Chapter 791: Far From Harmless

She wanted to leave and look for Qian Jiyun to ask him to marry her before Lord Xue Yang did.

She no longer cared about being Qian Jiyun's first wife. Whether it meant being his secondary wife or concubine, she was willing to accept anything as long as she could avoid marrying Lord Xue Yang.

She regretted offending An Jiuyue back then.

If she had not offended An Jiuyue and instead built a good relationship with her, she could have run to An Jiuyue for help while Lord Xue Yang was coercing her.

If An Jiuyue agreed to let Qian Jiyun marry her, he would certainly agree too.

She had always believed that Qian Jiyun treated her so heartlessly because he had no choice but to be cold toward her due to An Jiuyue.

Shang Ningluo thought that she was very good-looking and no less attractive than An Jiuyue. She was certain she could gain Qian Jiyun's favor as long as she remained by his side.

However, it was too late to think about that now.

So what if she regretted it? Her brother had already promised Lord Xue Yang that they could marry.

Moreover, she would not become Lord Xue Yang's first wife. She would only be his secondary wife, which meant she would only be a concubine and a plaything.

Everyone knew that Lord Xue Yang and the others would leave soon. What would she do then?

She could not go to another plane and could only return. She would become even less worthy of Qian Jiyun then.

She had never seen a brother so heartless, willing to sacrifice and gift his younger sister. Did he not understand the nature of Lord Xue Yang's character?

"What did Xue Fangyang offer you that made you willing to sacrifice your biological sister? Shang Ningyi, I won't be surprised if you're even willing to abandon your future wife for your own benefit.

"It's no wonder nobody wants to marry you. Only that idiot Xue Fangling, that ugly thing, is willing to chase after you!" she shouted inside her tent.

She knew Xue Fangling was in the camp, but she was not afraid of anything anymore. In the worst case, she would just die.

She would never marry Xue Fangyang.

He wanted her to marry him? She was prepared to give them a corpse when the time came! What could they do about it?

Xue Fangling had been listening to the commotion in Shang Ningluo's tent from nearby. She could not help but open her mouth when she heard her own name mentioned.

But what could she say?

Her brother had a wife, and she had a sister-in-law, but he was still pressuring Shang Ningyi to let him marry Shang Ningluo.

She tried to talk him out of it, but it was useless. Her brother insisted on doing it, so she had no choice.

She wanted peace between her brother and Shang Ningyi.

However, they could not coexist amicably and insisted on fighting so fiercely. What could she do?

Now, even Shang Ningluo, who had been kind to her, had criticized her for being ugly. She knew she was not good-looking, but so what?

“Miss, how can she scold you? Are we just going to let this go?”

Xue Fangling’s maid stood up for her after hearing Shang Ningluo’s criticisms.

Who does Shang Ningluo think she is? The fact that my Lord wishes to marry her means that he regards her and Camp Ning Se highly. They should gladly accept this.

How can they act this way now? She not only did not agree, but she also scolded Miss harshly..

Chapter 792: I’ll Beg Qian Jiyun

Xue Fangling glanced at her maid.

What could she do about it? Her brother was the one who caused this, but Shang Ningluo might even think she instigated it.

After all, if their families grew closer, she would have a better chance of marrying Shang Ningyi.

“If I were to marry anyone other than Ningyi, I would also be unwilling,” she calmly said to her maid.

“But that’s the Lord!”

The maid reminded her that he was their lord. How could he be compared to other men?

"It doesn't matter who it is." Xue Fangling shook her head.

Even if she could marry the Emperor himself and become the Empress, she would still refuse if it meant not marrying Shang Ningyi.

Which woman would be willing to marry a man she did not like?

"Big Brother has really done something wrong this time."

But now that things had come to this, he had to marry Shang Ningluo. He could

Xue Fangling glanced at her maid.

What could she do about it? Her brother was the one who caused this, but Shang Ningluo might even think she instigated it.

