Chapter 851: Someone Doesn't Want to Leave

“We must rescue him, of course! I want to see what Lord Bai Ze has.”

“We still have to save them. There are so many lives at stake. We can't just watch them die, right?”

“We have no choice. We're already here. We can't return empty-handed, right?”

Everyone spoke their minds. Yan Nuo believed it was only because of the so-called secret arts. Everyone wanted to obtain the secret arts that no one knew existed.

“Since everyone wants to rescue them, let's do it.”

Yan Nuo agreed that they had to rescue the people, but they still had to discuss how to do it.

He did not have to take the initiative to bring it up. Another guardian asked, “How are we rescuing them?”

Upon hearing his question, everyone hesitated. That's right. How?

There were so many demonic beasts surrounding the camp—they were determined to raze it to the ground!

How could they save them

Someone suggested, “Should we charge in with our men and kill our way in to save everyone?”

“No.” Someone else objected immediately.

“That’s too risky. Those demonic beasts are also intelligent. What if they surround us too if we bring our people in?”

“That’s right. Those demonic beasts are not ordinary. And there are so many of them!”

“We won’t be able to save anyone if we charge in like this. We’ll even get ourselves killed. No, no, that won’t do.”

They were here to save people, not to implicate themselves. They did not want to die so early, especially while saving others.

Humans were more or less selfish. It would be alright if they died for the people they cared about.

But to risk their lives for some acquaintances... Was that a joke? They would never do that!

“The people in Camp Bai Ze are stupid, right? What’s the point of guarding a camp? They should concentrate their forces and break out.”

“The camp can still be rebuilt if it’s gone. But if the people are gone, there won’t be anything left. Can’t they understand this? I’m impressed.”

“It’s not that they don’t understand that, but someone doesn’t want to leave,” Yan Nuo said meaningfully as he glanced at everyone coldly.

“You mean...”

Upon hearing his words, several guardians realized what he meant.

They had been discussing if Lord Bai Ze had imprisoned the cubs and attracted so many demonic beasts to attack.

Now it seemed like it was true!

Moreover, things had come to this, yet Lord Bai Ze only sent signals to the people outside instead of leading his guardians to rush out of the camp.

It seemed like the cubs were very useful to Lord Bai Ze, right?

“No, why should we send ourselves to our graves when Camp Bai Ze is the one in trouble? If he wants to achieve something, he can do it himself. What does this have to do with us?”

“In my opinion, someone like Lord Bai Ze is not worth saving at all. At most, we’ll work harder at the protected grounds and kill more demonic beasts. We can also train that way. Why not?”

“He brought this trouble upon himself, so he should deal with it on his own.

Why should we come to his rescue when he doesn’t even try to find a solution? He deserves to have his camp destroyed!”

The guardians chimed in with their opinions, expressing that they did not want to save them anymore..

Chapter 852: An Uproar Somewhere

They were right. They had rushed over to save them, but if Lord Bai Ze released the cubs, everything would be fine. The demonic beasts would not attack so ruthlessly. So why did he not do it?

Wasn’t he doing this to sacrifice their lives for those demonic beast cubs?

If Lord Bai Ze only cared about his own interests, why should they save them so righteously?

They did not owe Lord Bai Ze anything.

“We still have to save them,” an older guardian said in a deep voice. However, they still had to discuss how to save the people in Camp Bai Ze.

“I suggest that we get Lord Bai Ze to release the cubs after we enter. I believe the demonic beasts will relax when they see the cubs. We might be able to survive if we take the opportunity to kill our way out.”

This was the best solution.

If word got out that they did not save Camp Bai Ze, it would be disadvantageous for their respective camps.

Others would imitate them. If something were to happen to them in the future, the other camps would not save them. They would even bring up what happened at Camp Bai Ze today.

They could not blame the other camps if that happened, no matter how many losses they incurred.

“We must get Lord Bai Ze to release the cubs. He provoked such a large group of demonic beasts. I think that so-called secret art is not a good thing. It’s best to burn it too,” a more righteous guardian said to everyone.

No one echoed his sentiments. Everyone present was more or less interested in this secret technique.

