

Special Soldier 1431

Chapter 1431: Should be outside and

He yelled that it was not good, so he hurriedly asked Lao Liu and the others to take precautions.

Although their assault team was powerful, they did not have an advantage in numbers. The armed men of the other side immediately surrounded them and trapped them inside the base.

Old Hei cursed and shot out the last bullet in his hand, "Damn it, I'm out of bullets, any of you still have some for me."

Lao Liu threw a magazine to him, and then observed the surrounding situation. The situation became more and more unfavorable to them. There were enemies all around. They looked like they were about to be dumped by the enemy.

"Just now I said that we shouldn't rush in completely. Someone needs to make a gap for us in the back. Now we are all surrounded here."

"Monkey, I said why you kid was so messed up just now, can't you just listen to me once?"

"You don't say these things here, are you ashamed to say that you have no selfishness? Then why don't you stay outside?"

"I don't want to quarrel with you now, think about who I am, do I want to get back?"

The two Hawkeyes should stop arguing, they now need to wait for the rescue of the large force, but it is estimated that the large force still has 20 minutes to arrive here.

They had to persist for 20 minutes, but the opponent's firepower was too fierce, the bazooka was already loaded, and the sandbags in front were directly blown to pieces.

Before Canglang stared coldly at the situation inside the base, he had already made preparations. Once someone entered his base, he would definitely let these people come and go, and the people outside would soon surround them.

At first he thought how many people there were, but he didn't expect it to be an eight-member team. It would be naive for only eight people to attack his base.

Hawkeye and the others could only keep retreating. At this time, Lao Liu's shoulder was also injured, and the opponent's firepower was too fierce.

They are now entrenched near a bunker, and can only rely on the terrain to fight back, but this will not last long, and when they come back with a few more shells, it will be completely over.

The most important thing is that they don't have much ammunition now, and the monkey started to complain that all this was due to Lao Liushang's self-assessment. Before, they made an appointment with the big team to start ten minutes later, but now they are fully ahead of schedule.

That's why I didn't meet with the big troops, but the sixth child felt that it was a strange monkey, so he insisted on arguing with him, and there was no way out. If the monkeys were still on the periphery and they should be able to make peace with them, then this would not happen. problem, at least a gap can be punched.

Just as the two were arguing, a huge explosion sounded from the periphery, it was a crackling explosion.

Now that the game is too big, Wither Castle can't hold it at all, Lao Heiqi directly throws the gun down, and now he has no bullets, this gun is just a burden.

"Grandma, anyway, I'm going all out today, even if I die, I can't be a prisoner. I will fight these * with a knife."

"It's ten minutes before Lao Hei gives up the big army. As long as we persist for ten minutes, there will be no problem."

"Ten minutes? If I have bullets, you give me an ammunition box. I can persist here for half an hour. Now that we have no bullets, how do you ask me to persist?"

The sound of shouting and charging was already heard outside, but after a while, it suddenly became completely quiet outside. Because of the explosion of the shells just now, they only dared to hide inside the bunker, but the bunker was torn apart by the shells, and many buildings fell down. .

Chapter 1432: 1 against 0

Hearing that there was no movement outside, Lao Hei's face darkened, and he was determined to die. These guys should look like they want to be captured alive.

"Brothers, you should know that if it falls into the hands of these guys, there will be no good end."

"Don't be so pessimistic. I still have bullets in my hand. As long as they dare to rush up, we can hold the remaining bullets for a while."

"Old Six, I think you are really naive. We are trapped here by others. Do you think they will really charge so easily? After a few shells hit us, we are all finished."

But now the outside is surprisingly quiet, there is no sound at all, everyone is very nervous hiding inside the castle, and after a few minutes, the monkey can't stand it anymore, after all, the outside is surprisingly quiet, this kind of quiet is too tormented.

He poked his head out quietly, only to see a figure slowly walking towards them, and there was dust flying everywhere outside.

It was because the explosion just now was so intense that even the side bunkers had been reduced to ruins.