After all, if their families grew closer, she would have a better chance of marrying Shang Ningyi.

"If I were to marry anyone other than Ningyi, I would also be unwilling," she calmly said to her maid.

"But that's the Lord!"

The maid reminded her that he was their lord. How could he be compared to other men?

"It doesn't matter who it is." Xue Fangling shook her head.

Even if she could marry the Emperor himself and become the Empress, she would still refuse if it meant not marrying Shang Ningyi.

Which woman would be willing to marry a man she did not like?

“Big Brother has really done something wrong this time.”

But now that things had come to this, he had to marry Shang Ningluo. He could not afford to lose his face.

Shang Ningluo had to marry her older brother, but their future relationship as sister-in-laws became irreparable. Her relationship with Shang Ningyi would then become...

She did not want to think about whether it was possible between her and Shang Ningyi. She only hoped that Shang Ningluo would avoid causing so much trouble in the future.

“Let’s go back. She probably won’t be able to calm down today. We’ll talk to her about this tomorrow,” she said, turning to return to her tent.

Behind her, the maid opened her mouth to say something.

Shang Ningluo would not be able to calm down even after a few days, let alone tomorrow. Talking to her would be useless. Shang Ningluo would hate her even more.

What was the point?

“Big Brother, shall we send Sister back to Shang Kingdom?”

In another tent, Shang Ningshen looked at his brother and hesitated for a long time before speaking.

Nothing would happen if they sent Shang Ningluo away from Huayan Peak, right?

Shang Ningyi looked at Shang Ningshen indifferently and asked, "You think it's feasible?"

Why would he sit here without taking action if it was feasible?

Xue Fangyang's men were watching him. Xue Fangyang would know if he made a move. It would be even more troublesome then.

Shang Ningshen closed his mouth and took a deep breath.

Eventually, he asked, "Why don't I go beg Qian Jiyun to marry Sister?"

As long as they could stop Shang Ningluo from marrying Xue Fangyang, they could humble themselves and have a good negotiation with Qian Jiyun, right?

Moreover, he believed his sister would be willing to marry Qian Jiyun regardless of the status she would receive.

"Qian Jiyun won't agree," Shang Ningyi said directly.

This was all because of Qian Jiyun and An Jiuyue. Qian Jiyun might not know what was happening, but Shang Ningyi often invited Fu Ming over, and it was hard to believe that Qian Jiyun was completely unaware of it.

He knew; he only pretended not to.

Qian Jiyun had never cared about Shang Ningluo. Would he care if they begged him for help now that something had happened?

Of course not.

“Then what should we do? If we really let Sister marry Xue Fangyang, she won’t be the first wife,” Shang Ningshen reminded.

Shang Ningyi looked up and glanced at him.

So what if she could not be the first wife? Xue Fangyang’s wife was the daughter of the first wife of a prominent clan in their plane.

Giving Shang Ningluo the status of a secondary wife was only done on account of that artifact..

Chapter 793: Can You Win?

Besides, he did not think Xue Fangyang was sincere in wanting to marry his sister. Everything he did was for the artifact. Once he obtained it, Shang Ningluo would become a useless chess piece that could be discarded at any time.

However, Xue Fangyang had never considered that Shang Ningyi would no longer care about his sister if he could sacrifice her and marry her off as a chess piece.

Everything was for the sake of that artifact. Since Xue Fangyang could do it, why couldn’t Shang Ningyi?

It was just Shang Ningluo. She had been causing trouble for him every day. He might as well marry her off to Xue Fangyang to buy time and gain his trust.

Once he obtained that artifact and became an inter-plane traveler in the future, wouldn’t he have the final say over Huayan Peak?

When Shang Ningluo eventually returned, he could have the authority to let her marry whomever she wanted.

She could even marry Qian Jiyun. Who could say anything about it?

“How about we confront Xue Fangyang and his people?” Shang Ningshen proposed.

He wondered if they were willing to risk their lives, would the people from Camp Xue Yang dare fight them to the death?

