Chapter 841: Indeed... Dedicated to Selling Meat

“I wanted to say that the second floor of your shop is open. When are you going to take a look?”

He had intended to tell her about this last time, but he remembered that they had limited things in the space, so it was fine to keep this information from her for the time being.

However, more and more people had been coming to the second floor of their shop recently. When they noticed that the second floor was empty, they would always criticize. Customers could easily form a bad impression of their shop!

Although a bad impression would have no effect on their efficiency in selling things, based on his observations over the past few days, this shop seemed to have impression points.

“The second floor is open?” An Jiuyue could not help but raise her eyebrows.

“What can be sold on the second floor? Medicinal plants? Medicinal pills?”

She had a lot of medicinal plants in her space. She could also refine some medicinal pills every day to sell. Advanced medicinal pills were still in high demand at Huayan Peak, right?

The corners of Wei Na’s mouth twitched.

“Well, Master, medicinal plants and pills cannot be sold on the second floor.”

“Then what can be sold?”

An Jiuyue was puzzled. According to her understanding of the shop rules, she could first sell food, then medicinal plants. Was she mistaken?

“Meat,” Wei Na replied faintly.

“What did you say?”

For a moment, An Jiuyue surprisingly could not quite catch what he said.

Is my hearing bad? Did I mishear him? Or did Wei Na make a mistake? Why did I hear “meat”?

“Master, you didn’t mishear. The second floor of our shop is indeed... dedicated to selling meat,” Wei Na reaffirmed.

An Jiuyue was extremely shocked.

Selling meat? Was there anything more hilarious than that? “Selling meat. So I have to raise more animals in the pasture?”

“Yes.” Wei Na nodded.

This was also why he did not tell her about the opening of the second floor last time.

There were not many animals in the space. If they started operating their business on the second floor, they would not have enough items to sell after a few days.

Hence, he felt that he could wait until there were more animals in the pasture before opening the second floor for business.

“I wanted to tell you about it a few days later, but I recently discovered something. Some customers who couldn’t buy anything on the second floor may have a bad impression of our shop. Then our points will be deducted.”

He had to quickly tell her about this.

An Jiuyue took a deep breath.

She knew that anything that allowed her to earn points and inner cores would be a scam. Impression points? Were they trying to earn points from her again?

“I understand. We’ll be returning to Daqing Kingdom in a few days. We’ll buy more animals to keep in the space,” An Jiuyue said.

“Okay,” Wei Na replied. “Master, the inner cores...”

“I’ll look for them. ”

At the mention of the inner cores, An Jiuyue wanted to beat someone up again.

Every one of them is like a demanding lord who expects me to serve them. And if theyre dissatisfied, they can make me lose evewthing I have. Seriously... I can’t afford to provoke them!

With that, she exited her space in a flash.

Coincidentally, Qian Jiyun arrived at her tent with a plate of pastries. “Jiuyue, are you hungry? I made hibiscus cakes. Can you help me taste it?”

Of course, Qian Jiyun had tried the pastries himself. They tasted okay. At the very least, they were appetizing. He was just giving An Jiuyue a reason to hurry over and eat them..

Chapter 842: Are You Sure You Want Me to Bring Them All?

“Okay!”

An Jiuyue nodded, but the way she looked at Qian Jiyun was a little... unkind. Qian Jiyun could tell. He walked to the table and pulled her closer to him.

“What’s wrong? Why do you look so pale?” An Jiuyue closed her eyes and took a deep breath.

“Do you have inner cores?”

“Yes.”

Qian Jiyun nodded immediately without asking her why she wanted them.

“Then bring them all,” An Jiuyue said directly.

“Bring them all?”

Qian Jiyun looked at her in confusion, feeling some uncertainty.

“Are you sure you want me to bring them all?”

He had been at Huayan Peak for many years and had a lot of inner cores. If he brought them all... He glanced at the tent. It probably could not accommodate all of them, right?

However, he was soon no longer skeptical.

So what if the tent could not fit all the inner cores? An Jiuyue had her own space. No matter how many inner cores he had, they would all fit perfectly.

“There’s...” No need.

She did not say the last two words. Who knew how many inner cores that little thing would consume?

Wei Na was not sure, and neither was she.

She thought for a moment and said, “Bring them all first, and we’ll see if we can use them all.’

Based on the speed at which the little thing was consuming herbs, she was afraid that no matter how many inner cores she had, they would not be enough.

Moreover, she wondered if the more things she gave it, the wider the space would become.

