Chapter 911: Figured It Out

“Take her with you. We’ll talk when we get back.”

“Yes, my Lord.”

A guardian lifted Shang Ningluo up, tucked her under his arms like a large sack, and left with Xue Fangyang.

In An Jiuyue’s tent, Qian Yizheng and Qian Yirong stared at the table full of dishes, their stomachs growling from hunger.

However, they did not touch their chopsticks and only looked at their mother.

“Mother, I’m hungry. When is Uncle Jiyun coming?” Qian Yirong asked pitifully.

They were waiting for him to join them for dinner.

But how could he join them so quickly when he was entertaining guests? They were very suspicious.

“He should be here soon,” An Jiuyue replied after some thought.

Dealing with Xue Fangyang would only require a few words, so he should be here soon.

Qian Yirong touched his stomach and muttered softly, “Soon? Then let’s wait a little longer.”

While the three of them waited for Qian Jiyun, Wei Na spoke to An Jiuyue from inside the space.

“Master.”

“Uh-huh?” An Jiuyue raised her eyebrows.

It had been a long time since Wei Na had spoken to her while she was out of her space.

What’s going on today? Why is he calling out to me at this time? Did something big happen?

“Zheng’er, Rong’er, wait for Uncle Jiyun here. I’ll go into the space to take a look.”

“Yes, Mother,” the two boys replied in unison and watched their mother disappear into the tent.

“Master, you’re here!”

Wei Na immediately welcomed An Jiuyue when she entered the space.

“Didn’t you call me? What happened?”

An Jiuyue looked at him. There was nothing much going on in the space. Was her shop completely sold out?

That was impossible. She had reclaimed a few more plots of land. Moreover, she had set up the items for sale according to her calculations, so they should not have sold out so quickly.

Since it was not about the shop, it meant...

The corners of her eyes twitched uncontrollably as she glanced at Wei Na.

“Hehe, Master, you’ve figured it out, huh?” Wei Na chuckled mischievously, casting a playful glance at An Jiuyue.

“I didn’t figure it out!” An Jiuyue snapped.

She would rather not know anything. She regretted entering the space now.

She would not have entered if she had known.

“Master, it’s pointless even if you can’t figure it out. That little thing has absorbed enough energy from the inner cores, and I can’t give it what it wants,” Wei Na said hurriedly.

He was afraid that his master would exit in a flash and not come in for a while.

An Jiuyue took a deep breath.

“What does it want this time?” she asked.

Even if I don’t ask now, I’ll still have to do it in the future. Forget it. I should get more items for that little thing while I’m still at Huayan Peak. Who knows if I can get them once I return to Daqing Kingdom?

“It has a simpler request this time. It wants the python scales of the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python,” Wei Na immediately said.

“From what I know, the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python in the Black Pact Forest is big enough. Its scales should be usable and sufficient for that little thing.”

An Jiuyue was extremely shocked.

Does he want me to kill that Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python?

How bold! Even if my father didn't raise that python, Qian Jiyun and the entire Camp Zhan Yun might not be able to kill it, right?

Chapter 912: If I Skin You Alive

"Do you think I can defeat that python?" she asked softly as she narrowed one eye and looked at Wei Na.

"You don't have to defeat it, Master. Aren't you old friends with that python? Won't you be able to retrieve its scales after talking to it?" Wei Na said matter-of-factly.

Wei Na wondered why she was so worked up. It was just retrieving some python scales! It was not a big deal.

An Jiuyue felt her anger lodge in her throat and almost raised her hand to slap Wei Na.

The way he suggested discussing this matter with the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python seemed too casual. It was almost the same as asking the python to die!

She wanted to know which python could survive after its scales were removed.

"Will you live if I skin you alive?" she asked.

"I can live," Wei Na replied immediately.

He had an incorporeal form now. He could still live even if she peeled off a layer of his skin every day. He would be in perfect condition the next day.

Why? Was there a problem?