He felt that it was impossible because battles like that were not allowed on Huayan Peak.

However, as soon as he spoke, he received a cold glare from Shang Ningyi.

If things were as simple as Shang Ningshen thought, could Xue Fangyang still be of any threat to him?

An artifact was enough to make everyone crazy. If he refused to marry off Shang Ningluo, Xue Fangyang would realize that he was not willing to cooperate with him.

When the time came, Xue Fangyang would not hesitate to commit murder and arson for the sake of that artifact.

Many people in their plane wanted to work with Xue Fangyang. Shang Ningyi was not the only option. He only got the opportunity because Xue Fangling liked him.

“Can you win?” he asked Shang Ningshen coldly.

“Does Xue Fangyang really dare to fight?” Shang Ningshen asked.

If Xue Fangyang truly dared to do so, Shang Ningshen could not help but be curious about the deal between his brother and Xue Fangyang.

What could possibly drive Xue Fangyang to risk everything and engage in a deadly battle against their camp? Of course, if they were to truly fight, they would have no chance of winning. Shang Ningshen was well aware of that.

He sighed heavily and asked, "Is there no other way?"

"Go and persuade Luoluo to marry peacefully. I will take charge of her future matters," Shang Ningyi instructed Shang Ningshen.

Once this was over and he obtained the artifact, he could really have the authority to decide on Shang Ningluo's affairs.

What would Qian Jiyun dare say then?

Shang Ningshen opened his mouth, wanting to ask how he could possibly dissuade him.

But he eventually turned around and left without saying anything. This was no longer something he could do as he pleased. He could only advise his sister not to take things too hard.

While matters there unfolded according to their moods, Qian Jiyun accompanied An Jiuyue to the Black Pact Forest again the next day.

The Auspicious Cloud Sea -Devouring Python had the aura of the Sublime Shadegrass, so she was looking for it to request some.

She needed to find this grass quickly because she was returning to Daqing Kingdom soon. The Space Separator might demand something different in the next moment.

However, entering the Black Pact Forest was difficult. In particular, the path became increasingly arduous as they neared the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python.

In reality, there was no path to speak of. Instead, dense bushes and thorny brambles were everywhere. If it weren't for the protection of their Original Soul energy, they would have been covered in injuries..

Chapter 794: Utterly Miserable

"I just want to ask, how did it manage to get out last time?"

An Jiuyue hid behind Qian Jiyun and watched him clear the brambles bit by bit. She could not help but wonder aloud.

The Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python should have carved a path when it emerged, right? Even if there was no clear path before, it would have forged one as it made its way out, wouldn't it?

However, there was nothing on the ground.

"Jiyun, did we go the wrong way? Is it not here?"

Although she asked the question, there was no doubt that the aura of the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python was heading in this direction. That much was undeniable.

"It's here. We should be reaching soon."

Qian Jiyun carefully assessed the direction and, worried she would be tired from walking, asked, "Are you tired? Do you want to rest for a while?"

"I'm not tired. Are you tired?"

She had been hiding behind Qian Jiyun the entire time. He was the one clearing the trees and brambles ahead of them. How could she be tired?

“Do you want to rest? I see that the brambles ahead are getting more and more

“Someone’s here!”

Two voices sounded at the same time. One was Qian Jiyun, and the other was Wei Na.

An Jiuyue felt her world spin, and when she finally landed safely, she realized that Qian Jiyun had taken her into a thicket.

Soon, they heard footsteps approaching. Several guardians chatted as they looked around carefully.

One of the guardians surveyed the quiet surroundings and muttered to himself, “Was I mistaken? That’s impossible. There’s a path here. Someone must have come through here. Otherwise, who would have cleared the path for us?”

“Are you stupid? They must have heard your voice and ran away,” another guardian said to the puzzled guardian.

If they had kept their voices down, they could have ambushed the people who cleared the path. However, there was no one around now. They must have heard their voices and fled.

