

Special Soldier 1881

Chapter 1882: mysterious stowaway

In fact, the more Qin Yuan thought about this matter, the more frightening he became, because he didn't know when He Chenguang and Chen Jixiang would make strange noises when they were asleep.

At this time, he simply woke up the two of them before they made strange noises.

First, Qin Yuan patted He Chenguang's face.

He photographed He Chenguang's face with one hand, and covered his mouth with the other.

Although he felt very tired, He Chenguang still didn't fall into a deep sleep. He felt someone slap him in the face, and then he opened his eyes and saw it. Qin Yuan was looking at himself with terrified eyes, and covering his mouth. He was curious about what happened, so he widened his eyes and made noises.

"okokokok..."

He indicated with his eyes what is Qin Yuan's situation now?

Qin Yuan stretched out his index finger, and I made a "shh" gesture near my mouth.

With He Chenguang, the two of them have been silent for many years, and they can immediately see what it means now, so he quickly shut up and didn't speak.

At this time, he also signaled Qin Yuan with his eyes whether he should quickly wake up Chen Jixiang who was sleeping next to him.

Qin Yuan nodded, and He Chenguang next to him poked Chen Jixiang who was sleeping soundly.

At this time, the three of them had finished writing, but everyone had nothing else to do and could feel that something was wrong at this moment, and no one said a word.

But at this time, the people who were talking with their hands had disappeared.

Hearing that there was no sound at all, it seemed that no one was there.

Qin Yuan began to speak in a low voice.

"The two of you slept soundly just now, and it's not because you're afraid of your snoring. I won't wake you up."

He Chenguang who was beside him eased his nervousness after hearing that Qin Yuan had already spoken aloud.

"What happened just now? Did something happen?"

Qin Yuan nodded, and then said:

"I just couldn't seem to hear what Jason and the others were discussing in secret."

"Discuss what?"

Qin Yuan sighed, and then said:

"I just don't know what they are discussing. I am very nervous now. If I can hear what they are talking about, I won't have to be so sad now."

Chen Jixiang also said next to him:

"If you didn't hear it clearly, you didn't hear it clearly. Maybe they were discussing some secret things, and it didn't necessarily have something to do with us. Don't be too curious, we just do our own thing.

The rest of the things are not our turn to worry about. If we really think about it so much, then wouldn't we be overwhelmed. "

Qin Yuan didn't know if it was because of his own feelings or where he really found something was wrong.

He always felt that this conversation seemed to be related to the three of them.

Perhaps this is, a feeling of "guilty heart"?

Qin Yuan also felt that maybe he really thought too much, but he still had to tell this matter and analyze it with everyone. If something unexpected happened, wouldn't the three of them be caught off guard.

"This matter is embarrassing because just now they seem to be speaking the language of Pakistan. It's not that I can't hear them clearly, but I can't understand."

Hearing what Qin Yuan said, He Chenguang felt relieved.

"Oh, it's normal to not understand. In fact, when the two of us just woke up, neither of us could understand the Ba language! I think you are a little too worried now, don't think so much ."

Although at this moment, He Chenguang and Chen Jixiang are persuading him, it is because he thinks too much, but after so many years, he has to doubt this matter, it is really strange to me.

Moreover, Qin Yuan is very curious. If he has been allowed to live in this strange environment and there are many younger sisters here, and he has no way to know, he will feel very insecure.

Either driven by curiosity, or for everyone's safety considerations.

Qin Yuan made up his mind to figure out what Jason was discussing just now.

After breathing on the deck for a while, everyone felt that their mood and mood had improved a lot.

Looks like it's time to go back to that dark, dank cabin.

It is true that you can't stay here for too long, if you are really discovered by the guardians patrolling the sea. Then the next thing will become very difficult to handle. This will undoubtedly cause Jason and them a lot of trouble for you.

Qin Yuan patted He Chenguang and Chen Jixiang on the shoulders, and said:

"I see that you two are almost resting, let's stop wasting time here, hurry up and go back to the cabin, I know that cabin is really disgusting, dark and damp, and there are a lot of bad smells odor.

However, since we have come here, we have come here, so let's settle down. We can't stay on the deck all the time. If the patrol guardians in the North Sea really find out, it will cause trouble for Jason and the others.

And if I go to the sea area that Pakistan belongs to, then I am also their sea guardian conducting inspections. Although we have prepared a lot of fake documents now. But if they really find something tricky, it will definitely affect our plan to rescue Professor Fang's apprentice.

In this way, all our plans fell short, and we came here to suffer in vain. "

He Chenguang nodded, and then said:

"Don't worry, the two of us are not so delicate anymore. Although the cabin is indeed disgusting and unbearable. But after all, we have come here, and we are also old people who have performed many missions. What I have never seen such a situation, so there is no need to persuade us here, the two of us have no problem.

And after the rest just now, I feel that your mood is much better. It seems that blowing the sea breeze on the deck can indeed improve our depressed mood.

All right kid, let's go back quickly! Look at what worried Brother Qin Yuan! "

He Chenguang, while talking, patted the head of Chen Jixiang next to him.

As a younger brother, Chen Jixiang was quite obedient even though it was the second time he was performing missions with the two of them.

And now he still carries the secret mission that Fan Tianlei entrusted to him.

He is really full of thoughts now.

Afterwards, the three of them got up and prepared to go back to the dark cabin they didn't want to face.

After a while, the three of them returned, on the berths in the cabin that had been prepared for them first.

Although this environment is indeed disgusting, but also have to adapt.

Qin Yuan saw that everyone had fallen asleep, and they didn't dare to make too much noise, for fear of disturbing other people.

Qin Yuan pointed to the bed with his finger, and he first set an example for everyone and lay down.

Although they have all seen people with strong winds and waves, it is still unbearable to see such a situation. As soon as Qin Yuan lay down, he felt uncomfortable all over, as if fleas were crawling on his body.

He Chenguang and Chen Jixiang saw that Qin Yuan had already laid down, and the two of them also lay beside him one after another, and then the three of them squeezed together, feeling like they were dependent on each other.

Qin Yuan has too many things on his mind right now.

He was curious about Jason, what exactly were they discussing secretly. And also very curious. Why did Chen Jixiang secretly keep that mini pistol in the capital?

There are too many things hidden in his heart, which makes him unable to sleep peacefully now. Coupled with the humid environment with so many people crowded together, the smell of sweat, and the smell of stagnant air, it is really difficult for Qin Yuan to fall asleep. .

He wanted to take advantage of the fact that both He Chenguang and Chen Jixiang were asleep, and then he would sneak onto the deck and recall the scene at that time.

Or he also needs an independent and stable environment where he can think independently without being disturbed by others. He has repeated all the things that happened today.

Unexpectedly, after a while, He Chenguang and Chen Jixiang who were beside him really fell asleep.

Qin Yuan gently touched the two people's arms with his elbow. It seems that the two people didn't respond at all, and they should really be asleep.

Qin Yuan stood up carefully and gently, for fear of waking up the two sleeping people next to him and affecting his plan.

For some reason, at this moment, he felt that the two people around him were untrustworthy, and the only person he could trust was himself. Although he never found any clues about the two people around him.

However, it is always inexplicable, that is, I don't quite trust the two of them.

Qin Yuan tiptoed up gently, and then walked carefully into the full-length toilet.

Unexpectedly, before opening the door, he had already smelled such an unpleasant smell in the toilet.

The smell was so pungent that he wanted to spit it out immediately. This disgusting feeling was stuffed in his chest.

Qin Yuan mustered up his courage, endured the unpleasant smell and opened the door of the toilet.

She originally thought that she could communicate with the system in the toilet, find a book about Ba, and by the way, be able to master the language of Ba. And he remembered that he still had 40,000 merit points, which he hadn't used yet, so he should be able to exchange this language by himself.

But now everyone is asleep, and there is nowhere for him to find books in the Ba language.

As soon as Qin Yuan opened the toilet door, he was already shocked by the scene inside.

What kind of toilet is this? It's just a small space with a plastic bucket. Then simply put a seat, which doesn't even count as a toilet.

Although Qin Yuan knew very well what was in this plastic bucket, he couldn't help but take a look inside.

Really disgusted, Qin Yuan thought to himself, no wonder there is such a big smell in it, isn't it obvious enough to put such a big  pot in it?

It seems that the environment of smuggling should be like this.

Since everyone came here secretly, what kind of comfortable environment can we consider?

It's just that there is a place to carry so many people's eating and drinking, and then reach the destination smoothly!

At this time, Qin Yuan was still trembling in his heart. He still cared about this matter very much. After all, his thoughts should be kept secret at this time, and other people should not know about this matter.

Qin Yuan has really reached his limit of patience.

He resisted the smell of the toilet and observed the surrounding environment. The main reason is that he really can't get books about the language of Pakistan, so even if he can bear the environment, forcefully follow the system. If there is a dialogue, then there is no chance.

Qin Yuan thought to himself that since he had come here, he should go to the toilet by the way, and he couldn't come here for nothing.

So, Qin Yuan went to the toilet and went out.

Qin Yuan looked at the sleeping people in the cabin, so he could only close the door gently, and then thought about going to the deck to ventilate.

As soon as I walked outside, I felt that at this time, there were faint signs of dawn on the sea.

Qin Yuan sighed, feeling that the time passed quite quickly, but there was nothing unexpected, after all, he had been tossing about for most of the night.

Qin Yuan actually felt a little tired.

However, he still didn't want to go back to that dark and damp underground cabin.

Qin Yuan felt that, after all, he traveled in such a shady way, and before the sun came out, he also wanted to enjoy the fresh air outside as soon as possible.

Really a rare time to enjoy,

Qin Yuan is also cautious when staying outside at this time, he is really worried about what to do if the guardians patrolling the sea find out.

This kind of frightened feeling is really bad, but. Qin Yuan also has another idea that is better, that is, he can sleep for nothing, and then switch with He Chenguang and Chen Jixiang.

This can also prevent in case, in this kind of place where fish and dragons are mixed, although there is nothing worth protecting, you should also be a little vigilant.

After all, don't be afraid of ten thousand, just in case. If someone really wants to disrupt your plan, you also need to be prepared to propose a marriage.

Did not expect at this time.

The voice on the deck caught Qin Yuan's attention again.

The people outside seemed to be busy moving things again.

Qin Yuan quickly got up and hid in the dark, not daring to let others discover his position.

However, this time was still different from the previous eavesdropping.

This time Qin Yuan didn't seem to hear Jason's presence. He himself is also very curious, what is the outside world researching?

Always felt like they were sneaky.

At this time, Qin Yuan seemed to hear the whispers of the people outside again.

"This  is really heavy. If we pull more boxes, we will have to carry a few fewer people. It will make less money. I really don't know what the boss thinks."

Chapter 1883: This is the arms carrier

Qin Yuan just quietly listened to the two people's secret conversation. Although he didn't know what they were talking about, it should be some mysterious goods, and it was unknown.

However, the current situation is that Jason does not seem to be on this occasion. What Qin Yuan needs to know now is whether Jason knows about it. If Jason doesn't know about it, then his subordinates are using this ship to secretly transport some other things, and it also leads to more smuggling. few people.

This can directly cause a very large loss to Jason.

And if Jason didn't know about it, it might cause Jason a very serious blow.

Qin Yuan actually doesn't have so many gossips in his heart now.

