

Special Soldier 1891

Chapter 1891: Uninvited guest at sea

Just when Qin Yuan hesitated repeatedly, what he didn't expect was that he seemed to vaguely hear that someone outside was really intercepting the boat he was on.

Qin Yuan was so frightened that he had to lower his head and squint just as he wanted to stand up and take action.

I thought in my heart to see the situation outside before deciding whether to go out or not.

After all, if you go out rashly, you can't say what will happen.

Qin Yuan hid like this, quietly listening to the movement outside in the wooden box on the deck.

At this time, Qin Yuan really held his breath and didn't even dare to make any sound. Qin Yuan was very angry. He secretly wondered when he had been wronged like this, really.

If he hadn't had to wait here for the next news, how could he be wronged like this? It really doesn't fit my identity, thinking that I am still an expert in cheating with this one-piece recovery system.

It's really hard to say how to suffer this kind of uselessness on this deck.

At this moment, Qin Yuan seemed to hear two people talking on the deck, as if he was also questioning who on the boat below stopped them, and the voices that stopped talking should be the two men who were working out , Of course, those two people who spoke ill of themselves behind their backs.

They also seem to be questioning this sudden change.

After a while, one of the subordinates hurriedly said:

"Now I don't know what's going on below, logically speaking, we have already cleared up all the links, and normally no one will come to intercept our ship.

But now that there is such an unexpected situation, we have to explain it. It seems that we must report to the boss. Have you ever seen traces of the boss. "

"How can I see the trace of the boss? He just came out after eating and went somewhere with that kid. I haven't seen him until now. Now there is no signal in this place. It is impossible for us to contact him." There is no way to contact him, so it can't be said that he went to the bathroom, or where did he go with that kid? How do I know that if you can find it, go find it quickly."

"I said, why do you get so much resentment every day, you are just like that jealous little girl.

Boss, it's just that you just met a new friend who is more trustworthy and likes this friend, so you treat this person like our enemy. He always speaks ill of him behind his back. Now facing such an urgent situation, you don't follow him. Boss report, do you want to make a claim? You still want to rebel? "

"I don't have as much thought as you. What I just think now is that there is no need to go to the boss to see who is coming. If he really wants to search our ship forcibly, then we must not agree.

And now the boss doesn't know where he went, but no matter where he goes, he will never leave the ship. If he leaves the ship, we don't know where to find him. Now he can clearly feel Our ship has already stopped. If he finds anything wrong, he will come over immediately. You don't need to worry here. "

Unexpectedly, the other subordinate, he is a little angry now, he said very angrily:

"Do we have time to think so much now? What we have to think about now is what should we do if he wants to search? There are so many mysterious things on our ship, can they withstand their repeated searches?

You are really thinking about things too simply.

Many things are not as simple as you think, so don't waste your time here, just hand over this matter quickly. "

"I don't want to go to the boss to see him anymore, and he was criticized by me again. If you want to go, go."

"It seems that you are really rebellious now, no one can order you except the boss..."

Just when these two people had a very serious quarrel, Jason came up from behind unexpectedly, and then he scolded his two subordinates as he walked:

"What are you two arguing about? A small incident happened. You two are chattering here. I don't know that any conflicts between us are internal conflicts. Now someone has come to our boat. This is our accident. , you don't report to me immediately, are you still chattering here because you want to wait until things get out of hand, and then it's too late to save him, you guys want to mend the situation."

It seems that Jason's words are more effective. With his strong aura, the two subordinates who immediately shouted after he moved up did not continue to argue. The two of them calmed down. After a while, Jason said:

"Look, what is the situation now? Who is coming?"

One of the subordinates shook his head with a masked face and said:

"I don't know who they are, but they suddenly rushed up and stopped our ship. They must come to our ship to inquire about news with us in a while. How should we deal with it?"

Jason sighed and said:

"There is nothing to deal with. Don't panic and don't worry. Things are definitely not as complicated as you imagined. The next thing is left to me to do. You just need to protect our goods and don't talk nonsense. .

The most important thing is not to let those stowaways come out of the cabin. If they are exposed, then what we are doing will be useless. "

While talking, Jason looked at the wooden box on the deck. After all, there was another important task inside, which was Qin Yuan.

Jason thought that if Qin Yuan's box was given to him now, then no one would notice it. After all, if he was moving goods when they came up, it shouldn't arouse their suspicion.

So, Jason glanced at the wooden box, then turned around and said to his two subordinates:

"You two go now and put that wooden box in a hidden place for me or move it away, or hide it with something, in short, don't let me see it, there are very important things inside. It must not be discovered by those on board."

Just as the two subordinates were about to handle the wooden box, the person whose origin was unknown at that moment had already boarded the boat.

Unexpectedly, the uninvited guest at this moment spoke the Ba language.

It's just that what he didn't expect was that Qin Yuan could fully understand their language now, and could communicate with them very fluently.

Although Jason didn't have Qin Yuan's ability, he was able to understand a few words in the country's language. The translation was that these people were asking what they were doing very confidently.

Jason said in Pakistani language:

"It turned out to be two officers, what's going on inside?"

Qin Yuan heard the other side, the group said:

"There is nothing else. We are patrolling this sea. You have officially sailed into the high seas. Now you will soon be in the situation of our Pakistan. Don't you know this when you have already arrived in other countries? Are there any rules in it?"

It stands to reason that people who come to our waters must provide some relevant certificates to prove whether you are a passenger ship or a cargo ship to prove the purpose of your coming to our country. Has no one told you before? "

When Qin Yuan heard this, he suddenly realized that he wanted to board the boat for profit.

Jason must know better in his heart what the purpose of coming up at this moment is. Although he hates people like them in his heart, there is no other way. After all, you have to do things in obedience to other people's words.

If you don't obey them, then there's nothing they can do to make your clothes turn upside down, so now Jason can only say very politely:

"Understood sir, I have been running all kinds of goods or soliciting customers in this sea area for more than ten years. I understand your rules. I must have reported to your relevant department before I came here. Yes. The procedures must be complete, and we dare not deceive you even if we are bold."

One of them said proudly:

"If I remember correctly, there is a saying in your place called empty talk without proof. Since you have already opened up all links with us, or your procedures are very complete, then show it to prove it Let's go.

Since we uploaded it, we want to find out your purpose and goods.

If you give Fang away without knowing why, this is a matter of our work, so what kind of things can you have? Hurry up and we will check it immediately. If you don't have relevant procedures, then we can do it It's time for a customary search of your ship. "

When Jason heard this, he must have been a little flustered. After all, there are too many secrets on his ship that others cannot know about me, but he is very puzzled now. The relevant departments have communicated well, and no one will come to check on me. Why do people suddenly rush to the ship in such an angry, arrogant and ruthless manner to ask for various procedures?

At this time, Jason's men said:

"Boss, our procedures are all placed in a room in the cabin. If you want it, we will find it now."

Jason naturally knew very well in his heart what kind of purpose their group had, they were just taking advantage of the fire, but he still had to do the superficial work himself.

Now that I have been on this road for more than ten years, it is impossible not to prepare related things. After all, sometimes it is necessary to be just in case, but the pick-up is lucky. He has already prepared what these people want to see The superficial things, so he ordered his men to hurry to the cabin to get them.

"That's right, I put all the formalities required by the officers in my drawer in our cabin, you can go and get them now.

By the way, there are still some things in the drawer on my second floor, please bring them here for me by the way. "

Qin Yuan silently listened to Jason's approach to them in the box.

Thinking in my heart, it seems no wonder that Pakistan is a very chaotic place. Not only are their management chaotic and their personnel chaotic, but there are so many people who want to take advantage of the fire at sea.

But it's understandable when you think about it. After all, the situation in their country is so chaotic. If everyone ignores me and actually benefits for themselves, it will be difficult to survive if this best opportunity is missed.

However, Qin Yuan is still very worried at this moment. He doesn't know what the purpose of this group of people is. If they just want some benefits, it's okay to solve it. If they meet someone who is really stern and selfless Be sure to spot check their words, then he will be in danger.

At this time, Jason was still trying to talk to the other party's group, and planned to give them some benefits.

"Sirs, it's really hard work. Why don't you sit in my room for a while and get you some water to drink. Have any of you eaten yet? If you haven't eaten, come to us and deal with it."

I didn't expect that these people really couldn't say enough. No matter what Jason said to them, they always looked serious, and their tone and affection were very unkind.

At this time, Jason complained and said:

"What should I do with this subordinate? How uneasy it is, it is so difficult for him to get something. I have to make several officers wait here. I will punish him when I come back later."

Qin Yuan could hear Jason's words pointing at Sang Sang and Huai Huai, so he secretly covered his mouth and laughed in the wooden box.

But what surprised him even more was that Jason actually scolded people in his native language.

Qin Yuan thought to himself that Jason was really very angry.

Unexpectedly, at this time, this group of unkind people asked Jason instead:

"What did you say in your language just now? If I don't understand, is probably scolding us or saying something nice."

Jason quickly explained in Pakistani language:

"How dare I? I'm just talking to my subordinates. Our private affairs will never mean disrespect to the officers."

At this embarrassing moment, Jason's men rushed to the deck with all kinds of fake documents and procedures they had prepared in advance.

"Boss, all the things you want in the drawer are here. This should be the procedure they want. Let the officers have a look."

It was obvious to Qin Yuan that when this subordinate gave Jason something again, there were a few hearts at the bottom of the dozens of documents, and these envelopes should contain what they wanted.

At this time, one of the officers took over the various documents in Jason's hand, and then carefully flipped through the serious expressions on his face, not knowing what he was thinking.

Chapter 1892: It was him, I read that right

In fact, Qin Yuan was also very frightened at this time, not knowing what direction the next thing would develop.

Although Qin Yuan now knows that Jason should have no problem dealing with this matter, but for some reason, Qin Yuan always has a premonition that he doesn't want to.

In case of a cold-faced judge, the cargo on the ship would really be wiped out.

Jason is also about to face a big event.

At this moment, Jason on the deck outside the wooden box was also very nervous, because this group of people, all of whom he had never touched before, including these officers, looked very unfamiliar to him, and he didn't know these people. Who is it.

If they really want to deliberately embarrass themselves, then they have no way to deal with it.

After a while, Jason couldn't bear it anymore and asked:

"Excuse me, sir? How is the inspection going? Are there any mistakes or omissions in our information? If there is something wrong, you have to remind us immediately."

In fact, I feel that I am also tentatively asking, what is going on?

Unexpectedly, at this time, the chief who went through all their procedures found the envelope. The envelope contained a number that no one could refuse.

However, now Jason simply knows that He Penggui doesn't have such an important contact information, so I can only hide myself in silence now, after all, I have no way to doubt the two people around me now.

That way, I can't know it right away, the news of the secret munitions system on the ground can't save Qin Yuan, and I can also perform well in front of He Penggui, which makes me trust him even more. .

At that time, the officers looked at our procedures for a while and said:

Qin Yuan, my heart is not flustered at this moment, but I am still calm on the surface, and said calmly:

After all, as I said in my hand, we have been running that route for more than ten years. Basically, there has never been a situation like today, but today's situation happened just in time for our first delivery of something as important as arms. It was indeed not abnormal at all when it appeared, but before we came down, there were no seven places to observe, and there was no search. It just gave some disadvantages, and we accepted it on the surface and left, but it must be nothing else. Purpose, what are we doing that for?

At the very least, we have received the disadvantages at most, and then we will embarrass ourselves again after accepting the disadvantages, and we must check the things under the boat. After all, we are in a very guilty state now, and we must check the things under the boat for sure. In this way, our loss today will be small.

"You know that he is very worried about you now, and he doesn't believe in that matter, but he needs to take it easy now, and you can come out before it's late, after all, if there is no time, you will get confused if you take too long .

First I knocked twice, and then I said without a loud voice:

Qin Yuan thought to himself, forget it, he can take that risk today, after all, he has just experienced a very safe incident, the most important thing now is not the ammunition under the boat, and now he is about to reach the state of Ba.

Qin Yuan's other hand also said angrily:

So we should still be cautious, so that we can be caught by others at that critical moment.

At that time, Chen Jixiang, who was asleep on the cabin, had just woken up.

It's just that there is no way to contact us with the wooden box now.

Moreover, in Jason's eyes, Fan Tianlei was definitely still an undercover agent, so he was even more trustworthy.

Qin Yuan looked at these officers and found that the colors behind the new Feng family were mixed, which showed that the things contained in this envelope were quite effective.

I am afraid that such previous events will definitely be messed up at some critical juncture. The most fearful thing is not to mess up. So now I have to hide that matter and find He Peng secretly.

