Chapter 751: In Preparation for the New Year

“It’ll last that long?!”

The two little ones were stunned when they heard that.

Half a month? Wouldn’t that mean they had to stay in the tent for half a month? They would be bored to death.

Rong’er looked at his mother pitifully and asked, “Mother, what should we do? Do we really have to stay in the camp for so long?”

An Jiuyue smiled and said, “You can go outside too. I won’t stop you.”

Qian Yirong’s face turned green. He shook his head rapidly, almost like a rattle drum. He did not want to go outside.

“It’s so smelly outside. I don’t want to go outside. What if I faint from the stench and wild beasts abduct me? I’ll cultivate inside the camp.”

The stench was too unbearable. He had held his breath when he walked from his tent to his mother’s tent. He only took two breaths and felt like his head was about to explode.

He would not do something as stupid as going outside.

“Uncle Jiyun, is the lacquer rain useful for anything?” Qian Yizheng asked.

“There’s not much use for it. It just smells bad. It’s unbearable not only to humans but also to demonic beasts. The demonic beasts on Huayan Peak won’t come out during this period of time,” Qian Jiyun replied.

An Jiuyue thought for a moment and said, “Since you have nothing else to do, sit here first. I’ll go into my space to cook a few side dishes. We’ll have a good meal. How about that?”

The business in her shop would likely suffer in the next half-month since nobody would be leaving their tents.

Hence, she decided to cook all the vegetables that could not be sold. She wanted everyone to eat well, not just Qian Jiyun and the two children.

“Jiuyue, don’t do it. It’s tiring to cook so many dishes daily,” Qian Jiyun said as he looked at her.

Although he loved her cooking, he knew that cooking was tiring, especially since she cooked numerous dishes each day.

“It’s rare for me to have nothing to do. I can cook some dishes.” An Jiuyue ignored him and entered her space in a flash.

Qian Jiyun watched her enter her space, unable to call out to her even if he wanted to. He could only lower his head and look at the two little ones in his arms.

“We’ll have delicious food again.”

Qian Yizheng looked up, his eyes sparkling. However, he quickly lowered his head and pinched a fold of flesh from his stomach with his chubby hands.

“But my stomach has gotten bigger again.”

“That’s right, Big Brother. Did we become the swim rings Mother mentioned?”

Is Mother raising us like piglets in preparation for the new year?"

Qian Yirong agreed. He reached out to pinch his stomach and sighed.

"Pfft!" Qian Jiyun could not help but laugh.

He reminded them, "Then eat less when your mother cooks delicious food later, okay?"

"That won't do."

That was not a good idea at all. How could they agree with that?

Qian Yirong, with a shrewd business mindset and a preference for being stuffed rather than starved, gritted his teeth and said, "Mother's dishes are so delicious. How can we let others have everything? We have to eat our fill."

"That's right, that's right. At most, we'll eat less for lunch and save some space for dinner. It's the same. Mother can just cook one meal," Qian Yizheng added..

Chapter 752: Truly Innocent and Artless!

In any case, it was impossible for them to eat less. They would not even think about it!

"You two rascals!" Qian Jiyun smiled and pinched their noses.

More than two hours later, the guardians returned one after another. They were drenched and had no choice but to wash up.

However, the lacquer rain had contaminated the water outside. There was a stench even after cleaning up, but it was not as strong.

When An Jiuyue came out of her space, she saw that An Zhiyi had returned.

“Hurry up and wash up. Come and eat,” she said to An Zhiyi before taking out several boxes of spices from her space and handing them to Qian Jiyun.

“Jiyun, instruct someone to distribute these spices to every tent in the camp. Although they can’t eliminate the stench completely, they can make the tents smell better and reduce people’s discomfort.”

“Alright, I’ll get Yan Nuo to distribute them.” Qian Jiyun took the boxes.

After a while, An Zhiyi arrived. Even Fu Ming came.

“We’re too unlucky. Second Brother, Second Sister-in-Law, you don’t know this, but it’s so quiet outside now. We can’t even find a single strand of demonic beast fur.”

Fu Ming patted his clothes to help disperse the smell more quickly.

“Why are you so naggy? He understands the effects of the lacquer rain better than you.” An Zhiyi stood behind Fu Ming, who was blocking him from entering the tent.

He reached out and shoved him. “Hurry up and go in. Don’t you know you’re blocking me?”