An Jiuyue was extremely shocked.

She should not have asked Wei Na. Asking him was a waste of her time.

“Just because you can live doesn’t mean the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python can too! Those are its scales, not its skin that can be shed!”

“Mmph.” Wei Na was stunned.

His explanation was unclear, so it was not her fault that she misinterpreted it.

“Master, I didn’t make myself clear just now. The Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python sheds its scales three times during its lifetime. The scales that have been shed are generally useless.

“I mean, according to my estimation, the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python in the Black Pact Forest is already big enough. It should have undergone one molting phase, so its scales must still be there.

“You can go to the Black Pact Forest and have a discussion with it. You can remove its scales and give them to that little thing. Wouldn’t that be the best of both worlds? Don’t you think so?”

An Jiuyue was shocked.

Why did Wei Na not say so sooner? She had no reason to worry.

When faced with a life-or-death situation, demonic beasts could become several times, dozens of times, or even hundreds of times stronger than usual.

If they really attacked the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python, they would undoubtedly be courting death.

“In that case, I’ll make a trip to the Black Pact Forest with Jiyun tomorrow,” she said.

There was no other way. They had to fulfill its demands; they could not just try to do so. There was no room for negotiation.

“Do you think I have it easy? I must go to the Black Pact Forest frequently for such a small thing. The paths there are difficult to walk,” she grumbled as she left the space.

Wei Na watched her leave speechlessly and shook his head.

If she was so unwilling, she should not do it. After all, she was not raising that little thing for her own benefit.

“You’re back? How is it?”

After leaving the space, An Jiuyue saw Qian Jiyun sitting beside Qian Yirong. He was picking up food for the two children and letting them eat first. However, the two children sat seriously and did not touch their chopsticks. “Why aren’t you eating? Aren’t you hungry? Eat.”

She smiled at Zheng’er and Rong’er and picked up her chopsticks to give them some meat.

“We’re waiting to eat with you.”

Qian Yizheng looked up at his mother and spoke softly..

Chapter 913: Became More Unique and Precious Each Time

“Good boy.”

An Jiuyue picked up some food for herself and Qian Jiyun before looking at the two children.

“Eat. Mother and Uncle Jiyun will eat too.”

Before Qian Yizheng could pick up his chopsticks, Qian Yirong replied eagerly, “Okay!”

He picked up his chopsticks and stuffed food into his mouth.

“Heh, it seems like you’re really hungry.” Qian Jiyun looked at him in amusement and turned to look at An Jiuyue.

“How are things on your side?” An Jiuyue asked him.

I don’t think Xue Fangyang can keep his composure and leave without saying a word, right?

“Nothing much. He wouldn’t dare to take action openly.”

An Jiuyue raised her eyebrows.

He would not dare to act openly. Did this imply that he would dare to take action in secret?

“How about we take a guess? What’s the probability that Shang Ningluo will drug Xue Fangyang?” she asked Qian Jiyun.

“Is there a need to guess?” Qian Jiyun shook his head.

Shang Ningluo had no other choice but to drug Xue Fangyang.

Unless she did not return to Camp Xue Yang.

But was that possible? With Xue Fangyang keeping an eye on her, it was impossible for her to avoid going back.

“I heard that Xue Fangyang has a younger sister whom he dotes on to the core,” An Jiuyue said with a smile.

Shang Ningluo might give the other half of the Mother-Child Reincarnation Pill to Xue Fangling in a fit of anger. It was possible too, right?

After all, it was unlikely for Xue Fangyang to eat the medicine. However, dealing with Xue Fangling, a woman, would be much easier.

Shang Ningluo should think so, right?

“Absolutely not.”

Qian Jiyun shook his head with certainty. He would think highly of Shang Ningluo if she drugged Xue Fangling.

In his opinion, if Shang Ningluo captured Xue Fangling and used her to control Xue Fangyang, it would be much more effective than her using the pill on Xue Fangyang and threatening him.

