

Special Soldier 1171

Chapter 1171: Elimination begins

He Chenguang didn't worry at all, and ate rabbit meat in small bites.

"I said you kid, don't worry about it, sit down quickly, and when you watch a good show later, remember your brother Qin's majestic appearance now."

"Brother Chenguang, but this is not the way to drink, is it? Is there really no accident with so many people? I am worried about his health."

"You brat, you still have a bit of conscience, but don't worry, do you know that there is a man in the Marine Corps known as Dionysus?"

Qin Zhengyang thought about it. He had heard of this person before when he was training in the sea training ground. It is said that he is a person who can drink seven or eight bottles of white wine without getting drunk.

"It was the talent known as Dionysus who was drunk by Brother Qin in one round. Not only him, but also the two commanders."

Qin Zhengyang was a little surprised when he heard this, but seeing Qin Yuan's confident appearance, he also sat down beside him.

Soon, people from the special police team came over carrying seven or eight boxes of liquor, which were Song Lin's treasures. They had made a great contribution before, and they were rewarded by the superiors, but they were never willing to drink.

Song Lin walked over with a smile, and patted the box, "Captain Qin, look how long I've been here, and the degree of making baijiu is very high, how about a competition between your team and us? Actually, it's not a competition. , just let everyone have fun."

There are so many of them, it's really embarrassing to say it's a competition, Li Erniu bowed his head to eat meat, and didn't respond at all, they knew it wasn't their business now.

"Captain Song, I think you must have misunderstood. I didn't say to let the people in my team drink with you, but I will drink with you alone. These boys can't drink."

Song Lin was completely shocked by this sentence, what's going on? Isn't it a joke that he wants to drink with so many people in their special police brigade by himself?

Qin Yuan didn't talk nonsense, walked over to open the box, and directly picked up a bottle of white wine, "I ate too much rabbit meat just now, it's a bit greasy, just to quench my thirst."

Then he drank a bottle of baijiu like this, without changing his face, everyone was completely stunned by this operation, feeling that what he drank was not baijiu, but boiled water.

Liu Qiang was so surprised that his eyes widened. He also picked up a bottle and took a sip of the strong smell of wine. A puff burst out of his mouth in an instant. He coughed up tears from the stimulation of the strong wine.

After drinking a bottle of white wine, Qin Yuan picked up another bottle, "How about you guys? Since you are happy today, let's drink together, come on."

In this way, others use cups, but he uses bottles. This is the first time Qin Zhengyang has seen this kind of scene, and Li Erniu and the others have long been familiar with it.

"Calm down, now you know how powerful your brother is? By the way, you go to the infirmary to get some glucose to sober up those boys."

It's only been a few rounds, and the SWAT team members who were still very loud before have already drunk some.

Qin Yuan couldn't drink from a bottle and they couldn't drink from a cup. In the end, even Song Lin's huge amount was poured directly on the table.

However, Qin Yuan came over and continued to eat meat just like a normal person. This amount of alcohol was no problem for him at all, after all, he had the ability to stay drunk for a thousand glasses.

He Chenguang counted the number of people at the side, "Brother Qin, it seems that you have broken the record again this time. You have completely defeated the previous record. You have drunk all these guys."

"It's just a trifle, hurry up and eat the meat, and follow me to set up the venue after eating."

Anyway, just in time for them to get drunk, it is estimated that these guys will be able to sleep until noon tomorrow, and he just took the team to set up the training venue, which is not good for their special police brigade.

He has re-applied for a training ground, which is an old training ground before, but it has not been cleaned for a long time, so now he needs to go to clean it up.

The elimination of training like this is mainly for the daily training tasks of their special police. They have also had some basic training before, so the foundation is pretty good.

Qin Yuan intends to select the team members he wants as soon as possible within a week, start to speed up the training process, and set up this assault team as soon as possible. After all, this is his first step, and there are other assault teams that he has to complete step by step.

After Qin Yuan brought the red blood cell team members to the training ground, it was already late at night. When he went back, those team members had already been taken back to the dormitory, and the sentry at the door was sweating profusely.

To be honest, they had never seen such a drinker. Now that Qin Yuan came in with a normal face, they couldn't believe it. This is too exaggerated. A person who drank several boxes of liquor in a row.

Indeed, as Qin Yuan expected, these guys slowly woke up at noon the next day.

Song Lin woke up in a dazed state, and he was woken up by the emergency assembly whistle. When he checked the time, he was even more stunned. It was already two o'clock in the afternoon.

The instructor also came in dizzy, "Captain Song, you're finally awake."

"What's the situation? Why didn't anyone call us today?"

"Captain Song, don't say you don't know, I don't know what's going on. I'm still in a dazed state. I drank too much last night and don't remember anything."

Song Lin shook his head, trying to think back, anyway, he only remembered being brothers and sisters with Qin Yuan at the end, and he really couldn't remember anything after that.

"This kid is really good at drinking. What is his stomach made of? It can hold so much liquor!"

"These are nothing. He is gathering our people now. I don't know if the group of boys can handle it."

Hearing this, Song Lin quickly stood up and looked out the window, only to see that the members of the red blood cell team on the playground were ready to go, and everyone stood in a row waiting for their team members to assemble.

Everyone also rushed down to assemble. Yesterday they eliminated a total of 34 people. Except for a few who quit, the total number of players training now is 50 people.

Although the selection this time is mandatory, Qin Yuan can't stop others from quitting.

While looking at his watch, Qin Yuan watched them assemble. Everyone was so drunk that they finally assembled. Qin Yuan waved at Qin Zhengyang who was opposite.

"I see that you are sleeping too comfortably. If this is the case, I will help you sober up."

Then Qin Zhengyang directly opened the water valve, and the strong water pressure rushed towards the team members below, and the team members standing in front were directly knocked down by the water pressure, and everyone was taught to be drowned for a while.

Qin Yuan stepped forward and stepped on the shoulder of a team member, "Stand up! Just this little pressure, you can't bear it!"

Everyone stood up quickly, and the water pressure continued for ten minutes before the water stopped hitting.

"How is it? Are you awake? I think you are really too indulgent. I thought your biological clock should be strong. I didn't expect that you wouldn't wake up if I didn't blow the whistle!"

Everyone knew that they were wronged, and they didn't dare to say anything more. Even if there was resentment in their hearts, they could only endure it silently.

"Forget it, if this is the case, I will give you a small punishment. After all, you young masters have slept until this time, so let's do some exercise and warm up. Let's do 20km first."

This time it was 20km straight, and everyone was completely stunned. Now they were still carrying equipment, and they were poured with water just now. A lot of equipment was covered, and they also had a cross-country 10km.

But there is no other way, everyone can only follow suit, Liu Qiang is also reluctantly persevering, to be honest, he has indeed sobered up a lot, but after the hangover, the physical strength of the next day is really affected.

And Qin Yuan asked them to run to 20km, which was almost at the training ground. He didn't drive with the red blood cells, and the team members ran to the side.

"Remember, at the finish line, I only need 45 people!"

After finishing speaking, he led the team members to copy ahead. At the beginning, some members of the special police team wanted to overtake them. Everyone was competing with each other, but after a long time, they fell behind obviously. This kind of physical strength is not at all. one level.

Liu Qiang looked at the small captain who was still fighting, and hurriedly stepped forward to remind him kindly: "Captain, let's not be brave, we won't be able to escape them at all, and we should save our energy. He just said, as long as..."

Before he finished speaking, he was interrupted by the captain.

"That's enough. I don't want to hear what you, a traitor, are saying. You're such a fool. It's only been a while, but you've just fallen to the other side. Get out of here."

This captain still does his own thing. He insists that he has been the squad leader for so many years, and his physical fitness has always been the strongest. How could he fall behind in this situation?

Liu Qiang shook his head helplessly. He really wanted to remind them kindly, because the distance of 20km is indeed too long. Usually, they should have no problem. consume.

In addition, everyone still has a lot of water on their bodies, and it is the most difficult thing to persist in the future. You should maintain your physical strength for a long time and prevent your physical energy from being consumed so quickly.

In this way, under the leadership of the small team leader, some old team members could not hold on anymore, and everyone began to slow down. The main reason was that the temperature was very high at this time, and the moisture on their bodies was mixed with sweat. Together.

The 10km distance is not all asphalt roads, there are also many uneven mountain roads, everyone slowed down completely at the back, and even Qin Yuan and the others couldn't see their shadows.

It's already reached this point. After all, it's the beginning of the selection training. No one wants to lose at the threshold. They all know that five people will be eliminated in the future, so in the final sprint stage, everyone started to work hard.

The team leader, who had been in the first place before, was slowly falling behind. He was a little anxious, but his physical fitness had completely declined. No matter how he adjusted his breathing, he became more and more flustered as he watched the team members surpass him one by one. .

Liu Qiang didn't care so much. He promised Qin Yuan before that he must do his best, so his physical fitness has been kept in the final sprint.

When he ran into the training ground, he saw Qin Yuan and the others sitting on the playground, looking at him with a smile.

He fell to the ground gasping for breath, and the team members behind came in one by one. Qin Yuan and the others also walked to the door and began to count the number of people.

Everyone became more and more nervous at the end. At first they were teammates, but now they gradually turned into a competitive relationship, because there is competition and there will be elimination.

Finally, Qin Yuan counted the number of people, and after the 45th person came in, he directly closed the door.

No one from the team leader ran in, Liu Qiang turned his head to look, and sighed helplessly, there was nothing he could do, he had been reminded before.

"It seems that you are faster than I thought, but well, you said that my standards are still far behind. Now continue, don't lie on the ground for me."

Before everyone had time to catch their breath, they were forced to leapfrog on the ground again, and everyone began to dance in a circle around the playground.

When the team leader ran over, he saw the door was closed and smashed the door unwillingly, but what could he do? He couldn't believe that as a veteran player for so many years, he was eliminated.

It's just like what Qin Yuan said, if you just hold some ideas of achievement, you will be eliminated in the end. What they need is innovation, what they need is elites, and elites are multi-faceted talents.

The training inside is still going on, it's all about basic physical fitness Qin Yuan wants the team to be very strong, it's not going to work according to their situation.

At this moment, the system issued a beep.

"Ding! Remind the host, there is currently a training manual for all-round arms in the system mall, do you need to exchange it?"

There is also such a good thing, Qin Yuan's eyes lit up instantly, he was still thinking about what kind of training he should use, he had a general direction in his mind, but it would be better if there was this.

He quickly clicked to view This manual is not expensive, and only needs 3000 merit points to exchange it.

Without the slightest hesitation, he quickly clicked on the dialogue, and clicked to view it in his mind. This training manual for all-round arms really helped him a lot. It included not only for special police, but also for firefighting and public security investigation.

It also saves me from being unprofessional in some aspects, and avoids being questioned by others. With this manual, I am completely invincible.

And according to the training in the manual, it is absolutely possible to form an elite team.

He probably read the basic training in a manual, which was similar to what he had planned in his mind, so there shouldn't be any problem.

Some of the team members below couldn't hold on any longer. They ran cross-country and added such frogs. After jumping a few times, some team members fell beside them.

Qin Yuan just asked people to take away the fallen players, and the training continued.

"Your physical fitness is really bad. What I want to exercise now is your physical fitness. Now I have a good news for you. I forgot your roster at the camp, so you run back now and give the roster to the camp." I'll bring it back and come here again!"

Chapter 1172: Start moving the dummy

Hearing this, the team members just now became angry instantly, isn't this purely a joke? The distance of 40km back and forth, is he joking? Moreover, for such a long distance, all of them are mountain roads, and the roads are not easy to walk.

Some people were not convinced in an instant, but everyone was afraid of Qin Yuan's strength. Although some people were not convinced, no one dared to speak.

In the end, they had no choice but to leave. Just as they were about to leave, Qin Yuan said again, "Remember what I said, bring back all the ten comrades in the roster and the playground, and bring them back safe and sound!"

Everyone was even more confused when they heard this. What are the ten comrades in the middle of the playground? Although I don't know why, but in this case, I have no choice but to start first.

Just as Qin Yuan walked over, He Chenguang threw an apple over, "Brother Qin, I said, if you punish those boys like this, will they plot against you?"

"That's where you are. You didn't come here like this before. Besides, you were deceived by me very rarely."

Everyone just laughed, this is just a turn of events, and the team that Qin Yuan wants to select, in a real sense, is much stricter than this, it's just the needs of different varieties.

It was already afternoon when they set off, and by the time they went back halfway, it was already time for dinner, and they hadn't eaten in the morning, and everyone was hungry.

Some people in the team began to complain, "This is really too exaggerated. We also talked about the selection before, but his selection is completely against the rules. He directly trains us to the death. He only goes 60km in one day. This is too exaggerated."

"Speak less, keep your strength, and bring something back quickly, maybe you can make it in time for dinner."

"I said you can really bear this anger, but I can't bear it. Don't you resist?"

This team member talked about it for a long time, and found that no one agreed with him at all. Although everyone was just complaining, they didn't take any practical action. Everyone should run and keep running.

Liu Qiang walked over and patted him on the shoulder, "If you want to continue training, then keep your strength, talking will only consume you, why not hurry up."

"Go away, you despicable villain, you are just a traitor, you have been bought by others in a short time, you are not worthy to stand with us at all."

Liu Qiang didn't expect that he had kindly reminded him to adjust his breathing, but he was misunderstood and humiliated like this, and he was instantly angry.

But not only this player, but also some players around him began to deliberately isolate Liu Qiang to come, but some old players from before had some understanding of him.

But the more this is the case, Liu Qiang doesn't care anymore. Anyway, what Qin Yuan said before is that the strong are destined to be lonely. Since he has misunderstood, he doesn't bother to explain.

When they ran to the side of the brigade. I did see the roster on the table, and then I saw the ten so-called players.

