

Special Soldier 1911

Chapter 1911: Successfully get in touch with the outside world

Qin Yuan heard it, and after the system repeatedly reminded him, he also felt a little impatient. Why did he have to remind himself repeatedly every time he was borrowing from the system, and the credit merit value.

Is it because you are worried that your ability will not be able to repay? Is his meritorious service worth it? How many substantive tasks he has completed for such a long time and obtained so many things, he always reminds himself that it is really annoying.

So, Qin Yuan said impatiently to the system:

"I said you are really annoying, do you know that now is the critical moment, and you are still reminding me of the value of credit merits repeatedly, do I need you to remind me after so long?

Don't tell me these useless things, and quickly settle my matter first. I will return the remaining credit contribution value to your system as soon as possible, and I won't make you half cheap. "

"Ding Dong, master, don't be angry, I'm just reminding you, a warm reminder, if you don't like the camera function, you can cancel it immediately."

Qin Yuan couldn't help but rolled his eyes at the system.

"Okay, okay, I get it, you guys are giving warm reminders. Hurry up, I have already agreed to borrow 100,000 credit contribution points in exchange for the satellite function to communicate with the outside world."

"Ding Dong, may the host want to install a satellite function on his mobile phone to communicate with the outside world. Introduction to this function: Once the host uses this function, it doesn't matter where the host is in any corner of the world, even if there is no signal.

As long as you can establish contact with the satellite, you can get in touch with the inner world. You no longer have to worry about your mobile phone, losing signal and contacting the inner world. "

"Ding Dong, don't worry about him as the host. The system is your mobile phone, and the satellites bound to it are the satellites of your system. They will definitely be bound or established with satellites in any country. You can't Worry about using your cell phone signal.

But now I don't want Fan Tianlei to know what to do. If Fan Tianlei knows, I'm afraid he will have some doubts about me, but he must let Fan Tianlei know that he is so safe, and a person may not have so little strength to help him solve such a small matter.

Such a ship of munitions, still with numbered munitions, how terrible is that?

Jason felt that it was just a good or bad idea outside of his heart. It seemed that he should ask Hanhu with the system if he had the same idea as himself. up.

"As soon as the system asks him, make sure that if you switch the function, it means that your mobile phone is permanently connected to the satellite. All are satellite systems.

Could it be that they even bind the world's satellites to pave the way for your mobile phone signal, so that they will be discovered by others? It must have been discovered by the developers of other satellites, so what about your mobile phone? "

I thought that there is no such bad thing in the world, so I used to pay for my mobile phone before, and I can get in touch with the inner world as long as my mobile phone can contact the satellite.

Warm reminder, please host carefully to watch the signal grid position in the lower left corner of your mobile phone. Now your mobile phone signal grid has not completely become full grid. "

This is the mobile phone that needs to be lowered. If the system upgrade is successful, there is no way for him to get in touch with the inner world. I am afraid that he should use Chen Jixiang's mobile phone to contact the inner world.

"Ding Dong, bad master, I will immediately upgrade your mobile phone system. It will take about 70 minutes. Please be patient, master, the upgrade will be completed after a short wait, and help master Cui Yu with new functions."

"It seems that the 100,000 merit points are quite worth changing to such a function. If you want to say that, you still take advantage of them. Are they cheaper?"

Before listening to the system, Jason turned on the phone, and sure enough. My mobile phone hasn't changed a little bit, it's not that the signal display in the lower left corner has not become full, and the mobile phone signal has changed from the original abnormal display to the appearance that there is no satellite around.

Certainly if that was the case, it would be worthwhile to spend only 10,000 points of merit at that time. It took 100,000 points of merit to go outside the system to his world, and I would have to pay for my mobile phone even outside the real world. , that mobile phone will always have a dead end to get in touch with the outside world, so that will be a bad thing.

That's right, there wasn't a single question that appeared behind Jason's eyes.

Isn't this how to deal with the mobile phone signal?

But after thinking about it, I couldn't have unlocked it. Now I don't know my true identity. Although I don't have much life, unlocking is also a fool. I can still know it very calmly.

Your mobile phone has been monitored by the operator for all the secrets outside his mobile phone. We cannot see very clearly. If you use satellites, only those who do not operate the satellite system can see the outside of his mobile phone. The confidentiality of the specific channels of use and the records of contact with the inner world cannot be lowered in a certain sense. "

I turned on my mobile phone and watched it repeatedly, but there was nothing ordinary about it.

"Ding Dong, may I ask if the host Nian has any needs?"

Before Jason listened to the system's explanation, I seemed to have a little realization before I quickly put it up.

"Ding Dong, the recovery system you are currently using is constantly being upgraded, and you are constantly improving your own system content, so the function of Qin Yuan that you cannot use as the host will become more and more powerful. No, the functions you don't have are not waiting for the host, he will take the initiative to discover them."

Jason heard the system introduce the function to himself again. I haven't brightened my eyes before.

Before you help your mobile phone system upgrade, you can't be like he imagined. As long as the satellites in the world are running abnormally, your mobile phone will always have no signal, and you can get in touch with the inner world through satellites.

Jason didn't care about it now, even if he was unlocked and found out, if Unlock was very angry, I would probably do something drastic.

Before Jason listened to the system's explanation to himself, I was secretly happy.

Jason thought to himself that he should have picked up a little treasure, and he also knew that he did something bad in his next life. In that life, he would encounter the one-click recycling system, which would help him open up his life and solve the problems he encountered. any problem.

It seems that you will be able to find less content in the future, after all, there are too few things that satellites can do in the world. "

Before the system was shut down, the screen that was still on behind Cui Yu's eyes just now hadn't completely turned into a living appearance. Everything around me returned to intense, and I was also afraid of being walked by my side, and found that there was no such a magical system around me.

"Let's move slowly, what are you waiting for outside? Hurry up and upgrade your mobile phone. It seems that you can't contact the inner world in any corner of the world, even this kind of snow mountain with no signal. , or outside the deep mountains and old forests, you are no longer afraid.

Thinking about it, Unlock has always treated An Ran with a very ambiguous attitude. I must have known it. If An Ran didn't intend to deceive me again, would he forgive An Ran? All that is unknown.

What I thought outside of my mind was that there really isn't such a bad thing in that world, it seems that the 100,000 points of meritorious service is quite worth it. As long as you can use Qin Yuan's function, it means 100,000 points of merit, not only will it cost less, but it will also be very worthwhile.

I can't wait to take out two mobile phones from outside the grid.

"Slow down, slow down, speed up quickly, and help you with Cui Yu's function. You need to contact the inner world now. If you are not busy now, you are at a loss. You know what to do next."

It just requires you to pay any mobile phone fees, and then contact Lijie through the operator, right? "

Besides, the most important thing is to unlock it now. I know An Ran's real name. I always thought that An Ran's name was Yin Lianna. If Unlock is sure to know, will An Ran affect our relationship?

It's the most important thing right now, and you must fantasize about it triumphantly. The immediate thing is not to quickly solve the problem of genetic weapons, after all, that's a trivial matter that can't be solved quickly.

Jason thought to himself, should he return that phone to Chen Jixiang as soon as possible?

It seems like you couldn't do less before. "

"Ding Dong, if there is anything wrong, the system will be temporarily shut down. I look forward to your last use as the host."

"Ding Dong, the wrong owner, your idea is correct, I am sure you will help you upgrade before you get that function, the current old mobile phone can only use the oldest satellite phone. The form is connected with the inner world.

"So slow to finish?"

There is no problem now, after the system is upgraded, which satellite is bound to my mobile phone? It must be bound to the satellite of country H, and there is no way to completely guarantee that the secrets on the outside of your mobile phone have been discovered by someone else.

It should be noted that all you need to do is to be discovered by others that your system alone is not a satellite system operating in the world. "

But after returning the phone to me, I should first use the newly upgraded satellite system to get in touch with the inner world to try to make sure that my mobile phone can successfully contact the inner world.

