

Spatial Ability 801

Chapter 801: Unexpected Gains

“Cut the crap, Shang Ningyi. Do you think I don’t know what kind of person you are?” Xue Fangyang was furious and would not listen to Shang Ningyi’s sophistry.

He raised a hand to stop Shang Ningyi from continuing. “Investigate it for me. I want to know if your people leaked this information!”

“Are you crazy? How can the information be leaked from my side?” Shang Ningyi found it unbelievable.

How could the information have leaked from his side? No one else knew about it except him, okay?

“Instead of investigating the problem on your own, you come to me and cause trouble? Xue Fangyang, do you really think I’m an easy target? I am the only one who knows about this matter in Camp Ning Se!” he yelled at Xue Fangyang.

“Then who could it be?” Xue Fangyang asked.

Who else besides the people from Camp Ning Se would know?

“You’ll have to ask yourself. How many people on your side know about this? Maybe someone from your camp leaked it. You should investigate it quickly.” Shang Ningyi snapped.

They argued fiercely in the tent until their faces turned red. Meanwhile, nearby, someone secretly covered his nose and slowly left Camp Ning Se.

He heaved a sigh of relief after he had gotten far away from Camp Ning Se. “I never expected that just dropping by would lead to such unexpected gains.”

This person was Fu Ming. He had dropped by to take a look around and hoped to use this opportunity to get some information from Shang Ningyi.

However, he did not expect to stumble upon such a huge piece of news in secret.

“Inter-plane travelers are like gods. I need to hurry and tell Second Brother about this,” he said, quickening his pace as he headed towards Camp Zhan Yun.

Qian Jiyun and An Jiuyue were getting closer and closer to the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python in the Black Pact Forest.

They were here to see the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python, so they did not hide their auras. The Auspicious Cloud Sea -Devouring Python quickly discovered them and took the initiative to go to them.

“What are you doing here?”

An Jiuyue, who was sleeping soundly, was so frightened that she almost jumped out of Qian Jiyun’s arms.

Qian Jiyun turned around and saw a huge snake approaching them. “Of course, I have a reason for looking for you.”

An Jiuyue got out of Qian Jiyun’s arms and took a few steps forward, approaching the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python.

“I have a few questions for you.”

The Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python shook its head and asked in a deep voice, “What questions?”

“Do you know about Sublime Shadegrass? Do you have any here?” An Jiuyue asked.

“Sublime Shadegrass? What is that?”

As a python, it was naturally unfamiliar with medicinal herbs. Asking these questions would be pointless.

The python thought An Jiuyue wanted to inquire about the person who had subdued it, but it realized that was not the case. It genuinely had no knowledge of anything else.

An Jiuyue explained, “It’s a type of grass. I smelled this grass on you last time. It only smells so strong when it has been in contact with your body for some time.”

“I don’t know.”

The Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python shook its head, indicating that it did not know.

“You can search for it yourselves. Every part of this place is my dwelling,” the python said to them..

Chapter 802: Could Not See Any Sublime Shadegrass

An Jiuyue was speechless.

She wondered if she should say this, but she could already tell how big the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python was with her eyes. If she had to search for the herb on her own, she would have to search the entire mountain, wouldn’t she?

But what could she do? She could only look for it. She could not rely on the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python.

“Alright, I’ll look for it myself. Jiyun, help me look for it too. I drew a picture. It looks like this.”

She handed a picture to Qian Jiyun and asked him to look for the Sublime Shadegrass based on the illustration. They could not count on the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python because it could not read either.

Qian Jiyun took the picture and reminded An Jiuyue softly, "Okay, be careful."

"I know," An Jiuyue replied.

"Wei Na, help me find it. You know what it looks like. You saw what I drew," she said to Wei Na in her mind.

Wei Na touched the tip of his nose and replied innocently, "Master, all I see is a vast expanse of grass. I don't see any Sublime Shadegrass. Moreover, its aura is everywhere. I can't pinpoint its specific location."

He was not sure if it was because he had used too much Original Soul energy, but he felt a slight decline in his sensing ability. He could not tell where the Sublime Shadegrass was.

"I don't think I can help you this time. You'll have to rely on yourself," he said.

An Jiuyue sighed helplessly.

Forget it. I can't rely on Wei Na for everything. It'll just be Qian Jiyun and me.

"I'll look for it myself."