No matter how great the risk, secret arts were always the most mystical things rumored on Huayan Peak. Even if they were not used, obtaining them would be good.

“In any case, we have to release the cubs.”

Everyone talked about releasing the cubs but never mentioned the secret arts.

Of course, everyone thought it would be ideal if they could force Lord Bai Ze to take out what he had obtained to satisfy them. It would be best if they could also remember how to use the demonic beast cubs.

“Since everyone has decided, let’s set off to save them,” Yan Nuo said as he tightened his grip on his sword.

Everyone agreed, and they quickly headed towards Camp Bai Ze.

Qian Jiyun and An Jiuyue had nothing to do with what was happening at Camp Bai Ze.

They were not worried about the people there. Camp Bai Ze were the ones who had a death wish. Were they supposed to hold them back and force them not to seek death?

Even if they could do that, they did not have the time to do so.

The two of them had already arrived at the small space, and the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python was beside them.

“I heard there’s an uproar somewhere?”

Qian Jiyun entered the small space, leaving An Jiuyue and the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python outside.

An Jiuyue sat on the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python’s scales and listened as it asked her a question.

“That’s right. There’s an uproar somewhere. How did you know?” An Jiuyue asked.

This big guy has always been inside the Black Pact Forest, so how does it know what's happening outside? Besides, it seems to be well-informed, only a step behind us in knowing about this.

"There are also other demonic beasts in the Black Pact Forest. They've all gone to stir up trouble. There must be a lot of chaos," the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python replied..

Chapter 853: Probably Related to the Spirit Selection Art?

It was respected in the Black Pact Forest. If it wanted to know anything, demonic beasts would naturally deliver the information to it. It had only heard about this briefly.

"I see." An Jiuyue understood. It was similar to her speculation.

"Then do you know why?" she asked.

The cubs were mere speculation. Perhaps they were mistaken?

The Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python thought for a moment and said in a deep voice, "Probably related to the Spirit Selection Art?"

"Spirit Selection Art?"

An Jiuyue straightened up and looked at the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python seriously.

"What's the Spirit Selection Art? A secret art?"

They were right. Lord Bai Ze indeed had some cheap trick in secret, but before he could carry it out, the demonic beasts united and launched an attack on his camp.

“It’s a secret art, but it’s a very evil secret art.” The Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python nodded.

“It’s also a highly advanced secret art. I think those people at the place where there’s a commotion must have learned this sophisticated and evil secret art. That’s why they were attacked by demonic beasts.”

An Jiuyue raised her eyebrows.

“So, the demonic beasts attacked that place not only for the cubs but also for that evil secret art? Auspicious Cloud, tell me, what secret art is that?”

The Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python glanced at her and began speaking slowly after some time.

“If I’m not wrong, someone obtained the Spirit Selection Art and wants to use it as a means to stay at Huayan Peak for a long time. They can also frequently travel between their own plane and Huayan Peak.”

“There’s a secret art like that?” An Jiuyue’s eyes lit up.

But what did this have to do with demonic beasts?

What was the point of capturing the cubs? Did the cubs have to be used as a medium for this secret art?

The Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python looked down at An Jiuyue and said, “Yes, there’s a secret art like this. However, the Spirit Selection Art is meant for demonic beasts.”

“Pfft!” An Jiuyue could not help but spit.

What? For whom? For demonic beasts? The so-called Spirit Selection Art was actually meant for demonic beasts and not humans?

Did Lord Bai Ze obtain a secret art meant for demonic beasts to use on himself?

Was he comparing himself to a demonic beast?

“Meant for demonic beasts? Tell me in detail. What’s going on?”

“Everyone knows that demonic beasts and humans cultivate Original Soul energy,” the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python explained slowly.

“But what everyone doesn’t know is that the Original Soul energy cultivated by demonic beasts and humans is different. They are the same in nature, but there are some subtle differences.

“For example, demonic beasts can no longer cultivate at Huayan Peak after reaching a certain cultivation level. They’re considered to have reached the pinnacle. If they want to continue cultivating, they must leave Huayan Peak and go to their own plane.

“You should know that there are many guardians on Huayan Peak because they want to protect demonic beasts from invading their respective planes.