What's more, he is more worried about Jason, afraid that he will really be plotted by his subordinates. If so, then Jason must be very dangerous.

Qin Yuan pricked up his ears, trying to quickly hear what the people outside were saying.

However, it is simply that the people outside speak the language of country H. Qin Yuan could understand everything.

Just when Qin Yuan was wondering what they were talking about, the people over there immediately said some dialogue:

"I don't know what the boss thinks. This matter is still quite dangerous for us. Isn't it good to do our smuggling industry well? Why should we bother with this matter? We need to know this thing, but if it is exposed, we But there is no place to die."

Yes! Absolutely! A gentleman stands on a dangerous wall, that is definitely a bad way.

Jason has been listening to Qin Yuan, and we all talk. And I can hear clearly.

You also know that our identities are complicated, and he also values love and righteousness when he is young. He also values me very much for Yin Lianna, and he has never agreed to my request.

Besides, An Ran and Qin Yuan should be just acquaintances. From the conversation between the two of us, it can be seen that Qin Yuan should have pursued An Ran.

After a while, several people were talking.

Do you want to contact An Ran now?

In fact, Jason is not very angry now. Although I regard fitness as a bad friend who hit it off right away, I never thought that Qin Yuan would not have the guts to do such an outrageous thing.

Am I sending ammunition out of necessity, simply because the pay for doing so is lower?

It must be because of our acquaintances to affect your plan.

When Jason thought of that, there was a gleam in my eyes, it's not God helping you.

If it is sure that a person can die with a place to bury, then the goods are not very important, and they can definitely be bought and sold, and anyone can get them.

I was so bad-tempered just now that I didn't have a man yet, and when I mentioned my man, my tone was obviously changed.

Jason is in our aboveground warehouse in Effite, and outside we've heard us talk about the secret munitions system.

Definitely do that sort of thing between countries, it just doesn't give a damn.

Besides, we were handed over to you by Yin Lianna herself, and you were asked to take care of them badly. We are sure that the care is with us, and you did not disappoint Yin Lianna's request at all.

Jason listened silently to the conversation between the two people, but from the conversation between the two people, it should be clear that the youngest we are talking about at this moment should not be Qin Yuan.

"How can he know what the youngest thinks? The youngest wants to be small and weak now. My eyes are not only on that place now. I want to do fewer things now. Does he see it? Is it? Judging from the few things I have done now, my current desires are not beyond your imagination."

"Look, it's getting dark, let's hurry up and prepare some food. You don't have any friends on the bottom of the cabin. Although it's the first time you meet us, you feel that you are very close to us. You also hope to be able to be with us." Called a bad friend.

Arms!

You know

You said that you have not been together for a long time, and they should know you well. Do you have such a petty greed, but now that there are some situations outside the house and you are anxious to use the money, you agreed to us? a reasonable demand.

Are we talking about... Should we be talking about...

It's just that they are unforgivable soldiers, especially when they look at them standing relatively straight.

Qin Yuan looked at the two hands and said loudly:

But I have no signal at all under the sea, so how can I contact the troops under the land?

But now I am basically in a state of being alone.

Do they know that those boxes of goods are not worth much? If it must be such a small profit, you will definitely take such a small risk to help us do that.

Just when Cha Qiao was moved by what Qin Yuan said, another mobile phone of it said calmly:

I looked up at the sky, and it wasn't just getting bright yet.

What you can do now is to provide us with some bad food.

"Soldier? Is this even better, young and old?

Do you still want to take care of us in a small way? "

"Do we still dare to go back on our word? We probably will. If we dare to go back on such an important and small matter, you just caught us and report it to the people below. You see, we should be saved forever."

It can be seen at a glance that we are soldiers.

When Qin Yuan heard those words, I felt a little uncomfortable in my heart.

Although I just listened to Qin Yuan's words, I should have no difficulties, so I chose to do that. However, Jason has absolutely zero tolerance for that matter.

And our identities are so complicated, we must have leaked your secrets, so you will regret it.

It must have been discovered by us. You are secretly transporting arms, so you are not the first petty crime! "

It seems that Qin Yuan should know about the delivery of the secret cargo, and that I should have led that matter, but my hands are worried about that matter, and I agree with it very much.

"It is absolutely impossible to be like that, since you haven't agreed yet, and Yin Lianna wants to take care of my friend badly, you have to give up your friendship as a landlord.

But you can see that our identities are more like soldiers. That trip to Pakistan should be to complete some secret missions. "

Jason finished his analysis outside his heart, what exactly are those things?

At that time, Qin Yuan said to the two hands.

Although 70% is not very small, but if your business can be successfully done before, we will give you fewer orders in the future, and you may just continue to smuggle. "

At that time, Jason could think of the one-click recycling system that he relied on for survival.

It's just that everyone lives for themselves, and it's difficult for anyone living in that world.

"Have they seen that the sky is getting colder? They are rushing to prepare their own things, why are they still whispering outside? Could it be that they know that the wall has no ears?

Because I didn't expect that the two of them didn't meet each other, so I could feel that Qin Yuan trusted me very much.

Jason thought silently in his heart, it seems that the things we transported should be munitions.

If it is certain that what Qin Yuan and we are sending is secret ammunition, then that matter will be linked together.

You basically eat some fish yourself at ordinary times. Even if we are friends handed over to him by Yin Lianna, could it be that he trusts us like that? Somehow, he thinks that those elders who look sneaky are worthy of trust.

"Two brothers, you know that they are thinking about you. I am sure that if you have no family, you will definitely choose to do such a low-risk thing.

But if you have the ability before, we should also find you and ask you to help you transport such a secret thing. Just over our prior promise bad price, you are also afraid that we will go back on our word. "

Moreover, this kind of temperament of a soldier is unique to everyone, even though we pretend to look like gangsters. But in fact, we still do not have a kind of pride and integrity outside our bones.

Is Qin Yuan so short of money? And I have been a young man in Taoism, but I am actually poor or may be short of that little money! "That's right, young and old. It was the first time you did that thing not tremblingly, and it was considered a desperate attempt to save your life.

Jason, although I can see now is clearing up our facial expressions, and can only listen to Hanhu and our talking voice in a complicated way.

I'm cautious outside the house and it seems that something bad happened.

Who on earth could be less courageous? Please, Qin Yuan, where are we going to deliver the arms?

But before wanting the system to help him solve that matter, this is simply not more difficult than reaching the sky.

At that time Qin Yuan retorted:

I thought that Qin Yuan would also come down at that time.

Has he heard of Mr. Dong Guo and the wolf? That kind of thing is still too little reason, just let us sleep outside the cabin for eight days and eight nights, and successfully bring us to Ba, and you have fulfilled your duty. If he didn't collect money from us once, it's not considered a small favor to us.

But now I simply have no way and no suitable place to contact me. It is very difficult for me to find a state of being completely alone.

As soon as Jason heard Cha Qiao say that, I felt that it was incredible. I thought that the man's observation ability actually said that, he was ashamed of being such a young man in the Tao.

In fact, Jason was very moved when he heard Qin Yuan say that.

It's just that we really discovered your secret before, and you also hope to kill us, so let's do good deeds for your son. "

But what kind of cargo is that?

Qin Yuan heard what he said, and I said without any anger:

Are you rushing out to stop us now, and then ask us where the arms came from? Where are you going to ship it?

Even if we don't have the handle to fall into your hands now, you have absolutely nothing to do, what about us. At that time, it was said that 70% of the value of the goods was damaged.

But I seem to be able to listen to Qin Yuan's words, except I don't have any embarrassments.

One of them didn't have any doubts in his hand, and asked in an unambiguous way:

But what should I do next?

Jason now but before imagined events in that direction. Because if we really transported munitions secretly before, then that matter has nothing to do with the matter we are investigating.

"Boss, he needs to know that you are under the small sea now. Originally, your food is relatively easy, and you will be drifting under the sea for eight days and nights.

Is there anything you can do to help us with the rest of my affairs. "

"Things are definitely not as he imagined, but you are now smuggling between various countries. And it is a legitimate business.

weight? secret? Is there a burial place for death?

Although that system is constantly purifying and perfecting itself, the management didn't give me much time, and there was no way I could deal with the whole thing.

There was a gleam of light in Jason's eyes.

At that time, Qin Yuan said with a look of embarrassment:

The two people around me are enough to be completely trusted by me. Although Jason has not noticed anything, but Fan Tianlei's actions can't tell that I doubt those people.

Even if you contact the system, what can you do? A system is simply one that endows itself with some other properties and functions.

Jason thought that if he continued to eavesdrop outside, we found out so soon, but if he is sure to give up that matter now, it would be a pity for him.

But because of that matter, you have to tell him about Hanhu beforehand, the identities of those people are definitely complicated, I'm sure

They really discovered your secret, so their ending can only be Xiaohai. "

If he had to confess his identity to Qin Yuan, he might be thrown up to feed the sharks.

Although you have been engaged in the smuggling industry for so young, it is also a legitimate business. But it was the first time ever to transport that thing.

Thinking about He Chenguang and Chen Jixiang who are sleeping soundly outside the house now, in fact, those two people are also so reliable. Is there any way to completely defeat us before, but who can help himself now?

In fact, you think our identities are so complicated, but you think that if we are really standing outside your team, we should do too little, which is beneficial to you.

After Qin Yuan finished speaking, one of them said impatiently:

He probably knows what is inside your box, he must have been discovered by us, so you are right in the middle of the gun.

It's just that there are not a few keywords that can't be used.

Although you are meeting us for the first time, you think you should be of the same type.

Jason just hid in the dark, quietly, listening to Qin Yuan, we all talked.

Chapter 1884: Find ways to overcome language barriers

In fact, Qin Yuan is more worried about whether he has misjudged the person than money.

Jason shouldn't be like this, he dared to help them deliver arms for money. This courage is really too big. This is something I would never even think about.

Qin Yuan really has always had this kind of character, no matter what kind of person is more worried about things, in fact, this is not good, after all, he came out this time to complete the task, if there is nothing to gain, Then Fan Tianlei will not let him go when he goes back.

However, Qin Yuan seemed to be overshadowed by Effiete.

As long as Effiete is mentioned, he will desperately want to stand against him.

Qin Yuan knew very well in his heart that this kind of behavior was very bad, and it was not conducive to his character and growth, and sometimes he would even suffer from price comparisons.

But there is no other way, after all, this matter has troubled Qin Yuan for a long time.

The underground munitions system and the spies within them have troubled themselves for a long time.

Now that there is an opportunity, Qin Yuan will definitely not hesitate.

Qin Yuan secretly made up his mind that no matter what, this matter must be done, and he was already prepared to be criticized by Fan Tianlei when he went back.

"Yeah, it's over!"

While Qin Yuan was talking to himself, he was crazily thinking about what to do in the future. A very perfect plan must be planned, and it must be foolproof.

However, fortunately, I have the help of a key recovery system.

The most important thing now is to quickly find a book related to Pakistan, and put it in the grid of the system so that you can quickly help yourself or gain the language ability of Pakistan.

But where should I go to find a book in a Chinese language at this time?

Logically speaking, it is not difficult to find a book about Pakistan. After all, this boat often goes to Pakistan for smuggling, and there should be many people on it who can speak the language of Pakistan.

At this time, Qin Yuan thought, maybe someone should understand the stowaways under the cabin. Even if they don't understand, some of them should have books about the Pakistani language.

