Chapter 741: Initiated the Process of Ordering Dishes

And the two little ones, for a rare change, were not cultivating today. They stood at a distance, watching their Uncle Jiyun as he handled the Eternal Black

Vine.

“Mother, you’re here.”

Qian Yizheng saw his mother coming and hurried forward to hug her thigh.

Qian Yirong was unwilling to fall behind and ran after him.

“Mother, Uncle Jiyun is teaching us how to make a whip, but he said we can’t get too close because we may be injured easily,” he said.

I just don’t understand. He wants to teach us, but we can’t get too close. How will he teach us then? Are we supposed to be satisfied watching from a distance?

“Yes, you can’t get too close. It’s dangerous.” An Jiuyue agreed with Qian Jiyun.

The Eternal Black Vine was not to be taken lightly. It had defeated even Qian Jiyun. With his Original Soul energy temporarily gone, he dared not risk it with his two precious sons.

“But your Uncle Jiyun is also disobedient. I told him to rest, but he didn’t.” She patted the two children’s heads and turned to Qian Jiyun.

“You’re quite the active one, aren’t you? Didn’t I tell you to rest? Is this how you rest?”

“This is also rest.”

Qian Jiyun had already set aside the black vine in his hand when she approached. He simply watched as she interacted with the two children.

Did it matter if he rested or not? It would be agonizing if he had to stay in bed all day.

“You’re not refining medicine today?” he asked her.

“I’m resting today,” An Jiuyue replied.

The main issue was not about refining medicine but rather about accompanying Qian Jiyun.

“Aren’t you always telling me not to refine medicine all the time? I’ll rest today and resume tomorrow.”

However, even if she wanted to refine medicine, she would take the furnace with her to the tent rather than do it in her space. This was to ensure she could keep an eye on Qian Jiyun.

Actually, she knew why Qian Jiyun had asked her if she would be refining medicine today. He was reminding her that they were very similar.

When she was busy refining medicine, he could not convince her to rest. Now that she wanted him to rest, she probably could not convince him either. “Mother, why does Uncle Jiyun need to rest today? He’s not injured.”

“Mother, it’s so rare for you to rest today.”

The two children spoke in unison. An Jiuyue raised her eyebrows. Were they here to jinx her?

“No wonder Uncle Jiyun asked us to rest too. So we’re all resting together, right?” Qian Yirong muttered when she remained silent.

He wanted to meditate and cultivate after breakfast today.

However, Uncle Jiyun came in time and brought them outside. He said he would teach them how to make whips that could be useful in the future.

Qian Yirong wondered if he brought them out to play because he knew their mother would be resting too. Since she was here with them, they could take a break from cultivation for the time being.

“Mother, shall we roast meat today? I want to eat roasted meat.”

Since his mother and Uncle Jiyun were both here, Qian Yizheng smoothly initiated the process of ordering dishes. He wanted to eat roasted meat. He believed his younger brother, his mother, and Uncle Jiyun would want to eat it too, right?

“You greedy little cat.” An Jiuyue pinched the tip of his nose.

“I’ve just arrived, and you’re already thinking of instructing me to work? If you want to eat roasted meat, go and gut the poultry yourself.”

With that, she retrieved a few wild rabbits from her space and threw them on the ground..

Chapter 742: A Sense of Vitality

“Oh my! Brother, Brother, catch them quickly! They’re escaping!” Qian Yirong exclaimed when he saw the rabbits.

The rabbits were alive. They were stunned after coming out of An Jiuyue’s space but soon began fleeing.

“You block that side; I’ll block this side. Zhenger... No, no. Go and bring a big basket. I’ll block them.”

The two brothers initially planned to block the rabbits from both sides.

However, Qian Yizheng realized that blocking them was pointless. They only had two hands, and they were the hands of a child. How could they catch so many rabbits?

A few people were eating together, so there were a lot of rabbits. They would not be able to catch all of them without a basket.

Even if they had the baskets, they could not catch all of them. Many of them would definitely escape.

“I’ll go, I’ll go...”

Qian Yirong was about to say that he would fetch a basket when it was handed to him.

He looked up and saw Yan Nuo. He could not be bothered to say anything else, grabbing the basket and rushing to his brother. “Big Brother, the basket is here!”

Hence, the two children began catching the rabbits.

