

Special Soldier 1731

What Qin Yuan thought was very clear. He felt that he could handle the problem well in this situation, and if he had to notify the local area, he didn't know what would happen.

But Chen Ou is different. Chen Ou has not handled things as well as Qin Yuan. After all, his position is not that high. Many things cannot be decided, and he needs to report to the superior.

"This is really not allowed, Captain Qin. According to our domestic treaty, including now, if they find out, then we will cause other conflicts, and it will be a big one."

Qin Yuan frowned slightly when he heard this, and he glanced at the person in front of him. This guy is too rigid, and he doesn't know how to change it. Now he is talking about this situation.

Now is an urgent moment, of course it must be dealt with urgently, besides, it will never be discovered by others.

"I can guarantee that it is absolutely impossible for anyone to find out. With my technical means, how many people do you think can find out, let alone theirs, and I can even directly enter their national safety net."

To tell the truth, Chen Ou was really surprised. He knew that Qin Yuan had that strength, but he just couldn't get through the test in his heart. He always felt that it was not good to do so, would something go wrong?

"Captain Qin, please wait a moment. After I solve the problem here, I will tell you. Otherwise, you will leave it to me first. If it is really impossible, let's make plans for this step."

Qin Yuan has never seen such an ink-stained person, and he respected him before, but hearing that he has been moaning here, and he didn't follow his own arrangement, please feel a little unhappy for a moment, and push him away .

Although the positions of the two parties are not particularly equal, he can also understand the situation of the two parties. He is also the captain, and it is not easy to lead the team. He has this understanding, but the other party does not seem to realize it.

He pushed like this, and just happened to be seen by Dayong behind him. Although Dayong felt that he was in the wrong before, he saw that his captain was pushed away, and rushed forward without saying a word.

"What are you doing? Captain Qin, you can do something to us, but there is no need to do something to our captain."

"Which eye of yours saw that I did something to him? Now he's been scribbling all over here, I just want to complete the task as soon as possible, and then go back and don't want to have anything to do with you, procrastination!"

He Chenguang and the others also gathered around as soon as possible, seeing that the two sides started a dispute, they were not to be outdone.

"Erniu, stop them all for me, and don't let them move me. Now I want to check the flight records of the day."

Chen Ou was very shocked when he heard this. He turned his head and stared at Qin Yuan, "What are you going to do? You are here. If there is any conflict abroad, what should we do?"

Before he finished speaking, He Chenguang was already on the ground. He Chenguang's skill was very powerful, and he grabbed his shoulder with a single grab. Just as he was about to fall over his shoulder, Dayong rushed up.

But how could these people be Li Erniu? Their opponents were already under control after a while, and at the same time, willingness had already found out the air route of the day.

Dayong, who was pressed to the ground, kept yelling, "This is the style of your special operations team. You are more barbaric than us. This is how you treat your own people. When I go back, I must report to the highest officer and report to you. Such barbarism."

Li Erniu ignored him, sat on him and took a bite of an apple, then patted his head, "I say, you boy, be honest, after our captain finishes his work, you can do whatever you want."

"What are you? Now it's just because you have a lot of people, so you subdue us. If you have the ability, we will be singled out later."

A few people laughed out loud when they heard this, do these guys really think that special forces are all the same? Their red blood cell team never felt like they were the same as any other special forces team.

Listening to their ridicule, Chen Ou also felt very ashamed. These days he has been enduring, but he didn't expect it to be like this. In the end, he really wanted to prevent Qin Yuan from making mistakes, which in his opinion was a mistake.

"Captain Qin, you'd better take care of your subordinates. Listen to what they say. It's really not conducive to unity. I think the most important thing at the moment is to report this matter to the higher authorities as soon as possible. I don't want to worry about other things. "

Qin Yuan had already found the route and the specific landing place at this moment. He turned off the computer, then walked over with his hands behind his back, and took a slight look at several people.

"Let me answer a few questions for you first, about what you just said."

"First, you have to report to the highest official. I am the highest official. Compared with the position, who do you think is the highest highest official?"

Having said that, the people in front were stunned for a moment, and Dayong was not struggling. Qin Yuan has always been so approachable, making them forget his other identity. He even has to be in charge of the Marine Corps. To the position of captain, let alone here.

Relatively speaking, it is indeed the highest leader. On the other hand, his strength is also placed here, and he is also the strongest in front of everyone.

He coughed slightly and continued: "There is also the security issue you mentioned just now, not to mention, I have entered their network security system and come out again, they have not found anything, I will not leave any traces."

Hearing Qin Yuan's promise, although Chen Ou hesitated, it seemed that it was too late to stop him now, and everything had already been done.

He was a little helpless by the side, and finally he could only ask: "Then if something really goes wrong..."

"Aren't you just afraid of taking responsibility? Don't worry, I will be responsible for any problems. I just want to find those scientific researchers quickly. God knows if they are still safe now. Your people have become like that, What do you think?"

Having said that, several people were not struggling, Li Erniu also squatted down and pulled Dayong up.

"Your strength is quite strong, but the speed can be faster. If the speed is faster, you can tie with me."

"You! I found that your special forces team has a pretty sharp mouth."

"Don't say that everyone is the same. If you are not convinced, then after the mission is over, you can compete with me at any time when we go back, but not now, we have to complete the mission first."

Li Erniu has become very calm after years of training. He saw the shadow of his past in Dayong. In the past, he would do things very impulsively, without considering the consequences at all, and let's talk after finishing.

That's why he took extra care of this person, he would remind him where he needed to be reminded, and he was always worried that he would make a mistake, but luckily he met him, if he met someone else who cares about him, it would be difficult for Dayong to stay here.

Qin Yuan got the clue, and Chen Ou couldn't say anything more. Anyway, he said that the responsibility was on his side to pay, so a few people set off towards the confirmed location of the discovery.

It was only when they arrived at the place that they realized that the building had already been empty, and there was nothing left over there, but it looked like they should have left by helicopter.

Dayong and the others searched this building for a long time, but found nothing. All the materials that should be taken away have been taken away. It seems that they should be staying here temporarily.

This time they tasted the sweetness and finally found the key to the mission, so when Qin Yuan continued to investigate, no one of them stopped him, and he continued to search for the flight path according to the previous action route.

When all the investigations here were over, Qin Yuan searched along the route detected by the radar. He could indeed see the flight route, but he had already left Xiaomao country.

Several people were also very surprised to learn of this result. After leaving Xiaomao country, it would be very difficult to find hope if they went out.

Chen Ou felt a little guilty. He felt that it was his own problem. If they had been faster, maybe they would have felt able to come to this place.

"Captain Qin, if I hadn't stopped you back then, maybe you would have been faster than you are now, and this situation would not have happened."

"No, you can see that their traces have left two days ago. No matter how fast we are, we may not be able to catch up. Let's start along this trace now. It's not a big problem. After passing there, I can enter from any country."

Chen Ou was very surprised. This guy's ability is too strong. He is so confident. Everyone looked at it. Their flight route was from Xiaomao country to a small country called Amir.

Although this is a small country, it has been rumored that there will be wars in the past two years, because their internal contradictions are getting bigger and bigger.

So this also makes various forces keep intervening. Everyone wants to get a share of the pie. The forces inside are very chaotic, and no one cares about them. What is the purpose of bringing these scientific researchers to that place?

A few people really can't figure it out, but now there is still a key issue is how to get in. If they are smuggling from the border, it is really too difficult. At present, the situation there is relatively tense, and the border has been completely martial law. They want to smuggle? so easy.

There was a team member on Chen Ou's side who was tinkering with the computer, and soon he found a map. This team member was called Ah Cheng, and he was the blaster in their team.

"Captain, I found a map. We can sneak in from other borders. It shouldn't be a problem. Otherwise, we wouldn't be able to bring guns in."

Qin Yuan just glanced at the map and immediately rejected it.

Faced with his idea being rejected, Ah Cheng felt a little unhappy, but he still asked: "Captain Qin, what do you think is wrong with us? I learned this route after my analysis. Although there are some detours, but Definitely can go in."

"You can take a good look for yourself. There are small countries around here. Their borders are not as long as ours. With just a few passages, do you think you can get in?"

"This... this should not be possible, we should be able to get in as long as we spend some money."

Qin Yuan smiled, and felt that this guy was thinking too simply. The situation on all sides is very tense now. Everyone wants to break through through these openings. Then other people, especially these small countries on the border, must be Maintain a neutral position, and the border is strictly guarded, how can it be possible to let them in?

"You can't look at too superficial things when you look at the problem. You have to look at it all. This can't be done by spending money. This has already involved the interests of the entire country, and it is absolutely impossible to enter."

Ah Cheng said helplessly when he heard this: "Since you think my method is not good, what other methods are there? Now this is the only thing I can think of."

"Then is there any way to lose the gun, can't we just go in? Now they don't restrict other personnel inside."

What this guy said was so easy that even Chen Ou next to him wondered if he heard it wrong, which is too exaggerated.

If they lost their guns, how would they fight without weapons in the future, and if they didn't have weapons in that war-torn country, none of them would be able to protect them.

Qin Yuan was very calm. The members of the red blood cell team on his side were already taking off their equipment according to his order, and took out another set of regular uniforms from their bags to put on.

From the looks of it, they do this often, and they always have clothes ready in their backpacks.

"What are you still doing in a daze? Hurry up and get started. How long will it take? We're passing here now, and we probably won't arrive until evening."

"But... what are we going to do if we don't have a gun when we go in?"

"What? Do you mean you can't fight without guns? Also, don't think that it is a war-torn country, You can walk around with guns at will. Don't forget our identity. After we enter, That's a force where foreigners don't participate in either side."

When Qin Yuan said this, Chen Ou blushed so much that he could only agree to Qin Yuan's request in the end, but they didn't bring other clothes.

"It's very simple. You keep the other equipment, and according to the current situation, we will soon enter the town of Xiaomao, and we will enter the airport. It is easy to cause suspicion if you dress like this."

The border of Xiao Mao country is relatively long. They came here secretly before and were not found, and they have been moving on the cliffs of the mountains, so there is no big problem.

But now as soon as you enter the city, there are cameras at any time, and you may be tracked, so it is best to keep a low profile.

Qin Yuan thought about it, and for the sake of safety, let Li Erniu go down to buy some clothes for them to change into, so as not to attract too many people's attention.

In this way, after everyone changed their equipment and hid all the previous guns on the mountain, they were ready to set off. They probably would come to this place later, because the bodies of their two team members were still here.

Chapter 1732: successfully entered Amir

While changing his clothes, Dayong looked at the position on the mountain behind him, where the bodies of the two team members were.