When he saw the person walking over, he suddenly jumped up happily and ran out. The sixth child couldn't even scream. Is this guy crazy?

"What are you still doing in a daze? Hurry up and get out! Instructor Qin is here to save us! The troops are here!"

Following the monkey's cheers, several people also rushed out from the castle, only to see Qin Yuan standing outside with two guns in his hands, with a lot of blood on his body.

"Instructor, you are injured!"

Qin Yuan just smiled faintly, the person who injured him was not yet born, "It's not my blood, it's these enemies' blood, don't worry, the person has been dealt with."

Lao Liu looked at the people around with a serious face, because just now the monkey said that the people from the large army had come, but now he can only see Qin Yuan.

Just when they were wondering, there was a rumbling sound above their heads. It was the source of the air, but the plane of the air resources circled in the sky.

But nothing was found, because according to their previous agreement, this group will launch signal flares after infiltrating in, so that they can carry out accurate projections, but there are no signal flares on the ground now.

The sixth child can only pick up the walkie-talkie and quickly explain that there is no need for air support, and the enemy on the ground has been completely eliminated. At this moment, the person in charge of air resources is also confused, this is just a joke!

You must know that there are not a few militants in this base, and most of them are hired members of some illegal groups, and their strength should not be underestimated, so they were solved like this.

The monkeys were a little impatient, because the air resource has been reluctant to leave. They wondered if the signal was wrong. 81??m

He snatched the walkie-talkie, "I don't know how the ground troops you connected with have already come to respond, and your air support is only here at this time. It's really funny."

"I don't know what you mean, our ground support is seven minutes away from the destination, and it didn't show up."

what! Monkey couldn't believe it. At this time, Lao Liu patted him on the shoulder and motioned him to look around. There was indeed no one around, only Qin Yuan, and the corpses all over the ground.

In an instant, he seemed to understand something, and looked at Qin Yuan with some awe in his eyes, this person is too scary, right?

"Brother Shen!"

"Um!"

Shen Changqing was walking on the road, and whenever he met familiar people, he would say hello or nod to each other.

But no matter who.

There is no unnecessary expression on everyone's face, as if they are indifferent to everything.

To this.

Shen Changqing is already used to it.

Because this is the Zhenmagic Division, an organization that maintains the stability of Daqin. Its main duty is to kill monsters and ghosts, and of course there are other side jobs.

It can be said.

In Zhenmensi, everyone's hands were stained with a lot of blood.

When a person is used to seeing life and death, he will become indifferent to many things.

When he first came to this world, Shen Changqing was a little uncomfortable, but he got used to it as time went by.

Zhenmus is huge.

Those who can stay in Zhenmusi are all powerful masters, or those who have the potential to become masters.

Shen Changqing belongs to the latter.

Among them, the Zhenmagic Division is divided into two professions, one is the Guardian Envoy, and the other is the Exorcist.

Anyone who enters the Town of Demons starts from the lowest level of Demon Slayers,

Then he was promoted step by step, and eventually he was expected to become a guardian envoy.

Shen Changqing's predecessor was a trainee demon slayer in the town of magic division, and he was also the lowest-ranked demon slayer.

Possess the memory of the predecessor.

He is also very familiar with Zhenmusi's environment .

It didn't take long for Shen Changqing to stop in front of an attic.

At this time, the attic door was open, and occasionally people came in and out.

Enter the attic.

The environment has changed in vain.

There is almost no way to clean off the * smell on everyone in Zhenmusi.

Chapter 1433: i will kill you

With his own power, he killed all the people outside. The people who surrounded them just now were not only armed with well-equipped weapons, but also carried bazookas, so he solved them silently.

The hit rate of the corpses on the ground is also very high. It can be said that they all hit the head accurately, and there are some traces of being hit with flying knives.

Both the head and the heart have no chance to breathe. Such a hit rate is simply too exaggerated.

