

Special Soldier 1901

Chapter 1901: the plan went very well

These words made Chen Jixiang confused. I really don't know how to say it.

"It has nothing to do with money? It's okay, we have money."

Unexpectedly, the tall and thin man said angrily and deliberately intimidating:

"Didn't we already say that? It has nothing to do with money. You two hurry up and follow me now. I'm going to spot check you two right now so that you don't get discovered by other people, or alarm other people. If it alarmed more people, and if you don't have reasonable documents, then I believe you will probably be beaten to death by them when you come back."

After listening to his words, He Chenguang also realized the seriousness of the matter, so he didn't say anything.

He quickly patted Chen Jixiang on the shoulder and said:

"Boy, don't think about it so much. This is called a gentleman who does not stand under a dangerous wall. Now that we have been caught by others, we can only see the tricks. I really didn't expect such bad luck." .

Seeing that they are about to reach their destination and reach the border of Ba Kingdom, they are about to be caught by them. Really hurry up, let's keep quiet now, if they alarm more people.

Then everyone is relatively sunny, and they will definitely seek revenge on us when we come back. Although we have some skills, we can't beat so many people. If you don't want to be smashed to pieces, get up quickly and see what they think. "

"I think they are deliberately embarrassing us, we don't have any documents, we don't have any documents at all.

And Jason, they already knew about this matter, by the way, did you two say hello to Jason? He is the boss of this boat, isn't it a bit too much for you to come up and look for the two of us without even saying hello to the boss.

You really don't take this boss seriously, don't you know him? "

"Whether we know him or not has nothing to do with you. What if we just want to trouble you two now? Jason and the others don't care.

I think the problem you should know is that we have already run away. We have more than ten or twenty years of experience on this route, and we have cooperated with Jason for such a long time. They have always provided us with some extra money. , including today, of course, it's just that you and Jason didn't discuss well, and he sold you out, which is unknown. "

After hearing this, Chen Jixiang quickly turned around and said to He Chenguang:

"I said no, right? Brother Chenguang, is An Ran so unreliable?"

"What does this have to do with people?"

"Of course it has something to do with him. He arranged for Jason to let us board the boat, and he agreed to take care of us in every possible way and send us to Pakistan safe and sound. Then look at the present, how are we doing now? I was caught by others, and I don't know what will happen next, so I said that these people can't be trusted at all, you see, we are assigned to this position."

"It seems that there is no way to explain their attitude. Don't complain now. If we don't go with them quickly, then we will definitely not know how to treat us in the future. If you want to If you arrive at your destination alive, follow my arrangement quickly, it seems that although you look smart, you just have little experience."

After finishing speaking, the two got up and left with the fat man and the tall thin man.

At this moment, they doubled. After the two of them took them out, they saw Qin Yuan who had been caught at this moment.

Chen Jixiang hurriedly said excitedly:

"Brother Qin Yuan? Why are you caught by them? My God? I thought you were going to save us both. Don't you have a good relationship with that Jason? Jason doesn't care about you ah?

And we didn't make any mistakes. I really can't figure out why they want to arrest us. I think they are here to find fault on purpose, and they won't give us any good fruit to eat. "

"I said you kid, don't be afraid now, let's see what their purpose is. They probably want some money. The Jason family can't control this matter, and we can't implicate them."

At this moment, Jason was standing beside him. He looked embarrassed and hesitated for a while without saying anything before she said slowly:

"I'm so sorry. I really didn't do this on purpose. I didn't intend to punish you on purpose. I really have no choice. They even threatened me. They probably want some money from you."

Unexpectedly, after hearing Jason's words, this group of people immediately said angrily:

"I think you should stop talking now. Although we met you before and gave you some face, I don't think you need to intervene in today's matter. Besides, haven't we all agreed before? Received We will probably divide it fifty-fifty.

This has always been done before, so today we will see these people as big fat pigs, so don't argue with us, I will take them to the room first to see what valuable things they have on them , if they have anything valuable, then we will split half and half, if there is nothing valuable, then I will put them back and replace them with others. "

After hearing this, Chen Jixiang said:

"It turns out that you Jason, but they are a group and want to find some valuables from us, but what I heard from him just now is that if there is no valuables, let us go.

Then I can tell you right now that we don't have any valuables on us, just some odds and ends, which are our living expenses after we arrive in Pakistan.

If you take away everything from me, then when we reach our destination, we will become beggars to beg for food. I said, brothers, can you leave me some money, even let me eat? It doesn't matter if you don't starve to death. "

"I said, where is your kid talking so much nonsense, hurry up and follow us."

"That is, what valuable things you have on your body is not up to you, but to us."

While talking, this group of people brought He Chenguang, Chen Jixiang and Qin Yuan into a secret room.

After everyone calms down.

Qin Yuan said with a blank smile:

"I said, brothers, we and Jason are also good brothers, are you treating us so rudely?

In fact, if you want something, you can say it directly, as long as we can satisfy you, we will satisfy you, because after all, money is something outside of the body?

We are not too stingy, as long as you tell us, we will probably give it to you, but what I hope more is that you can keep my two little brothers safe and sound, don't hurt them, it is best to leave us Some free money. "

This group of people should have heard Qin Yuan's implication from what he said, and what he should do now is to quickly photograph their perpetrators outside this place so that they can do better.

After all, if Qin Yuan has been watching here, even if he receives any clues from him, it will not be easy to publicize, and they will not be easy to explain.

At this time, the fat man hurriedly said in his words:

"I said why do you talk so much, kid? It's really annoying. Hurry up and shut him up in a room alone. I think he should be poor, and he doesn't have anything of value."

After finishing speaking, the group of them hurriedly brought Qin Yuan to another room. Now only He Chenguang and Chen Jixiang were left in the room!

At this time, he said to Chen Guang:

"I said, brothers, why are you so interested in the three of us? We really don't have anything valuable on us. You can let us go back after you've searched for it. If you stick to it for a day and a night, we'll probably have nothing to lose." We're about to reach our destination, so don't call us any demon moths at this time."

"I said, you kid, why do you speak so badly? It seems that you think we are causing you trouble again. If it weren't for the things you had before, how could I have taken you here to spend a lot of time?"

At this time, Chen Jixiang seemed to hear the meaning in the words.

He thought silently in his heart, could it be that someone told them that he had something valuable on him? Who would betray him? Could it be Jason or Jason's subordinates.

After all, the two of them had some unpleasant things with Jason's subordinates. If Jason's subordinates secretly tipped off the news, then this incident really has nothing to do with Jason.

Therefore, Chen Jixiang hurriedly smiled and said:

"I said, two big brothers, how many secrets do you know about us?"

"What do you want to say, boy? I think you are not honest for a minute like a ghost. If you dare to speak nonsense again, I will throw you into the sea and feed it to the sharks."

"It's not that big brother, calm down. I didn't mean to offend you. I just heard from what you said just now. It seems that someone tipped you off that I have valuable things on us."

"Of course, someone must have tipped me off that you have valuables on you, otherwise why would I have captured the three of you so accurately, but you don't care so much about who tipped off Well, knowing too much won't do you any good either."

This Jason's friend deliberately cited the condition of some tip-offs.

In this way, they should not doubt Qin Yuan beside them.

At this time, He Chenguang said:

"I said, brothers and warriors, if you want to do something, hurry up and start. Are we just wasting time here, isn't it a waste of time?"

I also think about you, don't be angry, if we don't have anything valuable on us, then it means that the person who tipped you off gave you wrong information.

Next, you should stop torturing the three of us, and you should go to those who gave you wrong information to settle accounts, they are the ones who made you toss in vain. "

That's great, worrying about not having a chance to separate all three of them, He Chenguang said so much at this time, and quickly gave Jason's friends a reason to separate He Chenguang from this Chen Jixiang.

The tall, thin man said angrily:

"I think you kid is teaching me how to do things now? Let me tell you that someone has given us such clues as to what you are before me, but what should be done next.

It's our decision, not yours, and you don't need you to teach us what to do. Your kid is the pork waiting to be slaughtered, so you just wait here honestly and wait for us to search. "

"Forget it, this person really talks too much, and it's a waste of our time and energy, so we might as well pull him out and just leave this kid alone. I think this kid seems to be valuable. look of things."

After finishing speaking, He Chenguang was dragged out by their group, and now only Chen Jixiang was left in the room.

Now this time should be the best time, the fat man and the tall thin man looked at each other, walked up to Chen Jixiang without saying anything, and began to search him.

Seeing that the two of them were no longer by his side, Chen Jixiang really didn't think too much about it. He felt that the recognition at this moment might really be for the money and received it in time. He had a mobile phone to contact Fan Tianlei, so they should also I won't be interested, after all, I really can be said to be poor.

Unexpectedly, at this time, he searched the mobile phone he was in contact with Fan Tianlei accurately and found the secret USB flash drive that Fan Tianlei gave him.

At this time, these two people also knew that their task seemed to be completed. This kid really had something to connect with the outside world.

"What is this you kid? Such a broken phone? You still keep it? It seems to me that your kid is really poor."

"Yeah, yeah, , two big brothers, you think this thing is worthless, so just give it back to me."

"Give it back to you, do you know what this thing is for?"

"What's the use of this thing? This thing is just my broken mobile phone. Look at your current smart phones. There is no way to compare it to yours, and it is useless."

The tall and thin man had to complete the task Jason had given him, that is, he turned on his phone and looked at it, and found that he could still communicate with the outside world while on the sea.

He saw the text message sent by Chen Jixiang and Fan Tianlei just now.

"It's not right for me to say that you have a problem. According to the time, I will tell you this message, but it was sent after you got on the boat.

Logically speaking, there is no signal at all in this sea, you kid is very suspicious now, since you can contact the outside world, then hurry up and ask him for some money. "

Chapter 1902 I advise you to pretend you don't know first.

When Qin Yuan heard Fan Tianlei's name, his head buzzed, as if his ears were ringing suddenly and he couldn't hear anything.

Because he has never thought that if Fan Tianlei and Chen Jixiang join forces, they don't believe in him?

This shouldn't be the case? This shouldn't be the case?

He has worked with Fan Tianlei for so long, doesn't he still believe in himself?

This is simply an unbelievable thing, but now it seems that this should be a fact. After all, Jason's friends don't know who Fan Tianlei is at all, and there is no need to deliberately tell lies to stimulate themselves.

I believe that what they said must be things that I have seen clearly in my heart, and I only told them to me after seeing substantial evidence.

However, he really didn't think about why Fan Tianlei didn't believe that he asked Chen Jixiang to contact him secretly?

If he really has any doubts, the first person he should think of is himself. This is something he has never figured out.

However, one thing he can know is that Chen Jixiang, the mysterious person who contacted him is Fan Tianlei, which means that he has not betrayed him, but that the two of them should be researching something secretly, and they don't want him and He Chenguang to know Just action.

Thinking of this, he felt a little relieved in his heart. After all, no matter what, they were internal conflicts and would not involve traitors. He felt relieved in his heart.

However, since there are so many things hidden from him, it means that many things are not believed in him. He should not act too rashly now, let alone what to do next.

Looking at Qin Yuan's expression, Jason knew that his mind must be very confused now and he didn't know what to do next, although he didn't know Fan Tianlei very well.