"By the way, the system, you have been busy just now, and you want him to quickly upgrade your mobile phone for you, but now you suddenly remembered a problem, how can you ask him to upgrade your mobile phone back to the system?" Binding to the satellite before does not mean that your mobile phone cannot get in touch with the inner world through the signal of the Xiaozai satellite, and you need to get in touch with the inner world through the operator.

Jason heard the prompt from the system, and now I'm both surprised and excited, wishing I had to immediately try to get in touch with the inner world.

While Jason was waiting, I felt that I should do something. Now it seems that I should think about how to tell An Ran about that matter, and then ask An Ran to tell Fan Tianlei for me?

It is the disadvantage that there is no need to contact the operator through the operator without any mobile phone charges, and it is also impossible to upgrade the security system of your mobile phone to a lower level, and use the operator's system to communicate with the outside world from the next year.

When Jason thought of that, I opened it immediately after I had finished speaking, and found An Ran's phone number in the phone book. It must be bound to the beautiful country, or the satellite of Maoxiong country, so my mobile phone may be in danger. It must be bound to the satellites of our two countries, and our own mobile phone, which is almost on the verge of explosion, and the life efficiency has been slightly lowered.

"Is there anything you need, he will go up first, and he will be summoned when you don't need it."

Before Jason listened to the system's instructions, I immediately put my mobile phone outside that grid.

Just, did he tell you what satellite your phone is bound to? After all, people are trustworthy, even if your mobile phone is bound to a well-known satellite, it will be discovered by others sooner or later.

"Then it doesn't look like anything, is there anything ordinary?"

Jason wondered why he was so stupid? As the system said, upgrading the system of your mobile phone is not upgrading the appearance of the mobile phone. If you observe the inside of the mobile phone repeatedly like that, you can see that there is nothing tricky?

Jason quickly said to the system curiously:

Looking forward to the makeover and upgrade of your mobile phone.

It seems that the system has not fully upgraded the signal of his mobile phone.

"If that's the case, you'll be worried, but their one-key recovery system is really weak, and they don't even have a satellite system!"

"Ding Dong, you are retroactively upgrading the host's mobile phone system, and you are retroactively upgrading the appearance of your mobile phone. You can't open his mobile phone system right now. Sloppy observation, your mobile phone has not been fully updated yet. system.

Just when Jason was struggling, the system's notification sounded.

Jason couldn't wait to get in touch with the inner circle to see if the signal was really bad?

Knowing who we all are is so complicated.

"Ding Dong, you haven't successfully completed the system upgrade for the host. Now your mobile phone is not fully bound to the satellite. Now your mobile phone still needs the support of the operator. As long as the satellite is still running, your mobile phone It cannot communicate with the inner world without abnormal signal operation."

"Ding Dong, the owner of the bad one will upgrade your mobile phone system immediately. Now please put your mobile phone and that mobile phone outside your recycling grid. I will return and upgrade both mobile phones for you immediately." ."

Chapter 1912: This matter can only be entrusted to you

After Qin Yuan found An Ran's phone number in his cell phone address book, he immediately dialed the number without any hesitation, although he was very nervous in his heart.

I don't know if I can get in touch with An Ran smoothly, but I can also take this opportunity to try the channel that the system upgrades for me to establish contact with the outside world through satellites.

After pressing the dial button again, the normal "beep beep" sound came back on the phone.

Now Qin Yuan was very nervous in his heart, the phone didn't ring, his heart was beating and frozen for a moment, it seemed that he had never been so nervous before.

This feeling is like the nervous feeling of calling a girl you like and not knowing whether he is willing to accept your love.

After about ten seconds, the call was quickly connected.

The familiar and gentle voice came from the phone.

After Qin Yuan heard this voice, he immediately let go of the big stone in his heart. That's right, it was An Ran's voice, and it was indeed the one who got in touch with him. An Ran connected with him.

"Hello?"

Qin Yuan was so excited that he said in a trembling voice:

"An Ran! It's me!"

"It's you? Who are you?"

When Qin Yuan heard Anran asking who he was on the phone, he felt a little cold in his heart. He said with a somewhat disappointed tone:

"No way, it's only been two days since I left, can't you even hear my voice?"

An Ran smiled on the phone and said:

"I was teasing you just now, can I still not hear your voice? Qin Yuan, have you reached your destination now? I just checked the time, you probably didn't arrive at your destination so soon, right? "

Qin Yuan knew that An Ran was teasing himself, and he felt better in his heart, not as sad as before. It seemed that An Ran could hear his own voice.

"We are still at sea, how can we reach our destination so quickly, you don't even know that we are going to be tortured crazy, we stay in the underground cabin all day, like the kind of people who stay in dark and damp places Like a mouse, it never sees the light of day."

"Hey~ Sure enough, your environment is similar to what I expected. I really feel sorry for you, but I hope you can persevere. You should reach your destination soon. After arriving at your destination, you should feel much better up.

By the way, normally, you should have no signal at sea, how can you call me? And just now I connected to Ni's phone and saw an unfamiliar number.

Moreover, I have never seen this number before, it was given to me like a string of garbled characters, and I was too scared to answer your call. I thought it was so late, which pervert was the fraudulent call.

It still looks like garbled characters, but after hesitating for a while, I am still quite curious, so I decided to answer it first, after all, the phone can never cause me any harm.

You should thank me for my strong curiosity, otherwise I will definitely miss your call, so please tell me quickly, why do you still have a signal on the sea, and why do you still call with such a confusing number? "

Facing the dejected questioning, Qin Yuan never imagined that after the upgrade of the satellite system, his phone number would display garbled phone numbers.

This is something he never thought about, but in retrospect, what the system said can be said the same.

Didn't the system tell itself? After my own telephone system is upgraded, I no longer use the operator's communication equipment, but use satellite communication equipment.

Maybe they haven't established any kind of connection yet, but they can call in this way, as long as they can get in touch with the outside world, no matter what number it shows?

Although Qin Yuan explained this strange thing in his heart, he still doesn't know how to explain it to An Ran?

He is also very nervous now, so he quickly made up a lie and said:

"This is indeed quite miraculous. We are here and suddenly the mobile phone has a signal. As for the displayed phone number, the garbled characters may be because the signal is not stable."

An Ran was relatively innocent at this time, and was obviously persuaded by this unreasonable reason.

"So that's the case. Are you bored at sea? So you call me this time and want to chat with me?"

After hearing An Ran's question, Qin Yuan suddenly remembered that the real purpose of calling him this time was to ask him for help, so that he could finally get down to business.

Qin Yuan's tone suddenly became very serious, and he said to An Ran:

"Is it convenient for you to talk now? Is there anyone else around you?"

"Don't even look at it. What time is it now? I'm already going to sleep. Why are there other people around me? It's very convenient for me to talk now. If you have any secrets, just tell me if you want to Speak."

After Qin Yuan heard that there should be no other suspicious people around him, he was able to talk about his thoughts with confidence.

Then he sighed and said:

"An Ran, it's like this. I have important matters and I want to ask you for help. I did encounter some problems on my side, and there is no way to solve this problem so far. I can only ask you for help.

The most important thing is that Fan Tianlei must not let Fan Tianlei know about this matter.

Of course, this is on the premise that you can help me solve this matter, and don't let Fan Tianlei know. If you are helpless after I tell you, you have to let Fan Tianlei know.

An Ran heard Qin Yuan's serious tone on the phone and knew that he must have encountered a serious problem, otherwise he would never have talked to himself like this.

An Ran was also very, very nervous on the phone.

Because it might be about to encounter a serious problem, An Ran unconsciously wrote seriously and whispered.

"Okay, I understand your thoughts. I also know your intentions. I will definitely do what you said, but now you have to tell me what kind of problems you have encountered."

