

Special Soldier 1411

Chapter 1411: Are you kid looking for death?

It can be seen that Frank and the others should have been bombed here just now, and there are some new walls beside them.

These guys are really good at playing, and there will be problems with the training bombs. Qin Yuan walked upstairs slowly and saw at a glance that there was a fishing line attached to the grenade at the corner of the stairs, and the fishing line was very thin.

No wonder Frank and the others didn't see it, because it was in their own camp, and everyone would have no defense at all. With such a thin fishing line, coupled with the lack of light here, there was no way to find it.

Qin Yuan walked up, and the people behind subconsciously stopped.

"Why don't you guys come up? Hurry up and take me to see what your team members are like?"

Several people were guilty at first, and there was a grenade in front of them. The power of that thing was very powerful, so none of them dared to step forward. Lao Hei standing in front was covered in mud and water.

"Instructor, I think you should go up first, we will wait for you below."

This sounded right, Qin Yuan smiled, and wanted to fight him with this little trick, he nodded, then took a big step forward, directly crossed the fishing line, and in the next few No one has ever heard the sound of the explosion.

Everyone felt strange, it has been such a long time, even the speed of the tortoise has climbed to the top, why hasn't it exploded?

They made this fishing line very precisely, and there is absolutely no possibility of problems. Could it be that this guy is so lucky that he avoided the good luck one after another?

Just as several people slowly poked their heads out and kept looking forward, a grenade flew out.

"I rely on it!"

"Damn it! What the hell!"

"Damn it! Get down, get down!"

A few people jumped away in fright, and then the grenade made a huge explosion sound. Unexpectedly, since it was a live ammunition, the power of this power really made the dust on the small building next to it fall down to the side.

A huge dirt pit exploded on the ground, and the marbles in the grenade flew out and hit the opposite wall.

Several people were confused by the sudden grenade, Lao Hei got up, walked to the side, and slapped Lao Liu on the head.

"I said, are you looking for death? Tell you to play training bombs, what are you really doing? You almost killed all the brothers."

This training bomb was arranged by Lao Liu. He is very experienced in placing grenades. At this moment, he was completely blinded by the bomb, stood up and shook his head.

"Absolutely impossible, nonsense, do you think I will make that kind of joke? I don't even know what's going on."

"You don't know who knows this thing, but you installed it! It's not your fault, who else?"

When several people were making noise, Qin Yuan still smiled all over his face, and then walked down the stairs, "Stop making noise, this is a little gift from me, isn't this a training for you? It seems that the reaction The strength is pretty good."

Hei couldn't help but get angry when he heard this. They have always been playing tricks on others. They didn't expect to be tricked by others now, and they learned a lesson. This guy is too exaggerated. He directly pointed his grenade at people side throw.

"You call this a gift, do you know that it will kill people? That thing is so explosive!"

Lao Hei was so angry that he was a little out of breath when he spoke. On the one hand, he was being tricked, and on the other hand, he really escaped death just now.

Chapter 1412: play big

Qin Yuan made an expression of indifference, "It seems that you still know a little about the seriousness of the matter. I thought you were joking and didn't do it. I was imitating you."

Old Hei clenched his fists. This new instructor is really not easy. He played such a big game for them as soon as he came, and he saw through all the traps in front. This guy seems to have two brushes.

Qin Yuan cleared his throat and told them to follow quickly. When they passed the training bomb they placed, he pointed to the crater on the ground.

"Your things are too childish. We say that you can only play in kindergartens. Just don't show this little thing out of shame. Just play if you want to play. Do you really understand?"

The sixth child was very unconvinced when he heard this, and rushed forward with his fists clenched. This guy taunted them again and again.

However, he just went up and Qin Yuan was condescending, turned around, and according to his shoulder, he found that he couldn't even punch out. The power of one hand.

"What? Does this student have any questions? Don't ask the teacher so actively. Remember to report any questions in the future, and the teacher will teach you well."

