Chapter 1921: radar system search

Qin Yuan lowered his head and smiled for a while in front of Chen Jixiang, but he didn't say anything.

Chen Jixiang was a little overwhelmed by Qin Yuan's strange words and deeds, he had never seen Qin Yuan behave like this, and he made himself a little scared.

Chen Jixiang said timidly:

"I said, Brother Qin Yuan, don't scare me. If you have any dissatisfaction, you can just say it. I know I did something wrong. I shouldn't be spying on you in front of Fan Tianlei.

But, you can't blame me for this kind of thing, I dare not not listen to Fan Tianlei's words, can I, a little shrimp, not listen to the words of the superiors? You have to understand me too. "

Qin Yuan smiled and said to Chen Jixiang:

"You don't have to worry so much. I didn't mean to blame you. I know what you think better. I just don't understand why Fan Tianlei wants to monitor me like this? What did I do to make him worry?

I'm just a little chilled, I've been by his side for so many years and I've spared no effort to help him do this and that, but in the end he doesn't believe me, how can I accept this? "

Chen Jixiang hurriedly explained to Qin Yuan:

"Don't get me wrong, actually, it's not that Fan Tianlei doesn't believe you, he just..."

Before Qin Yuan finished listening to the words, he suddenly realized and said to Jason:

So you have to share the blessings and the difficulties, you should go and see him, and by the way, observe that there is no other situation around you, you always feel that we will be so important. Easy, let you go! "

"Boss, in fact, your ships are not traveling very fast now, if you continue to travel at that speed, I am afraid that you will be able to reach your destination in time.

Therefore, Fan Tianlei smiled and said to Chen Jixiang:

"Look, that's not your captain's control room on the ground. Although your radar system looks very old, I'm also the latest upgrade. He also knows that your business is under Xiaohai.

"You know, young man, you understand what he means, you should end your search now and log into the system to see if you can find some suspicious ships."

"Qin Yuan, he didn't think too much first, I don't have that kind of personality, so you should be busy with your own business."

I suspect that there will be no light rain and small waves coming soon. For the sake of Xiaojia's danger, they should go back to hide outside the cabin first. It is estimated that the time for you to sleep will be here soon. "

Fan Tianlei, looking at the atmosphere between the two of us, nothing is too bad.

If Qi Zheng let Bao Jingliang know again, his mission will be completely won, he must give himself some leeway. "

Chen Jixiang looked at Jason like that, and I said seriously:

Chen Jixiang said:

Qin Yuan looked under the screen, then smiled and said to Jason:

"Is he going back with you again?"

"Could it be that he still wants Chen Jixiang to know about that?"

Before finishing speaking, the two of them came to the control room of the above-ground cabin.

"An Ran, how long will it take to catch up with you?"

At that time the captain said to Qin Yuan:

Bao Jing smiled and said:

If he really got wet from the light rain, wouldn't it be a failure of his success? No matter what, there is no way to save it. "

Fan Tianlei nodded, and then said:

"Well, he just treats me abnormally as if nothing happened, and it must be to arouse my trust."

"Okay, big boy, I have to talk about that matter first. If you don't have time, the two of you are having an open discussion. You hope that not too few people know about today's conversation, including Chen. auspicious.

"What are you two discussing here? Are you really planning to give up on me if you haven't returned to the underground cabin for so long? Leaving me out there alone, is it too brotherly?"

Now, take a look at Xiao Haixia, if you can find some useless clues, look at An Ran, where did we end up, and you are also preparing for it. "

Before putting on the harsh words, Chen Jixiang turned around angrily and went back.

"Chen Jixiang, why does he babble like a  all day? What's the matter? Is he jealous?"

"Brother Chenguang, why did he come out? Did you just say that he was sleeping outside the cabin on the ground? Why did you come out so eagerly to see what you two are doing? Actually, did you two do anything? , he can't worry, just live..."

At that time, the few of us were arguing over who should go, and Qin Yuan who was nearby was also watching all of that.

At this moment, He Chenguang, who was behind, stopped the two of them.

Qin Yuan also nodded awkwardly.

"Did you hear what you said just now? Search immediately. In the smallest range that you can search under the small sea, there are no ships that can't do anything. It's not that the speed is relatively slow.

Bao Jing looked at all that, I was not a bit stunned.

It is understandable to delay and keep a bad mind, and upgrade the system to ensure your own expectations,

Jason also said to He Chengguang in embarrassment:

"You still have to help Qin Yuan out there. We have to get some goods. Our goods are afraid of getting wet. He saw that the sky inside was about to rain lightly. You must hurry up and help us get those goods out." The goods are all put away.

Chen Jixiang didn't think about it, then nodded with a smile and said:

Should they have nothing to see and win people? Is it to let you know? "

"He stayed with me obediently and obediently outside the cabin on the ground. For the time being, he is going to come out first, and the weather inside has become bad. Do they think they are coming out? He looked at Xiao Haixia Dark clouds and stormy waves arose.

If all your valuables are stolen by others, how can you rescue the hostages before you arrive in Pakistan?

"How do you take me?"

"But you think that if you definitely need help, there are fewer people and less strength. Wouldn't it be slower for the two of you to help him carry the goods? You can go back together before you finish.

"In Qin Yuan's hands, when it's gone, it's true that it's not reckless. It's just that you have to listen to others when you're on their territory. That's understandable. Just listen to their arrangements. If you want to leave indiscriminately, soon you will arrive soon.

There must be no suspicious ships, this suspicion should not be Enron, us. "

Fan Tianlei shook his head.

There are hundreds of these overseas every year. "

Before finishing speaking, the captain ended the operation.

"It's just that you planned to come out to get some air before you went to the toilet. Did you expect us people to be so condescending and treat you like him? We still told you a lesson. How about complaining to Brother Bao Jing?"

"You know that too. It was expected. Anran, my mobile phone should have no signal under Xiaohai. I have no way to contact you, so now I can only rely on the radar under your ship to explore. There are no suspicious ships in the distance.

In fact, those are all important, the most important thing is to be afraid of these guests outside the cabin, we can understand your approach, if we come out to make trouble, it can be dealt with. "I saw Qin Yuan coming, so I said to Bao Jing:

Bao Jingliang, he and you know that he has been on many missions together, he should treat that big guy badly. "

Helping other people deal with some things, that's what you should do, why do you make a fuss like a bitch.

Alright, you told them first, he took Fan Tianlei, that big guy went back to the cabin on the ground to hide.

Chen Jixiang knew about Qin Yuan, and now he is here to drive us away.

It is impossible to be safe anytime and anywhere, you have to be on guard, so you spent a lot of money to upgrade the radar system. "

"He just told me that it's enough for the two of you to discuss some matters carefully outside there. He also needs to tell me what it is. In fact, you suspect that I should not expect him to be corrected, but there is nothing you can do?

Jason nodded, and said firmly to Qin Yuan:

"Silly boy, he must be thinking too little. Your thinking now is that since brother Qin Yuan entrusted him with such an important task, you haven't known about it yet, which means he has won the task before.

The sudden appearance of Bao Jingliang made Jason less vigilant.

"That's true. He saw that you were really busy. He was also reminded by him that you can only think about Hanhu. There is no such thing as radar. You are in the radar control room. , what if he wants to go with you?"

"Jason, he was really close to that Qin Yuan before he got off the boat, and now he has become a busy man, no matter what, he has no time to be with you, right? Is it because Qin Yuan's friend is more important than the two of you?"

"Did you tell me, but you think I can see it too, you seem to be too right, it feels like you believe in you, but you have nothing else, worse, to get rid of yourself suspect."

Or if you don't have any self-knowledge, take that big boy back to take a nap, I hope they can deal with everything they have, and there must be a day when they don't ask you to help them solve their problems. "

I patted Bao Jingliang on the shoulder, and said to me in a loud voice:

"Of course, since the matter has come to this point, the two of you are not people who got off the same boat, so it really doesn't matter whether it is a literal meaning or something else, you are all people who got off the same boat.

Qin Yuan said to Bao Jing:

Qin Yuan said to the captain:

"You can also see that the radar system was indeed built at a small price. It seems that they really invested a small amount of capital to be able to upgrade to such a bad radar system.

How troublesome you have been to others since you disembarked.

Now you can reveal everything you don't know, just like what he said, maybe not a few people are doubtful, you have to control the secret. "

Okay, let them be busy, and you are not too interested. I want to know that since they have made up their minds and want to hide it from you, it is useless for you to ask.

"The two of them are going to quarrel first. There are still some of your belongings outside the cabin on the ground. He also knows that fish and dragons are mixed up here. It must be bad if you lose your important things.

Anomaly, we should follow your speed, the main task is not to protect the cargo under your ships. "

It's okay, go back before you finish, the two of you are talking, there must be some quarrel in other people's territory outside to disturb others. "

"Yes, there is a mistake. What he saw was wrong. The boat in front didn't just come down to help your friends. It's just that we did encounter some problems. It seems that our speed is also very slow.

"Bao Jing will understand what he means, but after a while, Chen Jixiang, if I ask you, how should you tell me, how will you explain to me? You feel that I will doubt what you say of."

Before finishing speaking, Fan Tianlei turned around and said to Chen Jixiang:

Chen Jixiang, did you give in that time? I continued:

If there was any quarrel between the two of them, wouldn't it be very difficult for you to be in the middle, let your older child deal with their affairs? To save you some face, the two of them will talk about each other, Brother Chenguang, He should take you back first, because he wants to disturb Brother Jason. "

After listening to Qin Yuan's words, the captain nodded and said to Qin Yuan:

Bao Jing looked at Jason in embarrassment.

Fan Tianlei nodded and said to Jason:

"You know Bao Jing, you know what he means. Is he coming here because he wants you to go back to the cabin first? He wants you to disturb the secret between him and Jason.

Qin Yuan hurriedly came from nearby and said to Xiaojia:

Brother Qin Yuan monitored you, did he tell me? "

For a short time in the past, few small and large ships appeared on the radar screen.

"Why is it so quiet outside them? Did you see that the weather inside is about to rain?"

"You know, Brother Jason, he should be worried. I leave that matter to you to deal with, and it can be regarded as making up for the guilt in your heart."

"Looking at the vast small sea, there are only you alone in the boat. Did you expect that there are not so few people in the distance after searching? Is the boat in front of you the friend who just came down and kidnapped you? "

Jason also knows the scene at this moment, Qin Yuan is indeed not embarrassed, I just came there, I didn't say anything, and Bao Jingliang lost my temper indiscriminately. It's a bad experience.

But it is indeed like what he said, the radar system they make in that industry must be a lot, a tool is so safe under the sea, there is no possibility that some people with ulterior motives will appear at any time and anywhere to disrupt their actions.

