

Special Soldier 1081

Chapter 1082: meet again

Qin Yuan also smiled awkwardly when he heard this, he didn't expect this Long Xiaoyun to be so smart.

"Don't worry, you tell me, I just think of time, find a chance to thank you, and I will never disturb you, don't worry."

In this way, Qin Yuan still told him his name, and then told him some other basic information, which did not involve the confidentiality regulations.

"Thank you, it's really unnecessary. After all, anyone who sees this situation will shoot, including my comrades. They will shoot if they see it before."

"But this is different. You really saved me. My father taught me since I was a child that one cannot be without gratitude."

Jiang Xiaoyu and the others were behind, looking at Qin Yuan gossippingly, "Brother Qin, you are so lucky. You just came out and met another one. Otherwise, let's talk to the sisters-in-law first."

"Can you guys stop talking nonsense? It's nothing, besides, it's just a matter of me doing it."

After Qin Yuan left, Long Xiaoyun also left. I thought there would be no interaction between them, but a week later, Qin Yuan received a thank you letter and a box from the capital. dim sum.

Although there was no signature on it, he remembered that Long Xiaoyun said before that she was from the capital, and Qin Yuan didn't take it seriously.

After Qin Yuan went back, he first turned on the recorder, wanting to hear what the masked man was saying?

Unexpectedly, all of this was planned by the masked man, including the spy submarine and the previous salvage of the large submarine.

All of this was arranged by him, he just wanted to test Qin Yuan's ability, obviously Qin Yuan had already passed his test, that's why this guy appeared.

This is all his conspiracy, and Qin Yuan feels as if he is being led by the nose by others, no wonder he always feels that these things are related.

This guy is really despicable. He came up with such a method. In the end, there was a sentence in the recorder that made Qin Yuan shudder.

"You are indeed my most successful experimental product. Your system fits very well with yourself, which makes me very satisfied, so I look forward to our future cooperation."

I don't know how many experimental products this guy used to achieve such an effect. Maybe his strongest military system is not only his own, but also other experimenters. People can't stand the load of this system. , so it fails completely.

And what he said was looking forward to future cooperation. Qin Yuan felt that he would never cooperate with such a person no matter what. It was a conspiracy.

But now this mask seems to have disappeared. I want to find it, but I can't find it. He is really like what he said, only he comes to find him. Everything behind it is like an invisible big net. It was shrouded behind Qin Yuan.

A few more days passed like this, and they didn't have any tasks recently, so he led everyone to organize a training session.

This kind of training, they basically have to do every week, mainly to test the overall quality, the ability to survive in the wild and the combat ability of individual soldiers.

At this moment, they were doing climbing training on the mountain. Qin Yuan suddenly heard a cry for help, the voice was very weak. He turned his head to look at the other people, but no one noticed.

"You guys train first, I heard a cry for help, I'll go and have a look."

The others obviously didn't hear anything, but they still believed in Qin Yuan's ability very much. In this way, everyone followed him to a ravine.

It was obvious that the cry for help was getting louder here, and several other people heard it too. Everyone hurried forward and saw a woman in a camouflage uniform.

Qin Yuan took a closer look, this person is very familiar, isn't this the same as Long Xiaoyun himself before? Why would she appear here again?

Qin Yuan jumped down first, and Long Xiaoyun was also surprised when he turned his head and found that he was a familiar person.

"I didn't expect to meet you here, that's really great."

"By the way, what's going on with you? How could a girl come to such a place?"

"I'm really unlucky. Recently, I was thinking about climbing a mountain, and then I was in a good mood. I didn't expect that I rolled down the opposite hillside and twisted my foot. I wanted to climb up by myself, but there was no way. The mobile phone Also broke."

Qin Yuan put her on his back, then took the rope dropped by his teammates, and the two climbed up together. The ravine was still relatively deep.

He turned his head and looked, there were indeed some rolling marks, it seemed that he did not speak.

Long Xiaoyun wanted to call the police when she fell, but her mobile phone was broken, so she could only call for help here, but if she wanted to be in the wilderness, how could someone only hope to meet a forest ranger or something? Thinking about it, I met Qin Yuan and the others.

He Chenguang hurriedly examined her. Her ankle was swollen like a steamed bun, and it seemed that the injury was quite serious.

"Girl, you can go with us to our infirmary for treatment first, but it's okay, I don't think any bones are injured at present."

At this time, Qin Yuan knelt down and stretched out his hand, rubbing her ankle lightly. Long Xiaoyun, who was baring her teeth in pain just now, suddenly felt a cool touch coming from her ankle, and then it was not as good as before. Pain and swelling disappeared quickly.

At this moment, Li Erniu said with a smile: "You see, we have forgotten our memory. Brother Qin has traditional medical skills. This small injury must be no problem for him."

At this time, Long Xiaoyun also thought it was amazing. She looked at her ankle, and then tried to move it. There was no difference from before. She couldn't help being surprised. The injury has healed.

She tried to stand up when she fell down before, but she couldn't even do the most basic stand up, and she didn't expect that she was healed now.

"I didn't expect you to have such good skills. It's amazing."

"Actually, it's nothing. It's just a little effort. You're just a girl. Don't come here next time. This kind of place is too dangerous. If we didn't pass by today, I know how long you will stay here."

Long Xiaoyun lowered her head in embarrassment, "It seems that we are still destined. I didn't expect you to save me again. I don't know how to thank you."

Several other people were puzzled when they heard this, which is too coincidental, which means that the two of them knew each other before.

Qin Yuan told the story of meeting Long Xiaoyun before, and also said her name. Everyone was surprised, which is too exaggerated.

"This is really a coincidence. I didn't expect to have the same name as Dragon Team, but there is only one word difference. It is really amazing."

"What's more important is that Brother Qin, you have saved him twice. Isn't that a promise?"

Speaking of this, everyone burst into laughter, Long Xiaoyun's face was blushing at the moment, and she lowered her head in embarrassment, Qin Yuan also hurriedly stopped them, telling them not to joke around.

"By the way, let's send you down the mountain together now. When it gets dark, it's not safe for you to go down the mountain alone."

"No, no, I can go down the mountain by myself. I can't delay your training. You should have other things. My feet are healed now, so I can go down by myself."

"It's okay, anyway, our training can be done anytime, please don't make any more problems on your side, let's send you down together."

At this moment, Long Xiaoyun only felt warm in her heart. She felt that it was really fate that she met Qin Yuan, and this was the second time he had saved herself. In this kind of place, she could meet her own lifesaver. benefactor.

In this way, everyone sent Long Xiaoyun down the mountain together. On the way down the mountain, they found out through conversation that Long Xiaoyun's background was actually quite pitiful. She was an orphan before. Adopted by one person, that person is her current father.

Such a life experience, coupled with her lovely and pitiful appearance, is indeed very pitiful.

"But because of this, you have to take care of yourself and don't let others worry."

"Don't worry, although I am an orphan, after my adoptive father adopted me, he treated me very well, so I am no different from other children, except that some friends and family care less."

Long Xiaoyun is quite cheerful, and she is full of praise for her care. After all, her adoptive father still provides for her to study. She studied abroad, and she just came back here on vacation.

Qin Yuan also felt a little strange, after all, she was running around, so wouldn't her adoptive father be worried?

"You just ran from the east to the west. Doesn't your adoptive father just ask about your situation?"

"My adoptive father is very busy. He has his own business, so he seldom takes care of me. He does business outside. I have been used to it for so many years. I may only see him a few times a year."

This is normal. After this incident, Long Xiaoyun's affection for Qin Yuan has risen sharply. She feels that Qin Yuan is too responsible, and the fate between them is also very wonderful.

When we parted, she smiled at Qin Yuan, and then said hello, "No matter what, I still hope that we can meet again next time, I will be fine, thank you once, you have saved me twice."

"Forget it, even if we meet next time, we will still be in a formal occasion, as friends, so don't let anything happen again, hahaha."

Listening to Qin Yuan's joking words, Long Xiaoyun felt warm in her heart, "Don't worry, I will definitely not let myself be in danger again, but even if I am in danger, I am not afraid, I think there is always a right man Will be by my side."

Everyone understood the meaning of these words, and everyone booed beside him, which made Long Xiaoyun a little embarrassed.

After Long Xiaoyun left, Li Erniu couldn't help but said, "Brother Qin, although this Long Xiaoyun has the same name as our Dragon Team, their personalities are completely different."

"Yeah, I wanted to say it just now, but I'm afraid of being heard by the dragon team, and it will be troublesome. After all, only you can control the character of the dragon team, who dares to provoke her."

"Okay, I think you guys are itching, so let me talk about it here, and Xiaoyun will hear it when the time comes, let's see if she doesn't beat you."

When everyone said this, there was another burst of laughter. Qin Yuan received a task in a week, asking him to go to the local army to guide and train. Now he is very famous, and there will be some local special police detachments, let him teach study.

And it was really a coincidence that he came to Kyoto unexpectedly. Qin Yuan thought that he was the special police brigade who came here, so he shouldn't have met that Long Xiaoyun!

Unexpectedly, he had just got off the plane and was about to come out. It seemed that the person who picked him up felt that someone was approaching at this moment.

Suddenly the person behind patted him on the shoulder, Qin Yuan subconsciously grabbed that person's wrist and then made a lunge, throwing the person behind him directly over his shoulder.

Accompanied by the sound of beating, there was a burst of exclamation, and it was very familiar. Qin Yuan took a closer look, wasn't the person behind him just Long Xiaoyun? At this moment, he has been thrown to the ground by himself.

He quickly pulled him up, with a guilty expression on his face, he really didn't expect to meet Long Xiaoyun.

"What are you doing? I just touched you, as for throwing me directly on the ground?"

Long Xiaoyun on the ground was very angry. After all, there were people coming and going in the airport, and everyone turned their attention to them. At this moment, Qin Yuan also felt a little embarrassed, because he really misunderstood.

"I'm really sorry, but don't touch my shoulder from behind. After all, we have this professional habit, which will make me mistake it for other enemies!"

"Then have you ever seen such a good-looking enemy? It's really too exaggerated Long Xiaoyun got up from the ground, rubbed her knees, and looked at Qin who was next to him with a guilty face and kept apologizing. Yuan burst out laughing.

"Forget it, forget it, I won't bother with you anymore. After all, you saved my life before, and it's really my fault. I shouldn't touch you from behind."

"I'm really sorry. I didn't expect it to be you. It was just a subconscious action. I just hit it out. I'm sorry."

At this time, the person in charge of picking up Qin Yuan on the opposite side also rushed forward. They thought they had encountered something, and they explained it later, which was all a misunderstanding.

It turned out that after Long Xiaoyun came back, he just got off the plane and saw a familiar figure. After a closer look, he was indeed willing. Just like that, he wanted to come up to say hello, but he didn't expect it to become like this.

After all, Qin Yuan also felt that he deliberately refused to throw a  the ground in public, so he planned to invite her to dinner at night.

As for the training of the Special Operations Brigade, they said that they can go there tomorrow morning. After all, it is too late now, and they can't receive any training, so they will gather tomorrow morning.

Chapter 1083: strange adoptive father

The people who came to pick up Qin Yuan also understood instantly, after all, if they want to invite girls to dinner, it's not good for them to spend time here, interfering, so that they will become light bulbs.

"Captain Qin, I didn't expect you to have friends in this place, so we won't bother you too much. You can go directly to our special police brigade tomorrow morning."

"That's really embarrassing, and I trouble you to pick me up, but I didn't expect to cause such a misunderstanding."

"Hahaha, it's okay, Captain Qin, just spend time with your friend."

Qin Yuan looked at the people who came to pick him up, and there seemed to be something wrong with his face. Looking at their gossiping faces, he seemed to be misunderstood.

He didn't want to explain too much, after all, the most important thing now is to appease Long Xiaoyun's emotions, after all, she was thrown into the airport hall by himself.

He turned his head and saw that Long Xiaoyun was arranging her clothes. He said with some embarrassment: "I'm really sorry, I didn't expect this to happen, but you should know that I really didn't throw you on purpose."

"Bah, I think you did it on purpose. You can hit a girl so hard."

After Long Xiaoyun finished speaking, she pursed her lips, pretending to be a little unhappy, and Qin Yuan hurriedly apologized beside her.

"Oh, this matter is really a big misunderstanding. I really didn't expect it to turn out like this. Well, I will treat you to whatever you want, and I can promise you one more condition as compensation, okay? ?"

When Long Xiaoyun heard this, she immediately changed a little. She was unhappy just now, and suddenly said with a smile: "That's not bad, it's okay, then I will forgive you for the time being, but I have to think about the condition first. , I haven't figured it out yet."