What team is this? All are ten dummies, and 80 kg dummies.

Seeing this scene, they were completely stunned. There was a team member standing beside them, responsible for guarding these dummies. After seeing them coming, he stepped forward and said:

"You are finally here. This time Captain Qin explained before that the ten dummies are seriously injured and need to be escorted back safely by you. No damage is allowed."

At this time, they noticed that there were some balloons tied to the dummy. Good guy, this is simply too harsh. In this case, 80 kg, they cannot have any violent behavior.

Otherwise, it is easy to cause the balloon to burst, and you can only use the unit price or the way of carrying it, but 80 kilograms, and a 20km mountain road, they have gone back and forth for 40km, which is really too difficult.

Just when everyone was looking at me and I was looking at you, Liu Qiang stepped forward first and carried a dummy on his back.

"What's the use of talking about that now, hurry up, it's getting dark now, if you don't go back, it's going to be completely dark, and the mountain road will be even more difficult to walk."

What Liu Qiang meant was that they can take turns now, and each person takes turns carrying the back until the end of the physical exhaustion, and then use the unit price, after all, the unit price affects the speed.

Originally, this was also a good suggestion, and he also kindly reminded him, but when someone in the original group saw that he was not convinced, he stood up and said:

"Wait a minute, why do you want to be the first one to carry the back? Everyone knows that the back now is definitely easier than the back."

When Liu Qiang heard this, he was so angry that it was too exaggerated. Did he do something wrong? Being targeted by them like this, but there was nothing he could do. He turned his head and stared at them coldly.

"I was just offering an opinion, it doesn't matter whoever wants to recite first."

"You really know how to count, so if that's the case, why don't I carry you to the back first."

After such a quarrel, they finally set off with the dummy on their backs, and the other team members also took over the equipment of the players carrying the dummy. After all, if the equipment is added, it will weigh 100kg, which is simply unbearable.

Liu Qiang's idea was indeed good, but gradually the speed of the team slowed down, because the load was 80 kilograms, it was not a joke, and the dummy would always slide down, so it was necessary to constantly adjust the posture, which was wasteful time.

After one of the team leaders saw it, he took out the rope from his body and asked everyone to fix the dummy directly on the body. This would reduce the speed at which the dummy fell, and they could also speed up their pace, because it was completely dark now.

On the other side, Qin Yuan was taking the roasted whole lamb test in the courtyard. No matter how much they tossed, they were tossing, but they had to comfort them, otherwise no one would really want to do it.

"How long do you think it will take for them to come back?"

"Brother Qin, I think this situation will take at least two hours. After dark, the mountain road is more difficult to walk, and they are carrying heavy loads. The main reason is to see if they have a united heart. If they can unite, it will be faster."

He has also conducted such a test on the red blood cell team before, and everyone's speed is very fast, because this rescue is what they should do, especially these special police members, they should also be necessary for rescue in the mountains.

They have rotated the dummies three times along the way, and in the end everyone's physical fitness has completely declined, so they had no choice but to put on stretchers.

After the stretcher was put on, the movement speed of the entire team was significantly reduced, because the stretcher required two people to share it.

When going uphill, an accident happened. Because of the imbalance between front and back, he was partnering with another team member, but Liu Qiang was in the uphill position.

He lowered the stretcher as much as possible to reduce the pressure on the team members behind, but he accidentally turned the dummy on the stretcher over.

On the side is a small hillside, the dummy fell down in an instant, and the balloons on the waist and shoulders were punctured in an instant. They couldn't control that much, so they rushed down and pulled the dummy up. Look at the damaged balloon, everyone Also at a loss for a while.

"What should I do? The balloon burst."

"Did you not cooperate just now? Obviously I am in an uphill position, so you won't raise it any higher. I have already lowered it as much as possible, which is why I am unbalanced."

"You still have the nerve to tell me, did you cooperate with me in front? My speed will not slow down, and the pressure is all on my side. How can I control it?"

"Obviously you are not capable enough, but you insist on dragging me and you as teammates. It's really unlucky."

Liu Qiang's ability is indeed strong, but he is quite young and vigorous to be honest. Before Qin Juan said that he wanted him to be the team leader, he had very high demands on himself. He couldn't accept the situation, and originally wanted to achieve perfection.

Everyone, look at this damaged dummy, if you go back like this, you will definitely be punished. After all, with Qin Yuan's personality, this matter would not be played like this, otherwise he would not ask everyone to go back with a complete dummy.

A small captain in the team quickly stood up and told them not to quarrel.

"Okay, now is not the time to quarrel, everyone, think about it quickly, what should we do now? Since the balloon has burst, that guy will definitely have nothing to do when we go back."

"What else can I do? I can't find two new balloons to install, can I?"

"Well, when we go back, we will say that the quality of the balloon itself is not good. We have been very careful during the handling process, but it was still damaged."

This reason can be said to be relatively good. Everyone has traveled 60km back and forth today, and they don't want to be punished after returning. Liu Qiang was a little hesitant at first, but he wanted to tell the truth. After all, it is disgraceful.

"What you said is a bit wrong. No matter what, we have to tell the truth. After all, this is training. If it is the real situation, do you think we can fake it?"

"Why don't you have a good heart, boy? I will explain to you kindly and tell you how to solve it. Besides, you are not the only one who is involved. Everyone will be implicated."

Speaking of this, everyone looked at Liu Qiang and regarded him as an enemy. After all, they didn't want to go back and be punished.

In the end, Liu Qiang could only choose to remain silent, because he saw everyone's attitude. If he stood up now, he would truly become a traitor.

It was already completely dark, Li Erniu leaned against the wall, and finally saw a few figures.

"Brother Qin, those boys are finally back. The speed is indeed about the same as we expected, so it's okay."

"That's the way to go. They will suffer a lot tomorrow. If I want to train, I will train the strongest soldiers."

When everyone arrived at the door, they could smell the smell of barbecue. They hadn't had enough water in the morning, and they were even more hungry now. They stepped up quickly and rushed into the training camp. After entering, they saw Qin Yuan roasting a whole lamb, He Chenguang and the others next to him were examining other meat skewers.

Qin Yuan looked at the team members with a smile, "How is it? There are no problems along the way?"

Speaking of this, everyone felt a little guilty about it, but the team leader just talked about the situation, saying that everything about the dummy was an accident. They were very careful during the transportation, and accidentally touched by a tree branch, so There were only two breakages.

Everyone is very worried about being punished, because they are all exhausted now, and it is simply unbearable to receive other punishments.

Qin Yuan didn't say anything, stood up and took a look at the dummy. Only after a glance did he know that the side of the dummy was scratched by the tree branch, and the other wear and tear was obvious, which was caused by falling down the hillside. Yes, because there are a lot of gravel on the hillside.

This group of boys is really interesting, if you don't dare to take responsibility for doing something wrong, even if you want to fool yourself, he just stared at them coldly.

The dismissal whistle has never been blown, but the two sides have been confronting each other like this, and the smell of barbecue next to them has made everyone unable to bear it.

Qin Yuan looked at the small captain, then turned his head to look at the crowd, "Give you another chance, what's going on? Tell me well."

Although there are lights in the training camp now, the light is not as good as in the daytime. The team leader looked down at the dummy, and there should be no problem. He suspected that Qin Yuan was cheating them.

In the end, he gritted his teeth and said firmly, "Report! There is absolutely no problem."

"Since there is no problem, then stand."

Qin Yuan simply walked over, picked up the knife and began to cut up the roasted whole lamb, and ate the meat. At this time, he was still arguing, and he had given them a chance just now, and these guys didn't cherish it.

It took another ten minutes like this, and some team members couldn't hold on any longer. They were already tired all day today, and in the end they couldn't help it. Finally, someone stood up and began to admit that Liu Qiang also felt that it was obviously his fault.

Liu Qiang also stood up and said that he accidentally fell down the hillside that's why the dummy was damaged.

Seeing that someone came out to take responsibility, the other team members breathed a sigh of relief. No matter what, if someone is responsible, at least they shouldn't be punished.

Unexpectedly, Qin Yuan didn't play cards according to the routine at all, he still sat in his seat, and then said, "I have given you a chance before, and you are a group, one person makes a mistake, and everyone is responsible, and you also Everyone is here to lie to me, and the two hundred push-ups start now."

When everyone heard two hundred push-ups, their hands trembled instantly. This is too exaggerated, how could it be possible? This guy said before that he would not use the requirements of their special forces to demand himself, such requirements are too harsh.

The team leader who spoke before was instantly unhappy, and he was actually blaming himself in his heart. If he had told the truth before, it would have been different, and instead caused everyone to be punished.

In contrast, Qin Yuan, the instructor, is completely like the King of Hades, and all his requirements are customized on the spot.

"I don't think it's fair to do this. It's true that we are a group, but I came up with the idea. I'm the main person in charge. It's fine for a few of us to do it? There's no need for everyone to work together."

Chapter 1173: Interference training begins

Liu Qiang thought it was his fault at first, so he didn't say much, and he was already doing push-ups on the ground. The others were already very tired. Everyone, you look at me, I look at you, and they are still indifferent. Qin Yuan stood up at this time stand up.

"It seems that you still don't have any concept of a group. If one person makes a mistake, all of you should bear the responsibility. It seems that you should understand it from the beginning."

The squad leader was very unconvinced, and he threw his hat on the ground.

"I know you are very good, but you said before that you would not use the special forces' requirements to deal with us, but what is this now? Today we have traveled a full 60km, and we are still helping these dummies."

Qin Yuan smiled, it was obvious that he didn't know his depth, and it seemed that he really had to show them off.

"First of all, if you are wrong, you are wrong. If he is a real person, because of your mistake, this person may directly lead to death. Who will bear it?"

Speaking of this issue, everyone began to feel silent. What Qin Yuan said was indeed the truth. Now they are just training in simulation. If this happens, the injured will die directly because of their rescue. After all, in that Under the hillside, it is really possible to die because of their mistakes.

That is a human life, and no one can bear it, so they should be thankful that today is just a training, not a real rescue. If it is a real rescue, they will have to bear even greater responsibilities.

"Every time I tell my players, during training, every training should be viewed as actual combat, because you can make mistakes last year, but if you make a mistake in actual combat, you can't bear the consequences at all."

Qin Yuan's voice was very intimidating, echoing in everyone's heart, everyone began to lie on the ground silently, doing push-ups.

At this time, Qin Yuan also made a posture and lay down on the ground, "I know what you are thinking, since I am the chief instructor, I am also willing to accompany you."

He wanted to tell these team members that this time, he did not use the requirements of the special forces to ask them, but the basic requirements. He just hoped that they could learn a lesson.

"You make 200, I'll make 500!"

Having said that, who can say anything more? Just like that, he began to do push-ups. Qin Yuan did it very fast, and the team leader in front was completely shocked. Is that still a human arm? Unexpectedly so strong, without the slightest fatigue.

Qin Yuan had finished all 500, and some people hadn't finished 200. He stood up, adjusted his hat, and arranged his clothes.

"And let me emphasize again, in the future training and elimination, I don't want to lie like this again. This is not training for you, but punishment!"

After the push-ups were over, these team members were exhausted, and everyone started to eat hungrily.

According to Qin Yuan's plan, their foundations are actually good, and the difference is not very big now, but he just wants to choose the strongest among these small differences.

Under such high-intensity training, everyone has no time to think about anything. Now they just want to finish eating quickly and go back to rest.

But after eating, everyone was completely stunned. After all, this is the training ground. It is impossible to let them go back to the brigade to sleep.

Qin Yuan looked at the team members and said with a smile: "The stars are good tonight. If this is the case, everyone should bring sleeping bags and camp on the spot."

When the team members below heard this, they gritted their teeth with hatred. This guy is completely a devil coach.

Judging by today's situation, it is estimated that it will rain at night. How can they be in any mood? They just slept here in the open air, but what can they do? Everyone is already very tired. No one said anything more. They opened their sleeping bags silently. start to rest.

And Qin Yuan led the team members into the opposite training ground, where there was a temporary shed.

Zhao Gang, who was on the same team as Liu Qiang before, saw this scene and began to curse secretly.

"Look at how proud they are. They slept in it, and we're exposed to the wind and sun here."

"What can I do? After all, he is an instructor, can he compare with us? Go to bed quickly, I don't know what training will be tomorrow."

"This is a butcher. It's too ruthless. You can see that my feet are completely covered with blisters. I have trained before, but I am not so ruthless."

At first, everyone was thinking about having a place to take a hot bath or something, but it was completely useless, and now they were all tired, and they didn't know what to say, and everyone quickly fell asleep.

At this time, Zhao Gang looked around, and then said, "Should we arrange a sentry post, should we just sleep like this?"

It also reminded everyone that Qin Yuan likes to play surprise the most, and he didn't remind him. It seems that sentries should be arranged in this place, but everyone is already very tired.

"Let's see it this way. I'll be on duty in turn. I'll be on the first shift first. Each person will take an hour. You only need to draw seven people. If you don't make it today, how about continuing tomorrow?"

Qin Yuan was observing in secret, and he admired what Liu Qiang said. Although this kid is a new team member, he can already see his leadership ability at this time, because in the previous selection, their former kid The captain has already been eliminated by three.

Everyone also felt that this method was really good. Now Qin Yuan was completely frightened. Originally, Qin Yuan wanted to sneak attack them at night, but since he had already arranged guards, there was no need for them. Let them sleep well.

It was a safe night like this. When it was almost dawn, it suddenly rained lightly. Everyone had no choice but to quickly put away their sleeping bags.

After the sleeping bag was put away here, and the equipment had just been arranged, Qin Yuan came out, yawning.

"Everyone, it's very early today. It's very good. I think the weather today is also very good. It's suitable for training."

Everyone was speechless, but the weather was still applauding. The temperature in the morning had reached below zero, and everyone was shivering from the cold.