“I’m not stupid. Wouldn’t it be better if they ran away?” The first guardian glared at the second guardian.

“That’s true.” The second guardian nodded. “So what if they ran away? It saved us the trouble of chasing after them. That’s good.”

“What’s good about that?”

An older guardian was furious when he heard their conversation.

“We don’t even know why they came to the Black Pact Forest, and yet you think it’s okay to let them escape? Let’s see how you’ll explain this to the Lord!”

“What? We have to report this to the Lord?” The two guardians looked worried. If they reported this, they would not be able to get away with it so easily.

Couldn’t they pretend they didn’t know anything and that no one had come?

One of them suggested, “Elder Ji, what if we don’t inform the Lord about this? Elder Ji looked at them with a fake smile and asked, “What do you think?”

Ordinary people would not dare to enter the Black Pact Forest, let alone go near the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python.

“We can’t?” The two of them wore even more bitter expressions, feeling utterly miserable.

“I’m afraid they came here for the same reasons as us. If we don’t report this to the Lord and end up interfering with his plans, do you think you’ll be able to survive?” Elder Ji asked them in a deep voice.

“Well...” Their expressions were solemn as they sighed heavily.

They wondered which despicable individual had nothing better to do than come to the Black Pact Forest..

Chapter 795: Here to Capture the Auspicious Cloud SeaDevouring Python

Their Lord might punish them because of this. If they found out who was here, they would definitely not let them off easily!

“Continue walking ahead. The two of you, clear the path,” Elder Ji instructed them.

Although they had complaints, they did not dare say anything. They listened to Elder Ji's instructions and began to slowly clear the brambles. They walked forward, step by step.

"Who are they?" An Jiuyue looked at Qian Jiyun and whispered.

She had only been at Huayan Peak for a short time and was unfamiliar with the people outside Camp Zhan Yun. She did not even know everyone in their camp. Hence, she could only ask Qian Jiyun about them.

"They're from Camp Xue Yang," Qian Jiyun replied softly.

His speculation was correct. Shang Ningyi had asked about An Jiuyue because of Xue Fangyang. Xue Fangyang had probably collaborated with Shang Ningyi because the Auspicious Cloud Sea -Devouring Python had left the Black Pact Forest several times.

However, he was still unaware of the exact connection between them.

"People from Camp Xue Yang? Are they here for the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python?" An Jiuyue was surprised.

What could the three of them do in front of the Auspicious Cloud

Sea-Devouring Python? Wouldn't the python swallow them in one gulp?

Her father had subdued the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python, so it would not kill people easily. However, if they provoked it, it would still kill them, wouldn't it?

If it did not kill the bad guys, was it expected to let them kill it instead?

The Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python was a demonic beast. It had no compassion whatsoever. Anyone who dared to provoke it would be greeted with death.

Qian Jiyun looked at An Jiuyue and said, "They might be here for more." An Jiuyue raised her eyebrows. This meant that they had other motives.

"Should we follow them?" she asked.

"Be careful."

Qian Jiyun reminded her before holding her hand and tailing the three of them.

The three people talked as they cleared the brambles. The dangers in the Black Pact Forest, let alone the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python, did not seem to bother them.

"I wonder what the Lord is thinking. Why did he think of capturing the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python?"

"Pfft!" Inside the microcosmic space, Wei Na almost spat. He was shocked by their naive thoughts.

There was a commotion, so An Jiuyue asked, "What happened?"

"Master, can I say that they're here to capture the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python?" Wei Na asked.

An Jiuyue was speechless.

They were here to capture the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python? Just the three of them?

Of course, she would not underestimate them. They could have some artifacts to help them capture the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python.

However, the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python had been guarding the Black Pact Forest for many years, and during this entire time, there had never been any guardians assigned to the forest.

If the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python suddenly disappeared, the demonic beasts here would wreak havoc, causing a significant disturbance on Huayan Peak.

She looked at Qian Jiyun and exclaimed, "Is Xue Fangyang crazy? He actually ordered people to capture the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python! How can he be so bold?"