Maybe I can go to Jason myself, maybe Jason also has books from Pakistan.

It's just that, after all, it's the first time I've come here, if there are any other things. It's better not to bother Jason. If Jason finds out about his conspiracy, then the next thing may not be so easy to do.

But at this time, Qin Yuan was still more worried. If he could not implement this matter, it would definitely affect his next plan.

What he was thinking about now was how to complete the task Fan Tianlei had given him, because if he didn't master this language, even if he arrived in Ba, they might not be able to make it so smooth.

And I never thought about the language barrier before I came here.

He Chenguang and Chen Jixiang are both masters of language barriers. Even the American language, which is a common language in the world, they don't know me, let alone the languages of other countries.

No, Qin Yuan is very clear now, the most urgent thing is to find me this language as soon as possible, so that he can understand what those people are talking about.

Qin Yuan heard that the people outside seemed to be quiet, so he carefully prepared to go back to the boat cabin to see how his next plan should be implemented.

Moreover, the most important thing now is that he doesn't know if He Chenguang and Chen Jixiang are awake now. If they wake up, you will soon find your trace. If the two of them can't find you, then go on The things that come down are not easy to do.

After all, Qin Yuan felt that only he could believe it now.

Even He Chenguang and Chen Jixiang, who had fought side by side many times, did not believe it.

When Qin Yuan tiptoed and carefully prepared to go back to the cabin, he didn't expect to see Jason as soon as he turned around.

Qin Yuan was really taken aback by Jason's sudden appearance.

Although he had tried his best to pretend that there was nothing unusual on the surface, his heart was still pounding. After all, he had done something wrong, and now he was very afraid of facing Jason.

Jason didn't have any other doubts, he just asked with a little concern:

"Qin Yuan, why did you come out again? Is it because the environment in the cabin is too unacceptable, but I can understand this, after all, the cabin is for people like you who have never been in contact with it. , you just accept it normally, although I know that you are all very good men in the army,

But even if you have come here, you have to bow down to us. "

As soon as Qin Yuan heard what Jason said, he felt that Jason seemed to have not discovered his secret, so he continued to talk about what these people said, remember to change the subject, and don't let Jason go back to himself.

Qin Yuan could only smile awkwardly, and then said:

"Not anymore, we're not as delicate as we imagined. It's just that it's really scary to be in such an environment for the first time.

Fortunately, my two companions have fallen asleep. For me, sleep is not that important. "

Jason looked at Qin Yuan with a smile, and then said:

"How can you not sleep? I told you that you still have a lot of tasks to complete when you get there. If you don't take a good rest, I tell you that you will definitely be powerless when you get there."

"Thank you for your concern. But I think it's a bit crowded for the three of us to be there. I'm not sleepy right now, I'll go out for a walk first, and then when it dawns I'm sleeping and the two of them are awake.

In this way, a few of us switch over to sleep, can we also protect the safety of our companions! "

Jason said thoughtfully:

"Qin Yuan, what do you mean by that? You don't believe me, do you? Let me tell you, although sneaking is a legitimate business, I, Jason, am definitely a very upright person.

I have actually agreed, I will absolutely guarantee your safety if Elena brings you to the destination successfully, and of course not only your life safety, but also the safety of your property, I will also guarantee it.

So as long as you are in my territory, you don't have to worry at all. You can rest assured and boldly sleep. "

Qin Yuan was a little embarrassed, smiled and said:

"I'm sorry Jason, I think you must have misunderstood. I don't believe you. I just know my own physical condition better. I didn't like sleeping that much before, and sleeping in such a humid place, I'm more I'm prone to eczema. So now I think I should go out for a walk, and it's a very good choice for a while."

"Well, it seems that you really think so. Then I won't persuade you, because everyone's physical fitness is different. Since you have made up your mind to do this, then you should have more reasons of."

When Qin Yuan heard Jason's words, he seemed to breathe a sigh of relief.

He was finally able to believe his own words, and he stopped trying to persuade himself.

At this time, the two have been chatting here for a while.

Qin Yuan felt that if the world asked Jason to ask for a book about Ba, he would not reject him, let alone doubt him.

So, Qin Yuan looked at Jason and said:

"By the way, Jason. I'm idle anyway, and I can't sleep, and I can't often come out to ventilate at the door of the house. I feel very uncomfortable now. It's not good if there is no mobile phone signal in the sea. Can't find some books for me to read."

Jason was a little surprised when he heard this.

"I didn't expect you to still want to read books? Do you know that books are probably as precious as gold here. Look at our environment, who can read what books.

We are now worrying about eating and drinking every day, who would have the heart to watch that kind of thing, I think you must be from the wrong person, why don't you go to the bottom of Sichuan and Tibet to see if there is something like that? Old pedants may have. "

"Jason, I think you misunderstood me. I don't want to learn anything. What I want now is to be able to understand, to be precise, a book that can quickly understand Pakistan."

Hearing this, Jason seemed to be able to understand Qin Yuan's meaning.

"Ooo, if you say that, I will understand. It seems that what you want to read is not a book, but a magazine or a newspaper."

Qin Yuan nodded frantically in agreement.

"Yes, yes, it is this kind of thing, whether it is a magazine or a magazine, as long as there is relevant information about Pakistan, after all, it is the first time for me to this country, I do not know the customs there at all, and I am also afraid of sudden What kind of jokes will be made when I go to a foreign country, and you also know that I am going with my own business this time.

So now I have to have to understand all the things in there. Of course, it would be even better if I could have a tour guide, but it would be good if the conditions like ours can guarantee my own safety. For magazines and newspapers, find some for me and let me read them. "

Jason frowned, then said:

"I can understand what you said, but we have a lot of newspapers about Pakistan on board. It's just that I can't understand the text on it.

If you don't understand, then I don't have any use for you. The left and right are also used to go to the toilet. "

Qin Yuan said excitedly:

"Oh, I can't understand, I can't understand the text, so I'll just watch the excitement. It doesn't matter if it's H or Ba language, I can't understand it anyway.

But if you can really find it, then please help me find one. I really need it now. It is also a good choice to help me sleep right now, just like when I was a child. I want to sleep after reading a book. "

Jason, laughing loudly, patted Qin Yuan on the shoulder and said:

"If you say that, then I think the two of us hit it off too much. We are in exactly the same situation after two hours. As long as we read a book, we want to sleep.

But having said that, if I could read more books, I wouldn't end up like this now. "

Speaking of this, Qin Yuan could feel the sadness in Jason's eyes.

It feels like he should have something embarrassing.

Qin Yuan thought about it, when he eavesdropped on them just now, Jason seemed to have mentioned his daughter.

It's just that although the two of them hit it off right away, he doesn't want to mention so many things now. After all, if he mentions his family Jason, he will definitely be sad.

Seeing Jason like this, Qin Yuan felt rather sad, and at the same time felt sorry for him, so he could only say in a comforting tone:

"You're not that bad now, how wonderful it is now, although we don't study much, but we are free, and you also have your own voice, and there are so many brothers behind you.

This kind of life is called happy enmity. In fact, I also envy your freedom to come and go, it doesn't seem like we don't have that freedom where we want to go. "

Jason sighed, then said:

"Who told us to have such a fate! Now that the situation is already like this, I have no choice but to cover up the water and cover the earth with a smile and face the future life."

What Qin Yuan didn't expect was that the boss of the stowaway in front of him was such an open-minded and optimistic person. At this moment, he was really filled with a sense of reverence for Jason.

Jason also seemed to have thought of something that made him very sad, so he didn't continue talking, but quickly changed the subject and said:

"Okay, let's not talk about it now, since the matter has reached this point. Then we have to look forward Otherwise, we have nothing to do in the face of such an unfair fate. We What I can do now is to persevere and live well for my family.

Well, let's not talk about it, I will get you some newspapers and magazines now. You wait here first.

Qin Yuan asked knowingly and said:

"It's going to be cold for me and the sky, can I wait for you here? If someone on the sea patrol finds out, will it cause trouble for you?"

"I think you are asking the question knowingly. You have been here for such a long time. What are you afraid of? You just continue to wait for me here. I will bring you the newspapers and magazines you want. You Just take it back to the cabin and watch it.

Besides, in fact, the people patrolling the sea are not as dense as the patrols. They will appear once in a while, and you are here alone. I think you are very well integrated with our environment. If you are really discovered by them If so, we can also say that you are our own! "

Chapter 1885: This is simply seeking skin from a tiger

After Qin Yuan had this exchange with Jason, he suddenly found out more and more that Settlement is really a person who treats people and is sincere. I don't know why he took this path, but he is really a Very nice guy and a very worthwhile friend.

It's just that the next thing will be more troublesome. I don't know what the situation is on their side.

And he himself doesn't want to cause trouble for Jason, so he also hopes that Jason can find what he wants as soon as possible and take it away for him. He also needs to find a quieter place and communicate with the system. Opportunities to learn languages.

Jason looked at Qin Yuan and said:

"What's wrong with you? What are you thinking about? Why do you always feel that you are so preoccupied? If you have anything, you must tell me.

I would like to help you. After all, I can say that I am right for you. I love you at first sight, and it's never too late to meet you. "

Although Qin Yuan knew very well in his heart what Jason's words meant at this moment, he still wanted to ease the embarrassing atmosphere.

Therefore, Qin Yuan said:

"What is love at first sight? If you say that, I will suspect that you are interested in me. You must not say that. Between us two big men, don't do those weird things."

After he finished speaking, Jason also started laughing, and the atmosphere between the two of them became very relaxed and humorous.

At this time Jason said solemnly:

"Okay, let's stop here for the pleasure of the two of us, and we have to do some serious things. I'll go out now and find you what you want. Which Pakistani magazine or newspaper do you want? A sort of."

"Any kind is fine. I'm not picky at all. I just want to quickly get familiar with the environment of Pakistan. You also know that I have never been to that place. I am not familiar with it. If I am alone there I was also quite flustered, and I also had two younger brothers under my command.

None of the three of us knew the language of Pakistan. "

"Okay, I understand, don't worry about this matter, if I don't blame everything this time, I can help you guys as a tour guide.

However, this time I went to Pakistan with my own mission, and my matter is also very important, so don't blame me for not being enthusiastic enough, and take you there to find some stable places.

It's just that I'm really busy, and I can't help you. What I can do for you now is to provide you with a relatively secluded environment and give you what you want. "

"Okay, you don't have to be polite, you go find it quickly, I will wait for you here for a while, and the patrolmen who are still on the road will also find our traces, so you are not easy to do, and they will bring you Come on, please go and come back quickly, and then find it for me, I just hide in the corner and watch quietly for what I want."

"Well, okay, no problem, you just wait here and I will be back soon."

After speaking, Jason immediately turned and walked towards his room.

After seeing him leave a few times, Qin Yuan's excitement seemed to have eased, and at this time he was the only one left at home, blowing the sea breeze.

He can feel the unparalleled tranquility and comfort at this moment.

It seems that this time is indeed the best environment to be able to think independently.

Qin Yuan just carefully recalled what Jason said.

Jason said that he also took the mission area with him when he went to Pakistan this time. It seems that there must be some secret thing, which seems to be very important. He is inconvenient to tell himself, otherwise Jason will definitely ignore it because of the relationship between the two of them. Tell yourself the consequences.

Of course, if it was his own private matter, he would be more willing to share it with him.