In this case, if they wanted to run, it would be better for them to be honest, as long as they ran, they would get hot. Unexpectedly, Qin Yuan didn't play his cards according to the routine.

"I'm also thinking about everyone. After all, you can't train in the rain. Now everyone has entered the shooting training ground in front."

Everyone was stunned when they heard this. The weather is only 5:30, the visibility is very low, and it is still raining. It is crazy to go to design training now.

When everyone came to the training ground and saw the horoscope, they were even more desperate. This training ground has definitely been passive. The training ground they usually design is even closer than this. The distance is 800m, although the distance of 800m is a regular training, , but it is difficult in this case.

Qin Yuan asked them to get ready, check the ammunition after the guns were released, and then assemble the guns first, and then start shooting. There will also be eliminations during this assembly training, that is, it needs to be completed within 30 seconds from assembly to firing.

And it is necessary to hit the target accurately, because the situation of hitting the target will also be used as a point of assessment.

Such conditions are simply too harsh, and in this case, the goals of these players are different, just like the formation they formed before, there are blasters, snipers, assaulters, and the level of marksmanship is even higher. It is different.

This seems a bit unfair to their blasters or assaulters. After all, this is a test of marksmanship and stability.

What Qin Yuan is training is their ability to cooperate. The team members he needs are not divided in detail as before, but each individual can be subdivided and can be changed anytime and anywhere.

Just like in their team, He Chenguang is a sniper, but if He Chenguang falls, any one of Li Erniu, Wang Yanbing, and Qin Zhengyang can stand up and be a sniper.

What he needs are all-round players, not players who specialize in one. In this case, the players he trains are no different from their previous teams.

Everyone also started to group and got ready. Li Erniu started timing beside him. This part is a test of everyone's psychological quality.

The main reason is the low visibility, coupled with the low temperature in the morning, many people are shivering with cold, they not only need to control their trembling hands, but also hurry up to complete the assembly as soon as possible.

Qin Yuan was somewhat satisfied with their results. The performance of the first group was not bad, but the accuracy of shooting still needs to be retrained. There is no problem in terms of assembly and speed.

In this way, after the assessment of several groups, in this design, another ten players were eliminated, and the team was reduced in an instant, leaving only 40 people.

The shooting training in the morning had just ended, and in the afternoon they conducted infiltration training. This infiltration training was mainly prepared for rescue.

Qin Yuan took them to the building behind the training ground. There were many white table tennis * and buildings hanging in the building, and the overall decoration color was somewhat reduced to one.

The test this time is their precise training design, which mainly judges each person's performance based on the number of shooting and table tennis balls. For these special police members, marksmanship is also quite important.

They need to shoot again under the interference of the outside world, Qin Yuan distributed a small manual to everyone.

Unexpectedly, they were all phone numbers, and they needed to memorize the numbers. There were letters before the numbers. They would rather ask questions from time to time. While asking questions, they had to accurately hit the table tennis numbers hanging in front.

It can be said that this level tests not only marksmanship, but also psychological quality. Can it be disturbed by the outside world?

Under the interference of such numbers, the ping-pong  were also hung with numbers. After they finished answering, they had to quickly find the numbered ping-pong ball Qin Yuan instructed to shoot.

It was really difficult. In such a state, the first pair of players in the front was completely eliminated. In just one day, 16 people were directly eliminated.

Regarding the number of eliminations, some people in the team had doubts and dissatisfaction. After all, this is completely a large-scale elimination. If the training continues like this, there will be no more than seven players left, not one left.

However, Qin Yuan also patiently explained to them that what he wanted was the elite among the elites. Everyone was already very familiar with the basic training. What he wanted to test was more psychological quality. What he wanted was the players he wanted. Rather than the team members that everyone thinks.

Only those who can withstand such interference can be called strong in heart, and can stand up as a temporary captain at any time.

Finally it was Liu Qiang's turn. After he closed the book, he was still silently remembering the numbers.

Qin Yuan walked to him slowly and asked him to aim at the target first. The ping-pong  were full of numbers, which was indeed a disturbance to them.

He suddenly asked a question, "Recite the phone number code-named c and code-named f, and then shoot at the number seven."

Liu Qiang's memory is quite superhuman. He recited two strings of phone numbers truthfully. However, under such interference, he had completely forgotten the number of the order he just gave. When he was hesitating between seven and nine, , I still believed in my first instinct.

He shot directly at the ping-pong ball with the number seven, passed the first level without any risk, and he was instantly relieved. Under such interference, it was indeed too difficult, and the test was a very strong psychological quality Zhao Gang in the same team was not so lucky. While reciting the numbers, he even reversed the numbers, and then he hit the target accurately when shooting.

It's a pity that the target is not the number plate that Qin Yuan said. He is really not very sensitive to numbers, so he is at a disadvantage.

Zhao Gang was not reconciled, so he was eliminated on the first day of training. In the brigade, he was considered a top pacesetter, but he did not expect to be eliminated on the first day here.

He stood up to apply and wanted to come for the second time, but was directly rejected by Qin Yuan. Faced with this situation, he had no choice but to stand by silently. At this time, another team member also made a mistake, but he It was a mistake when reciting the number, but the goal was accurate.

Qin Yuan gave him another chance. Seeing this scene, Zhao Gang became unhappy instantly. Wasn't this deliberately aimed at him? Why give others a chance, nothing will work for him, this is too discriminatory!

Zhao Gang stood up angrily and said, "Wait! You're doing this a little unfairly, right? Why did you agree to give him a chance and why didn't you give me a chance? Isn't this too discriminatory? It's not fair at all!"

"Oh, then what do you think is unfair? You are different from the beginning, you hit the wrong target, which is equivalent to asking you to rescue the hostages, and you killed the hostages."

This... Zhao Gang was speechless when he heard this, but no matter what, he still felt a little unconvinced, because the difficulty of such interference was too great, and Zhao Gang felt that this metaphor was very inappropriate. The right one is just a number. If it is a herringbone, how could it be shot by mistake.

Chapter 1174: Shock everyone

Liu Qiang was originally on the same team as Zhao Gang. Seeing this scene, he couldn't help standing up to speak for him, because Zhao Gang's performance is usually very good, and it is very likely that this time it was a mistake.

"Instructor Qin, in fact, Zhao Gang is very good in training. He and I are teammates. I hope you can give him another chance."

"What? Are you questioning my judgment, am I wrong? I am the rule here, and I have absolute fair judgment."

Liu Qiang was stunned by this sentence for a moment. After thinking about it carefully, he had indeed crossed the line. No matter what, Qin Yuan was also an instructor, and he was just a player who was being trained, so he was not qualified to raise such a condition.

Before, he just regarded Qin Yuan as a friend, but how could Qin Yuan be so simple? The deterrent power he carries is relatively strong.

Especially in the eyes of willingness in terms of professional skills, there is absolutely no room for any sand, and Zhao's performance just now is unqualified for him.

Zhao Gang pulled Liu Qiang and shook his head, "Qiangzi, it's fine, don't talk nonsense with this person, since you lost, you lost."

He didn't want to implicate his brother, so he stood aside silently, but his eyes were full of anger. No matter what, he just didn't accept it. It was a small mistake for him. How could he bring this matter to a close. Killing the hostages was completely nonsense, and it was absolutely impossible for him to make such a mistake.

Although Qin Yuan is powerful, at this moment, following his questioning, he actually began to doubt Qin Yuan's professionalism.

In this way, the first half was eliminated, and it was completely over. There are only 37 people left in the team.

For everyone, this number of people is already a high probability of elimination. With so many people eliminated every day, it is impossible to know how long it will last. However, for Qin Yuan, he only needs seven players.

It was completely over, and when Li Erniu was counting the number of people nearby, Zhao Gang finally couldn't help but stood up directly.

"Wait a minute, Captain Qin, I am very unconvinced about this matter. Although you have always said that you have the final say, you must always talk about the principle of fairness. There is no fairness at all in your elimination system. !"

"What do you mean by this? I just said very clearly that the eliminated players can go anywhere to complain to me, but my rules will not change, and I will not lower my rules because of some people's complaints. "

He not only warned again, but also warned others, and at the same time reminded them that the real rules are higher than this, and Qin Yuan is not afraid of their complaints at all.

Zhao Gang was so angry that his face was flushed. Qin Yuan's intention turned him into a villain who could only complain, and he bullied him even more when he came out.

"I didn't mean anything else, I just think it's unfair, can't we make mistakes at all? And you are in this situation, can you do it?"

Before Qin Yuan could speak, Zhao Gang suddenly retorted: "By the way, I forgot, you can indeed do it. After all, you are special forces members. Before you kept saying that you don't need to ask us for such a request, but now it has always been so."

Because of this guy's instigation, the players who were eliminated just now were also a little dissatisfied. Everyone began to whisper, they felt that such conditions were too harsh, and it was not practical for them at all.

Especially in terms of shooting, they obviously have snipers inside, why do they make everyone a sharpshooter, so he doesn't know the rules, so he thinks it's unfair.

Qin Yuan knew that they would think this way, after all, they had already followed the previous traditional model, and there was no way to make changes.

I suddenly let them change, so most people can't accept it.

Qin Yuan didn't say anything, walked to the side, took off the blindfold, covered his eyes directly, then mixed their phone books together and threw them on the ground.

"There are dozens of phone books, each of which has a different number. You can pick one at random, and you can interfere like just now, and I am blindfolded to shoot."

Everyone was stunned when they heard this. This is simply impossible. For blindfolded shooting, you must first determine the target. The key is that there are too many targets here, there are ping pong * everywhere, and the numbers are not arranged the same.

Under such circumstances, it is absolutely impossible for the target to be involved. Zhao Gang also felt that Qin Yuan was joking.

"Captain Qin, if you do this, will you feel that we are too bullying? No one of us forces you to do such a thing. It will be you who will lose face if you don't get hit."

"Hahaha, I didn't expect you to worry about me. Don't worry, just take care of yourself. I'm absolutely fine."

Seeing Qin Yuan's confident appearance, Zhao Gang murmured in his heart, could he really do it? But how is this possible?

Liu Qiang didn't dare to say anything beside him, but walked over cautiously, and pulled him, "Brother, let me tell you, if you really don't hit by then, both sides will be very embarrassed, and it's a way to save face for everyone. Either way, he's the leader."

He spoke in a very low voice, but Qin Yuan still heard him. What he couldn't stand the most was that others underestimated him, and it was because of this kind of thing.

Qin Yuan suddenly roared: "I don't need you to tell me what I want to do here, but you just need to do what I say."

Qin Yuan's voice was very loud, echoing in the empty training ground, and everyone dared not say anything for a while. Zaogan could only bite the bullet, when he was about to go to the front to find the phone book.

A team member who was eliminated in the back also walked out with a face full of disbelief.

"Wait a minute, I don't think the situation is fair."

Everyone turned their heads to look at the speaker. This guy was Yang Ming, a member of the third team. He has won three shooting championships for three consecutive years. Unexpectedly, at this time, in front of his strongest shooting, he was defeated eliminated.

So it was inevitable that he would be unconvinced. The people around him were talking in low voices. Li Erniu only felt ridiculous when he heard it. The so-called shooting champion they talked about might not even be half of the usual level of their special forces team.

Hearing Li Erniu's laughter, this guy was even more unconvinced, pointing at him directly and saying:

"I know that your special forces do have something on them, but there's no need to look down on people like this." Gu Hao

"This is really a big joke. I can't do it myself, so I don't allow others to say it. What's the situation? It seems that your special police team is also in vain."

Hearing that the other team members here are somewhat unconvinced, this is too exaggerated. It was fine to target them personally before, but now they are named and said they can't do it. Who can swallow this breath?

Yang Ming's meaning is very simple. He feels that the reason why Qin Yuan is so confident is because he has received a lot of training, including the phone number here. If he has been disturbed by long-term training, he will already know the number by heart, For them, even if they are blindfolded, it is unfair.

When Qin Yuan heard this statement, he couldn't help laughing out loud. This is really the first time someone said this, and it's too exaggerated.

But, if they have such doubts, then they have to dispel their doubts.

"I think so, then you can ask me any questions to interfere, all questions, any questions are fine."

Yang Ming was waiting for this opportunity. He knew before that Qin Yuan of the red blood cell team really deserved his reputation. Those numbers must be no problem for him, otherwise he would not do such a confident thing.

"Okay, Captain Qin, this is what you said, but if you really can't do it, then you can't blame us."

"If I don't answer, if I don't do it, then I will allow you to advance five more places, but..."

Everyone was very happy when they heard that there were five places. This opportunity is very rare, and Yang Ming felt a sweat for himself. He must make it difficult for Qin Yuan. They fight for five more spots.

Qin Yuan couldn't wait, and Yang Ming also started to ask questions. He and Zhao Gang glanced at each other, and then said directly:

"How many millimeters is the armor-piercing capability of the Type 59 main battle tank?"

Qin Yuan almost laughed out loud when he heard this question. Didn't this kick him directly on the steel plate? If you ask yourself a professional question, that's absolutely fine.

"The armor-piercing capability is 480mm, and the launch distance is 2,000 meters."

Yang Ming continued to ask questions. He gave Zhao Gang a look with his eyes. What he wanted to grasp was the loophole mentality. While he was asking questions, he quickly said the numbers when he was not paying attention.

Qin Yuan had already seen through their little trick, and he didn't care at all. Zhao Gang also quickly said the number nine while asking a question.

As soon as the voice fell, the bullet hit the opposite ping pong ball, which represented the number nine, and was directly broken. This was too accurate, and everyone on the field was instantly stunned, because most of them did not hear the prompt of the number.

Yang Ming was also very shocked. Isn't this speed too fast? He was blindfolded, so he should have hesitated before. After all, if he was blindfolded, he didn't know the approximate position of the ping pong ball, and he should have hesitated when it came to numbers. It was completely messed up.

