

Special Soldier 1751

Chapter 1751: access to gas base

It was not easy for so many people to disappear collectively, and soon they found other traces. There were signs of a helicopter staying by the wall outside the village.

The surrounding grass is completely in a lodging state. This is because the wind brought by the large propeller after the helicopter landed all the grass was blown down.

There are traces of the bus on this side. It seems that all of them have been transferred away. The current militants are members of the Black Hawk organization, and they don't know the true identity of Qin Yuan and the others.

For the sake of safety, they all evacuated. Doing this also increased the difficulty of their actions. Qin Yuan originally wanted to find these militants and deal with them directly, but he didn't expect things to become more and more difficult now.

Just when Qin Yuan was thinking about what to do, Hall came over. It was rare for him to be so active. Before, his basic cooperation required threats from Qin Yuan and the others, but now he started to actively cooperate.

"There is nothing we can do now. We can only go to the natural gas base over there. They will definitely go there to take action. There we must prevent the outbreak of this action."

Qin Yuan was not at ease with this person. Before he could speak, Qin Zhengyang pushed him away, "I don't even know how cruel you are. If you say betrayal, you betray your previous organization. People like you, we I can't believe it!"

Hall's voice suddenly increased, "I repeat, I am not doing it for myself, I just want to protect my family, my family is all there, you will definitely not let go like this, then I will cooperate with you, but I just want to protect my family."

Hearing what he said, Qin Yuan felt that what this guy said made sense. At this time, he really only wanted to make his family well, and he didn't want to say anything else.

However, he should be able to communicate with the military stationed there, but this time it is a cross-border operation after all. He still made a phone call to report to the higher-ups and asked the upper-level people to communicate with the leaders over there. Look at the results of their waiting for communication.

Just like this, a few people first found a place to live, and this area was completely like a dead city. Qin Yuan felt that if those guys came back later, so they all stayed in this place, maybe they could find some clues.

They lived in the place where Hall's family lived before. They didn't bring many things with them because they went out too hurriedly. They went to the inner room and took out a photo.

On the photo was a blond woman with two young children beside her, and an old woman sitting on the seat, which was his mother.

Hall looked at these photos in a daze, no matter what, he must save his family, and he didn't want to continue to be such a puppet.

The area was very quiet until the middle of the night, there was no movement, and the results of the communication at work did not come, so everyone could only wait until noon the next day.

Hall couldn't wait any longer. He was worried about those guys. If the plan was advanced, if something went wrong, his family would have no way to survive.

"You believe me now, let me communicate with them, I am quite popular here, you must believe me."

"I'm sorry, you don't have any right to speak now. Sit down first. I said before that I want to protect your family. Even if it breaks out in the end, I will protect them well."

Although Hall was in a hurry, seeing Qin Yuan's attitude, he couldn't fight, couldn't fight, couldn't talk, so he could only sit by the side helplessly.

As time passed by, Qin Yuan couldn't sit still anymore, after all, tomorrow is the day to hand over the natural gas.

If he doesn't act anymore, it will be too late. Qin Yuan plans to wait for more than an hour. If he can't, he will act on his own tonight, and he will use his own way.

After more than ten minutes, I finally received a communication call from the leader above, but the news on the phone was not good. They said that the communication was invalid, and their side does not take the initiative now.

They must be very cautious in their words, and they must not reveal their goals. They can only say that they can find a way to see if they can delay the delivery of natural gas, but they are obviously unwilling. They don't know that there is such a conspiracy.

It all ended in failure. The time is still tomorrow, and there is no way here, but they have also prepared a way to deal with it. The natural gas can be delivered normally, and when it arrives.

They will not set off according to the original route, and try to drive in desert areas to reduce casualties and ensure that nothing goes wrong.

After hearing this, Li Erniu and the others felt that this was too unreliable. Although it was better than the previous plan, it was also very risky to ask the driver to drive the car out.

"Brother Qin, this can't be cheap, these bastards, now we know how they are going to target us, but is there really nothing we can do? Sitting like this is too aggrieved."

"So I decided to use my own method. No matter what, I won't let us suffer. Since the upper side can't do it, then we will conduct a secret operation and remember to do all the camouflage so that they cannot recognize us. "

At this time, he looked at Hall, "Okay, now as you wish, you can assist us, but all I want you to do is delay the time, and leave the rest to me."

Hall was a little surprised, he didn't know what Qin Yuan was going to do, he could actually discuss it on his side, and then completely delay the time, there was no need to make such trouble, but Qin Yuan thought differently from him.

When he asked again and again, Qin Yuan directly interrupted him, "You have to pay attention to your own identity, I didn't treat you as one of our own, what are you now? Whatever I ask you to do, just do it honestly Do!"

Hall nodded. He understood that the current situation is very embarrassing. He is nothing, and it was his own prayer that they promised to guarantee his family. Qin Yuan is an unfathomable person, and he does not know where he came from. here.

Qin Yuan called Long Xiaoyun, they had no choice but to go back, and Long Xiaoyun had just arrived at the brigade.

There was also a very bad news from her side. The action in Xiaomao country really failed. Everything was going according to their plan, but there was a deviation in Xiaomao country.

When they were arresting the criminal organization of the Black Hawk, they let the leader of the organization escape, and the people they caught were just the little guys below, without any interrogation value, and now there is no news.

Speaking of this, Long Xiaoyun was really angry. This time he acted really aggrieved. He could obviously act on his own, but there were restrictions everywhere.

"We also accidentally involved two team members this time. By the way, I haven't told you that Chen Ou is also injured, but he has now been transferred to our military hospital."

"What's going on? How could he be injured? Didn't he go back with those three researchers?"

Long Xiaoyun explained on the other end of the phone that this was indeed the case, but he regretted it when he got on the plane. He felt that he wanted to stay and act with Long Xiaoyun and the others, and he wanted to avenge his team members.

Long Xiaoyun really couldn't hold him back, so he could only agree with him to stay, and Chen Ou was indeed capable enough to help, when they found out that the base of the criminal organization was preparing to report there.

The guards found out. Chen Ou struggled with the guards to prevent everyone from being exposed, and was stabbed in the thigh.

"But don't worry, the problem is not very big. Now he is receiving treatment. I said this to remind you. Since we are going to work and let us not care about this matter, I hope you can also obey the arrangement."

Long Xiaoyun knew what the above meant. They were in an embarrassing situation. If they wanted to make a move, they would be completely exposed. First, they had to explain why they went to that country.

What is the purpose? Others will not listen to their explanations. After all kinds of censorship, it is easy to provoke a war between the two countries, and it will be directly used by criminals.

Regarding Long Xiaoyun's persuasion, Qin Yuan just promised that he would not mess around, and he would definitely deal with it anyway.

But after hearing his answer, Long Xiaoyun knew that this guy must be busy doing things above, if not, he would have said he would come back straight away.

"No matter what, you and the red blood cell team should pay attention to safety, and I will help you explain how to explain later."

Qin Yuan nodded, and then hung up the phone. He has sat down now and decided that no one can stop him.

He led the team to set off immediately, and soon came to the natural gas transmission base. This place is indeed heavily armed, and the positions on the side are all local soldiers, and the weapons they use are also very advanced.

"Brother Qin, from the looks of it, their guards are still very strict, and it's not so easy for those militants to succeed."

"I think you guys are thinking things too simply. Look at the weapons in those guys' hands. What is this place? It's full of natural gas below, and it will explode immediately under any circumstances, so this is also restricting them. action."

Having said that, everyone has noticed this problem. As for the militants, they don't think about it at all, so their attacks are all carried out. In this case, they can be caught off guard.

Hall still doesn't understand what Qin Yuan is going to do, he just came to this place in a daze, Qin Yuan suddenly waved.

"Don't worry about anything else. You just need to remember what I tell you to do, and you will do it. You go to communicate with them and say that militants will come to attack this side."

what! Hall's eyes widened. Didn't this push him to a corner? If others found out that it was the organization he betrayed, his family would definitely be killed.

"How do you think they would know? And these people don't know that you are in collusion with the militants. Don't worry, if I find the headquarters of the militants later, I will definitely rescue your family."

Qin Yuan seemed to be discussing with him, but actually threatened him directly. Hall sighed, he had no choice but to do this now.

Hall reluctantly got out of the car. But the sentries in front seemed to be familiar with him, and they didn't stop him, so he just walked to the front.

After communicating for about ten minutes, Hall beckoned to talk in person, because Qin Yuan told him that as long as he told the people here that they belonged to the security group, he came to cooperate with them specially.

After Qin Yuan passed by, Hall shook his head, saying that the plan had failed, they didn't need the security group at all, and said they could handle it by themselves.

"They didn't really believe what I said, but they said they would be ready, but they wouldn't let us in. I really tried my best, you have to believe me."

"Then do you have other ways to get in now? Since you can't go here, you just need to find a way to send me in, and leave the rest to me."

Hall was also thinking of a way, after a long time, he said yes, for the safety of his family, he could only risk everything, "I can send you in, but what you promised me must be done number."

"Don't worry about this, as long as I promise, I can do it."

That night, a vehicle filled with beer swaggered into the natural gas base. The sentry at the gate saw that it was Hall, and didn't hesitate too much. After all, he also had these transactions with the internal executives before.

Qin Yuan and the others managed to sneak in like this. After entering, Hall was very nervous. There were also a lot of sentries here, and he didn't know what Qin Yuan wanted to do.

According to the information they received before, these militants will take action tomorrow, because tomorrow is the time for the regulation of natural gas litigation transactions.

Qin Yuan asked Hall to leave immediately after delivering the wine, and he could wait for them nearby, and when everything was over tomorrow, he would go back with the remaining militants.

Hall felt a little apprehensive. Seeing Qin Yuan and the others disappear into the darkness, he could only unload the wine and leave directly.

At this time, Qin Yuan took Li Erniu, and they sneaked into the dormitory on the side. After a few minutes, he already understood the situation on duty here.

Now we only need to solve the first few points around the natural gas pipeline, here is the most critical point, and it will definitely be attacked tomorrow.

So they need to disguise themselves as the guards here, and wait for tomorrow, but it's not the time yet. Qin Yuan is worried that other things will happen at night, so he plans to wait until dawn before acting.

In the darkness, several people hid under the natural gas pipeline, not daring to let out the atmosphere, and there were patrolling guards everywhere.

When the sky just dawned, the guards on duty here had changed a batch. It was at this time that the people on the other side had just left. Qin Yuan and the others quickly pretended to come out from under the pipe, and the guards were caught off guard.

Chapter 1752: perfect solution

The speed is very fast, and people's vigilance is the lowest at this time, because they are in a very tired state when they have just changed shifts, and the people who come to change shifts have just woken up and are very unconscious.

After these people were uniformed and dragged to the corner in an instant, Qin Yuan asked them to change their clothes quickly. After doing all this, another half an hour later, an officer came to inspect the situation, and he just took a look at the situation. After confirming the number of people, he walked inside.

Qin Yuan told everyone to be prepared, those militants will definitely come to attack, what they have to do is to protect the pipeline, after all they want to attack directly, and then mix things into the natural gas.

The waiting time was tormenting, and Hall outside was also feeling uncomfortable. He was feeling very upset and didn't know what to say.

He couldn't imagine that he would hand over the lives of his family to an outsider, and he had never met this person several times, and he didn't even know his specific origin.

But he has no choice now, and he is worried that if there is any change in the organization and the plan here is not implemented at all, then all his arrangements will be in vain. He has not reported to the organization until now, and he does not know the details of his family. what will happen.

Just when he was worried, he suddenly heard a roaring sound from a distance, and he immediately hid in the earth wall below. He knew that this was the organization's attack, and he had seen that weapon before.

At this time, Qin Yuan, who had quick hearing, had already noticed it. He asked everyone to get ready. The guard at the door noticed something was wrong, and several drones flew from high altitude.

When they were about to aim and shoot, the drones took the lead in attacking, and missiles hit them one after another.

The soldiers in front counterattacked quickly, and at this time the soldiers in the base could only quickly raise the protective cover. After all, there is natural gas underneath. If there is any problem, then this place will become a sea of flames.

The soldiers on the outermost perimeter were soon unable to resist the attack, and the real person didn't see it, only saw that the drone went to a place where there was really no armor left.

The soldiers at the back could only rush out to fill their seats inside. They couldn't shoot at all. If they fired, even a little spark would cause problems here.

Qin Yuan took Li Erniu and they also rushed out with these teams with their guns. At this time, no one cared about anyone else, and they all attacked the people outside, and those militants also rushed in by taking this opportunity. Ten vehicles rushed towards the base with yellow sand.

Those militants kept clamoring. They felt that I must have won this time. After all, they held this super weapon in their hands. Soon, the front protective cover was completely shattered.

Seeing that there was a problem with the protective cover, the leader of the militants who took the lead asked his subordinates to start controlling the drone and let the range of the drone retreat to the back. They were also worried that it would completely destroy this side.

"Hahaha, this thing really works. Remember to kill everyone who occupies the natural gas pipeline immediately after entering."

The orders given by this guy were very fierce, and the soldiers were caught off guard by them. Coupled with the support of drones, soon, most of the soldiers who rushed out of the base fell down.

The leader of the militants was about to break through, and he led his men to start heading in. However, just as he was proud, you ran out of bullets and hit him directly on the shoulder. He looked forward in disbelief, and the next second A bullet hit him directly in the head.