If there is no last time, you will definitely let it go so easily.

Jason was outside He Chenguang, listening to that very seriously,

Now I am very worried that Qin Yuan will go to some extremes, because I know what kind of predicament he will face next. I am sure that if Qin Yuan really does that, it is very unlikely that he will cause trouble to his lower body. After all, what I want to transport is munitions. It's a special thing, if it must be nothing but Xiaohai, then my life is really impossible to save.

It's just that the two of us haven't agreed on a time to be honest with each other, and explain the ins and outs of that matter a little bit. At that time, it's just that I want to give myself advice.

Jason was also thinking about Qin Yuan crazily outside He Penggui. I am very embarrassed about the question now, because I just heard the information from the conversation between my two hands. Jason's keen sense of smell also made me quickly realize that the matter was definitely not that complicated.

"Although our purpose was that, it didn't feel like it was too much of a coincidence that time. The management of Pakistan is very chaotic in all aspects, but you have been running on the line under the sea, and you have been running so much Boy, have you ever changed people, even if you change people infrequently, we have greeted each other internally.

Fan Tianlei looked at He Penggui with a smile on his face and said:

Qin Yuan heard it, we can finally say that, let's relax a little bit.

I thought that as soon as I woke up, I saw Fan Tianlei sitting next to me and staring at him.

What Jason still knows now is that Fan Tianlei holds a very important communication channel outside his hand.

However, the most important thing now is that they have to mess around first. There is still no conclusion about what is going on. The weather looks like there should be no fog. "

"You just woke up, you watched him sleep outside, he didn't feel super happy."

Maybe help yourself to think about whether everything that happened today was a coincidence? Or is it another conspiracy?

But I definitely want to find it, Jason said.

"You said his eldest son was sleeping. What is he doing sitting there outside? It's going to scare you."

Only then did Qin Yuan relax his mind. He took a long breath of relief and did not dare to make too small a sound, but at this moment, I must slow down the need and express my own pressure.

I was looking at Qin Yuan at this moment, and I was thinking about that matter with my head held high. Several possibilities flashed through my mind quickly. It's abnormal, it's considered abnormal, but it can only be said to be a very coincidence.

Jason heard Qin Yuan's words, which also coincided with my thoughts. So I also followed He Peng's words, knocked on the box, and gave me a response, letting me know that I haven't understood the idea yet.

"You see, we didn't come down here on purpose to find fault. We left after changing around there. That's obvious. We just want to get some bad things out of you?"

Jason thought to himself that I must find an opportunity, so he persuaded He Peng badly.

Forget it, don't care what time I am, you should get to your destination very slowly before getting up and going to the toilet to sleep, but you want to stay in that place for too long and you will change your whole body Became a fool. "

It's just that the two of us are hiding too little from each other now. If we are sure that the two of us can communicate and grasp each other's information like this, it is very unlikely that the current predicament will be resolved.

Thinking about it then, it's not over yet to step into the safe boundary.

"You have taken a quick look at their mobile phones, and there is basically no problem with their mobile phones. You must pass the things you need, and they basically have them, so you will make things difficult for them.

Before He Peng heard the sound of the box, I hastily walked back to the side in my hand.

"What is his big brother thinking? I can hope that people will be bad all day long. I should go out and be with this He Peng and us. I don't care about it. My survival ability is super weak. Even if it fell into the small sea, it would be dead.

What Qin Yuan is waiting for now is not the sky, as long as the sky is white, we can't, the important information will be gathered together

On the way, and then by the way, I will study badly with my new retired teacher Jason, what is going on.

It is definitely to let my hands know, after all, my hands are too disgusting, I am not afraid that there is no other conspiracy behind that matter.

But that time, no group of people got off your boat. Although we had no other purpose, we just wanted some money, but you always feel that there is no such thing as a coincidence, old man, he thinks Woolen cloth? "

After checking for a while, people can basically get what they want, so they easily let us go.

At that moment, Qin Yuan remembered that it was okay, he couldn't consult his new Jason first.

You told him first, and then you got up to go to the bathroom, that crappy place was so crowded and stuffy. I really want to have a breath of air under the deck, there is no light at all in that place, and you know what time it is.

Maybe that group of mysterious people is observing your actions in the dark. Although you are also very anxious now to discuss today's events with him, you still have to be cautious 1: You must be caught Others seize the handle, and if he listens to Hanhu, he will knock on the box and give you a response. "

"Boss, what should you do next? Those goods..."

It must be known by our own hands, I am afraid we will panic and choose a way, that is too good for us to continue with the previous plan, and we must not panic in our own hands.

At that time, He Peng and some of my hands were still standing below the deck, did they have any reaction?

Chen Jixiang rolled his eyes, and then said:

Although it was Qin Yuan who said it like that, he hadn't panicked in his heart long ago and chose his way, but I was able to show it, after all, all the people under the boat were supported by me.

Qin Yuan seems to have a feeling of lack of understanding with Jason. I can feel that He Peng heard everything about us outside He Chenguang at this moment. It is not a little slow to be a human being, but now I am It was necessary to inform the other party immediately that there was so little to worry about, and the two of us would meet again before evening, so Qin Yuan hurriedly walked up to this He Chenguang.

At that time, Qin Yuan said again:

Jason saw that those were the sudden visitors, and before leaving slowly, he finally breathed a sigh of relief.

"Happiness? He scared you out there. Both of you haven't slept yet. Why is He Peng? Did I go out again before I woke up, or went to the toilet? ?"

However, some things are still too compliant, and they also need their own fans to come up. Where am I, and you guys let them pass today.

"The goods under the ship, you should put them like that first, whether the group of people came down and searched your ship just now shows that your goods have not been exposed, and I am sure if we want to do something by sending it down again.

Because after all, you belong to the territory of Pakistan, and you don't have your own rules. I hope they can understand that they are deliberately embarrassing someone, but what must be lost is still lost. "

"You haven't gone out just now, and you know what happened if you found me. Since you fell asleep, you also knew that I was asleep before, and then you didn't see me when you went out just now. You asked the owner of the ship Qin Yuan, I said I didn't see it, it must have been thrown overseas."

Chen Jixiang was surprised at first, and then quickly said in a lazy tone:

But after all, that group of people suddenly rushed off the boat just happened. Even if Qin Yuan is slow now, I dare to go to Jason right away.

While talking about Chen Jixiang, he carefully got up and prepared to go to the next bathroom, is afraid of bumping into the person sleeping next to him. I have to analyze all the pros and cons with me before making a decision must be something that can make me act impulsively.

"Actually, there's nothing wrong with it. If you really find nothing unusual, you throw all the ammunition back to Xiaohai. You can find it if you want to search outside. Did you just say that you will spend some money?"

It's just a pity that now I have no way to contact the inner world, especially with the wooden box we

Contact, if I am sure that I can contact the wooden box now, I will immediately intercept those arms.

At that time, one of the hands asked very slowly:

After a while, Qin Yuan arranges his hands to be busy with his own affairs, and I have to keep a close eye on all the movements under the sea, and if I don't care about it, I have to react immediately.

One of He Peng's hands said willingly:

You just hand over the stowaways on the cabin and hand over some people or things, which is worse than handing over your most important things.

Chapter 1893: test your boy

In fact, He Chenguang was still curious about where Qin Yuan had gone.

On the surface, He Chenguang wanted to go to the bathroom, but in fact he just wanted to find out where Qin Yuan was.

After all, the two of them hadn't seen each other for a long time at this time, and he didn't know any information since he woke up, and he could always clearly feel that there seemed to be some other very important cargo on this ship.

But he is also very curious about what this product is and his life. He must not allow himself to have so much information. He doesn't know that he must know everything about this item as quickly as possible.

This is his acumen as a veteran and a spy who has been on missions for so many years.

But now it was daytime outside after all, and they had experienced Jason's instructions. The most important thing was that Jason had told them more than once not to go on the deck during the day.

What's more, He Chenguang at this moment, he didn't know what happened on the deck outside just now, and what he didn't know was that a group of uninvited guests just came on board to find trouble.

He Chenguang actually doesn't want to go to the bathroom at all right now. What he wants to know most is all the information on the car. After all, he now knows very well that if it takes a little longer, the ship will have arrived in Pakistan. Then everything will not be easy to handle.

So now he had to plan his actions quickly.

What kind of method should be used to find out quickly and accurately, and very covertly, what is the cargo on this ship?

Now He Chenguang is facing the same problem as Qin Yuan, neither of them can speak Ba language.

This is the biggest difficulty for them to complete the task now.

At this time, He Chenguang had already walked to the side of the bathroom. Unexpectedly, after a day of sailing, the bathroom was already smelly.

Before opening the door and contracting, I was almost so smothered by the smell that I vomited out all the meals I had eaten for decades.

He covered his mouth and whispered to himself:

"Is this still a place where people live? It's no different from a pig. I didn't expect that one day I would have to go through such a humiliating experience. But fortunately, the boat has been sailing for a day now, and it's almost time to wait for two days and two nights." We can reach our destination."

And what makes him uncomfortable in any morning light is not only the dilapidated environment, but what makes him even more unbearable is that he has no way to communicate with the outside world, because there is no signal at all on the sea.

His mobile phone is no different from a brick now, and it doesn't work at all.

In fact, at this moment, he was very anxious.

He was very anxious to get in touch with the outside world, not knowing what purpose he had.

Now among them, the only one who can get in touch with the outside world is Chen Jixiang.

It's just that the three of them haven't communicated with each other now, and each of them doesn't know what their purpose is. They just keep busy doing big things like this, and everyone has their own purpose.

He Chenguang resisted the smell of the toilet, and after going to the toilet, he planned to go to the deck to inquire about some news.

If you can inquire about the news logically, that is of course the best, but if you can't succeed, you can also find a very good reason for yourself.

Just do it, He Chenguang has already decided.

So, after he came out of the bathroom, he hurried to the deck.

He Chenguang walked to the deck cautiously and furtively, for fear that others would find his trace.

Unexpectedly, as soon as he came out of the cabin and walked onto the deck, he saw some sunshine and felt the beauty of the sun when he found that Jason's men were staring at him closely.

After He Chenguang, he said embarrassingly:

"Hi~"

Jason's subordinates gave him a hard look, and then said in a very calm, unkind tone, with some reproach:

"Our boss should have explained to you, if there is no unexpected situation, don't come on this deck. And shouldn't he have told you?"

Especially don't come to the plywood during the daytime, you need to know your identity, you are stowaways without a reasonable identity, now there are people coming to inspect the sea at any time, our ships.

If you are found by others, in fact, you have fake documents in your hands and there is no way to guarantee the safety of all of you.

The most important thing is that if you don't want to die and want to be thrown into the sea, don't implicate us. We have very important cargo on board. Besides you stowaways, there are other people who want to live .

If you have nothing to do, go back to sleep under the cabin. "

He Chenguang, in fact, had expected that if he came out of the cabin so rashly, if other people found out, he would definitely not be able to help but start blaming him.

But there is no other way, he must bite the bullet and do it at this moment.

Although he heard Jason's men blaming himself, he was also very angry. But at this moment, he had to be patient, after all, he was now on someone else's territory, if there were some disputes or unpleasantness between them accidentally.

It is very likely to affect the implementation of their next plan.

He Chenguang smiled all over his face, and then said in an easy-going tone with some confession:

"It's so embarrassing, buddy. I was just sleeping under the cabin, and when I woke up, you know it's so dark down there that you can't see the sun.

I fell asleep as soon as I woke up, and I didn't even know it was daytime. I know that your boss has told us many times not to come on the deck casually, especially not to come on the deck during the day.

Don't worry, I definitely didn't disobey your boss' intentions. I just found that my mouth was a little dry after waking up, and it was very uncomfortable now. I wanted to find a more transparent place to breathe.

You also know that the environment under the cabin is really dark, humid and out of the sky. It is definitely not acceptable for us to do this kind of thing for the first time. You have to give me a chance to breathe.

But if you find it inconvenient, I'll go back now and won't cause any trouble to you, thank you for your reminder. "

This Jason's subordinate didn't embarrass him when he saw He Chenguang admitting his mistake so sincerely.

Then, he said coldly afterwards:

"You said that you were sleepy. This reason is really too unreasonable. It is indeed dark and damp under the cabin, you can't see the sun, and you don't know what time it is, but are you a primitive person?

What time do you judge? Is it by the sun and the moon? Don't you have a cell phone? Although there is no signal on the sea and you cannot communicate with the outside world, your mobile phone can still be used as a watch to tell the time. Can you tell what time it is now?

The few of you looked very suspicious at first, and from the moment you uploaded it, we didn't believe you at all.