“Zhiyi, you wouldn’t have treated me this way in the past. I’m your brother!” Fu Ming stomped his feet. He had never seen such a disrespectful younger brother.

An Zhiyi glanced at him and said, “Sworn brother.”

In other words, they were not biologically related. They were only sworn brothers.

“Are you as close to me as my sister?”

“1...” Fu Ming opened his mouth but did not know what to say.

He believed that if he said yes, his second brother would twist his head off. After all, his second sister-in-law only had one younger brother. Whoever dared to snatch him from her would die.

But it was fine. So what if he was criticized? He did not care as long as there was delicious food. He would let An Zhiyi say whatever he wanted.

“Second Sister-in-Law, you made so much food. I’m so lucky today.”

“Uncle Fu, Mother made a lot of delicious food. Come and eat quickly. Don’t bother yourself with our uncle.” Qian Yizheng patted the seat beside him and asked Fu Ming to sit down.

“That’s right, that’s right. Uncle Fu, come and sit. We’re about to eat.” Qian Yirong also waved at Fu Ming generously, causing their mother’s mouth to twitch.

Did they think she hadn’t noticed? As soon as they heard Fu Ming’s voice, they quickly vacated the seat between them for him.

Inviting him to eat? They were clearly inviting him to serve them food.

Poor Fu Ming, being manipulated and yet happily going along with it, obediently taking the seat. He was truly innocent and artless!

“Alright, I will come over now,” Fu Ming replied happily, shooting An Zhiyi a smug look.

An Zhiyi, who was following behind, was speechless.

He knew he had made the right decision to come to Huayan Peak with Fu Ming.

If Fu Ming had come alone, he would probably have been gnawed to death.

Chapter 753: No Ten -Heart Flowers

The lacquer rain continued pouring for days, and Huayan Peak was quiet.

However, regardless of how quiet it appeared to be, there had to be some exceptions, such as An Jiuyue's space.

"Master, the space separator you're raising has opened its mouth," Wei Na said just as An Jiuyue was refining medicine in the tent.

"Opened its mouth? What mouth?" An Jiuyue asked Wei Na, barely diverting her attention.

Could a space separator open its mouth? Could it get hungry too? Did it open its mouth to ask her for food?

"It wants the Ten-Heart Flower," Wei Na said.

"Huff!" An Jiuyue could not help but exhale all at once.

She looked at the furnace of medicinal pills in front of her, speechless. She closed her eyes for a moment before opening them.

"Jiuyue, are you alright?"

Qian Ji Yun was playing with the two little ones on one side and came over to take a look when he saw that she had damaged a furnace of pills.

"I'm fine. I just lost my breath. It's a shame that this batch of medicinal pills can only be turned into powder," An Jiuyue said helplessly. The efficacy of medicinal powder was incomparable to that of pills.

However, she had no other choice. She could only settle for the next best thing.

"It's good that you're fine."

Qian Ji Yun heaved a sigh of relief. He was relieved to see that she was truly alright and that her face was not pale.

However, he could not help but wonder why she would fail to refine a batch of ordinary Healing Pills. No matter how challenging it was, she never failed.

Medicine had to be refined while it was still hot. An Jiuyue did not care about Wei Na. She focused on the powder first before paying attention to him.

"What did you say the space separator wanted from you?" she asked Wei Na as she placed the powder into a porcelain bottle.

"Master, you didn't mishear me. It opened its mouth and asked for the Ten-Heart Flower," Wei Na repeated.

"I know I didn't mishear you!" An Jiuyue rolled her eyes. "How about this? Go ask it if it misspoke and have it repeat itself!"

She suspected that the space separator had misspoken. How could it have the guts to ask her for the Ten-Heart Flower?

Wei Na was speechless. He did not think the space separator had misspoken.

Although the Ten-Heart Flower was rare, no medicinal herb was more precious than the spatial separator.

“Master, do you think it can misspeak?” he asked his master.

An Jiuyue felt her anger lodge in her throat.

“Be it Huayan Peak or Daqing Kingdom, there are no Ten-Heart Flowers. Don’t you know that?” she asked.

She had heard of and seen the Ten-Heart Flower before, but not in Huayan Peak or Daqing Kingdom, but rather in the Points Mall.

“I know, but isn’t there one in the Points Mall?” Wei Na reminded her.

“So you know it’s from the Points Mall. Didn’t you see the shocking price? Do you think I can afford it?” An Jiuyue retorted.

