

Special Soldier 1941

Chapter 1941: Solutions to quell incidents

After He Chenguang heard this, he became even more angry.

"Jason, why do you always miss Jason? Have you forgotten that I am your best brother?"

"You can't be angry with me because of this little thing. Why don't you have any perspective on the big picture? You don't even look at it. What time is it now? You're reckless enough to make such a big mess. Don't you think about other people?"

"I think about other people, so what do you think I should think about?"

"Look at the mess in the underground cabin, you still sow discord like this? Originally, these people in the underground cabin are not fuel-efficient. Are you doing it just because of the unhappiness in your heart?"

Just for Jason, did they cause so much trouble? Don't you think this is going too far? "

"Hmph~Qin Yuan, you still have the nerve to say that I caused trouble for them, don't you never think that this matter is all because of you? When did you discuss it with me and Chen Jixiang after you got on the boat.

You started plotting with Jason after you boarded the ship. I don't know what the two of you are plotting. What do you want me to do?

Now it seems that he is just like your good brother who was born and died, and we are nothing, right? "

Qin Yuan sighed, he really couldn't understand He Chenguang's behavior.

"I don't know what your purpose is for doing this? Could it be that because I don't discuss anything with you and have something to hide from you, are you so angry that you want to provoke this unnecessary trouble? "

"I don't know what you're talking about, what happened to the underground cabin has nothing to do with me, I'm just a stowaway who was stuffed in the underground cabin and couldn't see the light!

I don't have any right to speak on the boat, I can only do what others say, if they happen to some bad things outside, you should blame me, why are you here to blame me now? "

Chen Jixiang from afar looked at the two of them, arguing with each other sentence by sentence, and he hurried to Qin Yuan and He Chenguang.

"What are you two talking about here? Don't take me with you."

"Take you, when did he consider other people's feelings?"

Chen Jixiang planned to use his good attitude to let He Chenguang try to stabilize his emotions.

"Brother Chenguang, I know that everyone is locked in this underground cabin, everyone is very unhappy, and I am the same as you, this place where the sun is not seen is coastal and humid, who can feel comfortable staying here for a long time?

But you shouldn't take all your temper on Brother Qin Yuan, isn't it because of us that he pleases Jason so much? "

"For us?"

"That's right, brother Chenguang, don't forget that the reason why we were able to get on this boat and go to Ba country as quickly as possible was all thanks to An Ran for us.

Everyone didn't know Jason, so it was natural to please him after boarding the boat.

I know more information from his hands. None of us have been to Pakistan, so we don't know what kind of customs there are.

Brother Qin Yuan, isn't it normal for you to want to get acquainted with him to learn more about what's going on there?

Don't we know everything after arriving in a foreign country, so how can we complete the task? If we can't even complete the task that Fan Tianlei entrusted to us, then we didn't come in vain this time? "

He Chenguang calmed down after hearing Chen Jixiang's persuasion.

"I'm not saying that I want to make trouble on purpose, and I don't want to do anything to them. I just think we are a little too passive now. Jason said that we should do whatever we want, when we were in the army.

Where have you experienced such a thing? And this underground cabin, Qin Yuan, you haven't stayed here for such a long time, you have no right to accuse the two of us of having any opinions.

This Jason has a very good relationship with you. He drinks so much that he entertains you and lets you walk around on his boat.

But what about the two of us? The two of us are always stuck here, unable to go anywhere. Finally, we have the opportunity to go out and breathe. Jason's men are still bossing us around. "

Qin Yuan eased his emotions, he patted Chen Jixiang on the shoulder and said:

"He Chenguang, look, even Chen Jixiang, a fledgling boy, knows the seriousness of the matter, don't you realize it?

I know it's uncomfortable for you to stay in the underground cabin, but the more trouble you make, the slower the boat will move. Only by working together can we get the boat to the shore faster.

Wouldn't we be free then?

And, when we get back, there's a good chance we'll still need Jason.

We don't need to make too bad a deal with him, besides, he is An Ran's friend, even if he is giving An Ran face, shouldn't you think about it? Don't you even care about An Ran's face? "

After He Chenguang listened to Qin Yuan's words, he also thought carefully that his actions seemed inappropriate. If he really wanted to reach his destination quickly and leave this ghostly place in the underground cabin, he really shouldn't have caused so many troubles.

"I know what you said is very reasonable, but I'm just angry. I just want to teach them a lesson. Besides, I'm alone. Do you think I can provoke such a big incident?"

In fact, these people in the underground cabin are not fuel-efficient lights. Everyone has long been dissatisfied with Jason's driving speed, although everyone relies on him, most of them are invisible.

Therefore, even though these people are not kind, they are willing to listen to him only.

The speed of his ship is really too slow, he has repeatedly perfunctory everyone, never has a normal attitude, who can feel comfortable?

This is not my problem, it is that everyone is dissatisfied with him, so you should not only blame me for this matter, you should also consider whether Jason did something wrong? "

Qin Yuan tried his best to comfort He Chenguang's emotions.

Jason in the underground cabin in the distance is also trying to calm the emotions of these people.

"Everyone, don't be anxious, and don't get excited, I know you are in a very bad mood, but we still have to face it well!"

I know that I once promised you to take you to your destination as quickly as possible, but I really didn't do it.

However, you don't know if you have ever sailed on the sea!

The speed on the sea is not up to me.

It depends on the specific wind speed and the speed of the waves. I can only tell you an estimated time.

In the final analysis, we did have a little thing that delayed everyone's precious time, so I am willing to refund part of the fee to everyone! "

Jason's subordinates looked at their boss and humbly faced the group of stowaways. They were also complaining for Jason.

"Boss, we don't have to consider their feelings at all. Since they chose to use our boat to leave them, they must listen to us. When will it be their turn to be the masters here?

Don't throw them into the sea to feed the sharks, it's already giving them face, why are you still talking here? "

"That's right, Boss, we didn't make any money from this trip, if we refund part of the fee to them, wouldn't we have done it for nothing?"

"We've been in this business for so many years, and we've never encountered a situation like this! No, boss, this is too embarrassing, even if you promise us, we won't agree!"

Unexpectedly, one of the guests who went down to the cabin at this time sat there without saying a word. After hearing this, he said with a smile:

"I'm not talking about you smugglers, you guys are really stupid, the more you make such a big mess here, the slower the speed of this ship will be, and everyone is here watching you.

Who cares about the speed of the ship? I really don't know who you were fooled into doing such a stupid thing? "

At this moment, the underground cabin was too chaotic, and Jason couldn't see clearly who was talking, and the light was also weak.

But Jason is still very grateful that this person can speak for him at a critical moment.

"I don't know which brother spoke for me again. I am really grateful to you. I am helpless in the face of this situation. Recently, I have a lot of things at home. I am really neglected. I am willing to refund part of the expenses to everyone and treat this trip as if I ran away in vain!

What do you think? "

After hearing Jason's words, the people in the underground cabin began to discuss in whispers.

In fact, they were also instigated by He Chenguang to do this.

If no one took the lead, they would not dare to cause any trouble on Jason's territory.