Hence, they started looking for it.

Two hours passed, and An Jiuyue found many stalks of precious medicinal herbs that could be sold for a good price.

However, she could not find the Sublime Shadegrass.

Four hours passed, and Qian Jiyun found a Hundred-Spirit Blood Lotus. The color had turned dark, indicating its immense value.

However, he still could not find the Sublime Shadegrass.

In the sixth hour, they started searching again. They found some more precious medicinal herbs, but there was still no sign of any Sublime Shadegrass.

Sitting next to a patch of grass, An Jiuyue muttered softly as she ate a pastry, "I can't help but suspect that the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python might have picked up the scent of the Sublime Shadegrass from somewhere else."

However, she knew that was impossible. The Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python would not acquire the scent of the Sublime Shadegrass in a short period of time.

She could also smell the Sublime Shadegrass everywhere. Wei Na was not the only one who smelled it. There was no doubt that there was Sublime Shadegrass here.

But where could it be?

It was strange that they could smell the Sublime Shadegrass but could not see any of it.

Was there something strange here?

"You haven't found it yet?"

The Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python could not wait any longer and came to ask about their progress.

They had been searching for such a long time, yet they were still unable to find the Sublime Shadegrass. An Tu's family could not possibly be so stupid as to be unable to find something.

An Tu was very powerful back then. He could go anywhere and find everything.

"You didn't inherit your father's capabilities at all. You can't even find a blade of grass. It's a waste to have someone who is a descendant of an inter-plane traveler like you. Useless!"

It shook its head at An Jiuyue and sighed.

"What did you say?!"

It did not matter that she could not find the Sublime Shadegrass.. What did she just hear?

Chapter 803: Not Here, But Below

Doubting if she misheard, An Jiuyue turned her head and looked at Qian Jiyun, silently questioning him with her eyes.

"Inter-plane travelers? Are you saying that An Tu used to be an interplane traveler?" Qian Jiyun asked the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python.

He was very shocked. He had never expected An Tu to be that inter-plane traveler who had broken the rules. What a coincidence.

Hence, it was very likely that Shang Ningyi and Xue Fangyang were after the inter-plane travelers.

He looked at An Jiuyue.

“You don’t know that An Tu is an inter-plane traveler?”

The Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python was perplexed. As the person whom An Tu had entrusted with the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python cub, she should be the successor of the inter-plane traveler, shouldn’t she? How did An Jiuyue not know that An Tu was an inter-plane traveler?

Wasn’t this a little strange?

“I do now,” An Jiuyue replied faintly.

She truly had no idea before. Otherwise, they would have figured out what Shang Ningyi and the others were plotting. However, it was not too late to find out now.

“Wait. You’re saying Father Tu is an inter-plane traveler?”

“Yes.” The Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python nodded.

“What about this place? Is this where Father Tu used to live?” An Jiuyue asked again.

The Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python replied. It swept its long tail and struck the ground twice. The earth trembled, causing Qian Jiyun and An Jiuyue to sway.

“Be careful.” Qian Jiyun caught her in time and pulled her into his arms.

After the ground settled, An Jiuyue shook her head at Qian Jiyun. “I’m fine.”

She finally understood why she could not find the Sublime Shadegrass even after searching for six hours. It grew underground, not on the surface, right?

Inter-plane travelers had their own plane territories. This could be a space independently created anywhere, capable of hiding people and storing objects.

Of course, the space would not be very big, typically around 10 square meters, but it was enough.

And evidently, the place they were in had a space.

She looked at the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python and asked, "Can we go in?"

"You can't enter without a token," the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python answered honestly.

If anyone could enter, it would not be an exclusive space for the inter-plane traveler. It would also be impossible for the space to remain hidden for so long.

"A token..."

An Jiuyue recalled the box she had found and immediately asked Wei Na to search her microcosmic space. As expected, she found a black token. When she held it in her hand, an arched vortex gate appeared nearby.

"This is... a spatial portal?"

It was indeed a spatial portal. Even Qian Jiyun could tell.

He never expected to find a spatial portal, let alone a small space left behind by An Tu, in the Black Pact Forest.

"Let's go in."

An Jiuyue tugged at Qian Jiyun, ready to enter.

However, they could not enter. No matter how hard they tried, the vortex did not move, and they could not go in.