"Okay, okay, as long as you can forgive me, you can do anything."

In this way, the two walked out of the airport together. In the evening, Qin Yuan invited Long Xiaoyun to have dinner outside. It's the complete opposite.

This Long Xiaoyun has a relatively cheerful personality, probably because she is studying abroad, so she has insights when talking, and she can talk about many things.

Qin Yuan felt that it was pretty good to be able to make such a friend, after all, it was really fate once or twice.

In this way, the two of them also left a contact information for each other. Long Xiaoyun doesn't live far from here. Her character is rather mischievous. She keeps teasing Qin Yuan along the way, and Qin Yuan is also teased by her. Gotta laugh, it's really fun to be with such a person.

After sending Long Xiaoyun home, Qin Yuan also came to the special police brigade. Although he said that he would only train the next morning, he had to come here first to get ready.

But at this moment, Long Xiaoyun was humming a song in a very good mood. As soon as she got home, she found that the lights in the house were on. She was a little surprised, and when she ran upstairs, she found that her adoptive father had returned.

The middle-aged man at the moment looked at Long Xiaoyun with a smile, "Xiaoyun, what are you happy about? It's rare to see you so happy."

"Dad, why are you back? You didn't tell me in advance. If I had known that I should have been at home all the time, we could have dinner together."

"You are a real kid. I asked you what you had fun with, but you changed the subject directly. It seems that there must be something wrong."

Speaking of this, Long Xiaoyun's face turned red, and she quickly lowered her head, "Dad, I haven't written anything about this matter yet, and I don't even know the specifics, so how could I tell you?"

"Okay, my daughter is getting older, sometimes I don't tell my father about some things, but I can understand, but you have to remember, you must not suffer, you know?"

"Dad, what are you talking about? I haven't reached that point at all. We are just ordinary friends."

"That's good, am I not worried about you?"

Long Xiaoyun's father had been out doing business all the time and rarely came back. He didn't expect to come back suddenly this time without telling her.

Although she was also very pleasantly surprised, the strangest thing she found since she was a child was that her adoptive father didn't believe in dragons at all, but she didn't know why her father named her Long Xiaoyun.

At this moment, after Long Xiaoyun took a shower, she saw that the light in the study was still on when she came out. She walked into the study and saw her adoptive father writing something on the table.

"Dad is so late, are you still not resting? You still need to work so late."

"It's nothing, I'll go to sleep after processing this data, by the way, do you have any questions?"

"It's like this. I've always been curious. Although it's impolite to ask you this question, it has troubled me for many years. Why did you give me this name?"

"Huh? Why did you suddenly ask such a question?"

The reason why Long Xiaoyun thinks this way is because the matter of her name has been brought up recently, and she mainly came into contact with Qin Yuan, so she brought up this matter.

"Dad, I'm just curious. After all, that's not your last name. Why did you give me this name? What's the point?"

"Well, I can only tell you that the name itself has its meaning, and it's just for one person, but I can't tell you now, and I will tell you when there is a suitable opportunity later."

Long Xiaoyun nodded, and after greeting her adoptive father, she went back to her room. She felt that there was nothing wrong with it, and this explanation made sense.

But at this moment, the adoptive father behind her showed an imperceptible smile, "It seems that the fish is still hooked."

In this way, the next morning, Long Xiaoyun was not woken up by the alarm clock, but by her adoptive father. She yawned and looked at the person in front of her sleepily.

"Dad, why did you wake me up so early? I have nothing to do now."

"You don't understand, kid. Didn't you tell me yesterday that you were friends with that person? Shouldn't you dress up carefully and go to meet others now?"

Long Xiaoyun blushed a little when she heard this, but she didn't say anything, how could her father know all about it?

"Oh, the two of us don't have anything yet, it's just an ordinary friendship. Will it be too abrupt for me to go like this? Besides, everyone may have girlfriends."

"What is this? You have received Western education before. Everyone has a heart of love. If you like it, you might as well be bold."

Long Xiaoyun was very excited when she heard this. It seems that her father also agreed with her point of view. She immediately got up and began to dress up meticulously. Besides, her adoptive father was still nearby, suggesting what clothes she should wear, and asked her to bring something to go with.

On the other side, Qin Yuan has already woken up and started training with the members of the special police brigade. In fact, he just gave some guidance to their training and shared some of his methods with them.

In the morning, the most basic distance is 5 kilometers, and the basic distance in their special operations team is 10 kilometers, which is twice as much.

But the tasks they perform are different. After all, their main responsibility is the security of the cities, so they only need to improve their physical fitness, and there is no need to reach their level.

Then Qin Yuan also made a clear plan according to their mission situation. In this case, they are more suitable for anti-terrorism operations between cities, and close combat, because they need to contact bandits at close range.

So Qin Yuan planned to improve their fighting skills and the skills of using cold weapons.

When Qin Yuan was standing in front of the team to explain, there was a language in the team that he didn't understand, so he raised his hand and asked: "Captain Qin, of course our previous training was mainly on firearms, now you let us develop cold weapons, isn't this a retreat?"

Just as they were talking, the team leader next to them yelled loudly, "What do you know? Can you refute Captain Qin? Just listen patiently."

Qin Yuan smiled, and then waved his hands, "It's okay. After all, it's normal for everyone to have questions. This shows that you have really analyzed it. I mainly made this arrangement based on your situation."

Because their special police operations are mainly between cities, if they use firearms, it is easy to accidentally injure the surrounding people. Of course, it cannot be said that they have completely given up these firearms.

Especially when gangsters hold explosive and threatening weapons, holding firearms will play a role, but if it is in a small area, cold weapons can become the main dominant combat plan.

Such doubts are also because they think that if cold weapons are compared with hot weapons, hot weapons must be more powerful.

After all, sitting visually can give people a sense of shock. On the other hand, the speed of the bullet is very fast.

Qin Yuan also demonstrated patiently. He held the throwing knife in his hand, just playing with it casually, and then quickly threw the throwing knife. In an instant, his throwing knife hit a wooden post fifty meters away.

The team members below were completely stunned, and then everyone burst into warm applause.

"Everyone can see, in this case, if the person opposite is a hostage-taking bandit, if you hold a gun, you can easily be spotted by him, and be vigilant, but in such a range, I use a throwing knife. It can be solved directly."

This is the power of cold weapons. It is because Qin Yuan now has the skills of throwing knives and playing cards that he discovered that cold weapons can be used sometimes, but they are more useful than hot weapons.

Although he is indeed so powerful because of the existence of skills, ordinary people can also achieve certain effects after training.

Everyone applauded spontaneously. As expected of the special warfare brigade, what came out was so powerful.

At this moment, a member of the team ran over and whispered, "Captain Qin, there is a girl at the door who seems to be looking for you, the one we saw yesterday."

Qin Yuan thought of Long Xiaoyun first. When she passed by, she only saw Long Xiaoyun wearing a long skirt with long hair scattered between the two. She was very fairy-like, and she was carrying a box in her hand.

Seeing Qin Yuan coming out, she quickly stepped up and said hello, "Captain Qin!"

"Actually, you don't need to be so polite. You can be like them and just call me Brother Qin."

"Hey, do you think I should call you Brother Qin or Brother Qing?"

I have to say that this Long Xiaoyun is really naughty, she can tease casually, and she is also very cheerful.

After teasing a few words, she handed the box in her hand to Qin Yuan, "Here are some snacks I made by myself, you can take them in and share with them, you guys have a taste first, if it is delicious, I will bring it to you next time. "

"Actually, you don't need to be so troublesome. After all, we have a cafeteria here, and there is no shortage of food."

Long Xiaoyun pouted, then looked at Qin Yuan, "You are really a straight man, don't you know that you shouldn't directly reject girls' wishes?"

Qin Yuan was a little embarrassed, he scratched his head, and then wanted to apologize, after all, he was really not very good at talking.

But Long Xiaoyun is more understanding, she knows that a little teasing is fine, after all, the other party also wants face.

"Okay, don't embarrass you, you can go in quickly, and I won't delay your business, I will come to you after your training is over in the evening."

Qin Yuan nodded, and ran in carrying the box. Long Xiaoyun looked at his back and smiled slightly.

I have to say that Long Xiaoyun's craftsmanship is really good. He made a few snacks, which won the appreciation of the team members.

A team member next to him said jokingly: "Captain Qin, you have such a good relationship. I didn't expect to meet friends everywhere, and we followed suit."

"Hahaha, I don't think they are ordinary friends at all. After all, they are eating and giving food, so this relationship is not ordinary."

Qin Yuan could only quickly explain that they were just ordinary friends and had nothing to do with each other, and the reason why she sent the food was to thank him for saving her before.

But even though he said so he also has a different emotion for this Long Xiaoyun, and feels that the fate between them is also quite wonderful.

In this way, during the daytime, Long Xiaoyun would make delicious food, and then bring it to Qin Yuan, and ask him to distribute it to the team members. At night, the two of them would go shopping in Kyoto together.

The relationship between the two was getting better and better, and Long Xiaoyun came back later and later, after all, she felt that the time with Qin Yuan was too fast.

Her adoptive father was at home these few days, and she thought she would be scolded if she came back late, but unexpectedly his adoptive father was very happy and kept asking about Qin Yuan's situation.

It feels like she is very concerned, but in fact, her adoptive father also has another purpose.

When Long Xiaoyun came back tonight, it was past 11 o'clock. If it wasn't for the worry that Qin Yuan would have training the next day, she would have taken him to other bars to have fun.

As soon as she came in, her adoptive father couldn't wait to ask: "Xiaoyun, how is your relationship with Qin Yuan now?"

"Dad, don't be so anxious. After all, we have just started, but I feel that he seems to be a little different to me, as if he has some dependence."

Chapter 1084: strange coincidence

The man in front of him just smiled and didn't speak, he just told her not to miss her destined person.

At this moment, Long Xiaoyun was even more immersed in the sweetness. She felt that this was her destined person, after all, the person who could save her twice, and she had met so many times.

However, what she didn't know was that these encounters were all designed by the man in front of her, and she was just a  in it.

Qin Yuan's training here is coming to an end, and there is nothing wrong with the guidance training here. Basically, their training is relatively standard, and Qin Yuan just makes some opinions of his own.

After all, he is also a person with children now. Seeing that there are still two days left for vacation, he plans to set aside these two days to go to the army compound to see the children.

When Long Xiaoyun learned that Qin Yuan was going to leave, she was a little anxious. After all, he felt that if he explained the matter clearly to him now, would he be too anxious, and they didn't get along for a long time.

When she was struggling, the adoptive father who was sitting opposite gave her advice, "There are some things about the child that you shouldn't be so anxious about. Since you really like him, you might as well wait and see, because there should still be some love between you." Other fate."

"Dad, what do you mean by that? Do you mean that we will meet later? But he is in the army, and the chance for us to meet is really difficult."

"Don't worry, since you said it before, he has saved you twice, which means that your fate is still very strong. And the real fate depends on the follow-up fate, doesn't it?"

Hearing this, Long Xiaoyun firmly believed that she and Qin Yuan had a natural fate. If this is the case, then she might as well wait and see.

On the other side, after Qin Yuan went back, he went to the compound to look at the children. Now that the children can already speak, he felt very guilty when he saw the children who were babbling.

The child has not been officially named yet, only a small name is Little Mango, because it is also to protect the child, but the child and him are very close.

An Ran's mother took the child to teach her to walk, and said, "You two are really too busy. I think it's not a problem to live in this compound. In a few years, the child will go to school. I still want to find him a good kindergarten."

"Mom, isn't it good that we also have a kindergarten from the brigade here? Next to it is the government kindergarten."

"You don't know now, because you are in the army all day long. Now the kindergarten is very particular. Our children must not lose at the starting line. I have already taken my fancy. There is a bilingual kindergarten over there, which is good for the children. Education comes first."

The old man's idea is indeed quite good. After all, it is for the good of the child. Qin Yuan is more concerned about safety issues, but the two old men have not experienced those things, so they don't think there will be any danger.

The main reason is that the child has been taken care of by these two old people since birth, and Qin Yuan can't say much. He thinks about the child's grandparents and grandparents will not harm the child.

"Mom, you and Dad will make the decision, and you will tell An Ran when the time comes, because we are too busy at work, and we really need you to worry about it in the future."

"You child, why are you being polite to us? This child is also our granddaughter, so don't worry!"

Qin Yuan is busy every day now, and Anran's side is getting busier as they get closer to the end of the year, and there will be a military exercise at the end of the year, and she can't get away from it.