Hawkeye squatted on the ground and inspected these corpses. The more he inspected, the more he admired him. Even he couldn't do a gunshot to a headshot. Especially in this environment, close-range shooting can't be so accurate at all, because he has to consider the impact of the gun, and the interference of the enemy.

This is simply too terrifying, this is the real God of War, such power makes him look away.

Several people couldn't say anything in surprise, "Why are you so dazed this time? Let's go! I didn't want to make a move, but I really can't stand it anymore."

Everyone was a little ashamed by what was said, and they couldn't help but lower their heads, suddenly thinking that they had another key person, that guy named Canglang.

"Instructor, we still haven't caught a leader, but I don't know if he died among these people."

"Oh, you mean the old man, don't you? Down there, in the gutter."

When Lao Hei and the others went down, they saw an old man who was tied into a rice dumpling. This old man was thrown into the stinky ditch, and the ditch was filled with waste gas water produced next to them.

Several people standing on the top could feel the soaring stench in the ditch. It is conceivable that the people below must feel uncomfortable, and the old man kept struggling.

It turned out that this was the Canglang. Qin Yuan had already locked his identity. Just now, this guy wanted to take advantage of the chaos to escape, but was captured by Qin Yuan on the spot, and then he was directly * and thrown into the stinky ditch. Let him have a taste of these harmful things.

Hawkeye even swallowed his saliva silently, good guy, if he read correctly, this gray wolf served in the Alpha team before.

Moreover, he had the title of a special instructor before, and it was because this guy had a lot of experience that he set up his own criminal group later on. It stands to reason that his skills are also very good, but he didn't expect to be thrown away by Qin Yuan like this it's here.

"Damn! I will definitely kill you, just wait!"

Qin Yuan walked over without saying a word, and slapped him directly on the face. The old man fell into the ditch again, because his hands and feet were bound, so he couldn't stand up at all. His body was completely submerged in the water, and after choking on a few mouthfuls of waste water, Qin asked the monkey to pick him up.

"I will...ahem...kill...you!"

After the wolf was brought up, he was still full of dissatisfaction and wanted to speak viciously, but was slapped by Qin Yuan again into the ditch.

The few people next to him just watched the excitement. If this guy is also a top brat, wouldn't it be enough to just give in? You have to suffer this.

After repeating this several times, the old guy couldn't take it anymore, and started to vomit beside him. The monkey looked disgusted, grabbed his nose and pulled him over, then took out the kettle and splashed some water on his face casually.

Chapter 1434: some hesitation

"You are abusing the captives, I will definitely sue you."

"It seems that some people still haven't been beaten enough."

Qin Yuan kicked him directly into the ditch again, this time the old guy didn't say a word anymore, although the old black next to him was enjoying himself, he couldn't help but remind him, after all, they really will file a complaint when the time comes, will still have some impact.

"Don't worry, it's not enough to kill this guy ten times because of the bad things he did. Did you see that I was going to kick him? It's obvious that he accidentally fell into the ditch."

Everyone understood in an instant, and just smiled knowingly, and this old guy was not a good person at first, and he didn't know how many people were harmed by setting up such a big drug factory.

When waiting for the people from the big army to come, the sixth son and the others also completed the handover, but everyone saw that the biggest leader behind him was in a mess and was full of stench.

The captain who came to meet him also frowned. To be honest, he didn't want this guy to get in the car.

"What's going on here? Why is it so stinky?"

"Captain, don't you know that this guy has spent a lot of effort, what's going on? Even if we ran towards the ditch, we couldn't catch it."

Cang Nan gave Hou Zi a vicious look, and just when he was about to refute, he felt a chill behind his back, wishing to stare at him coldly, that look was too terrifying, he didn't dare to say anything more for a moment.

On the way back, Lao Hei kept asking Qin Yuan how he managed to kill so many people without any injuries.

He sat on the car and tapped Erlang's legs, "It's very simple to practice, you know? Follow the training method I gave you to make steel."

Old Hei took out his notebook and introduced seriously. He said that now he must record every word Qin Yuan said, and it will be useful, so that he can be as powerful as Qin Yuan.

