the Taming Potion.

Every supreme-level medicine refiner who reached a certain level of Original Soul energy could not stay at Huayan Peak. Otherwise, they would be trapped here forever.

Hence, Huayan Peak really did not have any tamed demonic beasts.

"Are you teasing me?" An Jiuyue looked up, rolled her eyes at him, and continued walking.

Qian Jiyun chuckled and followed her out.

An Zhiyi followed them quickly, leaving Fu Ming speechless.

He had come with An Zhiyi and had some company on the way. However, now that they were heading back, the three of them were leaving together, leaving him all alone?

Why was he so unlucky? He did not even know when Sixth Brother would return.

He had to return quickly, regardless of when he did. He believed that as long as Sixth Brother returned, he would be the one being bullied instead.

Although he was betraying his sixth brother, and it was quite unethical to think this way, it did not matter as long as he was not the one being bullied!

Chapter 736: Confirm With Someone Else in the Camp

The next day at dawn...

Just as An Jiuyue had said, Qian Jiyun's wound was almost healed.

However, he did not have any Original Soul energy. He could only stay in the camp and do nothing. He could not even accompany An Jiuyue to Yu Beast City. "Sister, shall I accompany you to Yu Beast City?"

An Zhiyi woke up early in the morning. He found the two children still asleep and did not wake them up. He came to look for An Jiuyue.

He knew his sister wanted to train. That was why she had asked Qian Jiyun to bring her to Yu Beast City.

"Lord Qian is so busy, so he can't bring you there every day. I'll accompany you in the future. What do you think?"

An Jiuyue, who was cooking chicken porridge, looked up at him.

"Go on your own. I won't go out today."

How could she be at ease leaving Qian Jiyun alone here? She had to stay and watch over him.

She was not worried that someone would do anything to him, but she was worried about this troublesome man. If something happened, he might rush over to resolve it hastily.

However, he did not have any Original Soul energy now and could not let others know about this.

She thought it would be better if she stayed with him.

An Zhiyi was unhappy when he heard that.

“I knew it.”

He had been thinking about how to abduct his sister last night so that she would not be too busy taking care of Qian Jiyun.

Now that he saw her, he realized he was right. His sister was even willing to postpone her training for Qian Jiyun. He disagreed with her.

“Sister, you’ve only been killing demonic beasts for a day. The people from Yu Beast City must be waiting for you. If you don’t go, they might think their mistress is someone who gives up halfway.

“You don’t want to leave such an impression on them, right? That’s not good,” he persuaded.

An Jiuyue was speechless.

She knew very well what her younger brother was thinking.

He was saying all this to discourage her from accompanying Qian Jiyun and to keep her distance from him, right?

“Why don’t you stay and take care of Jiyun while I go?” she suggested.

An Zhiyi’s eyes lit up, and he was ready to nod in agreement. He did not believe that a grown man like Qian Jiyun would lower himself to let him take care of him.

He would agree with his sister but secretly accompany her after she left for Yu Beast City. At most, he would tell her that Qian Jiyun had asked him to go with her.

“Sister, go ahead. I’ll take care of him here.” He agreed and continued daydreaming about his plans.

“Really?”

An Jiuyue would be a fool to believe him.

Even a three-year-old child could tell that he was up to no good.

“Then make sure to take good care of him. When I come back, I’ll ask the people in the camp about this. I won’t stand on ceremony with you if you don’t take good care of your brother-in-law.”

Her expression darkened as she instructed her brother.

“Huh?” An Zhiyi was dumbfounded.

She wanted to confirm with someone else in the camp if he had taken good care of Qian Jiyun?

He thought his sister would only ask Qian Jiyun. He also assumed Qian Jiyun would not dare to betray him.

However, if she asked someone else, he would definitely be exposed. Who knew who she would look for? He could not even find someone to win over in advance.

“Sister, you can’t do this. I’m your biological brother.. Don’t you believe me?”

Chapter 737: Inevitably Become Affectionate

“I would’ve believed you if you weren’t my biological brother,” An Jiuyue snapped.

An Zhiyi was shocked.