This time in the military exercise, Long Xiaoyun and the others went in as a special warfare team to attack and interfere with them, while Qin Yuan and the others chose to stay behind this time.

In the end, Qin Yuan took some time to visit An Ran. After being busy for a while, An Ran lost a lot of weight. The two just explained the child's recent situation. Nothing to do.

And the mysterious person really disappeared. Qin Yuan also called Li Kang and the others several times, but they still found nothing, and there was no clue at all.

It's like a ticking time bomb, if it's not resolved for a day, Qin Yuan always feels that it's always on his mind.

At this time, the emergency assembly number rang, Long Xiaoyun and the others had already set off to prepare for the following military exercises, and the red blood cell team assembled quickly.

On the playground, Gao Shiwei took a document and handed it to Qin Yuan, "This task is relatively difficult, but I believe your team can complete it very well. The location of this task is abroad. , I hope everyone can come back safely."

"Don't worry, Team Gao. We have performed this kind of mission many times, and I will definitely bring them back safely."

Gao Shiwei patted Qin Yuan on the shoulder and told them to get ready to board the plane. This time, they received a mission to rescue several citizens of the Yan Kingdom.

Their mission was in Country F. Some local terrorists hijacked a school bus, and there were three citizens of Yan Country in the school bus.

The local government forces have already taken measures, and now the two sides are still in the confrontation stage. Qin Yuan and the others received help from the embassy, so they went there. After all, safety is the priority. Although the local government forces are also there, it is after all citizens of their own country.

It's just that Qin Yuan thought of country F on the plane at the moment, he was a little puzzled, it couldn't be such a coincidence, and it was a school bus.

He Chenguang next to him saw his pensive expression, and couldn't help but ask, "Brother Qin, what are you thinking about?"

"I don't think it should be such a coincidence. I just thought of a friend who is also studying in country F."

Just as he was talking about the specific information of the hostages, Qin Yuan clicked on it, and as expected, one of them was named Long Xiaoyun.

What kind of coincidence is this? This is too exaggerated, Qin Yuan can't help but feel a little strange, this is the feeling of meeting Tianbei from Tiannan, and there is such a small probability of meeting Tianbei abroad.

Li Erniu was taken aback when he saw the name, "Hey, this name is the same as that of the girl we rescued before, so it can't be the same person by coincidence?"

At this moment, Qin Yuan has confirmed that it is definitely Long Xiaoyun, because two points have already been met, studying in country F, and having the same name and surname, it is impossible to achieve such a high probability.

Qin Yuan just felt a little strange. He doubted whether he would do it. It was arranged by others, because the probability of such a coincidence was too low. He really couldn't believe that there were three such coincidences in a row. Could Xiaoyun be arranged by someone else by her side?

But after thinking about it, he and Long Xiaoyun had a relatively harmonious relationship before. This girl was quite straightforward, and she said nothing, and she didn't find anything abnormal.

"I always feel that things are a bit strange this time. Anyway, everyone should be vigilant. If there is really something wrong with this person, then deal with it according to the normal situation."

Wang Yanbing next to him interrupted and said, "Brother Qin, you are too vigilant. I think there should be no problem. I guess it was a fate that came to your door."

Qin Yuan smiled, he didn't believe in fate, he could only hope that this was really a coincidence, and that nothing really happened.

At this moment, Long Xiaoyun was also in a daze. She didn't know what was going on. She came back to study by herself, but she was hijacked by the kidnappers on the school bus. What's more, these kidnappers had guns in their hands. Confront the police.

At this moment, these kidnappers drove the school bus to the gate of a dilapidated factory building, blocked the gate with the school bus, and drove them all out.

But it was strange that these kidnappers didn't make any demands, they just put them all in the factory building, as if they were waiting for someone.

Long Xiaoyun turned her head and saw the two compatriots beside her, already trembling with fright, and one of them was sobbing softly.

"Don't worry, people outside will definitely come to rescue us, and they will definitely make demands when they kidnap us. As long as their demands are met, we will be safe."

She is relatively calm, after all these years, she has also lived independently, but at this moment, she really hopes that Qin Yuan can come to save her, but just when this idea came up, she laughed at herself.

After all, Qin Yuan was far away in Yan Country, so it was impossible to beat her. How could Qin Yuan come to rescue her?

At this moment, a piece of glass on the side of the factory building suddenly shattered, which completely attracted everyone's attention. Just as the kidnappers on the side turned their heads, two throwing knives were directly inserted between the eyebrows.

All the hostages present screamed in fright, and then the gunfire rang out, Long Xiaoyun didn't dare to look at it, she squinted her eyes, and only saw a familiar figure.

Then the figure slowly enlarged in front of her, and she saw clearly that it was really Qin Yuan. She even suspected that she was dreaming, and she couldn't distinguish reality from imagination.

In less than three minutes, the red blood cell team completely attacked in and solved the kidnappers inside.

The government troops guarding outside were completely stunned. They had been confronting each other for more than three hours, but it ended up being solved within three minutes after their arrival. This is too exaggerated.

They rushed in and saw that the hostages were not injured. There were six or seven kidnappers' corpses lying on the ground, and they were all killed with one knife.

At that time, Long Xiaoyun was very excited, rushed forward, hugged Qin Yuan, then threw himself into his arms, and began to cry bitterly.

Qin Yuan was a little embarrassed for a while, and even more at a loss, he could only pat Long Xiaoyun's shoulder lightly.

At this time, Li Erniu walked over in embarrassment. He didn't want to disturb the situation in front of him, but there were indeed some things that Qin Yuan needed to deal with.

"Brother Qin... There's something going on over here, you may need to take a look."

Long Xiaoyun is also a smart person, of course she knew that Qin Yuan should not be disturbed, so she let go of her hands and eyes, crying until she was swollen like a walnut, Brother Qin handed her a tissue.

At this time, Qin Yuan walked over to see it, because they agreed to keep a alive, and he was very confident in his sword skills.

Because he was the first to rush in, he only dealt with two repentances with heavy weapons, and he only wounded the others.

But the people on the ground at this moment have no life breath at all, and the few injured people are foaming at the mouth at this moment, obviously there is poison in their mouths.

When Qin Yuan saw this scene, he became even more suspicious that all of this was very possible, because someone behind the scene was fueling the flames.

If they were just ordinary kidnappers, then they wouldn't have to use such an unprecedented method to end their own lives, but now there are no survivors, this thing is really getting weirder and weirder.

After they got out safely, Qin Yuan looked at Long Xiaoyun beside him, "I know it might be inappropriate to say these things now, but can you recall what happened at that time? How did you get kidnapped?"

Long Xiaoyun is also very smart, of course she knew at the scene that the kidnappers had already fully paid their respects, so he felt that this matter must not be simple.

"It's okay, I can bear it. After all, the truth of this matter needs to be investigated. In fact, I also find it strange that these kidnappers didn't make any demands after they kidnapped us."

"This is indeed a problem, but did they say anything during the whole process?"

"We didn't have any communication during the whole process, but I don't know if there is an illusion, I feel like they are confirming?"

Because during this process, Long Xiaoyun felt that the kidnappers seemed to be looking for her, because she was sitting at the end of the school bus at the time. Logically speaking, they should take away the people in front first, but the kidnappers passed the people in front. took her away.

She told Qin Yuan about her doubts, and Qin Yuan felt that there must be tricks behind it, especially this time after time of accidents.

At this moment, Qin Yuan looked at Long Xiaoyun She really didn't seem to be lying, it was very likely that he was being tricked.

"I remember the night I first met you, you mean someone pushed you into the sea from behind, didn't you?"

"Yes, I remember very clearly. Although I didn't see that person clearly, he was very strong."

When it comes to the current kidnapping case, it was completely done on purpose, and Qin Yuan expressed his thoughts.

Long Xiaoyun frowned, and also helped to analyze beside her, "When you say this, it feels like it's aimed at me, but it's actually aimed at you behind the scenes, and you want us to meet together."

Qin Yuan nodded undeniably, this is his current guess.

"You don't doubt that I directed and acted this, do you? Let me tell you first, I'm not sick, I planned to kidnap myself, and then fell into the sea."

Qin Yuan quickly explained, "Don't say that, I didn't think that way, I just thought that you and I might have been tricked by others, and we didn't know about it after dinner, it's just that there are too many coincidences."

Chapter 1085: adoptive father problem

Listening to Qin Yuan's analysis, Long Xiaoyun also recalled carefully. In fact, Qin Yuan had doubted her before, but after getting in touch with her, he found that Long Xiaoyun was not that kind of person.

According to this incident, Qin Yuan was even more sure that Long Xiaoyun was also one of the pawns, but was used by the people behind. The first person in Qin Yuan's mind was the masked man behind, because the masked man As I said before, I will take the initiative to come to him.

At this moment, a terrible idea appeared in Qin Yuan's mind, and he made an analysis based on these several situations.

After struggling for a long time, Qin Yuan still spoke, "Xiaoyun, you told me before that you didn't have many friends in China because you were studying abroad. If so, who do you think will know your itinerary?"

If anyone can know her itinerary, it must be someone close to her. The first thing Qin Yuan suspected was her adoptive father. First of all, she went to the beach to play. She only told her adoptive father about this matter. After all, she is here. Without friends, it is only suitable for the adoptive father to report his itinerary.

Long Xiaoyun frowned, she looked at Qin Yuan, "Do you mean you doubt him, but he probably won't, he is my adoptive father who has raised me for more than ten years."

Long Xiaoyun was very excited when she said this, she kept shaking her head, thinking that this was impossible, she couldn't even doubt it, after all her adoptive father was really kind to her and even paid for her to go to college.

Qin Yuan quickly calmed her emotions, "Don't be so excited, this is just my guess, we just analyze it with you."

"You know what? When I was little, I was in an orphanage until I was five, and I got all the stares, but he took me home, and he was very nice to me, giving me food, clothes, and talking to me. I read."

The more Long Xiaoyun talked, the more excited she became, and the fact that she was shivering after being kidnapped by the kidnapper just now, Qin Yuan could only give her a hug first to calm her emotions. He felt that he was a little abrupt and shouldn't bring it up so directly.

After all, it is really difficult to doubt a person who has raised her for more than ten years. For her, this kind of doubt may be a kind of betrayal.

After a while, Long Xiaoyun calmed down. She thought about it carefully, and what Qin Yuan said actually made sense, because it seemed that everything was directly aimed at Qin Yuan.

She wiped her tears, and then said slowly: "I don't know how to describe it, it seems that since I met you, it seems like fate, I think this may be my fate, but this time two incidents, which makes me feel a little weird too."

Qin Yuan guided her slowly, mainly because she had no other friends around her, so this possibility was the greatest.

"I'm sorry, but the reason I said that is because you have no friends here, so he is the most likely."

At this moment, Long Xiaoyun is also caught in endless entanglements. She clearly knows that she should not doubt her adoptive father, but under the interweaving of various emotions, she feels that it is really possible.

Because when she was at the beach before, she set off for the beach just after talking to her adoptive father about the address, and that happened.

Then when she went to climb the mountain for the second time, it was not an accident. Her trekking poles suddenly had a problem, because her trekking poles were retractable, and her adoptive father bought them for her at that time.

As a result, she did not expect that halfway through the climb, she used the trekking pole as a support point. Unexpectedly, the trekking pole broke suddenly. She had no support point, and her center of gravity was facing downwards, so she fell down.

More importantly, this time she came to study, and only her adoptive father knew her itinerary, including the specific school bus.

That was also requested by her adoptive father, who asked her to tell her the license plate number of the car she was riding in every time. On the surface, it felt that it was for her safety. She did think that his adoptive father was very caring.

I am in a foreign country, and I am worried about my own safety. It is indeed understandable, but now that I look carefully, it really makes my back chills. All of this seems to be a long-planned conspiracy.

The circles of Long Xiaoyun's eyes were slightly red, she couldn't believe it, she told Qin Yuan her analysis, at this moment she was really confused, she didn't know whether to trust the man in front of her, or the man who raised her Adoptive father for ten years.

Qin Yuan can understand her mood very well. After all, if you get along with someone who has been kind to you for more than ten years and find out that everything is premeditated, then it will really make people shudder.

Qin Yuan now feels that he would rather kill the wrong than let it go. Even if it was a misunderstanding, he must understand clearly that there are so many coincidences.

"Xiaoyun, you must trust me, I will definitely not harm you, because now we are already grasshoppers on the same rope, and you and I are tied together in life and death."