Qin Yuan thought to himself, this is really a very long and difficult question, how should I describe it to him so as to explain this matter clearly in the shortest way?

"The thing is, Jason, that is the boss you introduced to us, who specializes in smuggling. We accidentally discovered in his bed that in addition to transporting the smugglers, there are also There are large quantities of munitions."

"What? How did Jason start this business?

I have known him for so many years, although I can't describe a smuggling boss as honest and dutiful, but he has never been in contact with any dangerous things in these businesses, he has never done it.

I know that he has a daughter by his side, and he will never risk his daughter's life this time. Why is there such a dangerous thing on his boat?

Is it because you have misunderstood him? Normally, he would not dare to transport such a dangerous item. This would threaten the lives of his family members. This is something he would never accept.

Is there any misunderstanding between you two? "

"This matter is a few words, and I can't explain it clearly to you, but there is no misunderstanding between us.

After I got on the ship, Jason took good care of me. He was like an old friend who hit it off with me. He had ammunition on the ship, which I discovered by accident.

Later, we clarified this issue after going through some things. He is indeed helping Effiete deliver this batch of munitions.

The most important thing is this batch of munitions, not ordinary munitions, this batch is numbered munitions, do you know what this means, An Ran? "

After An Ran listened to Qin Yuan's explanation, she was also a little confused now, and couldn't believe her ears.

This was completely different from the Jason he usually knew.

An Ran already knew how dangerous it was to transport ammunition. Being caught was the first thing to do. Although smuggling was not an aboveboard matter, it was much less of a crime than smuggling arms.

An Ran said on the phone with a trembling voice:

"Of course I know what this batch of numbered arms means? It means that one of us sold you too, doesn't it? So that's the real reason why you don't want me to tell Fan Tianlei about it? "

Do you suspect that Fan Tianlei betrayed you?

Fan Tianlei and Effiete, they colluded together and deliberately put numbered munitions on board, trying to catch you all? "

"I am not sure about this matter now, but what I can be sure of is that Fan Tianlei will never betray me. I have worked with him for so many years, although sometimes we will quarrel and have some conflicts.

But on this point, I can be sure that he is a very upright person, and he treats me sincerely. No matter what kind of problems he encounters, he will never betray me. Even if someone threatens his family, he will not betray me. meeting. "

When An Ran heard this, she was even more bewildered.

"Since you believe so much in Fan Tianlei, why didn't you tell him about it and keep it from him? I just listened to your description of this matter, and I know that I can't solve it by myself.

It seems that I still asked Fan Tianlei for help, and the result may disappoint you. "

After Qin Yuan heard this answer, although he was a little disappointed in his heart.

But this is also expected for An Ran, he is still a girl, no matter how powerful his ability is, it is still very difficult for him to handle this batch of official arms, which is not something ordinary people can do.

"I understand An Ran, I understand the difficulties in your heart, so if you want to tell Fan Tianlei to help you solve this matter, I don't have any opinions, but we need to think of a better way.

This method sounds reasonable, impeccable, and seamless. And let him help us solve the problem. "

"I don't quite understand why you can't explain this matter directly. This is someone from within us who joined forces with Effiete to frame you. Why are you more timid and afraid to be known by Fan Tianlei?"

Qin Yuan hesitated again and again, should he tell An Ran all about this matter.

However, this thought was only fleeting, and he decided not to tell An Ran all about this, which would be more beneficial to him, and could completely save Fan Tianlei's face.

An Ran heard Qin Yuan's hesitation on the phone, and he knew that the other party was unwilling to tell him all about this matter. Since he has such an idea, he can't embarrass his friends.

Everyone has secrets in their hearts that they don't want to tell, which is understandable.

"Well, since you don't want to tell me, I respect the secrets in your heart. What do you need me to do now?"

"Thank you, An Ran. I knew you were a very reasonable girl. As long as people don't want to reveal the secret, you will never break the casserole and ask the bottom line.

Thank you for being so respectful of my ideas. "

"I said, don't say these useless polite words first, the relationship between us is still useful, do you thank me repeatedly like this? You just say what you need me to do, and I will prepare now. "

"Our ship is about 20 hours away, and it will be docked. This is what Jason and I have been worrying about before, and it is also the conclusion we reached after discussing it.

Maybe the other party wants to use the Pakistani army after our ship docks, and let them come out openly and rob us of this batch of arms. You also know this batch, but it is a numbered and aboveboard munitions. If people from other countries find out, what will happen to us.

I'm afraid that even Fan Tianlei won't be able to come forward to fish us out at that time, and we will definitely die in Pakistan. "

An Ran nodded on the phone, indeed, this is the worst possible outcome.

"This matter is indeed very serious, but what can I do for you?"

"If we can send some ships now, we can unload all our munitions on the way. Then when we arrive at the destination, even if someone from the other side really comes to intercept us, they won't be able to find anything.

It will only search out stowaways who are full of underground cabins. This is not the best method so far, and it is also the method with the lowest cost so far.

If you want to do this, it will be even more difficult. We don't have enough contacts over there to help us solve such a major problem. Who would dare to take such a big responsibility? "

Chapter 1914: Take stock of numbered sections

Chen Jixiang was obviously a little embarrassed looking at the current situation.

He didn't know from what angle, or from the angle of his sixth sense, he felt that something was wrong with Qin Yuan, and he might have discovered his own problem.

No, he must have discovered his own problem!

Chen Jixiang denied his uncertain thoughts, he is very sure now.

Qin Yuan must have discovered something, he must have felt that there was something wrong with you, that's why he treated himself like this, otherwise, he wouldn't treat himself like this.

Chen Jixiang looked at Qin Yuan in embarrassment.

He just wanted to take the phone from his hand, but the phone was snatched by He Chenguang next to him.

"Isn't it just a mobile phone? Why are you two so nervous? Is there really any ulterior secret in this mobile phone? Let me see it?"

Chen Jixiang saw He Chenguang for a moment, and after thinking about the phone, he also became very angry. With a gloomy face, he immediately snatched the phone back from He Chenguang's hand, and said angrily:

"It's really impolite to compare other people's mobile phones without their permission. Besides, there are no secrets or anything in my mobile phone. Don't doubt me anymore.

If you really doubt me that much, then simply search all my mobile phones and everything on me to see if there is anything worthy of your suspicion. "

When He Chenguang saw Chen Jixiang, he suddenly became so angry, and obviously turned his back on him. He also felt very embarrassed.

"What gunpowder did you eat today? Why are you so angry? Am I just joking with you? Who can see the secrets in your phone?"

Really, it's not like this just for a joke, right? What do you say, it can be regarded as a good brother who can go through life and death for such a long time, and I can't even look at my phone! "

Qin Yuan looked at He Chenguang, and then said:

"I didn't read any secrets just now. I was just out of boredom and wanted to see what was going on? Don't think too much about it. I have no other intentions."

He Chenguang said at this time:

"Anyway, I see you two are a bit weird today, I don't know if there is something tricky between you two or some little secret is hiding from me, just let it go, you can do whatever you like, I can't control you, I just do my own thing well.

It is estimated that if we persist for a while, we will reach our destination. Now I am quite bored, so I won't be arguing with you anymore. I want to take a nap and rest, and no one should bother me. "

Qin Yuan knew very well that He Chenguang felt both angry and embarrassed now, and he didn't know what choice to make. He pretended that he was going to sleep in the future, so as to ease the awkward atmosphere among everyone.

When Chen Jixiang saw He Chenguang lying down angrily, he was a little at a loss and lowered his head.

Qin Yuan said:

"Actually, you don't have to be so nervous. I didn't see any secrets in your phone just now. In fact, if I saw it, I would pretend I didn't see it.

You don't have to worry so much.

