

Special Soldier 1821

Chapter 1821: organization's order

He has obviously worked hard here, especially the place he is in now, which is absolutely confidential to him. This place can be said to be a stronghold he plans to hide in the future.

Inside this organization, many things are related to intelligence, there is no privacy at all, and the place he is in has not been reported to the organization before, so this place is safe for him, if there is any problem later, He can hide here.

However, because the situation was more urgent, he brought these people to this place, but this guy was not satisfied.

Yang Ziming also seemed to have noticed the cold attitude of the other party. He originally wanted to complain a few more words, but he knew that the current situation was very unfavorable to him, because he had never had much interaction with this person before.

In the end, the two broke up unhappy like this. At this moment, Babika showed an excited smile on his face, because he had successfully found the dark thread hidden by the organization and was now getting in touch.

"Everyone keep quiet immediately."

At this moment, no one else dared to say anything more, because this old-fashioned device has become incomplete in all aspects, so it takes a lot of effort to hear the information sent from the other side clearly.

Yang Ziming didn't know what the other party Didi was sending. He was a little nervous at the moment, and he didn't know what the order was.

But he knew that there was another contact person above him, and that was Uncle Xiang. This person was the contact with his parents before, and he only met him once when he was a child. Have you ever seen that I just live without that person?

Babika mainly reported the current situation vividly, and I was also relatively calm in my heart, so I deliberately concealed it.

In that situation, the human heart is the most active, and everyone is trying to minimize their own interests, because they don't want to disclose anything, and if they have a big heart inside, they will lose their lives.

"Of course, the organization will send someone to pick you up tomorrow morning at the latest. It will take time for us to come here, and without the experience of the organization, you will be even more dangerous."

That guy is too cold, and it really turned 360 degrees. Just now, he was full of admiration for himself, but now he seems to have a bad attitude. Did the organization say something to me?

Babica knows that the organization's methods are sometimes very cruel, so I also want to cause trouble for myself. As long as I cooperate with the bad organization, I can't wait for the manpower here to end the operation.

In fact, the organization sent professional technicians at that time. As long as they can get the things out of our hands, it should be impossible to decipher.

The family had dinner together at noon, but there was something wrong. The food they ate was more complicated. We basically ate some fast food. We also monitored Qin Yuan inside. Although we knew what was said in the telegram, we just lived on and continued to wait. .

If there is a lack of an extra copy, the data will still be alive, and it needs to be regressed and deciphered. If there is doubt, it will increase the difficulty. Later, in order to persuade Xiaojia to act together with me, I came up with this best strategy. I don't think that's the case. To be able to protect Xiaojia, I thought that it would become like that now.

Babica snorted, I don't care about that, at least the organization trusts me now, the problem is that I have reported the situation, and according to the requirements of the organization, He Chenguang should transmit the missing information as soon as possible .

Qin Yuan was lying on the opposite hillside, and he could hear the situation outside the yard clearly. He laughed out loud when he heard the outside. So bad ever.

"Okay, it's not enough chaos now, maybe it's adding chaos? You said later that you will promise them the previous things. That organization is very trustworthy, and you will give them as much as you can."

And at that time, the message below also replied, but Tu Yanxiong was also very excited, I hurried over to see what was going on, the message sent below, we didn't have a codebook next to us, and we were retreating to translate it.

Several of us have a piece of data under our hands, and we must combine all those data together to achieve the most fragmented intelligence.

What He Chenguang thought was that just as I retreated, I saw Babica laughing, then walked over and patted me on the shoulder.

"Yes, if I would resist, it's just up to me to choose now. I'm sure that guy is not pretending. He might contact you. That would be worse. I can't choose to cooperate with you, which saves trouble, but The chances of that are very high."

Yang Ziming kept holding back his breath, and it was the same as what we promised from the end, so I was not prepared, and no matter what, I would have said that.

As for the data held by our subordinates, whoever holds the data knows the password only if we don't know the password. It must be deciphered weakly, which will only lead to victory.

At this time, the two armed men outside the yard just looked at us with a bad face. Maybe Tu Yanxiong was worried that those people would attack us suddenly, after all, everything was right.

"He! He will kill all of you Xiaojia like that. I'm sure his property will be destroyed, the data will be broken, and the things you sent will be meaningful."

"Brother Qin, it looks like we're really fighting among ourselves. How would that guy resist? After all, he's in a foreign country."

"By the way, the captain outside Brother Qin's brigade, you always feel that although you have seen me wearing a mask later, it seems like I have met you face to face at some point."

What I need to do now is not to stabilize He Chenguang, but to make me unaware, otherwise these materials will be preserved. "Your brother, you are hopeless now. You just need to wait for the organization's response outside. You just send us your location."

I just warned a few people with my eyes, telling us not to talk nonsense. Although we can communicate with each other, it will be troublesome if people outside don't understand.

"Why did we come back to this place again, what's going on?"

The main reason is that guy's attitude. He has been very attentive to himself since the end of the morning. Before eating and thinking about it, I feel more and more that it is okay. I must talk to that person.

"Yes! It's possible. Your parents didn't work for the organization afterwards. Your status is lower than him. Why did everything change in that place? And the organization said later that you promised you everything before you came here, rarely That's what everything says."

He Chenguang is an idiot, I feel that such a sudden change, if only my status would be lowered, if it weren't for the possibility that the organization wanted to kill people, the feeling in my heart would become weaker and weaker, but now it is showing bad .

I explained what I heard outside and the team members retreated. Qin Zhengyang was also surprised, and then I knew that Tu Yan's hearing is very good.

Song Xiaoyang expressed his understanding, and then quietly followed. Now the two sides are retreating almost at the same time, and everything is under Tu Yan's control.

That time we chose to kill and silence, partly because He Chenguang's status was ordinary, and I hadn't been caught by Yan Guo yet, the movement that guy made was generally small, and brought great danger to the organization , so the worst way is not to kill people.

"You want to know what message was sent to him and you need to avoid it. You must be here to pick you up. Why should you avoid it?"

He Chenguang outside the room is not sitting still, I feel more and more that something is not right.

He Chenguang clenched his fists. I wanted to resist at first, but there was nothing I could do in that place, and that was not the choice I made at the beginning. At first, I could only sigh helplessly, then turned and walked out of the yard.

Song Xiaoyang is far away, so he can only judge through his eyes. Looking at these eyes is definitely unfamiliar to me. The brigade is fully armed and wears all white masks, so it can be seen from the specific face.

"Mr. Yang, did he understand it? After that, he should have learned the most basic rules. It is allowed to ask questions, and he should know those things."

He Chenguang turned his head and looked at those people who dodged their eyes, and I instantly understood that it seemed that those people had discussed it in private.

So he lowered his voice, "I'm sure if he wants to do that again, if you will hand over your data on the USB drive, he will retreat to negotiate with us anyway, you are in charge of some * organization, you should honor what you promised , you just destroy it directly, anyway, you have lived enough."

When I wrote the content on the paper, I was instantly dumbfounded, and I asked He Chenguang to avoid it next time, and now the content that needs to be sent separately needs to be connected with Babika separately.

"Oh, it seems that you are still your old acquaintances. This is even more boring. Since the people who can meet you are all complicated characters, he should be more careful."

"You hope that he can keep his promise, but since you came there, there have been twists and turns. First, you avoided all kinds of things. You haven't given up on your family here. Now it's like that again. He said what to do ?"

And at that time, Tu Yanxiong came out angrily, and I punched the opposite wall, venting my anger, why everything has changed since I came to that place.

The main reason is that the location was concealed from the subordinates. In the subsequent espionage work, everything that was missing must be confessed to the subordinates.

He Chenguang turned his head and looked at the two militants, to make sure we didn't look over there. Before I grabbed Yang Ziming, "You tell him again, he can take care of the matter and mention it to you. He forgets about these guys." Who is it? We kill people in the blink of an eye, and we will use various criminal laws on him until the secret is revealed."

"You don't care about that. He can't ask for our opinion. He can always decide all by himself. Besides, he will know how the weak man is now. The weak man was killed at that time. Old Liu who was thrown away by us afterwards."

At this time, Babika's heart skipped a beat, that guy guessed it right, and it was true, who let me touch the bottom line of the organization?

Qin Yuan also knew that the possibility was too small, so he asked Xiaojia to continue to observe, anyway, he was monitoring us now, and he didn't know where to go.

"But you want to know now. After all, you know what kind of mess he will say. You want your brother to follow you to die in that place for nothing."

He Chenguang looked at me without any anger. That guy is really a stubborn person, but I have nothing to do now. At that moment, people outside the house came out and asked us to retreat.

"Is he sure there is a problem with you waiting there?"

"Brother Ming, what happened? You were kicked out of nowhere. Now that you know everything, it's exactly the same as what he promised later."

However, I was still quite intense on the surface, so I raised the water glass under the table and took a sip of water, then said calmly: "The organization told you about other things, if it is necessary to report to him, he will live, the organization If they will treat him badly, then send someone over to pick them up, you just have to wait for us to come over."

"Okay, he slows down and doesn't waste time. Now you can do what the bottom says. Don't embarrass Xiaojia."

Qin Yuan felt that those few things were quite strange, so he asked Song Xiaoyang to follow them with great heart, try to keep the distance as far as possible, and make sure that the target is lost, it doesn't matter, after all, it is relatively easy to live.

"Does he think you will be afraid? Now you haven't been forced to a dead end by them. Anyway, you will die sooner or later. I am sure they will delay you. You will give them those things."

At that time, Song Xiaoyang, who was monitoring here, sent another intelligence. Song Xiaoyang said that the brigade I left under surveillance has now returned, and brought a few militants, but these militants are completely The state of being tied up.

After that, He Chenguang originally wanted to save the data in batches. Each person did not have an independent USB drive, and the data was stored outside, which could also protect Xiaojia to a minimum.

"It's as if they are asking us some kind of question. One of the eight people has not been killed yet, and there are two remaining. These two people seem to have compromised. Now they are preparing to take us away. If you want to follow? "

It's too exaggerated to think about it. We can hear everything outside so far away, but Qin Yuan can hear it clearly, and he is so sloppy.

Yang Ziming was even more reconciled, I think everything he said after that counted, and the more important thing was that he was fleeing all the way.

I said in the report that I just found a temporary stronghold, and now I am retreating to the risk report, and I plan to see if there is no instruction for the next step to get off work.

But now I am hiding it without permission. The most annoying thing in the organization is not being manipulated. My behavior has completely touched the bottom line, so it didn't give me any bad looks.

Chapter 1822: Watch the fun!

"Don't worry, the things that the organization promised you before will be fulfilled. Although I haven't connected the things here before, I have seen too many things when I was in the rear."

Babica is very smart, he knows what Yang Ziming needs now, so he cleverly bypasses the subject and tells him about the beauty of life in the future.

"And don't worry, we will make proper arrangements for you. People who come here will have a special residence, and that place will also be managed by a special person, including that you can also get married and have children there later."

Sure enough, Yang Ziming was immediately attracted by what he said, "Is what you said true?"

"Since your parents have been here for so many years for the organization, do you think there will be fakes?"

Yang Ziming nodded, which completely comforted him, but at the same time he also felt a little curious, that is, what happened to yesterday's attack?

"At first, I doubted whether the domestic side would send people to hunt me down, but I thought something was wrong. There is no need to go to war in the country, and this is not their style of doing things. I think that seems to want to drive us all to death. "

"That's right, it's not from your side. You probably haven't noticed your whereabouts yet. I keep your itinerary very secret. I calculated it, and it's from the US side."

"What!"

You have a serious face, he can't believe how you can get in touch with the United States, and at this time Babika also feels that the person on the other side won't live too long, and tomorrow morning before everything starts, I will become a Corpse, just tell me about Hanhu.

Li Qiniu was eating beef jerky while watching the bad show, "Qin Yuan, just say what Chen Guang said about that person so daoist, does he think this guy is the captain you met in this training camp later?" ?"