“However, no one has ever wondered why humans can’t go to other planes while demonic beasts can. It’s all because of the difference in Original Soul energy.”

“I don’t understand. Is this Spirit Selection Art suited for demonic beasts or humans?” An Jiuyue asked..

Chapter 854: The Blood of 1,000 Human Children

Why did it seem like the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python was implying that humans could freely enter and exit any plane if they had the Original Soul energy of demonic beasts?

The Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python glanced at her and said calmly, “At first, the person who created the Spirit Selection Art wanted to use it on himself and cultivate the Original Soul energy of demonic beasts. However, he eventually failed.

“The Spirit Selection Art is a secret art that allows demonic beasts to cultivate human Original Soul energy. This way, demonic beasts can cultivate endlessly at Huayan Peak.

“However, this cultivation method is too cruel and oppressive. Demonic beasts are not highly intelligent, to begin with, so no demonic beast could do it.”

“How is it cruel and oppressive?”

An Jiuyue was not interested in anything else. She only wanted to know how cruel and oppressive this secret art was.

“Demon beasts can possess human Original Soul energy by using the blood of

1,000 human children and 10 demonic beast cubs, combined with the secret art recorded in the Spirit Selection Art,” the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python replied.

Of course, the requirement for 1,000 human children also made it impossible for demonic beasts to complete this mission.

There were very few human women on Huayan Peak. Besides, they had to refine medicinal pills as quickly as possible. They did not have time to give birth to 1,000 children.

That was naturally impossible.

However, An Jiuyue gasped when she heard what the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python said.

“1,000—”

Is he crazy? The blood of 1,000 human children?!

She looked at the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python and asked, "If that guy wants to cultivate this, won't he have to do the opposite? Does he think that by possessing demonic beast Original Soul energy, he can freely travel between various planes unrestricted by Huayan Peak's cultivation limits?"

Doesn't that mean Lord Bai Ze will catch 1,000 demonic beast cubs? Huayan Peak is huge, but Camp Bai Ze is located here. He won't go elsewhere to capture demonic beast cubs unless all the cubs here have been captured.

"No wonder the demonic beasts attacked in groups. 1,000 demonic beast cubs! He's really daring!"

However, she could not understand where Lord Bai Ze had found such a large space to raise 1,000 demonic beast cubs. What kind of underground facility did he establish?

He had gone crazy, right?

"He really deserves to die!"

"Absolutely... Doesn't he deserve to die?" the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python said faintly.

If not for the fact that it was not suitable for it to get involved in such matters, it would have gone to meet the person who caused such a huge uproar. What was he thinking?

What a bold idea he had!

Why did he not consider that if this method was truly feasible and he could really accomplish it by doing the opposite, someone else would have succeeded long ago?

This method had long been known on Huayan Peak. There was no need to do the opposite. The Spirit Selection Art recorded was only meant for demonic beasts.

"Did you say you needed inner cores earlier?"

“Uhm!” Its question nearly caused An Jiuyue to choke.

Aren't we talking about the Spirit Selection Art? I was still thinking about how to deal with Lord Bai Ze. Now that we're talking about inner cores, I really...

can't accept it.

“I do need inner cores, but I still have enough,” she said.

“Before An Tu left, he asked me to leave some inner cores in the Black Pact Forest for future use. Do you want them?” the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python asked..

Chapter 855: There Are No Cubs!

In reality, this question was not directed at An Jiuyue but at Qian Jiyun, the successor of the inter-plane travelers, who was currently inside the small space. Of course, the python knew that they would make no distinctions between them, so asking An Jiuyue also made no difference.

“Of course! Why not?” An Jiuyue replied without hesitation.

It would be a shame to reject something she acquired for free, right? Besides, her father had asked the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python to prepare them.

“How much do you have? Give them to me.”

She thought there would be a lot. In the short time she had been sitting here, the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python had destroyed two batches of demonic beast items. As for the inner cores, it had also kept them.

Given how it collected inner cores, it must have stored up many.

“It’s in the cave over there. You can go there alone if you want to.” The Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python turned its head and looked in a direction.

Of course, to An Jiuyue, the huge Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python was only looking in a general direction. She still had to search for the cave.

