

Special Soldier 1401

Chapter 1401: You are also an instructor at the Hunter School

"It's easy to just get the training. What I want to tell you is that the others go to my office first."

After arriving at the office, Frank poured Qin Yuan a glass of red wine, "Because of this matter, I haven't had a good rest recently. There is really nothing I can do, so I want to ask you to help me with this. After all, you are also a hunter. The instructor of the school."

Speaking of this, Qin Yuan smiled awkwardly. Although he was said to be an instructor, he only came to train once, and he never helped out at other times. He just gave an empty name.

He quickly changed the subject and asked what was going on and who he wanted to train.

Only then did Frank talk about the specific situation. It turned out that the first season of training in the hunter school had been completed, and they had selected nine outstanding hunters in the last quarter.

They have all obtained the Hunter Medal, which is recognized by the Hunter School, but they all have to undergo specific training after passing the selection. This is the first time that the Hunter School has specially recruited externally. They are training power after hunter school. 81.m

After all, the hunter school here is not only for training and teaching of special missions, but also for performing various missions.

However, it was these nine people who completely baffled Frank. This team of only nine people was selected from among ten thousand people. This team is very difficult to manage. It can be said that everyone is an elite.

These elites are all gathered together, and no one will obey the other. More importantly, they will unite to fight against the instructor. Now in the Hunter School, it can be said that no one can control this team.

Frank drank all the red wine in the glass, and sighed long, "Even I and the others are not convinced, and now they have made some regulations as their separate training, but you know, this team was originally training Come out and become our weapons in the future, they are not under our control now, and it will be more difficult in the future."

This is indeed reasonable. As a soldier, especially a soldier, it is the most important thing for a special forces member like this to obey orders. No matter how strong this team is, it is useless to obey orders and obey the mission objectives issued by the commander. .

"I'm curious, have you used all those methods? It's useless to them."

"Because in recent years, many places have begun to imitate the training methods of our shopkeeper school. Our training methods have long been accustomed to them, so this time only nine people were selected, and they are all very capable."

It turned out to be the case. It seems that some special methods must be used. First of all, the instructor must convince them, otherwise they feel that the instructor is not as good as them, and they will not accept the training at all.

Frank also attaches great importance to this team. In fact, since the establishment of this team, they have also carried out some small tasks. They have performed three or four times with relative success. Unfortunately, this team does not listen to his management.

"Then where is this team now? Who is their instructor?"

"Their instructor is Major General Jerry, who previously served in the SEALs. You should know that he has pk'd us before."

Qin Yuan was impressed by this person.

"Brother Shen!"

"Um!"

Shen Changqing was walking on the road, and whenever he met familiar people, he would say hello or nod to each other.

But no matter who.

There is no unnecessary expression on everyone's face, as if they are indifferent to everything.

To this.

Shen Changqing is already used to it.

Because this is the Zhenmagic Division, an organization that maintains the stability of Daqin. Its main duty is to kill monsters and ghosts, and of course there are other side jobs.

It can be said.

In Zhenmensi, everyone's hands were stained with a lot of blood.

When a person is used to seeing life and death, he will become indifferent to many things.

When he first came to this world, Shen Changqing was a little uncomfortable, but he got used to it as time went by.

Anyone who enters the Town of Demons starts from the lowest level of Demon Slayers,

Then he was promoted step by step, and eventually he was expected to become a guardian envoy.

Shen Changqing's predecessor was a trainee demon slayer in the town of magic division, and he was also the lowest-ranked demon slayer.

He is also very familiar with Zhenmusi's environment.

It didn't take long for Shen Changqing to stop in front of an attic.

Different from other places full of chills in Zhenmagus, the attic here seems to stand out from the crowd. In the **** Zhenmagus, it presents a different tranquility.

At this time, the attic door was open, and occasionally people came in and out.

Shen Changqing just hesitated for a moment, then stepped in.

Entering the attic The environment changes in vain.

A scent of ink mixed with a faint smell of blood hit his face, making his brows furrowed instinctively, but then relaxed quickly.

There is almost no way to clean off the **** smell on everyone in Zhenmusi.

Chapter 1402: You are the most suitable candidate for this

There is basically no problem in close combat, they all use ultimate moves, and they have also been on the battlefield, so they have sufficient experience in all aspects. Qin Yuan admires such opponents very much.

