

Special Soldier 1841

Chapter 1841: on your marks

Fan Tianlei hurriedly said:

"Very good, let's praise the young Doctor Du first. Don't be shy. If you have any questions, please bring them up quickly. I will try to solve them. If I can't solve them, with so many people present, three cobblers can beat one Zhuge Liang. Yes Bar.

Tell me, Doctor Du, what's your problem? "

Du Bingbing asked with his still frosty face:

"If I'm going to give Professor Fang De medicine, then I need to know his specific physical condition to determine how much dose to give. After all, I can't prescribe medicine indiscriminately.

You may not know it, but asthma is a very serious disease. If there is a little carelessness, if life is really in danger, who can take this responsibility. "

Qin Yuan did not think of this question. After all, this is a medical matter, and it has already reached the blind spot of his knowledge.

Qin Yuan knew that this problem could be solved with Du Bingbing's professional ability.

"It's true that I didn't estimate so much before. Couldn't it be that a little medicine will have an effect? It's because I didn't think carefully. If there is any solution, I need to ask Doctor Du to enlighten me." ah."

In fact, Du Bingbing had already thought about how to do this when he raised the question.

"He is what he is. There is nothing wrong with it. You bear it alone."

When I thought about that time, and when Li Zheng brought it up to Qu Wanyan, I actually thought of that first.

Qu Wanyan looked at Li Zheng flattering her indifferently.

Not yet, you now need a set of devices. It's a device for stealth calls. When we are doing missions outside, you have to know our situation outside, and you can contact us at any time if you are ready or not. "

Li Zhengzhen stared at He Chenguang's serious science popularization with narrowed eyes. Although I have only a blind spot in medicine and biology, I don't feel that I am aware of it.

I drove a group of people to Dongcheng Youbai Hospital, which was planned in advance.

"When he just finished speaking, you send a text message to the dean here, telling me that you recommend someone. Everything has been arranged. He can go directly with He Chenguang at night." By the way, why did he choose Xiao Wanxia to carry out the mission? "

"What is that?" Qu Wanyan looked at the big medicine bottle suspiciously.

"It's okay, his eldest son should be proud and complacent. No matter how perfect the plan is, no matter how perfect it is. But it's just talking on paper. You only look at the first results. He needs to know that in the army In addition, the most taboo thing is not talking on paper.

"By the way, Fang De. How is his arrangement at the hospital?"

All I saw was that the eight people outside Bai Ye looked valiant and high-spirited. Although it was time for them to sleep, they looked very energetic one by one.

Li Zheng hurriedly checked the time, and fell asleep for a while. So he quickly got up and opened the car door, stood up and stretched.

Not the kind they asked for, which would cause symptoms, but in a lethal dose. "

As soon as Du Bingbing heard what Dr. Du said, he quickly criticized him again.

But in Li Zheng's eyes, He Chenguang was a thin and strong boy, and it was his first time performing a mission.

After speaking, Du Bingbing left the commercial vehicle, and Li Zheng was the only one left in the dark night.

Fan Tianlei laughed and said:

Everyone present answered in unison.

Until I was woken up by the sound of "Dangdang". Li Zheng looked up and saw that Qu Wanyan was knocking on the car window.

Li is exactly like Qu Wanyan, because after all, even if the two recruits have just brought down the army, they are girls after all, if there is something to talk about in terms of physical fitness.

"They should worry about it. You can protect yourself, but they don't need to worry about you. If they abnormally complete the task of destroying themselves, they will be destroyed. They want to put too little energy under you. You are here

The ones who help are here to drag Xiaojia forward. "

"Sir, worry, promise to complete the task."

"Oh, the lower eyelid and the upper eyelid are fighting. Why is he here alone? Is there anyone else?"

Qu Wan turned around and said to the other people beside him:

After speaking, He Chenguang took Xiao Du to the hospital.

Then Qu Wanyan said again:

"You have already thought about that. The equipment has not been applied for him yet. The latest equipment was exported from country D recently. I heard that it was returned at a small price. It was borrowed by you just after it arrived. It's here. It's time for him to try it out."

Qu Wan then said:

"Hey, you're welcome. It's all Chief of Staff Fan's intention. He said that his nephew, who is far away, has just graduated from graduate school and needs your hospital to come and study for a week or so. I ask you to fully cooperate."

Just after you went back, you removed the other harmless ingredients outside the mustard, and only kept a part of the factors that can cause asthma. According to their description, Fan Tianlei's body shape is similar to that of Professor Qin Yuan, and according to half the volume of that big bottle, it should have just broken.

Do you think your plan is feasible? If you don't think so, you can prepare it. You need to prepare a special kind of common mustard, and go to the laboratory to purify it, so as to prevent some other harmless substances outside from affecting your expected effect. "

Before getting out of the car, Li Zheng distributed an invisible earphone to everyone. A little big thing with a translucent screw cap. It cannot be placed in any position at will. It is very convenient to use and is easily noticed.

"Okay, thank you! It's so late, if there is anything else, he will go back first. I will leave the rest to you, and he will wait for the bad news of your failure."

The wind blowing at night can still feel the coolness.

So he said to Qu Wanyan in a heavy voice:

Fan Tianlei turned around and pointed to the nearby area.

At that time, Qu Wan activated the secret communication device and started a conversation with He Chenguang. The outside of Li Zheng's earphones was so cold that he couldn't hear an ordinary conversation.

"It's bad, take advantage of that time to test the communication equipment. Whatever they do, they can listen to Hanhu."

Li Zheng stretched out his left hand and said solemnly:

Du Bingbing opened the car door, pointed under the co-pilot's seat and said:

"He's bad. Is he a doctor introduced by Chief of Staff Fan?"

Although you know that with your own ability, Qu Wan's words are words. But it doesn't sound like a comfortable feeling.

Li Zheng suddenly remembered another thing.

Li Zheng looked shocked.

Qu Wan looked at Qu Wanyan who was approaching, not seeing Chen Jixiang and Xiao Du.

"Is this all in front? We'll be there soon."

"I see, there is no reason for a team like that to be successful?"

"It's so late, so let's go back and talk. He's taking you with him, so let yourself be a stranger."

At that time, Li Zheng also understood what He Chenguang said.

"I think it's better to work on food than to use western medicine. Add a little mustard to Professor Fang De's meals. I believe there will be a sign of his asthma attack, but not so much." Seriously, at least it will be life-threatening.

"Hey, does he still know you? I hate delaying everything. Don't wait until the time is up and there will be no changes to deal with it. Besides, he only gave you eight days.

But Li Zheng fell asleep just thinking about it.

Prepare to go to the previous location to ambush the most important personnel. The success or failure of the whole task depends on that Chen Jixiang, the big brother who sells in the house.

"clear!"

"Are you kidding me? That's the dignified Chief of Staff Fan. If there's nothing wrong, just make a phone call and everything will be resolved."

"It's bad. Since they're ready to go bad, you guys are going to stay with them there. After all, there's not much to do."

"Why did you fall asleep there? Is he also afraid of catching a cold?"

"It occurred to me that Fang De was really inexperienced, so he found someone to take care of him so quickly."

He Chenguang took out a large bottle from his pocket, which contained colored and smelly powder.

Everyone went out one after another before hearing Qu Wan's order, and they all went back to prepare for the next action. At that time, only Du Bingbing and Li Zheng were left outside the house.

After speaking, Du Bingbing nodded in satisfaction, after all, that mission was too safe. And there are not so few newcomers involved. Leadership is what it is and should be.

"Here, all the missing equipment is there."

Li Zheng explained:

Qu Wan checked his own equipment over and over again. Be sure to check it several times, if there is really nothing wrong, but the rescue is so complicated, it is very unlikely that it will hurt people's lives.

Li Zheng said:

As soon as he heard Du Bingbing say that, Qu Wan put a small stone in his heart.

After Li Zheng finished speaking, several people got out of the car one after another.

Xiao Du replied solemnly:

Li Zheng listened to the conversation outside the earphones and understood. It seems that Du Bingbing has told the truth to the people in the hospital. It is a very wise choice to put He Chenguang there as a relationship with the leader of the military region. .

Du Bingbing took out the text message on his mobile phone and showed it to Li Zheng.

"You guys go and send Military Doctor Du and Xiao Du to the Dongcheng Youbai Hospital that was planned out in advance. The things here haven't been arranged yet, so you go to the hospital first."

"Fang De, how are you doing? Are you satisfied with your plan?"

Then Qu Wan and Du Bingbing went outside the commercial vehicle that had been prepared in advance.

Qu Wan pouted and said:

Du Bingbing looked at Li Zheng's complacent look, so he pretended to be serious and said:

Thinking that He Chenguang who was inside also heard the conversation, he said in a coded language between us:

"That they didn't pay attention to usage and dosage.

"That's it. Today's meeting will be held there first, and you have assigned all the tasks for Xiaojia. After that, they will go back to prepare separately. At ten o'clock tonight, Xiaojia will gather at the east gate of the army on time. You'll be waiting for Xiaojia outside a white van. Get ready to move before Xiaojia arrives."

Li Zheng put away the big medicine bottle given by He Chenguang.

Li Zhengxin thought, it's not for your sake, it's obviously because he wants you to be a guinea pig and try new equipment for him.

At this moment, the sky is completely white.

"He didn't make a mistake, Qu Wan. You haven't accepted it yet, so he will help you to use it. What if the broken thing is broken? Your task is not half done yet."

"It's really too bad to call everyone over in Xiaowan, but considering the lightness of the task, you must do that. Okay, let's all get out of the car and talk, don't stand there anymore. People who are blown by the hot wind at night will miss their cool bed even more."

Li Zheng went on to say:

"Is it still necessary for him to urge you? He will see for himself."

Before confirming that the equipment was in order, Qu Wan checked the time, and the action time agreed with him was less than an hour away, and he was too bad to take a nap while taking advantage of that time.

Fan Tianlei, as Qu Wan's old partner, naturally had to sit in the co-pilot seat.

"Let me show you this device first. Although it is a low-grade product that has been exported, you have to use it while you have it. You think the old model that you used in the past is pretty bad."

Such a noisy environment is the most suitable time for thinking.

After saying that, all eight people got under the commercial vehicle, and the rescue team was officially established.

So Li Zheng lay under the front seat of the car, thinking over and over again the details of that plan in his mind. After all, it is better to be cautious if you are leading a group of newcomers to carry out the mission.

"No, Doctor Du, take that slow

Got something to use? I admire you. Did you really see the mistake? In terms of professional knowledge, isn't Doctor Du's level that low? "

After speaking, Qu Wan drove away from the hospital.

"By the way, I heard from the following that the set of equipment cost a small price. He must use it carefully, and he will have to pay for it after he gets it done."

"That is the first stealth communication device that you returned so far. Xiaojia broke it. The worst thing is to store it in a place where others can easily find it. You must carry out the task at the same time Use that thing to eat and communicate anytime, anywhere. Once no one loses contact, the operation can be terminated, and everyone must be the first goal. Do you understand?"

"Do you still need him to say it? Worry, you haven't tried it for him, it's a real bad thing. You, Qu Wanyan, occasionally fight your battles, besides, that set of equipment hasn't been recorded in your It got its name. When the eldest son uses it, he will give you more care."

I thought that at that time, there was no one waiting for the hospital at the door.

"Yeah, he's bad. It's really bad to trouble him to come over there and wait for you at such a late hour."

At best, he will protect the missing team members to successfully complete the task without any injuries. "

"We're here, Doctor Du, let him and Xiao Du retreat. There will be no one to receive them outside. Playing the wrong role of yourself is going to reveal your secrets."

He Chenguang also understood that he was so worried by Xiaojia. So he showed a smile that he had never seen before.

Chapter 1842: role play

Chen Jixiang naturally knew the importance of his role, so he said to Qin Yuan:

"Brother Qin, I have an idea now, and I don't know if I should say it."

Qin Yuan wondered what was going on with this smart ghost, Chen Jixiang? It's the first time I set up a mission with myself, and I won't have to make some fools. So Qin Yuan was also very curious and asked:

"Let's talk, what's the matter? We are all in the same team now, there is nothing to say or not to say, just say it if you have something to say."

So Chen Jixiang said solemnly:

"It's like this. I think my task of acting as a delivery boy is the most important one in the whole plan. If someone sees through me, it may lead to the failure of the whole plan. So I have an idea now.

That is, according to what you said, my temperament has perfectly matched that of the delivery boy. So, what about other aspects? "

What Chen Jixiang said caught everyone else off guard. What are other aspects?

He Chenguang really couldn't bear the appearance of this slippery boy, so he hurriedly turned his head from the co-pilot, turned around and gave Chen Jixiang a shot.

"You boy, don't learn Qin Yuan's way of beating around the bush, speak quickly and let go of farts!"

Chen Jixiang had a row of big white teeth on his dark face.

"I'm thinking of wearing the clothes of a real delivery boy. I can't wear the ones you prepared for me. It's so easy to reveal my secrets."

I really didn't expect that this kid had such a clear mind, even Qin Yuan didn't think of this question.

Maybe it's not because Qin Yuan is not smart enough, but because he is too busy during this time, and there are many things that need to be coordinated by himself. Don't care about such details at all.

At first, Qin Yuan had some concerns about this kid, Chen Jixiang. He was worried that the character of this kid was not a person who could be reassured. He was worried that he was too nervous to care about many details.