If that were the case, giving it more inner cores would be worth it, right?

“Eat some hibiscus cake first. I’ll bring you to retrieve the inner cores later.” Qian Jiyun pulled her to sit down and pushed the plate closer to her.

An Jiuyue rubbed her stomach and muttered softly, “Okay! I happen to be a little hungry too.”

She reached out, picked up a piece of pastry, took a bite, and nodded.

“These pastries are not bad! Qian Jiyun, I didn’t expect your culinary skills to be so good. You should eat them too.”

She could not spend two hours eating a piece of pastry like the ancient people. She devoured two or three pastries in no time and told Qian Jiyun that she had used up all the medicinal plants.

“I’ll get some more tomorrow,” Qian Jiyun said, smiling as he ate his pastry.

An Jiuyue quickly said, “If you’re going to the Black Pact Forest, I’ll go too.”

She also wanted to dig up some medicinal plants herself. She knew she could gather a considerable amount in a single day.

Besides, this was the Black Pact Forest! There were many medicinal plants inside, unlike anywhere else.

“Okay,” Qian Jiyun replied.

Soon, they arrived at a place.

All camps would not store their inner cores in tents. Otherwise, thieves would have targeted them long ago.

Although Camp Zhan Yun’s inner cores were kept within the campgrounds, the location was very secretive.

Qian Jiyun had personally led Yan Nuo and the others to excavate this place after his arrival. There were many trapping mechanisms inside. Besides Yan Nuo and the other three, only Qian Jiyun knew about it.

Now, there was An Jiuyue.

“Aren’t there too many traps?”

She watched as Qian Jiyun moved his hand every few steps. Although he was deactivating the trapping mechanisms, she could not help but mutter to herself.

However, she knew that they could not store all these items here without these trapping mechanisms..

Chapter 844: I Had a Rough Idea

Regardless of whether Qian Jiyun would feel the pain, she really could not bear to part with them.

But so what?

Using Qian Jiyun's things for his space was reasonable. Besides, keeping the inner cores was not very useful. He would have more of them in the future. Since the inner cores could be useful in this way now, they should use them!

However...

"What will that little thing grow to become if I equip it with all these things?" She did not dare to imagine.

But then again, she wondered if she should ask Qian Jiyun to gather all the medicinal plants in the small space in the Black Pact Forest tomorrow to provide for that little thing.

She could keep some roots to plant the herbs in her space. They would grow in a few years anyway.

She looked at Qian Jiyun and asked, "Qian Jiyun, can I really take all these things? Aren't you reluctant to part with them?"

Qian Jiyun only looked at her and did not speak.

Did he look like someone who would be reluctant to part with worldly possessions? An Jiuyue could be using these things for him, and even if she were only using them for herself, would he be unwilling to part with them?

He would only be happy and earn more inner cores.

An Jiuyue raised her eyebrows and put the boxes in her space.

“Let’s go to the Black Pact Forest tomorrow and get all the medicinal plants. We’ll equip the little thing with them and see how it grows in the future,” she said.

Suddenly, she seemed to have thought of something and looked at Qian Jiyun.

“I forgot to tell you. Actually, that thing you gave me earlier is a space separator. It’s growing now. If it’s nurtured well, it might become a space even more powerful than mine.”

Of course, this was just her speculation. She would have to wait and see.

“I had a rough idea,” Qian Jiyun said as he looked at her.

Although he had guessed it, he only thought it was an extraordinary artifact. He did not expect it to be a space.

“Do you think it’ll be useful for them if they get it?” An Jiuyue chuckled.

Would it still be a space separator if it could be useful for anyone?

In retrospect, it would only continue to remain as a space separator for 100 or 1,000 years without her space to raise it. It would never develop into a space.

Was it really possible to randomly pick someone off the street and expect them to have a microcosmic space?

If that were the case, the world would be in chaos.

“Will there be any drawbacks to raising it in your space?” Qian Jiyun looked at her and asked seriously.

“Well... I don’t think so.”

An Jiuyue shook her head, but she was not sure. According to Wei Na, there would be no drawbacks.

“It grows by consuming medicinal plants and inner cores. It might want other things in the future. So far, it has only absorbed some spiritual energy from my space. I can’t tell if there’s anything else, but there won’t be any drawbacks.”

After some thought, she said with certainty, “Wei Na would’ve told me long ago if there were any drawbacks. Don’t worry.”