Qin Yuan teased them again, and the sixth child felt itchy in his heart, but there was nothing he could do, he couldn't even move now.

The people next to him also found it strange that this old Liu would rush up and beat people up immediately if he disagreed with him, but now it's not like his style at all.

But it's not easy to talk too much in front of Qin Yuan, so in the end the sixth child could only smile on his face, and slowly backed away.

"This classmate wants to ask questions in the future, so he must make a report, you know? I know you are hardworking students, and the teacher is very pleased."

"OK!"

Lao Liu said these words almost gnashing his teeth. Just as he stepped back, the strength on his shoulders was completely loosened. It was really too painful. Half of his shoulders are now in a state of paralysis. This guy's strength is really strong. It's too scary.

Qin Yuan continued to walk forward, and Lao Hei stepped forward and stabbed Lao Liu in the waist, "You say you are a coward, why don't you dare to go up? Usually, you beat us very hard."

"Damn it, I admit it this time, so let him not do it next time."

There was a hint of ferocity in the eyes of the sixth child, and everyone followed Qin Yuan and continued to move forward. At this time, it was time for the two people ambushing on the side to prepare. They took the traditional chili water and splashed it on their bodies.

This kind of chili water is not usually made of devil's pepper and a strong smell of pepper. Let alone splashing on the eyes, even if it is splashed on the body, the skin will be red and swollen for several days, painful and itchy.

The two people behind the door were already ready, and when they were willing to open the door, they poured two pots of chili water on him, to see what he would do when the time came, and to see how he could hide so directly.

These guys are also very good at playing, and they don't care whether they will be discovered, or what kind of division they will face after being discovered, because they know that the hunter school values their ability very much, so they become so helpless. feared.

Qin Yuan walked to the door, and just when he was about to push the door, he stopped suddenly.

Chapter 1413: ambush at the commanding heights

"Call them out, I won't go in, and I won't investigate your internal affairs today, let's take them out first, let everyone have a look, and then investigate tomorrow."

Isn't this a proper way to play them? Qin Yuan deliberately teased them with this fishing method, and the few people behind were all ready to watch a good show, but Qin Yuan did not expect him to do this.

He was far away, but then he stepped forward again, "Instructor, then this is not acceptable. Inspection of internal affairs is your standard. Besides, the previous instructors have come to inspect, so you have to take a look."

"Looking at what you said, I am very relieved of you. Why do you need to check? I believe that you are qualified soldiers, and internal affairs are the basic standards. There is absolutely no problem, so I will not check."

Seeing that Qin Yuan was about to leave, several people were a little anxious. They even pushed and pulled to prevent Qin Yuan from leaving. After all, they had been preparing for such a long time, and everything in front had no effect on Qin Yuan, how could they be willing? No matter what happens today, we must give him a blow.

Qin Yuan had seen through their tricks a long time ago and knew that there were people at the door. Just as they were tugging at each other, Qin Yuan was extremely fast, rushed forward with one stride, and kicked the door open.

The two people ambushing at the door didn't know what was going on. Anyway, the door opened, and they just splashed it outside. This was planned before. The remaining few people were responsible for attracting people up. After they came up, they would splash pepper water .

Qin Yuan kicked the door open, then rolled and hid to the side, all the pepper water splashed on the people behind him, and there was a burst of screams in an instant.

The two who were splashing water wanted to watch the fun, but they didn't expect to splash on their own people and ran out quickly.

The few people on the ground kept screaming. After all, the feeling can be imagined, and they paid attention to the important thing when they prepared it.

"Hey, I said what are you guys doing? Why are you splashing water? Look at how careless you are, you just ran on someone else."

Qin Yuan simply pretended not to know, and the two of them were also stunned. They had suffered from being dumb, and now they couldn't say anything, so they could only endure the pain. Seeing their distressed appearance, Qin Yuan felt even more I was so happy that I just happened to avenge others.

