Chapter 1920 Leniency for confession

When Chen Jixiang heard that they had found clues to connect him with the outside world, and then wanted to ask for money from them, he was very frightened now.

"Brothers, have you misunderstood me? My text message, the time difference on the mobile phone, is not what you imagined. How can there be a signal on this sea? You have no way to contact the outside world, how can I How about contacting the outside world?"

"Do you think we will believe anything you say? How can we believe your words? We only believe that what we hear is false and what we see is true. Now we are the real deal.

I have found evidence from your clues that you have contact with the outside world. Do you want to refuse to admit it now? Do you think we are all fools? "

"I really didn't mean that, you really misunderstood.

Look at this crappy phone, how can anyone still use it now? "

The tall and thin man said angrily:

"No need, let's just test it. Send this person a text message saying you are in trouble now and see if he will take care of you. If he takes care of you, it means that the two of you have already colluded and contacted each other. A lot of things.

I believe you should also know how many important secrets there are on this ship. Although we kidnapped you at this time, it does not count as giving Jason face.

However, I think you should also know our relationship. After all, we are friends. If someone wants to do some tricks on his boat, we will never agree. "

Chen Jixiang is now sweating profusely because he doesn't know whether the other party is a friend or an enemy.

He is now really afraid of exposing the secret of Fan Tianlei's relationship with him.

If all their secrets are really exposed, then it proves that Qin Yuan will also know.

Chen Jixiang actually had lingering fears about being assigned to do this by Fan Tianlei. He didn't really want to help him do such a thing, but he had no choice but to obey the orders of his superiors.

"I really beg you, please don't spread this matter. I really don't have anything valuable on me. If I did, I would definitely not hide it from you, because we are already in this situation now. , will I still care about money?"

"Okay, we also value a person's creditworthiness. If you are the more honest kind, then you can tell us now. Tell the truth, have you secretly contacted the outside world?"

Chen Jixiang thought that since he could no longer hide this matter, he might as well confess it to them.

In fact, they are here just for money. If they knew about it, there would be nothing wrong with it and it would not be spread.

It would be fine as long as He Chenguang and Qin Yuan didn't know about this matter.

So, Chen Jixiang said:

"If the two eldest brothers are like this, then I will tell you the truth. It is indeed the case. I am indeed in contact with the outside world. But this is my superior and it will definitely not be anyone else. If you want to learn from his If you get money, I think you are throwing yourself into a trap."

"Are you threatening me?"

"It's not me, this is to advise you. It is indeed the case. I will always keep track of our situation when I contact them again. And my superiors have also been keeping track of our developments.

It may not be appropriate to tell you my true identity at this time, but I feel that if I don't tell you, you may get worse. "

After hearing what Chen Jixiang said, this tall and lanky man was not convinced at all, because after all, they had been working in the Tao for so many years. Although he was still frightened because Jason didn't tell him what this group of people were like. identity of.

However, he seemed to have heard the name Fan Tianlei from somewhere, so he was a little panicked at this moment, if the current situation really continued to develop.

If Fan Tianlei is really offended, then it will be difficult for them to even eat, let alone hang out on the street. After all, everyone knows who Fan Tianlei is.

However, this tall and thin man could not show his timidity in front of Chen Jixiang.

So, he had no choice but to bite the bullet and said:

"I have no idea who Fan Tianlei is as shown in your information. Is he also a liar, or someone who wants to deceive the world and steal his reputation just like you?

If your kid has any real identity, tell me and scare me. If not, I will confiscate your things."

Chen Jixiang is also very confused in his heart now. Should he reveal his identity?

If you don't tell them, the other party will definitely take away your things.

However, if you tell me, you can go by yourself. The secret given by Fan Tianlei was leaked.

Fan Tianlei will never believe in himself again, and he will be very confused now, not knowing what to do.

Although he is a brave and careful child, he has relatively little experience after all. He has never performed a task, let alone performed a task alone. Moreover, when such a secret mission was entrusted to him, he was originally suspicious and fearful, walking on thin ice every step of the way, just like a thief.

If you want him to tell this matter now, then you'd better prove that you can't be trusted, right?

This is definitely not something he can allow.

Because, he finally gained Fan Tianlei's trust step by step, and even trusted himself more than he trusted Qin Yuan and He Chenguang.

This was what he was most happy to see.

However, now so many difficulties are threatening the trust in front of him, this is absolutely intolerable to him.

At this moment, he even thought that no matter how the other party treats me.

I should move forward bravely, grit my teeth and never let this matter leak out.

However, now people have to bow their heads under the low eaves.

If he doesn't make this matter clear, it seems that these two people will never let him go. At this moment, Chen Feixiang is very entangled and afraid, and he doesn't know how to do the next step.

Just when Chen Jixiang was helpless and confused, the other party turned out. Suddenly the rhetoric changed.