There is generally no problem with his training methods. This guy has not only served in the Navy SEALs, but also served in a foreign mercenary group, so his training methods are quite experienced, and there will be no problems. right.

Just as someone was calling at the door, Frank stood up, and someone from the door came in. Qin Yuan looked up, and unexpectedly said that Cao Cao would be there, and it was Jerry.

At this moment, Jerry's nose was bruised and his face was swollen, his eyes were red, and he looked very embarrassed. The hair next to him was burnt and completely dry.

"Captain Qin, I really didn't expect it. I haven't seen you for a long time. Why are you here?"

When Jerry saw Qin Yuan, he was the first to say hello. This person is definitely very admired, and he is an absolute tough guy soldier in his mind.

"Qin Yuan was invited by me to let him help. After all, you know that those guys are really troublesome now. You have to hire a very good character to suppress them."

Hearing what Frank said, Jerry's eyes lit up instantly, as if he saw hope.

"Sir, are you serious? Do you mean that I can be free? I don't have to train them anymore."

Frank froze for two seconds, then hesitated, he looked at Qin Yuan, not sure if he would take over, "Wait a minute, we are talking about this, I was just about to say, just happened to be you, let's all come together Say it!"

But Jerry interrupted Frank, walked straight to Qin Yuan, his face full of excitement, "Captain Qin, I think you can definitely train them, you are the hero in my heart, you are so easy."

"It might not be good for me to intervene now. After all, you are their instructor now. I think you and I also recognize it very much. After all..."

"No, no, Captain Qin, I think you are the most suitable candidate. I will give you this position now, and I am willing to retreat to the back to study again."

Qin Yuan looked confused, what the ***** are these two guys doing? Especially when Jerry talked about letting him be an instructor, why was he so excited?

Watching them sing together, in the end Qin Yuan had no choice but to agree first. Anyway, he came here to agree to help them train. It doesn't matter if he agrees early or late, but at first he considered that someone else would be an instructor, so he intervened by himself. One foot is a bit out of place.

Hearing Qin Yuan's promise, Jerry jumped up happily and danced beside him. This Major General Jerry had a deep impression on him before Qingyuan, but this person is heavy and mature, basically he will not be like this.

While cheering, Major General Jerry stepped forward and hugged Qin Yuan and said some words of thanks. Then he was worried that Qin Yuan would repent, so he didn't give him any chance to speak, so he turned around and left. Before going out, he didn't forget to look at Frank and say One sentence. 81.m

"Sir, you heard what Captain Qin said. He said he wanted to save it. If that's the case, then I'll go back and study. Goodbye!"

It could be felt that he was so happy from the bottom of his heart that he had completely escaped from here, which made Qin Yuan a little confused, and Frank hesitated and said nothing.

"Brother Shen!"

"Um!"

Shen Changqing was walking on the road, and whenever he met familiar people, he would say hello or nod to each other.

Chapter 1403: did you see something

Qin Yuan has always acted swiftly and resolutely. He turned his head and looked at Frank, saying that he wanted to see what kind of roles this group of special forces members were.

But Frank seems to have other secrets, "Don't worry about this matter. You just came today, and we haven't entertained you well. Now that the matter has been settled, it's not too late to go to them tomorrow. I will give you a good reception tonight. Let's have a good drink."

Seeing Frank's enthusiasm, Qin Yuan couldn't refuse. Everyone sat around drinking and eating barbecue at night, but Jerry was not seen.

Qin Yuan was still curious, so Frank had no choice but to say that Jerry went home to recuperate, and he specially approved it. After all, the training during this period made him burnt out, and it happened that Qin Yuan came to take over and he could go back to rest.

During the period, many people came to the reception, most of them were instructors from the Hunter School, Qin Yuan was familiar with them, and some newly recruited team members had heard of Qin Yuan's reputation, so they all greeted with a smile.

It's just that Qin Yuan became more and more curious about their identities when he didn't see that special team.

"Why doesn't that team come to eat together?"

"Well, they are still students after all, so I didn't ask them to come here. We won't mention that tonight, so I will give you a good reception."