At this moment, the last person is Hawkeye. This guy is lying in ambush at the commanding heights. Although the training bullets of this kind of sniper rifle will not cause much damage, this position is too close.

At such a close distance in this position, if you accidentally hit a shot, you are unlucky and you will break your bones.

Hawkeye couldn't care too much, he saw the people below kept gesticulating at him, no matter what, Qin Yuan must be cleaned up today, he shot without saying a word, but he was about to detain him just now. When the trigger was pulled, a throwing knife hit his helmet directly.

This scene frightened him instantly, he didn't dare to move, he could feel that the blade of the knife had just pierced his scalp, only a few millimeters away.

This is really too thrilling, Qin Yuan's strength control is really too strong, he can hit the vital point, and he will never let it go, this is just to tease them.

Hawkeye waited for a long time before slowly coming down from the attic. Qin Yuan began to look around. The whole room can be described as dirty and messy, with smoke everywhere on the ground.

Chapter 1414: There is no chance of resistance at 1 point

Playing cards, the whole housekeeping is out of shape.

These guys wanted to clean up Qin Yuan at the beginning, but they were tossed so badly.

"As far as the sanitation you are doing, to be honest, our military dogs over there are more formal than yours. What is this?"

Old Hei and the others had already been dealt with, and he was very unconvinced. After being complained about again, he rushed up with red eyes, "Why do you say that about us? What kind of onion are you? And look at us For the current injury, I will go to the principal now, and I must make an explanation."

"Oh, what are you talking about? Didn't you make these things yourself? You have to figure out that I didn't touch you all the time!"

Old Hei couldn't win against Qin Yuan, so you clenched your fists and just hit him directly. Anyway, he's going to go all out, and he can't let this guy take advantage.

This guy was already in pain from being sprayed with chili water just now, but Qin Yuan didn't move at all, he just stretched out his hand and rubbed it, which directly poked his eyes.

Old Hei screamed, subconsciously covered his eyes, willing to sweep his legs, and the tall and tall Old Hei fell heavily to the ground.

It only took five or six seconds for this guy to be overturned, and the people around him were stunned. What level is this? Old Hei's physique was placed there, how could such a sweeping leg hit him?

"This is the first lesson for you. Remember to respect the teacher. I am your instructor, so naturally I am your teacher. Keep your attitude low, and I will teach you well."

Old Hei fell to the ground cursing, this guy didn't play cards according to common sense at all, if this is the case, they can't be blamed.

"Damn it, what are you guys doing? Didn't you see me being beaten up? Let's go together, are you still waiting for this kid to kill us?"

Without any hesitation, no one rushed forward. Qin Yuan punched Lao Liu in the chest. The guy flew out completely, and another side kick hit Hawkeye's chin.

Qin Yuan's speed was really too fast, and these people cooperated closely, but Qin Yuan broke through them one by one, and couldn't form a formation at all.

Qin Yuan recognized the abilities of these people, and when it was time to cooperate, they cooperated relatively closely. This kind of tactic was both offensive and defensive, and they could advance or retreat, but it was a pity that they met themselves.

Soon these people were beaten to the ground, without even a chance to resist.

Qin Yuan walked in front of them with his hands behind his back, "Today is just a reminder to you, the class will officially start tomorrow, see you tomorrow morning!"

After he finished, he left, and the people behind him stared at him resentfully. You must know that they had never suffered such a big loss. They didn't know what happened to this guy, but he was so powerful in melee combat.

"What is the origin of this guy? He looks like a yellow-skinned kid. Why is he so powerful in fighting? His speed is too fast and his explosive power is very strong."

"Recently, I have nothing to do there at all. Who knows where Frank invited such an instructor. I can guarantee that I have never seen him in the Hunter School before."

"I think he looks familiar, but I don't know where I saw him."

Several people thought about it for a long time and didn't know who it was, but he said that there will be group training tomorrow morning

Chapter 1415: Convince these boys

This is simply impossible for them, and everyone just thinks about how to return it.