Unexpectedly, Chen Jixiang, a kid, would be able to think about the clothes of the delivery staff so quickly. Qin Yuan's evaluation of Chen Jixiang has risen to another level.

Qin Yuan wanted to praise Chen Jixiang just now, but He Chenguang took the lead.

"I said you can do it, boy. Don't look at you as black and thin like a thin dog. I didn't expect to be so delicate in my thoughts. Yes, very good. This time, it is considered that you have considered everything well, and I will credit you for it." ."

Qin Yuan said:

"Yeah, what He Chenguang said is right, but where can we find a deliveryman's clothes?"

In fact, ever since Chen Jixiang had this idea, he has been observing all kinds of delivery boys around him anytime, anywhere, learning their every move.

Secretly imitating in my heart, observing the details on them.

Chen Jixiang pointed his head out of the window and said:

"Look, there are so many food delivery people out there, just find someone, give him some money, and get the outfit he's wearing for yourself."

Qin Yuan couldn't help but smiled and said:

"It has to be you, kid, okay. Then let's find a target quickly."

After speaking, Qin Yuan parked the car on the side of the road. A place where many outsiders gather.

Qin Yuan just wanted to get out of the car and ask a delivery guy, but unexpectedly Chen Jixiang said:

"Brother Qin Yuan, you guys just sit in the car, I will do this by myself."

He Chenguang looked shocked, this kid was going to act alone the first time he came out. He was naturally a little worried.

"You boy, can you go alone?"

"Brother Chenguang, don't worry, you actually chose me, so you have to trust me, the task of controlling tomorrow also needs to be completed by myself, so don't worry, just leave it to me, it's okay Look at my potential."

Before Qin Yuan refused him, Chen Jixiang opened the door and got out of the car by himself, walking towards the group of delivery workers.

He Chenguang said to Qin Yuan:

"This kid, can you do it?"

"It's no problem, and what he said is very reasonable. If you don't let him go today, he will be alone in the task tomorrow. You can't rely on us for everything.

Besides, these are honestly working delivery people, and there is no danger factor, let's take him as a test, let's take it as a set of mock tests before giving this kid an official mission.

Anyway, we have invisible communication equipment, so just listen quietly. "

Not long after, this Chen Jixiang came among this group of delivery boys and started to exchange pleasantries.

A voice came from Qin Yuan's earphones.

"It's too hard for you to deliver food tonight."

"Hey, what can I do? It's all forced by life. But it's okay, the brothers are very happy talking and laughing together every day. When there is no list, we get together and chat."

"Yeah, young man, it looks like you just came from the countryside to work in Chengli?"

Qin Yuan and He Chenguang couldn't help laughing when they heard someone say that.

He Chenguang joked:

"Look, let me just say, this kid really looks like a food delivery guy."

While laughing, Qin Yuan made an "empty" gesture to He Chenguang, signaling him to keep quiet and listen to Chen Jixiang's words quietly.

"Me? I'm not, hahaha, do I look like a countryman? I'm a student at the Provincial Polytechnic University. We have a social survey right now, and we need to collect some information about you and publish it as a paper."

When the delivery man next to him heard that Chen Jixiang was a student of a key university, he respected him and said curiously:

"You are a college student of the Polytechnic University, what kind of society are you investigating? Are we going to be published in the newspaper?"

Qin Yuan said to Chen Jixiang through the headset:

"You boy, don't ramble here, hurry up and get to the point, don't waste time. Hurry up, make a quick decision."

I heard the command in the earphone, so I hurried back to the conversation.

"Yes, our dissertation is going to be a social survey. I came out this time just to collect a piece of your delivery man's clothes and show it off when I go back to school to give a speech. Finally, I need to borrow your electric car, but This is not impermanent and will give you some subsidies.

How about it? Would any of you be willing to lend me your clothes and equipment? "

After Chen Jixiang said this, all the delivery staff did not respond. What did he mean?

As a result, the air fell into silence.

After a while, Chen Jixiang was about to repeat what he said just now. At this time, a young delivery man stood up and said it.

"Since it's not impermanent, then you can take my things away. It's just that you have to agree on the price in advance, and you have to agree first. The price is different whether you rent it or buy it.

Besides, we also have a deposit for our kung fu, if you take it away for no reason, we will also deduct the money. "

Qin Yuan decided on the words of the takeaway boy, and directed Chen Jixiang in the earphone to say:

"It's useless for us to ask for this clothes. Of course it's rented. Give him 200 yuan a day, and find a special person to bring it back to him after we're done."

Chen Jixiang heard what Qin Yuan said, so he repeated it to the delivery boy.

"Of course we are renting it. It's useless to ask for your clothes, and I also know that you need a deposit for your kung fu. Let me give you 200 yuan a day. We only use it for about a day. It will be tomorrow at this time." At this place, I will send you all your things back."

The takeaway boy heard that his equipment can earn 200 yuan a day, which is equivalent to his daily income.

So he didn't even think about it, and agreed to the deal without hesitation.

"Okay, but I'll lend you something tomorrow, and I won't be able to do my work, so I'll just take a day off."

After the delivery guy finished speaking, he took off his clothes and handed them to Chen Jixiang.

"Then it's decided, the boss hasten to come down and pay!"

Qin Yuan heard that Jixiang told him to go down and pay, so he couldn't help but say:

"You kid is really capable, and you know how to let me go down and pay, just wait."

After Qin Yuan finished speaking, he opened the car door and walked to the grade point. Thinking of them, he took out 200 yuan from his pocket and handed it to the delivery boy who contributed clothes.

"Then don't forget to send me back my equipment on time tomorrow."

"Okay, don't worry if I know, it's useless for us to ask for this thing."

After picking up the clothes, the two of them went back together, in the business car.

Without saying a word, Chen Jixiang changed into the delivery man's clothes without daring to waste any time.

After changing clothes, he asked Qin Yuan and He Chenguang:

"How? Do I look more like a real delivery man now?"

He Chenguang nodded and couldn't help laughing out loud.

"It seems that our vision is correct. Your kid's temperament really fits perfectly with this outfit."

Chen Jixiang showed his big white teeth, smiled and said:

"Then I have clothes now, when will the delivery guy deliver the food?"

This question is on point.

Qin Yuan was also thinking about when would it be better to implement the plan? So Qin Yuan lowered his head and pondered for a while and said:

"Well, let's wait and see when they order takeaway, so we won't be afraid that things will be exposed easily.

It seems that we are really ready for everything now, and we only owe Dongfeng.

Let's go, go now, go to the lair where they imprisoned Professor Fang De, and wait for the opportunity to see when they will act. "

At this time, He Chenguang raised a crucial question.

"It's just that, what if they don't order takeaway? What's the matter?"

Chen Jixiang replied without hesitation:

"Impossible, absolutely impossible. If you don't know about takeaway, what do they eat and drink? They are usually lazy and get used to ordering others to do things. It is absolutely impossible to do it by themselves."

Qin Yuan really liked Chen Jixiang more and more in his heart. He can always guess his own mind at the most critical moment, and then say what he wants to say.

Qin Yuan recalled the scene when he accidentally saw Professor Fang De that day.

Although he only cared about talking to Professor Style and didn't care about other details, Qin Yuan obviously remembered that he saw a bunch of takeaway boxes in the corner.

And obviously, it is impossible for this group of people to cook by themselves, and it is impossible to have a dedicated chef, and they have long been impatient with her here. Dissatisfied with this environment.

Tomorrow is just dawdling, it's like eating and dying here.

Therefore, Qin Yuan said confidently:

"Based on what I've known about Effiete for so many years, his mind is completely on the underground arms system, and he doesn't care about this matter at all. He thinks that this professor is not worthy of so many of them. It's a waste of so much energy to watch here, just ignore him. So they don't care much about Professor Fang De's supervision work."

Chen Jixiang also nodded, agreeing with Qin Yuan's idea very much.

"We just waited quietly downstairs, and once they said they called to order takeaway, we immediately went to cut it off."

He Chenguang was very puzzled, why did Chen Jixiang trust Qin Yuan so much the first time he saw him?

"I said Chen Jixiang, you are a ghost, but why do you trust us so much? And you have never been to the place where Professor Fang De was imprisoned. That's it, do you believe what Qin Yuan said?"

Unexpectedly, Chen Jixiang's family gave a surprising answer.

"Actually, let me tell you the truth, I have known Brother Qin Yuan's name for a long time. From the first day I joined the army, many people have been discussing that he is the most powerful soldier king in this army.

And we discussed a lot about your past. "

He Chenguang smiled and said to Qin Yuan in a malicious tone:

"It seems that your glorious history has been regarded as a role model by them, and it is often discussed in private."

Qin Yuan pretended to be innocent, and asked knowingly:

"What glorious history can I have? Come and listen to me! I think you are trying to blackmail me."

Chen Jixiang said:

"I heard that the army spent a lot of money to win you, must win you here, and you even took Fan Tianlei's money to go to that place."

But these are just legends, and I am more inclined to see is to believe. "

"What do you see is believing?"

"During our meeting, look at the attitude of Thor and Gong Jian's instructors towards you. No matter what you say, they trust you very much, and they are always close to their rights to satisfy you when you ask for it. I believe that you must be a capable person, otherwise how can you make the superiors pay so much attention to you."

Qin Yuan didn't expect that he would feel a little embarrassed after being praised by Chen Jixiang.

"Okay, don't talk about those useless things. Our top priority now is to rescue Professor Fang De as soon as possible. It's the first time our team comes out on a mission, so we can't necessarily lose the chain!"

Chapter 1843: successful meeting

After speaking, Qin Yuan drove to the destination, which was the old building where Professor Fang De was imprisoned.

Qin Yuan observed the surrounding environment and said:

"Well, if I remember correctly, it should be this place."

Chen Jixiang half-jokingly said:

"I think it's this place too. I seem to smell criminals already."

"You kid can do it. You are sharp enough. You can smell criminals on your first mission. It's really good. You have potential. Hope to surpass the two of us as soon as possible."

Qin Yuan said:

"Brothers, get ready to take action. I plan to go up and step on them first to find out their bottoms. I have to be careful this time. Last time I hung on the external unit of the air conditioner, the injury is still not healed. "

While talking about Qin Yuan, he supported his arm with his hand.

Chen Jixiang looked at Qin Yuan holding his arm, with a painful expression on his face. With such a serious look, he was a little worried about him.

Fang De observed for a long time, but he just lay there and moved around, so it is impossible for him to fall asleep.

"You plan to retreat and communicate with me."

"Although you are an expert in engineering mechanics, you think he also knows that the purpose of various countries to win you is not to let you help you develop arms. And although you have taught a few students, you have been called , we are asking us to engage in related research.

"It turned out to be me. You know I'm working outside the H country's army. He must be in my hands. Seeing how he moves, he looks very similar to when I was young."

I raised my hand and looked around. About 20 minutes later, there was still no movement outside the house, and no one was found in the window.

Qin Yuan raised his hand and saw that it was already half past one in the morning. He didn't expect how long he had just come out of the army. The time passed so quickly. He knew that he had to hurry up and act.

"It turned out to be your student. You knew that no one would miss you when you kissed there. But now you are not from their H country. You have nothing to do with him. Some say Hanhu."

"Professor Qin Yuan, you are bad. You are Wei You. You were specially ordered by your Chief of Staff Fan to rescue him! I am sure you have no doubts. Please wait until you are successfully rescued to see Chief of Staff Wei Youchao." , I will definitely tell you about Hanhu."

And now that task is not very safe, who dared to give me any idea at that time, Wei Youchao's life is not safe, who can take such responsibility?

Fang De looked inside for a long time, but he didn't find any trace of Professor Fang De, so he didn't feel relieved.

Did Fang De know what Chen Jixiang said? I continued to observe the situation outside the room through the glass.

Fang De said on the walkie-talkie that I am obviously asking for the opinions of the remaining two people on the matter. But after all. Fang De is the real leader of that large group. Others have no way to help me with any ideas, they can only give me some suggestions or opinions.

It stands to reason that it should be gone. After all, there was only one bed outside that room, and if there was no other guard besides Professor Qin Yuan, the ex-professor would have slept underground.

At that time, Wei Youchao's voice came from outside the earphone:

Fang De thought about such a trivial matter, so he hurriedly had a drink with Chen Jixiang and said:

When Fang De heard Professor Qin Yuan say that, I didn't feel any meaning.

"He's still going to retreat. Now it's time to confirm the situation outside the house. Brother Qin Yuan is safe? How can you two save him?"

Because thinking about the events of this day is really not a bit thrilling, if it must be suitable for success and arrived in time, it is very unlikely that he will be discovered by Ai Feite and pushed upstairs.

"I'm fine. These are all skin injuries. I have to confirm some things myself."

After listening to Fang De's words, Professor Fang De clearly understood the reason for that person's visit. So I said calmly.

Fang De walked around inside a few more times, and suddenly my eyes lit up.

I should have fallen asleep too, seeing how it was locked outside, it was quite pitiful. For a low-level intellectual, being locked outside that big room allowed me to go out and also allowed me to communicate with the people inside. To me, eating, drinking, and escaping must be done outside that room, which is a kind of respect. "

So Fang De took the invisible bug that had been prepared in advance and prepared to go downstairs to have a look.

"Who is he?"

"How about Professor Qin Yuan, if you want to teach me, you have to check my physical condition first."

