

Special Soldier 1681

Chapter 1681: country c's plan

But what makes everyone strange is that the training on this side has been going on for a week, but there is no response from the Marine Corps and the Air Force.

Jiang Xiaoyu lay on the deck and stretched boredly, "I don't know how their training is going? Did Brother Qin forget about us? It won't work like this."

Barang next to him said: "You guy, don't be so anxious, Brother Qin must have made arrangements, we just need to wait for his arrangements, and besides, haven't you heard? They train quickly over there. Tired like a dog."

This is really because they couldn't imagine what the environment on the Gobi Desert was like. It was the former experimental base there, and there were some huge pits everywhere, and many places had no grass due to long-term experiments, including the desert. Water resources are also very difficult.

Although Qin Yuan asked the cooking team to keep up with the soldiers' water consumption as much as possible, but this situation is not good, because the distance to and from is too far, so everyone is adhering to the principle of saving water.

During this period of time, they suffered a lot. Qin Yuan's training intensity was greater than their usual listening intensity in the basic company, and they could barely keep up, because it was just the beginning, and they had to adapt first.

The members of the red blood cell team are responsible for monitoring whoever's movements are not standard, or they are not as expected by Qin Yuan, and they fall behind and get beaten directly.

This mode is comparable to their previous special selection, because it is also very strict. He requires these soldiers to reach the peak speed and cooperation in a short period of time, so they can only use this kind of physical memory to impress them. .

Two weeks have passed since the army's training, and the fighting has gradually begun to adapt to this intensity. After all, in the previous training, they were relatively strong in the regiment, so they can adapt quickly.

This side is almost done, Qin Yuan started to let the marines shoot at the coordinate points, because this time the three armies are still relatively far apart.

The Marine Corps mainly refers to guarding the pier assigned to them. They will also conduct naval battles at that place, so it is no problem for Jiang Xiaoyu and the others.

It's just that Qin Yuan frowned when he looked at the data they typed out. After adding these, he was really lazy during this period. Although such data looks good, many details are not enough.

The first is the time. The time from his order to the actual launch is not within the scope of his request.

He has to demand the ultimate perfection in everything, because they will represent the entire Yan Kingdom when they go out this time, and there must be no mistakes.

He could only tell Li Erniu to train quickly here, and he formulated a training method, which was completely step-by-step, and asked them to report their situation to him every three days to see if they could keep up. After catching up, he will change to another training plan.

Then he left this place with He Chenguang and Wang Yanbing, and handed it over to the remaining few people. Now they are acting separately and can be arrested in several ways.

Jiang Xiaoyu and the others were looking forward to Qin Yuan, but they were scolded by Qin Yuan just after they arrived, because this did not reach their peak level at all.

"I can say that I didn't participate much in the selection on your side, because I know that Li Erniu and the others participated in all your previous strengths, but I don't know why it became like this. Look at your results, just Take this result as an example, are you satisfied with yourself?"

Speaking of this, everyone lowered their heads, because when Qin Yuan said that he wanted to order the shooting, the time was actually very tight, they didn't react at all, they could only adjust the coordinates quickly, so there was some delay.

This time, he wanted to keep improving and make everything strict. He led the marines to personally control the warships, and conducted formation drills for them, including how to make changes later, everything was in place one by one.

This side has just ended, and he went to the air force base again, and began to give training guidance to that side. It can be said that he wished that he now had three clones.

Wang Yanbing kept bumping back and forth with him, and in the end he couldn't stand the intensity and fell ill. You must know that Wang Yanbing's physical fitness is very good, and he couldn't stand it under this intensity.

But Qin Yuan is just like a normal person, running around every day like a chicken blood, which is also in line with his style, his ability is like this.

Qin Yuan's side is proceeding in an orderly manner, and other places are the same. The main reason is that country c is getting busier now.

The president of country c doesn't know some things, just like the last time many special forces members disappeared on their side. Regarding this news, he always felt that Qin Yuan was slandering him, because it was impossible for his people to do it behind his back. These things.

He has long forgotten about that matter, because that is not the point. The point he needs to grasp now is to send a team to participate in this international competition. This competition is very important.

Looking at the lists brought up by the secretary, he studied them carefully. This time, all the soldiers had been systematically modified. He didn't know if there would be any flaws. It is half of each meal.

"Will we move a little too much this time? My previous suggestion was not to use so much, and the Minister of Military Affairs called him over. I want to ask something."

When the secretary heard that the President was going to call the Minister of Military Affairs, his expression was a little unnatural, and he coughed slightly.

"Sir, this is only a part of the strength we have researched, and according to our repeated training experiments, there have been no mistakes."

The president suddenly raised his head and glanced at the secretary next to him. What does this guy mean? He suddenly slammed the table.

"What I asked you just now was to tell you to call the Minister of Military Affairs over here. What are you telling me what are you doing? Hurry up and carry out my orders!"

The secretary was taken aback, he could only nod his head, then turned around and just arrived at the door, a little unwilling to give up, and walked over again.

"The military minister is not on the base, he's out."

what! Hearing this, he was even angrier, because their experiment was originally conducted in secret, and even he, the president, had to register all his entry and exit, and that guy didn't even go through his order.

Just like this, he went out at will. He had issued a death order before, and no one was allowed to come in and out at will. They are now closed.

After all, what he is doing is a kind of research that violates the human body, so he is also very worried that other people will find out. Qin Yuan already knew a general idea before, and now he can't let this base be discovered, otherwise he will not say anything later. Not sure.

The president was getting angry in the room, and asked the secretary to hurry up and get the minister of military back. This guy is just playing with fire. The main reason is that everyone is hiding it from him. Could it be that the military minister has greater status and rights than himself?

Moreover, it had been more than six hours since he asked people to go out to look for it until the evening, and the Minister of Military Affairs came back slowly.

As soon as he opened the door, a cup was thrown at him directly. One can imagine how ugly the face of the person opposite was. After all, as the president of a country, he actually waited here for the military minister for six hours.

"Look at your great face, let me wait for you here for six hours, where did you go? You know that I can immediately arrest you for passing or treason."

It's just that he didn't notice a hint of ferocity flashing across the military minister's face, and he heard the sound of crackling footsteps outside.

After a while, the door was pushed open, and the soldiers outside rushed in one after another, but it didn't look like they were protecting the president, but were standing on the same front as the military minister.

"What are you guys doing? What do you mean by all looking at me like that?"

Seeing that the president's expression was a bit abnormal, the military minister coughed slightly.

After all, it's not time to fall out, he turned around and raised the volume, "It's just a broken cup, why are you so nervous? Get out of here."

This is really funny to say. No one responded to the President's order just now. However, the Minister of Military Affairs made such an understatement, and everyone started to retreat. This made the President feel dissatisfied. Wonderful feeling.

He knew that this situation was not good for him, because he didn't bring many guards here, and his guards were not qualified to enter here. He put all the security in this base, and the guards were excluded.

Now he regrets it a little, because he doesn't understand the situation now, especially after seeing the scene just now, does the military minister want to rebel?

As soon as this thought came to him, he frowned, and his heart was getting worse and worse. At this time, the military minister walked into him slowly, and then even bowed and apologized to him.

"Mr. President, I am very sorry. Today is because I have my own personal affairs, so I did not report to anyone. This matter is indeed something I did wrong. As the Minister of Military Affairs, I should set an example and hope to receive your report punish."

Listening to this guy's tone is very sincere, which caught the president a little off guard. What can he do now? His tone was very sincere, but he didn't have any real power in this place.

Now he can only bow his head, this matter can only be forgotten, he waved his hand and asked the opposite military minister to stand up

"Actually, we have known each other for so many years, and you have dealt with my eldest brother and father before. There is no need to engage in these things. I just feel strange about this deployment."

When it comes to the fact that the Minister of Military Affairs was not polite at all, he just said something slightly, and this guy sat next to him and maintained an equal relationship with him.

This was indeed a little impolite, but he didn't feel the slightest bit. Instead, he answered other questions seriously.

"Sir, although your status here is the strongest and the biggest, but you don't understand many things about the military. I think this is a good opportunity and will not reveal any flaws. We have also done many experiments. no problem."

The military minister didn't seem to care about this matter again, and he didn't seem to be discussing it with him, but to inform himself that he had made a decision and there was no room for taking it back.

"Sir, after all these years, we should have allocated the things you should manage long ago. I will not interfere. I have the absolute right to speak about the military."

After he finished speaking, he looked at the president in front of him with some condition in his eyes, and the man's back shivered when he saw him, wondering what kind of move this guy would make.

I could only cough twice in embarrassment, and then nodded in agreement, "Okay, since you have already discussed it, but when you make any decisions in the future, you still have to discuss it with me, after all, I am the leader of this country." All right!"

"This is my subordinate. I'm a bit careless, but I'm going to present the plan to you a week ago. I don't know if there was any accident in the middle. You didn't see it."

This guy just made an excuse. The president knew very well that there was no accident at all. He never planned to post it. Otherwise, who would dare to hide such a big thing?

Seeing the back of the Minister of Military Affairs leaving, he shuddered even more. Could it be that what Qin Yuan said before was true, and those special soldiers who disappeared were related to them?

Coupled with his attitude tonight, now he felt as if he was being emptied out, so he took the two guards and left, and he was relieved when he came out to see his guards.

At this moment, a car suddenly caught up with him. He felt a little nervous, and the bodyguard next to him also subconsciously looked behind.

"Mr. is the car of the Minister of Military Affairs. He seems to have something to do. Should we stop?"

The president is actually quite scared now, because the experiments they conducted in this place, the abilities of those soldiers he has seen, are really extraordinary.

But what if you don't stop? He gritted his teeth and asked the driver to stop. He felt that no matter how brave the military minister was, he would not dare to do anything to him here.

As soon as the vehicle stopped, the military minister next to him came down, and he handed over a document bag.

"Sir, you left in a hurry just now. This is my previous plan. You haven't read it yet. You should take a look at this thing first, and then I need your signature before I can go for approval."

It turned out to be this matter, he was also relieved to hear this, and asked the secretary to take the kraft paper bag, and left just like that.

After watching his vehicle leave, the military minister outside turned around and walked towards the inside. Now is not the time to act. As long as the action over there starts, there is no need to keep this guy, he is just a puppet.

Chapter 1682: Fight against Xiaomao

Now he has started to quietly plan other things, because the president does not agree to what they are doing now.

On the one hand, this matter needs to use other experiments. At the beginning, when it was said that the experiment on the human body should be conducted, and it was irreversible, he strongly disagreed. It was reluctantly carried out with the full support of the Minister of Military Affairs and several others. .

And the military minister felt that their president was too cowardly, and he had to think about everything. In this case, there would be problems at all, which kept their military level stagnant.

Now being strong is the last word. There are sacrifices in doing these experiments, and those sacrifices are very necessary. In his opinion, it is just a few lives, so he doesn't care at all.

No matter what, he is doing everything to make his country better, so the ideas of the two sides have conflicted. The president thinks that a laboratory like him is inhumane, so he will come here every time. supervision.

But this time it made him a little creepy, because he had already noticed something abnormal. After he went back, he didn't call the secretary during the day. The secretary had followed him for many years, but today's matter started to hide from him.

He made a phone call and called in a backup secretary who was outside, and now he didn't know who to trust. He had been too relaxed these years and didn't take these things into consideration at all.

So now when he really needs to use people, he doesn't know who to use, because he doesn't know who is the eyeliner.

"Sir, what can you do?"

"Go and print out all the list and specific equipment that the Minister of Military Affairs applied for before. I need to check."

The secretary nodded, but he was still a little puzzled, "By the way, sir, because printing these materials requires an accurate IP password, and only Mr. Wall knows this password."