Yan Nuo saw many rabbits and wanted to help, but An Jiuyue stopped him.

“Just observe from the side. Don’t help them. Let them catch it themselves.” It would kill some time.

She did not say the last sentence.

Yan Nuo looked at the two young masters and then at his mistress. He could not help but think that he actually did not intend to help—he simply wanted to catch rabbits.

He knew he would be in for a treat today when he saw the rabbits. How could he miss it?

However, since his mistress had instructed him not to interfere, he could not offer his help anymore. He could only watch the two young masters catch the rabbits. It was pretty much a chaotic and disastrous scene.

“Yes, Mistress.”

An Jiuyue ignored the two children and walked to Qian Jiyun.

“What should we do with these black vines?” she asked.

“The black vines are prickly. I’ll handle them. You can just watch from the side,” Qian Jiyun said.

He would not let An Jiuyue do it herself. He also pulled out a small stool for her to sit on.

Of course, An Jiuyue would not stand on ceremony with him. She sat down beside him.

“They’re not moving now, but I saw them moving yesterday.”

The Eternal Black Vines emanated a sense of vitality yesterday. But that was gone today, leaving behind a lifeless aura.

“It’s because they had no access to water or soil the entire night,” Qian Jiyun explained.

The reason behind the name “Eternal” was due to its ability to harbor its own consciousness and harm individuals whenever it came into contact with water and soil.

However, it was difficult for them to survive. They could only survive in specific environments.

“If we give them some water and soil now, they’ll turn into sharp weapons in less than 15 minutes,” he said.

An Jiuyue was a little worried and asked, “Are you sure it’s safe to use this black vine as a whip?”

It was a sharp weapon that could attack people consciously. Would she be injured if she held a whip made of the Eternal Black Vine?

“We’ll only use its skin and not its pith. Its consciousness will be slightly blurred. Then you can infuse your Original Soul energy into it, and it will only listen to you,” Qian Jiyun explained..

Chapter 743: A High Chance of Mutation

Moreover, it was a blessing in disguise. The Eternal Black Vines had a toxin that could temporarily deprive someone of their Original Soul energy. If anyone dared to come seeking trouble, they would have a taste of it.

After some thought, he explained, “I am able to make the whip precisely because I don’t have Original Soul energy now. If I had Original Soul energy, I would inevitably contaminate the black vines. It would be troublesome.” An Jiuyue rolled her eyes at him.

“So, what you’re trying to say is that it was right for you to lose your Original Soul energy?”

“Well... I didn’t say that.” Qian Jiyun smiled. He dared not say that he thought so.

Otherwise, she would definitely be upset with him. After all, Original Soul energy was undeniably the most important thing on Huayan Peak. Nothing could be accomplished without Original Soul energy.

“You didn’t say that, but that’s what you think, right?”

An Jiuyue knew him well. He must have thought it was good that he had lost his Original Soul energy.

“Should we skin the vines now?”

She could not keep criticizing and embarrassing him. She changed the topic and reached out toward the black vine.

“I’ll do it. It’s prickly.”

Qian Jiyun stopped her again. The black vines were indeed thorny. He was not lying.

He had tough skin, so he could handle it. However, An Jiuyue might get pricked. He could not let her skin the vines. “Just watch. It’s easy to skin the vines. I’ll finish it in no time.”

Upon hearing that, An Jiuyue nodded.

However, after watching him skin the vines for a while, she began to pity Qian Jiyun’s hands.

The Eternal Black Vine appeared to be calm and did not cause any trouble. However, when Qian Jiyun wanted to skin them, they suddenly became restless and agitated.

They were like pythons, struggling nonstop. Qian Jiyun was so tired that he was sweating profusely, and his hands were covered in blood.

She wanted to go forward several times, but Qian Jiyun stopped her. She could not even be of help.

Two hours had passed by the time the black vines were skinned. It was obvious how difficult it was to skin them.

“Let me see.”

When An Jiuyue saw him set the vine skin on a rock, she grabbed his hands and inspected his palms.

“You’re so injured. Don’t you know how to stop and rest for a while?”

With that, she took out a porcelain bottle from her space, opened the lid, and applied the Tissue Regeneration Powder she had refined to the wound on his palm.

“It’ll hurt a little at first. Bear with it,” she said softly as she applied the medicine.