“What’s going on? Don’t we have the token? Why can’t we enter?” She looked at Qian Jiyun and then at herself.

“Perhaps only one person can enter.”

Qian Jiyun guessed that only An Jiuyue could enter because the token had An Jiuyue’s aura..

Chapter 804: I Thought of It, but I Can’t Say It

However, An Jiuyue had lost all her Original Soul energy. He would be worried if she entered the spatial portal alone. He hesitated, wondering if they should come back in a few days.

“I’ll try going in.”

An Jiuyue thought so too. She let go of Qian Jiyun’s hand and wanted to enter through the vortex gate.

“Jiuyue, don’t go in.”

Qian Jiyun raised his arm to stop her. In fact, he managed to stop her.

An Jiuyue turned around and looked at Qian Jiyun in confusion. She blinked and blinked again.

“I can’t go in alone either.”

The resistance was undeniable. She simply could not enter.

Was Original Soul energy required to enter the space? She had not heard about that before.

Qian Jiyun was also perplexed. Logically speaking, An Jiuyue should have been able to enter at will. He would not have been able to stop her.

However, he did pull An Jiuyue back. She did not enter the space.

“Why don’t you try?” she suggested.

Since she could not enter, Qian Jiyun should give it a try. What if he could do it?

Before Qian Jiyun could shake his head, she stuffed the token into his palm. He was sucked into the vortex gate before he could even think.

“F*ck!”

So it was him!

Wei Na did not say that aloud, but he was right.

If Qian Jiyun was just an ordinary person, how could he possess this space? He even needed his master’s spatial ability to slowly cultivate it.

As it turned out, the revelation of being the successor of the inter-plane travelers was waiting for him here. No wonder.

However, what did Qian Jiyun have to do with An Tu? Why were these two unrelated people inter-plane travelers?

“Master, you’ve thought of it too, right?” he asked An Jiuyue.

An Jiuyue was speechless.

Shang Ningyi and Xue Fangyang had set their sights on her, but they never considered that Qian Jiyun could be the inter-plane traveler. This was fate!

“I did, but I can’t say it,” she said faintly.

Of course, she could not say it. He was the successor of the inter-plane travelers! Especially since the power of the space had yet to be fully cultivated, exposing this matter would bring endless trouble to Qian Jiyun.

“Aren’t you going to tell him?” Wei Na asked with a frown.

Someone had already set their sights on An Jiuyue. They were clearly here for the inter-plane travelers’ successor’s space.

If she kept this information from him, she might have to suffer for Qian Jiyun.

“Why must I tell him?” An Jiuyue asked Wei Na.

What was the point of telling Qian Jiyun? Could they really announce to the world that Qian Jiyun was the successor of the inter-plane travelers?

Of course, they had to proceed secretly. If they nurtured the successor and then revealed him, no one would be able to do anything to them.

“Let’s cultivate the space first.”

Finding the Sublime Shadegrass was now the most crucial task. Everything else was secondary.

Qian Jiyun knew what was happening after entering the bright space.

He was the successor of the inter-plane travelers.

He closed his eyes and took a moment to calm himself before carefully surveying the space, which was neither big nor small.

There were many medicinal herbs planted inside, but he did not know their names. He believed he would know what they were as long as An Jiuyue was around..

Chapter 805: Eight-Leaf Nine-Ice Grass

According to the picture An Jiuyue gave him, he successfully found the Sublime Shadegrass and dug out two stalks.

He then looked at the other medicinal plants and began to dig them up. He dug out one to two stalks of different medicinal plants, intending to plant them in An Jiuyue’s space.

He wanted to dig up everything, but he could not bring too many with him. He had no choice but to make separate trips for them.

Soon, he came out of the small space. He saw An Jiuyue sitting on a rock, resting with her back against a big tree.

He closed his eyes and took a deep breath.

I'm not strong enough. Otherwise, Jiuyue wouldn't have to use Wei Na's Original Soul energy and sustain such injuries.

Gritting his teeth, Qian Jiyun approached An Jiuyue and crouched down.

An Jiuyue woke up immediately when she sensed someone coming. She looked at Qian Jiyun and asked, "How is it inside? Is there anything inside?"

The Sublime Shadegrass was the most important. She could afford not to have anything else, but she had to have this. Otherwise, what would she do with that little thing in her space?

"There are lots of things. All medicinal plants. I couldn't dig out everything at once, but I brought these."