An Jiuyue thought for a moment. Qian Jiyun had been in the small space for some time and should be out soon.

“I’ll go later. I’ll wait for Jiyun to come out.”

If she left to look for the cave now, she might miss Qian Jiyun and cause him to worry. Hence, she would wait for him to come out first before searching for the cave together.

As for Camp Bai Ze, it was an absolute menace. They had to think of a way to deal with them.

Yan Nuo and the other guardians used a lot of strength to fight their way through and arrive at Camp Bai Ze.

The guardians were shocked when they saw the situation in Camp Bai Ze. There were definitely more corpses than living people. The demonic beasts had killed more than half of them, right?

Even if they saved Camp Bai Ze, they would have to rebuild the camp. It would be no different from a new camp.

A guardian came to Lord Bai Ze’s side and shouted as he fought off the demonic beasts, “Lord Bai Ze, what are you waiting for? Release the demonic beast cubs quickly!”

“What cubs?”

The guardians of Camp Bai Ze looked at Lord Bai Ze, dazed.

“My Lord, what cubs? Did you capture demonic beast cubs?”

If he had really ordered people to capture the cubs, it would explain why these demonic beasts attacked them so crazily.

However, if what the guardian said was true and Lord Bai Ze had the cubs while watching as his camp was attacked and killed, he would be too cold-blooded!

They would be very disappointed in Lord Bai Ze.

“What nonsense are you talking about? There are no cubs!”

Of course, Lord Bai Ze would not admit it. If he did, not only would the cubs be released, but he might also lose his position as a lord.

A few guardians came over. One of them questioned Lord Bai Ze with a cold smile, “No cubs? Then did those demonic beasts go crazy and attack Camp Bai Ze so frenziedly?”

“Who knows? In my opinion, those demonic beasts are crazy.”

The guardian’s intention was to mock Lord Bai Ze, but the latter shot his words down.

He was really disregarding his dignity.

“You—!”

The guardian felt his anger lodge in his throat and almost died of rage.

Lord Bai Ze still had the cheek to reply and refuse to admit that he had captured many demonic beast cubs!

Chapter 856: You Really Didn't?

"It seems like Lord Bai Ze doesn't want us to help. If that's the case, there's nothing else to say. We'll kill our way out ourselves."

The guardians' expressions darkened as they spoke to Lord Bai Ze coldly.

If they had the strength to kill their way in, they could work hard and kill their way out. They could still find the cubs after the demonic beasts killed Lord Bai Ze.

"We can't stop you if you want to die at the hands of demonic beasts, right?"

"Let's go."

With that, the guardians got ready to turn around and look for their companions.

They would only die if they stayed with someone who had a death wish. Hence, they should leave. If they charged their way out, they might even have a chance to survive.

They had never seen anyone who wanted to die so badly.

"Wait!"

Lord Bai Ze stubbornly refused to relent, but the guardians in Camp Bai Ze were not willing to die like this.

“Explain yourselves clearly. What cubs? Did you really capture demonic beast cubs, my Lord? Is that why these demonic beasts attacked the camp so crazily?”

“What cubs? There are no cubs. Why should I capture cubs? Capturing them is useless,” Lord Bai Ze said as he flicked his sleeve and pushed a demonic beast away.

“You’re still refusing to admit it.”

The guardians were furious.

“If you didn’t capture demonic beast cubs, how will you explain why there are demonic beasts here? On our way here, those demonic beasts didn’t even spare us a glance—they headed straight for your camp! Do you think they’re stupid, or do you think we’re stupid?”

“Also, Lord Bai Ze, forgive me for reminding you, but there are still many demonic beasts rushing over here. Aren’t you too naive to think you can carry the cubs you captured and tide through this safely?”

“Let the cubs go quickly. We still have a chance of survival. Otherwise, we’ll all die. You can only accomplish what you want to do in hell.”

“Lord Bai Ze, if you want to accomplish something big, it depends on whether you’ll be alive to do it, right? Listen to us, and let the cubs go quickly. Perhaps these demonic beasts will let us go.”

The guardian beside Lord Bai Ze listened to them speak and believed them. He looked at him.

“My Lord, did you really capture demonic beast cubs?”