However, after saying that, she could not help but note how, despite his injuries, he did not even frown. How could he not withstand this pain? It felt like a waste of her breath.

“How are you going to roast rabbit meat later with your injuries?” she could not help but ask as she applied the medicine.

“Then I’ll have to trouble you to roast it for me,” Qian Jiyun said, smiling.

They kept the vine skin in the tent. The remaining vine piths were not discarded either. An Jiuyue stored them in her space. Wei Na said they still had a hint of vitality and could be planted.

Moreover, the things planted in her space, especially those with spiritual energy, had a high chance of mutation.

If she could successfully grow the Eternal Black Vines, they could become sharp weapons that would follow her commands obediently in the future..

Chapter 744: Truly Unlucky

Although Wei Na had big dreams, An Jiuyue recalled how she had watched Qian Jiyun skin the black vines. Would the vines really obey her?

She found it rather unbelievable.

However, since Wei Na said to plant them, she would try. At the very least, it was a valuable item—something rare and hard to come by. Even if she did not use them, perhaps she could offer them to someone else in the future.

By the river...

Yan Nuo was busy with the two young masters.

He wanted to help them several times but could not because the two young masters did not allow him to interfere.

Besides, the warrior-servants could not help them either.

With the warrior-servants around, he had nothing to do. He decided to walk around but did not expect to encounter something strange.

Two guardians chatted as they walked toward Camp Zhan Yun.

“Why did the Young Master send us to investigate a woman? Did he fall for a lady from Camp Zhan Yun?”

A green-robed guardian muttered softly but loudly enough for Yan Nuo, who stood nearby, to hear.

The other blue-robed guardian rolled his eyes at him and snapped, “What nonsense are you spouting? The Young Master is still so young. How can he have feelings for a woman? I think it’s the Lord who has taken an interest in some girl and is using the Young Master as an excuse.”

“The Lord?”

The green-robed guardian widened his eyes and looked at the blue-robed guardian.

“You’re bold, aren’t you? How dare you make up stories about the Lord? Be careful, or he might slap you to death!”

He cautioned the blue-robed guardian not to judge their Lord based on his usual temper, as he appeared quite amicable. That was because they had not offended him. If they truly incurred his wrath, even 10 lives would not be enough for him to kill them.

“You think I don’t know that? I’m just saying it while we’re outside. Don’t tell anyone.” The blue-robed guardian glared at him angrily.

He was just angry. Why were they sent to Camp Zhan Yun to investigate a woman?

If they had the energy to spare, it would be more beneficial for them to sleep well and kill demonic beasts in the protected grounds, wouldn’t it? Besides, the Lord should be well aware of the number of women present in Camp Zhan Yun.

Moreover, that was Camp Zhan Yun! Even their Lord has to deal with them secretly. Why was he asking them to investigate openly? Was he doing this on purpose?

Did he think they would be an eyesore if they lived too long?

They could not understand what their Lord was thinking. They were truly unlucky to have been caught by the Young Master.

“By the way, did you understand what the Young Master said just now? Which woman did he ask us to investigate?” the blue-robed guardian asked the green-robed guardian.

“Should be someone new.” The green-robed guardian was unsure.

They had been tasked with doing this, but they did not even know all the details, so they did not know what to do. It worried them to death.

The blue-robed guardian could not help but sneer.

If the Young Master had instructed them to investigate the new woman, she had to be extraordinary. What information could they even find out about her?

Yan Nuo, who had been following them slowly through the forest, could not help but mutter to himself, "Are they trying to find out something about the Mistress?"

Apart from her, there were no other new women in Camp Zhan Yun..

Chapter 745: Suffer the Consequences of His Actions!

However, it did not make sense. Shang Ningluo had already met her. Shang Ningyi also knew that their Master had brought her here. If he wanted to gather information, he should have done so long ago.

Why did they only send people now? Wasn't it a little too late?

Could it be that they were investigating someone else?

But if not their Mistress, who else could they be looking into?

He decided to follow them and listen to what they wanted to do. He would not have a chance to catch the rabbits anyway. With the warrior-servants protecting the children, he did not even have a chance to be a bodyguard. He only understood what was going on when they were nearing Camp Zhan

Yun.

Qian Jiyun brought An Jiuyue to Yu Beast City yesterday. It had only been a day, but those people had the audacity to target her.