What followed was not a faint explosion, but the surrounding wall was shaken down, and the surrounding glass hadn't broken yet, and the shrapnel flew back.

But what Barbica said is very Taoist, it is very strange if anyone knows my hiding place.

"You go to ask for support from the organization now, worry about it, you will be able to withstand it, those guys are too crazy, they dare to buy your information for nothing."

Zhen Yuemin continued to observe the location sent at any time here, and let Brother Qin see our location information. It was too fast, and I also found that something was wrong. The two people who led the way seemed to be too daoist. Very few things are detours.

"Afterwards, you said that you would take them to eat and drink. It's true that going abroad is as dangerous as you are in China, but the absolute conditions will be very bad. They can't find Li Guo girls here."

After all, He Chenguang understands, no wonder that guy's attitude towards him has not changed, it seems that it should be what the lower part said to me, it should have nothing to do with the promise.

"What!"

It's just that what happened that time was beyond everyone's expectations.

Moreover, we went the wrong way once during the period, and it took us a little time before we walked back to the right path. Brother Qin was in a very high position that time, and that place should have been discovered by these militants. We Bringing these people over.

"Zhen Yue, is that too bad? What if our protagonist is killed?"

Brother Qin quickly sat up, and I asked Yang Ziming to send me a location. From this location, it is indeed what we experienced later. Could it be that our destination is there?

The people outside the house are very good. The people brought in just now found the bunker position slowly. We observed the surroundings. These American brigades are also vegetarians. Our speed was very slow, and we all jumped back into the yard and retreated to attack.

"They don't talk, we want you to hand over the information in your hands now, do they think it can't be handed over? Once you hand it over, you think you will die."

As time goes by, the sky is getting brighter. If there is any small problem over there, Brother Qin asked Xiaojia to change to rest. I leaned against the pit and ended up sleeping. Received an intercom signal from Yang Ziming.

He Chenguang retreated to negotiate with us again, and when the two sides were talking, there was a clear and crisp sound outside the courtyard inside.

The opponent's attitude was very weak, and the people next to him all took out their weapons, which made He Chenguang vaguely feel that nothing was too good.

"Anyway, they are all defeated. Let us make a fuss first, and you can just start directly."

Afterwards, the company promised me that it would not give me a new position before I came here. I would be a supervisor, and the treatment in all aspects would be very bad.

After that, there were no bad scenes, and Qin Zhengyang, who was next to him, was very energetic and excited, and I felt that all the good and bad came, and then he caught them all.

He Chenguang frowned slightly, which made me not too unhappy. It was the same as what I said later, and I said that if it could be given to us outside.

"Qin Yuan, those people must have delayed cracking it, what should we do?"

"His elder brother, stop talking. You are thinking of a way now, worrying, we can break these passwords, and you can delay it."

But at that moment, the staff at the door suddenly reached out and stopped me.

"Daoist, He Chenguang is so stupid, will I easily let those people crack it? I should be able to deal with it, wait for those people to come, you can watch a bad show first."

Zhen Yuemin was lying on the ground holding his head tightly. I dared to move. The gunshots from inside made me very scared. I dared to lift my head, and the bullets were also heading outside the house. snapshot.

"You see, his eldest son is not too impulsive, what to fight, does he know what you are in charge of now? Just watch the play badly by the side."

"Qin Yuan, you feel that something is not right. The direction we came from looks like the direction he gave you later."

"Did he say that you are in danger now? Will we chase them down again? Did you expect things to develop like that?"

"Brother Ming, is what he said true? According to that, you will be in danger tomorrow."

The few people next to him all showed satisfied smiles when they heard that. It seemed that it was indeed wrong. Although the later stage was very bumpy, there was a problem when it stabilized in the early stage.

"Do they remember the brigade that rushed back at that time? It must have been protected by the guards around you. You came here at all. We didn't come here for them. We wanted to take them back and seize the information of their subordinates. ."

Babica smiled slightly. I watched He Chenguang go out, put away my smile, and poured the glass of water on the ground. Anyway, for a dead person, those are necessary.

So if it were me, I would not be here to clean up the door. As for the number of these militants, I would feel distressed. Anyway, the organization would send someone over to us.

"So no one is doing bad hiding, and it's all going to be heavy and easy to do before the meeting. When the time comes, look at your signal."

Babica led the people to counterattack, and I said to the people who came to support: "You know why the outside was exposed. That's not the Americans and those * you mentioned later. We have been leading you all the time."

"Ah! How did this happen? What are you going to do now?"

Of course, Xiaojia would miss the opportunity to watch a bad show, and at that time, two vehicles drove up nearby, and some people in uniform got out of the vehicles.

"Qin Yuan, what are you going to do now? Continue to retreat and follow? Or should you give us a break?"

Before getting the information tomorrow, those people will no longer have any use value, and everything they don't have will be cleared. The reason for the replacement is not because the organization realizes that it has no connection with the United States. If it is, it will be so.

"He's an idiot, let's see what time it is now. At our speed, these two people are too unfamiliar. It's definitely not too late to come over there. No matter how hard those people hold on, they can hold on." Let the people from the spy organization come over here."

It turns out that our espionage organization mainly sells information, especially the information between several small countries like ours, which cannot be traded back. If you want to get any information, you can directly buy it from us.

One organization fell down, and the front changed its name again, and another organization was established again. Those large terrorist forces were very badly established.

"You haven't told him about Hanhu yet. It's dangerous. If you have stayed there for so long, you will be discovered by others. He is also Hanhu about the organization's work style. We will send someone tomorrow. Protect you."

"This is necessary. Now according to the order of the organization, he must hand over the things to you conditionally. You have to go back and verify it now."

"Ah? Qin Yuan, are you fighting? Will these few people be able to fight?"

He Chenguang was very proud, and took the glass of water happily, then pointed forward and said in a low voice: "That one is a Daoist, it depends on his performance in the future, you are also this kind of pot-bellied chicken. Honestly, if he is sure that he treats you badly, then your Daoist will treat him badly."

The militants at the door reacted quickly and shouted, "Grenade!"

The person in charge who took the lead also had a fierce face. I picked up the gun on the outside of the bag and assembled it slowly. , We will be able to get support in 20 minutes at the slowest. Those people should belong to the espionage organization. The people who got out of the seventh car were all carrying some computer bags. They should be technicians. We probably came to decipher these codes that time.

When Xiaojia heard that, he understood that Brother Qin wanted to borrow from us, first to consume the strength of those people.

When Yang Ziming heard that, he hurriedly picked up the binoculars and checked it carelessly, isn't it? Because the captain was taught a lesson by Qin Yuan at that time, there was no scar on the eyebrow, and it hasn't been removed until now.

He Chenguang was very excited, thinking that the organization was really slow to see that we would be relieved soon, so he couldn't wait to get off the car.

"According to what you said on the phone later, you need to see the person's supervisor before you hand it over to them. It's not because you trust them, but the situation is relatively common."

That sounds pretty clear, Zhen Yue wanted to take advantage of the fisherman's power and let the two of us fight.

Before He Chenguang came out from the outside room, he became full of air, and I explained the situation outside with the people next to me.

"Yes, he needs to scare the snake away. He will observe first and see how the situation is."

"It's true that you were right after you didn't have a brother. You know, you were too impulsive when you didn't have a brother, but you are also a good person. I hoped that he would take care of you less in the past."

"Never mind me, the order below said that if you can bring it back, you can bring it back. If you bring it back, you can just bring the information back. Besides, you plan to keep those people in front of you."

"Brother Ming, what's the situation? They just said a bunch of nonsense, why does it feel like we're going to beat someone?"

Just like that, Brother Qin, we continued to observe. Those people from retreated out of the yard in a roundabout way, and then the Daoist broke the signal, so the meeting between the two parties was relatively smooth.

"Go! Just say why you are so strange. It turned out to be this guy. It seems that we have also participated here. Now we are simply covering up and coming directly."

Before I finished speaking, I smiled and poured a glass of water for He Chenguang myself to let me relax. I don't need to think about those things, and I will solve everything that doesn't matter.

Just like that, the people outside the yard didn't even know about it, and as the red dot receded further and further, Brother Qin thought we could arrive when the sky was slowly dawning, but he thought that our speed was quite fast, and it lasted all night. When I was half a child, the sky was not completely bright yet, and we were not two or eight kilometers away from there, which was relatively close.

Zhen Yue hasn't seen everything in Liwei yet, anyway, I'm just silent, and the most important thing is whether the information has been revealed, that's not a bad thing for me.

"Mr. Yang, after he got off the car, you have nothing to hand over. Now you need to transmit the information they stole later to you first, and you have to go back and check again."

When He Chenguang heard that, he hurriedly recalled it. It was indeed the case. I was relatively relaxed at this time. I saw in the early stage that we were completely on the killer, and there was really no room for the final position.

Chapter 1823: get usb

The captain of the American team still has some tricks, and they don't plan to improve the killing of the people inside. After all, there are still many things that have not been obtained, especially the information in Yang Ziming's hands.

But after fighting several times in a row, the people on the side couldn't fight, and some of their players were injured and were brought down continuously. Now the two sides are fighting fiercely, but no one is taking advantage.

Li Erniu watched lively from the side. He glanced through the binoculars and began to analyze the current situation.

"Look at what I said before, there must be water in that guy's head. His attack plan is wrong. I was wrong. Although the courtyard wall was bombed, he can definitely become their best offensive point, but he The angle of that room is a blind spot, and it is impossible to rush in."

"Okay, Er Niu, you guys are starting to analyze now, so why don't you talk about how to rush in if you are the captain?"

"Of course it's simple. If it were me, I would just throw tear gas bombs to lure the people inside."

As soon as Li Erniu finished speaking, he saw that the captain of the American team began to ask everyone to test outside. Is it really what he thought?

Sure enough, in the next second, they were ready to throw tear gas bombs into the yard, and some tear gas bombs were thrown directly into the house through the gaps in the windows.

He Chenguang next to him turned his head and looked at him silently. This guy is really a crow's mouth, and the situation inside is too serious, which is not a good thing for them.

"Don't worry, the means of those few people have beaten people from outside. Have you seen what we came in front of? They are all professional militants. We have experienced fewer battlefields than that brigade."

I had no choice but to bite the bullet, and Zheng Huanming came to the window tremblingly. I didn't dare to look inside, but I just fired randomly.

We were caught off guard in that fight, so we could only move forward again and again. We hadn't retreated into the yard just after the end, but the opponent's firepower was too weak, so we could only push it a few meters away, and came to the distance from Qin Yuan. We are far beside the ravine.

Song Xiaoyang frowned, what about the two scriptures? Afterwards, I said it very deliberately, and I might hand it over. I thought that when I answered, the other party's gun hadn't even hit my chest.

The person in charge just went over to dismantle the bomb, and Yang Ziming was spared. At this time, Yang Ziming's face was pale with fright. I said it was Hanhu, and I just sent a thankful look to Song Xiaoyang.

I have always chosen to be skeptical of the organization. I feel that if the organization can protect me, it will be dangerous. I have thought of the attacks again and again, and I have completely lost my trust, plus the things the organization has done.

The people next to me were very surprised when they heard it. What does that mean? Leaving from there, since it is so safe inside, what will we encounter before we go out?

At this time, Song Xiaoyang also had doubts in his heart. I felt that the people behind him were protecting us. So I also kept an eye out, and at that moment, the American team in Liwei rushed down again.

Before Yang Ziming's legs trembled with fright, I thought it would turn out like that. Looking at this bomb covered with wires, my scalp tingles.

"You can't leave that place."

This feeling in Song Xiaoyang's heart is getting deeper and deeper. I always feel that Babika's attitude towards me is not as good as these people.

And before going out, it is definitely a dead end. Just now we have experienced the kind of suicide attack, if the people inside will shoot at all.