However, Shang Ningluo would not do that.

“Someone who has suffered at the hands of her brother won’t believe that family love is infinite.”

Shang Ningyi handing Shang Ningluo over to Xue Fangyang was the biggest setback she had ever experienced in her life. Shang Ningluo would not let herself stumble over the same spot twice.

Although one could easily figure out the benefits of restricting Xue Fangling instead, Shang Ningluo would not consider it.

“Okay, you’re right,” An Jiuyue replied after taking a bite of her food.

Shang Ningluo hated Shang Ningyi to the core. Naturally, she hated Xue Fangyang, who doted on Xue Fangling to the core, even more. She would not think too much about it and would only administer the Mother-Child Reincarnation Pill to Xue Fangyang.

“We have to go to the Black Pact Forest tomorrow. I need some Auspicious

Cloud Sea-Devouring Python scales.”

She changed the tODic and brought uD what the sDace seDarator needed.

Qian Jiyun’s eyes flitted.

The items required became more unique and precious each time. Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python scales were valuable items for refiners.

“I’ll go tomorrow,” he said.

“I’ll go with you. I have a few questions for the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python,” An Jiuyue said.

She wanted to ask the Auspicious Cloud Sea-Devouring Python if it knew what else the space separator needed. They were about to set off for Daqing Kingdom. If the python knew what else it needed, she could prepare them first..

Chapter 914: I’ll Kill You!

“Okay,” Qian Jiyun replied.

It was nighttime.

A scream was heard in Camp Xue Yang.

In a tent, Xue Fangyang kicked Shang Ningluo to the ground, and she spat out a mouthful of blood.

However, she smiled and looked up at Xue Fangyang.

“Hehe, hehehe.”

“What poison did you give me? Where’s the antidote?”

Xue Fangyang did not expect Shang Ningluo to be so bold as to poison him.

He thought he was extraordinarily competent. Even his wife had to behave like an obedient kitten in front of him. She had to speak up for him to others and say that he was an exceptional husband.

Logically speaking, Shang Ningluo would not have the guts after he had beaten her up a few times.

Poisoning him meant that he would punish her again. She might even lose her life.

After all, if Shang Ningyi found out that Shang Ningluo had poisoned him, he would not be able to avenge his sister even if he wanted to. He would have to swallow his anger.

When a few subordinates heard the commotion in the tent, they rushed in and found Shang Ningluo beaten to the ground, while a few delicate and charming women serving Xue Fangyang shrank to the side, their faces pale with fear. They did not even dare to breathe loudly. “My Lord...”

“Seems like you’ve realized it quite timely!”

The guardians were about to speak when Shang Ningluo interrupted them. She stood up slowly and walked toward Xue Fangyang.

“Unfortunately, it’s too late. It’s too late, even if you’ve realized it. You’ve already eaten the medicine.”

“You—”

Xue Fangyang felt his anger lodge in his throat. He raised his hand and grabbed Shang Ningluo’s chin, squeezing it tightly.

“Where’s the antidote? Hand it over!”

He took a deep breath and chastised himself for being too careless.

Shang Ningluo had gone to Camp Zhan Yun, so this medicine must belong to Qian Jiyun. That person deliberately asked him to bring Shang Ningluo back so that she could come around.

Yet he did not even think twice and allowed Shang Ningluo to serve him dinner that night!

He had wanted to humiliate Shang Ningluo because she had to serve not only him but also the other women around him. “There is no antidote.”

The grip hurt Shang Ning, but she was ecstatic.

From today onward, she and Xue Fangyang shared the same fate. If she died, Xue Fangyang would lose half his lifespan.

How could she not be happy about such a great thing? From now on, Xue Fangyang would have to treat her like his ancestor.

“You—”

Xue Fangyang tightened his grip on her chin, wishing he could crush her.

“Believe it or not, I’ll kill you!”