What she did not say was that Wei Na had excitedly informed her that the little thing might even bring benefits to her space. Of course, she did not know what the so-called benefits were.

In her opinion, her space was already good enough..

Chapter 845: Demonic Beasts Attacked Camp Bai Ze

“As long as there are no drawbacks, that’s good.”

In that case, he would not have to worry.

“There are a few secret rooms over there with Original Soul Stones. I’ll bring you there. Keep everything.”

“I’ll keep everything?” An Jiuyue looked at him in surprise. “We’ll be going back soon. If I keep everything, does your camp not need to spend anything?”

“If we still need the things here for our expenses, no one will target Camp Zhan Yun,” Qian Jiyun replied with a smile.

An Jiuyue pursed her lips and remained silent.

He was right. There were outsiders who kept eyeing Camp Zhan Yun.

Of course, they were not here for the items in Camp Zhan Yun. It was just that their strength was indescribable!

She knew that, in Qian Jiyun’s eyes, the guardians of Camp Zhan Yun were far from meeting his expectations. They needed to become stronger. However, in the eyes of others, Camp Zhan Yun was deemed significant enough to be spied on.

This was all because Camp Zhan Yun’s income over the years was significantly higher than that of the other camps.

They set off for the Black Pact Forest early the next day.

However, before they could leave the camp, Yan Nuo rushed toward them. He was still panting heavily as he stood in front of them, as if he had hurried over from afar. “Master, something happened.”

“What is it?”

Qian Jiyun was rather calm. There was no trouble here anyway.

It would be unusual if nothing happened at Huayan Peak. Could anybody even keep track of the number of camps that fell into chaos every year?

However, all these incidents were only temporary. The troubled camp would soon tide over the crisis with the help of the other camps. Of course, they would also have to pay a lot.

“Demonic beasts have attacked Camp Bai Ze. More than half of the camp has been injured or killed,” Yan Nuo said, his face solemn.

Although Camp Bai Ze was not on the same plane as them, they guarded several protected grounds together. If Camp Bai Ze’s guardians could not go to the protected grounds, things would definitely become chaotic there. “More than half of them have been injured or killed?”

Even Qian Jiyun was astonished by Yan Nuo’s report, let alone An Jiuyue.

She glanced at Qian Jiyun.

According to Qian Jiyun, most of the demonic beasts on Huayan Peak would not take the initiative to attack the guardians. Why would they attack a camp?

In particular, what kind of demonic beast could hurt or kill more than half of the people in the camp?

Did the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python in the Black Pact Forest come out? But how was that possible? There were no young Auspicious Cloud

Bea-vevourmg yytnons m camp Bam Le.

“When we first arrived at Huayan Peak, do you remember Rong Gu and the others mentioning that someone was capturing demonic beast cubs? Could they be from Camp Bai Ze?” she speculated.

“Mistress, you’re right. The demonic beasts attacked Camp Bai Ze because of the demonic beast cubs.” Yan Nuo glanced at An Jiuyue before looking at Qian Jiyun.

“Master, Camp Bai Ze has sent us a distress signal. Are we going to rescue them?” he asked.

In his opinion, it would be better not to rescue a camp that would even target the demonic beast cubs. They should let them fend for themselves.

However, it was impossible to truly leave them to fend for themselves.

It was not out of benevolence, but because they would be ostracized if they did not go because the guardians of the other camps would surely go to their rescue..

Chapter 846: Are You Not Going There Personally?

“They want someone to save them after doing something so stupid?” An Jiuyue was about to die of laughter.

Capturing cubs was already taboo at Huayan Peak. They must have raised all of the cubs for so many demonic beasts to attack them.

“Won’t it be settled if they release the cubs?”

“Mistress, you mean...” Yan Nuo narrowed his eyes and looked at An Jiuyue.

Did the idiots at Camp Bai Ze lock up the cubs instead of killing them?

That seemed impossible. People on Huayan Peak killed demonic beasts for their inner cores!

Since they were after the inner cores, they could have killed the cubs and taken the inner cores. Why would they lock them up and raise them? Were they tempting fate?

Young beasts and their mothers share a deep bond. How could an adult female beast not know where her cub was? They had a keen sense of smell!

“The people from Camp Bai Ze have a death wish! Master, what are they trying to do by capturing those cubs?” he looked at Qian Jiyun and asked.

Qian Jiyun initially thought they were after the inner cores. However, if that were the case, they could have simply killed the cubs. Camp Bai Ze had to have other motives unbeknownst to them. Qian Jiyun looked at him in amusement and asked, “You’re asking me?” “Uh.” Yan Nuo was rendered speechless.