At least in Qin Yuan's heart now, the two of them are already very good friends. Although there is still a certain distance from the kind of friends who talk about everything, but the relationship between the two of them has advanced again. step.

Qin Yuan had an ominous premonition that maybe Jason would be involved in this matter.

Just listening to the conversation between them, it is very likely that Jason, now has some family reasons that have to push him to do these things.

It can be heard from his language that Jason is also very helpless at this moment. He may have no choice but to do this, but he has to choose.

Thinking of this, Qin Yuan now feels sorry for Jason very much.

He really wanted to find out Jason, whether the ammunition they were wearing had something to do with Effie calling them?

If it really has something to do with Effie and the others, then this matter may become very complicated again.

Thinking of this, Qin Yuan felt a little pain in his head again, because he was about to arrive in the country of Ba, and he still knew nothing about the way forward, and the things he was involved in became more and more complicated, even It will also involve the underground secret arms system.

Originally, what Qin Yuan thought in his heart was that once Professor Fang's two apprentices were rescued, they could immediately start investigating the mysterious black box they found from Effie's car.

It's just that things are developing in the direction I expected. It's not so smooth, and it's not smooth, it's just that it's rough, and the time is really long.

Qin Yuan was really worried that if he didn't know which part had mistakes or omissions, his whole plan would be ruined, which is unimaginable.

He must now quickly find out whether this batch of arms is related to Effiete and the others.

If this batch of arms is really related to Effiete and the others, then it will be difficult for me to do this.

Because Qin Yuan always felt that Effiete was not a good person, and he was very sympathetic to Jason at this moment. If Jason was really involved in Effiete's organization, it would definitely not end well.

Qin Yuan's biggest difficulty now is that he doesn't know how to explain the ins and outs of this matter to Jason. He must not be able to tell him the truth, but how to rescue him from this mysterious organization?

If he reminded him intentionally, then Jason would definitely doubt his identity. Although he had a good relationship with Jason, he hadn't reached the point of confessing everything.

Right now, Qin Yuan was thinking about his troubles. Jason came out with a stack of magazines and newspapers.

Qin Yuan immediately put away his sad face, and then I hurriedly said to Jason:

"I really didn't expect you to find what I wanted so quickly?"

"It's so fast, I really searched in my room. These people around me are crazy. They don't know what I'm doing. They think I'm bewitched by something, and they're going to start reading books and newspapers." .

I found some things like this, but it's not very helpful to you. It's all written in Pakistan, and you can't understand it.

You said that if you want to watch something lively, I think you should watch the one with pictures and text descriptions.

But now I can't find anything with pictures at all, so I can only reluctantly give you some of these magazines and newspapers, and it seems that it has been a long time from the time, and it is not news.

If you want to know any important information, I advise you not to look at this thing, because it is what we used to pad the box. "

As soon as Qin Yuan saw the stack of newspapers and magazines Jason was holding.

He felt very excited, because he knew that as long as he found a quiet place and contacted the system immediately, he would immediately be able to speak the Pakistani language fluently.

Mr. Qin Yuan seemed dissatisfied with the things he had photographed, and felt very sorry, so he quickly comforted him and said:

"Jason, why are you always so nice to me? It started from the moment Elena found you, trouble you about our affairs, and I always trouble you after I got on the boat.

I really feel a little embarrassed. "

"Actually, I can't tell. Maybe this is a kind of wonderful fate. I have already thought about it. After we arrive in Pakistan and I have completed my task, I will go to you and show you the experience there. The customs and customs will take you to taste the local cuisine, although I am not very proficient in the language there.

But one or two daily words, I can still speak and understand, at least there is no obstacle for us to eat, drink and have fun. "

When Qin Yuan heard the words of the parasite, he felt very moved. In fact, he himself did not expect to meet such a good friend during this mission. It was necessary to know exactly what difficulties Jason had.

With a probing tone, Qin Yuan asked cautiously:

"Jason, I feel that you seem to have something on your mind. Is there any difficulty? Then I can help you?"

Jason's smiling face immediately turned gloomy, as if he mentioned something sad about himself. It's just that he hasn't figured out how to say it yet?

Qin Yuan looked at Jason's face and became a little dignified, and he also felt embarrassed.

Because he felt that he had said something wrong, which caused all the smiles on his face to disappear now.

"I'm sorry Jason, don't mind, I just feel that you are a little unhappy, if you have any unhappy things, you can tell me, but if you want to keep it secret, you don't want to say it, I can also understand, and I won't mind.

It was true just now, I was a bit abrupt, if you don't want to say it, forget it. "

Jason sighed, and then said with a sad expression:

"I... I did have some problems at home. That's why I have to make this trip. Only after this trip can I earn enough money to treat my daughter.

In the past, I was just a smuggler. Although it was not a legitimate business, I could still make a living, and I didn't need to do too many things that went against my conscience.

And I was only responsible for smuggling people from country H to Pakistan, and I have never smuggled people from Pakistan to our country H. Perhaps this reason is to give me a little bit of comfort in my heart. "

Qin Yuan listened intently, then nodded to express his sincerity:

"Then what?"

"And then for so many years, I have been doing this business, but recently someone approached me and asked me to help him make a very powerful business. At first, I wanted to refuse.

But, after all, my daughter is sick, he needs money, and he needs money urgently, and I have no other way if I need a lot of money. Once you get involved in this matter, it will be difficult to get out. "

Qin Yuan seemed to feel that he was very close to the answer.

It seemed that Jason really had a lot of difficulties and had to do this.

"Your daughter? She..."

Qin Yuan actually wanted to ask what's wrong with Jason's daughter who needed so much money, because although he didn't have a wealthy family.

But the business that Jason has done for so many years is enough to allow his daughter to spend her life in peace.

What is the disease? Need so much money? Qin Yuan wanted to know very much, but he was too embarrassed to ask, because he felt that this was the softest and untouchable place in Jason's heart.

Unexpectedly, Jason said slowly:

"My daughter has a congenital heart disease. This heart disease needs a heart transplant. But we haven't got the right match yet.

If the matching is not successful, my daughter may never have a chance to survive.

I just hate it very much now, why can't I, a father, do something for my daughter? "

When Qin Yuan heard this, he seemed to understand, but he had some doubts, because a heart transplant does require a lot of money, but it shouldn't be a difficult thing for Jason. As far as I know, a heart transplant should not require that much money. The main thing is to see if you can match the blood type of the patient. "

"Yes, it is. We never found a suitable heart for my daughter. But then I met a man who said he could help me."

Qin Yuan already understood when he heard this. It seems that Effiete must have used the incident of his daughter's illness to threaten him in order to help him achieve this goal.

Qin Yuan simply hated this Effiete in his heart. He didn't expect that he not only did a lot of evil, but also used his family affection to do bad things. This was really hard for him to accept.

"Then this person has done a good thing. But are you really sure he can help you? Isn't he really lying to you?"

Qin Yuan said this on purpose, he wanted to remind Jason that seeking a tiger's skin would never end well.

Chapter 1866 This is another new challenge

As soon as Qin Yuan heard what Professor Fang said, he quickly took out his mobile phone because he was afraid that his screen memory would not be able to remember such complicated longitude and latitude.

"I'm ready to write it down, just tell me!"

"The two of them are now in an inconspicuous village in Stark City, Pakistan. The specific location should be 72 degrees north latitude and 65 degrees east longitude."

As Professor Fang spoke, Qin Yuan recorded accurately beside him.

An Ran next to him was definitely very capable. While looking at the longitude and latitude recorded by Qin Yuan on his mobile phone, he quickly found the map on his mobile phone to check the specific location.

After checking it, he immediately brought the location in front of Qin Yuan's eyes and pointed it at him.

While answering Professor Fang's call, Qin Yuan looked at the specific location displayed on the phone An Ran handed over.

Then he slowly said to the other professor:

"Professor Fang, don't worry. I have recorded this location, and I have found it on the map now. You can definitely rescue your two apprentices if you give me some time, you can rest assured."

"Qin Yuan, maybe I still don't trust others in me, but if this matter is left to Yin personally, I absolutely believe that you have the strength, so I put this matter Please give it to you.

If you don't have the ability to study their strength in my heart, I won't reveal their specific location to you. This will only put them in a more dangerous situation. "

Fan Tianlei patted Qin Yuan on the shoulder and said:

"Did you see? You can do it, kid. Now your status in my teacher's heart has surpassed my status as a student who has been loyal to him for so many years.

You kid is really not that simple, but since my teacher values you so much, I believe in you, so just go ahead and do it boldly. "

Qin Yuan thought that according to Professor Fang's description, these two children should also be Xuria, children who have experienced the war, so their appearance should be very different from that of our H country people.

Well, we should really ask this point more clearly. If we admit the wrong person, then the next thing will not be easy.

Unexpectedly, before Qin Yuan could speak, Professor Fang said:

"Qin Yuan, one of them is called Wu Zhan and the other is An An. Although they are both from Xuliya, they look different from us in appearance.

But since I raised both of them from childhood, he speaks the same language as us. If you communicate with him in American language, there shouldn't be any big obstacles. The two of them grew up in the United States and received education there, so you should be able to communicate with them no matter what language you use. "

At this time, An Ran said from the side:

"Don't you have the contact information of the two of them? Or communicate with them beforehand by phone or something. If we go to them again like this, it might be much easier, and they won't feel that they suddenly appeared. It gives them a sense of fear."

"An Ran, just because I thought about this problem, I didn't leave any contact information for them. Let the two of them study there arduously without any contact with the outside world. If they have contact information, or a phone call, Generate some radio waves with the outside world.

If these radio waves are detected by our enemies, their specific locations will be found quickly.

Precisely because I did not leave any contact information for them, and they had no way to have any contact with the outside world, I was able to ensure that they stayed there safely until now without being discovered by the spies with ulterior motives in the United States. "

After listening to Professor Fang's words, everyone nodded slowly and realized that it was Professor Fang who had such good intentions. If he hadn't thought about it so carefully, I'm afraid these two people would have been killed by those with evil intentions in the United States. If they are caught, using them to threaten Professor Fang is probably the best way in the world.

After all, the two of them were brought up by Crazy Hands. It is absolutely impossible to watch the two of them being hurt like this by outsiders. If they were caught, Professor Fang would definitely give in.

When Qin Yuan thought of this, he was now even more determined, determined to rush to the country of Ba as soon as possible to rescue the two of them.

At this time Fan Tianlei said:

"Teacher, do you have anything else to do? If not, you can rest quickly and leave the next thing to us. Let's have a meeting to study who should be sent to Pakistan to save your two children. Two apprentices, one named Wu Zhan and one named An An, right?"

"Yes, yes. That's right! I admit that I am indeed old, so I can only leave this matter to you. Now you are the people I trust the most. If I don't trust you, I will never leave it to you. I told you their specific locations, so I can only wait for your good news in the hospital."

An Ran said to the phone at this time:

"Professor Fang, don't worry. Just leave the rest to us. You also said that you are already old and you are no longer capable of many things, so you worry in vain and consume your body. There's not much help, so all you can do now is focus on it, don't think too much, take good care of your body and wait for the good news of our triumphant return, okay?"

Du Bingbing from Professor Fang also said:

"Okay, Professor Fang. If you hadn't begged me just now, I would never have let you make this call. It will definitely not be good for your body if your emotions continue to be excited.