It is absolutely impossible for them to conduct formal and unified training, and to conduct formal management with the hunter school. Otherwise, their efforts during this period of time will be in vain, and they will waste so long.

"Don't worry, I definitely have a way. Since today's tricks can't deal with him, tomorrow I have a way!"

Qin Yuan swaggered back to the camp, and many people looked at him curiously. After all, he was the first person to get out of the building and retreat.

"What's the situation with Captain Qin? Didn't you go today? Or you have already gone back."

"I have already greeted them, and the formal training will start tomorrow. After all, we need to give the children a chance to buffer. My teacher is very strict."

Everyone breathed a sigh of relief when they heard this. It seemed that they were just saying hello, but they heard a lot of movement from there just now. Is it really as simple as saying hello?

Frank even came out of the office, wanting to see what was going on, if Qin Yuan, the great master, was taken away, it would be difficult.

From a distance, he saw Qin Yuan smiling, and he didn't look unusual. He felt a little curious, and even he, the principal, was punished by them when he went there.

"How did you go there today?"

"It feels very good. Their energy is really lively. It seems that I can train them harder and drain their energy."

Is it really like this, these boys will be so obedient, which makes Frank can't help but put a question mark, but seeing Qin Yuan's confident appearance, he didn't say anything, and can only look forward to seeing how tomorrow's training will be. Sample.

The next day arrived in a blink of an eye, Qin Yuan woke up early, arrived at the downstairs of the small building on time at 6 o'clock, and began to blow the emergency assembly whistle.

These things have to be corrected slowly. First of all, the training must be carried out here, and then they will be transferred to the collective dormitory. They can't always take such a big advantage.

It is definitely impossible to let them move now, we can only do it step by step, first convince these boys about these things and then talk about it later.

Same as Frank's previous situation, after a long time, this group of people did not come down to gather. Qin Yuan looked at his watch with his hands behind his back, and then went upstairs. At this moment, he had an extra iron rod in his hand.

And their purpose today is also very simple, that is, not to train directly, if they don't train, Qin Yuan can't do anything about them.

So just now the emergency assembly whistle sounded, but they were still lying on the bed. Anyway, everyone has made an agreement today, and they will not go down no matter what.

Qin Yuan kicked open the gate, and they locked the gate from the inside, but under Qin Yuan's force, the gate couldn't bear such a strong force at all, and it was directly broken into two halves.

Everyone was awakened by the loud noise, and Lao Hei couldn't help feeling angry. He was in pain and itching from the chili water last night, his entire skin was red and swollen, and he felt pain wherever he lay down.

"Damn! Who the * is playing tricks? Are you letting people sleep? Didn't you see that I am sleeping?"

As soon as he finished speaking, the quilt on his head was torn off by Qin Yuan.

Chapter 1416: housekeeping

"Get up! Immediately!"

It was a simple password, but the person on the bed was obviously not happy. He grabbed the quilt and turned over to continue sleeping. He didn't take it seriously at all. Anyway, they had established a rule yesterday, and no one would get up today.

Unexpectedly, there was a burst of pain in the next second. Hei couldn't believe it. Just as he turned his head and wanted to block it with his hands, the next iron rod fell down again. Lao Hei couldn't resist it at all. .

The beating was done by Lao Hei and screamed, and the others quickly got up from the bed when they saw it, but it wasn't because they were afraid, and Lao Liu stood up and refuted first.

"Let me tell you, you stop me immediately. What you did is physical punishment. You haven't settled what happened yesterday."

Now that they are players, it's unfair not to treat them in this way.

But Qin Yuan didn't talk to him that much at all, strode over and hit him on the shoulder with a stick.

"What are you talking to me? Now I'm your instructor, so whatever I say is what I say, understand?"

Qin Yuan's attitude was completely different from yesterday. No matter what happened yesterday, he was always smiling from the beginning to the end. It didn't feel so scary, but now this guy has completely changed.