The Mr. Wall he was talking about was the secretary who had been with the president all the time. The president snorted coldly when he heard this, "What? Does he have to approve even what I want to see? After all, he is the president of this country Or am I?"

When the secretary heard that the president was angry, he didn't know what happened, so he bent down quickly. After all, he didn't have a password, and it was true. If he asked normally, he didn't know why he got so angry.

But this is beyond his comprehension, he immediately nodded and said that this can be solved, it can prevent the network security from coming to deal with it, and he can print it.

When he was about to retreat, the president raised his head and glanced at him, "What is this place like? Who is in charge? You have to be clear, don't do those messy things! You just need to obey my orders alone. ."

The secretary nodded quickly. How could he have experienced this before? After all, he was a backup secretary anyway.

After a while, the document was still sent to the president. He casually flipped through a few pages and felt abnormal, because he remembered that when the secretary showed him the list at the beginning, there were more people than this doubled,

The amount of materials applied for is also several times more. It has always been said that the loss is serious. Now I can only explain one problem. This document is either fake in the computer, or it has been transferred by them.

Now the orders he gave didn't work. It seemed that there was no one who could be trusted. At this moment, Wall walked in.

"Sir, I just heard that you want to read the information in the computer, but why didn't you call me? I have been outside all the time and didn't know about it."

"I didn't see you just now, so I thought you had gone back, so I called someone casually, nothing is trivial."

Now he has to learn how to hide himself, so that the military minister can't find anything too big, so he just said a few words and asked him to leave first.

After the secretary left, the President also began to think carefully. Since no one here could believe it, the only person left was Qin Yuan.

He didn't know why he had such an illusion, he always felt that that guy would help him think of this, he couldn't help but sneered, it was really ironic.

As the president of country C, he doesn't know many things about his country, and he doesn't even have any rights. He always feels that he is being led away by others.

The most important thing is that he doesn't even have anyone he trusts now. He has nothing but the security team in his hand, and the strength of the security team is not at the same level as the military mutants he researched. .

If he wanted to use these things against the Minister of Military Affairs, there was really no chance of winning, so the first thing he thought of was Qin Yuan, and he could only see if he could get some clues from that guy, maybe what he said before was indeed true.

And Qin Yuan's side was actively training, so he had no time to take care of things there, until the training was coming to an end, and they received a notice.

The official competition time has been set, just one month later, so now they still have one month to go, which is somewhat beyond Qin Yuan's previous imagination.

And this time the rules were made by the countries that ranked first in the world to fight against the league, forming a circle, from high to low.

When Qin Yuan heard this rule, he just thought it was funny, so let them fight, anyway, the ones who fight to the end will meet again.

The rankings from decades ago, they can still use them to talk about things now, so although there is still a month before the competition, the official competition between other countries has already begun, especially the United States.

The United States and country D have already started to fight. After all, they are number one and number two in terms of military rankings, so let them confront each other first, and then come down one by one.

Li Erniu and the others are paying attention to the news every day, so I don't know how long it will take. Although they have entered a public system, the battle situation is broadcast on the system every day, but it is almost the same. Basically, everyone is paying attention to this matter.

"I think this rule is a bit too unfair. I'm not saying it's unfair to us. After all, this ranking has passed for so many years. It's not that it's too unfriendly to the people behind. Anyway, we are not afraid of anyone."

Li Erniu complained dissatisfiedly at the side, and He Chenguang said next to him: "Then do you think if the competition is not done in this way, how much time will be wasted by drawing lots, and everyone may be dissatisfied, just now It's actually a pretty good model."

"In the beginning, I thought everyone was together, and there was a mess of beatings. Anyway, that would be a better end. Let's break out of the encirclement directly."

Wang Yanbing walked over and slapped him on the head directly, "I said you are a pig's head, don't you think about it? So many people gathered together, thanks to your thinking."

Qin Yuan left at this time, and he was also training during the time he came in. The whole person was blacked out. The most obvious blacked out person was Qin Zhengyang. He finally came back from the Gobi Desert. Now the training over there It's over.

Everyone was taken to another training ground, and now they are all running in. The previous training stage has passed, and now as long as they cooperate well, there will be no problem.

"Brother Qin, it just so happens that you're here. Come and take a look. If it's really based on the ranking, we're going to fight with country A."

"Hehe, don't worry, this is impossible, because if country A wants to fight us, he must first beat Xiaomao country, and they can't beat us."

He Chenguang was also a little surprised when he heard this. Country A's overall military strength is relatively good. Although the small Mao country has also risen in the past two years, according to the previous situation, their strength is still comparable.

"If you don't believe me, just watch it. We have the highest chance of fighting Xiaomao. We haven't found this opportunity before. If we can fight them for the first time this time, it will be considered revenge."

Everyone was very excited when they heard this, because it is true that there are only some small-scale matches between the country and Xiaomao. There has never been a chance for a large-scale confrontation. This is a rare opportunity.

"If we really run into those grandchildren, then I have to clean them up."

"That's what I mean, so based on timely analysis, they are the most likely to stay behind, and the United States likes to provoke troubles, and Xiaomao will definitely fight us."

Qin Yuan is not that kind of scared, he just feels that he has been used by others, but there is no big problem after all, anyway, this time is a big reshuffle, disrupting the entire ranking, what he wants to let others know is the real number one.

This kind of competition lasted for half a month, and the result finally came out. Originally, country A started the battle with Qin Yuan and the others, but because of an error, Xiaomao country switched with them, and country A is now fighting with Yuan country. together.

The two sides are relatively fierce, and at this time, Xiaomao Country is free. Qin Yuan and the others have to be ready at any time. It will take about a week before they can pass, and they can make preparations in these two days.

When they knew who they were competing with, everyone was very excited. Basically, they came over one after another to express condolences to them, telling them not to put too much pressure on them and to compete well. This was the first match.

Gao Shiwei's eyes were full of tears. After so many years, he finally had the opportunity. He believed in Qin Yuan 100%. On the day when he sent them off, basically all the generals from the general military region came.

Everyone looked at Qin Yuan expectantly, and hoped that he would come back with honor this time. The results of other matches were not important, but this was the first match. I hope they will be able to play well.

Qin Yuan and the others started to set off with everyone's expectations. This time, they chartered a special plane. It is relatively remote to get there, and it takes more than six hours. After getting there, they need to take other cars.

Because Qin Yuan and the others were already very famous in the previous competition, they didn't get the slightest slack when they got there. Instead, they saw that Ba Guo had already been waiting there early.

Qin Yuan greeted them, and the person in charge over there hurried over and took Qin Yuan and the others to the bus opposite.

After a hasty greeting from both sides, Qin Yuan and the others got on the bus and set off.

And Pakistan is still waiting for their military strength, and has always been ranked last. The reason why they came so early this time is that they were notified by this side.

"Sir, I don't understand. Why did they let us come early? We all watched them send away a few groups of people here, so let us be the doormen here?"

"Shut up, let's prepare well when we come here, and get familiar with the terrain early."

Although this is said, in fact, everyone knows in their hearts that they are not taken seriously at all, but it may be a mistake in the number of places that called them here. Whether it is before or now, their military strength is not as strong as anyone care.

Just look at the attitude of those people towards them just now, seeing Yan Guo's trotting over directly, for fear of delaying others.

And the leader of the team is also very clear about how Yan Guo came to the present step by step. It all depends on his strength. In the past two years, they have developed rapidly in all aspects, which is why they have won the respect of others and their fists. It is the last word, including this competition.

According to his calculations they started to fight against country H this time, because their strengths were almost the same at the end, and according to this level of competition, the biggest chance is to fight against them.

At this time, Qin Yuan and the others had already been taken to the fringe area of the competition. Here, they first had to explain the rules to them, as well as the specific competition venue, including how to proceed.

This competition is quite interesting, and other countries that are not qualified to participate in the war will start to take charge of this assessment.

Just like the sand table in front of them, there are several large areas on these sand tables, and they can choose at will, but the crux of the problem is that they need to break through by themselves, so this time they are not only facing people who need to fight.

They need to take the lead in seizing a good area, and after the area is selected, they will start to draw lots. This is the same as their usual confrontation, which is to conduct offensive and defensive confrontation.

If you can't even grab the area, that is, you can't even beat the people they arranged to be on duty here, then you will be eliminated directly.

The person in charge next to him was also explaining the rules patiently. Halfway through the talk, a few people from Xiaomao Kingdom walked in.

From this look, they seemed to have arrived a day earlier, so they already knew the rules very well, but they just watched silently from the side and did not speak.

"The competition here should end today, but we need three days of preparation time, we will re-plan, and you can freely choose the area to attack."

"Is there a time limit for this attack? Is there a minimum time? That is, if I attack in the shortest time, you won't think I'm cheating, right?"

Chapter 1683: The Conspiracy of Xiaomao

The person in charge next to him was a little surprised when he heard him say this. It was the first time someone asked about the shortest time. This seems to be really unlimited.

But for the sake of rigor, after all, this game is very important, and the whole world is basically watching, so he has to ask.

"Officer Qin, please wait a moment. I'll go and ask about the specific situation. You can bring up any other detailed requirements with me, and I'll check them one by one."

"There are no other major issues. It is whether there is any difference in the attack plan in the shortest time. If I fight it directly within half an hour, is it a win or what? Don't make some messy things for me. "

Hearing that the person in charge just nodded repeatedly, wrote down the question, turned and left, but at this time the people from Xiaomao who had been standing beside him and hadn't said a word laughed out loud.

They also had several confrontations with Qin Yuan before, but they were all small-scale confrontations, which were not worth mentioning at all. Although they didn't achieve any good results, they felt that this time it was a confrontation between the three armies. What matters is overall strength.

"Qin Yuan! I didn't expect us to meet again. I don't think you remember me."

Qin Yuan didn't even raise his head, but raised his eyelids slightly, and glanced at the person who spoke just now. The man who spoke just now had a mustache and a long scar on his left cheek. He didn't really have any impression.

"Well, I don't remember the less important people, I just don't know what you were laughing at just now."

The person who was so arrogant just now was completely irritated. This guy really doesn't remember, but he won't forget. He blamed the scar on his face and said:

"Hehe, I just wanted to save you a little bit, and I want you to remember it. It seems that you really forgot. This scar is thanks to you."

"I thought who it was, it turned out to be our captain's defeated opponent, and I'm ashamed to shout here."

Li Erniu was also not polite, and directly responded back, because when Qin Yuan spoke just now, those few people showed mocking expressions, and their faces were completely disdainful.

Now that he finally found this opportunity, of course he had to fight back. Sure enough, when it came to the defeat, the people around him were not calm. Two people even wanted to rush forward, but they were stopped by that mustache.

"Stop! Don't forget what the purpose of our visit is, we must consider the overall situation, and don't be impulsive about these things."

Qin Yuan just stared at the sand table intently. He was thinking about the problem just mentioned, and he didn't care about the rest. The people from Xiaomao country next to him raised their volume again, but Qin Yuan didn't pay attention to him at all. Hopping monkey.

Just when he was about to speak, the person in charge came back in a hurry, and he had to deal with any problems they had in a timely manner.

"Chief Qin, I checked it just now. There are not too many rules. There is no time limit, because in the end everyone has the same goal, as long as they can defeat the opponent."

"Oh, there is no limit, so wouldn't it be profitable for some people? Although it is a simulation training, I am worried that someone will play tricks."...

Qin Yuan raised the volume of his speech a little, and deliberately looked at the people in Xiaomao Country next to him. He was talking about these guys, don't use some despicable methods, such as some special weapons.

Of course, the person in charge also understood. He explained with a smile that this kind of situation is basically impossible, because they will conduct a kind of review on the weapons and equipment of each country during the initial screening, and they will officially enter the battlefield after there are no problems.