He didn't know the enemy's direction at all. Seeing that his boss had been killed, his subordinates hurriedly searched for the target and set up the machine gun on the car. However, a bullet hit the fuel tank of the car, and the fuel tank instantly ignited. The whole car exploded.

Under the suppression of this kind of firepower, Qin Yuan and the others rushed forward quickly, and now they can only pretend to be soldiers on the ground, and deal with these militants first.

In this way, under the suppression of Qin Yuan and the others, the militants had completely lost the upper hand. Li Erniu lay on the commanding heights with a sniper rifle and shot down all their drones. It's just a matter of familiarity.

The situation on the field turned in an instant, and Hall was the one who could witness the entire battlefield at this moment. He huddled in the corner of the wall and did not dare to move. An iron bucket was placed in front of him, blocking his figure.

Unexpectedly, Qin Yuan's strength was too strong, relying on the perfect cooperation of the few of them, they were able to completely suppress the main force of their organization.

Qin Yuan immediately sent a signal, and several people immediately understood that the militants were about to retreat. They quickly put on their veils and chased in the direction of the militants.

The remaining militants are now leaderless, and the bosses are all dead, so they can only start to retreat towards the outside.

When they came, there were more than a dozen off-road vehicles, but now they were in a panic when they fled. Some militants even left their guns behind. Qin Yuan and the others chased after them, and now they have completely left the range of natural gas.

Li Erniu drove the motorcycle to the side of the iron bucket and grabbed Hall.

"No! What are you going to do? I have already cooperated with you very well. I have done everything you asked to do. Do you still want to do something to me?"

"Stop talking nonsense, aren't you going to save your family? Follow us now."

Hall was a little dubious, but he still followed Li Erniu on the motorcycle. Qin Yuan could say that his speed was enough to catch up with these militants, but at this moment, he walked them deliberately like walking a dog. .

"Remember that you are not behind, don't chase too closely, kill a few people casually, and leave a few alive to lead the way."

After Qin Yuan finished speaking, he accelerated the speed of the car and rushed directly behind the car of a militant. The militant was very anxious, and the people in the car also quickly fought back, but they were not Qin Yuan's opponents at all, and Qin Yuan just quietly They put a tracker in the car.

He took care of the few militants next to him, and the rest would just run away desperately, because their numbers have been decreasing, and his attacks on the people behind him simply couldn't hit them.

At this time, a huge wound appeared on the forehead of the militant in the car, and the people in the co-pilot were constantly attacking the people behind.

"Kuck, what's going on? Why is it different from the information we received before? Didn't it mean that the soldiers on duty there are not so strong?"

"How do I know that the boss and the captain are all dead now, and we are the only ones who don't know if we can escape."

I don't know if this guy lost his accent or what, he quickly shot the tire of Qin Yuan's car behind him, the car drove away quickly, stopped in place, and almost rolled over.

Seeing this scene, the militants in the car hurriedly waved their hands to make the rest of them retreat, and just like that, several cars left Qin Yuan's sight range.

Two minutes later, Li Erniu came to them with Hall on his motorcycle. Qin Zhengyang walked over and said jokingly, "Brother Erniu, your speed is not good. You can't even match the speed of our car." ."

"Your skin is really itchy, isn't it because of this guy? I've been scared like a grandson in the back. It wasn't because of him, I would have speeded up a long time ago."

At this moment, Hall's face was indeed pale. He felt that it was too terrifying. He had been hit directly on his scalp several times, but he couldn't help asking when he saw the convoy that had gradually moved away:

"Did you just let them escape like this? What about my family? You promised before."

No one paid any attention to him at all, Li Erniu sat down, Qin Zhengyang threw him a bottle of water, he drank half of it and then threw it to Hall.

Qin Yuan took out a compressed biscuit and took a bite, then took out a palm-sized instrument, and was looking at the small red dots flashing on the screen. What we pay attention to now is the era of technology. Isn't it delicious to have such a combination of technology?

As long as they tracked down to their final location and completely eliminated this group of militants, he was not in a hurry now, and kept moving with the target point.

It is estimated that these guys did not dare to return to their last location rashly, they are constantly detouring, and they can be seen on the entire map still going in circles.

Hall was also relieved when he saw it. He really didn't expect people to use technological weapons now, but at the same time he also felt a little puzzled.

"If they just don't drive that car and abandon the car, will you not be able to track it?"

"I have considered this situation before. The wounded militants they took away were on the body of the militants. The knife I inserted had a tracker, so no matter what, I could find them."

Seeing this, Hall had nothing to say. He just wanted to rescue his family as soon as possible. As time passed, the red dot on the screen finally stopped. Qin Yuan patted the car door and let everyone get in the car start to go.

After half an hour like this, they came to the base in the factory of the militants, but the place is now in chaos, and many civilians can be seen fleeing outside with large and small bags.

At this moment, Hall rushed up excitedly. He pointed to the person in front and said that they were his friends. Just as he was about to step forward, two gunshots rang out. Shoot the two civilians.

It seems that these militants are now desperate and have already planned to die with these civilians. They don't want to leave any evidence, or they just want to transfer their bases.

Qin Yuan rushed in as soon as he grabbed Hall and led him. Now he took advantage of the chaos to find his family members. As for the others, he will not be responsible at all. Li Erniu and the others went in to deal with those militants.

Because of this operation, they have dispatched most of the personnel, and only a dozen people are left on duty in the base.

So now an emergency meeting is being held inside. They don't know what's going on outside, and the people outside don't care about the lives of those civilians. It's so chaotic now, they can only shoot to stop the chaos from happening.

So the people inside didn't care at all, but they felt that something was wrong. Why did the gunshots feel more and more intense?

The militants who were meeting inside just got up when the door was kicked open suddenly, and then two grenades were thrown in.

A few militants who were lucky were only injured by the blast and wanted to escape from the window, but they were shot in the head just as they came out.

The order Qin Yuan gave was to be your militants and leave none behind. As for the civilians, they were also coerced. On another street, they also found Hall's family.

This Huo Ye is not a criminal, at most he is in the middle, and Qin Yuan always feels that if he keeps him, there will be other clues later.

When Hall saw his family, he didn't care too much. He knelt down and begged Qin Yuan to let him go, "I was really forced before, and I hope you can let me live. If I die, then They can't live either."

"I will do what I promised you before, but you also have to show your value."

Hall was a little puzzled when he heard this. Now that the organization has been completely wiped out by them, what else can he use?

Qin Yuan just smiled at him mysteriously, saying that there will definitely be members of the black organization contacting him later, this matter will not be so easy to let go, if anyone contacts him, contact Qin Yuan immediately.

Hall looked at Qin Yuan and couldn't help feeling a little numb behind him. This person is really too mysterious. Not only is he super capable, but he also has no mercy when dealing with these members of the organization.

He could only nod his head in agreement. If someone really contacted him, he would report to Qin Yuan immediately. In the end, he could only see the back of Qin Yuan and the others leaving. Those civilians were not restrained by the militants, and they all started running for their lives.

Now he knows that this person is from the Yan Kingdom, but what organization and department he belongs to is too mysterious. Qin Yuan has successfully completed the task, and at this time the domestic side also called .

"What's the matter with you kid? Why did they inform us that the delivery time of the natural gas will be changed, and according to our investigation, is there any turmoil there?"

"Ah? Leader, what do you mean by this? I don't know. I'm on vacation with my brothers in Hawaii now."

"Okay, you brat, don't I know you yet? As long as you don't get discovered by others, just treat it as if you are on vacation there and don't cause anything to happen to me."

Qin Yuan hung up the phone, picked up the coconut juice next to him and took a sip. Li Erniu and the others were playing beach volleyball opposite each other, and it was indeed time to take everyone to relax. Hall will give you news about the matter in Xiao Maoguo. Yes, the organization members over there will definitely contact him.

Although the matter has not been completely resolved, at least the delivery of natural gas has been blocked, and there will be no problem if it is delayed later. This core has been destroyed by him.

Chapter 1753: beach storm

All he needs to do now is to take the players here to relax, and he hasn't taken them out for a long time. Before, he had to report to the higher authorities.

But now he is the captain of the special forces team, and all matters can be handed over to Gao Shiwei. If there is any problem, other teams can be sent out.

Because they found the nearest flight, so they came here directly for vacation, and everyone was relatively relaxed. At this time, Qin Zhengyang ran over excitedly, saying that he was going to go surfing.

"Brother Er Niu, let's go, let's go surfing together."

"You guys go first, I'm here to grill the seafood for you, and I'll come over to eat later."

Li Erniu and the others just wanted to relax. Qin Zhengyang was relatively young and thought everything was fun, so he rushed up with the surfboard in his arms.

Qin Yuan lay leisurely on the chair, while Li Erniu and the others were grilling, a burst of aroma wafted over. It had been a long time since I felt so relaxed, and several people scrambled for a cooked prawn.

It was still the same as before, the fighting was very lively, but at this moment, there was a noise from the beach, and everyone was attracted by the noise.

Li Erniu took a closer look, isn't that Qin Zhengyang? As if he was surrounded by others, he slammed the barbecue tongs on the ground.

"Damn, who dares to bully my brother, hurry up."

Several people also ran in that direction after hearing that, Qin Yuan frowned, his own people would definitely not suffer, so he was relatively calm, and walked slowly over with his sunglasses on.

After walking over, he only found that Qin Zhengyang was surrounded by several big old blacks. Those blacks were already taller, and two of them were a head taller than Qin Zhengyang.

"Little trash, do you know what this place is? Just because you deserve to come here? Get out of here."

After the talking black man finished speaking, he immediately started to push Qin Zhengyang. He is not a vegetarian. It was a sideways kick that sent the person next to him flying.

After being hit in the leg, Lao Hei fell to the ground and howled non-stop. Seeing that something was wrong, the black men next to him hurried forward. Li Erniu originally wanted to go up to help.

But Qin Zhengyang said calmly from the side: "You don't need to help me. I am very confident in dealing with these rubbish. I don't need you to get started. Just let me move around."

Li Erniu and the others also stood by to watch the fun. Although these black people are human, they really cannot beat Qin Zhengyang in terms of strength. These people fell to the ground.

At this moment, an administrator in uniform stepped forward, blowing his whistle with a displeased expression on his face, "Who are you, you dare to fight in this place, do you know who is in charge here? It's really alive Impatient."

Old Hei on the ground stood up in pain. He struggled for a long time before he managed to get up. The guy whispered something in the ear of the administrator. The administrator's expression changed, and he even took the lead in Qin Zhengyang's direction. walk over.

"Boy, let me tell you, you're in big trouble in this place."

"I don't understand what you mean by this. They were the ones who provoked me first, and when they did it, why didn't you see it? Why do you just say it's my problem?"

"In this place, Lao Tzu is the rule, understand? I have to let you understand today."

Unexpectedly, things seemed to be getting worse and worse, thinking that the administrator was out to make a farce, but after this guy came out, he completely leaned towards the other person.

Qin Zhengyang definitely couldn't swallow this bad breath, and he didn't mind it. He was never afraid of causing trouble. The administrator took out the walkie-talkie and saw that it meant he was going to call someone over.

The administrator called a small team of uniformed personnel, and they quickly surrounded Qin Zhengyang. At this time, the black men also stood up and stared at Qin Zhengyang viciously.

The administrator actually asked those black people to leave first, and left the matter here to them to handle. Those black people were stopped by Li Erniu just as they transferred.

"You bastards, where do you want to go? It's not that simple to want to leave now after beating my brother."

The old blacks were not to be outdone, they were knocked to the ground by a brat just now, and now there are still people who dare to come out and stop them!

Taking advantage of their inattention, an old black quickly ran to the other side of the beach. After all, everyone was not wearing any clothes, so they probably went to get weapons.

Seeing this scene, the administrator was worried that the matter would become a major issue, so he pushed Li Erniu, thinking that they were the trouble, and wanted them to leave quickly.

Unexpectedly, the conflict broke out suddenly, and the two sides fought together. The main reason was that the administrator's words were too unpleasant. He demanded an immediate apology and took Qin Zhengyang back for investigation. Who can tolerate this matter? .

These managers and those old blacks were definitely not their opponents, and they were all knocked down on the ground in a blink of an eye. At this time, the black who ran to get the weapon also ran over, holding a gun.

Seeing that he was about to shoot Qin Zhengyang who was next to him, Qin Yuan had quick eyesight and quick hands. Sitting on the chair, a stone bounced directly, piercing Lao Hei's wrist on the spot.

"The person who hates black guns the most has the ability to appear open and aboveboard."

Old Hei's pistol fell to the ground, his whole hand was covered in blood and flesh. He didn't expect the power of the stone to be so great. Because of the blood, the administrators knew that things were not so easy to handle, and seeing these people's skills They are all a bit powerful, and they really can't beat them.

Qin Yuan yawned and walked over, his good mood was ruined by them, he stepped on an old black.

"Let me tell you, I'm not someone you can bully whenever you want. This time, it's just a small lesson to show you a little blood. If you still dare to be so arrogant, then I will prevent you from seeing the sun of tomorrow."

But the people on the ground didn't have the slightest fear, and started to threaten, "What are you? Let me tell you, I won't let you go out of this area. How dare you mess with our Sequoia Gang."

As soon as Lao Hei's voice fell, Qin Yuan stepped on his injured hand just now, and this guy let out a howl like a pig, he really couldn't beat the person in front of him.