"Look at you bunch of rubbish, you can't even do basic housework. The kennels are cleaner than yours! Clean them out in 15 minutes!"

Someone wanted to resist, and was immediately beaten to the ground by Qin Yuan. In this case, even if they wanted to react, they had no choice. Qin Yuan went downstairs and took a chair to sit downstairs and waited for them. And kept looking at the watch, and reminded them that there were only 13 minutes left.

"Damn it, this guy is completely crazy, just a lunatic, how dare he treat us like this." Eight 1 Chinese Network

"Stop talking and act quickly. This guy will do what he says. Who knows what will happen to him later. Now do what he said."

Old Hei's nose was bleeding, he wiped it with a piece of paper and said indignantly: "You really just listen to this bastard, anyway, I can't care so much now, I'm going to the principal right now. "

"Do you think you can go out? You didn't see that lunatic sitting downstairs. We have to pass him if we want to go out now."

After being reminded by the people next to him, Lao Hei stretched out his head to look at the window, and saw Qin Yuan sitting downstairs staring at them intently, he was so frightened that he quickly poked his head back.

I don't know why, this guy is really unusual today, his eyes make people feel scared.

In the end, there was no other way but to clean up the dormitory with all hands and feet, but this dormitory was made like a pig's nest by them, how could it be so easy to clean?

Especially for this internal affairs issue, when they decided to resist from the very beginning, they never did any tasks again, and the inside was even more messy and messy.

Everyone had no choice but to tidy up the quilt temporarily and sweep the floor casually. When the time came, Qin Yuan came up with a stick.

After being beaten up this time, these people became a lot more honest in an instant, and finally learned to stand in line. Qin Yuan frowned when he came in.

"You call this cleaning? My toilets are cleaner than this."

The people below want to refute, but no one dares to speak

"Brother Shen!"

"Um!"

Shen Changqing was walking on the road, and whenever he met familiar people, he would say hello or nod to each other.

But no matter who.

There is no unnecessary expression on everyone's face, as if they are indifferent to everything.

To this.

Shen Changqing is already used to it.

Because this is the Zhenmagic Division, an organization that maintains the stability of Daqin. Its main duty is to kill monsters and ghosts, and of course there are other side jobs.

It can be said.

In Zhenmensi, everyone's hands were stained with a lot of blood.

When a person is used to seeing life and death, he will become indifferent to many things.

When he first came to this world, Shen Changqing was a little uncomfortable, but he got used to it as time went by.

Zhenmus is huge.

Those who can stay in Zhenmusi are all powerful masters, or those who have the potential to become masters.

Shen Changqing belongs to the latter.

Among them, the Zhenmagic Division is divided into two professions, one is the Guardian Envoy, and the other is the Exorcist.

Anyone who enters the Town of Demons starts from the lowest level of Demon Slayers,

Then he was promoted step by step, and eventually he was expected to become a guardian envoy.

Shen Changqing's predecessor was a trainee demon slayer in the town of magic division, and he was also the lowest-ranked demon slayer.

Possess the memory of the predecessor.

He is also very familiar with Zhenmusi's environment.

It didn't take long for Shen Changqing to stop in front of an attic.

At this time, the attic door was open, and occasionally people came in and out.

Shen Changqing just hesitated for a moment, then stepped in into the attic.

The environment has changed in vain.

There is almost no way to clean off the  smell on everyone in Zhenmusi.

Chapter 1417: good morning colonel frank

After all, he can't be beaten, and this guy doesn't know what's going on, he is very powerful in close combat, and now he is holding the iron rod in his hand, which is a real beating.

Qin Yuan directly tore off their quilts one by one, threw them out, then kicked open the door of the toilet, and a smell wafted out from the toilet.

"It's just that you cleaned up. Your toilet smells worse than a pigsty. I really don't know what kind of garbage lives in it."