And there were indeed some accidents just now. After you boarded the ship, not long after, there were patrolling people on the sea to inspect our ship. Do you think this is a coincidence? It couldn't be that you guys tipped off the news here as spies. "

He Chenguang didn't react until he heard Jason's men complaining. No wonder the other party was so angry. It seemed that they must have experienced a lot of setbacks just now.

It's just that no matter how many difficulties they have experienced, they shouldn't vent their grievances on themselves.

But now he has no way to enter the pavilion, he himself is very angry now, and he has to follow what others say, after all, if they are really angry, it is possible to throw them off the boat anytime and anywhere.

He Chenguang just took this opportunity to inquire.

"What did you say? Did someone come aboard and search your ship just now?

Then do you know who the other party is? It stands to reason that you have been running this route for more than ten years or even decades. You should be very familiar with each joint and the relevant responsible personnel. Why did you suddenly come here? Someone come up and search your ship?

Has any important information leaked out? Is it really causing you trouble? "

Jason's subordinates also felt a little impatient after hearing He Chenguang's several questions, because at this moment, he was even more suspicious of He Chenguang's attitude. Why would he be concerned about his boat being searched? So nervous?

"Why do you care so much about this? Are you a little guilty?

To be honest, you said that we did run away. This route has been going on for more than ten years or even decades, but it has never encountered a situation like today. Even if we occasionally change a few leaders to our route I just came on the boat to see some benefits and ran away, but we have never seen these people today.

If you say it's a coincidence, do you think I'll believe it? This is too unbelievable. Over the years, such a thing has never happened. Just because you came to our ship this time, it just happened by chance. If you want to call it a coincidence, then we can almost buy lottery tickets. "

Facing the doubts from Jason's subordinates, He Chenguang widened his eyes and said in disbelief:

"Aren't you doubting me? I definitely don't mean that. The reason why I think about it or ask you questions is that I just care about you. I never have any other thoughts. You guys Believe me.

And if I told you that it was a coincidence, would you and would you believe it? "

At this time, Jason's subordinates had already lost patience, and he said very angrily:

"I don't think you guys are like good people. What kind of things did you do when you were thieves? If possible, I would like to throw you guys into the sea right now.

You guys are really not good people, why don't you come with me now, I'll lock you all up, and see if anyone else is tipping the outside off. "

Jason's subordinates became more and more angry as they talked, and he was about to make a move. He Chenguang was actually a little timid now.

After all, he is now in such a deserted sea, if he really throws it into the sea, he will definitely have no chance of surviving.

And he himself has a very important task to complete.

He Chenguang hurriedly raised his hands above his head in a gesture of surrender, and then said with a guilty conscience:

"You don't really think I'm a spy, do you? Let me tell you that if you slander, I need evidence. What evidence do you have? We tipped off the information, and the person who just came up to check shouldn't have caused you any harm. What substantial harm? If they really caused you any substantial harm, you wouldn't be able to sit here and start threatening me now.

I don't have the same knowledge as your little brother because of Qin Yuan and Jason's face. I didn't expect you to be so aggressive. Did you start bullying me because I was bullying? I will give you my mobile phone so that you can take care of yourself Check to see if there is anything I can do. If you can't find anything today, look at me and you. "

The two of them are just like this, the more you talk and the more excited you become, neither of them will let the other start to fight soon, after all, neither of these two people is a fuel-efficient lamp.

At this moment, Jason came from a distance and scolded very angrily:

"Stop, you two, what are you doing? You two are still fighting here when there are internal and external troubles. This Mr. He, you are now Qin Yuan's good brother and buddy. I can't blame you now. You, but I also want to know the ins and outs of this matter, after all, you are arguing with my subordinates now.

If I stand completely under my subordinates, is unfair to you, but if I don't consider my subordinates' thoughts, it's unfair to blame my subordinates blindly, So can you guys tell me now what happened. "

He Chenguang could tell that Jason was also very angry at this moment. He was trying his best to restrain his emotions and not let himself get angry.

He Chenguang felt a little embarrassed when he saw Jason. After all, he kindly found such a channel for himself through An Ran's relationship, so that he could reach Ba to complete the task.

It is a bit too impolite for him to have some conflicts with his subordinates now.

But He Chenguang is also a short-tempered person. His behavior today is the result of his efforts to restrain himself. After all, his subordinates have shown jealousy and disrespect to them since they uploaded and started working out.

He Chenguang bowed his head angrily and did not speak.

Chapter 1894: Calm down your excited emotions

He Chenguang saw Jason, who was supposed to come from a distance, blaming wildly. The two of them shouldn't quarrel with each other when they have internal and external troubles.

Moreover, it could be seen that Jason should be very angry at this moment, just like his subordinates just said, they had just gone through an inexplicable search.

Although no key evidence was found to affect their plans, it would definitely affect some of their moods.

And from Jason's words, it could be felt that he wanted to evaluate the conflict between the two of them at this time from a fair and unbiased perspective.

But people will have some partiality, so how can they be impartial?

Unexpectedly, at this time, Jason first began to blame his subordinates:

"Why are you so ignorant? Do you know how serious it is now, you want to fight with our guests, you are really embarrassing to me. "

Although Jason has always been very kind to Qin Yuan and the others, he should be very strict with his subordinates, otherwise he would not dare to say a word to his subordinates casually. .

Seeing Jason's attitude, He Chenguang also felt a little embarrassed. Although the two of them shouldn't be arguing here, it should be He Chenguang who violated their principles first.

So, He Chenguang was very sorry afterwards and said:

"I'm really sorry, Jason, I can't blame you for this incident. Your subordinates also blame me. I shouldn't just casually run to the deck in broad daylight.

This matter has indeed brought you, and I feel very sorry for the trouble, but I also hope that you can forgive me, after all, it is my first time to come to such an environment.

I am really not used to this kind of dark and damp underground cabin.

I know I shouldn't be like this, and the bodies took the initiative to help me with this matter, but my way of doing this has added another layer of trouble to you all. "

Jason, in fact, he didn't blame He Chenguang too much, because he also knew what kind of situation everyone is currently in, and he was still quite worried.

"It's okay, you can't blame you for this matter. I can also express my understanding that you have never experienced this matter, but please give us some space.

After all, we have just been through a lot, and there are still inexplicable people on board, searching for us on board. "

He Chenguang asked anxiously:

"Has anyone come aboard your ship to search?"

Jason thought that He Chenguang's anxious attitude was because he was afraid that their identities would be discovered by others, so he quickly comforted him and said:

"Don't worry, you don't have to worry about this matter. They uploaded it and went through a process, and then didn't read anything. I guess they also want some benefits, but the strange thing is that we have already run this route. Yes, it has been decades. We have already dealt with the relationship between various joints, but we have never seen these few people who boarded the ship today.

I thought they might be fake. However, we can't take it lightly, but I don't think there should be any problem if they really searched our underground cabin.

In the worst case, we'll just add to them, and it's okay if this trip was wasted.

In short, don't worry, I won't betray you, you can just stay here honestly, but I need you to help me, try to stay in the underground cabin until the destination. "

In fact, He Chenguang wanted to find out with Jason, what kind of person is he? Because he also felt that this incident was a bit too coincidental, and it would definitely not be for no reason.

But He Chenguang had to be cautious, he couldn't find out more information in a very concealed way that didn't understand his secret.

At this time, He Chenguang was also very afraid of revealing his secret.

You are he quickly changed the subject and said:

"Besides wanting to go on the deck secretly, there is another main reason, that is, I don't know where my partner Qin Yuan has gone? I haven't seen him since I woke up, and I am also very worried about his traces. And let me tell you when I met you just now, the mysterious person who came on board for a while should be an uninvited guest, and I am also afraid that my good brother will be in danger.

So I also clashed with your subordinates when I was very impatient. I also ask this buddy to forgive me. "

Jason should be the only one who knows where Qin Yuan is going in this suit.

He also felt very embarrassed at this moment, because he also knew that Qin Yuan didn't know what the reason was, and he didn't seem to trust the two brothers around him and didn't want to tell them his whereabouts, so Jie Sen couldn't open his mouth either.

Unexpectedly, at this time, Qin Yuan's familiar voice came from a distance.

"What are you all doing here? A meeting?"

He Chenguang saw that he was the good brother Qin Yuan he had been looking for.

So, he hurried forward, patted her on the shoulder and asked angrily:

"I said where is your boy? Do you know that we have been looking for you?"

Did you go out and do something bad while the two of us were asleep? Or is there a secret? Want to hide it from the two of us and not tell me? "

Qin Yuan smiled awkwardly and said:

"Don't make the relationship between the two of us so ambiguous. Why do you want to find me as soon as you wake up? I just woke up after I woke up.

I originally planned to get up and go to the bathroom, but I didn't expect that the bathroom in the boathouse was so disgusting that I couldn't accept it, so I went to Jason and planned to go to their private bathroom.

I think it should be cleaner, right Jason. "

Jason immediately took Qin Yuan's words, then smiled and said:

"Yeah, he just went to our house, and then he had a meal there and went to the bathroom before he came out. I didn't expect it would take such a long time for this kid to go to the bathroom. It seems to have caused your misunderstanding gone."

Jason's men must know what happened just now, because they ate in the same room, and the kid left after eating.

Jason's men, although they don't know why they said such words.

However, he should know that they also had reasons for deliberately concealing it, so he didn't continue talking, but just stayed there quietly, and now he looked at them angrily.

At this moment, Qin Yuan quickly changed the subject and received:

"I see the expressions on the two of you, did something unpleasant happen just now?"

He Chenguang, has your temper flared up again? Did some conflict happen at home? Don't forget that we are now on other people's territory, so don't act recklessly.

Originally, we have already added so much trouble to other people's boats, and they have helped us so much. "

He Chenguang didn't expect that Qin Yuan would see through him all at once, so he could only say in a little embarrassment:

"I wasn't looking for you just now. If you told me where you went, would I still have conflicts with others? If you are ashamed to blame me, you should blame you for everything, but now it's over. If you don't If there is anything, we will answer our place as soon as possible. .

I think they should still have important tasks to do, so don't add trouble to them. "

He Chenguang's words obviously contained some yin and yang strangeness.

But Jason is a very generous person, he will never be as knowledgeable as He Chenguang.

In this way, after they said a few words to each other.

Jason smiled and said:

"If there is nothing else, we are quite busy, so you can go back to the underground cabin and feel wronged for a while. The daytime actually passes quickly.

When we usually run the boat, on the sea, although there is no signal, it seems that the scene of the same day is repeated every day, but this time passes very quickly, and you only need to go from country H to Pakistan But it only takes three days and two nights.

So you don't have to worry at all now, time will pass very quickly, as long as you go back to the cabin to feel wronged and sleep. "

He Chenguang, with a helpless whisper, lowered his head and said:

"Hey, but we just woke up, if we let us continue to sleep, I can't fall asleep, and now I want to stand on the deck and bask in the sun, and take a good breath under the sun.

It's a pity that we don't have the chance to see such a beautiful sea level. "

Jason heard He Chenguang whisper his complaints.

So, he sometimes chimed in and said:

"You don't have to worry, in fact, time flies very fast. That's it, you go back to the cabin and stay for a while until the night when there is no one patrolling the sea, you can also guarantee your safety when you come out again."

Qin Yuan thought in his heart that he had already caused so much trouble for others, and he couldn't continue to cause trouble for others, because he knew that Jason was very flustered at this moment.

Now only the two of them can tacitly understand what the other is talking about.

Qin Yuan could hear Jason's implication, he just wanted the two of them to return to the cabin as soon as possible, and don't make any troubles at this critical moment.

So, Qin Yuan took He Chenguang's arm and said:

"The two of us have been talking here for such a long time, have we forgotten about Chen Jixiang? How could we leave him alone in such a mixed place.

Let's go, let's go back and see what this kid is doing, don't take advantage of us sneaking around and playing with the phone again. "

He Chenguang was reluctantly pulled away by Qin Yuan, and whispered:

"How can you play games without even a signal in the vast sea?"

"Forget it, can you say a few words less? Let's go back and talk on our own. There are so many people here that it's inconvenient to reveal too much."

Qin Yuan said this on purpose to arouse He Chenguang, so that he can go back to the cabin with him at ease.

He Chenguang thought that Qin Yuan had some shocking secret, or that he wanted to tell him about the shocking discovery?

The two people's feet were fast enough, and after a while, they returned to the underground cabin to see the very thin Chen Jixiang lying there among the crowd.

In fact, it is already daytime at this time. Although the cabin is dark and the sun cannot be seen, after all, the biological clock has been developed.

