

Special Soldier 1421

Chapter 1421: Snipe me the strongest

Everyone gathered around the high wall, and Lao Hei felt even more nervous when he saw so many people coming. If something went wrong today, it would be a shame.

But now there is a feeling of rushing ducks to the shelves, everyone is here, he can't back down at this time, and what Qin Yuan said just now is so exaggerated, he has no demands on himself.

At this moment, Qin Yuan took a look at him, "By the way, if I do it, you will have to listen to me in all orders from now on, understand?"

"Hehe, let's talk about it first if you can do it. If you really hit it, don't say that it is for training to listen to you in the future, you can ask me to give you this life."

"Old Hei! What are you doing? Why are you saying such cruel things?"

"Do you really think he can hit? Don't overestimate, this kid, I think he just thinks that we dare not bet with him. I just want to hit today.".

Qin Yuan smiled contemptuously. It seems that these people are still too young. It is just a good time to teach them a lesson. The key is to make these people completely convinced, otherwise there will be many troubles in the future.

Qin Yuan just jumped up the 3-meter-high wall, kicked the wall, and jumped up easily, and the people around him were fine. After all, no one can compare with this figure.

With such a high wall, they basically had to rely on run-ups or someone to assist them below. Unexpectedly, Qin Yuan jumped directly onto it with ease.

And it landed firmly on the high wall. The width between the high walls is 10cm. This width is very narrow, and it is very easy for Qin Yuan to stand on it.

Old Hei looked at it, swallowed a mouthful of spit involuntarily, and moved his body a bit. Since he wanted to, he could do so. He slowly stepped back a few meters, and then rushed forward quickly with a booster. Everyone's attention was on on him.

However, when he rushed to the high wall, his feet suddenly softened, and he admitted that he was timid, and he couldn't jump up from such a high position.

Everyone laughed when they saw this scene, thinking that this guy was going to use some big move, but it turned out like this.

"Hahahaha! What is this about? If you can't go up, call a personal assistant, it's a shame."

"Such a comparison is really incomparable. It's really funny to want to compare with others like this. Go on."

Hearing the clamor of the people around him, Old Hei was unmoved. He stared fiercely at the people around him, so he tried again, but the second time he jumped halfway and failed, and he didn't jump up at all.

Just when he was about to try for the third time, Hawkeye stood up and shook his head at him. If he tried again, he would fail, because they had never jumped up the 3-meter-high wall by themselves. Basically, you need the help of your teammates.

"What's the meaning?"

"Let me do it, you know, sniping me is the strongest."

"But..."

"Don't hesitate. Now that we are all in the same position, we can't let that guy look down on us. Since we want to win, I must give our best chance of winning."

Old Hei nodded, and the people around sighed for their temporary replacement. It seemed that Old Hei was afraid to shrink back, and he could still do this.

Fortunately, Qin Yuan didn't mind at all. After all, it's the same when comparing with anyone. He just urged them to hurry up.

"Who do you want to compare with me?"

Chapter 1422: no comment

After a pause, he continued, "I have no objection, but can you guys hurry up? It's not about having a baby, how long will it take?"

Saying this, the people around burst into laughter, and Lao Heiqi's face turned red, but there was nothing he could do.

In this way, with the help of Lao Hei, he dragged it with his shoulders, and then Hawkeye ran up one by one and still went up, but after the music jumped up, one of them couldn't stand firmly and almost fell down. Fortunately, he stretched his hands quickly, and he was still stable. Living.

Hawkeye stood on it and began to feel the surrounding temperature and wind. As a sniper, these are the most basic judgments. Swinging constantly in the wind, it is too difficult to hit, even if you want to hit The medium flag is also more difficult, because it is not a big flag, but a small flag. .

Hawkeye couldn't help but feel a little nervous. It can be said that this is the most difficult challenge he has ever faced. He still needs to consider the impact, because the impact of a sniper rifle is very powerful for this kind of shooting at a distance of one thousand meters.

He turned his head and glanced at Qin Yuan, and saw that Qin Yuan calmly took out a black cloth and tied it over his eyes.

This shocked him very much. This guy really keeps his word, but can he really hit it like this?

Just when he was hesitating, Qin Yuan had already picked up the gun. Qin Yuan fumbled and threw the sniper scope. This thing is really useless to him now.