Half a day after Jason's method was revealed, no one gave a definite answer. At this critical moment, everyone was working together. Who would dare to be bought by money openly?

If no one stands up and takes care of this matter, I'm afraid there will still be delays...

On Qin Yuan's side, he was also trying his best to dissuade his good brother, He Chenguang.

"He Chenguang has told you so much, don't you think you are still reticent?

I just want to ask you one thing now, do you want to get out of here quickly? "

He Chenguang replied without thinking,

"Of course I want to leave this ghostly place quickly. Who would like to stay here? Look at me staying here. My whole body stinks! If I can get me out of this place as soon as possible, I will pay any price!"

After hearing He Chenguang, Chen Jixiang seemed to be a little relieved.

So, Chen Jixiang laughed and said:

"Brother Chenguang, I can also hear from your words that you want to leave this place as soon as possible, since everyone has the same idea, why are you making things difficult for each other?

I know that today you have a lot of say in the underground cabin. Since we all have the same goal, which is to get out of here as soon as possible, why don't you hurry up and talk to the people in the underground cabin.

Everyone, don't make things difficult for each other. Go back to your place and get a good night's sleep. I believe we will be able to arrive soon. If we continue to delay like this, we will only waste each other's time. "

After listening to what Chen Jixiang said, Qin Yuan really considered it reasonable and had no way to refute it. It seems that this kid's EQ is quite high.

Qin Yuan felt that he should not say more at this moment, if he helped Jason speak more.

He Chenguang would think that the two of them had some ulterior secret, and he would not calm down the mess.

He Chenguang also thought about it seriously. Cheng Jixiang's words, he said coldly:

"I didn't expect you kid to look uneducated, but what you said is reasonable. If that's the case, then I'll go back and talk to everyone, let everyone stop making trouble, and let the boat sail quickly!"

Qin Yuan, now he is really disappointed with He Chenguang, if he hadn't been coaxing him, and hurried to persuade these people in the underground cabin, Qin Yuan didn't want to say a word to him anymore.

He Chenguang could also see that he had really angered Qin Yuan this time.

He sighed without saying anything, and hurried to the underground cabin.

Walked to Jason's side.

He Chenguang originally thought that Jason would be very angry, but what he didn't expect was that Jason smiled kindly and said to He Chenguang:

"I'm home?"

He Chenguang didn't say anything, and moved the corner of his mouth slightly at Jason.

Afterwards, He Chenguang walked to the middle of the underground cabin and saw that everyone was whispering, but no one could make up their minds. When they saw that he was back, everyone started to walk to his side.

Jason also knew that He Chenguang was in charge of today's matter. If he wanted everyone to accept his solution, he had to say it again in front of the contractor.

"I just told everyone the solution.

I know that everyone has been staying in this underground cabin for too long, and they are a little unhappy, and we try not to let everyone go on the deck, for the sake of everyone's safety.

If someone is really detained by the sea patrol, won't we be in greater trouble by then?

So, everyone is going out, let's be considerate of each other.

I'm sorry for wasting everyone's precious time.

I also promised just now that I am willing to refund part of the cost to everyone, and you can't let me bear all the losses alone, can you? "

Everyone looked at He Chenguang's return, and all cast their eyes on him.

He Chenguang just heard Chen Jixiang and Qin Yuan's persuasion to him, and he is too embarrassed to continue making trouble for no reason.

"Forget it. It's not easy to save everyone who is away from home. Those who can reach this underground cabin are not ordinary people. It's not like everyone made a mistake in their own place. Who would be willing to leave their hometown and smuggle?"

"Everyone is a frank person, and it's not this kind of petty theft at all."

"Everyone is forced to be helpless."

Chapter 1942: It calmed down the storm

Originally, He Chenguang was the instigator of this incident, but now he has calmed down a bit.

Moreover, seeing Jason in such a predicament, he himself vented his anger for the injustice in his heart.

Seeing Jason's subordinates begging for help with low eyebrows and Chen Guang couldn't tell now, how happy he was.

He walked among these stowaways, and everyone was waiting for He Chenguang to make a final decision.

"Brothers, listen to me, just now I also know that everyone is very tired after talking so much, in fact, we all don't want any financial compensation, or let you give us some money back.

Just like Jason you said, everyone came out of their hometowns.

Whether it is smuggling or you are the boss, it is not easy, and no one needs to embarrass the other.

After all, all of us are from country H.

They are all far away from home, and they should help each other.

Let's just forget about today's affairs. As for money compensation, none of us are short of money, and we can also see that the weather on the sea is indeed not very good, with more wind and waves.

There are also ships that travel at a slower speed.

We were all more impulsive just now, and I also persuaded these brothers below the cabin for you, everyone should calm down and be forgiving and forgiving, and no one should make things difficult for anyone.

We all understand.

If you take a step back, the sea and the sky will be brighter, and everyone will make a step back.

Jason, please hurry up and arrange for your men to bring the ship to shore as soon as possible.

As for us, let these brothers in the underground cabin honestly stop causing trouble to you, brothers, do you think what I said makes sense? "

The people in the underground cabin listened quietly to He Chenguang's command, and no one had any opinions.

In fact, in the final analysis, this matter was all caused by He Chenguang. No matter what his purpose was, seeing how satisfied he was, he was able to achieve the effect he wanted.

Standing beside Qin Yuan, Chen Jixiang watched He Chenguang commanding among the crowd, and he couldn't help saying angrily:

"Hmph~ He is satisfied, what is going on today must be his business!

I really don't understand, everyone came out of the same place, and we completed the task together, why did he have to make things difficult for Jason? What good does it do him? "

Qin Yuan sighed, and he also stared closely at He Chenguang, who was talking nonsense among the crowd.

"What's good for him, I can't say now, but he is indeed different from before. When we came out to perform missions together, he never behaved like this. What happened to him?"

"Could it be that he knows that we don't believe that he has many secrets from him, so he has a lot of resentment in his heart to make so many things?"

"I think there must be a reason for this. I can understand that we all came out together to complete the task. If there is something that is hidden from him and not told to him, he should feel uncomfortable.

But how could he help outsiders to embarrass us? "

Chen Jixiang hesitated for a moment about his thoughts, not knowing whether to speak or not to speak.

Qin Yuan has been staring closely at the triumphant He Chenguang in the crowd.

After hearing He Chenguang's words, everyone in the underground cabin also knew his attitude of wanting to calm things down.

Hearing He Chenguang's words, Jason quickly said with a smile:

"If you can calm things down, then of course I am willing to, as long as you are willing to understand our difficulties today.

In the future, if you come to the museum and tell me that I, Jason, can do it, you will never shirk it.

This is how I am. Everyone takes a step back and leaves room for each other. From now on, we can all be regarded as brothers who are familiar with each other. Since we are brothers, the matter of brothers will naturally need everyone to work together to solve them. "

Seeing Jason's embarrassed look, Qin Yuan couldn't help but feel sorry for him and sighed.

"Although Jason is a dog smuggler, we used to look down on him the most for what he did. However, we got to know him better after getting in touch with him.

Sometimes I do sympathize with him, just look at how embarrassed He Chenguang is by his humble appearance today. "

Chen Jixiang sneered.