Jason looked at the radar system and nodded, saying:

"Just what?"

Chapter 1923: I always feel that Effiete has another trick

in a second! After Qin Yuan and Jian Jian discussed An Ran's character, they both looked at each other and smiled.

Indeed, they knew An Ran was a heroine among women, no matter what kind of danger he encountered, he could deftly defuse it.

At this time, Qin Yuan looked at the boats on the radar and said to Jason:

"Jiesheng, can you now confirm which ship belongs to An Ran and the others?"

This is the first time I have come to the sea, and it is the first time I have come to the control room of your ship.

You really look like an idiot who doesn't know anything, so you should introduce me first. "

Jason smiled and said to Qin Yuan:

"I think you should stop being humble. You often praise others in front of me. In fact, you are a super powerful person yourself. Otherwise, how could you establish contact with the outside world casually?"

I have been running on this sea for so many years, and I have never seen anyone who can establish contact with the outside world on the sea.

This must be an ability that can only be possessed by a special department of yours, but as you said, I only know that the two of us are good friends, and I won't say too much about other things if you are inconvenient. Inquiry. "

"What's the matter? He just told you to come out? Is there nothing important to say?"

"Bad, bad brother, since he only said that with his hands, you can only take him down the deck to feel it. What is his so-called bad mood in good weather?"

"It seems that I shouldn't be here soon, and you will be worried before you unload the safety items under the boat."

"Qin Yuan, let's come out with you first. You suddenly think of an important matter and want to tell him alone. There are too few people outside, so it's convenient for you to talk about it."

Zhen Le quickly persuaded Zhen Le:

"Yes, you are willing to do that thing, but you feel that it seems that it is time for that thing to go wrong now. At present, there are not so few unnumbered munitions under your ship, and you are only investigating with little fanfare. If there is no bomb, it will definitely cause panic among everyone under the boat.

It is necessary to take out Fan Tianlei's mobile phone, but also be discovered by Zhen Lehan.

That's safe, before I get the goods from you, I can get in touch with the inner world even in Xiaohai, so He Chenguang will be very handy. "

"What does that mean?"

Seeing Jason, Qin Yuan looked distressed and asked:

On the contrary, Qin Yuan was confused.

Did their little family all come out to perform missions together? Why would He Chenguang keep everything from me? Could it be that there is nothing suspicious about me? is it worth it? Do you suspect that I am..."

Qin Yuan patted Jason on the shoulder and said to me:

I know there are no secrets that are easy to tell in front of so few people? But I still choose to doubt Jason.

Is it like that, since you haven't finished believing, why don't you take the time to check it out? "

Qin Yuan smiled and asked:

It wasn't that He Chenguang told Jason that before An Ran arrived, Zhen Lehan had to hand over his mobile phone that could communicate with the inner world.

At that time, those who were timid under the small sea would feel that the scenery was very beautiful and pleasant, and it was also very comfortable when there was heavy rain.

Before Zhen Le listened to Qin Yuan's words, I raised my hand, and then Jason said:

Jason pointed to the screen, and the signal displayed by the radar said to Qin Yuan:

Before Jason heard that, he turned his head and looked at the captain. I asked excitedly:

Just when the two of us got caught between hands and hands, the captain outside the control room came to find Qin Yuan.

Qin Yuan nodded before hearing that, I was at a loss, did I still figure out that there is nothing to be embarrassed about? In a sense, that's all a bad thing.

In fact, Jason, at this moment, I really want to tell Qin Yuan everything I don't know, because in my heart, Qin Yuan can even be regarded as a gangster, just like a fool. Sweet and complex.

"Zhen Le, he said that I could plant some kind of bomb under your boat?"

Of course Jason knew what Qin Yuan was going to say... Does Zhen Lehan know? Not another girl with the two of you. "

"Qin Yuan, is he too simple? Is nothing possible?"

"What did he say? Don't you have Evert our spy under your bed? That should be possible."

Zhen Le said to Qin Yuan:

"It's just as he expected. You shouldn't be such a timid person. The better the weather, the worse the scenery you think?"

"Boss told him the bad news, there is no ship, I am slowly approaching you."

Jason looked at Qin Yuan's appearance and knew that I should be very slow down at this moment. I just had to solve a problem immediately, and another problem has not yet appeared. In fact, it's okay, who can accept it? Woolen cloth?

Qin Yuan smiled and said to Jason:

"Why did he say that all of a sudden? Doesn't he have any evidence?"

"Oh my god, the relationship between them is really too hands-on, you are too understanding, although you know who Chen Jixiang is, but you understand why He Chenguang did that?"

"Qin Yuan, did he hear An Ran? I'm here. I'm here to meet you. It seems that Huang Tian is the one who has worked so hard for you and you will finally be able to wait for me."

"Brothers who are related, don't you two have a girl between you? He just said something without thinking of it."

That's not the low point of Effiete.

Zhen Le looked at Jason suspiciously.

"That's a bad thing. There's nothing wrong with killing two birds with one stone. It turns out that Fan Tianlei, that eldest son, can also establish contact with the inner world. It seems that their group of people really has a few bad intentions. "

At that time, it will definitely become a situation that can be dealt with. Isn't that the rare thing about Effiete? The most important thing is, is it sure that you don't have our spies under the boat now? "

"He feels that way too, right? But whether you have evidence now, it's all just speculation.

"Are you just waiting there in vain now? Do you think you should be able to do something and just wait there? You feel that time flies by so quickly."

"That's not to say, since I haven't chosen to place unnumbered munitions under your ship, I'm absolutely determined to frame you.

"Qin Yuan, you know maybe his heart hasn't collapsed yet, why one thing after another.

"You don't have very little proof, like he said, maybe that's not the little thing about the iFix guy I'm keeping you guys stuck in the middle of what you believe is the essence of not having much proof.

"Brother, what happened to him? Just now you were still very excited to celebrate An Ran's arrival? Why did his face become so serious all of a sudden? Did you think of something terrible again?"

You want you to hand over Fan Tianlei's phone to An Ran.

"Since this is the case, do you think there are any terrible things that you have to accept? Let him talk about it first, and if he says yes, can you help him solve it?"

There is nothing wrong with that, even if he wants to blame you, you will say something else.

"Give him a look. He will see the slowest ship, but it is not a very small ship. You should only hold our ship safely.

"Zhen Le, in fact, you want to scare him, but based on what you know about Effiete since you were young, you think I seem to be too easy to let go of it."

According to your own experience, if it is a special ship, it must be able to travel so slowly against the wind in a small sea.

"Yeah, there's no bad news, and you can lift your spirits up. However, there are always all kinds of good news around you. It's really depressing. It makes you feel uncomfortable. You are at a loss, you will be able to see An Ran very slowly, and you are also very excited in your heart."

Jason sighed and said to Qin Yuan:

Zhen Le suddenly thought of something, and I said suddenly:

Before Jason heard what Qin Yuan said, I smiled and said:

"Bad, since that's the case, you think it's not as exciting as you imagined if you say it earlier and discuss it with everyone."

"That matter really depends on him."

"That matter is indeed a bad thing, but the difficulty lies in the request He Chenguang gave you.

I let you keep falling into self-belief and cycle.

Jason brought Qin Yuan to the two of us, a relatively secret location.

Jason said everything and I nodded.

Before hearing Qin Yuan's words, Jason and I had an idea.

Before Jason heard that, he excitedly said to Zhen Le:

Jason smiled and said to Qin Yuan:

Jason stood firm, I was too daring to speak my mind, because I am sure whether I have evidence or not.

It hasn't started raining yet...

Or, it is to let him and you all die together. If you think I stopped that conspiracy, maybe there is still some hidden in the depths. You know your conspiracy. "

"Yes, it's not the one they just came out for you just now. I'm approaching you now. It's estimated that I'll be there in less than seventy minutes."

"Bad brother, he must think so little. You don't mean that. You are just thinking about what he said. Maybe it doesn't make sense. Maybe that guy Aifeite is really under your boat. It's my predecessor."

Let you be right, think that those things are all fabricated and imagined by yourself, so that you fall into extreme self-belief, maybe it is not a kind of mental control, can you really do anything about it? There are not so vicious people in the imaginary world. "

Jason's sudden solo chat invitation.

"Zhen Le, you are very suspicious of what he said, since he told you that based on his experience, that slow boat is very unlikely to be safe, so you have every right to doubt what he said.

"It's bad, brother, since he thinks there are too few people outside, it's convenient for him to talk.

But the tricky thing is not, now that Fan Tianlei is with Zhen Lehan, both of us are outside the cabin on the ground, if we definitely want to inform Fan Tianlei, I am afraid it will be a very easy thing for Chen Jixiang to know.

But those who are brave will feel that Xiao Hai's next depression is terrible. "

"But even if there are no spies under the ship, what can I do? Am I watching you by your side? Or am I in the cabin on the ground or the classroom below? Do you have any evidence now.

What Qin Yuan said is wrong, I can indeed help you solve it, and I am the most suitable person to solve that matter, the most important thing is not me?

It seems that An Ran is also a very powerful person whose identity is a mystery. How can you know so few powerful people among them. "

Even if he is complaining now, why was he so unlucky before he met you? Did you bring all the bad luck under his boat?

At that time, Zhen Le suddenly thought of what He Chenguang told me.

"Is it a big ship, but the speed is very slow?"

It's just that, it's just your own wishful thinking.

"Since the two of you are bad brothers, you are hiding it from him. In fact, before you contacted your subordinate He Chenguang, I gave you a hand that was just a big guy with high grades. mobile phone connected to the world.

"Let's talk about it, what's the matter?"

Whether there is really any way to be sure is just your own wishful thinking. "

Before that, Qin Yuan instructed the employees outside the control room to tell us that once they found that there was nothing ordinary under the radar, they must immediately report to themselves.

Before Qin Yuan heard that, I sighed and said nothing. He felt like he was thinking about something.

"Is this my good brother? There is enough trust between the two of us, , so I feel at ease."

So, you go out first, and you can't go below the deck to get some air.

"Yeah, just like what he said, you finally waited until someone came to meet you."

"What's the matter? The badness seems to be very slight. He must say that. It makes it look like you are very relaxed and scared now."

Qin Yuan also hugged Jason very excitedly.

Qin Yuan, it can be seen that Zhen Le said to me without any firmness:

He must want to fall into an endless loop and feel that it is his own problem. In that case, you feel that you may destroy a person from the bottom of your heart. "

Before Qin Yuan heard that, I had a question mark on my face.

The most important thing is that Chen Jixiang has to keep that matter secret, so that Zhen Lehan can know about it.

Now all you can do is wait, quietly waiting for An Ran's ship to arrive, and it will not be able to pick you up. "

Chapter 1924: Don't doubt the people around you casually in a second! After Qin Yuan listened to Jason's words, he knew what Jason actually wanted to say in his heart.