All the people in the cabin were basically not sleeping, they were all in groups of three or two, either playing poker or chatting, no one was idle anyway.

This scene looks very, very lively.

Many people can't help but join in here.

At this time, Qin Yuan smiled and said:

"Now you can see that this cabin is not so useless, at least it is lively enough, it is more suitable for people like you who like to join in the fun."

He Chenguang looked straight at Qin Yuan and said:

"Don't talk to me here, let me tell you. I can't blame me for what happened today.

I just wanted to go out and see what was going on, but before I said anything, everyone started blaming me.

I've figured it out a long time ago, ever since we got on the ship. No one can treat us normally, either as spies or as something bad.

Jason was very nice and warm to us. Look at how his subordinates see us. We all look like black-eyed chickens.

We're human too, and I've really had enough. "

Qin Yuan looked at He Chenguang's agitated look, which was also his own thoughts. Although Qin Yuan was also very angry, he couldn't have the same insight as He Chenguang.

Qin Yuan could only say in a comforting tone:

"Come on, I know the reason for your anger, but you can't treat yourself as a guest wearing the VIP seat above. We always ask for something from others.

We can't always think about problems from our own perspective.

It is reasonable for people to treat us badly. We were meant to cause trouble for others, and now we are just unlucky. It happened that such a situation happened, a group of mysterious people came to the ship and started searching for no reason.

Now Jason himself is distraught. Let's not bother him.

It's not easy for everyone to understand each other.

If we persist for more than a day, we will reach our destination, and we don't have to wait so long. "

Qin Yuan finally managed to stabilize He Chenguang's mood after a lot of persuasion.

At this time, Chen Jixiang also got up and saw that both Qin Yuan and He Chenguang looked unhappy.

Chen Jixiang is a kid, not to mention inexperienced, but he has a very strong ability to perceive words and emotions.

From afar, I could see that Qin Yuan and He Chenguang were not in the right mood.

Chapter 1895: test your boy

Chen Jixiang was far away and saw the unhappy look of the two of them. He didn't dare to joke, so he got up and walked to the two of them and said:

"What's the matter? Two big brothers, did something unpleasant happen to you? We are going out this time, so you can't have any unpleasant things. If there is happiness between the two of you, then I can be caught in the middle." It's just too difficult to do.

Is it because of this environment that everyone is in a bad mood, why don't you sit down and calm down for a while. "

Qin Yuan looked at Chen Jixiang's hardworking appearance, but he didn't say anything.

On the contrary, He Chenguang, when he heard Chen Jixiang greet him, he was so full of resentment that he had no place to vent, so he quickly took this opportunity to express all the unhappiness in his heart.

"What do you have to worry about, nothing unpleasant happened between the two of us, but there are indeed some things I don't want to see today.

Didn't I just wake up and go out to go to the bathroom? I found this bathroom so unbearable that I decided to go out on deck for some fresh air.

The funniest thing is that I was stopped by his men before I arrived.

They were extremely disrespectful to me. "

Qin Yuan was quietly beside him, listening to He Chenguang's complaints, and waiting for him to finish speaking.

Qin Yuan said slowly:

"We can't blame others for this matter. It's true that we are being too rude again. We have already explained this when we started exercising when we uploaded it. If there is no other special matter, we should not go to other people's deck casually."

"I didn't go casually either, I was stopped by them before I went.

No, the more I think about it, the more angry I get. If I don't get angry, I won't be able to sleep tonight. "

Qin Yuan looked at He Chenguang with a smile. Seeing his angry appearance, he actually found it a little funny, so he said in a slightly teasing tone:

"Okay, why do you look like a child, we still have important things to deal with, don't forget what our real purpose is when we come out this time.

Our purpose is to help Professor Fang De go to Pakistan to save his two apprentices, so that he can sincerely help us in H country.

Everything we do is a matter of family and country feelings, why are you sticking to the small details? "

Chen Jixiang was listening to the two people, you and I were discussing this matter with each other here, and he could probably guess the seven or eight points from this.

At this time, Chen Jixiang said:

"I think being able to eat is a blessing, and being able to sleep is also a blessing."

"What do you mean? Don't be eccentric here, kid."

"I don't have yin and yang, I just think this matter is really not worth getting angry about."

"Look at you, as an adult, you are not as good as this fledgling kid."

"Okay, okay, you two don't criticize me from the same angle, I know that I was a little impulsive in doing these things today, but I also have a bad temper, and I can't help but add this depressive environment , I can't stand it, please understand more."

The three of them calmed down like this.

At this time, Qin Yuan realized that Chen Jixiang next to him looked a little strange.

After all, I can't tell what's strange about him, it's just that he's different from usual.

Qin Yuan thought about seeing him as a kid, and sure enough he was hiding a lot of things from himself.

However, what method is there to bring out all the things it says to hide?

At this moment, He Chenguang didn't think so much, he was only angry in his heart now, and he didn't have the heart to think about other things.

At this time, He Chenguang said angrily:

"Forget it, the more I think about it, the more I get angry. I want to eat something because you see that there is nothing delicious in this environment. I'd better sleep. I won't be angry or hungry when I fall asleep."

While talking, He Chenguang fell down angrily and went down again, then closed his eyes and prepared to sleep.

Then he kept chanting in his mouth:

"In such a broken environment, I really don't know when I will get through it. I have never felt that twenty-four hours a day is so long."

Qin Yuan looked at his anxious look from the side, and felt that he really looked like a child.

Chen Jixiang looked at Qin Yuan and gave him a slap in the face, indicating that He Chenguang should just let He Chenguang sleep here so hungry and angry? This is not conducive to his physical health.

Qin Yuan also looked into Chen Jixiang's eyes, then shook his head.

"Forget it, don't worry about it, we just do our own thing."

Chen Jixiang thought, since Qin Yuan has already said that, then he is not good, he is thinking too much, and he is too embarrassed to interrupt.

Unexpectedly, at this time, the voices of several men came from the side of the cabin, and they shouted beside them.

"It's time to eat. It's time to eat. Each group will take a photo of someone to come and queue up to pick up your meal."

Qin Yuan was not that excited when he heard the sound of eating, but the people in the cabin were very excited when they heard the sound of eating, because they hadn't eaten for a day and a night, and even their bodies couldn't bear it. I was already so hungry that everything I saw was delicious.

But at this moment, Qin Yuan had already had a delicious meal in the student's room. So now the bread and milk sent by his subordinates is not attractive to him at all.

At this time, Chen Jixiang pushed He Chenguang's shoulder with his hand, knowing that he was still asleep, he told him:

"Brother Chenguang, don't sleep yet, the food we want to eat has already started to be distributed outside.

I took a look, it's just ordinary bread and milk, it shouldn't be delicious, do you still eat it? If you don't eat it, I won't take so much.

I looked at the people under the cabin, many people had no food to eat, so I stopped fighting with them. "

He Chenguang was still very angry, and then said angrily:

"What's so delicious about this broken thing? I don't want to eat it. You can eat it if you want. I want to sleep. It seems that the way to spend a long time here is to go to bed quickly. When he wakes up, this Time passed, and it was not so hard and painful."

Chen Jixiang looked at Qin Yuan with a helpless expression.

"Forget it, let it go, his personality has never changed for so many years, and we don't have the same knowledge as him, I have already eaten it.

If you're hungry, go get yourself one. "

Chen Jixiang stared wide, looked at Qin Yuan and said in a mocking tone:

"Have you eaten? Didn't you go to the bathroom just now? Then what's delicious in your place? You still say you have eaten."

Qin Yuan realized it all at once, and he stretched out his hand to hit the boy Chen Jixiang on the head.

"I think you want to die, don't you, you even want to make fun of me."

"Hee hee hee, don't dare. I won't bother you anymore, I'll go get some food first."

Just like that, Qin Yuan watched He Chenguang walk slowly into the crowd to line up.

At this time, only Qin Yuan and He Chenguang who seemed to be falling asleep were left near the bed.

Qin Yuan only thought that this time is a rare time to be able to distract Chen Jixiang.

It seemed like a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity.

I must use this time to quickly search his luggage.

If there is anything unusual about his luggage, find out quickly. However, the chances of this are actually not very high after thinking about it. After all, if he really has something secret, he will definitely bring it with him, and he will definitely not just leave it on his bed in such a bright light.

After all, even if Chen Jixiang wasn't worried that Qin Yuan and He Chenguang doubted him, he would also worry that things would be easily lost in such a mixed environment, so he probably wouldn't just throw such important things here casually.

As soon as Qin Yuan thought of this, he stopped again. He felt that now is not a good time to search.

This kid is very clever, he can't tell when he came back from the queue, and seeing that he is searching his things will definitely arouse his suspicion, so that he will cut off the connection with the outside world, and it will be difficult for him to find clues.

Unexpectedly, Qin Yuan's idea turned out to be very correct.

After a while, the kid really came back quickly from the crowd with bread and milk.

Qin Yuan looked at Chen Jixiang in surprise and said:

"You got things ready so quickly? Let me see if you've just been there for more than ten minutes? Is the queue so fast?"

"There is nothing delicious in total, just some bread and milk. You see, I have two ham sausages here. It was Jason's men who gave it to me for your sake.

If I didn't have your face, I probably wouldn't even be able to eat these things.

Brother Qin Yuan, I really have to admire your social skills. He trusted you so much the first time he saw Jason. Did you eat a lot of delicious food with him just now?

I really envy you. "

"It's good to eat something, you kid is still picky. Look at those people who come to ham sausage and there is no contentment. You can be contented in Changle.

All right, you can eat first, and I will lie down for a while. "

What should Qin Yuan think? How about going to test this kid?

We must seize an opportunity, especially if we do not participate in life, the two of them have a dialogue, which is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity.

Qin Yuan looked at Chen Jixiang and said with a smile:

"How is it? Is it delicious?"

Chen Jixiang's mouth was full of bread, and it could be seen at this moment that he must also be very hungry, otherwise he wouldn't be so tasty with such unpalatable bread.

It is because of too much bread stuffed in his mouth that he can't speak now. It looked like it was choking.

"Don't talk yet, just take a sip of milk first.

Let me tell you, you kid, you haven't eaten in a few lifetimes, and you can eat like this with a little bread. "

After hearing Qin Yuan's words, Chen Jixiang couldn't bear it any longer, so he quickly took a mouthful of milk and poured it into the water.

After chewing repeatedly for a few minutes, he swallowed all the bread in his mouth forcefully.

Then he patted his chest and drank a few mouthfuls of milk.

Qin Yuan saw that this kid didn't look serious when he was eating, and was really afraid that he would be in danger, so he patted his back and helped him to send the bread here to his stomach smoothly.

At this time, it felt like it should be a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity, taking advantage of He Chenguang's absence from the conversation between the two of them.

Qin Yuan decided to use his own method to test this kid to see what secrets he has, and keep it from himself.

"Just now He Chenguang went out and wanted to get some air on the deck, but he was stopped by Jason's men before he went outside, and then the two of them had a lot of unhappiness, which also caused He Chenguang to be so angry now reason."

"Yes, I know, didn't you two tell me about this matter when you came in just now, in fact, you can't just blame brother Chenguang for this matter.

I think Jason's subordinates should also take some responsibility. After all, their tone is not very good. We are asking for them now, but we are equal, even if we talk to strangers, there is no need to dictate. "

Qin Yuan thought to himself that he had finally gotten to the point, it seems like this kid.

I don't know if I'm pretending to be confused or I don't want to tell myself, to be honest.

Then, Qin Yuan continued to say:

"Actually, the environment in the cabin is not very good. It's understandable if you want to go outside to get some fresh air, but I think you endured it pretty well."

Qin Yuan said this on purpose, he wanted to see if Chen Jixiang had anything to say about this kid, and he wanted to continue telling him to see if he recognized the fact that he also went out just now.

"Hey, although the environment here is not so good, I have been sleeping all the time, and I don't feel that there is anything unbearable. After all, the environment I grew up in is not a high-level environment. Maybe I have been used to it since I was a child. Well, I'm used to ."

"You've been sleeping all the time, haven't you gone out today?"

Hearing Qin Yuan's question, Chen Jixiang licked his mouth, then paused, as if he was thinking about something, and then he said:

"I didn't go out, why did I go out, I've been sleeping here all this time, and didn't I just say that? People on the deck are not allowed to go.

And I don't think there's anything bad about the environment here. I can't go out like He Chenguang, and I'm accused of being sullen here when I come back. Isn't this making myself unhappy?