He was a little unwilling, so he asked a few more questions one after another, still experimenting with this method, but he didn't expect Qin Yuan to be right with every single shot.

All the targets were completely hit. In the end, everyone was speechless and the audience was silent. After Qin Yuan took off the blindfold, the audience burst into applause. This marksmanship is too accurate!

Although Zhao Gang was eliminated, his mouth couldn't close in surprise. He couldn't believe that someone could shoot blindfolded with such an idea. He could completely hit such a difficult range.

He looked at Qin Yuan who was walking over, his voice was trembling slightly, he was truly a figure of great  level, some people in the previous team members were still not convinced, seeing this scene, they were really completely convinced.

"Qin...Captain Qin, may I ask how you did it? Can this kind of training be achieved in normal times?"

The guy's tone immediately became respectful, and Qin Yuan didn't bother with him, "This thing is not trained by rote, the table tennis is also arranged by you, I just wrote down the position when I watched you train That's all."

Everyone was even more shocked when they heard this. When they were training, they actually memorized the positions of all the numbers in a short period of time. How is this possible? There are more than one hundred table tennis  on the opposite side, and the positions of the numbers are completely different.

Yang Ming looked at the gun in his hand, and instantly felt like a stick of fire. If he was blindfolded, he couldn't do it at all. He already felt that he was very good. He was a champion in the team for three consecutive years, but In front of Qin Yuan, he was really playing tricks, and he felt a little ashamed for a while.

Even for his luck to enter the selection, he felt that he was really lucky, and what people are talking about here is indeed strength.

Regardless of previous suspicions, Qin Yuan came over and patted him on the shoulder. Although this guy spoke aggressively before and even questioned him, when there are always doubts, dispelling their doubts will convince them.

"Brother, your marksmanship is indeed good, but you still have to change your impetuosity. After all, there is a saying that there are people outside of people, and there are mountains outside mountains."

Yang Ming felt even more ashamed for a moment. What he said was right. As a high-quality shooter, especially a sniper, the most important thing he should do is to stay calm. He was indeed a little impetuous just now.

After what happened just now, everyone's doubts were completely dispelled. Everyone followed the training silently. Although the number of people eliminated this time was relatively large, it did not achieve Qin Yuan's expected effect. His request was to quickly form a team within a week. , He wants to conduct assault training for the team.

The selection in the next few days was even more brutal, and their selection could be said to focus on various aspects from demining, blasting, cleaning and maintenance to carry out separate training.

They are all aimed at their special police, and it really has nothing to do with the special warfare brigade. I have to say that Qin Yuan's ability to adapt is really strong.

In the past few days, Song Lin was originally the captain of the special police brigade, but now he has become an idler, unable to say anything, and can only watch his team members being eliminated.

Sitting in his office drinking tea, he felt a little suffocated, feeling that Qin Yuan was too disrespectful to him.

"Do you think this kid deliberately played with my so many special police teams? Although we are indeed relatively strong, he eliminated so many people for me in a short time! What will happen to our reputation when it gets out?"

His main concern is that the annual and quarterly assessments will follow. If this situation is followed, it is likely to affect their overall selection.

At this time, Zhao Gang also came to the office. This guy is now convinced and began to train patiently. He came here today to apply for a training bomb. Frog in the bottom of the well.

Chapter 1175: The Falcon Squad is established!

Song Lin looked down at Zhao Gang's application documents, and was stunned for a moment. This guy now has to apply for approval of 2,000 rounds of ammunition a day, and he is the only one.

"I said, Zhao Gang, did you make a mistake in your application? These 2,000 rounds of ammunition should belong to one of your teams. Why is it written as your personal application?"

"Song team, this is indeed my personal application, because I have been training recently, non-stop from morning to night, so the consumption of ammunition is relatively large."

"Although these trainings can be approved, the number of you is too exaggerated. You are not a new player and you need to train desperately like that. What the * are you doing?"

Zhao Gang smiled helplessly, his current attitude was very humble.

"Team Song, sometimes we really have to be convinced. Their marksmanship can be so vivid, and anyone who can be pulled out at random can be better than us. I am not not convinced now, but want to train hard. It is indeed like They said that their strength is not as good as others."

When Song Lin heard this, he couldn't believe that it was Zhao Gang who said it. He was very impressed with this kid, and he was considered one of the better players in their team. After being eliminated, it was as if he had changed.

"Boy, don't scare me. You were not like this before. Why did you change to someone after you were eliminated? Take out the arrogance in your heart."

"Team Song, we are not as strong as others now, and we are not qualified to say those proud words. Anyway, you can approve it to me, and I will definitely train hard."

Song Lin was surprised by Zhao Gang's transformation. Even he was a little unconvinced by this kid before, but now he has such a humble attitude. He didn't think much about it. After signing his name, he asked him to go to the warehouse to pick it up.

Just when he stretched out his hand, you can see that Zhao Gang's hands are all calloused, especially where the tiger's mouth is. Sun peeled off a layer of skin.

After Zhao Gang left, the team leader also poured a glass of water and sat beside him. Song Ning couldn't help but ask, "What's wrong with me, kid? Why does it look like he's been beaten? Will there be any problems with this training?"

"I'm also worried about this problem, but seeing that his other conditions are good, he just wants to fight hard. It seems that there is no problem, and he can also drive other new players."

Song Lin stood up and looked at the players who were training in the playground. He didn't know what to say for a moment. Is Qin Yuan's effect really good? Recently, he has also felt another change. These eliminated players are very active in training.

For him, this is actually a challenge to his majesty. In any case, he is also the captain of the special police brigade. Then he really has no face.

He has been struggling with this problem, and the team leader said consolingly: "Captain Song, I don't think you should think so much. Besides, this team has been formed for so many years. Maybe it's possible that after he came will innovate?"

Hearing this, Song Lin felt relieved a lot. This is indeed true. He didn't believe that Qin Yuan could really train a separate team. In fact, to be honest, all teams really have the same pattern. , he doesn't need to be so worried.

After a week of elimination, there were only six people left in the entire team, which was one less than Qin Yuan's previous expectation. Six people formed a team, and the pattern was not complete.

Qin Yuan frowned in the tent, he was thinking of a solution, He Chenguang lowered his head and said nothing, it was indeed his mistake.

Because it was originally said that they could let them release the water, and they would not be required by the special forces team, so that the elimination rate would be reduced, but He Chenguang still couldn't hold back in the end.

It was so unexpected that one person was eliminated, leading to this embarrassing situation now, Qin Yuan waved his hand, now is not the time to review and admit his mistakes, but to come up with a solution as soon as possible.

At this moment, Liu Qiang walked in with a report. This kid was indeed left at the end. His comprehensive abilities in all aspects are good, so Qin Yuan is very optimistic about him.

"What's the matter with you kid?"

"Brother Qin, although you didn't mention the specific situation, I remember you said that you need a team of seven people. Now the team of six people is not complete, so I want to give you some advice."

"Oh, your kid is quite smart, so if you have any opinions, you can talk about it first."

What Liu Qiang said was very sincere. After careful analysis, he recommended a person, and this person was Zhao Gang.

Hearing this, Qin Yuan frowned slightly, but they were all eliminated, and he had thought about it before, but would it be unfair to others to choose from among these eliminated? It's a waste of time to start all over again.

"Brother Qin, it's not because he is my friend that I speak for him, but I have also heard from other players recently that after he was eliminated and returned, he began to train desperately. Shoot bullets and train from morning to night."

This kind of courage is indeed quite persevering. I would rather think about it. Anyway, things have become like this, so it is better to have another armed assault assessment.

He decided to carry out an armed raid that lasted for half an hour, mainly to target the players who had been eliminated before, and he also gave Zhao Gang a chance. If this kid is really strong, he can seize this opportunity.

But what brother Qin is going to come is a sudden assessment that doesn't allow them to have any preparations.

It can be said that this is also a test of everyone's on-the-spot reaction ability. This kind of selection is relatively fair for those who are eliminated. He will not only test the marksmanship, but also the reaction ability of all aspects, and the situation of responding to emergencies .

The rest of the selected team members are undergoing special training under the leadership of Qin Zhengyang and the others. Qin Yuan came to the inside of the brigade alone. It is 3 o'clock in the morning and everyone is fast asleep.

The sentinel looked at Qin Yuan who came in with some doubts, but the next second he blew the emergency assembly whistle.

The team members in the dormitory quickly got up and prepared. Everyone felt very puzzled. Didn't they say that they would not have any tasks in the next few days? Because they haven't really finished training yet.

Obviously this time is much faster than the last time. They didn't meet the standard in the previous collection, but maybe after this selection, they have recently been prepared to eliminate these players. All assembled quickly within the stipulated time.

Qin Yuan looked at the team members in front of him, and stretched out a finger, "Now I still need a quota, remember that there is only one person, and there is a green flag inside your training ground, find that flag, and bring it to In front of me, he is a promotion."

Hearing this, everyone was in a dazed state at first, what's going on? Why did you suddenly say that there will be another selection?

Zhao Gang was full of regrets in his heart. He had been waiting for this moment for a long time, and even wondered if he was dreaming. He shook his head, reacted quickly, and rushed to the training ground.

Qin Yuan made it very clear that he only needs one person, and among so many people they have eliminated, only one will be more cruel than the previous elimination.

So he had to be the only one. He rushed out at a faster speed. After the others saw it, they also rushed into the training ground. At this moment, Wang Yanbing was already waiting for them in the training ground.

This time, Zhao Gang was on guard because he knew it would not be that simple. He said that there might be other things in the training ground. He learned the lesson from last time, bent down, and walked quietly around the wall, while the people in front. Several team members rushed forward quickly.

I heard a burst of gunfire, and when I looked down, I saw that the members of the team were covered in fuel. This was Wang Yanbing inside.

The current selection is relatively passive, because they don't have any chance to fight back, they can only dodge bullets, and find an effective route to win the flag.

After Zhao Gang saw it, he quickly stopped the team members behind. Although he also wanted to get that spot, he had to remind others no matter what.

"Everyone be careful, there are gunmen at ten o'clock."

As soon as his words fell, Wang Yanbing turned around and turned around. The situation inside was very intense, and gunshots could be heard everywhere, because the training ground here is relatively large, and the gunshots echoed, and the lights were not turned on, and it was pitch black everywhere. Painted, very affect the judgment of the players.

When Qin Yuan was remembering outside, he was very curious about who would be the one who brought out the flag. He was somewhat satisfied with Zhao Gang's performance, and wondered if this person would be in his expectation.

As time passed by, the gunshots inside also stopped abruptly. After a minute or so, a person ran out towards the training ground. Qin Yuan took a closer look, and the corners of his mouth slightly raised. Unexpectedly, it was really Zhao Gang. kid.

Zhao Gang's marksmanship has not been practiced in vain during this period of time. Although he did not use marksmanship in this competition, he has accurately judged the position, and there is no problem under such interference.

In this way, this seven-member team was finally formed. Qin Yuan wanted to conduct systematic training for them. First of all, their marksmanship standards are basically the same now, so the rest is mainly for their basic blasting rescue.

Song Lin was also a little relieved to see the selected players. It can be said that these selected players were expected.

It's just that he didn't expect that Zhao Gang, who was eliminated, would be selected to go back. It must be the persistence of others. This is the meaning of willingness to train. While doing training, their special police team is not idle here, it seems that everyone's fighting spirit has been aroused, and everyone is training hard.

Song Lin was very satisfied, this atmosphere at least brought back their fighting spirit.

After Qin Yuan set up a team here, he gave the team a resounding title, Falcon Commando.

Although everyone in their special police team has similar skills, he also distinguished a level according to the specific situation, and he wanted to comprehensively strengthen everyone.

At this time, this manual from the system played a key role. Every training method in it is very practical, mainly for the special police.

As the training started, Liu Qiang was also quite surprised. He didn't expect Qin Yuan, as a member of the special forces team, to be so familiar with their special police. He performed all the divisions very professionally and meticulously.

But for this captain, Qin Yuan really wanted to give it to Liu Qiang before, but now he still has to look at the situation, after all, these people are all competitors, and everyone's ability is not weak.

This kind of training lasted for more than two months. Seeing that the time set by him was getting closer, Qin Yuan was quite satisfied with this team. They all came up according to the training manual. Their training plan was much earlier than before. .

Liu Qiang and the others have really opened up a new world. Before, their task was very simple, and everyone was responsible for the things in front of them. But now they need to think in multiple directions.

There was still a week before the time Qin Yuan set for himself, and he gave everyone a vacation for the first time. During the recent period, these team members have been trained to a state of complete numbness.

I didn't expect to say that I would give them a holiday now. Before everyone could react for a while, Qin Yuan coughed slightly.

"How can I give you a vacation? You are still unwilling, then if so, continue training. The training will end this week."

When everyone heard this, they hurriedly took back the questions just now, and expressed their willingness to take a vacation. Just like that, Qin Yuan looked at their backs and showed a sharp smile.

The team members are also very happy to know that they are on vacation. They are in a relaxed state. Li Erniu is driving the car with them. This is a small minibus.

Liu Qiang sat at the backtalking to Li Erniu all the way.

"Brother Niu, I have to say that you guys are really good. Before, I thought only Captain Qin was that good. I didn't expect each of you to be so good. When will I catch up with you?"

"You are not bad now, we just perform our duties, don't worry, everyone is similar."

Even though he said this, Liu Qiang also had self-knowledge, and it was indeed incomparable. Li Erniu planned to send them all to the station, and the journey was relatively long, more than three hours.

Halfway through the drive, everyone was a little drowsy. After all, they had been training every day recently. Under such training intensity, it was rare for everyone to relax and fell asleep in the car.

At this time, Li Erniu quietly pressed the button in his hand, as if sending some signal, the bus stopped suddenly after a while, and Liu Qiang and the others also woke up.