Jason might want to say that the reason why Fan Tianlei is so guarded against He Chenguang is that the person he even suspects is He Chenguang?

Hey~ Obviously this is not the answer Jason wanted to hear.

In his heart, He Chenguang was his brother through life and death, so how could he doubt him?

Later, Qin Yuan said to Jason:

"I know what you want to say? But, I can't believe this. He Chenguang and I have been born and died together for many years. You don't know much about the relationship between us.

We are as close as brothers, no, even, closer than brothers.

No matter what happens to him, it is absolutely impossible for him to betray me.

Although, Fan Tianlei may do this in a certain sense, it seems that he does not believe He Chenguang, but I can't believe him, Fan Tianlei, it is impossible for me to personally doubt He Chenguang before telling me everything clearly of. "

Jason, after hearing this, he knew that in Qin Yuan's own mind, he had already hesitated and doubted countless times. He hesitated countless times, and overturned his thoughts countless times.

Before Qin Yuan listened to Jason's arrangement, he felt that Jason was indeed very reliable!

Qin Yuan looked at Jason with a puzzled look.

Hearing that Qin Yuan was subdued, Jason and I were in a hurry to calm down and said to Qin Yuan:

"How can you say that? He has no basis?"

Jason was firm for a while, and then I was nodding my head. No matter how difficult it is at this moment, I still insist on expressing my thoughts.

"It's bad, it's bad, you just said that you believe in Chen Jixiang, you just put forward your own inner thoughts.

Didn't expect that Qin Yuan would be pulled back by Jason.

The atmosphere between the two of them turned so hot that Xiaojia was silent for a few minutes.

You said that He Chenguang did that because he trusted Chen Jixiang, and he immediately refuted. You said that the two of them are bad brothers who went through life and death. Are the brothers around you the bad brothers who went through life and death with you?

"By the way, why did you forget that matter? It's all because you two had an argument outside and forgot the most important thing. Now you go to Gu Shenghuan, and the old man asked for the phone. ?"

Gu Sheng was not at a loss.

Before Qin Yuan heard Jason's words, I couldn't help but smile and said:

You are the one who says the wrong thing with a big heart, but he wants to know you specially! "

"Yes, I'm sure if I found out, I might as well ask An Ran to take it back directly. Since He Chenguang doubts me so much, why did you let me go to Pakistan with you?"

Jason was confused by those words, so I asked without any doubts:

"Qin Yuan, you suddenly remembered a very important matter, and it has not been resolved. It is not the mobile phone problem of Fan Tianlei, the eldest son, who contacted the inner world! Did Gu Shenghuan just ask Fan Tianlei to hand over the mobile phone?"

Wait for you for a while and wait until you get the phone before you move the goods. "

"He didn't think about it, He Chenguang didn't want to use that incident to test, who is trustworthy among them? Who is trustworthy?"

"It seems that An Ran's big girl is really reliable. You will get used to solving any problems by yourself in the future. That time, you were really yourself. Please, did you think that I really gave you away? chain!"

Therefore, once others say it, he will definitely feel uncomfortable in his heart.

"You guys go now, let's talk when you get to the side of the boat first!"

"I have always felt that the relationship between him and An Ran is special, and now I can see it."

No words, do you know when to speak or when to speak! "

He was trying his best to hide, not daring to face the fact that He Chenguang was the one who betrayed him.

Forget it, let's take it one step at a time, now go to Fan Tianlei first, can I hand over my phone to you without knowing it? "

"It's really bad, Qin Yuan, you didn't act too excited just now, it's because you wanted to lose your temper at him, but when you mentioned that matter, coupled with the recent pressure, it's really too small up.

Jason looked at the environment in front of him and it seemed that there was no ship approaching at a very slow speed. We thought we were all thinking about the ship that was wearing it if it was in Enron.

"It's nothing. In fact, Xiaojia is a saint and neither is in a bad mood. You can't understand when you want to lose your temper!"

No matter, what happens between the two of us is a pleasant thing, as long as I encounter urgent problems, I will immediately stand on my side to consider and deal with them.

Jason didn't feel any embarrassment, so I quickly explained:

Hearing the shout from his hand, Qin Yuan came to his senses in a hurry.

Qin Yuan saw that Jason was still obsessed with enlightenment, and knew that no matter what he said, I would always be right, but it would make me more anxious to prove it, which is really beneficial A plan of action between us.

We have also been with you for a few years. Xiaojia is a bad brother who has experienced many hardships and happily witnessed life and death. Does he ask you to believe us now? Because of his nonsense? "

Jason's slow behavior caused Qin Yuan to complain mercilessly.

You guys are familiar with each other here, since I want to use that plan to help you find He Chenguang, the inner ghost, I'm really ruthless and decisive enough! "

Gu Shenghuan was hiding it from Gu Shenghuan to let Chen Jixiang know about it, but now that An Ran has not approached you all, it seems too possible to hide it from me. "

Qin Yuan suddenly didn't have an expression of enlightenment.

Gu Sheng pointed to the sky while talking.

"But do you have a worse way than me, are you going to knock that big guy Chen Jixiang unconscious?"

"It turns out that He Chenguang did the task according to that idea, and I actually had such thoughts?

"How can you say that you are a busy person? In fact, you are not helping Qin Yuan to do something within your own power, and you can be regarded as a bad performance. It is said that you will use other people's boat when you come back!" "" What else can you two do? Do it, but wait for his little busy man to come back there, and see if there is nothing I can tell you to help. "

Now, you should hurry up and study, what does he mean by Effiete, we will let you off so easily? "

"Qin Yuan, you know he really wants to help you.

"Now let's talk about it again, it's my business to get off the boat.

At that moment, Qin Yuan ran over in a hurry from the nearby deck with his hands on his hands, and shouted out of his mouth as he ran:

Before Qin Yuan heard Gu Sheng's explanation, I pursed my lips, and then smiled meaningfully.

Before I finished speaking, Jason had seven words to say, and I immediately ran to the cabin on the ground at the slowest speed and saw Fan Tianlei and Chen Jixiang at this moment. The two of us were lying directly on the floor and counting the stars?

You... Do you really know the relationship between the two of them since they were young? If you understand what you are going through life and death, that's why you say that.

Gu Shenghuan said in a strange way:

Look at An Ran, we haven't had a while to get close.

"Old man, young man, there isn't a very slow boat approaching you right now, is this the one that came to pick you up?"

Jason saw whether Qin Yuan was meeting me, and I nodded in satisfaction.

When you are loading and unloading the goods in a while, you still use that method to let us come over.

Qin Yuan didn't say anything, I just nodded meaningfully at Gu Sheng.

First deny other people's ideas, in fact, the most difficult to accept is himself.

I immediately got down on the edge of the boat, trying to look ahead to see if I could find any clues.

"There is nothing to talk about between you yet? He just said it directly with worry and timidity."

Go to the boathouse on the ground and find Shang Gu Shenghuan.

Jason could only pretend that nothing happened, and calmly communicated with the two of us.

If he agrees, he will take it as if you have not said it.

"Jason, what did he mean by that? Did he want to say that there are no trustworthy people around you?"

Hearing that, Qin Yuan seemed to feel it. There was no such thing as Xiang's premonition. Maybe Jason wanted to tell me that there was no one around me who was as difficult and convincing as Gu Shenghuan?

"He sees how the weather in Xiaohaixia is full of dark clouds now. Even people like you who have been running under the sea for more than ten years are terrified when they see it, not to mention that I am a big girl, especially Xiaowanxia. Come to him in such bad weather and meet him.

If he agrees, of course the worst.

Qin Yuan could only perfunctory, and said to Jason:

"I'm sure He Chenguang really has that heart in mind, so it seems that Chen Jixiang really has to keep the fact that he can go back with An Ran from me.

"He knew you would be angry, so he still said it. It seems that he cares about your inner thoughts at all. He just wants to express what he thinks in his heart!"

"What are the two of them lying there straight for? Sleeping?"

Jason, he thinks you took the wrong medicine or said the wrong thing, so he must take it to heart?

"That thing belongs to a hard method!"

When Gu Sheng saw Jason nodding, he knew it was exactly what I expected.

I hurriedly turned around anxiously, and said to Qin Yuan:

What kind of scene have you seen? If he really beat me and knocked me out, how would he explain to me before I woke up that he still wanted to complete the task with me when we arrived at the destination? "

At that time, An Ran's ship hadn't gradually approached our ship.

Now that it's showing up under the radar, I'm not done approaching you yet, so hurry up and go to the far side of the cargo. You'll waste no time until Auntie arrives, unload the cargo under my boat first! "

I saw it from far away, An Ran was waving:

Before Gu Sheng heard that, I smiled evilly.

The most frightening thing about Qin Yuan is that he tore apart the truth with his own hands.

Gu Sheng said:

Qin Yuan was very sad, once Jason, in order to prove that Chen Jixiang is the one who helped Effiete and us murder me, then I will definitely use what I can, and I will know what will happen when the time comes Such trouble.

You just send a few men on the ground outside the cabin to stop us and let us come out! "

Before Jason saw An Ran, Shinobi shouted from the side of the boat.

"You two are bad brothers who have been born and died. You have nothing to do with Gu Shenghuan and Fan Tianlei. The difference is that he must misunderstand the pure friendship between you!"

Because he is always disturbing, the words between you are too reasonable, you should make sure first.

"The wind and waves under the small sea, I can hear everything he says, he just wants to worry about it by himself, can I, a grown boy, still fall into the small sea?"

I know that it is safe for you to go to Pakistan for the first time?

"He really wants to do that, right? You didn't just say it casually. Does he really think that those big guys around him are all living for nothing? We were so young when we were born and died together with him.

Yes, he is still the most suitable candidate for that matter, and I still want you to go in person.

"Qin Yuan, he needs to be slow first, now is the worst time to get the phone, and that thing must be done according to He Chenguang's instructions.

"It's bad, since he hasn't refused yet, you can say it boldly, just like what he said about Gu Shenghuan just now."

"Let's leave things like that to you! You don't have to do any dirty work!"

At that time, we were not far enough to get close.

"Qin Yuan, he wants to get excited first, and you know he will get angry before you say that!"

Before Qin Yuan finished speaking, I quickly turned around and prepared to go to the cabin on the ground to find that eldest son Fan Tianlei.

"He needs to take it easy first, he is now looking at the bad weather inside, so he just looks in like that, if he sees some clues.

"He should be more careful, the weather is so bad, he will stop!"

Jason, it suddenly occurred to me that I haven't resolved this important matter yet.

Qin Yuan's words completely reminded Jason.

"It's bad, has no other way now, it can be solved."

What if we heard something?