Speaking of this, Long Xiaoyun suddenly rang out, yes, why did she doubt Qin Yuan, Qin Yuan was his savior before, in such a rough sea, he was the only one who jumped down.

Including this time when facing the gun-wielding gangster, he jumped in without the slightest hesitation. Facing such a life-saving benefactor, why would she have any reason to doubt it?

In such a comparison, her adoptive father's suspicion gradually intensified, and she felt more and more that everything at the beginning was fake.

Long Xiaoyun asked a question, she looked at Qin Yuan and asked, "Is the person you have always said has the same name as me important to you?"

Qin Yuan didn't hesitate, and he didn't want to lie to the person in front of him, so he nodded, "Yes, it's very important, she is my lover."

Although she knew that Qin Yuan already had someone she liked, Long Xiaoyun could understand, after all, he was such an excellent person, but it also deepened her doubts about her adoptive father. She had asked about this name before.

"If that's the case, I'm even more skeptical. After all, maybe my name is to attract your attention."

"But this should be impossible, after all, no matter how powerful your adoptive father is, it is impossible to predict what will happen more than ten years later, and it is only a coincidence that I met Long Xiaoyun."

Long Xiaoyun in front of her shook her head, "That's not true. My name was suddenly changed four years ago. Before that, I had been studying abroad, so I didn't have a Chinese name."

Hearing this, Qin Yuan became more certain. Then there must be something wrong behind this. After all, it only started four years ago, which means it was a long-planned conspiracy.

In addition, Long Xiaoyun thought about it, ever since he came into contact with Qin Yuan, his adoptive father has been very concerned about Qin Yuan.

This kind of concern seems a bit too abnormal, because it is too enthusiastic, why would he be so caring for a person who has just been in contact with his daughter? This is what Long Xiaoyun suspected.

The two of them didn't care about anything, and Qin Yuan simply stated the problem directly. He just doubted the adoptive father. In this way, the two of them listed all the doubts, only to find that the adoptive father's doubts were really very serious. big.

"By the way, you keep talking about your adoptive father, so do you know his name? I can start to investigate first here, so as to avoid you asking him, and it's hard to say if you have any questions."

Unexpectedly, such a simple question stumped Long Xiaoyun, and she froze in place for a while.

"name?"

Long Xiaoyun frowned, she kept thinking about it, but she seemed to have no memory at all, which is really strange.

"It's really strange that I can't think of anything. Regarding the name, I seem to be blank."

Qin Yuan became more and more worried when he heard this, because this one is so similar to the masked man before, and the masked man is also the kind that can make people forget his name and appearance.

Could it be that his adoptive father is that masked man? As soon as Qin Yuan had this thought, he felt that Long Xiaoyun's current situation was very dangerous. After all, that guy was cruel and merciless, and he didn't know what kind of things he would use Long Xiaoyun to do.

At this moment, Long Xiaoyun felt even more horrified, why she couldn't remember the name of her adoptive father, this was obviously a very normal thing.

"Qin Yuan, I really didn't lie to you. I don't know what happened, but I can't remember his name. You may not believe it."

"I believe it, and I very much doubt that your adoptive father is the one who has been targeting me behind the scenes. For some reason, I may not be able to tell you the inside story, but nine times out of ten I am sure that I am definitely not simple."

Long Xiaoyun was still racking his brains, but he really didn't know why he only had one name, and when she thought about it carefully, she didn't even remember her appearance.

At this time, Qin Yuan told her to calm down first, and she must not be impulsive now, since if she has any doubts, she has to make sure first.

"After all, I am the one who saved you now. I just have a reason. I will send you back so that I can see the true face of your adoptive father."

Qin Yuan had come into contact with that masked man, but he was wearing a mask from beginning to end, and his voice had been processed, so Qin Yuan wondered if he could recognize him? But all these features fit so well, so he wanted to take the risk to take a look.

At this moment, Long Xiaoyun only felt chills on her back, obviously she was the person who raised her for more than ten years, why did she become like this?

"In your impression, what kind of person do you think your adoptive father is? In your usual conversations, have you noticed anything unusual?"

Long Xiaoyun covered her head at this time, she didn't know what was going on, as long as she thought about her adoptive father, the memory in her mind would start to appear chaotic and fuzzy, she didn't know what was going on .

"Qin Yuan, I'm very sorry. I really can't remember anything. This feeling is very strange. Do you think I'm sick?"

Qin Yuan stepped forward and gave her a hug. Of course he knew what was going on, but this poor girl had been taken advantage of all the time. If her adoptive father was really that masked man, it had been planned for years.

At this time, Long Xiaoyun's phone rang, and Qin Yuan looked at the caller ID, and it was noted that it was Dad.

Long Xiaoyun was a little flustered, after all, they had just deduced it now, if this person really used her, she didn't know how to accept it.

"Don't rush to adjust your emotions, first read what he said, remember that you must not startle the snake, and everything just now is just our inference, if it is not the case, maybe it is not the case."

Qin Yuan could only try his best to comfort Long Xiaoyun in this regard, he was worried that the other party would notice something, after all, he was a cunning fox, and now he finally caught him.

"But I really don't know how to face him now. What's going on here is so weird, I don't want to answer this call."

"Xiaoyun, listen to me tell you, we must find out the truth of the matter, and aren't you curious? If the truth of the matter is not what we think, it is a misunderstanding."

Qin Yuan could only try his best to comfort her emotions. At this time, Long Xiaoyun also calmed down. She must find out the truth of the matter and not just be passive like this. Moreover, even if her adoptive father really wants to target her, then she Take the initiative too.

"Okay, but what should I say?"

"Just answer the phone in your most usual tone, and don't ask other questions."

Long Xiaoyun nodded, the phone had already hung up, and she called back again, "Hello, Dad!"

"Xiaoyun, how are you? I saw the news just now that there was a school bus hijacking incident on your side!"

The man on the opposite side seemed very anxious, but he couldn't hear anything strange. Qin Yuan carefully distinguished the voice, he had never heard it before.

"Yes, we were hijacked just now. I was really scared, but I didn't expect to meet Qin Yuan again under such circumstances. He was the one who saved me."

When the man on the opposite side heard what Long Xiaoyun said, his voice obviously raised a level.

"How is it now? Are you two together? Did he say anything to you?"

Although the masked man is usually very cautious but this sentence has been completely exposed. He needs to know that under normal circumstances, when he knows that his daughter has been kidnapped, the first thing he cares about is her safety. Qin Yuan was asked.

Long Xiaoyun also knew very well in her heart that at this moment, her face was ashen, and tears flowed silently like this. After all, this is the case for a person who has raised her for more than ten years.

The man opposite seemed to hear something strange, and hurriedly asked: "Xiaoyun, what's wrong? Why don't you speak? And you seem to be crying, don't you?"

"That's right, Dad...I, I'm really scared. Those people died directly in front of me in that situation just now."

Long Xiaoyun still wanted to try to talk about the topic, and wanted to see if her adoptive father really cared about her.

"I know this. After all, it is difficult to encounter such a thing, but if you are with Qin Yuan, I will feel more at ease. He will protect you."

From the beginning to the end, he didn't say any words of concern. Although he made this call apparently to care about her, he was actually inquiring about Qin Yuan's situation. Now both of them have confirmed it.

Chapter 1086: suddenly mad foster father

At this time, the man opposite asked again, "Is Qin Yuan with you now?"

"Because now I'm really scared. With him by my side, it's much better."

Long Xiaoyun could only pretend to be calm and let herself say such words. In fact, her hands were already trembling slightly. A man who had raised her for more than ten years had other purposes. Long Xiaoyun didn't even know what on earth is it.

"Then since he is by your side, I feel more at ease. I was worried about your safety, so I won't come here. I have a lot of things to do here."

Long Xiaoyun was very helpless, she already knew it, but why did she still feel sad? She really regarded this man as her father.

Hearing this, the man didn't care at all, but kept asking about Qin Yuan's situation. Long Xiaoyun couldn't hold back anymore, and burst into tears.

The man on the opposite side also sensed that something was wrong, so he hurriedly asked. At this moment, Qin Yuan shook his head at Long Xiaoyun, signaling her to calm down.

"It's okay, Dad, I just think he's scared, after all, it's the first time I've experienced such a thing."

"Then as long as you're fine, I'm relieved. I'll go see you when I'm done with work here. Remember to stay with Qin Yuan well. He's safe around him."

If it was in the past, Long Xiaoyun would have felt very happy, after all her father was also blessing her, but at this moment she only felt that she was being used, and felt extremely disgusting.

After hanging up the phone, she sobbed softly, and couldn't help but threw herself into Qin Yuan's arms and began to cry loudly. The people around her were completely stunned.

He Chenguang originally came here to report the situation, so he couldn't say much after seeing the situation.

After waiting for a long time, Long Xiaoyun's emotions finally stabilized. After all, she had to start to accept that this man who had been kind to her for more than ten years had a purpose.

Qin Yuan couldn't explain anything to her. There were too many things involved behind it. Qin Yuan could only tell her that he must beware of this person, and that he was definitely on her side unconditionally.

"Anyway, since we have encountered this matter, I will definitely not ignore it like this, and this matter has nothing to do with me."

"But I really don't understand, why did it become like this?"

"There are many things that are difficult to explain, but I can only tell you that you must believe me."

Long Xiaoyun nodded, now she can only believe in Qin Yuan, after all, Qin Yuan is the one who saved her regardless of his own life.

Qin Yuan walked out of the room and saw that the red blood cell team had assembled, and they were about to go back now.

"Brother Qin, the matter on this side has been handed over to their local government. We can go back too. What do you say?"

"Things on this side are still a bit complicated, and I can only say that this matter is not a coincidence, so I decided to let her go back with us first."

Li Erniu nodded when he heard this, "Brother Qin, there is no problem with this one, but we can only arrange her to live in another place. Otherwise, you know that our brigade will definitely not be able to enter."

This Qin Yuan naturally understood, just like that, Long Xiaoyun went back with them, and the masked man at this moment has never called.

Originally, Qin Yuan planned to take the initiative, but the man said that he has work to do now, and if he was too active, it would be easy to be exposed, after all, this man is so cunning.

After returning, Qin Yuan had no choice but to find An Ran first. After all, Long Xiaoyun took the team to perform other tasks.

At the moment, An Ran is extremely busy. They have already made a game plan, and now they are going to the practice stage, and everyone is having a meeting to discuss it.

Originally thought that Qin Yuan was looking for her, but when she saw a woman standing next to her, An Ran's expression was a bit unnatural, although she knew that this guy was a playful guy, three women couldn't satisfy him, it was too exaggerated Well, another one was changed in a short time.

"I said Captain Qin, what's the situation with you? You still don't care when you have a child."

"An Ran, don't get me wrong, she is really my friend."

And Long Xiaoyun beside her also had an unnatural expression, especially when she heard that Qin Yuan already had a child, she felt that she was hopeless.

At this moment, she feels like a troublesome person. After all, even her adoptive father, who has raised her for more than ten years, is plotting against her, and she feels hopeless.

"Qin Yuan, since that's the case, forget it. I don't want to bother you. Actually, it's nothing. I can go back to school first. Even if he wants to harm me, he won't continue like this."

He really didn't want to cause trouble for Qin Yuan, An Ran next to him heard something different, it seems that this matter is really extraordinary.

An Ran hurriedly stopped the girl in front of her, "Girl, wait a minute, don't worry, what I said just now was not aimed at you, but that this guy is sometimes too irritating, what I said was angry words."

Qin Yuan was also a little embarrassed, so he explained the ins and outs clearly, but he just omitted a lot, just briefly talked about the current situation that her adoptive father would harm Long Xiaoyun.

"An Ran, you should know me. I really have nothing to do, so I came to ask you for help. Because my side is also very special, so I want you to arrange her a place to live. If you are here, I am more Relieved."

An Ran gave him a blank look, "Okay, I already know, every time you come to me, even if you have something to ask, I don't bother with you, really, don't worry, just leave it to me."

Although An Ran complained, she was very relieved to hand over the man to Qin Yuan.

He turned his head and confessed: "We have been busy with tasks recently, but if I am free, I will definitely go to you. Remember, if he contacts you, you can call me."

Long Xiaoyun nodded, now she felt as if she had been abandoned by someone, after all she believed in Qin Yuan the most, but now she came to another person.

However, she still suppressed her emotions. After all, Qin Yuan was also thinking about the person in front of her for her safety, so it should be very reliable.

In this way, a week later, Long Xiaoyun called suddenly, saying that her adoptive father suddenly asked her to go home, mainly to see her current situation.

"Don't worry, you go back and stabilize him now, and see if you can let me pass by then, and you can talk about it from the side."