Frank obviously wanted to change the subject, and immediately raised his wine glass. Qin Yuan had already seen through everything, what exactly did this team do, and made them avoid it as soon as they talked about this topic.

Qin Yuan also pretended not to know, anyway, no matter how difficult a person is, he is nothing in front of him.

Drinking and eating meat here is very lively. On the other side, in the mobile independent small building, there is a sniper lying on the roof, observing every move on the opposite playground.

Several other people were sitting around the bed, playing poker, "Black Bear, what's wrong with you? Can you play faster? It's time for you to leave."

"Don't be so anxious, take your time, besides, we have nothing to do."

"Hawkeye, do you see anything up there?"

"Everything is normal, but the kid next to Frank doesn't know, he's never seen it before."

"By the way, that trash Jerry should come to train us tonight, why hasn't he shown up at this time?"
m.81.m

"I don't think this guy will show up today. I saw him leave in the car in the evening, I don't know where to go."

"Sure enough, he is a pure waste. The person I look down on the most in my life is this kind of person, and he is still qualified to be our instructor, hehe, even I can't beat him, so what are you doing as an instructor?"

A few people began to mock without hesitation. They felt that Jerry was not worthy of teaching them at all, and those injuries on Jerry's body were all thanks to them. After all, they were very good at punishing people.

Jerry began to conduct intensive special training for them according to his training in the SEALs. The most common training method for the commandos is tear gas attacks, which is also basic training.

It turned out that they bounced back his tear gas bomb just after throwing it in, and locked Jerry in a separate room.

It took a full half an hour to release Jerry. Jerry can be said to be miserable.

"Brother Shen!"

"Um!"

Shen Changqing was walking on the road, and whenever he met familiar people, he would say hello or nod to each other.

Chapter 1404: morning surprise

And no matter what kind of training they do, they will be tricked by them against the generals. These people are the elite among the elites, and their agility and methods are very powerful. Conventional methods can't deal with them at all.

The awareness of anti-reconnaissance is also very strong, and several instructors have been removed according to this method, because they feel that there will be no one to teach them in the hunter school, and they want to be instructors themselves.

But it is precisely because this team has no leader, and now the captain has to be elected. Unfortunately, everyone is very strong, and the position of captain has not yet been announced.

This is why Frank said they were difficult to manage. It can be said that all the well-known instructors in the entire Hunter School have trained with them, but they ended up miserable. Either they were turned against them or they simply looked down on them.

Jerry is still relatively good, at least with Qin Yuan to cover the bag, he retreated completely, and the most serious instructor before was paralyzed by them.

But even if this is the case, it is just a training accident, and this matter will be left alone. They can only send new instructors to them, but they are not convinced.

These few people are not restrained by the instructors now, they let themselves go even more, and do whatever they want directly in the dormitory, which is still far away from the camp.

Just as Hawkeye continued to observe, suddenly a cold gaze looked towards him, and he couldn't help shivering, and when he looked from inside, he saw Qin Yuan sitting in the middle of the camp playground facing his direction I can see it.

He quickly shook his head, could it be an illusion? Why is that guy's eyes so terrifying? And with endless killing intent.

"Damn, what's going on? The way that kid looks at me makes me very uncomfortable."

"Hawkeye, this is rare. It's rare for you to make such an evaluation."

Hawkeye didn't speak, and continued to observe and found that Qin Yuan had turned his head, because Frank was diverting his attention at this time.

Although Qin Yuan's eyes had already left, he still felt deep fear. Even though it was just a glance, that person's eyes were really terrifying.

At this moment, Frank saw the direction Qin Yuan was staring at, "What are you looking at? Hurry up and eat something, today is supposed to catch the wind for you."

"Why did you arrange snipers over there?"

Frank's expression froze, he was a little surprised, it's really unusual to be Qin Yuan, he can find them from such a distance.

"That's right, that's the team I was talking about over there, and they're right there."

"Oh, it looks like it's from our own people. I thought someone had sneaked in. After all, when you and I just came here, I already knew that there was a sniper at all the sniper spots."

When Qin Yuan said this, he understated it, and didn't take it seriously at all. The people next to him were already speechless in surprise. Now it was night, how did he find out that there was a sniper on the opposite side?