"They want to capture the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python?" Qian Jiyun was also shocked.

He shared An Jiuyue's thoughts. Since Xue Fangyang only sent three people, they must have something that could capture the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python.

However, the artifacts from their plane could not be brought here, so what did they have that made them so confident in capturing the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python?

Chapter 796: Death Was Always Going to Be Their End

"That's what Wei Na said. It must be true." An Jiuyue nodded.

They were a group of capable people! They did not even care about causing chaos at Huayan Peak for their own goals.

"Xue Fangyang is indeed someone who can work with Shang Ningyi. Both of them are unscrupulous in achieving their goals."

One could abandon his biological sister, while the other could send people to the Black Pact Forest to capture the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python, even if it would cause a rampage of demonic beasts.

“Follow them. ”

Qian Jiyun would never let them capture the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python. Hence, those people would have to die.

“Let’s go.” An Jiuyue nodded, and they tailed them.

With Lord Xue Yang’s guardians paving the way, they could walk very easily while listening to many of their conversations.

They heard from Elder Ji that Xue Fangyang wanted information from the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python, as he had heard that it could speak. But what information could he possibly gather from the python?

An Jiuyue and Qian Jiyun thought of An Tu at the same time. It seemed like An Tu was not just someone who had subdued the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python.

“Elder Ji can stay alive for now,” An Jiuyue said to Qian Jiyun.

From their conversation, it was evident that Elder Ji was likely a close aide of Xue Fangyang—someone who was loyal and trusted by him.

If they could catch him, they would be able to find out a lot of information.

“Jiyun, how many of those three can you take down?” she asked.

“I can deal with Elder Ji alone,” Qian Jiyun replied after some thought.

He was thinking about how to divide and conquer these three individuals. He thought of taking them down one by one, but it was unlikely to succeed. Elder Ji was quite astute. When a demonic beast passed by earlier, one of the guardians wanted to investigate it, but he did not allow it.

It was unlikely for Qian Jiyun to separate them.

After discussing with Wei Na, An Jiuyue said, "Leave the other two guardians to me. I'll give you this Skeleton Whip."

She handed her skeleton ship to Qian Jiyun. It was an artifact, so using it against Elder Ji would give Qian Jiyun a greater advantage.

This was the Black Pact Forest. No one would have a death wish and come here. They did not have to worry about someone seeing the Skeleton Whip.

For those three people, death was always going to be their end anyway.

"Be more careful." Qian Jiyun took the whip and reminded her.

He had heard her say that she could temporarily borrow Wei Na's power. Although he did not agree, these three people had to die this time, and there was no better solution.

If the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python attacked the three of them, he was worried that they would have artifacts to deal with it.

"Master, are you ready?" Wei Na asked.

He would infuse his Original Soul energy into her if she was ready. "Yes. We'll win in one strike." An Jiuyue looked at the two guardians and nodded.

In the next moment, she felt as if a bolt of lightning had struck her body. A surge of powerful Original Soul energy coursed through her, instantly revitalizing her.

"Let's go!"

She glanced at Qian Jiyun, and they rushed toward Elder Ji and the other two.

“Be careful! Someone’s here!”

Elder Ji quickly discovered Qian Jiyun and An Jiuyue and dodged the Skeleton Whip’s first attack.

However, the other two guardians were not so lucky. As the three of them stood in close proximity, when Elder Ji dodged the attack, the Skeleton Whip struck the other two..

Chapter 797: Qian Jiyun, How Dare You!

They screamed at the same time and fell into the brambles.

However, the whip was not enough to immobilize them. Soon, they flew out of the brambles and towards Qian Jiyun.

“I’m your opponent.”

An Jiuyue swung her long whip and successfully blocked them.

They turned around and looked at An Jiuyue with ugly expressions on their faces. They were considered formidable in Camp Xue Yang, yet they were forced to halt by the force of a single whip from a woman.

Even their Lord did not possess spiritual energy of such strength.