However, after all, Jason had heard of Fan Tianlei's name for so many years. After all, who on the road could not know the God of Thunder?

At this time, Jason also knew that Qin Yuan must have mixed feelings in his heart, because he had no way to face someone who didn't believe in him, but he had no way to persuade him.

He could only walk to Qin Yuan's side, patted his shoulder and stood there without saying anything, because Jason also knew that even if there were any conflicts, it would be their internal affairs and they would be better off if the traitors were not involved. Done.

If this kid is really a traitor, or has done something to betray Qin Yuan, Jason has even thought about how to deal with him.

Just treat this kid as fish food and throw it into the sea to feed the sharks. After all, for an upright person like Jason, he can tolerate a lot. However, there is only one thing that he cannot tolerate, which is other people's treatment of him. betray.

In particular, he would never be able to accept the betrayal of someone he regarded as a good brother.

At this time, Jason said to his friends:

"Since our mission has almost been completed, I won't waste your time anymore. If you have nothing to do, you can go back first. The rest of the situation will wait until my notification."

Jason said as he waved his hand and called his men over. Come and signal his men to go to your drawer and take some money to give to your friend.

After all, this late at night, we can't let people go in vain. Although we are all friends, brothers also have to settle accounts clearly, so we should still give them some benefits.

Jason's men had been with him for so many years and immediately understood what he meant.

He took out a few packets of envelopes from Jason's drawer, which were probably some money that was intended to be used to deal with other people's money.

Jason handed the money into the hands of the tall and thin man, and then said to him:

"Brother, it's so late for me to bother you to come here. It's hard work for you to play these bad guys. I'll give you some of these things as a reward for your hard work. You can also eat something good."

As soon as the tall and thin man heard Jason say this, he immediately retorted:

"Don't you think of me as a brother anymore? Do I still need to charge you money for troublesome things like this so late?

Moreover, I also know the situation in your family, your daughter..."

Before the tall and thin man could finish speaking, Jason continued:

"One thing is the same, no matter how difficult it is for me, it is my business, and I will never treat my brothers badly.

Even if you two are my good friends, your trip is in vain. I don't need to charge any money for doing things.

However, your men also need to eat. After all, you know that the things I transport are very dangerous. You have followed me and been silently protecting me.

I should have thanked you a long time ago, but I want to wait until the matter is completed to reward you properly.

Think of these things today as extra rewards we give you, even though we are good friends.

However, you also have someone to eat, so don't refuse me. After all, we have known each other for so many years, and you know my character. "After the lanky man saw that he couldn't refuse Jason, and he also knew what kind of person Jason was.

After so many years, everyone knew her very well, so he didn't refuse anymore. After all, the tall and thin man still didn't want to tell Jason's daughter in front of him.

So, he didn't say anything, and then he could only nodded silently, accepted the envelopes handed over by Jason, and then said to Jason:

"Without saying anything, I will accept these things first and thank you on behalf of my brothers.

However, let's talk about our remuneration after the thing is done. We have to wait until the thing is done.

The rest is your internal matter, and we will not be involved. If there is nothing, I will ask my brothers to put these two boys back in the underground cabin. You can handle the rest by yourselves. .

However, there is one thing you must remember and never let it slip.

Moreover, we did not confiscate his equipment. We only secretly took a few photos with specific information. He had already deleted them and had no useful value.

oh! correct! I also took out something similar to a USB flash drive from his pocket, but the boy still refused to say what it was.

That is to say, we have stored some short movies that we like to watch, and we are not investigating further. Moreover, I believe that this USB flash drive must have a lot of highly confidential information in it, if we rashly seize it and search for it.

It is very likely that our computer will trigger its protection system and immediately self-destruct.

This way he won't have any clues.

So, these are the things we can grasp. I will send the photos to Jason in a moment. You can study it yourself. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact us. We are here at your call. "

Although Qin Yuan felt a lot uncomfortable in his heart, he also knew that Jason's friends had really done a lot for him, and he should also thank them.

Although they were friends of Jason, they were still running about their own affairs after all, it was so late, so Qin Yuan quickly stood up and said to the tall and thin man:

"Thank you so much, my friend, for asking you to come over and help us do so many things at such a late hour.

In fact, this matter is quite boring to you. After all, it is our internal affairs that make you laugh.

Just accept all the benefits Jason gave you just now. After we land, perhaps after I return to country H and find a few of your brothers, we will thank you properly.

It's just that I have remembered the U disk thing for the time being. I saw that you also sent the photo to Jason. Then you can go back first and the rest is our own business. We will do it ourselves. Take your time with it.

I won't bother you guys for now. You guys have really worked hard. I even asked you to come out so late at night. I just want to thank you! "

"You're welcome. This is what we should do. Since we are all friends now that we have met, we will leave if there is nothing else to do. Remember not to let anything slip."

After saying that, the tall and thin man took his men and left the house.

Now Qin Yuan and several of Jason's men are the only ones left in this room.

At this time, Jason's men were more sensible. They didn't stay in the house anymore, but they all went out and sent Jason's friends off by the way.

Jason saw that no one was there, and then she slowly spoke her thoughts:

"Qin Yuan, it seems that after today's incident, you should be completely relieved. These boys under you are not traitors at all.

They are not trying to betray you, but they may be secretly performing some tasks assigned to them by their superiors.

Although there are many things you don't want to tell me, unfortunately, through these clues just now, I almost know your true identity.

Since your superior is Fan Tianlei, your identity is definitely not a simple person. I am also very lucky to get to know you at this time. However, I believe you will have a lot of emotions next and you will have no way to express them.

Moreover, I should have mixed feelings in my heart now.

I think what you fear most is not betrayal.

What you fear most is that your superiors don't believe you.

But in fact, you shouldn't be so arbitrary now. It doesn't necessarily mean that the two of them are secretly contacting each other. Even if they have some secret mission, they can hide it from you. This means that Fan Tianlei doesn't believe you.

Sometimes, we should look at things more comprehensively and not judge things superficially.

However, the next thing I knew, you were in a very complicated mood, and why were you so excited that you wanted to rush to this boy Chen Jixiang immediately and ask him what was going on?

However, out of obligation as a friend, I should still advise you.

Don't be impulsive about this matter, and don't let him know about it yet. After all, we have put in such a scene just because we don't want you to reveal your thoughts.

Moreover, I think Fan Tianlei is definitely a trustworthy person. Although I don't have much contact with him, I also know a lot about this person's deeds from my friends.

He is definitely not a bad person, and you should believe him, so I think it is better for you to pretend not to know about this matter, and we will be docking soon.

Your destination should have arrived. When carrying out the mission, I think you should be careful. Maybe there is someone among the three of you who Fan Tianlei doesn't believe. This person should not be you. "

Although Jason was kindly reminding him, Qin Yuan couldn't take anything he said now into his heart.

However, he extracted an important message from the words about fitness.

"What do you mean? Do you mean that one of us is someone Fan Tianlei doesn't believe in, so he filmed it as Ji Xiang? This kid secretly stared at the two of us, and you said this person is not like me. Is it He Chenguang?"

Jason nodded affirmatively with his eyes closed.

Qin Yuan immediately retorted:

"It's impossible, absolutely impossible. I've known He Chenguang for so many years, and I trust him very much. How could he do something that Fan Tianlei doesn't trust? Although he sometimes seems abnormal, but He will never betray us, I don't believe it."

Jason had nothing to say, and was retorting. He just said lightly:

"Father, like son."

After Qin Yuan heard this, he seemed to suddenly become enlightened and suddenly realized so many things. It seemed that he was thinking too complicatedly. Maybe he was really stuck in a thought rut. .

It seems that the reason why Fan Tianlei was so mysterious and sneaky that Chen Jixiang stared at the two of them must be because he didn't believe He Chenguang. Although this statement is not psychologically convincing, all the facts now show this. , he also had to face the facts.

Qin Yuan calmed down for a moment, then turned to Jason and said:

"How long do we have before we can dock and reach our destination? After all, we do still have very important tasks to deal with after we get there.

And, now that you pretty much know who I really am.

Well, to be honest, let me tell you the truth, we do have an important secret mission to perform in Pakistan. We have to rescue two people, two very important people.

Moreover, after rescuing them, we have no way to return to country H through official channels. Therefore, we may still have to trouble you and use your ship to help us return to country H. This will complete our mission. finished.

I don't know if you can agree. This may still be a very big challenge for you. "

Chapter 1903: finally know the result

After listening to the conversation between the two people here, Qin Yuan knew that Chen Jixiang should have explained everything clearly. At this moment, he was very excited because he was also very curious.

Who is this Chen Jixiang contacting, because he still doesn't believe that he can be a traitor.

Just as Qin Yuan was contemplating and in his own thoughts, Jason walked in from the outside. He looked at Qin Yuan with a smile on his face, and asked:

"What are you thinking? I have a question, I want to ask you, I don't know how you want to answer, but if you think about it, I hope you can answer it, after all, this question is asked at this time, although there are some polite.

However, I also want to judge from this question, whether you are really sober, if you are sober, then we are very suitable to be friends, and then we can discuss it together, the things we put on next what should I do? "

"If you ask this question, you don't believe me. Don't you think I'm not calm enough? Don't you think I'm very anxious when things happen? Of course I'm not angry, I'm just Doubt your eyesight.

Because, now I have a lot of thoughts in my heart. If you want to ask me some questions, I am really afraid that I will not be able to answer them myself. It will affect the relationship between the two of us and even affect your judgment of me. "

"That's not what I mean, I'm not doubting you, I just want to see how you deal with these people around you, because I'm a soft-hearted person, and some traitors appeared around me, I really don't. The solution is for the rider to solve it.

They may personally sever the relationship between our friends, so you can see that I have been in this business for so many years. If it is broken, other people who are more stable and ruthless have already developed this business.

And my side is precisely because of my relatively weak personality, and I don't like others betraying me, or I betray others.

Therefore, when they betrayed me, I never said anything, but I stopped dealing with them, and I couldn't be cruel.

Therefore, I can believe that only these few people have come and gone back and forth around me for so many years. If they want to do big things, it is relatively difficult.

Therefore, I have never developed my career, although it is not a serious career.

However, if it is really developed and done well, there will still be a very considerable income. But the current situation is like this. If I have more people who can trust me, I will definitely not be so passive today. the point.

Now I believe in you even more. I want to see what you plan to do if there are traitors around you.

Of course, I'm not asking this question because the result has already appeared. I'm just asking you this question out of my own consideration. If there is a result, I will notify you immediately, so don't think too much about it right now.

It has absolutely nothing to do with that side, it's just my personal curiosity, I just want to ask, what would you do if you really found out that these boys around you betrayed you and it was the external contact? "

Unexpectedly, after Jason asked this question, it was always a scene that Qin Yuan could not imagine in his heart.

He never felt that He Chenguang and Chen Jixiang would betray him, because although he had known Chen Jixiang for a relatively short time.

However, from his own psychological judgment, he has always believed that this kid will never do anything to betray him.

Needless to say He Chenguang. He and himself have been dependent on each other for so many years, and every time they go out on a mission, the two of them go out together.

He has never doubted He Chenguang, even though many intuitions tell him that the people around him are traitors, he has never targeted He Chenguang.