For those tricks, Zheng Huan is not very unfamiliar. I have led the brigade to execute those people in Liwei a few times. We are all armed terrorists who travel around the world all the year round. I haven't experienced it very many times, so I'm very familiar with our routine.

When the two sides were in great confusion, Zheng Huanming's eyes were on the situation in seven places in the house. At that time, I saw this completely cracked window that was blown up.

In the last second, no one came out from outside to divert attention, and then rockets flew out from outside.

Although the ability of those people is weak, there is also a problem under the escape. The main reason is that the sudden situation caught the person in charge by surprise. I got what I wanted twice. The life and death of these people It doesn't matter anymore. Zheng Huanming can shoot at all, and he has never been exposed to it in China. The person in charge only taught us once, and the rest of us turned pale with fright, but they must have listened to me at that time. awful.

Zheng Huanming almost yelled that sentence. After all, the sound of the guns inside is very small, and I have had enough of the two experiences. All the way down the road, I ended up wandering before I came to the country, and we all spent time under the fire .

The twists and turns of the few people along the way were not enough to make us worry, and now another person died, and there were only seven of us left. How could we dare to say anything less, and we all knelt down on the spot.

It was beyond Qin Yuan's expectation, under the cover of such firepower, fewer gasoline bottles were thrown out, forming a sea of flames, and the opponent's people dared to take the risk and retreat.

Except for that, the last time we were going to launch an attack that was not a petrol bomb, that petrol bomb was homemade. Wherever it is thrown, it will become a sea of flames, and it will not be convenient for us to escape.

Seeing the two classics as my way forward, I quickly moved to the side of Yang Ziming, and several people gathered here.

At that moment, the person in charge walked over and kicked Yang Ziming on the shoulder. I didn't pay attention and almost rolled out of the room.

The bad thing is that these people's reactions were relatively slow, and they were quite determined when they saw the situation. They followed me and ran towards the inside. Although Song Xiaoyang ran away, he was still hit by a bullet on his right arm.

One of them handed over the USB flash drive, and Song Xiaoyang had no choice but to hand over his own.

Except for Zheng Huanming, the two of us are approving, including my confidant. We talked loudly, but the sound of guns and guns inside is too low. People find out.

Our firepower was very fierce, and the fight was relatively calm that time. The tear gas bombs were secretly released on the right and left sides, and the whole room was surrounded by tear gas bombs. The person in charge kept the tear gas bombs in his hand. Throw.

More importantly, is that cannibalism? I looked angrily at the person behind my eyes, but the person behind my eyes didn't care at all, and then pointed the gun at me.

A few people stared with small eyes, what does that guy mean? When we thought about it, there was also a shell, which blew up and retreated from the inside. The person in charge just flew out in an instant, and I fell under the wall. The people on the side were also badly damaged. collapsed.

"Don't make those moves, pick up your gun and fight quickly, if you want to survive, then follow you, if you don't die."

Zheng Huan called Pingtan directly in the front, and it seems that he can still learn a little bit. We have not changed too much from those militants, and the methods we use are not the same. The scale of our attacks is very large. Small.

The person in charge looked at me and rolled my eyes. That person can still die. After all, whether the information in that guy's hand has been obtained, it must have made me really suspicious. If I think it's open, I will destroy the information directly. Well, it's all in vain.

It would be relatively dangerous not to leave that place from that place, and you also know what the situation outside is like.

The moment the person in charge got the USB flash drive and counted the number, I immediately changed my face. Seeing that guy was going to attack us, Song Xiaoyang reacted quickly and jumped to the side of the sofa at a slow speed. When the person in charge is about to shoot.

I could only quickly turn my head and ask for help from the people next to me. Song Xiaoyang next to me thought that he could sit and wait for death when he saw it, but now he is sure that if I speak again, it may be my turn next time. Those people cannot be said to be inhumane.

Song Xiaoyang's attitude is also very firm. I think the other party will kill people. After all, I have nothing under my command. They must kill me. The other party also knows the password.

"You said it again before, hand over the USB drive, if you kill each of them, it will be the same if you turn them over again."

It also made me fall into the belief, is it really to protect me or how to put it, now we are all still alive, and if I have a big heart, I will die there.

"Don't talk about the past now, just talk about the present! Whether you can live to this time is still a certainty."

Just as he was slowly approaching the crowd, the captain of the American country felt that the situation was too correct, and he shot the woman's leg at a slow speed, and the woman's feet went limp and she fell directly to the ground, followed by an explosion.

As soon as Qin Yuan finished speaking, he saw a woman wearing a headscarf rushing out from the outside, and the people next to him dared to shoot. The captain of the American brigade hurriedly yelled, telling us to stop, so as not to worry about accidentally injuring us. looking for someone.

"Yes, you, you have never experienced that, do you know what to do now?"

"Remember, that time you were negotiating, but ordering. Hurry up and hand over the things, otherwise you will kill him right now."

The person in charge frowned, not too impatiently, he shook off my hand twice, and then approached me step by step with a gun, and there were also gunshots inside.

The fighting situation inside was very calm, and the situation in the house was also very bad at this time. The person in charge even aimed his gun at the people next to him and shot directly.

"Are there any available people outside you just now, and he also saw that your people also rushed down. Should he make something? Since he said that, you have something to say."

We have never received that kind of treatment in China, and we have never seen that kind of war situation. Now that we are on the scene, we have not been scared to tremble.

"Don't waste bullets for you, aim at the target inside, what is he hitting?"

Thinking of that, Song Xiaoyang rushed down and grabbed the shoulder of the person in charge, "Enough, what is he going to do? Is he going to kill the people around you one by one?"

Those U disks all required a password, so in that situation, Song Xiaoyang felt that he had no hope of survival at most.

There was still some blood stains on it. Zheng Huanming had seen that kind of scene before, and his hands were so frightened that his hands trembled.

Is there any danger that the organization promises us? Now that there are more and more people around me, should I let those people die in vain?

The whole house was in turmoil, because the attack just now made the dilapidated house unbearable. Zheng Huanming took advantage of that opportunity to quickly jump to the window, and I didn't care about the others.

But the person in charge took so little care, grabbed me and then tied a bomb under me, trying to push me out as a suicide attack.

Babika asked Xiaojia to hold on. At that time, the two militants next to him were knocked down by stray bullets, and at that time the person in charge who led the team back just picked up the gun from the ground and threw it at Song Xiaoyang and us.

The confidant who had been following Song Xiaoyang was caught off guard. He vomited blood on the spot and fell down. He died in front of several people. Song Xiaoyang was stunned when he saw that those guys really meant to shoot. Just shoot.

Seeing the situation, it was all right, but at this time, the person in charge suddenly seemed to have received some order, and I ran over staggeringly, bleeding under my right leg all the time, I didn't mind if I was wrong.

"Is that his attitude towards you? He wants to forget his identity and status, and he will rely on you before he passes by. "

I thought the situation would get worse without the support in Liwei, but I thought the situation was getting worse and worse, because the support team from the American brigade also ended.

The reason why the person in charge was so pressing was that I was also worried that the USB flash drive was under us, and it must be in another place. It would be bad to leave a living.

However, that guy rushed back into the crowd without any hesitation, and when two soldiers behind him scolded me to stop, I didn't stop, but rushed backward desperately.

"Anyway, you only said it once. You are sure they want to stay there, so stay there. You are leaving. Although you brought them here, the situation is too right. Let's go first."

Song Xiaoyang, who was in the room at this time, hadn't felt it yet. I felt that my ears hadn't heard but heard, especially when the person in front of me hit the rocket directly against me just now. This kind of power is quite terrifying. There was a small hole in the left side of our house.

When we were about to be breached, there was a burst of gunshots in the inner circle, and Qin Yuan watched the silence from the side. My calculation was wrong just now, and these supporters are here now.

I only saw the person in charge grabbing Song Xiaoyang, "Where is the information about him? Hand it over right now, and take out all the USB drives under them."

Chapter 1824: negotiation!

The officer who was still talking just now shut his mouth instantly. How could this be possible? He hurriedly picked up the gun and checked it carefully. There was something wrong. The range of this gun could not hit such a long distance at all.

Hitting at this distance is completely a deviated route, and it is impossible to hit the target at all. What kind of operation is this?

Then he didn't believe it, he picked up the gun and fired two more shots. Unexpectedly, he didn't reach the target, but hit the iron barrel next to him.

The surrounding guards stared at each other, and the officer just now was a little confused, and he watched it with his own eyes. If he wanted to exchange money, it would be absolutely impossible.

At this moment, Qin Yuan also stood up and explained that the reason why he rubbed the bullet just now was to make the front end of the bullet sharper, so that he could block a certain amount of wind force when he hit it, and also to reduce the weight of the bullet by reducing the amount of gunpowder everywhere. Can make the range longer.

The officer gasped when he heard this. This was something he had only seen in textbooks before. It was real theoretical knowledge, but no one had ever tried it.

"But in this case, aren't you afraid of bullets exploding? If something goes wrong, just stand inside, and everything will be over."

"I know enough about these firearms, why am I afraid of exploding, and this is also for emergencies. What if you can use this method if you don't have suitable bullets around you when you are performing a mission? I am convincing enough Alright."

This officer admired him very much. He was silent just now, but now he took the lead in applauding. No wonder this guy was able to come here with Tongzhong. It is also a well-deserved reputation, and it is really a master who hides his secrets.

After seeing Qin Yuan's demonstration, no one complained. Everyone began to show off one after another, hoping that they could be selected. If they can be guided by such a person, their abilities will definitely be greatly improved in the future.

As for the president, it's even more of a problem. He wished Qin Yuan could choose more powers that could improve himself, but Qin's azoospermia had very high requirements. There were more than 100 people to choose from, and only five people were selected in total. .

This kind of choice didn't end until dawn, and the president yawned beside him, "It's really been a toss here all night, what do you say now? Or let's go back first, and we will deal with them after the rest." Get training."

"I won't go back, you can go back first, remember to take good care of my daughters, I will give them special training recently, and try to make changes to them within 15 days."

He spoke so loudly that the guards next to him could hear him, 15 days! How could this be completely too embarrassing?

It sounds incredible that 15 days can make them stronger, after all, many things are uncertain.

Afterwards, the president also had many questions. He quietly took Qin Yuan to the side and asked if that guy would come back during the process, that is, the fake military minister.

"Now we have to think about countermeasures. Although you have been training here for 15 days is not very long, what if that guy comes back? Wouldn't he be discovered?"

"Don't worry, I've made all the preparations. I found something in his computer file. He should have gone there to establish another organization, and he won't be back until at least a month later."

"Huh? Why didn't you tell me about this before? It made me worry for a long time."

"You don't need to know some things, just turn a blind eye and close one eye. Besides, I'm the one who actually implements it."

Always very helpless, but what can he do, the man in front of him may finally fulfill their hope, and Qin Yuan also put forward another condition.

"But now I won't train them, let's talk to you about something first, the business must be negotiated, and this cooperation can continue."

Hearing what Qin Yuan said, the president immediately had a bad feeling in his heart. This guy is always so mysterious, and he tricked him a lot last time.

"Otherwise, in order not to delay your training, you should train first, and we will talk about it after the training is over."

"I can't do this. I'm a businessman. To do business, I have to agree in advance what's going on, and then we can continue."

The president was very helpless. It seemed that he couldn't hide from this situation, so he could only nod his head in agreement. Soon the two came to the office. Qin Yuan was still very formal, and the president next to him was almost too sleepy to keep his eyes open. After all, it's been a toss all night.

"I said, brother, can you hurry up? I really want to go to bed now. Your daughter didn't worry last night. "

"I have to write it down clearly for you in black and white, and you will do it when you understand it, right?"

President always felt that he might have to do a bloodletting, how could this guy not be like this?

"By the way, I remember that there is more natural gas in your country?"

"What! You want to get my idea of natural gas, which is absolutely impossible. Besides, what reason do I have? After dealing with it, can it be said that it will be given to you for free? You must be thinking that there is no such good thing."