Everyone thought that he would have to prepare for a period of time. After all, he had to observe in the early stage. As a result, he was blindfolded when he came up. I don't know if he observed well just now?

Frank was also very nervous. He was expecting and worried. He was very worried. If Qin Yuan missed the hit, his reputation would be completely ruined. Although he jumped on the wall just now, his skill was really good, but what he said just now was very easy. Will be caught by others.

Just as everyone was holding their breath to observe, a gunshot rang out. It was too fast, and the shot was fired directly. Frank hadn't even reacted. Is this kid so accurate?

He couldn't wait to know the result. If it was the first shot, there would be no problem. Even if it didn't hit, no one would say anything, because it was too difficult, and you had to try to stabilize your figure even if you were blindfolded.

However, there was a notification sound from the walkie-talkie, and the person on the opposite side waved his hand to signal, and held the flag excitedly. Qin Yuan really said that he hit the second white bar and only hit the second one.

The moment they heard the result, all the onlookers were cheering, which was simply too surprising, and it was the first time they had seen such a wonderful competition.

Hawkeye next to him was also completely stunned by this move. This marksmanship is so amazing. He began to think that even if he missed the first shot, this person would be admirable enough. He didn't expect him to hit him with one shot.

This is the eagle eye of the sharpshooter level, his face is full of shock, Qin Yuan slowly took off the blindfold, and then sat on the high wall.

He enjoyed the cheers from the people around him, everyone was calling his name, at this moment Hawkeye finally remembered who this person was.

He was the only person from Yan Kingdom who stayed on the wall of honor before, and he was also a specially hired instructor. No wonder he thought this person looked familiar.

They are not some rookie instructors who came over by air, they are real masters, they really underestimated others.

The result is already obvious, Lao Hei can't believe it

Chapter 1423: Can't show 11

He took the walkie-talkie and asked the person on the opposite side to bring the flag.

Soon the flag was delivered, and Lao Hei stroked the bullet hole on it. This was simply too exaggerated. Someone really could do it. The wind is so strong now, and he was blindfolded and hit it like this.

The results have already come out, it doesn't make any sense in the competition, Lao Hei squatted on the ground decadently, it can be said that they really misjudged this time.

"Hawkeye, come down, it's boring, we've already lost, everyone has become like this, how can we compare with others?"

"No, I still want to compare. No matter what, I still want to drive this day. It is my honor to compete with such a master."

It can be said that the shot just now has completely conquered Hawkeye. This guy has always been dissatisfied with everyone, but at this moment he feels that Qin Yuan really admires him.

He adjusted his posture again and kept aiming at the opposite flagpole. It was really too difficult. After a long time, the sweat on his forehead kept dripping down.

It was very tormenting in such a situation, and on the high wall, it was difficult for his body to control the stability. In the end, he gave it a go and pulled the trigger directly.

With a gunshot, the impact of the gun hit him directly on the shoulder. Because he squatted on the high wall for a long time, his legs were paralyzed and they were not strong enough to support him, so he fell directly from the 3-meter high wall. .

Just when everyone was exclaiming, a figure suddenly flashed over and grabbed Hawkeye, and under Qin Yuan's protection, Hawkeye was not injured.

This speed is really too fast, how did he manage to react quickly within a few seconds?

And the shot that Hawkeye fired could be said to be obvious, without any substantial effect, he knew the result, and it was completely deviated. In this case, he couldn't concentrate and aim at the target at all.

"How did you do it? How could that shot be so accurate!"

"This is called blind typing, why? Do you want to learn? If you want to learn, why not hurry up and learn from a teacher."

It is useless to say more at this moment, Hawkeye is completely admired, the other people in the team, looking at Qin Yuan's strength, did not say anything more, and stood behind silently.

There was warm applause from all around, and everyone came from the heart, and Frank felt that Qin Yuan had given him another surprise.

"I really didn't expect, you kid is getting more and more powerful now, why haven't I seen you use this move before?"

"There are still many things I know. I can't show them one by one. Besides, I still have to keep a low profile."

When he said this, he looked at Lao Hei next to him, and Lao Hei lowered his head in shame. With this competition, the team was completely convinced.

Hawkeye even wanted to worship Qin Yuan as his teacher. He really wanted to learn such sniper marksmanship.

"Don't worry about apprenticeship, let's talk about it later."

"It's okay, everything is up to you, and I will listen to whatever you say in the future."