"Okay, then I have no problem, but I hope you don't let others down in terms of review, otherwise you will lose face if something goes wrong. This is worldwide."

After Qin Yuan finished speaking, he patted the responsible person on the shoulder. He felt a lot of pressure in an instant. He just looked at Xiao Maoguo and felt that what he said was indeed reasonable. side.

Then Qin Yuan left with his people, and the people from Xiaomao country stared at him. What does this guy mean? He hurriedly shouted loudly:

"Hey! What are you doing? Are you looking down on us like this? What's going on? Didn't you hear me talking to you?"

Qin Yuan just smiled and didn't say any more. He left with a few people and didn't pay attention to them at all. The captain of Xiaomao Country was about to vomit blood, and this guy didn't pay attention to him at all.

However, what was even more annoying was not here yet. Just when they were about to leave, the person in charge suddenly stopped them.

"By the way, you wait for the training weapons you have reported before. We need to check them again and check them one by one. I will take people there now."

The mustache frowned when he heard this, and was a little unhappy, "What are you going to do? Just because of that guy's words, we are going to re-examine us, what are you, and you have the final say on this matter? ?"

"I came to say that this area is indeed in my hands. You have to pay attention to the rules when you come here to compete. The rules were originally made by everyone. If you have any unconvinced things, there is no need to tell me here. , I can react upwards."

This person in charge can be absolutely fair and just. He didn't pay attention to the guy in front of him, but just said lightly, don't quarrel with him, if you want to quarrel, go directly to the top.

This guy was speechless in an instant, they really didn't want to make such a big fuss, and from this, it can be seen that Yan Kingdom is different, they are respected enough, just a word like this can make others pay attention stand up.

When they returned to their station, there were still some guards at the door, which was also to ensure absolute fairness and safety.

Others are not allowed to go out at will, except for those who are going to participate in the meeting and discuss the rules, most of them are all inside the base.

Seeing Qin Yuan coming in, the others were very happy, and they all looked in this direction, Jiang Xiaoyu jumped off the horizontal bar.

Because the specific time has not been notified yet, everyone has been waiting anxiously. They have been here for two days.

"Brother Qin, what do you say now? What date do we start the game?"...

"Everyone go back and wait with peace of mind. There are still three days left. Today's game over there is over, and we are almost there. We will officially enter the competition venue in three days."

Everyone was very excited to hear this, especially knowing their opponents this time. However, the rules of the competition are not so simple. Now they have to capture the camp they belong to before they can have a real duel with Xiaomao.

As for the situation on the sand table, Qin Yuan just took a rough look. They will wait for everything to be deployed tomorrow morning, and then go to the sand table to check to determine which area they want to provide.

And at the other side at this moment, the little beard with the scar from before Xiao Maoguo was sitting in a room. After a while, a man walked in.

If you look carefully, you can find that the clothes on this man are the ones they are responsible for patrolling locally.

The expression on the man's face was a little impatient, and he didn't come to this place voluntarily.

"I've said many times, don't contact me easily. The current situation is very special. Everyone is watching at all times, because it's not my decision here. So many people, so many pairs of eyes have been seen. What? Are you trying to ruin my future?"

"Mr. Halson hopes you won't be so excited. There are some things we can sit down and talk about slowly."

But the people in front of him didn't buy it. He was a little angry. These guys came to contact him without saying a word, and asked him to show up in the office tonight, otherwise they would come over and continue to look for him. exposed?

"I don't want to talk nonsense with you. What are you going to do? Say it now, I can't leave my post for too long."

"Mr. Halson, it seems that you have forgotten the previous agreement with us. I remember that you were not like this before. By the way, you haven't seen your wife and children for a long time. Now I can give you a little bit. "

These guys are really despicable. Hal's fists were just because he had a handle on them, so they found him. About a month ago, his wife and children suddenly disappeared, including the parents at home. .

It was just that a note and a phone number were found at home, so that he could not make any noise and was not allowed to tell others, otherwise he would kill his family directly.

Faced with this situation, he chose to deal with it alone. First of all, he had to find out who did it before he could make a judgment, so he called.

Unexpectedly, just after the call was made, the other party directly transferred 10 million into his card. He was a little surprised by such a large amount of money. This doesn't look like a kidnapper's style. Shouldn't it be asking for money directly? Instead, give him money directly.

So he was also confused at the time, and he didn't know until later that the money was just a favor fee for him, and he needed to cooperate internally and externally during the game, because all the people who maintained order in the game a month ago had been identified clearly.

Although his official position is not big, he is in charge of guarding the perimeter, maintaining the security outside, and guarding against other people's infiltration in this place. ...

So in this case, his role is highlighted. Although the position is not high, if someone wants to come in from here, he must go through him and his guards.

He also knew that it was his identity that brought trouble to his family. At that time, he could only acquiesce. After all, it is definitely not a simple person who can control all this. If exposed, he might not even be able to protect his family.

So there was the operation tonight, he was brought to this place, but he had said before that he was not allowed to take him away in front of other people, which would arouse suspicion from others, and now it was special.

The mustache on the opposite side didn't pay attention to his things, but pointed at the computer screen. He only saw that in a bright room, his wife was feeding the child.

Halsen was a little excited, and hurried forward and kept calling his wife's name, but there was no movement from his wife, and the mustache on the opposite side smiled.

"Mr. Halsen, I forgot to remind you. Our side has not yet connected. If you want to connect, it's okay. It just depends on your heart and whether you are willing to cooperate with us."

When Halsen heard this, he could only clenched his fists. He nodded silently, as a tacit consent, because he hadn't found any news for more than a month, and he could only be manipulated by them. Now, in order to see his wife It can only do so.

The mustache on the opposite side turned on the microphone, and Halsen and his family were finally able to talk. After confirming that the family was safe, he was relieved.

Just when he wanted to get a deeper understanding, the computer screen was turned off.

"Mr. Halsen, people can't be so greedy. We are protecting your family and providing them with a very good living environment. You have to do something for us."

"You! Forget it, I can't say anything to you. I told you many times before that you should not hurt them, but did you do so?"

"This is wrong. We are obviously protecting, because if we don't do this, other people will. I can't guarantee whether other people have our kindness and can give them such a good environment to live in."

He thought about it carefully, it seems that this is indeed the truth, not that he should be grateful to them now, but that other people are also planning on him, but these guys took the lead After thinking for a long time, he finally I made up my mind, no matter what, the only reason is to save my family.

At least for now, to ensure their safety and not let them get hurt, he could only nod his head, "Then what are your conditions? Tell me first."

"Hahaha, our conditions are of course very simple. Tonight I need a detailed map on the sand table and the number of people stationed! The number of soldiers is still under control, and these should be available."

Halsen frowned here, how could he know this, and it was too risky, "I can't promise you this condition, because I have no access to things that I can't do."

"Oh, but as far as I know, you had a brother who worked there before. You can ask your brother."

He didn't expect these people to know him so thoroughly. All his friends were already known to their women. It looked like this, if he didn't agree to help now, his family would really be in danger.

Chapter 1684: Steal information

In fact, if you want to steal the blueprint of the specific layout inside, there is no problem, but it is too risky, because this time it is worldwide after all, if this thing is leaked to him, he has no other way, and this crime is too serious. big.

Halsen is also very hesitant now, "If I promise you, then these people will not spare me. I will make mistakes again and again. You are threatening the safety of my family, but you should also think about it. Will I be able to survive?"

The mustache laughed loudly, he walked over and patted Halsen's shoulder with a smile, "Don't worry about this, since you choose to help us, then we are this thing on a rope, and we will cover

you. You have 15 minutes, we will fight for you, you can reproduce the blueprint, no problem, right? And the above data. "

Mustache said that as long as he finished this matter, he would send his parents over first, let them reunite temporarily, and the rest will be over later, if there is nothing else, he will send his wife and children over of.

Halsen was really hesitant when he heard this. He clearly knew that this matter was not for the safety of his family. He had no choice but to lower his head once before.

In the end, he nodded and agreed, but he repeatedly checked the time for 15 minutes, whether he could really give the mustache a nod to indicate that this is no problem, and he can act tonight.

This mustache is the leader of Xiaomao Country this time called Matsushita Haotian. This guy knows that Qin Yuan and the others have a strong momentum, and no matter which aspect they are in, they are not dominant.

So he can only try his best to win from these aspects. This time, their competition is attracting everyone's attention worldwide, and they will re-evaluate the rankings, so they must win.

It's not that he is worried that his strength is not enough, but that the opponent's strength is indeed already very strong, and he has to start to be afraid, otherwise it will be easy to suffer.

So this time he has to spare no effort to ensure victory. As for the other things, he doesn't care. If it is used to deal with Yan Kingdom, then it is uncertain.

Halsen left under the leadership of two other people. They were going to make preparations when a woman walked in.

"Matsushita-kun, are you really going to do this?"

This woman's attitude was very bad. When she walked in, she still held back her anger, and just wanted to ask her face to face what was going on, because she had already heard some inside information.

"Why did you come here? You don't need to take care of these things, just leave everything to me."

"Hehe, if I don't take care of it anymore, then you will only embarrass us. You will be the one who will bring us shame at that time. I will not allow you to mess around with this matter."

"What are you talking about? What is my identity? Have you forgotten? After I come out, everything will be decided by me. You must obey my orders, and me. Everything is for our country."

The woman who came in was the chief of the military region they represented the army this time. This woman was also very tough, but I didn't expect that Matsushita Haotian would not follow the routine.

She had heard before that he seemed to be looking for some extremely private information, which was not a good thing for them. Once discovered, it was considered cheating and all their grades would be cancelled.

But the person in front of him didn't listen to the advice at all. He just wanted to go his own way, and he wanted to win this victory by any means.

Before the woman could finish her sentence, she was directly dragged down by Matsushita Haotian, "You bastard, you will suffer retribution, you will kill us all!"

Now that he has made a decision, how can it be changed because of these people, and they are sure that nothing will go wrong. From the very beginning, he has made sure that he will not let this happen again.

At this moment, on the other side, under the leadership of those two people, Halson has successfully arrived at the center of the camp. Originally, he was in charge of security on the periphery, but now he will still be questioned when he comes to this position.

But then I will watch his performance, because the one who is in charge of it is the brother who was in the same theater as him before.

The two people who brought him just now handed him what they had, which was some tobacco and alcohol, "Mr. Halson, you should know what to do by now, we will open on the periphery, and those soldiers can only fight for 15 Minutes, I hope you can grasp it as soon as possible."

They can take care of the soldiers outside, but the most troublesome thing is the person on duty.

He was also Halson's previous comrade-in-arms in the alliance. This person can be said to be soft and hard. They also tried other methods before, but there was no way at all, so they made this bad move.

Halsen gritted his teeth and couldn't leave with his things in his hands. After entering, the other two people also started to act. They pretended to be drunk and staggered over to attract the so-called attention of those next to them.

And Halsen also knew the others, and there was nothing wrong with him coming to this place to find his own chief. Instead of stopping him, he led him into the camp inside.

When Halsen walked in, he saw his ally brother Sam sitting in front of the computer. There were several computers next to him. This was where the data was stored. This place was originally a computer room, and no one was allowed to enter, but they layer relationship.

But even with this relationship, Sam frowned slightly when he saw him, slightly unhappy.

"Halsen, you know why you came to this place. No one is allowed to come here. I was in charge here this time. Don't make things difficult for me."

"Brother, why are you being so polite to me? This time I'm just looking for you to drink some wine. Besides, I don't understand your stuff, and I don't dare to be interested."

Because it's dark now, there are only two operators next to them, working on the computer, and they have to maintain the operation of the entire system.