Such a shot just now really shocked them completely. Not only is his marksmanship good, but with the ability of one against a hundred, no one can really do it.

Qin Yuan also criticized their actions this time. He thinks that the captain position is more suitable for Lao Liu, but there is another deputy captain in the team, because when Lao Liu makes decisions, he is always easily influenced by the team members, obviously his decision is correct, but as soon as others say it, he will immediately hesitate.

Because their personal abilities are very strong, but it is not easy to manage so many strong people, so they need a vice captain.

Monkey knew that he was definitely out of luck. After all, he was the one who caused the trouble this time. He was anxious to become the captain, so he rushed to it, without thinking about the latter.

In terms of ability, no one in their team is bad. Everyone has their own specialties. Although they are vice captains, everyone still wants to fight for it.

Monkey knew he was wrong. In that situation, he didn't make a good judgment and delayed everyone. He didn't know what kind of punishment he would receive when he went back this time, let alone the position of deputy captain.

Another person who is not interested is Hawkeye. He is not interested in these positions, and the only thing he is interested in is marksmanship.

He sat on the back seat and carefully inserted the sniper rifle, carefully recalling the corpses he rummaged through today, and couldn't help but wonder if one day he could do that.

Chapter 1435: there are many things to deal with

That is the state of true invincibility.

Just when he was distracted, he heard everyone calling him. He turned his head and found that everyone was looking at him. Hawkeye felt puzzled. What's wrong?

"I really didn't realize it was you, you kid is really lucky."

"What's the situation with this guy? Why didn't he react?"

It turned out that Qin Yuan's designated vice-captain candidate turned out to be Hawkeye. From the very beginning, Qin Yuan felt that Hawkeye was easily overlooked by everyone. He would not fight or grab, but he was able to stand up and make decisions at critical moments.

Just like when they were in a sniper competition before, Hawkeye knew the result and knew that he would lose. In that case, he could have retreated and it was none of his business, but he chose to stand up and fight with Qin Yuan. compete.

Such a person is very responsible, and what Qin Yuan values more is being an excellent sniper, keeping calm at all times, as the vice-captain, he needs to cooperate with the captain's work.

Appropriate calmness is also very good, so there is absolutely no problem in handing over the position of vice captain to him.

"Instructor, can I really be the vice-captain? But many of their abilities are better than mine. To be honest, I am better at marksmanship."

"Whether it's the captain or the vice-captain, it doesn't necessarily mean that you are the best among you, but the person I want to choose is the one who is the most suitable for leadership and the most able to contribute to the team. You are now a small team."

In fact, there is no need for Qin Yuan to say much, they understand the importance of the team, and they performed very well in the cooperation of the previous missions, but this time it involved the selection of the captain, which aroused everyone's competitive spirit.

Because this time he trained the most difficult team in the hunter school, Qin Yuan became famous for a while.

Before, many people were very dissatisfied with Qin Yuan, an empty-headed instructor named in the Hunter School. Why can he appear on the honor roll? In addition to excellent grades, but he is not a real instructor, but he has to be ranked with other outstanding instructors.

This also made many people a little dissatisfied, but this time everyone on Qin Yuan witnessed his strength.

On the way back after the team completed the task, Qin Yuan was also preparing to say goodbye to them. This time he would explain the situation to Frank when he returned. There were still many things to deal with in the country.

Originally, Qin Yuan had been waiting all this time. He was waiting for the reply from the system. Just now, the system had passed the examination and the captain and vice-captain were selected. This special warfare team was formally established, and Qin Yuan also obtained merit points.

Now that the merit points have been obtained, there is nothing to do here, and it is time for him to say goodbye to the team.

"Even if I'm not here, I hope you can train well and keep it up. You have to remember that there are people beyond people, and mountains beyond mountains."

"Instructor, don't worry! I will definitely lead the team well."

After getting along with each other for this period of time, everyone also has a lot of personal abilities that don't give up on Qin Yuan. He is also very good at treating people, and he really treats them as brothers.