He glared at Shang Ningluo with bloodshot eyes. He would have killed her on the spot if he had not had the slightest bit of rationality left in him.

“I don’t believe you,” Shang Ningluo replied.

“Do you know about the Mother-Child Reincarnation Pill? You just ate half of the Mother-Child Reincarnation Pill. I don’t have to explain its effects to you, right?”

Actually, she did not know what the Mother-Child Reincarnation Pill was before. She only found out after An Jiuyue told her about it.

However, using this to intimidate Xue Fangyang was enough..

Chapter 915: Let’s See Who Can Outlast the Other!

“Mother-Child Reincarnation Pill? How dare you give me a Mother-Child Reincarnation Pill? You...

However, Xue Fangyang had heard of the Mother-Child Reincarnation Pill. He had seen a friend in his plane use the Mother-Child Reincarnation Pill on himself for a woman.

The tyranny of this medicinal pill was how tightly it bound their lives together.

They shared the same fate in life and death!

“Kill me if you can, Xue Fangyang.” Shang Ningluo chuckled and provoked Xue Fangyang.

“Get out, all of you!”

Xue Fangyang did not dare to be careless when his life was threatened.

“Yes, my Lord,” the guardians replied, turning to leave.

After hearing Xue Fangyang’s words, the women, who had been wanting to escape for a while, left trembling with the guardians. They only dared to run back to their tent after they had exited.

“Shang Ningluo, how dare you!”

When Xue Fangyang saw that only Shang Ningluo and himself remained in the tent, he let go of her chin.

However, he slapped Shang Ningluo in the face in the next instant, causing her to spit out more blood. He then kicked and punched her.

After he had vented his anger, he spared Shang Ningluo’s life and spoke fiercely to her.

“The Mother-Child Reincarnation Pill, right? Sharing life and death, huh? But everything will be fine as long as you don’t die, right? Shang Ningluo, don’t expect to live a good life from today onward!”

“Hmph, pfft! ”

Shang Ningluo spat out a mouthful of blood. Although her entire body was in pain, she remained smiling.

Suddenly, while Xue Fangyang was momentarily dazed, she sat down quickly, pulled out the sword from his waist, and aimed it at her neck.

“What are you doing?!”

Xue Fangyang was shocked. He grabbed the blade in a panic and snatched it away with his other hand.

It would have been fine if Shang Ningluo had died on her own. However, the most important thing now was that he would lose half of his lifespan every time she died. He had no choice but to protect her.

“Shang Ningluo!”

He threw the long sword in his hand away, sending it clattering into the distance.

“Why? Are you very angry?”

Shang Ningluo sat on the ground, panting and smiling at him.

“But your anger is pointless. Xue Fangyang, let me tell you, from today onward, I’ll kill myself every time you hit me. Let’s see who can outlast the other!” “You—I’ Xue Fangyang was furious with Shang Ningluo.

He threatened, “If you dare to die, I’ll kill Shang Ningyi first and make them pay with their lives!”

“Haha...” Shang Ningluo chuckled and looked at Xue Fangyang as if he was a fool.

“Xue Fangyang, are you stupid? You’d probably want to kill Xue Fangling a thousand times if she betrayed you. What makes you think I'll care about Shang Ningyi?"

She wanted Shang Ningyi dead now. If not for the fact that she could not see him and Xue Fanzanz restrained her. she would have given Shane Ningyi the Mother-Child Reincarnation Pill.

She wanted to see if Shang Ningyi would still throw her to a demon like Xue Fangyang if she and Shang Ningyi lived and died together.

Xue Fangyang narrowed his eyes viciously and asked, "What about Shang Ningshen?"

"Pft." Shang Ningluo sneered.

If Xue Fangyang attacked Shang Ningshen, Shang Ningyi would be the first to deal with him. They would fight to the death without her saying or doing anything..

Chapter 916: Died on the Vine

"I can't even look after myself. Why should I care about Shang Ningshen? If you want to kill him, you'd better do it now. Why are you still standing there? Send someone!"