In this way, Frank became more and more worried because of the recent training, drinking one glass after another, and gradually he became a little drunk.

In order not to delay tomorrow's work, he had no choice but to leave first. Just after he left, an instructor walked up to Qin Yuan. Eight 1 Chinese Network

"Captain Qin, to be honest, I admire you very much, but the principal just said something here that I can't say much..."

Chapter 1405: there is no way to go into detail

"But I think I should tell you anyway."

The speaker was the instructor who had partnered with Qin Yuan before, "What's the matter? After all, we are all friends, you can just say what you want, there is no need to hide it like this."

"It's like this. The team you are going to train is very difficult. Let's put it this way, all the instructors here have trained them."

what! This surprised Qin Yuan. He thought that what Frank said was just a joke, but he didn't expect that all the instructors had been trained.

After hearing what the instructor said, the atmosphere on the table was a little delicate, and no one else spoke, and the entire playground was very quiet in an instant.

At this time, an instructor sitting opposite also stood up and said, "Yes, he is right. In my opinion, that team is composed of jerks. They don't respect people. They don't know what rules are. A bunch of bastards."

This was the first time Qin Yuan heard someone call a member of the Special Forces as a bastard, and the people next to him seemed to agree with it very much, and they all stood up and said that was the case.

Just as he was talking, the instructor on the opposite side slowly pulled up his sleeves, "They will directly take pranks on instructors who don't approve and are not convinced. They are the ones who caused the injury on my hand."

Qin Yuan looked at it, but he didn't expect it to be a gunshot wound. This kind of gunshot wound would be quite normal if it were normal, but he wouldn't believe it if he said it was a prank.

"Why is it so big? Is this a joke, or I didn't understand your joke."

"That's why I said they were a bunch of bastards. It was cheap to say they were tricks. To put it bluntly, they intentionally hurt people, but Frank didn't think so. He thought they were a very strong force."

Under their chatter, the lover knew that these people were not simple. Although they were very capable, it was precisely because of this that they were defiant.

All the instructors have been tricked by them. This kind of trick is basically a fatal threat, but they don't want them to train.

But although these instructors were injured, everything was faked by them as an accidental injury during training, and there was no way to investigate this matter in detail.

And they also talked about what happened to Jerry. Jerry was the last to take over and was tortured by those guys for a whole week, but he had no choice but to bite the bullet because he was an instructor.

Qin Yuan felt a little unbelievable when he heard this. Anyway, he had to reveal his identity. They were instructors. Could it be that they were so difficult to manage?

"Captain Qin, you may think that we are useless when you hear us say this, but you know that we have met many people in this local school and trained many students. This is the first time I have seen it. It can be said that they almost died under their guns."

Speaking of those people, everyone was very angry, so they couldn't help but remind Qin Yuan to pay attention.

Not only that, the place Qin Yuan saw just now is the dormitory where they live. It was originally required that all the students must live in one place, but these guys are very arrogant. They feel that they have a special status and are more powerful than the instructor. Cannot live with other people.

So I lived alone in the previous training building

Chapter 1406: become their opponent

It was originally a place for them to train, but now it can only be vacated as their residence.

They have to enjoy special treatment, not only to have a separate residence, but also to have the same standard of food as the colonel.

The reason why they can be so rampant is also because their abilities are obvious to all. They have indeed completed several missions recently, but such a team is also dangerous and does not accept any enlightenment.

The tasks are all completed according to their own requirements. Their abilities are too strong, and no one can manage this team well, so Frank also has a headache.

"With all due respect, I think if this is the case, then they are actually a group of bandits, and they are forcibly referred to as special forces."

The instructor next to him agreed very much, because he felt that the first point of soldiers is to obey orders, these people can't do it at all, and they don't have any compassion.

"Captain Qin, you are our friend. We don't want you to be hurt. If it's really not possible, then we will join hands. We have already made preparations."

After he finished speaking, he took out a list from behind, which was a joint application of the instructors at the Hunter School. They requested that the team be disbanded immediately and sent out directly.

Such a team is too dangerous, no one can manage it, and the local school can't handle it, so they plan to put pressure on Frank and disband the team.

Qin Yuan fell into deep thought when he saw the list. After a while, he asked a key question.