Because it can't be seen that putting a professor in various countries has always been in a very neutral state, and I am willing to help any force. Have you ever thought that those snoring sounds are so quiet that even Chen Jixiang and Wan Wanzhen can hear them clearly with earphones outside.

But how should that ability be recovered? Is it like catching a spider or catching a gecko?

Forget it, and climb down bit by bit.

"Brother Fang De, try to speak louder, don't wake us up."

"You said he didn't think so beautifully. He must not forget that when he quit talking, what the instructor Gong Jian explained was that quitting didn't completely let me come to your place. From this we can see that the old man's excellent."

"Hey, think about it, we were snoring like thunder at that time, and if we slept soundly, it seems that we have been in that place for a long time, and we have not been impatient. Besides, my ex-father has been slacking off on protecting Professor Fang, and I never thought that no one would come to ***** Professor Fang."

While talking with Professor Fang De, Fang De repeatedly looked at the situation in other places.

"It seems that we really locked Professor Qin Yuan out of another room."

"It seems that you still have to hang up in the air conditioner tonight. It's too bad. At that time, those people must not be asleep. It's convenient to do some things."

If it was really pushed upstairs by us, I am afraid that my life would have been saved long ago, so today I know that there is no plan to climb stairs. Fang De prepared little equipment for himself early on.

Just like that, the two faced each other privately outside Baiye. It must have been another special person or a boy who hasn't screamed for a long time.

Chen Jixiang, at this moment, I fully understand why Fang De is so close to Wei Youchao, the elder son.

Wei You just hung under the air conditioner to observe, and watched the movement outside the house for a long time before I dared to take no action.

So, I came up with a timid idea and went directly outside the house to wake up Professor Qin Yuan.

And Professor Qin Yuan just asked calmly:

"Look at Hanhu, is there anyone outside, except for Professor Qin Yuan, is there anyone else."

Wei You touched Bai, and climbed carefully to the window of Effiete's room.

The ex-pro was able to rescue Professor Qin Yuan successfully today, but that doesn't mean that no one announced that the ex-pro was successful in that mission. After all, there is an army there, and military orders are like mountains.

So what you want to say about that is not whether you are weak or begging someone to come and save you. Although you really want to leave there, you must use your own knowledge to research arms for them in exchange. If so, you will agree. "

"Bad guy, it seems that he is not born with that kind of material and is quite stupid. Do you think that he is quite right with you when you go back. In the past, you just told the instructor Gong Jian, and he just followed you in the past. ."

"Brother Fang De, don't wait for him. Maybe it's time for nothing, or maybe we haven't moved Professor Wei You to another room. In short, he still has to be cautious, and he must be discovered by us." his trail.

"How is it? Is there no one outside the house? Is there no one else?"

Xiaowan suddenly felt that no one was peeping outside the window. I was actually scared, and got up and walked to the window.

Those people have stayed there for a few days and suffered very little, if they are willing to sleep underground again.

"Actually, maybe that ex-Dear Fett we tortured Professor Qin Yuan

One way, after all, abnormal people must be locked outside a big room to let them talk, eat, drink, and scatter outside, and they are also allowed to communicate with anyone. I am afraid that it will take 48 hours for the ex-professor to completely collapse. That's why these interrogations are commonly used methods when interrogating prisoners. "

Fang De took a look at the white and thin guy behind him. I thought to myself, that recruit was really wrong, and I was right with myself. Before that matter was over, I would tell Thor, and if I had any missions in the past, I might as well just stay with that big guy.

After all, now is still the time to completely rescue me, just to inquire about the news first, the most important thing now is to ensure my own danger, not to scare the snake. "

"Do you remember that you didn't see it outside that room that day, why am I here?"

Thinking of the old man's bad memory, when Wei You mentioned He Chenguang's name, I immediately remembered it. So I nodded and said:

Whether the lights were turned on outside the house or not, it was pitch white and everything could be seen, and a few snoring sounds could be faintly heard.

"He Chenguang, do you know him? I didn't ask you to come here to save you. It was hard for you to be locked up there for so many days."

"What did he base his judgment on? Your research plan will go smoothly, what? Could it be that his eldest son also learned to predict the future form?"

"You found it!"

"How is it? Didn't you find any trace of Professor Wei You?"

So Fang De quietly stepped out of the commercial vehicle, and closed the door cautiously, for fear of waking up the people downstairs like Effiete. Standing upstairs and looking at the low building and the air conditioners one by one, Wei You thought in his heart that he must be able to put the climbing ability outside the system and it would break down.

The important thing is not that if it is true, we have not indulged and slacked for a long time, and we simply think that no one will hijack us in the middle of the night.

But at that time, Chen Jixiang persuaded him instead:

The two sat quietly outside the commercial vehicle, waiting for the bad news from Fang De, Xiaojia was not disappointed at all just now, and thought that the plan had not changed.

Just when the two were holding back, they thought that a miracle would happen.

But how to break through and retreat is another problem.

Fang De understood what Effie really meant when he heard that.

Professor Qin Yuan outside the room felt that there was no one inside the window. That intellectual is really timid enough.

Fang De once again hung it on the air conditioner in the window and listened to the discussion between the two of them with the earphones under the machine. Even I couldn't help but admire that Wei Youchao.

"If you went down that time, would it be safe? My ex-professor put the invisible bug in a hidden place, and checked Professor Qin Yuan's physical condition by the way. If it is sure that there is nothing wrong, you should tell Professor Qin Yuan in advance. Let's start with the rescue plan. If Wei Youchao's plan goes well, we'll have to come up with another plan, which is to put all the missing eggs out of one basket."

Chapter 1844: Stubborn Professor Fang

In fact, it's not that Qin Yuan can't understand such thoughts. After all, for these intellectuals without borders, helping any country to manufacture arms will cause some potential dangers to many innocent people.

But Qin Yuan thought, he had to save Professor Fang De first.

After all, this person is very temperamental, and he is like a ticking time bomb.

Although what he said now is that he would not stand in a neutral position, what he would rather think about today is that he is in a neutral position, and he must let such a person be neutral in his own territory.

Besides, the purpose now is to rescue him as soon as possible. As for the future, whether he is willing to help his country depends on the efforts of others.

So Qin Yuan hurriedly followed Professor Fang De's words and said:

"I understand what you mean, and I can understand your approach. After all, you are a kind person. You don't want to see many people in dire straits, and you don't want to use your ability to create non-threatening weapons. .

This just shows that your heart is very kind. Don't worry, I simply came to rescue you under the order of Chief of Staff Fan. As for other things, we will not force you. "

Professor Fang De said righteously:

"You don't have to coax me here, what I'm saying now is the position I've insisted on for a long time, and you can also imagine that if I promised to help any country to be the most popular, I wouldn't end up on the stage like today .

We thought that using that method could make you surrender and serve us, but in fact we were wrong. For a person like him, there is no room for harm, but it is more conducive to your thinking, and any thinking will be more muddy.

"Yeah, you understand, you really admire him more and more now, Brother Fang De, he is like your idol. You have made up your mind, you must learn from him badly, I hope that one day you can also Get down to that low. He's so ***** handsome."

Only if the correct method is not taken to dismantle, I will issue an alarm. If it is definitely a violent demolition, I will definitely issue an alarm.

"It seems that he is also a stupid person. When a stupid person talks to a stupid person, it is not so complicated to solve the problem. You admire him very much, so you are willing to agree to go with him today.

Fang De looked outside the house, only Professor Jiao Peng thought that if he did, he might as well take it up from under the window and take it away secretly.

One of them was in the process of working, and it seemed that he heard a sound outside the house, so I walked in the door. Unprepared, he pushed open the door of Professor Jiao Peng's room.

"Emmett's people thought he would succumb to your regressive torment of keeping him out there. Because after all, for a small minority of people to be locked up in such a claustrophobic space, days and nights are nothing to do with anyone. Communicating with people is also a way for you to contact the inner world, and eating, drinking and drinking outside that house, other people would have gone crazy.

Or is it that they have such a rigorous plan as to whether you have a purpose, and it takes a long time to think it out.

Fang De received it as soon as he opened the door, and the two greeted him warmly.

When Fang De heard what Professor Qin Yuan said, a very disappointed expression appeared on his face.

Jiao Peng knew that he still looked too young in front of the old professor, and he thought that I could see through the schemes of these people at a glance, and that person was too stupid.

After listening to Professor Qin Yuan's words, Fang De sighed inwardly, genius, maybe that's not genius. It's no wonder that someone can become an internationally renowned expert in engineering mechanics because the speed of his brain is also something special people can keep up with.

"If the calculation is over from now on, how long will it take you to crack that locator."

"Yeah, why are you so stupid now?"

Therefore, I am willing to renew the master-student relationship between us.

Fang De suppressed his head and smiled.

"Okay, he's trying to be so polite to you, you know they do everything for your bad, as long as you can go out and eat some Bones are nothing, yours is not an old problem, and abnormal situations should be life-threatening, so you just pretend to be slight and scare us. "

It was thought that Professor Qin Yuan would make that person speechless with a single sentence. After all, on the surface, Professor Qin Yuan is our prisoner and is being controlled by us, but in fact, if we also disobey the order of the organization, we dare to do any excessive behavior to Professor Jiao Peng. .

[In view of the general environment,

"They know you don't have asthma and want to give you medicine, and let you go out with the excuse of recurrence of asthma. It's useless for them to die alone? If there are no people outside the hospital, And the measurement of your meal time should be studied by them first.

Professor Qin Yuan smiled slightly and said:

Do you suspect you are bad? Even if he doubts you, I hope he can doubt your student Fan Tianlei. "

On the contrary, it's Effiete's group, we do everything every day, not because we are trapped there, but because you tortured us mentally. "

All the conversations just now were clearly heard by Fang De.

"Bad, look at that child, he is also like a shameful adult under another. You choose to doubt them and say once, how should you rescue you and how do you cooperate?"

"You said there are 8,000 passwords, can't you try to crack them in such a short period of time?"

Jiao Peng thought in his heart that he had thought that the thing would go so smoothly. But now I am faced with another problem.

If it is true that the civet cat is exchanged for the prince plan, although few people in the hospital want to steal Professor Qin Yuan out, it would be difficult, but the locator under my feet. Doubt is a very advanced thing.

Maybe that's also because you are Zizi outside there, because I deeply know that those people in Effiete will hurt my life.

But I must find a way to remove the locator under my feet. Even if Professor Qin Yuan is successfully released, he will be found by us.

So Fang De asked curiously:

"No, guys, they can come up with such a perfect plan."

Chen Jixiang joked on purpose:

"That is also a difficult problem for you, and we allow you to use mobile phones and computers with password combinations that are completely arranged by your own cerebellum calculations. If you are given a mobile phone or a computer, you will be a child forever. That thing has been cracked by you long ago."

Fang De thought that the old man's thoughts were really extremely stubborn, and now he should stimulate my emotions. If I was forced to slow down, jumping up from the downstairs would be a chicken and an egg.

"what time is it now?"

"It's not God helping you to think that things went so slowly and smoothly."

"Bad, it seems that he is really very selfish, you can see what you want to do if you take a look outside the room.

As for the password, they will tell their people when they are in the hospital. "

But as for other things, you can promise him today. "

"what's the plan?"

Professor Qin Yuan looked at the time on the phone and thought for a while and said solemnly:

So, that hand went out in a daze.

"That idiot of his, has he heard that opportunities are reserved for those who are unprepared? The reason why the plan can be implemented so slowly now is not because of the careful planning of his most admired brother Fang De."

If we will give you a label under the international.

"Brother Fang De, Professor Qin Yuan, am I an expert in engineering mechanics? Although the locator under my feet belongs to a certain range, you suspect that it must be some kind of problem that I want to crack that thing."

By the time we have substantive evidence, Professor Qin Yuan will be

You country H rescued it.

What? Jiao Peng was shocked by the seriousness of Professor Qin Yuan's words.

Fang De quickly hid on top of the air conditioner. I thought there was no one inside.

"That's right, the time you agreed on should be lunch. He must have brought some kind of bugging system. He will put it under your body in a while. It's fine. You can contact him at any time. As soon as you hear that you want to Order the password and arrange for someone to dispense medicine outside your meal.

It doesn't matter if there is nothing to do, I will see through it at a glance in front of me.

When Professor Qin Yuan heard Fang De's explanation method, I couldn't help admiring that guy very much.

"Brother, let's talk about it, let's make a fuss. Don't mess with these fancy things. You can accept things that are too foreign." I haven't seen Professor Fang's ingenuity yet. How do you want to do it.

"At first, I wanted to secretly add medicine to your meal, but now I can successfully cook noodles for you and tell him about it. It would be a bad idea. When the time comes, you propose to order noodle, which is better than you guys. Those who are waiting outside are weak.

Jiao Pengdong said excitedly:

After all, it was worse than being shut out there if there was still no master-student relationship between him and Fan Tianlei.

"Tell him the truth, use the locator under your feet, you haven't studied it for a long time, you haven't thought of a way to crack me, but you still have 8,000 passwords to try.

"I'm sure he wants to take you away from the window, you should advise him to give up. We tied a positioning system under your feet. Once you leave the range of that house, the alarm will sound immediately ."

Professor Qin Yuan's brain was running fast, Fang De couldn't see that I was arranging several combinations outside of my mind.

Chen Jixiang said:

"Based on your conservatism, it is estimated that you will be able to decipher that thing after lunch."

"How do you say that?"

I just made him suffer, please forgive me. "

"Do you know that there are no one of you outside the hospital?"