He had been wondering why these demonic beasts were attacking their camp with all their might. There must be something in the camp that attracted them.

He initially thought Lord Bai Ze had obtained some treasure. He never expected that he would capture the demonic beast cubs.

From the looks of it, there should be more than one cub captured. There should be many, right?

“If you captured them, release them quickly. If all the demonic beasts from Huayan Peak come here, even multiple camps won’t be enough to stop their rampage.”

This guardian was right. Huayan Peak normally appeared calm, and demonic beasts would not attack humans. However, if they did, humans would not be able to endure it.

“I didn’t—”

“You really didn’t?” The guardian interrupted Lord Bai Ze before he could finish.

“Follow me, a few of you, to the secret underground chamber. I want to see if there are any..”

Chapter 857: Atone for Your Mistakes?

“Sun Jian, how dare you!”

Lord Bai Ze’s eyes widened as he looked at the guardian, Sun Jian.

He was the deputy lord of Camp Bai Ze, second only to him in authority. Sun Jian knew that there was a secret chamber. If he really entered the chamber, the cubs would really be released.

Capturing that many demonic beast cubs was not easy. Lord Bai Ze would succeed after capturing a few more batches of them.

He could not let all his efforts go to waste now!

Sun Jian could not help but look back at him and sneer. "Do you think I won't dare, my Lord?"

"You—"

Lord Bai Ze's anger was lodged in his throat, causing him to nearly die of rage.

He knew that Sun Jian dared to do so. Camp Bai Ze had a deputy lord because the higher-ups in their plane wanted to keep him from becoming too prominent.

And Sun Jian was the person they used to suppress him.

In the past, Sun Jian had always wanted to cause trouble for him. Now that he had an excuse, how could he let it go so easily?

"Follow me."

Sun Jian did not look at Lord Bai Ze again and left with a few of his trusted subordinates.

"Sun Jian, come back!"

Sun Jian did not respond to Lord Bai Ze, so he wanted to rush over to stop him. But how could the guardians who had just rushed in to rescue him let him do as he wished?

They stood in front of him, not giving him a chance to approach Sun Jian.

“Why are you in such a hurry, Lord Bai Ze? Deputy Lord Sun will be in charge of releasing the cubs. You should stay here and continue fighting the demonic beasts.”

“Exactly! You caused this mess, so don’t expect us to risk our lives for you! ”

“How ridiculous! It’s one thing to have the guardians in your camp risk their lives for you, but you even have the cheek to send out a distress signal and ask the people from the other camps to help you and atone for your mistakes?”

The guardians would not say anything good about him. Everyone looked at him disdainfully.

Even if he had obtained some secret art and wanted to capture more cubs, he should do a better job, right?

He knew locking up the cubs in the camp would be disastrous for the guardians, but he still dared to do it. How indifferent was he to the lives of his subordinates?

To think that these people sacrificed their lives for him!

If it were them, they would have left long ago. Why would they stay here and wait for Lord Bai Ze to feed them to the demonic beasts?

“What are you trying to do?”

Lord Bai Ze took a step back when he saw the unfriendly looks from the guardians.

“Don’t forget that you’re here to help. If you dare to do anything to me, you will have no place to stay in Huayan Peak anymore,” he warned sternly.

“Pft.” The guardians sneered at his words.

No place for them to stay? If the lords of the other camps found out that Lord Bai Ze had suffered something so disastrous because he had captured many young beasts, who would be the one without a place to stay?

“Lord Bai Ze, you should worry about whether you’ll have a place to stay.”

Everyone who heard that Lord Bai Ze had captured demonic beast cubs looked at him with disdain. Even his own people in the camp were very disappointed in him.

“You—!”

Lord Bai Ze was speechless.

He was right. Lord Bai Ze could not let outsiders know that he had captured demonic beast cubs..

Chapter 858: Can't Be a Good Thing

He never expected that these demonic beasts would dare to unite and attack his camp. He thought he had done everything in secrecy, so the demonic beasts would not find out.

However...

He had underestimated their sensitivity. They had already erased the cubs’ aura, but the demonic beasts still managed to detect the cubs.

He exhaled heavily.