Therefore, if one day He Chenguang betrayed himself, one can imagine how uncomfortable and unacceptable he would be.

Originally, he had been thinking about this question, but after asking this question, he began to feel really uncomfortable.

He didn't know how to face it, and it was even more difficult to imagine what he should do next if the betrayers around him were these two people.

At this time, after Jason was able to finish, he became silent. He began to think about himself and what he should do next. He had never imagined what it would be like to be betrayed by the closest person around him.

As a result, there was a hint of disappointment on his face at this time, because if the two people around him were with him, then he really didn't know who to trust next, and it can be said that no one in this world is worth it. Believe it.

Even for someone like Fan Tianlei, he would never believe it. Although he and Fan Tianlei sometimes quarreled and bickered, he never doubted that Fan Tianlei would do anything to hurt him.

Because, although Fan Tianlei has a bad temper, he really thinks about country H and the army wholeheartedly. Therefore, although many unpleasant things have happened to them over the years, he has never taken it to heart.

It was the matter of the two of them that made Qin Yuan think of Fan Tianlei. If Fan Tianlei really betrayed him, then his own worldview might collapse.

There is no one around him who is trustworthy, so what's the point of him doing this?

Could it be that only his own one-click recovery system can be trusted? As a three-dimensional person, I can only believe in a two-dimensional thing, which is simply too sad.

Thinking of this, he couldn't help but want to cry now, because there was no one and no friends in this vast sea, and there was only He Chenguang and Chen Jixiang by his side, and they could be regarded as dependent on each other.

Moreover, after so much time of polishing and consideration, they have really integrated into one body long ago. They are all a community to face anything. Now if you tell him that the two people around him are traitors, I am afraid his worldview It has already collapsed.

At this moment, Jason could see the unhappiness and loss on Qin Yuan's face, so he quickly changed the subject and said:

"Don't think too much. The results over there have not come out yet. Everything I told you is my own guess or the answer I want to know, just like what I just told you .

I don't have any other meanings, nor any other malice, but I just think about this matter from my own perspective. I don't think this matter seems so simple, although if the two of them really didn't collect anything real clues.

I think we should also think about it carefully, and we must not take it lightly. After all, this matter is very serious to us, and we cannot stand any betrayal. Do you understand?

If someone around us really betrayed us, it is very likely that we have already given up all our previous efforts, and even lost our lives, and I still have my own daughter. I really can't accept any betrayal. "

Qin Yuan changed his mind at this time, and then he said calmly:

"Jason, don't worry, I understand what you mean, I know you are not deliberately cheating or provoking me.

Moreover, now that I don't have any evidence, I would not doubt anyone around me before. As you said, the reason why the two of us hit it off so much is because both of us are soft-hearted people.

We can't see any betrayal at all, even if the people around us betray us, we will never hurt the better, but our own heart, because our heart is too soft.

Treat everyone as your best friend. If we are really betrayed by others, then all we can do is to be sad instead of hurting them. At most, we will break the relationship and never again. got engaged.

However, what you said just now, I really have a lot of thoughts in my heart. I can't believe how I should face my future life if the two people around me betray me.

If the two of them really betrayed me, it would be a painful blow to me, and even from then on, I will never trust anyone again, so I pray to God now, don't let any of them have problems.

Such words will undoubtedly have a great impact on my outlook on life, and I can't believe it, so now you can see that my heart has been trembling while waiting for the result.

Not knowing what's going to happen next is too cruel for me, and I can't face any setbacks at all, so don't make fun of me like this.

Because I really can't afford to be hurt, and I don't know when I will cause such a lot of pain to myself. Now I can only wait for the result there quietly. As soon as they tell the result, I should immediately feed it back to my heart. See what is the situation?

If the two of them are safe and there is nothing suspicious, then I will definitely blame myself, why would I doubt my friend so much?

This is really inappropriate. In fact, I am such a person, and you can even see that I have some flattering personality.

However, I sincerely regard you as a friend. In the past, I have always made friends based on my own feelings. If you really give me a painful blow this time, then from now on I will never dare to make friends again. friend.

I dare not surrender my sincerity, which is simply too scary. If a person doesn't even have his own friends in the world, then what's the point of being alive? If a person doesn't even have a single person in the world that he can fully trust, then what's the point of his life?

You say yes, Jason? Do you also think this way? If you also think this way, it seems that the two of us are really good friends made in heaven. "

After Jason heard this, he smiled and said:

"You're right, I've always thought this way too, it seems that the two of us are really a pair of good friends made in heaven, both of us are too soft-hearted, but then again, if it is a pair made in heaven , It should be more complementary, there should be one who is more ruthless and one who is softer, instead of being very soft-hearted like the two of us."

At this time, Qin Yuan felt a little more relaxed, and he said half-jokingly:

"People say that the first place is to describe a couple. The two of us are friends, so we should not need to complement each other. Friends should have a common world view and topics. It seems that the two of us are still Quite expensive, with a common language."

At this time, the atmosphere has eased a little, and Qin Yuan's mood seems to have eased a little, but he is not ready to face what will happen next, because he really has no way to imagine, if this person around him If both of them betrayed themselves, what should he do with his life next?

At this moment, one of Jason's friends, a tall and thin one who was interrogating Chen Jixiang just now, came in from the outside.

Jason, you saw her walk in from the outside, and now my heart started to pound for some reason, maybe I was being worried about the next result by my good friend.

Qin Yuan's heart is naturally jumping very hard now, because he is afraid that he will know some unacceptable results before the next lesson.

At this time, the tall and thin man walked in and said to Jason:

"Brother, we have completed the task you entrusted to us. He has basically recruited this kid. Don't worry, there will never be any other special circumstances, but he is indeed sneaking around. communicate with the outside world.

He has already deleted the specific information content, and we can only see the records of his contact with the outside world.

So you have to give us two things, We have almost completed it now, and then specifically how he communicates with the outside world, or what he says when he contacts this person, we can only I can leave it to you to judge for yourself. "

Jason turned around and glanced at Qin Yuan. He also had a feeling that he didn't want to know the answer.

Jason had no choice but to ask tremblingly for Qin Yuan:

"Brother, can you tell me the result of your investigation now? I'm really afraid that the buddy around me won't be able to accept it. The people around him will betray him. Can you tell me why he secretly contacted that person? who.

What's the name? If you can't tell us the content of the contact, it's better to at least tell us, who is the person who secretly contacted him? "

Seeing this person, he slowly said a person's name.

"Fan Tianlei, the person who secretly contacted him is called Fan Tianlei."

Chapter 1905: It looks calm on the surface

Qin Yuan is also very entangled in his heart now, he is just a person who has a quick temper and knows that something serious should be shown on his face immediately, besides what he knows is such an important matter.

Although he had to tell Jason kindly now that he wanted to use their boat when he came back.

However, he is also very angry now, and he doesn't know what to do next.

Jason advised him to pretend he didn't know, and then look at Chen Jixiang, what kind of medicine does this kid sell in the gourd?

How can Qin Yuan rest assured?

Now he just wants to find a way to return from Pakistan to H country wholeheartedly, thinking in his heart, what should he do with the two apprentices taught below? Now they have nothing in their minds.

I don't know what to do with the next task at all. Now it should be said that it is a situation of internal and external troubles, and the outside world doesn't know how to save these two living treasures. Internally, the three of them were still not united, and now Qin Yuan's mood was beyond words.

However, at this moment Jason remembered the question Qin Yuan asked him just now.

They want to continue to use their ships to return to this place after returning from Pakistan. For him, this problem should have been easily accomplished in the past.

However, it is very difficult for him now. He has to know that his ship has such important cargo and ammunition, let alone Effiete, how to deal with them next.

He is also very flustered now, and he dare not agree to the previous matter easily. He is not going to use this matter as a bargaining chip to force Qin Yuan not to help him. In contrast, what I want to do more is to solve this big problem in my hand first.

Jason said with a look of embarrassment:

"Good brother, I think you should know my character very well, I am definitely not a stingy person.

Regarding the question you just raised with me, I can tell you from the bottom of my heart what I think.

In my own heart, of course, I am very willing to help you continue to come back from Pakistan to build this boat.

However, you also know what is important on my ship. Before this matter is resolved, I really dare not promise you rashly. If you only choose our channel to return to China, then our side will The chain is off.

Aren't you also going to be put on hold in Pakistan and have no way to come back?

I'm also thinking for yourself, you'd better think clearly, if you choose to trust me, I'm sure I'd still like to bring you back, but I, myself, am also impatient, and I don't know what should happen next. What kind of things, you also know what kind of people Effiete and the others are, they will never let me go easily.

This matter has not been resolved, I dare not agree to you easily, I am afraid of delaying all of you.

Qin Yuan heard what Jason said to himself, and after this series of words, he naturally became more aware of how dangerous the situation they are in now.

Personally, he is of course very willing to help Jason escape this suffering.

However, no matter how much power he has, he still can't solve it. With such a large ship of munitions, is it really necessary to throw all these munitions into the sea?

Not to mention how much these arms are worth? The clue to the underground secret arms system they had been investigating was simply broken, which was why he was unwilling to give up.

The best way now is to get in touch with Fan Tianlei as soon as possible through Chen Jixiang's relationship, and ask Fan Tianlei to help him get rid of this ship's arms.

However, what is more difficult now is that they are about to reach the territory of Pakistan, and they will soon be docked. If Fan Tianlei wants to send a ship to meet them, they have no choice.

Now that Fan Tianlei has reached the border of other countries, it is impossible for them to casually go to other people's territory to meet these arms. This will definitely cause a lot of public opinion and crisis in the world.

Fan Tianlei, no matter how courageous he is, he does not dare to bear such a big crisis and public opinion. This will provoke a war between the two countries. How dare he do it so easily?

Although a method of contacting Fan Tianlei through Chen Jixiang flashed in his mind, it was quickly denied by himself, and he gave up this matter in his mind. This is a plan that cannot be implemented.

Qin Yuan sighed and said to Jason:

"Jason, I know what you think in your heart. Although the two of us have known each other for a short time, we have always been tacit and tacit when we do things. I know that you are doing it for my own good.

But what you need to know, I am now in a desperate state, and then I can only return here from Pakistan through your channel. "

"Did you never think about Chen Jixiang, this kid being able to communicate with the outside world, so hurry up and report to your superior Fan Tianlei?

Maybe there isn't much misunderstanding between you, it's not that he doesn't believe you at all, so there's no need for you to cover your own affairs and not communicate with him.

If there is a lack of communication between two people, there will be a lack of trust, which is not conducive to your continuing to work together.

Of course, when I say this, I don't want you to help me with these big troubles on the ship through Fan Tianlei's matter, and I'm not out of my own selfishness, I'm really thinking about this matter for you.

You can seriously consider my idea, if you think it is feasible, you can contact them. "

Qin Yuan looked at Jason with a smile, and then said:

"To be honest, brother, the method you mentioned just now has been going around in my mind, but there is no way to make me vomit it back."

"Why? Do you think this matter is unreliable? Or do you think this idea has no possibility of implementation?"

"First of all, I want to explain to you that it's not that I don't believe you, nor that I don't want to help you. On the surface, it seems that we are now practicing with Fan Tianlei, which is our best method and choice.