Even if she used up all her points, she could not even afford a single Ten-Heart Flower. Besides, she had already used up a lot of my points. How could she buy one now?

“You received 100 points for every demonic beast you killed previously. Why don’t—”

“There are no demonic beasts now!” An Jiuyue interrupted before Wei Na could finish.

It was still raining outside! The demonic beasts were in hiding. The vortexes were sealed.. Where was she supposed to find demonic beasts?

Chapter 754: One Flower Cost 1,000,000 Points

Every demonic beast she killed earned her 100 points. For one Ten -Heart

Flower, she had to kill 10,000 demonic beasts. If she killed 40 demonic beasts a day, she would have to kill for 250 days!

Why were the Ten-Heart Flowers so expensive? One flower cost 1,000,000 points! They were out to bleed her dry!

“Master, there is no time limit for obtaining the Ten-Heart Flower. We can take our time,” Wei Na said.

They could not abandon the space separator because of a flower, right? That was wrong.

“I can’t stay at Huayan Peak for so long. I have to return to Daqing Kingdom.” An Jiuyue was about to cry.

First, Qian Jiyun lost his Original Soul energy, and then it rained non-stop. Now, a Ten -Heart Flower was involved. Was she being forced to stay on Huayan Peak?

She raised her hand to her forehead. Suddenly, she thought of something. “I remember that even wild boars can be sold for a lot of points, right?”

“Yes, Master.” Wei Na nodded.

However, most of the wild boars in the space had been consumed. They had to save some to satisfy their cravings, right?

Although he could not eat them, An Jiuyue wanted to eat them.

Besides, the points exchanged for wild boars were far from enough—it was like a drop in the bucket.

“If wild boars can be sold, why can’t demonic beasts?” An Jiuyue raised her eyebrows and asked.

There were so many demonic beasts on Huayan Peak. They were killed every day, but they were all burned to ashes, benefiting the plants. It would be fantastic if she could sell them to the Points Mall.

“You can give it a try.”

Wei Na was not sure either. He had never seen anyone selling demonic beasts in the Points Mall, but perhaps they could fetch a good price for them.

“I’ll give it a try. I’ll collect the demonic beasts after the rain... No, Qian Jiyun will do it.” She looked at Qian Jiyun.

With both children on his lap, Qian Jiyun noticed her turning to look at him. He asked, “What happened?”

“Can we retrieve demonic beasts?” An Jiuyue asked.

“Demonic beasts? You mean the demonic beasts that were killed?” Qian Jiyun asked.

“Mhm.” An Jiuyue nodded.

“Yes, but the demonic beasts’ meat is too dry and smelly. They can’t be eaten,”

Qian Jiyun explained, thinking she wanted to collect the demonic beasts to eat.

An Jiuyue was speechless.

She had never thought of eating those demonic beasts. Whoever liked them could eat them.

“I don’t want to eat it. I just need a lot of points now and want to earn them quickly. However, I don’t have a way to earn points. I can only target those demonic beasts,” she explained.

However, she did not know if she would succeed. After all, there was no indication of how many points the demonic beasts could be sold for. It might not even earn her as many points as killing one.

While talking to Qian Jiyun, she thought of something else and asked Wei Na,

“By the way, Wei Na, did you ask if it wants one Ten-Heart Flower?”

“I’ll go ask now,” Wei Na said, walking away nimbly to search for the space separator. After a while, he returned, his footsteps still light and agile.

“Master, I’ve clarified it. It needs seven Ten-Heart Flowers.

An Jiuyue was shocked.

Was it trying to kill her?

1,000,000 points would be enough to kill her, but 7,000,000 points? Even if she emptied her space, she would not even accumulate that many points!

Unless the demonic beasts on Huayan Peak could fetch an astronomical price!

She could not help but cast a dim, chilling gaze at Qian Jiyun.. She wanted to kill someone!

Chapter 755: How Could She Not Want to Eat Someone?

She had no choice. The space separator belonged to Qian Jiyun. He would be the one using it in the future. But why was she the one spending points?

It was unfair! It was too unfair!

“Mother, did Uncle Jiyun... offend you?”

Even Qian Yirong could tell that his mother was looking at Uncle Jiyun fiercely.

“No.”

An Jiuyue quickly withdrew her predatory gaze and pretended not to know anything.

She wanted to eat someone. How could she not want to eat someone?