Unexpectedly, a checkpoint was set up on the opposite side. I only saw some armed policemen in uniforms blocking the way for inspection. Everyone was a little confused when they saw this situation. Did something happen?

Chapter 1176: Wanted?

Li Erniu stopped the car, turned his head to comfort everyone, "Don't worry, everyone, it should be just a normal routine inspection. We are all brothers and there is no problem."

At this time, two armed policemen walked over side by side and greeted them.

"Brother, you have worked hard."

According to the usual practice, they are not allowed to ask about the specific task situation, but they can greet them in a basic way. The two armed policemen didn't say much and politely responded, and then began to check their credentials.

After careful inspection, the two armed policemen found out that they belonged to the brother army, but they were stunned when they checked Li Erniu's ID.

The next second, the two took out their guns at Li Erniu at the same time, and said loudly: "Squat down with your hands on your head, put down all the weapons in your hands."

In this life, I have recognized all the other team members in the car. What is the situation? Everyone was at a loss for a while, Liu Qiang hurried forward and said, "Brother, is there any misunderstanding here? We are a team of special police, what are you doing?"

"Don't get close to us, hug your head and squat down, you are the same."

An armed policeman at the back blew his whistle, and in an instant their minibus was surrounded by all the armed policemen outside.

Zhao Gang was also confused, he was still dreaming just now, why did he hear the commotion when he opened his eyes, and was surrounded by ruthless people when he turned his head, and let them squat down with their heads in their arms, isn't this the way prisoners are treated?

At this moment, Li Erniu didn't even have time to explain anything, so he was directly controlled. After all, what he took away was the real thing. In this way, they were taken out of the car, Liu Qiang was very unconvinced, why should they take away their things?

"Hey, I said, what are you doing? Don't you know our ID? As I said just now, we are from the special police team. What are you doing?"

An armed policeman walked up ahead, Liu Qiang looked at his sign, it should be a squadron leader.

At this moment, they were all squatting beside the car with their heads in their arms. They looked like ordinary prisoners. Usually, they were the only ones who treated others like this. They didn't expect to be treated like this today.

So of course there would be dissatisfaction, the squadron leader of the armed police came over, checked it carefully, and then explained a few words to the soldiers next to him, asking them to take Li Erniu down first.

"Tell them that the target person has been captured on the upper side, and they can put it there to withdraw the checkpoint."

Unexpectedly, at this time Li Erniu suddenly roared, and then kicked the armed police next to him with a sideways body, then turned over and controlled another person.

"What are you doing? Stop, if you do this again, we're going to shoot."

The armed police at the back had already fired their guns at the sky and issued a warning again, but Li Erniu was so heartbroken that he directly took an armed policeman as a hostage, and Liu Qiang behind him was completely dumbfounded.

"Brother Niu, what are you doing? Even if they captured us, you wouldn't be like this, right? After all, we are all brothers, wouldn't that be bad?"

"Don't talk nonsense!"

Liu Qiang didn't know why Li Erniu suddenly became like this, but an accident happened in the next second, meaning an anesthesia gun shot over from a distance, and a needle hit Li Erniu's back. It felt like that.

The squadron leader took the walkie-talkie and began to let the people behind come up, "This kid really has two brushes. I didn't expect to be able to open the handcuffs by leaning on him. He is worthy of being a member of the Special Forces."

Seeing Li Erniu being dragged into the car by them, Liu Qiang was a little anxious and couldn't help standing up, but just as he was about to stand up, he was held down by the armed police next to him.

"What are you doing? Be honest, don't you want a shot too?"

"No, what are you doing here? You have to explain clearly to us when you take people away, right? We just finished training, and you just come up to arrest people like this, you have to give us a reason."

The squadron leader snorted coldly, stepped forward with his hands behind his back, and took out a wanted warrant unhurriedly.

"Now I wonder if you guys are related to him. Let's see, the arrest warrants have been issued."

Liu Qiang took a closer look and was stunned for a moment. The A-level arrest warrant is a murder case on his back. What's the situation, and the person on the arrest warrant is indeed Li Erniu.

The team members behind didn't know what to say, because it all happened so suddenly, they were still training yesterday, but they just said they were on holiday today, and then this happened, and looking at the armed police in front, it was really It's not like a joke.

The squadron leader waved his hand and asked the rest of the people to take them all back. Everyone had to be interrogated together. Things had already developed like this. He didn't know what to say, so he could only follow in the car silently.

Zhao Gang whispered next to him: "Do you think there may be any misunderstanding? He is a member of the Special Forces. How could he be murdered? Besides, we have been together during this time, training together every day. ."

"Who knows? Of course you also saw the arrest warrant just now. The thing everyone is very familiar with is still stamped with an official seal, so it is impossible to fake it."

The armed police next to the two were discussing and shouted, telling them to shut up and not to talk casually in the car.

The two had no choice but to keep their mouths shut. Besides, this matter may not be their concern. They will cooperate with the investigation later. If it is really a misunderstanding, there is Qin Yuan anyway.

On the other side, after Li Erniu was carried into the car by them, he immediately grinned in pain, "I said you are really serious, this anesthesia gun is really painful when it comes from such a far place, at least you can do something real for me." Can anesthesia work?"

"You are rough-skinned and thick-skinned. If you want a real anesthesia, don't waste that anesthesia. Just wait for it."

If you look carefully, the person who spoke was actually Wang Yanbing, and the person sitting in the co-pilot was Qin Yuan.

That's right, they are conducting a secret assessment for the Falcon Commandos this time, and this assessment is also very critical. It can be said that the assessment is under the watchful eyes of the public, and they have also discussed with them in various aspects.

Because it is impossible for everyone to prepare for emergencies, what they want is on-site response.

The squadron leader who spoke just now also got into the car, and he threw two cigarettes over. Qin Yuan waved his hand to indicate that he didn't need it.

"Squadron leader, I have to say that your acting skills are really high. I was taken aback by the battle just now."

Li Erniu tidied up his clothes with a smile, and the squadron leader patted him on the shoulder with some admiration.

"Your skill is not bad, you just knocked down the two fighters next to me, and you are still under control. It seems that I still have to train them well."

Unexpectedly, Qin Yuan showed a bright smile, turned his head and said: "Squadron leader, don't worry, I will come to train you after they finish training here. It's all the same anyway. I also hope that such a team can The more the better."

The squadron leader agrees with both hands, but what he is looking forward to now is to see the reaction ability of this team. He is no stranger to their special police. What is the difference between a sub-unit and other sub-units?

"It's said that there will be a group of strong and strong soldiers, and I want to see what is special about their small team. Captain Qin, don't let the water go."

"Don't worry, Squadron Leader, I must do my best in everything I do. It is absolutely impossible to fool people, and I must meet my highest standards."

Qin Yuan is very confident in the Falcon commando team. Now they are very capable in all aspects. It mainly depends on how they performed the previous training. Everyone has fully grasped it. Now is the time to accept the results.

As long as the Falcon commando team is officially established, the merit points should be credited to the account, and he has completed part of it here, but although he has been busy with training recently, he still asked about the situation there, and the masked man disappeared completely like a stone sinking into the sea. up.

Although the masked man hasn't appeared recently, this guy is full of tricks, and he doesn't know what he is planning secretly. Although he has seen through the plan this time, there is no guarantee that he will suddenly come up with something in the future.

Liu Qiang and the others in the car didn't know what happened, and they didn't see Li Erniu when they arrived at the destination, because they didn't have time to look at it, so they were directly sent to the interrogation room next to them.

Liu Qiang smiled wryly when he saw this scene. They were the ones who arrested others before, but now that he came out of this place, he still had a strange feeling.

After entering the interrogation room, they learned the shocking news. It turned out that not only Li Erniu, but their entire red blood cell team were wanted, and now they were wanted because they were involved in the murder case.

Liu Qiang was very excited when he heard this, he patted the table and stood up.

"This is absolutely impossible. There must have been a misunderstanding during the period. We are all together. They are training every day. How could we have something to do with the murder?"

During this period of training, Liu Qiang has already recognized Qin Yuan as his elder brother, including several people in the special forces team. He really thinks that they are very capable, and they are indeed role models for him to learn from. How is such a thing possible? do it?

The interrogating staff member on the opposite side yelled at him and told him to sit down quickly.

"What's your attitude? Now I can say that you are a criminal suspect. What are you trying to do?"

Liu Qiang probably realized that his emotions were really agitated, so he could only sit down helplessly. He explained again, and he also used himself as a guarantee to ensure that they would never be involved in any murder.

"I think you should also know how much they have contributed to our country before, and the tasks they rushed to perform, including Captain Qin, how many first-class merits he has."

Unexpectedly, the staff on the opposite side didn't like him at all, and directly avoided his topic.

"Is this your usual attitude towards prisoners? We have investigated it clearly. If it is not true, do you think you will send out sympathy? Besides, there is a misunderstanding, and it is not something you should know. Now you just need to explain clearly Your and their trajectories."

This sentence made Liu Qiang so right that he couldn't even say a word. According to the principles of their work, he really shouldn't ask these questions. His current identity has also become a criminal suspect. His obligation is to Must cooperate with the investigation.

He is very familiar with this set of procedures, and being able to dispatch the armed police this time shows that things are really not that simple, otherwise it will not be used to a general extent.

Liu Qiang had no choice. Although he had many doubts in his heart, he still told the truth about the recent training. He also made sure that he would stay with them all the time.

The other team members they interrogated separately gave similar answers, and the last few were detained together.

Before the armed police went out, Zhao Gang couldn't help asking: "Comrade, when will we leave? If this continues, when will we be tall? We've made it clear what needs to be explained, and this matter has nothing to do with us."

But the armed police ignored them at all, and walked out directly after locking them up. Zhao Gang punched the wall with some indignation. What's the matter?

"Forget it, it's useless if you don't get angry there, come here and sit down first, let's discuss what's going on."

"What else could be going on? I think it must be a misunderstanding. I think it is absolutely impossible for them to have such a thing. Based on my understanding of Captain Qin, it will never happen."

In the monitoring room, Qin Yuan couldn't help laughing when he heard this. Usually he was very strict with these team members, but he didn't expect to defend him at critical moments.

It's just that Song Lin next to him is a little unnatural, no matter what, they are also their own team, and they haven't recognized the situation clearly yet.

They have now become criminal suspects, and Qin Yuan and the others are criminals. Aren't they just covering up crimes?

Just thinking that Qin Yuan was beside himHe didn't have the nerve to say it, the squadron leader turned to look at Qin Yuan and asked: "Everything is going according to the process, it seems that they have confirmed the authenticity of this matter, For the time being, we believe it, then we will continue to develop below."

Qin Yuan nodded, he had already changed his equipment, and then took the red blood cells, and the team members set off first.

Liu Qiang and the others are currently locked in this room, and there are armed police behind them to deliver food to them. They know the rules, and even if they ask now, they will not tell them anything. They can only wait until tomorrow morning, and their captain may come to them.

After dinner, there was nothing to do, so if you send them now, you will be safe and go to sleep one after another.

It's just that in the middle of the night, it was very quiet at first, but suddenly there was an alarm sound outside, and several people woke up instantly. Liu Qiang turned over and wanted to go to the door to check the situation, but he couldn't see anything.

"What's going on here? Why are there sirens?"

As soon as Liu Qiang finished speaking, he heard commotion in the corridor and the sound of many people running past.

Chapter 1177: explosive grenade

The sound of the alarm echoed throughout the space, which sounded very anxious. It took a while for the alarm to end, but they heard the sound of people gathering outside.

Liu Qiang lay on the door and listened carefully, passing news to them.

"I heard that there are at least forty or fifty people in this number. They should have been fully assembled. I don't know what's going on."

"Could it be that there is something unexpected? But it's none of our business, right? After all, we were brought here, so we shouldn't inquire about what mission they may be performing."

Zhao Gang was not so impatient, so he simply lay down on the bed to rest. Anyway, they are now criminal suspects. Besides, this is a matter of the armed police brigade and has nothing to do with them.

"I said, can you guys stop gossiping and come to sleep, it's a big night."

"I said you kid has been training for such a long time, why don't you have any vigilance at all, the few of us are here, and there is also the sound of urgent assembly, don't you think there is something wrong?"

Zhao Gang looked indifferent, because in his opinion, he felt that this was normal. After all, the armed police detachment would definitely have missions to go out, so it was impossible to stay here forever.

Liu Qiang rolled his eyes at him, "You forgot how the love song taught us before, and it was clearly stated in the manual that the armed police will only be activated unless there is an emergency. Under what circumstances do you think they will gather? "

Sitting up here instantly, yes, why did he forget about this matter? The main reason is that he got used to being in the Special Forces, so he subconsciously brought in that thinking.

Several people discussed for a long time with no results. After a while, there were footsteps in the empty corridor, and then the footsteps came to the door and stopped suddenly.

Several people hurried back to the bed and lay down. The person who came was the squadron leader during the day. He coughed slightly twice.

"Okay, you guys stop pretending here, I don't believe such a big movement, you haven't woken up yet, there is something for you to do."

Liu Qiang was very excited when he heard this, and quickly got up. He asked excitedly: "Leader, is there any emergency? Don't worry, we are also in the special police team. If there is anything, we will help each other."

At this time, the squadron leader frowned, showing a very embarrassed look. I have to say that these guys' acting skills are really high, and they can't see any flaws at all.

Liu Qiang was a little anxious seeing this, and kept urging him.

"Just tell the leader what's going on, otherwise you wouldn't come to us. Besides, our identities are there. Don't worry, everything must be based on the overall situation."

The squadron leader sighed silently, "Okay, I can tell you, we really need you, because we don't have enough manpower here, and you know what happened during the day, their red blood cell team has been completely captured by us."