The situation outside is also very chaotic. Today, the two countries responsible for the confrontation have already started to withdraw, and the results have already come out, so other people have to quickly rearrange the venue to meet the next wave, so the outside is chaotic.

These two people are free here. Sam was silently relieved when he heard him say this. Maybe he was thinking too much. No matter what, this person will not harm him. They have known each other for more than 20 years. years.

Then he saw the oil in his hand, and laughed. It's really suffocating here these days, because there are regulations, they are not allowed to go out without permission, and all food and diet can only be done according to here, okay He hasn't had a drink for a long time.

Just when the person in front of him brought the wine over, Sam completely relaxed his vigilance. He knew this person anyway, and the two chatted indiscriminately.

Halsen opened the wine himself, "Brother, come and drink, there is nothing to do now, after all, the outside affairs have nothing to do with us, you just need to stay here, and no one will come to care for these two or three days, drink a little first ."

At the beginning, Sam still refused, but the wine really aroused her greediness, and after looking around, there were people who borrowed things, so there should be no problem.

Thinking of this, he didn't hesitate, took the bottle, and drank it like this. At this time, the time passed by, and Halsen, who was sitting on the chair, was also a little worried.

He pretended to knock the cup on the ground, and quickly squatted down to pick up the pieces, saying that he hadn't had much to drink, why he was drunk, and then very quickly, he inserted a USB drive into the computer next to him.

And Sam, who was sitting opposite him, didn't notice anything at all, he just thought it was funny, this guy still had that reckless attitude.

This USB flash drive was given to him by Panasonic Haotian. As long as he inserts the USB flash drive, all the data in it will be copied automatically.

But it needs to be kept for five minutes, and at this time the two people who are attracting the guards outside can no longer hold on. They can't keep making trouble here, and those guards are already very unhappy.

In order to complete the task, the two of them were very good at acting. The person on the side started to drink madly, and vomited at the side, which made the surrounding guards feel disgusted. No one wanted to step forward. Wine maniac.

Just like this, the time was extended for a while, and just when the two were about to continue the quarrel like this, a small captain came over and hit them directly with a baton, telling them to get out of here quickly, this is not a trouble The place.

Seeing that the other party is really moving, if they continue to chat, it will not do them any good. They can only take a similar look. This guy has been delayed for too long, and they can't procrastinate, so they can only leave first.

Originally, they wanted to hold back the guards here just now. After Halson exported the information, he left quickly, so that he would not have to accept any review, and he could do an inspection for him. Now it seems that there is no other way.

The two had no choice but to come back quickly and found Matsushita Haotian. The two lowered their heads without saying a word, "Sir, we really can't do anything about this matter. We've tried to delay it for 20 minutes. It's because he didn't pay attention to the time." , now we can only come back first."

"You two trash, I tell you, if the whole thing is delayed because of you two, I will never let you go."

Matsushita Haotian was very angry. Originally, according to his plan, it could be carried out accurately, but now everything has deviated. He could only stand up angrily, and gave the person in front of him two mouths.

But after the fight, what should someone do now? I can only pray that the matter will not be discovered. At this time, Hasen in the office saw that the indicator light of the USB flash drive had turned green, which meant that all the import and re-engraving had been completed. He kept his composure and took out the USB flash drive again.

Then he looked at the time, looked at the person opposite, and said, "I was a little depressed these two days, so I planned to come to you for a drink, and now I want to tell you that I feel much better, okay, I have to go back quickly, Otherwise, it will be more troublesome to check the post and find out that I am not there."

Sam never suspected this person at all from the beginning to the end, but how could his brother who had been on the battlefield with him before betray him.

"After this mission is over, the two of us can have a good drink."

Hals0n smiled wryly in his heart. How could he be forced to betray his brother by these people? He just felt very sad, but he couldn't help it.

Just like that, Hals0n walked out. Now he was very nervous, but just as he was going out, the team leader just stopped him suddenly.

"You wait for the people who come out of it first, everyone has to be inspected, and no information or anything is allowed to be taken away inside."

Hearing this, Hals0n was a little nervous, because the USB flash drive was in his boot now, and he had just promised to delay the time, and the two of them disappeared.

Now he silently scolded those two unreliable guys, it seemed that he could only rely on himself, and at this time Sam who was inside also heard the movement and came over.

"Captain Ada, he is my best friend, and he is also on duty in the outer zone. There is no need to check this. I'm sure he hasn't moved anything."

But the person opposite him didn't pay attention to him, but had a business-like attitude.

"I hope you don't embarrass us. This is our responsibility, including when you go out from here, we will check."

Sam was a little embarrassed when he heard this, and this guy was too shameless, but there was no way, they were not a system, and they really couldn't manage it, so he could only wave his hand and let them start checking.

Hals0n's head was covered in cold sweat. Fortunately, the soldier might be an egg. His identity was just sorted out, and he was sure that there were no other documents on him, so he didn't check it carefully later.

"How about it? Now I can go I'm going to be like a prisoner here."

"Wait to take off the shoes first, we also need to check the inside of the shoes."

Halsen, who was relieved just now, was even more anxious when he heard this. He thought he had gotten away with it, but this guy is really not easy to deal with.

Just when he was about to take off his shoes, he heard a sudden exclamation from the outside, and then a puff of smoke came towards this side for half a year, and someone shouted loudly that it was on fire.

This time, the squad leader just now didn't have the time to take care of the matter here, because they were responsible for the safety of the entire camp, and there was a fire over there.

I casually explained to the people next to me, and then ran over with the others. The soldiers who stayed just now looked at that side intently, because the commotion over there was too great.

Halsen took out the shoes, then hid the USB flash drive in the phone, motioning for him to check, but the soldier didn't look carefully, of course he didn't see any problem.

Chapter 1685: lead the charge

At this moment, Halsen's heart was almost in his throat. He was very worried that the people on the other side would see it, but the soldiers on the other side were all attracted to that side, and didn't see this side at all.

He just waved his hand to make him turn around, then searched casually, checked that there was nothing unusual in the shoes, and asked him to put them on.

"Okay! Let's go quickly. Remember not to come here casually in the future. In this way, we are also responsible for patrolling. If something goes wrong, we can't explain it."

Sam was a little upset when he heard this, because in his opinion, this is what these guys who told him meant? It's not enough for his own friend to bring him here.

Seeing that Sam was about to go up to argue, Halsen quickly stepped forward to stop him and waved his hands, "It's okay, everyone is here for work, and I was indeed a little careless today. According to the normal situation, I shouldn't have come to see you." Yours, it's just that I'm really depressed recently, so I want to talk to you."

"Brother, I'm not happy with what you said. No matter what, you brought me a drink today. When this mission is over, let's have a good drink."

After talking like this, the two parted ways. Halson's entire back was covered with cold sweat. This was so thrilling that he was almost discovered just now. When he just came out, he saw a figure squatting opposite him. Some nervous.

But when he walked in, he realized that it was Matsushita Haotian. This guy looked at him with a mysterious smile, and then patted him on the shoulder.

"Mr. Halson is really happy to cooperate. I didn't expect that your ability is greater than our imagination. You have successfully completed the task. Okay, hand over the things."

Halsen was so angry when he heard this, the  still had the nerve to say here, if he hadn't reacted quickly at the beginning, he might have been discovered by now.

"Damn it! You said you wanted to listen to my results outside. After I came out, I didn't see anyone at all. I insisted on it all by myself. If I didn't react quickly, no one would be able to escape."

"You can't say that. Have you forgotten the commotion just now? If it weren't for my people to attract attention over there, do you think you could come out? Don't say it here, let's go."

Speaking of this, Halsen remembered that the captain was attracted by the fire over there just now. It turned out to be their fault. These guys are really big at playing. Aren't they afraid of causing panic? When the time comes, there will be a general investigation, and no one will be able to escape.

The person in front didn't mind with his hands behind his back, and walked over in a big stride. The two returned to their office. He handed over the USB drive, still hesitating.

"I have brought this thing out to you now. You promised to release my parents back then, so you probably won't go back on your word."

"Hahaha, what are you talking about? We are friends, do we need to talk about this between friends? Don't worry, what I promised before will definitely be done."

Matsushita Haotian waved back, and then asked a soldier outside to come in and say a few words, "Mr. Harson, don't worry, your parents will be delivered to you in three days, they are absolutely safe and sound, next your wife It depends on your performance with the children."

Halsen is very unhappy psychologically now, but there is no other way, at least change the two people back first, and when these things are over, he will definitely not let the person in front of him go.

Having said that, what can he do? Even if the matter is over, he has to find a way to get out quickly, because his handle is in their hands, and both of them are helpless, worried that the news will leak out.

Halsen stood aside and watched, this guy started to get busy, he felt that he really shouldn't be here.

After he went out, Matsushita Haotian called two people, "Remember to send his parents back, kill his wife and children now."

"Ah! Is the officer going to kill him now? What if he asks later? This guy doesn't look like anything to mess with."

"Nonsense, kill them, this is to avoid future troubles, and it was only to temporarily stabilize his emotions before taking his parents back, otherwise I would kill them all, including this person."

Matsushita Haotian is ruthless in doing things, he knows that he will not leave any excuses, and now that Halsen stays is a hidden danger, but he needs to be used later, so he must first stabilize his emotions.

When he still uses him in the future, even this person will be killed after he has used him completely. It is impossible for him to leave such a danger to the end.

Because this person is an invisible time bomb to him, and it can explode at any time later. If something goes wrong, it won't do them any good if this guy stands up and reveals all these things.

The two subordinates next to him trembled when they heard this, this guy is really too ruthless, now he not only takes advantage of him, but also kills his whole family.

But he kept saying that he did everything for their country and for their final victory.

At this moment, Halson didn't know all this, he just went back a little nervously and waited to see his parents first, and the competition here would start three days later.

Qin Yuan is just like a person who has nothing to do, anyway, he doesn't care about these things, no matter what it is, he should attack first, no matter where he is, he can adapt to it.

Panasonic Haotian has obtained the combat deployment map of each area, mainly because he has a very clear understanding of the formation of troops inside, and even the detailed ammunition depots, specific proportions, and distribution.

"Now that I have this blueprint, I have opened the perspective of God. I can attack any side I want. You can see that the weakest link in this place is here. Although it seems to be interlocking, this is the interface. position, it is the easiest for us to break through here, and we can occupy the commanding heights at the fastest speed."

The woman who was scolding Matsushita Haotian before also frowned when she saw this scene. She was actually thinking about it. Although this approach was a bit too despicable, it seemed that doing so was really beneficial to them.

"Matsushita-san, it seems that I misunderstood you before. Now that we have this thing, our strength will be stronger. This time we should be able to win."

"I don't want it this time. I should be sure. I have done so many things, and I am paving the way here, so I must win and get a good result this time."

He knew that over the past few years, due to internal conflicts in the small Mao country, they had been provoked time and time again, causing them to distribute many things unfairly, especially in terms of their military strength.

Now if you want to fight against the powerful Yan Kingdom, to be honest, it's really a bit of a mismatch, the strength over there is still very strong.

Soon, three days passed, and everyone came to that area to gather in the morning of the third day.

The person in charge next to him took out a tablet computer and asked them to start choosing their own area. At present, they can't see anything. As long as they enter from here, they will encounter ambushes on the road, because they don't know the strength of these deployments. How is the situation.

Xiaomao Country already knew everything about it, but now it was just pretending to study there, and after Qin Yuan took over the map. With a wave of his hand, he led the team directly into the car and set off.

They are very vast in this area, and he didn't even think about it clearly, so he led the team directly on the road, and the person in charge next to him was stunned.

"I still want to remind you, Chief Qin, this area is very large, and it is hundreds of kilometers away from here. Do you really stop thinking about it?"