As for the secrets in your mobile phone, only you know that others don't know and won't know, so just keep your heart in your stomach, no one will embarrass you. "

With Chen Jixiang's ingenuity, of course he was able to understand what Qin Yuan meant very quickly.

The meaning is to let him put his heart in his stomach, and he will never embarrass him.

This is something that Chen Jixiang has always been very worried about.

Actually, after all, he didn't do anything, sorry about Qin Yuan's matter.

It's just to help Fan Tianlei complete a small task. I didn't deliberately want to embarrass anyone or betray anyone!

This is all helpless, I believe Qin Yuan will not blame him.

Just like what he said, everyone has known each other for so long, what else can't be clarified in person?

After all, no matter what conflicts there are, they are all internal conflicts, which are much better than encountering those spies who hurt their brothers.

Chen Jixiang analyzed in his heart that Fan Tianlei did not really doubt Qin Yuan.

He was even more aware that Fan Tianlei's behavior in this matter was mainly aimed at He Chenguang, and it was a distrust of him.

At this time, Chen Jixiang also said:

"Brother Qin Yuan, I am relieved to hear you say that. It seems that you are still open-minded. I believe you can understand some actions that are really helpless. We are still good brothers."

"Yeah, that's right, you just put your heart in your stomach. You can rest here. In about 20 hours, we will arrive soon, and we won't have to suffer here any longer. ."

"Listen to you, you are not with us, are you going out again?"

"Yeah, I have to help Jason with some things on the ship."

"This Jason, I didn't expect him to have such a good relationship with you.

The two of us got a little embarrassed, thinking that we didn't even have a chance to go out for a breath of air.

What else are you going to do to help him? Do you need help?

If necessary, I'll go with you too, and then build a good relationship with this Jason, maybe he will be able to use him in the future. "

Qin Yuan smiled, and then said to Chen Jixiang:

"Didn't I just say that? You kid, just keep your heart in your stomach, and honestly wait here to arrive at the destination, and then complete the task that Fan Tianlei's leader entrusted to us.

You don't need to get too involved in the things on the boat, and you don't have to worry about the mobile phone thing just now. I don't even care about things. "

Chen Jixiang heard the implication in Qin Yuan's words, and he couldn't say anything.

"Okay then, the two of us have a good rest here, and I'll leave the external affairs to you. The main thing is to build a good relationship with Jason. It's impossible to say that we can still use his boat when we come back!"

"Yeah, I know, you're the only one who worries about it."

After speaking, Qin Yuan turned around and left the underground cabin.

He remembered An Ran's advice to him just now on the phone, if he wanted to solve the big problem of this batch of munitions on the ship as soon as possible, he should immediately search and count how many boxes of munitions there were and how big a ship would be needed to do it. Collision.

It seems that now I have to go to Jason Jason and come and do this with myself.

More importantly, as An Ran said.

It may not be very safe to be on the boat now. If Effiete and the others want to persecute a person, they will probably rack their brains and do everything possible to persecute him.

It is impossible to say that there is anything dangerous on this ship, and there are even some spies.

As far as the underground cabin is a place full of fish and dragons, it can't be said that Effiete and the others are really watching secretly.

"No, I have to tell Jason quickly, the people in the underground cabin must be controlled, and they must not be allowed to come in and out of the deck casually to observe their actions."

Qin Yuan was talking to himself anxiously, while hurrying to find Jason.

As soon as he got to the deck, he saw Jason in the distance directing his men to move the cargo.

Qin Yuan quickly waved to Jason, and Jason saw him quickly.

Then he turned around and trotted to Qin Yuan's side.

"What's wrong?"

"Jason, I just got in touch with the outside world, some people who can help us solve the problem. It's the Elena you know.

She has agreed to do it for us.

I've told him everything about the situation, and now she needs us to provide as soon as possible how many munitions there are on board.

She will send someone to meet us soon. "

Jason said in shock:

"What? The person you contacted turned out to be Elena?"

"Yeah, that's right, it's her! Your old friend."

"It seems that I really underestimated Irina in the past. She actually has such amazing skills and connections that can help us solve such a big problem. However, although she asked us to provide some specific information about the cargo on board , He didn't say how to meet us?"

"He's going to send some boats, and you'll drive as fast as we can from where we come, and we'll unload the cargo surreptitiously. Leave our ships empty.

In this way, we can reach the opposite bank safe and sound, even if there are people waiting for us on the opposite bank with ulterior motives, they will not be able to search our ship because there is no problem with our ship. "

"This problem is theoretically feasible, but you don't know that driving on the sea, it is definitely not an easy task to catch up with our driving speed. We have already driven you from country H for two days. It's been two nights.

There is no way for ordinary cargo ships to catch up with us. What's more, it also needs to consider the wind speed at sea and the flow speed of sea water. Considering some bad weather reasons, you can see that it will rain soon outside, and there may be a wave of waves.

I'm afraid this solution just looks seamless, but it is indeed somewhat difficult to do. "

Qin Yuan quickly comforted Jason and said:

"Brother, have you ever heard the saying that people plan things, but heaven makes things happen.

What you said just now is indeed true. It is very difficult to complete this task.

In a sense, it can even be interpreted as a miracle.

However, it is because there are miracles in this world that it becomes so miraculous, isn't it?

It is man-made, as long as we do well, what we should do now, and leave the rest to God's arrangements, maybe we just catch up with the wind and the current.

What we can do now is to slow down, drive faster, or stay at sea for a while, as long as we give them enough time to catch up with our schedule and unload all the goods on their ships, we will be safe.

This task does seem a little impossible to complete, but we have to try, after all, this is the best way now. If this batch of numbered arms is transported to Pakistan, then we will all die.

Absolutely cannot give Effiete them any chance to deal with us, we must seize the initiative to deal with him. "

Jason was encouraged by Qin Yuan, and then said next to him:

"You are right, good brother, I really shouldn't be so pessimistic.

So easily, the method that can have a chance of survival is negated.

Perhaps, as you said, it is up to man to plan and make things up to God.

We only need to do the existing things well, and leave the rest to God's arrangement.

Now let's take stock of how many numbered munitions are on board. "

Qin Yuan asked suspiciously:

"Don't you know the quantity of the goods on the ship? Don't you know in your heart now?

Didn't you take stock and check carefully when loading the goods?

Isn't this a bit too careless, no wonder you fell into Effiete's trick so easily. "

"Do you really think of me as a fool?

Of course I know very well how many munitions are on board.

It was my first time to do such a business, but I dare not relax at all.

When they were loading the cargo, I was staring at the side all the time and there was no room for relaxation. If it was just the ammunition I transported, there would be about 246 boxes.

But I was very anxious that day, didn't I tell you too?

Not all the munitions on the ship are numbered, but some of them are numbered.

They should think they are using these numbered munitions to frame us.

So, only a small part is numbered, I don't know exactly how many!

We still need to take a look at it again. "

"Then why don't you take inventory at all, and hand over all the ammunition on this ship to An... all to Elena, and let him bring the ship to pick her up and deal with it."

"You think about this matter too simply, don't forget me and Effiete.

They had an agreement, and helped them deliver these munitions, if all the munitions were unloaded.

At that time, we will have no goods to deliver when we arrive, isn't it also a dead end? If I violate such regulations on the Dao, I am afraid that all the brothers on the Dao will chase and kill me. "

"That's true, I thought it was too simple.

It seems that we should still look for all the numbered arms.

In this way, when we confront Effiete and the others, we will be able to have justifications. "

"Well, it's good that you can understand my thoughts."

Qin Yuan said with a sad face:

"Now that we can't see the sky outside, I'm afraid it's going to rain heavily. We must hurry up and take stock of all the munitions, and separate the numbered munitions separately, waiting for Elena to come and deal with them."

Chapter 1916: suddenly, suddenly

When Chen Jixiang heard He Chenguang's provocative questioning of himself, he said:

"Why can't you bring your mobile phone with you when you go to the toilet? Don't you have the habit of playing with your mobile phone while going to the toilet at home?"