He placed a cloth bag on the ground and opened it. There were many medicinal plants inside. Their roots and leaves were intact.

"So many medicinal plants!" An Jiuyue was shocked.

There are that many medicinal plants? Father Tu must have put a lot of effort into this small space.

"I can't believe there's Eight-Leaf Nine-Ice Grass here. My Nine Suns Pill is finally settled."

She picked up a medicinal plant and examined it carefully. A rare smile appeared on her face.

Her Nine Suns Pill was only short of the Eight-Leaf Nine-Ice Grass. As long as she had this medicinal herb, she could start refining the Nine Suns Pill. She initially thought that the pills would be useless at Huayan Peak, even if she successfully refined them.

If Qian Jiyun's strength increased too much here, he might not be able to enter or leave the next time.

However, things were different now. Qian Jiyun was the successor of the inter-plane travelers. He could enter and leave every plane at any time.

He could eat as many Nine Suns Pills as he wanted.

But, of course, one should not consume as many Nine Suns Pills as they pleased. If a person could eat a lot of Nine Suns Pills, why would they need to cultivate? They could just spend money to buy them.

Everyone could only eat one Nine Suns Pill at each level. Eating any more than that would be useless.

“I’ll start refining Nine Suns Pills when my Original Soul energy recovers.”

“Jiuyue, you need to rest,” Qian Jiyun reminded her.

Was she unaware of how pale her face was? She looked scary!

“I know. I’ll rest well for the next few days. When I’m done resting, I’ll be able to refine the Nine Suns Pill since my Original Soul energy would’ve recovered.”

An Jiuyue nodded seriously.

Qian Jiyun was quiet.

He knew it was pointless to say anything. An Jiuyue would not listen to him.

He should not have taken these herbs. He could have come back to collect them when An Jiuyue needed them in the future. Why did he have to take them out and give An Jiuyue ideas again?

“Then don’t worry about anything for the next few days. Rest well.”

“Okay,” An Jiuyue replied.

She had nothing else to do anyway. She had to rest well..

Chapter 806: They All Died Here?

She could not use her Original Soul energy for the time being, which meant she could not even refine medicinal pills. Qian Jiyun could at least find a lot of things to do. What else could she do at Huayan Peak besides cook?

Oh right, she could also go to the small courtyard in her space to hug her children.

They bade farewell to the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python and returned.

Before leaving the Black Pact Forest, they encountered people sent by Xue Fangyang. They managed to evade them quickly and avoid being seen. However, those individuals had a fierce and menacing presence, and Qian Jiyun and An Jiuyue ended up catching sight of them.

“Are they going to cause trouble for the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python?” An Jiuyue asked as she watched them enter the Black Pact Forest.

“We have this. They can’t cause trouble for the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python. They’ll only be on the receiving end.” Qian Jiyun took out the black bamboo tube from his pocket.

“So that’s the thing!” An Jiuyue took the bamboo tube and examined it carefully.

This bamboo tube was similar to the one she used to raise the cub. It could not be opened either.

It seemed like this was an artifact, or perhaps it required some kind of incantation, that could capture the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python. However, she did not know where her father had hidden the incantation.

In An Jiuyue's opinion, her father's zodiac sign had to be a rabbit. Everyone said that a cunning rabbit had three burrows, but her father might have 30.

"Here, you can have it back." She returned the bamboo tube to Qian Jiyun.

This thing was useless in their hands for the time being. However, they could not let it fall into the hands of others, lest the truth behind their killing of Elder Ji and the other two be exposed.

"You can keep it first. Don't let anyone else take it," Qian Jiyun said to An Jiuyue.

"Alright, I'll keep it." An Jiuyue nodded and stored the bamboo tube in her space.

After a while, they heard the angry roar of the Auspicious Cloud Sea- Devouring Python when they reached the edge of the Black Pact Forest. The ground shook.

"Did they... all die here?"

She looked up at Qian Jiyun. She would have felt sorry for them if she did not know who had sent them.

Why would they enter the Black Pact Forest for no reason? Did they have a death wish?

They were acquainted with the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python, but they still had to be careful when entering the Black Pact Forest. However, those people walked in openly and chatted loudly as they made their way inside.

They were too bold!

"It's best if more of them died here," Qian Jiyun said.

An Jiuyue was speechless.