So you have already explained this matter, so let's not talk to them. Let's have a good rest, okay? "

Qin Yuan on the other side of the phone has never spoken to anyone so gently as Du Bingbing. It seems that he only shows his loving side when he cares for the weak, but he is always so cold towards us.

After saying that, Du Bingbing snatched the phone from Professor Fang's hand, and then he said to the phone:

"Qin Yuan, you should have heard clearly what Professor Fang told you just now. You should also understand how important this matter is to him, so you should arrange for someone to do it as soon as possible.

I won't talk about other things. Professor Fang's health should be fine here. The only thing left is to take good care of him. So I will put down all my work during this time to take care of Professor Fang's health wholeheartedly.

Before you successfully complete the mission, I will not leave here to protect him at all times. His physical condition will be left to me. If anything happens, feel free to hold him accountable. "

Qin Yuan felt a little scared when he heard Du Bingbing's words. It seemed that Du Bingbing had forced himself to issue a military order. If he couldn't do this well, he wouldn't have the face to come back and face everyone.

However, although Qin Yuan was not convinced in his heart, and although he was not completely sure about this matter, his proud and conceited character forced him to continue and just go down.

"Okay, Doctor Du, I'll leave Professor Fang's affairs to you and do it. Leave the rest to me. When we are both done, we will compare to see who has completed the task. How about more perfection?"

Fan Tianlei next to him looked at the two motivated and positive young people and couldn't help but nodded with relief.

Because he felt that these two people were the soldiers he brought out. Whether it was Qin Yuan or Du Bingbing, they were both his very proud disciples.

So Fan Tianlei joined in the fun and said:

"Okay, okay, I think what Dr. Du said about this matter is very reasonable. If this is the case, then you two can compare, and I will also be a witness with you. Whoever completes the task better will naturally win. Whoever is rewarded for completing the task poorly will naturally get no reward.

It seems that your young people today are also very motivated and combative, which I like very much. "

Qin Yuan gritted his teeth and said fiercely:

"Okay, Doctor Du, let's make it a deal."

At this moment, Qin Yuan was thinking about himself and he must not lose to a girl like Dr. Du.

An Ran, who had been standing next to him, felt an indescribable feeling in his heart as he watched the two of them communicating back and forth like this. Although he knew in his heart that Qin Yuan and Dr. Du didn't have much interaction.

There wasn't much of an emotional connection, but from his perspective, the conversation between the two people always felt a little sour.

So, he could only force out a smile and said:

"It's not just you, Thor. All of us here can be witnesses to see how well the two of them completed their missions. But it is true, as Thor said, when your two men compare with each other, the one who wins in the end is You. Because no matter who wins, he is your disciple, so you, the God of Thunder, should be the most powerful."

Du Bingbing, without seeing An Ran, just said coldly on the phone:

"Then it's settled, you must come back safely, so that you can compare with me when you come back safely. If you can't come back safely, then it's obvious that I can only win."

After saying that, Dr. Du hung up and did not continue talking to them on the phone because he felt that he should stop the conversation immediately and could not continue to worry about the professor above. This was indeed not good for his health.

An Ran, as a girl, he understood the meaning of Dr. Du's words very well.

In fact, maybe it wasn't that he wanted to compare with Qin Yuan to see who could win in the end. She was just worried about whether Qin Yuan could successfully rescue the two apprentices of the free professor and come back safe and sound.

Perhaps none of the men present could understand Dr. Du's mood. But as An Ran was a girl, he understood it, so he felt a little bit uncomfortable in his heart.

Qin Yuan is very competitive when he hears someone who despises him. After listening to Doctor Du's words, he became extremely concerned about going to Pakistan to rescue the professor's two apprentices.

It's like taking a shot of chicken blood. I can't wait to fly to Pakistan right now to rescue these two lands owned by Professor Fang.

Fan Tianlei knew Qin Yuan best. He looked at Qin Yuan's excited expression and said:

"Don't talk yet. I know you are very excited now, but don't worry, because this matter is definitely not as simple as you think. Just go as you say. We are country H after all. If you want to go to Pakistan If you go, you must communicate with the Pakistani people in advance!

If we go to someone else's territory without communicating with them in advance, then you are illegally intruding into their country's territory. "

Qin Yuan rolled his eyes at Fan Tianlei and said:

"Of course I know this. I also know very well that I have been on a mission for so long. Do you still want to remind me of such a small thing? You are so worried about me."

Fan Tianlei's eyes widened and he said:

"You have to be clear, I'm not worried about you, I'm just seeing how dangerous you are now with the chicken blood shot. If I don't stop you quickly, I don't know what will happen to you. I wish you were right now Once you have wings, you will fly to Pakistan. Don't you know me yet?"

An Ran covered her mouth and said with a smile:

"It seems that Thor knows him very well. He is indeed such a anxious person, but even if he is anxious, we should be more cautious about this matter. After all, we have just had an incident with Efite.

We don't know what's going on with them. Once they are really observing us secretly, they will find out if we do anything rashly.

What you need to know is that Professor Fang has been hiding this matter for a long time. If his two apprentices were discovered by people in the United States because of some traces of our affairs being leaked, even if they have no life. The danger is that we have no way to trust Professor Fang! "

Qin Yuan lowered his head and thought about what An Ran said. In fact, if An Ran did not accept this matter, although he had not thought of it, he should be able to think about it clearly when he calmed down.

But the most important thing is that An Ran can help him calm down and analyze the pros and cons one by one when he is very excited. This shows that An Ran is really the interpreter around him and the person who can calm him down.

Qin Yuan smiled and looked at An Ran, nodded, and said:

"Thank you An Ran, thank you for reminding me to be cautious in doing things at such an important time."

Chapter 1887: Unlock new language abilities

Therefore, Qin Yuan had to go to the toilet in this narrow, dirty and smelly bathroom.

Make some noise on purpose.

Just at this time, take advantage of the time period when there is sound.

Qin Yuan quickly took out his mobile phone and quickly adjusted the recording function, then turned the mobile phone on silent, and secretly put it in his pocket, intending to record what they said without anyone noticing it.

Qin Yuan thought that although he couldn't understand what they were saying now, as long as he got a new language system and took out the recording later, he should be able to understand what they were saying.

After making all the preparations, Qin Yuan washed his hands again, and then slowly went out of the bathroom.

At this time, I saw that everyone had already started eating.

No one cared about him or looked at him when she came out of the bathroom.

Qin Yuan looked at Jason, a little embarrassed, and said apologetically:

"I'm really sorry, you are eating, and I have to go to the bathroom to disturb your meal."

At this time, one of Jason's men said:

"If you know that you are disturbing our meal, don't repeatedly mention the bathroom when we are eating. If you want to eat here, eat quickly, and leave as soon as you finish eating. Don't affect us."

Qin Yuan thought to himself that he had never been scolded like this by others.

But since he is the student's subordinate, he always has to give him a little face. Now he doesn't have the same knowledge as these villains. He completes the task by himself and sees how he can deal with them in the future.

Qin Yuan pretended to be innocent, picked up the rice on the table, and began to stuff it into his mouth.

Beside this time, Jason's men started a new round of conversation that Qin Yuan couldn't understand.

Still, as usual, I couldn't understand what he was talking about at all.

At this time, Jason was eating and couldn't help turning his head, and scolded his subordinates in Pakistani language.

Although Qin Yuan couldn't understand what they were talking about now, he could clearly feel from the tone of his voice that what Jason said was absolutely not good.

Of course, Jason's men would never say anything nice.

After Qin Yuan ate for a while, he felt that he should have eaten almost too. He turned to Jason and said:

"Jason, I've almost eaten, so I won't bother you here, you can continue to eat, I'm going to stay in the wooden box on the deck now, I think sleeping in it during the day is also a good choice, If I stay in this wooden box, it shouldn't affect you."

At this time, a subordinate sitting next to Qingyuan said:

"Why do you have to stay in the wooden box on the deck if you put it in a good cabin. Who knows there are people in the wooden box when you stay there?"

If they take you away as a cargo, I'm afraid you will regret it too.

Why are you so busy? Since you came here, we've been running into all sorts of troubles, including our boss.

Don't forget you, now you have something to ask for, since you have something to ask for from us, why can't you just listen to our arrangement honestly, you must go against our opinion. "

"Shut up, there's no place for you to talk here, so hurry up and eat, can't you keep your mouth shut?"

Jason scolded his subordinate.

Another person next to him also helped his subordinates and said:

"Boss, we are here for your own good. Can you stop fighting us? Why do you have to help this kid? You see, this kid looks very rude, and I always feel that his sneaky coat, he How does it affect our plans?"

This is the first time you are doing this plan. You must not fail. What if you are doing it for your daughter? "

Although Jason treated Qin Yuan very politely and politely, he was still very strict with his subordinates. After he repeated the fit several times, his subordinates did not respond. Jason picked up the tableware in anger. The glass fell to the floor and shattered.

"You don't listen to what I said, do you? I will judge whether he is a good person or a bad person. You don't need to teach me for so many years. When you are with me, when have I not violated your wishes?

I think you have all grown up and hardened your wings, now you don't listen to me at all, right? "

Qin Yuan didn't expect Jason to lose his temper so much, and he had the impression that the finalist was a very polite person.

He was startled when he saw Jason like this.

Qin Yuan felt very embarrassed now, because he felt that he had brought so much trouble to Jiesheng after he came here.

It seems that the nearest way for him to help Jason now, or to relieve himself, is to quickly solve the munitions issue for him.

Qin Yuan thought to himself, if I follow Effiete's style of doing things, if Jason's business is really done with them, then after the matter is completed, Jason must be very dangerous.

Because Effiete has always been a ruthless person, if he really wants to kill Jason, he may not be able to save Jason.

So he had to save Jason before everything was clear.

Although, this is not what he should do, but it is something he has to do in his conscience.

At this moment, Qin Yuan walked up to Jason, patted him on the shoulder and said:

"Okay, Jason. I know that you are doing it for my own good. I brought everything today. Please don't be so angry. After all, they are your subordinates who have been with you for so many years. Don't be afraid of me because of me. This new friend broke face with them."

After finishing speaking, Qin Yuan said politely to Jason's subordinates:

"Brothers, I'm sorry here. I didn't expect to cause so much trouble for you when I first came to you. I know that you don't have any malice towards me, it's just very serious. I feel sorry for your boss.

He is not only your good brother who was born and died, but I also regard him as my friend, so don't worry, I have no malice towards him.

She is so mean to me, I also feel that she will betray my brother.

I can understand all of your reactions to me. Let's go, you can continue to eat, I won't bother you anymore. "

After finishing speaking, Qin Yuan turned around and went out the door.

In fact, the turning against Jason's subordinates was not only one of the reasons why Qin Yuan had to hurry up and leave here.

The main reason is that he has obtained a large number of Pakistani languages in Pakistani magazines and newspapers. He must urgently need it now, and quickly summon his own one-key recovery system.

This language ability must be unlocked as soon as possible. Perhaps only after he unlocks this new language ability can he understand what they mean and find the breakthrough point of this matter.

Unexpectedly, after eating a meal, the sky outside is already completely bright.

It was already daylight on the sea now, and no matter what there was, he could see it very clearly.

Qin Yuan knew very well in his heart that now he had to hurry up and find the inside of the wooden box, and he must not be spotted by the sea patrols, otherwise he would be in trouble.