"Xiao Mao, what are they going to do now? Should we leave them here?"

Dayong felt that it was too bad to leave his brother here, and they didn't know when they would come back after going out this time. How many days would it take to delay?

"Don't worry, I will deal with these problems. I will let others take back their bodies. There will be special people."

Chen Ou was even more shocked. He turned to look at Qin Yuan. Why does this guy know people everywhere?

"You're not joking with me, are you? This is Xiaomao Country. It's not in our country. Can you really find reliable people?"

"It's no problem. Many things are under my control. I won't let their remains stay in this place. I've already contacted the people here, and they will come and deal with it."

Qin Yuan didn't tell them specifically, after all, the person who stayed here was Liu Huaqiang before. Liu Huaqiang's influence is very wide, and he also has his business in Xiaomao Country.

It is also very good for local snakes like them to deal with these problems, so Qin Yuan intends to entrust this matter to them, and he is more at ease.

Waiting until the plane, Chen Ou was very curious about this matter, he didn't know who Qin Yuan was looking for.

But I would rather just close my eyes and pretend to be asleep. It will take a long time for them to reach that small country of Amir, and it will take about seven hours.

This is Qin Yuan's quickest calculation. If there is any problem in the middle, it will be difficult for them to reach there at night.

Sure enough, there was a little unexpected situation in the middle, because Amir had a sudden situation, the internal forces had begun to rise, and some small conflicts were happening between the two sides.

There have been bombings in their streets, so the situation is very chaotic in this case, affecting aviation going there.

In the end, the flights here were temporarily cancelled, and they could only land in a small border country near Amir. This is understandable. After all, if a fight really broke out, their planes would not dare to go there.

But it's hard for Qin Yuan and the others. They can indeed enter now, but they can only enter through the normal way from the border.

Although this is more troublesome, it is the only feasible solution. Qin Yuan looked at the map. From this place to Amir, there are still more than 2,000 kilometers away. This distance is still relatively far, and they can only drive Way to get to the border over there first.

After Chen Ou got out of the car, he scratched his head in embarrassment. This time he came out in a hurry. After all, it was only for the mission, and he didn't bring any money with him.

More importantly, after they came here, they spoke the local language, and this language barrier also caused great difficulties, making it difficult for Chen Ou and the others to move forward.

Fortunately, there was Qin Yuan along the way, which made him discover another aspect of Qin Yuan's ability. This guy is really too strong. He seems to know everything, including the languages of various countries here, and even their local languages. He knows all dialects.

In this way, Qin Yuan directly rented two off-road vehicles without much effort, which made Chen Ou next to him a little embarrassed. After all, both of them are captains. In such a comparison, he seems to be far behind.

"Captain Qin, let's take a look at this thing and count it on our brigade. You registered the money, as well as our back and forth expenses. I will reimburse you when I return to the brigade."

"You don't need to tell me about the little money. Besides, we are all here to complete the task. We must complete the task before we talk about it."

Dayong next to him couldn't stand it anymore, he felt that Qin Yuan was showing off, but Qin Yuan just felt that it was really just a small amount of money to him, just a drop in the bucket.

With his promotion in the past two years, his salary has been getting higher and higher, including the corresponding rewards for his fame, and his business dealings with Liu Huaqiang. Everything is under his control of.

This little money is really nothing to him, "Okay, let's not say more, you have one car, we have one, follow our route, we will lead the way."

Ah Cheng wanted to hand over the map to him, but Qin Yuan shook his head and said that he had memorized all the map routes in his mind.

There were no good cars to rent here, so He Chenguang could only sit with Chen Ou and the others to carpool temporarily.

It is not very far from Amir, but you can also see the lives of the people on both sides. In fact, their clothes, including their lifestyles, are similar.

Ah Cheng kept looking at the map, only to realize that Qin Yuan was leading the road faster than on the map. According to the instructions on the map, it would be troublesome for them to go through various checkpoints. .

He Chenguang had already woken up next to him. He opened his eyes and saw that Ah Cheng was still comparing the maps carefully, and he couldn't help feeling amused.

"I advise you to rest as soon as possible now, or you will not be able to keep up later, don't think about how easy it will be after we enter the country, and you will not be able to sleep later."

"But is your captain really okay? He didn't look at this map at all. He just glanced at it at that time, and he was able to remember it."

"Don't underestimate our captain's memory. As long as he wants to remember everything, it's impossible not to forget it, and the route he took will be more accurate and simpler than the map."

Just like Qin Yuan took them to various villages now, without taking the main road at all. If you take the main road, you will encounter many checkpoints and have to interrogate. It will take a lot of time to go all the way. Although it is more than 2000 k, it takes too long .

It was already dark at this time, and it was relatively convenient for them to walk in the village. Is there any vehicle.

It's just that the road conditions here are not particularly good. They finally reached the border in the middle of the night. Most of the roads have not been repaired, and they are all that kind of dirt road. Fortunately, Qin Yuan's vehicle is relatively strong, otherwise All have to toss and fall apart.

After they came to the border area, they found that the situation seemed to be more serious than they had imagined, and the internal situation was very serious.

The people inside desperately wanted to come out, but the border crossing was being checked one by one. It was late at night, but there were still many people.

Qin Yuanyuan's car was the only one on this side who wanted to go to the other side, which made the border inspectors very curious.

He asked to see the identification of several people, and several people took out their passports, and the border inspector took a slight look.

"People from the Yan Kingdom!"

"Yes, what's the matter, sir? Can't we go there?"

"You can indeed go there, and the people before you are here to help us a lot, so I want to remind you that the situation over there is very bad, you don't have to go there."

Qin Yuan smiled and patted the pack of cigarettes in his arms into his palm, "Sir, thank you for your reminder, but there are some things we have to get over, so thank you."

The border officer saw that he had already reminded them to go there, and there was no way to stop them. Besides, he had to do things with other people's things. Just like that, he waved his hand, and the door next to him opened, Qin Yuan and the others The vehicle just walked out.

Qin Yuan and the others just entered here and those who wanted to come out rushed forward. Everyone was curious about what they were going to do with this matter.

But Qin Yuan didn't stop there, he kicked the accelerator and rushed out, leading them to start crazily speeding on the road.

The border line is the same as what Qin Yuan said before, there are only two entrances, so there are a lot of people, and there is nothing to go to the outside.

By the time it was just dawn, they had arrived at a town. Although the small country called Amir was in an unstable time period, the people still had to live, and the morning was relatively lively.

Dayong stretched himself in the car, and the running all the way really made him feel very tired. This feeling is really more exhausting than a day of training.

At this time, Qin Yuan and his vehicles stopped in front, and Chen Ou hurriedly asked nervously on the intercom.

"Did something happen in front of Captain Qin? Why did you stop suddenly?"

"It's nothing, it's just a bit crowded and blocked in the morning. Our vehicles may not be able to enter this market, so we can only stop here."

There are too many people now, and most of the people here have to worship, so they can only stop here first, and wait for them to finish the ceremony before everyone can go there.

Several people parked the car on the side of the road. Qin Yuan jumped out of the car and looked around, then swaggered to the nearby stall.

Looking at his actions, Chen Ou felt as if he was visiting his own home. He didn't know when he would be able to be so confident. Maybe he was really strong, and he would feel that way in the future.

After a while, Qin Yuan came over with a few snacks, "I don't know what they eat, it seems to be just any cake."

Everyone was running around yesterday, so I can't manage so much now, so I quickly ate, and now I can add a little bit.

Dayong just took a bite when he saw two children next to him staring closely at the thing in his hand. He hesitated a bit, waved his hand, and the child ran over.

He fumbled in the bag, and there was a little money in the bag when he came out, and he put it in the child's hand. The main reason was to see that the child was really pitiful, and there were no adults around him, so he just looked at it helplessly. .

At this time, Qin Yuan just turned his head and saw that he was putting money away, so he hurried over and pushed him away. Dayong didn't understand, he stood up on the ground and patted the dirt on his body.

"Captain Qin, what are you going to do? Didn't you say that you have been living in peace before, and we will talk about it when we go back? Why are you doing something to me now?"

"In this place, please don't touch other people casually! Especially children!"

Dayong felt that Qin Yuan was a bit too inexplicable to understand at all. When the two were arguing, a few local people suddenly ran out from the alley next to him.

After these few people rushed out, they chattered a lot in the local language, and Dayong was also taken aback by the momentum. They didn't have any weapons on them now, and the opponent was clearly outnumbered.

It can be felt that these local civilians are very angry, and they seem to want to express their anger.

Qin Yuan was very helpless, so he could only groan, and then took out the money from the bag. Unexpectedly, taking out a stack was not enough, so he took out some more.

The moment these civilians saw the money, they stopped their quarrel and left satisfied with the money. Dayong couldn't understand it.

"Captain Qin, is this an act of bribery? And you see that these civilians are obviously extorting. You gave them so much just now, why did you return so much?"

"You don't know anything at all, so do you think we can leave without paying?"

"Although we don't have weapons, these are just civilians. I think we should be able to resist them, and at worst, just rush out."

Qin Yuan snorted when he heard this, walked up to him, patted his shoulder, and asked him to look up.

I only saw a few men holding AKs in the corridor on the upper left, and a few people on the roof of the side building were patrolling, and they were all wearing veils.

Dayong gasped, he hadn't noticed just now that this was the case above.

"How about it? Do you think it's your speed or other people's guns? Besides, there are so many innocent civilians on this street, why did you provoke others first?"

"I..."

Dayong was really frightened by this situation, knowing that they would never encounter such a situation on their usual streets, so he didn't know what to say for a while.

In order to prevent this from happening again, Qin Yuan called several people together, and told everyone about the folk customs here, as well as the situation just now.

"Do you know why I told you not to touch other people here? They are children, especially boys, whose heads cannot be touched by outsiders."

It was only when Dayong heard this that he remembered that he had indeed touched the child's forehead when he gave the money just now, thinking that the child was quite cute.

This is the custom in their place. You must never touch the child's forehead, otherwise it will bring bad luck to the child, and the adults must not be happy.

All the people holding weapons above were protected by the local civilians spontaneously. There are too many forces here, and their identities in this place are very embarrassing, and they are foreigners.

The current situation in this place is very tense, they cannot touch this fuse, they can only do things in accordance with local regulations first.

Only then did Dayong understand that Qin Yuan was really doing it for his own benefit just now, and it was because of his recklessness that he made him pay so much more money, almost starting a conflict with everyone.

Chapter 1733: sudden explosion

And this is still in a foreign country, many customs in this place are different from their local ones, so once there is any conflict in this place, they will bring a lot of trouble to their own country.