Looking at the sad Dahei, "Forget it, don't make the atmosphere so dull, I am also the instructor of the Hunter School after all, and I will come back in the future, so don't let me hear any bad news about you."

"Instructor, let's hold a farewell party for you tonight!"

Chapter 1436: 3 months

Speaking of this, everyone is full of black lines. Is he low-key? I still remember when I just came here, this guy directly skydived in the most handsome pose, wishing everyone knew he was coming.

After more than two hours, everyone finally returned to the Hunter School, and Frank was even more happy to greet them in person in the school. This time their task was completed very well.

It was said to cooperate in the battle, but the people sent to cooperate did not make much effort at all, and all the problems were solved by Qin Yuan and the others first.

"You really surprised me more and more. This time, you gave me such a big surprise. You helped me complete this task and solved many problems for me."

"Colonel Frank, it's too polite of you to say that, and I'm just doing my part."

Frank also knew that Qin Yuan was going back, and he couldn't stop him. He would rather have a mission there. He understood very well that it was impossible for a strong man like Qin Yuan to only be in his hunter school.

This time Qin Yuan solved such a big problem for him. He must hold the farewell party in the evening with great vigor, and even made an exception to let all the rookies come to participate. The main reason is to motivate those rookies who are training and let them see Look at the real strong.

The evening farewell party was unprecedentedly grand, and the entire Hunter School attended. It can be said that this is the first time since the school was established that it was so grand.

It can also be seen that Qin Juan is valued here. Frank is a person who pays great attention to capable people, and he is not stingy about these aspects.

After a few glasses of wine, Frank also opened his heart, "You are not only the best student I have ever seen, but also the best instructor I have ever seen. With you, you can continuously cultivate more outstanding students. "

The people around were clapping and applauding, and they agreed with Frank's statement very much. This time, Qin Yuan's training had shown them a lot.

It's just that at another table at this time, a blond man was drinking wine sullenly, in stark contrast to the person next to him.

Hearing their praise for Qin Yuan, the blond man pursed his lips in disdain, "Hehe, God of War? The best instructor?"

The people next to him heard the man's muttering, and couldn't help asking: "Hei Feng, what's wrong with you?"

If you look closely, the blond man named Hei Feng has a long scar on his throat, extending all the way to his collarbone. He raised his head and took a sip of wine.

"I mean this God of War's so-called excellent instructor is just luck."

The people next to them hurriedly looked around when they heard this, but fortunately, other people didn't notice them at all, and everyone was celebrating.

"Are you crazy? If you say something like this now, if they hear it, you don't know what kind of statement you will spread."

"I don't care about other people's opinions at all. That guy is white and clean. He doesn't even have a scar on his body. Did he really go to the battlefield?"

"You're drunk, don't talk about it, you don't know this person's past at all."

"Come on, sober up, don't you know the tricks in it? There are many things that only we can clearly see the appearance of that guy. I'm afraid he hasn't even been on the battlefield. It's ironic, so he is the God of War? Give me a team, I can train it too."

This instructor named Hei Feng was a student who came in after Qin Yuan left, and was finally retained as an instructor

Chapter 1437: Speak straightforwardly at 1 o'clock

He had only heard of some legends about Qin Yuan before, but those legends were too miraculous, such as * a hundred with one and kill ten with one.

He felt that these things were too ironic, it was impossible for anyone to do them, they were all boasted by everyone.

Including this training, he also led this team, but only for one morning, to be precise. It took less than an hour, because he just went there, and these people didn't cooperate at all, and he didn't have too much contact with this team.

Because he felt that people who were not even willing to meet the instructors were too arrogant, and he was unwilling to teach such a team, so he didn't bring them at all.

In his opinion, Qin Yuan took advantage of this. The team itself is also very strong, and he didn't train much. He just managed them in a standardized way, and now he has become a hero in everyone's mind, the best special warfare instructor. .