'You...'

Xue Fangyang was helpless. This woman had given up.

"Shang Ningluo, don't you want to avenge yourself? Qian Jiyun poisoned you, right? You're so infatuated with him, but he poisoned you. Don't you want him to die?"

He could not use the Shang brothers against Shang Ningluo, but what about Qian Jiyun?

That man was really ruthless! He gave this poison to Shang Ningluo and even made her share her fate with Xue Fangyang.

He knew Qian Jiyun was taking revenge on him and warning him not to have any designs on An Jiuyue or he would die horribly.

In his opinion, it was impossible for Qian Jiyun to deal with him, but Shang

Ningluo was well within his reach. Now that his fate was intertwined with Shang Ningluo's, Qian Jiyun could attack Shang Ningluo directly if he wanted to deal with him.

His plan to "exchange" Shang Ningluo for An Jiuyue had died on the vine. "Do you think you can still get An Jiuyue if he dies? Dream on," Shang Ningluo said sarcastically.

Xue Fangyang was about to vomit blood in rage because of Shang Ningluo today.

Not only did Shang Ningluo drug him easily, but he also could not gain the upper hand in their conversation.

Of course, he also knew that this was because Shang Ningluo was fearless. She no longer had any reservations after their fates became intertwined.

"Shang Ningluo, do you really think I won't dare to do anything to you? There's also an antidote for the Mother-Child Reincarnation Pill. Don't you know that?"

Upon hearing that, Shang Ningluo was stunned.

She did not know that there was an antidote for the Mother-Child Reincarnation Pill. However, she quickly regained her senses and continued smiling weakly at Xue Fangyang.

“Why don’t you find the antidote and consume it?” she suggested to Xue Fangyang.

If she remembered correctly, Xue Fangling, in an effort to please her and gain her favor earlier, had told her that she and Xue Fangyang had not returned to their plane for a long time because their Original Soul energy would increase if they did.

They would never be able to return to Huayan Peak.

She was certain that Xue Fangyang was so angry because there was no antidote for the Mother-Child Reincarnation Pill on Huayan Peak.

Otherwise, he would have sent someone to detain her and find the antidote himself. Why would he waste his breath on her here?

Xue Fangyang took a deep breath and stared at Shang Ningluo coldly.

Finally, he decided to deprive Shang Ningluo of her abilities so that he could better control her and prevent her from endangering his life. Hence, he raised his hand and struck Shang Ningluo’s dantian.

“Ah!”

With a miserable scream, Shang Ningluo’s Original Soul energy was destroyed.

She fainted because she was in too much pain. Xue Fangyang called for the guardian outside to drag Shang Ningluo out.

“Brother, what happened? I heard... Shang Ningluo poisoned you. How are you? Are you alright?”

Xue Fangling, who had just heard about the situation, arrived only to watch the guardian drag Shang Ningluo out. There was not a single intact piece of skin left on Shang Ningluo’s body.

“I’m fine.”

Naturally, Xue Fangyang could not let Xue Fangling know that he had been poisoned..

Chapter 917: Give Miss Some Advice

“She doesn’t have the ability to hurt me.”

“That’s good.” Xue Fangling sighed softly. “Then she... Brother, you didn’t kill Shang Ningluo, right?”

If he really killed Shang Ningluo, she could never be together with Shang Ningyi in the future. Shang Ningyi would never let them off. He would avenge Shang Ningluo even if he had to fight to the death.

“I won’t kill her, at least not for the time being,” Xue Fangyang said in a deep voice.

Killing Shang Ningluo now would be the same as killing himself. However, he would not reveal this to anyone, including his biological sister.

Xue Fangling frowned and reminded Xue Fangyang, “What do you mean ‘not for the time being’? Brother, you can’t kill her in the future either.”

Shang Ningyi would despise her if he killed Shang Ningluo. She would not stand a chance with him anymore.