"Go slowly, it's broken according to your prior agreement."

Originally, you were thinking about taking you out of the window while there was no one else, but now you can only carry out your original plan. "

Fang De didn't mean anything bad, scratched his head with his hands, and said:

He Chenguang looked at Fang De with stars in his eyes, like a big fan girl at this moment.

"You are laughing. In fact, sometimes you think you are a hunter, and you are often the prey."

At that time, Jiao Pengdong and Chen Jixiang outside the commercial vehicle also heard the conversation between Professor Qin Yuan and Fang De.

Fang De took out his mobile phone and looked at it. The current time, he thought that after tossing around for a while, it is not yet 2:30 in the morning.

"What is he laughing at?"

You are skeptical about whether they have a purpose, not just for the friendship between teachers and students. "

Now that he had explained everything that was broken, Fang De went upstairs slowly and returned to the outside of his business car, and had a successful round with Chen Jixiang and He Chenguang.

When Fang De was troubled by that question, a strange voice came out of the earphone.

Professor Qin Yuan looked at the young man behind him in surprise.

"It's so late and you still sleep, who is he talking to?"

After listening to Fang De's plan, Professor Qin Yuan smiled slightly, thinking that it was a very bad idea.

"Have you talked to anyone? You think he must be sleepwalking. If you are so sleepy, if you want to go to the bathroom, hurry up and hold your urine outside your room. You think it's dirty."

This one comes from the locator worn by Professor Jiao Peng.

If they must have come to save you, after so long a delay, you suspect there are only a thousand untried ones left. "

Fang De obviously heard the important points of Professor Qin Yuan's words. What I'm talking about is that you can promise him today. This is not to say that you will cooperate with country H in researching arms and weapons.

On that matter, my attitude was as decisive as before.

Fang De was very shocked, thinking that I had already budgeted for that step.

Professor Qin Yuan said calmly:

Is it necessary for you to suffer some hardships? "

"That's not to say..."

"You can worry about it. You have been imprisoned by us for so long and you have not surrendered. Of course you know his determination in that regard. The current situation is not that your students only want to think about your danger. got you out of there.

And your students are also scattered outside the troops of various countries. If you really want to help us out of the friendship between teachers and students, you think you will disrupt the entire world structure. "

So Fang De stretched out his head and looked outside the room vigorously.

Professor Qin Yuan nodded and smiled and said:

At that time, just as the two were talking, they seemed to hear no movement outside the house.

After hearing He Chenguang's words, Fang De slapped his head suddenly.

Professor Qin Yuan looked at Fang De's unavoidable sincerity, and thought that his student Fan Tianlei was not a good person who put his interests first, and he was also a very sincere person.

"The civet cat is replaced by the prince, you know you have mild asthma, so you plan to put some on your food to make you suffer from asthma again, when we sent him to the hospital, don't talk too much, Doubt has little chance of saving you.

Chapter 1845: Anxious waiting

Chen Jixiang also understood He Chenguang's teasing, so he deliberately imitated the girl's tone, and said delicately:

"Brother Chenguang, don't worry, I'm not that kind of person."

"Hey~~~ Get away, you kid."

The commercial vehicle was surrounded by laughter.

Although it was already early morning, it was obvious that the three of them were not sleepy, and each was more energetic than the other.

At this time Qin Yuan said:

"Okay, you two stop joking. Although the mission is going smoothly now, after all, the mission has not been completed 100%, and we must not relax until the last second."

"Yeah, I understand. Don't worry, sir!"

Chen Jixiang looked at Qin Yuan with a serious face, and he became serious himself.

At this time, He Chenguang said:

So the air outside fell into Fang De's environment. No one said anything, everyone was silently waiting for the professor downstairs. There were only snoring sounds one after another.

"What's he thinking? It's just a dream, you big guys, everyone in the organization knows your surnames and names, and even prepares equipment for you. You see, he really thinks beautifully. That's what Fan Tianlei saw. A new batch has arrived pretending to be sick, and they can only be borrowed in my name under the banner of trial.

Leng Leng endured it and remembered what he thought about invading Effites that day.

"Let the two of them sleep, and the two of them are still humbly there. You tell them to sleep, and the whole person is the same, and the growth is very small. You suspect that you haven't recharged your batteries today and are ready to die. The task was completed very satisfactorily."

"What's going on with them?"

At that time, the stranger's voice sounded out of Leng Leng's earphones.

Du Bingbing said awkwardly:

"You haven't contacted Professor Fang just now, and you have also communicated face to face. I am very satisfied with the current plan, and you have temporarily agreed on a time for the plan. It probably won't be around lunch, so I will delay talking to you. Once they said it, they were also mentally prepared for it."

"What? What do you mean by not moving? Don't scare me at night."

At that time, Chen Jixiang hadn't woken up yet. I gave birth to a lazy waist and yawned again.

Du Bingbing, that guy is very blind.

Xie Jielian was very excited and said outside the car dancing.

"Brother Leng Leng, you feel that you are very energetic now, and every nerve is tense on your first mission, how can you sleep well, you see that he is not injured, and he has worked hard for such a long time If you're exhausted, let him sleep for a while, you stare at it. Even though it's your first mission, but you think he still doubts you and can't give you anything, so he can sleep peacefully for a while."

"It's bad, you know. If the chief needs to sleep the most, you can take a rest, but you two look sleepy now. He just needs to worry about your side and concentrate on seeing his side's situation. gone."

"Hello?"

"Look, it's still early. They should just take a rest outside the hospital. After all, they haven't slept all night. You're afraid that their mental stress is too low."

"That's right, that's right, that seems to be a very important issue, and it's also the details. As the saying goes, details determine success or failure. If you are sure that the problems in your world are not broken, I am afraid that the difficulties will really show your feet."

"It's been another day. When was that day? The old man is very stubborn. No matter what, he is willing to help you and let you kill me quickly."

"Is that important mission of yours? Is it a special equipment for you under the organization? He can't. He knows so few functions just after contacting it. If he told you, you would understand."

"He's telling you that you are always prepared. After all, it's the first time you go on a mission. You don't think anything will happen. It will fall to you in the future."

Leng Leng also couldn't help laughing.

In fact, at that time, the eight people were not hungry for a long time, and when they found food at that time, they stopped gobbling snacks!

Xie Jie was stunned by He Chenguang's speechless words. He just said calmly:

"Yeah, if you successfully rescued Professor Xie Jie, we must be so grown up. Big boys let you rescue them."

"You see it's still early, the two of them should rest for a while. As for the downstairs, you're sleepy staring at you from outside. You're afraid that the two of them will be under too little mental pressure and affect your tasks. Let's just get on outside the car and wait until dawn before you successfully complete the task and go back to sleep as long as you want."

Xie Jie thought to himself why that He Chenguang always spoke like that, not to be merciless, but to leave any room for others.

After a while, he said coldly:

"You are okay, you are generally hungry, the two of them should eat first."

"Don't pretend to be that big guy. You can already hear the sound of his stomach growling. How can a strong man who is hungry and strong eat food? Besides, he has to give away food for sale. He will wait a while. He might be even hungrier if he smells the food sold here, so let's eat first."

"Well, that's true. You think what he said is very unreasonable. After all, a small number of restaurants will allow other people to touch customers' meals carefully."

"What you have to do now is not to wait. There is no mysterious locator under Professor Qin Yuan's feet. I will tell you that I will be able to crack the password of the locator after seven minutes. As long as I crack the password I'll give you the code."

"You kid, I'm startled. Remember, the standard display is green, which means that all the physical conditions of the two are normal, and it's scary if it turns red."

"Have I always been like that? He has been with me for so long, he must have gotten used to it by now."

Qin Yuan picked up the location map on his phone in horror and took a look, heaving a sigh of relief.

"I don't know what's going on with Dr. Du. I'm still a little worried about him. I looked at the map, why didn't the two of them move this time?"

"He's had enough of that kind of life, who has had enough? Eating and drinking there all day long is more painful than being in prison."

[Currently used, the app with the most complete and best audio for listening to books integrates 4 major speech synthesis engines, over 100 kinds of timbres, and supports offline reading

It's done.

"They heard it. The downstairs must be more anxious than you. Maybe you took Professor Qin Yuan away today, which made us nervous instead."

Xie Jie pointed to the symbol displayed under the screen and said to Du Bingbing:

What country D backed down was not bullshit. It seems that the organization was really willing to spend the money that time, and even gave up a set of equipment that was so advanced. "

"I really understand what the bottom is thinking? What kind of rare talent is that old man? If he has to watch me outside, he will tie him up and whip me a few times. You see, I surrender, I surrender."

Xie Jie wanted to use He Chenguang's topic to make Chen Jixiang paint a little bit. I have thought about it, and I haven't remembered the snoring sound here after listening to my words.

After thinking coldly, I looked at the newly bright sky in the window for a while, and I said:

You have to use it carefully, if you get it right, you will be paid for selling all seven of you. "

"It's too early for you to think about that matter, because you know what kind of Limai we will choose, and it must be relatively close. Do you think it would be bad for you to intercept it off the road, because once you are Unfamiliar restaurants, or some restaurants are more tolerant, how can you easily sneak into our front chef and serve the badly prepared food to my meal?"

At that time, Du Bingbing said beside him:

While eating the earphones, I remembered the sound downstairs. It seemed that the people downstairs were getting up the most.

He Chenguang let out a long sigh.

Xie Jieliang scratched her head, Gao Shangtou said with a smile:

At that time, Du Bingbing was actually outside the car, and he could hear all the conversations clearly. I was also very nasty and wondered why such a young and beautiful Doctor Du treated everyone with a Fangde attitude. . Just as there are no human emotions of any kind.

Looking coldly at the dawn of the sky, I feel that it is still early, and I am not sleepy now. But I am more worried about the two people around me. After all, I have not slept all night, and the mental pressure is very low. It is the first time for Du Bingbing to prepare such an important task.

"He will learn that it may be because he knows you too well. You occasionally hate meddling in other people's business. I am sure that the organization invited you over that time. If you would participate in that kind of thing."

At that time, Chen Jixiang yawned a long time.

Xie Jie smiled and said:

"He's learned to play it safe."

"He heard it just now. You've always been like that. It's like someone who has no little hatred with you. I really understand."

Said coldly:

"Okay, the two of them are free, anyway, you can sleep today, you have to be up all the time, and you can make any mistakes if you stare outside. I also know what's going on with He Chenguang. Both of us He is a newcomer, and he is also bringing a man with him. I am really afraid that we will not be able to carry out the task easily."

"He saw that I was the real ghost spirit, and kept saying that you were so slow that the equipment was researched through. He saw that I hadn't turned the earphones to silent mode for a long time. No wonder I heard you talking and snoring. Like thunder."

"You don't have such little ideas. Since you brought the two of them out to do the mission together, you don't really doubt their abilities. Of course, you came to see them. You have no situation to tell them."

"Tell me, what's going on?"

At that time, Chen Jixiang said very calmly:

"You think your time is very easy. Once you remember the phone call about ordering food, you have to immediately figure out which one I ordered. It is better to go directly to the restaurant to get the medicine, or to intercept it on the road?"

This brand new invisible communication device that Fan Tianlei gave me can detect the user's physical condition anytime and anywhere, it is indeed very advanced.

"Is there any problem with everything abnormal? Why is he the one who loves you two the most? I'm afraid you two will fall asleep."

"Wait until Professor Xie Jie breaks the password

Got it, that big brother of yours is about to make an appearance, now that I think about it, I'm not very excited yet."

Chen Jixiang asked suspiciously:

That's right, it's the voice of our leader Effiete.

"The two of them just give in to each other out there. You are being polite. You are really going to be sleepy. You care about the two of them. You sleep for a while. Anyway, there is no role for you now. When you wake up Replenish your energy before you come here. If it's bad, you really want to exchange the civet cat with Professor Qin Yuan for the crown prince. 」

"Yeah, but yeah, I really need to be more careful. It's military equipment, if it's done well, if it's broken, you'll be court-martialed."

In fact, although I look very rude, my heart is very delicate, and there are very few things hidden outside my heart. So the eight people found the bad bread and milk prepared outside the car and some ham.

He glanced coldly at the usage of several communication devices under the screen. I thought that Chen Jixiang had already turned his earphones to silent mode, and he hadn't heard anything about it yet.

After hearing that, the eight people were silent.

Leng Leng said while preparing to contact He Chenguang and Li Zheng. Immediately dialed our phone.

Du Bingbing said in the most eloquent way while stuffing his mouth full of bread.

Once, it will be dawn in a while. When the sunlight receded, Xiaojia seemed to have not reminded the more relaxed nerves.

Chapter 1846: kind child

In fact, so much time has passed, but what Qin Yuan is most interested in is not how to rescue this engineering mechanics expert, but what he is most interested in is this mysterious underground munitions system that circulates among various countries.

Moreover, he still has one of the most important tasks to complete, which is to find out the spies lurking in his own country. After all, this is a major matter of internal and external troubles.

Once this spy has not been found out, it is unknown how many important military secrets will be stolen by him. It was simply horrific.

But in retrospect, I really admire this spy for being able to operate here for so many years without being discovered by others. This is really a talent.

The more I think about Qin Yuan, the more I feel that this person is really admirable. If this person is caught, I must chat with him for three days and three nights to see what is in his mind.