"Every time righteousness kills more dogs!"

"Hey! You are young, and you have a lot of feelings, but what you said really won my heart!

This sentence is very suitable for Jason.

However, in addition to sympathizing with her daughter's experience, seeing what he has done these days, he is really a good person, the reason why he has such a career.

In the final analysis, there are more helplessness, who can not have some helplessness at this time?

Therefore, the more they saw He Chenguang being in such a difficult situation, the more they felt that he was going too far.

It seems that I didn't know enough about He Chenguang before, it was too difficult to see through a person. "

Chen Jixiang said to Qin Yuan seriously:

"Brother Qin Yuan, since you think it's too difficult to see through a person, and you can't see through He Chenguang, have you ever thought that we still have tasks to complete after we arrive in Ba?"

Qin Yuan naturally knew what Chen Jixiang meant by saying this?

He wanted to say that He Chenguang was probably unreliable now.

The reason why he did so many things is likely to have his own special purpose, but it is not a good thing after all, but what can be done?

"Let's talk about the matter of Pakistan after we arrive at the destination. I also want to ask Fan Tianlei for his opinion.

I always think that Fan Tianlei is right, since he asked He Chenguang to come with us, no matter what the reason for what he did today, he will not be untrustworthy after all, right? "

"Qin Yuange knows people, face but not heart, how can you guarantee Fan Tianlei? He won't make mistakes?"

Homo sapiens is bound to make a mistake if he thinks about it, let alone Fan Tianlei, a big bastard.

Although he has rich experience, sometimes he is not so accurate in judging people. "

"Okay, let's adapt to the situation after arriving in Pakistan! Don't wait for the enemy, we have problems within ourselves before we are divided."

After finishing speaking, Qin Yuan found He Chenguang staring at him in the distance.

So, Qin Yuan dragged Chen Jixiang to He Chenguang.

"What's wrong? Are you looking for me?"

"Jason Qin Yuan just now, but he did me a lot. He insisted on asking me to stand up and talk to these brothers for you. Don't get me wrong. You guys are deliberately trying to delay time. Since everyone is a good brother, I also want to give him this face.

Qin Yuan, do you think so? "

"Yes, thank you for giving me this face and not embarrassing everyone.

If it weren't for so many things happening in the underground cabin today, I'm afraid we would have reached our destination a little faster! "

Chen Jixiang, now he is too lazy to look at He Chenguang, and he doesn't want to talk to him, so he just turned his head away.

Jason smiled and said to Qin Yuan:

"Thank you for speaking for me, but I believe He Chenguang, he didn't mean to embarrass us all because the speed of the ship is too slow, there must be some grievances about this matter, and we can all understand each other.

No, who instigated it, nor who ordered it.

If there is a problem with something like this today, we can all talk it out and solve it.

How are you all? Can you please forgive us? "

After Jason finished speaking, He Chenguang looked around the entire underground cabin, and everyone saw He Chenguang's attitude, so no one said anything among the crowd, and everyone dispersed slowly and returned to their positions.

Sporadic can hear a few people say.

"What are you doing all this time? Forget it. If it weren't for this trouble, we might have already arrived."

"Yeah, it's useless to toss about in this vast sea, it's a waste of time, it's better to sleep for a while with this time."

Looking at the crowd, the troublemakers had gradually gone alone, Jason was relieved, turned around and said to his subordinates:

"I think everyone must be tired, hungry, and thirsty after all the fuss just now.

Wait for you to go to the warehouse and bring all the leftover food and share it with everyone.

Around us, we should be approaching the shore soon, and it might not be appropriate to put too much food.

Will have to repurchase when I come back. "

"Boss, what's the matter with you now? Have you changed your gender? They treat us like this and even give them food. These people are some guys who don't know what to do."

Qin Yuan walked up to this angry subordinate and patted him on the shoulder.

Whispered in his ear:

"It's hard to calm down the chaos, you just listen to your boss and prepare carefully!"

As he spoke, he furtively gave him a wink.

Jason's subordinate was naturally very clever and sensible, and he immediately saw that Qin Yuan must have something difficult to express, so he didn't say anything.

"Okay, I know boss, I will let them prepare quickly."

Everyone quieted down and looked at He Chenguang like this from now on.

Qin Yuan also said:

"After tossing and tossing for so long, I think you are also tired, why don't you go back and have a good rest, I believe this time, everyone should not lie to you that you are sleeping."

It is estimated that we have arrived at the destination. After we arrive, we still have a lot of things to do, and you don't have much time to rest.

You should take this opportunity to take a good rest. "

"After tossing and tossing for so long, I am indeed tired, so you can do it yourself!"

After finishing speaking, He Chen returned to his seat and lay down without turning his head. He closed his eyes and didn't want to talk to anyone inside.

Jason looked at Qin Yuan, very disappointed and angry at this moment.

"Let's go, everyone is tired after going through so much, go to my room to rest first, and we should prepare for things after landing."

"Yeah, that's fine. Since I don't have anything to stay in my place along the way, I'll just hang around with you guys. I'll be fine when the ship docks."

Chen Jixiang said:

"You two, don't patronize you two and ignore me, I don't want to stay here anymore, I want to go with you too!"

Jason, while smiling, patted Chen Jixiang on the shoulder and said:

"I know, let's go, no one will put you here!"

After finishing speaking, the three of them left the underground cabin. He Chenguang naturally knew that after today's trouble, no one wanted to talk to him anymore.

He also had to lie on his own position, closed his eyes and fell asleep.

As soon as he walked out of the underground cabin, Qin Yuan immediately said in Jason's ear:

"Jason is really sorry. I didn't know that so many things would happen today, and I didn't quite understand, He Chenguang, what happened to him? Why did he do such an exaggerated thing and cause you trouble.

Originally, looking at An Ran's face, it was already very difficult for us to upload it to us to find a few positions, and we also have this gratitude, but..."

"Alright, Qin Yuan, don't say so many polite words between us, you have helped me a lot, and I know very well that this matter has nothing to do with you.

As for He Chenguang, why did he do this.

I think everyone has their own reasons and helplessness for doing things, let each one be his own master! "

"Everyone is the master?"

These four words really contained too much information, Qin Yuan couldn't accept it for a while.

"Jason, do you mean..."

Chen Jixiang quickly said:

"Jason, you'd better explain the matter clearly. The amount of information in these four words of yours is really too much, and even Dao Dao makes it impossible for us to accept it!"

"This is just my own guess. I believe you should have such doubts in your heart all the time, right?"

After hearing this, Qin Yuan lowered his head and did not speak.

At this moment, Jason's men came over.

"Boss, the food and drink you asked us to prepare are all ready, are you going to send them to the people in the underground cabin now?"

"Haven't I already told you this? Can I still do one thing in front of them? Now that it's all ready, let's send it to them, lest they say we broke our promise."

Jason, the subordinate, immediately scolded angrily:

"Bah! The group of rats in their underground, how can deserve to eat our food?"

It's okay to stick to the destination honestly, and so many things happen.

Boss, why are you becoming so soft-hearted now? If you were young, you should have thrown them all into the sea to feed the sharks! "

"What is there to be excited about? Now that you know their purpose, you can't let them succeed!"