There was probably no one who knew what Lord Bai Ze was up to besides the people at Camp Bai Ze.

“Then now...”

“Bring some people there and act according to the situation. Investigate where the cubs are imprisoned,” Qian Jiyun instructed.

“Master, are you not going there personally?” Yan Nuo asked.

“Why would your master go there personally? To watch the commotion?” An Jiuyue snapped.

Why would he go there personally? It was just Camp Bai Ze! They captured cubs but did not repent. What was there to rescue?

She raised her eyebrows and said, “Go quickly. We can also help Camp Bai Ze publicize the fact that they raised demonic beasts for their own use. Perhaps they want to raise them and use them against other camps?”

Yan Nuo was speechless.

Even if the people at Camp Bai Ze were extremely stupid, they could not raise a cub to maturity!

Their camp would be the first to suffer when the cubs grew up. The demonic beasts would not care who raised them. Once they had the ability to retaliate, they would kill the humans.

However, the people from the other camps would not care about this. They would think that the people from Camp Bai Ze had obtained a way to tame demonic beasts and wanted to raise them to use them against the other camps.

“I’ll do that now.”

With that, he turned around and left.

After Yan Nuo left, An Jiuyue looked at Qian Jiyun and asked, “Are you really not going to take a look?”

“Let’s go to the Black Pact Forest.” Qian Jiyun wrapped his arm around her slender waist and led her out of the camp.

Why should I go? To watch Camp Bai Ze court death? It’s incredible that they could even think of raising demonic beast cubs!

An Jiuyue asked as she walked, “Will the protected grounds be in chaos if Camp

Bai Ze is destroyed?”

“No,” Qian Jiyun replied.

“Over the years, countless camps on Huayan Peak have been destroyed. It’s just one camp. It doesn’t matter if it’s destroyed. There will naturally be another camp to replace it.

“At most, it would make the guardians on the protected grounds work harder, which also helps to speed up their cultivation..”

Chapter 847: Why Don't You Kill a Few More Demonic Beasts?

Translator: Atlas Studios Editor: Atlas Studios

An Jiuyue was shocked.

The destruction of a camp was to make the guardians cultivate harder. What an impressive and awesome way to think!

Outside Camp Bai Ze...

Countless demonic beasts attacked the camp, roaring.

The camp was littered with corpses. Some were humans, and some were demonic beasts.

One of the guardians attacked a demonic beast with Original Soul energy and successfully repelled it. However, more demonic beasts attacked.

He could not help but shout at his lord, “My Lord, we can't hold on much longer! When will help arrive?”

There were so many demonic beasts. Even if all of the guardians died here, they could not kill them all. They had already sent out a distress signal, but it had been more than two hours, and there was still no backup.

Were the people from the other camps not coming?

If they were not coming, they would all die here today.

Lord Bai Ze glanced at the guardian with bloodshot eyes and did not say anything.

In reality, he could not say anything. He had sent out the distress signal, but no one knew if those people would come.

After all, there were so many demonic beasts here. Humans were afraid of death. Who would want to die if they could survive? If he saw so many demonic beasts, he would instinctively avoid them instead of facing them head-on.

“My Lord, will they still come?” another guardian asked Lord Bai Ze while he was focused on killing the demonic beasts.

Meanwhile, demonic beasts were constantly attacking and injuring the guardians around them. They did not know why so many demonic beasts had attacked their camp.

“Shut up!” Lord Bai Ze shouted at them sternly.

He also wanted those people to come and reinforce them quickly. There were more and more demonic beasts. It seemed as if all the demonic beasts in Huayan Peak were coming.

It was impossible for their camp to handle a situation like this alone.

“If you have the time to ask me, why don’t you kill a few more demonic beasts?”

The two guardians were rendered speechless.

Kill demonic beasts? We’ve been killing demonic beasts! Look at all the corpses of the guardians! Did they not kill any demonic beasts?

Everyone is fighting desperately just to survive. Everyone can see that! But so what? There are only a few of us, but how many demonic beasts are surrounding our camp? Countless!

“My Lord, have you figured out why these demonic beasts attacked our camp? the two guardians asked in unison.

The demonic beasts on Huayan Peak had always lived in harmony with humans. When had they ever taken the initiative to attack humans? However, they not only took the initiative to attack today, but they also attacked their camp in groups.

Their intention was clear: They wanted to destroy their camp!