One of the guardians asked An Jiuyue coldly, “Who... Who are you?”

“You talk too much.” An Jiuyue ignored his question and attacked them with her whip.

The two of them could only dodge the attacks.

“Damn it!”

Both guardians were simultaneously struck by the powerful force of the long whip’s Original Soul energy. Having already endured a blow from Qian Jiyun’s whip, they immediately felt their blood boil.

Meanwhile, Qian Jiyun had caught Elder Ji off guard with the Skeleton Whip.

“An artifact! ”

As the person who had been by Xue Fangyang’s side the longest, he could tell that the Skeleton Whip in Qian Jiyun’s hand was an artifact.

Moreover, it definitely did not belong to the same plane as Qian Jiyun because that plane was an ordinary one. People there could only cultivate after reaching Huayan Peak.

“Qian Jiyun. you deserve to die!”

He gritted his teeth and attacked Qian Jiyun, wanting to snatch the Skeleton Whip from his hand.

Qian Jiyun could suppress him because of the Skeleton Whip. If he had the Skeleton Whip instead, he could easily deal with Qian Jiyun.

Bam!

The Skeleton Long Whip soared through the air, striking Elder Ji with powerful Original Soul energy.

But Elder Ji no longer cared. He ignored the possibility of being struck by the long whip and the potential injuries it could cause. If he could not seize the Skeleton Long Whip, it would be his death anniversary on this day next year.

He made up his mind and gritted his teeth. He wanted to grab the Skeleton Long Whip with one hand, thinking that he would only sustain some injuries.

He never expected the Skeleton Long Whip to transform.

Upon realizing that Elder Ji wanted his long whip, Qian Jiyun muttered something as a thought flashed across his mind. The long whip, which was initially just a series of connected skeletons, instantly sprouted sharp bone fragments resembling blades.

With a scream, the four fingers on Elder Ji's right hand were severed from his palm, leaving only his thumb intact.

"Qian Jiyun, how dare you!"

He clasped his right hand with his other hand, his forehead covered in cold sweat. He gritted his teeth and looked at Qian Jiyun.

"Why wouldn't I?" Qian Jiyun retorted coldly, waving the long whip again.

"Killing is prohibited on Huayan Peak... Ah!" Elder Ji's words turned into a scream as the long whip struck his left leg, slicing off a chunk of flesh.

Qian Jiyun really dared to kill!

"You..

He wanted to say something to divert Qian Jiyun's attention so that he could escape, but another scream rang in his ears.

An Jiuyue snapped the neck of one of the guardians with her long whip, while the other helpless guardian was pinned under her foot.

She looked at Elder Ji and said, "Pfft, as if you've never killed anyone.."

Chapter 798: Targeting You

"They... You... How dare you..."

Elder Ji turned around and saw that the other guardian was almost out of breath. His eyes were filled with fear.

He could speculate on when Qian Jiyun became so powerful. But who was that woman? How could she defeat the two guardians so quickly?

Even if he fought them, he could not defeat them in a short period of time.

When did Qian Jiyun have such a woman by his side?

"Are you An Jiuyue?"

He finally understood. This woman should be An Jiuyue, Qian Jiyun's wife, whom his Lord had mentioned to him.

No wonder Qian Jiyun had spent so many years searching for this woman. She was far from ordinary. It seemed that his Lord had underestimated Qian Jiyun's capabilities all along!

"So you know me." An Jiuyue raised her eyebrows at him and looked at Qian Jiyun.

In the next moment, Elder Ji was knocked unconscious. Even though he knew she was An Jiuyue, it was of no use anymore.

An hour later...

"It's completely useless. What a waste of a Truth-telling Pill."

An Jiuyue kicked the battered and bruised Elder Ji, who thought he had spilled everything he knew because he could not endure Qian Jiyun's torture.

"You... How dare you drug me?!" He glared at An Jiuyue, slurring his words.