"What are you thinking about, I will hit whatever piece I encounter, and I will hit wherever I encounter it. Anyway, as long as it is what I see, I can hit it."

What he said made everyone around him gasp. This guy's tone must have been too loud. This is a worldwide competition. Did he really think it was a joke? Or is this guy just so confident in himself?

Qin Yuan had already waved for someone to drive, and he didn't listen to the role of the person in charge at all. The person in charge also sighed silently, maybe he is really powerful.

And love is not so blind, in fact, it can understand at a glance the map, most of the deployment of troops. He understands all these tactics clearly. You must know how much he has read the tactics in the system, so he can understand how they are arranged at a glance.

There is no need to study it so carefully. Besides, he always feels that there is something weird in Xiaomao Country, and these guys are usually very arrogant.

Today was uncharacteristically. Not only was he very low-key, but the other party did not come out to refute what he said just now. Instead, he was really studying the map carefully.

Li Erniu was driving next to him, "Brother Qin, I always feel that those guys are not holding back anything. Look, they have started to set off. This is not like their style. For you, we must understand, you Have this confidence, but do they have it?"

Qin Yuan smiled slightly. It seems that these guys have finally understood some of his temper by following him. It is indeed the case, and according to the previous introduction of the person in charge, when they get this map, they must first study the combat strategy. The tactics, anyway, the offense will be in the afternoon at the latest. This is based on the previous games.

But now they set off directly. On the one hand, he had the strength, but he was not sure about Xiaomao Country, and they set off after him.

"Speed up and dump them directly. I don't want to get together with these * first, and I'm not afraid of them. I just guard against these villains. Who knows if they will play some dirty tricks."

Li Erniu nodded, and Synthetic Pass next to him also started to pick up the intercom, thinking about the army behind and said, let them all keep up with the speed, now they are going to attack at full speed.

As for the Marine Corps, Qin Yuan divided a small team and asked them to cooperate with the Army to act together. The Air Force stayed at the base and was ready for air support at any time.

Qin Yuan took out the map and looked at it. The route they are taking now is not bad. If they go forward, they will probably encounter an attack. Originally, their vehicles in the courtyard were at the back, because there were vanguard troops ahead, Qin Yuan instructed them to stop, and his own vehicle went forward first.

"Sir, I'm afraid this is a bit inappropriate. No matter what, your safety must be guaranteed first. You are in charge of the leadership here. You must not be allowed to charge forward."

The people in the next team must be unhappy. Everyone knows that there will be attacks along the way. If there is any problem, their boss will be taken away before it even started. Isn't it a joke?

"Don't worry, the people who want to kill me have not yet been born. With my ability, they want to catch up with me. Just dream, I will go ahead and clear the obstacles for you."

Everyone is staring at each other. This officer is too self-willed. He promised to be the leader, but now he has rushed to the front without saying a word.

A company commander of the Red Third Company in the team frowned, "I don't know why he is so impulsive now, it doesn't seem like his character, maybe he really has that strength, forget it, everyone should speed up, wait If you need support in any situation, you will be able to catch up."

In this way, the whole team increased their speed, but Qin Yuan's speed was faster, and he rushed in with Li Erniu and the others like an arrow on the string.

At this time, Li Erniu stopped suddenly, after all, there was a small river ahead, "You brat, who told you to stop, speed up the accelerator and let me rush over."

"Ah? Brother Qin, don't we come down to this place? We have to drive directly to the opposite side."

"You pig brain Take a good look at what's going on around you. This place is perfect for concealment and hiding. I'm sure there's definitely someone on the other side. We're still safe in the car. If they really want to fight, Can't hit us."

Hearing this, Li Erniu looked at it, yes, this stream is at the position of the water flow, and opposite is a high and raised hillside, which is very suitable for concealment.

Just like that, he started to reverse the car and was about to rush over. At this moment, the people lying on the opposite side were also observing their every move.

"Captain, what's the situation? Why is there only this car? Didn't they just say that there is a large army coming this way?"

"No matter how many cars he has, it should be taken by their leading troops to investigate the situation. Don't shoot first, let their troops in first. There is no need to expose us for these few people."

The people lying in the grass nodded. If you look carefully, there are at least hundreds of people densely packed behind them. Their task is to intercept and chase them halfway.

Chapter 1686: no sense of participation

Falling in love with you Kanshu.com, one-click recycling since I was a special soldier

However, their number is between one and two hundred people, mainly for interference, because this is not the main battlefield, the main battlefield is in various areas, they will ambush in those places, and they need to intercept them along the way.

The person who led the team next to him observed every move of the other side. He didn't know what these guys were going to do. After coming here, there would be no way.

He also didn't understand the operation of the person on the other side. He couldn't get in after he came here. Could it be that they wanted to forcibly open up a way?

Just when he was puzzled, Li Erniu controlled the car, stepped on the gas pedal to the bottom and flew up directly from under the river. This kind of military off-road vehicle has better performance, and rushed directly from the opposite side.

They lay in the grass and observed all this, no one dared to act rashly, and they did not receive orders, but when they were still observing, Qin Yuan suddenly poked his head out and shot directly at the grass.

He Chenguang and Wang Yanbing beside him also cooperated quickly. Wang Yanbing was even carrying the bazooka, half of his body was already out of the car window, and one shot directly hit the hillside. After a huge explosion, there was chaos on the hillside.

The people on the opposite side didn't figure out what was going on, and how they were discovered, so they could only flee quickly. After all, the other party had heavy firepower weapons, and they had no time to make any resistance.

Everyone ran out of the grass in a panic. Qin Yuan really took this opportunity to shoot quickly. It was completely harvesting quickly. The team of more than a hundred people just now was beaten to pieces in an instant.

The captain who gave the order before hadn't reacted yet, and now white smoke was rising from his body, and he was eliminated, but he was very unwilling to be eliminated directly in such a short time.

Quickly picking up the gun was trying to resist, but at this time Qin Yuan stepped forward and kicked him on the chin, and the guy rolled over and fell down in the ravine behind him in an instant.

"Follow the rules of the game, don't you understand? If you don't understand, believe it or not, I really let you die once?"

The captain who was beaten raised his head with difficulty. After all, he felt that there was something wrong with his jaw. This guy's strength was too strong. When he raised his head, he could only see the monstrous murderous aura on Qin Yuan's body.

This guy is really scary, he can only nod his head, and then let all the soldiers who ran out around come back, now they want to let these people go, after all, it doesn't make sense, but he called it several times but there is no response.

When he turned around, he saw Li Erniu running over with a smile, "Brother Qin, you think these guys are too good, we can't even catch up, but they run away very fast , It is impossible to defeat."

The captain felt even more humiliated, because the people he brought were all from his own country. This time they didn't even have the qualifications to participate in the competition, so they could only do these cooperative tasks on the periphery.

He still felt unconvinced before, but now he finally saw the gap in strength. There were only a few people, and they directly broke up their team of more than a hundred people, and even chased their asses. It would be shameful to say it.

According to the rules of the game, the eliminated ones can only wait where they are. They need to wait for others to pick them up, and the eliminated ones will be picked up uniformly, because the number of people will be counted here.

Like the number of people they eliminated in this battle, the time of elimination, and the time they can occupy, these things are all used as assessment points, and each item is crucial.

I have to say that this area is really huge, Qin Yuan and the others would have to walk for at least half an hour if they wanted to occupy the nearest area.

This time it was really big, and they let go of the fight completely. After Qin Yuan and the others dealt with these people, they continued to move forward. At this time, Wang Yanbing seemed to remember something, and came over and grabbed the captain who had been eliminated just now.

"By the way, how is the deployment of troops ahead? Are there other people on the way?"

Faced with such an inquiry, the captain suddenly smiled, and finally he could take revenge. These guys were so messed up just now, and they didn't take them seriously at all. Ask yourself now, it's too late.

"Sorry, that's what you said. I'm an eliminated person, but a dead person. If you ask me a dead person, how can you ask me?"

"you!"

As soon as Wang Yanbing got angry, the  looked at his complacent appearance and really couldn't help wanting to beat him up.

Qin Yuan called him from the opposite side, and Wang Yanbing ran over, "Brother Qin, look at what that  said, I knew just now that I would have spared his life, we don't have to eliminate him so early, we can still ask something."

"It's okay, he's a useless person anyway, it's the same if he's eliminated early or later, I don't need to know anything from him, anyway, the soldiers come to block, the water comes to the earth, it's just for the brothers to gain experience, I hope they come more The better."

Everyone smiled knowingly. It is true that these people are here to give them experience, and the number of people eliminated by them will be counted later.

However, when he left, He Chenguang still kept an eye out. He secretly remembered the number of people eliminated. Basically, the more than 100 people were all eliminated except for two or three runs.

Mainly, he was worried that there would still be people playing tricks in such a large-scale competition, and there would always be people playing tricks, so he had to be more careful.

Meanwhile, Lu Jun, who was following Qin Yuan and the others, also quickened their pace when they heard the gunshots coming from the front, but when they came over, they only saw some people sitting densely on the opposite shore.

The company commander who led the team in front of him suddenly had a bad feeling in his heart. He asked everyone to be vigilant. At this time, a company commander of the Mobile Flying Tigers also ran over.

"Company Commander Zhang, I think the situation is not good. I don't know why we can't contact Commander Qin and the others. What should we do now?"

Hearing this, the two of them were a little anxious. This guy had advised him before, why he couldn't get in touch suddenly now, and seeing the situation on the other side, no one dared to act rashly. However, at this moment, a soldier in front Come and report.

"Company commander, we have received a message from Chief Qin. He told us to speed up and catch up as soon as possible. They have already dealt with the people in front of us. If there are any leftovers, let us not show mercy and deal with them all."

what! The two of them stared at each other when they heard this, and hurriedly looked forward. If you look carefully, don't they? The people in front of them have already been eliminated, and the sirens on their bodies are all flashing red.

It turned out to be a false alarm, and just like that, everyone led your team to continue walking forward. When passing by them, you can feel the grudges of those people. Pack them up like this bear.

As they continued to move forward, they saw more and more eliminated people, but they didn't meet the remaining people. Basically, they saw people silently waiting to be picked up and eliminated.

Everyone walked for more than an hour, and finally saw Qin Yuan and the others. Li Erniu waved at them, telling them to stop on the opposite side and not move forward.

Then he ran over and conveyed Qin Yuan's intentions. They have already arrived near that area, and now they are about to carry out a general attack, but there are more people here than there before, so they have to cooperate well.

And the news here soon spread to the Air Force, as well as the military team, because their information was shared among their own teams, and everyone began to gear up.

After all, they have to be ready at any time, they need to understand the progress of the mission, now only two hours later, they are ready to charge, this is a signal to everyone.

The air force is always ready. They are constantly adjusting the signal, so as not to miss any orders. The marines are also ready. After all, the anti-aircraft gun has a very wide attack range. Hit it, that's not a problem.

This time the game is completely technological, and within the coverage of the anti-aircraft guns, they will make statistics and then give a casualty report.

So this time, the sea, land and air forces must achieve close cooperation. While everyone was waiting anxiously, no order was sent. It's been half an hour, why is there no news yet?

The captain of the air force kept pacing back and forth in the room, and then checked the signal again and again. All the signals were fine.

After another ten minutes, he really couldn't wait anymore, because now is the best time to charge, they should cooperate, after all, the power of the air force cannot be underestimated, if the air force is used first, it can give their army more opportunities to cover , let them charge.

But he didn't get the news for a long time, he became more and more anxious, and finally couldn't bear it anymore, so he directly called Qin Yuan.

Unexpectedly, when a soldier over there received it, he directly told them that there was no need to act now, because the battle was estimated to be over in a few minutes.