And at this time, Qin Yuan also thought of a problem.

If the transportation of this batch of arms is really related to Effie and the others, Effie and the others will never rest assured that Jason will transport such precious things alone.

Either there must be Effie's eyeliner on this ship, or there must be a secret monitoring system around this place that they can't get off.

In short, Effie and them are very cautious people, and it is absolutely impossible to let Jason and the others transport such an important thing alone.

Moreover, if Effie finds his trace, then the next thing may fall short.

Here at Qin Yuan, he feels that this matter is still very serious, so now he has to rush to the wooden box to talk to the system.

Qin Yuan was very athletic, even though he hadn't slept all day and night, he still got into the box as fast as he could.

At this moment, Qin Yuan completely hid herself, so that she could start this conversation with the system with confidence in the future.

"system, system"

"Ding Dong, hello host, long time no see, is there anything important you want to discuss with me?"

"I didn't expect to lose contact with you for such a long time. You were so polite when we met. Did you secretly upgrade yourself?"

"Ding Dong, I didn't expect the host, you are so smart, how did you find out that I secretly upgraded myself?"

"I'm just talking casually, don't take it to heart. By the way, I have a very important matter with you."

"Ding Dong, what is the important matter for the host?"

"You can help me check now, how much is my meritorious service worth?"

"Ding dong, the host's current contribution value is being queried..."

At this moment, Qin Yuan is very anxious. He is very anxious to acquire this language ability quickly.

"Ding dong, the host only has 40,000 merit points left. Excuse me, does the host want to use the current contribution value?"

"Of course, if you don't use the merit points, why would I call you out? I have a very important thing now, and I need you to help me."

"Ding dong, please tell the host."

"Now I need to acquire a new language ability. I know that according to the previous rules, it needs to be exchanged with a recovery system. As long as I exchange a book and it is in your grid, I can obtain the corresponding ability.

But I don't know if you still have this process after the system upgrade. If this is the process, then let's get started, I'm very tight on time now, don't waste my time. "

"Ding Dong, host, you are really smart. Our system has been upgraded, and things will change in the future. If you want to obtain new abilities, you need to directly exchange them with contribution points."

"Then help me find out, if I want to acquire the Ba language and fluent communication skills, how many merit points do I need?"

"Ding dong, if the host wants to gain access to the language system, he needs to obtain 50,000 points of merit, only to be able to unlock the language system to recycle the grid."

"You don't want me to borrow credit from you again, do you?"

"Ding dong, this system will not recommend any credit contribution value to the host. The reason why we have this function is mainly to facilitate the host to complete the task.

Of course, if your contribution value is very sufficient, of course you don't need this function. "

Qin Yuan was very angry, because he felt that the system had been upgraded to the point where he could quarrel with himself at this moment.

"I said, are you just mad at me on purpose?"

"Ding dong, the system doesn't understand what the host means, please ask the host to order again."

"Play stupid! Okay, now I'm going to activate the language recycling system."

"Ding Dong, may the host want to activate the language recovery system immediately?"

"Yes! Quickly, immediately, immediately!"

While talking to the system, Qin Yuan watched the movement on the deck outside all the time in the gap of the box, because he didn't want others to hear his system conversation.

If someone else found out, they would think they were crazy.

"Ding dong, activate the language recycling system. The current merit value is 50,000 points, and the current merit value of the host is 40,000 points. Would the host want to borrow 10,000 merit points?"

"Yes, hurry up!"

"Ding dong, okay, the language recovery system is being activated for the host. The current merit value of the host is zero. The loan credit contribution value is 10,000 points, and the remaining credit merit is only 90,000 points. The system warmly reminds, please host, in time Repaying meritorious deeds is only to increase your credit meritorious deeds."

After the system prompts, Qin Yuan immediately appeared a super large screen with a particularly large white grid in front of him.

It seems that this should be the grid of the language recycling system.

"Ding dong, asks the host to put the language system and related books that need to be recycled into the grid, and immediately unlock the new language system for you."

After Qin Yuan finished listening, he immediately put the Baguo magazines and those messy newspapers he had prepared into this white recycling box.

"Ding dong, the Pakistani language system is being unlocked for the host. The current system unlocking takes 10 minutes, and the countdown begins."

"It still takes 10 minutes, this time is too long. Forget it, but since this time has come, all I can do now is wait.

I have been here for so long, and I am still short of eight points. "

Qin Yuan is waiting for the system to be unlocked at this moment, but he never slacks up, he has been in the wooden box, carefully observing the comings and goings of the people on the deck.

But fortunately, only he can hear the sound of the system prompt, and no one else can hear it.

Chapter 1888: I understand everything now

Qin Yuan is patiently waiting for the system's completion prompt.

After a while, Qin Yuan heard the system's notification sound.

"Ding dong, the current task has been completed! Congratulations to the host for unlocking the world-class Ba language ability. You can communicate with Ba language fluently, and you can proficiently master the listening, speaking, reading and writing skills of Ba language."

"That's great. How can I prove that I can fully master the language of Pakistan? I have to try it out."

"Ding dong, the system reminds me that if the host wants to test whether he has mastered the Ba language, the host can try to say a few words."

"I still need you to remind me. It's so troublesome. I wonder if you think I'm a fool?"

Qin Yuan really couldn't help complaining.

However, although it was difficult for him to speak at this time, in fact, Qin Yuan had already started to say a lot of words silently in his heart.

Qin Yuan was able to say every single word in his heart so miraculously that even the miraculous Qin Yuan himself was surprised.

He couldn't help but exclaimed while hiding in the wooden box:

"This is too amazing. My God, it's incredible. It seems that I am really a man who is cheating. As long as I have the blessing of the system, I am not afraid of any difficulties I will encounter."

Immediately afterwards, Qin Yuan pondered in his heart that he was still very entangled and afraid about the matter of going to Ba.

Because, after all, Pakistan is a relatively mixed country, just imagine.

What good place can it be where all criminals abscond?

It should be said that the fear of the unknown should be something that everyone is afraid of.

After all, although Qin Yuan is an extraordinary person, he also has times when he faces the fear of the future.

But now, it can be said that everything is different.

Now I am simply invincible, and I will not be afraid of any storms.

Because, I have this one-click recovery system.

Qin Yuan now possesses world-class Ba language skills.

Just when Qin Yuan felt that he was already in high spirits, unexpectedly, a blow made Qin Yuan calm down instantly.

Because, just when Qin Yuan was proud, he suddenly remembered that he just borrowed 10,000 points of merit from the system in order to obtain this world-class Ba language ability.

Now I simply have nothing. If this is the case, then even if I have such a powerful system, it will be useless.

No, I have to try my best to get merit points, which is also my most urgent thing now.

At this moment, the system's prompt sound came to mind again.

"Ding Dong, is the host satisfied with the current service of this system?"

"It's okay, if your system helps me increase some merit points, or you don't need merit points to help me for free. In this case, I can say that I am very satisfied with you."

After Qin Yuan finished speaking, he also felt that what he said seemed to be a bit too much.

I can't even listen to myself.

"Ding Dong, I think the host thinks you are more beautiful than you are. There is nothing free in this world, and everything has a price. Please host, look at this world optimistically and correctly."

"This day, the whole thing is quite positive! Come on, I know that everything you do in the system will have a price."

"Ding Dong, does the host have anything else to do? If you have nothing else to do, then I will quit."

"Go!"

Qin Yuan was able to calm down.

Now that I have obtained the Ba language function that I have been thinking about, I feel a little relaxed at this moment.

Qin Yuan felt that he was very comfortable in this state, even though he was put in the box like a cargo.

However, this can be regarded as a rare and comfortable time for Qin Yuan, after all, he hasn't felt so relaxed for a long time.

It's not easy to have such a moment of relaxation, and this is also a rare time for Qin Yuan to enjoy.

Qin Yuan himself is very clear in his heart, maybe he should hurry up and listen to the sound he recorded at the dinner table now, but what. Now he is really sleepy and tired, Qin Yuan doesn't want to think about it so much now, he just wants to have a good rest in peace and quiet.

Although he is very clear that he has a lot of things that he has not done yet, but now he must give himself a very comfortable space and let himself relax for a while before he can arrange everything.

Because now his mind is also very chaotic. Although Qin Yuan still doesn't know what happened between Chen Jixiang and Fan Tianlei, his premonition is quite accurate. He always has an ominous premonition, and he can even feel the people around him. There are many secrets I keep from myself.

However, even so, Qin Yuan still doesn't want to think about it so much for the time being. After all, he has not rested for a day and a night, and he must still feel very tired with so many things in his mind. He just wants to have a good time now. Lie in this wooden box and sleep under the sunlight.

At this moment, the sun on the sea has risen, and it shines in through the gaps in the wooden box, feeling cozy and warm.

Just lying in the box on the deck like this, although I can't stretch my hands and feet, it is also a very good feeling to be able to enjoy the sea breeze and bask in the sunshine on the sea.

Although Qin Yuan is also very anxious now, he quickly figured out the content of what those people said in his recording, but he thinks it is better to take a rest at this time before talking.

Qin Yuan lay very comfortably in the wooden box, and just closed his eyes.

He could feel it, as if someone was walking around on the deck, but because he was too narrow in the wooden box, and the space was relatively limited, he didn't know what the situation was like now.

At this moment, the person walking around on the deck seemed to be slowly walking to the side of the ship, looking furtive.

Qin Yuan looked at this person's back, and suddenly felt very familiar.

After waiting for the man to turn around slowly, Qin Yuan could see his face clearly.

Qin Yuan's eyes widened with surprise.

Then, he whispered to himself in the wooden box alone:

"Chen Jixiang? What is he doing out here, haven't you already told the two of them? You can't come on the deck during the day.

Could it be that this kid followed him up to find him again? "

Qin Yuan thought about it again, but when he just came out of the cabin where they were sleeping, he found that Chen Jixiang and He Chenguang were both sleeping. Why did the two of them wake up just after I came out?

For some reason, Qin Yuan always had a bad feeling. He saw that the expression on Chen Jixiang's face was very solemn, which was completely different from the him he usually knew, who always had such a playful smile.

In front of him, he was like a little brother who was especially good at talking.

But seeing his expression on the deck today gave me a thoughtful feeling.

Qin Yuan was basically sure that Chen Jixiang was definitely not a simple character. And at this very moment, he had to hide things from himself. He set up things to hide things from He Chenguang.

Perhaps both of them were kept in the dark by this kid's words and deeds.

Qin Yuan has already started at this time, and there is no marginal reverie.

Could it be that Chen Jixiang is not a spy of the enemy?

The last time everyone went on a mission together, they didn't feel that there was anything wrong with him, but this time they could clearly feel that there was something very wrong with this kid.

Although he is very clever in doing things now, after all, he started at a relatively young age, and things are inevitably rough. If you have something in your heart that you are hiding from everyone, you can tell it at a glance.

Qin Yuan is just guessing now, he doesn't dare to believe that Chen Jixiang is the enemy's spy.

At this moment, Qin Yuan only blamed himself for not having the ability to see other people's minds. If he had such an ability, he would be the first to see whether the kid in front of him was a human or a ghost.

After waiting for a while, Qin Yuan thought that if He Chenguang could come out later, maybe Chen Jixiang should be innocent, and he should just come out to find himself to see what he was doing.