Long Xiaoyun did understand that she knew that Qin Yuan had his own purpose in doing this, and she also really wanted to find out why her adoptive father targeted Qin Yuan in this way.

In this way, Long Xiaoyun went back first, and when she got home, her adoptive father questioned her immediately, because An Ran hid her very well, after all, it was a secret in the team, and these things were kept by the masked man for a while. Can't investigate.

"Xiaoyun, what's going on with you? I sent someone to your school before, why haven't you been in school this week?"

"Father, I was really scared after what happened before, so Qin Yuan brought me back, and he arranged a place for me."

The man opposite was very excited when he heard this, he rushed forward and grabbed Long Xiaoyun, "Do you mean you live together?"

"Dad, what do you mean, what can you do? He is really very busy, but he protects me very well and arranges a separate room for me, but it is confidential, and I don't know where it is."

The man was a little disappointed when he heard this. He originally thought that Long Xiaoyun and Ruanyuan were already together, but he didn't know what other purpose he had. Anyway, he just wanted to get the two of them together as soon as possible.

Hearing this, the man was a little impatient, he threw away Long Xiaoyun's hand.

"This kind of progress is too slow, I can't wait at all, how do you do things?"

Long Xiaoyun was taken aback when she heard this, what's the matter? And at this moment, the gentle and elegant adoptive father suddenly changed his face, and roared loudly:

"Do you know that time is really critical for me now, but you've been wasting my time, you want to be with him, you know what I mean?"

As he spoke, he walked forward and held Long Xiaoyun tightly, she had no strength to resist at all, the man's strength was very strong, Long Xiaoyun was almost suffocated by his neck.

"dad..."

The man at this moment regained his senses the moment he heard these two words, and he quickly let go of his hand. At this moment, Long Xiaoyun was terrified. She didn't expect her adoptive father to directly attack her.

The man stepped forward to appease Long Xiaoyun, but at the moment she was frightened and kept backing away, until she was on the sofa.

The man could only shake his head quickly and explain, "Sorry, Xiaoyun, I scared you just now. I didn't have a good rest today, so I lost my composure, but Dad loves you, you should know."

Long Xiaoyun was still in shock, so she could only nod her head tremblingly, the man's appearance was too scary just now, and now, there is a deep pinch mark on her neck, the man's strength is enormous.

At this moment, the man seemed to have fallen into self-blame. He shook his head, and then sat on the sofa, "I'm very sorry, Xiaoyun, why don't you go back to your room first? I had some physical problems today, so I couldn't control myself Emotions."

Long Xiaoyun nodded, and hurried back to the room. After returning to the room, she tried her best to calm down her emotions.

The adoptive father just now is as valuable as two people. In more than ten years, such a situation has never happened, and he seems to be asking himself all the time, why not be with Qin Yuan?

Could it be that his purpose is to want himself and Qin Yuan to do that kind of thing?

At this moment, she calmed down instead. She should accept some things slowly, and she cannot just avoid them blindly. Now that it has happened, she has to choose to accept it.

In the evening, the door of her room rang, and the adoptive father turned back into the gentle man at this moment, holding a cup of coffee and some snacks in his hand.

"Xiaoyun, I'm really sorry. I did that to you during the day, but I still hope you can forgive me. This is what you like to eat."

"Father, although I don't know what to say, I'm your daughter, and it's normal for you to get angry with me."

The man stretched out his hand in satisfaction, and touched Long Xiaoyun's forehead. He looked very kind, without any violent state.

"As long as you can forgive Dad, it's really just because Dad is too tired from work."

After he finished speaking, he asked Long Xiaoyun to eat something again. Long Xiaoyun would listen to him obediently before, but now she pays attention to it. As long as he says it a few times, Long Xiaoyun will feel that there is something wrong.

She looked at the cake in front of her. Is there something wrong with these pastries? She took out a Ziploc bag and put one of the pastries into the Ziploc bag.

Now she even suspects that something has been dropped on these things, especially the cup of coffee, she dare not drink at all, she took out the thermos cup in her schoolbag, and poured the cup of coffee into it.

She sat quietly in the room like this until she heard footsteps on the stairs, she quickly lifted the quilt and went in, pretending to be asleep.

The door of the room was opened, and the man walked in, looked at the sleeping Long Xiaoyun, looked at the coffee and pastries that had been drunk on the table, smiled in satisfaction, and left.

It seemed that there were indeed problems with these things. The next day Long Xiaoyun said that she wanted to go to Qin Yuan. The man was very happy, and she just tested the man's reaction. It seemed that it was not the case.

Just like that, Long Xiaoyun found Qin Yuan and handed him the cakes she collected last night, "I was really scared to death yesterday, and he suddenly attacked me."

Qin Yuan was taken aback when he heard this, "Did he find any clues? Our secrecy measures are still relatively good."

Long Xiaoyun shook her head, told him the ins and outs, and also expressed her own doubts. She felt that her adoptive father wanted her and Qin Yuan to do that kind of thing, because that was what he had been concerned about recently.

"Although I don't know what he wants to do, it's really confusing to do so."

Qin Yuan understood a little bit, does also have something to do with the system? Did he want to extract some of his own genes? Or want to use something?

But the most important thing right now is to look at the food first, Qin Yuan took the thermos cup and the pastries in the sealed bag.

When he touched it, the system immediately made an analysis.

"Ding! It is detected that the host has come into contact with the system to release medicine, and this medicine is for all things."

"System, what is this thing? What is it for?"

"The effect of the drug is to clear part of the memory and then implant the user's planned memory."

I didn't expect to have such an effect, and it can directly change people's memory. This is something I can't even do, and it's a system, so it should be some kind of advanced system.

The main reason is that such a system can't recycle medicines, it recycles mainly skills, which are things produced by the system, so they can't be recycled.

Chapter 1087: plan

Qin Yuan didn't know how to explain to Long Xiaoyun in front of him. He could only calm her down first. Judging by her appearance, she was very frightened last night.

"But you must remember that in the future, you should not eat whatever he gives you, and you must be careful."

"Why did Tao become like this? Everything was fine before, why did he suddenly attack me?"

Long Xiaoyun's voice was already crying. She had already forgotten about this before, but the more she thought about it later, the more she felt that there was a problem. Why did it suddenly become like this?

Seeing her like this, Qin Yuan could only tell her the truth, because Long Xiaoyun was a very innocent girl, and he didn't want such a girl to be deceived any longer.

"Xiaoyun, listen to what I tell you, you must believe me, I don't know how to explain it to you, but I did detect that this one contains a memory-eliminating effect."

"How did you know?"

Long Xiaoyun looked at Qin Yuan in surprise, she couldn't believe it, did this count as a test? It will take time, right? He just smelled it like this, and he knew it?

"Xiaoyun, no matter what, I hope you believe me, because I will definitely not harm you."

At this time Long Xiaoyun nodded, she could trust Qin Yuan, because considering the previous events, it was indeed the case.

"Do you remember that I told you before that I can't remember his appearance and name at all? It seems that because of this, I always feel that a part of my previous memory is missing."

Now combined with what Qin Yuan said, it can be confirmed. It seems that every time her adoptive father feeds her this kind of food, and then changes her memory, no wonder she can't even remember the most basic things.

Thinking of this, she became more and more flustered, what should I do? She didn't dare to stay in that house anymore. In case her adoptive father did something to her and then erased her memory, she didn't know such a thought at all, it was really terrifying.

Her body trembled involuntarily, Qin Yuan could only calm her down and said: "According to what you said before, he won't do anything to you now. Yesterday should be just an accident. In this case, we might as well make a move." Show him the play."

Long Xiaoyun stared at Qin Yuan with a strange expression on her face, Qin Yuan whispered something to her, and in an instant, her face turned crimson.

"You must do what I said, so that it can prove it and protect you. After all, this guy is too cunning. If he is indeed the person I said before, it will be very dangerous."

Long Xiaoyun nodded, and at the moment the man on the other side was pacing back and forth anxiously at home, he was also worried that he was wondering if Qin Yuan would find anything, after all Qin Yuan was also a cunning hunter, that was his The most successful experiment.

Let him still call Long Xiaoyun, but at this time, Long Xiaoyun told him good news. She said that she is with Qin Yuan now, and Qin Yuan treats her very well.

The man was very excited when he heard this, and told Long Xiaoyun to stay there and call him for something.

After hanging up the phone, Qin Yuan was more sure that the man wanted to use his genes to do something, so he ordered Long Xiaoyun to show up.

And all this is to let Long Xiaoyun get close to him, and she is just a victim. Thinking of this, Qin Yuan sympathizes with the girl in front of him even more.

Long Xiaoyun is now in the living room of the troops below, because Qin Yuan and the others have absolute secrecy measures.

It's not a long-term solution here. At that time, Qin Yuan suddenly thought of Li Kang and the others. Just like that, he immediately contacted a few people, and Zhang Meng also rushed over. Qin Yuan told them what happened.

Zhao Tao even patted his chest to assure that he was absolutely fine and that he would be able to protect Long Xiaoyun's safety. He is a boxing champion.

Now Long Xiaoyun is very important, so he hopes that everyone will work together to find out the murderer behind this scene.

He turned his head to look at Zhang Meng and asked, "Do you have any medicine that can resist this kind of memory eradication?"

Zhang Meng frowned, she could only say that she was trying to see, just like that, she searched in the system for a while, and then she was pleasantly surprised to find that her system could actually produce such a healing medicine.

However, its effect can last for seven hours, seven hours, even if it is exposed to such a drug, it will not cause any memory damage.

While the few of them were discussing, Long Xiaoyun walked in, and everyone's discussion came to an abrupt end. After all, they have systems on them, and this secret must not be known to others.

"Qin Yuan, there is something I want to tell you."

"I know what you want to say, don't worry, I will protect you and will never let you be threatened."

"I know this, I'm thinking, I have to go back in two days, if I don't enter the tiger's den, I won't get a tiger's cub, I know this person is very important to you, and he is also important to me, I also want to find out, so for this I'm not afraid of danger."

I really want to find out who his adoptive father is and why he did such a thing to her. More importantly, instead of being so worried every day, it is better to cooperate with them early and find out this person directly.

Qin Yuan looked at Long Xiaoyun in surprise. She was very scared before, and she didn't want to go back no matter what she said. She didn't expect to change her words now.

"Xiaoyun, are you really willing to go back? That place may be really dangerous for you."

"I know you will protect me. This time, I still choose to believe you. If I don't go, it will arouse her suspicion. Why don't you do what you say? After that, I will tell him when I go back. "

Qin Yuan nodded, and then took out the pill Zhang Meng gave him, "I thank you for trusting me, but I also tell you that this person is very important to us, I admire your courage, but I will also protect you ."

Qin Yuan told him to take this pill after returning home, and the medicine that adoptive father used on her would not have any effect.

Zhang Meng took out another pill and handed it to her with a proud face, "This pill is capable of detoxifying all kinds of poisons. It can remove any toxins, but it lasts for 24 hours, so it should be able to last."

The first time Long Xiaoyun saw these things, she couldn't help being very curious. She had never heard of these things before. Is there really such a magical thing?

Zhang Meng quickly explained to the side that they are biopharmaceuticals, and the drugs they have researched are all secret formulas that have just been developed recently.

Because of Qin Yuan, Long Xiaoyun also believed it, and another three days passed like this, and the man at this moment was also very anxious, he didn't know if he had waited for the result.

He couldn't wait to call to inquire. The more anxious he was, the more sure Qin Yuan was of his judgment. In this way, a few days later, Long Xiaoyun returned home and began to confess to him.

Like a child who did something wrong, she lowered her head on purpose, and then whispered: "Dad, I am really sorry for your upbringing. I didn't expect that I would also become a disobedient child. Qin Yuan and I ..."

The man was very excited when he heard this, and he stood up directly from the sofa, "Have you guys already had a relationship?"

"Yes, but it's really not what I want. I didn't expect it to become like that. He drank alcohol, so we didn't do safety measures. I'm scared now..."

The man was even happier when he heard this, he stepped forward cautiously, and helped Long Xiaoyun onto the sofa.

"Son, listen to me telling you that this matter has nothing to do with you. Since it has happened to you, let's let it be. Since you like him, you might as well keep this child."

When Long Xiaoyun heard what he said, she felt extremely disgusted. What father would be so happy to know that his daughter had  with other men.

"Father, what are you talking about? But I'm so young now, and I'm still studying, how can I have this child?"

"This child has a life no matter what. Think about it, is this the truth? Are you going to hurt him like this?"