"Captain Chen, Chief Qin told you to stay put and wait for orders. It is not needed now. Your battle will be over in a few minutes. We are almost done here."

"What's going on? It's only been 40 minutes, and you guys told me that the battle is over. How is this possible? How many people are there?"

The soldiers on the opposite side were obviously very proud when they heard what he said, and began to introduce, it turned out that Qin Yuan had led everyone to organize three charges in the 40 minutes just now, and this third time made them completely powerless to fight back.

Chen Siming on the side of the air force was a little unhappy, so they didn't feel any sense of participation at all. He was just a little unhappy when he heard the non-stop talking on the other side.

After hanging up the phone, the people next to him looked at him expectantly. In the square below, everyone was making preparations at any time, but it seemed that they were no longer needed.

Chen Siming also told the people next to him what he had learned just now, and he said that it would be absolutely fine after a few minutes.

Such a statement caused an uproar in the office, because everyone thought it was too exaggerated, so what are they doing here this time? Is it just a saucer? Even soy sauce can't keep up.

"Team Chen! This is a bit too much. I said before that our air force is an absolute force, but now we can't even join the team. What's going on?"

I can also understand everyone's feelings. After all, I came to this place from a long distance. Everyone wants to make their own contribution, and they all want to contribute, but they haven't participated yet. It's over here, and no one is happy to change it. .

However, Chen Siming thought about it for a while, and decided to stabilize the morale of the army first. He probably understood Qin Yuan's intentions.

"Okay, don't complain, now that we have won, this is a good thing for us, no matter whether we participated or not, but the final result has been achieved, hasn't it?"

"But I always feel a little uncomfortable. We didn't move, so we won?"

"Don't be too happy, it's not human anymore We just occupied that area, the real battle hasn't started yet, and they went to the Marine Corps, didn't they move? Less Say a few words."

Chen Shiming knew that Qin Yuan probably wanted to hide his real strength, because their real opponent in the end was Xiaomao, and if they exposed all their military power now, wouldn't this be a direct blow?

Because their speed is faster than that of Xiaomao country, and the small country is still halfway, and they have already captured it. If they directly dispatch the air force at this time, wouldn't they expose all their strength to others?

Hearing what he said, the people around nodded to express their understanding. While they were discussing, better news came over. They had already occupied that area, and now the coordinates have been sent to them. They can do it at any time. Get ready and the latest maps have been sent.

Chen Shiming quickly took a closer look. He now needs to familiarize himself with a few coordinate points around him, so that he can attack at any time.

On the other side of Xiaomao Country, they have mastered all the formations this time, so they know where the weaker ones are. Occupy faster.

It can be said that they avoided all the places with heavy troops, but at this moment, they heard a notification from the broadcast that the country of Yan had successfully occupied area D.

This area is divided according to letters. There are 12 areas in total, so one can imagine how big this area is. They can choose freely among these 12 areas. Qin Yuan chose the nearest one without any consideration.

Chapter 1688: attack the arsenal

When Qin Yuan set off, he was a little worried. After all, after he went out this time, everything had to be handed over to them.

"I can stress it again to you, this time you must follow my arrangement. If I say no action, no action. This is true for anyone. I am the highest officer here. If something goes wrong, I can have the highest power of punishment."

Qin Yuan usually laughed and laughed with them, but when it came to business, he was very serious. He knew that in this situation, he was not even a leader, and people would inevitably make mistakes.

So I explained a few more words, and after I finished speaking, I set off with the team. The reason why I didn't bring other people was because the target was too big, so it was easy to be discovered.

If possible, he originally wanted to set off last night, but the rule is that they can only act after 6 o'clock, so their speed must be fast.

And this distance is not too short, a full 300 kilometers, and the mode of transportation they choose is motorcycles, which are easier to travel through, and there is no problem between the mountains.

To be precise, Qin Yuan's speed will be faster than that of a motorcycle, but in this kind of international competition, he still doesn't want to expose too many exaggerated things, and keeps pace with everyone.

Therefore, this distance can be regarded as relatively realistic. Relatively speaking, it is closer to the real battlefield. Like their previous deduction on the disk, it is completely simulated and does not take into account factors such as physical strength.

However, Qin Yuan is not worried about his red blood cell team, and he usually uses merit points to bless him, so his physical fitness is already several times stronger than ordinary people.

On the mountain next to him, Qin Yuan opened the way at the front, and this kind of mountain has already passed through Bashe in front.

It's just that the road was very slippery because it had rained a few times before, and the few people in the back started to ride slowly, but followed Qin Yuan from a distance, turning their heads from time to time, a little disgusted that they were too slow.

Qin Yuan didn't wait for them at all, he stepped on the accelerator and rushed forward all the way. Anyway, he was one against a hundred by himself, so there was no problem.

And according to this speed, he will go there first, and the people behind will follow up to meet him. It will be another fight, because they have been out for half an hour now, and it is estimated that the air strike over there is about to be prepared.

As soon as he had this idea, he heard a circling sound from above. The plane over there had already passed by. This guy really couldn't wait, but he didn't expect that he would be dispatched in such a small team!

Matsushita Haotian did not expect Qin Yuan's situation. After all, he thought that the distance was too far. If they traveled long distances, it would be basically impossible. So he fought a war of attrition in the early stage. Use the anti-aircraft guns on the Marine Corps side and the Air Force Brigade to suppress them.

Without the restrictions of other people, Qin Yuan's speed became faster and faster. He took out the watch he carried with him, this one was the special equipment they had made before, and then sent everyone the specific location, and they followed this mark to come over. That's it.

Qin Yuan first looked for the first point he predicted before, because at present, according to the terrain here, first of all, the terrain of the ammunition depot must be arranged in a low-lying area to facilitate transportation, otherwise the ammunition cannot be transported.

According to his prediction yesterday, a total of three coordinate points were judged. He took the lead to check it first. At this moment, Li Erniu and the others are still halfway, but Ruanyuan has already arrived at the first prediction point.

The patrol personnel on Xiaomao Country's side passed him directly, but they didn't even notice him. Qin Yuan's camouflage was very good, and he almost blended into the grass next to him.

However, although there were patrolling personnel, no ammunition depot was found here. He shook his head and continued to head towards the remaining two prediction points. Even expanded the search scope, but there were none.

After he had searched all three places, Li Erniu and the others also rushed over. Everyone stared at him and asked him what to do next. They had originally come to the arsenal.

"Brother Qin, could it be that some of their ammunition depots are buried underground, or else you wouldn't even be able to find them?"

"This possibility is not very high. Don't make these unreasonable guesses. There is another possibility. Our previous judgment is that they are placed on flat terrain for the convenience of transportation. Is there a possibility that they simply turned back?" Just keep the ammunition depot by your side?"

"Ah! But this is too dangerous, would that guy really choose this way?"

Qin Yuan believed in his own judgment very much. They didn't know much about this Panasonic Haotian before, and he didn't know much about this person's combat. However, he said that he fought Qin Yuan once before. This is even more important to talk about. No impression.

Now that these places have been ruled out, Qin Yuan began to consider the location of his real base camp. According to the current three times, he must be able to see the entire episode and grasp the location of the whole situation.

He took out a red pen and made a red circle at that position. At present, this place is the best. If he is the conductor, there should be no problem, and he will definitely arrange it in this place.

When I first came into contact with that guy, I just felt that he was very arrogant. Now it seems that apart from being arrogant, this person still has a lot of brains.

Under the leadership of Qin Yuan, several people shuttled through the jungle like ghosts, and the patrols from Xiaomao Kingdom did not find them at all.

And just in the morning, they had already launched an attack on Yan Country. To be precise, there had been three large-scale attacks, two air strikes, and one was a long-range attack using anti-aircraft guns. Under such suppression of firepower, Yan Guo did not take any action.

This made everyone feel a little surprised, Xiaomao country didn't know what was going on, and they were ready for air strikes at any time, but the other party seemed to have no action.

At this moment, the guarding team was holding their breath. Company Commander Zhang of the Red Third Regiment was cursing, and could only punch the ground angrily. They hid in the temporary air-raid shelter for six or seven hours, just like turtles. Same.

"They have come here for the fourth time. Are we still not attacking? And Captain Qin, what are they doing? Are we going to hide like this forever? This is not a joke."

"Okay, Lao Zhang, just say a few words. I guess they haven't arrived there yet. Although they are riding motorcycles for the past few hundred kilometers, they can't be so fast."

Company Commander Zhang had no choice but to sigh silently, because he felt so aggrieved that he had been hiding in the air-raid shelter.

The other soldiers were also suffocating. They were waiting for orders at any time. As long as Qin Yuan gave an order, they could fight back at any time. The same was true at the air force base, and they were also very worried when they heard the news of the air raid there.

The leader of the Air Force Base is Chen Yang from the Third Air Force Battalion. He is a master among masters. He dared to yell at Qin Yuan before, but he was deeply impressed by Qin Yuan's strength later on. He really has that ability. Qin Yuan also asked him to lead the entire brigade.

"Team Chen! I really don't know what the  he is doing now. They are constantly being bombed by other people's planes. Are we just indifferent? Don't understand?"

"Did you forget what you said when you set off? Everything is in the form of orders. He didn't have any orders, so we can't act rashly, understand?"

"But this is too embarrassing. This is our first stop. There is no need to be so cautious. I said before that we should maintain our strength and not expose it too early. I can understand, but now how do you say it? ?"

"Just wait, I believe in his ability, he won't let us down, everyone, don't be impatient, and show me your energy when you can fight."

Under Chen Yang's comfort, everyone was quiet for a while, but they were somewhat unconvinced in their hearts.

At this time, Qin Yuan has completely lost contact since he entered the area of Xiaomao Country, because in the current environment, all things that pay attention to are technological warfare, and everything will expose themselves.

So after he entered, he cut off all the sources of information, and just used the previous watch to maintain communication with Li Erniu and the others. Now that everyone cooperated together, he directly closed the channel, leaving Xiao Mao with nothing to find. clue.

Matsushita Haotian was very proud in the office at the moment, he felt that it was his own military strength that completely overwhelmed Yan Guo.

"Sir, this trick of yours is really effective. They didn't dare to fight back at all. At first I thought they had some other conspiracy, but now that a day has passed, they didn't take any action. It seems to be They were completely intimidated by us, and they didn't even have the courage to come out and fight us."

Having said that, everyone in the office burst into laughter, especially Matsushita Haotian, this time he brought their newly developed J-10 series aircraft, and he thought that there might not be one in Yanguo.

Now this is a high-tech, high-performance flying weapon, and the coverage points are also very dense. We have to see how this guy counterattacks, but they didn't even give them a chance.

"Hahaha, looking at it like this, we can all call it a day. I was always worried before, thinking how powerful this guy is, but looking at it like this, it's still the same as before."

"This is worldwide. I thought that after so many years, they would improve a little bit, but it looks like there is nothing."

When they were having a lively discussion, they suddenly saw a burst of flames coming from a distance. Matsushita Haotian felt that something was wrong, so he stood up from his chair and pointed to the outside of the tent.

"What's the situation at ten o'clock? How can there be fire smoke there?"

"Sir, I think you are a little too worried. At this point, our soldiers should be cooking."

Matsushita Haotian directly stepped forward and slapped the soldier on the face, "You are questioning my mother, it is impossible because I have given the highest order, no one is allowed to light a fire for cooking, and everything is paid for by fast food." Mainly canned food, who do you think will be genetically genetically lit to expose our targets?"

Only then did the soldiers who were beaten come to their senses. They were indeed a little carried away just now, so they rushed in that direction.

Panasonic Haotian quickly took out the map for comparison. That place seems to be his own arsenal, because it is set not far from your own command post, and it is only 1 km away from there to here.