The monkeys in the team couldn't take it anymore when they heard this, this guy has been insulting them all the time, besides, it's totally unreasonable for him to come here out of nowhere and give them physical punishment.

"Why do we have to clean up the house? We are now directly under the Hunter School, and someone should take care of our daily life."

Qin Yuan burst out laughing when he heard this. He strode up to the team member and said loudly to him, "Young master, did you come to play at home? Do you want me to hire you a babysitter or put a Your mother called?"

"You! I tell you, don't go too far."

Qin Yuan directly hit him on the back with a stick again, and the monkey squatted on the ground in pain. This guy really beat him up as he said, without giving any prompts at all, and he grinned in pain.

Obviously Qin Yuan was very dissatisfied with their internal affairs this time and asked them to clean it again.

"Internal affairs are the first aspect to show the quality of our soldiers. If you can't even handle a basic internal affairs, what big things can you do? It's just a bunch of rubbish."

None of the people nearby dared to refute. Everyone quietly listened to Qin Yuan's lecture. Although these guys seemed convinced, they were actually holding their breath in their hearts, and they wanted to wait until they found a chance to speak.

"I will give you another half an hour to clean this place at the end. I want to see a brand new side. If you are still unqualified, then the whole team will bear 20 kilometers!"

what! Everyone opened their mouths when they heard this, what's going on? 20 kilometers are you kidding me? Still carrying weight!

"You have 29 minutes left."

Everyone hastened to act when they heard this. Qin Yuan yawned and walked downstairs. Frank also came over at this time. He wanted to come over to check the situation. After all, today is the first day of training. These guys only need to If he doesn't cause trouble, it's already a high profile for him.

"Good morning, Colonel Frank."

Seeing Qin Yuan's mood is very good, but I don't know how the current training is going, "I just want to come over to see how the training is going, if there are any difficulties, if you have any difficulties, just tell me as much as you can, and I will solve them of."

"Okay, there's no problem. Now I'm just starting from the first step to save power. They are much worse than I imagined, especially the housekeeping, so they are cleaning."

The secretary next to him had an expression of disbelief, how could this be possible? Ever since these guys entered this training building, they have never cleaned it. The last time they cleaned it, they sent those rookies to clean it.

Because everyone really can't stand it anymore, and this group of guys can be said to be walking sideways in the hunter school, almost no one dares to control them.

Unexpectedly, he was actively cleaning now, and Frank looked upstairs, and indeed saw a few figures walking around in a hurry.

He didn't know what method Qin Yuan used

"Brother Shen!"

"Um!"

Shen Changqing was walking on the road, and whenever he met familiar people, he would say hello or nod to each other.

But no matter who.

There is no unnecessary expression on everyone's face, as if they are indifferent to everything.

Chapter 1418: act like you're walking

To make these guys so obedient, he felt relieved seeing this, as long as he didn't offend Qin Yuan, and it seemed that this guy could really hold these people down.

Soon after the allotted time, Qin Yuan went upstairs again, this time he performed very well, he looked around, the sanitation inside was spotless, it was really hard work.

Reasoning with these people will not work at all. You still have to rely on sticks, and sticks are the last word. Qin Yuan checked it and felt quite satisfied.

"Look at the performance. I thought you couldn't solve the basic tasks, so how can you complete other tasks? Not bad."

Hearing this, everyone was obviously relieved. After all, they were all worried. If they didn't do something well, they would get in trouble again.

But Qin Yuan suddenly changed his style of painting, "But you took too long. According to our previous internal affairs standards, you can say that you are not as good as recruits, so everyone has 20 kilometers to prepare!"

Old Hei was a little unconvinced, they finally finished cleaning, why did they have to run 20 kilometers, seeing Qin Yuan holding up his stick, he hesitated.

What can be done? Unable to fight again and again, they had no choice but to bite the bullet and rush forward. Everyone packed up their equipment and quickly came downstairs to gather, and set off in Qin Yuan's password.