"Oh, calm down, don't be so excited, I'm just asking, besides, we must spend money to buy it."

They do have a lot of natural gas in country C, but now they have a complete fallout with the country of America, and now their natural gas is very sufficient.

In this case, even if it is distributed to Yan Country, it is not a problem, it just depends on the negotiated price.

Qin Yuan didn't have any other ink marks, so he directly got into the topic, "Well, you can sell us the natural gas, but the price will be 50% lower. Isn't this in the name of being friends?"

What! The president was about to vomit blood when he heard this, this guy wasn't joking with himself, he actually said that.

"You know our price is already very low, if you lower the price, how much money will we make?"

"Then if this is the case, I have to talk to you. You want me to help you, especially this one, to help you solve these problems. Isn't my price worth the gas?"

Qin Yuan began to count directly, especially when he rescued their military minister yesterday and discovered those situations, the things he has in his hands are worth the value.

"You are at a disadvantage compared to buying and selling. No, you are such a big country. I have to sell it. Once the contract is signed, I will suffer too much."

Qin Yuan made an expression of indifference and asked him to think for himself. Anyway, whenever he thinks clearly, he will go there.

"The time is from that month to the end. If he comes back later, then I can't control it. Anyway, I told you about this person before. I have had some entanglements with him, but it didn't work. How much do you have?" Power, come to think of it."

After Qin Yuan finished speaking, he stretched, stood up and walked out. At this time, the same species did not let go, because he felt that Qin Yuan would definitely lower his head first. After all, what he asked for was still his team members. A special warfare team can be in the hands of others.

So this is also the bargaining chip for him to be able to negotiate successfully, and he can use this to convince Qin Yuan that at least he will not let himself suffer such a disadvantage, otherwise there are too many things to risk.

As time passed by, the president was so exhausted that he leaned back on the chair and took a nap for a while, and it was already noon when he woke up.

Seeing that he was awake, the security next to him cautiously stepped forward and asked, "Mr. President, it seems to be a guest in your room, and now I want to see you."

The president was very happy when he heard this, he knew that the guy's tone was definitely softening, so what else could he use to compete with himself, he had plenty of strength, besides, he must take the lead this time, and he couldn't be led by the nose by that guy Walk.

"Okay, wake up someone, I'll wait for him here."

The president at the moment is very proud, he wants to see what Qin Yuan will say after he comes in, and he can talk about other things further down.

Just as he was plotting carefully, the man outside walked in. Although he was also wearing a mask, he immediately recognized that this was not the Minister of Military Affairs? Not Qin Yuan.

"Wait, let me tell you what's going on with you? Why didn't Qin Yuan come here? It's a very risky thing for you to come here. He told you before that you can only stay in that room."

The military minister smiled wryly below, if it wasn't a last resort, could he come to this place? He knew that the same mistakes they made before the presidency had recurred, which is called losing the big because of small things.

At present, it is best to win over Qin Yuan as soon as possible. No matter what conditions he puts forward, satisfy his request as soon as possible. He has never seen the terror of that person. Otherwise, no one can deal with that guy, only this person can.

"Sir, I have been following you for so many years. To be honest, that person's city is very deep. More importantly, the United States also has a very complicated relationship with him. If we miss this opportunity, the consequences One can imagine."

"What? Even you came here to help that guy. Have you forgotten what our identities are? I was threatened by him once before, and I have given them a lot of things."

The Minister of Military Affairs shook his head. He said that doing so now would only result in a small loss, and Qin Yuan had already said that he didn't care about that team at all.

"Impossible. He came here this time to save the team. Why does he say he doesn't care about it? It's the capital of our negotiations."

"Sir, why do you think I would speak for him? That's because I've already found out the situation, and if he really cared, it wouldn't have dragged on for so long."

This president is quite cunning, he wants to rely on his own ability to win, at least such a high negotiation standard, otherwise so much natural gas has been sent out, which makes him feel a little distressed.

But after thinking about it, I felt that doing this was really a small loss. In the end, I had no choice but to ask someone to call Qin Yuan, but this time to call Qin Yuan, he didn't come.

The guard was a little bit hesitant to speak, but he still replied hesitantly, "Sir. I don't know what he is doing. No matter how we knock on the door, he won't open it. In the end, he just said that he is sleeping, let us not disturb."

What! This guy can really sleep. Now it's the president's turn to be anxious, so the time passed by. When the president arrived in the room, he saw that Qin Ran had already woken up, and the little girl was groaning. Hungry.

"Hurry up and get me something to eat, or I'll punish you."

Seeing the helplessness of the little girl in front of her, she could only quickly order someone to bring her something to eat, and she wanted to eat all kinds of snacks, just like that, the time came to night in a blink of an eye.

This child has a big heart, anyway, he will play after eating, and continue to sleep when he is tired from playing, until the next morning, Qin Yuan did not come out of that room.

This father and daughter are really like the other one who has been in charge of tossing the president, while Qin Yuan is only in charge of sleeping, anyway, he left the child to someone else to take care of.

In the end, the president couldn't take it anymore, so he had to invite Qin Yuan again, and asked him to come out and think of a way, and stop making such troubles, otherwise no one would be able to afford it.

Qin Yuan just started to prepare for training. Anyway, he is not in a hurry. He is very confident in his ability, and there is no problem in training such a small team. The main thing is to let them solve the problem. That's fine.

And the reason why Qin Yuan agreed so quickly was because he lowered the price a bit, which made the previous president regret it. had already known and agreed to him according to the previous price. Now And down so much.

But the better point is that Qin Yuan finally started training with those guards, which is also a fortune for him.

Those who have been trained later can let other people continue to train, which can be regarded as learning some of Qin Yuan's abilities, at least his training methods.

In fact, if this kind of tossing is made, it is no different from calling the red blood cell team, but calling the red blood cell team will lose almost 10,000 merit points. Now he urgently needs merit points, and this is a good opportunity.

After all, he has to quickly upgrade his system. Some of the tasks he completed before are almost done, and he has successfully investigated the identity of the Minister of Military Affairs, but the rewards from the system have not arrived, which makes him feel very strange. After all, he can no longer find the real military minister.

When he checked the system, he realized that the investigation was two-way. Not only did he have to investigate the real military minister, but he also had to investigate the fake identity, and finally the merit points would be credited.

This task is not particularly difficult, he thinks there is no problem, get points as soon as possible, and then upgrade the system to make himself more capable, and more importantly, everything he is now is speculation, guessing that the person is the masked man.

Chapter 1825: system task

Qin Yuan's side must be able to hold it firmly. Qin Zhengyang's side tracked all the way and found some small clues.

Yang Ziming and the others didn't have much experience in the first place, and in that situation, they only cared about leaving here quickly, so they left a lot of traces.

He followed the traces all the way, and Yang Ziming was injured, so he could see some freshly dripping bloodstains along the way, and they were flustered when they fled, so there was no time to deal with other traces.

At this moment, Yang Ziming regretted it very much. He knew that he would not come here. He didn't expect that the situation would change so much after he came here, but it was completely different from what his parents said before.

At this time, Fade Chen who was following behind him cursed secretly, then slipped and fell to the ground, and the people next to him stopped quickly when they saw it.

"What are you doing, kid? Run away, you still want to stay here at this time, are you courting death?"

"I don't care about these now! Look at me, who has made me so embarrassed by him now, and was killed by that guy! Yang Ziming, what are you going to do?"

Hearing this, Yang Ziming turned his head and looked around first to make sure it was safe. They ran out for such a long time, at least half an hour, but unfortunately he didn't have time to get rid of them now. He just tightly held his wound.

"I can only say that this time it was an accident. I have never had anything like this happen before, but I also want to ensure your safety, so you all come with me as soon as possible."

"You go, what do you mean? We don't even have the USB drive on us. Where can we go with you now? It's a dead end. I think it's better to just go back."

Fade Chen was also very scared. After all, there was nothing he could do in such a situation, and the cards in their hands were gone, so it would definitely be affected wherever they went.

Yang Ziming looked around, he sat down with a sigh, and then asked the person next to him to bandage him first, although that guy was not happy, but anyway, they are also on the same boat now.

"I know that you all resent me. From the beginning of coming here to now there are only three of us left. I hope that the three of us can unite well, and I will also take you out."

The reason why Yang Ziming said this was not because he showed mercy, but because these two people were his trump cards. One of these two people was a national-level engineer, and the other was also a senior military constructor.

As for Song Xiaoyang, who had completely gone with them in the process of escaping just now, he didn't know where he went, and now he didn't have time to care about that.

As long as he still has these two hole cards in his hand, he can also be qualified to negotiate with them, and he has other ways now.

"Don't forget, my parents are here, and I can contact them now."

Fade Chen felt it was very ridiculous when he heard this. When this guy was going to hide from them, he walked over angrily.

"Don't lie to us here. Aren't your parents in China? And when did they come here? You still want to lie to us at this time, so tell us what's going on."

Yang Ziming has no way to bandage the wound now, so he can only tear his clothes into strips and strangle them temporarily. There should be shrapnel inside. If it is a bullet, the wound will be very large. This is his basic judgment.

"The ones in China are not my real parents at all. There are biological parents in China abroad. It's just that I have to find a way to contact them now. They will definitely not die. will survive."

Yang Ziming gave hope to the two people when he said this, but when they looked at it, he actually didn't believe it in his heart. After going through this journey, various things have happened.

There has never been the so-called object he said, even their most basic safety cannot be guaranteed, and these two people have no way to continue to trust him.

These three people were originally one, and Yang Ziming was injured just now, so the speed of escape was relatively slow. In a blink of an eye, Qin Zhengyang had caught up with him, but he followed from a distance. He remembered what Qin Yuan said, Don't scare the snake away.

Sure enough, he heard the news from behind. He didn't expect this guy to have his parents here. It seems that he should be the lair.

However, what this guy said is basically unreliable, and the two people next to him are a little bit unbelievable, but what can we do now?

We can only follow him through the immediate crisis first, and according to the current situation, it is relatively dangerous. In a few hours, it will be completely dark, and they will not even be able to distinguish the basic direction at that time.

Fade Chen sighed, he had no other choice now, he stepped forward to bandage Yang Ziming up, and he had nothing else on him, so he could only take out a handkerchief to temporarily stop his bleeding.

"Anyway, that's what I said. You must ensure our safety. I don't want to die in a foreign country like them. I must at least leave a whole body back."

This guy's thinking is pretty good, from the moment they choose to be traitors and traitors, the result is already doomed, but they are still stubborn.

Yang Ziming also smiled cunningly. The two people next to him didn't notice his expression. The parents he said were actually just a cover, there was no such situation at all, and the person he said was going to hand over. Prepare yourself in the country before.

There are now two situations within the organization. The espionage organization they belong to is very large, and this espionage organization has existed for decades.

They are distributed in various countries, and they all collect the information and then sell it. This is the means by which their intelligence organizations rely on it.

At that time, Yang Ziming had no choice, his parents were inside the organization, and he had to work for the organization, otherwise he would be hunted down endlessly.

However, his parents also paved the way for him, requiring him to find a man named Effie, who is a gold flash hunter who can guarantee their safety, and his parents will give this man a fixed commission every year .

This is a long-term cooperation. As long as Yang Ziming comes abroad, he will be protected to a certain extent by contacting this bounty hunter.

Originally, according to the previous plan, Yang Ziming must be able to flourish in this espionage organization, but now earth-shaking changes have taken place within the organization, and the competition within the organization is becoming more and more fierce, all for the sake of profit.

In this case, he could only choose not to trust the organization, and more importantly, his USB flash drive had already been handed over, which was of no use value, so he had to find Effiete.

Qin Zhengyang quietly followed behind them, none of them noticed, and Qin Yuan's side was also in business as usual.

The people outside had been completely dealt with by Li Erniu. After explaining the situation clearly, everyone returned to the house, and the person in charge who was still discussing just now immediately shut up.