So far, only He Chenguang and Fan Tianlei know about the spies and the underground arms system. Even the instructor Gong Jian didn't know. And even today's task. Instructor Gong Jian didn't know either. He only knew it was a mysterious mission, but he didn't know what it was.

At this time, an important message came from the earphone.

"What are we having for lunch?"

Qin Yuan's eyes widened, and his eyes repeatedly checked whether he had heard it wrong. All three of them heard this sentence.

Yes, this is the code word for action!

Chen Jixiang was so surprised that he couldn't believe his ears.

"This...is this the voice of Professor Fang De?"

Qin Yuan rolled his eyes while thinking, looked at Chen Jixiang and nodded.

Obviously, this is the code of action that Professor Fang De and Qin Yuan had agreed in advance. Since he released the code of action early, it means that he has completely cracked the code of the positioning system on his feet.

Qin Yuan picked up his phone and checked the time. It's nine o'clock in the morning.

"Professor Fang De, he really is a talent. No, to be precise, he should be a genius. He obviously made an appointment with me in advance for lunch, but I didn't expect him to be about two hours earlier."

"That also means that our mission is about to take action." He Chenguang looked serious, as if he was about to fight. It's completely different from his usual gag, it's just a different face.

Chen Jixiang understood what Qin Yuan said only after seeing He Chenguang's serious appearance. It seems that he is really a person with many faces. He can play around and talk and laugh at ordinary times, but he is so keen when he actually completes the task. .

At this time, the voice in the earphone continued:

"What's for lunch? You should have breakfast now."

"You usually wake up so late, why don't you have breakfast, just eat lunch. I'm hungry, and I want to eat noodles today."

"Hey? Professor Fang, you are very different today. Why did you light up the cang by yourself today? Normally, you eat whatever we give you."

The words in the earphone immediately aroused Qin Yuan's vigilance. He first thought that the other party would not arouse suspicion because of such a small detail.

If this is the case, it's all my own fault for not thinking of this point.

Professor Fang De shouldn't bring up the matter of what to order for lunch, but it's a bit abnormal.

Perhaps Professor Fang De has also realized his mistake. So he continued:

"I don't have any other intentions. What do you eat every day? All kinds of rice, steamed buns, etc. Is it difficult for the elderly to eat something thin and soupy? Forget it, I The prisoners still have any right to ask for your right now, I will eat whatever you want to eat, otherwise no one will know that I will starve to death here someday."

At this time, Effiete's voice came from the earphone.

"Don't be angry, Professor Fang De. How dare we starve you to death? Even if our guards starve to death here, we would not dare to touch a single hair of your hair. You are the key target that the superiors personally confessed to protect.

We don't dare to have any opinion on you, you can eat whatever you want, you guys hurry to find it!

Qin Yuan felt a little relieved when he heard this. I hope it doesn't arouse the other party's suspicion.

At this time, Qin Yuan said to Chen Jixiang behind him:

"You can go out and prepare now, bring your equipment and wait nearby. Let's listen carefully and find out which restaurant he is going to order for lunch, and then you can stop him on the road."

At this time, Chen Jixiang thought of another question. Then he picked up the phone and said to Qin Yuan:

"I think it's just rash to grab other people's takeaway and deliver it to them. It may arouse unnecessary suspicion. Well, I also order a takeaway a little farther away, and then I have reason to tell him exchanged."

He Chenguang nodded, agreeing with this kid very much.

"You boy, I really don't know how to praise you. It's really like a PHS when I brought you out. You can think of many details in advance for the two of us. That's great. I'll follow you in the future." Let's do it."

At this time, a voice came from upstairs.

"Ordered."

Professor Fang De also wanted to collect some more information.

"Which one did you order? I want beef noodles."

"It's beef noodles, beef ramen."

The three people in the car heard the information, and quickly searched on the delivery program for beef ramen nearby.

Chen Jixiang took his mobile phone and found three shops nearby that can make beef ramen.

Qin Yuan took the phone over and looked at it and after repeated thinking, he confirmed that it was this one. So she clicked on the relevant information of the store on the screen of the mobile phone to show them both.

"They should choose this one. Judging from the conversation in the earphones, they are not very satisfied with this matter, so they don't believe in carefully screening, so they choose the one with the most recent sales, because beef If the noodles are too far away, they will definitely not taste good after delivery."

Chen Jixiang carefully looked at the target shop that Qin Yuan had chosen.

"Second sister's beef ramen. The sales are really good. It's about 2 kilometers away from this place. Okay, I see, I'll go there and try to intercept this takeaway at a slightly further place."

"Okay, you can go now. By the way, Du Bingbing gave you the medicine, is the medicine ready?"

Chen Jixiang took out the small bottle from his pocket and shook it in front of his eyes.

"This, but the key item. If I don't prepare it, how can I have the face to do the task. Even if I lose my life, I can't lose it."

After finishing speaking, Chen Jixiang rode a small electric scooter and made a detour to go to the target shop, Second Sister Beef Ramen.

Qin Yuan looked at the back of Chen Jixiang going away, and had mixed emotions in his heart, mainly because he was more worried that there would be no problems with this kid's first mission.

If I brought it out unscathed, I must take it back unscathed. If he is really in any danger, how can I have the face to meet Gong Jian's instructor?

He Chenguang saw Qin Yuan's worried eyes, so he specifically asked:

"You're so worried about him. Why didn't you give him a silent pistol?"

"I also thought about giving him a weapon to protect himself, but sometimes it would be easy to show his feet. After all, it is the first time for him to do a mission when he is mature. If he really has a pistol on him, he will always be nervous. Anxiously thinking about this pistol not being discovered by others, it would be easy to show his feet.

Don't forget, even if this kid is clever, he can't compare to those thousand-year-old fritters upstairs. We will always pay attention to his trajectory and make sure we can protect him. "

He Chenguang nodded, and understood Qin Yuan's intentions. Then express his mood in one word.

"I can see it. Look at this kid's mission, he is more nervous than his own mission."

Qin Yuan stared intently at the trajectory of Chen Jixiang's movement on the map.

At this time, the conversation between them continued to come from upstairs.

"When will the takeaway arrive? I'm going to starve to death."

"You kid knows why you are hungry for sleeping and playing games all day long? Are you a pig?"

"Why is there one less person? Where did Ah San go?"

"You must have an empty stomach before eating, he's gone to shit."

Qin Yuan just kept listening to their chatting conversation in the earphone, for fear of missing any important message.

At this time, looking at the movement track on the map, he found that Chen Jixiang had already walked to the shop of the second sister's beef ramen.

So, quickly talk to Chen Jixiang.

"Boy, did you lead near the store? How is it? Is there a delivery guy coming to pick up their takeaway?"

"I've already been here. Fortunately, they have a relatively late order time at this time. There are really not many people eating beef ramen in the early morning at this time. I believe someone will come over in a while."

While the two were talking, Chen Jixiang said:

"Hey...someone is here."

So Qin Yuan quietly listened to Chen Jixiang's conversation.

"Hey buddy!"

Chen Jixiang has already started to act, ready to strike up a conversation with the delivery guy who ordered the beef noodles from this channel. His sudden sound made the delivery man startled.

"You called me? What's the matter, buddy!"

"Where are you delivering food?"

The delivery man looked at the address on the delivery in his hand.

"Not too far, about 2 kilometers from here."

"That's great, that's great. Buddy, see if you can exchange it with me. My takeaway is a bit far away."

"You still want to change with me? Then I don't want to go far."

"No buddy, isn't this the third urgency of people? I have a bad stomach now, and I am in a hurry to go to the bathroom. You know that this takeout order can't be late for a minute. If this is complained by a customer, you think I didn't do it all for nothing today. ?"

After all, they are all the same delivery staff, and they actually sympathize with Chen Jixiang's statement.

So, Qin Yuan heard the delivery man say sympathetically in his earphones.

"Hey, hey, there is no way, we have to endure in this business. You met me as the right person. I also had diarrhea once before. I didn't send complaints to others on time and I was detained. Two days' salary. Forget it, I'll help you this time, after all, they are all working part-time to help each other.

Here you go, send this order. You give me your address. "

Chen Jixiang did not expect his plan to be implemented so quickly and smoothly. So he hurriedly said excitedly.

"Thank you so much, brother. Well, I'll give you fifty dollars. You deliver this order for me, and then I will finish your order, so I can go to the bathroom quickly after delivery."

"You don't need to pay for it. Didn't you say that you have to give someone an umbrella even if you have been in the rain? I have experienced such a thing myself, so I will not charge this time."

Chen Jixiang is actually a soft-hearted young man. He knows that this is a waste of time. The time of the delivery staff to help him deliver the food so far away may cause him to earn less money.

So he couldn't bear it, and he must give the delivery man some benefits. So he took out fifty yuan from his pocket, Yingba, and stuffed the money into the delivery man's hand.

"Brother, just accept it. If you hadn't helped me, I might have lost more than the fifty yuan today. I really thank you, don't be humble anymore, I have to go to deliver food quickly, Otherwise, I won't be able to hold back for a while."

After Chen Jixiang stuffed the money to the delivery man, he quickly took the delivery and ran away. Because he was afraid that the delivery man would really not accept the money.

At this time, Chen Jixiang had already carried his electric car for a long distance, and he dared not talk to Qin Yuan until he reached a place where no one was around.

"How about it? I'm not bad. The plan is going very smoothly. I'll open these takeaways now and put the medicine in."

Qin Yuan heard with his own ears what Chen Jixiang did just now. thinks this kid is really good.

Clever yet kind.

"Didn't the takeaway boy just now promise you not to charge money, and help you for free? Why do you have to give him the impaction? I told you that the money can't be reported. How do you know that you paid for it yourself?" went in."

Qin Yuan looked at He Chenguang and the two of them looked at each other with understanding. Qin Yuan was teasing him on purpose.

Unexpectedly, this kid actually said:

"If you can't report it, you can't report it. I didn't expect that the fifty yuan would be reimbursed. Although it is not easy for everyone to come out, it is not easy for us to go out to perform tasks.

But when you look at the delivery man just now, you will feel unbearable. It is obvious that we are going to cause trouble for others when we perform tasks. If he delivers a takeaway for me so far away, he will miss two orders. They earned all their hard-earned money one trip at a time, and they must not be allowed to lose money. "

Chapter 1847: life hanging by a thread

Qin Yuan thought in his heart, he never thought that this kid would have such a compassionate heart. Really good.

"It's not bad that you can think of so many things. I didn't expect you to be kind. Well, I guess I'm not wrong about you. It seems that you have a bright future in the future."

Chen Jixiang was praised again. I am happy in my heart, and I am full of motivation to complete the task.

"Brother Qin Yuan, I feel a little embarrassed for your boasting. But I will continue to work hard in the future."

He Chenguang said with a smile:

"Don't be so glib here, the medicine is ready, hurry up and deliver the food. Be very careful when you go, don't let them notice it, your kid's eyes don't be sneaky, once your eyes Dodge. If you are timid, the following will be seen by the old fritters like Effiete."

"Yeah, don't worry, I'm good at lying. I have to go quickly, I'll be lumpy in a while."

After talking about Chen Jixiang, a young man who was on a mission for the first time, he hurried to his destination.

He himself didn't think there was anything wrong, but Qin Yuan and He Chenguang who were waiting in the car were already worried and their hearts beat faster.

He Chenguang touched his heart and said:

"Perhaps, it was also a doctor's instinctive reaction."

Because in the eyes of a person with a personality like He Chenguang, always looking for you frequently is also a sign of trust.

"Thank them for saving you. Whether you succeed or not, you almost killed that old life."

Hearing Du Bingbing's voice from outside the earphones, Fang De quickly took out the sounding pistol that had been prepared in advance, and was ready at any time, and was ready to rush back at any time if there was no movement outside.

As soon as Professor Fang heard He Chenguang's words, and recalled what Fang De had said to him, he immediately recognized that He Chenguang was not his target. .

Judging from the temporary situation, whether Zhai Liling has aroused our trust.

"Don't get excited, it's you. There's nothing important to tell him."

"You've arrived at the door, ready to retreat."

As soon as he left the intensive care unit, He Chenguang hurriedly put on the oxygen inhalation equipment for Professor Qin Yuan. Without oxygen, Professor Qin Yuan's purple-blue face, which had just been suffocated, didn't turn bad after looking at it.

"Which pot does he turn on and which pot to lift, when will he be able to go out. I'm so irritated."

He Chenguang said to Zhai Liling:

"It's hard work, that's what you should do. You finished your observations there last night, and there wasn't much patient flow. If there were so few people back, it might be caused by your plan some obstacles."

"Hello?"

Seeing someone talking, Du Bingbing didn't ask again:

"No one called for delay, so hurry up."

"You are playing games, have time! He will go."

"Patients should arrive soon, and their doctors are about to leave."

"How is his preparation going?"

"Professor Fang? Is he busy? Slow down! Hurry up and call the boss!"

"It's sold here, he's going to get one."

"There is a first time in everything. A newcomer becomes an old man after a few more experiences. Don't we also come from a newcomer. Always protect us like that, just like flowers outside the greenhouse. When can we really grow up?" ah.

"He's blind, can he read the address? Hurry up, it's so annoying."

Right at that anxious moment. Fang De heard He Chenguang's voice.

Fang De and Effie raised their voices in their hearts, seeing Du Bingbing coming out safely from the outside, the two became worried.

Besides, that eldest son is considered lucky, without the two of you escorting me there.

"Excuse me, is there no one to order?"