Shang Ningyi was indeed Shang Ningyi. He always had an insatiable desire.

Yan Nuo could not understand why Shang Ningyi was so greedy.

He became furious but could not openly warn the two guardians to stop prying. He thought of a solution.

“Yan Nuo, why are we covering our faces? Isn't it better to beat them up?”

Several guardians had been sleeping in the camp when Yan Nuo woke them up and covered their faces. They felt a bit disgruntled with their faces covered.

“Those filthy things dare to come knocking on our door and ask for a beating; why are we hiding? Let's beat them up!”

They had never been afraid of others. Shang Ningyi's men had been targeting them every day. This was their chance to show them they were no pushovers.

“You'll feel good, but trouble will come. Shang Ningyi is just short of finding an excuse to cause trouble,” Yan Nuo snapped as he glanced at them calmly.

It would be different if they covered their faces. If the two guardians claimed they had attacked them, they could refute it easily.

If those two could recognize who attacked them, then they would consider them impressive and awesome! They could also make Shang Ningyi, who liked to cause trouble, suffer the consequences of his actions!

When they covered their faces and took a detour to approach the two guardians from behind, they saw them peeking sneakily into Camp Zhan Yun.

One of the guardians could not help but roll his eyes and ask his companions,

“Why are they hiding so far away? What are they looking at?”

He had never seen anyone gather information like that. Were those two here to fool around?

“Beats me,” another guardian whispered.

The two guardians hid behind a big tree. The tree was not even as big as them, and their clothes fluttered in the wind. Everyone could see them. “Yan Nuo, do you think they can find out something about Mistress just like that?”

“Maybe.” Yan Nuo stood behind them and touched his chin. “If Mistress thinks they’re pitiful, she might really come over and tell them who she is.” The guardians with black scarves were speechless.

Yan Nuo, you must be kidding, right? Mistress coming over to introduce herself to them? Is she a fool?

“Let’s not talk about this anymore. Aren’t we planning to beat them up? If we don’t beat them up now, when will we?”

With that, they rushed forward and grabbed the two guardians, punching and kicking them until they could not recover. They even only started screaming after some time.

“Who are you? Why did you hit us?”

Chapter 746: I’ve Never Seen Such Cowards

“Stop, stop! Who are you? Do you know who we are?”

The two guardians were panicked and wanted to retaliate. However, they did not have the chance. Their fists were useless against someone with higher Original Soul energy than them.

“We’re beating up you people from Camp Zhan Yun! You’d better not come out in the future. Otherwise, we’ll beat you up every time we see you!”

The guardian leading the group said that in order to distance themselves from

Camp Zhan Yun.

The other guardians who were beating the two were speechless.

What a classic example of a thief crying “Catch the thief”! It was the kind of thing where a guilty person would expose themselves by protesting their innocence but still leave people speechless! Impressive, awesome!

“You filthy things! Big Brother is right! We’re beating you up! Who else should we beat up if not you? You heartless things! Let’s see how you dare to act tough now! We’ll beat you up every time we see you in the future!” “Yes! We’ll beat you up every time we see you!”

The guardians chimed in and attacked them even more fiercely.

The two guardians could not take it anymore and shouted, “Stop! Stop hitting us! Stop hitting us! We’re not... We’re not from Camp Zhan Yun!”

They were not from Camp Zhan Yun. Why should they be beaten up?

'We're not from Camp Zhan Yun. Stop hitting us. Stop hitting us.'

The masked guardians sneered in their hearts.

You're the ones we're beating up—not people from Camp Zhan Yun! Do we look like we'll hit our own people? We're going to beat up all you outsiders!

"Hmph! Why would I believe you? If you're not from Camp Zhan Yun, where are you from?"

"You're already in Camp Zhan Yun's territory, and you're still denying it? I've never seen anyone deny where they came from to avoid being beaten up. Beat them up! Beat these two timid rats to death!"

They continued attacking them before stopping awkwardly.

They were reluctant to stop because they did not feel satisfied. However, they remembered that the two guardians could die here if they continued. Hence, they could only endure the itch in their hands.

"Just you wait! Our Lord won't let you off!"

When they saw that the masked men were no longer beating them up, they covered their heads with their hands and fled quickly.

One of them fell, and the other bumped into a tree trunk because they ran too quickly. The masked guardians were so amused that they could not even straighten their backs from laughing.