As soon as he entered, Wang Yanbing walked over and said, "Brother Qin, just as you walked away, these people were chattering, and they didn't know what birds were talking about, I couldn't understand."

"It's okay, we're not afraid of them, besides, this little money is not earned for nothing. It just so happens that the brothers are here to earn a hard fee for everyone."

What we need to wait now is to contact the spy organization to remit money. Qin Yuan directly gave him an account, "Anyway, I don't play those fake things with you, you have to figure out that if you want to do something to me, you will be punished. From the endless pursuit, the people behind me are endless."

"Sir, I don't even know your name yet. How should I call you? Actually, you don't have to be so vigilant. We have reached a cooperation now. In other words, we can be friends."

Qin Yuan glanced at him, then turned his head with disdain, "Your rank is too low, you don't deserve to be friends with me."

The outstretched hand of the person in charge stopped in mid-air, which was very embarrassing. Barbica next to him looked like he wanted to laugh. You must know that it is rare for the person in charge to be embarrassed. This is really a chance.

"It seems that you are really a temperamental person. This is what you said. How about this, let me introduce myself first. I am the main person in charge of the East District here. I have a code name called Bald Eagle."

This guy is already introducing himself. He is mainly paving the way. He wants Qin Yuan to contact him in the future so that he can build up more information.

Qin Yuan just waved his hand, and casually put it off. After all, he didn't want to talk too much with the dying people. As long as the money arrives in the account, these people won't be able to survive.

Also, regarding that mysterious organization, he also wanted to see if he could dig out something. Speaking of which, he suddenly stepped forward, but the bald eagle was still quite vigilant, and backed back again and again just after noticing his approach.

"Why are you so afraid of me? Didn't you just say that we are now a cooperative relationship, since it is a cooperative relationship, don't worry, I will definitely not hurt you."

The bald eagle smiled awkwardly. Although he didn't know much about this person's means, from the point of view just now, it is not easy to bring a small team to kill here. If he is hijacked, wouldn't it be embarrassing? ?

But now there are several subordinates around who are watching, and both of them are in the same room, it is really inappropriate to do so, he can only bite the bullet and walk forward.

"Sir, I just want to say that we can use money to solve everything, and what can be solved with money now is the easiest."

The bald eagle was also reminding Qin Yuan not to act impulsively, otherwise he would not get any money. Qin Yuan had already understood his intentions, so he just smiled and did not speak.

Qin Yuan shook the USB flash drive in front of him and was instantly attracted, but his eyes became dull in the next second, and he sat on the chair in a daze.

The people next to him didn't notice the difference, but Barbica saw it. Just as he was about to step forward to see what was going on, Li Erniu next to him walked over and pressed his shoulder superior.

"I think you'd better not move around, don't you see that our elder brother is asking questions now?"

"you!"

Barbica definitely wants to fight back, but what can he do now, he seems to be completely suppressed in this place.

After thinking about it for a while, everyone is in the same room, so there shouldn't be any trouble, plus the large army will come later, and they will definitely be able to fight back with reinforcements.

In just a few short minutes, Qin Yuan had a clear understanding of the situation, including the specific location of the organization. The person in charge knew quite a lot, and he also dug out many interesting clues, especially about Mi Jun's side.

The Mi Army has now shifted their positions. They have established four military bases around Xiaomao, mainly to suppress Xiaomao.

They already knew that the specific location of the military base had been disguised, and all the people in the village on that side had been replaced by Americans.

The United States and the Xiaomao State will let them eat dogs first, and the scandal in the United States is still to come. At that time, he will let the reporter break the news, but the time has not yet come.

When the bald eagle opened his eyes, he felt dizzy for a while. Before he could figure out what was going on, he touched his head and looked at the people around him. There was nothing special about it Bika originally wanted to tell him about the situation just now, but he seemed to be fine, and the most important thing was that he didn't say anything. Thinking about it, he might be thinking too much.

To put it simply, he wanted to delay the time, and this bald eagle was not good at it. He was worried that Qin Yuan would backtrack, so he called the organization and prepared a hole card.

But this made Qin Yuan feel indifferent. Anyway, if one came, he would be beaten, and the other two would be killed. He might as well come more, so that he would not have to go over there to solve the problem.

At this time, the system suddenly issued a notification sound. The system has not sent him a task for a long time. After all, some recycling is directly carried out later. How could the task be triggered suddenly now?

Qin Yuan thought for a while, and it should be related to the masked man. He remembered that it was also because of this that he investigated and protected the reporter before.

"The host triggers a temporary mission. Please complete the investigation within 24 hours. After the investigation, 3,000 merit points will be rewarded. If the investigation progress exceeds 100%, you will receive an additional 2,000 merit points."

I didn't expect that it would be different to give so many meritorious rewards just for the investigation. It seems that the investigation task this time is not easy. He originally thought that he could just go to the headquarters to check the list, but he didn't expect that there would be extra income. , then this is really getting more and more interesting.

Chapter 1826: ingenious mechanism

Originally, Qin Yuan's previous plan was to get rid of the people here, and then get rid of the right people. As for the headquarters, he would also go to investigate. award.

The bald eagle looked at Qin Yuan and seemed to let go of his vigilance. After all, he had already hummed a song and jumped onto the chair next to him. He was relieved, but he was actually more worried about other changes.

Seeing that Qin Yuan really had no other intentions, he walked outside the house, and at this time Babika also came out.

"What should we do now? There are also those who ran away. Although the things are in his hands now, what about the few people who ran away?"

"How long do you think those trash can live with their personalities? It's not as simple as they think in this area."

"Then what did the organization say, should we negotiate an agreement with him first?"

"You don't need to take care of this matter. I will take care of everything. Anyway, this is a big fish, much better than those trash like Yang Ziming."

They must record the evidence first, and then threaten with this later. He already felt that the identity of the captain must be unusual, and he only needed to collect the money for the first time.

There will be opportunities for them to threaten in the future. Anyway, they are all overseas organizations, and it doesn't matter if they have a reputation or not, but this person in front of them is different.

It was past 10 o'clock the next morning, and Qin Yuan's mobile phone received a text message, which turned out to be a successful remittance, and he was very satisfied with this.

The bald eagle has also come over, and the people from the organization have also come here now, and they can arrive here in at most ten minutes, so now he has the capital to negotiate.

"Sir, now you have collected our money, but we have to reach a cooperation!"

"Oh, what kind of cooperation are you talking about, why can't I understand?"

This guy unexpectedly made a mistake, and everyone was prepared, but he dared to do this. Babika's face was cold for a moment, he was already prepared, anyway, these few people were waiting for the people from the organization headquarters, You can definitely catch them all.

"You really know how to joke. Now the money from our organization has arrived, a total of 50 million, so now can you give us that thing, and we can also reach some other cooperation."

Qin Yuan looked at the bald eagle and smiled slightly. This person was no longer useful. He already knew what he should know, so there was no need to keep it. Soon there was a burst of gunfire without tears.

But after only two minutes, it fell into silence, and no one in the entire yard came out.

After a while like this, there was a sound of footsteps outside. Li Erniu was lying on the roof and whispered the situation. There were about 30 people on the other side.

"My darling, I didn't expect to take out heavy weapons to deal with us. There are two rocket launchers and submachine guns on the left. The seven people in front should be a small team, and they are all armed with assault guns."

This espionage organization is not vegetarian, and there are still many people in them, so they are well prepared this time.

The person who took the lead in front felt a little strange. According to the previous agreement of the bald eagle, he should be the first to greet or send the signal first.

But before they came here, they sent a message to make contact when they were still some distance away, but unfortunately they couldn't get in touch.

"Strange, what the * is this Bald Eagle guy doing? Didn't he agree to be in this position before? Why is there nothing?"

"Boss, will they all be in the house? After all, the person who hijacked them is quite tricky, but we have paid all the money. It stands to reason that since that person wants money, he shouldn't embarrass them. ."

"I don't know, anyway, let the brothers get ready, I have a bad feeling."

Just like that, the person in charge in front led the people into the yard. The whole yard was very quiet. He yelled a few times into the room, but no one responded. What came was a smell of blood, and everyone looked inside.

There were a few corpses lying here and there, and the huge staring one beside the table was a bald eagle. This guy didn't understand until he died why that person wanted to do something after collecting money, and he did it so quickly.

Almost at the same time, Li Erniu and the others also fired quickly, and this team was eliminated in an instant. Compared with the red blood cells, the strength of these people is really not worth mentioning.

He Chenguang and Li Erniu cooperated seamlessly. They took the lead in dealing with the two men with heavy weapons, not to mention the man on the side.

"Brother Qin, it's been resolved."

"It's a good performance this time, but wait a minute, I haven't finished using the toilet yet, you have already solved it, and this is a bit too sudden."

"Hahaha, brother Qin, it seems that you are not going well this time, do you need a brother to help you?"

"roll!"

Several people talked and laughed happily, and walked towards the corpse. They needed to conduct another inspection, but according to their accuracy, there would be no omissions.

Overall, this espionage organization is not particularly strong. Although their weapons are relatively good, they are not strong enough. Now they need to do one more thing, which is to cover up the facts.

The body of the American team that they eliminated before was also moved to the yard by them, which made everyone have a scene where the two sides fought and then failed.

Qin Yuan and the others were also successfully cleared of their suspicions and got 50 million yuan. On the other side, the headquarters of the espionage organization also found it strange that the people they sent out could not be contacted.

The 50 million is of great use to him, but the most important thing now is the headquarters of the spy organization. He is going to investigate some things, and it is estimated that he will be able to dig out more interesting things from there.

It is still relatively far from here to reach the headquarters of the spy organization, but this time everyone has a car, which is driven by members of these organizations, which is much better than before.

Just when everyone was about to leave, Li Erniu suddenly remembered a person, that is, the traitor member who was rescued by them before and brought back.

But that person was injured, he didn't dare to run around, especially in a foreign country, he could only be at the mercy of Li Erniu and the others, now he is in a cellar, everywhere is dark, he also Don't dare to move.

Suddenly he heard a noise, and then a beam of strong light came in, and the cellar door was opened. He squinted his eyes and looked over, and instantly saw hope, because the people who came were Li Erniu and the others.

Li Erniu looked at the situation inside, and shouted outside, "This kid is still alive, and his life is quite serious. This injury has become like that, and he is still alive."

Anyway, even if this guy goes back, it will be a matter of his life, but now he really has figured it out, he doesn't want to die in a foreign country, and he expressed his willingness to cooperate with anything.

"Brother, you are finally here, I've been waiting for you so hard."

"You kid is really embarrassed to say that you are just a traitor. If you don't die now, you won't be spared when you return to the country, but it's okay to take you back."

Li Erniu was not polite to him, he lifted him up immediately, this guy already had an injury on his leg, but being lifted up so rudely, his leg hit the cellar door and it hurt so much that he burst into tears.

This guy is also useless, even if he followed to the headquarters, he would not be threatening, so everyone left him in the trunk and set off like this.

They set off around noon and didn't arrive until 2 o'clock in the morning. The journey was indeed quite far, and the headquarters of this organization was hidden very deeply.

Their hidden ability is to integrate with the nearby civilians, and this headquarters is actually opened in the city center, with a bookstore and coffee shop next to it, all of which are the disguise of a spy organization.

There was no one on the street in the middle of the night, but the street lights next to it were still on. If Qin Yuan hadn't learned about the consciousness in the mind of the bald eagle before, he might not have been able to find this organization.

At this moment, Li Erniu stepped forward first. He planned to check the situation inside, but just when he was about to touch the sign at the door, Qin Yuan stopped him suddenly.

"Wait a minute, there is a mechanism at the door, have you seen it?"

When Li Erniu heard this, he quickly lowered his head and looked around, but he didn't find any mechanism, only two more sculptures at the door.

Because He Chenguang had already used computer intrusion technology to directly destroy their monitoring system, so Li Erniu stepped forward to inquire about the situation, but he didn't expect that there was an agency at their door.