She was indeed his sister! Even though they had not seen each other for years, she knew what he was thinking.

“I’m just worried about you working too hard. Taking care of someone isn’t easy. Besides, Qian Jiyun is a grown man. It’s not like he broke his arms or legs. It’s just—”

“Who did he get injured for?” An Jiuyue asked, not giving him a chance to finish his sentence.

“Uhm!” An Zhiyi was stunned.

He knew he was injured because of him, but he could not let his sister take care of him!

“Why don’t we find someone to take care of him?” he suggested softly. An Jiuyue looked at him and asked, “What do you think?”

How could her younger brother say that? She did not even tell him that Qian Jiyun had temporarily lost his Original Soul energy.

Certainly, they could not find someone else to take care of him!

“We can’t?” An Zhiyi’s face fell. He knew his sister would not agree.

How could his sister be at ease with the idea of finding someone else to take care of Qian Jiyun? Especially considering that Qian Jiyun had injured himself while saving him.

Hence, Qian Jiyun’s injuries were worth it. An Zhiyi was well aware that just a few days ago, his sister would not even let Qian Jiyun catch a glimpse of her. She was only focused on refining medicine.

As soon as he was injured, the two of them would inevitably become affectionate again.

“Alright. I won’t disturb you here anymore, Sister. I have to go to the protected grounds,” he said.

“Go on. Be careful.” An Jiuyue nodded and reminded him.

Camp Ning Se...

Shang Ningyi had already received news from Yu Beast City that a woman had arrived at Camp Zhan Yun and led the guardians in killing demonic beasts as effortlessly as chopping vegetables.

Speaking of this, he immediately recalled something he had seen before—Qian Jiyun killing demonic beasts. Those medium-sized demonic beasts could only withstand a single strike from him before dying.

However, no matter how powerful he was, he was only one person. He could not make all the guardians of his camp as powerful as him.

But now there was a woman who could lead the guardian to kill demonic beasts.

He had to watch out. The people in Camp Zhan Yun were getting stronger and stronger. It was very likely that they could defeat Camp Ning Se.

“Brother, what are you thinking about?” Shang Ningshen asked Shang Ningyi, who was lost in thought, while holding a fruit in one hand, tossing it up and playing with it.

He had already shouted loudly, but his brother did not hear him. He was still thinking about something with a strange expression.

“Brother? Big Brother?”

He approached Shang Ningyi and patted his brother’s shoulder.

Suddenly, Shang Ningyi grabbed his wrist and flung him aside, scaring him so much that he screamed.

“Ningshen!”

Fortunately, Shang Ningluo happened to arrive and quickly reached out a hand to steady Shang Ningyi, preventing him from having his entire face smashed onto the stone-paved ground.

After calming Shang Ningshen down, she glared at Shang Ningyi and questioned, “Big Brother, what are you doing?”

However, he did not have much of a reaction upon realizing he had pushed Shang Ningshen. He only asked calmly, thinking that everything was fine since Shang Ningshen was fine..

Chapter 738: Gather Any Information

He did not do it on purpose just now. After all, Ningshen had suddenly reached for his neck. It was normal for him to react like that.

“Don’t touch me next time. Be careful not to hurt yourself.”

Shang Ningshen, who was nearly disfigured, was speechless.

Is he still my brother? How can he react like that when he almost hurt me?

In the past, if his sister had caused him even the slightest injury, his brother would have thrown a fit. He even felt that his brother cared deeply about him and was secretly happy about it.

But now, when it was his brother himself who had almost injured him, he reacted like this?

Was this differential treatment necessary?

“Big Brother, you—I’

“Sister, stop talking.”

Shang Ningluo wanted to scold Shang Ningyi to wake him up, but Shang Ningshen stopped her and shook his head.

Shang Ningluo took a deep breath and glared fiercely at Shang Ningyi.

Shang Ningshen walked to the side and picked up the fruits he had dropped. He approached Shang Ningyi and asked softly, “Big Brother, what’s on your mind? You seemed lost in thought there.”

Upon hearing that, Shang Ningyi exhaled softly and turned to look at Shang Ningluo, who was still angry.