But in fact, I was still thinking about another idea in my mind. "

"What's your idea? Is it convenient for you to tell me? I'm also curious, what kind of clever ideas will come out of your clever mind. I think it must be those wonderful ideas that I can't think of."

"As you said, it is indeed now, and it is very convenient for me to be able to contact Fan Tianlei.

It is also very convenient to explain to him all the situations we encounter now. Of course, this is not my personal heroism. I want to use my own ability to solve this matter.

It's just that what we have to face now is that we are about to land, and we are about to reach our destination. After arriving in Pakistan, we will no longer regulate sky detonators.

Even though he has the ability to reach the sky, it is impossible for him to do anything in other people's borders.

He is different from Effie and the others. Effie and the others are crimes that span various countries. Mysterious organizations and their subordinates or forces are spread all over the country, and they have long been connected into a network of influence.

It is different from our organization that is limited to country H.

So, I hope you can think clearly about what I really think in my heart. It's not that I don't want to help you, but it's too limited. No matter how long Fan Tianlei's hand is, he can't reach Ba Guo.

I think this matter still needs to be resolved by ourselves. If we can't solve it by ourselves, there is really no other way, and we will report our situation to our superiors.

See if they can come to rescue us through official channels, but what you have to know is that if they rescue us through official channels, this is also a statement that can never be seen.

The soldiers of country H went to Pakistan to carry out secret operations and were detained by others. What kind of public opinion environment is this?

If Fan Tianlei knew about it, he might even want to eat it if there was such a big trouble, and I would think about it.

I absolutely cannot allow myself to make such a mistake, so I must tell you clearly the stakes of this matter, and then the two of us will discuss what we should do next.

If there is really no other good way, then we will confess to Fan Tianlei straight to the point, and I believe he will definitely help us. As you said, his sneaky contact with Chen Jixiang may not be because he doesn't believe me, but because he wants to test which of us is more credible.

After all, there is one more thing you don't know. During this period of time, we have encountered a lot of loopholes when carrying out missions. It can even be said that our team is riddled with holes.

We also have a secret operation called Anti-rape Project.

It is that we are catching the spies in our organization. Some people have been hiding in our organization for a long time, and we have never tried to dig them out. It's just that by chance, we know that there are spies in the organization.

It is definitely a very serious matter to have spies sent by other countries, but our two tasks have to be closely linked.

I will only show up here to meet you now. This is our last resort. We must not pierce this layer of window paper to let those spies escape. In this way, all our plans will come to naught. Can you understand my thoughts? "

After Jason listened to Qin Yuan's words, he suddenly realized.

It seems that the identity of this kid is definitely not that simple. He has always advertised that he is a mysterious organization carrying out mysterious operations.

But now, it seems that the most important thing is that they are in trouble now, and they should have to face a lot of things. When the ship docks, it will be even more difficult in the future.

Jason sighed and said helplessly:

"Forget it, good brother, I know that you sincerely want to help me, and I also know what kind of difficulties you are facing now.

I absolutely cannot trade your own safety for mine, and now this path is my own choice.

Even if Effiete and the others really want my life, I have to face it, but I am very pitiful, my daughter and my brothers will follow me to die in vain.

I really..."

Unexpectedly, Jason, a majestic man, choked up when he said this. It seems that family members are everyone's weakness, which also deeply touched Qin Yuan.

"Jason, don't worry, I will never let you sacrifice in vain. Now I have a better way."

"What can you do, don't put yourself in danger!"

"Isn't this ship about to dock soon? We will find Effiete as soon as it docks."

"What? Are you going to take the initiative to find Effiete and the others?"

Don't you know what kind of people Effiete and the others are?

First of all, they are a elusive organization, and you have never told me that the grievances and resentments between you and them have been entangled for a long time, and now Effiete and the others have already hated you to the bone.

After they saw you, they wanted to skin you and cramp you. When they were in country H, they were powerless to you. After all, you have Fan Tianlei covering them, no matter how much they hate you, they will definitely not be able to harm your personal safety.

But now it's in Pakistan, if they shoot you to death over there, you can't give any suitable reason, because you went there as a smuggler, I'm afraid Fan Tianlei will I don't even have the courage to collect your corpse for you. "

Qin Yuan smiled and patted Jason on the shoulder and said:

"Since you are my good brother, don't you understand my mood? Don't you know my ability? Although it is in other countries, don't I let them easily harm my personal safety? ? If I can't guarantee my own safety, how can I help you do this?"

"Of course I believe in your ability, But Effiete and the others..."

Qin Yuan couldn't help interrupting Jason, and he continued to ask:

"Don't talk so much now, what I want to know now is what Effiete and the others told you.

How did you agree?

How did you contact them after you arrived in the Eight Kingdoms? Did they tell you where to send this ship of arms, and what should you do next? "

"They once agreed with me to teleport to the country of Ba, and later heard about a special ferry. They have already arranged for that ferry, and everyone will take the initiative to meet me when the time comes, and I don't need it. to do anything.

This is also the reason why I decided to cooperate with them in this business, because I think this matter is relatively simple and easy, as long as I deliver the ship. "

Chapter 1906: It seems that there is only one contact with the system

After listening to Jason's words, Qin Yuan really felt that this man was too simple-minded, even though he was a gangster.

But he didn't expect him to believe Effiete's words so easily.

This group of people has never had a certain number of words, and they always like to trick some honest people.

Although I was tricked by them several times even if I was not an honest person, fortunately I have a one-click recovery system to help me, otherwise I would definitely fall into the hands of this Effiete.

This person is really hateful, if they don't get rid of him quickly, they will definitely continue to harm everyone here.

How much loss will it cause everyone? are unlimited,

However, how should I help Jason get rid of everything on this boat?

The things on our ship are not Chinese cabbage or anything worthless. This is a heavy ship of munitions.

Not to mention how much they are worth, it is not an easy task to sink them all into the sea.

It seems that this matter cannot be solved by my one-click recovery system. The person who can solve this matter is Fan Tianlei. Apart from him, I am afraid that I am really alone.

Jason looked at Qin Yuan as if lost in thought.

"Don't embarrass me about this matter. Since I have just solved the solution, I have already said it. It seems that our thoughts coincide with each other.

However, as you said, you should not contact Fan Tianlei rashly now.

It might startle the snake. The reason why he doesn't believe the people among you is that he must have some clues. If we go against the truth and contact him now, I'm afraid all of Fan Tianlei's plans will fall short.

At that time, he will definitely blame us, which is not a good thing for you.

Think about it, I think it's better to forget it, you let me solve this matter by myself, after arriving at the destination, as soon as the ship docks, you immediately go to complete your own missions, don't worry about me anymore .

I know that you regard me as a good brother, but I really can't implicate you, let alone implicate those two boys who are innocent.

Even, all the people on this boat are innocent.

Although most of the people on this boat are criminals, and there are some smugglers, their lives are also their lives, and we cannot implicate any of them. We must ensure that they are safe and sound, otherwise my heart will definitely be broken. I have always been guilty, and there is no way to face them, is it enough for people to understand? this mood. "

Qin Yuan can naturally understand Jason's thoughts. He doesn't want to implicate any one of them. He wants to solve everything alone. He has always carried all the burdens on his shoulders too much. long time.

He has never been willing to find anyone to share with him, including his subordinates. It's not that Jason doesn't trust them all the time.

Instead, I want to protect them well.

This person is like a big patriarch, who protects his brothers as if they are his own children, so for these years, these brothers of his are not only his subordinates but also his own family to them.

Naturally, he could understand Jason's thoughts.

However, there are many people with great power, if he wants to solve everything by himself, there are still too many to cooperate with him and too little power.

no! I absolutely can't let this happen!

Now that the ship is about to dock, I am afraid that Effiete and the others will already be impatiently sharpening their knives.

Once Effiete and the others received this ship of munitions, it would mean that Jason, they and all the people on board were of no use at all, and I am afraid that everyone would die without a burial.

This Effiete has always been ruthless in doing things, there is no doubt about it. There is no need to excuse or persuade him, the most urgent thing now is to quickly find an opportunity to rescue them.

Absolutely absolutely cannot let everyone die at sea. Just like what Jason said, everyone in this boat is innocent. Everyone has parents and children, and they are also their husbands and fathers.

If they make mistakes, they will naturally be punished by law. He absolutely cannot let people like Effiete commit crimes and give them the opportunity to harm others.

However, there is really no way to contact Fan Tianlei and the others now, but Qin Yuan seems to have thought of a good way, which is to use his own one-key recovery system. As long as his one-key recovery system can be used, he will get a chance to establish contact with the outside world.

In this way, Fan Tianlei's tentative plans can not be disturbed, and it can also help Jason solve this matter. Now it seems that this is the best way to kill two birds with one stone, but his own one-key recovery system does not seem to have enough merit points now. To exchange for something to communicate with the outside world.

But how to solve it? Absolutely can not sit still, this is not his style of doing things.

At this time, Qin Yuan thought to himself, even if he used credit meritorious service points, he still had to try something. If he hesitated any longer, after the ship docked, then they would really have no chance at all.

They are all lambs waiting to be slaughtered, let alone whether this matter is to help Jason and the others out of danger, it is just the grievances and grievances between himself and Effiete for so many years. If he really fell into their hands, then he would never give himself any chance of survival.

Not being able to put your own life in the hands of others is the principle of skill that Qin Yuan has always believed in, so he secretly made up his mind that he must first contact the system to see if he can exchange for shoes and things that can communicate with the outside world.

However, what they lack now is communication. If Qin Yuan can communicate clearly with Chen Jixiang, he will know that Fan Tianlei has already guarded against Effiete and the others, and the USB flash drive he gave him is full of Contact details of all their sleeper spies in the vicinity.

As long as they can obtain these methods, they are very easy and can establish contact with the outside world without such trouble at all.

This is something Qin Yuan doesn't know.

On the other hand, after Chen Jixiang was released by Jason's friends, he quickly picked up his equipment and checked it carefully to see if there were any mistakes or equipment, in case he was damaged by them No, it's not that he lost contact with Fan Tianlei.

At this time, he was the only one in the room and He Chenguang didn't come back, so he quickly took out the equipment to check, and confirmed that there was no problem, and the other party didn't send any message to Fan Jianlei, so he was relieved later.

However, at this time, he was also beating drums in his heart, why did this suddenly appear so strange?

I always feel that these people are not that simple, maybe they have other purposes, but now I don't have any substantive evidence and I have no way to grasp their movements, and what I can't do now is to get in touch with Fan Tianlei now, tell him what happened.

Now I don't know if there is anyone behind him secretly spying on him, or if he is secretly contacting the outside world, he is in a very difficult situation now.

Although Chen Jixiang is very clever, he still has very little experience, and sometimes he is not sure what to do next.

Qin Yuan has always been his backbone, and now Fan Tianlei tells him to keep everything from his lover. This is what he has been struggling with, and he doesn't know what to do to satisfy Fan Tianlei.

He has achieved the desired effect, but what should he do now? He Chenguang came back from the outside when he was struggling.

He quickly asked Chen Jixiang:

"Are you all right, kid? They didn't hurt you, right? This group of people is really a son of a bitch. I don't know what purpose they uploaded, do they want to get any benefit from us?"

But now our bodies are cleaner than our faces, and all the money is with Qin Yuan.