Qin Yuan once again explained to everyone earnestly that he must understand this place clearly and not casually contact the locals.

Because you don't know what they believe in, and who the leader they follow. There are many differences in this place. Every organization is different, and seven or eight kinds of forces have penetrated into it.

"I definitely want to bring everyone back safely, and I don't want any accidents to happen to anyone, but first of all, you have to obey orders. I have never used the status of the highest officer to overwhelm you, but at this moment I really want to this way."

Dayong also felt a little guilty when he heard this. He was really doing it for his own good. Thinking of this, he stepped forward and bowed his head to admit his mistake.

"Captain Qin, I'm sorry. I was too reckless just now. I really didn't expect such a thing to happen."

"It's nothing, you've just started here, it's normal not to understand these things, but you have to remember your identities at all times, and we're here to represent the Yan Kingdom, can you understand?"

Others don't care what you are doing, but once you join this identity, it is easy to provoke other conflicts.

If they were entangled with certain organizational forces, there would be nothing wrong with it, but when the other party said that, they would soon think that this was Yan Guo's position.

Chen Ou was a little terrified by what he said. To be honest, he really didn't think of so many aspects. They are abroad now. If they want to consider these issues, there are too many aspects. He is always worried that he can't handle this well. The task will also implicate the country.

"Captain Qin, otherwise we'd better report to the superior, or if something goes wrong here, I really can't take responsibility."

"I never said that I would make you responsible. I have been responsible since we came here, and I will be responsible for everything to the end."

Hearing Qin Yuan's affirmative statement, he couldn't say anything more. A few people sat in the car and ate all the cakes. Because of the commotion just now, they also attracted other people's attention. People are making things difficult for them.

Chen Ou felt a little curious about how much Qin Yuan gave just now. Although it had been converted into local currency, he didn't know the exact amount.

"Just now I saw that you have given out two wads of money, and the amount of money is very large."

"It's nothing. If it's converted to us, it's about four or five hundred."

what! Chen Ou was dumbfounded, this is too exaggerated, looking at so much money, it was only four or five hundred after throwing it over.

Qin Yuan said that the serious depreciation of the currency in this place is precisely because of this problem that has caused so many conflicts. Several forces are entangled here and will be triggered soon, so this is the root cause.

"What I'm more curious about now is your expression. It's not worth the price for us to pay attention to this car. I think you were very distressed when you gave it away."

"Do you know about acting? We need to let these people know that we are not that rich, otherwise they will surround us in groups. People's greed is endless, and they will keep asking for money."

Chen Ou looked at Qin Yuan with admiration, and realized that the reason why this person was able to become the captain of the Special Operations Brigade was not without reason, but his adaptability was too strong.

After all the local people had finished their pilgrimage, the entire market became unobstructed. Qin Yuan and the others drove through, but the car stopped shortly after driving out, and a checkpoint appeared in front of it.

I can't see what kind of force it is, anyway, a checkpoint has been set up, and passing vehicles are being intercepted, and pedestrians are ready to be inspected.

Here, Chen Ouxue was smart. He took the money out of the bag first. Although he hadn't converted it before, they should be able to recognize it anyway.

"You don't need to take the money this time. You should take it from me. After all, you came here to help us. I can't keep asking you to pay. Naturally, I feel a little embarrassed."

"There is no need to take money in this place. Faced with the armed forces in these places, they have too much power. It is best not to try to bribe them, just do what they say."

"Huh? Really don't need to bribe them? I'm worried that something will go wrong."

Qin Yuan felt a little impatient, and directly closed the object. Chen Ou kept calling from the car behind, but Qin Yuan ignored him. He felt that this guy couldn't make any sense.

It's just that Qin Yuan and the others took the lead and took out their passports when they passed in front, and said that they were from Yan Kingdom.

The people who checked in front wanted to embarrass them at first, after all, they saw that they were foreigners, but when they saw the passport, they immediately let them go.

"You are our friends, we will not embarrass you, but where are you going to go? You can tell me, let me know, there are other armed groups, I don't know if I will embarrass you."

This person is relatively good, and he reminded him specifically, Qin Yuan immediately pointed out on the map that the place they were going to was called Ataka.

This place is where the last helicopter landed, so they went to that place to search.

The person who reminded Qin Yuan just now frowned when he heard the place name, "Although I don't know what you are going to do in that place, I really advise you not to go there. Try not to go to that place. There are three organizations in total. There, they're about to engage, and I heard there was already friction yesterday."

That place is quite special, it is the junction point of the three organizations, so it is easy to have a fight in that place, and everyone can't wait to escape from there, so they started to check, mainly to ensure the safety here.

Qin Yuan nodded when he heard this. It seems that other organizations should have infiltrated in. The more they are in such war-torn areas, the more opportunities they can take advantage of.

"My friend, thank you for your reminder, but we have to go there, just tell me how many kilometers we have to go through along the way."

This person is more polite. He knows that the Yan people have helped them before, helping them build railways and bridges, so he is grateful.

He told Qin Yuan that he had to go through a total of six checkpoints along the way, all of which were from different organizations, but these organizations would not interfere with each other too much, so there would not be too many problems.

And also took a copy of their latest map, the bridges in most areas have been blown up, because everyone is making preparations, bridges are the main means of transportation, after blowing up the bridges, reinforcements in some places can be blocked.

"I hope you can use this latest map. If you encounter any danger, you just need to explain your identity, and most people will not embarrass you."

Qin Yuan smiled, then took out the remaining pack of cigarettes from his bosom and put it in his hand, and they continued to set off like this.

At this time, Chen Ou, who was behind him, was very unhappy, including the team members next to him. Ah Cheng complained silently, "I don't know why we said just now that we should do this, but he didn't want to. He is acting as the boss there, is he really so rich?"

"Okay, don't say a few words. After all, Captain Qin is here to help us. Now we can solve the problem in front of us."

"Captain, but I think this kind of behavior is really disrespectful to us. We reminded him before, but he didn't listen very much, and now he still makes his own decisions."

When these two people were discussing, they didn't pay any attention to He Chenguang who was sitting behind, and he didn't answer them either. He put his hat down very low and pretended to be sleeping next to him.

To tell the truth from the bottom of his heart, Chen Ou was really uncomfortable. He didn't understand what Qin Yuan's intention was. Just like that, the two cars kept running on the main road, but because most of the bridges were blown up, so They can only take a detour, thanks to this latest map.

When a few people passed by a gas station, they stopped to rest. The climate here is very hot, and there are wind and sand everywhere.

After getting out of the car, he managed to inquire about the situation just now. Qin Yuan explained to him that these people don't need to give any money, but after giving them, they will feel that there is a problem, because this is a local protection organization.

"Captain Qin, I found out that you know everything. It's probably the first time you've come to this place. How do you know what's wrong with them?"

"After a little observation, you will know. You didn't see those people. Although they stopped by them for inspection, they didn't have any intention of being afraid. Instead, they all took the initiative to accept the inspection. This shows a problem. They are in front of local people. side."

He did not observe this point. At that time, he was mainly thinking about how to solve the problem. Qin Yuan said that if this was the case, people would not accept their bribes at all, but would think that such behavior was problematic.

And he gave the pack of cigarettes a little at the end, which is respect for his friends. In this case, people will not say anything. If they just give the money as soon as they come, they will definitely not be able to leave.

There was a small shop next to the gas station, and a few people planned to come down to get some supplies. After all, it took a long time to get there. According to the instructions on the map, it would take them about six hours to get there because of the detour.

The road outside the gas station is full of civilians who are fleeing. These civilians don't know where their destination is, they just want to stay as far away as possible from places where wars may have occurred before.

So there was chaos everywhere outside. Besides the civilians, there were also bullock carts and some old cars parked outside.

Because there were too many people, the staff of the gas station went to clear the congestion several times, but there was nothing they could do. In the end, they could only walk over apologetically.

"Sir, I'm really sorry, there's nothing we can do. There are too many refugees now. You can only go out after they leave first."

The gas station here is built in the center of the city next to it, so the main road next to it is completely blocked, and he can only watch those people moving slowly. Qin Yuan is not in a hurry. People rush out.

Dayong looked at the moving civilians with helpless expressions on their faces. No one wanted this kind of situation to happen. After all, they didn't want a war, but there was no way.

Just when several people were resting, there was a sudden riot from the crowd, and only a man was heard yelling and rushing out.

Qin Yuan's reaction was quick, and he could only yell at the people around him to leave quickly, because in this situation, what he was most worried about was the explosive attack.

Moreover, this is still a gas station, he rushed up regardless of the danger, Qin Yuan grabbed the civilian, and even the staff next to him started to be alert, but it was just a false alarm, he was probably suffering from some kind of disease Twitching all over.

Qin Yuan just breathed a sigh of relief, but soon there was a huge explosion sound from behind, and a car exploded directly.

The shock wave from the explosion shattered all the glass of the nearby gas station, and the civilians became even more chaotic, with screams and tramples everywhere.

Ah Cheng was completely stunned by the side. Although he had performed several missions, this was the first time he had seen such a situation, especially among these civilians.

He Chenguang came over and pushed him into the car, telling him not to be dazed, and get in the car quickly, this place is not safe, so run away first.

Several people got into the car in a hurry, and Qin Yuan didn't want to get involved in the matter, so he started to reverse the car, then kicked the accelerator and rushed towards the outside. He finally found a way by driving the sandbag next to him, and Chen Ou behind Follow up as soon as possible.

After they rushed out completely, Dayong looked at the people who were in a mess in the rearview mirror, and heard gunshots. The close-range impact made him feel very uncomfortable. He wants to save those civilians, no matter which country he is from, but he feels that civilians are innocent.

But Qin Yuan in front had no intention of stopping the car. He just felt that this person was too indifferent. Could it be that he just watched and ignored him?

It was not until the vehicle was far away from the crowd and completely left the center that Qin Yuan slowed down. At this time, Gan Yuancha explained to them that it was the local armed force, and they could not participate at all, and they did not know which force it belonged to. Participate, it will be considered as the same faction.

The reason why we don't just focus on those common people is because of this. Even if they explain that they are in a neutral position, no one will care about it at all. They will only see if you have participated in it, which will cause too many problems later.

To be honest, he really wanted to save those civilians, but this helpless situation made him anxious.

Chapter 1734: buy equipment

He drove the car in front and fled to this place. If it was really possible, he wanted to do it directly, and this situation would never happen.

When they arrived at a safe place, everyone came down to rest and took a look around. The bridge in front had been blown up, so they could only walk across.

"The current situation is not optimistic. We must speed up so that we should be able to arrive before dawn."

Chen Ou's main worry was that there would be some accidents. If the researchers in the past were taken away again, it would be a little troublesome.