She looked at Xue Fangyang seriously and said, “Brother, you can’t touch Shang Ningluo. You really can’t. Otherwise, Shang Ningyi will kill me.”

Xue Fangyang chuckled and patted her head.

“Silly girl. Is Shang Ningyi your match? If he wants to kill you, he must first be capable of it.”

“But what if he runs back to their plane? Without Shang Ningluo acting as a restraint, he might really leave,” Xue Fangling said, stomping her feet.

Shang Ningluo was not only her brother’s hostage to control Shang Ningyi but also hers.

With Shang Ningluo in their hands, Shang Ningyi would not dare to leave, much less ignore her. She could clearly feel it over the past few days.

Having tasted the benefits, how could she allow Shang Ningluo to leave Camp Xue Yang again?

“He won’t. I won’t kill Shang Ningluo either. Don’t worry,” Xue Fangyang comforted her.

He might not kill her now, but that might change once he obtained the antidote. He narrowed his black eyes and looked into the distance, seemingly deep in thought.

“Then I’m relieved.” Xue Fangling sighed and nodded.

She turned around and looked outside the tent before turning back to look at her brother.

“Forget it. I’ll go and see Shang Ningluo. What’s wrong with this woman? It’s been so many days, but she’s still ill-behaved. Why can’t she just stay here peacefully?”

“How can I bring Shang Ningyi to visit her when she’s in this state? She has to recuperate for a few days.”

She sighed and walked out, even forgetting to greet Xue Fangyang.

Xue Fangyang watched Xue Fangling leave, his gaze deepening. Just then, a figure emerged from the backlight and stood behind Xue Fangyang on his right.

“Master, would you like me to give Miss some advice?”

“There’s no need. Any advice is useless.”

Xue Fangyang’s voice was cold. Since Shang Ningluo arrived at Camp Xue Yang, everyone knew there was no way Xue Fangling and Shang Ningyi could be together.

However, Xue Fangling indulged in her fantasies and believed that Shang Ningyi would be afraid to act against her as long as she had Shang Ningluo in her hands.

He wanted to persuade her, but he hesitated for a long time.

“I’ll send her back to our plane in a few days. That way, I can stop her from thinking about it.”

“With Miss’s personality, if you really do that, I’m afraid...” The man in black paused, but Xue Fangyang knew what he meant..

Chapter 918: You Can ‘t Get It

If Xue Fangling did not get the person she had set her mind on, she would probably cause a ruckus.

But so what?

She could do whatever she wanted. Humans had a long life ahead of them, and those who had cultivated Original Soul energy, in particular, could endure far more than the average person.

Shang Ningyi was just a passerby in Xue Fangling's life. She would forget him once she met someone better.

"Master, what should we do about the antidote for the Mother-Child Reincarnation Pill?" The man in black knew Xue Fangyang did not want to talk about Xue Fangling, so he changed the topic.

There was an antidote for the Mother-Child Reincarnation Pill, but Huayan Peak had none.

However, retrieving the antidote from their plane proved impossible. Huayan Peak would not remain in its current state if they could bring pills from their plane here.

Hence, sending someone to retrieve the medicinal pill was absolutely impossible unless Xue Fangyang went to retrieve it himself.

However, if he returned to the plane, his power would not be suppressed by the constraints of Huayan Peak and would increase directly. He would not be able to return to Huayan Peak then.

Obtaining the artifact from the successor of the inter-plane travelers would also be out of the question.

This was not a simple task!

At the mention of the antidote, Xue Fangyang took a deep breath and exhaled heavily.

"I know where to find the antidote," he said, but he knew obtaining it would not be easy.

"Where is it?" The man in black's eyes lit up. "I'm willing to go on behalf of Master and obtain the antidote."

How could his master be subjected to someone else's control? He had to retrieve the antidote for the Mother-Child Reincarnation Pill.