It would be better to just stay in the cabin like me, eat when you are hungry, sleep when you are thirsty, and sleep when you are sleepy. If you persist for a day and a night, we will reach our destination. "

After listening to Chen Jixiang's words, Qin Yuan understood. It seems that this kid has made up his mind not to tell the truth to himself.

Chapter 1896: coming soon

Qin Yuan saw that he had tried it for a while, but it still didn't work for a while. He knew it thoroughly this time, and this little self did have many important things to hide from him.

In fact, he had thought of everything, but he never thought that Chen Jixiang would be Fan Tianlei's special spy.

Qin Yuan even doubted whether this kid Chen Jixiang could be Effiete? Are they spies of some force? Or an American spy?

However, although Qin Yuan thought so much, he never doubted He Chenguang.

After a while, Chen Jixiang had almost eaten all the bread and milk in his hand.

Qin Yuan looked at him and said:

"Why are you full this time? What are your plans next?"

In fact, Qin Yuan has been probing.

As a result, Chen Jixiang said with a smile:

"Of course I'm going to sleep when I'm full. When I'm full, I go to the toilet. Then it's time to eat. After a while, I guess we're about to reach our destination.

When I arrive at my destination, the first thing I want to do is to have a big meal. I want to eat a lot of meat. "

"You know how to eat without thinking about anything else, but what you said is also reasonable. After all, we have suffered too much in this cabin. We have never experienced such an environment. We really should heal well."

Qin Yuan thought to himself that this kid didn't intend to tell the truth to him openly, and he could only find another opportunity to sneak through his things to find out what this kid was up to.

At this time, Chen Jixiang looked at Qin Yuan and said:

"Brother Qin Yuan, I've eaten and drank enough now. Although I don't know what time it is, I feel that it should be almost evening. In fact, the time in this cabin is quite fast. No It was as complex and difficult as we imagined."

Qin Yuan nodded.

"Hmm, so what?"

Chen Jixiang said with a smile:

"So after eating and drinking enough, I think I should go to bed. If I can sleep, the time should pass quite quickly. When I wake up at night, I should be able to go to the splint to get some air. "

Qin Yuan then nodded again, then smiled and said:

"There should be no problem, but you must not rush into other people's places like He Chenguang. It's really rude. Our family has discussed it. It should be no problem to go out at night to get some air, but Even if we don't go out to breathe, I think we should reach our destination soon."

"There is some truth in what you said. I really shouldn't go out to cause trouble for others, so if I have nothing else to do, I'll go to bed first. After all, the fastest time here is to sleep. "

"Well, then you go to bed first."

After Chen Jixiang finished speaking, he also lay down, closed his eyes and was about to go to sleep.

Qin Yuan thought to himself that this kid is actually very smart, don't be afraid, he is already asleep now, baby and others are watching secretly, so it is not a good time to search him now.

However, it was indeed too dark in this cabin, and I didn't even know what time it was outside.

Qin Yuan still remembered that he had already made an appointment with Jason, and they would meet together at night, and then everyone would analyze everything.

Now that I think about it, it should be about the same time.

In fact, this is after I came to the boat, Qin Yuan actually has not had a good sleep.

If they arrive in Pakistan in such a state, I am afraid that they will not have any energy to do the tasks they really want to complete.

Thinking of this, Qin Yuan felt that it was time to rest for a while, after all, there should be a while before the appointment with Jason to take a little sleep. Take a nap.

So, Qin Yuan lay down next to the two of them, and closed his eyes.

It's just that at this time, Chen Jixiang, a ghost, really didn't sleep.

He saw that Qin Yuan and He Chenguang beside him had closed their eyes, so he secretly took out the secret phone that communicated with Fan Tianlei.

I don't know what principle he used for this, it may be the principle of satellite positioning.

Anyway, he is the only person on this boat who can communicate with the outside world.

Chen Jixiang carefully took out the phone, and then prepared to send a text message to Fan Tianlei.

Unexpectedly, as soon as he took out his phone, he saw Fan Tianlai and sent him several messages. I really didn't see it and had no chance to contact him. When I opened it, Fan Tianlei looked for him very anxiously.

"How's the situation over there?"

"I see, please reply to me quickly."

"Are you really asleep, kid? Why don't you know how to reply to my text message? Could it be that they have already discovered it!"

Chen Jixiang secretly rejoiced in his heart.

I didn't expect that I was quite good, the first time I completed such a secret mission, I was not discovered by the two of them.

He saw the anxious text message Fan Tianlei sent to him, so he quickly sent it back to him as quickly as possible, otherwise he would be very anxious when he saw him.

"Thor, I don't have any special circumstances here. The two of them haven't found out about our secret contact for the time being. Although I am the only one here who can get in touch with those people, I think we should be more conservative and stop contacting , too often.

After all, I don't have much chance to be alone here.

Although I didn't find anything unusual about the two of them, I think there is something unusual on this ship. "

Fan Tianlei replied:

"Anything out of the ordinary? Did you discover anything? Or didn't you? What evidence? Just speculation?"

"There is no evidence, am I talking nonsense? I found that besides the stowaways in the underground cabin on their ship, there are also many wooden boxes. The wooden boxes look very heavy, and there should be very important goods inside. But what exactly is there?" What exactly is installed, I don't know.

Anyway, they have always been very careful guardians of these things, and I think if it is just to transport these smugglers! People at Jason's level would not personally ***** them. "

"There is some truth in what you said. But if it really has nothing to do with us, you should not participate in their affairs. After all, your real task is to help me monitor the two of them. So don't worry about other things, don't make extra troubles ."

"Yeah, okay, I see, Thor."

Just when Chen Jixiang was about to send it, he found a person walking outside the cabin.

Although everyone is awake now, he can clearly feel that something is wrong with the atmosphere here.

Chen Jixiang secretly squinted his eyes for a glance, and found that it seemed that Jason was walking over.

So, he quickly closed his eyes, pretending to be asleep. It seems that this Jason should have come to look for Qin Yuan.

Otherwise, how could he come to such a place in person in his capacity?

Although Chen Jixiang closed his eyes, he could clearly hear a person slowly approaching him. It seemed that he guessed right, this Jason really came to look for Qin Yuan.

Fortunately, I closed my eyes in advance and pretended to be asleep, otherwise the scene would not have become very embarrassing.

But now, what Chen Jixiang is more curious about is why Jason and Qin Yuan seemed to have such a good relationship when they first met, but in fact it shouldn't be.

Could there be something plotting between the two of them?

In fact, I was still very curious in my heart, but when I thought of Fan Tianlei's instructions just now.

He told himself not to make extra trouble at this time, so he gave up again, the idea of spying on the two of them.

Now the three of them really are each with their own concerns and secrets.

Jason passed through the crowd and soon came to Qin Yuan's side.

He saw that He Chenguang and Chen Jixiang beside Qin Yuan were both sound asleep, so he didn't wake them up. He patted Qin Yuan's shoulder cautiously.

Trying to wake up Qin Yuan secretly without alarming others.

Qin Yuan was taking a nap, but he was not asleep.

You feel someone tap your shoulder, he wakes up immediately, and then looks up to see Jason.

Jason stretched out his index finger of his right hand and made a "shh" gesture on his mouth.

Qin Yuan, in fact, if he didn't see Jason's gesture, he could also understand that when he came to find him at this time, he must not make a fuss. So he instinctively didn't make any sound.

Qin Yuan said in a low voice:

"What's going on?"

Jason didn't speak, he was afraid of waking up the two people beside Qin Yuan. So he stretched out his hand and pointed at the door.

He signaled Qin Yuan to go out with him now.

Of course, Qin Yuan immediately understood the meaning of getting married, so he got up cautiously so as not to disturb Chen Jixiang and He Chenguang who he thought were already asleep.

Afterwards, Qin Yuan followed Jason carefully through the crowd, and then walked out of the door of the underground cabin.

Unexpectedly, as soon as Qin Yuan got up and walked out, Chen Jixiang beside him opened his eyes and stared at the backs of the two of them.

In fact, at this moment, Chen Jixiang himself was really puzzled, what secrets did the two of them keep from him?

Although he is very curious now, there is no way to guarantee that he can follow them quietly and give them two discoveries.

Therefore, he should calm down and restrain his curiosity now, and forget about other things, just like what Fan Tianlei said, don't make extra troubles.

Qin Yuan's side.

He followed Jason out of the underground cabin, and the two of them could start talking in peace.

Qin Yuan looked at Jason, and then he asked with some doubts:

"Didn't we make an agreement, after night? Why are you here so early now? Is there something unexpected?"

Jason smiled, then whispered:

"What? Didn't it disturb your sleep?"

"I didn't fall asleep at first, but, you came to me so suddenly, is there something urgent for you? Aren't I worried about you?"

"Okay, there is nothing urgent. Even looking at our current situation, there is nothing wrong. Let's hurry up and discuss it as soon as possible. I see that the time is almost reaching the state of Pakistan.

If this matter still hasn't been clearly explained to you, you don't know what to do next. "

Qin Yuan heard Jason's words, so he turned around very cautiously and looked around.

After seeing no one around, Qin Yuan said cautiously:

"So that's the case. Then let's take a quick look, find a hidden place, and discuss it carefully. I believe you should have a lot of secrets to tell me. Tell me, I've already been mentally prepared gone."

Jason pulled Qin Yuan, and then he was about to walk to the dark room on the deck.

"Where are we going?"

"There is a very hidden place, you haven't been there, I'll take you there now."

"A hidden place? If it's a hidden place, why didn't you tell me earlier and let me hide in the box. You are so cruel."

"Okay, let's stop joking here. Think about what to do next."

While the two were talking, they came to the secret dark room Jason had mentioned.

Qin Yuan really couldn't help but sigh with emotion, and then said:

"This place is truly blessed. I didn't expect there to be such a private room on your boat! I like this place, so please give it to me in the future. By the way, why did you think of this level? It's still designed here. Such a nice place."

Jason pretended to smile deeply and said:

"It's okay, I'm really left with sequelae by these people who often patrol here on the sea. I have to guard against it."

Qin Yuan could only nod meaningfully.

At this moment, Qin Yuan thought that this Jason really had a brain.

Qin Yuan looked at Jason, took a sip of water and said:

"Let's get down to business, do you have anything to tell me?"

Jason sighed and said:

"Hey~~~ I also accidentally fell into the trap. can be regarded as a full set of them. My daughter is sick. I really need their help very urgently now."

Qin Yuan saw that since Jason had told him the truth, he might as well ask him directly.

In fact, Qin Yuan had long wanted to ask Jason what difficulties he had?

However, this is after all related to family reasons. Family is everyone's weakness, and I can't expose other people's weaknesses and scars anytime and anywhere under inconvenient circumstances.

However, now that Jason has started to tell the truth to himself.

Why don't you take this opportunity to ask now.

"Jason, I've always been curious, I don't know what's going on, but, I've always been embarrassed to ask you, afraid to untie your scar."

Chapter 1897 The reluctant parting

After Chen Jixiang finished speaking, he quickly covered his bag with his hand. Because he had just put the things that had not been given to him for a long time into his secret pocket.

At this moment, he felt very nervous.

Because although he actually seems to be glib, he is very bad at lying, and if he lies, he will soon be exposed.

Just when Chen Jixiang didn't know what to do.

He is afraid that others will see his little thoughts.

At this time, the friends who contacted An Ran had already come over.

Because it was night and dark, Anren couldn't see clearly what was going on in front of him. He just saw a group of people approaching from a distance, but he didn't know what was going on. I don't know who he is at this moment.

Everyone was very nervous because they were afraid that their opponents would discover their traces. If this is the case, then it is very dangerous.

It will most likely be exposed.

At this time, there was a man wearing black clothes and a short haircut. He walked to An Ran's car angrily and knocked on the window next to his cab.

An Ran rolled down the window calmly.

After seeing the person clearly, An Ran's tense expression instantly revealed a long-lost smile.

"It turned out to be you, Jason. It scared me. I thought it was who it was. It really shocked me to come knocking on my door and window so late."

It turned out that An Ran had contacted the group of stowaways first.

At this time Jason said:

"Beauties are so forgetful. Why can't you even recognize me after I haven't seen you for several years? I'm really sad when you do this. I've been thinking about you all the time. I didn't expect you to even see me. I don't even recognize him."

When he heard what he said, An Ran felt a little embarrassed, because after all, he was now asking for help. If he is dissatisfied with himself, the next thing will be difficult to handle.

At this time An Ran said:

"What are you talking about? I don't want to forget you. It's just that it's too dark and I'm a little scared. By the way, let me introduce my friends to you."

Then An Ran turned around and the three people behind said:

"This is the Jason I just told you. That is, he can help you three get into such a big trouble.