"You don't have the right to question the decisions made by the lower-level leaders now?"

Before that, several of us came to the side of the boat at the slowest speed.

Jason looked at Qin Yuan's actions, and I said helplessly:

"Jason, he was worried. In fact, that matter is relatively difficult to handle. You haven't explained it all the time. Do you want us to come down from the deck?"

Qin Yuan's words reminded Jason instead.

"Why does he always have such double standards?"

It seems that he is still very important outside my heart! "

Jason raised his head and pondered. After thinking for a long time, he couldn't think of a bad way to make Fan Tianlei hand over his phone knowingly.

Jason was stunned by Qin Yuan that time, and he was speechless.

Chapter 1926: On the vast sea, successfully converging

Qin Yuan looked at Chen Jixiang, the kid was gossiping, and couldn't help complaining:

"I see that sometimes you are too gossip, you want to know everything, and I will tell you, do you dare to listen?"

Chen Jixiang, on the contrary, was intimidated by Qin Yuan.

"Well, I don't dare to listen to how powerful you are. You are blatantly threatening me now. Can I still say that I dare to listen? Then don't I want my life?"

"As long as you know it, kid!"

Just as the two of them were talking, Jason changed from a distance.

Chen Jixiang said excitedly:

"Brother Qin Yuan, look at Jason coming, he must have something important to ask you, should I avoid suspicion?"

"You kid now knows what you should know and what you shouldn't know. If there is anything else to avoid, just stay here."

"Okay then, I'd rather be respectful than obedient, stay here and listen to what you have to say."

"You understand that you understand what your task is now, and they entrusted you with such an important task that they are worried about. Can you still screw them up?"

Before An Ran heard Qin Yuan calling her real name, did I feel very sorry? I hadn't expected that Zhan Zi would tell Qin Yuan everything you didn't know.

Zhan Zichao interjected again at that time, saying:

"What kind of Chen Jixiang do you know? As his masters, you can only let me go if you let him let you go from the boat under the orders of your own youngest? It doesn't matter who I am or what I look like if you let me go. It's possible to be pretty."

"An Ran, he should be called Dongfeng to you now."

"By the way, what do they need you to do for them? If they need you, you can stay here and help them unload the goods as quickly as possible, so that Xiaojia's heart will be put on it. Little Stone will stop worrying."

Qin Yuan deliberately said without some sarcasm:

"It's bad, you know that, since they haven't got everything ready yet, they only owe you the east wind. I know whether your east wind came in time and didn't delay their mission,"

"You also want to hide from me as your bad brother. In fact, from a personal point of view, you are very self-effacing, but the subordinate's instructions are not to let me know what you can say, so you can only be obedient. Listen."

"Oh? Qin Yuan, tell me what you should be to them?"

Jason ran away quickly, came to Qin Yuan's side and said to him:

"It's bad, what they said doesn't make sense, since that's the case, you should go back first."

Before finishing speaking, An Ran stretched out her hand and shook hands with Qin Yuan and the two of them, which can be regarded as his real identity and name, and they got to know each other again.

Just wait for An Ran to get close, let's unload all this cargo on his boat as soon as possible. "

"Seeing whether his hand is really loyal to him, our approach is actually right.

"Thank you so much, An Ran, he said that, you are really touched, even if there is no Jason, he will help you out there, it is really meaningful to you. ."

"That's bad, if that's the case, then you can only be lazy that once, and help them deliver the goods, and you will show up when they don't need you."

"Jason, what the  is he doing? You haven't waited there yet. They've been waiting for a long time, but no one came to meet you. It's because you treated them so badly for nothing.

"Zhanzi, he must definitely say that, you guys are all friends, even if there is no Jason today, if he asks for help, you will help him.

"Jason doesn't have a thing, you are very sad, can he explain it to you?"

Jason smiled and said to Zhan Zi:

It seems that he had to treat others badly in the past, and they gave him so little. "

You both know that I will do that, and you are still very worried about me. "

"Nothing is reliable? Don't they even know Chen Jixiang among those big things?"

Before hearing that, Qin Yuan hurriedly scolded my hand:

Jason was very sad, what did Qin Yuan want to ask?

Qin Yuan looked at An Ran, and his pretty face showed such a meaningful expression again, I walked up to An Ran and said to me cautiously:

"Sister An Ran, you have always been very worried when doing things. I always do things at critical moments when I will lose the chain. I can always be by your side and protect you badly."

After Qin Yuan listened to Jason's words, he took out his watch, looked at the time, turned and said to Qin Yuan:

If so, you have to break off friendship with both of them. "

Maybe in the future, you didn't hide anything from him under your identity, but that can be regarded as a person drifting in the rivers and lakes on his own, but you still really regard him as a bad friend, and you hope he must believe it. "

To you, he is Dongfeng. He should be called Jiyu. If Jiyu came to save you, if he said yes, you might die and have a place to die. "

"Well, since that's the case, you have nothing to say, just like what he said, you can only obediently obey the orders of the subordinates.

"That's right, that's because you've always been very curious. Why did he let Yin Lianna know? It's okay to let me know. The most important thing is that you think it seems like you're hiding it from me.

Since, before he promised you that thing, you made up your mind to tell him your real name, and you haven't regarded him as a real bad friend.

Xiaowan made you freeze and suffer outside, but they know what to do outside. When they go back to complete the task, they must treat you to eat and make up for it. You are blowing tonight those cold winds.

Before An Ran heard that, she nodded in agreement.

"Although your crew may be short of manpower, but you think he should go back to the cabin on the ground first. The worst thing is to let Yin Lianna stay here alone."

"But is it true, to be honest, have you ever had too many thoughts, have you ever expected that I can come to you so slowly and I can come so slowly, so you are worried."

Just as the two of them were chatting happily, Qin Yuan's shouting in front of him remembered the two of us again.

Qin Yuan nodded movedly, and said:

As they talked, those people came to the edge of the deck, and Jason saw An Ran standing under the deck opposite the ship very quickly.

When Zhan Zi heard that, I excitedly said to Qin Yuan:

What a small kindness that is!

"It seems that Zhan Zi hasn't told him about your matter, it's four or four, and since that's the case, you really need to get to know each other again.

An Ran smiled and nodded, then hurriedly said:

"Have you seen it? It seems that An Ren is quite reliable. He was able to rush to you at the slowest speed when your cat was in a hurry. That silly girl really cared about her own safety and must come to you around."

Qin Yuan smiled bitterly and knew that Zhan Zi would definitely see through the question he wanted to ask in his heart. I also nodded and said:

"His eldest son really has one hundred and forty hearts!"

Before finishing speaking, Zhan Zichao immediately left Jason and Qin Yuan's side, and hurriedly prepared to go back to his cabin on the ground.

"It's bad if he knows it. Since that's the case, he should go back now, and don't delay for too long. If it takes too long to go back later, you think that Yin Lianna, I must be satisfied with it. gone."

Qin Yuan also nodded, very much agreeing with An Ran's approach, and felt that I was really a cloudless sky, and it was really touching that the girl didn't have such an awe-inspiring attitude.

I should be extremely stupid, and I can guess what you think. "

Before that, An Ran was dragged by the two of us to the boat where Jason and we were.

At that time, An Ran hurriedly got to the point and said:

He Chenguang suddenly said solemnly:

At that time, Zhan Zi said to the side with his hand:

"We just observed outside for a while, and I saw that this dark ship was about to approach us, and the cargo was ready, and so was I.

If I said it so directly, it would not be embarrassing for An Ran, as if I had been lying to me ever since.

"His elder brother knows again. If he wants to praise me, he can do it right in front of you, but make sure it's clear from there."

From then on, the name you told him, Chen Jixiang, was the name you had to give yourself when you came out and got mixed up in it. Now Xiaojia is a real bad friend. He can help Jason. We go to Pakistan, and you are very thanks.

Before An Ran saw Jason, she waved her hand excitedly and said to me:

"What's the matter Jason?"

Quickly, he said gently to his hands:

Looking at the back of He Chenguang going away, Qin Yuan said at that time:

You can see how many goods they have, and then you can arrange a place to move them. "He's bad, let's get to know An Ran again." "

"You know what he wants to ask. Did he want to ask you why you kept that matter from Yin Lianna to let you know that Xiao's family is a bad brother who went through life and death. Why did you tell me?"

Jason smiled and said to An Ran:

Although, sometimes it looks too flexible, but our approach is not wrong, and we are very cautious. He does not have such hands by his side, which is indeed one of the reasons why he can get twice the result with half the effort. "

"His elder brother is used to talk outside. When there is no need, you will naturally call him. Now he is needed to keep Yin Lianna in a bad way outside the cabin on the ground. It makes me think too little."

"It's bad, I want to praise us first, so hurry up and meet An Ran, don't let him stand in Xiaohai for too long."

"Let's worry about it. It's definitely not as simple as you imagined. I, Fan Tianlei, will definitely betray you. You and I haven't known each other for so many years, so you can be regarded as a confidant and a bad friend.

Qin Yuan said with no bad intentions:

"Boss, the ship hasn't approached yet, if you want to dock with us now?"

"You have known each other for such a long time, is he still worried when you do things? When did you fall off the chain, and you guys were not ready for it a long time ago. That means everything is ready, and you only owe the east wind."

Zhan Zi saw An Ran jokingly complaining outside.

"So you are here, I have been looking for you for a long time?"

But you are still Hanhu. Why did Fan Tianlei do that? I am a person who is really unpredictable. I will always be lenient when it comes to serving things. I will never take into account that they followed me to such a young age. I still have to hide it. Still hiding it from them, that person's thoughts are relatively deep, although what you said sounds too bad.

But you think it's hard to hear the truth as his friend, he still has to be a little more careful when he doesn't have one, what if I really sell him out one day? "

Qin Yuan was also very touched with a smile, and I said:

He treats each other honestly, and you may not have anything to hide, so let's get to know each other again! "

"Okay, he's just going to pretend to be with you outside. There's nothing wrong with the relationship between the two of them. You see, the relationship between the two of them is really special. Who is going to be replaced? Xiaowan's Maybe they will come over to help him do such face-to-face things.

Jason thought for a while and said to He Chenguang:

"Boss, you should hurry over and have a look now. If he speaks, the boat will approach you, and you will let the people off the boat disembark. He must sign to confirm whether the people who got on the boat are right or not." Is it reliable?"

"It seems that An Ran hasn't come to you yet, hurry up and connect with me, it's really hard work for me, and the little night guy gave it another go, you don't think it's bad at all Interesting."

"Boss, you can see that the weather inside is too bad, so you should hurry up and prepare to move the goods down first."

Jason nodded in satisfaction, and said to Qin Yuan:

"The weather is still Xiaowanxia, a boy dared to come to Xiaohaixia to help you deliver arms in order to help you.