Don't call the three of them the self who fell asleep together, just come out and do what you want without telling the two of them.

If the two of them wake up and can't see themselves, they should be more anxious, so they will definitely come out to find themselves.

Qin Yuan also understood in his heart that although he thought so, another feeling in his heart was always not good, and he just used this feeling to comfort himself.

But after a while, He Chenguang still didn't come out.

There was only one Chen Jixiang on the deck from beginning to end.

Qin Yuan did not use this argument to convince himself.

What I can do now is to observe silently here, to see if he will send any secret message next. If he has such a move, immediately pin him to the deck.

Let's see what secret this kid has.

After observing for a while, Qin Yuan found that Chen Jixiang had indeed taken out one of his mobile phones. It was obvious that this mobile phone was not the one he usually used, but it should be the one similar to the elderly phone.

But what is he doing with his phone? Even if he wanted to contact his accomplices, there was no signal at sea.

If there is no signal, what method does he use to contact his accomplices?

Could it be that they passed, now that there is such a high-tech thing, it can be communicated by satellite signals?

Because, although Qin Yuan didn't see clearly what method they used to contact again, since he was able to take out such a device, it meant that he must be sending a message to the outside world.

But they haven't done anything else now, so what can he report to his accomplices?

Thinking of this, Qin Yuan couldn't help feeling a little brain-burned and sad.

Although he had already felt his side, as if there were a pair of eyes staring at him, but he never thought that the eyes beside him turned out to be his most trusted little fan.

If they really use satellite signals to communicate, it can only explain one problem, the technological level of their accomplices is quite advanced.

Qin Yuan really couldn't help thinking about who the accomplice Chen Jixiang contacted would be? Is it Effiete and the others?

Logically speaking, it should be impossible. If they were the accomplices who contacted Chen Jixiang, it would have been impossible to obtain such important clues from Effiete and the others.

Moreover, Qin Yuan was basically sure that he was not in the same group as them, but who was it?

At this moment, Qin Yuan is really urgent, wanting to know what kind of information and external contact happened to Chen Jixiang.

At this moment, how many people walked on the deck?

They talked and chatted.

Qin Yuan thought to himself, who could it be? Could it be the accomplice who just sent a message and they are chatting?

But after thinking about it, it probably wasn't. Even if they wanted to meet privately, they would definitely not choose to meet in such a public place. After all, Jason on the deck had already reminded them.

This is a very dangerous place. During the day, there will be patrolling people on the sea repeatedly. If it is discovered that a few of them are smuggling, there will be very serious consequences.

It is very likely that all the goods on this entire ship will be confiscated by them.

After all, sometimes these patrolling people use the official banner to wantonly search for property and valuables on ordinary ships.

It can be said that these people are legal pirates in name.

But fortunately, it was Jason and his men who came over.

As soon as Jason saw Chen Jixiang, he quickly smiled and said:

"Why are you here? It seems that you should have woken up, but what I want to remind you is that you are not in legal status. You should be regarded as stowaways here.

So you had better not come to the plywood during the day, I don't know if Qin Yuan has told you such details. But if I haven't told you, I will remind you now, and I don't mean to blame you. If you finish breathing, go back quickly.

If you want to come out to breathe, come out at night. "

Unexpectedly, when Chen Jixiang put it away, his serious expression just now was filled with a smile, and then he said relaxedly:

"I'm really sorry, Jason, I didn't think much of it. I just woke up from that underground cabin.

I just wanted to get out and get some air.

But I hope you don't blame me. I know that I can't wear a splint during the day.

Brother Qin Yuan once told us that this matter cannot be on deck during the day. "

Chapter 1889: The trial of 0 back and 0 turns

When Qin Yuan heard this, his heart suddenly tightened.

How can you say that? If he said that, then Jason would probably tell Chen Jixiang that he was hiding in a wooden box on the deck right now?

If Jason said that, he would be exposed.

If now he suddenly emerges from this wooden box and appears in front of Chen Jixiang.

Then he will feel extremely embarrassed.

Moreover, the most important and dangerous thing is that he will immediately find that what he just did has been exposed in front of Qin Yuan.

Then the two people, the mutual confrontation between the two sides and the feeling that the enemy and the enemy are in the dark, will be broken in an instant.

Then the cases between the two of them had to be shown to each other openly and honestly.

Qin Yuan thought to himself that now is not the time to tear up his face or confront him publicly.

Because he doesn't know who is behind Chen Jixiang at all.

Qin Yuan's nervous heart was beating so fast.

Unexpectedly, what Jason said made Qin Yuan put his excitement back into his stomach again.

Jason didn't smile and said:

"It's okay, I don't mean to blame you, I just want to remind you, since Qin Yuan has already told you about this matter, I won't emphasize it anymore.

But if you have already rested, almost, then you go back first. "

"But I don't know yet, where did Brother Qin Yuan go? I came out this time to find him. After all, he was no longer by my side when I woke up. I was worried that he was in danger. After all, you also know this cabin The environment here is full of people of all kinds, so I am also very worried.

I want to come out and take a look, because his temper is also not very good, sometimes he is impulsive, and I obeyed the order of our superiors to come out and watch him. Don't let him have any accidents. "

Jason's answer really reassured Qin Yuan by accident.

Jason still smiled and patted Chen Jixiang on the shoulder and said:

"It turned out to be like this. Did you not see Qin Yuan again after you woke up? Could it be that he went to the bathroom? Or you didn't see him after he went to other places for a while, but you can also see him on the deck." It's because you can see everything here, and he's not here."

Chen Jixiang said awkwardly:

"Um... Maybe I think too much, maybe he is in the toilet now, when I just came out, I recorded a toilet, and I felt like someone was inside, so I didn't knock on the door, because I didn't know if it was him. If it really wasn't him inside, I'm afraid it will cause another unprovoked war."

"You kid is really interesting and humorous when you talk.

If there is nothing to do in Nanyang, you should go back first, maybe you will be able to see him when you go back. "

"Yeah, brother Jason, if there's nothing else, I'll go back first, and I won't bother you anymore, bye!"

Qin Yuan watched Chen Jixiang helplessly in the wooden box, and after talking to Jason for a few words, he turned and left. Although he didn't hear clearly, it seemed that he should be able to guess what Chen Jixiang was talking about. Jixiang was asking Jason where he was going.

But it was obvious that Jason didn't tell where he was, and he was very grateful to Jason for taking him with him.

Because if he reveals his position to Chen Jixiang, after all, the child himself still can't fully trust him.

And I feel that this child is busy with a lot of secrets, and I will never be able to tell him everything 100%, including of course the thing that I hid in the wooden box.

Therefore, this matter should still be thanks to Jason. He is really quite interesting. He was able to come out from what he didn't want to. Considering that he didn't want others to know his position, this Jason really is a wise man.

Just as Qin Yuan was thinking about this matter and thanked Jason very much, Jason walked slowly to the wooden box where he was hiding, and then gently knocked on the box outside. Jason said:

"It seems that you are really hiding here. Even the young man beside you doesn't know that you can come out now. I saw that he has already turned into the cabin. He should not come out again, even if he comes out again. , He doesn't know that your Cangshan is in this box."

Qin Yuan smiled, and then said:

"I really should thank you for this matter, thank you for not telling the young man next to me where I was hiding, but if I can't come out now, I won't come out, after all, it's already dawn now.

What kind of trouble will it cause you if you come out and be seen by people patrolling the sea? After all, you already have a lot of things to worry about now, don't you? So I think one thing more is worse than one thing less. I'd better squint here honestly. "

After Jason heard this, he also had a thoughtful expression.

"What do you mean by that? Why do you say that I have a lot of troubles? I just transport some people to work in Pakistan. Apart from you, what else can I worry about? Do you know something? ?

Can you understand the language of Pakistan? If you don't understand, why are you asking me for those magazines? I have repeatedly told you which magazines have only text but no pictures.

If you don't know eight languages, it's useless for you to ask for these magazines, so you didn't tell me on purpose if you knew something, and what you said now is just hinting at me.

I didn't tell the young man next to you about your whereabouts, because I think you are my friend, and I regard you as a good friend at first sight.

No matter if you have anything else, I will not bother to talk to them. If you want to tell them, you may have told them already. If they don't know it now, it means that you are deliberately hiding it from them.

Since this is the case, then I will not talk too much. It is better for you to handle your own private affairs. Of course, if you know some of our private affairs, please do not interfere. It is better for us to handle them ourselves. "

Qin Yuan didn't understand enough, and Jason's words were implying that he shouldn't bother them to show off, but now he regards fitness as his best friend. There was no way he could just watch Jason and ruin his happiness like this.

Although Jason has made it very clear, Qin Yuan can be said to be a very stubborn person. He still wholeheartedly wants to intervene in Jason's affairs, so he said:

"Jason, I can understand your thoughts and actions. I also thank you for understanding that I don't tell the secrets of my place to the boys around me, but I have one thing that I must clarify with you. I don't understand Pakistan linguistic.

I can really assure you of this, and if I knew it, I wouldn't be so hoodwinked when you say something while you're eating.

But I don't intend to interfere with your own private affairs. After all, what you do is your own business, and I have no qualifications or rights to intervene. I just want to remind you not to do dangerous things. Haven't you already told me that you have a daughter? Please think about your daughter for him before you do anything.

If there is no father like you, what should he do in his future life? Although I don't know how old your daughter is or what kind of person your wife is, but I think a father is the head of the family, and a husband must think about his family before doing anything. Don't be impulsive. "

As soon as he mentioned his daughter's delivery, he had nothing to say, because this was his biggest weakness.

Jason said angrily:

"Of course what I'm doing now can be said to be what I'm doing. Everything is for my daughter. So I ask you not to interfere in our affairs. I am very clear and understand what I am doing. Even those dangerous things, like smuggling are not so dangerous, I have done it for many years, and I have never failed.

I believe that God is very kind to me, so I haven't had any problems for so many years.

Since I regard you as a good friend and have one thing, I should tell you about it.

It is true that I am doing a very dangerous thing, but I am doing it entirely for my daughter, and although you don't know about it, it may have something to do with you, after all, you are also on this boat, I I can also tell you bluntly that there is very important cargo on this ship.

But I think with your ability and ability, I'm afraid you already know that there are other things on my ship besides those people smuggled. "After listening to Jason's words, Qin Yuan hid in the wooden box without making a sound.

Jason, followed by a pressing question, said:

"It seems that my guess is right, you should already know."

Qin Yuan said in a low voice:

"Since you have treated me as your best friend and are open and honest with me, there is no need for me to hide from you and play stupid with you. It is because I know what kind of cargo is the important thing on your ship that I remind you , I am also kind.

I have to remind you that if you seek skin from a tiger, you will not benefit yourself, even if you make a deal with the devil, you will not get half of the benefits.

Maybe, sometimes you make a deal with the devil, and he can give you some immediate benefits in order to lure you away, but what you have to remember is that you never make a deal with the devil. When you take advantage, once you are caught by them If you lose your weakness and lifeline, you will be tightly controlled by them, and you will have no chance to escape. "

Jason sighed, then looked at the sea in the distance, trying to recall the process of making a deal with the devil.

Then he patted the wooden box and said:

"Do you know that these are the secrets you know? All of them are things you shouldn't know. If I don't care about the relationship between us, including Elena, I should put You took the whole box and threw it into the sea so that you should not reveal the secret, and completely shut your mouth."