This news surprised them. Liu Qiang did not expect that even Qin Yuan would be caught, but it is understandable. If Qin Yuan was caught, then it means that the problem is not serious, and it means that they have no ghosts in their hearts. With Yuan's skill, how could it be possible to catch him so easily.

But the squadron leader's next words shocked him completely, "We did catch him, but we didn't expect that Qin Yuan injured the guard just now, and then rescued his team!"

what! !

Several team members stood up completely. This news is too exaggerated. Today's news came one after another, which can be called explosive.

"Leader, what you said is true. How is this possible? Brother Qin would not do such a thing."

"Huh? Do you think I'm deceiving people here? Would I let the entire armed police brigade lie with you? This is the emergency situation now. If you want to, join our team to search together. If you don't want to, just stay here. ."

When everyone heard this, they hurried forward to stop the squadron leader. There was nothing unwilling about this, but they felt that the news was too unacceptable, because in their perception, it was impossible.

Everyone, you look at me, I look at you, and finally walked out under the leadership of the squadron leader, and gave them equipment.

"You have to remember that there are several mountains behind us. They have fled into the mountains now. You join us to find them as soon as possible."

As the squadron leader said, he asked the armed police soldiers next to him to distribute signal flares to them. He held the red signal flare in his hand and said, "They are all very dangerous people. You should also know their skills. Remember! Don't Head-to-head, as soon as you find them, quickly fire the flare, and we will go to support."

Liu Qiang's heart is very complicated now, he has not been relieved from the news just now, this is really unacceptable, but looking at the signal flare in his hand, he still firmly checked the equipment.

After getting ready, they also set off as an independent team, and the squadron leader also distributed night vision goggles to them.

The sound of a police dog could be faintly heard from the front. It seemed that this time the matter was really serious. Walking in front, Zhao Gang didn't say a word, and everyone didn't speak.

After walking into the woods, Zhao Gang couldn't bear it anymore. He asked, "Could it be true this time? Brother Qin and the others, what kind of murder did they do? Why did they run away suddenly?"

Another team member said slowly: "I think there must be a misunderstanding about what happened this time, that's why Brother Qin ran away with his team members. This is obviously slandered."

Liu Qiang is now very conflicted in his heart, "Everyone, don't say things so absolutely. Find them first. If there is a misunderstanding, find them first. We will ask them personally. If they really committed the murder, then we must arrest them. return."

"What do you mean, brother Qin is always the best to you, now you are on their side?"

"It's not a question of whether I'm good or not, but it's a matter of principle. If they really kill someone, do you think we should cover them?"

Everyone was speechless for a while, but Zhao Gang could understand. He pushed the team member who spoke in front of him.

"Forget it, let's not talk about these things now. I'd better find someone to talk about it. It's useless to say everything now. We are all guessing."

In this way, the few people continued to set off. In this vast mountain, thanks to the assistance of night vision devices, they had no problem moving at night.

At this moment, Zhao Gang suddenly saw a figure appearing in front of him. He quickly observed carefully under the night market instrument, and there was indeed a figure hiding in the grass.

He reminded everyone to be vigilant, and then several people moved closer in that direction.

As soon as they rushed up, the people in the grass also stood up quickly. Although there was a little distance away, Liu Qiang recognized at a glance that the person was Wang Yanbing.

He could only shout loudly: "Brother Yan Bing!"

Unexpectedly, Wang Yanbing ignored him at all, but ran faster and faster, and they chased after him. In this case, he was dumped by Wang Yanbing. You must know that in the jungle, Wang Yanbing is his dominant place. Gu Chai

After a few people found that the target was lost, Liu Qiang cursed secretly, the speed was too fast, no matter how many times they practiced, they just couldn't keep up.

"What do you think we should do now? I didn't expect that several people could not even catch up with one person."

At this time, one of the team members took out the flare on his waist and was about to launch it upwards. Zhao Gang stepped forward and snatched the flare.

"What are you doing?"

"What to do? Of course it is to send a signal. Didn't you listen to what they said before you set off? Besides, how could we catch them? It's better to send someone over quickly."

"Wait, I always feel that this incident is weird. Besides, it is useless to send a signal flare to let them come here. Only one person was found. Maybe they are still in other places."

Even though Zhao Gang said this, in fact, he was a bit partial to them. He still felt that this must be a misunderstanding, and he had to ask someone to clarify it face to face.

The team member was a little angry, and pushed Zhao Gang away, "What's wrong with you now, boy? Why are you so easily influenced by emotions? I know, and I am also very grateful to Captain Qin and the others, but this is the truth. Are you going to cover up a crime?"

Zhao Gang also bowed his head when he heard this, he didn't know what to say, maybe he was really selfish.

When they were arguing, Liu Qiang suddenly asked them to be quiet.

"Did you smell anything?"

Suddenly, Liu Qiang's eyes widened, and then he pushed the light pole away, and several people fell down tacitly, and a grenade exploded behind them.

After the explosion, gunpowder smoke filled the air, and a lot of soil flew up.

Liu Qiang coughed twice, squinted his eyes and quickly identified the direction. He held his gun vigilantly, but he didn't see any figure from the night market instrument. The speed was simply too fast.

The two team members behind were shocked and speechless, because the explosion just now was a military grenade.

The previous team members did not hesitate, and directly took out the signal flare from their waists and fired it.

"Look, it's because you didn't allow the signal flare to be fired just now. They want to kill us. Isn't this the truth enough? Why do you think he wants to kill us?"

"No, I always feel that there should be a misunderstanding here, and everyone can get in."

"Zhao Gang! You are the one who needs to calm down now. Think about it for yourself. Will he blow us up with a grenade? This is obviously trying to kill people. If Liu Qiang didn't react quickly just now, then we would all have to die here."

Zhao Gang's eye circles were a little red, he couldn't believe it, but the people he had always respected wanted to kill them at this time.

After a while, they recovered from the explosion just now. He stood up and shook the dirt off his body.

"I know, I was too emotional just now. If that's the case, let's do it according to our ability! No matter what, find them first and then talk."

His eyes had completely changed. Regardless of the truth of the incident, they had indeed used grenades just now. Such a large explosive weapon was completely intended to kill people and silence them.

Although Liu Qiang still had some doubts in his heart, he didn't know what to say when he saw the grenade. Is it really what the squadron leader said before?

After the flare was fired, they heard footsteps coming from behind, it was people from the Armed Police Detachment.

Everyone explained the current situation, and began to search in batches along this direction. The squadron leader explained that everyone must pay attention to safety.

Liu Qiang and his team began to search in the southeast direction. Qin Yuan taught them the method before, so now they use the previous anti-reconnaissance to start searching carefully.

At this time, Liu Qiang made a warning gesture, then squatted down, and pointed to the footprints in front of him.

"Did you see it? There is a footprint here. He should have jumped from here to the grass on the opposite side. If this is the case, there are very few traces left."

Everyone did see some traces of being crushed in the grass, and they were really mocking when they said it. They didn't expect that they would use the skills Qin Yuan taught them to catch Qin Yuan.

They slowly searched forward. At this time, there was a slight movement from behind. Liu Qiang turned around quickly, and the team members behind quickly shot in coordination. This was almost a subconscious reaction.

After the grenade just now, everyone knows that this is not a joke, nor is it a drill, but a real battlefield, although it was the person who trained them before.

But it's a pity that the person on the opposite side was very fast, and the bullets emptied. Liu Qiang quickly made a command and asked several people to lean against each other, so that there was a basic guarantee.

Liu Qiang observed everything around carefully, a figure jumped out from the bushes in front, and he shot quickly.

The person who jumped out was Qin Yuan, because now in order to convince them completely, all the ammunition was distributed, and he would not let his team members take such a risk.

It's really not bad under my own training marksmanship and speed have been improved, but my figure is faster than him.

Liu Qiang was a little annoyed that he was still a little short. The speed was so fast that he couldn't keep up.

He rushed forward quickly, followed by several team members. According to the formation discussed before, everyone can attack and defend.

Just when they were about to enter the front area, Liu Qiang pulled a team member in front.

"What's going on? Why are you dragging me? Don't rush to chase them, and run away later."

"Pay attention to your feet, see if you see it, fishing line!"

Hearing this, the team member looked down, and cold sweat broke out on his back instantly. A fishing line was only a few centimeters away from his knee, and he almost triggered the mechanism. In this darkness, it was really difficult Find.

Everyone looked in the direction of the fishing line, and there was a grenade tied to the tree trunk. If they ran over without paying attention, it would definitely trigger the grenade. The big tree fell down, and the explosion of the grenade would cause unimaginable consequences.

Chapter 1178: just a test exercise

At this scene, several people broke out in a cold sweat. Has everything really changed? They also remembered the scene when Li Erniu drove them off in the morning. Why did everyone start killing each other at night?

"I think all this is simply too unreal. Why did it become like this? Everyone was fine before, and we are still receiving training. I don't believe they will do anything to us."

Liu Qiang pushed a team member next to him, "Now we should be sober and rational. It was indeed because of our inherent thinking that we made mistakes in our judgment."

He felt that he should stay awake as soon as possible, and then find Qin Yuan and the others, otherwise other innocent team members would die.

Now it is because they have been trained and found it in time. If no one finds this fishing line, then they really have to give a thorough explanation here today.

Several people also slowly accepted this reality, and began to search around again. This time Liu Qiang and Zhao Gang took the lead in the front, and they maintained an inverted triangle formation.

Liu Qiang was also wearing a night vision device to carefully observe the situation under his feet, and everyone moved relatively slowly.

At this time, there were sparse sounds from the grass on the west side. Liu Qiang turned his head and saw only one figure, so he quickly shot.

But it was obvious that he missed the shot. The shot missed, and he cursed secretly. Before he could react, a throwing knife was thrown straight at him.

He is very clear about the speed of this knife. In the previous training, Qin Yuan used it against them. Qin Yuan's ability is very strong, but at this time he also restrained a lot. After all, he didn't want to really hurt them. .

Liu Qiang quickly dodged the dagger sideways, but only scratched his earlobe, and a bloodstain appeared in an instant.

Zhao Gang, who was standing next to him, smelled a  smell, and quickly pulled Liu Qiang to ask him about his situation. Liu Qiang shook his hand to indicate that he was fine.

"Be careful, everyone. He has appeared. We may not be his opponents. Hurry up and find a way to send a signal flare."

"Now we can't send the signal flare so quickly. Did you forget just now? The signal we just sent was a warning to the enemy, and now it's hard to find their traces."

"Then what shall we do now?"

Liu Qiang thought for a while, there is actually no need to send a signal now, but it is also possible. After all, in this space, sound travels very fast. In such a quiet environment, their gunshots should have been discovered by others. They'll be here soon.

"Now we try our best to delay the time and drag them here. Although their abilities are very strong, after this period of training, I think they should be able to delay for a while."

Under Liu Qiang's command, the two team members slowly moved towards the west side, and another team member was responsible for their vision from the rear.

It has to be said that Liu Qiang has a strong commanding mind at this time. He quickly made the correct judgment, allowing them to attack and defend. With the cooperation of the police, he quickly locked the target.

He didn't want to hurt Qin Yuan and the others before, but of course there is no other way now. In order to protect himself, if he doesn't make a move, they are likely to be injured. He took out the grenade from his waist and moved towards the figure without hesitation. Direction lost.

After a burst of explosions, there was a smell of gunpowder smoke in the air. Qin Yuan ran out from the bushes on the opposite side. He told Qin Zhengyang and the others not to act rashly.

After all, everyone is facing live ammunition now, and this kind of training is really worrying. In an office of the armed police detachment, everyone is staring at the computer screen intently.

It accurately records the performance of several players. They are now using complete satellite positioning, so their performance can be recorded throughout the process.

The captain of the armed police detachment was a little impressed. He pointed to the screen and said, "If you say that Qin Yuan is really courageous, he will directly use live ammunition."

"I think you're being a bit tactful. He's not only using live ammunition, he's even using blasting grenades. If something really happened, can he take responsibility?"

Song Lin frowned slightly when he said this. He was mainly worried about this problem. After all, the team members trained for them, but he felt that this kind of assessment was too dangerous, and he used live ammunition entirely.

In this way, the explosion range of the military blasting grenade is very wide, and the marble fragments exploded are very lethal.

However, the captain of the armed police next to him felt that this method was very suitable. No matter what, they would encounter real battlefields and vicious gangsters. This kind of training was a matter of time, so it was better to let them face it directly.

"I think this kid is really too arrogant. In this kind of climate and under this kind of field of vision, his training is too dangerous. I will let him stop now, otherwise there will be serious problems, and everyone will worry about it." no responsibility."

The head of the armed police detachment hurriedly persuaded him not to participate in any changes. After all, they were only here as spectators this time.

"Now this is an assessment for them. We don't have any right to judge them at all, and I think this is closer to the truth."

"I don't care about that much. You have to know that these players are all my players. If something goes wrong, how can I explain to their parents and relatives? It's easy for you to say here."

Song Lin didn't listen to the persuasion of the armed police captain at all, and directly sent a message to Qin Yuan in violation of the regulations. The walkie-talkie that Qin Yuan was carrying with him suddenly made a sound at this time.

"No matter what assessment you are doing now, come back to me quickly, I won't allow..."

In this empty jungle, the sound of the walkie-talkie was very abrupt, but Qin Yuan turned off the walkie-talkie quickly, but Liu Qiang and the others still heard the sound.

Fortunately, Liu Qiang and the others didn't hear clearly, they just heard the movement, and quickly shot towards that side. Qin Yuan felt that something was wrong, pushed Li Erniu away, and a bullet hit his shoulder directly.

Liu Qiang's reaction speed is very fast now. They did it according to Qin Yuan's training manual before, so their reaction power has been completely improved. With this speed, they almost hit them in a short time.

Li Erniu turned over and was about to shoot, but he had training ammunition in his hand, and this was also to avoid other accidents.