Thinking of this, he immediately sent someone to check the situation. After a while, he heard a burst of gunshots coming from a distance, and his heart skipped a beat. What's going on? People from Yan Kingdom called?

While moving in that direction, he picked up the walkie-talkie and asked the team on duty at the bottom.

"What's the situation over there? Why did people from Yan Kingdom come in?"

"Including sir, everything is normal here, and we haven't seen any strict troops."

This time Matsushita Haotian was not calm, but when they arrived at that place, they found that not only the arsenal had fallen directly, but the current arsenal had been buried in the sea of flames, and the three squads on duty here had all was eliminated.

The soldiers on his side have been eliminated, the strength of the three squads, the point is that they don't know how many people came to attack them, and so far none of them have been eliminated.

Seeing the eliminated soldier in front of him, Matsushita Haotian stepped forward and kicked that soldier, "You are all a bunch of trash, what happened to this? You can't even beat anyone else, what are you doing here? play house?"

What else can this soldier say They really don't know that the opponent's speed is too fast, shuttling through the jungle like a ghost, and the sky is already dark, they can't see anything, and finally the arsenal Lost, a fire was ignited, they had to fight the fire, and they had to stay to fight against the sudden enemy.

The people brought by Matsushita Haotian quickly extinguished the fire, but the usable materials inside were basically gone. The soldiers in charge of counting were trembling with fright. He knew that the officer on the opposite side was very angry. He had reached a critical point. How dare he Say more.

When Panasonic Haotian got angry, Qin Yuan had already arrived at the foot of the mountain, and they only had to break through the barrier in front to get out.

At the same time, he also issued another order. The air force base received his order and quickly launched a counterattack. This time, he knew the exact location was at the place where the smoke rose. This is an excellent coordinate point!

Everyone has been holding back for so many days, and now they can finally fight back directly. They all put in all their strength, which is more violent and precise than the attack from Kitten Kingdom.

Chapter 1689: big win

There are still such obvious indicators below, the main reason is that the smoke is too precise, and the Air Force also started to frantically throw gears, and within the control range of Xiaomao, it completely exploded within time, and the sparks continued to emit white smoke. Get up, there are red warning lights everywhere.

In the office at the headquarters, everyone was not calm anymore. Everyone stood up and cheered. This was a historic moment, and it was simply too exaggerated. Let them witness what strategic awareness is.

Because at this moment, basically more than half of the people in Xiaomao Country have been eliminated. Matsushita Haotian is considered lucky, and even escaped under such a fierce attack.

But he didn't have time to react, so he could only keep retreating, and then ran to the side bunker. Fortunately, he had saved his hand before, and he was going to have a bunker there to resist for a while, but the attack on their side was too fierce.

"But why are these * so despicable! Where's the Minister of Military Affairs? Call me the Minister of Military Affairs."

He wanted the Minister of Military Affairs to quickly mobilize the team to fight back, but what he didn't know was that the Minister of Military Affairs had been eliminated as early as the first wave of attacks.

Now he didn't even have the chance to give an order, so he could only watch helplessly as he was being beaten, and at the moment the air force base started to activate. Since the chief didn't give an order, they could only rush out to fight back.

They definitely can't sit still, the best way to deal with air strikes is to send out air strikes in the same way.

Chen Yang brought his own team to try their best, but they held back all the way, they didn't use it before, and now they want to let these  have a good look at their strength.

At this time, the vigilant teammate who was maintaining outside said from the walkie-talkie: "Captain! Our radar has detected an enemy plane approaching us. Are you going to fight back?"

"If you don't fight back, are you still waiting for the New Year? You were told to endure it before, but don't bear it now. We are the Air Force, and so are they. I want them to see who is the boss."

He dispatched the first team, and the second team stayed here to carry out air strikes. It has to be said that the fighter jets on Yan Kingdom's side are better, and their radar system is more accurate.

Because a small team was assigned, the pressure on this side was relieved. Matsushita Haotian took this opportunity to quickly command the Marine Corps side, and quickly used anti-aircraft guns to attack this side. Although the distance is relatively far, it is still barely enough. Rescue got.

As for his current land acquisition, it is very difficult to even organize troops to fight back. Basically, there are no troops left, and everyone has been beaten to a loss.

But it had been more than ten minutes since he gave the order, and there was still no movement from the anti-aircraft guns over there. He couldn't help but shoot out, and cursed secretly, wondering what the  the people over there were doing.

Reiko is in charge of the Marine Corps, "I said before that it is best not to let women participate in the battle, this person is not reliable at all."

"Sir, what do we do now? How do we fight back?"

Matsushita Haotian is in a state of confusion now, what else can he do? He can only hope that their air force can give some strength, and first fight back these fakes, otherwise he will not even have a chance to fight back.

The situation on his side is not happy, and Reiko can describe it as tragic, because he made a wrong decision to send a company from the Marine Corps to support the Army.

The manpower over there is already insufficient. You have to know that the army on the side of Shangyan is strong and strong, and the navy still has the strength to fight back? They were completely suppressed and beaten by others, and their accuracy in all aspects and the coverage of artillery fire were stronger than theirs.

Seeing such a fierce attack from the opposite side, Reiko completely slumped on the ground and sighed silently.

"Captain, what should we do? Now they are about to fight up, and our position can't be defended."

Reiko smiled wryly and shook her head. They knew what to do, but now they were helpless. The strength of the other party was too strong. It was not what they had guessed before. The range of the anti-aircraft guns of the navy was not theirs at all. This level can be played.

This soldier was also extremely flustered, because Matsushita Haotian kept sending support messages, asking them to quickly support the other side of the field, but they were already in danger of protecting themselves.

Everyone in the headquarters office has already made a decision, this country of Yan is not easy to deal with now.

It took only one day to directly turn the tide of the battle. At first, seeing that they didn't play at all, I thought it was strange. It seemed that they were holding back.

The leading army of the United States took a silent look, "It seems that they were underestimated before. The strength of their anti-aircraft guns and air force should not be underestimated. All of them are J-10 series. When did they have such a powerful weapon?" gone?"

"This is because you are short-sighted. As far as I know, they have already opened the 12 series three years ago."

what! When everyone heard what the leading officer of country A said, they all turned their attention to him. It seems that this guy knows a lot.

"Oh, it seems that you have already understood something before, so why are you so calm, I heard before that you want to fight them."

"After all, everyone wants to compete with the powerful ones. They are no longer the former Yan Kingdom. Don't look at others with such a brief look. Look at the Xiaomao Kingdom this time. They have already learned the lesson."

In addition to this, Qin Yuan has not really shown the full strength of his army until now. His army is also very mysterious from the initial attack to the following, without revealing too many tactics.

At this time, everyone in the army on duty over there was also very excited. Although they were all gearing up and wanted to follow the past and wipe out Xiaomao country in one fell swoop, Qin Yuan had issued an order before so that they could not leave easily.

This is also all the tactics that Qin Yuan kept. In addition, he also wanted to let these people see that he could directly take Xiaomao Kingdom without sending out all the troops.

In addition, the air forces of the two sides are not on the same level at all. The main reason is that the level of the fighter jets is different, and Xiao Mao's side is completely suppressed.

In the end, it was a war of attrition, because they didn't have that much ammunition at all, and they could only be forced to return in the future.

Qin Yuan played this trick very cleverly. He took the lead in directly destroying his ammunition depot, and then gave him a fatal blow like this. They didn't have any strength left to fight back.

Then it was time for him to appear on the stage. He led the members of the red blood cell team and began to go in to destroy the remaining soldiers of Xiaomao country.

Li Erniu rushed to the front, the more he fought, the more excited he was, the soldiers in front were all eliminated by him, white smoke was rising from their bodies, the red light was flashing non-stop, and the sharp alarm was reminding them that they had become dead.

Li Erniu kept rushing forward. Suddenly, a soldier from Xiaomao Kingdom, who had already been eliminated, rushed towards Li Erniu with white smoke coming out of his body, and he didn't notice it at all.

This guy doesn't talk about martial arts, he picked up a stone from the ground, and smashed it hard at the back of Li Erniu's head. Fortunately, Qin Yuan behind him had quick eyes and quick hands, and threw a throwing knife out, directly catching the little hairy soldier's head arm.

That guy screamed, covered his hands and fell down. This was the first time he was injured in this kind of exercise competition. Qin Yuan didn't care so much, as long as he violated the rules and hurt his own people, he would put the danger first. exclude.

Li Erniu also noticed it at this time, he turned his head and rushed forward cursing, stepping on the soldier's chest.

"Damn it, you are really despicable, do you know that you are eliminated now? Are you unable to afford it?"

That guy babbled a lot, but Li Erniu couldn't understand, so he just slapped him.

When they were arguing, a few people came out from the grass behind, Qin Yuan squinted his eyes and looked at the scar on the man's face, it was too obvious, isn't this Matsushita Haotian?

This guy is quite embarrassed now, with these four or five people around him, and they have almost solved the rest. Not many people survived the big bombing just now.

"Captain Qin, it seems that you still look like that. You really can't change this virtue no matter where you go. You have humiliated me since the beginning. Are you going to humiliate my soldiers now?"

Facing his questioning, Qin Yuan didn't pay attention to him at all, just shot quickly, only saw the opposite Matsushita Haotian, white smoke was rising from his body, he didn't care at all, because everyone had already seen this field results.

"I don't want to talk nonsense with the dead here, that's all, everyone continue to search and find the situation just now, save your own life first, and don't get caught by despicable people."

In this way, Qin Yuan led everyone to continue searching. If Matsushita felt that guy was very hard the day after tomorrow, he turned his head and called Qin Yuan loudly.

"Wait, you're mean enough, and didn't you hear me talking to you?"

"Did you hear anything? I just don't think it's necessary to waste time here. I just want to end this war quickly, and you will always be a loser to me."

This sentence was like five thunderbolts, directly hitting Matsushita Haotian on the head, and he sat down completely. Compared with the current failure, he was always denied by others, and he was not regarded as a real opponent at all. is the most insulting.

On Qin Yuan's side, he accelerated his speed and continued to eliminate. Soon, this battle had come to an end and was completely over.

The battle competition of their group is simply too interesting. It has been taken out by people from various countries as reference materials. The first is Qin Yuan's tactics, first infiltrating and attacking their ammunition depots with small groups, and then conducting air strikes , The preparations made in all aspects are very sufficient.

Everyone is discussing it enthusiastically. Judging by their military strength, it is no problem to be ranked in the top six. The current ranking really has to start all over again.

The news of Qing Qin Yuan's complete victory on their side also spread to the country, and everyone was very excited. Although they knew that Qing Yuan was very sure, they didn't expect him to win directly in such a short time.

The teams from both sides were picked up, and everyone returned to the previous headquarters base, and now they have to wait for another competition.

Xiaomao country lost quite badly this time. Although they lost to Yan country, they still have a chance. They can also play against other countries. If they lose again, they will be completely eliminated and ranked at the bottom.

Matsushita Haotian didn't say a word from the beginning to the end, he just saw Qin Yuan's proud face, and everyone was discussing that the battle was too miraculous, and it was completely suppressing them.

Xiaomao country didn't do anything, and was directly wiped out by others. This is a big joke, and the pressure on him from the domestic side is also very high.

This guy was very unbalanced, thinking of the soldier before, and suddenly pulled that soldier out in front of everyone.

"I know you are a powerful person, but you are a little too insulting. This is the evidence. As far as I know, no one has ever used a real knife. You used a real knife to deal with my soldiers. Really I can't figure out what kind of mentality you have."

Everyone felt that this guy was acting like a mad dog now, and started to bite randomly. No one bothered with him. The person in charge next to him also came to persuade him to stop messing around and prepare for the next battle with peace of mind. This kind of competition injuries are also relatively common.