But at this moment, Qin Yuan sat calmly by the side and prepared to rest. Chen Ou was a little anxious, and hurried forward to ask when he was leaving.

"Captain Qin is already at this time, I don't think we should rest."

"How can you do it without rest? Everyone will run for a day. If you don't rest, when we enter the war-torn area at night, everyone must be alert. At that time, you will not be able to rest even if you want to."

Chen Ou stood up and shook his head. His entire lips were completely cracked. The climate in this place is so hot that they were not prepared. That's right.

Dayong also said that there is no problem, and they should complete the task immediately to make up for the mistakes they made before.

Qin Yuan asked He Chenguang and the others to find something. They were going to start a fire here just now, and they will take a rest here tonight.

Seeing that Qin Yuan seemed to be really planning to rest, Chen Ou was a little worried that he was really afraid that he would be transferred again, and they would have no way to find him again.

"I know what you're thinking, don't worry, I will do what I said, and he won't be transferred so easily. This place is very special. According to my observation just now, there will definitely be a battle tonight, so let's not Go join the fun."

what! Ah Cheng was stunned when he heard this. He had been observing the situation over there for the past few days. If he really wanted to fight, it wouldn't be so soon. That's where he got the news from.

"Captain Qin, even if they want to fight us, it doesn't seem to affect us much. We are mainly going to save our people."

"You don't think it matters much. Then in that situation just now, do you think you would take action to protect yourself? Once you take action, the nature will be different, but if you don't take action, you will really be hurt."

Several people were at a loss when they heard the big eyes and small eyes here, and they were willing to analyze it with them. Now if there is a fight over there, no one can get out at all, and martial law will be everywhere.

And it's not that easy to get in, so it's safest for them to be there now.

"Look at you guys, can you guys be on par with us? We joined in later, but you have been running around for the past few days. If you really don't have a good rest, you can't take responsibility for any problems later on. Take responsibility."

He walked over and patted Chang Lu on the shoulder, reminding him not to do that to other players, think about the two players who died before.

When Chen Ou heard what Qin Yuan had said, he could only nod his head in agreement, so everyone rested in place. This place is considered a peaceful zone, so there is no problem.

Li Erniu and the others were very relaxed, and the fire started after a while. He took out a few breads from his backpack and threw them to them.

"This is their local bread. It can be baked and eaten. It tastes good. Feel free to fill it up."

It is indeed a rare experience for a few people to sit by the fire and bake bread. After all, in a foreign country, many things can only be done according to the local laws and regulations.

"Don't think of others as this kind of disharmonious area, but the order that should exist is still going on. If we destroy it, many things will be magnified."

As the captain, Chen Ou is very aware of this. He is just worried about such an impact, so he has been cautious all the time.

"By the way, Captain Qin, I've always had a question. How did you know that they would definitely fight tonight? Do you have any gossip from anyone over there?"

"There is no such thing. This is the first time I have come to this country. I have never been here before, but I am just analyzing the situation on the surface."

Chen Ou was even more surprised when he heard this. This person was able to confirm that he could fight through these analyzes. Would it be a bit sloppy? polite.

What he said just now was very strong, but soon the feeling of exhaustion came from the body. They had been running around all day, and it was finally hard to rest in the middle of the night, so he didn't care about so much, just leaned down fell asleep.

Less than an hour after they fell asleep, the sound of gunfire came from a distance. He was awakened immediately, and he got up vigilantly and looked into the distance.

Dayong held the gun and subconsciously aimed directly. Qin Yuan asked him to calm down and not be so nervous. He only saw that the members of the red blood cell team were all looking in that direction, and Li Erniu turned over and continued to sleep with his hat on. .

"I said you guys don't make such a big commotion, isn't it just a fight? You said you are still far away, and continue to sleep."

Hearing this, Chen Ou completely admired the five-body projection. What this person said was so accurate. He would definitely beat him when he said he would hit him, and he was able to say when he hit him.

Qin Yuan explained very calmly, when they passed by those timely places today, they saw armed men heading towards that place continuously, and they were armed men in different clothes.

In addition to those people who escaped, the local people must know the specific situation at the first time, so they will make a choice immediately. If a large number of refugees escape from there, it is most likely that a fight will start soon.

Dayong was a little sentimental. He looked at the place full of gunfire, "You said how desperate the local civilians must be. Once there is a fight, those people will be the most injured."

"This is all normal. They can only live in this war-torn country, so it is the best choice for everyone to escape."

What Qin Yuan said was very calm, and it seemed that he was familiar with it. This place was just an example. It was like this in some other countries he had been to and participated in the battlefield before, including that he had also participated in peacekeeping missions.

"Don't think too much about it. Take a good rest now. There is very little we can do, but I can guarantee our safety and the safety of our people only if you are strong enough."

Qin Yuan added a few more sticks of firewood next to the fire, and the fire burst into flames in an instant. It was really a distance of several hundred kilometers, and the fire on the other side was so intense.

This war lasted until dawn, and Chen Ou couldn't sleep no matter what, he remembered what Qin Yuan said before, let them get used to it.

The sky was fully open, and after the sun rose, Li Erniu stood up, stretched, yawned and discussed with Qin Zhengyang next to him what he dreamed about last night.

"The gunfire last night was really intense. It made me feel like I was back in the Chinese New Year. I dreamed that my mother was making dumplings for me."

"Brother Er Niu, but the dumplings made by Auntie are really delicious. We will go to your house to eat after we go back."

"No problem. After this mission is over and we go back, let's go to my house to play. My house is now talking about a tourist development zone. It's pretty good. Everyone in the city has gone there to play."

Chen Ou watched their calm discussion from the side, wondering whether he was in the same space as himself, the fight was too intense yesterday.

Lying on the ground, he couldn't fall asleep at all. He could feel the intensity of that battle, and the whole earth shook.

Under such circumstances, he was a little surprised that the members of the red blood cell team were able to fall asleep peacefully. Compared to this side, all of his members had dark circles under their eyes and hardly slept much.

"Okay, everyone is ready, let's go now, I guess we won't be able to get a call until night, usually there won't be any big conflicts during the day, but we should pay attention."

After Ruan Yuan finished speaking, he patted the car door and got in the car directly. Several other people also went to catch up first. In this way, they passed through the small town ahead again. According to the instructions on the map, it was more than two hours away. That should be there.

Originally, Chen Ou thought that he was going to give up the car and walked from the back, but Qin Yuan felt that the car was still necessary. It would be too slow to rely on that kind of movement alone. He didn't mean that he was slow, but that Chen Ou That's too slow.

When passing through the town, Qin Yuan came directly to a shop. The boss looked nervous, but he was instantly relieved when he saw that it was a foreigner.

"Boss, bring us some sets of bulletproof vests, remember to get the best one."

This place sells some tactical equipment, but there are no guns. These guns are strictly controlled by the local armed forces, but there are some bulletproof vests and bulletproof equipment, which are used by local civilians to protect themselves. of.

It is sad to say that the boss wears two sets himself. Although life is relatively difficult, he still has to continue, and in this case he has to maintain his business.

Just when he was willing to choose, two more people came in behind to buy bulletproof vests, but the price offered by the boss was indeed quite high.

It should be a mother and daughter who came in. Both of them were wearing black veils, and they were constantly haggling with the boss, but the boss was obviously impatient.

"If you can't afford it, get out, don't delay my business here, do you know how high the price is now? It's the most merciful thing for me to sell you this price."

Qin Yuan listened to the price the boss was selling. If the mother and daughter were both of the most common bulletproof level, this one just means that long-distance shooting will have a certain bulletproof effect, and it will be useless if the distance is close.

The price the boss sells is indeed not very high. For two sets, the price on their side is about three or four hundred, but it is really very expensive for this mother and daughter.

In this war-torn place, everything is going up, and the price of this body armor is more expensive than rice.

Standing by the side, a slightly older woman tremblingly took out a handful of change from her pocket, and after counting carefully, there were only 170 yuan, begging the boss to sell her one.

Qin Yuan couldn't bear to see this scene, so he handed her the two sets of bulletproof vests he bought.

"Take it and use it, the others can't help you too much, I just hope you can be safe."

The woman was so moved that she thanked her with tears in her eyes, and the girl next to her bowed quickly. When Dayong and the others saw it later, they felt that Qin Yuan seemed to be so unkind sometimes, or that he might have had his own reasons for doing things before.

Anyway, they are all willing to give money, and the boss didn't say anything. To be honest, he really wanted to help, but in this situation, he is a poor person. How much can he help?

After paying the money, Qin Yuan and the others came out. Li Erniu felt a little disgusted with that vest, "This bulletproof vest is what we usually use in training. The lowest level, the boss even said that this is the highest level here."

"It's good to have this. If you think about their current domestic situation, it's good to have this. The rest are probably taken away by those militants."

Having said that, everyone understands, and they can only put it on to resist, but they don't have any weapons in their hands now.

After passing through the town, we drove more than 50 kilometers ahead, but the road leading to that place was completely cut off. The location has seen a steady stream of civilians running out of it and moving from the cut off place.

Qin Yuan looked at the situation, looked at the map again, there was indeed no road to go around for more than 50 kilometers, it was not too far, and their speed was still relatively fast on foot.

Chen Ou also walked down. If he continued to drive, the car would probably run out of gas. It seemed that he could only choose to go in on foot. As soon as they got down, they saw ordinary people climbing up from the bottom of the pit. Terrified and exhausted.

Everyone wanted to escape as soon as possible, only they were in the opposite direction. Just as Qin Yuan and the others were walking past, an old man stopped them.

"Young people, I don't think you should go to that place. It's really chaotic. Those militants don't care if you are foreigners or not. They kill everyone when they see you. It's an extreme attitude."

"Old man, don't worry, thank you for your reminder, we must be going to that place, but they should not care about it during the day."

"Although I said that, it's different at night. We finally escaped from that place, so I want to tell you."

After finishing speaking, the old man continued to walk forward. Qin Yuan took out some money from his pocket and put it in his hand. The old man thanked him repeatedly.

Chapter 1735: satellite positioning

Several people packed their equipment and followed Qin Yuan's footsteps. Just as they walked forward, they saw the long queue of refugees.

Like other people, when they just entered the country, those civilians who could escape belonged to other countries, of course they could go, but like these locals, they could find somewhere, which seemed to make people feel sad.

The line of refugees was endless, long men, women, old and young, and everyone's faces were full of worries, after all, they had just escaped from that place.

Everyone didn't speak a word along the way. It wasn't until half of the distance was gone that the team gradually became thinner. There were fewer and fewer people behind, and only a few people could be met here and there.