Fortunately, I have such a good friend, otherwise you three wouldn't know what to do now, right?

Okay, don't stand still here, you three get off the car with me quickly and see how my friends can arrange it for you. "

While speaking, An Ran supported the three of them and winked.

Qin Yuan was fully aware of An Ran's thoughts. So he said to the two people next to him:

"Come on, come down quickly."

After saying that, the three people followed An Ran and got out of the car.

An Ran said to Jason enthusiastically:

"Jason, you see, I'm really sorry. My three friends are just troubling you. The three of them committed some trouble in country H. I hope you can help them and wait for your ship to arrive in Brazil. country.

Actually, I'm sorry to bother you. After all, we haven't seen each other for so long, but I really have no other way to help the three of them. I thought of you first. "

I didn't expect this little Jason to be a very happy person.

After all, they are all people who have been on the road for so many years. Although he could clearly see that An Ran was just talking politely. But he may have had other ideas about Enron.

Not only is he very passionate about Enron. And there was an indescribable feeling in his eyes.

As a homosexual, Qin Yuan can understand this idea very well.

At this time Jason said:

"I understand, I can understand it. But fortunately, you called me in time. There are still three empty seats on the ship today. If you had called me ten minutes late, I'm afraid all three of them would be gone tonight. Can't leave."

An Ran covered her mouth and smiled:

"So this must be fate. Then you don't have to settle the expenses with the three of them. When the time comes, you can contact me and I will settle the expenses for you together."

Unexpectedly, as soon as he heard this, Jason's expression immediately became serious.

"What's money without money? Do you still need to mention these things to me because of our relationship? I am willing to help you and I don't want to ask you for money at all.

Don't you know me yet? Although our trip is also expensive, we are not short of the money of the three of them.

I told you to stop being polite to me. If you say that to me again, I won't help you.

Based on the relationship between the two of us, don't just send the three of them away. Even if you ask me to run the boat three times for you for free, I won't ask you for money, so don't mention this matter again, okay? "

"Okay, okay. Now that you've said that, I won't be polite to you."

When Jason heard this, a smile appeared on my face.

"Let's go. I think it's almost time now. Come with me now and I'll introduce you to our specific affairs.

I think it's getting late, so let the three of them board the ship quickly. "

Qin Yuan also nodded and said:

"Yeah, well, thank you too Jason."

After finishing speaking, Jason took An Ran and Qin Yuan to a boat on the shore.

This ship doesn't look like anything special, it's just an ordinary passenger ship.

The entire pier looks relatively large. There are passenger ships, cargo ships, and even fishing boats.

An Ran looked at the many boats at the pier, and then said with a smile:

"It seems that the scale of this place has become very big after not seeing you for so long. I didn't expect that you would have done it in a few years. In your current position, you are really amazing."

Jason smiled and said:

"I am different now from before. I am not just fishing for side projects. As you can see, there are so many ships at the dock now, and I have a lot of serious business.

You see, we have passenger ships here that can enter and leave the country honestly. The passengers above went to Pakistan through this route. But is this kind of thing? On the surface, you don't make much money.

The real secrets are all under the boat. This boat can carry 280 passengers. But it can be done below the cabin. Carrying one hundred passengers. You know I'm going to help them smuggle someone out. How much money can you make? "

At this time, Chen Jixiang said:

"But there should be regulations on how many guests a ship can carry. If it is overloaded, wouldn't it be very easy to sink?"

After finishing speaking, did Chen Jixiang realize that his words were somewhat inappropriate?

Because after all, that's what they do. What can I do without risk?

Unexpectedly, Jason didn't get angry when he heard this.

He just explained lightly:

"I see that you are quite young. You must have just debuted. Others may have led you to do many things, and you may not know much about this place. You are just limited in your own thinking.

If you are worried that this ship will sink, it is reasonable. But we have been making this sound for many years, and you can rest assured that there has never been an accident on a ship. "

At this time Qin Yuan said:

"Don't worry, kid. Nothing will happen to you if you follow the two of us. I believe, Jason. He must have a way to deal with this matter. If he thinks this matter is very dangerous, he should also Won't do it."

Unexpectedly, Jason praised Qin Yuan greatly after hearing what he said.

It was as if he had found another self in his life.

Jason had always thought that An Ran was his best friend, but he didn't expect that An Ran's friends would understand his thoughts today. Moreover, he had never met him before, yet this person could believe in him without any reason.

Jason walked to Qin Yuan, patted his shoulder and said:

"Brother, I know. It seems that you are also a happy person. Although I have never lost my life in so many years. But based on your words, I am determined to be your friend.

This is who I am, if you trust me, I will repay you.

No matter what happens today, I will definitely succeed and send you to Pakistan. And I not only deliver, I also take care of you.

I see that you guys are definitely not ordinary people.

Although An Ran was unwilling to reveal too much to me. But I can also be very clear about your true intentions. When you go to Pakistan, it should be more than just a simple run away. "

After listening to Jason's words, Qin Yuan and He Chenguang were completely shocked. They simply did not believe that this person could see through their identities.

Although I knew that he had been on the road for many years and had a lot of experience in the world, I still couldn't believe that his identity was seen through at a glance.

But he had already seen through it and did not continue to ask further questions.

It proves that he can also understand this matter, although he cannot reveal his true identity and purpose to him.

However, adhering to the principle that sincerity is a must-win.

Qin Yuan looked at Jason and said:

"Jason, I didn't expect it. We hit it off so well the first time we met. Since you said so, I can also tell you that we did go to Pakistan for other things, and we haven't figured out how to get back.

if"

Before Qin Yuan finished speaking, Jason said:

"I understand what you mean. Brother, I don't know why, but we hit it off very well the first time we met. If you have something to do, just talk. You won't be able to say anything when you come back, right? No problem, just tell me what you plan to do When will you come back? I'll make arrangements for you."

He Chenguang and Qin Yuan, who were watching from the side, were already stunned.

He Chenguang said jokingly:

"Qin Yuan. Are you okay with that? I didn't expect your social skills to be so strong. We just met you for the first time and you all accepted it so well, and we are still brothers."

At this time Jason said:

"The two of us are relatively close to each other. So, if there is anything in the future, you don't need to go through Elena, you can just come to me directly.

Aoao, by the way, that's it. We can be said to be quite destined. Why don't I leave my contact information? If I have time in the future, the two of us can also contact each other individually. "

Qin Yuan also said to the donkey on the slope:

"Hmm, we really need to leave a contact information so that we can contact you when we come back. We really need your help."

After saying that, both of them took out their mobile phones and left each other's contact information.

At this time, several people also came to the boat that had been prepared in advance.

Look at the time, it's almost here. Time to board the ship.

At this time An Ran said:

"Is this the ship prepared for them? It seems that this ship is still very big. It seems that the life of the three of you in the cabin should be pretty good. However, I'm afraid you have to live in this kind of life. I have suffered a lot. I can only leave the next thing to you."

After finishing speaking, Jason looked at An Ran, smiled and said:

"How about it? Do you want to visit the cabin with us?"

Of course An Ran wanted to go there very much in her heart. But he raised his hand and looked at the time. I feel that the time for sailing is a bit close now, and I am afraid that I will delay their trip to Pakistan.

So, An Ran looked at the time and said:

"I think it's almost time. Why don't I go up."

Although Qin Yuan did not see what the environment in the cabin was like, he could feel that the environment inside was not very good, and it was not a place for girls to go in and out.

So, Qin Yuan said:

"I think it's better not to let An Ran go up. Just take the three of us up to have a look, and then we'll board the ship directly. There's no need to waste time here. As for An Ran.

You have nothing to worry about, just go back first and wait for news from us. I believe we will be back soon. It's okay. You don't have to worry.

There is no need to watch us get on the boat like we are sending off children. "

At this time, Chen Jixiang also said:

"People say that after a long journey, you will eventually have to say goodbye. I say sister An Ran, don't be reluctant to leave. Okay. The three of us cobblers are even more powerful than Zhuge Liang."

Several people nearby burst out laughing when they heard Chen Jixiang say this.

I didn't expect this kid to be quite humorous.

Of course An Ran had his own plans in mind. Hearing several people say this, he didn't think too much about it.

So, An Ran looked at Qin Yuan. There was a look of reluctance in his eyes, and then he said:

"Then if that's the case, I won't get involved. Let's say goodbye here. I'll go back first, and I'll go back and wait for your good news.

People in foreign countries must protect themselves and put away their temper. There must be no conflicts with others.

We must remember that a gentleman does not stand behind a dangerous wall. Can you understand what I am saying? "

Chapter 1898 The gloomy cabin life

After a reluctant parting, Qin Yuan took He Chenguang and Chen Jixiang on board the ship to Pakistan.

After Jason watched An Ran leave, he walked onto the boat with confidence to join Qin Yuan and the other three.

Qin Yuan was simply shocked by the sight in front of him.

He didn't expect that a group of stowaways could do such a conscientious business, and the entire hull was very luxurious.

It looks like a very luxurious cruise ship.

Chen Jixiang smiled and said:

"If the few of us can follow this standard, I also think it is very appropriate. After all, our identities are relatively consistent with this standard. If we want to go there in such an environment, the journey along the way will be Very enjoyable."

Qin Yuan patted Chen Jixiang's head and said:

"What good things are you thinking about here? There is absolutely no chance for us to spend time here. We must be in the cabin below.

I can't say that the environment in the cabin is completely different from here, but it should be very different. "

Jason seemed to have the feeling of being read through his thoughts.

Then he said:

"I'm really sorry. Because according to the regulations of our ferry, if you are not regular guests, you may not be able to enjoy such a good environment.

You are going to be like the stowaways, living under the cabin of the ship, eating, drinking and sleeping. It will arrive in about three days. Although that day is difficult to get through, the time should pass quickly. You just need to eat and sleep.

I have to take care of the rest. "

At this time, He Chenguang asked:

"Jason, are you going with us or not? Are you going to get off after we put it on the boat? Or will you go with us?"

Jason smiled and said:

"Don't you want me to go with you? We hit it off so well when we first met. It's rare to have such a good friend. Besides, there is very important cargo on this ship, and I need to go there myself.

If I were not on board, they would not be able to solve any emergency. "

Qin Yuan was thinking about what important things could happen that would allow Jason to follow the ship in person? It must not be as simple as sending this boatload of stowaways to Pakistan.

How many years have they been? He should have a lot of resources in his hands. If it were such a simple matter, I believe a leader like Jason would not take action personally.

But at this moment, Qin Yuan didn't think so much. He was only thinking about what he had on him and not to be discovered by others.

And now this cabin is full of stowaways.

There are people who are planning to go there to work illegally, and there should also be some criminals who want to abscond to Pakistan.

Now it can be said that there are all kinds of situations, but the more such a situation, Zhou Le cannot take it lightly. There are all kinds of people under there, and they must not reveal their secrets.

At this time Jason said:

"Now I will take you to the bottom of the cabin to take a look at the environment. If the environment is not good, I hope you can be considerate, because after all, this position can only be made free by squeezing out other people."

Qin Yuan thought that after hearing what he said, he was finally prepared.

After a while, Jason led the three of them to the bottom of the cabin.

However, the environment here is indeed too unbearable.

Who would have thought that the environment and life below the cabin are completely opposite to those above the cabin.

If the environment above the cabin is heaven, then the environment below the cabin is hell.

Haven't entered the cabin yet. As soon as they arrived at the door, they could already smell the unpleasant smell inside the shipyard.

The smell inside was nothing short of stinky.

At this time, several people invariably covered their noses. I was afraid that the unpleasant smell would pass through my nose and make me vomit.

The first person who couldn't stand it was He Chenguang. This kind of meeting reminded him of the location of the underground passage.

"Oh my God, I really can't stand it. The smell here is a hundred times worse than what I smelled in the sewer. How can it smell like this here?"

Qin Yuan thought to himself that although he was mentally prepared, he never expected that the smell inside would be so unbearable.

At this time Jason said:

"The environment here is so difficult, I hope you can overcome it. I also want to arrange a more comfortable environment and location for you.

However, I am also more than capable. This is indeed something I can't do. If you want to reach Pakistan safely and without anyone noticing, this is the only way. "

Qin Yuan could clearly feel that Jason seemed a little embarrassed about such an arrangement.

However, you can't blame him.

It was already very difficult for An Ran to suddenly find him to help her. It should be us who feel embarrassed.

Qin Yuan took off the hand covering his nose and said slowly:

"Jason, don't be like this. We are already very grateful that you can help us. How can we ask you to do more for us? We really appreciate you, don't think so much."

Chen Jixiang also understood what Qin Yuan meant.