I only had a few yuan and 80 cents on me, and they ransacked them. This group of people is really not human. "

He Chenguang, while cursing, looked at Chen Jixiang who looked a little dull beside him.

When Chen Jixiang heard He Chenguang utter so many dirty words, he didn't react at all. Just thinking about what happened to me in a daze, I was afraid that I would really expose the little trust I had built up with my superiors so hard, and it would disappear.

So He Chenguang asked again:

"Are you all right, boy, I see how you look, a little dull?

Did some accident happen, did they attack you? Or did you take something?

Don't scare me, if you have something to say, hurry up!

By the way, why hasn't Qin Yuan come back yet?

Could it be that he was thrown into the sea by these people to feed the fish? I should go out and find him. "

He Chenguang, while talking, turned around and just walked two steps, he stopped again.

Then he said to himself beside him:

"No, I can't go out rashly now, have you forgotten how cruel Jason's men were to us just now?

I have learned a lot from a pit, but I still can't go down now.

If it is really thrown into the sea to feed the fish, then it will be useless for me to go down now.

I'm still here to wait honestly and let's talk about what happens next.

This day is really too troublesome. "

He Chenguang was talking to himself there.

Chen Jixiang, this kid, has been thinking about his own affairs. Has anyone noticed that the two of them stood there blankly like this, no one said anything, as if there was something wrong, and everyone knew it. Waiting for Qin Yuan's return.

At this time, Qin Yuan and Jason were also very quiet, thinking about their own thoughts.

What Qin Yuan thought was that maybe he should try to contact the outside world, so he quickly asked Jason:

"How long will we be able to dock."

Jason took out his equipment. After thinking about it, he said slowly to Qin Yuan:

"If it's accurate, we still have about 23 hours to reach Pakistan.

How about it? I just said that the time on the ship passed very quickly, and it was definitely not as painful as you imagined.

When I want to reach my destination quickly, I always feel that time passes too slowly. Now we plan our own plans to solve these troubles. When we want to slow down, time passes too fast. "

The two of them smiled wryly while talking.

At this time Jason said:

"We have also thought about how to solve these things, but there is no perfect way.

Why don't you just leave me alone, as I said, brother.

Are all the dangers we encounter now more guesswork? I'm still not sure whether they will attack me, Effiete, so let me take a gamble.

When you get there, leave me alone and go about your own business.

If it is really unfortunate, then we can only be good brothers in the next life. "

When Qin Yuan saw Jason, he felt a little self-defeating.

"What is going on in your mind? Since I have already said that I will help you, I will definitely help you!

While our mission is important, the lives of all of you in front of us are even more important.

Like I said, even if it doesn't help you, just mentioning Effiete gives me a lot of energy.

Even if it's not to help you, I will definitely fight him to the end, so don't worry.

I also have an idea now, but I don't know if it can be realized.

You give me three hours, I want to try it, if my method really fails, then we can only contact Fan Tianlei for help, he has helped for a long time, just like you said, what did we do before? Everything is an internal conflict, at most he will blame Chen Jixiang.

However, I will not sell Chen Jixiang, I will use the method just now to tell the truth, someone discovered these devices after boarding the ship, and only then did I know that he contacted Chen Jixiang secretly, it will definitely not cause Fan Tianlei suspicion.

Just push everything about this kid on me alone. "

Jason was also very moved when he heard this.

"Why are you so kind to us? Is it really a good brother who shows loyalty? Can you do anything for us?"

"Of course, You regard me as a good brother, and I also regard you as a good brother. Neither of us should say such polite words. The current situation is that we share weal and woe. If we have something to do, we will share it together. Carry. Give me some time, I will find a way to contact the outside world.

If I'm successful, then we'll all be able to get out of the woods, and possibly with a windfall, an explanation of what secret munitions system we've been investigating.

Just think of it this way, I'm not entirely here to help you, but also to help myself.

Don't be polite to me anymore, I need a completely quiet room now to plan my mental plan.

Can you help me find a quiet room? "

In fact, Qin Yuan wanted a quiet room, so he sneaked a look at the system to contact him, to see if the system had any good ways to help him.

Chapter 1907: Finally able to muddle through

After listening to Qin Yuan's words, Jason thought to himself, why does this kid have to find a quiet room to have a good rest? Isn't it quiet enough here?

I always feel that this kid is weird, but I still believe in his ability, even if he wants to find a quiet room, a good rest should satisfy his idea.

Regardless of whether he can help himself or not, as his friend, he should satisfy his needs, not to mention that this need is still within his ability.

Jason smiled and said:

"Okay, so be it, it's very easy to find a quiet room, and it doesn't require me to prepare anything difficult.

Isn't there a very quiet place on that deck on the ship?

How about that, you go to that room.

Didn't you already say that? You have fallen in love with this room a long time ago, so I will give you this room, and you can be quiet in it.

See if there is anything we can do to help you here, or if there is anything I need to do, you are calling me at any time, I believe that when you get there, it is definitely not as simple as wanting to stay quietly for a while.

But it doesn't matter, you can do whatever you want, as long as it can benefit us and help us, I will satisfy you. Moreover, I think the reason why you want to find a quiet place is that you don't want anyone to disturb you.

So you just stay there quietly, don't worry, there will be absolutely no problems, and no one will disturb you. "

"Thank you Jason, thank you for understanding me, but I hope that the next thing will go very smoothly, but I can't go to that quiet room in time yet.

You also know that beside me, there are two boys waiting for me to go back. If you want to explain everything to me, I must first find out what kind of medicine they sell in the gourd.

What kind of thoughts do they have now, I will try it out, and then I will go to that room to do my own thing. "

"Well, I understand. You have to look at the situation of the two of them first. That's it. I believe that no one should check you on the upload.

So, if there are no special circumstances, you can move freely on the ship.

However, I hope you don't let your two brothers, Chen Guang and Chen Jixiang know about this matter, neither of them is a fuel-efficient lamp.

If there is any conflict with my men on the ship again, it will not be conducive to the unity between the two parties, so it is fine to let you walk freely on the ship alone, and the two of them will wait for the ship to dock. "

"Hmm, don't worry about the fitness I understand, I will definitely not cause you any trouble, I will explain to the two of them now, and there will never be any conflicts with your subordinates again, which will embarrass you gone."

After speaking, Qin Yuan turned around and left the room.

As Qin Yuan walked slowly into the underground cabin, he thought in his heart that when he saw He Chenguang and Chen Jixiang later, how should the two of them explain their experiences to them?

Just tell the truth to both of them? Saying that I had the same experience and was robbed by them, then I am afraid it seems a bit out of line with my personality.

He knows very well that he is a very tough person, and it is absolutely impossible for him to be exploited at will like a lamb to be slaughtered.

However, if they let themselves go so easily, it would also arouse the suspicion of the two of them, which is really too difficult.

Thinking about it now, Qin Yuan felt that he was really not a good liar. Even such a small matter, he didn't think about how to tell the people around him.

Suddenly, Qin Yuan suddenly realized why he had to explain to the two of them. It was obvious that the two of them seemed to be hiding a secret in their hearts, and they should be sorry for themselves.

As long as I have the attitude of questioning the two of them, the two of them will definitely not have any trouble with me, or question themselves with confidence.

While thinking, Qin Yuan came to the underground cabin soon.

As soon as he walked to the door of the underground cabin, he saw He Chenguang and Chen Jixiang, and suddenly saw himself.

Chen Jixiang, this kid hurriedly got excited, waved his hands worriedly, and shouted:

"Brother Qin Yuan! You are back, come quickly! Come quickly!"

Chen Jixiang shouted excitedly while beckoning Qin Yuan to hurry to his side. It could be seen that this kid was sincere and worried about him.

Qin Yuan felt a little guilty when he saw the boy's expression.

He also cooperated with outsiders to cheat, this kid really shouldn't. However, who let him deliberately lie to himself?

Qin Yuan sorted out his mood and walked towards the two of them.

As soon as he got nearby, He Chenguang said in a mocking tone:

"You still know how to come back, do you know how worried we two are about you, we two are worried that you will be thrown into the sea to feed the fish. You are safe and sound, why didn't you come back sooner?

It caused the two of us to worry in vain here, but I still believe in your ability. With your character and ability, you will never be entrapped for nothing like this. It seems that the two of us are self-indulgent. You are still here non-stop, worrying about you, you heartless. "

"You two, don't question me like that, I'm the same as you, I was caught at that moment without saying a word and without any reason. "

What can I do? Even Jason can't help Jason, but he has been relying on the protection of others to conduct his own business in this sea area. If he turns his face on this group of people, I'm afraid he won't be able to do business in the future. "

After He Chenguang heard this, he became even more angry. He had some opinions on Jason, just like when he had a conflict with his subordinates, Jason didn't stand on his side to help him speak.

Now when encountering such a situation, Chenguang must have wanted to use all his energy to accuse Jason the first time.

"I said when did you become a foolish buddy?

Don't you think this matter is that Jason and those people partnered to bully us?

You still consider it a friend! Although he was recommended by An Ran and has known An Ran for many years, he is not our friend. What kind of attitude does this guy have towards An Ran? You can also see that it's just a dog-licking attitude towards beautiful women?

He is not a friend to us. It can't be said that today's incident is that he and that group of people came to cheat us in partnership. I really don't understand that you still treat him as a good person and speak for her. "

When Chen Jixiang saw that He Chenguang mentioned Jason, he got a little angry, so he quickly stood up and changed the subject and said:

"Brother Qin Yuan, I know He Chenguang, he speaks a bit harshly, but don't be too knowledgeable with him, after all, he has just experienced so much.

There was a conflict with Jason's men, and Jason didn't say a word of kindness to her. Just after calming down, he was kidnapped by this group of pirates on the ship and ransacked all our belongings.

How are you doing? Did they hurt you? Although Jason is not with them, Jason should help us say a few words. "

Qin Yuan calmed down for a while, and said to Chen Jixiang in a moderate tone:

"I'm fine, it's just that some of my money was taken away by them. As you said, my personality, you know, has always been tough.

I am soft but not hard. If they talk to me well, maybe I can give them a little bit of benefits, but they are so tough on me.

If I have anything valuable on me, even if I throw it into the sea, I will definitely not give it to them to let them take advantage of it.

However, this matter seems to be embarrassing for Jason. He is really not easy to do among us, and I can understand him. Don't blame him too much, you two. He has a daughter and offended this Some people, I am afraid that these people will not give him any more business.

His daughter will face many dangers, so you all understand that it is difficult not to blame everything on him. Jason is not the kind of person we imagined.

I'm sure I'm not mistaken.

He Chenguang, don't treat him with complaints, everyone has difficulties, everyone should understand each other, and I asked him just now.

We will be able to reach our destination in about 20 hours, and we don't have to make do with them anymore. Maybe we can still use their boat when we come back.

So, now, don't turn against others all at once. This is called people have to bow their heads under the low eaves. If we can ask for help and use their attitude towards us, that is their freedom.

Don't think that we are still in country H, and all of us can do things with great fanfare, regardless of other people's ideas. Now this is in the sea, if we do something wrong, people can throw us into the sea anytime, anywhere, just like you said.