After Li Erniu retreated, Qin Yuan threw a stone in the past. Just as the stone passed through the small door, an alarm sounded suddenly.

Within a minute, someone opened the window to check the situation. After some inspection, there were no problems, and the people inside let down their vigilance, but it could be seen that the people inside were also fully armed.

And I don't know much about the situation inside. The bald eagle's mind consciousness doesn't involve too many things.

"I'll go, what they play here is too high-end, we have never seen this kind of mechanism, it can't be spread all over the house, right?"

After careful observation, Qin Yuan found that it probably really surrounded the whole house, because a statue was erected from the intersection on the left, and then the statue was surrounded by walls at every corner.

These guys are really more vigilant, and the things they use are relatively high-end.

"Forget it, let's restore their monitoring system first. The time should not be too long, otherwise they will be aware of it. You must know that they are also engaged in espionage and intelligence, and they are very sensitive to these."

Qin Yuan planned to sneak in to have a look first. Since there are such organs all around the house, he planned to go directly through the roof. As for the roof, he had already observed a better location.

That is to jump over from the roof of the opposite building. The distance is about 3 meters wide, but it is absolutely no problem to jump over with his ability.

After Qin Yuan was ready, he took off the equipment and handed over the walkie-talkie to them. After all, Qin Zhengyang was still on a surveillance mission outside.

As soon as he left, Qin Zhengyang's voice came from the walkie-talkie, reporting the situation.

"Zhengyang, what's the situation? Tell me, brother Qin isn't here now, but it's the same with us."

"Brother Er Niu, the situation on my side is a bit tricky now. I don't know whether to proceed, but I don't want to lose my target."

"You kid is still playing tricks. What's going on? You can tell me in detail."

It turned out that after Qin Zhengyang followed them, he discovered that Yang Ziming and the others had already contacted the bounty hunter, mainly because the bounty hunter  was not alone, they were in the form of a small team.

These bounty hunters have very strong anti-reconnaissance capabilities, and he doesn't dare to get too close, and now he only tracks them after a while.

"The main reason is that this team of bounty hunters is still very capable. Their captain seems to be a ruthless character. I have seen him on a list before."

"Brother Qin is not here now. Anyway, you should pay more attention to yourself. If the follow-up situation fails, you can follow up quietly. You are the only one. You'd better be careful and don't make too much appearance."

Qin Zhengyang nodded. This was his first time performing a task alone. To be honest, he was indeed quite nervous.

After turning off the intercom, he continued to chase in the direction where those people disappeared. Now he doesn't dare to get too close, so he has to stay for a while before leaving.

Li Erniu on the other side was also worried. Although what he said just now were comforting words, Qin Zhengyang was still too young, and he didn't know if he could catch him.

"What do you think Brother Qin is thinking this time? I have already said let me go with him, this kid is too young, if someone finds out, he can deal with it alone Yet?"

"Forget it, these are not things we should worry about. What we should worry about now is the current situation. Let's talk about it after Brother Qin comes out. I really believe in Zhengyang. Besides, he should also have a chance to exercise."

It was only then that everyone turned their attention to Qin Yuan, but just now several people were discussing about Qin Zhengyang, and they didn't notice Qin Yuan at all. This time, he had successfully jumped to the opposite roof.

He also knows why the system will give rewards, which is relatively difficult, and this espionage organization is hidden deeper than he imagined.

There was a small door on the top of the building, but the small door could not be pushed open from the inside. This was not a problem for Qin Yuan. After a while, he pried open the small door.

I didn't expect to find a few people in uniforms walking towards it just after taking two steps. It seems that their vigilance is still relatively high. Qin Yuan's movements are very gentle, but he was still discovered by them unexpectedly.

Just when Qin Yuan was about to make a move, he found that they had turned around and entered another room at the top of the stairs. He was relieved at this moment. He was hiding in the darkness at this time, and he said that he would not be found so easily. .

Chapter 1827: lion wide mouth

Now he still plans to investigate these espionage organizations first. They have too much information in their hands. If they easily start a warning, they may destroy them. After all, they are all high-tech things.

At that time, before he has time to use his abilities, the information he has will be destroyed, which is quite troublesome.

Qin Yuan also followed those people in uniform to the stairs. When he looked from above, he thought there was only one room at the stairs, but when he got down, he found that there were four passages at the stairs. Room.

After those uniformed people entered, there were sounds of beating and scolding.

There was a small window on the door, Qin Yuan quietly looked inside, only to see that the room was not big, but it could be seen that it was a room specially used for execution, and there were all kinds of torture instruments in it.

An old man with gray hair was tied to the chair in the middle. The old man was already very old, but now he was being tortured by them with various instruments of torture. The old man's left hand was * and bloody.

It sounds like they are interrogating, they want to force out the password that the old man has mastered, but the old man's attitude is relatively firm, and he didn't reveal anything, even though he has been tortured until he vomited blood, he is still biting Don't let go.

During this process, Qin Yuan learned that the old man was an engineer from country C, and that the old man was an engineer specializing in warships, but he was kidnapped to this place by them.

If you want to ask the old man about the password in the USB flash drive, the level of deciphering that kind of password is very complicated, and if you are not careful, the USB flash drive will start the smart program. After all, storing these confidential information, the things you can master are also very high.

But no matter what methods they tried, the old man just didn't give in. This was a betrayal of his own country. Qin Yuan couldn't help admiring him when he saw this. It would be great if those * Yang Ziming could have such an awareness.

At this time, Yang Ziming who was far away couldn't help but sneezed. He didn't know who was talking about him, but now he felt relatively safe, except that there was no one chasing and killing around him.

Moreover, this bounty hunter is really reliable. He formed a small team, and it can be seen that they have all kinds of weapons, and they are very protective of them throughout the process.

But he didn't tell his companions about the bounty hunter, and the other two didn't know what was going on.

The only thing that can comfort them now is that everyone is protected, but no one knows what to do next. After these two days of fleeing, everyone is already very tired, and the two people next to them are already asleep.

At this moment, there was a knock on the door of the room, Yang Ziming got up quickly, and he saw that it was the captain of the bounty hunter.

This captain was Effiete, whom his parents had been secretly giving money to, so he was very polite when he saw Yang Ziming. After all, it was relatively speaking the first time he had received such an order after more than 20 years of economic dealings.

Since Yang Ziming's parents joined the organization, they knew what the result would be like, including the fact that they were forced to choose to have children, a task required by the organization.

So they have nothing to do, but there is no parent in the world who does not love their children, and they have considered a lot for their children, especially in the current situation.

They also want their children to get rid of the organization, but the espionage organization is too powerful. Once they find out, they don't have any privacy at all, so they can only pave another way for their sons in this way .

Effiete took Yang Ziming to another room, he took out a bottle of red wine from the cabinet, and poured a glass first, "Don't worry, this place is safe, I will make the previous promise to ensure your safety, your parents are As I said, if I can guarantee your safety, I will transfer 30 million to my card at once."

"I don't know if it's safe or not, but do you understand the previous situation? I don't know, but the country of the United States is also involved. Anyway, the situation is very chaotic. Can you really guarantee my safety?"

"Of course, Mr. Yang, you should relax, but I think it's a little strange. At that time, your parents said that we only let us guarantee your safety. The price for you alone is 30 million. I don't know."

When Yang Ziming heard this, the hand holding the wine glass broke instantly. This guy actually wanted the lion to open his mouth. Isn't this nonsense? The same is true for protecting him. Protecting other people is a matter of convenience for them, but they even ask for a price.

You must know that his parents will give them money every month and every year. This has lasted for more than 20 years. For the hunter, that was a lot of money, and he didn't expect that he was still bargaining here.

It can be seen that Yang Ziming's face is not particularly good, Ai Feite smiled slightly, he certainly understands what's going on, but it's not easy to do their job, he must make more money.

"Mr. Yang, maybe you don't know what the current foreign market is like, especially to protect you, you have to use guns and people. According to what you just said, if the United States participates, do you think my team can persist? How long, so I must send other teams to protect you."

"What do you mean? Isn't that money enough? My parents have given you so much money all these years just to let you protect me. Can't you get it back?"

"Don't be so excited. I'm not saying that the money is not enough. It's just that one person was agreed at the time. Now you have become three people. Of course I have to put forward some conditions, otherwise I will suffer. After all, saving people There is a cost."

After Effiete finished speaking, he took out a pistol from the table, Yang Ziming was a little nervous for a moment, this guy wouldn't kill him, would he? Seeing him like this is always cloudy and uncertain.

But it was just a false alarm, Effiete took out the bullets, he put the bullets on the table, and said, "You have to know that bullets are more expensive than gold now, especially in our war-torn place, you You may see a wad of money thrown on the ground and no one picks it up, but it's not necessarily true for a gun, and a bullet sold for $100 at the highest price."

What! Yang Ziming was stunned when he heard this, the high price is a bit outrageous.

Although he doesn't know much about the situation in foreign countries, the price is indeed too high. Effiete just patiently explained that if it is normal, then there must be no problem.

But now several forces are entangled here, so the underground black market is also in chaos. All organizations are fighting for weapons. Now whoever has weapons is the boss, so they are crazy about buying weapons.

And the bosses of those underground black markets increased their prices crazily. They wanted to take advantage of this opportunity to make a fortune, so the price of bullets was already comparable to gold.

"In this place, it doesn't mean that I will protect you empty-handed. I have to use this real guy. If I say that I will send another team, I will definitely fight back later, so do you think I have suffered a loss or a profit? "

According to what this guy said, Yang Ziming had no choice but to rely on him now, he sighed helplessly, since Li Xia could only do this now, if he had a chance later, he must give this * a good look.

"Okay, then let me explain in advance, you protect the two of them, can I give you another 20 million in the end? This is my bottom line, if it is higher, I am willing to call someone else now."

Effie immediately agreed, he laughed loudly, and then raised his glass, "Hahaha, Mr. Yang is also a man of temperament, just like your parents, come on, toast to our cooperation, don't worry, This time, even if I risk my brothers' lives, I will definitely protect your safety."

Yang Ziming was very unwilling, so what could he do? This time, he went out for nothing again. The 20 million is almost all of his worth. The money he gave to these organizations in China over the years is basically lost here.

But the most important thing now is to save your life. There is a saying that if you keep the green hills, you will not be afraid of running out of firewood, so this is the most important thing.

On the other side, Qin Yuan is ready to go in and the old man is an old professor, and according to this situation, the interrogation methods of these guys are too rude. If this continues, the old man probably won't last long up.

Just when they were going to use another method to increase the amount of current, and then came to conduct interrogation, the door just now was kicked open suddenly, and the two people next to them hadn't reacted yet, and were thrown by the flying knife in an instant. hit.

In a blink of an eye, several people who were interrogated just now were knocked down on the ground. The old man raised his head and looked at the person in front of him with a puzzled expression. He didn't know who it was and why he came to this place?

What he was thinking was that the man backing the car was their new routine? After all, these guys can do anything, and the current situation is more complicated.

"Give up your heart, stop making these disguises, and besides, you people are like ants, even if you kill them, I won't say anything."

"Old man, what are you talking about? I came here to save you. Of course, I didn't come to save you. It's just that the road is rough."

The old professor was dumbfounded when he heard this. Before he could figure out what was going on, Qingyuan had already walked over to untie the rope for him, and then turned around and was about to leave without leaving a word, which made him a little strange.

"Hey! You are very strange, you saved me just now, why don't you say anything now, what's going on?"

"The only thing I leave for you is to stay here now, and you can come out in about ten minutes."

"Ten minutes? Young man, what the * are you doing? You have to know that this organization is unpredictable. I can see that you don't seem to be in the same way as them, so I also want to advise you. You'd better be careful. ."

"Hahaha, ten minutes is long enough for me. Don't worry about that, I know everything very well."

After speaking, he opened the door and left. The old professor was a little worried, so he hurriedly chased him out. Although he didn't know who the other party was, they saved him after all.