"Haha! I've never seen such cowards. They don't even dare to retaliate!" "Why would they? They don't have the guts! They're afraid of death!" "Let's see if you'll come back again! We'll beat you up again next time!"

They conversed animatedly as they watched them leave. Yan Nuo emerged from the corner after the two guardians left.

“That’s enough, you guys. Go back and rest quickly. We still have to go to the protected grounds tonight,” he reminded them.

“That’s right. We’re going to sleep.”

The guardians turned to leave, but one of them stopped and turned to look at Yan Nuo.

“Yan Nuo, remember to call us if there’s such a good event next time. We’ll come when you call. I guarantee I’ll beat them up until their parents don’t recognize them!”

They were professionals at beating people up. After all, they had to kill demonic beasts every day, right?

Upon hearing that, Yan Nuo’s lips twitched.

I don’t think there’ll be a good event like that anymore. Shang Ningyi isn’t stupid.. Why would he send his subordinates to be beaten up?

Chapter 747: Settle the Scores With Him

Of course, he could not say that. He could only agree.

“Alright, I’ll look for you if something happens in the future.”

As he spoke, he suddenly remembered the two young masters washing the rabbits by the river and left quickly.

In Camp Ning Se...

The two guardians, who were barely recognizable, stumbled their way back.

As they were not paying attention to where they were going, one of them bumped into Shang Ningluo, who was on her way to the camp's vegetable field to gather some vegetables.

"Ouch!"

Of course, Shang Ningluo was no match for the burly guardian. She was sent flying upon impact.

The two guardians sensed they had collided with someone. They were momentarily stunned before squinting their eyes, nearly blinded after the beating. They immediately saw Shang Ningluo lying on the ground.

They were speechless.

Why is it Princess Ningluo? We're so out of luck today! Why did we bump into Shang Ningluo?

"Princess Ningluo..."

Shang Ningluo got up from the ground and cursed, "Who are you? Why are you so reckless? You— Oh my!"

As she looked up at the person who bumped into her, she was shocked.

Why were their faces so terrifying? They did not have a piece of unscarred flesh left!

"Who are you? What are you doing in our camp?"

The two guardians were speechless.

Princess Ningluo did not recognize them. They were heading home, of course!

However, they had no choice. They knew very well that no one could recognize them with their faces looking like this.

They were afraid that Shang Ningluo would call for people to beat them up again, so they quickly explained, "Princess Ningluo, we're from Camp Ning Se."

"You're from our camp? Which team are you on? Which protected ground?"

Shang Ningluo looked at them, puzzled. They could not have been beaten up like this, no matter where they were. They had clearly been attacked by humans, not demonic beasts.

The two guardians found it hard to answer her. "We... We came back from Camp Zhan Yun."

"Uh!" Shang Ningluo was rendered speechless.

Did that mean they were beaten up by people from Camp Zhan Yun?

She had asked Ningshen to send someone to Camp Zhan Yun to gather information. She had thought that Qian Jiyun would not dare to do anything. She never expected him to attack and injure their people so badly. Was Qian Jiyun unafraid that her brother would settle the scores with him?

"What are you..."

The two guardians were soon brought to Shang Ningyi. Seeing their bruised and swollen faces, Shang Ningyi's complexion paled with displeasure and rage, making his expression quite unpleasant to look at.

He never expected Qian Jiyun to be so bold as to do this.

"Qian Jiyun! How dare he touch my people? Is he tired of living?"

He made up his mind. He would not let Qian Jiyun off easily this time. He was determined to demand an explanation from Qian Jiyun for both himself and the two battered guardians.

“The two of you, follow me to Camp Zhan Yun again!” he instructed them.

Now that Qian Jiyun had given them the opportunity, they had to grab it by the tail and let him have a taste of his own medicine.

He had spent a lot of money on Fu Ming; he planned to get everything back from Qian Jiyun.

‘Wait.’

The moment the two guardians realized their Lord was about to take them to Qian Jiyun, they were immediately unwilling to go..

Chapter 748: At least 100 Inner Cores!

“My Lord, we didn’t even see who hit us. We can’t look for them!” The green-robed guardian looked at Shang Ningyi with hidden bitterness.

Of course, he wanted revenge. The people from Camp Zhan Yun had beaten them up so badly.

But how could they take revenge?