There had to be a reason for such an obvious motive. However, they did not know why.

“How would I know?”

Lord Bai Ze’s eyes flickered, and with unabated strength, he repelled a demonic beast with a strike of his arm.

Of course, he knew. He was the one who brought a few guardians and captured many cubs. They were still locked in the secret room.. But so what?

Chapter 848: A Drop in the Bucket

There were many demonic beasts at Huayan Peak and even more cubs. Capturing some of them would not affect their survival at Huayan Peak, right? He did not understand why these demonic beasts would risk their lives for a few cubs.

Upon hearing Lord Bai Ze’s words, the two guardians felt their anger lodge in their throats. Judging from his expression and voice, they knew something was amiss.

However, it was not time to be calculative. They had to wait for someone to rescue them.

Even if they were exhausted, they had to continue killing demonic beasts. Otherwise, they would be the ones to die.

One of the guardians said to Lord Bai Ze, "My Lord, let us seek your guidance again after this is over."

"You—" Lord Bai Ze was furious.

In the blink of an eye, a demonic beast's claw slid across his body, leaving behind three wounds.

"Ah!" He screamed and stumbled back.

Another two guardians quickly took his place and killed the demonic beast that had attacked him.

"My Lord, are you alright?"

When a woman saw Lord Bai Ze retreat, she rushed forward to check on his injuries and handed him a medicinal pill.

Without looking at what medicinal pill it was, Lord Bai Ze tossed it into his mouth. He swallowed it without water and took a deep breath.

He was furious. Did the demonic beasts have to risk their lives and recklessly attack their camp for some mere cubs?

"What are you waiting for? Hurry up and refine medicinal pills!"

He yelled at the woman when he realized she was staying to take care of him.

The woman trembled, and her face turned pale. Tears welled up in her eyes, and they almost fell.

“I.. I’ll refine medicinal pills now.”

In reality, she had just finished refining a batch of medicinal pills and wanted to rest. When she saw that her lord was injured, she mustered all her strength to come and care for him.

She never expected to be treated like this!

She stood up and hurried into the camp to refine medicine without saying anything else. Every medicine refiner had been refining medicine. Who among them had ever stopped?

Some time passed, and the demonic beasts continued to attack.

One by one, the Camp Bai Ze guardians stationed at the protected grounds returned. Only then did the guardians in the camp heave a sigh of relief.

However, their relief was only momentary. After all, there were more demonic beasts. Even if reinforcements arrived, they would be a drop in the bucket.

in the forest near camp Bal Le...

The guardians of several camps had already gathered here.

They had come to offer assistance because of their friendship with Camp Bai Ze. However, when they arrived outside the camp and saw so many demonic beasts attacking it at the same time, they were uncertain.

At this rate, what was the point of coming to their aid?

They could only kill a few more demonic beasts if they went to help. They would eventually die.

In particular, when they stopped in the forest, they saw some demonic beasts charging toward Camp Bai Ze. But when the demonic beasts saw them, they had no intention of attacking them..

Chapter 849: Is He Crazy?

“Camp Bai Ze did something shady, right?”

Some people were very puzzled, but they spoke with certainty.

If Camp Bai Ze had not done something shady, why would the demonic beasts only attack Camp Bai Ze? Moreover, there were so many demonic beasts gathered there.

They could guarantee that even if all of them went to help, they might not be able to kill those demonic beasts. They might even lose their own people.

Yan Nuo was among them. He remarked, “Haven’t many cubs been captured recently? Is it related to this?”

“What?!” “No way?!”

“How dare they?!”

A few people shouted at the same time. There was shock and anger in their voices.

Huayan Peak explicitly prohibited hunting demonic beast cubs. It was not out of benevolence, but because adult demonic beasts would go crazy and attack them all at once if they touched the cubs.

No camp could withstand the joint attack of Huayan Peak’s demonic beasts.

Hence, there was a ban on attacking cubs.

However, they never expected Lord Bai Ze to be so bold as to attack cubs. Was he fearless due to ignorance, or did he believe he had nine lives like a cat?

Judging from the current situation, even if he had nine lives, they would not be enough for those demonic beasts, right?

“That’s not true, right? No matter how bold Lord Bai Ze is, he won’t dare to do this, right?”

“What else can it be? Otherwise, why would the demonic beasts only attack them and not us? Are they blind?” one of the guardians snapped.

As he spoke, a few more demonic beasts passed by nearby without even looking at them.