He Chenguang was left speechless by this kid's question.

It can be seen from He Chenguang's behavior that he is also deeply suspecting that this kid in Chen Jixiang has something tricky in his heart.

He Chenguang could only say embarrassingly:

"Look at your serious look, don't I just ask casually? You shouldn't be so nervous, don't you have something shameful?"

"Looking at you like this, you are not just asking casually, as if you have been watching me."

"I'm afraid that you are too young, and you don't know what danger you encounter. You don't know if you are cheated by others."

"Look, the surrounding environment is full of smugglers, and everyone must have committed crimes to come to this place.

However, it has been so long since you have been here, and even the ship is about to dock, have you seen any dangerous things happen? Did you see someone figured out who to scam? "

He Chenguang was even more overwhelmed by this kid's question.

Then, he pretended to be angry, and waved his hands impatiently and said:

"Go, go. Just do whatever you like with your precious mobile phone. I'm trying to dissuade you with good intentions. You still question me like this.

It seems that I want to keep your mobile phone privately. Haven't I seen this broken mobile phone? "

Chen Jixiang gave He Chenguang a hard look and then stepped over him, ready to go to the toilet.

At this time, he saw that it was getting dark outside, probably because of the bad weather.

Chen Jixiang didn't want to go to the toilet at all, he just wanted to find an opportunity to contact Fan Tianlei.

Now the miraculous thing is that they have been guarding them all the time.

Jason's subordinates, no one is at the door of the cabin now. There were several people here just now. Why is there no one now? Chen Jixiang also doubts this question in his heart!

In addition, Qin Yuan had such a reaction, and he was never by their side.

Chen Jixiang was very clear in his heart, and had a magical premonition that something big must happen outside.

Then he said to himself here:

"What happened outside? Do you want to go out and take a look, but if Jason and his subordinates find out, it's not a good thing.

Forget it, let's go out and have a look. Said that Po Datian himself came out to find Qin Yuan, even if they were thinking about how to treat Jason's face, their lives should not be in danger.

At most, he was scolded, and now that he has accidentally leaked the task Fan Tianlei gave him, if he can find a chance to make up for it, it is not impossible. "

Chen Jixiang quietly walked out of the toilet while talking.

He sneakily popped his head out to the door of the underground cabin, ready to see what happened outside.

I thought in my heart, if someone else found out before I came out, I wouldn't be scolded.

In the end, what Chen Jixiang didn't expect was that.

There was no one outside the cabin.

"Where did everyone go? It's no good. If you have any problems, you should go out and have a look. If there is any danger, you can go out and help yourself."

Chen Jixiang's feet had just been sold for a step, and then he thought of a question and said it back.

"No, I can't go out now, I have to get in touch with Fan Tianlei first.

Then, explain to him the problem I am encountering now.

If, if I go out immediately, something really happened to them.

Brother Qin Yuan already knew the secret that I was secretly contacting Fan Tianlei. He saw me and knew. The problem they are having now will definitely not allow me to have the opportunity to contact Fan Tianlei. "

Chen Jixiang, this kid is still very clever. He was able to realize the causal relationship and seriousness of this matter so quickly.

So, he turned around and retreated back here.

Unexpectedly, he just turned around and saw He Chenguang secretly watching behind him.

Chen Jixiang also didn't see He Chenguang standing behind him and turned around, almost bumping into his arms.

He Chenguang said with a smile:

"Didn't you say you want to go to the bathroom, kid? What are you sneaking around here?"

Chen Jixiang was obviously taken aback, and now he said angrily:

"Why did you suddenly appear behind others?"

Do you know how to sneak up behind someone? It's really impolite behavior.

You are a man who stands above the sky, why do you always do some sneaky things? You stand behind me without making a sound. You startle me, do you know?

What is your problem? do not trust me? Always secretly observe me behind me, if you have any questions, you can tell me quickly so I can see if I can solve your doubts.

Could it be that I am a prisoner being suppressed by the two of you? You are always watching my every move inseparably, I don't even have a chance to go to the toilet. "

He Chenguang could clearly see that Chen Jixiang was angry.

"Hey! Kid! Have you ever heard of a saying that says don't do bad things during the day, and don't be afraid of ghosts knocking on the door at midnight?"

"What do you mean by that?"

"Even if I sneakily stood behind you and you didn't see it, I wouldn't be afraid to be like this. You are acting a little bit annoyed now?"

Do you have any secrets hidden in your heart? Don't dare to let the two of us know why the two of us are so guilty now? "

Chen Jixiang stretched out his hand, and pulled He Chenguang, asking him to make way for him.

He also murmured in his mouth:

"I don't know what you're talking about, I haven't done it at all, don't blame me for the things you said.

I just wanted to come out and go to the toilet and see what was going on outside.

You don't go out to see, what's the weather outside now?

With such bad weather, I don't know where brother Qin Yuan is going?

Do you still have doubts here?

I'm really speechless, just the three of us, in this state, how can we complete the task tacitly after arriving in Pakistan.

Between us, the strongest thing in the past was trust, but now we don't trust each other, so we just go back home. "

After He Chenguang heard this, he didn't have anything to refute in his heart.

He just doesn't believe it now.

Chen Jixiang said:

"Okay, don't block me from going to the bathroom!"

He Chenguang, in order to save face, he also whispered behind.

"I'm here to go to the toilet too!"

Let's look at Qin Yuan's situation.

After everyone's painstaking inventory, they finally took stock of all the numbered munitions.

By this time it had started to rain outside.

The rain and sweat hit everyone's faces, Qin Yuan and Jason looked at each other, and then everyone laughed with a sense of relief.

Jason said:

"Damn it! Just to earn this little hard-earned money, let's see what it's like to toss us brothers? I must protect them well. If they are in any danger because of my affairs, then I will never in my life Had a great time!"

Jason's subordinates heard what Jason said, and they quickly expressed their loyalty and said:

"Boss, don't say that, you die for your confidant! We are willing to do anything for you!"

We have lived and died together for so many years, what kind of storms have not been seen, even if it is a small matter today, we can definitely face it! "

Jason looked at Qin Yuan and said:

"Especially you, in fact, I just did a small favor for the inside, but you repay me such a big favor, I am really a little sorry, if this time I can pass this difficulty smoothly.

Then, I will never touch this aspect of things again.

If you are greedy for petty gains, you will suffer big losses, and you should not touch things that you should not touch. Being able to do a little business with your brothers and be with your family in peace is the greatest happiness.

I've been through so much now that I've even thought about it.

No matter how long my daughter lives in the future, I will stay by his side, cherish every moment with him, and will not let myself take such a risk again.

In fact, I did fall into a rut, thinking that I could save my daughter's life by doing these things desperately.

In fact, I was wrong in thinking this way.

Only when I protect myself can I live happily with my daughter. The rest of her time is the time God has left for us.

If there is really no way to keep him, then I can only let him spend the rest of the time happily.

It seems that after this matter is completed, I will take a break to spend time with my daughter. "

Every time Qin Yuan heard Jason mentioning his daughter, his heart felt sour after another.

Qin Yuan walked up to Jason, patted him on the shoulder and said:

"I didn't expect that after going through so many things, it would suddenly make you think clearly about this issue. I am not married yet, nor have a family, nor do I have my own daughter. I have no way to understand the mood of a father.

But after seeing you, I can clearly feel how heavy a responsibility it is to be a father, and it is absolutely natural for me to sacrifice my life for my daughter.

Even if it's these brothers who have implicated you, everyone can understand.

However, what I want to advise you is that no matter how important your father's responsibility is, the first thing you should do is to protect your own life.

You cannot be a father until you are a human being, she.

If your life is threatened, what should your daughter do in the future? "

After Qin Yuan said so many things, he didn't expect that Jason's men next to him suddenly changed his attitude and said:

"Qin Yuan is right! Boss!