The man kept persuading him. He was very worried about what Long Xiaoyun would do. After all, he had spent a lot of effort on this child and for the arrival of this child.

Before, he asked his subordinates to look for Qin Yuan's children, but they have been in the military compound, there is no way to start, there has been no chance, he really can't wait, it is better to retrain them because of such risks. a child.

Long Xiaoyun originally had other uses, but now he can only use it first. As for the child, he needs to get the child with Qin Yuan's genes, maybe he can cultivate another Qin Yuan.

Qin Yuan is his most successful experiment carrier, and he can successfully integrate into the strongest military recovery system, but such people are not for him to use, so he is also trying to figure out a way now.

He thought it should be a problem with Qin Yuan's genes, so he desperately wanted a child with Qin Yuan's genes.

He has many adopted daughters like Long Xiaoyun, and most of them are used as his pawns in various places. He is still on the sidelines to persuade him, but at this moment Long Xiaoyun is disheartened and can only Match his performance.

"Father, it's still uncertain whether you are pregnant or not. Why are you so sure that you will have a child?"

"But that guy has recovered the skills of the Lion King!"

As soon as the man said this, he regretted it in an instant, and was a little excited. He told the truth. He had investigated Qin Yuan carefully.

So he knows some of his general skills, and he has recovered the skills of the male lion before, so his abilities must be fine, and he can definitely conceive.

It's just that Long Xiaoyun felt it was strange, the man quickly changed the subject, and then said that he wanted to make something for Long Xiaoyun, so that she could rest assured and protect Long Xiaoyun's emotions.

Taking advantage of this time, Long Xiaoyun quickly ate the antidote pills that Zhang Meng gave her, and looked at Long Xiaoyun's face with a smile on the food brought by the man.

If there were no previous incidents, Long Xiaoyun would still feel that the person in front of her was very kind, but now she just feels extremely disgusted.

The man was very worried that Long Xiaoyun would take other measures, so he kept her at home, and more than a month passed like this.

Long Xiaoyun was able to go out with the excuse of taking the courier, but she could only be near the community. She took out her mobile phone and looked at the photos she had secretly taken before, and she didn't know what happened. vague.

She remembered that it shouldn't be like this, suddenly she recalled that before, she also took pictures of men, but inexplicably, as long as it involved men, it was either blurred or automatically deleted.

Originally, she wanted to show Qin Yuan this photo, but it seemed useless. At this moment, Qin Yuan pretended to be a courier and handed her a courier.

"Xiaoyun, don't worry, we and Zhao Tao are always around here. If there is any situation, please send me a message, and I will be there as soon as possible."

It is definitely not possible to act rashly now, he is just one of them, and Qin Yuan has experienced the previous things, so he is more cautious.

The main worry is whether there will be another stand-in in front of him, so now I have to put a long line to catch big fish, and follow him back to other lairs, so I can get more clues.

After Long Xiaoyun returned to the room, she took out the pregnancy test stick that Qin had prepared for her in advance, and then she walked out with tears all over her face.

"Dad, what should I do now? I'm actually pregnant. I don't want this child. I'm still so young."

The man was even more excited when he heard this, he ran forward desperately and grabbed the pregnancy test strip, and smiled instantly when he saw the red line on it.

"Dad, why do you feel so happy? Isn't this a shameful thing?"

"Stupid boy, do you think Dad is such a rigid person? After all, this is someone you like I think it should be something to be thankful for."

The man had been calming Long Xiaoyun's emotions. At this moment, he suppressed the excitement in his heart. He snorted coldly, thinking that he still had to use this trick. After all, Qin Yuan was a man, and beauty tricks were the best way to use them.

A few more days passed like this, and the man didn't move at all. This time, he stayed at home the whole time. He had to ensure the safety of the child first.

But this is not good for Qin Yuan and the others. If it continues like this, this matter will be exposed. The next day, the man proposed to take Long Xiaoyun to the hospital for an examination, saying that it was for the sake of insurance.

Qin Yuan felt that something was wrong, it seemed that he had to act early now, and he had to stimulate the man first.

Just like that, Qin Yuan went straight to the door and rang the doorbell outside. After the man saw it in the cat's eyes, he couldn't help being shocked. He didn't expect this guy to come to the door.

If it was before, he wanted Qin Yuan to come to him, but now he can't, he can't let this matter be exposed, he must ensure the safety of the child, and ensure that the child can be born safely.

Chapter 1088: was taken away

When Long Xiaoyun heard the knock on the door, she was a little worried that Qin Yuan would suddenly barge in, so the man made a silent gesture, signaling Long Xiaoyun to keep quiet.

At this moment, everyone inside and outside the door was very nervous. Qin Yuan was wondering if he might be too anxious and startled the snake. After all, this was a rare opportunity to get in touch with the masked man so closely.

Fortunately, Qin Yuan knocked for a while and left without opening the door. The masked man in the room heaved a sigh of relief.

Long Xiaoyun went downstairs in confusion and asked, "Father, what do you mean? Since I'm already pregnant with his child, why didn't I tell him? Shouldn't he be responsible for this matter?"

"Silly boy, there are some things you don't need to understand, but I will find a suitable opportunity to tell you all these things."

Long Xiaoyun frowned slightly, she was a little anxious now, she really didn't understand what the person in front of her wanted to do? Her voice raised a few notches.

"I don't understand what you mean by doing these things now? If that's the case, I'm going to find Qin Yuan now."

Long Xiaoyun also wanted to stimulate her, to see what this guy wanted to do, but the man was suddenly very excited. He tightly grabbed Long Xiaoyun's shoulder, making her unable to move.

"Your child is really becoming more and more disobedient now. Let me tell you, you will make me very unhappy. I only like obedient people."

His tone was cold, and if he read it correctly, there was a killing intent in his eyes just now, Long Xiaoyun gasped when she saw it.

At this moment, she was a little scared, and the man suddenly changed his tone. He felt that Long Xiaoyun should not be provoked now, so he comforted Long Xiaoyun and asked her to sit on the sofa first, and he would explain everything to her later.

"Things are really complicated now. I need you to do my adoptive father a favor. You shouldn't know many things now, but you will know them later, and you will know my good intentions."

What he said was obviously to deceive Long Xiaoyun. If it was Long Xiaoyun before, she would definitely believe it, but after so many things, she has already been completely disappointed in the person in front of her.

After all, this guy just wanted to use her, so Long Xiaoyun didn't say anything more.

The man turned around and walked into the kitchen, expressing that he wanted to cook something delicious for Long Xiaoyun, and after a while, he came over with the soup from before.

"I feel that your mood has fluctuated a lot recently, which is likely to be caused by pregnancy, but don't worry, Dad will always be by your side, you drink this soup first."

While coaxing Long Xiaoyun gently, he was still the same as before, but Long Xiaoyun had long been wary, and she quietly took the pill Zhang Meng gave her.

It seems that this guy gave her some kind of memory-erasing drug money again, to erase her current memory and prevent her from being so excited.

Long Xiaoyun recalled that sometimes, as long as she ate what he gave, she would feel drowsy, and then she walked slowly to the room after drinking, expressing that she wanted to rest.

The man was still smiling like before. After a while, Long Xiaoyun felt that someone walked into the room and looked around.

Then the man answered a phone call, and said: "Now the matter is at a critical point, you send someone over, pick her up first, take her back there, let the team doctor take care of her, remember not to let anyone touch her, take care of her she."

Long Xiaoyun tightly covered her mouth under the quilt, she didn't expect this guy to make a move, she was very worried now and didn't know what to do.

Qin Yuan didn't know the situation here at all. She tried to send a message, but it seemed that the signal here was blocked, and neither the message nor the phone could be sent out.

After the man went out, she quickly got up to see if she could go down from the second floor, but the window was very small. His adoptive father said it was for her safety.

In fact, it was to imprison her, because there was an anti-theft cage outside, so she had no way of running out. Long Xiaoyun originally wanted to delay the time, but she wanted to go to the hospital outside because she was not feeling well tomorrow. Then take the opportunity to find Qin Yuan.

But the masked man didn't give her this chance at all. The person he was looking for had already arrived that night. Long Xiaoyun didn't dare to sleep at all. At this time, she heard footsteps coming from downstairs, and it seemed that there were several people.

These people went upstairs and took her away forcibly without saying a word. The woman next to her kept pulling her. Long Xiaoyun was very scared at the moment, and she looked at the man.

"You have to remember that as long as you are obedient, nothing will happen. Don't worry, I only did this to protect you. I will let the bodyguards take you to another place. You can stay there."

"But why would I go to that place?"

The man suddenly made a silent movement, as if a little impatient, "Xiaoyun, have you forgotten what Dad said before? As I said, I don't like obedient people very much, and they often end badly."

Speaking of this, the people next to her were unanimously afraid, and the woman holding Long Xiaoyun was trembling slightly, as if she was very frightened.

The man came over, patted the woman, and said, "You just have to be sure about some things, take good care of my daughter, understand?"

"Sir, don't worry, we will definitely do what you ask."

The woman turned her head quickly, "Miss, let's leave now, after all the cars are ready, and the place will be safe."

There was a hint of pleading in the woman's voice, as if if Long Xiaoyun didn't agree, something would happen to them in the next second.

In the current situation, even if Long Xiaoyun disagreed, there was nothing she could do. After all, she was already being pushed to the shelves, and so many people forced her to come.

And she didn't have a chance to resist at all, just like that, she was taken into the car inexplicably, and then these people were so cautious that they went around in circles outside, and came to a hotel just after dawn.

Long Xiaoyun thought that she would have a chance when she came out, but her mobile phone and everything around her were confiscated, and the women were so close to her that they followed her all the time, including after they entered the hotel, even sleeping women All in the same room as her.

In this way, Long Xiaoyun didn't have any chance to ask for help outside. She was very anxious now, wondering if Qin Yuan knew about her situation.

If he went to that place to look for him again, would his adoptive father be against him? And where she is going to be taken, these questions have been bothering her, she is getting more and more anxious, and her mood is very disturbed.

So Long Xiaoyun kept asking the woman next to her. Of course, no matter what questions she asked, the woman would not answer, just like a dead person.

In the end, Long Xiaoyun simply gave up. After tossing like this all night, she was already nervous, and the woman didn't tell her where they were going, but just told her to rest now.

Long Xiaoyun, who was so dazed, didn't know how long it took before she fell asleep in a daze.

She suddenly opened her eyes, how could she fall asleep at such a time? At this time, she should be vigilant, but when she opened her eyes, she found Qin Yuan sitting in the room.

She blinked quickly, then pinched herself again, worried that she might still be dreaming.

After confirming that it wasn't a dream, Qin Yuan also walked towards her with a smile, "I said, what kind of operation are you doing? Why did you pinch yourself just after waking up?"

Long Xiaoyun was a little anxious, she quickly turned her head and looked around, only to see that the woman had fallen to the ground.

"she!"

"Don't worry, she just fainted, now is not the time to attack, after all, we must ensure your safety, and avoid abusing others."

Long Xiaoyun was very surprised at the moment, she didn't know how Qin Yuan found her, and just came in so quietly.

Qin Yuan also made a long story short, he reassured Long Xiaoyun that as long as he cooperated with them, he would definitely follow her.

"You must not confront them now, you have to trust me, I will always be behind you."

Long Xiaoyun was moved in her heart, she didn't know how Qin Yuan did it, but this sense of security was really too much.

At this time, seeing that the woman was about to wake up, Qin Yuan confessed a few more words, then pushed open the window next to him and jumped out.

Long Xiaoyun went up to close the window, ran back to the bed and lay down, as if nothing had happened, at this time, the woman also woke up slowly, she leaned on the sofa and shook her head, feeling it was a little strange, so I quickly got up to check.

She came to the bedside and looked at Long Xiaoyun, making sure that she was still sleeping, there was nothing abnormal, and there was no sign of anyone around, she felt a little strange, she seemed to be under control just now, as if she was in a sudden loss of consciousness.

She opened the door and looked at the two subordinates outside, then asked strangely: "Did you see anyone coming in just now, or heard any strange sounds?"

"No, we've been at the door all the time, nothing happened, did something happen?"

The woman shook her head, did she think too much?

"Why are you all so vigilant? I always felt that something was wrong just now. Anyway, we must protect this woman. We will set off for the base in the afternoon."

It's just that what the woman didn't expect was that Long Xiaoyun, who had been noisy before, suddenly became very cooperative in the afternoon and let them go with them.

The woman thought that Long Xiaoyun had figured it out, and then said, "You have to believe, your adoptive father will never harm you, we are all here to protect you, now we will be safe in that place, no one will disturb us."