They did not see their attackers’ faces or hear them say they were from Camp Zhan Yun. How were they supposed to find whom to seek revenge against?

“Why not?” Even Shang Ningluo was unhappy.

She liked Qian Jiyun, but that did not mean she would tolerate him bullying the guardians in her camp.

Since Qian Jiyun dared to attack their guardians this time, he might do something even more outrageous next time. They had to teach him a lesson in one sitting.

“Brother, the people from Camp Zhan Yun are bullying us. We can’t let this go just like that.” Shang Ningshen added fuel to the fire.

They only went there to gather information. Qian Jiyun’s men used to come to their camp to gather information. They did not gather much information. Was there a need to be so ruthless?

“We can’t let him off this time! I suggest that we demand a compensation of at least 100 inner cores!”

“Uh!” The two guardians were stunned.

100 inner cores was a huge sum of money. Expecting Qian Jiyun to hand them over after this fight would be wishful thinking.

“Young Master, we really can’t go.”

“Why?” Shang Ningshen looked at them and asked, “Don’t you want to seek justice for yourselves? Qian Jiyun is already so arrogant. How can we let him off so easily? We have to make him bleed this time.”

He spoke righteously and did not think he was abusing his authority to retaliate against his personal enemy because he was the one who had sent the two guardians.

“How are we going to seek justice? We didn’t see who hit us,” the blue-robed guardian said helplessly. If they could see who hit them, they would not be in such a passive position.

“That’s right. We couldn’t see anyone. We even heard them say that they were beating up the people from Camp Zhan Yun. They said they’d beat us up if they saw us again,” the green-robed guardian said.

These words were obviously meant for them to hear. They were very fake.

However, no matter how fake they were, they had no right to question them. As long as Qian Jiyun refused to admit responsibility, no one could pin the blame on him.

Hence, they had been beaten up for nothing.

“They—” Shang Ningyi was furious.

Did Qian Jiyun not care about his reputation anymore? He attacked someone but refused to admit that Camp Zhan Yun was responsible. How could he do something so embarrassing?

However, those words did make it difficult for them to seek justice.

“When did the people at Camp Zhan Yun become so shameless?” Shang Ningshen gritted his teeth. He wished he could slap Qian Jiyun and the others into the mud with a wave of his hand.

Unfortunately, he could not do it.

“Maybe something triggered him,” Shang Ningyi said.

He knew that Ming Fucheng had committed some despicable acts against Camp Zhan Yun. That might have agitated him.

“Haha.’

Shang Ningluo smiled coldly at them, speechless.

Was Qian Jiyun really behind this? If he had been, would the two guardians have been able to come back?

Chapter 749: Why Would You Argue With Him if You Knew?

She wondered if her brothers had underestimated Qian Jiyun too much. He was a heartless man! A woman like her, who constantly submitted to him, never piqued his interest.

How could they expect him to show mercy to two people who wanted to spy on Camp Zhan Yun?

“Can we really blame Qian Jiyun for this?” she asked.

They looked at her and narrowed their eyes before looking at the two guardians in unison. Shang Ningyi’s gaze became even more dangerous.

Although he disliked what she said, these two guardians could not even handle such a small matter. What else could he expect them to do? “Did the two of you find out anything?” he asked.

“N-no.”

His stare made the two of them numb, and their bodies hurt even more. They took a step back in fear.

“We were beaten up before we could find out anything. There are probably people guarding outside Camp Zhan Yun to prevent anyone from approaching.”

“You’re all good-for-nothings! You’re so useless! How can I expect you to do anything?”

Shang Ningyi was furious. He had sent them to gather information, and this was how they did it? No wonder he could not compare to Qian Jiyun!

“My Lord, you can’t blame us. We were already very careful. We didn’t expect them to find us.” The two guardians believed they were innocent.

“A good-for-nothing is a good-for-nothing! What else is there to explain?” Shang Ningluo sneered.

“Shut up!”

Shang Ningyi was seething with anger, his frustration reaching a boiling point. He was even more infuriated by Shang Ningluo’s interruption.

“If you were willing to go, this wouldn’t have happened.”

He had lost all his face in front of Qian Jiyun.

“What does this have to do with me?” Shang Ningluo was puzzled and asked Shang Ningyi in amusement.