"I only give you one minute now, hurry up and get out, and you guys don't force me to do it directly."

Seeing that the situation was wrong, those old blacks quickly stood up and prepared to run outside. It was not wrong for the administrator to run, or not to run, after all, there was a circle of people around.

They were originally the administrators of this area. Wouldn't it be too embarrassing to run away like this now? Finally, the administrator stood up and saw that Qin Yuan and the others were not easy to mess with, so he could only say a cruel word.

"Let me tell you, if you play too big, you will never be able to get out of this area. Do you know who you provoked? Their gangs dare not even provoke us."

"It's okay. You can go directly and tell them where we live. I can tell you the specific location. It's in the hotel to the south."

After listening, the administrator saw them viciously and left in such a gray way. At this time, calm was restored on the beach.

Qin Zhengyang stood up and clapped his hands. He didn't play very well just now. He should be more ruthless. The old black scolded him just now.

After questioning, I realized that it was not Qin Zhengyang's problem at all, and those guys didn't know why they were crazy, maybe it was because he was small and easy to bully.

These guys were used to being domineering in this area, and suddenly someone resisted, and they must be upset, so they wanted to vent their anger on Qin Zhengyang, but they didn't expect him to be a soft persimmon.

Qin Yuan asked everyone to continue grilling, and he went to the side to buy some beer to add to the fun, just in time to have a good drink after the fight.

When he was going to buy beer, he saw that the little girl in the store had lost her right hand and was struggling to get him bottles of wine with her left hand. He couldn't see it, so he hurried over to help.

After taking out the wine, he looked at the girl rather pitifully, and he put all the change on the table.

Just when Qin Yuan was about to leave, the girl suddenly stopped him, "Leave quickly, you can't afford to mess with those people, they are well-known local bullies."

The girl said something in a low voice, and then looked around vigilantly to make sure no one was listening. Qin Yuan knew that the little girl was also worried about getting into trouble, so he thanked her and left.

At this time, Qin Yuan also noticed that the number of people on the beach seemed to have decreased. Just now, everyone was still playing on the beach, but now there are only a few people left, and those people also started to leave because they saw something wrong.

Everyone knows what happened. It is estimated that those few people may be really hard to provoke the locals. They already know what is going on. Those guys will definitely come back to fight back. It should be time to find someone.

But a few people are still very calm, they can just solve it on the beach, they avoid going to the room to break things, and they have to compensate a few people who said this and laughed, not caring at all.

On the other side, the black men on the other side were cursing after they returned, and they were indeed preparing to call people to gather together to take revenge with them. Their gang had never suffered such a loss, so they went to gather people without stopping.

On the street outside, most civilians closed their doors one after another seeing this state. After all, this is a very famous mafia in the local area.

I don't know where these guys are going, and soon a dozen cars have blocked the intersection. Just when they were about to set off in a mighty manner, they made a phone call to the old black who was beaten up just now.

After answering the call, the old black's expression changed, and finally he was a little helpless, so he could only let everyone go back first.

The person sitting in the co-pilot quit. He was the one who was beaten the hardest today, "James, what's the situation now? Why didn't you leave? Look at me, have I been beaten for nothing today? I want Go blow that kid's head off."

"Calm down, the boss knows the situation over there, he told us not to go out and make trouble, now is a critical period, he doesn't want the plan to be disturbed."

"But do you just let those **** go like this? Anyway, I can't swallow this bad breath."

"Don't worry, there will always be a chance. As long as those guys don't leave here, we will have a chance to settle accounts with them after this incident is over."

The person sitting in the co-pilot cursed secretly, the fire in his heart could only be suppressed, there was nothing they could do, they could only obey the boss's arrangement.

On the other side, Qin Yuan and the others waited on the beach until it was dark, and there were not many people on the beach now, it was still very quiet, and those guys hadn't come yet.

"Are these people cowardly? Or why are they so morose and why they haven't come for a long time? I'm so sleepy."

"Forget it, I really want to let them go. If they dare to make trouble, then I won't be lenient."

A few people tidied up and were ready to go back. They spent the night peacefully, nothing happened. The next morning, when Qin Yuan and the others went downstairs, they also saw the administrator, The com administrator is in charge of patrolling the entire area.

When the administrator saw Qin Yuan and the others, his expression was obviously taken aback. It probably meant that he didn't expect Qin Yuan and the others to be able to stand here without a problem. This is not in line with the style of those mafia.

He didn't understand, but he didn't dare to say anything more. Qin Zhengyang made a gesture to him, telling that guy to be more honest, otherwise he would hit him every time.

But at this moment, the hotel owner's face was ashen. He came over and looked at Qin Yuan very sorry, "I'm very sorry for the guests, I can refund the money to you, I hope you don't stay with me."

"What's the matter? What's the matter with your boss? Isn't he a fool if he doesn't do any business?"

"It's not that I don't do your business, but that you have offended people who shouldn't be offended. I'm worried about getting into trouble. I hope you can understand. I also support my family in Hukou and run a small business. I really can't offend you." pick them up."

It seems that the boss has already known what happened yesterday. The boss looked embarrassed. Qin Yuan said that he could increase the money, but the boss didn't do it.

It's nothing, and Qin Yuan is not used to asking people to leave here, wouldn't it be enough to change to another place? However, when they came out, no place dared to accept them.

Everyone has the same reason. It seems that those guys are really notorious in the local area, but this is not a problem for a few people. In this way, the tents they bought directly were set up by the sea.

"It happened to save us the room fee. Originally, I planned to leave directly, but I couldn't swallow this breath. I wanted to see what kind of bully it was."

He Chenguang said while setting up the tent, they really won't leave today, they will stay here to see what kind of tricks those people can use.

Chapter 1754: arms deal

Originally, those black people were not allowed to mess with other things under the instructions of their boss, but where have these guys suffered such a disadvantage?

So they came here to make trouble at night, but they didn't expect to be told by the boss that they had left after arriving at the hotel. Seeing that there was no one to vent their anger, the black leader in front came over and grabbed the boss.

"You guy, if you hadn't rented the house to them, they wouldn't have made such a fuss that day. Now that they're gone, you're responsible."

"Big brothers, I'm just doing a small business. Don't be kidding me. I really didn't do anything. If they want to leave by themselves, I can't help it."

"Hehe, I think you have no choice, or you called them away, didn't you? I think you are really itchy. Since he is not here, I will use you for the surgery."

The boss is now saying that he can't win every day, and he was punched in the face by that black man. These black men don't care so much, and they are about to smash the things in the store. He is indeed doing a small business. If it goes on, I don't know how much I will lose.

Seeing this, he hurriedly told a few people to stop, "Several big brothers, stop fighting here, I know where they are, can't I tell you?"

"I just said you are dishonest."

After a black man finished speaking, he turned around and walked into the counter, opened the drawer, and took all the money in it. With this face, this day was completely useless, but don't be troubled by them all the time. That's fine.

"I don't know much about the others. I just know that other people are afraid to let them stay, so they seem to have gone to the beach. This is what I heard before."

The black people laughed excitedly when they heard this. These guys are really not afraid of death, and they even hit the muzzle of the gun. On the beach, it would be much more convenient. After killing people, they would just throw them into the sea. Feed the fish inside.

Thinking of this, several people set off towards the beach with their weapons in their hands. The boss was beaten bruised and swollen, so he stood up and quickly closed the door.

He kept muttering in his mouth, and he didn't blame himself, after all, these guys were too powerful, and he could only blame those people for being too unlucky, how they got into trouble with these disaster stars.

The black leader in the front is called Jack, and the side is James who was beaten badly that day. Jack is holding the shotgun in his hand, which can send them to the west with one shot.

But James held him down and told him not to act rashly. After all, the boss had explained that they were going to hand over the goods now, and they didn't want to make any other troubles.

Although the local police have given them face very much, because their existence has caused headaches for the local police, and they generally do not offend the river.

"Don't use guns this time, mainly use guns to control them, and then use knives to solve them, so as to avoid causing other troubles. This time we acted secretly."

"Damn, that's not fun. I really want to blow that kid's head off with a gun. He beat me the worst at that time."

"Forget it, when the time comes, you can control whatever you want, but don't be at this critical moment, you know the boss' temper."

In this way, several people quietly came to the beach. When they approached, Qin Yuan stood up. He looked at Li Erniu and the others who were sleeping next to him, and he didn't wake them up, but walked out of the tent silently.

In the dark, He Chenguang ran over quietly like a ghost, "Brother Qin, those guys are really not afraid of death, they came to trouble us unexpectedly, and I heard some movement just now, it seems to The boss of our house was also beaten by them."

"I gave them a chance before, but they didn't use it. It seems that I am the only one who made the move."

He Chenguang silently prayed for them. After all, Qin Yuan seldom made a move now. Once Qin Yuan made a move, none of these people could get out alive.

They came here just wanting to relax and have fun, but they got into such trouble, which made him very unhappy, and these guys are not very good people, so killing them is also to eliminate harm for the people.

He Chenguang backed away silently, while Qin Yuan walked in the direction of those people. Jack pointed at the figure walking in the distance, feeling a little strange, he just saw the tent behind.

"Look quickly, those tents should be where they live, but I seem to have seen a figure walking towards us just now, why is it gone now?"

"Hahaha, Jack, you are too timid. I don't usually see you in this state! How can you have black eyes, are you scaring yourself?"

Jack shook his head. Could it be that he was really dazzled just now? He did see a person walking over. The beach was very quiet, only the sound of the sea breeze could be heard.

The few of them walked in scattered, without any precautions at all. At this time, Qin Yuan went around and stabbed at the back, directly killing the person who was walking at the back.

His speed was so fast that even the person who was killed didn't feel anything, just fell down like that, and after killing, he quietly hid in the darkness, like an invisible killer.

At this time, because they heard the sound of falling, the few people in front turned their heads, looking helpless at the fallen people.

"Amushan, what are you going to do? It's this time now, can you stop joking? If you make this kind of joke again, I will definitely make you die a miserable death."

But after he finished speaking, there was still no movement from the people on the ground. Jack stepped forward and kicked the fallen man. Only then did he realize that something was wrong.

He was startled instantly when he saw a gushing of blood gushing out from the neck of the man who fell on the ground. The next second he felt a pain in his waist. When he turned around, he saw a black figure standing behind him. And he had a saber stuck in his waist.

Several people panicked in an instant, they couldn't even feel where the enemy was, and they were all eliminated by Qin Yuan in a blink of an eye.

After a few minutes, Qin Yuan threw all their bodies into the sea, leaving only faint bloodstains on the beach, but these bloodstains are fine, the high tide tomorrow morning will bring the bloodstains down.

When Qin Yuan returned to the tent, Li Erniu heard some movement and raised his eyelids to take a look, "I'm going, Brother Qin, what are you doing here? Why is there such a strong smell of blood?"

"It's okay, kill the chicken."

Li Erniu slept in the lake, he said that he would eat roast chicken tomorrow morning, so he turned over like this and continued to sleep.

The next morning, when the sky was completely bright, the wind was relatively strong on the beach, and everyone was not sleeping so peacefully, Li Erniu remembered what happened last night.

Qin Yuan also explained to them that he originally planned to go to another place for vacation, but looking at it like this, he didn't want other people to get into trouble, so he planned to stay here.

One person does things and one person is in charge, especially from the boss's affairs, he can see that these guys are bullying and fearing the hard. If they leave and these people disappear for no reason, the people behind them will definitely not let these locals go, especially It's around here.

Anyway, the few people had nothing to be afraid of, and the number of people on the beach gradually increased, and at this time the administrator also came to the beach.

The administrator was also very surprised when he saw them again, but he was scared away by Qin Yuan's eyes.

On the other side, inside the Sequoia gang, the man in the red turban in front was getting angry. He smashed the coffee on the ground, splashing a lot of coffee in an instant.

"What's going on? Are those ***** so ignorant? Where did they go?"

"Brother, from the looks of it, they should have gone out to drink, but this has never happened before. We are about to perform a mission, and I have already explained to them."

"Okay, I don't want to listen to these explanations, now bring people back to me immediately, don't destroy my plan, I'll say it again."

This afternoon they were going to conduct a transaction directly, but the guards inside disappeared. He was very angry. Anyway, this rule must be established. Fortunately, there is nothing wrong with the goods inside. If there is something wrong with the goods, then A few guys couldn't eat and walked around.

But when it was time to trade the goods in the afternoon, those few people couldn't find the captain who was in charge next to him, and he couldn't help it. He didn't know where these ***** went.

There will be no danger in this area, he should be drunk somewhere, he cursed secretly, he could only call a few people again, and then brought the goods into the truck.

The leader of the Sequoia gang in front has already sat in the car, and now it is an arms deal, especially now that all the goods are produced by their gang underground.

The vehicle set off all the way and drove directly to the direction outside the city. At this time, in an abandoned warehouse outside the city, a group of militants were already waiting in the warehouse.

The leader of the Sequoia Gang also arrived there ten minutes later. After getting off the car, he saw the person in front of him smiling and walking forward.

"Brother Baru!"

A person in front with a one-eyed mask stood up and greeted him, "Aren't you tired of doing this every time? There really is only this kind of transaction between us."

"Hahahaha, I think since we are trading partners, we can also be friends."