"Boss!"

Qin Yuan looked at Jason's subordinates very angry, and he has no way to persuade him now, because he himself is also in a mess...

But he is the leader of everyone, so he must set an example for others. Even though he is in a state of disarray, he is still as calm as a mountain on the surface.

Chapter 1943: Preparations before docking

Jason looked at Qin Yuan, feeling very uncomfortable at this moment.

He didn't want his subordinates to make things difficult for Qin Yuan any more.

"Don't ask so many questions, just do as I tell you.

Anyway, I can't eat these foods. In order to calm this turmoil, we have to pay something ourselves.

Besides, compared to calming down the storm, what is the food we pay for it?

Don't be so petty, you have worked under me for so many years, don't you understand your boss' temper?

When did I regret what I did? "

Jason's subordinates saw that their boss was anxious and not very stable.

In fact, they have been with Jason for so many years, how could they not understand Jason's temper!

He is a man who keeps what he says, and what they are angry about now is that He Chenguang, a group of rabble like them, has taken advantage of him.

Haven't they thought about those goods? Once we are discovered by the other party, will there be any slight consequences?

"They took a closer look at the weather inside. It didn't seem like it was the same as before. Did they know it was the dark cloud you escaped from, or it was really about to rain and clear soon."

You suspect that is Wei Xin, what worries me the most! "

When he didn't, did he consider that the few things that happened around you were not too coincidental? It's not even plausible to be coincidental.

We are secretly buying and selling arms on the ground, including Qin Yuan, those goods off his ship!

The ship is docked every day, and the goods under your ship are all your small problems. "

How many of them can understand what you mean? "

And you suspect that He Fei should be very sure that the unnumbered munitions under your ship must be regular, but counterfeit or counterfeit

Wei Xinyan scratched her head and thought for a while, then I suddenly realized.

"His eldest son is not too old. When there is no time, the difficulty is that few things seem complicated, but they are very difficult to do."

As the few of us were walking, everyone was not thinking about it, and we came to Qin Yuan's room very slowly.

He Fei let out a long sigh.

Surely, if Chen Jixiang has anyone to help, then where did the unnumbered ammunition under their boat come from! "

"Yes, it doesn't matter! It's even very unlikely, I'm with the boss of the underground arms trading organization!"

After listening to Qin Yuan's words, He Fei knew that I should be very aware of his current mood at this moment.

Now that it's broken, even Fan Tianlei, with that big character, can tell that no one is playing tricks inside us.

He Fei has not fallen into silence for a long time now. Is there any way for me to suspect that the bad brother I depended on as a teenager is actually the one who will betray me.

"That room is really too small, but you think it should be enough for the few of you to stay in."

What's more, He Chenguang and that Wei Xin haven't met before, how can he be sure that I will help He Chenguang's apprentice without hesitation?

"He Fei, it's only a few hours before the ship docks, why don't you take a rest outside your room first, you've been through so much, you'll be very tired with him!"

"What's wrong?"

Fan Tianlei walked up to He Fei and said to me seriously:

The buddies are also big-minded people, let alone the food.

"You just see the tricks. Anyway, He Fei just now. Has he not contacted Jason yet? That person is so weak in Baguo, can he still help with such a small matter?"

Since he hasn't said that yet, how can your little family embarrass him? Just go with him and leave that matter to you! "

Even if it really does us some harm, so what?

Hearing is believing, seeing is believing, they also want to say that you are deceiving yourself, after all, it is really a very important thing for you, as long as you have not seen the evidence with your own eyes.

"But so what? First of all, whether I am the one who controls the ground arms trading system is purely based on my current economic strength.

Did He Fei speak at the side? I have been thinking about why Effiete did what he did.

It makes the relationship between them more stable.

Looking at the weather inside, it seems that the bad clouds are gradually dissipating.

"When it doesn't happen, the weather problem is not such a coincidence. You are also with me. Did the dark clouds pass, or did you escape?

Qin Yuan patted Fan Tianlei's head heavily.

Qin Yuan watched He Fei and Fan Tianlei sitting under his bed, and before Xiaojia calmed down, I was going to pour a glass of water by the table.

Because I never thought that there would be so few companions to complete the task that time, and there would be a lot of fog behind me.

Qin Yuan said:

"Those things are prefaces. Could it be that he has never been with you and there is really no one like Chen Jixiang under your boat?"

My heart is very sad at this moment, there is a small probability that the person Fan Tianlei mentioned is not with Effiete.

Then He Fei said to Fan Tianlei next to him:

There is no saying that eight years is a descendant, a relative, and a relative.

"You understand, what the two of them mean is that Jason and I have nothing to do with the organization that buys and sells fire on the ground?"

"Brother He Fei! Do you still need to ask?

If you go with them, has he seen Effiete, what have I become now? I've been insane for a long time, if you want to go back, I'll eat you alive. "

"That's right, did he say that to you just now?"

We were very helpless, nodded angrily and said:

"What does that mean? You see, he discussed it with me when he called just now. It's pretty bad!"

If Jason's subordinates had had such a big opinion on Qin Yuan before, they would have thrown them into the sea to feed the fish by now.

"You know how many of them have followed you as a teenager to see how you have come step by step with your own eyes. You suspect that they also know you very well, and you are not too young to be crazy.

Then I went on to say:

The Xiao family is all together, we are in the same boat through thick and thin, so how can young people understand each other's temper?

Qin Yuan looked at his hands, and now he is persuading himself so earnestly, I also know that we should all be bad for ourselves.

Qin Yuan looked at Wei Xinyan when he didn't have time, that big guy was quite cute.

Qin Yuan can understand it naturally. I haven't spent so much time under the Tao, so I can understand a few words even if it is Baihua vernacular.

"What does his eldest son want to say?"

Qin Yuan saw that He Fei was still depressed but happy, and knew that I was not under a very small pressure, so he had to enlighten me quickly.

Jason's subordinates know his boss's temper, he shouldn't continue to argue with his boss, but I will always swallow that tone in my heart.

"After all, you've been together as a bad boy, and you understand me very well, and you'll always be on my side." So, Wei Xin said without thinking, pretending to be deep:

And in the face of interests, brothers can turn against each other, let alone such feelings.

"That's why he will go to Qin Yuan's room with you. Although my room is relatively crowded, he is still alone!"

As for Wei Xinyan, as a newcomer, I even interrupted badly in such a scene, so I could only pretend to be deaf and dumb silently.

What He Fei said was that the unnumbered munitions are actually managed in different countries. They are the most formal things. If there are resources, it is possible to get them easily.

He Fei looked at the grades with serious and dignified eyes.

Even at this moment, He Fei didn't have any regrets. Xiaoyang and He Chenguang came to Pakistan to carry out a secret mission.

"Boss, you know that he is a man of his word, and you also know why he let you do that, so you think he should know you better.

"It's what you want to say, you have to remind him, the authorities are fans!"

However, you may have no worries at all, you are now Hanhu Jason and Wei Xinyan, after all there is nothing between us.

"Then it means that no one in you is helping Chen Jixiang? It means that the organizational system that sells arms on the ground has not been infiltrated yet? Has it even infiltrated your internal organs?"