"Okay, I will follow your arrangements for everything."

Because she knew that Qin Yuan was right behind her, so now Long Xiaoyun didn't have any fear.

When they arrived at the base, it was already completely dark. They said it was the base, but it was actually a sewer entrance. I didn't expect it to be hidden so deep. It seems that the masked man also spent his money this time. He was worried that something would happen to Long Xiaoyun. After all, she already carries the gene, so she is the key protection object.

Just after those people went down, a figure flashed past, and Qin Yuan also went down quietly.

After entering, it is the usual passage. Qin Yuan listened to the movement ahead, and followed them quietly, all the way forward. The passage here is more complicated, and there is a foul smell around the sewer.

Long Xiaoyun covered her nose with some disgust, "Where are we going? Is this place really inhabited?"

But no one answered her at all, the woman just kept pushing Long Xiaoyun from behind, telling her to go faster, just like this, they came to an iron gate, the man took out the key to open the iron gate, and went in. From now on, it will be brightly lit and there will be some guards inside.

Long Xiaoyun was very nervous at the moment, she turned her head to look behind from time to time, she didn't know if Qin Yuan was behind in this environment.

Dozens of rooms, large and small, are separated inside, and it looks like an underground fortress. I don't know when it was built.

The woman was also very cautious. After bringing Long Xiaoyun in, she immediately took her to the doctor among them, because she had to make sure that there were no problems along the way.

"Where are we going now? Why do you keep urging me to go, don't you mean to protect me?"

"Yes, please stay calm, miss, we must protect you, and now we are just taking you to the doctor for a routine checkup."

Hearing this, Long Xiaoyun's heart turned cold. If she went to see a doctor, everything would be exposed, and she didn't know what to do.

"No, I don't want to go to any doctor, I just want to rest now, I don't want to go there."

She tried to use this nonsense method to escape, but the woman ignored her and stretched out her hand to press her.

"You can't decide this matter, and this is also the order of the husband. If you don't listen to him, you know what the consequences will be."

The woman started threatening Long Xiaoyun. She had no choice but to bite the bullet, and she was taken to another room, where several doctors in white coats and masks were sitting.

Long Xiaoyun has lost all hope, she has been delaying time, but how could Qin Yuan appear in this place, there are so many guards outside them?

A doctor next to her asked Long Xiaoyun to pull up her sleeves to draw her blood. Long Xiaoyun raised her head to pray, but met a pair of familiar eyes.

She was sure that the person in front of her was Qin Yuan, and at this moment, Qin Yuan shook her hand to reassure her that he had always been by her side as he said.

Long Xiaoyun breathed a sigh of relief, she didn't know how Qin Yuan did it, but seeing him at this moment, she really felt at ease.

Because after Qin Yuan came down, he found that the people inside did not have a system, they were all ordinary guards.

If he had a system, his system would send out a prompt. He didn't know what kind of base this was. It seemed that the man in the mask was really cautious.

Chapter 1089: mask man appeared

Unexpectedly, the woman in front of her suddenly walked in. In this case, she didn't let her go.

"Let me tell you, you all have to give me a good check. If there is something wrong with him, Mr. will not let you go."

The two doctors beside him had been controlled by Qin Yuan, so they just nodded mechanically, and at this moment Qin Yuan was pretending to draw blood for Long Xiaoyun.

"Don't worry about that, now I'll take her inside for an examination."

Unexpectedly, at this moment, the woman frowned suddenly, and then stretched out her hand to grab Long Xiaoyun, "Wait a minute, why haven't I seen you as a doctor before, I am familiar with everyone here, take off the mask Come down and let me see."

I didn't expect this woman to be so cautious. Long Xiaoyun's heart almost jumped into her throat. She became more and more nervous. After all, if she took off the mask like this, she would be discovered. Unexpectedly, in the next second, the woman Suddenly, as if losing meaning, he stood at the door.

She turned her head and was taken aback when she saw it. What's going on?

Qin Yuan pulled her, and then said: "Now let's make a long story short, you just need to remember what I said, this base should not be their repeat, so I can't rescue you now, do you understand what I mean? But I will protect you."

Long Xiaoyun nodded, but what she couldn't understand was that the people next to her were still standing. Wouldn't it be possible for them to find out?

"But they are all here, won't they be discovered?"

"They have all been hypnotized by me, so there is no problem at present, but you must cooperate well. I will issue a fake certificate later. Now just prove that you are pregnant, and then lure out the man behind the scenes."

"I'm really weird about that man. Although I took the medicine Zhang Meng gave me, I still can't remember his appearance."

This should be a system problem, so even Zhang Meng's medicine doesn't work, maybe he used something, which has already impressed Long Xiaoyun deeply, and there is no way to change it.

It can only alleviate her current poison, and the best way at present is to use Long Xiaoyun to lure out the man behind her. As long as she catches this guy, the matter behind her will be solved easily.

Zhao Tao and the others are waiting outside, because Zhao Tao is more capable than others, and they also want to find out what is going on with this system.

There are too many things involved in it, so Qin Yuan didn't bring the red blood cell team, otherwise he could apply to the above this time, but it involves the system, so it's hard to explain.

This time he acted alone, he wants to lurk here first, the most important thing for you right now is Long Xiaoyun.

"Xiaoyun, you can stay here with peace of mind. Don't worry, I will always be by your side. If there is any problem, I will always be behind you."

Long Xiaoyun nodded, and opened her mouth to remind Qin Yuan to pay attention to safety, "You should also be careful..."

At this moment, there were footsteps coming from outside the door, Qin Yuan made a silent movement, and then two people came in, exactly the two people from yesterday.

"Why did it take so long? What are you doing?"

The man was obviously a little impatient, Qin Yuan said: "This is a routine inspection, which is very complicated in the first place. My husband told me to be careful. If something goes wrong, can you take care of it?"

The two of them didn't say anything after hearing this, and retreated silently. At this moment, they didn't notice the woman standing on the side, their eyes were dull.

The two went outside to smoke, thinking there were other doctors inside and nothing could go wrong in this place.

Qin Yuan explained some other things, and took out some pills given by Zhang Meng. After all, in this place, I don't know what they will use to control Long Xiaoyun.

So it is better to prepare more pills for her interpretation, after all, it is impossible for Qin Yuan to appear by her side often.

After doing all this, Qin Yuan snapped his fingers, and within two minutes, the woman woke up. She felt very puzzled why the previous feeling reappeared, and she seemed to have forgotten something during this period.

At this time, Qin Yuan, who was wearing a white coat, came out and handed her an inspection report.

"There is nothing wrong with him, everything is normal and the baby is fine."

The woman took the report card, looked at the inspection results on it, and walked out with Long Xiaoyun.

After going out, Long Xiaoyun was taken to another room. Although this is an underground fortress, the room has everything in it, and the things are quite well prepared.

Thinking that Qin Yuan was also here, Long Xiaoyun didn't have much fear. Long Xiaoyun sent this material to the masked man and told him that everything was normal.

The masked man was very happy when he received the call, "This is part of my plan. You must protect this child well. After eight months, when the child is born, all problems will be solved."

"Okay, sir."

"If something goes wrong with this woman, especially if something goes wrong with the child, then you know the consequences for both of you."

When the woman heard this, she couldn't help but shudder, and then she wanted to make sure that she would protect Long Xiaoyun and the child.

But the masked man is indeed cruel enough, he actually wants to experiment with a newborn child, this guy is completely crazy to the extreme.

He really couldn't wait, he wanted to see if it was related to genes, if it was indeed related, then he would cultivate this child into a killing weapon exclusively for him.

At this moment, Qin Yuan is at home in this base. After all, his identity is also changing at any time. He sneaked into the computer room quietly. Although it is not an important fortress in this kind of place, he should be able to find some clues.

Sure enough, he found some experimental materials in it, but they were all left over from a long time ago. After Qin Yuan saw it, he was even more shocked.

Unexpectedly, this so-called system plan had already started 30 years ago, and someone was implementing it. The plan written in that document was not very detailed. Qin Yuan only learned a general idea, which was an organization called Celestial Body.

They were originally a machine technology biological company, and their main research was robotic machinery manufacturing, but by accident, they created a set of all-round systems.

At that time, the concept of the system was still very vague, so these people started to experiment, but most of them had a rejection reaction and had just been implanted in the human body.

Immediately there was death, and later on they kept improving their research, and kept conducting secret experiments like this.

And during this period, they have developed various systems, and these systems are based on the degree of genetic enhancement of the individual. They cannot determine the strength of the system, but can only be determined by themselves.

Because the initial system implanted into the human body is completely blank, it is mainly determined by human genes. When the individual is stronger, the implanted system will also become stronger.

The above is the general idea, and other things are not involved, including some experimental data, only you have been destroyed. It seems that this base was a main experimental site before.

It is also mainly because Qin Yuan has world-class hacking skills that he was able to find some clues and materials from 30 years ago. Although they were destroyed at that time, Qin Yuan tried his best to restore them now, but only to this part.

Qin Yuan always felt that he was about to catch an important clue, and now as long as he found that masked man, all problems could be solved.

In this way, more than a month has passed, the masked man has never appeared, and Long Xiaoyun is also a little anxious. Qin Yuan has not looked for her for more than a month, mainly because she has never been out of the room. Movement has always been restricted.

Moreover, in this underground fortress, where there was no sunlight, Long Xiaoyun felt that she was going crazy.

In the evening, someone came to deliver food again. Long Xiaoyun's aura was so low that she didn't even raise her head, "Didn't I say that? There is no need to deliver food to me tonight, I don't want to eat it."

Unexpectedly, the footsteps were getting closer and closer to her, she raised her head, unexpectedly it was Qin Yuan.

Long Xiaoyun was very excited, she ran forward and hugged Qin Yuan, "I thought something happened to you, do you know how I've been through this past month? I'm really scared and very Worry."

"Are you so unconfident in me? I have never broken my promise. I said I would protect you, so I will protect you."

"But what should we do now? Do we really have to wait until eight months later? Then this time is too long, and it is easy to reveal our secrets."

Qin Yuan nodded, he thought the same way, he couldn't sit still like this, it seemed that they had to take the initiative, so Qin Yuan came here this time to talk about this matter with Long Xiaoyun.

At this moment, the masked man is in another base. He is still preparing for experiments. After all, this child is not the only hope. He is still looking for various people to conduct experiments.

Unexpectedly, he suddenly received a call saying that there might be something wrong with the child in Long Xiaoyun's womb, and he needs to come and take a look.

The masked man was a little angry, and he asked directly and loudly: "How do you take care of it? You can't take care of just a woman. I really don't know what you are doing for food?"

"Sir, the main reason is that he didn't cooperate. In the past two days, she started a hunger strike. No matter how much we persuaded her, she refused to eat, because she felt that it was a kind of imprisonment for her."

"Is it imprisoned? Then let me show her what real imprisonment is."

The masked man was very angry at the moment. He made a fuss in the laboratory, because he hated being interrupted by others when he was doing experiments, but he didn't expect this kind of thing to happen.

In this way, he rushed directly to the base, and rushed into the room when he arrived. At this moment, Long Xiaoyun was very nervous.

This is what Qin Yuan told her, as long as the man is attracted, Qin Yuan will appear in the future, and then control the man.

Because what he cares most about now is this child, so no matter what the masked man is for, he has to take a look first, at least to calm his emotions.

After seeing him, Long Xiaoyun quickly stood up, "Dad, what's going on? Why did you bring me to this place? I just want to go back, I don't want to be here anymore."

Unexpectedly, for this sake, the masked man didn't say much, he stepped forward and slapped Long Xiaoyun on the face.

"Do you know what you're talking about? Why do you think I've raised you for so many years? Let me tell you, this child is very important to me. No matter what, you have to give birth to him."

Long Xiaoyun was completely stunned, the man was very angry now, he kept yelling, if it wasn't because Long Xiaoyun was pregnant with a child, he might be even more violent.

At this moment, the door was suddenly opened, and the masked man yelled loudly. After all, he had explained before that no one was allowed to enter. Unexpectedly, a figure rushed in front of him and knocked him down.

After Qin Yuan saw the man, he was sure that it was the masked man who had escaped from his hands twice before, because although the man was wearing a mask at that time, he would never forget those eyes.

The masked man didn't expect Qin Yuan to rush over. At this moment, the masked man suddenly burst out laughing.

"I figured it out. All of this is a trick you set up, but I'm curious when you found out, and you didn't suspect her."

"Actually, it was because you were too anxious that you showed your flaws. I just want to know how long you will continue to carry out such a crazy experiment."