It can be said that there is no lethality at all, except for the two relatively real blasting grenades, Qin Yuan turned over and jumped forward, and now it seems that he can't play with them.

It was all because of the walkie-talkie that almost exposed them, just a little bit, if the bullet hit Li Erniu, the consequences would be unimaginable, but there is nothing wrong with my own words.

Liu Qiang obviously heard a different sound, the bullet must have hit the target, but when he ran over, he didn't see a drop of blood.

Just as he turned around, a figure rushed over from behind and kicked him on the shoulder, knocking him to the ground. Zhao Gang behind him also fired quickly. They cooperated, but Qin Yuan was faster.

Qin Yuan turned sideways to avoid the bullet, and then threw the flying knife in his hand, but at the moment his flying knife was just a handle, and the handle hit Zhao Gang's eyes, and his eyes were closed instantly.

If the team members behind rushed up just now, Qingyuan turned sideways on the ladder, kicked the team members away, and then controlled Liu Qiang who was rushing up with a catcher.

Liu Qiang shook his head helplessly, he hammered the ground unwillingly, but there is no way now, the weapons were all taken down by others, and the members of the red blood cell team rushed up, and they were instantly controlled.

Liu Qiang raised his head coldly, "Why? Why did you do this?"

"Boy, it's time to wake up."

At this moment, Liu Qiang has not reacted yet, he just feels that Qin Yuan has been playing with them all the time, obviously training them, but now they have become wanted criminals, and judging from this, it is estimated that they will become hostages.

Liu Qiang felt annoyed that they had been training for so long, but they still couldn't fight the red blood cells. Before the group, he thought that the ones he trained were strong enough, but they were fully armed and failed when facing the red blood cell group.

At this moment, Qin Yuan's voice came again from the walkie-talkie, it was a message from the armed police detachment, telling them to quickly return to the armed police detachment to gather, there is an emergency.

Zhao Gang was pressed to the ground by Qin Zhengyang, "What are you trying to do? Have you kidnapped other people? So the police detachment also knows the news."

Hearing this, everyone burst into laughter, but Qin Yuan quickly put away his smiling faces and told them to hurry up, and now everyone is rushing towards that side together.

"Okay, everyone, stop making trouble. Get up and watch. This is not a joke. There should be some emergency. Let's go there first and talk about it later."

Liu Qiang was stunned when he heard this. Before he got up from the ground, he picked up the gun and wanted to fight back, but was thrown to the ground by Qin Yuan.

"Why don't you listen to the persuasion, you stinky boy? Just stay here if you are told to be honest. This is just an exercise, understand? Now your assessment is over."

At this time, Liu Qiang was in a daze to realize that if it was really the Armed Police Brigade who were acting together with them, there wouldn't be such a small movement. From the beginning to the end, they were the only ones in action.

If this is really the case, their joint action will not be too bad. Only then did everyone realize that they all seemed to have been deceived.

"What are you doing? Do you really think it's fun to lie to people?"

A team member was a little angry, "I really don't understand. You say this is an assessment. Is there an assessment as serious as yours? The explosion just now is not fake."

Seeing that they seemed really angry, Qin Yuan walked over and patted that team member on the shoulder.

"We were all deceived in this way. When we entered the Special Forces, the assessment was the same, and it was conducted anytime and anywhere. This kind of assessment is the closest to the real battlefield."

Qin Yuan also moved closer to them, and began to talk about their recruitment exams before, and also made them quicken their pace, maybe there is really something wrong with the brigade.

However, I have to say that Qin Yuan is generally very satisfied with their actions this time, because in such actions, they have achieved perfection in both offense and defense in the entire team, and they can also quickly distinguish.

He also made an analysis. Judging from the actions of their team just now, the success rate of this mission can reach 70%. When the sum of a mission reaches 70%, it is actually close to the success rate.

Although the probability of 70% is still relatively low for their special operations team, he must be asking for 100%.

To be foolproof, because every time they act, they are in the most danger, but for their SWAT team, this is enough, because the enemies they face are much stronger than them.

Liu Qiang thought about it carefully, and indeed found some details. If it really reached the A-level, it was impossible to send it out until now, and he also felt that he was really affected.

"Brother Qin, I have to say that your acting skills are too good. The grenade exploded directly behind us just now, and we fired live ammunition at you. Aren't you afraid?"

"Don't worry, if you want to hit me, it's basically impossible."

Speaking of this, Liu Qiang was a little puzzled. It shouldn't be possible. Just now he clearly felt that he had hit the target. After training so many times for him, he should be clear about whether he hit the wrong target.

Thinking of this, he kept observing the few people, but he didn't see any wounds on their bodies, which made him feel a little strange.

Seeing his doubts, Qin Yuan explained, "There is a tree trunk behind us. Maybe you hit the tree trunk to rebel. I am very sure about this kind of training. You can't plan on us."

Hearing this, Liu Qiang was actually a little disappointed, but he was more fortunate, because this was his comrade, and it would be more troublesome for the bullet to actually hit it.

For Qin Yuan, who has a strong ability to recover, the shot just now was nothing at all, but he was indeed hit by them under such negligence so he still recognized Liu Qiang's ability. This small captain should be none other than him.

A few people returned to the special police detachment like this. Inside their detachment, Song Lin was waiting for them anxiously. You Er Niu saw that Song Ming didn't give him a good face, if he hadn't exposed it with the walkie-talkie just now.

They wouldn't have been so embarrassed just now. Thinking of this, he stepped forward angrily and asked directly, "Captain Song, what you did just now was a bit too much? We talked about abdominal interference before, but you just now It directly exposed our target."

Song Lin was a little embarrassed when he heard this, but he quickly changed the subject.

"We'll talk about this later. Now that there's an emergency in the urban area, and we're the closest, the leaders above asked us to arrive within 15 minutes."

Chapter 1179: 1st Independent Action

Li Erniu didn't look like he was joking, and he didn't want to talk about it with him. After all, the task was the most important thing. He snorted coldly, strode over, and stood in front.

Although Liu Qiang didn't know what happened, he vaguely remembered that during the previous shooting process, he did hear the sound of the walkie-talkie, so he fired.

Song Lin's complexion was very bad, but he asked everyone to gather first.

Qin Yuan didn't bother to argue with him now, so he stepped forward and asked, "What's going on now?"

"Just now we received a request from the command center for reinforcements. A BMW lost control in the direction of the city center. The driver of the car was unconscious, probably drunk."

Hearing this, Qin Yuan also paid attention to it. It turned out that the driver was under the influence of drugs, rampant on the street, causing several serial car accidents.

Not only that, after getting off the car, he directly hijacked a hostage and entered a large supermarket. There are now three hostages in total, and the hijacked man is unconscious and is confronting the police. They now request the special forces to dispatch , When necessary, directly kill the man.

Because the closest ones are Qin Yuan and the others, Liu Qiang originally thought that the task this time was probably to be completed by the red blood cell team, and they should not be able to occupy it at all.

Unexpectedly, Qin Yuan turned his head and looked at him and said, "All the Falcon commandos are there, and now they are going to the target location immediately."

When everyone heard the order, they didn't dare to hesitate, and got into the car quickly. While in the car, Liu Qiang finally couldn't help asking: "Brother Qin, what do you mean? Are we going to complete this task?"

"It's not you who are going to finish it, who else? It's very clear, this time it will be carried out by your Falcon commando team. After the goods arrive at the scene, I will not be in charge. Everything is up to you, understand?"

When Liu Qiang heard this, he instantly felt an invisible pressure. Everything before was training, including when he was in the special police brigade, he had never really taken over the burden of the task, and the other responsibilities were all taken by the captains. bear.

Song Lin sat next to him, and at first he didn't say a word, but he couldn't help but said, "Captain Qin, is it a bit unruly for you to do this? Anyway, he is still a newcomer. Even if it is established now, you will Commando, but his qualifications are not enough at all, it is too unruly and irresponsible for you to do so."

Hearing what he said, Qin Yuan rolled his eyes at him. This old boy always likes to be an afterthought. He thought he was the most cooperative before, but he didn't expect that he was secretly playing tricks against himself.

"Team Song, they are all your team members. Don't tell me you still don't trust your team members? And I have absolute confidence in the Falcon Commandos. They all passed the assessment just now."

Having said that, Song Lin was still very entangled. After all, this was a matter of life and death. No matter what, it was an assessment and training before, but this time they had to face real gangsters and protect the lives of the people.

"Captain Qin, I absolutely disagree with this situation. I don't allow you to take risks in the name of our entire brigade and the lives of those people. I think it's better to send another team."

This old guy is really stubborn, and he has said so much. In the end, Qin Yuan can only use his own identity to suppress him. Anyway, he is the commander-in-chief this time, and the higher authorities have given him very high rights. Song Lin had nothing to do with him.

Liu Qiang watched Qin Yuan fighting for his team, and it was the first time he felt that someone could trust him so much.

He hurriedly assured loudly: "Brother Qin, don't worry, I will definitely complete the task this time and absolutely guarantee the safety of the people."

Hearing his statement, the team members next to him also quickly expressed their attitude. Everyone was holding a breath in their hearts. They didn't expect that their own captain didn't even believe them.

During the recent training period, everyone worked very hard. The non-stop training, assessment, and elimination made their spirits close to a state of collapse. The pressure can be imagined, but in the end, it was their captain who didn't approve of it. .

The living * king they always thought of, has been training with them non-stop for their own good, and personally participated in the final assessment.

In any case, it is worthwhile not to steam the steamed buns. They will definitely complete the task beautifully this time. In another sense, this is also the first time that the Falcon Commando has completed the task independently, although this team has not yet completed the task. Fully formal establishment.

Qin Yuan is very confident in them. He followed everything in the previous system manual, and their abilities are absolutely fine.

Song Lin was a little restless by the side. Anyway, if something happened to him, he, the captain, would never be able to escape, but he couldn't talk to Qin Yuan, so in the end, he had to wait and see.

Soon Qin Yuan and the others arrived at the city center, and the surrounding area was completely cordoned off. The police stationed there saw their vehicles pass quickly and let them in.

Everyone is old acquaintances. Yang Hong from the third brigade saw Qin Yuan and hurried forward, "This is really a coincidence. I didn't expect you to be here. I thought it was only their special police brigade. If you If you can come, then there is absolutely no problem, this time I am very sure."

Yang Hong quickly introduced the situation at the scene. The place where the gangster took the hostages was behind a counter in the mall, and the counter presented a triangular space. In that place, the outside is easy to be exposed. As long as there is a slight movement, it will be exposed. In that guy's field of vision.

So now they don't dare to act rashly, and they must be killed by a single shot, otherwise the consequences will be disastrous.

"Captain Qin, now that you are here, we will be more confident. That guy doesn't have a gun, but he has already stabbed several people, and now the hostage in his hand has also been stabbed by him."

As Yang Hong said, she took a computer and adjusted the surveillance inside the mall, and she could clearly see the angle inside, but the angle was really harsh.

Under the surveillance screen, one can see a man wearing a peaked cap, covered in blood, waving a sharp knife in his hand, cursing, very emotional, and a person beside him has already fallen into a pool of blood.

There was still a person in his hand, and his knife kept waving, and the people next to him were so frightened that they dared not move at all.

These hostages are in an extremely dangerous state. After all, the guy is unconscious now and may hurt someone at any time, so they have to make a decision immediately.

Yang Hong is very hopeful, now that Qin Yuan, the  of war, is there, it is not a problem at all.

Just after he finished his eloquent speech, Qin Yuan unexpectedly turned his head and glanced at Liu Qiang.

"How is it? Do you understand what Team Yang said? Hurry up and make a plan."

Yang Hong was stunned when he heard this, and co-authored him to say that it was not their red blood cell team that was going to take action for a long time. He quickly asked: "Captain Qin, what's going on? Isn't your team going to take action?"

"That's right, Team Yang also gave their young people a chance. This one is the captain of the Falcon Commando. Don't worry, handing it over to them is the same as handing it over to me."

What Qin Yuan said completely shocked the other people present. Yang Hong was shocked because he said that he had never heard of this Falcon Commando.

And Liu Qiang was shocked because he somehow became the captain. Although he had been vaccinated before, but in the recent elimination, training, and assessment, he always felt that he did not have that confidence. Being a captain still requires a very strong ability.

He did intend to be the captain before, but later on he found that there were still many shortcomings in his abilities, and the teammates around him were very good.

He thought that to be the captain must go through other assessments, but he didn't expect to make such a hasty decision.

Yang Hong hesitated, but thinking about it, he was introduced by Qin Yuan again, so there should be no problem, although Liu Qiang in front of him looked very young.

Liu Qiang wanted to speak. What he lacked now was self-confidence. Unexpectedly, Qin Yuan simply ignored him, walked to the side, and talked about other things with Yang Hong.

It seems that there is really no way, this is to drive ducks to the shelves, but no matter what, they have to go through it. In fact, like today's assessment, it is completely close to actual combat training, because they have also experienced blasting and hunting.

Just as Song Lin was about to speak, Li Erniu pulled him away, "I'll tell you in advance, you'd better not disturb them and let those boys play well."

"Don't we really care about anyone? If something happens, who can delay it? It's human life. Are you kidding me?"

Li Erniu quickly covered his mouth and dragged him to the side. Of course, he knew that Liu Qiang and the others' abilities must be fine, but he just didn't want these people to affect their judgment.

Yang Hong didn't know very well, but with Qin Yuan by his side, he wasn't worried. He thought when the commando team was established, anyway, it shouldn't be a problem with Qin Yuan's introduction.

"Captain Qin, we haven't seen each other for a long time. You have also come to support our mission before. When this mission is over, we will have a good gathering. I can thank you for your help last time."

"Hahaha, you are joking, the matter of Team Yang is our responsibility."