Li Erniu and the others are very fast. After all, their bodies have added merit points, and their speed and strength are far superior to ordinary people like them. Although Chen Ou and his team have also undergone special training.

However, their physical fitness is only higher than that of ordinary soldiers. Compared with the red blood cell team, it is really incomparable.

Dayong was already out of breath walking behind, he felt that he had used his fastest speed, but now no matter how he walked, he couldn't catch up, and there was still a big gap between them.

"Captain, what do you think is going on? Their speed is too exaggerated. They can go so far just like this. I feel that our speed is about the same, but they don't seem to be tired."

"I heard that he took the soldiers in the team to high-altitude areas and desert areas for special training. Maybe their physical fitness is different from ours."

Chen Ou can only use this explanation to explain the current situation, otherwise the gap between them would really make him feel very ashamed. They were supposed to be special teams with each other, and everyone still wanted to compare them.

But as such, nothing can compare to others. From the initial decision-making to the present, even basic hiking and cross-country can't compare.

Qin Yuan kept looking at his watch, then he stopped at a corner and motioned for everyone to go and have a rest. Li Erniu couldn't understand walking up.

"Brother Qin, I think we should speed up, and we will definitely arrive there after walking for more than an hour, so we might as well go over there and rest."

"No, I want you to rest. Look at Chen Ou and the others. They are already one or two hundred meters behind us. It is very difficult for them to walk now. They must rest for a while."

Dayong has never felt that the body armor and armor equipment on his body are so strenuous. To be honest, he really has the urge to take off all these things to reduce his burden.

But Chen Ou warned him that these things are to guarantee their final lives. Now they don't have any weapons, so they can only go there to see the situation. These things are the real guarantee.

After a few minutes like this, they finally arrived at the corner, only to see Qin Yuan and the others sitting there resting, and he hurriedly called the team members behind him to rest.

Ah Cheng couldn't care so much. He sat down on the ground. He was exhausted long ago. As the team's blaster, although his training is usually very heavy, he walked so fast and in such a hurry. After yesterday's Tossing and not sleeping well, he really couldn't hold on.

Qin Yuan also wanted to ease the embarrassment, telling them that everyone is tired, take a rest first, and then continue walking, and there is no rush.

After resting for about seven or eight minutes, Qin Yuan signaled everyone to continue walking. They had just set off when they heard gunshots from a distance. Hearing the gunfire was very intense, Qin Yuan immediately recognized the gun used.

"It doesn't sound like this location is far from us, it's only about three or four kilometers away, and you hear that besides the AK, there's also a Tom A4 submachine gun."

Chen Ou frowned when he heard this. Their trip was indeed too dangerous. This Tom a4 submachine gun has very strong penetrating power, and when the bullet hits, it presents a spiral wound, which is completely exposed.

Basically, after being hit, the bullet penetrates through and there is little possibility of being rescued. If it hits other limbs, it can only be amputated.

The main reason is that he doesn't have a weapon now, which makes him feel really uneasy. If he has a weapon, he can still resist. Now this situation makes him very passive.

"Captain Qin, I think this is the case. Otherwise, you are waiting for us here. I will take my team members to go in there first to check the situation. I will inform you to enter after the specific situation."

Qin Yuan was not very happy to hear this, what does this guy mean? I have taken care of him enough along the way, but he is still talking about something here.

"Captain Chen, I'm not quite sure what you mean. We've already promised to help you. You've been shrinking back. What's going on?"

"Don't get me wrong. I'm just worried that there will be danger inside. Originally, this matter is our own. I'm worried that it will cause other troubles for you, so it's better for us to go forward and have a look first."

"I think that as the captain, this is the most incompetent performance of yours. You see that your current team members are completely insufficient. What do you think will happen if you just step forward?"

Although Dayong was not convinced, he wanted to go forward to argue, but after thinking about it carefully, it seemed that this was indeed the case. They were short of manpower, and now they had no weapons. If they rushed forward to danger, they could not be sure about anything.

Chen Ou frowned when he heard this, but he really didn't want to bother Qin Yuan and the others, after all, they had helped enough.

"I'm really telling you seriously, I never regarded you as any pair here, especially in a foreign country, we are just people of the same way, we are on the same team no matter what, understand?"

Chen Ou was really moved by Qin Yuan's words. Before that, his thinking was a little too extreme. He always regarded Qin Yuan as an outsider. He forgot a problem. In this place, they are the only ones along the way.

Thinking of this, he also felt that what he said just now was a little too extreme, and he really wanted to apologize, so Qin Yuan waved his hand directly, telling everyone to continue to move forward, there is no need to say these things.

"Anyway, from now on, no matter if you lead the team or I lead the team, I only have one hope, and that is to bring everyone back safely, including those scientific researchers."

What happened this time is quite special. They cannot represent any position, which means they cannot do anything, especially not in the face of it. This will cause some other misunderstandings.

So this time their situation was very passive, and they could only carry out a quiet rescue. Everyone walked for more than an hour, and finally arrived at the place where the conflict broke out.

From this position, you can see that the town in front is full of gunpowder smoke, and you can smell the smell of gunpowder, which is very grand.

No civilians came out of it. It is estimated that because of the conflict that broke out just now, all those civilians returned home again, and everyone was worried about unexpected situations.

When Qin Yuan and the others arrived at the gate of the town, they heard the sound of horseshoes coming from a distance. He turned his head and saw a dozen horses running towards this side.

He hurriedly signaled everyone not to move around, and raised his hands. At this time, if you should admit that you are afraid, you should admit it, and you must never conflict with them.

Because they don't know which force it is, the power distribution in this place is too troublesome, and they don't know many things, so let's deal with it calmly.

Within a few minutes, the leader on a horse rushed over. He tore off the veil on his face and carefully observed the people in front of him. The horse kicked up the dust.

Qin Yuan raised his hand high, indicating that he did not have any malice. He communicated with these people in the local dialect, which he said several times.

The man in the lead glanced at Qin Yuan coldly, "Since you can speak our local dialect, who the **** are you? You speak so proficiently, do you belong to some force on our side?"

"Brother, don't get me wrong. We don't have any malicious intentions. We are from Yan Kingdom and we just want to pick up our compatriots. We don't want anything else."

The man in the lead originally wanted to gain some benefits from these people, and then search for clues by the way, but when he learned the identities of these people, to be honest, he flinched a little at this moment.

Just when he was struggling, a younger brother next to him stepped forward and whispered in his ear: "Brother, I think these people are sneaky, besides, there has already been a fight here, how dare they come here?" I think there are definitely ghosts in this place, don't let them go."

"I know this, but I just said that they are from the Yan Kingdom. Have you forgotten the explanation above? If you touch them, none of us will survive."

Qin Yuan also heard their conversation, and he slowly breathed a sigh of relief. Fortunately, these guys didn't want to fight. If there was a fight, he was worried about the safety of Chen Ou and the others.

However, after the man finished speaking, the little brother next to him shook his head, "Brother, think about it, now that the forces in the south have completely infiltrated, why do we care so much? Anyway, if we kill them, They don't know which force did it, so it's better to rob them."

This little brother is cruel, after all, in this place, these extremists are doing such deeds, and there is nothing moral about it.

When the man next to him was struggling, Qin Yuan suddenly took out his mobile phone from his pocket, and then gave an instruction.

"What the **** are you going to do? I advise you not to make any small moves in front of us."

Qin Yuan said that he did not have any malicious intentions, and just clicked on one of the pictures at random. The position of the picture was right here, and a red dot was flashing on it.

"Brother, I really don't lie to you, we are just here to pick up our compatriots, but we all have satellite positioning on our bodies, so if something goes wrong, our people will be responsible to the end."

Hearing that the man who was riding the horse just now was a little confused, he gave Qin Yuan a cold look. This guy actually has such advanced equipment.

Hearing what he said, although he felt a little unwilling, he had no choice but to give up, and left with the rest of the younger brothers, but he said a word before leaving.

"Now I let you go, but the next time I meet again, I will not be so lucky. Remember, it is very easy to kill you because of your identity. Let you Come to our land."

In fact, Qin Yuan already had killing intentions in his heart. These **** didn't care about the lives of those civilians at all, and killed them at will. It's just because of this regulation now, otherwise these guys in front of him would not be enough for him to deal with.

After a few people left, Dayong and the others put down their hands. At this moment, Chen Ou also stepped forward. He actually understood a little bit, and he judged the satellite positioning from Qin Yuan's body language just now.

"If Captain Qin already had this thing and you took it out, we can use it to find those scientific research experts, and there is no need to be so troublesome."

Qin Yuan smiled wryly when he heard this, it's fine for him to lie to those militants, why did Chen Ou still believe it?

"Do you really think I have that thing? This satellite positioning needs local support, otherwise we have no way to monitor it. Besides, we haven't reported it. Who do you think will support us?"

It's fine to lie to those who don't know the knowledge, but Chen Ou didn't expect to believe it. When he said this, his face turned red.

But no matter what, everyone came in smoothly. They had just entered the city. They looked around the streets, and the first thing they saw on the left was a half-ruined building.

That building is a small five-story building, and now it has been bombed to tatters, with clothes, shoes, and some daily necessities scattered everywhere.

The entire building was pierced through, and it could be seen that the things inside the Guan from the opposite side were clean, and was completely exposed.

It can be seen how fierce the battle was at that time. The building was already in a half-collapsed state, and the side walls had completely collapsed.

Some people's bodies could be seen faintly under the wall, which looked very shocking. They continued to walk forward, and just turned a street corner, they heard bursts of crying, and they followed the crying.

At the corner, I saw a woman wearing a black veil sitting on the ground, next to the corpse of a child, who was crying bitterly while hugging her.

This looked really tragic. Walking along the side, I saw many civilians, and they were all praying silently.

Everyone didn't want to have any more conflicts, and they didn't dare to mess around in this place, that's what happened.

Chen Ou, who was next to her, just wanted to go up to check on the woman's condition, but several people rushed out from the opposite side, and the woman was so frightened that she could only rush into the small alley next to her with her child in her arms.

Qin Yuan also noticed that the clothes of these people were completely different from those they met at the door just now.

Chapter 1738: deposit

Chen Ou turned around and found that other people were on the phone, trying to find a way, but the situation in their area is not optimistic.

He observed the foreigners who were also imprisoned here, and one of them cursed secretly, which he could understand.

What that person probably meant was that they had to pay to go out now. If they didn't pay, they didn't know how long they would be locked up here, and those militants would rush in at any time.

While he was observing that person, the man on the other side rushed over and grabbed him, which startled him. He reacted quickly, grabbed him, and directly crushed him under him.

"What the **** are you doing?"