“So you think I should go there and let the people at Camp Zhan Yun beat me

Is he out of his mind? He actually thinks it’s okay for me to go? I don’t want to be beaten up like this! Does he think Qian Jiyun will be merciful to me?

Since Qian Jiyun has already sent masked guardians to attack, he doesn’t care who can and cannot fight. If I go, I’m sure I’ll get the same treatment. Does my brother still think I should go?

Shang Ningyi took a deep breath and glared at Shang Ningluo before dismissing her from his tent.

“Sister, why are you going against Big Brother? Just let him say his piece.” Shang Ningshen followed Shang Ningluo out of the tent.

His brother was so angry that he spoke without thinking. He had never actually thought of letting their sister go, right?

“How can I not know that?” Shang Ningluo turned around and glanced at him angrily.

“Why would you argue with him if you knew?” Shang Ning was amused.

She clearly knew, but she still persisted in speaking. Was she trying to make him faint from anger as if he were not already angry enough?

“I did it on purpose. Can’t I?” Shang Ningluo smiled.

“Who asked him to target Camp Zhan Yun every day? He ought to know if they’ll let him do that.”

“You’re the one who asked me to investigate them, Sister,” Shang Ningshen reminded her.

“If Big Brother didn’t force me, would I have asked you to send people to do that?” Shang Ningluo looked at him as if he were an idiot..

Chapter 750: Distinctive Lacquer Rain

She was not curious about anyone else except An Jiuyue at the moment. She did not care how powerful the person Captain Dongfang described was. It did not concern her.

Her brother was in charge of recruiting people. What did it have to do with her?

“Alright, I won’t talk to you anymore. I’m going to refine medicine.”

After waving at Shang Ningshen, she returned to her tent.

Shang Ningshen sighed softly behind her. It was no surprise to him that his brother was enraged. He had always opposed Qian Jiyun, but he had such a troublesome younger sister who only knew how to help outsiders daily. If it were him, he would not get along with Qian Jiyun either!

He muttered, "Big Brother is so pitiful!"

An Jiuyue stayed in the camp with Qian Jiyun for the next few days.

It had been drizzling throughout the day, and a faint scent of wet grass lingered in the mist. It was somewhat unpleasant, and the people at the new camp found it hard to put up with it.

An Jiuyue also could not stand the stench and hid in the tent with the two children.

"Mother, the smell outside is really bad."

Qian Yizheng leaned out a bit and immediately caught a whiff of the stench. His face turned green with disgust, and he quickly retreated, tightly sealing the curtain.

"It's a good thing we have Mother's specially prepared fragrant spices. Otherwise, I would've fainted from the smell." Qian Yirong patted his chest, looking frightened.

He had been cultivating when he suddenly smelled the stench and almost vomited.

No longer concerned with his cultivation, he ran over to his mother. She happened to be looking for them, so the three of them nestled in the tent, ready to go nowhere.

"How long will this rain last?"

An Jiuyue looked absent-mindedly at the burning spices, their flames flickering in the air.

Just then, Qian Jiyun lifted the curtain and walked in. When he saw the three of them, he grinned and wanted to burst into laughter.

“Uncle Jiyun, close the curtain quickly. It stinks.” Qian Yirong turned pale with fright when he saw the curtain being lifted again.

Qian Jiyun closed the curtain quickly and picked them up.

“This is Huayan Peak’s distinctive lacquer rain. It smells a little bad, but it doesn’t rain often. Sometimes a year will go by without rain.”

He approached An Jiuyue and sat down next to her with the two children.

“It only smells a little bad?” An Jiuyue asked.

Her expression was similar to the two little ones when she first smelled it. She really wanted to vomit.

It was extremely difficult to survive here. How could a mildly spoiled person even survive here? She thought having her own microcosmic space was wonderful.

“It smells awful.” Qian Jiyun had to admit that the rain smelled terrible. “Although it smells bad, it gives the guardians a chance to rest.”

“Hm?” An Jiuyue raised her eyebrows in confusion.

Was it because the guards would hide in their tents because the smell outside was so bad?

“The vortexes on Huayan Peak will close when the lacquer rain begins, and they will remain closed until the smell of the lacquer rain dissipates. Demonic beasts from the planes cannot enter,” Qian Jiyun explained.

“I see.” An Jiuyue understood. “For how long?”

“About half a month,” Qian Jiyun estimated..