Where was she going to get 7,000,000 points? Qian Jiyun had better bless her so that those demonic beasts could be sold for a lot of points. Otherwise, she would not be able to earn enough points even if she sold herself!

Time passed quickly.

It did take half a month, as Qian Jiyun predicted. The smell of the lacquer rain had vanished. The guardians had to stand guard and wait for the demonic beasts to arrive.

They had rested for 15 days and felt extremely energetic.

An Jiuyue arrived at the swamp with Yan Nuo.

She wanted to go to Yu Beast City because she was familiar with that place.

However, she gave up when she remembered that the people from Camp Ning Se had taken notice of her.

Since the swamp had the strongest demonic beasts, she hoped that they could be sold for a good price.

An Jiuyue did not participate in the first two consecutive battles. She watched from the side.

Yan Nuo brought two different demonic beasts back and placed them in front of An Jiuyue. "Mistress, what do you think of these two demonic beasts?"

They were big enough, and their inner cores were intact.

"I'll try."

Without hesitation, An Jiuyue stored one of the demonic beasts in her space and brought it to the Points Mall.

With a beep, the points that could be earned by selling the demonic beast were displayed.

"F*ck!" An Jiuyue could not resist cursing aloud. "What is this? One point? To think it can fetch a price like that!"

One demonic beast was worth one point. She decisively took out the demonic beast and asked Wei Na to cut out the inner core before taking it back to the Points Mall.

There was another beep.

This time, it was not one point but three.

An Jiuyue could not help but cover her eyes. She did not dare to look at the tragic points, but she had already brought the demonic beasts here. So be it.

She placed the inner core in the Points Mall again. There was a beep again. This time, it was not just single-digit points anymore. Instead, the number of points soared into the hundreds.

300 points were not bad.

However, she did not sell it because she knew neither she nor Yan Nuo had killed this demonic beast. She had to return the inner core to the guardians.

She handed the inner core to Yan Nuo.

She glanced at the other demonic beast again and put it in her space too. The beeping sound sounded again.

“This price is not bad. It’s already 50 points.”

However, she did not sell it. She knew the inner core had its own price, so she asked Wei Na to cut it out first.

“Beep!”

An Jiuyue looked at the points in a daze.

“Damn, it’s back to one point again.”

How exactly did the Points Mall calculate points? She did not understand..

Chapter 756: It Was Heartbreaking Just to Think About It!

Without checking the price of the inner core again, she sold the demonic beast's corpse for one point and decisively gave the inner core to Yan Nuo. She felt that there was no need for her to sell demonic beasts.

Unless she had the ability to gather all the demonic beasts killed on Huayan Peak, she would have to accumulate points slowly.

"Mistress, how is it?"

Unfortunately, Yan Nu was still there, asking her about it.

Her face darkened. She glared at him and turned to leave.

She decided not to stay here. It was useless to stay here. She might as well hunt a few wild boars in Daqing Kingdom and earn a lot of points!

Yan Nuo looked at the inner cores in his hand after he watched her leave. He turned around and quickly returned to the battlefield. He stuffed the inner cores into the hands of a guardian he knew and left.

"Yan Nuo, Yan Nuo..."

Yan Qin called out to him from behind, but Yan Nuo did not respond to him.

This won't do! I have to advise Master to transfer Ye Chengzong here. I don't want to be the captain anymore. Otherwise, my brothers won't recognize me!

An Jiuyue returned to her tent angrily and sat down, sulking.

When Qian Jiyun saw this, he asked the two children to play by themselves. He also came to her tent and sat beside her.

“Can you tell me what happened?”

An Jiuyue opened her mouth but held back in the end. She did not mention the space separator.

“I need 7,000,000 points now, but the demonic beasts’ corpses are too disappointing. They’re all worth two or three points. I’m really...” It was heartbreaking just to think about it!

Qian Ji Yun was shocked to hear she needed 7,000,000 points.

He had roughly calculated that the points in An Jiuyue’s Points Mall were very valuable. What was she trying to get that required so many points?

He could not figure it out.

“We can think of other ways. Isn’t your academy about to complete construction?”

An Jiuyue wanted to say that even if the academy was built and she accepted disciples to teach, her points would not increase so quickly. Saving people would not earn her points any faster.

She needed 7,000,000 points!

“I won’t get so many points unless I sell something valuable,” she said, spreading her hands.