Of course he was not convinced in his heart, the man just thought that he drank too much and didn't want to talk to him, so he quickly patted him on the shoulder and told him to go back to rest if he drank too much, and be careful to say wrong things here and be overheard by others.

Hei Feng was already simmering with anger, but seeing Qin Yuan's smug smile in the distance, he felt even more uncomfortable, so he patted the table and stood up.

"You don't come here to persuade me, are you lucky? I am the only one who dares to tell the truth when I say these things here."

"You're drunk, stop talking and sit down."

The two were chattering, Hei Feng staggered and couldn't stand still, and almost fell backwards, the people behind hurriedly supported him.

Because of this movement, everyone's attention was diverted to their side, Frank was a little unhappy, and something happened at this time.

Seeing that everyone was paying attention to him, Hei Feng not only didn't restrain himself, but even staggered to Qin Yuan's side with the help of alcohol.

"Instructor Qin is the best special warfare instructor, none of us can compare! So I must have a drink with you."

This guy was drunk, but what he said was eccentric. Qin Yuan didn't bother to argue with him, he was just a drunk.

He picked up the glass and smiled politely, then drank it down. Frank didn't like to get angry in front of so many people, but he just hoped that this guy would lose a little, so he left quickly after toasting.

"Instructor Qin, so many of us are not as good as you. You are too good as a special warfare instructor, or you might as well train all of us instructors!"

It was for Frank that Qin Yuan didn't get angry just now. This guy keeps saying this, and no one can stand it. Qin Yuan stood up and stared at him coldly.

"Instructor, what do you mean? You can say what you want directly, there is no need to go around. I am also very direct in my speech. I have to do things, especially a man, so I should speak more straightforwardly. "

Hei Feng was even angrier when he heard this, this guy was mocking himself for not being a man enough, he couldn't control so much, he just slammed his wine glass on the table.

"I'm just unconvinced, isn't it just luck? This time the team is already strong, so why do you become the best special warfare instructor? It's really ironic. We people have worked so hard for two or three years."

Frank stepped forward and pulled him away, telling him not to mess around here. This result was given by himself. Although this guy is at Qin Yuan

Chapter 1438: This team is too perfect

But obviously he is not convinced with himself.

In addition, Qin Yuan must not be offended, this person is so capable, even he dare not say anything, but this short-sighted guy came out to provoke him.

"Guard, come here and pull this drunk man down for me, let him sober up!"

The guard next to him rushed over and pulled Hei Feng to go down. Hei Feng struggled violently, and then said unconvinced: "He is just lucky. If you really want to compare, you also give me a team. I will definitely Trained better than him."

Frank ignored him at all, and poured a glass of wine on his face, "Are you sober? Qin Yuan is the special warfare instructor I invited! Are you questioning me?"

Qin Yuan watched the excitement for a long time, looked at Heifeng's unconvinced face, and walked out silently, "Forget it, Frank, Colonel, I think what the instructor said is not bad, since he is so unconvinced, why not?" How about giving him a team, I also want to see the results of the training."

"Qin Yuan, there's no need to mess around with this drunk. This guy is talking nonsense here after drinking. I'll ask him to come over and apologize to you as soon as he wakes up."

Qin Yuan smiled and waved his hands. This is not necessary. He was not angry because of this matter, mainly because people in this place always have a discriminatory view towards people of yellow race.

Many people are still holding on to the previous achievement thinking, so even if they have made achievements, there are still many people who are not convinced.

Including that wall of honor, Qin Yuan is the only person of the yellow race and the only person from the Yan Kingdom. This makes many people jealous. They think this is impossible, after all, it has not happened for so many years.

Under Qin Yuan's persuasion, Frank also agreed to give him a team, but to see what tricks this kid can train.

The hunter school is full of elites, and there are not a few people with strong ability, but at present, the team brought out by Qin Yuan is indeed the strongest in the school ranking.

Hei Feng is not a fool either, he knows that it is too difficult to train the team brought out by Qin Yuan in a short period of time, and this team is too perfect.