"Yes, yes, Brother Jason. I think this place is pretty good, and what higher requirements can there be for people like us?

Could you please help us find the location of the three of us. After you find it, you can go about your own business and don't need to continue to take care of us here.

As you just said, we only need to eat and sleep, and we will be there in a few days. "

Qin Yuan thought to himself that this child Chen Jixiang is really good at talking.

So, Jason led the three of them through a group of people. Came to a very narrow and crowded place.

Pointing to the damp bed on the ground, he said:

"This is where you three will be. Although the environment is a bit sciencey, be patient and it will pass soon."

Qin Yuan took a look and then said:

"I think this place is good. Now that we have found our place, Jason, you can go back and do your own business first, and don't worry about us.

We just need to lie down here and sleep for a while. It just so happens that the three of us are quite sleepy now, so we will be there after a while. "

At this time, He Chenguang asked:

"By the way, if we want to eat, where should we go to eat? If we want to go to the bathroom, where should we go?"

Jason pointed to a small room at the end of the cabin and said:

"Don't you see there are two small rooms at this end? These two small rooms are bathrooms, one for men and one for women.

Because the lights here are too dim, if you want to go to the bathroom, be sure to read the signs on the door clearly and don't go wrong.

As for eating, it's normal. We don't provide meals here. But because you are my friends, I will send some to you when we have dinner.

But this is just a staff meal that we eat casually. If you want to eat, don't be picky. "

Qin Yuan smiled and said:

"Actually, we are very satisfied with such an environment. What else can we be picky about? I will eat whatever you give us. And I also want to thank you! Thank you very much!"

After finishing speaking, perhaps Jason was already familiar with the environment. After staying for a while, he said:

"In that case, I will go and do my own business first. We should have breakfast after a while, so I will bring our breakfast down to you.

It's not too early now, the ship will leave soon. You guys should lie down quickly and rest for a while. "

Looking at Jason's back as he walked away.

All three people breathed a long sigh of relief. Because the environment here is too harsh, and in front of Jason, everyone can't be embarrassed to be picky.

Although the three of them are from the army, and although they have seen many difficulties and painful things, they have never seen such a battle.

Chen Jixiang quickly covered his mouth with his hand, and then said:

"Brother Qin Yuan, it's really not that I'm being pretentious or too squeamish. I've never seen such a dirty environment since I was a child. Even when we were rolling in the mud when we were training in the army. I didn't. I feel so disgusting now."

Qin Yuan really had no choice, so he patted Chen Jixiang on the shoulder and said:

"I know I understand your thoughts very well, and I think so too, but there is no way that since we have chosen this profession, no matter what we encounter, we should accept the new environment happily.

And it's not easy for me to be picky about the environment in front of Jason. Because we originally asked for help from others, and they finally helped us find this location. If we are too picky, it will really affect our relationship and be detrimental to our future relationship. "

He Chenguang suppressed his nausea and said:

"Oh, that's the truth, but the truth is also the same, but I just can't stand this environment. Look at what kind of people these are. "

Can you come out? What does it smell like here? Humid, sweaty, and smelly feet. I don't know how many people have been pretending to be here.

Do you know what kind of people have slept in this bed? Is there anyone else dying here? "

At this time Chen Jixiang said:

"That doesn't mean I think the environment here is fine, and didn't Jason already say it? There has never been a human life here.

If we regard him as a friend, we should believe what he says. "

"I said that you kid is really naive sometimes. Do you have to believe everything he says? He said that no one had ever lost his life. It was just a polite statement.

Look at the people who stow away in this environment. There may be some infectious diseases. Let me tell you, just the three of us will go back. In the future, any infectious diseases in Deshang will not be an accident. , this is all expected. "

He Chenguang said to Chen Jixiang, pointing to the bed on the ground. Although they told Jason that they were going to rest, they never thought of lying down here to sleep.

In fact, what is going on with all this? Everyone knows it very well, and they just say some words to comfort their hearts. Doesn't Chen Jixiang know how disgusting it is here or what kind of things have happened?

But what can he do? Just because there is no solution, I have to think of various reasons to comfort myself.

Moreover, Chen Jixiang still had a big stone weighing heavily on his heart.

That was the secret mission assigned to him by Fan Tianlei.

If it were in such a narrow space, I'm afraid a clone would be able to touch the secret thing given to him, which would be very easy to be exposed.

So at this moment, Chen Jixiang, you simply don't dare to lie down in bed and sleep peacefully.

Although after such a long time of tossing, he was already exhausted.

Qin Yuan said at this time:

"I know that everyone is very tired and sleepy now, but I believe no one wants to lie here and sleep. But if we don't rest, it will only waste our energy after arriving in Pakistan.

We are all exhausted, how can we complete the task? "

He Chenguang really couldn't stand the environment here, so he said in a petty manner:

"Anyway, I don't care who likes to sleep here, just sleep here. I just stand here for three days and three nights, and I will never sleep here. Now when I think about this bed being so dirty, I feel very sick. If it comes Then the first thing I will do after you is take a shower."

At this time, none of the three wanted to sleep. Qin Yuan thought that if he didn't want to rest, he could go out to the deck to get some fresh air.

Because in fact, in such an environment, it is not just the three of them, everyone is here. If the three of them blindly want to be in this environment, it will only hurt the self-esteem of others.

The reason why Qin Yuan proposed the idea of asking everyone to go on the deck was because he did not want to disturb other people's rest.

Because it is already late at night and almost early in the morning, if they are still here chattering and complaining about the environment here, they will undoubtedly arouse everyone's anger. If everyone attacks in groups, they will not be able to resist.

And the most important thing is that the three of them, after all, are asking others to do things, and they cannot bring any difficulties or problems to Jason at all.

If someone is still so angry and angry on someone else's territory, then it's really unjustifiable.

But go out on the deck and get some fresh air. Everyone agreed with this idea.

Chapter 1899: Kidnapping with a purpose

Jason asked curiously:

"Okay, if you actually said that, then I understand what you are talking about. If you need me to do something, or if you need me to help you, I can help you."

After Qin Yuan heard that Jason had promised himself, he still didn't think of any good way to get the best of both worlds, and to do this well without hurting Chen Jixiang.

Because in fact, Qin Yuan liked this kid from the bottom of his heart.

I believe he shouldn't be able to do anything too bad. At most, they are spies sent by other people, or they are helping others to pass on the news, so they should not be scared of their own lives.

Therefore, Qin Yuan was unwilling to deal with him harshly.

Qin Yuan, you pondered for a while, but he still didn't think of a way to get the best of both worlds.

At this time Jason said:

"I have a good idea. I don't know if you don't agree? If you agree, I will do it now. I should be able to answer your doubts before the ship reaches its destination."

After listening to Jason's words, Qin Yuan's eyes lit up, because he was also curious about what kind of method it was. I've been thinking about it for so long, and I haven't thought of a way to get the best of both worlds. Does Jason have any good way?

"According to your description, this method is indeed very attractive. But you still haven't explained to me clearly what method you plan to adopt? Could you tell me about the layout of your entire plan first, after all You also know that I really like and appreciate this kid from the bottom of my heart. He also treats me like a big brother. Maybe sometimes he has to do some things as a last resort, and

I don't want to force him into a situation. As long as I figure out who he is secretly contacting, I have an idea in my heart, so I can rest assured.

After all, I still prefer front-end control, and strive to plan ahead and eliminate all bad possibilities.

Jason heard it, and he didn't know how to help Qin Yuan after saying this.

But he pondered for a while, and he thought of a very good way for me.

Jason looked at Qin Yuan with a smile and said with some malicious intentions:

"I figured out a way."

Although Qin Yuan didn't know what method Jason had thought of, he could still feel that the ruling was not a good method from Tong's expression.

"Then tell me and listen."

"If I let my men go down and arrest this kid and force him to tell something, will he agree to help me? Will he expose all his hidden secrets."

"Actually, this method is not impossible, but is it a bit risky? If so, it may affect the relationship between you, and this kid actually looks smooth, but in fact he is very firm and decisive in his heart, if this method is used to threaten him, I am really worried that Huixi will have the opposite effect."

"Don't worry so much now. This is just my initial idea. We can try to go to Shishi. If we fail, we can tell him that we are just joking with him."

"No, I still have to think about it."

"I said, why are you so ink-stained? It's always a pleasure to see you. How can you be so hesitant about meeting your own person? Let me tell you, this is the best way so far. Sometimes No matter how many fancy methods you think of, it is useless, only the simplest and most straightforward method of defeating magic with magic is the most effective."

Although Qin Yuan felt that what Jason said was reasonable, after all, he hadn't thought it through yet, and he was also afraid that he would take this opportunity to hurt Chen Jixiang when he got married.

Jie Se also seemed to see through Qin Yuan's thoughts.

"I know if you are worried that my subordinates will hurt this kid beside you."

Qin Yuan didn't speak, as if he acquiesced to this matter.

Jason patted Qin Yuan on the shoulder and said:

"Don't worry, with my testimony, absolutely not, but I want to try another method."

"I really didn't realize that you are a person who is full of bad ideas sometimes. Tell me and let's see what bad ideas you have come up with."

"Didn't there be a group of people shouting and drinking on the boat just now? If this group of people returned to the boat and captured some people, do you think it will have some effect!"

Qin Yuan thought that this method was a good one, and he could use this opportunity to frighten Chen Jixiang.

But there is a problem, there is no way to solve it now.

Qin Yuan said:

"Your method is much better than the one just now, but I think there is a big problem, that is, where do you find people? Where do you find some strangers he has never met before? There are only these men on the boat. If they play roles, they will be discovered by Chen Jixiang soon."

You must not look at this kid with little experience, but this kid is really serious. It's not easy to fool him. "

Jason smiled and said with a confident expression:

"Do you think we are the only ship in this vast sea? Every time we are running cargo, there will be other ships following us. They are always near us, but there is fog on the sea at this time.

It's hard to see their tracks clearly, but if I give an order, they should help. "

When Qin Yuan heard this, he felt that Jason was really not a simple person.

Then he said suddenly:

"I said why you have always been confident, and you don't seem to be too worried about any temporary dangers. It turns out that you have already arranged for so many guards to follow you.

It seems that there is indeed no danger in such a situation. After all, you have so many people who will help you and protect you. You are really unpredictable. "

Jason says:

"There is no way. After all, our business is quite dangerous. If we don't think carefully, we may capsize in the gutter anytime, anywhere."

"No, it's not a capsized boat in a gutter. It's a huge wave on the sea."

After speaking, the two looked at each other and smiled.

"How? Do you think my method is feasible? If you think this method is feasible, then I will arrange someone to implement it now."

"Yeah, yes, but you must ensure Chen Jixiang's safety."

"That's for sure. He is the person next to you. Will I still hurt him?"

Qin Yuan nodded in satisfaction, but he was still quite uneasy in his heart. After all, he really admired Chen Jixiang, a kid. It's just that in order to ensure the concealment of the mission, it must be understood. What is this kid doing secretly?

"What if he refuses to tell?"

"There's no need for him to speak out. I heard you said that he didn't have some things on his body, and he was secretly in contact with the outside world. However, if he really refuses to say, let's take his things and check them out. know what he's doing."

Qin Yuan nodded thoughtfully.

"That's fine, but I'm afraid it will scare this kid. And if I say it, he should be very angry with me, but there is no way."

"Don't worry, I think this kid trusts you very much. He won't blame you when he knows the truth. After all, you are also thinking about your entire team and people."

"Well, then I'll leave this matter to you, Jason. Go ahead and do it."

After speaking, Jason had completely obtained Qin Yuan's permission.

So Jason went out to make a phone call.

Qin Yuan was left standing there blankly thinking about the feasibility of this matter.

At the same time, he was silently saying to Chen Jixiang, I'm sorry.

Jason, who had just left, suddenly turned around and came back.

"What's wrong? You finished contacting so soon?"

"No, there is one very important thing that I forgot to ask you."

"What important thing?"

"Do you only want to arrest that kid, Chen Jixiang, or arrest both of them."

When Qin Yuan was asked such a question by Jason, he was suddenly a little confused.

Because, he never doubted He Chenguang.

Therefore, Qin Yuan didn't think about it, and just blurted out, saying:

"Chen Jixiang, he is the only kid who is sneaking around now. I don't know what he is doing when I doubt him."

Jason had already walked away, and walked back to Qin Yuan's side, looking at him thoughtfully.

Qin Yuan was puzzled.

"what happened?"

"I think your consideration of this matter is really incomplete."

"Why do you say that?"

"Although I know that you only suspect this young boy, not the brother who has been with you for many years. But after all, the current situation is that the two of them live together.