It was pointless counting on the academy.

If she truly wanted to rely on the academy, she would need the academy to be established worldwide. However, she did not have that capability yet.

Wei Na thought of something and reminded her, “Master, Master, you do have something good! Something very valuable.”

“What is it? The snowfish?” An Jiuyue snapped.

The snowfish were not worth that many points. It would not be enough even if she sold them all. Besides, Wei Na had to rely on the snowfish to maintain his human form.

“I’m not talking about the snowfish. That thing isn’t worth much.”

How could Wei Na bear to part with the snowfish? However, it was definitely not as valuable as the thing he had thought of.

“Don’t you still have the Seven-colored Lotus Seeds? Sell one set. If one set isn’t enough, sell two sets. You’ll definitely be able to earn a lot of points. What do you think?” he reminded her.

“Seven-colored lotus seeds?” An Jiuyue’s eyes lit up.

That’s right! Don’t I still have the Seven-colored Lotus Seeds? I still have a lot of them. They’ll bear fruit next year. It’s not worth much to me, but that may not be the case at the Points Mall.

“I’ll try.”

Her eyes darted around, and she decided to try selling the Seven-colored Lotus Seeds..

Chapter 757: This Cheater...

Soon, a set of Seven-Colored Lotus Seeds was in her palm. She first placed a purple lotus seed in the Points Mall, which showed that it was worth 500,000 points.

She could not help but gasp.

500,000 points was a lot. Selling 14 of them would earn her 7,000,000 points.

Hence, she took two sets of Seven-Colored Lotus Seeds and entered the Points Mall. She looked up and stared blankly at the two options displayed in the Points Mall.

The first option was to sell each lotus seed separately for 500,000 points. The second option was to sell the two sets of Seven-Colored Lotus Seeds for a combined total of 28 million points—14 million points per set.

“This cheater...” She could not help but mutter to herself.

She would not have known that she could sell the entire set at once if she had not been given options. Moreover, the points would increase by four times!

She muttered to herself, “When I sold mushrooms to the Points Mall before, did they also offer wholesale prices?”

It had to be said that An Jiuyue was spot on—she was offered wholesale prices.

However, the mushrooms were small, so she could not possibly sell them one by one. There were no displays of prices either. Besides, God knows how long it would take her to sell each one separately. She could only sell them in batches.

However, selling Seven-Colored Lotus Seeds was different. They were valuable items, and the Points Mall did not dare fool anyone.

After all, An Jiuyue could see the prices of the Seven-Colored Lotus Seeds when she put them up for sale. However, the mushrooms could be found elsewhere, so no one would look at the prices.

An Jiuyue took back a set of Seven-Colored Lotus Seeds, eventually selling only one set.

With 14 million points, she could buy seven Ten-Heart Flowers and keep the remaining half of the points. However, she did not only buy seven flowers. Instead, she bought 10 flowers in one go.

The Ten-Heart Flower could be used as medicine, and it was very valuable.

There were a total of 10 Ten-Heart Flowers in the mall. Since she had points, why would she not buy them all at once?

Giving seven flowers to the space separator and keeping the other three for herself was also a very good decision.

The space separator was happy, and An Jiuyue was also in a good mood. She even found Qian Jiyun, who was consuming her points, much more pleasing to the eye.

“Let’s think of another way.” Qian Jiyun did not know that she had already resolved the problem and was still trying to advise her.

An Jiuyue flashed him a big grin. A problem that could be solved with the Seven-Colored Lotus Seeds was not a problem. She felt that it was quite good.

However, she was soon rendered speechless. Wei Na had told her that he had been monitoring the Points Mall. The Seven -Colored Lotus Seeds she had sold were bought for 18 million points in less than 10 seconds without hesitation.

She thought of how the Ten-Heart Flowers were up for sale in the Points Mall for months while the Seven-Colored Lotus Seeds were sold out in less than 10 seconds.

There was a difference between the items. She could not help but sigh.

“It’s settled?” Qian Jiyun was stunned. It was resolved so quickly?

Assuming she did not give up on the points, he reckoned she sold something valuable.

“You sold the Seven-Colored Lotus Seeds?” he asked.

She was surprised and asked, “How did you know?”

However, she immediately recalled that she only had a few things in her space. What else could she sell other than the Seven-Colored Lotus Seeds?

It made sense that Qian Jiyun could figure it out.