Qingyuan didn't run with them. Their goal was to cross the mountain in front of them back and forth. Let alone 20 kilometers, 30 kilometers was enough.

Although these guys have completed the task well recently, they haven't received such cruel training for a long time, and their bodies are still a little overwhelmed for a while, and they just went out for a short run. Eight 1 Chinese Network

The monkey started thinking about other ideas. He looked around, but Qin Yuan didn't follow him again, "Brothers, I don't think we should run away foolishly, but we didn't follow up again. Let's take a rest for a while, and then go back, almost That's enough, 30 kilometers is really killing people!"

Just when a few people were thinking about being lazy, they heard a rumbling sound coming from behind. Everyone turned their heads and saw Qin Yuan jumping over on an off-road motorcycle.

Everyone hated their teeth, but they had no choice but to bite the bullet and continue running forward, not only leading them here, but also changing the route, leading them directly to the place where the rookies trained .

Those rookies are now at the training ground in front. Qin Yuan is riding an off-road motorcycle with the accelerator turned to the maximum and the sound is very loud. Everyone's eyes are attracted to him. He wants to make the noise as loud as possible so that others can take a good look at it. one look.

Old Hei was even more eager to find a place to sneak in quickly. You must know that before he was here, he was in the wind and in the rain. Now he has been trained like a dog, and he has no chance to refute.

When Qin Yuan passed by those rookies, he still didn't forget to say loudly: "I said, can you hurry up? These rookies who just arrived are better than you. I really don't know where to choose some crooked melons and cracked dates. "

The instructors next to them cast admiring eyes. They didn't expect these people to be subdued by Qin Yuan, and they really started training.

Qin Yuan didn't play cards according to common sense at all, and didn't follow the previous route at all.

"Brother Shen!"

"Um!"

Shen Changqing was walking on the road, and whenever he met familiar people, he would say hello or nod to each other.

It didn't take long for Shen Changqing to stop in front of an attic.

At this time, the attic door was open, and occasionally people came in and out.

Enter the attic.

The environment has changed in vain.

There is almost no way to clean off the  smell on everyone in Zhenmusi.

Chapter 1419: 1000 meters range

Everyone felt embarrassed, but there was nothing they could do. They had already run 30 kilometers before Qin Yuan asked them to stop.

He jumped off the off-road motorcycle, looked at the people who were already exhausted, and couldn't help but smile contemptuously.

"You guys don't have military training so much, you are so tired after just such a little training, Auntie Cleaning runs faster than you!"

Everyone is powerless to refute now, and can only watch him being humiliated by the side. Who can stand the weight of 30kg and run for nearly 30 kilometers?

"It took too long, so let's do 200 more push-ups for each person. These are just warm-up training. You have missed too much in the previous training. I have to teach you well."

When Lao Hei heard that he quit here completely, he just threw his hat off. No matter what happens today, he will definitely not do it again. The 30-kilometer weight-bearing has just ended, and now he is doing 200 push-ups. This is not training at all. It's completely tossing them.

"It's really easy for you to say that. Do you know how long we have been carrying weight? You are torture, torture in disguise."

"It seems that some people are still not convinced!"

As expected, Lao Hei was beaten again, and Qin Yuan moved his wrist, which was so easy, he didn't waste any effort.

"If you want to refute in this place, you must first speak out with strength. Without strength, it is like a dog barking. I only heard a few dog barks just now."

Old Hei lay on the ground indignantly, and he hammered the ground vigorously. What he said was indeed good, but he felt aggrieved in his heart, and his physical strength was not proportional at all.

"I know you are powerful, but you are taking advantage of me. There is nothing to be proud of. I have just finished carrying the weight. What is there to be proud of when you beat me down, but you are just taking advantage."

Qin Yuan originally planned to let him go, but this kid didn't know how to live or die. Isn't this just provoking him all the time? He will not miss such an opportunity.