We have been concerned about your mental state for a long time.

Ever since we found out that Yaya was sick, we are worried about you every day, afraid that you will do something extreme.

Yes, we can rest assured of you with what you said just now, it seems that you have indeed thought clearly!

But the boss is able to think clearly about this issue today, it still depends on your new friend. If he hadn't been by your side to dissuade you, I'm afraid you would have done a lot of exciting things. "

After hearing this, Qin Yuan knew that everyone had let go of the grievances in his heart. Instead, he was able to say half-jokingly:

"Hearing your comments like this from your mouths, I felt quite psychologically comforted at the time. Before that, didn't you all hate me all the time? You felt that I had confused your boss like a vixen.

how? You suddenly changed your mind today, and you don't regard me as an imaginary enemy anymore? "

Jason's subordinates also felt very embarrassed after hearing what Qin Yuan said.

While scratching his head, he said embarrassingly:

"There were many reasons why we didn't like you back then. The main reason was that the boss gave up a lot to help you, do you know? He really gave up a lot to help you.

We thought it was because of Elena that you were so unscrupulous in bossing around our territory.

We will definitely be very angry when we see such a situation, you have to understand our feelings a little bit more.

However, through the changes just made today, we have already put everything aside. We will all be friends in the future. How nice it is for us to eat, drink and have fun together again! "

Qin Yuan thought to himself that it was only because he was able to show his usefulness and help them solve their immediate problems, that's why they respected him so much.

In addition, I lost my temper with them just now, and I was indeed shocked. They still seem to have a certain effect!

Jason said to Qin Yuan:

"Now that we have counted all the numbered munitions, then I will leave the next thing to you.

I can't do anything, of course, you are only doing your best.

If it can be resolved, of course everything will be fine.

If we can't solve it, we can't completely resign ourselves to fate, we can only solve it according to our own method. "

Looking at Jason's determined eyes, Qin Yuan knew that he had completely looked away now, and was no longer the old father who was only worried about his daughter's life.

In fact, a person's state of mind is the most important thing, as long as he has completely seen through these things.

Then he will be fearless, and he was threatened by Effiete because of his daughter.

Jason now has no weakness, and Effiete can never threaten him anymore!

Chapter 1918: The receiving ship has already set off

Chen Jixiang heard Fan Tianlei's anxious appearance on the phone, and he didn't dare to waste any more time to report to him immediately. This is a huge responsibility. If it really falls into his own hands, who can afford it? What about the responsibility?

Therefore, Chen Jixiang hurriedly said to Fan Tianlei:

"Raytheon, let me tell you one thing, this matter is very important, of course I heard it myself.

I don't have any proof that it's all deceptive, believe it if you can believe it.

After listening, if you can't believe it, investigate it. "

"Okay, don't babble here, tell me what's going on, boy?"

"The thing is like this, aren't we already on Jason's boat? Isn't this boat full of stowaways? Isn't this Jason who we are in the underground cabin introduced to us by Sister An Ran?

After we boarded the boat, Brother Qin Yuan was always with this Jason. The two of them were sneaky, so I came out curious to see what they were discussing.

However, I vaguely seemed to hear them rummaging for some goods there, and I got closer and listened carefully for a while before I heard that they were smuggling arms.”

After Fan Tianlei on the phone heard such important news, he widened his eyes and asked loudly:

"What are you talking about? They are secretly transporting arms. This Jason is so courageous. I really underestimate him."

"What I'm saying is don't get excited. This is just a drop in the bucket of everything. What's more terrifying is yet to come?"

"You kid, don't gasp when you speak. You even know the seriousness of the matter, so why don't you hurry up and explain everything to me clearly."

Chen Jixiang paused again, and after confirming that no one around him was eavesdropping on his phone call, he slowly whispered:

"The more frightening thing is that some of the munitions secretly transported are numbered. The most important thing is that these numbers are all the numbers used by our H country troops.

It should have something to do with us. "

After Fan Tianlei heard this, he pondered for a while on the phone, and then asked in an incredible tone:

"What did you say? There are numbered munitions used by our H country among these munitions? Can you be sure about this matter? Did you hear it yourself, or did you see it with your own eyes?"

Boy, you have to know that hearing is believing and seeing is believing, you can only be sure if you see it with your own eyes..."

After hearing Fan Tianlei's questioning of himself, Chen Jixiang sighed and said:

"Although it is true that hearing is deception and seeing is believing, but I heard Qin Yuan and Jason discussing it with my own ears.

The two of them can't lie to me together, right? What's the point of lying to me with such an important matter? "

Of course, Fan Tianlei also knew that this kind of thing must not be used as a joke, or used to deceive a child like Chen Jixiang.

However, what puzzled him was that Qin Yuan had just boarded the boat, and how long he had known this guy named Jason couldn't be counted in days but hours.

How did he get along with this Jason so quickly? Smuggling ammunition is already a great crime. Qin Yuan dared to take this muddy water, which is really unbelievable.

Chen Jixiang said to Fan Tianlei:

"You don't have to doubt Qin Yuan and Jason at all, they probably don't know each other, maybe it's because of fate.

Two people, after seeing each other, have a feeling of seeing each other late, which is understandable.

It was the first time I saw Brother Qin Yuan in the same mood. What's more, the most important thing is that these numbered munitions appeared in the batch of munitions smuggled by Jason. This must be a very important thing .

This must not be taken lightly, and it can explain the problem, that our interior has indeed been infiltrated by those spies with ulterior motives. They just wanted to use this incident to frame Brother Qin Yuan.

It shows that there are indeed spies inside our earth, and there is no need to question this point at all.

What we should think about now is how to solve it. Brother Qin Yuan doesn't want to tell you this matter now, he doesn't want to trouble you. "

Naturally, Fan Tianlei also knew that the reason why Qin Yuan didn't tell him this matter clearly was that he didn't believe him very much from the bottom of his heart.

Fan Tianlei immediately reflected whether Qin Yuan already knew that he had arranged for Chen Jixiang to secretly investigate the two of them.

So, he was very nervous and asked about Chen Jixiang.

"Boy, let me ask you, did I arrange your mission, you have been exposed.

Does Qin Yuan already know that you are secretly investigating his affairs, so don't hide it from me? "

Chen Jixiang had already been prepared in his heart. Since he had decided to tell Fan Tianlei about the arms, it meant that he would definitely be exposed in front of Fan Tianlei.

"Eh... I'm not sure about this matter, does he know?"

"What are you not sure about? I think you look like a guilty conscience. How did you expose it? Tell me quickly."

"It's a long story, let's solve the immediate problem as soon as possible.

What about the munitions with my serial number?

It should be our internal spies and Effiete, they have colluded.

Deliberately put this batch of munitions that I took to number on the ship we smuggled.

When we land, we will send people from Pakistan to catch us later.

Now our ship is getting closer and closer to Pakistan, and when it docks, I am afraid that someone will come to arrest us in the future.

It is not uncommon for you to know what a serious crime it is to smuggle arms with numbers. You don't want to think of a way to save us, do you? "

Of course, Fan Tianlei knew very well in his heart that since the arms of country H with numbered numbers were found on their ship, what a serious problem this is. The arms of country H appeared in the situation of Pakistan inexplicably, which would cause serious problems internationally. What kind of bad influence can be imagined...

Fan Tianlei himself has no way to bear such a big responsibility. No matter what kind of problems he has now, he will desperately find a way to save these people on board.

Fan Tianlei thought of a more important question.

"Since you said that you know all this through the dialogue between Qin Yuan and Jason.

It also means that Qin Yuan already knew that there were numbered munitions on board, so he would never sit still.

He should be able to realize the seriousness of the matter immediately and find a way to solve it.