Hawkeye's attitude is very humble. At this moment, he only wants to study hard, put away his previous arrogant attitude, and the person in front of him is hundreds of times stronger than him.

Seeing this scene, Frank felt that the decision he made was too correct.

Chapter 1424: Proper profiteer

All the people in the past, including him, have already given up on this team. He is trying to figure out a way. If it doesn't work, he can only be dismissed. Although this team is very capable, it cannot be managed in a standardized way. scourge.

Qin Yuan once again used his strong strength to prove to everyone that Hawkeye has changed from normal. Usually this guy is very aloof, but now he is busy behind Qin Yuan, and even helps Qin Yuan hold the gun .

There were too many people onlookers, and there were still many rookies who were training. Old Hei felt that he was losing face. He said something harsh just now, but he didn't even fire a gun. The result was obvious.

He silently followed behind, and couldn't help muttering, "This guy hides too deeply. I didn't expect his strength to be so strong. At first, I really thought he was just a brat."

Qin Yuan didn't hear this, but Yingyan who was following behind heard it, and turned his head to stare at Old Hei viciously.

"Let me tell you, from now on, you should show some respect to my master. What he says is his business."

"What the * are you doing kid?"

"Anyway, you are not allowed to speak ill of my master."

"You are really funny. You haven't agreed to it yet, so the master called. Besides, I didn't say anything."

"No matter what, you say he can't do it, no matter whether it's good or bad."

Old Hei looked helplessly, what could he do? What is he still unconvinced now, he is so strong.

The next morning something that shocked everyone happened. The guards on duty in the office felt a little nervous when they saw Hawkeye and the others walking over.

These guys have never done anything good. I remember the last time they came to the office to report the situation. This is a routine, let them register, and then go up. I didn't expect these guys to quit.

At that time, they overturned the table and injured their staff on duty. It was at that time that Frank was very partial to them. They were very capable and completed many tasks, so there was nothing they could do.

I didn't expect these guys to come again now, what are you trying to do this early in the morning? The guard pinched the calling device in his hand, and if he couldn't wait, he would call for help directly.

Old Hei was the first to walk over. He is usually very irritable and tall. Looking at the guard who is half a head shorter than him, he just walked forward with a smile on his face.

"Wait, what are you doing here? Let me warn you first, if you dare to make trouble, then I will go to Instructor Qin immediately."

After yesterday's incident, everyone knows that only Qin Yuan can hold them down in the entire hunter school.

"Brother, don't be so nervous, relax, we're not here to find something, it's not that we did cause some trouble before, we want to make up for it."

what! The guards at the door felt that they heard it wrong, so they couldn't help but look this way, but Lao Hei's attitude was very sincere. He said that he wanted to repair the tables and chairs that were smashed by them last time.

And I saw that they were indeed carrying tools in their hands. Everyone didn't know what these guys were trying to do. The sixth and the others stepped forward. The corner of the office building was where they had blown up with training bombs. The entire wall The body has been completely cracked.

Chapter 1425: in stark contrast

The sixth son and the others stepped forward and began to squat on the ground and couldn't repair it seriously. Everyone saw that they were confused. These people really came to do the repair work with such kindness.

Not only that, after they repaired the damaged things before, they also took the initiative to undertake the sanitation work of the Hunter School, cleaning the entire toilet and office building to look brand new.

Just as Frank was about to enter the building, he saw all the guards gathered together, discussing something in a low voice. Seeing this scene, he couldn't help being a little angry. Have these guards even forgotten their own duties?

He strode over and scolded severely: "This is the result of your standing guard, what are you doing?"

"Sir, come and take a look!"

Frank looked at the guards with an unnatural expression. Could something have happened? He hurried forward and saw them in the office building.

He suddenly felt that the situation was not good. What good could these guys do here? And Qin Yuan was not there either.

Just as he was about to go up and have a seizure, the guard next to him quickly explained that when he learned that these guys were here to do repair work and clean up, he was completely shocked. So obedient.

Moreover, they changed their usual arrogant attitude and did not forget to say hello to Frank when they went downstairs.

It was a completely different person, and Qin Yuan also came down from the office building. He took steps to check the sanitation, meticulously, "What's the matter? There is still dust on the lampshade. Don't you mess with the invisible places?" ? Hurry up and let me do it."