Although Shang Ningluo could not yet die, she would die after his master used Shang Ningyi. He would kill that vicious woman personally!

“You can’t get it.”

Xue Fangyang turned around and glanced at the man in black.

He knew where to find the antidote, but he also knew he could not obtain it because Qian Jiyun had it. Or rather, An Jiuyue had it.

Those who could refine the Mother-Child Reincarnation Pill would have the antidote.

But would they give it to him?

Anyone could tell they were deliberately using Shang Ningluo to set him up. If they knew that Shang Ningluo had succeeded, things over at Shang Ningluo’s side would not be peaceful.

He was afraid he would not only be unable to protect Shang Ningluo in time but also be suspected because of his excessive attention to her.

The consequences would be unimaginable if news of the Mother-Child Reincarnation Pill was leaked.

Qian Jiyun was not the only person he had offended at Huayan Peak. In the past, he had used his strength to suppress the nearby camps. If they did not take revenge on him now, when would they?

It seemed like he had to think of a way to kidnap An Jiuyue without alerting Qian Jiyun.

“Go and make preparations. I’ll personally bring people to explore Camp Zhan Yun tonight,” he instructed the man in black.

“Master, you...’

The man in black was shocked. He could have done this himself. How could he let his master do it personally?

“I’ll go, Master,” he suggested.

“You?” Xue Fangyang glanced at the man in black.

“You’re no match for Qian Jiyun, ” he said coldly.

Although he did not want to admit it, Qian Jiyun was getting stronger. His Original Soul energy cultivation speed exceeded everyone’s imagination..

Chapter 919: Not for Now

“Qian Jiyun is only that bit powerful, isn’t he?” the man in black said disdainfully.

However, his lips stiffened in the next moment as he looked at his master in disbelief.

“Master, are you saying that Qian Jiyun is already stronger than me?”

How could that be? Qian Jiyun had only cultivated Original Soul energy for a few years, but he was already an Original Soul Master? Even his master could not cultivate at such a speed.

“Mhm.” Xue Fangyang nodded helplessly.

If he had not seen Qian Jiyun today, he would not have thought that Qian Jiyun’s Original Soul energy could increase so quickly. It was as if he had divine assistance.

“I have to go personally to capture An Jiuyue.”

“Master, why don’t we just...” The man in black made a “murder” gesture and looked at Xue Fangyang with bright eyes, as if waiting for his instructions.

So what if Qian Jiyun’s Original Soul energy was high? He was definitely not his master’s match.

If his master wanted it, Qian Jiyun would have to die!

Xue Fangyang’s eyes narrowed.

How could he not have thought of this? Killing Qian Jiyun and capturing An Jiuyue could have been possible, but Shang Ningluo’s Mother-Child Reincarnation Pill completely shattered his plans.

An Jiuyue would definitely take revenge if he killed Qian Jiyun. Even if she had no choice but to give him the antidote, would someone who could refine the Mother-Child Reincarnation Pill and become an advanced medicine refiner in a short period of time not be capable of poisoning him?

He could not take such a risk.

“We can’t do this for now. Let’s wait until we obtain the antidote.”

“The antidote?”

The man in black’s eyes darkened.

However, he suddenly remembered something. His master had talked about the antidote and Qian Jiyun's life together.

Did that mean that Qian Jiyun probably had the antidote?

He remembered that Shang Ningluo had obtained the Mother-Child

Reincarnation Pill from Camp Zhan Yun, so the antidote had to be with Qian Jiyun and his wife.

"Master, is the antidote also in Camp Zhan Yun?" he asked.

Xue Fangyang closed his eyes in answer.

"Master, I'll go to Camp Zhan Yun with you. Qian Jiyun dared to scheme against you. We can't let him off just like that," the man in black said angrily.

Qian Jiyun was using the antidote to threaten his master! He was really despicable!

Xue Fangyang instructed, "Go and prepare."

"Yes," the man in black replied and left in a flash.