"What's your name? Why did you save me? If you don't want to say it, I want to know how to repay you."

"You're welcome, my name is Lei Feng."

The old professor underestimated these two words here, and then slowly sat on the chair. After all, he had suffered enough torture just now, and Qin Yuan had disappeared at the door at this moment.

When Qin Yuan entered the stairs to go to work, he realized that it was no wonder that the old professor said that the situation here is more complicated. This is indeed the headquarters of the spy agency, and it is full of cameras everywhere, and there are all kinds of agency lines.

Just now, he thought that he had already turned off those cameras with his own technology, but he didn't expect that there were still some missing. Looking at it like this, he should have been discovered. Thinking of this, he smiled at a hidden camera on the side.

At this moment, on the opposite side of the camera, a man shivered shudderingly. This man was the leader of the spy organization. He couldn't figure out how this guy broke in.

"Notify group a, group b can start, and start plan b, we can't let this guy get out alive."

A man in black behind him nodded, and then walked out. At this time, Qin Yuan was also about to go up the stairs, but when he was halfway there, he suddenly heard a slight sound of machine light turning.

He looked around vigilantly, could it be that some mechanism was triggered? In the next second, the entire staircase started to turn.

Unexpectedly, this small building is really different. The design is so ingenious that several places can be combined at will. In the next second, there is a big gap between the stairs and the left wall is slowly exposed. Opened a machine light port Qin Yuan saw the camera hidden in the crack of the brick, he took out the throwing knife and directly destroyed the camera completely.

The person behind the camera looked at a snowflake and punched it on the table. This guy is really difficult to deal with. He discovered such a secret thing.

"Sir, what should we do? The camera is useless. This guy has a strong sense of anti-detection. He can predict everything in advance."

"As far as those organs are all infrared, do you think he can hide there? No one can pass through that place."

The boss of the organization leader is very satisfied with his organ setup. After countless studies, the team members of Group A and Group B have already waited at another passageway, and when the organ is over, they will go in to clean up the corpses.

The members of these teams were very leisurely, still chatting, and said that they didn't take the people inside seriously at all. After all, in their opinion, it was impossible for anyone to come out alive in such a situation full of thrills.

And what they are in charge of now is to go in later and pack up the corpses and the remaining things. Although this person doesn't know how he got in, it's impossible for him to get out.

Chapter 1828: Investigation progress reminder

These people are not the core figures in the organization. There are those in charge of security and those in charge of collecting intelligence. They are the peripheral personnel who are responsible for security, and they have not yet come into contact with the core internal secrets.

After all, this small building has enough camouflage. First of all, in addition to the arrangement of so many organs, there is also a very sufficient underground space below, which is their real core office area.

And most of the spy members are there, all those who can be separated have been gone, and there are still those who can't be used.

"Hey, how many seconds do you think that kid can last with you?"

"Hahaha, I think it has turned into a puddle of meat now, have you forgotten? The wild dog that accidentally broke in last time was already cut into several pieces before we came up."

The big man made a gesture as he spoke, mainly to scare the people next to him. The small man next to him was a new security member. He hadn't seen this kind of scene before, but he could imagine it.

He was extremely nervous at the moment, holding the tool tightly in his hand, and the person next to him was still holding a gun in his hand. In fact, the gun was not of much use to them, but it was considered a necessity.

At this moment, a pair of hands suddenly grabbed his shoulders, and then the little man suddenly called out. He was startled, he thought the mechanism had been opened.

Following the little man's cry, several other people burst out laughing. After all, it was their rule to tease newcomers, and newcomers like this were easy to bully.

"Boy, do you know? The situation here is even scarier than you imagined. Besides the wild dogs, we had a traitor who handled it in the same way before, and was directly thrown in by the boss."

The little man's eyes widened instantly when he heard this, and he actually threw the person into it alive. He knew about it. Everyone who patrolled him before told him to be careful not to touch the surrounding organs.

Those laser rays are very sharp, it can be said that they can cut iron like mud. In that case, it is impossible for anyone to survive.

The person next to him continued to play pranks. He described the horrible scene at that time. The little man was very frightened. He felt that the food he ate at night kept pushing him up, which made him very uncomfortable, but the person next to him continued to chatter. non-stop.

Sure enough, he suddenly felt unable to bear it any longer, turned his head and ran outside, and then heard the sound of vomiting from the trash can in the corner, and everyone burst out laughing.

At this time, the wall also began to open slowly. The little man heard the sound of the mechanism opening. He wanted to rush over to help, but when he thought of the scene that the man described just now, he couldn't help feeling sick again, so he could only vomit first. .

After a few minutes, he managed to relieve a little, but after he walked over, he found that it was very quiet, and it was so dark that he couldn't see anything clearly. He yelled a few times and there was no response at all.

"That's enough, don't play tricks on me anymore, I've already been turned into something by all of you."

The little man thought that everyone was playing a prank on him. After all, this happened not once or twice, but he was a little angry because he didn't respond for a long time. He is very uncomfortable.

He strode forward, but when he reached the room, he was stunned for a moment, because the ground was not the corpses of the minced meat he had imagined before, but the corpses who were standing with him just now and were still laughing. His players.

Those people fell to the ground in disarray, especially the big man who was joking with him just now, his eyes were wide open, and he was staring closely at his direction, but he had already passed away by the looks of it.

The little man was terribly frightened, his legs were trembling uncontrollably, at this moment, he heard a little movement, and just when he raised his head, he saw a black shadow running towards him.

In the next second, the little man fell straight down, only to see a flying knife quickly across his throat, all in one go.

Qin Yuan wiped the blood, mainly because he wasted too much time in this place. He thought it would be over in ten minutes, but he didn't expect this broken mechanism to waste too much time.

He continued to search into the small building. There is really a lot of space in this corridor. He used the system's ability to search for all the monitoring equipment arranged in the corridor, and began to destroy them one by one.

The monitoring equipment was destroyed one by one, and the surveillance below the corridor also felt strange. Several staff members felt that the equipment was damaged at first. Could it be that guy escaped? But that is absolutely impossible.

The person in charge in the monitoring room stared at the screen tightly. What is going on? Every screen shows no signal.

"The engineer asked him to quickly check it for me. What's going on? Didn't it just be checked half a month ago? Everything is normal, so what's going on here?"

The engineer was already sweating profusely. He worked around the subway for a long time, but he didn't find any problems. All the signal sources showed that the reception was normal. There was only one problem, and it must be an external problem.

"Team leader, there is nothing wrong here. I guess the outside world has been damaged."

"Asshole, is this what you should say? Think about it for yourself, is this possible! Our security system is certified, it is the strongest security system, how could someone escape?"

And with so many monitoring lines on the wall, how could it be possible that they were suddenly damaged at once, and it was done at the same time, otherwise no one could do it at all, unless a whole team came over.

Hearing this, the engineer wiped his forehead to see. To be honest, he didn't know what was going on. He could only speculate that it was an external problem. After all, there was indeed nothing wrong with the internal side after he checked it.

The team leader in charge was very angry. After all, the boss was always in the rear and asked them to report the situation. Now that this happened, he had to solve it as soon as possible. He grabbed the engineer.

"I don't care what to say, you go to check it now, I want to restore all the signals immediately within five minutes."

The engineer could only nod his head and trot out all the way. He didn't know what to do, so he could only go out to have a look first, and the two assistants next to him followed suit.

The team leader put his hands behind his back, looked at a computer screen with no signal, and could only vent a few words of cursing.

But just a few minutes later, he heard the outside door was opened, he frowned, why did the engineer come back so soon? But the signal on the computer screen is still the same, and the display has not changed.

"What's the matter? You guys can't do anything here. What are you doing here?"

But he didn't get a response for a long time after he said it. Thinking of this, he was a little impatient. He turned his head and looked out of the corner of his eye. He was instantly shocked, because the person standing at the door was not an engineer, but a strange man. The man I saw on the monitor.

At this time, the team leader was already stuttering from fright. He couldn't believe what happened before him. You must know that it was the strongest security system. He had also checked it during the previous test, and it was impossible for a living person to come out.

The most important thing is that this security system is provided by country H, and their espionage organization has an inseparable relationship with that country.

Qin Yuan walked over slowly, the men were already overwhelmed by fright, you must know that they are all unarmed people here, although they are a spy organization, but the branch is very clear.

"You! What kind of monster are you? Those things can't kill you."

"It's okay to play with your pediatric toys. I can say that even if my daughter comes here, it's not enough for her to play with."

They spent 100 million to build a security system, but this guy said it was a pediatric toy. Before the team leader could react, Qin Yuan directly invaded his consciousness. He wanted to learn something from this guy's mind.

Originally, Qin Yuan felt that he had no hope here. After all, judging by his appearance, his status would not be particularly high, but he was completely stunned after he got to know it deeply.

Unexpectedly, I learned important information from this guy. First of all, the mastermind behind this espionage organization turned out to be Country H.

In recent years, the military development level of country H has been falling behind. The main reason is that they have been suppressed by the United States. There is no way there, and there is no way to fully develop their hands and feet.

So they simply came to the underworld and directly set up a spy organization, and this spy organization began to plan their personnel to lurk in various countries decades ago.

In addition to being in charge of the entire monitoring system, the team leader also has many personnel assigned to him. It seems that this guy's status is quite important.

Originally, there were a lot of security personnel in this small building, which could completely guarantee the safety here, but because of the previous two emergencies, they had already dispatched many people.

Those people just now were the last security force, mainly because they relied too much on the security system in this small building, but they didn't know that Qin Yuan was the most powerful one, stronger than the electronic system, and those so-called security guards had nothing to do with him. No problem.

Qin Yuan originally thought it would have something to do with the masked man, but it didn't look like this, so why did the system ask him to investigate?

You must know that the masked man has an inseparable relationship with the country of the United States. This guy is working hard for the country of the United States, and now he has a relationship with the country of H.

Just when he was wondering, a system prompt sounded in his mind.

"Ding! The attack speed has completed 50% of the investigation task, please continue the investigation."

He didn't expect the system to give an investigation prompt this time, which really surprised him, probably because the result of the previous upgrade was quite good, which gave him some confidence.

The team leader was too scared to speak at this time, because he was not sure what kind of monster the person in front of him was, and he could come to this place without making a sound, and without thinking too much, he must have destroyed those surveillance cameras.

The staff sitting here were all unarmed, and no one dared to move. At this moment, a staff member quietly touched the siren next to him.

However, in the next second, a flying knife landed directly on his palm, and the staff screamed, rolling on the ground in pain covering their * hands.

Qin Yuan was a little unhappy. After all, the system was reminding him just now, and he was still thinking about the reason.

"I said don't disturb my thinking."

At this time, no one dared to act rashly anymore, and at this time the group leader just now was so scared that he peed, some yellow liquid flowed out from his trouser legs, and the people next to him covered their mouths and dared not make a sound.

Although he worked in this espionage organization, all he had been exposed to was internal intelligence and systematic work from the beginning to the end. He really had never experienced such a thing as murder.

Qin Yuan thought for a while, and the people in front of him were useless. The most important thing was that these people didn't know anything, and he didn't need to deal with these things. After all, he learned another thing from the team leader.

In order to control them, this espionage organization used a very insane method, that is, drug control. They will be issued an antidote every other week. If they do not work according to their compliance, they will stop issuing the antidote.

This is why Yang Ziming's parents have been working desperately for the organization. Once the drug is stopped, they will enter a state of madness. The drug will not kill people, but will make the memory slowly decline. into a state of dementia.

This kind of situation is the scariest, if it doesn't kill you, your memory will completely decline, your cerebellum will shrink, and finally you will become an unattended waste. So this kind of situation is also what they are most afraid of. Everyone was working hard. The security personnel had been by his side just now, and he had no choice but to do it. As for these people, just leave them here to fend for themselves.

Anyway, he is not a good person, and he has to go to another place, which is the real core area.