It was useless to say anything now. Sun Jian had already gone to the secret chamber and would definitely find the young cubs he had imprisoned.

He could only kill demonic beasts while waiting for news from Sun Jian.

He had divided the cubs and imprisoned them in two places. He could only hope that Sun Jian was too stupid and only uncovered one place.

But was Sun Jian an idiot?

Someone who could mix with Lord Bai Ze in Camp Bai Ze for years would not be a simple person.

While Lord Bai Ze beheaded two demonic beasts, Sun Jian led his subordinates to release all the cubs in the secret chamber.

The cubs' cries were mixed with the loud roars of the adult demonic beasts, resounding through the skies.

When the adult demonic beasts saw the cubs emerging one by one, they stopped attacking the guardians out of concern for harming the cubs.

"F*ck! There are so many demonic beasts? What is Lord Bai Ze trying to do?"

As more and more cubs ran out of the secret chamber, a guardian could not help but ask the people beside him softly.

He had lost count of the number of cubs. To think Camp Bai Ze's secret chamber could contain so many of them!

Food on Huayan Peak was already scarce, and they had to source food by themselves every day. Yet, Lord Bai Ze was raising so many demonic beasts. How much food did he need each day?

“No matter what he’s trying to do, it can’t be a good thing.”

“That’s true. How can someone like him do anything good if he doesn’t even care about the lives of the guardians in his camp? Why would someone like him be at Huayan Peak?”

There were always conflicts between camps on Huayan Peak. However, there was never a lord who treated all his guardians as sacrificial pawns for his own goals.

“Aren’t there too many demonic beasts?” The guardian behind Yan Nuo was dumbfounded when he saw so many demonic beasts.

Did Lord Bai Ze capture all the cubs on Huayan peak? Why were there so many? What was he trying to do with them?

“Sun Jian, you deserve to die!” Lord Bai Ze did not care what others were saying and only stared at Sun Jian viciously.

This b*stard ruined myplan! I’m almost done catching them. Ijust need 10 more human children!

While there might not be many children on Huayan Peak, there were still some. For instance, there were two in Camp Zhan Yun.

After he learned that there were two children in Camp Zhan Yun, he even went there to confirm it personally. The two children were fair and tender, clearly the most ideal for improving the secret art’s efficiency.

He would then go to the other camps to get eight children.

He did not care if the people from the other camps would seek revenge in the future. By that time, he would be the most powerful being on Huayan Peak. Who would care if those people sought revenge?

Chapter 859: Why Is He Gone?

His plan had been going smoothly, but Sun Jian ruined it. He really wanted to kill Sun Jian!

“I think you’re the one who should die!” Sun Jian looked at Lord Bai Ze coldly and sneered.

He never dreamed that there would be such powerful things hidden in the secret chamber that could catch everyone off guard.

“There are so many cubs. Are you trying to eliminate all the demonic beasts in Huayan Peak?”

He had found two secret rooms that contained many cubs. He was shocked by the number of cubs!

“My Lord, what are you trying to do? You imprisoned so many demonic beast cubs. Aren’t you afraid they’ll rebel? Even cubs have their own thoughts, right? Can you just capture them at will?”

“You’re the one who wants to rebel, right? What are you trying to do with so many demonic beasts?” Sun Jian questioned him.

Lord Bai Ze fell silent.

Why should I tell others what I’m trying to do? Especially Sun Jian, my archenemy. If he finds out, the entire plan will probably never come to fruition.

I have to be wary of Sun Jian’s influence and reputation in the camp.

After a while, the demonic beast cubs finally emerged from the passage and crawled out.

When everyone saw so many demonic beast cubs, they were dumbfounded and somewhat impressed by Lord Bai Ze. He had captured so many demonic beast cubs but did not do anything. What was he waiting for?

“There are so many cubs! It’s no surprise the demonic beasts went crazy and only attacked Camp Bai Ze.”

“If my children were captured, I’d risk my life too! Besides, Lord Bai Ze captured so many cubs.”

“It seems like he really has a secret. He must’ve obtained some secret art that requires something from the cubs.” “Lord Bai Ze…”

“Where’s Lord Bai Ze? Why is he gone?”