In another tent in Camp Xue Yang, Shang Ningluo, who was on her last breath, was thrown to the ground carelessly.

When Xue Fangling lifted the curtain and entered, she frowned and ordered the maid who had followed her in to help Shang Ningluo lie on the bed.

"Ningluo, I don't want to criticize you, but why do you have to go against my brother? Haven't you gotten a sense of his temperament these past few days? The more stubborn you are with him, the more he becomes irritable. Will that benefit you?"

Xue Fangling could not even be bothered to put up a facade in front of Shang Ningluo. After all, they already restrained this woman in their camp. “How dare you drug my brother? How could you be successful? My brother is very careful.”

“Pft.” Shang Ningluo lay motionless on the bed and sneered.

Why had she never realized before that Xue Fangling was such a woman?

She was really good at putting on an act. Even she was fooled. She really hoped Shang Ningyi and Xue Fangling could become a couple now.. That way, she could see...

Chapter 920: Is She Dead?

No, she probably would not be able to see it either.

She thought things through again when the guardian dragged her here.

She could not stay here any longer. She had to leave.

However, she could not return to Camp Ning Se either. She did not want to see Shang Ningyi anymore.

Since she did not want Xue Fangyang to find her and did not want to see Shang Ningyi, her only option was to return to her plane. However, she also could not return to Shang Kingdom.

Shang Ningyi would definitely be able to find her if she returned to Shang Kingdom.

Hence, she had to escape. She had to escape while Xue Fangyang assumed she was seriously injured and immobile and did not send many people to guard her.

She wanted to stay initially. After all, she could threaten Xue Fangyang at any time—that would be quite satisfying.

However, Xue Fangyang said that there was an antidote for the Mother-Child Reincarnation Pill.

Where could the antidote be? Other than An Jiuyue, who else could have the antidote?

Despite the fact that An Jiuyue was from Camp Zhan Yun and was Qian Jiyun's woman, Xue Fangyang was someone who would go to any length to achieve his goals.

He might attack Qian Jiyun and force An Jiuyue to hand over the antidote.

If he obtained the antidote, she would really lose her life.

Therefore, she had to leave.

Fortunately, she had a loyal subordinate. Even if she lost her Original Soul energy, he could bring her back to her plane.

Xue Fangyang had destroyed her Original Soul energy because he believed that no one would help her escape if she ran out of Original Soul energy. He was terribly wrong about that.

"Ningluo, I'm talking to you. Are you dead? Say something."

When Shang Ningluo did not respond, Xue Fangling reached out and pinched her arm, hoping to hear her groan in pain.

However, Shang Ningluo was in excruciating pain all over. How could the slightest pain in her arm bother her? She closed her eyes and did not move at all.

The maid tiptoed and stole a glance at Shang Ningluo from behind Xue

Fangling before whispering in her master's ear, "Miss, is she dead?"

"No way?" Xue Fangling's face paled in fear. "Cui Ling, hurry to my tent and bring her my medicinal pills. Don't let her die."

"Yes, I'll go now," Cui Ling replied, turning to leave immediately.

"Shang Ningluo, you can't die. If you die, Brother Ningyi and I can't be together.

You can't die, do you hear me?"

After Cui Ling left, Xue Fangling leaned over and shook Shang Ningluo's body vigorously, but she could not make her move.

"What should we do? Why are you so weak? Are you going to die after a few hits? My brother has so many women around him. Which one of them grew up as pampered and spoiled as you?

"They can still live well even after being beaten up for a few hours. They're not like you. You're so weak, you're dying after just a few hits? Why are you so useless?"

She glared at Shang Ningluo hatefully as she cursed.

However, she was a medicine refiner too. She knew that shaking someone when they were injured was the last thing one should do. Hence, she stopped and waited for Cui Ling to bring the medicinal pills.

Shang Ningluo's eyelids twitched as she snorted internally. So Xue Fangling knew that Xue Fangyang had beaten up those women..