Going there should be able to investigate it, but the boss of the organization sitting in a room at the moment always feels a little uneasy, after all, it has been a long time since no one came to report the situation.

There is a monitoring system outside the room on his side, and the computer is also displaying the outside picture. He stared at it intently, and there was nothing wrong with it, which made him heave a sigh of relief.

But what's going on outside? He tried to contact the team leader outside, but there was no response for a long time. In the room next to him, those spy organizations were constantly manipulating instruments to communicate with organization members in various regions.

They all use this method to order and transmit the information back. This place is a relatively complete intelligence collection center, and all the information will be classified and managed by them. In this place, the secrets of those members of the spy organization are also hidden. The core secret is their list.

Chapter 1830: Armament system

Qin Yuan used his ability to forcibly invade the consciousness of the boss of this organization.

"Ding, the host forcibly invades the consciousness of others, and the merit point consumes 500."

What? Qin Yuan didn't think that forcibly invading other people's consciousness would consume the merit points of the system. But on second thought, it's worth it. After all, sneaking into his consciousness may be able to obtain more clues worth using.

"Ding, the system prompts that the consciousness of a third party is now being invaded. May I ask whether to start the consciousness scanning function."

The consciousness scanning function is to scan the consciousness of the invaded person, so as to be able to see more carefully the information contained in his meaning.

Qin Yuan thought to himself, this is a great opportunity to obtain useful information. Since so many merit points have been consumed, it is better to have one in place to see how much useful information this person knows.

"Turn on immediately, consciousness scanning function."

"Ding, the system prompts that the meaning scan of the intruder is in progress"

As the system scan progressed, Qin Yuan could clearly see the subconscious existence and some unknown secrets of the boss of this organization.

Qin Yuan looked helplessly at the information that appeared during the scanning process.

Why is there all kinds of information? This person is thinking about something messy all day long.

Fighting at school, peeking at female classmates changing clothes, and craving hot pot recently.

Qin Yuan was really speechless.

Suddenly, a useful clue was found.

A mysterious arms organization was discovered in the consciousness of the leader of this organization.

It turned out that the real identity of this leader turned out to be helping the arms organization to resell arms among various countries in country H, the United States and other surrounding arms dealers.

The leader of this organization is just a small character, and it seems that there is a real big boss behind the scenes.

But he didn't have so much information in his consciousness, Qin Yuan thought maybe it was something he didn't know.

Just when Qin Yuan was puzzled, a system notification sounded.

"Ding! The current merit value of the host is not enough to continue to scan the consciousness of the invaded person. Please recharge the merit value in time."

What Qin Yuan thought in his mind was why he was forced to stop after seeing the key information just now.

It's such a pity, maybe if he continues to scan along with his consciousness, he will get more useful information.

At this time, it may be that the time of intrusion into consciousness was too long, and the leader of this organization obviously felt that he was about to wake up.

Qin Yuan silently said:

"No, he's about to wake up, I have to get out of here quickly."

At this moment someone was knocking on the door.

"Brother, are you okay?"

Qin Yuan knew that someone who seemed to be the leader of the organization was coming, but he was unwilling to give up the opportunity to find clues.

"Brother, did something happen to you?"

Qin Yuan hurriedly got up and was about to run away, but he accidentally knocked off the pen on the table.

"Who's in there?"

The people outside the door seemed to have noticed the abnormality of the matter, and no one answered when they heard their knock on the door. Immediately without hesitation, he kicked the door open.

The moment their people kicked open the door and rushed in, Qin Yuan jumped out of the window. He grabbed the air conditioner outside the window.

It is really difficult to jump from this height, Qin Yuan grabbed the air conditioner with all his strength, and listened quietly to the movement inside the room.

I heard the subordinates rushing in and asked the boss:

"Brother, are you okay?"

The leader's voice can be heard in a daze, as if he had just recovered and said vaguely:

"I'm fine, but I didn't know what happened just now, and suddenly I felt as if I fainted, and I couldn't remember what happened."

This man said:

"I knocked on your door several times just now, but you didn't agree. I suspected that there seemed to be someone inside, so I pushed the door open."

"Someone? Could it be that just now..."

Thinking of the leader of this organization here, I feel a splitting headache.

He was still sitting on the ground, covering his head, trying to recall what had just happened.

"It seemed that someone came in just now, and then..."

"Oh, no, my head hurts too much. I can't remember."

At this time, Qin Yuan was still hanging on the air conditioner outside. He didn't dare to make a sound now, and he didn't dare to move around, for fear that his voice would be heard by the people in the house.

At this time, he vaguely heard the people in the house, and seemed to be looking around to see if there was anyone in the house just now.

At this moment, Qin Yuan was very nervous.

Now that I am in such a situation, if they find out, it will be dangerous.

It was as if his life was hanging by a thread.

Unexpectedly, the subordinates of this organization poked their heads out and looked around from the window.

Because the floor was relatively high, he didn't look down, and Qin Yuan happened to be in the blind spot where he looked down from the window, so he was simply not noticed.

But Qin Yuan, who was hung outside at this time, was terrified and terrified.

As a result, he was still not discovered just now, which is considered lucky for him.

Originally, he was looking for a chance to escape from here, but since he was inspected just now and he was not found, she suddenly wanted to stay here and listen to clues about the munitions system.

He originally thought that his main task was to catch hidden spies, but he didn't expect to have such an unexpected harvest, and he didn't expect it himself.

At this time, I heard the leader of the organization in the room shout loudly.

"Ah! God, * it!"

Hearing the boss yelling like this, all the younger brothers around rushed in, and hurried up to ask him what happened.

"My gun is missing."

Everyone was surprised to hear him say that?

"The gun is missing? This is impossible. I just looked around and found no one there. Moreover, even if someone jumped off such a high floor, it is impossible for us not to find it. Did you accidentally lose the gun? and then forget."

"How is it possible? Can I forget such a big thing?"

The leader of this organization scolded loudly.

After pondering for a while, he said again:

"It's impossible that someone must be playing tricks here. But what happened, I just can't remember it. My memory seems to have been stolen."

Qin Yuan was listening to the ins and outs of this matter outside, secretly delighted in his heart.

It turns out that invading other people's consciousness can still have such an effect. Could it be that he lost his memory? Or just forgetting the memory of this period of time in his heart.

There is currently no way to be sure of this result.

Qin Yuan didn't want to take his gun away at first, but he found that the gun in his hand didn't have many bullets left, so he didn't want to take his gun away.

Inside continued:

"Idiot! Hurry up and find it for me! Do you idiots know that once my gun is subtracted by others, it will easily expose our affairs."

Having said that, everyone here knows the seriousness of this matter.

So they rushed out to look for them as quickly as possible.

Qin Yuan thought in his heart that he had to find a way to go downstairs quickly. Once the group of them went downstairs and saw him hanging on it, soon his whereabouts would be discovered and he would be in danger.

Right now, I must quickly find a way to escape.

Unexpectedly, He Chenguang drove over from a distance at this time.

He saw Qin Yuan hanging on the air conditioner, and shouted:

"What are you doing? You're not practicing acrobatics, come down quickly and follow me."

Qin Yuan really felt a little helpless, he was already in such an experience, yet he was still in the mood to joke.

"How do I go down? If I had a way to go down, I would have gone down a long time ago. Will I hang around here and be laughed at by you?"

He Chenguang lowered his head and sneered:

"There is some truth in what I said, so how should I get you down?"

He Chenguang took out a rope from the car.

Qin Yuan looked down at the rope, and then said:

"What's the use of you! I'm going down now, not up. You don't even study physics in junior high school, do you?"

He Chenguang said:

Don't worry, I have a way, I can still cheat you. "

Qin Yuan really suppressed his anger in his heart before talking to his pig teammate. Let's see what other stupid ways he can come up with.

Unexpectedly, He Chenguang suddenly had an inspiration.

He pulls a drone out of the trunk of his car.

"I tied the rope to the drone, controlled the drone to fly to your height and handed you the rope, you find a safe place to fasten the rope, and then climb down along the rope.

After Qin Yuan heard this statement, he nodded thoughtfully.

"Not to mention, what you said is quite reasonable. You kid is really a fool. You can get something if you think about it. Even a smart person like me didn't think about this problem."

After the conversation between the two people, you must hurry up and put the drone on it.

"Hurry up, once someone in this building finds me, things will be difficult."

He Chenguang did not dare to delay for a second, quickly took out the remote control of the drone and recorded the rope on the drone, and started to control it.

All of a sudden, the drone flew to the height where Qin Yuan was.

At this moment, Qin Yuan was still hanging on the outside unit of the air conditioner, which was inconvenient for him, and both hands were free to tie the rope.

After that, it was difficult to grasp the rope with one hand, and then use a stronger hand to pull the railing of the air conditioner external unit.

Carefully leave the rope on the outer unit of the air conditioner.

At this time, what he thought was that he must not expose himself.

Once you are exposed, the consequences will be unimaginable.

It took Qin Yuan a lot of effort to find a more reliable bearing point.

But after all, I only have one hand to use now, and it is still difficult to support the strength of my body.

So he switched hands.

It took a lot of effort to fasten the rope.

He Chenguang who was standing underneath ordered:

"You must tie the rope well, or I don't have that balloon cushion under it, and follow you. If you fall all at once, I can't save you."

Qin Yuan said while climbing the rope:

"Stop talking sarcastic here, if it weren't for you, could I come here alone to complete the task. How is the situation on your side? Why did you run out?"

"My side is almost finished now, isn't this going to come over to help you, how do you gain anything?"

Qin Yuan doesn't have so much mind to think about other things now, all his energy is now spent on controlling the balance of his body. Don't fall off the top yourself.

Qin Yuan thought to himself, fortunately, he is a member of the special operations team, and he has practiced a lot of temporary training for such crises.

He still has a certain level of physical fitness, otherwise, if he was an ordinary person, he would have fallen from the top today and would have been smashed to pieces.

After a while, Qin Yuan climbed down from the top.

He Chenguang laughed and joked:

"You kid is really good at it, and this is also brought down by you."

Just when Qin Yuan wanted to refute, he heard it from the corridor. It should be a group of people ran out from inside.

Qin Yuan quickly grabbed He Chenguang's hand.

"Stop talking nonsense and get in the car."

"What's the matter? This is? What's the rush? Let me drive."

Qin Yuan kicked He Chenguang to the side of the co-pilot.

"It's just you two times, you sit next to me and I will drive."

So Qin Yuan hurried into the car, not having time to put on his seat belt. With a kick of the accelerator, the car jumped out.

It flashed for He Chen who was sitting in the co-pilot.

When this group of people came out of the corridor and saw the car that started suddenly, they knew that something was wrong.

The leader whose consciousness had just been invaded this moment also came out.

He looked up and saw the rope hanging from the air conditioner.

Only then did he suddenly realize. Gritting his teeth, he said:

"Sure enough, someone was there just now. It seems that he is hiding outside. He heard everything we said."

The subordinate next to him nodded.

"It seems that I was negligent just now. I didn't even notice that there was a person hanging under the outer air conditioner. He even ran away. It was my negligence."

The little boss angrily slapped the subordinate next to him.

"Stop talking nonsense! What are you still thinking? Hurry up and chase after him. He doesn't know how many things he has heard about us. If he finds out about the arms system and the boss above finds out that we leaked the secret, we will die. "

Hearing this, the subordinates did not dare to hesitate at all.

He hurriedly ran to the car next to him, and kicked the accelerator and rushed out.

He Chenguang in the car was shocked by the scene.

"We've already run away, it's been a while, don't worry."

Qin Yuan slammed on the accelerator while staring at the rearview mirror outside the car. While answering He Chenguang's question.

"What do you know? Do you know how dangerous I was just now? They chased me down very quickly. We didn't take the rope away. Soon, they will find the rope on the outer unit of the air conditioner. They knew that someone was in the house just now. I've heard so many of their secrets that we're both dead if we let them catch up."

"You heard something secret, tell me quickly."