Fan Tianlei at this moment, I also suddenly realized!

He has never believed it, is that the result of no one tipping off? Or there is no one to instigate him behind his back!

Immediately, my hands disappeared from Qin Yuan's sight and prepared to go to the cabin on the ground to deliver the food and water promised to us by those people.

Qin Yuan gave He Fei and Fan Tianlei two glasses of water.

It's just that, you're less concerned about the big picture now than in the future.

"That's the eldest son you know!"

"Boss, you know what to do. He should be worried. You have not been together for so long. Have you ever experienced any kind of turmoil? You also know his temper very well. It's just because he doesn't get angry and feels it's fair.

Fan Tianlei, the fledgling eldest son, I have been listening to Hanhu for a long time, what does He Fei mean.

"Fan Tianlei, his eldest son is not too old now, he understands very few things.

This is obviously He Chenguang, playing tricks in the middle.

"Indeed! The ship is about to be put on hold. You see that it will be less of a challenge to meet you. Let's take a rest outside his room. By the way, you can also discuss it. You should prepare for the work after docking."

Wei Xin is naturally a very sympathetic person, and I can hear some meaning from Qin Yuan's words.

Although, Jason's subordinates hated Qin Yuan very much before, but after getting along for such a long time, plus dealing with the issue of numbered arms.

Yes, judging from the current situation, you are still not out of safety.

Who can change, who can balance in his heart?

"The underground secret arms system organization that you have been investigating since then has been very rampant in the country of the United States, the country of H, and the country of Pakistan.

"Is his eldest son going to the wedding room with you, or going back to the cabin on the ground now?"

"You still say the original sentence, after you have no evidence, you will doubt everything.

From now on, there is only one Chen Jixiang who hasn't slowed down He Fei, who is overwhelmed with time.

"His eldest son is always a ghost, and when he thinks about being stupid, he is really stupid!

He thought about what that means? "

Qin Yuan, when I heard Fan Tianlei say that, I was also worried.

Qin Yuan's hands are also willing to continue arguing with me.

"That's not what you're most worried about!"

Qin Yuan then nodded in satisfaction.

Before Fan Tianlei took a sip of water, I smiled and said:

I have believed in that matter for a day or two, and I have long believed that the people around me have no ghosts.

You will doubt your brother in the book, no matter what reason I do all kinds of weird behaviors, you will doubt it! "

I have no way to doubt that my bad brother will betray me.

"Hey, what Qin Yuan said is wrong at all, and you also think that way in your heart, although the other party agreed just now, and is willing to help you deal with Chen Jixiang.

If you are sure that no one is watching you every time you make an action, it seems that you have not been controlled by humanoid surveillance for a long time. "

But it's not because you became what you are today before you lost your family, you are also bold and fearful.

Are you angry because you were taken out of your hands for no reason like that? "

But I have bad intentions and tell the truth with He Fei.

He Fei, I don't have a habit of talking and leaving half of what I say.

Now that there is another Jason with a mysterious identity missing, how can He Fei be bad? Where should we start?

"Brother He Fei, he knows that you are still young and inexperienced, so he can speak and understand Hanhu, he always asks you to guess riddles, you also understand!

Even if it was Qin Yuan, all the goods under the ship were damaged, so I should be able to afford it. I would be so generous. Could it be that the feelings I had with Wei Xinyan when we were young were all the ammunition on that ship? "

The reason why you turned against us just now is not because you still have to continue to do the previous business. The most important thing now is to solve it quickly. The little troubles under your boat are the most important, and my things are all important!

After all, no one can understand his own heart.

He Fei is so stupid, I will understand.

Under the surface, what Wei Xin told you is that Wei Xinyan rarely visited me in my group. I thought that person was a big character and had no value to use, so he ignored me. "

So, Qin Yuan, I just mixed my emotions, sighed, and then said to my hand in a pleasant manner:

He Fei looked at the gradually brightening sky inside, but there was no light outside my heart.

You know when to do something. At that critical moment, you have not yet reached the point. Is it pointless to argue with us over those so-called major events?

Fan Tianlei, that was the seventh time he came to Qin Yuan's room.

Chapter 1944: Actually I already knew

Jason looked at Qin Yuan, at this very moment, he knew the look of loss.

In fact, he already had the answer in his heart.

It's just that I don't want to face it.

But even if you don't want to face it, you have to face the fact. You can't just escape blindly. This is not the way.

Chen Jixiang moved closer to Qin Yuan's ear and said softly:

"Now that this is the case, I won't hide it from you anymore.

Although this is a secret that Fan Tianlei repeatedly explained, he cannot tell you.

But now everything has become very clear, if I continue to hide it, helping Fan Tianlei will only harm all of us. "

When Qin Yuan heard Cheng Jixiang, it must be something serious if he said it so seriously.

"What are you doing for Fan Tianleiman? Is there anything else you can't let me know."

"He was talking about how calm you should be, He Chenguang. I doubt you, so that's fine. Since I haven't believed in Chen Jixiang for a long time, why should I let him come with you two?

The dark is telling the task that He Chenguang entrusted to him, so you guys should hurry up and discuss it together. It's like guessing riddles, so you are fighting internally? "

So, thinking about that, Mei Jing became angrier the more she thought about it, so I simply walked up to brother Qin Yuan and slapped me on the head hard.

They want to treat Mei Jingqing as a fool. When I'm not there, I'm always half a pig eating a tiger. When I'm not there, I deliberately let you relax your vigilance.

I think it's just that I went on a mission with Mei Jingqing, that eldest son, and I doubt myself so much, thinking of myself as my biological brother.

"Brother Qin Yuan, what did he say? Did he find out that the people who kidnapped them were hired by you to act?"

To be able to be led by Brother Qin Yuan, that fledgling eldest son.

He Chenguang's hand stretched so long!

"Why does he trust you so much? After he told you so little, he was sure that you couldn't keep a secret and told He Chenguang everything you didn't have?"

At that time, you will lose Mei Jingqing's trust. How can you get along with your life outside the army?

Brother Qin Yuan sighed, shook his head angrily and said:

Just as we were laughing happily, Jason's phone rang again.

Jason, I asked very puzzled:

Hearing that, let alone Jason, even Qin Yuan was surprised by that elder brother Qin Yuan.

So before you were in front of me, didn't you have all the disadvantages? "

You are so angry now because you are only thinking about whether his eldest son knows the bad or the bad, right?

In fact, I have always been very worried that there will be no Effiete's inner ghost under that boat.

I almost forgot about An Ran, and I still have a boatload of ammunition with me.

So, taking advantage of that opportunity to play a bad show with them as a way to pass the time for chatting, isn't that also pretty bad? Anyway, Qin Yuan always let you go down the deck. "

By the way, there is still nothing, you have to tell him! "

After a while, you hand over all the missing goods to He Chenguang, and they will be able to take over.

In case, neither of the two of you is an insider, does he know that there is no shortage of people in that situation?

Jason looked at Brother Qin Yuan, the big guy seemed speechless, and thought that it seemed that he was just being teased by that big guy, and even He Chenguang, I should have thought that I was also being teased by that big guy.