But Matsushita Haotian couldn't bear this tone, he held on to the side and insisted that Qin Yuan apologize in person.

"If you don't apologize, I will make a big fuss about this matter and make it international. You didn't follow the rules at all. Look at what you did."

Before Qin Yuan could speak, this man took a bite back. If this is the case, there is no need to worry about anything.

"Originally, I didn't want to make a big deal out of it. Since ' is like this, then I can also satisfy you. Your soldiers were eliminated at that time. Once eliminated, all gun systems were turned off. As a result He is a dead man who is going to attack my soldiers with stones."

Matsushita Haotian was very excited when he heard this, and he kept saying that it was absolutely impossible not to be his soldier's style.

The soldier's face turned red at the moment, and if he was really exposed in front of so many people, it would be really shameless.

Panasonic Haotian is now like a mad dog, catching a small mistake, he is about to bite Qin Yuan, the person in charge next to him couldn't stand it anymore, so he explained:

"Well, if both of you have doubts about this matter, we can call up the body monitor on each soldier's chest. This is what we completely simulated before, and the system is better for analysis."

what! There was even a monitoring system, and the soldier lost his composure at this moment, he shook his head desperately, telling Matsushita Haotian to stop talking.

Chapter 1690: changed opponent

Doesn't this kind of investigation reveal everything? He was indeed too emotional before, and then chose to attack in that situation, which would be considered a foul by them, so the soldier shook his head desperately.

Matsushita Haotian also saw that his soldier seemed to be expressing something, but now that the words had been spoken, just when he was about to refute, the soldier suddenly apologized in public.

"I'm sorry, all this is my problem, I didn't explain it clearly to my officer!"

For the sake of his officer's face, the soldier blamed himself for all the faults, and then bowed deeply.

Qin Yuan sneered, and he didn't want to get involved in these things anymore. There are still many things to do now, and he has to make other preparations. He doesn't know which country they will be assigned to fight next.

The situation on the field was very clear, and everyone could see that the soldier had something in his heart, otherwise how could he apologize?

In front of so many people, Matsushita Haotian felt even more shameless. After Qin Yuan left, he turned around and slapped the soldier on the face.

"Asshole, do you know what you did? You really lost all of our faces."

The soldier was also very aggrieved. What he could say was mainly because their chief didn't listen to his explanation at all. At this time, country O, which was an alliance with them, also stepped forward.

"Now the war between you and them is over, and everyone has seen the competition this time."

The person in front of me, Matsushita Haotian, was a little unhappy. Did this guy come to laugh at himself, "Why are you all starting to play this now? It's just a game, do you understand the game? If The real battlefield is a hundred times more cruel than this, and I have already won it."

The leader of country O couldn't help laughing when he heard this. This guy has always been so stubborn. If it was a real battlefield, Qin Yuan would only be more ferocious than he is now.

Because it was a life-and-death challenge at that time, everyone could see that Qin Yuan was still restrained this time, and his army had never moved.

And this time the simulated competition is completely close to actual combat, and there is no big difference. For everyone, this is an actual combat.

But he didn't care about the people in front of him, he just stepped forward and patted Matsushita Haotian on the shoulder, who made them belong to the alliance teammates, they had achieved consciousness before.

"Now the approval here is over, you have to prepare for the next one as soon as possible. As far as I know, you seem to be assigned to Pakistan."

The team leader of country O actually came here to watch the fun, because everyone knows what strength Ba is, and they have also grown rapidly with the help of Yan country over the years, and directly assigned such a tough opponent to them. It can be regarded as worthy of their little Mao country.

Originally, he wanted to wake up a few words, because the Ba Kingdom has developed rapidly now, and it is completely different from the previous state, but the people in front of him don't care at all.

"It turned out to be them, yes, then I will definitely win this time."

"I'm here to tell you, don't be so arrogant, you have to think about the countermeasures this time, they are not so easy to deal with."...

"What do you mean? I just lost a game, do you think I am inferior to anyone else? Hehe, what a joke, my little Mao country is still a little Mao country, it is impossible for us to change just because he defeated Yan country What, our strength lies here."

Hearing what he said, the captain of country O couldn't say anything more. The reason why he came to remind him was because they were on the same line of interest. If Xiao Mao country continued to lose, they would be ranked The most important thing is the battle between them, which is not a good thing for their two allies.

At this moment, a soldier hurried over, "Report sir, the Minister of Military Affairs invites you to go over and seem to have something important to discuss."

He was a little unhappy when he heard others interrupt his conversation, "Didn't I say that before? If there is something that you can handle yourself? What else is there now?"

It's more important than this! "

The soldier hesitated for a moment, stepped forward and whispered in his ear: "Sir, our opponent has changed. It used to be from country H, but now it is from country Yan."

what! Hearing this news, he stood up in disbelief. This is absolutely impossible. According to his calculations before, country A should be the one fighting the whole country, and their strength is unified.

The main reason is that now they have seen the strength of the Yan Kingdom. Under the suppression of this absolute strength, no one wants to encounter such a powerful country.

He could only leave in a hurry. Panasonic Haotian was so depressed that he had no time to talk to him. The things here were just resuming how the game failed. He didn't know anything about the news of the battle with Ba Guo. don't care.

Buck, the team leader of country O, hurried to their camp area, and just stepped into the tent office where he belonged, when he questioned loudly.

"What's going on? Why is it different from our previous analysis! And no matter how we assign it, it's not our turn to fight them."

The military minister on the opposite side also showed a very helpless expression. This is not something they can decide. He took out the map and pointed, "Because country A sent out the application first, they pointed out the previous ranking error and said that according to the normal situation, They should be fighting against country H!"

Hearing this, Buck was extremely angry, and directly punched the table. "Despicable guy, now everyone knows that Yan Kingdom can't be provoked, so they started these dirty tricks!"

In comparison, if they fought against Xiaomao, at least the fight would not be so ugly, and it would only affect other aspects. They are allies, and the real fight would only affect the face of both sides.

But against Zhan Yanguo, that might be the case. He was about to be beaten by others, so Buck was so angry, but the military minister next to him didn't think so.

"Sir, I don't think the situation is that bad, and according to my analysis, if we want to win, it's not that difficult. Xiaomao and the others are all because of their arrogance this time."...

"What do you know? Look at their attack this time. With such a long distance, he can directly enter their arsenal in a short time and destroy their center first."

Buck is very angry now, he wants to let these people around him understand what is a real strong man and what is reality, instead of blindly indulging in fantasy, Yan Country is not the Yan Country it was decades ago.

But he felt as if he was the only sensible person around him, and the others didn't mind at all. They always believed that the reason why Xiaomao made a mistake this time was because of their arrogance, not because of the other party's strength.

He shook his head helplessly. After a while, a document was sent in. It was decided by the headquarters that their opponent was the Yan Kingdom, and the date of the battle was three days later.

Because this is the second game, unlike before, they have to occupy the high ground first. This time, they will directly decide which high ground they are in by drawing lots.

Tonight, he had to go to the lottery first, and then take a small group of people to familiarize themselves with the terrain first. On the third day, he officially set off and stationed there to start the official competition.

Things have already developed like this, and it is useless to regret any more, we can only follow the current situation step by step.

After that, Buck came to the center of the previous base. The people who led the team to participate in the competition this time were all here. Because the lottery was going to be drawn, the ceremony that should be done had to go. Apart from them, there were several other teams that also had to go. draw lots.

He was not interested in other people, but just stared at Qin Yuan intently. At this time, Qin Yuan led his team members into the venue talking and laughing, with a relaxed expression on his face, and he didn't see anything at all Variety.

Now Buck is praying, hoping that he will have better luck when drawing lots, at least stay away from this horrible guy, and don't get too close.

With the lottery on the field one by one

In the end, it was his turn, and he also stepped forward and drew a number plate No. 7. He quickly compared it on the map next to him. After searching for a long time, he finally found the No. 7 position.

This place is located in the center, and he quickly observed the surrounding terrain. This place is relatively good, and he has already discussed with the military minister next to him how to deploy and guard against it.

On the other side, Qin Yuan was much calmer. He didn't even go to the field to draw lots, but instead casually called Li Erniu to go up.

Faced with such an important occasion, everyone was a little surprised, but what everyone didn't expect was that Li Erniu drew lots so conveniently that he actually got the number nine, which was right next to their number seven, and the two highlands were not far apart. . The distance between them is tens of kilometers.

Buck felt desperate instantly. Isn't this trying to trick them on purpose? Previously, Xiaomao country was beaten so far away that they couldn't lift their heads, let alone so close.

Now that things have turned out like this, there is no way. Qin Yuan and the others just need to wait and prepare. At night, the team leader from Ba State came to the park where Qin Yuan was located.

After all, tomorrow they are going to start a war with Xiaomao. Although Xiaomao has just ended, they are very confident in dealing with Ba. They don't have any rest, and they directly propose that they can directly compete.

The captain of the elder brother also came here to learn some experience. He had seen the battle before, but he still had to ask about many details. Seeing the captain of Ba Guo ask for advice with such an open mind.

Of course, Qin Yuan didn't hold back and told them their weaknesses directly. The captain of this little Mao country is extremely arrogant. Although the strength in all aspects is stronger than Ba's side, he can catch them by surprise.

The two also discussed several plans. Qin Yuan mainly aimed at the ones that were more suitable for them at present, and then made his own opinions, whether to adopt it or not, that was their own business.

The captain of Ba Guo was already full of confidence when he came out of the tent. Anyway, this opinion is really important, and it completely opened up their other new ideas.

Qin Yuan also summoned several people. A brief meeting was held. Although it was said that it was not taken seriously, the process that should be followed was still to be followed. It was to prepare everyone for the day after tomorrow. They were going to the No. 9 Heights.

They still have a lot of reserve forces that have been brought out, first of all, the air force, and they still have drones, which have never appeared once before, and Xiao Maoguo has already dispatched them, because they didn't have them at the time. The only way is to resist desperately.

A company commander sitting next to him looked at the map, and then asked, "Commander Qin, shall we still send a small team to infiltrate them and attack from the outside?"

"This time we are very close, and the penetration of small bones like this will not be particularly effective. They should strengthen their defenses, and I will not use the same tactic twice. I will have other tactical arrangements."

Qin Yuan pointed to the lake next to him. He planned to infiltrate from here. It was impossible for his people to expect that he would cross the lake.

Everyone was a little surprised to hear him say that. It's not that others didn't expect it, but that it seemed impossible to put him in any team.

"How is it impossible? I trained you before, and you can infiltrate in the sea, not to mention being so lively. The entire lake is relatively calm. Everyone brings diving equipment to infiltrate from this place."

This time Qin Yuan did not intend to infiltrate with a small force, but to use the cooperation between several companies. First, he would use air power to harass them, and then use this opportunity to infiltrate his own team to completely wipe them out. surrounded.

Because the most unfavorable point of the position they chose on the European side is that it is completely surrounded by a lake at the back. The range of this lake is very large. If they want to attack directly from the front, there is not much cover for them.

Qin Yuan is very confident in his ability He has no problem attacking from anywhere, but this time he is not fighting alone, but with other people, especially the companies. Everyone's strength is It's not the same, so he has to adjust the security whole to the max.

It is absolutely not a problem to send all the troops from this lake under the cover of air raids.

If you want to say this, it's not too much, it's just a surprise, everyone didn't expect him to enter from this place.

Country O doesn't think much about it now. When they were making tactical arrangements, they had already put all their emphasis on air strike preparations, as well as bunker preparations in front of them.

During their meeting, someone nearby reminded them whether to send some people to the lake behind, but Buck directly vetoed it. He felt that there was nothing worth caring about at that location. .