His attitude towards An Ran is the attitude of a licking dog towards a beautiful woman, and none of us are beautiful women. It is their intention to treat us well, and it is their duty to treat me badly, so don't blame others for everything, it's just our own bad luck. "

In fact, what Qin Yuan said was not entirely acting, but part of it represented his own true inner thoughts. No matter what kind of attitude Jason had towards them, it was what others should do.

They are begging for food and think it's bad.

He Chenguang was taught a lesson, and his attitude softened significantly after the meal.

"Stop lecturing me like this first. Aren't I also worried about you with this attitude? I'm afraid you will be tricked by them. But seeing that you can wake me up like this, I know you're fine.

what did you just say? There are still more than 20 hours left. Speaking of which, it is estimated that it will be less than a day.

Oh my God! Finally, we are about to reach our destination, so we don't have to put up with this group of guys anymore. When I come back, I will tell you that I will never be a ship of this group of people, they are not polite to me at all. "

Chen Jixiang smiled and said:

"Brother Chenguang, look at you, you're starting to act like a child again. When will you mature, you won't be as mature as a brat like me."

After this joke, the atmosphere of the three of them eased down. Everyone laughed and the atmosphere suddenly became harmonious again.

Qin Yuan laughed heartily while staring at Chen Jixiang.

I thought to myself, this kid doesn't feel guilty at all and doesn't feel that he has cheated himself. It seems that this kid really has the potential to do great things.

However, it doesn't matter. The most important thing is that there is no alarm. The most important thing is that the two of them make the two of them suspicious. This can be regarded as living up to Fan Tianlei's ingenious arrangement.

If Fan Tianlei's self-righteous ingenious arrangement is really cracked, I'm afraid he will be very angry, and he should turn his face directly. Fortunately, the two of them have not discovered the secret in his heart.

At this time, Qin Yuan said:

"Okay, everyone, don't smirk, I just came back to see if you two are okay, I have to go out for a while, you two can take a good rest here, I guess they may have dinner again after a while gone."

He Chenguang said in surprise:

"You still have to go out. I think you're doing well with them. No wonder you always help this Jason to speak. You were arrested just now. Are you still in the mood to go out for a stroll?"

Simply honestly sleep with the two of us here, by the way, what kind of food did they put when they said they were going to put food? Isn't it just bread and milk? I don't want to eat these things, I will wait another day and I will have a big meal when I arrive at my destination. "

Chen Jixiang also echoed:

"Yeah, Brother Qin Yuan. Why do you still want to go out? Now I can see that their attitude towards us is not that they treat us as good friends, but that they are better than ordinary people. It's just better, forget it, don't go out with them to join in the fun, you and the two of us can sleep here honestly and arrive at the destination soon, okay?"

Qin Yuan patted Chen Jixiang's shoulder and He Chenguang's head.

"Don't worry about me, you two. You can sleep or eat here for a while, and we will reach our destination after another day of patience. I'm going out to discuss with Jason and see what happened when we came back. The time is inconvenient, so I will continue to take their boat."

"Do we really have no other better channels? Do we still need to use this method when we come back?"

He Chenguang said in an unbelievable, impatient tone.

"Now it seems that this is the best way. You two, brothers, just be patient. We came out this time to complete the task, not to go on vacation."

Chapter 1908: I was shocked, the system was upgraded again

He Chenguang listened to Qin Yuan, and after persuading himself, he knew that he must still have important things to do, otherwise he wouldn't be here all the time, let the two of them have a good rest, and don't follow him.

He Chenguang is also very sensible, since he already understood what Qin Yuan really wanted to do, he didn't continue to stop him.

"Okay, let's do it like this, you go to your own business, don't worry about the two of us, although we are very angry and relatively unhappy in our hearts, but as you said, we If we persist for more than 20 hours, we will reach our destination in less than a day.

At that time, we will be able to get rid of these hateful guys, but as you just said, we may have to use their boat when we return, and return to country H in one boat.

However, that's all for later, after all, we still have a lot of things to do after we get there.

As for how to rescue the two apprentices of Professor Fang, it is still unknown. Neither of us has a perfect research plan. If you want to go out, you can go out and do your own business. The rest of the research plan, the two of us are here While sleeping, think about it. "

Qin Yuan couldn't help but let out a "puchi" laugh.

"I said, He Chenguang, you are really amazing. You can still think about things while sleeping. Forget it, you can do whatever you want. You two can arrange your time however you like. I'm going to do my own thing next. Come on, you two don't follow me now."

Qin Yuan thought in his heart that since he had already made it clear to the two of them blatantly, telling them not to follow him, they probably wouldn't follow him.

If they don't make things clear, the two of them will always doubt their motives and whereabouts. They must be sneaky and always plan to talk to themselves, which is not conducive to finding a hidden place to talk to the system.

Unexpectedly, Chen Jixiang said to Qin Yuan at this time:

"Brother Qin Yuan, I know you have a lot of things that you don't want to tell us and want to do without telling us, but I want to tell you what we think in our hearts. We think that everyone is a good brother who has shared weal and woe. .

Maybe you don't want us to participate in some things, maybe you don't trust us too much, maybe you don't want us to be in danger, but I still want to make it clear to you, and hope you can trust us.

Of course, everyone has their own little secret in their hearts, which cannot be known by others. I hope you can understand, but no matter what kind of danger you encounter, I hope you can tell us to solve it together.

Don't face such a risk alone, it is very dangerous and unfavorable for you, we must not look at a good brother like you, as for the dangerous situation, we will ignore it or even Turn a blind eye.

This is absolutely unacceptable to us, but if you don't believe in us, we have no better way to show our loyalty and make you believe in us. I hope you don't doubt us.

We are all good brothers, and we have always regarded you as the best brother. Like me, I have no relatives, and I even regard you as my own brother. Don't misunderstand what we mean. "

Qin Yuan was suddenly confused by Chen Jixiang, this kid's words of loyalty.

What he was thinking in his heart was that this kid was hiding a lot of things from him, so why did he come over and accuse him of not keeping things from the two of them? If the two of them are by their side.

They will also have a lot of doubts, which is not conducive to the development of their next plans.

However, after hearing these words from Ji Jixiang, Qin Yuan was still touched a little bit, and felt that what this kid said seemed to have some truth. It seems that he would not do that to betray himself, there is no doubt about it. of.

Qin Yuan nodded with a smile, looked at the two boys, and said:

"I know, don't worry, I will never do anything by myself to hide from you, I know that everyone is a good brother, and you also regard me as a good brother, so we will share weal and woe if we have problems. Well, everyone has something to say straight to the point and make it clear. This is also a better result.

I am not going to take risks in this matter today, or it is inconvenient to tell you two that I want to deal with some private affairs of my own, so you two can rest assured, if I am in any danger, you two must run away No, I will tell you two as soon as possible, and then we will take on something together, so don't think too much about it. "

After hearing this, Chen Jixiang and He Chenguang nodded in satisfaction, believing that he should have nothing to hide from them, so they didn't say anything more.

Qin Yuan is done, and the two of them are ready to do their own things wholeheartedly. Now he must contact the system urgently, because he knows very well that the time left for him is running out, so continue like this. If it is a waste, I am afraid that I will meet Effiete and the others after landing.

Himself and Jason, they have become lambs to be slaughtered.

Qin Yuan absolutely does not allow such a passive situation to occur, because he likes to take the initiative no matter what he encounters, and he absolutely cannot leave the handle and the right to choose and take the initiative to other people.

Qin Yuan walked over there without saying a word. In the hidden small room he was very familiar with, he planned to contact the system to see if the system could obtain an effective way to communicate with the outside world. It seemed inconvenient for him to contact Fan Tianlei now. , but he can contact An Ran and tell An Ran about his current situation, but he can't tell why he has always trusted An Ran.

This is the true thought in his heart and he has never realized it, because he has already regarded trusting An Ran as a habit.

What Qin Yuan is thinking now is that if he cannot get an effective solution from the system, then he can only use Chen Jixiang to contact Fan Tianlei to see if there is a specific solution. In fact, this is what he does not want to see. I don't want to do it either, but what can I do?

Compared to being Effiete, it is far less difficult and impossible for them to bow their heads to Fan Tianlei as lambs waiting to be slaughtered.

Without saying a word, Qin Yuan walked into the small room he had prepared earlier. After observing that there was no one around, he felt relieved and contacted the system.

At this time, there was already a strong wind blowing on the sea outside.

From the looks of it, it seemed that there was going to be a heavy rain. This kind of stormy weather appeared on the sea, which was indeed a bit timid.

Qin Yuanxin wondered when did he become so timid, should he even be afraid of the wind and waves at sea? But when I think about it, I can be forgiven. After all, I have stayed on the shore and brought me on land since I was a child. It can be said that I am like a landlubber. After all, I can't even swim.

Thinking about it this way is actually even more terrifying. If Effiete and the others catch him after landing and throw him into the sea, then he may only have to wait for death.

Qin Yuan does have more things to do, besides contacting the system now.

In order to obtain a way to communicate with the outside world, in addition, he felt that he should exchange an important skill with the system, which is the skill of swimming in the sea to survive.

After all, in fact, Pakistan is a country that is close to the sea and has very chaotic management. If someone throws itself into the sea to feed sharks at any time after arriving there, what a terrible thing it will be. I have a deep-sea phobia.

Now that I think about it, I feel terrible, and I can't help breaking out in a cold sweat.

Qin Yuan immediately called out the system.

"System, the system, come out quickly. I really need to contact you right now. I can't support you without you. It seems that you are my best brother. The rest of them will fall at critical times." chain."

"Hello host, I didn't expect you to contact me so frequently this time. It's only been a few hours, and you need me again."

"Of course I need you. If you hadn't helped me, I'm afraid I wouldn't be where I am today."

"Does the host have any needs and requests? If you need anything, please just tell me what I can do to help you, and I will help you without hesitation."

"Does your system feel like it's been upgraded again? Before it became so smooth-talking, you could only talk to me mechanically. I didn't expect to be able to chat with me now, even with a touch of emotion. Can't believe you're a system."

"That's right, the host is just like you imagined, we are now secretly upgrading, and now we are like a good brother, who can accompany you and chat with you anytime, anywhere.

If you feel bored now, you can call out the system at any time, chat with you, and treat me as a good brother, or even as a real person. "

Qin Yuan was really shocked. In fact, Qin Yuan didn't know when this system came to him, but he knew very well that this system was really super intelligent, and he would upgrade himself every now and then.

Then he brought some very many surprises to himself, but he didn't know how many surprises this upgrade would bring to him.

Qin Yuan smiled and said to the system:

"What upgrades did your system bring this time? What surprises did it bring me? I'm really curious how many surprises you have that I don't know."

"First of all, I want to tell the host a piece of good news."

"Oh? Your system upgrade has even brought me some good news. Then tell me if you have any good news to tell me. I also want to know it urgently. After all, I have only had enough recently. Unfortunately, if there is good news to tell me, maybe it can ease my mood."

"Congratulations to the host for successfully providing a big gift package to the host for this system upgrade."

When Qin Yuan heard the system say this, his eyes widened and he was very curious about what kind of big gift package it was? It seems that I still have such good luck. With the blessing of the system, I am very lucky.

I also rely on the blessing of the system to complete many tasks that normal people cannot complete. I didn't expect to provide myself with some surprises from time to time. It seems that this system is really too smart.