"You can kill me, but I can also tell you that we will meet again."

Qin Yuan was taken aback when he heard this, what nonsense is this guy talking about? He held down the masked man tightly, worried that he would escape from his hands, and then let the system detect whether there were people with the system around.

The system has been tested and there is no system in the vicinity But why can the masked man speak so confidently?

"Let me tell you, don't play this trick on me. I never believe in these things. What do you want to do?"

The masked man on the ground looked at Long Xiaoyun, "I really didn't expect that after raising you for so many years, it seems that I was not cruel enough before. I should completely implant the program in your mind, and you are completely obedient."

Long Xiaoyun was completely confused, what program was implanted? These things are too complicated for her.

Just when she was wondering, she suddenly felt that her mind went blank, and just like that, Long Xiaoyun fell on the bed behind her.

The masked man who was pressed on the ground by Qin Yuan snorted coldly, "It seems that you are still afraid of her knowing, I just want to say, if the things on your body are known by those outside, will they accept you or be afraid of you? Don't you think you're a monster?"

"It's all your fault. What the * are you trying to do? You bastard."

"You don't need to know about this yet. You were indeed one of my favorite experimental subjects back then, but you were out of my control."

Chapter 1090: the child is missing

At this time, Qin Yuan's system suddenly issued a prompt, "Remind the person in front of the host that it is likely to be a cloning manufacturing system, and it has been detected that he has a cloning gene."

Now Qin Yuan understood instantly, no wonder this guy is so fearless of death, and if counting this time, this is already the third time he has been caught.

Also, I personally killed him before, but I didn't expect this guy to appear again. It seems that it is really a clone. Even the one in my hand is not the real body. Thinking of this, Qin Yuan immediately let go of his hand.

Because it doesn't make any sense at all, you can't catch the main body, and they are all counterfeit goods, which is useless.

The man on the ground laughed loudly, "You are really smart. It should be said that your system is very powerful. It seems that you should have figured it out."

"I just don't think it's necessary to waste time here with a replica. What do you want to do? This endless harassment continues."

"As long as you are willing to cooperate with me, everything will be fine. Don't you want to see the real me? Then you can choose to cooperate with me. Of course, you will definitely not suffer."

"This condition is never possible!"

Since the one in front of him is also a clone, Qin Yuan invaded his system directly. Even if this guy will have a self-destruct program in the end, he will try his best to find some useful clues.

The man in front of him didn't expect Qin Yuan to be so direct. Qin Yuan directly invaded the man's consciousness, and he was instantly controlled.

Qin Yuan only saw a so-called celestial body plan, followed by a burst of black and white in the man's mind, and fell to the ground twitching and dying immediately after a while.

This is really too fast, it really is a clone, but how many clones like this are there? Qin Yuan only felt that the conspiracy behind this was really getting bigger and bigger. Now that he can even clone the main body, he doesn't know what else he cloned.

And if there is no accident, this base has been exposed, and it will adopt the self-destruct procedure as before, so Qin Yuan hurriedly took Long Xiaoyun out, and waited for Long Xiaoyun to wake up.

She found herself lying on a big bed, and the surrounding decoration can be regarded as relatively luxurious, not the one in the basement before.

There was a sound of footsteps approaching her slowly, she turned her head and found that it was Zhang Meng, unexpectedly they came out.

The first thing she asked Qin Yuan after she got up, Zhang Meng told her not to worry, "Wait a minute, don't worry, Qin Yuan is fine, he has an urgent task now, so he returned to the team."

"Then how about my adoptive father and those people here? Was he injured?"

No matter what, the man has also raised Long Xiaoyun for more than ten years. Although he said that before, he still has feelings. She is also very concerned about her adoptive father's situation now. Long Xiaoyun can be regarded as a relatively simple person.

Zhang Meng didn't say anything, took out an envelope and handed it to her, "Qin Yuan asked me to hand this over to you, he said you would understand after reading it, and asked you to stay with us in the future, don't worry, we will protect you."

Long Xiaoyun opened the letter. Apart from some concerned words, the letter contained a general description of her adoptive father's situation. Qin Yuan said that his adoptive father had escaped with several people in the underground, so he is very uncertain now.

In order to protect her safety, he could only put her here with Zhang Meng first, and said that he would definitely come to her later.

Qin Yuan can also be regarded as a white lie made up. He can't tell her that her adoptive father is a clone, and she won't believe it.

So the most important thing now is that things here are getting more and more complicated. If he can even clone other people, including his so-called base, how many are there?

Moreover, it was cut off once again. Originally, he wanted to use the last information of the clone to find out what was behind, but the program inside was too advanced, and his intelligence was fully activated, so Qin Yuan had no chance at all.

But when he was struggling, the system suddenly issued a task.

Now his meritorious value is 36,000 points, and the system has given a task, that is, when his meritorious value breaks through 100,000, he will be able to get an upgrade. After the upgrade, the system will get a reward, which is specifically for cloning technology.

So now Qin Yuan needs to take on more missions, and then recover the merit points, and then redeem that reward after recycling.

And in the next few months, there was no news of the masked man behind him. Qin Yuan remembered the man's appearance, but he couldn't find any useful information about this man.

Qingyuan has been busy recently, and all he can think about in the future is meritorious things, because this cloning situation must be resolved as soon as possible, and every time he catches it is a replica.

On this day, they had just finished their mission and were on their way back when the system suddenly sounded a notification.

"Ding! Congratulations to the host for reaching 100,000 merit points, the system is being upgraded, and the biological cloning technical manual will be rewarded after the upgrade is completed."

Within a few minutes, the system was completely upgraded. This time, its system seemed to be stronger than before. Qin Yuan just touched the armored vehicle in front of him casually. Immediately, the various functions of the armored vehicle and even the wear and tear were revealed. .

Now that his system has been upgraded, it can be completely intelligent and analyze automatically, which is more convenient than using skills by himself.

Now he has completely merged with him, and then the manual also appeared in his mind. After he clicked to accept, the manual quickly integrated into his mind.

Unexpectedly, this biological cloning technology can directly identify cloned people, and can also change the program of cloned people to manipulate cloned people.

Qin Yuan was very excited when he saw this. Originally, he thought that this cloning technology was mostly for him to understand the operation of this kind of cloning, but he didn't expect that it could be recognized. That's really great, and it can be manipulated.

As long as he meets that masked man next time, he will definitely not let him go, so he can find his lair and follow this clue to investigate.

As for Long Xiaoyun, it's not a problem for her to live with Zhang Meng and the others. Qin Yuan's work is also very busy, basically he hasn't seen anyone for half a year.

Long Xiaoyun also quietly went back to the house where she lived before, and the building was already empty, and her adoptive father seemed to have evaporated, without any news.

On the other hand, when Qin Yuan saw his daughter again, the child was already able to run and jump, and would be able to go to kindergarten early next year.

The suggestion of the two old people is to take the child to the city and let him go to a better kindergarten. Qin Yuan has no objection, as long as he cooperates with the application.

When Gao Shiwei heard the news, he frowned, "I don't think it's necessary to be so troublesome. The kindergarten here is also pretty good, so let's just stay here, just to be safe."

"Captain Gao, you also know that I owe this child a lot. I have never been with her all this time. The child will go to kindergarten in a blink of an eye. Neither An Ran nor I have taken her a few times."

It was because of this Qin Yuan that he felt guilty, and he wanted his children to receive a better education. Since An Ran's parents had said so, he did not have any objections. Besides, with him around, it was generally not a problem.

Gao Shiwei remembered what happened when An Ran was pregnant, so he was a little scared. He was worried that An Ran or Qin Yuan would be retaliated by some criminals.

At this time, Li Erniu happily ran in with a child on his back. It turned out that the old couple brought the child to Qin Yuan, and the guard had already arranged it in the reception room.

"Brother Qin, look at how energetic your little brat is!"

Gao Shiwei had a sullen face just now, the moment he saw the child, he immediately walked over with a smile and lifted the child up.

"Hey, what we do is this job. There is nothing we can do with this job. We are destined not to be able to accompany our family, but don't worry, I will greet you over there."

The child is really likable, with two braids tied into the sky with a smile, very cute.

After all, in the army college, the children who grew up in the college don't recognize anyone, and they are happy to hug her, especially those who wear camouflage uniforms and military uniforms, they are very kind.

"By the way, since the child is going to kindergarten, what's the name, have you decided?"

Qin Yuan walked over, patted the child's head, and said, "It's already been decided, it's called Qin Ran!"

Gao Shiwei couldn't help complaining when he heard this name, "The two of you have your surname and An Ran, and you two arranged for other people's children. It's really perfunctory."

"After all, there are two of our names in it, which is also very meaningful."

Gao Shiwei waved his hand, didn't bother to talk to him, and walked out with the child in his arms, "Come on, Uncle, I'll take you to see the tank."

The child was very happy, danced and danced, and had a sweet mouth, and called people everywhere, making everyone laugh. It can be seen that An Ran's parents really take care of the child and educate the child well.

Qin Yuan looked at the child in the distance, but felt more and more guilty. He really lacked company for her. The old couple just wanted to wait for the real kindergarten later, and there was no time, so they brought them here to meet Qin Yuan. deep.

After dinner, the old couple planned to take their children back to the compound of the military region. It was getting dark and the children were clamoring for sleep. In this way, Gao Shiwei personally arranged for two soldiers to drive them back.

Originally, Qin Yuan wanted to send them there, but in the end, he received the task temporarily, and the old couple asked Qin Yuan to take care of his own affairs first. Anyway, it's not far away, and there will be nothing wrong with this distance.

The child said goodbye to Qin Yuan with sleepy eyes, if it was very cute, now that he has grown up, he looks more like Qin Yuan.

On the way to perform the task, He Chenguang couldn't help teasing from the side, "Brother Qin, you are really happy now, just look at this daughter, she is very good, and she is so good, it makes me want to get married and have children."

"But there is nothing we can do in this profession. We are destined to lack companionship, but everyone in our team must hurry up. I don't want you to stay single all the time."

When everyone talked about this topic, they couldn't help laughing. It was relatively easy to divide them into groups along the way, but when Qin Yuan and the others came back from their mission, they found Gao Shiwei's face was a little dignified.

When he went to report to work, Gao Shiwei was a little absent-minded.

Qin Yuan felt something was wrong before, "Captain Gao! What happened? Why do you feel that something is on your mind?"

"Qin Yuan, don't worry, I have already asked Xiaoyun and the others to go out and look for it."

Qin Yuan panicked when he heard this. Could it be that something happened to the child, he stood up abruptly, "Captain Gao, please tell me quickly, what's going on, what's wrong with the child?"

Under Qin Yuan's questioning, Gao Shiwei finally said that according to the driving distance, they should have arrived at the army compound in 40 minutes, but there was no call from there.

Originally wondering if he was delayed on the road, he waited for more than an hour, but there was still no news. Gao Shiwei was also a little anxious, but found that the two soldiers who gave him away could not be contacted.

Only then did Gao Shiwei feel that something was wrong, and immediately sent the Wolf Warriors team out to look for it.

Just as she was talking, Long Xiaoyun came in from the door, and when she saw Qin Yuan, she said directly: "Captain Gao, we found our jeep on the side of the road, but those two soldiers have already been killed." gone."

what!

Qin Yuan was very shocked when he heard the news. Those two soldiers belonged to their special operations brigade, so they were ambushed and killed!

"What about the people in the car? The child, and An Ran's parents!"

Long Xiaoyun shook his head. They searched all the way over there, but they didn't find any traces. It seemed that they were taken away directly.

Because except for a brake mark next to it, nothing else was found, and that section was originally a mountain road, and there was no monitoring.

After Qin Yuan ran out immediately assembled the red blood cell team, no matter what, even if he was walking, he had to go step by step.

"Qin Yuan!"

No matter how Long Xiaoyun yelled behind him, he didn't respond. Now he is very anxious. After all, he is his child. He is really afraid of something happening. The first thing he thinks of is the masked man, that bastard!

Gao Shiwei behind shook his head, "Forget it, you quickly take the team and follow him, and then send everyone out to search around there together."

Long Xiaoyun also ran out quickly. When everyone knew that the child was missing, they couldn't help but twitched, because everyone knew what it meant, and being so blatant, it must be targeted.

After all, the two of their soldiers were driving a military jeep, and they were still wearing uniforms, so they were very targeted.

Qin Yuan has been forcing himself to calm down now, he must grasp the only clues so far.

He looked at Long Xiaoyun next to him and asked: "After you went to the scene, what was the cause of the death of those two soldiers? And what was their method of killing?"