Although she felt the same way, she would not say it out loud. If she did, she would feel as if she were awfully cruel and bloodthirsty.

“Camp Xue Yang’s foundation is not easily shaken,” she muttered.

If many of their guardians died in the Black Pact Forest, there would definitely be chaos because there would be insufficient guardians. She wondered if Xue Fangyang would take this into consideration.

“Of course not.” Qian Jiyun shook his head.

Without Xue Fangyang, someone else would lead Camp Xue Yang.

Just like in the past, when his father disappeared, he managed to take over this camp and survive on Huayan Peak.

“Xue Fangyang doesn’t have to be the lord of Camp Xue Yang,” he said..

Chapter 807: You Can Be of Some Use

“That’s true, but it’ll still be chaotic for a while.” An Jiuyue sighed faintly. “If it really comes to that, chaos is inevitable.”

Qian Jiyun was not bothered. It was only natural for Huayan Peak to be chaotic. After all, which camp wouldn’t experience some chaos if there was a new lord?

However, this was a common occurrence. There was nothing to say.

Fu Ming had been waiting in Camp Zhan Yun for a long time.

The sky was already dark. He laid his head on the table, his stomach growling from hunger.

“Uncle Fu, aren’t you going to eat something?” the two children asked Fu Ming as they ate the pastries their mother had made for them.

“That’s right, Third Brother. This taro cake tastes really good. Do you want to try it?” Gong Cheng asked Fu Ming.

Fu Ming rolled his eyes at Gong Cheng and almost slapped him.

Do I look like someone who would snatch food from two children? Only someone like Gong Cheng would do such a thing. This is so hard to watch.

“Sixth Brother, Second Sister-in-Law made that for the children. Are you a child?”

“I’m not a child, but I’m hungry too!” Gong Cheng said as he ate.

An Jiuyue had been away for a long time. Was he not allowed to be hungry?

“Don’t you know how to go eat if you’re hungry? Does Camp Zhan Yun not have enough food and water for you?” Fu Ming scolded him.

Gong Cheng pursed his lips and did not reply.

There was no lack of food in Camp Zhan Yun, but was the food cooked by the chefs in the camp as delicious as An Jiuyue’s?

Even if the ingredients were the same, the food would not taste as good as An Jiuyue's cooking. His sense of taste was still intact. He would not be unable to taste the difference just because he was hungry.

"You make it sound like you're not hungry."

Fu Ming was speechless. He was hungry too, but he was not greedy enough to eat children's food.

Moreover, he had serious matters to discuss with his second brother. He was not here for food. Although he had often come to wait for food, he had decided to set a good example ever since Gong Cheng returned. He could not let Gong Cheng follow suit.

However, it seemed like even if he had set a good example, Gong Cheng had already learned to be a scumbag.

"I can't be bothered to talk to you. If you have the time, learn how to manage Camp Zhan Yun. Is it easy for Second Brother to move between three places a year?"

"Don't tell me you're counting on me here in the future?" Gong Cheng smiled.

With my meager Original Soul energy, Camp Zhan Yun will be finished if he relies on me, right?

I'm sure this is what he means. Is Third Brother trying to scare me to death or make me laugh to death by saying this?

"I'm not counting on you, but at least when Second Brother leaves, you can be of some use," Fu Ming said.

"1..."

Qian Yizheng glanced at Gong Cheng in disdain and said to Fu Ming, "Uncle Fu, instead of asking Uncle Jiyun to rely on him, you might as well rely on me and my brother. "

“That’s right, that’s right. Soon, our Original Soul energy will be stronger than Uncle Gong’s.” Qian Yirong nodded in agreement.

We worked hard. But Uncle Gong Cheng is always wandering around and has no time to cultivate. It’s obvious that he isn’t diligent. How can someone like him help Uncle Jiyun? What big talk!

Gong Cheng was speechless. He turned around and looked at the two children..

Chapter 808: Everyone Knew How to Provoke Him

How much they looked down on him! They should have at least given him some face, right?

He had actually worked hard enough, but he did not come to Huayan Peak often. This was only his second time. He cultivated diligently every day, but his progress was minimal. What else could he do?

“I’m going to cultivate.”

There was nothing else he could say. He had to cultivate.

The two children looked down on him. What would he become if he did not cultivate?