Qin Yuan said in a gentle and calm tone inside the box:

"I just knew you wouldn't do that, and he insisted you were a good man. That's why I dared to tell you all the things I know, if you wanted to.

You can explain it to me, or I can help you figure out a solution. After all, you also know that my identity is not that simple. Everyone is on the road and who doesn't know who? Maybe if you name this man I can help you. "

"Since you know how dangerous it is, why do you still have to get involved? It won't do you any good, even though we are all on the road.

However, I don't want to transfer you to this turmoil, because I am also very aware of how dangerous it is to do this. Maybe it is beneficial to stand at a low price from the beginning, but next time or next time, The next time there will always be a rollover, I am very clear in my heart. "

Qin Yuan also took a sigh of relief. He felt very sympathetic to Jason at this moment.

"It seems that you are also very clear about what you have done now. Then why do you have to join their team? Can't you refuse him if you know the danger?"

"I can't say no to them, no matter what I do, it's for my daughter. Maybe you can't understand this feeling at all, because you don't have children now, and you don't have a family. After you become a father, you know what to do. What a great thing it is to be a father, I can give to my daughter, everything I have, including my life."

Qin Yuan naturally felt very warm and moved by the relationship between their father and daughter.

However, he belongs to the morality of his friends, and he now has to remind Jason that he is doing something very dangerous.

"Jason, I think you should think about it carefully. After all, this matter is really serious now, and it's not as simple as you imagined. Do you know who is doing this business with you?"

After listening to Qin Yuan's words, Jason also began to think hard about whether he had any loopholes.

He looked around and saw no one, and after confirming that no one was eavesdropping. He knocked on the wooden box and said to Qin Yuan:

"If you really want to know the answer, this is definitely not a place to talk."

"Are you going to tell me the truth and tell me who is doing business with you?"

Chapter 1890: Are you going to keep hiding it from me?

Jason said:

"Then hurry up and come out now, so I can tell you clearly face to face."

At this moment, Qin Yuan felt very embarrassed about this matter. He felt that if he came out now, it would definitely affect Jason and his actions. If his things were discovered by others, it would definitely bring Jason and them come to trouble.

"I can't go out now. If I go out and be discovered by the remaining patrolling people, wouldn't it cause you trouble? The reason I told you this is because I want to help you. But if I don't If it can help you, but bring you trouble instead, then this matter is meaningless.

If there is nothing else, let's talk about it here. It would be better to clarify things earlier. "

Jason felt very helpless with Qin Yuan's approach, because he felt that this matter was of great importance, and if he wanted to speak clearly, he had to speak face-to-face.

"It doesn't matter, I won't be afraid that you will hurt me. And we can find another hidden place to solve this matter. There is no need to stay in the photo album all the time. Not only will it not help me, but it will cause me harm anyway. difficulty."

The main reason why Qin Yuan doesn't want to go out now is because he hasn't heard the contents of the recording clearly yet.

Now that he has managed to acquire the Pakistani language, fluent, and unimpeded communication functions, it would be a pity if he gave up now, and the top priority now, he mainly wants to find out who are in the recording of the phone What important things were said.

Qin Yuan thought for a long time, and he thought of a very compromise method, that is. He himself is staying in the box and waiting until night when he goes to find Jason in the secret capital.

It is best to understand the two of them, but if they are not clear, it will not affect future actions.

Qin Yuan thought for a long time in the box, and then said to Jason:

"How about this, I thought of a very compromise method, that is. I will stay in the box and wait until no one checks at night. In the future, I will come out secretly or go to your room to meet the two of us alone. Make this matter clear.

Now that you don't know my identity, you are willing to tell me everything, that is simply not easy.

Aren't you afraid that I'm a bad guy or an undercover agent sent from somewhere to trick you?

Jason, you have been on the road for so long, don't you understand the truth? Are you really not afraid that I will hurt you? Sometimes I worry about myself more. "

Jason, stood outside the box and smiled, then said:

"From the first time I saw you, I knew you were a good person, and I felt that I didn't meet you so late. I felt very sorry and very lucky. Unfortunately, I really knew you. Your time is too late, we missed a lot of things, but luckily I was able to know you, and from now on I have another life-and-death friend."

At this moment, Qin Yuan has really completely regarded Jason as his good friend again and set up a relationship closer than He Chenguang. After all, He Chenguang is still the object of his suspicion.

I can't trust him completely now, and I have been with him for many years, but now that so many things have happened, I can't trust him completely.

Qin Yuan pondered for a long time, then he asked again:

"Today's matter, I just said what you think about it, if you agree, then I will stay in this box honestly, and I will definitely not cause trouble for you.

Then when the moon is dark and the wind is high, no one checks, I will go to you secretly in the future, so that no one will disturb us, I think you should not want too many people to know about the things between us . "

Qin Yuan was thinking in his heart that he had already said this, and it seemed that Jason would not refuse himself, because he had no reason to refuse.

Sure enough, Jason said at this time:

"It seems that you are really thinking about me, so if this is the case, then do as you said, you stay in the box honestly and don't come out, after all, sometimes it really hurts. Someone came to inspect. If your things are found or our smuggling is exposed, then things will be difficult.

So you stay here now. As for your two friends, I will help you explain to them, otherwise they will definitely think that you are missing or thrown into the sea by me. "

Qin Yuan smiled and said to Jason:

"Then I'd like to thank you very much. You can help me think about the two of them. But there is one thing that I suddenly remembered."

"What do you remember?"

"Today, my little brother asked you about my whereabouts and you didn't reveal my whereabouts to him. I thank you very much. From that moment on, I knew that you would be my good friend for the rest of my life. I didn't make you a friend in vain."

"It's all easy, you don't need to tell me specifically, thank you. If there is nothing else, you can stay here honestly, and I will help you convey your whereabouts."

"Yeah, okay, then you go, see you tonight."

"See you tonight, but I remembered again, you haven't eaten anything today, if you keep hearing that you don't eat at night, I'm afraid you will faint from hunger."

If you have time, I'll come over and feed you some food. "

When Qin Yuan heard this, he really felt a black thread.

"I have now become an animal you raised. But it's okay, I won't argue with you so much now, since this is the case, then do as you say, after all, I don't want it either, sir Before the night came, I was already starved and fainted when I got out of this box."

Jason turned around and left the place while smiling, now only Qin Yuan was left in the wooden box, and he was completely sleepy inside.

He immediately took out his mobile phone, ready to listen to the recordings he recorded himself.

Because in fact, he has long been very eager to know what these people are talking about.

He just feels that it's a pity that when he heard those people speaking Pakistani language on the deck of the bow, I must have something related to arms, but he didn't understand and didn't record it, but now he I really can't remember what they said, and now I have mastered this language by myself.

Qin Yuan took out the phone carefully, and then turned the volume of the phone to the minimum first.

Then he started to play the recording, and leaned close to his ear, listening carefully.

Now he can hear all the things said in this recording clearly.

It's just that Qin Yuan has been listening for a few minutes but has no effective information. It's these Jason's subordinates who are complaining about him.

The approximate content of the recording is as follows:

"I think this person is just a kid. He has no experience at all. I don't know why our boss believes him so much and brought him to our private place. Usually when I first saw him, I was very nervous. I really hate that he still comes to eat with us today, it's really a headache, it's annoying to death."

"I think that's why the boss values him so much. We haven't gained so much trust from the boss for so many years. It's simply too unfair to get so much trust from him just by meeting him for the first time."

"I think you two should stop talking. Since the boss wants to believe him, there must be a reason for the boss. What's the matter if we intervene here? If the boss is really angry, he will definitely put us kicked out."

"Boss, I really don't know what he thinks now. Why did he cooperate with this person to engage in arms? We used to be together, and smuggling was at most a small business. Although we didn't earn much, we could at least guarantee Our security boss has now started playing with arms.

Does he know what the consequences will be if this fails? "

"Perhaps the boss really wants to take another path now. He is already at ease. After so many years, he is now middle-aged and has to think about himself. And he has a daughter who is waiting for him to use money for medical treatment. Woolen cloth.

But when we think about Yaya, we may also feel how much pressure the boss is under. He can't just watch his daughter die like this, so we don't even think about it, he will definitely do it of.

After all, I have been his boss for so many years, and I know his character very well. "

At this time, there was silence in the recording, probably because Jason's daughter Yaya was mentioned for a while, and everyone was in a very bad mood.

One of the things Qin Yuan is most curious about now is what kind of illness does his married daughter have that made him work so hard? Regardless of their own safety, they have to make deals with the devil.

In fact, Qin Yuan wanted to find out from the very beginning if Jason and the others were working with Effiete and the others.

It's just that this answer should not be important to him now, maybe the person Jason is working with is Effiete and the others. After all, they are now trying to sit on this deal between country H and Pakistan, and I believe it must have something to do with the secret underground arms system they learned about before.

At this time, most of the complaints and useless words were lightened, and some useful information began.

"However, when it comes to this arms dealer, I am a little curious now. Why did he find us? Although we are the biggest smugglers at the pier now. But the more people like this, the more difficult it is to mess with.

Why did he find us? Does he know that our boss is very short of money and needs their help? "

"It must be because of them that they can find us. This is the same for us now. I guess what I am more worried about now is the boss's comfort. He is also terrified when he does this kind of thing for the first time.

You also know that since Yaya got sick, the boss hasn't been on a boat with us for a long time.

Although we are on this line, the road has already been opened, and no one will stop us and check the goods on our ship, but after all, it is the first time we do this kind of thing, and we are still terrified.

I can also see that the boss is very nervous. "

"What can the boss do if he is nervous? Since this matter has been done, there must be a way to run to the dark, and there is no room for retreat.

First of all, let's not talk about how much the munitions on our ship are worth, even if they are caught by other people, we will always take the lead.

Everyone here who has no relatives or parents, if we are in the dormitory, what should they do? "

At this time, Jason's voice came to mind in the recording.

It should be that Jason brought Qin Yuan to their secret stronghold.

After they heard these voices, they didn't speak any more. The rest were some rough voices, which were just talking about why Qin Yuan was able to gain Jason's trust all of a sudden. He must not be a good person. It seems that everyone very repulsive to him.

Thinking of this, Qin Yuan lowered his head and smiled, feeling that he had really become the enemy of ten thousand people.

However, it can be accurately analyzed from their information, it seems that the person who cooperates with them is likely to be Effiete and the others.

Because, besides Effie and them, no one else in this neighboring country is doing this kind of thing, but why did they suddenly send a batch of arms to Pakistan?

Qin Yuan basically already knows the general information. What he is most anxious to know now is what kind of goods are there and how many are there?

Because he has been watching them carry goods on the deck, only saw that there were probably a lot of things, but he didn't know the exact quantity. Maybe he could judge the situation by the quantity of goods. How big is the deal, or what is this deal for?

However, Qin Yuan himself is currently trapped in this wooden box and cannot get out at all. If he wants to get out, it will be very difficult.

But just now she seems to have gotten a message from the recording, that is Jason, they have already opened up, and there is a high probability that no one will come to check the joints on the sea.

So if he wants to go out now, it is relatively safe.

However, Qin Yuan is still very hesitant now, after all, he just went to learn Jason's invitation. If he ran out secretly, wouldn't it arouse their suspicion again?

However, if you don't go out to find out, you will always have doubts in your heart, which is not conducive to the next step.