After He Chenguang finished speaking, he hung up the phone. Was there a second of hesitation.

"Yeah...you know what's going on, you just ate a bowl of noodles and it's like that? Yes, it's food poisoned? The doctor will help you take a look, is it safe? "

Zhai Liling asked in a gentle tone:

At that time, my breathing also quickly accelerated, was it as slow as it was the last time?

Li Zhengze hid very secretly outside the patient, secretly observing the movement outside the house.

As Effiete spoke, the car stopped on the side of the road. Du Bingbing quickly opened the car door and got out of the car.

I saw that the eldest son ran towards the direction he came without any reason, and didn't stop for too long.

Du Bingbing thought to himself, although he ran slowly, it should be believed by others. After all, all the big brothers in Limai are like that, so hurry up and make money.

Effie asked suspiciously:

"Where did you say that?"

While driving, Zhai Li glanced at the map under the screen out of the corner of her eye, and found that the bug she had placed outside Professor Fang's house was also moving along with it.

"It seems that the plan is very smooth, let's go, you go to the hospital and wait first, don't be discovered by us."

Give them back the wiretapping, they took it badly, don't let anyone find out. Zhai Li looked at Zhai Liling's appearance, the corners of her mouth moved slightly, and she smiled with satisfaction.

After finishing speaking, He Chenguang said seven words, and pushed Professor Qin Yuan back to the intensive care unit.

"That noodle is pretty bad. If it's just out of the pan, it will taste worse than that one. When you go out from there, you have to go outside our store to try it."

Fang De looked around while driving, and said calmly:

By the way, since the first step of the plan has not been successful, you have to quickly notify He Chenguang that he is preparing, and the target person should arrive soon. "

"Did he know that time, that Dr. Du's character. You don't have that kind of temper, but he took it to heart. Just be careful in the past, don't be too attentive to others, and give people the impression that he is planning something. a feeling of."

You deliberately explained Professor Zhai Li's condition a bit, so that you can't put pressure on Zhai Liling from another angle. Let me really relax from the outside of my heart, and then I will doubt what He Chenguang said.

"Why am I more nervous than going out on my own? If I knew it would be like this, I would go by myself. The feeling of worrying for nothing here is really uncomfortable."

"He's bad, so we need to take it easy. May I ask what happened?"

Fang De nodded in satisfaction, turned his head and said to Effiete:

"Then why did you go there? Come back quickly."

"What are you calling? Hurry up to the hospital. If I die, you guys won't survive. The following will let you go!"

"Their gang of ***** ordered something clean and gave it to me to eat, making me a half-dead man. If there is nothing wrong with me, you have nothing to do with them. Hurry up You call the doctor."

At that time, the people downstairs hadn't finished eating, so it seemed that they were one step closer to Fang De's rescue plan.

"Report, Brother Limai hasn't completed the project yet, and the finishing work hasn't been finished yet. Please give instructions from the leader."

"The biggest disadvantage of that big guy is not doing what he does to make others worry about him."

"What did Du Bingbing do? You just left like that. I won't find you in a while."

"Are they family members of patients?"

While driving, Fang De looked at Effiete, who was once again deflated, and finally couldn't help laughing.

A few people came to the gate of the hospital very slowly, Fang De found a crowded corner and parked the car outside.

"That big guy is really smarter than a monkey when he sticks his hair down. I have to do a full set of acting. I'm afraid that people outside will still be watching me secretly, so I just walked out.

So far, the situation outside the hospital has progressed very smoothly, and everything has progressed according to Fang De's plan.

"Professor Fang? Do you think there are any bad spots?"

"Look at it, it's special food poisoning, it's food poisoning plus asthma attacks. Now you can go back to the intensive care unit if you need it

Well, if their family members are not mentally prepared, if nothing happens, they still need their family members to sign. "

"Uh... that's right."

He can't doubt me, he has to doubt you, doubt himself. Let his heart break out of the house. "

Following the first eight people, they drove to the target hospital.

That is indeed the case, and the bug must be placed in Zhai Liling's lair, sooner or later it will be a trick and a scourge, just like a time bomb, which knows when it will explode.

While talking, Fang De dialed He Chenguang's phone number.

"Excuse me, is it what they ordered?"

"You are in the patient area now, and there are very few people coming back to see a doctor. If you think that if you want to fish in troubled waters for a while, you suspect that there should be something wrong, and it should be discovered."

Zhai Li slammed on the gas pedal, trying to keep some distance from Zhai Liling's people. Arrive a little later than we did when we arrived at the hospital. In that way, the time will be more abundant, and it will be very convenient to do things.

[The problem of slow update of the new chapter, if you can

As soon as the call was connected, it came, Zhai Liling's voice was not impatient.

While talking, Fang De drove to the place where he left last night. As soon as he got to this distance, he saw Du Bingbing waiting here. He hasn't changed his clothes yet. It seems to have taken care of everything.

Effiete also saw the abnormality displayed under the map, so he quickly called He Chenguang.

Fangde could hear the conversation outside the hospital clearly through the earphones. So, with a smile, he turned to Effiete and said:

Effie recalled that Zhai Liling was still coming back, so he was not worried.

At that time, the eight people outside the car also quickly relaxed their hearts.

After He Chenguang finished speaking, he hung up the phone neatly.

As soon as Effiete heard that, he hurriedly raised his head, and said nothing.

Fang De hurriedly said:

"They are all trying to save you, and you also rejected that method yourself. You know what your own body is like. For us, even if you took your life, It will definitely become our weapon of killing people.

In fact, Fang De has been worrying about that problem, and he should think of a suitable way to get the bug back. Now Zhengbai, Professor Fang brought it out, and it is more convenient for Zhengbai to know the situation here at any time.

Chen Jixiang slapped his hands angrily.

"Boss! I've used the medicine, is there any more? Should I call an ambulance?"

Fang De called Li Zheng.

While the two were talking, a strange person appeared out of Zhai Li's eyes.

"You asked knowingly there! You also asked if those people are the family members of Professor Zhai Li. It seems that they are professional actors."

Have you ever imagined that Professor Qin Yuan is so meticulous in his mind, that he can still think about such details at such a relaxed and critical moment.

"Got it, let's go back."

Chapter 1848: successfully escaped

As soon as Du Bingbing saw the bug in Professor Fang De's hand, he quickly looked around to see if he found the two of them connecting.

So he quickly took the bug while no one saw it, and put it in his pocket.

Then she whispered next to Professor Fang's ear:

"Although your life is not in danger now, I still have to go out and tell them that you are in danger, and then call Qin Yuan and the others to rescue you."

Professor Fang De was speechless, so he closed his eyes and nodded.

Du Bingbing said to Qin Yuan through the headset:

"Come in, you can go."

Qin Yuan heard Du Bingbing's call. So he turned to He Chenguang and said:

"Get in now. Ready? Time to act."

He Chenguang said confidently:

"Don't worry, it's fine!"

So He Chenguang quietly walked out of the car door. Enter the hospital through the back door.

It didn't take long to get into character. This time he pretended to be a patient who needed emergency treatment, and he would just replace Professor He quietly after a while. will not arouse suspicion.

He Chentian successfully met with Du Bingbing. Du Bingbing was already drenched in sweat. Seeing He Chenguang, he pointed to the hospital bed next to him and said:

"Lie down quickly, patients who need first aid."

He Chenguang looked at Du Bingbing with a gentle smile and said:

"Ok, no problem."

So Du Bingbing quickly called two people over to push He Chenguang to the intensive care unit.

Sure enough, it was as Qin Yuan expected.

When Du Bingbing and the others pushed He Chenguang to the door, they were stopped by Effiete.

"The doctor! Who is this?"

Du Bingbing also showed no mercy, and said resolutely:

"Who else is there besides the patient? What are you going to do? This is an emergency patient, please get out of the way! In case the treatment is delayed, can you bear this responsibility?"

Effie couldn't believe it, so he looked up, and there was indeed nothing wrong with the intensive care unit! He said straightforwardly:

"This doctor, this is the intensive care unit. If it is rescue, two people can't be in the same room."

Li Zheng was watching from the side where Du Bingbing and Effiete were confronting each other.

Qin Yuan was afraid that Li Zheng, a newcomer, would not judge the timing well, and would stand up when he saw Du Bingbing was at a disadvantage, which would expose his flaws too easily.

Quickly commanded in the headset:

"Li Zheng, no matter what kind of dispute Du Bingbing has with Effiete, don't step forward to help!"

"Okay, I understand."

At this moment, Chen Jixiang asked puzzledly:

"Why not ask Li Zheng to help Du Bingbing? She is a girl after all, what if Effiete's gang really do something dangerous to her?"

"You kid, don't worry, this is a hospital. No matter how rampant Effiete and the others are in public places, they dare not do anything to Du Bingbing here. He really behaved impolitely. There are so many patients and other doctors and nurses here. It will also be blocked."

Chen Jixiang suddenly realized.

"Oh... I see, the others are real patients and medical staff. Even if they go up to stop them, they won't be suspicious so much, but we are pretending, as long as it is fake, there will be flaws."

Qin Yuan smiled and nodded.

"That's right, your kid's comprehension ability is quite strong."

Chen Jixiang scratched his head in embarrassment.

At this time, Li Zheng's report came.

"Brother Qin, He Chenguang has successfully entered the intensive care unit."

"So fast?"

Qin Yuan was also very surprised, he didn't expect it to go so smoothly.

"Yes, this Dr. Du is really powerful. When she gets angry, no one can stop her. She forcefully pushes He Chenguang in. She is not afraid of arousing suspicion."

Qin Yuan thought for a long time, and felt that Du Bingbing did nothing wrong. From another perspective, this urgency can also be regarded as an instinct of a doctor.

After He Chenguang successfully entered, he quickly contacted Qin Yuan.

"I've already come in. I'm going to exchange with Professor Fang now. You can wait at the back door in your car."

"OK."

Qin Yuan drove Chen Jixiang to the back door of the hospital, ready to meet the comrades inside at any time.

He Chenguang asked Du Bingbing.

"How is Professor Fang's current physical condition? It's okay to take him away without inhaling oxygen."

Du Bingbing stared at the various instruments next to her for a long time. She had to repeatedly confirm that there was no danger before agreeing to take Professor Fang away. Otherwise, what's the point of saving him if there was really any danger?

"No problem, but wear a mask and don't touch any sensitive things anymore."

He Chenguang nodded in satisfaction.

"Professor Fang, slow down, I will exchange clothes with you now, I will wrong you later, and I will rescue you soon."

Professor Fang De didn't speak, got up slowly, and exchanged clothes with He Chenguang. Then he lay on He Chenguang's stretcher just now.

Du Bingbing walked beside Professor He, and said to He Chenguang:

"After we go out in a while, you can change into the doctor's clothes, and just take the opportunity to escape. Don't take yourself here as a hostage. At that time, we have to study and plan how to save you."

He Chenguang said:

"Don't worry, I'm a veteran who has performed many missions. If you have the opportunity, hurry up and leave me alone."

Du Bingbing decisively covered Professor Fang De's face with a white cloth. Prepare to roll him out of the intensive care unit aboveboard.

In fact, although Du Bingbing didn't look nervous, his heart was really flustered and his heart was pounding.

So he hurriedly communicated with Qin Yuan.

"Qin Yuan, I'm going to push Professor Fang out now. Prepare yourself outside. If it goes well, you won't be found out. If it doesn't go well, I'm afraid you will be robbed. You must be fully prepared. Today It is to take Professor Fang De back no matter what, since things have developed to the way it is today, no matter whether it is outsmarting or robbing, we must successfully bring Professor Fang out and there is no turning back."

Qin Yuan took out the silent pistol in his pocket. In fact, he was already fully prepared for battle. No need for Du Bingbing to say that, he also has a certain plan in his heart.

"Don't worry, you can do it boldly, and if there is any mistake, I will be there."

So Du Bingbing let out a long sigh of relief, ready to rush out.

Li Zheng outside the door was also staring straight at the situation in the intensive care unit. He didn't know when Qin Yuan secretly stuffed him with a gun. He didn't tell Chen Jixiang about this, otherwise he would use this kid's temper, I will definitely question why I can't carry a gun on my first mission.

In fact, Qin Yuan had already made psychological preparations, but he still absolutely could not shoot unless it was absolutely necessary. This would threaten the safety of the masses and Professor Fang De.

What happened in the hospital was that Du Bingbing pushed Professor Fang, who was covered in a white cloth, out with a serious face.

Sure enough, as expected, he was stopped by Effiete.

"Wait a moment!"

"What do you want to do? This is a hospital, a place to save people, not a place to kill people. It was because you stopped here just now that this person died without timely treatment. Now you have to send him to the morgue. Do you want to take care of it?"

"What? Dead? What about the patient we just sent in?"

"He is still inside, and the situation is obviously much better. Who are you? Show your ID, why are you so suspicious?"

It was never expected that Du Bingbing, who was calm in the face of danger, would ask such a sudden question, but he was at a loss for what to do with Effiete's question.

After all, they are not serious people, so he actually felt guilty.

"We are the family members of the patients inside. I'm worried that the person who gave up the treatment is the one I sent you. It's no big deal to ask a few questions, right?"

"Who are you? Why do you talk about him when you ask your identities?"

Du Bingbing knew that he had already overwhelmed the opponent, so he pursued the victory and refused to let go.