The guardians wanted to question Lord Bai Ze about what secret art he had. However, when they turned around to look at where he had been standing, he was no longer there.

“Where is he? Where did he go?”

Yan Nuo was also dumbfounded. This person ran away so quickly!

Fortunately, these demonic beasts stopped attacking when they saw the cubs. If they had continued to attack, he would likely have died while fleeing.

“He sure ran away quickly!” he said coldly.

Was he afraid that once the dust settled, they would settle their scores with him, so he wanted to go into hiding for a while?

The guardians that Yan Nuo had brought with him asked, “Should we chase after him?”

“You shouldn’t ask me that question.” Yan Nuo chuckled and looked at the guardians of the other camps.

They instinctively began tracking the direction Lord Bai Ze had fled in, and many of them took off in pursuit.

Naturally, Yan Nuo had to chase after him. He could not let Lord Bai Ze be handed over to the guardians of the other camps. Otherwise, how would he explain it to his master?

“Deputy Lord, what should we do?”

A guardian of Camp Bai Ze asked Sun Jian when he saw that Lord Bai Ze had escaped and that the people from the other camps had pursued him.

“What else can we do? Clean up the camp. Do I need to teach you?” Sun Jian glared at the person who asked.

He did not want to get involved in the mess that Lord Bai Ze had created. This fire was already getting out of hand. If he went over, the flames might be on him..

Chapter 860: Can’t Let Things End Like This

He had to be more cautious and let Lord Bai Ze explain himself to the people from the other camps.

“But the Lord...

“You still want to acknowledge him as your lord?” Sun Jian asked coldly as he glanced at the conflicted guardians.

Why would they want a lord who did not care about the lives of his subordinates? Because he could cause them trouble and put them in a life-or-death crisis?

“If you want to acknowledge him, go ahead. Whoever wants to look for him can go. I won’t stop you,” he said loudly to the Camp Bai Ze guardians near him.

Whoever wanted to go could go; he certainly would not invite trouble for himself anyway.

Upon hearing his words, more than half of the survivors in the camp expressed that they would not go. A small number of them looked conflicted.

They wanted to go, but they were afraid they would not be able to return to Camp Bai Ze if they did.

After all, this was not a small matter. Many guardians had died.

But they still did not understand why their lord had captured so many cubs.

Lord Bai Ze fled, and he fled speedily.

Not only the guardians, but even Yan Nuo and the others could not catch up to him.

“Damn it!”

Two hours later, Lord Bai Ze pounded the tree trunk outside the Black Pact Forest with one hand. He leaned against the tree as he panted, deciding to rest for a while.

He had fought to the death in the camp. Otherwise, he would have died at the claws of the demonic beasts long ago.

He was exhausted after running for so long to avoid those people. He also had many injuries, so he was forced to stop.

“Sun Jian, just wait!”

It’s all Sun Jian’s fault for bringing people to the secret chamber to release the cubs. If he hadn’t done that, I could’ve insisted that there were no cubs and kept this a secret.

I was so close to success, but he made me lose everything.

And those people from the other camps! What does capturing cubs have to do with them? How dare they question me?

“No, I can’t let things end like this.”

He could choose not to deal with people like Sun Jian now, but he had to capture as many cubs as possible again. Only then would he have a chance to counterattack in Huayan Peak.

Otherwise, he would have to live like a rat in hiding in the future.

He could not return to Camp Bai Ze. Even if the guardians in the camp listened to him, the people from the other camps would not let him off.

He was not afraid that they would join forces to question him about capturing cubs and make him admit his mistake. Instead, he was afraid that those shameless people would discover his secret art and demand that he hand it over!

After all the effort he had put in to seize this opportunity, how could he just hand it over to someone else?

No matter what, he had to successfully cultivate the secret art so that the outside world would fear, respect, and worship him like a god.

He refused to hand over the secret art to let more people know and practice it.

If that happened, he would not be unique in Huayan Peak anymore; he would not be the only one capable of traveling between planes and cultivating freely.

“I have to capture those cubs!” he exclaimed hatefully, but he frowned.

Why do I have to use fresh blood? Can't I capture a cub, kill it, and preserve its blood?