“Yes, I sold the Seven-Colored Lotus Seeds. I had no choice..”

Chapter 758: Competing to Determine Which Side Had Greater Concentration

She did not want to sell the Seven-Colored Lotus Seeds either, but nothing was more important than the space separator. She would put up with the hassle for it.

Roar! Roar!

Suddenly, they heard the roars of a demonic beast again. The familiar sound made them look at each other.

They could recognize the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python’s roars even in their sleep.

Did that big guy have a feud with them? Why was it here again?

Qian Jiyun held An Jiuyue’s hand, and they walked out of the tent.

When they stepped out, she saw the two children rushing out of the tent next to them. They showed no signs of fear when they saw the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python. Instead, they looked abnormally excited.

“Mother, Uncle Jiyun, that big guy is here again.” Qian Yirong craned his neck and looked at the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python and all the guardians rushing over.

Qian Yizheng brought his brother to his mother and asked, “Mother, shall we go and take a look too?”

An Jiuyue was speechless.

A powerful demonic beast had arrived, but these two children wanted to join in the chaos instead of finding a place to hide. They were simply fooling around!

However, she had to admit that she wanted to check out what the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python wanted.

It kept returning again and again—there was no end to this!

“Stay here and don’t go anywhere. Warrior-Servant One, Warrior-Servant Two, watch over them,” she instructed the warrior-servants sternly before leaving with Qian Jiyun.

The two children who were left behind were speechless.

Why were they required to wait here while their mother could go?

When Qian Jiyun and An Jiuyue arrived at the site where the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python was, they witnessed a remarkable scene.

The Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python coiled on one side, sticking out its tongue but not attacking. On the other side, the guardians gripped their swords and did not attack. The two sides simply stared at each other.

They were speechless.

Were they competing to determine which side had greater concentration?

She turned to look at Qian Jiyun and asked, "Jiyun, this Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python is really strange. Why did it come here instead of going elsewhere?"

It was unable to speak, so they were unable to understand what it wanted to do.

"Maybe— Be careful!"

Just as Qian Jiyun was about to speak, he felt a strong gust of wind rush toward them.

He felt his chest constrict, and he immediately grabbed An Jiuyue and ran to the side. He had lost all his Original Soul energy and could not protect her. He could only push An Jiuyue away instinctively when the Auspicious Cloud Sea -Devouring Python suddenly approached them.

"Qian Jiyun!"

An Jiuyue's face paled when she saw the man push her away. She could see Qian Jiyun tumbling toward the bloody mouth of the Auspicious Cloud Sea -Devouring Python.

"Master!"

On the other side, Yan Nuo was shocked. He wanted to come and save them, but he was too late.

Just as everyone thought something would happen to their lord, they saw the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python flick its tongue at Qian Jiyun in disdain.

Yan Nuo flew up and saved Qian Jiyun.

“Master!”

Qian Jiyun stabilized himself and looked in An Jiuyue’s direction. The Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python’s head was already in front of her.

“An Tu...”

Its eyes could not discern people’s faces and expressions. It could only rely on scent to determine if the person in front of it was someone familiar..

Chapter 759: It’s a Young Beast

“Huh?!”

When the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python said this name, everyone was shocked.

They never knew that the python could speak. They were certain it was speaking in human language, even though they were unable to understand exactly what it was saying.

Among so many people, only An Jiuyue and Qian Jiyun understood what the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python was saying.

It called for An Tu.

Her initial hunch was accurate. It kept coming here because it believed she was

An Tu.

“My child. Let me see it.”

While An Jiuyue was in a daze, the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python spoke again.

Although it was difficult to distinguish its words, An Jiuyue could understand them because of Wei Na. She was speechless. If her father had not passed away, she would have grabbed him and interrogated him!

“Jiuyue!”

Qian Jiyun could not take it anymore. He wanted to come over, but Yan Nuo stopped him.

“Master, don’t go over. That python won’t hurt Mistress.”

Yan Nuo could sense that the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python wanted to discuss terms with An Jiuyue. He believed his master could tell too.

However, Qian Jiyun was simply momentarily too anxious and did not think of it.

“The Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python might become agitated if you approach them. Don’t go over!”

Upon hearing that, Qian Jiyun stopped in his tracks.

Yan Nuo was right. The Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python had yet to do anything. It would be bad if he angered it.

He could only stare in An Jiuyue's direction.