At this time, Effiete's gang didn't know whether they were in a daze or something, but in order to quickly dismiss Du Bingbing, a powerful female doctor, they said:

"Beauty doesn't like us asking around, so we don't ask or read. Since this person is dead, we should be grateful for letting him go to the morgue quietly, and don't disturb him here."

Du Bingbing suppressed her nervousness and slowly pushed Professor Fang away, but a thought suddenly came to her mind.

no! You can't just push Professor Fang out like this, so that they will always be in their sight. So he had no choice but to push Professor Fang to the basement mortuary.

Du Bingbing knew that he had to hurry up, and he would be discovered by those people if he hesitated for a minute.

Du Bingbing's palms were sweating nervously. At this time, Li Zheng's voice came from the earphone.

"Doctor Du, there is a tail at the back, so we can't just take Professor Fang De out."

What? Du Bingbing was a little confused, did things really go in the worst direction? Is it really necessary to have a life-and-death struggle with those people?

Qin Yuan also heard Li Zheng's report.

At this critical juncture, it was time for Qin Yuan to play a role. He commanded calmly in the headset.

"Doctor Du, don't be nervous. You just push Professor Fang De into the morgue normally, and I reckon they won't be here watching your every move all the time.

After all, for you doctors, the morgue is not a terrible and unlucky place, but for ordinary people, it is a very taboo place.

Therefore, the competition now is psychological warfare, don't look back, let alone show cowardice. You just need to do what you normally should do.

And even in the worst case, I'm here to cover for you. You don't need to worry. "

Qin Yuan's words gave Du Bingbing a lot of encouragement and support.

So she confidently pushed Professor He to the morgue. Sure enough, Effiete didn't follow behind on purpose, but sent his men to follow Du Bingbing quietly. Seeing that Du Bingbing really went to the morgue, she believed it. After reading Du Bingbing's words, he didn't continue to read.

This is what Qin Yuan said, ordinary people are so taboo about that place, let alone Effiete's group of people who were injured and covered in blood, who did all kinds of bad things.

In order not to arouse suspicion, Du Bingbing pushed Professor Fang into the morgue and prepared to come out quickly.

It happened that Qin Yuan also began to command Li Zheng.

"It seems that you have a new role. After Dr. Du comes out, you will rush to the mortuary to push Professor He into the vehicle that uniformly handles the corpses, and then transfer them to our vehicle. This is also to be able to stay alive. Before you know it, no matter how powerful Effiete is, he would never have figured out what we have set up."

"Okay, I understand."

Du Bingbing also heard Qin Yuan's words clearly.

So Du Bingbing said:

"It seems that I have to go back to the intensive care unit. Only if I stay within their sight range, they will not suspect me. In this way, I can just bring He Chenguang out."

He Chenguang heard the earphones discussing himself. So hastily said:

"Now I'm ready for everything, and I only owe Dongfeng. The doctor's clothes have been changed, and I'm waiting to go out. Since Xiao Du, you plan to pick me up later, let's go out together."

Although Qin Yuan was unwilling to let Du Bingbing return to Effiete's sight, after all, this was the best way to divert the tiger away from the mountain. And with He Chenguang around, I believe he can protect Du Bingbing well.

The kid Li Zheng also moved very quickly, and he came to the door of the mortuary so quickly. The transfer vehicle outside is ready, and we must hurry up and transfer Professor Fang De out as quickly as possible.

He is already very weak now, and if anything happens, it may endanger Professor Fang's life.

Fortunately, Du Bingbing returned to the intensive care unit in order to divert their attention, so no one of them is currently watching every move in the mortuary.

Li Zheng quickly transferred Professor Fang out and left the hospital smoothly.

"Brother Qin Yuan We have come out smoothly. We will meet you at the back door right away."

"Okay, we'll wait here. Come here quickly."

Not long after, a black car stopped beside Qin Yuan's car, and the door slowly opened. I saw Li Zheng helping Professor Fang De get out of the car.

Professor Fang De's condition is still not very good, it seems that he has some difficulty breathing.

Qin Yuan quickly opened the car door and welcomed Professor Fang De in.

"Hello, Professor Fang. After several twists and turns, I finally see you. How do you feel now? Can you persist?"

Professor Fang let out a long sigh of relief and said:

"It's really not easy. Thank you for your hard work. I have passed through life and death. I even went to the morgue, and I was almost pushed into the freezer. Thank you for trying so hard to save me."

Chapter 1849: System overdraft function

Seeing Professor Fang De being so polite, Qin Yuan was a little moved and also thought about it. It seems that it is more possible for Professor Fang De to work for his country H in the future. At least his current attitude will not be like the first one. The first time I saw him, I was so determined.

But now is not the time to think about it so much, how come Du Bingbing and He Chenguang haven't come out after so long? The two of them will not be in any danger.

This matter is what Qin Yuan is most worried about now.

Qin Yuan made a decisive decision. Seeing Professor Fang De being so polite, Qin Yuan was a little moved and also thought about it. It seems that it is more possible for Professor Fang De to work for his country H in the future. At least his current attitude will not be like the first one. The first time I saw him, I was so determined.

But now is not the time to think about it so much, how come Du Bingbing and He Chenguang haven't come out after so long? The two of them will not be in any danger.

This matter is what Qin Yuan is most worried about now.

Qin Yuan made a decisive decision.

"Chen Jixiang, Li Zheng, can you two drive?"

Li Zheng replied solemnly:

"Brother Qin Yuan, I can drive. I have specially trained driving skills. The driving skills are very good."

"Okay, then you two will drive Professor Fang back to the army first. Li Zheng, take what I gave you, remember! We must successfully send Professor Fang back."

Chen Jixiang is now a loyal fan of Qin Yuan. When he heard what Qin Yuan said, he became nervous.

"No, brother, we can't leave you here, we have to go together, how can you deal with Effiete's group here alone? They are dangerous! And they have guns in their hands, You have to save Dr. Du and Brother Chenguang by yourself!"

Seeing Chen Jixiang like this, Qin Yuan was both moved and distressed.

"Don't worry, don't worry about me. I can handle my affairs by myself. The top priority now is to send Professor Fang back, and the safety of the two of you is the most important thing, as long as you two send Professor Fang back I am relieved.

As for Du Bingbing and He Chenguang, He Chenguang is also an old man. He has been performing missions with me for a long time. It is not a problem for the two of us to protect Du Bingbing alone.

Li Zheng was not as emotional as Chen Jixiang.

"Chen Jixiang, don't you still believe in Brother Qin Yuan's arrangement? It's all because of his seamless planning and arrangement that things can go so smoothly. We just listen to him. Just leave the rest to him .

Now the two of us and Professor Fang are the hindrances to Brother Qin Yuan. As long as we send Professor Fang back quickly, he will have no worries.

As you said just now, Effiete and the others are numerous. Once there is a conflict, we, Effiete, and the others will look for Professor Fang as soon as possible. If they really find Professor Fang's trace, then our previous efforts will be wasted now. "

Chen Jixiang lowered his head and said:

"Why don't I understand what you said, I just don't feel relieved, Brother Qin Yuan. He has to save two people by himself. And there is no car yet, how about...I'll come down and help you!"

Qin Yuan patted Chen Jixiang's head and said:

"My good boy, your beloved brother has won your heart. Since you admire me so much, you should believe in my ability! Hurry up, don't waste it, and successfully bring Professor Fang back to the army. This is my new mission for you. As long as Once you are done, I will accept you as an apprentice. I will take you with me on any secret missions in the future! Do you understand!"

As Qin Yuan spoke, there was a firm look in his eyes.

Chen Jixiang really couldn't screw Qin Yuan, and this was an order given to him by the team leader, even if he didn't want to, he had to obey. Moreover, time is precious now, even if he is worried about Qin Yuan, he must leave quickly, and he can no longer waste time here.

After all, wasting one more second is tantamount to putting them all in danger.

Thinking of this, Chen Jixiang nodded vigorously.

"Got it, team leader! Chen Jixiang promises to complete the task."

Then Qin Yuan checked the silent pistol in his hand, and after confirming that there was no problem with the weapon, he came out of the cab. Li Zheng sat on it, kicked the accelerator, and drove Chen Jixiang and Professor Fang to the army. direction to go.

Everyone knew that the task of bringing Professor Fang back to the army was successfully completed.

Qin Yuan himself understands even more, because so far, although the rescue seems to be successful on the surface, the system has not given any prompts or rewards for completing the task, that is to say. Only by bringing Professor Fang back to the army can the task be successfully completed.

Qin Yuan just watched Li Zheng drive back.

Although he is alone now and has no car to use, a perfect plan has appeared in Qin Yuan's mind.

"System! System!"

"Ding Dong, hello host, what do you need?"

"I want a floor plan of this hospital now. It will be more convenient to save people later."

"Ding Dong, no problem, I am scanning the whole building for the host, please wait a moment, the host. This scanning will consume 20,000 merit points of the host."

"Wait a minute! What's going on? Don't I only have 10,000 merit points left? Why do I need 20,000? I don't have enough."

"Ding Dong, since you have been using the system for a long time as the host, the system provides you with a points loan service for free. The host's current credit value can be used to borrow 100,000 points of merit."

"Wow, is there such a business? When did you develop this business? Temporarily overdrafting merit points is a good way, but how do I repay them? In case the credit value you lent me is not enough, What kind of punishment will I suffer?"

"Ding dong, because the host has not obtained the consent, the system will temporarily stop scanning the building."

"Your system is really turning your back on you. Didn't you just say that it was scanning for me, and now I don't help me as soon as I ask about credit loans. Well, please explain to me quickly. If you lend me I'm the only one who can't achieve the feat, so what should I do?"

"Ding dong, the host can understand this matter in this way, that is to say, under normal circumstances, only by resorting to the relevant released tasks will you get the corresponding merit points, so that you can use the merit points to exchange for other things .

But now we can turn it around and the host can obtain the merit points provided by the system in advance, and then only need to complete the relevant tasks provided by the system. "

"Your system can really talk nonsense. Is there any difference between what you said and what you didn't say? I can understand it myself. What I want to ask is, if I can't complete the repayment of credit merit points, can you send it?" Give me a task, what should I do?"

"Ding dong, the host can currently activate a recovery system, that is to say, if the host cannot complete the relevant tasks in time to compensate for the meritorious value of the credit loan, then the host can choose the one-click recovery system and use related items to compensate for credit meritorious deeds value."

In Qin Yuan's mind, he kept thinking about the new function introduced to him by the system just now. Although there is not much difference in how to use the function in the past, it is just that the order has changed. He can take away some contribution points at some critical moments. .

Then just complete their related tasks, or use the one-click recovery system to get items to compensate.

Although he didn't seem to suffer a loss in terms of value, it always sounded like a bad deal.

Oh, Qin Yuan suddenly realized that he remembered something.

Perhaps this alternative lending is the same as the lending of money between humans. There may also be associated interest.

If it has interest like human money, then I'm afraid I have to work for the system. That's really not a good deal for me.

So, Qin Yuan hurriedly asked:

"I said the system, I just had an important question, I forgot to ask."

"Ding Dong, if the host has any questions at present, just ask, the system will provide you with answers at any time."

"You just said that you can give me some merits first, and then use the released tasks or a recovery system to repay the contribution value of the reception, but I would like to ask, may I ask you to lend me the merits, as long as there is no interest .If there is interest, how is it calculated?"

"Ding dong, the system gives the following answers to the host's current questions."

"First, the meritorious value lending service provided by this system to the host does not require any interest, because this is based on the level of the host's current use of the system. This is a benefit provided by the system to the host. Second, if the host cannot complete the repayment of credit merit points in time, the credit rating of the system host will be reduced. In serious cases, the host will be suspended from providing relevant merit value loan services until the host repays all the merit points. Re-evaluate the host."

"So that's the case. It seems that not only I have been upgraded, but your system has also been upgraded. You can handle such a complicated situation! It's amazing."

"Ding dong! Excuse me, host, do you still need to scan the building with loan merit points?"

Qin Yuan thought about it seriously for a while. He really needs the floor plan of the current hospital building very much, but he doesn't want to borrow merit points from the system.

Forget it, there is no other better way now. In this case, let's use this function for a while.

After all, Du Bingbing and He Chenguang are not out of danger yet.

The best way is to scan the whole building below, so that you can know exactly where in the whole building you can escape easily.

"System, then continue to help me scan the entire building below. Why don't you just borrow 10,000 merit points? If Professor Fang De returns to the army after a while, I will be equivalent to completing a task worth 50,000 merit points. You can immediately repay the 10,000 points of merit."

"Ding dong, okay. I will continue to scan the entire building for the host. The current task consumes 20,000 merit points, the host's existing merit value of 10,000 is consumed, and the credit merit value consumes 10,000 points.

System reminder: The current credit value is 90,000 points remaining. Please the host do what you can. Repay the credit loan meritorious group as soon as possible, so as not to affect the host's future credit rating. "

"Know it!"

Qin Yuan thought to himself, why is this system like a capitalist, borrowing a little bit of merit, today this guy keeps reminding me.

Your system exists to help me, not for you to bind me here.

After a while, the system really responded.

"Ding dong, the current task of the system has been completed, the host has successfully scanned, and the floor plan of each floor of the entire building has been prepared, please check the host."

All the while, the screen in front of Qin Yuan lit up, and a floor plan of the building was placed in front of his eyes. The hidden vents, air conditioners and other exhaust systems of each floor and building are all clearly visible at a glance.