Hearing this, Lao Hei trotted all the way over here, took a ladder and went up to wipe the dust, Qin Yuan did not forget to reprimand him beside him.

Under this kind of reprimand, these guys were very obedient and did not intend to resist at all. The instructors next to them were completely dumbfounded. Is this still how they trained before? They were treated very badly before.

Qin Yuan came over with a smile, "Recently, I think the sanitation here is really bad. Let them do a good job of cultivating their patience. If they can't even do housework well, what else can they do?"

"It's still you who are amazing. You managed these guys submissively. We couldn't do anything about it before."

"What's so difficult about it? Don't worry, Colonel Frank, I will give you a very perfect team."

In fact, the ability of this team itself is also very strong. The main reason is that if so many strong people are gathered together, the problem will arise in management, so stronger people are needed to lead and manage them.

What Qin Yuan needs to do now is to completely wear off their arrogance, that's why he asked them to clean up, and did not participate in other training.

"By the way, they contracted the lunch at noon today, try their craftsmanship."

When Lao Hei heard that he had to cook, the corners of his mouth twitched unavoidably. It's no problem to ask him to clean up, but he really can't cook!

At this time, Qin Yuan shot his eyes over, "Why, what's the problem?"

Lao Hei quickly shook his head, "Report to the instructor! There is no problem, and we promise to complete the task."

The answer was crisp and clear, without leaving the water in the slightest. This was in stark contrast to the previous image of rebellion.

Chapter 1426: undisciplined state

It has to be said that Qin Yuan's reputation as a teacher is really well-deserved. He can lead the strong, and he can also lead the weak.

Frank was very happy to see this change. He stepped forward and patted Qin Yuan on the shoulder, asking him to stay here for a while.

He also knew that Qin Yuan also had a mission in Yan Country, and he needed to bring his own team, so he couldn't keep him here all the time, but he hoped that Qin Yuan could stay for a while longer and manage them completely.

"Well, I have to think about it, and it depends on how much Colonel Frank pays."

Hearing this, Frank's face turned dark. This guy is really greedy. He had already promised so many things to Gao Shiwei before, and now he came to blackmail him again. But seeing the excellent changes of the team, he thought about it. Forget it, this deal is not a loss.

In the end, Frank bought another batch of special equipment, and then kept Qin Yuan. In fact, Qin Yuan didn't intend to leave, but he said so, and it's really embarrassing not to blackmail something.

When Frank was checking the order in the warehouse, he felt a burst of heartache. They had never used this batch of special equipment. The equipment generally used by their school was the latest, and this batch of special equipment had just been shipped back.

"Sir, besides these special equipment, do you need anything else?"

"There are others? Then just sell me off! I don't think Qin Yuan is a soldier at all, this guy is a businessman, the kind of profiteer!"

Although Frank said so, he still bought another batch of special equipment. Maybe there will be other things to bring Qin Yuan back in the future. His training results are definitely worth more than these equipments.

The strength of this team itself is also very strong, and there is no need for too much training. Qin Yuan just strengthens them according to the manual.

A week later, this small team had completely become a regular army unit. They had no discipline at all before, and they would go on missions when they had missions. Without missions, they were completely in a state of laxity.

But now I start training when there are no tasks, and I don't have the attitude of making troubles before, so I just do what I have to do.

Frank was very satisfied with their performance, and gave them a task. This time the task was actually very simple. Their hunter school is located in this special location, so sometimes it is necessary to cooperate with local forces to attack some of the surrounding armed forces. Molecules are suppressed.

What they received this time was to cooperate with the operation, but they had to find the enemy's lair first by infiltrating the small team, and then cooperate with the large force to act together after finding the exact location.

This task is relatively simple, but the risk factor is relatively high. This criminal group has been entrenched in the local area for many years, and its influence is very extensive. It is not easy to find their lair.

Just taking this opportunity, Qin Yuan planned to elect the captain of the team through this mission, and everyone had no objection to his proposal.

After all, he still has to leave later, this team must have a captain to manage it, otherwise there will be no rules.

"I will go with you on this mission, but I will not participate in the whole process. It is mainly up to you to judge and decide."

Chapter 1427: armed criminal

"Then I will evaluate the performance of each of you and select the final captain." 81??m

If it was someone else, they would definitely not be convinced, but for Qin Yuan, looking at the problem based on Qin Yuan's ability, it is absolutely no problem, everyone agrees.