Balu snorted coldly. He didn't believe such a person. After all, this was in their territory. When the situation of gangsters eating gangsters appeared, it would be troublesome, so he would bring a large number of people with him every time he traded. What's the point? Questions are countered directly.

Fortunately, every time it goes well, but every time he comes to the transaction, he is always worried. It is the same for both parties. The leader of the Sequoia Gang is also very worried that the other party will attack suddenly, so he has to strengthen his own strength.

After a hypocritical exchange between the two parties, they began to prepare for the inspection of the goods, and immediately sent someone to pick up the goods and opened the box.

The gun inside would be familiar to Qin Yuan and the others if they were there. This is a Type 95 assault rifle unique to Yan Kingdom, and it unexpectedly appeared here.

But if you look carefully, there are still some flaws in this batch of guns. At first glance, they can only be produced by underground military factories. There are some small traces of flaws, but they don't affect their use.

The two sides inspected the goods, and Baru in the front picked up a gun, unloaded the magazine and looked at it, and then aimed at a distance.

In the next second, he directly picked up the gun and pointed it at the leader of the Sequoia Gang in front of him. Unexpectedly, the leader did not panic at all, and still looked calm.

"Hahaha, brother, I was just joking with you. Everyone, relax a bit. In this situation, you didn't panic at all. I really admire you."

"After all, I'm in this business. If there is something flustered, wouldn't it make people laugh? Don't worry, this batch of goods is absolutely fine. We can produce whatever you want."

"Then can you produce the May 4th grenades from them?"

"That's no problem. We have drawings before. These things are easy to solve. It depends on when you want the goods."

"This batch of weapons looks pretty good. Then we need 20 more boxes, and then 10 boxes of May 4th grenades."

The leader of the Sequoia gang nodded, saying that they need a lot of goods this time, and they need a little time, "It will take about a week."

"No problem, I can wait in terms of time, and I won't bargain in terms of money, but you must ensure the quality."

"Brother, I told you before that if you want to guarantee the quality, I have a batch of better goods, all of which are military equipment, but they are not produced by us, of course they are made by the above."

Baru smiled, if he really had the money, he would have bought those a long time ago, but he had no choice but to buy the imitations made by this guy.

Taking this opportunity, he added some other requirements, and needed 200 sets of bulletproof equipment, which were all fine.

After the transaction was over, both parties retreated cautiously. It wasn't until Baru left the range with these weapons that he was slightly relieved. However, he still didn't relax his vigilance and kept looking around.

The little brother next to him saw his boss so nervous, he could only say: "Brother, I don't think they moved at all, and we have cooperated so many times, there shouldn't be any problems."

"Being careful is a good thing. Remember not to trust anyone casually. Even if he has been cooperating with us, he may turn back at any time."

The younger brother next to him nodded, and imitated their boss's appearance and began to be vigilant, while the leader of the Sequoia Gang on the other side left with his men.

Next time he will directly buy a batch of big ones. After all, they will be asking for more goods next time, so he plans to come here directly to eat black people. After all, small armed organizations like this basically have no strength, so they come here While buying guns.

Chapter 1755: conflict

But now there is still a problem, they suddenly want so many batches of goods, and not only the other group of militants here also need goods, so he must increase the manpower below.

The leader of the Sequoia gang is not a good person. He actually did some black and black things, and he has done this many times.

Moreover, they set up an underground military factory, and all the workers in this military factory were captured by them from other places.

The main reason for their activities in this place is that it was originally a tourist development zone, and most of them came here to travel, so they took people away without anyone noticing, and many people have been trapped there for a long time It's time.

Because today's transaction made him more happy, but he turned around and explained that there must be another group of people in the underground. Now work overtime and get the goods out first. He can eat black here, but he promised the other side must be produced in advance.

Now the key problem is manpower, so these guys started to dispatch again. This guy came to their warehouse. There is not a lot of stock in the warehouse. He walked over and picked up a submachine gun.

Now their imitation rate is already very high, basically no flaws can be seen at this level. It's just that if you use more,

There may be a risk of bombs. After all, their precision is not that high, but they can't last long like those underground weapons.

At this moment, there was a sound of footsteps outside, and a man walked in. The man lowered his head and remained silent.

He raised his head and glanced slightly before saying, "What's the matter, let's talk."

"Brother, those people haven't been found yet."

what! The Hongshan-like leader was a little angry, what the ***** are these guys doing? It hasn't appeared until this time, "Didn't you say that they went to drink? They haven't appeared until now, what are those ***** going to do?"

"But we searched all over the bars, big and small, but we didn't find that these guys had violated the regulations. According to our approach, we must punish them directly within the gang, and then warn everyone."

But so far they haven't investigated anything, which also makes him feel rather strange, and according to the normal situation, they also know the boss's temper, and there will be no such sudden disappearance.

A curly-haired man next to him is the internal military adviser. He is usually responsible for negotiating any tasks. He thinks this matter is strange.

"Didn't you find out? The problem here is very big. They have been missing for such a long time. According to our class rules, no one would do such a thing, even if they were drinking."

"But everyone knows our reputation in the local area, and no one should dare to offend us easily."

"I can't say anything right now. Since something like this has happened to you, go and investigate first to see what's going on. Don't investigate from the bar now, just investigate to see if there is any conflict in the past few days. "

Hearing the military's suggestion, the man nodded and hurried down, the leader of the Sequoia gang touched his nose.

"It's really interesting. Does anyone dare to touch our people?"

"Brother, organization forces have appeared in various places recently, and this matter is somewhat uncertain, and we are not the only ones in this area. I suspect that the opponent is doing something."

The leader of the Sequoia gang nodded and walked over, picked up the submachine gun and started shooting at the opposite wall like a madman. The power of this gun was also very powerful. After a while, the opposite wall was beaten into a mess. are fully exposed.

At this time, Qin Yuan and the others had already found another hotel to rest. After all, it had been two or three days since the incident, and they haven't heard any news yet, so they took everyone here to have a good time.

It wasn't until the evening of the fourth day that the leader of the Sequoia Gang received a call. When he came to the beach, he saw that the bodies of those subordinates had been salvaged, but the development of sea foam could not be seen. Can't come out, can only be identified by the clothes on them.

The clothes of several other people have been completely washed away by the sea water, only the iron plate hanging on one person's body, and the headscarf is more conspicuous, which can be identified as belonging to their gang.

Everyone stared wide-eyed, not knowing what was going on, this was the first time their gang encountered such a thing, someone dared to kill their people on their territory.

The boss of the Sequoia gang walked over and covered his nose with a handkerchief, and smelled a stench from a distance, but the man who reported to him before didn't mind at all, squatted down, and checked carefully, the wound on his body had been completely covered by sea water Explosion, I can't see what it looks like.

"Brother, according to my inspection, I didn't find anything special, but I can confirm that it was a knife wound."

"How are the other inspections going? Is there anyone suspicious recently?"

The people next to him shook their heads. They didn't find any clues, but someone asked whether it would be suitable for the people they killed after the militants traded, because the timeline was a bit of a coincidence.

The boss of the Sequoia gang immediately denied this statement. Those people didn't need to kill their people at all, and at that time they just wanted to leave quickly, and they were still on guard against themselves. How could they come back to kill them?

"Since the corpse has appeared here, let's investigate along this side. I don't believe that I can't find out from the surroundings. Come up with your means and methods. Don't let me down."

After finishing speaking, he patted the shoulder of the man just now, then threw the handkerchief on the ground, and left gracefully.

The man looked at the corpse on the ground and frowned tightly. This was the first time he encountered such a situation. If someone really dared to fight against them, they would dress up like this, and everyone would know them in the future. Could it be that they were not locals?

Thinking of this, he decided to take action from the tourists, and went to a nearby hotel to inquire. Unexpectedly, after such an inquiry, he really found out the situation.

The next morning, the leader of the Sequoia Gang came out when he heard a report from his subordinates. When he came to the lobby, he saw a few people kneeling in the lobby. After a closer look, they were the local managers, and A hotel owner.

"Let's talk about the specific situation. I don't want to waste time interrogating, and what is the result of the investigation, otherwise, what am I doing supporting you?"

The man in front hurried up to answer, he grabbed the bruised and swollen administrator, "Brother, we have already asked, this guy saw with his own eyes a conflict with a few boys from Yan Kingdom, so I don't know about it later."

"That's really interesting. The people who touched us are just short of people in the factory below. Let's take these people there too. If you can't do something well, don't stand here."

The administrator just now knelt down and kowtowed to beg for mercy when he heard this. He said that he had been persuading him all the time, but there was no way, it was not his will.

But the people on the opposite side didn't care about this at all, and a few thugs also came up and dragged these people down. The Sequoia Gang is a revenge, especially in this situation.

In addition, Qin Yuan was resting in the hotel, only to see Qin Zhengyang trotting all the way, "Brother Qin, it's not good, the boss we stayed at before is gone."

"What! How do you do things, kid? Didn't I tell you to stay there? You have to inform me as soon as possible about the specific situation."

Qin Zhengyang lowered his head when he heard this. He thought there was nothing wrong, and in his opinion, those few were local hooligans who had already been dealt with by them.

There would be no problems, so he was a little playful for a while, and wandered around for a while, but when he came back, he found that the entire hotel had been smashed, and the boss had disappeared.

It was rare for Qin Yuan to be so serious. He stood up and stared at Qin Zhengyang coldly. This was the first time he made such a mistake.

"You have to know that you are not a child anymore, and I let you come out to relax on the one hand, but you must also complete the tasks I told you to complete, otherwise you should not stand here."

Qin Zhengyang lowered his head completely, and a few people beside him who were still joking also hurried over. Everyone knew that Qin Yuan seldom got angry, so they could only come to comfort him.

"Brother Qin, forget it, don't talk about this kid, he has been training before, and he has been on missions with us, he hasn't been so relaxed for a long time, young people, there are always times when they are careless."

"See if you all want to speak up for him, then I want to say, if he delays others or harms innocent people because of his negligence, what should I say!"

Under He Chenguang's push, Qin Zhengyang quickly lowered his head and admitted his mistake, "Brother Qin, I really knew I was wrong, and I was the first to report, so I hurried to report to you, hoping to find him, and I don't want to harm him. "

Qin Yuan turned his head and thought for a while. Now is really not the time to criticize. He has to find people quickly. Besides, he doesn't want to be implicated again because of that boss. Those **** went to the boss to force them to find out their whereabouts.

At that time, the boss was beaten up with bruises and swollen eyes, and he even specially gave the boss an extra sum of money. He originally wanted to comfort him, but he didn't expect to get burned.

So he packed up his things and took everyone to the previous hotel to check the situation. When they got there, they found that the whole hotel was very quiet, and everything inside was almost smashed. Not only that, but the surrounding area was also closed. .

"Brothers, be prepared, it seems that someone has specially set a trap for us."

As soon as Qin Yuan finished speaking, he only saw some people coming from several intersections, and several cars drove up from the side.

"Brother Qin, do you think these people are asking for trouble? It seems that we haven't been active for a long time. It's just a matter of exercising and warming up. You don't need to shoot. Let us try."

"Brothers in the province, have you been resting for too long recently, and you have forgotten the basic skills, go and exercise."

Qin Zhengyang clenched his fists even more. He knew that the owner of this hotel was really innocent. Originally, this matter had nothing to do with him, but now he was involved.

So he had to find out the whereabouts of the boss. At this moment, those people gathered around one after another, and the leader had already arrived in front of him, but this guy had a gun in his hand.

The entire street was very quiet, and the residents here seemed to know what was going to happen, so they closed their doors in advance.

"I really didn't expect that you boys would dare to come back and kill our people. Don't you know what kind of gang we are?"

"Hahahaha, your hairstyle is too funny. I don't understand what you're talking about. If you want to hit me, hit me. What the **** are you doing?"

Li Erniu directly made a gesture of frying powder, which angered the man who spoke just now. He waved his hand, and the people behind rushed up, and he also raised the gun in his hand.

He Chenguang was the closest to him, kicked his wrist away, and then hit his throat. Li Erniu cooperated with him tacitly. hand, and quickly shot at the people around him.

This war is really about to break out, but Qin Yuan calmly walked to the side, dragged a chair to lean on it, if possible, he could have a cup of coffee now.

Just to see how everyone's basic skills are now, after all, he used a lot of merit points for everyone later, and his physical fitness far exceeds that of ordinary people, with no problems in speed and reaction.

Qin Zhengyang had been holding his breath for a long time, he grabbed the man wearing sunglasses next to him, and the machete in the man's hand slashed towards him. Qin Zhengyang's body was very sensitive, so he easily dodged it, grabbed his shoulder and came straight to the back fall.

"Where did you get that boss? You ***** are only capable of hurting innocent people."

"Damn it!"

The man wanted to stand up, but Qin Zhengyang easily twisted his wrist. The man lying on the ground let out a howl, and the car that was driving in the distance rushed over quickly.

A few people jumped out of the car and were about to shoot them. Qin Yuan couldn't sit still at this moment, and threw a few throwing knives straight out.

"It's really boring, can't you have a good fight? If you insist on shooting black guns in the back, let me say it again, I hate black guns, which are completely ***** behavior."

It was only at this time that everyone noticed that there was another person in the corner, and this guy was very calm. There were a lot of people on their side, more than a dozen people, and there was nothing they could do about them.

There were gunshots everywhere outside, and the residents hiding in the house were very afraid of a gun battle, which is common in this place, but this time it was very intense, especially when the Sequoia Gang was provoked.