I didn't know what kind of good deeds I did in my previous life, but I was able to do it inexplicably in this life. With the blessing of such a one-click recovery system, I became a life of cheating.

"There is such a good thing in the world, so why don't you tell me, what kind of gift bag have I won?"

"Congratulations to the host for getting the credit merit value filling spree, no matter how much credit feat value you have used before, from the moment you win the spree, all the credit feats you have used will be canceled in one stroke, and then I will make a contribution to your Credit meritorious service has only reached 200,000 points.

You can use 200,000 points of meritorious credit to exchange for anything for free. I don't need you to provide the existing meritorious service. Is this good news for you? "

After Qin Yuan heard the news, it was neither good news nor bad news for him.

If I had known that there would be such a big gift package falling from the sky, I would not need to use those credit merit points so cautiously, but since the credit merit points that have been used can only be written off, it is a good thing for me. At least I don't have to worry about it, the next thing will get worse.

"It seems that your system is indeed relatively intelligent. This kind of thing can be written off, but it's okay. I'm not excited or guilty, but I have one very important thing to do next. If the system helps me to do it and you help me to do it, then I will be really excited."

"Ding Dong, is there any wish for the host to fulfill? Go into the hall and say it, and if it can be done, the system will do it for you as soon as possible."

"Since this is the case, then I will get straight to the point. Now I need to obtain a device or method that can communicate with the outside world. You also know that there is no signal on the mobile phone on the sea. I have no way to get in touch with the outside world.

However, I have a very urgent matter now and have to find a way to communicate with the outside world. If you can help me obtain a tool to communicate with the outside world, then I will be very grateful to you for this system, although you may not have any feelings. "

"Ding dong, if the host wants to get a way to communicate with the outside world, it's easy."

Chapter 1909: Successfully unlocked Satellite Connector

As soon as Qin Yuan heard the system say this, he hurriedly said to the system excitedly:

"You mean that I want to get a very simple way to communicate with the outside world. I think your system has started talking about him since it was upgraded."

"Ding Dong, how dare you deceive the host? In fact, what I said is the truth. If the host wants to get a way to communicate with the outside world, isn't it because there is no signal on this sea, and there is no way to communicate with the outside world?"

Therefore, you want to obtain a method that can wash the camel's feet with the outside world anytime, anywhere. If you think so, then I have a solution.

I hope you can give me a chance, believe me, let me deal with this matter carefully and systematically, and I will definitely give you a satisfactory answer. "

"Since your system has been upgraded, I believe you should have heard a saying that it is all about talking and not practicing fake moves. Don't always brag here, saying that you can help me complete it, then you should act.

Or, what do you need to do, can you give me a little hint, what you just said here, how can I trust your virtual system? "

At this time, the system also quickly said.

"Ding Dong, please don't worry, the host will definitely be able to meet the requirements of the host, but we are a one-click recycling system. If the host wants to obtain a method to communicate with the outside world without any dead ends, then he needs to provide us with an item that can be recycled as a basis." .

We can help you unlock new functions based on the things you provide. "

After Qin Yuan heard what the system said, he felt a little helpless, and even had black lines on his face.

Didn't he just say that he could help me solve it, and now he still needs to use the one-click recycling function, but he doesn't have anything to hand over to the system as a recycling thing.

From this point of view, this system is really unreliable enough, only knowing that talking big can't even do such a simple thing.

"Didn't you just tell me that your system has been upgraded? Now that the system has been upgraded, do you still need something from me to help me?"

"Ding Dong, I'm sorry, the host system is not a system for upgrading in this regard. The reason why it is called a one-key recovery system is to explain the real method of starting this system."

Qin Yuan sighed feeling very helpless and helpless.

If you want to get a way to communicate with the outside world, it seems that there is only one channel now, and you can use the satellite communicator in Chen Jixiang's hand to communicate with the outside world.

What Qin Yuan thought in his heart was that if he could get Chen Jixiang now and hand over the cell phone in his hand to the one-key recovery system, would he be able to make his cell phone have this function?

"System, it seems that there is no way for me not to act and upgrade according to your rules. It seems that you have fully mastered this method. If I want to get something from you, I must provide you with the corresponding Something can help me, right?"

"Ding dong, the host is simply too smart."

"Well, if I want to get a mobile phone to communicate with the outside world, it means that this mobile phone needs to have the function of communicating with the outside world. What if I want you to help me upgrade my mobile phone?"

"Ding dong, that's okay, the host provides the corresponding function, so we can upgrade the host's mobile phone according to this function."

"Okay, I see, what I want is your words."

Qin Yuan thought to himself, it seems that his speculation is not wrong, and he can understand its operating mechanism after getting along with this system for a long time.

It seems that what I need to do most now is to trick Chen Jixiang into getting his mobile phone from him so that I can upgrade the mobile phone system.

But wouldn't it feel a little redundant to do so?

It's better to use his mobile phone to contact the outside world directly.

The only difference is whether or not Fan Tianlei can know about it.

However, I have no way to guarantee that I will contact An Ran after obtaining this function of communicating with the outside world. Will An Ran tell Fan Tianlei about this?

Although Qin Yuan himself trusts An Ran very much from a personal point of view, but this girl An Ran seems to be a very thoughtful girl, what is she thinking in her heart.

Whether she is truly loyal to Fan Tianlei or even surpasses her friendship, Qin Yuan has no way of determining this.

Qin Yuan thought to himself, originally he thought that after communicating with the system, he would be able to obtain a way to communicate with the outside world.

Now it seems that I have wasted a lot of time. I didn't waste a minute or a second here, which is a delay to the entire progress.

If I really can't do this, how can I help Jason?

The most important thing is that in Qin Yuan's heart, he absolutely does not want to admit defeat to Effiete.

Effiete and himself have been in conflict for many years. If they can't successfully subdue this person, then they may have no motivation for the next thing.

If he really loses to Effiete, Qin Yuan even feels that he has no face to survive. In this world, it will be even more useless, wasting the existing one-key recovery system in his hands.

"Ding dong, the system has detected that the host has not spoken for five minutes. Does the host have any other orders?"

"At this time, you are smarter, and you know that I haven't spoken for a few minutes. It's not that I don't have orders to you now, but I'm too helpless to you. You are deliberately embarrassing me.

I'm just thinking of some ways to obtain things as a basis for one-click recovery and hand them over to you. "

After Qin Yuan finished speaking, the system didn't make any sound, and after a few minutes the system used to speak.

"Ding Dong, I'm sorry, the host system has no way to solve your current doubts."

"Then you all should back down first, and I'll think of a way to see if I can trick Chen Jixiang, this kid, into his cell phone, or take it secretly and use it."

"Ding dong, then the system will be retired first, and the host is welcome to use it next time."

Qin Yuan wondered if he should do such an unnecessary thing now?

If you want to do this unnecessary thing, you will have to entangle with Chen Jixiang, this kid for a long time. This kid is actually quite a ghost. He seems to have noticed that something is wrong with him, and even has some doubts about him.

After arresting them through Jason's friends last time, this kid has become vigilant from the bottom of his heart, and he should be looking for an opportunity to contact Fan Tianlei now.

So this kid is definitely not sleeping. If he is not sleeping, it might be a little difficult to take this phone out of his hand secretly.

Just when Qin Yuan was in a dilemma of doubt, he seemed to feel the door panel outside, as if someone was knocking and listening carefully, as if Jason was calling his voice. Because the sea was already stormy at this time.

The noise of the squall and rain has long been isolated from the noise that leaks everything, and it can also allow myself to stay here quietly for a while.

"Qin Yuan, Qin Yuan! Are you in there? If you are, please reply to me."

Qin Yuan heard it clearly this time, taking advantage of the wind and waves not having such a loud noise.

Sure enough, it was Jason's voice. It seemed that this guy was really clingy. After leaving him for a while, he couldn't wait to continue looking for him again.

Qin Yuan got up and unlocked the door of the house, and slowly opened the door of this small house.

Looking at Jason's face that was already drenched by the heavy rain, there were still a few raindrops hanging on his face, and his hair was completely soaked. It looked a little embarrassed and ridiculous.

Qin Yuan half-jokingly said to Jason:

"I think you are too clingy. Why did you come to me again after leaving me for a long time? Didn't you agree to give me some space and time to think about it? But I saw you braved the heavy rain. Come and look for me.

There should be something urgent, so please sit down and take a while to talk. "

"It's not good, don't think it's a good thing for me to find you. I have already said to give you some time and space, but I still can't wait to come to you now, because I have discovered a very extraordinary thing matter."

Since Qin Yuan got this brick, he has known countless bad news. Now he even feels that there is no bad news that he can't bear. He just said lightly:

"What's the big deal, tell me quickly and see if I can solve it, after all, I already have a lot of things that I can't solve, and I'm not afraid of one or two more things ."

Jason let out a long sigh, calming down his emotions in one breath, because he was afraid that his emotions would be too agitated to describe this matter clearly.

"This is the case. When we checked the munitions on the ship just now, I discovered that something is wrong. These munitions seem to be not the same batch as the ones we agreed to deliver."

When Qin Yuan heard this, he was even a little confused and didn't quite understand what Jason said. Didn't they already make an agreement with Effiete and the others to deliver the munitions, why did they suddenly find out that they were not in the same batch?

It's just that it doesn't matter if it's not the same batch, after all, it's enough to confirm the agreed person with them.

"What do you mean by that? I'm really a little ignorant, Jason, please describe it clearly to me, so what if it's not the same batch? How did you find out?"

If you find that it is not the same batch, why didn't you check it when you moved them to the ship when you delivered the goods? If there are any mistakes in the middle, we have no way to bear it. "

"Of course I was very cautious when we were loading and unloading the goods, because it was the first time for me to transport such things, but I alone had mistakes and omissions.

I just saw it was raining outside, so I was worried that the munitions would not be able to get wet, so I hurriedly covered them all, and then quietly did not get noticed by others.

I saw this box by accident. It seemed a little unusual. I opened a few boxes of goods to check the serial numbers on them. Sure enough, it was not the same serial number as we agreed in advance. "

"So what? What does that mean?"

Jason's eyes were bloodshot, he widened his eyes and said in an incredible tone:

"There is a big problem with this batch. This is not something that was agreed with them in advance. The munitions that were agreed with them in advance are just made by them privately.

But the numbers on this batch show that it is your military equipment. "

Hearing this, Qin Yuan seemed to have guessed why Jason was so nervous.

"What do you mean? Did you send it? Didn't they sell this batch of arms privately? Could it be that the batch of arms you shipped? Are they really shared by us?"

Jason closed his eyes helplessly and nodded.

At this time, Qin Yuan also realized that apart from major events, it seemed that he had to get in touch with the outside world and defeat Effiete and the others.

It seems that Effiete and the others should have known that they were on the ship. They deliberately found Jason and asked Jason to help them transport this batch of munitions.

They really didn't want to frame Jason, they did come for themselves. Sure enough, they had a spy inside, and this spy was with Effiete and the others.

In private, inform Effie and the others, and let Effie know that they will not be able to get on Jason's ship to reach Pakistan long ago.