Besides, under the current situation, even if you quickly and honestly explain to him, he will be yours, or if you let him find out by himself, he will think so little!

After hearing those words, Mei Jing understood.

Although it is said that there is a small probability that the person should be hiding outside the above-ground cabin, the person who has been controlling the above-ground cabin is letting us go down the deck.

But, you have never been him, even when He Chenguang told you, you were very surprised that I believed in him. "

Even you can see that he has always been loyal. Although it is said that knowing people and faces is confidant, but you have your own eighth sense, and you suspect that he is a bad person.

Also, no one has found the unnumbered munitions under your ship, so they can't be here now.

But when I gave you that task, you were even more surprised, why did I doubt him?

By the way, help me tell Qin Yuan to make me worry, that matter cannot be resolved at all. "

"Of course, because you think that it will be a very difficult task if you complete it alone, but if he completes it with you, then there will be fewer things.

Now that so few things haven't happened, is the answer still clear enough? The second is that you think he is an insider, will you tell him about that.

You never thought that He Chenguang would feel bad because you went.

"whats the matter?"

When Jason heard that, I felt both that Mei Jingqing was stupid and clever, and I also felt that my IQ hadn't gotten any better recently.

Qin Yuan felt that Fan Tianlei didn't trust him so he asked Chen Jixiang to spy on him secretly.

So at the beginning, you deliberately attracted his attention to let him know that you could contact the inner world, and the person who contacted you was He Chenguang, and you were very humble at that time.

And you just contacted He Chenguang, and I'm coming to meet you, on your way.

Everything in a foreign country and my hometown can be controlled, and it can be transferred by my will.

If I'm sure that I'm really an insider, I hid so many young people outside your army, and I was able to gain the trust of Mei Jingqing and him. Does he think Chen Jixiang is very scary? "

At that time, the inner ghost will only hurt his life!

"Hey Brother Jason, he can always be so selfish, right? That's the secret mission that He Chenguang entrusted to you. I'm sure you didn't have to spend any effort, and you explained everything to him nervously and easily. He Chenguang before, would I still doubt you?

It is to give us a chance to know those secrets, but if they are leaked, the wind will still take risks.

Why would he choose me instead of you, or He Chenguang, either of you? Haven't you thought about it yourself? "

He has never been on the deck before, you arranged it, it is not perfect, how did he know that you two old fritters are being played like monkeys by his fledgling big brother?

You want you to contact me secretly, and take advantage of that opportunity to get to know the two of them to see if there is no ghost in the two of them.

In addition to knowing Brother Jason, I have been hiding in the wooden box below the deck, you also know that the people who kidnapped you were not deliberately recruited to act.

I can trust you.

Qin Yuan deliberately used that statement to guide Brother Qin Yuan to tell the facts that I know myself.

And He Chenguang, I am your leader, and you must insult me enough for the leader! "

In fact, how could you know it? You also know that the task is difficult and safe for you. Ever since I handed you the mobile phone that can contact the inner world, at this moment, you know that I trust no one now.

It turned out that He Chenguang had already believed in Chen Jixiang.

However, I clearly still don't believe that Chen Jixiang is the ghost, so why insist on letting me bring Chen Jixiang here? Am I completely concerned about my lack of grades and thinking that the eldest son's life is in danger?

"His eldest son really wasted your trust in him, even you dare to play tricks?"

"That He Chenguang, am I not going too far?"

Could it be that he wants to treat everyone else as fools?

"When they don't, they have to think that they have rich experience, not because they are not too proud of themselves.

He also knew in his heart that the reason why He Chenguang chose you to do that did not mean that I trusted him and Chen Jixiang.

Brother Qin Yuan smiled and said:

Just now we were a little relaxed and vigilant, and now we immediately became vigilant again.

Has he never been angry with He Chenguang because of that incident? "

"An Ran, what's wrong?"

Brother Qin Yuan smiled triumphantly and said:

Qin Yuan, why didn't he think about it in his heart, and he was also angry with Fan Tianlei because of this matter.

Even if their boat gets off, and there are no Effiete people now, it can also explain whether I have found any traces of you now, and it should be better to hide everything.

At that time, when I kidnapped you, you knew what their purpose was, so you obediently handed over the missing evidence and let them find those loopholes without any effort. "

Or is it that I really have no confidence in Mei Jingqing, I feel that even if I am an insider and Xiaojia works together, then the teenager will have no affection for Xiaojia, and will he kill us all?

"His eldest son...his eldest son must have deliberately let you find out that he can contact the inner world?"

All I can do is let me know if he has already discovered you. At that time, He Chenguang thinks that although you are a smart young man, you can be trusted.

Chen Jixiang patted Qin Yuan on the shoulder, and he said meaningfully.

"Of course, you are also a fool, if you are sure of a fool, would He Chenguang entrust you with such an important task?

"That time, He Chenguang, the reason why I sent you here was because I liked your stupidity and cleverness. After that incident, he must have told He Chenguang to let me know that you wanted to tell him the truth.

On the one hand, it is your own honor. You are very grateful to a leader as small as me, who can also regard you as important and entrust you with such important tasks.

"Then tell me, why is this?"

"Calm down first!"

I picked up the phone and saw that it was An Ran calling.

For a fledgling big boy, it was a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity.

Brother Qin Yuan, did you ever expect that Mei Jing would be so angry because of me? I guess I have misjudged someone.

Because letting him know the success of that task will lead He Chenguang to reward you, and you are willing to let him know so that he is not mentally prepared. "

Moreover, you are now in the country of Pakistan or in the country of h.

That time I seemed to understand that I was being tricked by that big one.

"Actually, you know this in your heart, that is, Fan Tianlei secretly gave me a mobile phone to communicate with the outside world.

So Qin Yuan asked:

Hearing An Ran's report, Jason also put the small stone in his heart on it.

Now I know, An Ran is the one, yes, the one on the outside of my heart is "Hey! You were right when you said that Jason let go that time, but he should also be wary of that call, the waves pushed back, and his big heart was slapped under the beach by those young people of yours.

Moreover, you are notoriously timid, and if you don't have that kind of opportunity, you just get what you want.

If you dare to be him, the eldest son must be bragging, right? "

"Brother Mei Jing, thank you for thinking so little about you.

"If he wants to say that, you will understand it even more. He must have known that everything was planned by the two of you. Why did he say it directly?

Although you have not completed it perfectly, He Chenguang's work was discovered by him.

Since Xiaojia chooses to engage in that industry, who wants to make contributions?

I asked Brother Qin Yuan in surprise.

So, Brother Qin Yuan smiled and said:

Thinking of that, Jason was very angry. I gritted my teeth and said to Brother Qin Yuan:

He is outside this wooden box below the deck, You said those words in front of him on purpose. "

It seems that I must have a bad record in protection before, and I miss that big guy.

"Jason, he needs to relax, you didn't call him to tell him that everything is going very smoothly, and no one is following you.

"Of course you are sure, if so, you would doubt him so much, since then, he is not the person you trust the most by your side.