Qin Yuan walked over slowly and grabbed Li Erniu, telling him not to kill him, at least one person should be left alive. He didn't pay attention for a moment just now, and he took care of the people on the side.

After all, this is a gun-wielding thug, and he also wants to solve the danger as soon as possible.

Chapter 1756: A vulnerable arms dealer

Qin Yuan and the others are not afraid of those professional militants and mercenaries, let alone such small gangs.

The boss who took the lead and was very arrogant just now was covered in blood. He squinted half his eyes and watched the person in front of him approaching. He instinctively wanted to back up, but only to find that his leg was broken and he couldn't push it.

"You guys better not move around, you can say whatever I ask you."

But the person in front of him was someone who would rather die than submit. Looking at his fierce eyes, it seemed that he didn't pay attention to Qin Yuan and the others at all, although most of the people they brought out this time had been killed by Qin Yuan and the others.

But this guy knew that they had a large army behind their local influence, so he was not afraid at all, and Qin Yuan didn't bother to ask, and now he directly used his ability to invade into the man's consciousness.

A few minutes later, the man's eyes widened, and he died completely in a pool of blood. Qin Yuan also got the clues he wanted. He didn't expect that these **** would even set up an underground military factory, imitating everywhere. arms.

Qin Zhengyang was even more anxious when he heard this. After all, the owner of the hotel was also implicated because of them. He was the one who didn't like it at the beginning, so he was taken away by that boss. When he thought of innocent people being implicated because of his relationship, he immediately Very guilty.

"Brother Qin, what should we do now? Since this underground arms dealer has appeared, we might as well take him directly."

"Wait first, it's best not to act rashly for these people. What these guys did has nothing to do with us, it's just because they happened to meet us, wait a minute."

Qin Zhengyang frowned, he didn't understand why Qin Yuan said that, these damned arms dealers are the most despicable, and these guys are rampant here and have done so many bad things, shouldn't they be sanctioned?

Qin Yuan shook his head, looking at him, he felt that this kid was still too young, so he could only explain patiently.

According to the current situation, this arms dealer can stay in this place for such a long time, and those official people have not stopped him in the slightest.

That means that they must have colluded during this period. They killed the arms dealers behind, and countless people will stand up later. This is not the key to solving the problem.

This will only form a vicious circle, and it will cause them a lot of trouble. Now they come out to represent the Yan Kingdom outside, and they can't be so surreptitious. When the time comes, they will cause trouble. That's really not clear.

After Qin Zhengyang heard it, he felt it made sense, but he just couldn't hold it in his heart, "Brother Qin, didn't you just say that our weapons were also imitated by them? Will they take it out and use it casually?" ?"

"Don't worry, I know what you think, the boss of the inn, I will definitely rescue him, but we can't interfere too much in this matter, understand? The boss will definitely find me."

After speaking, Qin Yuan deliberately left clues. He left a string of addresses next to the man's body.

According to his understanding of these extremists, they will definitely not let him go, and they will think of revenge, so he will deal with them well, but he doesn't want to implicate innocent people in such a downtown area, so Go directly to the barren hills behind.

Qin Zhengyang didn't know why Qin Yuan had such confidence. After they went to the back mountain, he took out the weapons he had taken from those guys before, and was inspecting them carefully.

Li Erniu also picked up a gun and walked over, "I have to say that the things made by these **** are quite interesting. You can see that the number plate on it is made just like the real thing. After all, only we can identify this number plate." Will do this, code the gun."

"So people really want to make this thing professional. As an underground military volcano, it's really not easy to achieve this. It's just that we have done our stuff, so I can use this as a reason."

When Li Erniu heard this, he immediately understood that it seemed that the arms chief was going to suffer a big loss this time, after all, Qin Yuan's smile like this must not be easy.

Sure enough, the leader over there soon received the news that he had been dealt with by the other party twice in a row. How could he swallow this anger? This guy took up his weapon cursing, and took the rest of the people to find trouble.

More importantly, there were no witnesses at the scene. When they passed by, they only found corpses all over the ground. Only in him was it even more inconceivable that someone could wipe out all his men.

The military adviser next to him knelt down to examine carefully. He looked at the wounds of these people and came to the conclusion that their wounds were very professional, and they were all killed by a single knife.

"Brother, did we offend the military, but we have been paying money to the military, so they shouldn't do anything to us."

"I can also see that it's really not right for them to make these wounds so uniform."

"Brother, do you want to say hello to Chief Mir now? Let's send another batch of goods there."

The leader of the Sequoia gang thought about it, and he didn't think it was necessary. At present, he should not be from the military. If it was from the military, he would have come to him a long time ago, and he would not kill him so quietly.

He decided to go to this address first to see who it was. He was so courageous that he dared to use him for surgery. supreme commander.

I have been giving this guy a favor before, and now it is time for him to make some contributions, but if it is not someone from the military, then someone can target them, and he is not a soft-witted person. He has to figure out what it is kind of person.

This time, basically all the people in the base were mobilized, except for a small team guarding the underground factory, all the others were mobilized, about 100 people.

At this time, there have also been changes in the underground military factory. There were more people staying behind here before, after all, they would be worried about riots.

But everyone found that something was wrong since this morning. Most of the people have been transferred to the present. There is only one team, and half of them are locked up, and only half of them are left to work. Avoid riots.

The few administrators who were just arrested were also complaining to the sky. They were also brought in to do coolies for no reason, and they didn't know when they would be able to leave.

As for the innkeeper, he was even more innocent. He felt that he really hadn't done anything, and that's what happened to a good business.

"What are you talking about? Is there any change outside? Is there any whereabouts from the military?"

The hotel owner didn't know too much about it. He only thought that although the Sequoia Gang was not easy to provoke, their overbearing and exclusive behavior might have angered the military.

Hearing what he said, the administrator next to him couldn't help snorting, "Hehe, you are really simple-minded, don't worry, no one will take care of us, unless there are other changes in their organization and the entire organization is divided, then We have a chance to get out."

"What does this mean? Then we pay so much money every year, don't the military care about us? Does no one care about us?"

"Think about it for yourself, haven't we been in charge all these years? And those guys can be so arrogant, it is these people who gave them the confidence."

Having said that, the innkeeper completely slumped on the ground. He looked at the guards outside. Although he didn't know what happened, he felt that the hope of getting out was getting slimmer and slimmer.

On the other side, the leader of the Sequoia Gang has brought his men to the barren hill behind. When he came to the barren hill, he saw Qin Yuan sitting calmly on a big rock, and then Qin Yuan jumped down. Li Erniu and others also came out.

He turned his head and looked around to make sure there was no one else. He was definitely a little surprised. Could it be that just these few people in front of him could hurt so many people?

This made him a little unbelievable, and he still asked the surrounding men to pay attention to vigilance. They brought more than 100 people this time.

The leader of the Sequoia gang is still patient, at least he has to find out what the other party's purpose is, "My friend, we have no grievances with you, I don't know why we suddenly attacked my people."

"It's nothing, it's just that they are damned, they provoked people who shouldn't be provoked, by the way, you are the leader, right, so you are indeed qualified to talk to me, and everyone else should avoid it."

Originally, the military officer next to him wanted to talk, but when he heard what this guy said, he lost his temper for a moment. He was so arrogant, and the younger brother next to him couldn't stand it anymore, so he raised his gun and aimed at him, but the younger brother's The gun had just been raised, and the gunshot rang out, and the little brother was about to explode his head.

The little brother was standing next to the leader of the Sequoia gang, and he didn't react for a while, "You! Why did you shoot my people?"

Until now, they haven't seen clearly where the shooter came from. After all, He Chenguang was lying on the hillside and punched him at this time, and immediately changed to another place.

If the opponent rushed over directly, the leader of the Sequoia gang would fight directly, but the opponent was too calm, which made him confused for a while, and he didn't know what kind of strength the opponent was.

"What I just said is very clear, you'd better not act rashly, otherwise I can make all of you come and go, including you."

"What does this mean? Don't you know that this is my territory? With you alone, you really think you can exit safely."

The leader of the Sequoia gang also kept his temper, but Qin Yuan made a quick move in the next second, and the gun in his hand was directly snatched by Qin Yuan. The speed was so fast that even he himself did not react.

The younger brothers around raised their guns at Qin Yuan one after another, but Qin Yuan didn't panic at all, "I made it very clear, first put down all the guns, otherwise I won't guarantee your safety, and secondly, this Attitude, if you talk to me, then there is no need, now is the time for you to beg me."

The leader of the Sequoia gang frowned and thought for a moment, he really couldn't figure it out, the person in front of him could only wave his hand, telling the younger brothers not to act rashly, in case it was some important person.

Seeing that the other party had put down the gun, Qin Yuan also smiled and threw the gun over. He didn't care at all. After the leader of the Sequoia Gang took the gun, a hint of ferocity flashed in his eyes, and he shot immediately.

Qin Yuan dodged the bullet with a backflip, and a flying knife shot through his shoulder in the next second. Li Er and the others also took care of the younger brothers on the side. The war was about to break out, and Qin Yuan quickly jumped behind the stone.

"It seems that these guys really don't cry when they don't see the coffin. Give them some color and control, so don't beat them all to death."

After all, if this chain of interests is completely broken, then the military here will not let them leave. This place has become like this. If you want to really clean up these bastards, you have to be like the higher Headquarters to report.

So don't be so anxious now, Li Erniu and the others play these guys as if they were playing. They are just a gang of arms dealers, and the others have no real strength at all.

Soon these guys were beaten to pieces. The leader of the Sequoia gang watched his subordinates fall one by one. He was a little helpless because the strength of the opponent was too strong.

The military adviser next to him was just about to speak, but he was shot in the head. Seeing the military adviser fell, he was completely panicked. This guy has been giving him various ideas. Now that there is no military adviser, he doesn't know what to do .

In the end, seeing that there were fewer and fewer people under his command, he could only quickly raise his hands to express his surrender. After all, he brought so many people this time, but he was completely suppressed by a few people, mainly because the other party was completely attacking them. With oppressive suppression, they have no room to fight back.

Qin Yuan observed carefully again, and reconfirmed that the guy had surrendered, and then stood up from behind, "Don't pretend, those guys with guns had better put down their guns, otherwise I won't recognize anyone with this gun gone."

These guys are not the kind of desperate people, there is no need to insist on saying this all the time, put the gun down immediately, and have no backbone at all.

The boss of the Sequoia gang couldn't figure it out even more. This opponent was really too mysterious. After coming, he played such a big game and turned them around.

And Qin Yuan directly made two demands with him. The first is to release all the people in the underground factory, and the second is that in view of their losses to him, he now needs to compensate him 3 million dollars.

The leader of the Sequoia gang's eyes widened when he heard this. This guy opened his mouth wide, and how did he know the situation of his underground munitions? Could it be that the idea of a traitor has already appeared in his mind quickly flashed in his mind? Pass.

Chapter 1757: gun blueprints

Qin Yuan could see what this guy was thinking at a glance, "You don't need to think about that, I'm not discussing with you, but making a request with you, you just need to agree, of course it's okay not to agree."

The leader of the Sequoia Gang turned his head and looked at his situation. It is really dangerous now. Most of the people he brought have been killed or injured, but there are only a few people on the opposite side.

The little brother he brought saw that the situation was very bad, so he could only say beside him: "Brother, I think it's better to agree to his request directly, the main reason is that we don't even know who this guy is, and he doesn't know who he is." It was amazing, the guys he brought in were strong."

"I know this, but if we swallow this breath now, we will not be able to hold our heads up in this area later."

"But now if we don't agree to this condition with him, I think we may not be able to go out."

This little guy was shot in the head just after he finished speaking. The leader of the Sequoia gang could only roll over and hide beside him. They were shot at random.

And according to their marksmanship, it is too simple to hit themselves, it just depends on whether they are willing or not.

His inner defense was being defeated little by little, Qin Yuan raised his voice again, "I'll give you a minute to think about it, if you still don't agree, then I will let you all die under my gun."

His heart became more and more nervous, just when Qin Yuan started counting down, he suddenly stood up, for the sake of the people behind him, and for his own comfort, he went all out, besides, the money can still be earned later , at least save your life.

In this way, Qin Yuan successfully got 3 million US dollars from this underground arms dealer, which is not a small sum. The leader of the Sequoia gang was so angry that his teeth were itchy, but there was no way he could do it. This guy is really too strong. He really can't beat it.

Qin Yuan also went directly to his underground military factory to take a look, and then did a good deed by releasing all the people trapped inside.

The hotel owner was shocked the moment he saw Qin Yuan. He couldn't believe that this guy came to save him, including those administrators.

Until they were completely released, Qin Yuan patted him on the shoulder, and stuffed a wad of money into his pocket, "Take this money and leave quickly."

He was a little stunned, he didn't expect the person in front of him to help him, so he nodded, then staggered and ran out.

The leader of the Sequoia Gang didn't know what happened inside. He only saw that the people inside ran out, and the people inside froze when they saw them. What's going on? Are you going to let them go or not?

No one dared to move around. After all, these guys had guns in their hands. When the time came, no one would be able to escape if they were unhappy. However, at this moment, Li Erniu appeared behind them.

"What are you still doing in a daze? Hurry up, I want to stay here for the New Year."

Having said that, someone tried to walk forward, but found nothing unusual, and the people following behind also rushed out in a swarm, and the leader of the Sequoia gang could only watch helplessly.