He decided that even if Qian Jiyun asked him to return to Daqing Kingdom, he would not return. He had to focus on cultivating at Huayan Peak and not allow the two children to look down on him again.

Qian Jiyun and An Jiuyue returned as soon as he left the tent.

“Where are you going?” An Jiuyue asked as she watched him leave angrily.

Gong Cheng looked up and rolled his eyes at them when he saw his second brother carrying An Jiuyue.

It seemed like everyone knew how to provoke and irritate him. The two younger ones looked down on his cultivation level, while the two older ones would tease him for being a single dog whenever they returned. "Going to cultivate," he snapped, returning to his tent.

An Jiuyue was speechless.

What triggered him to cultivate in the middle of the night?

It would be reasonable for others to be cultivating at night, but she had never seen Gong Cheng work so hard.

He was supposed to be in her tent, waiting for dinner. Why did he leave so suddenly? Was he bullied? Who could bully him?

"Ignore him," Qian Jiyun replied and carried An Jiuyue into the tent.

"Second Brother—"

"Mother, you're back?"

"Mother, what's wrong? Are you injured?"

Fu Ming was about to speak when he heard the two little children's voices. He shut up decisively and looked at An Jiuyue, who was pale in Qian Jiyun's arms, with a frown.

He wondered why she looked like this and if something had happened. "I'm fine. I'm just a little tired from walking."

Qian Jiyun placed An Jiuyue on a chair and smiled at the two little ones. He reached out and touched their faces.

Tired from walking? Who was she trying to fool?

However, the two little ones did not expose their mother's lie and nodded obediently.

"Then you have to rest well, Mother."

Qian Yirong walked up to her chair and tiptoed to massage An Jiuyue's shoulder.

"Mother, I will massage your shoulders. You won't be tired soon. "

"Mother, are you hungry? Do you want to eat some taro cake first?" Qian Yizheng brought a pastry to An Jiuyue's mouth.

Fu Ming closed his eyes.

An Jiuyue raised them since they were young. They were so obedient! Fu Ming thought about his two nephews. Each of them was more troublesome than the other.

Comparisons were truly infuriating.

Soon, the warrior-servants led the two children away, leaving only three people in the tent.

"Second Brother, do you know what I heard at Camp Ning Se today? Those two are actually targeting inter-plane travelers. Second Sister-in-Law, Shang Ningyi has been asking about you. Is this related to you?" Fu Ming asked them mysteriously.

Shang Ningyi would not have asked about An Jiuyue if this matter was unrelated to her.

Besides, he remembered hearing Qian Jiyun mention An Tu's name.. Could this "An" be related to An Jiuyue?

Chapter 809: You're Asking the Wrong Person

An Jiuyue looked at Qian Jiyun and said in a deep voice, "So this is really what they're up to."

It seemed like she had to prioritize refining the Nine Suns Pills. Otherwise, if Xue Fangyang were to go crazy and come after them one day, they might not be able to handle him.

Qian Jiyun narrowed his eyes and looked at Fu Ming. "Did you hear them say that?"

"Yes! I'm not sure what happened between them, but they were arguing inside the tent about who leaked this information. I happened to be outside the tent and overheard it," Fu Ming said.

"Fortunately, I was vigilant enough to quickly suppress my aura. Otherwise, I might not have been able to return."

Shang Ningyi, let alone Xue Fangyang, would not let him off considering he had heard such a significant piece of news, right? Hence, he returned hastily. "Did anyone see you go to Camp Ning Se?" An Jiuyue asked immediately.

"Uh." Fu Ming was rendered speechless.

Camp Ning Se was far from empty. How could he have gone unnoticed?

Even if Fu Ming did not leave in time today, it seemed like he would not be able to benefit from Shang Ningyi in the future. Thankfully, he left in time. Otherwise, he might have lost his life there.

“Second Brother, I’ll have to rely on you in the future. Give more support to my camp,” he said as he looked at Qian Jiyun pitifully.

“Huff!” Qian Jiyun sighed heavily.

He did not take Fu Ming’s words to heart. Would he not care about Fu Ming if Shang Ningyi did not “support” him? Obviously not.

“When did you hear their conversation?” he asked Fu Ming.

Fu Ming thought about it carefully and replied, “In the morning, when it was almost time for lunch to be ready.”

Qian Jiyun tightened his grip on the table and glanced at An Jiuyue. An Jiuyue glanced at him too, and they understood each other.