An Ran said:

Qin Yuan also knew that what he did was right.

"In front of Sister An Ran, you mean it badly. You just say it in front of them, and then ask them to convey it to you. That's why it seems so deliberate."

"These stupid guys saw you all knew to let me off the boat, hurry up and put the log down first, and let Sister An Ran get down first."

"Yeah, there is a mistake. What Qin Yuan said in his hand is right. The weather in the sea is bad now like a sudden change in the wind and cloud. I know what will happen. To be on the safe side, you should hurry up and get down to business. .

"Before Jason received his message, you stopped to help him plan that matter. How are their preparations going? But before you get there, their goods are still there. If you're not fully prepared, you'll be in trouble when the time comes."

Before He Chenguang listened to Jason's instructions, I also understood why Jason said that?

Chapter 1927: An unspeakable plea for help

Qin Yuan said to An Ran very firmly:

"Don't worry, this time, we have already taken stock of all the goods, and there will never be any omissions.

If I take another inventory in front of you, I'm afraid it will be too late, don't you even believe me? "

After hearing this, An Ran could only nod her head and said:

"Why don't I believe you? Don't worry about who you take me for. As long as you leave this matter to me, I just want to finish it well.

You also know how troublesome it is to come once in this vast sea.

If I didn't help you fundamentally solve the problem this time when I came, wouldn't I come in vain? I don't want to put you in a dangerous situation again. "

Jason was very moved and said to An Ran:

"Thank you, An Ran, for your tireless efforts to help us. I am really touched!"

"Okay, okay, don't be moved, this is my duty and what I should do.

No matter what the reason is, let the brothers get the goods on my ship first, and then we can talk.

If we have spare time, we can still chat and catch up on the old days. If this time is too late, I have to return immediately. "

Qin Yuan smiled and said:

"I'm afraid it's time for chatting and sleeping. Let's unload the goods first."

Jason said to the subordinates next to him in a commanding tone:

"Brothers, it's time to do something, what we should do, we have all done a lot of wrong things, this time, we have to fix all the mistakes at once.

Never leave anything wrong.

An Ran, it's been a long time coming here to support him, we absolutely can't let him come here for nothing, can you understand? "

These subordinates said in unison:

"Boss, we understand, you don't need to explain to us anymore. We see that the weather at sea is getting worse and worse, so we hurry up and get the cargo first. You can rest here now."

An Ran walked slowly to one of Jason's subordinates and asked:

"Brother, let me ask, how long will it take for my ship to ship all these prepared goods?"

Jason's men looked back at the group of goods that had been placed, then looked at the surrounding environment and thought for a while before seriously answering:

"It will take about forty minutes. If we can hurry up, we will definitely speed up.

I won't make you anxious, I know that the weather on the sea is getting worse and worse, and I'm afraid it will affect your return journey. "

An Ran nodded in satisfaction.

"Yeah, okay, let's work hard for you brothers, and I will treat you to dinner when I return to country H after I finish."

After finishing speaking, Jason's men didn't say a word, and immediately started to move their goods.

At this time, Jason said:

"An Ran, you are really the most kind person in the world. You have done us a huge favor, and you even said that you would treat us to dinner when you go back. How could I be ashamed? I must treat you to dinner."

Qin Yuan also smiled and said:

"An Ran is such a strange woman, if he were a boy, I'm afraid we would have nothing to do with him, everyone in this world has been bribed by him.

She is interesting and beautiful, I really don't know what kind of person will be able to control such a goddess in the future! "

"I said you shouldn't take the opportunity to praise me here. Didn't I just help you this time? It's something I can do. Don't flatter me here. I'm not used to it."

"How can this be flattering? This is what I say from the bottom of my heart, even you are the goddess in my heart, let alone..."

Qin Yuan wanted to say something here, let alone Jason, and then he realized that he seemed to have said something wrong, so he hesitated to speak.

Not saying anything.

An Ran also felt that there was something wrong with the atmosphere, so he didn't ask any more questions, and immediately changed the subject and said:

"By the way, Qin Yuan, why didn't I see Chen Jixiang? Where is this kid? Where did this kid go?

Does he know I'm here?

If he knew, he would definitely come over to join in the fun immediately.

Now that I haven't seen him, I feel a little unaccustomed to it. Could it be that something happened to him? Are you feeling unwell and unable to adapt to the sea? "

Qin Yuan sighed and said helplessly:

"Does it need to be said? Don't you know how angry this kid is? He must have wanted to come to you as soon as he knew you came here, but I stopped him. There are many things.

He can't participate in it. After all, if he comes, I believe that He Chenguang may have to come too, and Fan Tianlei's wishful thinking will be completely overturned by then. "

After hearing this, An Ran immediately reflected that something was wrong, and he wanted to discuss this matter with Qin Yuan alone.

After he finished listening, after Qin Yuan said this, he didn't know how to tell Jason to go away, so he just kept silent and smiled with his head down without saying anything.

Jason is very smart, he said to Qin Yuan:

"Now that things have come to this point, we can't allow any more mistakes. I don't think my subordinates are very reliable.

In addition, my previous carelessness, I absolutely can't let the mistake happen again.

You two sit here and rest.

I went to supervise those subordinates, and moved those who were safe and sound to the bed, so that I could rest assured. "

Qin Yuan knew An Ran, and the two of them alone had something to say, so he didn't intend to stop the marriage. He said with a smile:

"Okay, Jason, then I can only work  you."

"This is all my own business. It should be because of my hard work that you can do it right. Don't say such polite words. Let's solve the problem in front of you. You can rest here. I will come and inform you when I'm done. "

An Ran also smiled, and nodded towards Jason.

Jason turned around and went to carry the goods with his men.

Now, in this position, only Qin Yuan and An Ran looked at each other.

An Ran said to Qin Yuan:

"Now there are no outsiders here, so just speak up if you have anything to say, there is nothing to avoid."

"It seems that you are really a flower of Xie Yu, knowing that Jason is here, I have no way to speak.

Jason is also a sensible person. When he saw your slightly embarrassed expression, he knew that the two of us had something to say alone. He dodged immediately.

However, I'm worried that he thinks that the two of us are here to talk about love, not to say something serious. "

After hearing this, An Ran knew that Qin Yuan was deliberately taking advantage of her, so she pretended to be a little angry and said:

"I said you Qin Yuan, can you talk about something serious, now there are no outsiders.

You are still telling me about these things here, be careful, I will go back and complain to Fan Tianlei. "

"Don't complain to him. He is already on guard against me. I can't make any mistakes in front of him anymore."

"Are you a Scorpio? Why do you hold grudges like this? Fan Tianlei told me that he didn't doubt you. Why do you really take this seriously? Don't you plan to get along with him in the future? Why do you want to quit? force?"

Qin Yuan said in a serious tone:

"Then I'll ask you to judge us both. Do you think he should doubt me like this? When did I do something wrong to him?"

An Ran was in a bit of a dilemma, he didn't know whether he should bring it up, but if he didn't, it seemed like he couldn't excuse Fan Tianlei.

"Since this is the case, then I will go to Fan Tianlei and talk about the question that he has always been puzzled in his heart."

"Okay, what's your question?"

"It's not that Fan Tianlei doesn't believe in you, it's that he can't believe that you have such ability, no matter what kind of difficult task you are given for such a long time, you can complete all of them perfectly, which has to make him doubt you, even if you are alien.

Fan Tianlei has never seen such an outstanding person, if a person is too outstanding.

Then it will only arouse the suspicion of others. This is understandable, and you must admit it! "

After hearing this, Qin Yuan sneered and said:

"Hmph~ Is there such a reason in this world? Is it wrong for me to be excellent?"

I tried my best to complete the task Fan Tianlei gave me, but now it will arouse his suspicion.

Then you say I am wronged or not?

Should I be restrained in the future, no matter what kind of tasks he entrusts to me, I'll just pretend to be stupid, so that I can save money and be suspicious after I finish it.

I have worked so hard to help her catch the spy, and it is really chilling for him to suspect that I am a spy. If I had known this earlier, I would not have come here.

On the contrary, this trip to Baguo made him so suspicious of us and let Chen Jixiang, a brat, watch us. Do you think he is going too far? "

"Then if I don't say anything else, I'll just ask you a word about Fan Tianlei's surveillance. Does He Chenguang know about you?"

The question of An Ran actually made Qin Yuan a little speechless, he knew what An Ran wanted to say, if he really felt that Fan Tianlei had groundless suspicions.

They should tell this matter publicly and let He Chenguang know.

Now he didn't let He Chenguang know, he just explained that in fact, he himself began to doubt He Chenguang from the bottom of his heart, and kept saying that Fan Tianlei shouldn't doubt their sanctimonious words.

An Ran followed up and asked:

"Why don't you talk anymore? Do you think that what Fan Tianlei did is not wrong? In fact, you have doubted He Chenguang from the bottom of your heart, right?"

"I didn't doubt him, I just think that many things that happened recently are too coincidental, if I really doubt him, will I still bring him out?"

Forget it, let's not discuss this matter, let's not wrong anyone until there is no substantive evidence, shall we? Especially the good brothers who were born and died with us.

After letting him know, he will feel the same as me. Originally, he stayed in the underground cabin during this period of time, and he was in a very uncomfortable and happy mood.

If you know such a bad thing again, who will you replace? Who can accept it? "

An Ran said helplessly:

"Well, since you don't want to mention this matter, then I won't say it, so as not to say something harsh and make you forget about the kindness I have come all the way to save you today, and just focus on getting angry with me , that would be bad."

At this time, Qin Yuan looked at Jason, who had been moving goods with his subordinates in the light rain outside, and suddenly remembered that there was an important matter that he could arrange for her in advance when he went back safely.

"An Ran, look at Jason!"

"Yeah, he has always been a very real person. Although he is not doing any legitimate business, he is not a bad person in the traditional sense. People have many faces.

The reason why I feel at ease to bring you here to find him is because I feel at ease about his character.

But he was somehow involved in Effiete's war.

It's really a bit too innocent. Although he is greedy, after all, he has operated a batch of arms, but he can get a lot of rewards. "

"It's not because of his own greed. In fact, there are other reasons. This is what I want to tell you."

Hearing what Qin Yuan said, An Ran felt very curious that it was rare to see Qin Yuan talk about other people's affairs so seriously. It seems that he must have encountered some substantive problem, otherwise Qin Yuan would not have told him like this.

"Then tell me why? Are there any secrets I don't know?"

Qin Yuan looked into An Ran's eyes, as if there was a look in your eyes that you must help me.

This look was given to An Ran, a little at a loss, he said with a smile:

"Just talk about something important, is it still necessary between the two of us?"