Even if this kid knows, after I investigate him secretly, he probably won't distrust me. He should have already thought of a solution, otherwise he would have already asked me for help. "

Chen Jixiang thought for a while, and talked to Fan Tianlei.

"Thunder God, you really see all directions and listen to all directions, you are too smart."

"You kid, don't flatter me here, let me talk about it first, what solution did Qin Yuan think of?"

"He just called Sister An Ran. The two of them should be discussing this matter together. You should not have to worry. An Ran explained that he will assist Brother Qin Yuan to resolve this matter."

"Wait a minute? How can Qin Yuan get in touch with the outside world? Normally, there is no signal in this sea. How can he call An Ran?"

Chen Jixiang shook his head, and then said to Fan Tianlei:

"I don't know about that.

However, you don't have to be so surprised.

Since you have been able to give me a mobile phone to contact you, then it is not surprising that Brother Qin Yuan has his own way to communicate with the outside world. "

Although Fan Tianlei didn't know what method Qin Yuan used to establish contact with the outside world, but he didn't care about the method and channel for contacting the outside world at this moment.

Now he only cares about the numbered munitions on this ship, what should he do?

In fact, in the final analysis, this matter is not completely inseparable from him. If this batch of arms with the H country number is really allowed to go to Pakistan, then it will definitely affect the relationship between the two countries. relationship affects.

This question was mainly aimed at Qin Yuan, and Qin Yuan was sent by his subordinates to carry out the mission.

Therefore, once a problem is discovered or some bad and serious consequences occur, it is human nature that it cannot be separated from oneself. It is understandable for Fan Tianlei to consider himself at this moment.

Chen Jixiang asked anxiously on the phone:

"Thunder God, have you thought of any solution now? Since I have explained this matter clearly to you, you must think of a good way to help everyone."

"Don't act rashly, kid, I'm going to find An Ran now. The reason why the two of them didn't come to me, it means that the two of them have already found a solution to the matter.

However, I'm still worried about these two brats doing things. I'll go to An Ran and ask about the ins and outs to see if I need to take action. You can stay here with peace of mind. "

"Well then, Thor, I'll wait for your good news."

After finishing speaking, Fan Tianlei hung up the phone.

Now at this moment, country h is already dark, and everyone is already sleeping, and Fan Tianlei has been sobered by this incident. He must seize all the time and find An Ran as soon as possible.

On the other hand, Qin Yuan and Jason were in a hurry to repack all the numbered munitions into a box and seal it up.

Jason said to Qin Yuan:

"Qin Yuan, you've finished contacting them just now, how long will it take for them to arrive?"

"I have already reported it to them. They are also considering the specific quantity of goods we need to deliver now. I believe that a solution should be found soon, so don't worry.

This friend of mine, of course you also know Elena, does not need anyone to worry about him. "

"Of course I believe in Yi Lianna's work. Since I got to know him, when you came and I asked him to help me with anything, he never lost the chain."

An Ran called while the two were discussing.

This time Qin Yuan didn't hide from outsiders, he answered the phone openly in front of Jason.

"How is it? Did An Ran find the ship?"

"Of course, we're already on our way. You can rest assured about that. I'm calling you mainly to tell you that we will arrive in about fifteen hours."

"Fifteen hours?"

Qin Yuan said in surprise, while looking at Jason with his eyes at this time.

After Jason heard this, he was also very surprised beside him.

"What kind of boat did Yi Lianna look for? Can it be so fast? Can it come to us so quickly?"

"Yes, why is your ship so fast? Is it safe? You must also consider your own safety on the ship. Don't ignore your own life just to help us solve the problem. .

If something happens to you, do you want me to feel guilty for the rest of my life? "

"I said, can you two hope that I will order well? Why do you always say that I am not safe, not safe. Are you two not at ease when I do things? This ship is a friend of mine, and he is specially for rescue Used by own fishing boat.

He often drives this boat to sea, don't worry, it's hard from your side, I shouldn't have any problems with this.

It's just that my mobile phone should have no signal soon. I'm afraid there is no way to establish contact with you. I'll send you the specific radar signatures of our ships in a moment.

You can contact us with radar signals, so that we can know exactly what distance we are.

Although fifteen hours is said, such a time is not very long.

However, after all, you have been traveling for such a long time, and you will soon reach your destination, so you must slow down your ships now, and it is best to come back to meet us if you can.

In this way, we can solve this problem as soon as possible.

Qin Yuan looked at Jason after hearing this.

Jason shook his head and said:

"It's impossible to turn our ship back to meet you. After all, there are so many people on our ship, but it's no problem for us to slow down. We can even wait for you at the same place for a while."

"That's good, that's it, I won't embarrass you anymore, just try to delay as long as you can until we successfully rendezvous and pick up all the damned cargo on our ship. And don't worry."

Jason next to him was very moved and said:

"Thank you so much, Elena!"

"Don't say thank you, we are all friends!"

Chapter 1919: He knew that the big stone in my heart was let go

After hearing what Qin Yuan said to himself, Jason was naturally very moved, so he said to his subordinates:

"Have you heard? From now on, Qin Yuan and I will be best friends. No one can provoke our relationship. I hope you can respect the tower enough. How do you treat me, the boss? It's just how you treat him."

Qin Yuan felt a little embarrassed because he was teased by Jie Se all of a sudden.

"Okay, everyone, stop shouting slogans here, let's take stock of the goods again, this time we must ensure that there are no mistakes or omissions.

After counting, we put all the numbered munitions together and put them on the side of the deck.

There should be no one else coming to check on us now.

When the ship arrives, pick it up, and our people will naturally take our goods away.

It is also convenient for us to keep these numbered munitions on the side of the deck, and they can quickly take the cargo from our ship. "

Qin Yuan now has a relatively high status in everyone's hearts. Everyone is willing to listen to him what he says, unlike before, no matter what he said, everyone wanted to refute him.

Even Jason's subordinates are very annoying. His current status has completely changed, and he is secretly happy in his heart.

Wu Yun looked at Thor standing there in a dazed, silly manner, as if he was thinking about something, so I hurriedly asked:

Let me contact him secretly to monitor Thor and Chen Jixiang.

They knew whether their mobile phones could contact the inner world in that vast small sea, so they drove the boat to meet me with the munitions without numbers.

These two big * are really getting less and less courageous now, and they dare to decide everything by themselves.

"Hey~ That's because you didn't think carefully at the beginning. You entrusted such an important task to Wu Yunzhen, and that big guy will be exposed to you later. Do you doubt the two of us, you have no own Thinking about that problem, you just explained it to them outside, and you can think about you whatever they like. You are thorough, and you have been helping country H.

"You said it was bad yourself, there are no pros and cons to each, you must let me know, I will definitely be angry with you, why did you report that matter to me in person.

Thor was embarrassed, smiled and did not speak.

In fact, I really want to report that matter to Wu Yunzhen. My own psychology still lacks the confidence to complete such a face-to-face task. The most important thing is that it is under the vast small sea. If I am not cautious, I may not be safe.

"You just went out to eat with your friends, and now you are on the way home and you are getting home very slowly, what's the matter? Is there anything you can do?"

"Don't lie to you there, isn't there an ocean upstairs in their house? You haven't heard Hanhu clearly from the phone, and now he clearly has no signal since he was very slow in Xiaohai.

Wu Yunzhen heard it, and we asked myself for help that time, and I got some psychological satisfaction, and of course I was not worried, so I hurriedly said in a calm tone:

Before finishing speaking, An Ran hung up the phone.

When An Ran saw that it was He Chenguang calling, your heart tightened.

Under the moving boat, Thunder God and Qin Yuan were busy busying with unnumbered munitions under the boat.

Now let's talk about it first, let's go meet Thor and them. "

Before An Ran listened to He Chenguang's arrangement, she was at a loss.

"Are the two of them very incompetent? Hasn't that matter been resolved yet? The arrangement is very reasonable. Has he not sent a ship to pick us up yet?