Qian Jiyun patted An Jiuyue's head and said gently, "Leave it to me. Go and rest. "

"Okay." An Jiuyue nodded.

She was very tired. Using Wei Na's Original Soul energy came at a price. These past few days, she had been completely depleted of her own Original Soul energy, much like Qian Jiyun before.

"Qian Jiyun, what are you doing? Our Lord won't let you off if you dare to kill me."

Elder Ji knew he was doomed when he saw An Jiuyue leave. He wanted to retreat, but he had no Original Soul energy left, thanks to the whip in An Jiuyue's hand.

It was only now that he realized Qian Jiyun and his wife were truly ruthless.

He thought that even if the Lord himself were to come, it would be difficult to gain anything good from the two of them.

“You talk too much.” Qian Jiyun stared at him coldly, ready to kill him.

“Wait!” Elder Ji shouted when he sensed death. “I still have some secrets you’ll be interested in knowing. If you promise not to kill me, I’ll tell you.”

He did not want to die. He had lived for so long and could finally leave Huayan Peak and return to his plane. How could he bear to die?

He was willing to do anything as long as he could stay alive. Lords and loyalty were nothing.

However, he obviously did not have any other information.

Qian Jiyun looked at him as if he were looking at an idiot. He attacked without hesitation. Soon, Elder Ji became a lifeless corpse.

“It was no use asking him.”

After dealing with the corpse, Qian Jiyun returned to An Jiuyue and heard her say that.

“It was not completely useless. I found out that Xue Fangyang and Shang Ningyi are targeting you.” Qian Jiyun bent down and carried her into his arms.

“No need. I can walk on my own.” An Jiuyue wanted to reject him.

“I’ll carry you. You can sleep for a while,” Qian Jiyun said gently. He knew she was tired.

“Then... I’ll sleep for a while. Just a while..”

Chapter 799: He Had to Go

An Jiuyue was really tired. If Qian Jiyun had not been disposing of the corpse, she would have shut her eyes and slept.

She even thought she should return to the camp instead of looking for the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python today.

Having only heard Wei Na mention the potential side effects of infusing his Original Soul energy into her body, An Jiuyue had not given it much thought. But now she finally understood firsthand.

As Wei Na had said, he should only infuse his Original Soul energy into her body when it was absolutely necessary.

“Call me if you see the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python.”

With that, she closed her eyes and fell asleep quickly.

Upon seeing this, Qian Jiyun adjusted An Jiuyue’s sleeping position in his arms to ensure she was as comfortable as possible before slowly walking forward.

In Camp Ning Se...

Xue Fangyang was playing chess with Shang Ningyi when he felt a sudden twitch in his index finger. The chess piece in his hand slipped and fell onto the chessboard.

He was shocked and looked at his index finger in disbelief.

“How... How can this be...

He had two Gu worms on his index finger. When he instructed Elder Ji to go to the Black Pact Forest, he personally placed one of them on him.

He thought that if Elder Ji failed to capture the Auspicious Cloud-Devouring Sea Python, the python would eat him in the worst-case scenario, and the Gu worm would remain on the python.

This Gu worm required a living host as a medium to survive.

However, the Gu worm on his finger had alerted him that the Gu worm on Elder Ji had died.

What did this mean? It meant that Elder Ji was most likely not killed by the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python, let alone a demonic beast, but by other humans.

The humans on Huayan Peak had killed Elder Ji.

He had sent two outstanding guardians from Camp Xue Yang to accompany Elder Ji.

Who could kill these three people at the same time?

People from other higher planes? Had they also heard of the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python and learned about the inter-plane travelers? Xue Fangyang's expression darkened at the thought of this possibility.

"Lord Xue Yang? Lord Xue Yang?"

Shang Ningyi saw Xue Fangyang's panicked expression and called out to him a few times. However, there was no response.

"Lord Xue Yang, what's wrong? Are you feeling unwell?" he asked Xue Fangyang in a louder voice.