“Luoluo, did you look for Qian Jiyun recently?” he asked.

Shang Ningluo frowned and almost cursed Shang Ningyi to death.

Why would I look for Qian Jiyun? Who stopped me from interacting with him previously? Now you want me to look for Qian Jiyun?

“What’s the matter?” she asked directly.

It would be strange if Shang Ningyi allowed her to look for Qian Jiyun.

“I recently received news that there’s a woman in Camp Zhan Yun’s temporary camp at Yu Beast City. She can help the guardians kill the demonic beasts quickly. Go to Camp Zhan Yun and find out who she is.”

Wasting no time, Shang Ningyi instructed her.

Shang Ningluo was speechless.

“Big brother, do you think with Qian Jiyun’s attitude towards me, I would be able to gather any information within Camp Zhan Yun?”

If she went to Camp Zhan Yun, Qian Jiyun would chase her out, right?

She had been chased out the last time and had embarrassed herself. She would be mocked if she went back again.

“Go if you want to. I won’t go.”

With that, she ignored what Shang Ningyi wanted to say to her and turned to leave.

Shang Ningyi said coldly behind her, “Luoluo, you have to go even if you don’t want to.”

Shang Ningluo pretended she did not hear him. She refused to go regardless.

“Luoluo is too outrageous.”

Who am I doing this for? It’s so that the three of us can establish ourselves at Huayan Peak. This will also allow us to establish ourselves in Shang Kingdom when we return in the future.

However, his sister did not understand his feelings at all. She even went against him. He was furious.

“Big Brother, don’t be angry. I’ll go persuade Sister,” Shang Ningshen said to Shang Ningyi when he saw that Shang Ningluo had run away. He quickly ran after her.

It would be his loss if his brother ended up teaching him a lesson instead of their sister.

“Forget it. I can’t count on you two.”

Shang Ningyi watched as the two of them slipped away faster than a rabbit. He sighed helplessly, turned around, and instructed someone to find out the identity of the woman in Camp Zhan Yun.

Meanwhile, in Shang Ningluo’s tent...

Chapter 739: He’s Indeed a Little Shameless

Shang Ningluo poured herself a cup of water and gulped it down in one go. She slammed the teacup on the table, but it did not release her anger. She let out a heavy sigh.

“Sister, are you angry?”

Shang Ningshen followed her into the tent. When he saw that she was furious, he picked up the teapot and poured her another cup of tea.

“Big Brother is that kind of person. It’s not worth getting angry with him. Don’t be angry. It’s not worth the effort.”

“Huff!” Shang Ningyi exhaled heavily.

“Ningshen, he was the one who reminded me not to have anything to do with Qian Jiyun. Oh, now that something has happened, he wants me to go to Camp Zhan Yun to gather information?”

“Why doesn’t he go himself? How can he have the cheek to instruct me to do such a thing? Is my reputation not important?” Shang Ningshen only raised his eyebrows.

He realized his sister was incredibly furious.

He knew that Qian Jiyun had ordered his men to chase his sister out of Camp Zhan Yun the last time she went there. Moreover, it happened in front of Qian Jiyun’s wife.

Qian Jiyun had utterly embarrassed her.

It had only been a few days, so this matter had yet to pass. If his big brother wanted her to go to Camp Zhan Yun, she would only embarrass herself.

His sister was not stupid. Why would she go?

“The last time they chased me back, he scolded me for two full hours and couldn’t even calm down after that. He said I was shameless and that I embarrassed him. He even said he hoped I wasn’t his sister.

“But now that something happened to him, instead of thinking about investigating it himself, he suddenly thinks of me? Does he have any shame?!”

Shang Ningshen raised his hand and touched the tip of his nose.

He also felt that his brother had become more utilitarian recently. He had even become close to the new lord from Daqing Kingdom, Fu Ming.

He had tried to dissuade him several times, but it was useless.

Why did his big brother not think about whether a shrewd person like Qian Jiyun would allow someone who opposes him to come to Huayan Peak?

It was obviously impossible! Fu Ming might complain about Qian Jiyun and rant about how he was angry with him, but they could be in cahoots!