"Okay, if that's the case, then I'll say it, if you can't solve it, you can go back and mention this to Fan Tianlei. I promised Jason that I hope it can be solved." The biggest difficulty in his heart."

"What difficulty? Has he encountered any difficulty?"

"Do you know why he must help Effiete deliver the arms?"

He has been doing smuggling business in this sea for so many years, and he has never touched this thing.

Because, he knows the danger of this thing.

Although profitable, it is also high risk.

The reason why he fell into Effiete's trap this time and agreed to help them deliver the ammunition was because he was in urgent need of money. "

An Ran asked suspiciously:

"He needs money. It shouldn't be logical. His business is quite profitable."

Chapter 1928: put my life in your hands

Qin Yuan didn't know how to answer An Ran's sudden question.

If the truth is to be told, this will undoubtedly sting Jason's inner true self-esteem.

But if he didn't tell the truth, he couldn't help Jason directly.

"What's wrong with you? Is there something uncomfortable about Qin Yuan or what did you think of?

I always feel that you are a bit hesitant to speak. If you want to say something, you can just tell me directly. The two of us can also discuss, what should we do next?

This matter, I saw your hesitation, I knew it, I really didn't expect you to think that you could become such a good friend in such a short time.

In order to help him, you spared everything you have and thought of so many ways.

As I just said, according to my understanding.

He shouldn't be short of money, but I don't know why he agreed to Effiete's excessive behavior for this money.

If it is based on this kind of thinking, I believe he should still be relatively short of money.

Did he encounter any difficulties?

Only then did he accept this business. If I guessed correctly, does it have something to do with his daughter? "

Qin Yuan hesitated for a moment, and felt that he should tell An Ran the truth.

If not tell him, Jason's time to tell him all about it.

"Okay, let me tell you about An Ran, but you should not ask a goddess-like figure right now.

If you know so much, his unbearable past.

I'm afraid he will feel a little bit sorry for his self-esteem psychologically, but I still think I should tell you, and you can tell Fan Tianlei when you go back, and see if he can seek some good help. "

An Ran nodded vigorously, he agreed with Qin Yuan's thoughts.

"Yeah, I know, don't worry, I will never say anything about it, let alone hurt Jason's face.

I know that he is a very face-saving person. I have been in the Tao for so many years, and I know their inner thoughts very well.

Qin Yuan, can you tell me what happened to Jason now? "

"An Ran, in fact, Jason's daughter has a congenital heart disease, and it is because of this that Effiete blackmailed him."

After An Ran heard this, he was actually very surprised, but he pretended to be very calm, and asked:

"How could Jason's daughter have a congenital heart disease? According to you, it shouldn't be, although I don't know who he gave birth to as a daughter!

His wife is probably not alive anymore, and he should be alone with his daughter, which is quite pitiful.

It seems that this congenital heart disease is indeed not a difficult disease to cure.

The most important thing is that there must be matching to be able to succeed.

I believe that it is absolutely because of this incident that they were deceived.

In terms of money, he should not be short of money. The most important thing is that he has no connections, and he still has to wait in line for his heart.

He was afraid that his daughter would not be able to persist, so he listened to Effiete's nonsense, right?

It seems that my guess should be right. "

Qin Yuan nodded, and he said helplessly:

"That's right, An Ran, you're not wrong at all, that's how it is. I believe he is not short of money, but he has no connections now, not to mention he doesn't have a channel for a good doctor. Now they have pinpointed his weakness He Mingmai threatened him with this matter, otherwise do you think he would obediently obey the command of this group of people?

He himself regrets it now, and feels that he did a lot of impulsive things to help his daughter, and now he is dragging a bunch of brothers into the water.

He is also very distressed, so he will ask for my help and be willing to tell me the truth. "

"It's true, Jason, he has always cared about his daughter and his brothers the most.

No wonder he was so nervous about this matter.

If this matter is really messed up, then her daughter's condition may be delayed because of it.

The most important thing is that Effiete and his group of inhuman people are likely to threaten him with her daughter's life,

It seems that we did implicate him, otherwise Effie would never have found him.

For so many years, he has always adhered to his principles and will not touch these dangerous things.

It's for my own daughter...it's us who made him suffer..."

After Qin Yuan heard that An Ran had the same thoughts, he became more certain that it must be their internal spies who came up with so many things to threaten him.

Qin Yuan scolded angrily:

"This group of  villains,  spies, if something comes to me alone, why are you threatening Jason?

It is not easy for him to take his daughter alone, and her daughter has a congenital heart disease. "

An Ran patted Qin Yuan's shoulder, trying to comfort him.

At this time, Jason from afar looked at the two of them discussing something with serious expressions, thinking that they were discussing some business matters and it was inconvenient for him to participate.

Jason, watching the two of them affectionately from a distance.

Immediately afterwards, An Ran, yes again, Qin Yuan said:

"Then what can I do if you tell me about it?

No, it should be said that I will definitely do my best to help Jason and his poor little daughter, what do you need me to do? "

"I think you've been here, especially in the United States and other developed countries for so many years, you should have a lot of connections.

If you want you to help him solve this matter, I feel that you shouldn't be able to discuss it. If you really can't solve it, you can go to Fan Tianlei. "

After An Ran heard this, he pondered for a while and said:

"If you talk about connections, I have to admit that I have accumulated a lot over the years, and there are many friends who are willing to help me deal with this matter.

However, it is very difficult to find heart resources in a short period of time, do you understand?

One of the difficulties we are still facing now is that Jason did not tell us what type of heart his daughter belongs to, and what kind of person should we find to match him?

Do you know that medical resources are very tight now, many people are waiting for a life-saving heart, even if we are to save Jason, poor daughter.

We should not use medical resources to run on other poor people. Everyone has their own difficulties, and we must find solutions from other channels. "

"However, country h should not have too much hope. If the country is saved, it will not be controlled by Effiete and the others."

Hearing this, An Ran's eyes shone with a gleam of light.

"I know someone who might be able to help him."

"who?"

After An Ran heard Qin Yuan's inquiry, he smiled, and then said in a mysterious way:

"I knew you would be surprised to ask me who this person is. You know this person, and he has a very good relationship with you. The two of you have also experienced life and death together. Don't tell me you gave it to me so quickly. forget?"

Qin Yuan bowed his head and pondered for a while, who was he talking about?

Thinking of this, Qin Yuan suddenly realized, he said with a smile:

"My God, you are talking about the cold goddess Du Bingbing, right?"

"Look, you forgot about her so quickly, and now you say she is a girl. You are really two-faced and three-handed. That's right. I'm talking about him."

"Don't get me wrong, I don't mean he is a goddess, he is He Chenguang's goddess, not mine.

However, this woman has always had a cold attitude, and I am not sure what kind of thoughts he has in his heart, and he dare not explain such an important matter to him. "

After An Ran listened, after these words, he and you still have a little comfort.

Then, An Ran deliberately said:

"Come on, don't explain here, and I didn't say anything about the two of you, you don't need it, sorry.

Let's talk about something serious.

I can see that Jason and their goods are basically moved. After a while, he finished moving all the goods. I have no reason to wait here. "

When Qin Yuan heard this, he also felt that he should not continue joking with An Ran. He had to make it clear to An Ran:

"I know you didn't mean anything else when you mentioned Du Bingbing, you were just joking with me just now.

But the most important thing now is that I don't trust him very much,

Du Bingbing, he always gives people a moody feeling.

There was no way to talk to her, let alone tell him such an important thing.

Now our internal spy has not been caught yet. I don't know who has it. It may be this spy. Do you believe him? "

After An Ran heard this, he looked at Qin Yuan firmly and said:

"I know that because of our internal spies, you don't want to believe anyone now.

But I can tell you with confidence, as a woman's sixth sense, I really believe in Du Bingbing, he will definitely not be a spy.

He is a bit cold in character, but in his heart he is a difficult person to approach, once he thinks you are his best friend.

He will spare no effort to help you no matter what the price is, this is what I admire most about him.

After hearing what An Ran said, Qin Yuan was puzzled.

"How could you say such a thing? You and him are really useless. We have only met a few times together for a long time, and his attitude towards you is not so friendly. Why do you like him so much?"

"Don't get me wrong, I'm just talking about the facts. I have studied psychology, and I'm very accurate in seeing people. You trust us this time.

Du Bingbing is definitely a person who can be trusted. "

Qin Yuan hesitated for a while, then said:

"Okay, An Ran, if you think Du Bingbing can be trusted, you can discuss this matter with him, he is a doctor, and his family has been studying medicine for generations.

I believe that the medical resources in his family are definitely incomparable with ordinary people, and if he helps us find heart resources, it may be easier than ordinary people.

I will leave this matter to you first. Saving a life is better than building a seven-level pagoda.

These are some digressions, the most important thing is that I am now completing the task in Pakistan, and the two apprentices of Professor Fang are still missing.

I believe that I will not be able to return to country H for a while, and I have already promised that Jason will help him treat his daughter. If I cannot return to us in time.

If you help him find medical resources, it is very likely that the child's life will be delayed, which is not very good. "

An Ran also said decisively:

"I know I understand this feeling very well, especially for a girl, this disease really shouldn't be delayed, so you can leave this matter to me.

Just focus on completing the tasks assigned to you by Fan Tianlei, and we will keep in touch with you for the rest. "

After Qin Yuan heard what An Ran said, he was very relieved, and indeed An Ran was the most trustworthy woman around him.

When the matter of contact was mentioned, Qin Yuan suddenly remembered.

She took out Chen Jixiang from her pocket, and handed the mobile phone for communicating with the outside world to An Ran.

An Ran looked at the phone, he said suspiciously:

"What is this? Do you still use such an old mobile phone?"

"Are you stupid? This is the phone that Fan Tianlei handed over to Chen Jixiang for surveillance. We can contact him anytime and anywhere, no matter where we are."

"Well, that's the way it is. Then why is this thing in your hands now? Are you going to treat Chen Jixiang? What did this kid do to him? He was so scared that he gave this thing to you, right? "

Qin Yuan sighed and said to An Ran:

"Am I bullying weak people like that? Fan Tianlei really gave me this matter, and he asked me to take out this phone and give it to you.

Prevent, you have no way to communicate with the outside world on the way back.

In case there is something that cannot be solved, will contact you in time.

Help you, it can be seen that Fan Tianlei really regards us as his own, so I don't care about him if he suspects that I know me.

The most important thing now is your safety when you return to sailing on the sea, and nothing else is so important. "

After An Ran heard this, he nodded with a smile and said:

"Is this right? If everyone always doubts each other, how can they complete the task properly? I have already explained it.

Fan Tianlei, he didn't mean to treat you like this, you should believe it now. "

"Okay, don't talk so much for now, put your phone away first, and don't let other people know about this. He Chenguang, I don't know for the time being."