"His eldest son is so smart. When did he end knowing about Jason? No one has ever been able to see that it was hidden outside the wooden box below the deck, and his eldest son has always been outside the cabin on the ground.

Qin Yuan narrowed his eyes, his eyes dared to move and he said:

Jason listened to Brother Qin Yuan's statement to himself.

"Brother Mei Jing, in fact, he hasn't answered that matter for a long time, so why let you make it clear and clear?

You suspect that only you know about it, Mei Jingqing, I can also see it.

Therefore, you have always been on guard against him, and you are even more afraid.

Hearing that, Qin Yuan was even more surprised.

However, Jason was still very moved when he thought of that.

At that time, you can't hide that from Mei Jingqing, and the most important thing is that you can see that the weather in Xiaohaixia will get worse and worse, and it is possible for them to reach their destination quickly.

Even if I'm in country h and don't have very few network resources, it can't control everything, but beyond that, does he think he can still control everything I think at this moment?

Although you trust him enough as a bad brother, he doubts his ability even more, but he can still consider your feelings just like that. He has to consider yourself as well as you.

Chapter 1945: Get to know this person well

Chen Jixiang didn't say much when he heard that the two of them were talking there.

"Sister An Ran, do you know? After you go back, your life is no longer in danger, and brother Qin Yuan has finally let go of the big stone in his heart.

Otherwise, he kept talking to us just now, wondering what the weather was like when you went back, whether there was a tsunami, and whether there was anyone intercepting you.

Now that he finally knows that you are safe and sound, and that Fan Tianlei has come to meet you, he is comforted. You see how worried he is without you! "

Before Chen Jixiang could finish speaking, Qin Yuan walked up to him and grabbed the phone.

By the way, he tapped his head lightly.

"When will you be able to control your mouth, kid? You always talk like this. I don't know that everyone is very nervous now, and you are still joking here."

"I'm not kidding. Aren't you always worried about Miss An Ran? I think Jason can prove it!"

Jason said:

"Yes, this time, I have to prove that Chen Jixiang, this kid is right!"

Fan Tianlei's loud words were still heard by Chen Jixiang outside Zhen Teng's phone.

My current name is Norman Kawim, and my power in Pakistan is simply too weak, even so weak that you can hardly imagine it. "

Before Lei Shen heard what Chen Jixiang said, I was even more confused.

Before Zhen Teng heard Chen Jixiang's voice, the little stone in my heart could be put on it.

When Lei Shen heard what An Ran said, I was very moved. It seems that being a friend is not in vain.

"Are they ready for everything? The ship will really dock in a while. I'm afraid they won't have a chance to prepare it before?"

Before you simply tell us everything you don't know, it will be bad if you don't have any preparations in Thor's heart.

"You know them, Xiaojia has always been worried about you, thank you for their concern, you know it's just Thor, I'm alone, and the two of them are also very worried.

At that time, Chen Jixiang said outside the phone:

Maybe it's called caring and chaos. They don't care too much about you, so they think too little. You don't have any too small problems. Before Zhen Tengpeng picks you up a while later, even if you are gone at 11:00, they are worried.

"Now that Chen Jixiang can meet him and the two of them have met, you are worried. Well, the two of them will go to study how to store the goods first, and you will only disturb him."

"Fan Tianlei, he understands that you haven't ignored your worries about me since then, even though you know that my ability is very weak.

You are a god, how can you predict the future?

Before An Ran heard it, I smiled and said:

No matter what kind of tasks the subordinates entrusted to me, I can do very well, but you are still worried about my own personal situation.

It's just that, from the time I met me, I was a person who was willing to play.

Therefore, if you introduce you to them and ask me to help them, it means that I have not reached a certain level of goodness outside your heart. "

"You seem to hear it clearly from the phone. What is he talking about? Who is the ghost about the inside ghost? They haven't found the outside of the ship yet. Is no one from Effiete?"

Originally, An Ran, I was very worried outside of my heart. Before I heard Thor say that, I was even more worried outside of my heart.

"It's nothing. From when you met me, I wasn't such an unambitious woman.

At the beginning, the leader thought that my young man was quite smart, and the relationship between the two of you was bad, so he agreed to let me come with you.

"Is there? Can you keep nothing from him?"

You must know that I am really playing the wrong role now, and there are so few people on the boat, as you just said, there should be very few people in the above-ground city warehouse, which is very suspicious.

It was right that I came here just to get ahead, but I found that there are too few people who are famous outside the army. If I work hard, I may never get ahead in my life.

Anyway, you haven't broken a few little living people outside, can you still solve the problem? "

Fan Tianlei sniggered beside him, then said loudly:

Does that still explain the problem? It shows that when he was young, he was indeed very unrepentant, and he was not handsome enough. "

Did you just say that too? Opportunities are reserved for those who are unprepared, and Qin Yuan, I am not such an unprepared person. I finally got an opportunity to go to Ba, and the opportunity to perform the task was that I volunteered to go with you to perform the task.

"It sounds like Chen Jixiang's voice?"

Maybe when you two were young, I didn't come here with a purpose, but because I was sent by the leader. "

Before Lei Shen heard what Chen Jixiang said, I was even more confused.

"When the two of us were young, we went to Ba to carry out missions together, but Qin Yuan has become the weakest person in the back of Ba today.

"Zhen Teng, what did he mean by that? Could it be that when I came there, I thought I wanted to get ahead there?

If it is a mistake, it can be regarded as the emperor, and it is a negative person.

By the way, what's going on with them? "

"Hey, for such an unambitious person, if one opportunity succeeds, I will not have a seventh opportunity. Opportunities waiting for me are always reserved for unprepared people, and I am not this unprepared person.

Thinking that one day you will be able to stand out, so your leader at that time sent the two of you to Pakistan to perform tasks. "

"What is he talking about?

How could I be so powerful if I had no talent?

The general result of that matter also played the same way.

"Yes, there's a mistake, it's He Fei, he sees that they don't have so-called so-called worries about you, He Fei, I haven't come here to look for you yet, so they shouldn't keep their hearts out of their stomachs!"

When I was outside the army, I always thought about doing meritorious service.

Then my own purpose would be in vain.

So, Thor, I just faltered and said:

"What about before that? He Fei went on to say, you want to know less about me."

Now you are trembling every day, he knows that I am already playing this comrade-in-arms he knew when he was young.

"Okay, okay, I think the two of you are trying to mess with me here on purpose. You said some useless things here, aren't we clearly concerned about people's safety, and have you returned to your own place?

"Zhen Teng, it seems that he is not at all interested in my current status and rights?"

Even if I was watched by the daughter of the group, I have no other way to break into our interior.

Did I answer your question carefully? You asked them how their preparations were going, but he was still telling you that he was worried.

"Then? Then it wasn't that I came here unprepared. You misread me back then.

Only through my wife, I was able to successfully break into our group as a springboard. "

Thinking that Zhen Teng might also tell me the truth.

When I came to Pakistan together with you.

"What does that mean? What is it called? Has it reached a level of general goodness?"

By the way, did Chen Jixiang give them the contact information of a mysterious person afterwards? Didn't you contact me? That person didn't promise to help you? "

"From the moment I leave the army, you know that I want to achieve today's achievements. I'm not someone in the pool, and it will all happen sooner or later."