At this time, the fat man next to me said:

"It seems that this kid really didn't lie to us about his identity. It may be unusual, but we are not interested either. You know, aren't we just for money?

Since he doesn't have any money, why are we wasting our time with him? Let's just let him go.

Don't waste time on him and refuse.

Do something serious that we should do, or target other people who look rich.

It is disrespectful to our own work to waste our time with him here.

I think this guy is just a young boy with no experience at all.

You should stop working on him and let him go as soon as possible. "

As the fat man spoke, he winked hard at the tall and thin man for fear that he would not understand what he meant.

In fact, the fat man's underlying lines are saying:

"Instead of us being entangled with her here now, we have already figured out what secrets he has, and our mission has been completed long ago. Why are we still wasting time with him?

Look at this kid, he is already at a loss for words and is at a loss.

If he really pushes it too hard, it will expose our purpose, which will not help us complete the mission that Jason has assigned us, so don't waste time on him now.

We just need to quickly find a reason to return all the things to him, and then report to Jason as soon as possible. "

Due to the tacit understanding between the two of them for many years, perhaps the tall and thin man had already understood the meaning of the fat man's words.

So, the tall and thin man quickly said:

"This kid does not have any money on him, and there is no need for us to waste time on him. But I don't know if those two people have any money on them. If the three of them don't have any money on them, then wouldn't our evening be in vain? Had a trip.

It was such an unlucky night to waste so much time on these three poor guys.

If I hadn't been merciful now, the three of them would have been thrown into the sea to feed the fishes. It was really annoying. "

When Chen Jixiang heard the two of them say such words, he felt very excited at this moment, because he could know from the other party's words that the other party should not be in any danger to him, and he was not interested in them, so he should have agreed. He let it go, and promised not to take away the things he secretly communicated with Fan Tianlei.

It seems that Chen Jixiang, this guy has relatively little experience.

He had never doubted the motives of the fat man and the tall and thin man. He really thought that they were here just for money, so he was in a relatively relaxed mood now and said in a low voice:

"Do you two brothers just want to let me go? Don't you want to embarrass me anymore? Then can you give me back everything I have on me?"

The tall and thin man said angrily:

"It's up to us to decide whether to release you or to continue to lock you up, not you. You just have to listen to us and tell me.

But I still have doubts about whether I should return this thing that can calm down to you. After all, we can't come here in vain today, and we won't get anything. "

"I said you two eldest brothers, please take a look at it. Although I can give you this thing, after all, it is of no use to you, and the key thing is that it is not valuable.

I think you will only waste your time and dirty your hands after taking him.

Why don't you be noble and give this thing back to me, if I really lose it.

Then, my superiors will no longer believe me, which is simply unimaginable.

So, just think of me as asking you to return this thing to me, okay, and then you can let me go.

I can remember some big brothers, and we will be like good friends from now on, as long as I return to country H.

I will definitely treat you to dinner as soon as possible and give you all my good things. What do you think? This is my greatest sincerity.

You know from my young age that I don't have much money. Why don't I sign an IOU for you?

As long as you can return my things to me, I will be very happy. I don't have any other rules, so please, please consider my thoughts. "

After listening to his words, the fat man and the lanky man knew that from now on, he should have completely fallen into their trap. The mission of the two of them was now completed, so the next thing should still be good.

It's still big enough, so I don't have to go to Jason to explain to Jason in vain at night.

At this time, the fat man said to Chen Jixiang in a pleasant manner:

"Okay, I see it's not easy for you to come out at such a young age. No matter what you say you have or whether your other identities are true or false, neither of us brothers are afraid of us getting on the ship today.

That is to say, I just want to make some extra money for myself, but I can't get any benefit from you. There is no need for us to take your life, so the two of us decided to let you go.

but....."

As soon as Chen Jixiang heard this, he began to feel uncomfortable.

At this time, there was a different scene in Qin Yuan's room.

Qin Yuan was on the ground chatting with Jason's friends.

"It seems that your relationship with Jason is quite unusual. You have known each other for such a long time. Have you always done business this way?"

"What else can we do if we don't do this? There is nothing we can do. After all, this is the situation and the environment.

It is quite difficult for us to come up with a way to make some money, so we can only rely on Jason to mix a little money with them when selling goods. Although it is not above board, is it still a business? "

"I thought Jason was some kind of teacher, so he seems to be working with you to extort these stowaways who are not rich to begin with. But everyone has their own way of living, as long as I think Jason has no problem, that's all. .

And since I came here, she has been really good to me. I sincerely regard her as a friend, and I also sincerely regard her as a friend. No matter what he does, as long as we can be honest with each other.

By the way, I wonder what the situation is like over there? "

"Don't worry, that kid has already told the story. Although he didn't tell his true identity, from his things, we should have a rough idea of what this kid's purpose is, or what he wants to do. What to do.

It should be almost done with them in a while. We just communicated on the walkie-talkie, so don't worry, there won't be anything else. "