The man quickly raised his hand, expressing that he did not have any malice, and kept shaking his head. Chen Ou saw that he was just an ordinary person, after all, he held him down easily.

This guy can't do many basic blocks. It seems that he has misunderstood, but in this chaotic place, facing a stranger who suddenly rushed over, he also reacted subconsciously.

The man next to him explained in English, which was the only language he knew, but fortunately Chen Ou could understand, "Don't get me wrong, I don't have any malicious intentions, I just want to inquire about the situation, my wife is still outside, I don't know what happened."

"Sorry, we can't help you either, and now we've been caught too."

"How is this possible? You are from the Yan Kingdom. You should not be treated differently here. You should be taken out by them."

Chen Ou shook his head, seeing that the man did not have any malicious intentions, so he told him the situation on his side. The man knelt down completely when he heard this, and he knew that there was no hope now.

By the way, Chen Ou also inquired about it, and only then did he know that it had been a week since the man was brought to this place, because there was no way to hand over the security deposit, which is what they called money, and he really experienced peace from the beginning to the present. It became a mess.

In the beginning, everyone thought that we should not be able to fight, but as time went by, the conflicts among those militants became more and more serious. If they really broke through this last line of defense, these local government forces would not care about it at all. them.

The man was very nervous grabbing his hair, and his eyes showed despair, because if he wanted change, he couldn't get it out now.

Chen Ou has no other choice, now he can only go back to He Chenguang's side, and everyone has been working together for a long time, let alone 300 yuan or 100 yuan, they can't get it together.

Seeing this, Li Erniu yawned, found a comfortable place, lay down directly, threw the hat under his body, and prepared to sleep on it.

Ah Cheng only felt that this guy was too big-hearted, it was all like this, and he still wanted to sleep here.

"I said, can you think of a way, now all of us have been caught, this ghost place, hurry up and think of a way, can we get out."

"I don't think you should bother. Don't worry, Brother Qin will come to find us. We have left clues. He will definitely find it."

Chen Ou just punched secretly and hit the opposite wall. Now he feels very aggrieved and unconvinced. Why should he know that there is a powerful motherland behind him? They can't do this.

In this way, Qin Yuan did not find too many clues until the next morning. He always had a bad feeling in his heart and planned to go back to have a look. Sure enough, when he returned to the previous courtyard, he found that the courtyard door was wide open. , which was in chaos.

But he didn't worry too much, he knew that He Chenguang and the others would definitely leave clues for him, so he searched everywhere.

I only saw some handwriting of Mohu carved out of stones on the pillar next to it. The clues on it were also limited. The approximate number of people was drawn with symbols. He Chenguang did not leave the specific situation. He could only explain These.

Qin Yuan hurried to the periphery, saw the shadow of the car, and some messy footprints, and it was indeed very easy to inquire about this place, except for the young men who were taken away.

Now in this town, most of them are old people, women and children. After dawn, many people came out to find some life outside.

At this time, Qin Yuan saw an old man worshipping next to him. He had found the wheel marks of the car before, but they disappeared completely at the back. The road here is very complicated, so he can only see if he can find it on the locals. Find any clues.

The moment the old man saw Qin Yuan, he subconsciously ran towards the outside, and Qin Yuan quickly stretched out his hand to hold him.

"Old man, don't run away, I'm not a bad person, I just want to ask you about the situation."

But the old man didn't care that he was on duty so much that he was willing to take money out of his hands, so the old man stopped. In this war-torn situation, the prices of their country rose wildly.

Although we know that we will die when we come out, we all have the same purpose, and we all want to see if we can find any opportunities, otherwise we will not be able to buy anything, and we will really starve to death.

Only then did the old man turn his head in fear, Qin Yuan asked him to relax first, absolutely without any malice.

"I just want to ask a few people in the yard over there, did you see it yesterday? Who took him? You just need to provide me with the news, and the money will be yours."

The old man was actually a little worried. He was worried that he would cause trouble, so he was struggling. At this time, Qin Yuan took out his backpack, which was full of compressed biscuits and some canned food. It is undoubtedly a life-saving straw.

"I can tell you, but you can't share my information with them. I just want to protect my family."

Qin Yuan nodded, and repeatedly assured that under the instructions of the old man, he also found the temporary garrison of the government army.

When he came to their door, he found that there was already a long queue at the door. The whole scene could be said to be noisy, and many people were arrested. These people came to pay bail, and there were various certified.

More importantly, there was an unexploded bomb stuck above the left side of the gate. The bomb was crumbling and looked shocking, but a cordon was simply pulled up around it to prevent people from passing.

This is indeed a little surprising. When I looked inside, I only saw a scrapped vehicle parked next to it. All the vehicles were covered with stalls, and the walls were also beaten up in a mess.

Just as Qin Yuan stretched his head to look inside, a heavily armed soldier came over, and he shouted loudly with a gun.

"Back back, back up, this is not something you should look at, back up to the back and line up!"

Qin Yuan took a look at the post-post situation, wait, if the queue is slow, then who knows what will happen, it will have to be queued until the evening.

Still the same sentence, money can turn ghosts, and it is more generous. In addition to money, there is a pack of cigarettes. Now cigarettes are a hard currency here, and many things cannot be bought.

Sure enough, when the soldier saw the thing with bright eyes, he walked towards him with a smile, and his attitude changed immediately.

After Qin Yuan gave him the benefit fee, the soldiers took him in first, which caused dissatisfaction among the people in the back line who kept clamoring, asking why he was allowed in?

The soldiers simply ignored them, cursed a few words, and then pointed their guns at the people around them and instantly shut their mouths. Qin Yuan could only lament that money is the hard currency in this place.

Qin Yuan's journey was very smooth, and he came directly to the office. As soon as he entered, he felt that the inside was even more chaotic. There were people everywhere who were typing certificates, and some were crying bitterly while holding the forms.

There were also people who were aggrieved by the side, and those who were dragged in the corner and beaten. The situation was too chaotic.

At this time, Qin Yuan also noticed a few people being imprisoned next to him. They were very obvious, and they were in the side cell. Just as Qin Yuan walked over, Chen Ou hurried over.

"Captain Qin, I'm very sorry. I caused you trouble again. I originally wanted to take care of them, but I didn't know that something like this happened."

"Stop talking about it, I'll find a way to get you out now."

While several people were talking, the translator came over again, followed by the officer who had negotiated with them before.

The officer was very disdainful, with an indifferent attitude, with a cigarette in his mouth, "It seems that there are still people outside."

When the interpreter was about to speak, Qin Yuan stopped him directly, and communicated with him in fluent local dialect. When he got there, the officer was a little surprised.

"What I'm more curious about now is why do you detain my people? You have to know that all our documents are legal."

The officer didn't expect that Qin Yuan would dare to question him, but after thinking about it, maybe it was because of his identity behind that he didn't dare to offend him directly, so he rolled his eyes and changed another statement.

"That's because they were there when we searched for a group of armed criminals. They must have colluded with those people. We also have direct evidence, so we can only arrest them first."

"Oh! Then tell me where your evidence is?"

"Sorry, I can't disclose this evidence to you, but as I said just now, if you pay a deposit, your innocence can be guaranteed, and I can let you go."

Qin Yuan cursed secretly in his heart, they are really a bunch of bastards, they can do anything for money, if they really colluded with those militants, are they just doing it for money?

Let people out casually, who will protect the people outside? These guys are really cannibals, but this is not a matter of their own area. Qin Yuan doesn't want to meddle too much, he wants to rescue his own people.

Just as he was about to take the money, Chen Ou yelled beside him.

"Captain Qin, you have to think about it clearly. You must not allow this kind of person to continue to develop. Look at what he means. It's all about money and getting used to it."

"Otherwise, do you think I have any other options? I can only use money to bring you out first. This is the rule of this place, and I have no choice."

"We can now contact the embassy, contact the local area, contact the other side to communicate with them, and let our Ministry of Foreign Affairs talk to them."

Qin Yuan only found it funny when he heard this. It seems that Captain Chen has never handled any international missions, so he speaks so arrogantly.

"Brother! Think about where this is. We wait for the Ministry of Foreign Affairs to wait for various approvals. We have to wait for them to negotiate after all the processing. They can cover us with any crime. Now money is the most important thing. Good solution, understand?"

Chen Ou still wanted to say something, but he knew that what Qin Yuan said was indeed reasonable. If this matter was made a big deal, it would be bad for them.

He was really not convinced by just giving the money to those guys like this, but Qin Yuan told him it was okay.

"Anyway, the money is not mine. I took care of a small armed group yesterday, but the money that was targeted at us before belongs to them. Use it as you like."

He said it so easily that Chen Ou doubted whether it was true, but seeing the backpack he was carrying, Chen Ou had to believe it.

300 per person is not a big problem for Qin Yuan, but when they came out, Li Erniu came to him and told him that the passport had not been returned.

"Brother Qin, these ***** have withheld our passports, and now we don't have any identification."

When Qin Yuan was asking for it, he just received money for a year, but the proud officer said, "Ah? I'm sorry, I didn't hear clearly. Don't you just want people? If you want a passport, you have to pay extra. " what! This is really despicable, no matter what it is, they can get money, and there is this kind of money collection, if you want a passport, you have to pay another time.

Chen Ou just felt very aggrieved, but Qin Yuan felt that it could be solved with money, so would try to solve it.

Qin Yuan quickly threw down a wad of money, and soon his passport was taken out from the side drawer, but the man was still greedily looking at Qin Yuan's backpack, but Qin Yuan didn't want to push forward like this again.

Fortunately, the man didn't take the next step, otherwise he would really do it directly. He urged Chen Ou to let them leave quickly. He always had a bad feeling.

Chen Ou was not fair, he felt that it was a loss to spend so much money, and these were government troops, he would definitely ask for an explanation later.

"Hurry up and get out first, see if he can use the money to leave alive!"

Qin Yuan pushed a few people while talking. They had just walked out, only to see a long queue outside, those people were very helpless, and they didn't have much money, so they could only line up, but the people inside were all some vampires.

"So how are you investigating now? Where should we go now?"

"It's still the same plan as before. Find a place to settle you up first, and then I will investigate. I only investigated a few clues before, but not many."

Chapter 1739: find clues

Chen Ou felt that there would definitely be a big problem if it continued like this, and the situation here was more serious than he had imagined.

"Captain Qin, I have always agreed with your plan before, but now I think we should discuss it carefully. Since the situation is so dangerous now, we really need to respond to our superiors, or at least send reinforcements."

"You have to understand, I don't mean that I want to stop you. Now that we are in this place, we should try our best to complete our work, and it is impossible for anyone to come to this place."