This was abnormal. Moreover, with so many demonic beasts besieging Camp Bai Ze, shouldn’t they attack humans upon seeing them?

However, all these demonic beasts were charging at Camp Bai Ze.

“Even if the people from Camp Bai Ze killed the cubs, those demonic beasts shouldn’t be so crazy. Are they trying to raze Camp Bai Ze to the ground?”

Some guardians were puzzled. If Camp Bai Ze had hunted the cubs, it would have occurred outside of the camp. Unless the people from Camp Bai Ze were so stupid as to haul the cub carcasses back after they were killed?

D0111eone speculdLeu, DOH L Len Ille LULU Ddl ze 0111),’ capuureu Lile CUDS d11U didn’t kill them?”

“No way?”

Upon hearing that, the people near him felt their hair stand on end.

If that were the case, then Lord Bai Ze was really courting death. Targeting the demonic beast cubs was one thing, but was he raising the cubs in some demonic beast nurturing program?

“Is Lord Bai Ze crazy? Does he want to raise demonic beasts?”

Would the demonic beasts listen to him obediently? If they could raise demonic beasts, with all the camps and lords around, who wouldn't raise a few demonic beasts?

It would be much easier to deal with the demonic beasts on the protected grounds. They would not have to do it themselves. The demonic beasts they raised could do all the tiring and dangerous work for them.

“Can he raise demonic beasts just because he wants to? Is he crazy? He's out of his mind!”

Some of the guardians could not help but curse. If he was not crazy, what else could he possibly be? Everyone knew that adult demonic beasts would not let this matter rest.. How could he dare to do this?

Chapter 850: Not Reliable? How So?

“If he only intends to raise demonic beasts, it's not so bad.”

One of the guardians sneered and glanced at everyone.

“What do you mean? What else is he up to if not raising demonic beasts?” someone asked, looking at him in confusion.

Everyone looked at the guardian in confusion. Anything could happen on Huayan Peak, so they were not to blame for their confusion.

Was Lord Bai Ze really up to no good?

Although capturing demonic beast cubs was already very vicious, there was no limit to malice—only people who were even more vicious. Who knew what secret arts Lord Bai Ze had obtained and what evil things he wanted to do?

No one would stop him from doing whatever he wanted, but they would not agree to it if it involved them.

Smiling, the guardian reminded everyone, “Wasn’t there a rumor that one used to be able to find books of secret arts anywhere on Huayan Peak?”

Everyone’s eyes lit up.

Among them, there were some who developed an interest in these so-called secret arts, but there were also many who despised Lord Bai Ze.

A secret art that required so many demonic beast cubs was definitely not beneficial, right?

If they were in his shoes, they would have discarded this secret art that could harm others and themselves. Look, he had already led to the near destruction of the entire Camp Bai Ze by capturing a few demonic beast cubs.

If he succeeded in cultivating the secret art...

Impossible. He would have to go to hell to cultivate. He would not succeed on Huayan Peak.

“That’s just speculation on your part. It’s not reliable.” Yan Nuo raised his eyebrows at the guardian.

“Not reliable? How so?” The guardian looked at Yan Nuo and chuckled.

“There are so many demonic beasts besieging Camp Bai Ze. How is it possible that they’re only here to avenge the cubs? Those demonic beasts must have smelled the cubs and attacked crazily, right?”

“So don’t say that my words are unreliable. You have to ask Lord Bai Ze why he’s insisting on not letting go of the cubs when everyone in his camp is about to die!

“Are human lives inferior to some demonic beast cubs to him?”

It was obvious that Lord Bai Ze was plotting something, and the potential benefits were so great that he did not even want his camp. He wanted to keep the cubs for his own use.

Was his speculation not the most accurate one?

“That’s right! I really don’t know what Lord Bai Ze is thinking. Does he not care about his guardians’ lives?”

“Maybe those demonic beasts have gone crazy? Nothing is certain.”

“Look, there are more demonic beasts going over there. Do you think they look crazy? They’re clearly heading for Camp Bai Ze. They didn’t even look at us!”

A few guardians began to argue. In short, they were speculating about what Lord Bai Ze had gotten that prompted him to sacrifice the lives of his entire camp.

“Alright, stop fighting.”

One of the guardians raised his hand to interrupt the ongoing arguments.

“It is not the time to talk about this. We need to discuss whether we’re helping Camp Bai Ze.”

They would only know what Lord Bai Ze had and whether their speculations were correct if they rescued him.

Everything was just supposition at this point, and none of it was reliable..