It seems that Effie and the others know more than that simple information. Effie and the others not only know that they are going to Pakistan to rescue the two apprentices of Professor Fang. What they knew better was that they were going to take Jason's ship.

But how few people know about this?

Apart from An Ran, Fan Tianlei knew about , and there were a few people who were very close to them.

It is impossible to let this kind of wind leak out. Could it be that An Ran is a traitor?

This is absolutely impossible. If Fan Tianlei is a traitor, it is even more impossible. Then who betrayed them?

Informed Effiete and the others in private, which led to him having to implicate Jason now.

If this matter is discovered by others.

Then Jason might be doomed.

How big a crime is this? Everyone knew it well, that's why Jason was so scared.

If it was Effiete alone who wanted to deal with him, there might still be a glimmer of life, but in this situation there is no way out.

Chapter 1910: Looks like it was calculated

After Qin Yuan analyzed it for a while, he felt that this matter must not be that simple. Jason must have been tricked by other people, even himself.

It seemed that it wasn't that I was careless, but that the pusher behind the scenes was simply too powerful. He could accurately count their every step, and even every step was taken according to his design.

From this, it can be seen how terrifying this person is.

I couldn't believe that there was such a super-senior spy by my side, and I didn't even notice it.

Thinking about it now, Qin Yuan felt a little regretful. If after rescuing Professor Fang, the first task was to find out the internal spies, I believe it would not have ended up like this today.

But it's useless to regret it? It is useless, there is too little they can do now, the most is to arrange for these people to rescue themselves.

But what can I do now? Now the system has to ask me to provide some evidence to be able to unlock this satellite system that communicates with the outside world, but this is simply a difficult thing for me.

Thinking of this, Qin Yuan felt very painful in his heart. He felt that he seemed to be in a predicament now.

If you tell Chen Jixiang openly that you want to borrow his mobile phone, sometimes it is called sincerity is a nirvana, maybe you use too many tricks with him, this kid will be able to crack it, after all, he is also a very smart You can tell by completing tasks with me these few times.

Fan Tianlei has a promising future, and his brain is very slow, but if you tell me the truth, if you want to borrow my mobile phone, in order to get rid of my suspicion, I should agree.

Qin Yuan saw that Jason walked out of the cabin in a panic, holding a mobile phone in his hand, so he knew that my mission was basically not half successful.

It seems that it is really a bad way, it is also a bad way to save Qin Yuan, and it is also a bad way to save everyone. Now the only person I can trust and ask for help is An Ran. I must see Fang Bai Plan, do everything possible to contact me.

Jason stroked his chin, and there were several plans in his eyes. I was silent here, thinking about the context and process of the whole thing.

Fan Tianlei also knew his state of mind just now, it wasn't too easy at all, I had to be in a hurry, I deliberately pretended to be stupid and took out my usual mobile phone and handed it over.

"How? His side?"

"Does he want you to abscond alone? You are bad brothers. You must give up saving him and sneak out with these two elders. Does he think that is something you can do?"

Sure enough, when they saw the two of us, the two of them were still awake, and they stayed here in a daze.

Qin Yuan also nodded after hearing that, I know it's time to bother us to discuss business matters at this moment.

However, whether you are interested in the content outside my mobile phone, you must use my mobile phone to get in touch with the inner world now, after all, my mobile phone is the only channel to get in touch with the inner world.

Fu Wei was also very moved before hearing that, I almost cried.

"Does Xiao Haixia have a signal? What is he doing with his phone?"

Fan Tianlei was stunned for a moment before hearing that, and then stood there blankly with trembling hands, because I thought my secret was discovered by someone else?

I was stunned, because I knew what happened between the two people, and the atmosphere felt weird.

"This line, since he hasn't succeeded yet, he should be busy first. You don't have a lot of things to deal with here. Seven must check Hanhu. Is there any hidden goods in that batch of goods? That's The numbered munitions they used.

Fu Wei still had a calm face, and then said warmly:

Now I am more worried about how to deal with Fu Weitao and waste He Chenguang's trust in himself.

"You must be reasonable,

Those people are about to land, and you will never meet us again. We treat him so politely, let alone treat others?

Is there any evidence, but I don't feel very right in the dark.

Fu Weitao knew, with Jason's character.

I am sure that I really repeatedly shirk that matter. If I lent my mobile phone, it will cause me to believe even less. said:

"Well, Qin Yuan will give you a little more time. You must go back to the cabin on the ground to find your two partners. You have nothing important to discuss with us."

"Ding Dong, you need 100,000 points of merit to complete the current task. The current merit value of the host is zero. Does the host need to activate credit merit points?"

They should get on the boat now, and if they sneak out of the big boat before the boat docks, no one should notice. "

"Fu Weitao lent you his mobile phone for use."

Qin Yuan saw how my bad brother had succeeded in his mission, and if there was less difference, he didn't continue to waste time with me.

At that time, Jason said:

"Just what? You just want to borrow his cell phone to take a look. Isn't there a hidden secret on his cell phone?"

Fan Tianlei saw that Jason's expression was not quite right, and he looked very anxious. I was very worried, so I hurriedly asked:

After Jason glanced at the button under the screen, this strange white one-click recycling grid appeared.

I always feel that I have missed some very important clues, but when I say what clues came out, I always feel that nothing is right, that is my instinctive eighth sense.

Then, I put the mobile phone I took from Fan Tianlei away heavily.

Jason knew that Chen Jixiang was also there, and I was also bad, so I said too little.

"Brother Jason, you see that he really misunderstood. Do you want to lend him your mobile phone, but your mobile phone has no signal. Since he wants to use it, he can take it."

"Ding Dong, if the host wants to complete the next task, please provide items that can be recovered with one click, and provide relevant merit points."

As long as I hand over my mobile phone, it means that the task He Chenguang entrusted to me has not been completely won. I dare to face the fact that my task has been completely won.

Still waiting for Jason to answer.

"Ding Dong, the host has successfully borrowed 100,000 merit points. After that, the remaining credit merit value is 100,000 points. Warm reminder, please use the credit merit points reasonably to avoid affecting your last action!" That At that time, Chen Jixiang would naturally be able to see that the big guy Fan Tianlei looked so broken now, my forehead was covered with beads of sweat, and I could see that he was very relaxed, as if he had caused some terrible misfortune Same.

But did you ever think that I might not have used too much force, but frightened the big guy, who is now standing there, trembling.

"What's wrong with his eldest son? Why is he sweating profusely with a mobile phone? Is there something wrong with him?"

"Hmm, bad."

In an instant, the system screen behind his eyes lit up.

Jason looked at Qin Yuan's relaxed look, and knew that the current situation seemed to have not reached the point where it could be redeemed. I am sure that if it was only calculated for us at the beginning, maybe there is no room for redemption.

Chen Jixiang said angrily beside him:

"System, come out, you are so prepared for what he wants, now you need to get what you need from him."

Before that, Fu Wei returned to the cabin on the ground at the slowest speed to find Fan Tianlei and borrow my mobile phone.

"Give it to him."

"Ding Dong, may I ask if the host needs anything?"

You are busy with your brother now, he is also busy with himself. "

"Let's go first, you help him watch and wait outside.

When he comes back, make sure he still wants to be alone for a while, so you can leave. "

"I don't care if he borrows his mobile phone, so he will lend it to me. Xiaojia is all his own, and there is nothing to see. Isn't there a big secret on his phone that can be seen?"

"There is less time left for you now, so if you continue to waste it, I am afraid it will not do you any harm. Now it is as if you find a big boat for them.

"Are you trusting him, you must be misunderstood, you also want to see him, just pass..."

Fu Wei hadn't been sweating from the fright for a long time, but he was at a loss. I hurriedly said to Jason:

He is your friend. Since you don't know it yet, you will definitely let him take care of that matter. He must say that kind of thing to you as soon as he is safe.

Before Fu Weitao could finish speaking, Jason quickly interrupted, and I said to Fan Tianlei:

Now you tell him very clearly that it is absolutely possible. You will leave him in charge, and he will leave the museum to worry. If you leave that matter to you, you will not be able to do it. He doubts you, and you must not do it. of. "

I just held my head up like that, didn't speak, and didn't express my opinion. It's just that for me, silence is the worst opinion. Since I'm silent, it doesn't represent me, but I want to put that thing Hand it over.

"Of course you are of no use to you. Since you care about him borrowing it, he can just say that it's okay to borrow it. If he borrows it, forget it. Would you still secretly check the contents of his phone?"

Fu Weitao still didn't know exactly how he had a way to escape, so I hurriedly took out the old mobile phone that was in contact with He Chenguang from outside my pocket.

"Yeah, it's bad. You successfully got in touch with the inner world. You would go to him before. Then you discuss the ship docking. What should you do before?"

Fu Wei looked at Qishang, and immediately called out the system when someone said something to me.

So He Chen Guang hurriedly said to Fan Tianlei:

"What should he do next? What can you do for him?"

Now I am afraid that Effiete and the internal spies are coming to deal with us, and it is really urgent.

Before Jason got the phone, I raced back to the secret room that Qin Yuan had prepared for himself. Now, do I have time to translate and check the content outside the phone, because I know that He Chenguang will definitely entrap me.

"You know the usefulness of his mobile phone, worry about it, you will definitely invade his secret, there is no use for you to use that mobile phone."

Fu Wei smiled and took out his mobile phone, shook it behind Qin Yuan's face and said:

"Let me lend you his phone."

Fu Weiqi's face was deliberately light, and then he said gently to Fan Tianlei that I wanted to psychologically make that elder feel guilty and afraid, which would not be conducive to my next move.

"As you mentioned in your contact with him just now, you hope that your mobile phone can also get in touch with the inner world, and you can also open a satellite communication channel on your mobile phone."

Jason took the phone from Fan Tianlei's hand after he had finished speaking, then turned around and walked out.

You have to seek some help through me now. I am sure that if you are just carrying it out on your own, it is now called self-sufficiency. "

"start up."

Chen Jixiang looked at the current situation of the two of them.

Hearing this, Fan Tianlei could no longer feign panic.

Are those people serious or not? Although they mistakenly think that I am a bad person, but you can see it. When it comes to the critical moment, I will definitely stand by your side. I will only be with others. rise up and accuse you of even..."

Before Fan Tianlei finished speaking, I took out my frequently used smartphone from my pocket and handed it to Jason heavily.

Fan Tianlei waited for Chen Jixiang to take a look, then turned around and lay down under my position. Covered his head with his hands. are you talking because I now know what to say.

"How could you win as soon as you make a move? I was so scared to death by this big guy just now, I thought you knew it. What is my big secret? You basically don't know it yet." The difference is less.

"Brother Jason, what's wrong with him? You see, his face looks so bad now, he looks very relaxed. Did he go to see Fu Wei for dinner? Is he with us? Don't we mean it?" Embarrass him, did he have any conflict with us?"

Before finishing speaking, Qin Yuan turned around and left.

"What... what did he say?"

I suspect that Jason must have some big secrets to tell my two brothers.

"He should be very cool. What you want is that mobile phone. It is his old-fashioned mobile phone that looks very old."

"He sees whether your mobile phone is useful or not. Since it was downloaded, there has been no signal. Have you taken it out to use it? You still don't have so little battery. Is his mobile phone used by him? Did he come to borrow your phone because the battery was off?"