"In my life, I really hate people saying that I take advantage of you. If that's the case, then tell me what you want to challenge me. I know that you have just finished carrying the weight, and I don't want to take advantage of you at all."

"It's true to say that, you don't take advantage of me, but now my physical strength has been completely exhausted, and it's unfair for me to compare with you no matter what."

"It's very simple. No matter what project you want to challenge next, I will accept your challenge blindfolded."

This difficulty can be great, blindfolded challenge? Hearing this, Lao Hei felt that his chance for revenge had come. This kid was too arrogant, and he didn't take himself seriously at all. In this case, he was not polite.

"Okay, if you are blindfolded for any event you mentioned, then we will compete in sniping, and we will compete on a three-meter high wall, and if we compete, then we will have the highest difficulty! One thousand meters !"

Old Hei is also suffocating. He deliberately said that he wanted to compete on the high wall, but the 3-meter-high wall is not a vegetarian if it falls. They go up normally, and the distance between the walls is very narrow. Constantly adjust posture.

In order to stand on it stably, and all sniper rifles have a certain amount of recoil, especially the 1000-meter range.

Chapter 1420: Do you want to be a teacher?

The sixth child couldn't help laughing in the team, isn't this guy the most face-saving? Let's see how he retracts what he said when the time comes. He just said that he is blindfolded for all the challenges.

"Instructor, you have promised us just now, and if you don't respond now, are you going back on your word?"

"It's too late to repent now, but you have to call me daddy three times and apologize, then I will take back what I just said."

At this moment, Lao Hei felt that he had already won. Anyway, no matter what, he must have the chance to win. Even if this guy dared to agree, it would make him have no return.

Answering or not is one thing. After all, it is crazy to shoot a sniper rifle on a 3-meter-high wall, let alone challenge blindfolded, which has never been heard of before.

Several people showed expressions of watching the show. Everyone felt that they had won this time. Unexpectedly, Qin Yuan said something lightly beside him.

"Okay, get your guns ready!"

No kidding! They looked at Qin Yuan! I'm afraid this guy is crazy, if he really wants to play like this, it's too big to play!

Qin Yuan did what he said, he checked the sniper rifle, and then threw one to Lao Hei, "I just saw it, the flagpole over there is about a thousand meters away from here, I'm busy with my eyes, and I'm not Hitting the flagpole, I hit the first white pole on the flag."

Hearing this, Old Hei gasped. He looked at Qin Yuan with a serious face. This lunatic is not joking, is he really able to do what he just said?

Now that the wind is so strong, let alone being able to stand firm on a 3-meter-high wall, it is absolutely impossible for him to hit the second white bar on the flag while blindfolded.

Those who can come to the Hunter School are elites from various countries, especially guys like these. Hei has never heard of someone who can achieve this level.

Originally, he was bluffing people just now, because to be honest, his sniper skills are not that good, and the best in their team is Hawkeye, but he didn't expect that Qin Yuan would dare to really agree.

Moreover, with such an operation, he felt that it was impossible to achieve it, and it felt like bragging, but watching Qingyuan's preparations did not seem like bragging. He hesitated for a while, and the two had arrived at Gao below the wall.

At this time, the instructors and students of the Hunter School were very interested in hearing their competition, and most of them came to watch at once. This is a rare thing in a thousand years, and I have never heard of it. There is such a competition method. Blindfolded challenge 1000 meters, also designated to hit the target.

Frank was also very interested. At first he thought it was some student who was joking, but when he learned that it was Qin Yuan, he felt that things must not be that simple. Novel Network

The secretary described the following scene to him with excitement. He stood in front of the office building, "Sir, do you really think it can be done? This is the first time I have heard of such a competition, so everyone is very curious. Everyone went to watch."

"Of course we have to take a look at this kind of thing. If it is someone else, it is highly unlikely to be done, but this guy might really be possible. Even if he misses, he can stabilize his figure on the high wall. That's also incredible."

Frank also walked towards the high wall very excitedly.