Is there anything else I want to ask you for help? "

You ask them now, what are you going to do next? "

Before He Chenguang put on Fan Tianlei's phone, I couldn't wait to call An Ran.

It's just that, I haven't left the shore for too long, the mobile phone can still receive a little signal, and I also received a call from He Chenguang.

No matter what, you are all members of the army. Thinking about it, we should also dare to do something to you.

Sure enough, by accident, An Ran received a call from Wu Yunzhen again.

At that moment, An Ran knew that she was indeed able to hide it anymore, it seems that Fan Tianlei should also know, what happened when we put on clothes will immediately give you to He Chenguang, and I will call myself.

He Chenguang went on to say outside the phone:

Even if he is a person who is greedy for life and afraid of death, he still wants to implicate others.

"An Ran? Is he talking about Yin Lianna?"

It doesn't matter which part of the people found their tracks, they are going to panic, and they are going to be in a mess. As long as people from your side show up easily, we will definitely flee in a hurry.

In that way, I suspect that He Chenguang will let Fan Tianlei continue to monitor, and that Wu Yun and I are shocked.

And He Chenguang heard the call on the outside showing that the other party was in the middle of a call.

Whether it's knowing that something unexpected will happen, or picking up the phone first and prevaricating me, it also gives me peace of mind.

"It's nothing? Is he still asking out there knowingly? You advise him to hurry up and confess!"

So, An Ran sighed and confessed to Wu Yunzhen:

Facingly, if things went smoothly, Wu Yunzhen probably wouldn't know about it by now.

"Bad Jason, you know. He'll just wait for your news."

Actually, Thunder God, I also wanted to tell Wu Yunzhen about that through Fan Tianlei's mouth.

Thunder God was suddenly asked by Wu Yun, and I just came back to my senses.

Now that I think about it, it is indeed the case. Sometimes Thor is too cautious. I want to tell He Chenguang everything. I always want to make my own decisions, so how can I do that.

When He Chenguang heard An Ran's words, he was speechless before.

"Before they picked up the goods, they were really discovered by these people under the sea. You suspect that a small part of them should be pirates.

They don't have a signal in Xiaohai. In case of any trouble, he has no way to contact you. It's useless for that big guy to keep his mobile phone, and he hasn't been exposed for a long time. "

Yes, what is surprising is whether Qin Yuan was angry or not. I smiled awkwardly and said:

Now you can do it according to his method, since the small stone in your heart has been put up before he knew about it, it is as easy as it was just now. "

"What is he thinking?"

Or Effiete, we sent someone over to monitor that batch of munitions.

"Does he want me to know or does he want me to know?"

An Ran said to herself, while I was very entangled in my heart, what if I want to connect He Chenguang's call?

"Wu Yun really has all-hands and eyes. It seems that everything is hidden from him."

Why are those two elders so timid and dare to decide such a trivial matter? If Fan Tianlei told you in time, you would have been kept out of the dark. "

But it's bad if I know, before I know, that thing will be completed more smoothly, but as for An Ran and I, do we have the confidence to sneak around in the sea.

"It is certain that you have been discovered by us. What should we do? Head-to-head?"

"Let's not talk about those useful things, how is his preparation over there? Are you fully prepared? Just set off to take care of such a small matter as us, and the two of them will also tell you whether they regard you as a family member up?"

Lei Shen repeatedly told Wu Yunzhen that he must tell Wu Yunzhen about that matter.

How about that, he will act abnormally first, act according to their plan, first receive the batch of unnumbered munitions to their ships, and then you will also send ships from outside the team to receive them.

At this moment, An Ran, everyone was under the boat and set off.

Originally, there were not many spies among you, whether there were any spies taught or not, Xiaojia is everyone's self-indulgence, everyone looks like a good person, and now he does such a thing, does he want to blame us for following him face to face? ? "

An Ran, I'm sure I want to call Thor now to report on the matter of He Chenguang calling himself, I'm afraid it's not too late.

Facingly, if things went well, they might not have been hijacked or discovered in Xiaohai. "

What kind of friend can that count as?

An Ran laughed awkwardly outside the phone and said:

At that time, Fan Tianlei was also retreating in full swing and taking action on his own.

If the face-to-face is to answer my phone, then the other party will definitely deepen their face-to-face.

By the way, when I see Fan Tianlei in a while, he will bring back the mobile phone you gave me to contact you secretly.

"We are going down in the center of Xiaohai now and we will arrive in Pakistan in a few hours. You have to catch up the unnumbered munitions under the ship before we reach the destination.

When He Chenguang heard that An Ran was prevaricating himself on purpose, I said very angrily:

Before An Ran thought for a while, I hung up the phone.

If they are sure it goes well, they will directly dock the ship directly, and then you will send a vehicle to pick up the batch of munitions and store them outside your troops.

It was only then that Lei Shen realized that he had leaked An Ran's name because of his big heart.

That matter has not been known by Thor yet, how can he let me trust him?

"Jason, you know what you two did was right. He's going to scold you two again, so let's help you think of a solution."

"As soon as you guessed it, they didn't think that they were not so impulsive when they were young.

"He's going to rest? Why are you listening to his voice now?"

Qin Yuan felt that it would be more convenient for him to take Chen Jixiang and He Chenguang on their boat after returning from Ba.

"It's really too complicated for them to think that way. Could it be that there are only a few of them in that Xiaohaixia? Will there be no one else? What if someone else finds out?"

But if you answer my call, I will be able to hear you in the environment you are in now, and you will even discover the secret of the whole incident.

He Chenguang thought that he could give up so easily, so he had to call An Ran again, and he must know what I was doing.

I am afraid of Wu Yun, I will be angry before I know about that. If Qin Yuan would trust me so much, An Ran would be willing to help me with anything, even dare to do things to help me reveal people.

"Okay, stop flattering outside there, hurry up and do what they should do.

That question, I myself have not thought badly.

While accompanying the goods, Lei Shen thought to himself, in fact, it seems that He Chenguang should have kept that matter from him.

"It's really bad, Jason, you guys know that you should have kept that matter from him, but it was just that he suspected Thor first. He secretly gave Fan Tianlei a cell phone to communicate with the inner world.

But I'm sure if I knew, what kind of things would happen to Xiao Haixia, there would be no one to take care of you, and you also want An Ran to follow you to take risks. "

Before An Ran heard He Chenguang's words, she couldn't help smiling.

And An Ran was willing to tell me her real name.

Hurry up and slow down, while the mobile phone can still contact the inner world, slow down and explain Hanhu to you! "

That's a very safe thing, the two of them are really called the one who knows and fears. "

"It turns out that Yin Lianna, real name is An Ran. Did you ever think that my real name sounds worse than my fake name, what does he think?" During the call, it was obvious that the big girl hung up your phone. It seems that I have long since joined forces with that big guy of Thor to deal with you.

"What's the matter? Jason called you so late, is he resting? He is resting, but you are going to rest.

He Chenguang's fatal question made An Ran somewhat at a loss, and I also knew how to answer it next.

"Why did I call you at that time? I must have known something. If so, the timeline is now sleeping time. It's not too strange for me to call you while I'm sleeping."

So you're sending a generally slow ship after us, and we're speeding up, speed is waiting for you. "

He Chenguang cursed angrily:

An Ran pressed the connection button, and Jian asked in a calm tone:

"Are you wondering if He Chenguang could know about that matter?"

"Well, if he said that, you would know Jason. It seems that he is really well-intentioned. It is no wonder that he can become your leader. He has done some things, and it is really a leak. .

"Jason, you really know what he's talking about. I'm sure if he has nothing to do, you should hang up the phone first, and you'll have to take a shower when you get home later."

I had to make a decision as slowly as possible based on what I knew about He Chenguang.

He must have hung up my phone that time again, with He Chenguang's temper, he would explode in the face.