"Instructor, don't worry, we will definitely perform well this time."

"But I told you in advance that the assessment is secondary. You mainly complete the task to ensure safety, understand? Because this time it's not just you, but also the big troops behind."

The members of the team expressed their understanding one after another, so everyone took the helicopter to the destination together. After landing, they would conduct a detailed search until they found the enemy's lair and sent a message to the large army.

The lairs of these enemies are basically hidden in this deep mountain jungle. Since the rainforest covers too much area, the use of drones to detect has no effect at all.

In addition, drone reconnaissance can easily be discovered by the people lurking below them, so they can only rely on the human search of their team.

The team's cooperation was pretty good, everyone walked forward in an orderly manner along the way, and Qin Yuan followed behind them and silently observed everyone.

Assaulters, snipers, and observers are assigned to the team's position. Everyone has their own position.

Old Hei still looked backward subconsciously. During this period of training, he felt more and more that Qin Yuan's abilities were outstanding in all aspects, and basically he could not find any weaknesses, so he formed a sense of autonomy I can't help but look back.

However, Qin Yuan didn't say a word along the way, he was just observing silently. In other words, he was an outsider, and this time it was mainly for the assessment.

At this time, the sixth man in front, as an assaulter, hurriedly made a warning gesture to the team, and immediately became alert, and the sixth man pointed to the grass in front of him.

The others were in charge of vigilance. He ran up to check carefully. There was a circle of burnt marks around the grass. He stretched out his hand to test whether the soil was still hot. Someone was cooking in this place, and they left for no more than an hour at most.

In this primitive jungle, apart from them, there are those armed criminals, and it seems that they are not far from these people.

Lao Liu told everyone what he found. Now they must be more careful not to be discovered by the enemy. Maybe they are very close.

From this point of view, Lao Liu has the potential to be the captain. He observes all aspects very carefully. The first and most important thing to be a captain is to have confidence, and he can be regarded as capable when assigning tasks.

"Now we start to set off in echelon formation, changing the previous triangle formation, so that it is not easy to be found, and expand a little."

His idea is very good. All the personnel are expanded to the outside, not only can expand the search area, but also it is not easy to be found so closely.

The others also nodded in agreement, and Qin Yuan followed them not far away. As they kept going deeper, a pungent metallic smell wafted over.

Everyone became alert instantly. This smell was too familiar to them from dealing with these criminals for a long time. They are refining. It seems that this time they can not only find their lair, but also find their drug factory.

The main reason is that the jungle here is very dense, so the smell is not easy to dissipate, and this smell spreads all around for a while.

"Brother Shen!"

"Um!"

Shen Changqing was walking on the road, and whenever he met familiar people, he would say hello or nod to each other.

But no matter who.

There is no unnecessary expression on everyone's face, as if they are indifferent to everything.

To this.

Shen Changqing is already used to it.

Because this is the Zhenmagic Division, an organization that maintains the stability of Daqin. Its main duty is to kill monsters and ghosts, and of course there are other side jobs.

It can be said.

In Zhenmensi, everyone's hands were stained with a lot of blood.

When a person is used to seeing life and death, he will become indifferent to many things.

When he first came to this world, Shen Changqing was a little uncomfortable, but he got used to it as time went by.

Zhenmus is huge.

Those who can stay in Zhenmusi are all powerful masters, or those who have the potential to become masters.

Shen Changqing belongs to the latter.

Among them, the Zhenmagic Division is divided into two professions, one is the Guardian Envoy, and the other is the Exorcist.

Anyone who enters the Town of Demons starts from the lowest level of Demon Slayers,

Then he was promoted step by step, and eventually he was expected to become a guardian envoy.

Shen Changqing's predecessor was a trainee demon slayer in the town of magic division, and he was also the lowest-ranked demon slayer.

Possess the memory of the predecessor.

He is also very familiar with Zhenmusi's environment .

It didn't take long for Shen Changqing to stop in front of an attic.

Different from other places full of chills in Zhenmagus, the attic here seems to stand out from the crowd. In the * Zhenmagus, it presents a different tranquility.

At this time, the attic door was open, and occasionally people came in and out.

Enter the attic.

The environment has changed in vain.

A scent of ink mixed with a faint smell of blood hit his face, making his brows furrowed instinctively, but then relaxed quickly.