"Then have you ever thought that since these guys are so powerful, if you really let them out and no one cares, you will have no restraint at all. Wouldn't it be a very dangerous force?"

"this..."

Everyone fell silent for a while. After all, they felt that this team was a hot potato right now, and the farther away the better, no one cared about the future at all.

In fact, if you think about it carefully, the biggest threat is after they are dispersed. Without such restraint, they will be more unscrupulous and may become their opponents.

"So this problem still has to be solved fundamentally. Don't worry, leave this matter to me. I will definitely train it. I have met many people and soldiers. I can handle any kind of people." Get out of training."

The instructor who reminded Qin Yuan just now smiled helplessly, "In this case, I hope Captain Qin can really do it. I wish you good luck."

Everyone explained a few more words, and just like that, the whole venue was completely over. Qin Yuan looked at the place he was observing before, and the sniper had already gone down. In this way, he became more and more interested in these people.

Frank woke up early the next morning, and now he has one more important matter to deal with. Qin Yuan should take over this team today, and he must first give that team a vaccination.

He has been dragging Qin Yuan like this all the time, just because he is worried that he will go back on his word. Anyway, let's get used to it slowly. You can't just run away when a talent just comes. It's not that he doesn't have confidence in Qin Yuan, but that the instructors in the whole school are doing it. indefinite.

It's already 7 o'clock in the morning, and everyone has already woken up for training. The first batch of rookies who came here are still undergoing endless torture.

Chapter 1407: don't care

These people are still sound asleep.

Frank took two assistants over there, and the assistant blew the emergency assembly downstairs for five minutes, but there was still no movement.

He was a little angry, and walked up directly with his assistant. Unexpectedly, the three of them had just gone up, and suddenly the assistant called out.

"There are grenades!"

Frank was also a fast performer, and the three of them jumped down quickly, followed by a grenade explosion at the top of the stairs. This kind of grenade was used for training.

Although the power is not that great, there are still some shrapnel inside, which is really too dangerous. Frank's face is full of anger, these guys are really going too far.

"What the ***** are you ***** doing? Give me all of them."

It seemed that Frank was really angry, coupled with the sound of explosions, at this time Hawkeye yawned and walked down from the stairs.

"Hello, good morning!"

"You have to give me an explanation. What's going on? And what time is it? Why don't you get up for training?"

"It's still early. Our training time is random. Now we don't receive training. It happens to be a rest day."

The guy's tone was very contemptuous, and he didn't even pay attention to Frank. The secretary next to him was very angry, "How did you talk to the principal? You must first salute when you see the chief. Have you forgotten the basic etiquette? "

Hawkeye can only do so perfunctorily. After all, Frank has nothing to do with them. This early in the morning gave him such a big surprise. Frank is now covered in dust, and he asked very, very angrily. what's going on?

"It's very simple, mainly to prevent the enemy from coming up."

"What do you mean? This is Hunter School, what are you doing? Do you know? You almost hurt the principal just now."

"Please, please make it clear that you didn't say hello when you came here. Who is to blame? We have this thing everywhere."

Frank was so angry that he couldn't speak. These guys are really getting more and more rampant now, and they can't control it at all.

It doesn't make any sense to continue arguing now, he just said coldly, "You guys better behave yourself later, there will be a new instructor, this is my last instructor, if he bothers If you don't want to leave, then you can figure it out for yourself."

Frank can be said to be another threat. If Qin Yuan can't do it, this team may really have to be disbanded.

Hawkeye smiled, waved his hand at the end, and went upstairs nonchalantly.

"Sir, you see this guy is really crazy, why is he with this attitude?"

"Are there still few of them with such an attitude? I don't even know whether my original decision was right or wrong. I only hope that Qin Yuan can really control it."

Frank looked at the blasted debris around him. No wonder the previous instructors were injured again and again. These guys were too ruthless, and more importantly, they were so ruthless to their own people.

The few people had no choice but to leave in such a disheartened manner. After Hawkeye went up, he casually talked about the situation. This was already commonplace for them, and more than a dozen instructors had been changed in the past month.

A few more will not have much impact on them, they can deal with it whatever they want, if they are not convinced, they will not be convinced.