Chapter 1929: Successfully unload cargo and solve puzzles

An Ran, he is an extremely smart girl, once he finds out, what will happen if he hides this matter from He Chenguang.

At this time, An Ran said to Qin Yuan:

"If you say that, I think your next task will definitely be more onerous.

You have to know that this matter cannot be explained clearly in a few words, and Fan Tianlei will not say whether he will trouble you or not.

But He Chenguang, how are you going to explain it?

He is not a fool either, he can see that you and Chen Jixiang have something to hide from him, if Fan Tianlei finds out about this, then the relationship between you will be complicated.

Do you want to meet again in the future? Do you still want to work together in the future? "

Qin Yuan knew that no matter what happened, An Ran would consider it from the same perspective as him.

An Ran would never say anything to provoke him.

What An Ran said was the truth from the heart.

Qin Yuan smiled and said:

"Don't you think He Chenguang doesn't doubt the two of us now?

He had already suspected the motive between the two of us, but he didn't know what the two of us were talking about or doing. He was nothing more than his own doubts and guesses.

So, now he urgently needs to know about anything the two of us do, and no matter what we discuss, he wants to join in eagerly.

However, he had some conflicts with Jason's subordinates recently, and on the contrary, he took this opportunity to completely shut them both in the underground cabin.

The two of them can't come out, which is actually a lot more convenient, otherwise He Chenguang will definitely find a chance to come out and spy on what we are doing.

At the very least, Jason did not tell He Chenguang about the numbered munitions, and she didn't know about the private delivery of munitions.

But he could guess it, as if something important happened. "

Just as the two of them were discussing, Jason walked over from a distance.

He was panting, and it seemed that he had done a lot of physical work just now, and now Jason had a more relaxed expression on his face.

Qin Yuan watched Jason approaching, and knew that the work in his hand should be finished.

It seems that all the numbered munitions on his ship should have been transported, so Jason can show such a relaxed expression on his face.

Otherwise, Jason has always been very nervous and depressed, and now he can see that he is a little relieved.

An Ran looked at Jason, and hurriedly asked with concern:

"How is Jason? Are you busy? I see that your face is already wet with sweat and rain. You are really tired.

In fact, the munitions are quite heavy, right? I think that after unloading these munitions, not only will the big rock in your heart be resolved, but your ships will also reduce some pressure? "

Qin Yuan also smiled and said:

"Let's just say you are the best at talking, you can see everything clearly, you can see that everything can be solved by looking at Jason's expression, right Jason?"

Jason nodded excitedly, and said to everyone:

"That's right, I did worry you just now, I have already settled this matter, all the ammunition has been numbered, and I have put them on the ship that An Ran drove over, the next thing will be hard work for you safely."

"Then there's no hard work, I'm here just for this matter so that you can be mentally prepared and ready to hand over this matter to me. I'm also very happy, you all regard me as a good friend.

Let's not talk about these polite words between us. "

Qin Yuan looked at the sky outside, but it was actually not very good, he said anxiously:

"An Ran, I see that the weather outside is not very good now, why don't you wait a while for the storm to pass before leaving, I see that there will be storms and waves on the sea soon.

I'm really worried about you now, in case there's anything wrong with our affairs, of course I'm saying this before, I'm really sorry. "

An Ran patted comfortingly, Qin Yuan said with a smile on the shoulder:

"Do you really think that I have been fooling around outside for so many years? This is what I have thought clearly and clearly for a long time.

Don't worry, there will be absolutely no other problems.

Now what I want to know is that you have already unloaded the arms, so what are you going to do next?

I believe Effiete, they will never let it go.

Now on your ship, maybe there is Effiete's eyeliner.

If nothing happened after you docked, and no one came to stop you, then I believe you must have eyeliner in your clothes.

After telling Effiete all this, there is no need for him to make a fuss and find someone to find fault with you.

However, if after you arrive, there will still be people who search for these munitions on your ship under various names, I believe it must be Effiete and the others who are playing tricks. "

In fact, what An Ran said was from the bottom of his heart, and everyone knew what was going on with the munitions on this ship.

In fact, An Ran, he really wanted to ask Jason how his daughter's condition was. If he didn't communicate with him directly, but only listened to Qin Yuan's one-sided words, there was no way to describe her daughter's condition.

An Ran looked at Jason's relieved look, and he turned to look at Qin Yuan. In fact, he could see what she was thinking in her sad eyes.

Looking at him like this, Qin Yuan knew that he wanted to ask Jason what his daughter's condition was like?

Qin Yuan thought that now is not a good time to ask Jason about his daughter's condition. He finally solved so many problems, and he felt relieved.

Bringing up his daughter's illness will also put him under a lot of psychological pressure, which is really not conducive to the relationship between them.

But if they don't ask, they will all have great psychological pressure.

Jason seemed to be able to see what was going on in their hearts.

Jason asked curiously:

"Did the two of you hide something from me just now? I watched you two sneaking around here, as if you were hiding something from me.

If you have anything to say, hurry up, if you don't say anything, An Ran will leave in a while, I want to know that it's too late. "

Qin Yuan, after thinking about it, if An Ran was asked to stay for a while longer, he might not agree, she wanted to take these dangerous objects away from their surroundings as soon as possible.

If An Ran could discuss with Jason, the matter of his daughter would be slowed down. At least it would be a good idea to let An Ran leave after the storm has passed, but now Fan Tianlei is a very impatient person. people.

Afraid that he is now making excuses for Cui Anran, hurry back.

Just when Qin Yuan was thinking, he didn't expect Fan Tianlei's phone to ring, and it seemed that this guy was still worried about him. He was really thinking about him, so he contacted himself. To put it bluntly, he even talked to him It's very consonant.

Jason saw that it was Fan Tianlei who should have called, so he avoided it on purpose.

Qin Yuan immediately grabbed Jason's arm and said to him:

"Jason, there's no need for you to hide, you two should chat here first, and I'll report the situation to Fan Tianlei.

It seems that this guy must be worried that we can't handle these things well.

You don't trust me so much, and you don't trust An Ran, you must criticize this Fan Tianlei after you go back.

Employers don't have to be suspicious, okay, since you've already used the two of us, you still say so much to the two of us? "

Jason listened to what Qin Yuan said to An Ran.

The atmosphere of the three people inside immediately became relaxed.

In addition, the problem of numbered munitions has just been solved, so everyone can relax.

An Ran, he kept beating drums in his heart, wondering if he should ask Jason about his daughter's condition.

It's best to help her solve it as soon as possible.

Now, An Ran has only a half-knowledge of the whole matter, and has no way to describe his daughter's condition to the doctor. If she has his daughter's medical records or some films, she can better find a matching doctor.

As for Jason at this time, his heart was full of relief. He saw that Qin Yuan was safe and Fan Tianlei had such a good relationship, so he knew that his matter could be resolved without any effort.

I believe that these ammunition must have been sent to Fan Tianlei after they were transported back.

Seeing An Ran like this, Qin Yuan also planned not to stop her.

If he wanted to ask about Jason's daughter's condition, he could just ask directly. In fact, everyone didn't treat each other as outsiders. There was no need to cover up, just say what you have.

Qin Yuan thought that he had to answer it quickly, Fan Tianlei got a call, and if he was a little later, it would definitely explode, so with his temper, he would be scolded if he couldn't save himself.

"Thor? What's the matter? It seems that after we established contact, it is really convenient.

It's convenient, you can find me anytime and anywhere, and then you can see the status of our task completion anytime, anywhere. You shouldn't have given that kid Chen Jixiang your mobile phone in the first place.

You should, give me this mobile phone that communicates with the outside world, so that I can report to you directly.

Now that I know your secret, you still feel a little bit annoyed.

However, after such a trip, the two of us still contacted directly, you said it would be easy. "

Fan Tianlei could tell that it was Qin Yuan, this boy Youyi was teasing himself there, so he said very angrily:

"I said, you kid, don't be weird with me here, I'm contacting you to care about you.

No, the most important thing I want to do is to care about An Ran. Whether your kid is dead or alive has nothing to do with me.

It's fine if you never come back, lest you come back and get angry at me!

How is the situation over there?

Report to me quickly, I see the weather outside, but it's not very good.

There may be storms and waves at sea in a while, and if something happens to Anran, I am afraid that all of us will be addicted to regret for the rest of our lives. "

After hearing Fan Tianlei's eager tone, Qin Yuan knew that Fan Tianlei should be very worried at this moment.

He couldn't come out at home, and he must be fidgeting to complete this task with them, so he couldn't help calling himself this phone.

I have to say that Fan Tianlei is really a good boss and leader who is both a teacher and a friend.

Qin Yuan quickly eased his tone, and said to Fan Tianlei:

"Thunder God, don't worry, as for re-moving the cargo to Enron's ship, we have already completed the next thing as you said.

I saw that the weather on the sea was not too good. I wanted An Ran to spend time on our boat and leave after the storm, but he was in a hurry.

He is more anxious because he is afraid that something will go wrong, and he wants to leave us right now to ask you what you mean.

What do you think, do you want An Ran to wait a little longer before leaving, or take advantage of the dark night and high winds to leave quickly when no one is watching? "

Fan Tianlei was also lost in thought. Now he is very clear that if this matter is leaked, everyone will be in danger as well.

There is no point in trying so hard to transfer these goods out, but if you leave in the wind and waves, you really can't say what kind of danger you will encounter.

"Now I can't figure it out, I'm a landlubber, I've never sailed on the sea, I don't know what their situation is like now.

How about this, after a while you can ask Jason for his opinion, if he thinks he can leave, let An Ran go back, and then I will also send some ships to meet him halfway.

To prevent any further problems, his child cannot support himself.

If Jason strongly suggested that An Ran could not leave, he must not be allowed to leave.

Your life safety is the most important, the others are not important, can you not understand? "

In fact, Qin Yuan was very moved after hearing what Fan Tianlei said, and Fan Tianlei's status in his heart was also different.

Therefore, When Qin Yuan knew that Fan Tianlei secretly let Chen Jixiang spy on him, he was most angry, sad, and had accidents.

Now all the misunderstandings between him and Fan Tianlei have been resolved, and his attitude towards Fan Tianlei has also changed from before.

"It seems that the two of us really have a good understanding. Just when I wanted to call you, you called me and asked me to report to you.

Now the two of us have the same idea. We all rarely sail on the sea, and we don't know what the weather is like on the sea.

It can be scary to look at dark clouds, but it could actually be just thunder and rain.

That's it, as I thought, I also want to ask Jason for his opinion.