He can't say anything until now, these guys are too strong, even in this situation, he has no chance of winning, these people under him are too weak, most of them are some local ruffians who were forcibly pulled by him. When you get up, it really doesn't work if you want to talk about combat effectiveness.

Qin Yuan had already arrived at the core of their underground factory. He looked at the machines being manufactured on the conveyor belt and took a part at random.

No wonder these guns have such a high degree of imitation. This machine was eliminated by the US military. As long as they have blueprints for imitation, there is no problem at all.

But the strange thing is that the Type 95 assault rifle on my side, why do they have blueprints? These are completely confidential. Qin Yuan checked around and found nothing special.

"Hey! You guys should explain, why do you have blueprints for the Type 95 assault rifle?"

The leader of the Sequoia gang is already in a fit of anger and has been suppressing the fire. Although he said that he can't beat the people in front of him, he has returned all his business and given all the people to him. I don't know when this batch of goods will get out.

"I have no idea."

Seeing this guy's attitude, Qin Yuan was not too polite to him. He rushed forward, grabbed his shoulder directly, and unloaded his shoulder with his backhand. His howling rang out in the whole room.

"It seems that you don't like the way I asked you before, so I'll ask you in this way, and I'll tell you again, if you don't answer honestly, next time I can just let it fold, just It's not just a dislocation."

The leader of the Sequoia gang was sweating from the pain. This guy's speed was too fast, and the subordinates next to him were indifferent, so we can't blame them. After all, the opponent's strength is too strong, who dares to rush forward so rashly?

He could only nod his head, expressing that he was willing to cooperate and would explain the situation. In this way, he led Qin Yuan and the others to another office. After entering, he groped in a safe for a while, and then took out several copies material.

"Look, this is the formula, but these things can be bought in the underground black market, and I also bought the formula from there."

He Chenguang also came over to check carefully, good guy, not only the Type 95 assault rifle, but also the CQ assault rifle, which was mainly imitating the design concept of the American m16a1 at that time.

This uses 5.56mm bullets, which can be switched to full-motion firing. Above the gunshots, a grenade launcher can also be installed.

Although it is modeled after the m16a1 automatic rifle of the United States, the damage is completely different. The cq assault rifle is more obvious, with higher accuracy and stronger firepower.

Now this gun is mainly used for export, and it has been ordered in large quantities by countries such as country a and Pakistan, but the money is currently in the hands of the blueprints, why do they appear here?

Qin Yuan continued to check down. Besides this, there was also the Type 97, which was developed by the Type 95 assault rifle based on the needs of foreign markets, and also used 5.56mm bullets.

This gun is mainly light in weight and has very good shooting accuracy. The magazine is straight and curved, which is conducive to quick reloading, and each magazine is a group of 30 rounds. The overall performance is very superb, and it is very popular among foreign countries. , is also the main export of weapons and guns.

Qin Yuan frowned after reading it. These guns are classified as confidential, and they are exported directly from here. These guys have made this kind of underground imitation, which has greatly affected the domestic trade rate.

However, the domestic export is mainly based on the regular army, and these underground armed forces can only be purchased from these sources.

He Chenguang felt that someone had leaked the secret here, so he didn't know where to start the investigation, "Brother Qin, this is really too much, it means that all our weapons can be known by others, it's like a spy ."

That's what Qin Yuan meant. He didn't expect to find these things in a small arms dealer.

He walked over and looked at the person in front of him coldly, "Where is the underground black market you mentioned? When did you buy these things? It's best to be honest."

The leader didn't dare to be stubborn in this situation, and explained everything in detail. First of all, the black market was an underground market located in country c.

These blueprints were purchased two years ago. Seeing that he explained well, Qin Yuan planned to go to the underground black market to check the situation. These things can be sold, so how many things do they not know?

However, at this time, the leader actually took the initiative to confess a little information.

"It's not my fault that you did this, and I'm not the only one who bought this thing, but other countries also bought it. Other arms dealers bought more than me. Why don't you check them?"

what! Li Erniu stepped forward and grabbed him. He didn't expect that there were other arms dealers. This guy is now a broken pot. In his opinion, he has been discovered, and there is no point in hiding it.

Everyone stop doing business, and he also wanted this guy to provoke other people, and wanted them to clean up Qin Yuan, but he completely underestimated Qin Yuan's ability.

"Don't believe me, there is an organization called mk4, you can go and see, they are the biggest arms dealer here, what am I, I can only chew some bones, they are the real meat eaters."

Under this guy's initiative, he not only explained the address of the organization, but also the specific situation inside, but he didn't know the more detailed information about the leader over there.

The corner of Qin Yuan's mouth raised slightly, it was really interesting, he went out for a trip and encountered such a thing for them, he took care of this mk4 organization.

Now he needs to conduct an investigation here first, wait for the results of the investigation to come out, and then send the investigation to the country. It is definitely what happened in the country. Either the information was stolen, or someone quietly in the research center. The blueprints are sold outside.

In this way, Qin Yuan and the others came to the address mentioned by the leader of the organization, but when they arrived, the building was already empty.

It seems that no one has lived in this place for a long time. Besides, the leader of the organization is not very reliable. This place looks like some kind of military factory.

"Brother Qin, these things have not been used for at least a year. There is a calendar on it, which is from last year. It is just some pots and pans. It looks like they left very early."

"This guy shouldn't be lying to us, but he doesn't know how the other party can tell them the specific situation in detail."

"Then what should we do now? These guys stretch their hands too far, and they even have all the blueprints of our weapon formula."

"That's okay. If you really have that ability, those researchers have also researched it. It's just that this situation must be dealt with in time. Otherwise, any more sophisticated research in the future will be stolen by them."

Qin Yuan plans to go directly to the underground black market now to check the situation from the source. As for this organization, we will talk about it later.

The leader of the Sequoia gang on the other side, he was lying in the room at this time, and the two younger brothers next to him found a doctor and were giving him medicine in fear. This guy frowned and looked impatient.

"Damn it, they're all a bunch of trash, even I can't protect you. Where did you all die just now? You didn't even dare to make a sound next to you."

The two little brothers just lowered their heads silently, neither of them dared to speak, he cursed secretly, and pulled the wound again, he could only gasp in pain.

"Brother, don't be angry, let's heal your injury first, and that guy doesn't know how powerful the world is, and now he dares to provoke those people in the underground black market."

"That's why I lured them there on purpose. Anyway, it is indeed the blueprint for going out there, but I want to see if this kid is really so brave?"

The underground black market was like a solid fortress, not just one of the groups protected him, but three groups in total maintained the black market.

So the power behind it can be imagined, rely on his few people to beat others, the leader of the Sequoia Gang laughed when he thought of this.

Qin Yuan had already taken people to the underground black market. When he arrived at the fruit, this underground black market was blatantly presented in front of them. To be precise, the entrance in front was a casino.

Seeing the peaceful surroundings, Li Erniu was very emotional, "Brother Qin, what's going on? Don't they just acquiesce that they can engage in this kind of black industry here?"

"The specific situation is not clear now. Let's go in and see what it says. It is legal to gamble at present, but we want to enter the black market. Let's go in and have a look first."

The casino here is very luxurious, and it is rare to see people walking in. They are basically driving, and most of them are luxury cars.

So far, Qin Yuan and the others are the only ones walking, so it looks very abrupt, and there is a driveway on the side, and there is no such thing as a sidewalk at all.

When a few people arrived at the door, the doorman at the door felt a little strange, but still stopped a few people.

"Several gentlemen, I'm sorry, but I also hope that you can provide your identity proof, we need to verify it."

What kind of verification is this going to do? Just when Qin Yuan was puzzled, the people next to him continued to explain that those who enter here must have a minimum asset of 3 million.

It turned out to be this, Qin Yuan smiled slightly, isn't that just right? I just got 3 million from there, and I was worried that there was nowhere to use it, so this would come in handy.

The verification method is also very simple. You can check directly on their computers. During the query, Li Erniu saw a few people getting on and off from the vehicle next to him, and walked in directly. They also welcomed them very warmly.

Chapter 1758: Regulations of the underground black market

"Hey! What are you doing? Why didn't you stop them and stop us?"

A few people next to him burst out laughing, especially those who got off the car just now, "Hey boy, where are you bumpkins from? Let me tell you, with your outfits, you want to enter here and dream."

Li Erniu didn't show his anger, he rolled up his sleeves and went forward to try to argue, but He Chenguang grabbed him. The people who come here to consume are not very kind, after all, it is either rich or expensive to be able to trade through the underground black market.

The man who spoke just now was accompanied by a few bodyguards. Seeing that Li Erniu was about to come up, the bodyguards also stood in front with interest, as if they were going to beat him up.

Seeing that the conflict between the two was about to happen, the staff who were checking at this time respectfully returned the card to Qin Yuan.

"Sir, after our verification, you are very qualified to enter, please enter through the door on the left."

After he finished speaking, he took out a walkie-talkie, and soon two staff members came out to take them. The man who was still mocking a few people just now was very unconvinced.

"I don't know what you are doing here now. How can you even put such a bumpkin in there? Who knows where you got some bad money?"

The staff was very embarrassed by the side, still maintaining the traditional smirk, and didn't say anything. After the man finished speaking, he was about to walk in. Li Erniu didn't miss this opportunity and squeezed directly into his before.

"You! What are you going to do?"

"What are you doing? We came first, of course we went in first."

Just like this, several people walked towards the inside. The bodyguard next to him wanted to come up and beat Li Erniu. Qin Yuan just made a slight movement and stretched out a hand to pat him on the shoulder. The bodyguard was sweating profusely in an instant. , fell down.

"Hey boy, why does this brother want to touch porcelain here? Then I don't have much money to give you, after all, we are bumpkins."

The bodyguard looked at the 1.8 meter tall man, and his body was relatively strong. Unexpectedly, Qin Yuan slapped him on the shoulder and fell down like that.

Even if the man just now wanted to say something, he saw it with his own eyes. It really seemed that he was a little too deliberate.

It can only be left by Qin Yuan. After Qin Yuan walked in, the man turned his head and looked at the bodyguard on the ground and cursed, "You are really useless. You will be fired from now on. Don't follow me and get slapped." Just fell to the ground, I don't know if you protect me or I protect you."

The bodyguard was also in a dazed state. Seeing that everyone had already left, he struggled for a long time, but he couldn't even stand up. When he finally stood up, he realized that he couldn't lift his right hand.

At this time, the bodyguard stared at Qin Yuan's back in horror. This person was really terrifying, and his right hand could not move with just a slight move.

The staff next to him all cast mocking looks, this guy is too pretending, and he is still acting deliberately here for so long.

The bodyguard sighed, and left helplessly. Sure enough, some people really hide their secrets, and it is impossible to see how strong they are.

It was only after Qin Yuan and the others entered the casino that they learned the rules. Those who want to enter the underground black market in this place must first spend at least two million in the casino to be eligible to enter.

This is another kind of selection, and when they enter the casino, what is 2 million, it is really only a small amount, Li Erniu is completely dumbfounded at this moment.

Take the man opposite them as an example, the man has already lost 10 million in just half an hour, but the man's eyes are wide open, and he is still constantly betting, looking very crazy.

There are not only winners and losers, but you can win two million or lose two million. As long as the consumption reaches two million, you can enter. This is the threshold rule for beginners.

And this rule is very detailed, and those who spend 2 million are entering the first-class black market. The things sold in this black market are some antique jewelry that are not commonly seen on the market.

Most of these antique jewels come from not very bright channels, and they are relatively expensive. If some people are willing to collect them, they can sell them here, which can be regarded as those antique dealers.

When the consumption reaches 5 million, you can enter the second-class black market. This place is basically for traders. When He Chenguang heard that people can trade, he was shocked, but it is indeed very common in this place, except In addition to women, there are bodyguards.

The staff next to them also deliberately took out a rule to inform them of the detailed situation. Most of these bodyguards are retired special forces. Mercenaries from various countries are very agile. Once they are photographed, they can become their subordinates. Taste.

Seeing this, He Chenguang felt a little strange. If you said it was a woman, it would be easier to control, but wouldn't you be afraid that someone like this who stretched out his hands would kill his employer?

The staff member smiled and explained beside him, "Sir, you don't have to worry about this situation. They all sign contracts with us and buy and sell voluntarily."

Of course they have the means of control. Anyway, this bodyguard will never betray the owner. Speaking of this, the staff also took out a laptop and showed them some previous transaction records.

I only saw a row of photos of several people on the top of the home page, there were men and women, and it turned out that the bodyguards were also divided, with their detailed introductions next to them, mainly explaining the troops they served in before and where they worked work, and the number of people they killed.

Now the number one on the top is a bald head, and the introduction next to him tells that he has killed a total of 173 people.

"Brother Qin, this guy is really good, and you can see his face, and his fists, this guy has a very strong physique."

The staff smiled slightly when they heard this, and said that their bodyguards here are carefully selected, as long as they have money in this place, they can buy anything.

And besides the bald head, there are many female bodyguards below. The staff next to him showed a wretched smile when he said this. He said that female bodyguards are the most chosen ones. Apart from protection, there are many things they can do Do.

Qin Yuan frowned, suppressing the discomfort in his heart. This place is really a sin city, and all kinds of dirty things can be seen here.