Liu Qiang was by the side, trying to relax himself, and then he observed the situation on the screen. He had always thought of relying on Qin Yuan before, but now Qin Yuan has completely become a hands-off shopkeeper. In the next second, he immediately had a plan in his mind.

While the other team members were still struggling, Liu Qiang immediately started to deploy the plan.

"Zhao Gang, you and I have the best marksmanship among us. In addition to your previous training, the two of us can act as a double-tap and accept other people's cover."

In this way, everyone felt that there was no problem. Others could cover from the side to attract the attention of the gangster, and then they found a commanding height. Although the angle was harsh, as long as one shot hit, it shouldn't be a problem.

Qin Yuan had great confidence in them, so Song Lin kept looking in that direction. After about five minutes, there was a sudden burst of gunshots, two to be precise.

Because the two bullets were fired almost at the same time, but in different directions, one bullet hit the center of the eyebrow, and the other hit the heart. The man who was holding the knife just now fell to the ground in an instant.

The hostage in his hand was trembling with fright, and the other team members behind also went out directly. Song Lin ran over immediately when he heard the gunshots. No matter what, he was the team leader.

Seeing that the gangster was already lying in a pool of blood, he breathed a sigh of relief. This was exactly the result he wanted to see. I have to say that this group of boys is really not bad. They were able to shoot at such a harsh shooting angle within five minutes. The deployment is completed quickly.

Qin Yuan walked over to applaud them. Liu Qiang's eyes were full of excitement. To be honest, this was the first time he took on such a big responsibility and made such a command.

"How? I said before that you will definitely be able to become the team leader. Your aptitude is very good."

"Brother Qin, all this is thanks to your help. If you hadn't trained us, I wouldn't have been able to do this at all. To be honest, I was quite flustered just now, but I remembered your training."

It was only when Yang Hong heard this that he came to his senses. It turned out that they were a newly established special warfare team. Qin Yuan must have been too courageous, so he just used it to get started.

Even so, the task was completed beautifully, which made him a little impressed. Is their SWAT team so strong now?

Qin Yuan looked at the stunned Song Lin and patted him on the shoulder, "How is it? Team Song, my Falcon commando has done well, right?"

"I have to say, it seems that your training results are still very good. I didn't expect them to be able to do it. In fact, most of them are newcomers."

"In my opinion, they are not newcomers. They have completely surpassed the old commandos. They are a brand new commando that can perform special tasks under any harsh conditions."

This time Song Lin believed it. In addition to the previous assessment, under such conditions, their grades were also very good, and they completely carried out live ammunition drills.

"The special operations team here has been trained. They can complete tasks independently in all aspects. You can conduct assessments at any time. I have finished the training and tasks here, and I will leave tomorrow morning."

Hearing this, Song Lin was a little surprised. He really doubted Qin Yuan at first. He thought that Qin Yuan should be recruiting players for himself. After all, their favorite thing to do in the special warfare team is poaching people.

Unexpectedly, Qin Yuan was just silently doing his own job well. To put it bluntly, he was training players for them. Now that the players have been fully trained, he left directly.

Thinking of this, Song Lin felt a little guilty, he felt that he was treating the belly of a gentleman with a villain's heart.

Chapter 1180: very fit selection

"Captain Qin, but tomorrow is when they are established, and many leaders will come, shouldn't you be there? You are the one who has contributed the most."

"This credit does not belong to me, but to them. They have really worked hard during this period, and this is also their own hard work. Moreover, I have to go to other places for special training, so I will not participate."

Qin Yuan looked at the cheering Falcon team in the distance, waved at them, and then left silently with the red blood cell team. Song Lin chased after him, but he never said sorry.

"Captain Song, what are you doing here? We have our own car, so we'll go back by ourselves, so there's no need to send it off."

"Captain Qin, I mainly want to tell you something, that is..."

Seeing him struggling for a long time, Qin Yuan thought it was funny, and didn't make things difficult for him, but just waved his hand, "Forget it, everything is in the past and it's over, besides, there are better things waiting for you."

Song Lin sighed silently. It seems that he really thought too much before, and deliberately made things difficult for others in various aspects. On this point, from the perspective of the situation, he is really inferior to the young man in front of him.

Qin Yuan doesn't value such things as fame and fame anymore, he gets more things than these, besides, it's just some scenes.

He is more concerned about his merit points now. Before this team was thoroughly trained, he thought that the merit points would be strengthened to himself after the team was formally established. He did not expect that when they completed the task just now, the system had directly entered Rewards for meritorious service.

The system does not judge the timeline by the results, but by whether the team can complete the task independently. They are not only recognized by Qin Yuan, but also by the system.

He Chenguang drove the car ahead and asked, "Brother Qin, where are we going now?"

"It depends on your mood. You can go wherever you want. Anyway, now I think we really have to go all over the country."

Thinking of this, the only thing He Chenguang could think of was the armed police detachment. After all, they just came out of there today.

However, this armed police detachment also needs to set up an independent team, which is a bit difficult. Basically, they rarely act independently, and they all take the whole as a unit.

Because there are many places where armed police are used, basically it is to go into the mountains to conduct large-scale searches, as well as resources at the border. These tasks are relatively dangerous and difficult.

It also requires a lot of manpower, so the armed police provide most of the manpower.

"Brother Qin, would it be a little unrealistic if their armed police wanted to form a small team? After all, it's hard to break up the training as a whole unit."

"Then why do you think our special operations team can be separated? If you want to say this, we used to be based on single-platoon companies."

Speaking of which, everyone nodded in agreement. Indeed, there is an innovative statement for everything, and if they have strong capabilities, they have an independent team, which is more advantageous for them.

The leader of the armed police detachment was just about to rest when he heard the news of Qin Yuan's arrival. He felt strange that the team was established so quickly, which was too hasty.

Although he also saw their abilities today, he felt that he might have to train for a while, but he didn't expect that it only took him three months, from selection to training to establishment.

The head of the Armed Police Detachment came out to meet Qin Yuan in person, and greeted Qin Yuan with a smile. He really admired the person in front of him.

"Captain Qin, I have to say that your speed is really fast. I was wondering when it would be our turn? I didn't expect you to come."

"Hahahaha, it's also my brother. I let them go wherever they want. Anyway, my task this year is still relatively heavy. The main thing is to train the team. I want everyone to become stronger together. We can't just let us special The team is in the limelight, isn't it?"

Qin Yuan started the self-harm mode again. Anyway, he lowered his own side first, and then raised others up. However, this detachment leader is very humble. He knows how much the soldiers here are worth.

"Captain Qin, it's too polite of you to say that. I wish you could train me now. I saw the ability of their team today. To be honest, I'm quite envious. I hope you can also train us a team." Such a team."

This is of course no problem, and the leader of the armed police detachment is also a vigorous and resolute figure. He directly issued an order for everyone to get ready the next morning and participate in the selection.

If the armed police detachment needs to be selected, the number of people will be relatively large. Before the special police detachment, because they wanted to join the first team, they had already undergone very strict selection.

However, his selection this time is different, and it cannot be determined according to the previous conditions.

After coming here, it is similar to their experience in the brigade. Everyone's daily life and training methods are similar.

Qin Yuan was really looking forward to it. He wanted to see the situation of these armed police soldiers tomorrow morning. The detachment leader arranged the dormitory for them and then went back. Qin Zhengyang said while making the bed:

"Brother Qin, do you think it will be the same as before? I guess not many people are willing to participate?"

"Don't expect unknown things, we just need to do it, and it's their business whether they want to participate or not."

Qin Yuan didn't say much anyway, he had already memorized the training manual by heart, and he could start training directly after training. He was very satisfied with the training results of the Falcon Assault Squad.

The next morning, they still followed the previous agreement and blew the emergency assembly whistle half an hour in advance, but the effect was much better than that of the special police brigade.

Everyone gathered quickly and was full of energy. It seemed that everyone was very interested in this kind of selection. In fact, the most important thing was to get the support of the leaders above. It was because of Song Lin before, but this time it was their detachment leaders who were very supportive.

Seeing this scene, Qin Yuan was very satisfied. It would be relatively easy to train these armed policemen, but he mainly trained them in the jungle.

And in this team, he also saw a familiar figure, but he didn't expect the detachment leader to join in.

Qin Yuan didn't expect this, "I said Lei Detachment, you don't have to come in, after all, I'm training for them."

"It's okay, just treat me as if I'm here to experience it, don't worry, I won't take their places, I just accompany them, after all, it's hard work."

I have to say that it is really good that the team leader can do this, and he can really stand on the same level as his people.

For these armed policemen, what Qin Yuan needs to train most is to improve their physical fitness, agility and marksmanship, which is also the most basic and certain.

"Everyone, from now on, I will be your training instructor. It is possible that on the first day today, many of you will be eliminated. My elimination criteria are definitely aimed at your professionalism."

There is no doubt about this. Although he is from the Special Forces, his ability and reputation have long been heard.

After Qin Yuan finished his explanation, he took a special look at the dense crowd. This time there were quite a lot of people, but looking at the situation later, he wondered how many surprises he would be given today.

So from the very beginning, Qin Yuan came directly to dismount, and ran for 30 kilometers. Their armed raid this time was completely mountainous, and it was even more difficult than the training of their special police detachment before.

But no one complained, everyone packed up their equipment and set off, only running to the commander while explaining the situation of their detachment, they often provide support to the border area.

To be honest, I am very familiar with this kind of mountainous terrain, but dealing with those criminals in the border area is also very dangerous. Qin Yuan often cooperates with them on this task in the border area.

So the detachment leader is very willing to carry out such training. On the one hand, such training and elimination can improve the abilities of other armed police fighters, and on the other hand, it can truly select elite teams and reduce their casualties.

The detachment leader ran behind, pointed to the fastest running armed policeman and said, "Did you see that kid in front? His name is Zhao Yongtian. His brother was the kid who died on the border before. He came again this year. The usual results are pretty good."

Hearing this, Qin Yuan couldn't help but take another look at Zhao Yongtian. This kid has always maintained the first grade, and he seems to have good physical fitness.

But everything is still uncertain, and the detachment leader quickly explained that he didn't want to open the back door for him, but just reminded Qin Yuan.

In the 30km armed raid, everyone has been shuttling through the mountains since dawn, going uphill and downhill at one time. To be honest, it is really difficult to run in such a mountainous terrain.

Unexpectedly, halfway through the run, Qin Yuan suddenly blew his whistle to make everyone stop.

"Now there is an emergency situation, and a large pit with a height of 5 meters and a width of 10 meters needs to be dug for armed cover. The time is 30 minutes, and now the timing starts."

Everyone didn't hesitate, and quickly started to divide the work and cooperate. Each squad began to dig on the ground with the engineer shovel. Everyone didn't know what he wanted to do, but the time was no problem for them to dig this hole. After all, there were so many many people.

For the training of the armed police, Qin Yuan has to relax a lot, because they themselves have very strict requirements on themselves.

When the earth pit inside was about to be finished, Li Erniu was willing to let Li Erniu untie the bucket on his back. They were curious just now. Each of these team members carried a big bucket on their backs. They thought it was for them. Adding water, it seems that I really want to think too much.

As soon as the earth pit on this side was dug, Qin Yuan began to pour water into it. This amount of water would not be enough to fill the earth pit. What he wanted to do was to make the surroundings more slippery. He wanted to simulate another surroundings.

"Have you seen the hillside on the opposite side? Now everyone jumps from the pit to reach the hillside on the opposite side. I only need 60 people."

To be honest, the height of 5m is more difficult than the 2m high wall they usually train on, and now the inside has completely become a muddy state, and it is wet and slippery everywhere. Such a height must be matched.

This is what Qin Yuan wanted. He wanted to see how these people cooperated, because what he needed was a small team, and the most important thing among small teams was to cooperate with each other.

Including reaching the opposite hillside, where there is another test waiting for them, he just went there in advance to arrange it.

It was the first time for the detachment leader to see such a training method like him. It was quite interesting to ask his own people to dig a hole first, and then jump in. He became a hands-off shopkeeper.

Qin Yuan pressed the stopwatch in his hand and started counting, "What you need this time is not only time, but also the number of people. After reaching that position, I will not ask for the rest."

Hearing this, everyone began to scramble to jump into the pit, but it was not so easy to jump down and get up.

In the beginning, they were indeed cooperating with their shoulders to let the teammates in front go up, but as the number of people increased, the soil around the pit began to slowly collapse and become more slippery.

At this moment, Qin Yuan and the others have arrived at the hillside, which can be climbed with the ropes on their bodies. For these armed police soldiers, their usual tasks include rescue.

Qin Yuan took the lead to climb up the hillside and dropped three ropes. The detachment leader was stunned when he saw this scene from a distance. If he read correctly, Qin Yuan could climb up the almost vertical hillside with bare hands like that. This is too exaggerated.

In the end, the detachment leader also jumped into the pit. When he entered, he realized that it was not as simple as he imagined. Not only did it consume physical energy, but the equipment on them also became another burden. It takes a lot of their energy.

Looking at this small pit, I didn't expect to master so many skills, this love is really powerful, just like this small level, it actually stopped many people.

Many people have already come to the hillside. Everyone saw that there were only three ropes and quickly climbed up to buy time for the teammates behind.

Qin Yuan stood on the hillside and kept urging. "You guys better move faster. Although I said just now that 60 people are needed, as soon as the time is up, no matter whether there are 60 people or not, I will suspend the timing, and the rest will be eliminated."

Everyone heard this, how could there be only three ropes, how could so many of them go up?

A lot of time was wasted in the pit. According to the speed here, it takes at least two minutes for a person to go up with a rope, and this is a very fast speed. Normally, basically they have trained before. , The speed maintained was 3 minutes and 15 seconds, which was their passing score.

Qin Yuan looked at some of them hesitating, didn't say much, just jumped from the hillside and ran down the hillside like that.