"I know what you are thinking. If this is the case, the ending is doomed. I will definitely say that in the entire hunter school, there is no stronger team than them, but I am not admitting that you are stronger, I am feel that they are excellent in themselves."

Hawkeye smiled disdainfully, this guy hasn't seen the facts clearly, what kind of instructor is he, even they have seen through the essence!

But Qin Yuan next to him was silent, very calm, he had heard these words too much, there was no benefit in arguing with words, it would only make him look stupid, he usually likes to speak with strength.

"How about this, lest you say it's unfair, you can choose the entire hunter school at random, and you can draw strong people from other groups, and you form a new team, and then take a look at your training results."

Qin Yuan didn't ask Frank for his opinion at all, and just said it like this. Only then did he remember that he was in the Hunter School, and he could make decisions about everything before, but here it still depends on other people's wishes.

He looked at Frank, and Frank nodded in agreement. In fact, such a thing is not a disadvantage to him.

Chapter 1439: Automatic Exit from Hunter School

He definitely hoped that the hunter school could produce a steady stream of strong people.

Competition must be a good thing, but he felt that what happened tonight was a bit too ironic. Hei Feng didn't expect Qin Yuan to agree so easily, and even told him such unequal conditions, letting him choose at random in the Hunter School. .

This team is stronger, but there are other strong players, it just depends on how you choose.

Thinking that Hei Feng had sobered up a lot from the wine here, he was instantly confident, thinking that he would definitely impress Frank, not that yellow-skinned kid.

It's just that Hei Feng said that he needs three months of training and three months to see the effect.

Old Hei next to him laughed loudly, "Three months? Don't forget, our instructors have trained us thoroughly for more than a week."

Hei Feng didn't want to refute that he still felt that these people were strong, so he just changed some of their other habits for a week, and his own abilities didn't need to be strengthened, so it was enough in a short time, but for others, he had to With his own training method, it will definitely take three months.

Frank watched the excitement from the sidelines. This kind of thing was not a disadvantage to him, anyway, he was just a bystander.

Qin Yuan also nodded in agreement, but three months is too long, he can't stay here all the time, he also has his own things to do.

"Okay, then you have three months of training, and you can compete with me after the end. If you beat me, then I have nothing to say."

Qin Yuan's bets are getting higher and higher every time. This time, it is completely impossible for a member of the special operations team to deal with him alone. After all, this is the elite among the elites of the Hunter School. It is not easy to be an instructor or a student. 81??m

"Wait, you haven't said what to do if you lose?"

"Sorry, there is no such word in my dictionary, it is impossible for me to lose."

Old Hei knew that Qin Yuan would definitely not lose, but he felt that it was not enough, so he quickly jumped out to speak for Qin Yuan.

"Our instructor will definitely not say it, but you are also bullying the few with more people. What should you do if the team you lead loses?"

"If this is the case, then I will automatically withdraw from the Hunter School!"

The people next to him wanted to stop him from saying such harsh words, but at this moment, he was completely lost. The odds of winning this time were too great for him, and he would be a fool if he didn't agree.

Qin Yuan kept an indifferent expression the whole time, anyway, he was waiting for the results in three months, and the next morning, Frank sent a helicopter to send Qin Yuan back in person.

In the past three months, he can retrain a special warfare team in the country. Now he urgently needs merit points, and he spent almost the same amount on the purchase of blueprints and equipment.

Here, Qin Yuan just came back and before he entered the office, he was grabbed by Gao Shiwei's secretary.

Secretary Liu looked around like a thief, and then led Qin Yuan back to the dormitory from behind.

"Secretary Liu, why are you acting like a thief in our brigade? What's the matter? Is Captain Gao bothering you with something? Don't worry, I'll go and talk to him."

"Brother Shen!"

"Um!"

Shen Changqing was walking on the road, and whenever he met familiar people, he would say hello or nod to each other.

But no matter who.

There is no unnecessary expression on everyone's face, as if they are indifferent to everything.

To this.

Shen Changqing is already used to it.