Next is the third floor. The third floor needs to consume 10 million yuan, and the VIP who directly enters them is at that place, which belongs to the arms transaction. Not only that, but also various blueprints.

Most of the transactions in this place are arms dealers, as well as leaders of militants. They will also recruit soldiers here. In addition to arms, they also directly sell entire combat teams here.

It has indeed refreshed Qin Yuan's previous views on the underground black market. The people behind this place are definitely not simple to set up such strict rules. It is much more complicated than he imagined before. It seems that it is not so easy to take control of this black market. .

"By the way, are those blueprints of your arms deal on the third floor real?"

"Sir, you can rest assured that we have many repeat customers here, and everyone will come here to sell and buy. Of course, we are acting as a middleman, and we will also undertake inspections."

Hearing this, Qin Yuan finally understood. It turned out that not all these things were from their black market, and some people even sold them.

However, he said that the munitions blueprints of this confidential level are all purchased by them and then sold, so you can rest assured that they must be intact.

After the staff introduced the rules, they left. Qin Yuan stood up, looked at Nuoda's casino, and prepared to change the chips first.

"Brother Qin, shall we go directly to the third floor?"

"That's right, let's just let go and play, brothers. I'm too used to you. Let's have fun today, but just don't make any trouble. Try to keep a low profile at this time."

Everyone nodded to show their understanding, and soon Qin Yuan changed the chips and gave the 3 million points to everyone. Anyway, the rules of the casino are that regardless of whether you win or lose, as long as you reach 10 million, you can enter the third floor.

He never thought of losing, just like that, Qin Yuan picked up a 100 yuan chip, and he gave all the rest to a few people, and the other people looked at each other when they saw it.

"Brother Qin, what do you mean? Do you just take 100 yuan? How is this enough? You will lose soon."

"Silly boy, do you think I will lose? This situation is absolutely impossible, don't worry, I'm just playing casually, you guys hurry up and play."

The reason why Qin Yuan took 100 was because the minimum bet here was 100, otherwise he still wanted to take only ten yuan.

Just after the few people left, the staff behind them whispered a few words in the headset, not noticing that the staff separated and followed them.

There are also very routines in this casino. Those who have just come in like them are newcomers. First, win them a small amount of money, and then let them lose a lot.

Qin Yuan had already noticed the people following behind him, he didn't say much, just looked here and there with his hands behind his back, and finally stopped in front of a machine for selecting the size of dice.

This rule is relatively simple, it is the way two people bet against each other, guessing the size directly, this kind of winning money is fast, and losing is also fast, because the winner can be determined every minute in a short period of time.

In the middle stood a dice shaker. The players on both sides did not know each other. At this time, a man was looking for a target. After all, no one came here to bet with him yet.

Just as Qin Yuan came over, he looked at the dice, and then dropped 100 yuan from the table. The staff frowned slightly after seeing it. of it?

The man on the opposite side was also very disdainful, "Brother, the money you gave is too little. I think if you want to play, you can play the big ones. If you want to save 100, it's so boring. Just pay 10,000 at a time."

Faced with the man's persuasion, Qin Yuan was not moved at all. He said that he only had 100, and he could play as much as he liked, and if he didn't, he would go to other places.

"Damn it, I waited for a long time, a poor man, 100 yuan, I really can't arouse any interest."

But the rules are like this, their minimum is 100, as long as someone is willing, they can overwhelm the man and throw a chip casually.

The staff began to shake the dice, and they could clearly hear the movement inside and distinguish the size of the inside after shaking Qingyuan a few times.

When it was about to end, the dice were placed on the table, and the staff members put their hands behind their backs to indicate that they would not cheat in any way, and the two began to place bets separately, betting big and small.

The man didn't care about the 100 yuan at all, and just threw it on the small one. Qin Yuan had already heard that the point was big, so he threw it on the big one.

When the staff opened the dice, the man was not surprised that 100 yuan was nothing, but what Qin Yuan did next shocked him even more.

In this way, Qin Yuan was able to win for five consecutive rounds. even made the man in the back press big at the same time as his family, and the one that came out was big.

In a short period of time, a pile of chips had piled up in front of Qin Yuan. He looked at it for nothing, and took the pile of chips to the opposite machine.

It is necessary to make a quick money, this betting chip is too small, at this time he noticed that the machine in front of him is a multiple, the bigger the multiple, the more he wins, but at the same time, he also loses this multiple .

Qin Yuan threw all the chips he had in his hand at once. After careful calculation by the staff next to him, it was about 30,000 yuan.

After Qin Yuan pressed the target he wanted, he pushed all the money up without hesitation. At this time, the staff just now quietly came to the machine. Now he is going to operate it. Guy wins all the time, let him lose a bit.

Operations like theirs allow people to play here all the time, winning and losing, without interruption.

This person and the staff who were operating the machine glanced at each other, and the two immediately understood that they were operating in the dark below, and the beads turned as they turned, and they were about to deviate from the point pressed by Qin Yuan.

Qin Yuan put his hand on the table and knocked on the table intentionally or unintentionally. With just a little force, the bead bounced back to its previous position.

Of course, even the staff member couldn't see this slight change. He didn't even notice that the beads bounced back completely. This speed is very fast.

Although Qin Yuan only had 30,000 yuan in his hand, he bet a full 16 times, which is already the largest multiple, and instantly won all the chips on the table. This operation stunned everyone.

"I'll go, this kid is so lucky, he won everything with that little thing."

Chapter 1759: casino showdown

The staff just now did not expect to let him come directly. This grand slam is completely an upset behavior. 16 times, all belong to him.

The man in black who had been following Qin Yuan just now came to the staff member, lowered his voice viciously and said, "What did you do? Didn't I ask you to re-operate? Why did you still count on his points?" ?"

"Well, I... I don't know, I just follow that kind of operation, but I don't know why it became like this."

At this time, Qin Yuan had asked the waiter to come over and take away the chips on the table for him, and went over there to exchange for bigger chips. After all, most of the chips here are 100 yuan, and he needs to upgrade to green chips later. That one chip represents 10,000.

This is also convenient to carry. It caused a lot of commotion here in a short period of time. Everyone was attracted by the situation here. After all, it is really rare to be able to issue such points.

Qin Yuan turned around and left gracefully. At this time, the staff looked confused. He really didn't know. He was obviously operating it. Could it be that there was a mistake in the machine?

At this moment, Qin Wukong turned his head and saw the staff who was following him. The staff was a little embarrassed for a while, so he could only turn his head and look in other directions.

Half an hour later, in an office in the casino, several people could no longer sit still. A man in black walked in and reported the situation to the people inside.

"Brother Feng, go and have a look, the situation outside is really not right, there are some people from Yan Kingdom."

"It's really interesting. It's rare to see people from the Yan Kingdom with such a high level. This kid is really lucky, and he can reach whatever point he wants to do."

"We don't know what's going on. At first we thought it was a machine error, but it works well on others. It's just that this kid is not very good. As long as he touches him, the machine will definitely fail. Which one does he want? Which one is it?"

"You mean that this guy dares to cheat on us."

The subordinate next to him nodded. After all, in his opinion, no one can be so lucky. They have already seen through these bets, and they must have played tricks behind them. Someone can really win from scratch without saying anything. tail? I have never seen it.

Hearing this, the man stood up and put on his hat, and then greeted a few of his subordinates, "It's been a long time since I saw such a courageous person, let's go, brothers, go out and do some activities, I want to see how he is doing Made it."

If I say that others are cheating in this place, then I must get evidence, otherwise it will be regarded as smashing their own brand, which will easily arouse the dissatisfaction of those gamblers.

Everyone comes here to have fun. If someone knows that there are some tricks in it, it is another kind of deception, and it is easy to smash their names.

This manager is called Yang Zifeng, and he was also a gambler who came here to play before. If you look carefully, he only has four fingers on his left hand, and his thumb has been neatly cut off.

I think back then he was also a veteran who was particularly good at making a thousand shots. It can be said that he had reached a state of perfection, and no one could see it. Fingers stay here to work and pay off debts, until now.

The reason why the boss above left him here for management is because this guy's eyes are particularly poisonous. He was already a master of thousands of dollars before, so it can be seen that other people have mixed up here in the management position over the years , and made a lot of contributions.

He came to the hall aggressively with a few people, only to see a gambling table surrounded by many people, which was exactly where Qin Yuan was.

Qin Yuan is now completely famous. Everyone said that there is a person who is very lucky. He has never lost and has been winning all the time. He has more and more chips behind him, and finally all of them have been replaced with large chips.

Yang Zifeng looked carefully at the game in front of him. The cards were simply dealt, and then doubled according to the size of the cards. I don't know what happened in the exam. It's a double reward.

But the problem is that he didn't see any clues after watching it for a long time. Could it be that he was lucky? He was a little strange, walked over and pushed the staff away, and sat down with a smile.

"Boss, I heard that you won a lot of money here, would you like to play with me? I wonder if you are interested in this?"

Qin Yuan looked at him and the few people around him and knew that this guy was here to find fault, but he could do whatever he wanted, and they couldn't see his own means at all. You must know that he had won the title of a thousand kings before. King's skills.

"Why do you mean this? I only won such a small amount of money. Is it necessary to move your cake? Is it necessary to target me like this? Isn't this bullying us? If it's like you, who will dare to win money in the future? "

Having said that, the other gamblers started booing one after another. They were just watching the excitement, and they all yelled beside this situation.

The main reason is that other people don't have such high means and luck as Qin Yuan. They kept talking about it. After he said this, everyone also wondered if there was something tricky in the end. How much money did they win, but they came to the door directly coming.

Yang Zifeng frowned slightly. The person opposite is really difficult to deal with. I didn't expect that a few words could stir up the emotions of the people next to him.

I can only quickly and euphemistically express that I just want to play with him, "I have been in the casino for so many years, and I have never seen such good luck. I don't know whether you are lucky or really rely on some skills, after all We also want to give everyone a fair place."

Qin Yuan burst out laughing when he heard this. This guy was just joking, and he wanted to give everyone a fair place, but he didn't know how much he had done with these machines.

However, he didn't expose the person in front of him, so let's play with him and see if the person opposite can spot his own skill.

"How about this, I usually play big as soon as I play, and I can ask them to count how many chips they have now, and I will decide the outcome in one game."

Yang Zifeng didn't expect the person on the other side to be so confident. The chips behind him were seven or eight million at least, so it was more than a game.

Just when he was hesitating, Qin Yuan hurriedly struck while the iron was hot, "What do you mean? Are you afraid to fight? Or is there something tricky on your side that dare not come to fight with me?"

"No, sir, I just want you to think clearly. After all, everyone is here to have a good time. Is it too much for you to play like this?"

"Yes, what you said is to have a good time, and I have a good time. The gameplay is like this. It's very simple. Let's compare the size directly. Do you dare to shake the dice?"

Yang Zifeng already had a plan in mind when he heard this, this guy is really looking for death, he hit his own gun directly, rolling dice is his best way of paying money, he can change the number of dice at will.

Coupled with the fact that there are so many people around now, at his speed, no one can tell that he is out of money, and it is no problem to get the money back.

The staff next to him were already counting the number of chips, and Li Erniu and the others also came over at this time. Li Erniu and the others didn't get any money from winning or losing, and almost lost half of it.

Seeing how lively Qin Yuan's side was, they all came over one after another, and Qin Zhengyang was even more aggrieved.

"Brother Qin, it seems that I am really not suitable for playing these things. I lost all the money you gave me, and I lost too fast. I don't know what happened. Anyway, I said which side to bet on, I will lose of."

"It's okay, just relax, I'm just here to play anyway, the money is nothing, let's see if the money behind me has been won back."

Li Erniu gave a thumbs up in admiration. How dare they compare with Qin Yuan. His luck has always been very good, and no one can compare with him.

Soon, the staff at the back had already counted all of them, with a total of 7.8 million. This movement gathered all the gamblers around, and everyone was attracted by the people in front of them.

Everyone is talking about it. You must know that Qin Yuan only used 100 yuan at the beginning, and it turned directly to 7.8 million. Bet on everything.

So this one is very interesting, all the people around gathered together, and a few veterans from the casino analyzed the situation by the side.

"I think this kid is too young and ignorant at all. If I were him, I would have given up and walked away with 7.8 million yuan, which would be enough for him to live a lifetime."

"Who says it's not? It's luck. Sometimes it can be so good. He just kept winning this time. It's estimated that this lot will really be lost here."

"That's not necessarily the case. I think this guy has some tricks. Anyway, I played with him a few times later. I followed him wherever he went. I won a lot of money with him. I think this kid has something."

Everyone has their own opinions, but most people are watching the fun. In this case, the 7.8 million one game to determine the outcome is indeed a relatively large game.

Yang Zifeng was very confident. Now that the other party had expressed it, he accepted it openly, and then called a staff member beside him.

The staff first opened the dice for everyone to check that there was nothing wrong with the dice, and then put them on the table. In this game, each side held a pair of dice and began to shake the dice.

The most basic and simplest way to play, whoever has the most points wins, the corner of Yang Zifeng's mouth rises, the two sides start to shake the dice almost at the same time, Qin Yuan can hear every point clearly.

The two stopped the dice again at the same time, and on the table where they took pictures instantly, Yang Zifeng was very confident in the number of points he played, and he uttered wild words directly.

"Brother, how about this, since you have already played with me, I will be more polite, on behalf of our organizer, I will bet you 8 million, if you win, the 8 million will all belong to you, It would be embarrassing if you said you lost."