Chapter 1408: ate a dumb loss

In fact, it can be said that they are not unconvinced, they just want to establish prestige in the hunter school. You must know that when they were students, they were taught like dogs by those instructors. This is the most unacceptable point for them. In fact, his own strength is also very strong, and he must not be convinced by other people's discipline.

So what they are asking now is to treat them specially. They feel that their abilities are already the strongest in the hunter school, and they don't need any instructors to teach them.

Frank had considered this issue before, and later changed other plans to let them be directly under his leadership, but these guys were not satisfied yet.

Being under his direct leadership is enough to save face for these people. After all, it can be said that they have been given the greatest rights in the Hunter School, but these guys feel that it is not enough.

That's why they keep making trouble like this, they want to let the hunter school see their true strength.

And after a few missions, other places have also thrown olive branches at them. They can say that there is a way forward now, and there is no danger of retreating.

Lao Hei, who was sleeping on the side, knocked out his shoes impatiently, "Aren't you letting people sleep in the morning?"

"Old Hei, hurry up and discuss countermeasures, haven't you heard? The new instructor is coming."

"Damn it, it doesn't matter if he comes or not, even if the new instructor comes, I have to let him kowtow three times here."

This guy's tone is very arrogant. After all, he made such a big commotion, and several people woke up. They got up to discuss countermeasures. This is their usual style. As long as an instructor comes, they have to deal with the newcomers once and for all. Instructor.

"I don't even pay attention to Frank, let alone any newcomers. I haven't eaten with them in the past two days, and I don't know who this new instructor is."

"What? Are you afraid? Who cares who he is? As long as we come, we will let him know who is the boss."

At this time, he wiped the sniper rifle silently, "I think the instructor who came this time may not be too simple, do you remember the person I mentioned yesterday?"

"You're talking about that yellow-skinned kid, that's the one, hahaha, let's beat him ten times."

Now that everyone laughed out loud when they said this, their tone was full of contempt and ridicule. After all, people of the yellow race would still be treated differently here, especially a big guy like Old Hei.

They do have a certain advantage in terms of height and strength, and with the blessing of this advantage, they are indeed stronger than some people.

Frank had a closed door here, and was so disgraced by the so-called surprise they sent early in the morning. When he was thinking about what to say to Qin Yuan in the office, he didn't expect Qin Yuan to come.

"I said Colonel Frank, why don't you arrange work for me quickly? After all, I have other things to do over there, and I just want to finish things here as soon as possible."

"Don't worry about this. I'm deploying staff. They have other tasks."

Frank couldn't think of any other refusals, so he could only quickly make an excuse to get over it. Qin Yuan must not be allowed to go through this situation now, and those ***** don't know what the ***** will happen.

Qin Yuan looked Frank up and down at this time, he was disheartened.

Chapter 1409: have an illusion

There was some wall dust on the clothes next to him, where did he go this early in the morning? It's so embarrassing.

In addition, he heard an explosion in the morning. According to his deduction, it should be the May 4th training bomb. Looking at Frank's situation, did this guy go to the training ground in the morning?

"It's just that you are so disheartened about where you went this early in the morning. Even if you are going to training, you shouldn't be wearing such formal clothes. At least you have to change into regular clothes."

When Frank was thinking of a way, how to find an excuse to prevaricate, the secretary in the room came in, and the secretary was furious.

"Colonel Frank, I think these ***** should be severely punished. Bath's eardrums have been damaged! And..."

Just when he was going to continue talking, Frank kept winking at him, and only then did he notice that Qin Yuan was sitting opposite him.

He quickly closed his mouth, forced a smile, and slowly backed out, "Since Captain Qin is here, I won't bother you."

When Frank turned his head, he saw Qin Yuan looking at him meaningfully, and he had actually judged it from their conversation.

"Don't think too much, it's just that something unexpected happened when I was training with those rookies this morning."

"Colonel Frank, it seems that things are not that simple! If my guess is correct, the special team that you are in such a mess should be responsible for it. If you are really a rookie, you should not be so angry. When I came in, I saw that you were actually very angry, but you were restrained."

Frank saw that the situation had been seen through, "I really can't help it, it seems that you are still so smart, I really didn't do it because of training this morning."

Up to now, he can only tell the whole thing. After he finished speaking, he has been observing Qin Yuan's reaction. He wants to see how Qin Yuan's attitude is.