If Jason, if he insisted on not letting An Ran leave, it meant that the sea was still very rough. If he felt that An Ran could leave, there shouldn't be any problem. "

Chapter 1930: Confirm the trust of Fan Tianlei

Qin Yuan thought about it for a while, and then he told Fan:

"Okay Thor, I know you are also very concerned about An Ran, since you have the same thoughts as mine, then I won't ask so many questions, I will tell An Ran now, and ask Jason for his opinion by the way.

If Jason agrees, let An Ran return immediately. If he stays here for too long, it will not be conducive to our actions.

And if he stays here for an extra minute, it doesn't mean he's safe. Not to mention Effiete, they found out that they were cheated, and they may seek revenge on us immediately in the future. "

Fan Tianlei nodded on the phone, and then he said firmly:

"Okay Qin Yuan, I really believe that I will leave this matter to you, kid, but there is one thing, you have to promise me that An Ran is safe.

There must be no accidents. If there are any accidents, I will ask for you. "

"Okay, don't worry if I know. Leave this matter to me. What else do you have to worry about? By the way, there is one more thing I want to ask you."

"You don't want to ask me about Professor Fang, do you?"

"Thunder God is Thor, it seems that we boys really can't satisfy you?

And just now you contacted Effiete, you will send a text message to Effiete when he leaves in a while, I know, when he leaves, I will send someone to meet him. "

Before finishing speaking, Leishen hung up, turned around and walked towards Qin Yuan and An Ran.

"Is there anything else? Why is his eldest son so seldom?"

"It's not that I have opened it myself. When you gave me the mobile phone, you also gave me a USB flash drive. You suspect that he should also know."

It is estimated that there is no trace of comfort in Thor's heart, but the most pitiful person is not He Chenguang, but I know everything, like a fool, everything is kept out of the dark.

That box of ammunition was not originally, Chen Jixiang, I was digging a hole for him and even if I gave it to you, he should need to be so distressed. "

Yan Hengheng laughed and accused:

The U disk is definitely such an important secret, and it is also the guy who saved their lives. "

Effiete said with a smile without any bad intentions:

But why is his contact information stored outside the phone instead of the USB flash drive? If you are slow then, how can you find a computer that can open the USB flash drive for you? "

"What you're talking about is that he's really unpredictable. Tell him, there's nothing you know. He secretly told Yan Hengheng, is that the big guy?"

You think that there is no eyeliner sent by the enemy for the meeting under your ship, but it is very dangerous for me to be there. "

"Just now you had a little chat with An Ran outside, just to see if the weather in the small sea seems to be getting better and better, if I take advantage of that opportunity to return to the voyage, there should be no too small safety .

Seeing Yan Hengheng's reaction, Yan Heng knew that he must have been cheated by that old guy again.

Then Du Bingbing was really decisive in handling things.

So, Yan Heng waved his hand quickly, because Yan Heng couldn't start talking with Effiete.

"You see, his elder brother really has a relatively simple idea. He wants to do so little, and just do his own thing first. Now Professor Fang doesn't have this inexperienced and careless military doctor Du Look at me, is there anything wrong?

You appreciate that big girl more and more. If you had no chance before, you must let me work in your military region. "

When Effie heard Thor, I wasn't angry anymore, so instead I laughed like I was rolling on the ground.

When it came to the Thunder God, it suddenly dawned on him, but when he was collecting that item, he found a USB flash drive.

Let him explain himself to you quickly!

That's right, there's something to it, he can think whatever he likes, do you really doubt that when you handed over his matter to Fan Tianlei, you didn't do it too reliably.

Speaking of that, Thor was even more curious, and I asked:

Now tell me about that matter, I am the only one who knows, even Fan Tianlei knows.

"Jason, you really have something to say to him, and he joked about it at such a critical moment, he knows how scared you were just now.

At this moment, Effiete still has nothing to say to Yan Heng. I deserve Yan Heng. I don't want to use that opportunity to repeatedly appeal to the fact that Effiete trusts himself.

At that time, that responsibility will only be borne by him, and even the people in your position will also bear it.

"It's bad, if there is nothing wrong with the professor's health, you two will be worried, and you won't be able to complete the task. If there is nothing else, you have to tell him."

So he wants to take that opportunity to humiliate you badly, right?

"It's bad, since that's the case, he's going to scold them, let's solve it quickly, it must be to leave some loopholes. You can contact me before he gives An Ran the phone.

I want you to do it over and over again, like squeezing toothpaste from him, to solve all the problems and ask whether it is bad or not, people say that you should be strict when watching frankness and watching dramas. . "

When Thor heard that, I narrowed my eyes.

By the way, if his eldest son is chatting with you, you will almost forget the important things. "

"You said Jason killed him. You see, he is really sober. He dared to hand over such an important thing to that brat. What does he think? If you ask him, is he Should I tell you now? This Fan Tianlei, do I know what is on the outside of the USB drive?

"You know he thinks there's no balance in your heart, he thinks you've always left him alone.

The big boy was still petty, and put it out of his trouser pocket, in case it was taken by someone with a conspiracy under the boat.

You see what they should do next, it is the deployment of such a young man in the entire military region, if he is taken over by someone, how do you think Effiete will explain to the people below? "

"You said Jason, after all, he hasn't kept many things from you. There is nothing important in the USB flash drive. He is the one who can tell you.

"You think that's what he meant. Just now when you were on the phone and looked at the sky inside, it seemed that the sky inside was indeed not as scary as you imagined.

"The guy who saved your life, let him talk about it, what is it that can save your life?"

The external storage on the U disk is also some people who have not been contacted about your secret base in Pakistan, because it is too confidential.

Lei Shen walked to Yan Heng's side, patted my shoulder, and said earnestly.

So you said that he should quickly hand over his things to An Ran and bring them back to him together. It was his reliance for the first half of his life. If he was taken away by someone who plotted against him.

"Actually, that USB flash drive is not the one he trusts the most, it was given to you by instructor Gong Jian.

At that time, Qin Yuan was chatting with An Ran constantly nearby, and I saw whether the bad weather and aberrations were getting better and better.

After he got that thing, he either used to keep it himself, or destroyed it quickly, so that there would be no future troubles! "

You doubt, Yan Hengheng, we will definitely do something to him.

"You saw Qin Yuan calling you again. The weather outside you seems to be getting better. I should be more relaxed, and I want An Ran to hurry back to the voyage. After all, it is very dangerous to get off the boat. "

People say that there is evidence for empty talk. Now that you have not transferred so few arms, the arms with your serial number have been included in the agreement between the two of them.

He knows that you were worried a lot just now, but now there is danger under that bed.

So, the more people who know it, the worse it is. That's where a small number of your spies are. If it is really taken by the inner ghost, you tell him, it will be a big deal.

"In a while, you will give An Ran the mobile phone that can be used to communicate with the inner world in Xiao Haixia?"

I'm like a big kid who is recognized by a villain. It seems that Effiete still agrees with me and can doubt me very much.

When Qin Yuan heard that, I'm not completely sure yet, if the batch of munitions with no serial number is to be handed over to the public.

That old fellow Effie really favors one over another.

By the way, An Ran will send you a text message to let you know that I haven't set off when he is completely sure that it is time to return to the voyage, and then you will also send someone to pick you up. "

Don't you have nothing to know? So I quickly asked:

There should be no small storms.

"Bad, you know, Jason should be worried!"

Thor listened to what Effiete said, and I dared to wonder if Effiete had opened his ears? Dare to hand over such important things to Fan Tianlei? That brat?

Lei Shen also saw it from close up, Qin Yuan was waving at me.

They opened the USB flash drive and carefully asked a few people to remind you of your name. We will all help him. Those are the resources you accumulated when you were young. Now let them cherish it when they are used by the eight eldest sons. "

"The green hills are kept for fear of firewood.

In Thor's mind, you must confirm with Effiete, and before I give you the correct reply, you can worry and hand over the phone to An Ran.

So you said, when his eldest brother was gone, it was really more difficult to make mistakes as he got slower, and that was because he didn't have any small shortcomings, so you should worry about it.

"The USB flash drive stores the contact information of some Pakistani powers. Before we get here, there must be no way for the eight of them to deal with Yan Hengheng.

It wasn't a mixed bag under your boat, and he dared to take out so few important things. You see, he really wants to go home and retire.

"That's right, have you already told him about that matter? It's confirmed, he just gave An Ran the mobile phone that he was in contact with. If you have nothing to do before, you can contact me directly." ."

At that time, An Ran suddenly remembered an important thing.

Effie can also feel that although I am mature and naive in doing things, I am still a big child, and I am eager to get the approval and if from the subordinate leaders.

"By the way, it wasn't when he agreed to Chen Jixiang at the beginning, the two of them didn't form any written contract-like thing!

You see, I really want to go home for the elderly, and I even told myself that if I asked about it, I might have to hide it from myself?

I'm afraid, your little family will have to go to the end, and you will all have to go back to your hometown.

"His elder brother wants to be so relaxed first, you are just teasing him. Can you give Fan Tianlei such an important thing? Let alone Gong Jian's instructor, even you will be able to see it.

Before Yan Heng listened to Yan Heng's words, I nodded.

At that time, you didn't ask Effiete, and you had to give me something to show your loyalty.

Raytheon and Yan Hengheng said outside the phone:

That's right, I just want to know how is Professor Fang's health, and now he is asking us to go all the way to Pakistan to save his two apprentices.

How should he explain to me before arriving at the destination? Are there so many of those things? "Are you just wasting that time by fetching water from a bamboo basket?"

"He's really overthinking the U disk, does he still read it? The U disk is the password that can't be plugged into the phone directly. You sent it out of his phone a while ago. He knows that you don't care much about him. Did you tell Yan Hengheng about any bad passwords?"

I thought it was Fan Tianlei's big guy's personal USB flash drive, but now that Effiete said it, it seems that the USB flash drive is also complicated. Just ask me, I secretly gave Fan Tianlei something bad.

Lei Shen saw a little disappointment in Qin Yuan's eyes, and I knew what Qin Yuan was thinking.

If it's less than 10%, you dare not have Yan Hengheng's eyeliner under that boat.

But don't worry about his physical condition hereIn case I really don't have any problems, my two apprentices have rescued me back.

When he said that, you really admired him so much.

It can be regarded as his vote of honor for me. From now on, if he leans against my little tree with his back.

"What? Those are some ways to connect with the inner world. You said that Jason was really complicated when he was young, and even his bad friends went to Pakistan?"

Qin Yuan said to Yan Heng:

"It's bad, since he wants Hanhu that much, you will hand over the phone to An Ran in a while, he can think badly, once you hand over the phone, he was going to contact Fan Tianlei before, but the eldest brother can contact him Is it down?"

If you take away the arrangements you have made in such a young age, our little family will be ruined. "

When Thor stopped there, I was secretly depressed.

It's just that I didn't regard it as an important item at the beginning.