Shang Ningshen was spot on, but it was useless. Shang Ningyi would not listen to him. What else could he do?

“Ningshen, is there another woman in Camp Zhan Yun?”

Although she was angry with Shang Ningyi, Shang Ningluo did not forget what he had said. Another woman had arrived at Camp Zhan Yun and attracted his attention,

It was evident that this woman was not ordinary. There must be something special about her that could attract others' attention.

“Uh.” Shang Ningshen was rendered speechless. “Sister, why are you asking me? How would I know?”

He was either on the protected grounds or cultivating in the camp every day. He had no interest in finding out what was happening outside.

“That's true.” Shang Ningluo glanced at him indifferently before looking away. “There's no point in asking you. I might as well take a look myself.”

“Are you really going?” Shang Ningshen asked.

He thought she would never follow their brother's wishes and would definitely refuse to go to Camp Zhan Yun..

Chapter 740: I Really Want to Kill Him!

However, it seemed like she wanted to go?

“I’m not going!”

Shang Ningluo immediately denied it and also resisted the small, budding temptation that had emerged in her heart.

She did not want to embarrass herself at Camp Zhan Yun. Even if she wanted to go, she should wait until the news of Qian Jiyun chasing her away had settled down.

“But I’m quite curious about that woman. I can’t believe she made Shang Ningyi, that b*stard, ask me for help,” she said.

“I think she’s just an ordinary person.”

Shang Ningshen did not think much of it. He did not think someone impressive had arrived at Camp Zhan Yun.

“Ye Chenglin is gone, so there’s a shortage of medicine refiners in Camp Zhan Yun. It’s normal to bring in another one to replace her, right? I think there’s a new medicine refiner. I just don’t know how the news got to Big Brother.” “Who knows?” Shang Ningluo sneered and did not say anything.

“Who knows?” Shang Ningluo sneered and did not say anything.

She did not know what to say to Shang Ningyi. He could make her incredibly angry every time.

However, he did not have the self-awareness to realize he had angered others. He believed he was a good person and acted like he was the best in the world.

“Who did Shang Ningyi meet today?” she asked.

“The captain of the Yu Beast City team.”

Shang Ningshen knew this because he had witnessed it earlier.

The captain went to his brother’s tent and said something to him. Whatever was said caused his brother to almost disfigure him and then offend his sister.

“Him again!”

Shang Ningluo’s expression turned ugly upon hearing about the man surnamed Dongfang.

He was not a good man, much like their brother. He only knew how to scheme against others, never considering whether he possessed any positive qualities.

“I really want to kill him!”

“Sister, you have unusual thoughts.” Shang Ningshen gave her a thumbs-up.

He also knew Captain Dongfang. He bullied the weak and feared the strong. He would not dare say anything if someone else with a stronger fist punched him.

However, if someone appeared timid when meeting Captain Dongfang, he could skin them alive.

“If he dies, Yu Beast City will definitely be in chaos.”

“What’s there to be afraid of?” Shang Ningluo looked nonchalant as she glanced at her brother. “You can take over when the time comes.”

She did not believe that the guardians would have anything to say if the lord's younger brother personally took over as the captain of the Yu Beast City team!

"Uh." Shang Ningshen was shocked.

He was willing to go and assist their guardians on the protected grounds at any time. However, he would rather die than be stationed somewhere permanently. "Sister, don't cause trouble for me. I don't want to stay in Yu Beast City."

"Haha..."

Shang Ningluo knew what her brother was like.

She did not actually want to send him there. She only mentioned it casually. She genuinely would not do anything to Captain Dongfang.

"Alright, I won't argue with you anymore. Send someone to investigate Camp Zhan Yun. You don't actually have to find out anything; we're just going through the motions," she instructed Shang Ningshen.

"Okay, I'll do it now," Shang Ningshen replied, stood up quickly, and left the tent.

"What are you doing?"

There were not many people walking around the camp.

As soon as An Jiuyue stepped out of the tent, she spotted Qian Jiyun sitting on a small stool, holding the Eternal Black Vine that he had chopped down yesterday..