If I take this kid away with great fanfare, leaving only one person behind, I'm afraid it will also arouse his suspicion, and this kid is very ghostly as you said, if he finds out the secret .

He knew that his own people had kidnapped him, so he would definitely not tell the truth. Even less afraid. "

Qin Yuan did not think of this question before, but after listening to Jason's explanation. He also felt that this issue was indeed important, and he was a little ill-considered.

"Hmm, I didn't think of this matter, but you are more thoughtful."

After Jason's thoughts were recognized, he said with a smile:

"I think since acting, let's do a formal play."

Qin Yuan seemed to have an ominous premonition.

"What's the matter? You can't be..."

Jason smiled and said:

"You have to do a whole set of acting."

"you..."

"Don't worry, I will definitely not have other ideas, but I think it would be safer to arrest the three of you, so that I will make the two of them believe in the authenticity of this matter even more. "

"I see you, this is for the pursuit of authenticity, and it doesn't consider my thoughts at all. If you arrest me, do you think it will be more real?"

"At least I think so."

"Well, if you think it's more real to arrest me, then I don't care what you think, but you have to hide me in a better place. It's best not to put the three of us in the Together."

Jason bowed his head in thought for a while, and then said immediately:

"I just thought about your thoughts, and what you said is also right. It's best not to put the three of you together, and the three of you will easily cause confusion when you are together. It is also easier to cause loopholes for other people."

"That's it, separate the three of you according to your ideas, but it will take some time, I will go to contact my friends now, let them get on the ship and start our operation directly, so It won't affect you in any way.

What do you think of my idea? "

"I think it's okay, so let's do it. It's not too late. Let's start preparing now and wait until they have everything ready before coming to arrest me, or should we arrest me now?"

"There's no need to start preparing now. I'll make a phone call first and tell them to come up. We'll have a long-term plan in the future."

After finishing speaking, Fitness turned around and went out to call the one who didn't make a call just now.

At this point, Qin Yuan thought about Jason, what he said just now still makes sense, they should not be put together, and Chen Jixiang, this kid is very shrewd, even if I tell him some things, he may also find out.

Only, by separating them, he would not have so many worries in doing things. After all, if he really betrayed himself, then he would never have the face to face himself.

Qin Yuan thought to himself, and after a while, Jason came back from the phone call.

Qin Yuan asked anxiously:

"What's the matter? What happened there? Did your friends agree to you? Doing this is something against the law of nature."

"How can you say that? Do you really put your status so high? There is good news for you, don't worry for now, because they have already made a decision, It's decided, let you carry out this operation with them."

"Then how long will it take for them to come?"

Jason raised his wrist, looked at the time, then estimated and said:

"It will take about twenty minutes for them to arrive."

Qin Yuan nodded.

"Then it seems that they are quite fast. By the way, I feel that the time on the ship really does not distinguish between day and night.

I don't even know how long it has been up and how long until we get to our destination? "

Jason smiled and said:

"The days on the boat were indeed a bit sad, but, as you think, you will return soon, and there will probably be a day and a night."

Chapter 1900: Connect with sea kidnappers

Qin Yuan sighed and said:

"Oh, there is still a day and a night. I really can't bear it. Although the life at sea is fast, but it is not comfortable on land."

"It's true, but it will take a while for you to be wronged. After two days, when you arrive on the shore, you can do whatever you want. But now I have to hurry to arrange things like this for you.

If this matter has not been arranged for you, I believe you will not take my good friend to heart. "

"How can you say that? I'm not that kind of person, but if you can arrange it as soon as possible, let's arrange it as soon as possible. I'm also in a hurry now."

So Jason started walking out, ready to make a phone call.

Qin Yuan himself has mixed feelings, because he is not sure whether his guess is correct. In fact, he really does not want to hear any news that is not conducive to his expectations.

Qin Yuan said to himself beside him:

"I really don't want this kid Chen Jixiang to be tricky, my God, God bless him, please don't let him play any tricks, after all, this is a kid I trust very much.

If he really wants to betray me, then I really don't know who to trust in the future, and anyone I go to see will be very suspicious, which will be a very terrible thing for me.

If a person doesn't believe anyone in this world, then what's the point of him being alive? "

While he was talking to himself, Jason had already called back from the outside.

Heard, Qin Yuan kept talking beside him, he was saying:

"Hey bro. What are you talking to yourself about here?"

Qin Yuan came to his senses, Jason seemed to have heard his words.

"I didn't say anything, I just said something I was interested in. How about it, have you made the call just now?"

Jason shook his phone triumphantly in front of Qin Yuan, then said with a smile:

"Of course, I've already done it. Don't you feel relieved when I do things?"

"Of course, don't worry. Although I have only known you for two days and one night, I am still very relieved of you. How about it, have your friends promised to help you with this unethical thing? ."

"Why don't they agree? As you said, they are my friends. Even if I ask them for something immoral, they will never refuse."

Qin Yuan nodded in satisfaction, and then said:

"If that's the case, that's good. It seems that my plan has gone a step further here."

"Do you have any important plans to let me know if you don't mind?"

"My plan is to have your friends kidnap me and use the time to put on a show.

Let Chen Jixiang willingly hand over the secret in his hands. I believe that as long as I use this method, I will be able to achieve my goal. Although I think this method is not too open and aboveboard, but after all, is it a special method in a special period? "

Jason smiled, then said:

"You'll make excuses for yourself, but it doesn't matter. Since you are my friend, you will never doubt your motives."

"Since you have explained it clearly to me wholeheartedly, then let's act quickly. When your friend will arrive, lock me up first. If it is inconvenient, lock us up." In a house."

Before Qin Yuan finished speaking, Jason interrupted him.

"Wait a minute brother, I'm a nurse and I came up with a very perfect method, even more effective than the proposed method."

Qin Yuan's eyes showed his future expression, and then he looked at Jason and asked curiously:

"What is the method? Can you explain it to me so confidently? I don't believe you can come up with a better method than me."

Jason smiled and said:

"I think in order to avoid embarrassment, or to avoid being suspected by others, we may lock the three of you together in the same room first.

This allows you to meet and know that there is no secret between us, but this matter should be kept secret.

We should quietly go to the underground cabin and catch them up. "

Qin Yuan nodded thoughtfully, and then said:

"This method is indeed good. It seems that sometimes you are smarter than me and can think of a better way to solve this matter. Let's do this first, and you lock me in that house first."

Jason added:

"This matter, if I took the initiative to do it, it must not be like this. Because both of them know about our relationship, and these two boys are definitely not fools, so I think it's better for me to avoid suspicion.

Just let my friends pretend to be the people who came on board to check the documents. Then, I caught you all at once, and then took out your handles, so as to search them.

Such evidence will definitely not escape our search. "

Qin Yuan smiled and said:

"I thought you were a loyal and honest person, but I didn't expect you to be a bad person. Then do it according to your method."

Jason nodded, then looked at the sea behind, and said excitedly:

"You will look at my friends, their efficiency is really high, they have come to the vicinity of our pass.

It will take about a few minutes to board the boat. "

"Well, it's really good. Their efficiency is quite fast."

After a while, several of Jason's friends were watching, and the big and round people walked from the back of the boat to the deck where they were.

Jason smiled and said:

"I just finished calling, I didn't expect you to be so fast."

"Every time there is a special situation, don't we come very quickly?"

"Okay, let me introduce this to you. I just mentioned my friend Qin Yuan to you on the phone. He wants to ask me for help, and then I will entrust this matter to you.

I have explained the specific things clearly to you on the phone just now, so there is no need for me to explain it to you again. "

One of the leaders, a black fat man, said:

"You don't need to explain to us, we already know about it, if this is the case, let's start to act, you see we have even changed our clothes."

At this time, a tall and thin man next to the fat black man said:

"Is this method feasible? I feel that from your description, these two boys are not fools. If they find out, this matter will fall short."

"It should not be discovered by them. You should know that there is a word called thieves with a guilty conscience. Since they are smugglers. And it is the first time they have done this kind of thing. We promise to check and find out.

How many people's money have you cheated with this method in the past? "

Jason looked at the two of them while talking, and then said with a provocative tone with a smile on his eyebrows.

At this moment, Qin Yuan seemed to understand what kind of business these two people were in.

It seems that they should be assisting Jason, they want to extort more money from stowaways.

Qin Yuan walked up to these two people and stretched out his hand, then said:

"Hello, nice to meet you. Since you are Jason's friend and I am Jason's friend, then we are all friends too."

The fat black man and the tall thin man also extended their hands to shake hands with Qin Yuan.

Qin Yuan smiled charmingly, then said with the corners of his mouth crooked:

"Just now, didn't I, did I hear some unknown secret? I seem to know what kind of business you guys are in. I thought you and Jason were both in the business of smuggling people.

But I seem to have heard something that I shouldn't have heard.

You shouldn't throw me into the sea because of this matter. "

The fat black man smiled and said:

"How is that possible? We are all friends, this is our hidden income. We have also agreed with Jiang Shan. When they are sailing ahead, we will follow you. There is a slight chance that we will Just come up here to try it out, and then what? Ask those stowaways for some money, but it's not too much, who made them stowaways."

Qin Yuan has your home and nodded, and then said:

"Well, it's not too much, I think it should be. It's just..."

Seeing that it was getting late, Jason felt that this plan should be implemented quickly, otherwise it would definitely affect their next steps.

"Okay, let's not chat for now, wait until everything is done. Let's talk."

"Yeah, that's fine."

Afterwards, they decided to start their plan, and first they brought Qin Yuan into a room, and then the thin man and the fat black man were ready to go to the underground cabin to catch He Chenguang and Chen Jixiang.

Qin Yuan was quietly waiting for their next plan in this room.

At this moment, his heart was still beating drums. Because he is not sure whether this task can be completed, if it is really exposed, then it is quite silly. This will also lose Chen Jixiang's trust.

But if you lose his trust, you lose his trust. Whoever made him keep so many secrets from him didn't regard himself as a good brother at all.

At this time, in the dark underground cabin.

A group of people approached Chen Jixiang and He Chenguang aggressively.

The two writers were not sleeping at this time, one was angry and couldn't sleep, the other was thinking about too many things and couldn't sleep, seeing a group of people approaching aggressively, the two of them were also shocked .

He Chenguang said:

"My God, what's going on here?"

"I don't know what the situation is, but we can see if they have other purposes."

"What purpose can they have?"

While the two were discussing frantically, this group of people had already come in front of them and said:

"You two get up and come with me."

Chen Jixiang looked at this group of people with a bewildered expression, not knowing who they were at all.

"Who are you guys? Did you tell us to take a trip once?"

"You kid, why are you talking so much nonsense? If you tell you to come with us, just follow us. If you don't come with us, I will abolish you today."

He Chenguang is a smooth person. After all, he has so much more experience than Chen Jixiang. In fact, Chen Jixiang is also a smooth little one, but recently he has too many secrets in his heart, and these secrets are enough to make him Not so nice and friendly anymore.

He Chenguang said with a smile:

"Brothers, don't be angry. Aren't we curious? We just woke up, and we are a little confused now. Can you tell us who you are?"

"We are randomly checking the IDs of everyone inside. How about you? Can you do it? If you don't have IDs, come with us!"

In fact, He Chenguang knew very well in his heart that this group of people came here to make trouble.

"We have the certificate, but..."

"Please cut down the nonsense and don't explain here. If you have all the procedures, come with us first. Can't you see the clothes I'm wearing? We just randomly check you people. Among you people, there are Stowaways mixed in, among them."

At this time, Chen Jixiang said:

"Seeing or not, this is the way they face us. But logically speaking, it shouldn't be possible. Isn't everything we have, Jason, already at the point? Why do they still board the ship and come to trouble us?"

He Chenguang whispered in Jason's ear:

"Of course this is not the case. There is a group of people who are called the end of the smuggling at sea. They are specially following these ships. Whenever they find an opportunity, they will upload it immediately. Randomly check a few people and pretend that they are related. The person in charge looks like.

I think they just want to extort some money. If we give them money, they should be able to avoid disaster. "

Obviously, He Chenguang is a person with very rich experience.

He is not afraid of this group of people at all, because he knows what these people do.

Chen Jixiang nodded suddenly, and said:

"So that's the case. It seems that I still have relatively little experience. I haven't even seen what their purpose is.

So if they just want money, then we'll give it to them now. "

After speaking, He Chenguang took out some money from his pocket and handed it to the two of them.

"Brother will give you money."

Unexpectedly, these two people did not give him face, and knocked the money to the ground with one stroke.

"Who do you think I am? We are here to check on you and have nothing to do with money."