Qin Yuan knows very well that even if he wants to send that faction, it will be their special warfare team. He has never encountered such a difficult thing before. If he is really a completely open area, it will be even better. Unfortunately, his area is now It is also quite special, many things are in a state of semi-regular and semi-chaotic.

He is very clear that no matter who is sent here, he will be in this state. He will be better here, and Qin Yuan can bear his temper. He knows that now is not the time to quarrel, because of the quarrels of the few of them, the few people next to him He looked towards them.

Seeing the two captains arguing next to him, Ah Cheng muttered in a low voice, "It's all for fame, what's the big deal, I think safety is the most important thing now."

After going through all this, he felt that going back was the best choice now. They had sacrificed too much along the way, and it was really not worthwhile to continue to sacrifice or take risks for this matter.

Qin Yuan next to him didn't want to say anything more, but he couldn't bear it when he heard him say that, so he stepped forward and grabbed his collar.

"I don't know what you think, but I'm very sure that neither I nor my brother are doing it for that. If it's for this, then I won't care about your **** at all."

"I..."

Just when several people were arguing, a sudden powerful explosion sound came from a distance, and the shock wave generated by the explosion directly shook several people out.

With sharp eyes and quick hands, Qin Yuan grabbed the administrator next to him and told everyone to find cover quickly. Several people reacted quickly and quickly hid behind the cover. After the explosion, there was a burst of intense gunfire.

The civilians who were still queuing at the gate just now fled in fright, and there was chaos everywhere. Qin Yuan poked his head out slightly to look at the militants on the opposite side, drove two cars, and kept shooting at the gate just now. .

"These guys are really crazy. They don't care about the civilians around them. Look at how many people died in the explosion just now."

"We can't manage these things, let's go."

The battle on the opposite side was still going on, Qin Yuan asked everyone to leave first, at this moment, Chen Ou suddenly exclaimed, and he pointed at the militants who were shooting on the opposite side.

"It's not right, look at the sign hanging on that person's chest, it seems to be Ah Hu's."

The Ahu that Chen Ou said was the teammate who died with that Xiaomao before. In this way, the attention of several people was attracted by that side. Dayong was very sure that it was definitely Ahu's. One such sign.

"Damn, it seems that this guy should have something to do with them."

Dayong was still swearing, but Qin Yuan was ready to rush up. He turned his head and told a few people, "You guys don't move around, don't expose your identities. Now I can use it as a cover. I'll go up and find out first."

Chen Ou didn't understand what he meant at all. Now the fight outside was in full swing, and bullets were flying everywhere. He said he wanted to go out now, and he was unarmed. Isn't this a joke?

Qin Yuan wrapped the veil just now towards his face, only two eyes were exposed again, and he looked no different from the locals.

After finishing, he rushed up quickly, and Chen Ou also wanted to follow him to rush up and hold Li Erniu behind him tightly.

"Captain Chen, what are you doing? Our captain said very clearly just now, telling you not to move around, it will affect his plan."

"I think you are all a bunch of lunatics. What's the situation now? He said just now that he would take us back. Look at the guns outside..."

Before Chen Ou finished speaking, another explosion sounded, and the wall next to it was completely shattered. These buildings were already smashed to pieces, but now after such an explosion, they completely began to fall downwards.

Chen Ou and the others could only move quickly, and ran to the back of the car next to him. When he raised his head at this time, he only saw a militant on the opposite side who was very arrogant.

He was carrying a bazooka on his shoulder, and he was attacking the gate non-stop, and Qin Yuan's speed was extremely fast.

Quickly dodging to the side of the militant, Chen Ouxin had already raised his throat. He didn't know how this guy was going to deal with these people.

Following a burst of powerful explosions and smoke, Chen Ou felt ashamed, because he felt that Qin Yuan would definitely die. It was as powerful as a rocket head, and this guy rushed up directly, just messing around.

However, in the next second, Qin Yuan only saw that he had grabbed a gun in his hand, and then with a bazooka in his left hand, he shot towards a militant's vehicle on the side. The vehicle exploded in an instant, and the whole vehicle exploded on the spot.

At this moment, the government troops inside were also resisting non-stop. They fired fiercely towards the outside. Under this double suppression, the militants could not hold on.

The leader of the militants babbled and asked everyone to retreat quickly, and finally dropped a few incendiary bombs, and the whole street was ablaze.

Qin Yuan could only retreat for the time being, but he walked up to the vehicle just now and grabbed a person. This guy's leg had been blown off and he was crying non-stop.

After all, he doesn't want to hurt innocent people. There are too many civilians around here. The chaos just now caused these civilians to have nowhere to hide. These militants are likely to turn their targets on these civilians because they want to Retreating will only create more chaos.

Qin Yuan looked at several militants fleeing in the distance. It's such a pity, otherwise he would have wiped out all these guys.

At this moment, the militant whose leg had been blown up was dragged by him to the alley next to him. The battle had not yet completely passed, and the government army did not dare to come out rashly. Both sides were confronting each other.

The building next to it was already crumbling, and Li Erniu also hurried forward, seeing that the militant was **** and bloody, he also took a breath of air. This guy's thigh was blown off. not bad.

"This is not a place for questioning, hurry up and get out of here, otherwise it will only become more and more difficult in the future."

What he doesn't know is that Qin Yuan has been delivering treatment to that guy, otherwise this guy would have died a long time ago. Now Qin Yuan still has a lot of questions to ask him, so he can't let this guy die.

Just as Qin Yuan and the others left, the government troops inside also ran out pretendingly. They knew that they were not the opponents of these militants, and more importantly, the militants were fighting because of their own beliefs.

And these government troops don't have any big ideals, they just want to hold the last line of defense, as long as they don't break through, there will be no problem, so they don't come out until they leave completely, and the surrounding civilians face It was full of panic.

There was chaos on the street, and countless civilians who were injured or accidentally injured were killed and injured. There were screams everywhere on the street, and the officer just came out to check the situation outside.

A soldier ran over to report the situation to him in a panic, "Sir, the wall on our left side has completely collapsed. If this happens again, they will have nothing to stop us from attacking us next time."

"A group of idiots, then quickly repair it, lift all the sandbags next to it, and clean up all the cars around me to avoid a secondary explosion."

"yes!"

After receiving the order, the soldier turned around and ran towards the side, but after a while, he ran over to ask these civilians what to do. After all, the streets were full of injured civilians.

"I asked you to repair the wall, not to deal with those damned civilians. You don't need to take care of these things, soldiers?"

Although the soldier felt shocked and puzzled, he had no choice but to carry out the order, while the civilians could only watch the government soldiers pass by them.

This is the cruelty of this place. No one can save anyone, only oneself is strong. At this moment, the officer seemed to change his mind. He smiled slightly and turned his head to look at the civilians who fell on the ground.

"Everyone listen to me now, we can guarantee everyone's safety, but everyone must pay 500 US dollars as our protection fee, how about it? If someone is willing, then we will bring you in immediately."

This guy is really too despicable, he is completely in a state of taking advantage of the fire, their own duty is to protect civilians, but at this time they are sitting on the ground and raising prices.

During this period, some people did have this economic strength. In order to survive, there was no way, because no one knew whether those militants would fight again.

So some people chose to compromise, and those who were injured and had no money could only wait outside silently to die.

The situation here is so chaotic. On the other side, Qin Yuan, the militant they took away had a rag stuffed in his mouth, because this guy was cursing all the way, which easily exposed them.

Qin Yuan threw him directly on the ground, then stepped on his injured leg, and the guy screamed.

"Enough, I endured you all the way just now, in this place, no one will notice you no matter what you call!"

"You guys kill me, I won't say anything, I will always be loyal to our leader."

This guy is really a crazy person, Dayong couldn't bear it long ago, he rushed forward and grabbed the sign hanging on this guy's chest.

"You bastard, now you tell me where you got this thing from, and where you took people?"

The militants couldn't understand what Dayong said. He just smiled sinisterly and didn't intend to tell any truth. However, his eyes widened in the next second, because Qin Yuan's knife had directly pierced his throat. .

Qin Yuan seemed very calm about all this. Ah Cheng was so calm when he saw Qin Yuan directly killing someone in front of them. Although he was an extreme militant, it was too fast.

They haven't asked a lot of news yet, which makes Chen Ou a little broken. He doesn't know what Qin Yuan is going to do, but in the next second, Qin Yuan just wiped the blood on the knife, and then asked everyone to take off his equipment .

"Okay, I already know where those researchers are."

The members of the red blood cell team have long been accustomed to this matter, and silently packed up their equipment. Qin Yuan told them that it is definitely not enough to rely on themselves now, and they must also change into local costumes. The only requirement is not to expose themselves identity of.

Chen Ou's mind was full of questions. He didn't know what Qin Yuan was talking about. He didn't ask anything. How did he know the location of those scientific researchers?

"You guys are waiting here now. I'll get you weapons, clothes and equipment. Then, disguise yourself well. Since you've endured to this extent these days, you don't have to bear it anymore after you're born. I'll take you out."

After Qin Yuan finished speaking, he didn't have any chance to explain to them at all, so he jumped onto the fence, then turned and left.

Chen Ou and the others were dumbfounded. They didn't know what was going on. Seeing their worried faces, He Chenguang stepped forward to explain to them.

"You don't have to think too much. Our captain is very measured in doing things. He will be deeply hypnotized. He should have been hypnotized just now. The militant has already understood the real situation."

what! Dayong opened his mouth wide when he heard this, This is absolutely impossible, that guy has been in their sight from the beginning to the end, how could he be hypnotized, and when did it happen ?

"How could we lie to you, don't worry, we have long been accustomed to this matter, and if you want to press, that guy will not tell the truth. This is what our captain is best at, and no one can compare."

Chen Ou's team was shocked when they heard it. Qin Yuan's ability is too strong. Let's not talk about it. Let's just say that he rushed into the battlefield alone just now, directly reversing the whole situation.

Chen Ou felt that what he, the captain, had done was too much of a failure. On the contrary, he looked at his ability and ability, and made decisions decisively.

If he hadn't experienced these things himself, he would never have imagined that Qin Yuan's power is too strong, and he can really represent a small team by himself.

The members of the red blood cell team have long been accustomed to this kind of chaos, and soon there were fierce gunshots outside. Dayong was a little nervous, so he stood up quickly and took a vigilant posture.

Chapter 1740: start to act

Qin Zhengyang yawned, and then threw him a compressed biscuit, telling him not to be so nervous, but it was such a small movement that frightened him.

"What is this guy doing? Didn't you hear? The fighting outside is so fierce, will they come in?"

Qin Zhengyang was very indifferent, he said that the gunshots were at least one kilometer away from their place, but it was because there were all small alleys here, so the transmission direction was very close.