After all, a person like him cares about his reputation now. If even he can't handle the team, it will definitely affect his reputation in the future, so he won't take over.

Unexpectedly, Qin Yuan agreed without hesitation. According to him, what he likes most is challenges. If there is no challenge, then he is not interested. Everything has been going so smoothly for him recently. Encountered something difficult and challenging.

"Don't worry, just these few stabbing soldiers, I promise to give you a smooth stroke. According to our words, they will become pacesetters tomorrow."

Frank Ma Nian smiled wryly. He patted the dust off his body. If this is the case, that would be fine. He doesn't expect to become a pacesetter tomorrow, at least he can guarantee that it will not be as exaggerated.

After Qin Yuan said hello, he set out towards the small building, but what he didn't know was that the group of guys had already set a trap for him, waiting for him to go inside.

Hawkeye and the others felt that their preparations were absolutely fine. Although these guys did some **** things, they were also very smart, and the various tactical arrangements were really good.

Hawkeye, as a sniper, lay on the commanding heights as the first observation. As soon as Qin Yuan entered the area they covered, they immediately set up traps and waited for him to come.

It's just that he had an illusion, the look in this person's eyes last night was really terrifying

Chapter 1410: 1 foot empty

He didn't know if their trick today would be successful.

After more than ten minutes, Hawkeye saw Qin Yuan with his hands behind his back from the commanding heights, slowly approaching this side, he hurriedly notified the teammates below, everyone had made all preparations, and the wooden stakes at the door had been arranged up.

Qin Yuan saw Hawkeye as soon as he looked up, and he knew that this group of boys definitely didn't hold their farts well. In addition, Frank had suffered such a big loss this morning. Don't let him, the new instructor, be made into something by them. .

When he walked to the front, he saw that there was a trap under the grass. The trap was indeed made to a certain standard. If it was someone else, he would definitely not be able to spot it, but his eyesight was a piece of cake for him, so he just ignored it slightly. I found the clue at a glance.

But now he can't expose it so early, he has to lure people out first, after all, the main purpose is to teach them a lesson first, let them know that he, the new instructor, is not to be bullied.

Qin Yuan strode up to the top of the trap just like that. The trap is actually a more traditional deep pit. A huge pit was dug under the trap, filled with water and covered with turf as a cover.

This scene completely stupefied the people nearby. Qin Yuan didn't fall, but also stood on the lawn and looked around.

Everyone was stunned. This is absolutely impossible. The lawn is only a thin layer, and it will definitely fall off when touched. How could it be so stable.

"Damn it, old black, how did you set up a trap? Are you reliable?"

"It's absolutely impossible. Damn, did this kid go the wrong way? I'm absolutely fine. With this guy's weight, I've already fallen."

"Forget it, don't ***** talk, you'll be discovered later."

Qin Yuan was already heading in their direction, and he seemed to have noticed their every move, but he didn't say anything, and then he stepped on the lawn twice, and then walked over slowly.

After Qin Yuan walked over, Lao Hei couldn't believe it and stepped forward. Just now that guy was walking on a flat road, and there was no problem at all. This is not right.

When Lao Hei was about to step on it with his left foot, he suddenly stepped on the ground and fell directly into the deep pit they dug, covered in muddy water.

Qin Yuan also came out from the side when he heard the commotion. Seeing the distressed appearance of several people, he burst out laughing.

"It seems that you are really enthusiastic. Did you come out to welcome the new instructors? I don't think they are right. You are very enthusiastic about the new instructors, and you use such a big battle."

Old Hei couldn't tell because he was suffering, so he could only stare at Qin Yuan viciously, wondering what kind of trick this kid was playing, and why he was fine when he stepped on it, and he failed when he stepped on it.

Anyway, there were other things waiting for him ahead, everyone was seen through, so they could only follow in a desperate manner. In addition, there were three people in the small building, besides Hawkeye, there were two other teammates, and they were all ambush there.

Although a few people were a little unconvinced, they still followed behind. After all, they wanted to see Qin Yuan's jokes. This guy might have just been lucky and escaped a catastrophe, but he might not be sure later.

Soon he came to the entrance of the small building, the stairway was exploded and there were debris everywhere