"Needless to say so much, just open the dice."

Yang Zifeng was a little surprised. The people in front of him didn't seem to care about this little money at all, and they were still very calm in this situation. You must know that most gamblers have already lost their nerves by this time.

Now the other party is very relaxed, which makes him feel a strange feeling in his heart, but the two are so far apart, and there are more than a dozen people around, all of them are their staff, all staring at Qin Yuan's hand It's impossible not to see the action.

"Okay, no more ink marks, I'll open it first."

Without further ado, Qin Yuan opened the lid directly, and everyone at the scene gasped. The opening was 18, and all three dice were six points up.

Now everyone's eyes are focused on the opposite person. This kind of probability is basically difficult to achieve. It seems that this guy is sure, and the eyes of the old fritters who surrounded him just now also widened.

"You see, I'll say that this kid's luck is simply against the sky! Just like that, he got 8 million directly."

"I didn't even see how he shook it. Do you think it's possible that he moved his hands and feet?"

"Nonsense, the few of us didn't notice it when we were so close, and this is their territory. didn't even realize what we were."

"Okay, stop talking, you guys, hurry up and see, they are going to open!"

Having said that, everyone focused on Liu Zifeng. Now Liu Zifeng was in a cold sweat. He didn't know what method the other party used to do it, because the dice in his hand were different.

Qin Yuan's dice are ordinary dice, but his dice are specially made, and the points can be changed. Under everyone's eyes, he also opened the lid, but he did not expect to have the same points as Qin Yuan.

There was a burst of exclamation at the scene, this has never happened before, this is a duel between masters and masters.

To be able to cast the same dice at the same time, I don't know how this technique is done, then this round is equivalent to a draw, and we can only go to overtime.

Cold sweat broke out on Liu Zifeng's back. It was rare for him to meet such an opponent. To be able to hit such a high number of points with ordinary dice was really different.

This made him feel that he was challenged. He hadn't seen such a master for many years, and this situation must not happen in the next hand. He could only change the dice.

Now he needs to find a way to change the dice in Qin Yuan's hand, and replace him with a special one that can only control the number of points, so that he can mess up his points at will.

Otherwise, if another one is opened, the points will still be exactly the same, what will the gamblers outside think? Here he can control it by himself, so everyone will definitely feel that there is a problem, because the probability is simply impossible to reach such a high level.

Qin Yuan was very relaxed, and showed a regretful expression, "I really can't help it. I thought it would be settled in one game, but I didn't expect an overtime game. Come on, I'm getting impatient with waiting, let's end it quickly."

Chapter 1760: find out who's behind

Looking at Qin Yuan's smug face, he felt even more anxious. This person's concentration is much stronger than his, and his psychological quality is really good. He has not been able to achieve such calmness for so many years.

The younger brother next to him also noticed some abnormalities. He looked at his boss so anxiously that he broke out in a cold sweat.

"Brother Feng, don't worry, isn't watching my performance just to exchange the things in that kid's hands for ours?"

"There are too many people here, you should pay attention to yourself, don't let other people see what's wrong, or the boss behind will be unhappy."

The younger brother nodded confidently, and then suddenly slapped the table, "It's absolutely impossible for me. Just now we only checked the dice on our side. Is there any problem on your side?"

This made Li Erniu and the others feel strange, why did this guy scream suddenly, everyone's attention was attracted by the man in front of him, and his chattering probably meant that Qin Yuan must have passed away. up.

After all, both sides can shake out, the probability of this is too low, it is basically impossible to do, so that the people around began to point fingers.

In addition, many people are commenting that they think this probability is indeed too low, but it is not clear which side will win.

The little boy said that he was about to catch the dice, and Li Er Niu's eyes were quick, and he grabbed his wrist, "I said what are you going to do? Take your hands away, the game is not over yet, don't you think about it?" Move your hands here."

This person is also at the level of hob meat, seeing that this situation is not good, and Li Erniu's strength is so great that he can't move at all just by pressing his wrist, so he can only fall to the ground.

"Look quickly, this guy is getting an injection, what are you doing? You are here to make trouble in the casino."

Having said that, the surrounding security guards surrounded him one after another, and seeing the situation getting worse, Qin Yuan stood up.

"What's the big deal? Don't you just want to see the dice? It's fine if you can't see it. It's so thought-provoking. Those who don't know think that you are going to secretly change the dice for me."

Talking about what seemed unintentional in person, actually hit the mark directly. Several people looked at each other in dismay about their inner activities, and they were a little embarrassed, especially the little brother who was lying on the ground and kept calling.

"What is this guy talking about? We won't do that. We just want to see if there is anything tricky. This is also for the sake of fairness."

They kept saying that for the sake of fairness, Qin Yuan threw out the dice casually, and several people hurried forward to check, and then at this opportunity, the man in black next to him quickly took out another dice from the phone and put it in.

I have to say that these guys' techniques are really too fast. No one in the periphery has noticed their movements. Qin Yuan has already seen through them. He smiled slightly and watched them perform quietly. Anyway, no matter what, these Everyone loses.

After they checked that there was really no problem, several people put the dice back. In fact, the dice had already been replaced by them. No matter what, it was impossible to roll the dice to the maximum point, so after all the calculations, they were sure. It is the opposite side to win.

He Chenguang looked at the person across from him and suddenly relaxed, so he knew there must be something wrong.

"Brother Qin, look at the faces of these guys, they seem to have succeeded, they must have tampered with."

"Let's do whatever they want, no matter how they move, they can't play with me."

He Chenguang admired Qin Yuan's self-confidence, but the person opposite him was even more confident at this time. He didn't know what kind of opponent he was meeting. This had already changed the dice, no matter how much he shook it, it would not change. My side is big.

"Hurry up, I can't wait any longer, after all, I have other things to do, so I can't stay here all the time."

The person on the opposite side didn't say any more, and quickly shook the dice. As long as his points reached 16 or 17, he could easily beat Qin Yuan, and there was no problem at all.

This time he didn't hesitate too much, and after shaking, he looked at Qin Yuan with a smile on his face, "I'm very sorry, sir, I probably heard my dice count, so this time I might disappoint you ."

Qin Yuan also smiled, and opened the lid directly. When the lids on both sides were opened, the people around screamed, and the gamblers were even more crazy, and shouted directly beside them.

Qin Yuan's total points were eleven, while the opponent only had eight. This time Qin Yuan won, and the audience must have cheered. This gave them hope, and they won 8 million in just one hand.

The staff around couldn't believe what was going on. He looked at the dice in his hand and checked it. There would be absolutely no problem, but at this moment, under the witness of everyone, Qin Yuan won!

Looking at the person opposite him sitting completely slumped on the ground, the opponent's method is really too clever, you must know that he has used his hands and feet to do this.

He really didn't understand, and at this time Qin Yuan stepped forward and whispered in his ear: "If you don't have that ability, don't come out and pretend, this is the end, I don't want to talk to you about the rest, just take the money Bar."

It's very simple, Qin Yuan directly changed his points through the frequency of the table when he was doing something, and everyone present didn't notice.

This is because his ability is stronger than their high-tech, and he can change the points at will without intending to.

At this moment, Qin Yuan has become the representative of everyone, making a name for himself in the casino with time, and more importantly, he has the opportunity to go to the highest level for third-level transactions.

Li Erniu looked at the so many chips in front of him, it was all money, "Brother Qin, you are too good, the outcome is determined in one round, and you have won so much money directly. It's just wasting."

"This thing is just about skill, not luck. It can only be said that some people are really bad."

Wang Yanbing looked at those chips, and he also thought of a question, whether it would be too high-profile, and it would attract the attention of the higher-ups instead.

"What I want to do is this kind of high-profile. It would be even better if the people behind their underground black market can see me. I can directly ask them about the formula, and there is no need to go around such a big circle."

Wang Yanbing suddenly remembered, no wonder Qin Yuan made such a big commotion, everyone was attracted by him, he not only wanted to go to the third floor, but also attracted the people behind.

This trick is indeed too clever, and on the other side they also entered the auction room on the third floor under the arrangement of the staff, but the auction time is 8 pm, and there are still two hours left, they can go to eat first thing.

After the few of them left, a man behind the monitor threw a coffee cup directly on the waiter's head. After being hit, the waiter didn't say a word, covered his ***** head, and walked out silently.

"Since that trash is no longer good enough, just drag it out. I never raise idlers here."

The two men in black behind nodded and went down to solve the problem. As for these people, he folded his arms and began to study. After a while, a man in black stepped forward and handed over a document.

"Sir, this is the information they registered just now. It only registered that person. We found his name and related information based on his card information, but it is very vague, because we also checked the others. not."

This man is Wu Bin, the person in charge behind the casino. He is in charge of the casino, and the other two people in charge are responsible for the underground black market. A total of three people are responsible for it.

They are several organizations that manage this side at the same time, so they can also sign each other, and they cooperate together, no one dares to make trouble here, but today he really watched a good show.

He took the information and looked at the name on it, and read it silently, "Qin Yuan? It's really interesting, this kid's ability is quite strong, I didn't even see how he made a fortune."

The younger brother who spoke just now was a little confused. To be honest, could this situation really be his luck? After all, so many monitors didn't see his tricks, so it shouldn't be a thousand dollars, right?

"Do you think you have stayed here for so long, do you really believe in luck? The way this guy appeared is too clever, even our technology can't handle it."

"Sir, do you want me to do this guy now?"

"Idiot, if you do him for such a talent, won't this cut off my money? 8 million is nothing, it's just to give him a little sweetness, this kind of talent should stay."

After listening to the little brother, he quietly withdrew. At this time, Qin Yuan and the others also came to the auction site after dinner, and the auction was not over yet.

But this place is obviously much more high-end than the places they went to before. Every place is a cubicle, and they don't know the people around them, and they can't tell who they are.

"Brother Qin, how are we going to investigate later?"

Li Erniu is still quite anxious, because now he doesn't know how to start with this kind of thing, and even the other party doesn't know how to buy this thing. After buying it, they just bought a formula, and they don't know where it came from. .

Qin Yuan, on the other hand, was very relaxed. He leaned on the chair and stretched his legs, indicating that he was going to sleep now. When the auction started, they would let them bid whatever they wanted, no matter what it was.

"Ah! Brother Qing, are you really right? Everything needs to be photographed. We don't have enough money."

"Isn't that much money enough for you to shoot? You can shoot as much as you want, and what you're asked to do is that someone will come to us soon in the early stage. Don't worry, it won't go anywhere, it's definitely enough."

After Qin Yuan finished speaking, he closed his eyes leisurely on the chair and rested his mind. Several people stared wide-eyed. Although they didn't understand Qin Yuan's meaning, there must be a reason for him to do so.

Half an hour later, the auction officially started. The previous procedures were all the same. The auction officially started after the host finished the introduction above.

It's just that the difference here is that the price reduction is not so drastic, because everyone can't see each other and can only hear the voice broadcast next to them.

The first thing to be auctioned was the heavyweight, and the others turned out to be the m109a2 self-propelled howitzer from the United States. This is too lethal. You can change the shooting angle, get different ranges, and the most important thing is to have better firepower. sex.

Moreover, there are anti-personnel bombs, explosive bombs, and anti-explosive bombs and other main shrapnel distributed among them. It is really a different arms auction, and these things are directly taken out.

"I'll go, their starting price is too low, 3.6 million US dollars."

He Chenguang rolled his eyes at him, "You just don't understand anything. The starting price is so low, but it will rise immediately after you see it. It's all going up slowly like a ladder."

Sure enough, after the basic starting price was reported there, it immediately went up continuously, reaching 15 million in just ten minutes.

This was already the highest price, and there was basically no one shouting at the back. He Chenguang next to him didn't hesitate. He remembered Qin Yuan's explanation and directly quoted 15.1 million.

At this time, the offer of 15 million felt that the other side must be against him. What is this doing? So he didn't dare to show weakness, and called back directly, so He Chenguang also called back, and the final price was set at 15.5 million.

Now they finally know why at least 8 million people can come up to the third floor, has just started to reach such a high level, and most people really can't make it.

"Chenguang, I just want to say what's the use of you buying this thing, and we can't take it back."

"You idiot, think about what Brother Qin said just now, everything was photographed no matter what, is it enough to pay him back?"

The novel app that has been running stably for many years is comparable to the old version of the book chasing artifact, and the source-changing app used by old bookworms,]

Just like that, they didn't care about other things anymore, as soon as the host below opened their mouth, they would reveal today's price, making it impossible for the people below to raise the price at all, and the seven items before the time were all auctioned off by them .

People around felt strange, what happened to the people in that room, didn't they monopolize all the roads?

"I'll go, where are the people in that room from top celebrities? The price is too outrageous, tens of millions of them have gone out in a short time."

"Who knows what's going on over there? There's no such thing as an auction price. I don't think it's making trouble."

"Hehe, you all underestimate the management ability here, if those people are really making trouble, they won't be able to get out at all."

The other melon eaters just watched quietly, curious about the characters in that room. Just when He Chenguang and the others were about to continue to bid for others, there was a knock on the door of the room.

Several people became vigilant in an instant, Qin Yuan also stretched his waist, and sat up slowly, they opened the door only to see the previous staff.

"Several guests, I see that you have indeed photographed some of our auctions. Our husband has also seen your strength, so our husband specially invites you to the noble living room at the back."