Qin Yuan looked at the ground plan in front of him, and couldn't tell how excited he was, it was like adding wings to a tiger to him.

However, at this time Qin Yuan thought of another question.

"System, I don't want to flip through the paper version. You can convert it into an electronic version. I will watch it on the screen. After reading it, I will find a way to save the two of them. By the way, help me convert the floor plan." There is no need for additional merit points for the electronic version."

"Ding Dong, I received the host's instructions and are transforming for you. Please wait patiently. This service is an added value of the current service, and no additional merit points will be charged. Please rest assured the host."

While waiting for the system transformation, Qin Yuan felt that he should get in touch with Du Bingbing as soon as possible and ask them what's going on there and why they haven't come out for so long.

"Hello? Doctor Du, the patient has been discharged from the hospital. Shouldn't the doctor take a break? Why haven't you seen your doctor come out for lunch break? Are you in trouble?"

"Not yet, but I'm afraid that if I go out now, it will arouse the suspicion of Effiete and the others. How is your side? I don't know if Professor Fang and the others have successfully returned to the army. If they have not returned , He Chenguang and I dare not act rashly."

"You little girl has a lot of things to think about. They're already on their way back, and they've been walking for a while. I guess even if Effiete and the others find something tricky now, they probably won't be able to catch up. I It's you two who are worried now, and Effie and the others are not fools. They will soon find out that you are tricky."

At this time, He Chenguang also joined the conversation.

"Don't worry, I have weapons here. If it doesn't work, I will be tough. Although my marksmanship is not as good as yours, I am still one of the best sharpshooters in the army. The hit rate is very high. They should not be opponents."

"No! Absolutely not!"

Du Bingbing spoke in a commanding and decisive tone.

He Chenguang was a little puzzled.

"Why not? I'm protecting the two of us!"

"I will absolutely not allow you to shoot in the hospital. Do you know what this place is? This is a place to treat patients and save lives. There are so many innocent people here. Do you know how dangerous it is?"

"No! Absolutely not!"

Du Bingbing spoke in a commanding and decisive tone.

He Chenguang was a little puzzled.

"Why not? I'm protecting the two of us!"

"I will absolutely not allow you to shoot in the hospital. Do you know what this place is? This is a place to treat patients and save lives. There are so many innocent people here. Do you know how dangerous it is?"

Qin Yuan thought about it, and Du Bingbing said that there was indeed nothing wrong.

Chapter 1850: was found

So, Qin Yuan hurriedly said:

"Dr. Du, you are right, but you are more considerate, we can't just put other innocent people in a dangerous situation just because of our mission.

If it really hurts human life, then our mission seems to have failed. "

He Chenguang was really completely fooled by these two people and didn't know what to say. It's been so righteous and awe-inspiring.

"Okay, you two are amazing, you two are noble. Then what should we do next? This won't work, that won't work, but come up with a solution!"

Qin Yuan said slowly:

"Don't worry, you've always been like this. You get flustered easily when something happens. I have a floor plan in my hand now."

Du Bingbing asked:

"What floor plan? Tell me and listen, and see if this thing works for you!"

"It's the floor plan of the entire hospital building. Wait a moment, and I'll see where you can come out quietly as soon as possible. Give me some time, don't worry, let me take a look."

At this time, the sound of the system sounded.

"Ding dong! The electronic version of the floor plan of the hospital building has been transformed for you, the host. Please check it out."

Qin Yuan murmured in his heart, didn't this come as soon as it was said. So he quickly manipulated the screen in front of him, and a three-dimensional building model was displayed in front of him.

Qin Yuan was ecstatic in his heart, this is great, it can be obtained so easily, it seems that this system is really getting stronger and stronger.

At this time, Du Bingbing said in a panic:

"It's bad, I found Effiete staring at me!"

"Where's He Chenguang? Has he changed his clothes? If he hasn't changed his clothes, he will throw them here today!"

He Chenguang quickly spoke up:

"Don't throw it at me, I've prepared it a long time ago, and now I'm waiting for the next instruction from you, the team leader. Hurry up and tell us what to do."

While comforting the two of them, Qin Yuan kept looking at every corner of the building. In fact, Qin Yuan was also very anxious in his heart.

Because he knows it well. Effiete is not a fool. There has been no movement for such a long time, which will definitely arouse his suspicion. Obviously, he should have been aware of it and kept staring into the intensive care unit.

At this time Qin Yuan glanced at the time, it was already noon. It was time for lunch.

Qin Yuan said to Du Bingbing and He Chenguang:

"It should be lunch time at the hospital in a while. That's the best time for you to go out. You just say you're going to the cafeteria for lunch. The worst result should be enough to deal with them. This time should be enough for you to run Out."

He Chenguang asked curiously:

"The method you mentioned is good, but the car has already been driven away by two boys, Chen Jixiang and Li Zheng. What should we do? Which direction should we go?"

At this time, Qin Yuan also discovered two key clues.

"I saw that there is a back door in the canteen of the hospital. You can actually go to the canteen later and come out from the back door. As for the car, it's easier. Didn't Effiete and the others come here by car! They don't need to just use it for me gone."

Du Bingbing is skeptical of the idea.

"But their cars should have some kind of positioning or alarm system. If you move around randomly, they will be alarmed. Besides, the cars are all locked. How can you drive without a car key?"

Qin Yuan said:

"At this moment, as long as you successfully escape from the intensive care unit, you will be fine. After you escape, let him find out, so that he will be the first to rush into the intensive care unit to see if Professor Fang De is still there. It also just gave you the time and opportunity to escape quickly. As for the car..."

He Chenguang quickly interrupted Qin Yuan's words:

"I said Dr. Du, don't worry about this. Qin Yuan is a soldier king in the army. This test of driving skills is like a pediatrics for him. Let's get ready to go out."

Qin Yuan thought to himself, he has already obtained world-class driving skills from the system, should he be worried about this? As for how to start without a car key, this has been trained more than once when I was in the army. Not to mention Qin Yuan, even He Chenguang can easily do it.

"Well, when it's time to eat, the two of you don't have to worry so much, just go directly to the cafeteria. Then go there and go out directly from the back door of the cafeteria. I drove Effiete's car at the back door of the cafeteria Waiting for you."

Du Bingbing said:

"Okay, no problem, it's settled. The two of us get ready."

After speaking, Du Bingbing hung up the phone.

Qin Yuan also turned off the system's display screen.

Then he walked in the direction of Effiete's car.

Now we are waiting for the situation of Du Bingbing and He Chenguang in the house. As long as they walk out successfully, Qin Yuan can start the car.

It was quite a coincidence at this time, there happened to be two doctors calling Du Bingbing at the door of the intensive care unit.

Du Bingbing pretended to be calm, walked out the door of the intensive care unit, and asked:

"What's going on?"

The two doctors glanced at their watches and said:

"Look, what time is it now. It's lunch time, hurry up and eat."

Effiete saw a few of them discussing there, and didn't know what they were talking about, and after so long, he still hasn't seen Professor Fang's situation, and he doesn't know what his situation is now.

Seeing several doctors discussing here, Effiete's first reaction was, could it be that Professor Fang's condition has deteriorated?

So he hurried forward to ask, considering Du Bingbing's attitude towards him before, he didn't dare to be too arrogant and domineering for a while, then restrained his attitude and said:

"Well, let me ask, this doctor, how is the condition of the patient I brought here? You have been asking me to wait outside, how long have I been waiting, good or bad, give me a letter Ah, otherwise I am too tired now, just waiting here without knowing anything?"

What are you talking about? Could it be that his condition has deteriorated? If you can't cure it, tell me quickly, so that I can change the place quickly, and it's moaning..."

This Effiete is already controlling his emotions, but his temper is getting more and more agitated.

At this time, the doctors next to him saw his anxious appearance, which was exactly the same as the medical troublemakers they usually saw, so they quickly persuaded him:

"This family member, don't get too excited. We're not here for a consultation. It's lunch time now. Let the two of them come for lunch."

Effie seemed even angrier when he heard this statement.

"What? Lunch? You went to eat while the patient was lying there half dead? Are you so irresponsible?"

Du Bingbing heard what Effiete said, walked up to him and said:

"We are not responsible. It should be your family members who are not responsible. The patient obviously has severe asthma, and you gave him random food, which led to his current appearance.

besides! The patient's condition is very stable now, don't worry, we'll be back after lunch. "

"Can I go in and see what's going on with him?"

The doctor next to me said:

"Go in? Do you know where this is? This is the intensive care unit, can outsiders enter casually? What are you thinking!"

Effiete couldn't say anything when he saw how many people there were.

Du Bingbing saw the opportunity coming, so he called out He Chenguang.

"Doctor He, let's eat first, a nurse will come and take care of you later."

Qin Yuan also heard their situation through the earphones. Hearing that they walked out of the intensive care unit smoothly, Qin Yuan is about to start taking action.

He casually picked up a brick on the side of the road, and threw it at Effiete's car without hesitation. As expected, the car's anti-theft alarm was immediately remembered.

Qin Yuan tugged on the car door, leaped into the car, and immediately turned off the car's alarm sound. Things went well.

Qin Yuan stepped on the brake and pressed the start button of the vehicle, put down the handbrake, connected the ground wire, live wire, and starter wire together at the same time, and the car started immediately.

After the car started, Qin Yuan didn't hesitate at all, and immediately stepped on the accelerator and drove towards the back of the cafeteria.

At this time, Effiete, who was at the entrance of the intensive care unit, had not discovered that the vehicle had been stolen. Maybe it was too loud in the hospital, and it was far from the parking place, so they didn't hear the alarm.

But one of Effiete's men said:

"Boss...it's not good...why did the car that drove away just now look so much like ours?"

Another subordinate also probed out and found that their car had disappeared without a trace, and the parking space was empty.

"What does it look like! You idiot, this is our car. Boss, what should I do? The car has been stolen."

Effie gritted his teeth while muttering swear words silently in his mouth and said:

"Damn it, what are you still doing with the ink here? Go out and have a look! Idiots, idiots, I think you are all idiots. Damn it!"

Effiete stood where he was, and the more he thought about it, the more something went wrong, repeatedly thinking about what happened today.

All of a sudden, it was as if he suddenly realized.

"Not good! I got caught!"

After speaking, he kicked open the door of the intensive care unit and rushed into the room to have a look. The entire room was empty, and there was nothing left, and Professor Fang De could not be seen.

Effiete, who was in a state of desperation, kicked ***** the hospital bed next to him, and the whole bed was turned over by Effiete's kick.

Unexpectedly, a note just fell out of the bed.

Effiete picked up the note and glanced at it. I saw it said:

"Good news, Professor Fang has recovered. Bad news, Professor Fang has been picked up by us. Thank you for your friendship with the other professor. The green mountains will not change, and the green water will flow forever. Effiete, we will meet later."

Effiete looked at the content written on this note, and a face suddenly flashed in his mind. Then, he said to himself:

"Damn it, I said why this Dr. He looks so familiar, this is not the one..."

After finishing speaking, Effiete didn't stay for a second, and hurried towards the direction where Du Bingbing and the others went to the cafeteria.

In fact, Effiete is very clear in his heart. It is too late for him to find out now, and it is already an afterthought. Since they dared to blatantly steal the car and leave a note, it shows that they have already played their cards at this time. .

I'm afraid Professor Fang De has been transferred away long ago.

However, although he knew it in his heart, Effie didn't dare to give up easily. Because this matter is completely his negligence of duty, once the leader of the United States finds out, he will be dealt with by the family law.

Effie called all the younger brothers.

"Listen, you guys, Professor Fang has already been abducted by them. They should still have accomplices, hiding in the cafeteria of this hospital, by the way. It was the beautiful doctor who quarreled with me, and followed them The one who came out was sneaky with a mask on. They probably didn't have time to run away. We've surrounded the cafeteria now."

One of the subordinates whispered:

"Oh, let him go. We have been watching him for a long time. We eat, drink and scatter in that small room every day. We are almost in time for prison. We just feel relaxed when he is gone."

Effie cursed loudly:

"Easy? Let me tell you, this Professor Fang is an important protection figure assigned by the organization. If he disappears, let alone easy, we will all be punished. I think you guys have just experienced how ruthless the boss is. "

When everyone present heard that the boss was the boss, they all trembled in fright. Although they haven't met the boss above, they have all heard of the boss's ruthless determination.

So they all headed in the direction of the cafeteria without hesitation, ready to catch Du Bingbing and He Chenguang.

Now Effie really hates his teeth itching. When he caught these two people, he wished he could tear them to pieces and shoot them in the head first.

At this moment, Qin Yuan has already seen everything.

He directed in the headset:

"I guess Effie and the others have discovered it now, You have to find a way out as soon as possible."

Du Bingbing replied:

"Do you need to say it? We are also trying to figure out a way, but here is really too many people when we are having lunch at noon. We are really a little confused now. I don't know where to go out? I think there are people in the cafeteria. A car that delivers garbage and food. How about we hide in the car for a while, and then go out quietly, are you picking us up?"

Qin Yuan immediately denied Du Bingbing's idea.

"No, absolutely not. Since you can think of this method Aifei, they must also think that they have surrounded the entire cafeteria now. If there are vehicles coming and going, they will be the first to be searched."

"Then what should we do? You can't delay for too long, or you will be in danger if they find your car."

In fact, Qin Yuan had already thought of a solution to the problem. Most people don't know that there is an underground passage behind the cafeteria.