There is almost no way to clean off the * smell on everyone in Zhenmusi.

Chapter 1428: Surrounded!

Under such circumstances, there was no way for people to tell the direction. The sixth child led the way. We circled twice and walked for more than half an hour, but found no clues.

In this sweltering jungle, everyone couldn't help being a little irritable, and they went around twice, but the road was always wrong.

"I said what road are you leading? Can you do it? If you can't do it, I will take it."

"Don't complain here. If you have the ability, come and take a look. The dense jungle here is too diffuse to tell the difference."

There is no wind at all, and the whole jungle is very stuffy, so the smell seems to come from the bed from all directions, and they couldn't find it for a while.

After going around again, Lao Hei pointed to the big tree in front of him, "Damn it, we've come to this place three times already, do we still have to go here?"

The sixth child observed this direction unhurriedly. He walked to the side and took out the soil, smelled it carefully, and then looked at the surrounding bushes.

Nothing was found here, normal conditions everywhere, not even the bushes had been pressed, and the soil had no smell.

How did these people get out? The forest leaves here are too dense, completely covered, and many trails are also completely covered under the cover of these branches and leaves, they don't know where to branch off.

After a while, there were still no clues. The large army was still waiting for their news, and everyone couldn't help but get anxious and looked in Qin Yuan's direction in unison.

Qin Yuan has already seen it, but now he can't tell them directly, after all, he can't let them develop this kind of dependence.

"Go again in the southeast direction. This is a test for you, and it also tests your observation skills."

Qin Yuan still gave them a hint, it was up to them whether they could see it or not, everyone was very excited when they received the hint, so they quickly organized their team and set off.

They went back along the previous road, but this time they mainly focused on searching in the southeast direction, and the sixth child followed the team, because now everyone was reminded by willingness that there must be an exit in the southeast direction. Just walk around.

"Can you hurry up and what are you still doing behind the scenes? Do you know how much time we wasted?"

The sixth child didn't pay attention to him. He kept observing the surrounding bushes according to his willingness to remind him that there were definitely loopholes in these places.

Old Hei also bullied him and simply didn't want to talk to him when he came out. Now time is the most important thing. He strode forward, just as they opened a distance.

Lao Liu asked them to come back first from the beeper, and he found a clue here.

After everyone withdrew, they saw tall branches and leaves on both sides, "What the * are you doing? Where is the road here? Why did you call us back? You are playing us, aren't you?"

"Now we have less time, you are wasting time here!"

At this time, Lao Liu walked over, took out the machete, and cut off the branches and leaves in front of him, and a black hole appeared in front of him.

Everyone shut their mouths when they saw this and did not speak again.

"Brother Shen!"

"Um!"

Shen Changqing was walking on the road, and whenever he met familiar people, he would say hello or nod to each other.

But no matter who.

There is no unnecessary expression on everyone's face, as if they are indifferent to everything.

Chapter 1429: The distribution problem is too big

It has to be said that Lao Liu's observation is meticulous, and it is obvious that the entrance of the cave has been trampled on, but it is completely covered by these leaves.

After everyone went through the hole, there was a natural cave made of oily bushes and vines.

Slowly seeing a bright light ahead, everyone slowed down and began to approach the entrance of the cave. After walking out of the cave, they saw some tents in the distance.

And this time the smell was stronger, and Lao Hei also found the pipeline buried in the ground next to it. I have to say that this is a big project. No wonder they smelled so strong outside just now, but they couldn't find these guys. Sly enough.

They used underground pipes to exhaust all the smoke outside, so they couldn't see any clues here, and even if someone found it, they couldn't find their lair.

And the smoke is used to confuse them, the special forces. There have been two groups of special forces looking here before, but there is no whereabouts.

They walked forward slowly along the pipeline, and saw that there were already guards in front, and they immediately sent a message to the large army.

From the beginning to the end, Qin Yuan just stood behind and watched from a distance, and did not step forward to participate with them.

Soon they received news that the large forces were already on their way to carry out air resources based on their positioning, and the  troops behind them would also come, allowing them to conduct penetration control first.

We must catch the behind-the-scenes mastermind in the gang. This behind-the-scenes boss is nicknamed Canglang. He was let go last time, so they sent a team this time.

After getting ready, Lao Liu turned his head and glanced at the direction of his wish, and then led the team towards the inside. Now they will infiltrate separately according to the previously planned route, in groups of two.