"Besides, what are they doing here for no reason? This is a residential area, don't worry, they won't come here easily, and they will only hit targeted ones if they want to."

"How can you be so sure?"

"Because we have experienced it before. I can't remember how many times we have experienced this situation when we participated in international missions."

When Qin Zhengyang said this, he was very relaxed. He took a bite of the compressed biscuit, and Li Erniu threw him a pot of water.

"You brat is showing off again, come here and be honest, get a good night's sleep, you won't be able to sleep later, we have big things to do."

Qin Zhengyang smiled, walked over and found a random place to lie down, the sound of guns and guns outside became more and more intense, and various weapons could be heard mixed together, the powerful explosion sounds like an A4 grenade .

There are also the sound of many buildings collapsing, and the smell of gunfire can already be smelled at this position, and the smell of scorching has already passed.

Under such circumstances, Chen Ou and the others definitely couldn't fall asleep. He looked at several members of the red blood cell team, Wang Yanbing was lying on the corner of the wall, and was in charge of standing guard, and the others were sleeping soundly.

Seeing this, Chen Ou couldn't help feeling a burst of emotion in his heart. He didn't know what these people had gone through to be so calm.

Before in China, he always felt that the reason why the red blood cell team was so good was because of the effectiveness of the leadership. The leaders above paid too much attention to them, and they exaggerated whatever they did. He always felt that these things were a bit bragging.

Now, after he had real contact with them, he realized that their real level was really a few blocks behind them, and it was no problem to participate in these international missions, especially Qin Zhengyang.

Qin Zhengyang was the youngest among the few of them, but he had more experience than them. He was still so calm and could easily determine the specific location.

This made him feel a little ashamed. Just as he was struggling, He Chenguang who was sleeping on the opposite side opened his eyes.

"Captain Chen, take your people to sleep for a while, or else we won't be able to sleep when our captain comes back. We have to follow him closely. We haven't had a good rest these days, and we won't be able to come back when the time comes Even the best is troublesome."

"To be honest, it's not that we can't sleep, but that the artillery fire outside is so intense, how did you manage to sleep?"

"It's normal for you to not get used to it at first, don't worry, you will get used to it later, and force yourself to fall asleep."

Chen Ou smiled helplessly. He didn't mean to force himself to fall asleep. He always felt insecure. After all, he was in a place where there was a war, and he really couldn't fall asleep.

He Chenguang told him confidently that he must trust his teammates, they all unconditionally believe that their teammates can guarantee safety.

"With my teammates around, even if I'm in the trenches, I'm fine, I can sleep."

Chen Ou admired this very much, not because he didn't believe in his own people, but because he was more willing to believe in himself under such circumstances.

Anyone will be sloppy sometimes, especially when he looked at Dayong next to him and Ah Cheng, his two players were too weak in terms of experience.

In the end, he was so sleepy that he couldn't stand it anymore, so he fell into a deep sleep, but he still heard the sound of the gunfire in a daze, and the fighting outside was very intense.

After an unknown amount of time, he heard Dayong who was next to him suddenly yell, but he just yelled and was immediately crushed under Li Erniu's body.

"Why are you screaming all of a sudden? Do you know that this will easily expose us! Just let you stay here."

Li Erniu watched Dayong's terrified eyes slowly recede, and then let go of his hand, but he threatened again: "Warning you boy, you'd better stop screaming, don't kill me all."

"No, something suddenly fell on my head just now, I thought it was a shell."

Dayong spoke very seriously, and several people beside him burst into laughter. Li Erniu walked over and picked up a stone, "Is this the cannonball you mentioned?"

When he said this, Dayong's face turned red instantly, he didn't know how he misunderstood this, he must have fallen asleep.

But He Chenguang said that this is a normal phenomenon, they just started here, and they will encounter any situation, because the artillery fire outside is too intense, so stones and leaves will fly over.

The artillery fire basically didn't stop that night, and the fighting outside was fierce. Chen Ou and the others were all in a daze until a figure jumped in at dawn.

I only saw two large backpacks on Qin Yuan's body. After Li Erniu opened them, apart from basic tactical equipment, they were guns and weapons.

"Everyone put on local clothes first. There are too many militants in this place, and conflicts will not easily occur between them, unless it is defined where they want to attack?"

"Then where do we go after we change into our costumes now?"

"I'll take you to the researchers, pick them up, and we're going to leave. I've investigated everything, so let's go."

Chen Ou didn't delay either, everyone changed into local clothes, and they would be like Qin Yuan in the future, only showing two pairs of eyes, so that they really couldn't tell the difference.

He is very shocked now, Qin Yuan is too powerful, to be able to get guns and weapons in such a war-torn area, if it were him, there must be no way to do it.

Under the leadership of Qin Yuan, everyone came out. After a night of fighting outside, there were dilapidated buildings everywhere, which looked even more shocking. Some steel bars had been completely exposed outside.

When they came in from the side, they remembered that there was a row of cars parked, and now all the cars were burned into empty shells.

This is the first time Ah Cheng has personally experienced such a war. Everyone lowered their heads and moved forward cautiously. Chen Ou felt that there would be no conflicts along the way. After all, Qin Yuan just said that there would not be too many militants. conflict.

However, Qin Yuan fired directly at the intersection, and Chen Ou also shot subconsciously, but before he fired the bullet, the people in front had already been dealt with, and the red blood cell team cooperated very closely.

"Six o'clock direction is safe!"

"Solution at 10 o'clock, safe!"

Listening to their report, Chen Ou felt a little guilty. He obviously asked them to help, and he completely became their home field. In comparison, his ability is really not good.

Qin Yuan patted him on the shoulder and told him to relax, as long as he followed a few people, he could cooperate with them, and this time there were fewer militants.

"Captain Qin, didn't you just say that these militants would not attack suddenly? Then why did you shoot?"

"They will definitely not attack each other, because they have the local code of the car. I don't know the specific situation, but in order to ensure our safety, I can only do this."

Moreover, these militants themselves have done all kinds of bad things, and they can be regarded as doing justice for the heavens, so everyone shuttled all the way.

There were no militants on the road ahead. After the fierce battle last night, it was relatively good. Everyone went back to rest, so they took this opportunity to move forward.

After walking for more than two hours, they walked through the streets and alleys, shuttled non-stop during this period, and finally came to a dilapidated building.

Qin Yuan lay on top of the building and looked at the situation on the opposite side, "See, that's the place we're going to, and the scientific researchers were brought there by them, and they turned it into a small base. I don't know the specific situation, just knowing that they brought people in, the militants on the periphery couldn't ask any questions."

Hearing what he said, Chen Ou also looked in that direction with his binoculars, only to see that there were a lot of civilians mixed in that building complex, and there were a few armed men in the middle, and they were carrying guns. patrol.

And those civilians seem to have been used to it for a long time, this looks like a small tribe.

"How can you be sure that our researchers are in there?"

"See those tents? They're all in there. I don't know what they're doing, but I'm pretty sure they're there."

Seeing that Qin Yuan was very sure, Chen Ou didn't say anything more, but there were civilians all around, and those militants were all mixed in, if there was a fight, it would definitely hurt innocent people.

Just as Chen Ou was thinking, Qin Yuan was ready, and the gun in his hand was already checking the bullets.

"Captain Qin, what do you mean? Are we going to call in directly?"

"Otherwise, what do you think? You have been trained, you should know how to do it, as long as you don't reach the common people, can't you do it? Can't you even do the most basic thing?"

Chen Ou also felt a little ashamed to be said so. Yes, he is not in China and should not consider those rules. In this place, they must first ensure the safety of their scientific researchers.

Qin Yuan looked at He Chenguang and Li Erniu. As snipers, they were going to cover and retreat. The others began to charge. After the tactics were arranged, everyone started to act.

Li Erniu was very calm while eating the beef jerky, "Chenguang, let's compare and see who kills more people today."

"No problem, if whoever loses, whoever gets back a month's worth of socks."

"Brother Er Niu, it's too unfair for you to do this. We didn't participate in it. How about we compete together?"

"Go away, you stinky boy, why are you here to join in the fun, hurry up and follow the captain's footsteps, or be careful that he kicks your ass."

Chen Ou listened to them in the headset and they still had the time to joke around in this situation. This was simply too exaggerated. For him, he was really nervous. At this moment, he turned his head and saw Dayong.

Dayong was also very nervous, his movements were a little slow, and he followed closely behind him. Compared with Qin Yuan, they had already rushed to the front.

Several militants were sitting by the fire, preparing to make breakfast. At this time, a burst of gunfire came, and the militants who were still talking just fell down.

Several members of the red blood cell team cooperated with each other and quickly dealt with the militants in front. Chen Ou also quickly stepped forward to deal with the people on the side. Relatively speaking, he could still keep up.

Under such circumstances, Qin Yuan was still free, turned around and gave him a thumbs up as encouragement.

Li Erniu and the others attacked the heavy machine gunners next to them and the snipers on the side from the commanding heights.

"Hahaha, their sniper is too good. He was hidden in that position. I saw his position at a glance."

They talked very easily, just like playing a game. At this time, Ah Cheng was desperately following behind, so he could only keep replenishing his guns. At this time, the militants also started to fight back.

This place looks small from above, but after entering, the house is still relatively large, mainly consisting of messy buildings, temporary tents, and various things mixed together.

Because of the sudden fight, the civilians kept running, and Ah Cheng just turned a corner when he met a woman. The woman was terrified and watched him keep retreating.

He subconsciously explained that he didn't have any malice, and he would definitely not choose to hurt civilians. At this time, the woman suddenly approached him, showing a very scared expression.

Ah Cheng instinctively wanted to protect the civilians in front of him, but the next second the woman was headshot directly in front of him. He turned his head in horror and saw that the direction of the shooting turned out to be He Chenguang.

At this moment, Ah Cheng's face was covered with blood, and he yelled at the other side in disapproval: "What are you doing, bastard? Can't you see it? She's not a militant, she's a civilian. Are you blind?"

He Chenguang just said calmly in the headset: "Calm down, look at where her hands are, and what's on her body, you brat, you kindly helped me and bit me back."

Ah Cheng was dubious when he heard this, he squatted down to check, but he didn't expect that the woman had a bomb strapped to her body, and there was a pistol pinned to her waist. If it wasn't for He Chenguang, he might be a corpse now.

"Remember, don't sympathize with people you shouldn't sympathize with. Anyone in this place will become your enemy. How do you think these militants came from? They came from these civilians."

Ah Cheng couldn't react from the previous shock for a long time, he wiped the blood from his face, and sat down completely paralyzed by the side.