He knew that Xue Fangyang's people had left Camp Ning Se today, but he did not know where they had gone. They were Xue Fangyang's people, so he did not have the guts to send people to track them down.

Who would send their own people to their deaths, knowing they were not strong enough for the task?

Having had his thoughts interrupted, Xue Fangyang looked down at his fingers and saw that there were no white chess pieces left. He clenched his fists to conceal his panic.

"I suddenly remembered I have something to do. Ningyi, I'll head out for a while. I'll be back soon."

He could not care less about Shang Ningyi now. He only wanted to rush to the Black Pact Forest to find out what had happened to Elder Ji.

Elder Ji's abilities were second only to his own in Camp Xue Yang.

If multiple people attacked Elder Ji, overpowering and killing him, he could accept it. But if there was only one...

He dared not imagine whether he would meet the same fate as Elder Ji if he encountered that person in the future.

Hence, he had to go.

Ignoring the way Shang Ningyi looked at him from behind, he left quickly..

Chapter 800: Looking as if He Would Kill Shang Ningyi

Shang Ningyi dared not ask questions or send anyone to track down Xue Fangyang. He left the tent with a mind filled with worries and returned to his tent to attend to some affairs.

What about Xue Fangyang?

Of course, he did not go to the Black Pact Forest. As soon as he stepped out of Camp Ning Se, he did not dare to take another step forward.

He feared that the person who had killed Elder Ji was indeed more powerful than him and capable of defeating him.

A single slip could cause everlasting grief. It would be too late for him to regret it then.

He punched a big tree beside him and roared angrily, "Damn it! Who is it? What do they know?"

He thought he was the only one who knew about the inter-plane travelers. Was that not true? Or...

"Did that b*stard Shang Ningyi say something to someone?"

He wondered if Shang Ningyi had told someone else about the inter-plane travelers.

If he did, who might he have told?

Fu Ming?

Qian Jiyun?

Impossible. They were not capable of killing Elder Ji. So who else could it be?

"Who is it? Who is it?"

All he could do was shout on the spot, demanding to know who it was.

He did not dare go to the Black Pact Forest because he was afraid that the person who had killed Elder Ji would be waiting for him there.

“Damn it, Shang Ningyi, you b*stard!”

He sprinted towards Camp Ning Se again, heading straight for Shang Ningyi’s tent.

Shang Ningyi was already occupied with various tasks. There were many things to do in the camp because of Xue Fangyang’s arrival, so he had yet to settle everything.

He was about to call for someone to come in when a figure rushed in and grabbed him by the collar.

“Xue Fangyang, what are you doing? Are you crazy?”

He questioned Xue Fangyang in exasperation. Although Xue Fangyang and his group were from a higher plane than his own, that did not give them the right to be physically aggressive with him without cause.

“Shang Ningyi, did you tell anyone about the inter-plane travelers?” Xue Fangyang glared at Shang Ningyi with bloodthirsty eyes, looking as if he would kill Shang Ningyi if he dared to say yes.

“Why would I tell anyone?”

Shang Ningyi frowned and shook off Xue Fangyang’s hand.

“I didn’t even tell Ningshen and the others about this important matter could I tell someone else? Why are you going crazy here?”

“What about Fu Ming?” Xue Fangyang asked again.

He could not help but suspect Fu Ming of pretending to be weak. “Fu Ming? Why would I tell Fu Ming about this? This has nothing to do with him. I must be bored out of my mind to even mention it to him.”

Shang Ningyi denied it instinctively. He did not want Xue Fangyang to talk about An Jiuyue, so he would not implicate Fu Ming.

Xue Fangyang sneered.

“Do you really think I’m a fool? Haven’t you been inquiring about Qia: wife for the past few days? Why? Is she unrelated to the python in the Pact Forest?” he questioned Shang Ningyi.

“Of course...”

Shang Ningyi wanted to deny it instinctively, but he could not do so to Xue Fangyang.

“That’s just my speculation. She might not be related to it. Don’t you think? The Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python treats her differently from others..”