In this way, there are retreats and advances, and if there are any problems, they can cooperate with each other. Logically speaking, the plan of the sixth child is no problem, but the monkey does not think so.

They were already approaching the sentry posts, and the monkeys felt that the allocation was too big of a problem. At present, they could see a total of three sentry posts, and it happened that they were divided into groups to advance.

The monkey group is at the back, and they are responsible for covering the rear, and they will go in together after they make a three-way assault.

"Old Six, we usually treat you as a brother, but now that you are talking about choosing the captain, you become restless. Your narrow-mindedness is really good enough."

Hearing this, the sixth child turned his head and looked ahead, then lowered his voice, "What do you mean? Aren't you going to set off together according to the route we planned before? It's best not to engage in those internal strife now, we have to take the task as our priority. host."

"That's right, let's talk about what the monkey has when we go back. It was agreed before that we should focus on the task. If the task is not completed by then, it will be embarrassing for everyone."

"Don't speak up for him. You are all being used by others. Don't you know it? Look at what he is thinking. He arranged himself in the charge position. You must know that this time not only the task is completed, but also What about the assessment?"

Houzi was very unconvinced, he felt that the reason why Lao Liu put himself in the front was to highlight himself, and then took down the position of captain.

But when Lao Liu mentioned this, he actually felt that he was wronged.

Chapter 1430: There are snipers

He was originally an assaulter, and an assaulter rushed to the front.

For a moment, the two sides had a disagreement, and the monkey even suggested that there was no need for any cover in the rear, and their large troops and reinforcements would arrive soon.

He felt that he was playing soy sauce as a cover in the rear, rushing in with the firepower weapons in their hands, he would definitely be able to control the enemy in the first place, especially the sixth child in front, he had an absolute advantage, and when the time came, his score would be one. Comparing, the result came out.

At first, several people didn't have any opinions, but after being reminded by the monkey, everyone began to hesitate for a while. After all, they did participate in the assessment this time.

Everyone is a strong person, the more these strong people gather together, the more eager they are for the position of captain.

In the end, there was no other way, Lao Liu watched the time pass by every minute and every second, and if he was delayed any longer, it would be troublesome if he was discovered, so he could only agree to Monkey's request, and he and Monkey's group of four would be the main attacker.

"But everyone should pay attention to one thing. Our rear is also very important. If the rear is not guaranteed, they will come to outflank us, and we will be finished."

"Hehe, don't threaten me here. I know what you mean. It's just such a small base. It's not enough for the few of us to fight. Don't worry, no one will outflank us."

The sixth child originally wanted to argue, but after thinking about it, he decided to forget it. There was no point in arguing at this time, so he led the team and rushed out together.

At first Qin Yuan was quite satisfied with their partner, but after a few minutes he frowned, what's going on? These guys are only focused on rushing forward, don't they want to go back?

The beginning went smoothly, they caught the enemy by surprise, and it was definitely not a problem with their ability to cooperate with the action.

Soon they entered the base directly, and the monkey rushed forward very excitedly. He must perform well, which is related to whether he can become the captain.

He felt that Qin Yuan was absolutely fair and would definitely make a judgment at that time. At this moment, Lao Liu kicked him away. Just as the monkey was about to get angry, he saw a bullet hit the wall behind him just now. .

"Be careful to see that there are snipers in the direction of ten o'clock."

"No, there are also directions at six o'clock!"

Old Hei rolled over, the bullet pierced his arm directly, but at the same time exposed the sniper, Hawkeye reacted quickly and directly dealt with the sniper at six o'clock.

It's absolutely fine for these guys to cooperate, but when it comes to certain aspects, they can't cooperate.

Old Hei took out gauze and tied it on his hands casually, "Damn it, I was bitten by a mosquito just after I came out, but it's nothing, I will kill that kid myself later."

He was hiding behind a car, bandaging his wound, and from his position he could see the rear gate.

Some armed men suddenly appeared at the gate, and he squinted his eyes because the distance was relatively far away.

Could it be that the people from the large army have already been recruited? It stands to reason that they are not that fast, at least ten minutes before they arrive, and they should be the first to send air support, but now the air resources have not yet reached the ground force, how can it be so fast?

When those people approached him slowly, he realized that they were not armed personnel here at all.