Because this is the Zhenmagic Division, an organization that maintains the stability of Daqin. Its main duty is to kill monsters and ghosts, and of course there are other side jobs.

It can be said.

When a person is used to seeing life and death, he will become indifferent to many things.

When he first came to this world, Shen Changqing was a little uncomfortable, but he got used to it as time went by.

Zhenmus is huge.

Those who can stay in Zhenmusi are all powerful masters, or those who have the potential to become masters.

Shen Changqing belongs to the latter.

Among them, the Zhenmagic Division is divided into two professions, one is the Guardian Envoy, and the other is the Exorcist.

Anyone who enters the Town of Demons starts from the lowest level of Demon Slayers,

Then he was promoted step by step, and eventually he was expected to become a guardian envoy.

Shen Changqing's predecessor was a trainee demon slayer in the town of magic division, and he was also the lowest-ranked demon slayer.

Possess the memory of the predecessor.

He is also very familiar with the environment of Zhenmagus It didn't take long for Shen Changqing to stop in front of an attic.

Different from other places full of chills in Zhenmagus, the attic here seems to stand out from the crowd. In the  Zhenmagus, it presents a different tranquility.

At this time, the attic door was open, and occasionally people came in and out.

Enter the attic.

The environment has changed in vain.

There is almost no way to clean off the * smell on everyone in Zhenmusi.

Chapter 1440: The old general is a lobbyist

"Captain Qin, please keep your voice down, you will be discovered later, haven't you heard? Captain Gao hasn't told you yet?"

Secretary Liu muttered to himself for a while, and then thought that Gao Shiwei hadn't had time to say it. He looked around to make sure there was no one else, and then he explained the reason.

It turned out to be Mr. Zhang from the Aerospace Research Base. This old guy was so persistent that he always wanted to bring Qin Yuan there to do research.

"It shouldn't be. He probably doesn't know where our brigade is. It's all kept secret, so he can't come."

"Yes, he really can't come, but there is someone above this old guy. He knows an old general at the headquarters. The old general was the immediate boss of our high team before."

The co-author was when the old general came to be a lobbyist, and he had been here for several days in a row. Gao Dui was under pressure and used the excuse that Qin Yuan was on a mission.

And even though the old general has retired now, since he asked for this favor, he will definitely be able to help. He also drank some wine with Mr. Zhang at that time.

Inevitably, he boasted a few words that he had brought Gao Shiwei before, and he was also his soldier, so he would give him some face, so he agreed, thinking that he could take Qin Yuan away.

But he didn't expect it to be different after he arrived. Gao Shiwei was too protective of the calf. He didn't let him take Qin Yuan away at all. After such a long time, he didn't even see Qin Yuan.

The old general is also a person who cares about face. Since he has already promised other people's affairs, he must do it.

The current old general is sitting in the office, playing chess with Gao Shiwei. Gao Shiwei has a wry smile in his heart, but he can't show it.

"What the * are you thinking of, kid? Just play chess seriously, don't think about those messy things, just watch how you move."

It's no wonder that Gao Shiwei was distracted, because he didn't have time to inform Qin Yuan. The old general's speed was too fast, and he had a strong anti-investigation awareness.

"Old chief, look at what you said. You brought me out before. There is no need for us to guard against each other in this relationship."

"Hey, your boy reminded me of this, it's because I brought you out before, so I know your ghost ideas."

"Chief, you really embarrass me like this. I wish he was very capable and couldn't stay in the research institute all the time. He also has his mission here, and you should know it. He is the captain."

"I still understand this. You guys can't be so stingy, you just borrowed it for a while, and it's not like you won't return it."

Gao Shiwei was very helpless. He borrowed here and there, and Qin Yuan was busier than the captain of the brigade. How long has the brigade not been here?

The old general was also an extremely smart person, he knew that if Qin Yuan really went on a mission, he would definitely report the situation to Gao Shiwei when he came back, so he was waiting here.

At this time, the old general's driver knocked on the door and walked in, then whispered a few words into the old general's ear, and the old general smiled instantly.