The human and python stared at each other for a long time. In the space, Wei Na found a sealed bamboo tube from the box An Tu had left for her. The bamboo tube was pitch-black, and nothing could be seen.

However, Wei Na detected an aura similar to the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python emanating from the bamboo tube.

He found it strange. The box had been in the space all along, but he could not sense it. It was evident that this was no ordinary box.

"Master, I found it. It's a young beast."

An Jiuyue immediately took the black bamboo tube and presented it to the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python.

"Is it this?" she asked.

Sensing a familiar aura, the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python closed its eyes and carefully felt the aura in the bamboo tube.

It opened its eyes again after a long time, and much of its hostility dissipated.

"It's alive. That's good."

With that, it turned around and left without taking the bamboo tube from An Jiuyue.

An Jiuyue was speechless. She was dumbfounded.

Was it leaving just like that? Without doing anything? Without even taking its cub? It left just like that?

The python even remarked that it was good that it was alive. How was it “good” to have its cub live in a bamboo tube? Wouldn’t it be better to raise it outside?

If her prediction was correct, the young beast inside the bamboo tube would not be able to grow big. It would always be tiny.

Was this a good thing?

“Master, it might want you to raise it,” Wei Na said.

“I... I’m a nanny?”

She could not help but wonder if it wanted her to raise the young Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python.

She already had a space separator that specialized in eating her points, and now she had to raise a young Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python?

Chapter 760: How Can I Raise It? I Can’t Open It

How much money would it cost her? Raising an Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python cub would not be easy either. Was she going to go bankrupt again?

“Jiuyue!”

After the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python left, Qian Jiyun rushed to her and pulled her into his arms.

He hated his helplessness. Without his Original Soul energy, he could not even withstand a single blow from the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python. He knew it was dangerous, but he did not know how to save An Jiuyue.

As he drew her into an embrace, An Jiuyue nearly dropped the black bamboo tube.

She felt a lingering fear when she recalled what had happened. The Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python had almost swallowed Qian Jiyun! Her arms were still trembling.

“I’m fine. I’m fine.’

She reached out hesitantly and wrapped her arms around his strong waist.

In the tent, An Jiuyue held the black bamboo tube and stared at it.

An Zhiyi had returned after receiving the news. When he found her still staring at the bamboo tube, he asked, “Sister, did you notice anything?”

An Jiuyue rolled her eyes at him.

“If I noticed something, would I still be staring at it?”

She could not figure it out, which was why she kept staring at it. How was she supposed to raise it?

She believed she was capable of raising a python. However, the bamboo tube was of the highest quality and seamless. She had tried to knock it open, break it, and even submerge it in boiling water.

Nothing worked. She could not open it.

She had also asked Wei Na, but he had no explanation either. Hence, the bamboo tube remained the same. It could not transform into an Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python cub.

"I finally understand why the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python turned around and left," she said faintly.

"Why?" Fu Ming asked. Did it not leave because it was relieved to see that its child was still alive?

"Why are you staying here?" An Jiuyue asked Fu Ming angrily.

"A bamboo tube that can't be opened is useless, even if it is its child. It's better to leave it in someone else's hands. The python only needs to come and check if its cub is dead or alive. It's good if it's alive. But if it's dead, it'll exact revenge...'

"Uh." Her words shocked Fu Ming.

Was she, by helping to raise its cub, inviting its wrath upon herself? Who did she offend for this to happen to her?

"Do you still want to raise it, Second Sister-in-Law?" he asked.

"How can I raise it? I can't open it." An Jiuyue retorted.

It would be great if she could raise it. Unfortunately, she could not open it yet.

She decided to put it back in her space first. Perhaps she would find out how to open the black bamboo tube in a few days. She would raise it then.

In another tent...

“Master, your health...”

Yan Nuo could tell that his master had lost his Original Soul energy. Otherwise, he would not have been in such danger just now.

“It’s only temporary. I’ll recover in seven days,” Qian Jiyun said coldly.

He would have to cultivate once his Original Soul energy was restored. He could not stay idle anymore. If he could not even protect An Jiuyue, what good was “That’s good.” Yan Nuo heaved a sigh of relief.

It was good as long as it was not a permanent loss. There were seven days remaining. He would be careful, so everything should be fine.

“Master, was that the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python’s cub?”

He had heard what the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python had said. The python was clearly here to see its child, and the black bamboo tube Mistress pulled out was definitely the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python cub..