That was when they killed Elder Ji and the other two and burned them on the spot.

Hence, Elder Ji and Xue Fangyang resonated in some way, which explained why Xue Fangyang learned about Elder Ji’s death immediately.

Fortunately, Xue Fangyang and Shang Ningyi’s argument suggested that they did not know who killed Elder Ji and the others.

It would save them a lot of trouble if they could only resonate and not transmit information.

“So, Second Sister-in-Law, are you really the successor of the inter-plane travelers?” Fu Ming lowered his voice and asked An Jiuyue carefully.

The successor of the inter-plane travelers had a godly status at Huayan Peak. They had the freedom to traverse any plane, regardless of their level of power—and this person was right before him!

“Uh, well...” An Jiuyue was stunned.

She did not dare reply. After all, she was not the successor of the inter-plane travelers.

She stole a quick glance at Qian Jiyun, and seeing his lack of reaction, she was about to open her mouth and agree.

She wanted to help him fend off the disaster first. After all, she had her microcosmic space, and she could always hide inside whenever danger arose.

“You’re asking the wrong person.”

However, Qian Jiyun did not give her a chance to admit it and spoke to Fu Ming directly.

“Huh? I asked the wrong person?” Fu Ming was stunned and looked at his second brother.

“Stop joking. Who else could it be but Second Sister-in-Law? It can’t be you, Second Brother. Oh, right, since this concerns Second Sister-in-Law, I can ask you about it too. So you’re not wrong to say that..”

Chapter 810: Livid

It was a common saying that husband and wife were one entity. So, it should not matter who he asked, right?

However, they ignored him. An Jiuyue looked at Qian Jiyun in surprise.

“You already know about it?”

She had planned to keep it a secret for a while longer.

“Mhm.” Qian Jiyun nodded and patted her head gently. “I only found out after I entered. I’m the only one who can enter that place, and it has nothing to do with Original Soul energy.”

“So it’s because...” An Jiuyue chuckled and shook her head.

She should have realized that since Qian Jiyun had already entered the small space, he would have known what lay ahead of him.

What good would he be if he could not even guess this? “It’s good that you know. We can be more careful in the future.”

“I know,” Qian Jiyun replied.

He had always been careful, but being careful did not mean that others would not provoke him.

He never intended to provoke Ming Fucheng, Shang Ningyi, and Xue Fangyang. They were the ones who came knocking on his door.

“Second Brother, Second Sister-in-Law, what are you talking about?” Fu Ming felt dizzy listening to their conversation.

What’s going on? Why does it sound like...

Suddenly, he seemed to have thought of something. He stared at his second brother as if trying to find a hole in him.

“Second Brother, you mean you’re the one who is...”

No way. It’s not what I think, right? Is the inter-plane traveler Second Brother, not An Jiuyue?

“No, no. But you have nothing to do with Prince An Yang! Besides, that Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python was rude to you. It’s here for Second Sister-in-Law.”

He was right. The Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python came for An Jiuyue and almost swallowed Qian Jiyun the other day.

An Jiuyue looked at Fu Ming seriously and warned him, “Fu Ming, remember to keep this to yourself.”

“Uh.” Fu Ming was really stumped this time.

IVs not my wild imagination! It’s true! Second Brother is really the successor of the inter-plane travelers!

“I know, I know. I promise I won’t say anything to anyone.” He quickly covered his mouth to express that he would not spout nonsense.

Upon further thought, he added, “No, that’s not right. From today on, I’ll quit drinking and won’t eat anything outside the camp. I won’t meet Shang Ningyi and the others alone anymore.”

Who knew if Shang Ningyi would brutally poison him? Even though An Jiuyue had given him the antidote, he could not guarantee that would not happen.

Besides, Shang Ningyi must have been aware of his sudden return today.

In Camp Ning Se...

Xue Fangyang and Shang Ningyi discreetly investigated everyone on their respective sides.

However, no matter how much they investigated, they could not uncover anything.

Xue Fangyang was furious because the people he had sent to the Black Pact Forest again had yet to return. There was no news about them at all.

They had either been killed by the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python or by the people who had killed Elder Ji and the others. He did not know who it was.

However, he was truly livid.

He did not mind a few deaths, but the most important thing was that the cause of their deaths remained unknown. That was truly terrifying..