"He's finally back, I've been waiting for him for too long!"

You know you are a big girl, it is difficult for Xiao Wanxia to help them get those safe goods in Xiaohaixia.

If there are really no spies, it is the people sent by Effiete, then the consequences will be really conceivable.

When Raytheon heard that, I was even more surprised. It seems that Norman Kaym was really a female classmate with no story when he was young.

"It seems that he already knew that I would not be what I am today. Could it be that he knew that I would not be what I am today when they were young?"

Raytheon heard Zhen Tengpeng say Qin Yuan's name outside the phone, so I hurriedly said:

Sometimes it's because you want to think things too well, but things are developing in that direction, and you can just deal with things according to your own likes and dislikes, or your imagination. You must prevent problems before they happen, and it's too late when problems actually arise. "

"Raytheon, why do you feel that he has experienced very few things now, is it that he has rarely told you the truth, and feels that he is always hesitating and hawing."

"Did he doubt my words so much at the beginning? Let me do that."

Unexpectedly, An Ran didn't hang up the phone, and I suddenly called Thor again.

"They're calling Thor God? Tell that big guy, let me go to Qin Yuan if there's no problem."

"When I was young, I was not a person who valued fame and fortune, maybe it was because of my environment when I was growing up, which was relatively poor."

When Fan Tianlei heard An Ran, I was very worried.

Before I came there, the first method I used was not to contact the daughter of that group, because I knew what my advantages were, and its advantage was not being handsome.

Before finishing speaking, Thor wanted to hang up the phone, I wanted An Ran to worry less about herself.

He is talking to you, knowing how you can be worried, the relationship between you is bad, whether you get over it once or help him solve the problem, you will blame yourself. "

"What is his eldest son talking about? Are you talking about whether you are as handsome as me?"

Does he think that anyone can look like a human being in Pakistan? "

I want to use my strengths to achieve fewer goals, so I do everything possible to get close to my wife.

It even means that when I came there with him to perform missions, I never thought about going back, but was it because I was seen by the group's daughter as a last resort? "

Thor let out a long sigh, and said in one breath:

"Since you haven't said all that, you just want to hide it from him, just like what he said, everything is different from what they imagined.

"Sister An Ran is worried, but is Brother Lei Shen still worried about things?

But have you ever thought that the purpose of my coming there is not to help me complete the task, but to help me get ahead. "

"You would say that, but that's the truth. It must have been because I wasn't that handsome. How could I be seen by the daughter of the group? I wouldn't have achieved what I am today."

But they want to forget that you are also a person who travels between countries afterward. Have you ever experienced any kind of people? Have you ever seen them?

Before finishing speaking, An Ran, I'm afraid I have to worry about me being a boy. It's very difficult, and it's really not appropriate for me to worry innocently.

Chen Jixiang just sighed... Before Zhen Teng heard An Ran's question to him, I now know how to answer the other situations. Although it is said to be bad, it can't be that he can tell us the truth.

You will know that I have come with a purpose, I have achieved my purpose, and I am definitely the kind of person who will give up.

He hasn't known me for such a long time, When did I fall off the chain? "

"Zhen Teng, you still want to ask him, but he hasn't given you his contact information yet, why did he tell you what was the relationship between the two of them when they were young!

I thought about hearing Fan Tianlei's words, did Zhen Tengpeng refute, I just sighed and said:

A little girl came to us to help us receive such important and dangerous goods. It is too late for us to thank her. You are still talking nonsense here, is it too appropriate? "

So, I hurriedly helped Thor, and deceived An Ran by saying:

Hearing Raytheon say that the ship is about to dock, it was safe before, but now I feel more worried even outside the phone.

Chen Jixiang always said calmly outside the phone:

Chen Jixiang is willing to tell us what happened when he was young, but now that the conversation has reached the point, there is no way to continue to hide it, and we have to go down to meet Qin Yuan immediately.

"An Ran, he just doesn't need to worry about you so much, the two of them should hurry back before Chen Jixiang gets off him in the street, and then arrange all the goods under the boat, even if it is the smallest help to you, you can solve the rest by yourself.

"Raytheon, he wants to hang up the phone slowly first, why do you think he's not hiding anything from you now?"

That's why he kept the contact information with me all the time, hoping that one day he would be able to use the network resources under me. "

"The situation on your side is quite bad. He is worried. It is probably quite abnormal, and in a few hours, your ship will be docked."

At that moment, did anyone expect a mysterious man's voice to suddenly appear outside An Ran's phone.

Chapter 1946: recall the past

Fan Tianlei's sudden sigh gave Qin Yuan some bad premonition.

It seems that he must have remembered the things he experienced with He Fei when he was young, and found that he is not the person he imagined.

Therefore, when he thinks back to those things he experienced when he was young, he still feels aggrieved.

However, this is also understandable. For a person like He Fei, it is not surprising that he can do anything when he is young.

Otherwise, he wouldn't be in the position he is today.

He is able to achieve today's achievements, which shows that he is a capable and ruthless person.

And he is good at seizing opportunities and creating opportunities, so he can do things that most people can't do.

Fan Tianlei, although he is upright and has outstanding abilities.

Perhaps compared with He Fei, the biggest thing he should lack is ruthlessness.

Fan Tianlei just didn't have such a cruel heart, so he couldn't do what He Fei could do.

You people say that you are brothers who sleep on the lower and upper bunks.

"That's right. As far as you know, Tang Li and I had a father when I was growing up, and a mother who grew up in a public orphanage outside the mountains."

You are all about fourteen or fourteen years old, and I should be only eleven years old.

When I first came to the army, even though I was white, thin and big, they knew it was right. No traditional person would bully a recruit. But I am a very powerful person. I have never been bullied by any veteran. On the contrary, my relationship with everyone is very bad.

"Tang Li, he should really learn from me badly at that point. After hearing a few words from his description, you will know that I must be a good person. I am very weak in social skills, and I am good at talking to leaders. Flattering to please bad leaders.

He hasn't understood me for a long time, even if he did, I promised to help you when you contacted me, but he knows that what is behind it now is a dispute of interests, which is no less simple.

At that time, Tang Lixiu suddenly remembered an important question.

Qin Yuan hurriedly asked:

Karim heard Fan Tianlei's voice, so he hurried off the phone and scolded me...

Or should it be clear and clear to them, what kind of person is he?

And you think I'm a traditional, annoying sycophant. I should be able to grasp what everyone really wants and treat it to the right medicine. That's why my relationship with Xiaojia is very bad.

"After that, did they still say that I am very handsome? How can I still look good?"

Those are all skills that you couldn't match when you were young, and you haven't mentioned that you are envious, and they should know about the situation here.

You suspect that he must have done me little harm, if so, he is absolutely not sure that he will bet with your lives. "

"Yes, there is a mistake. You once believed in my motives. You believed that the reason why I chose to come to the army was not because I thought it was far more difficult to get ahead than to go to elementary school."

Then you are all very understanding, and before I came, you were assigned to a dormitory.

Sure enough, there is plenty of time, and we will soon rely on pressing, it seems that it is time for me to explain to us.

But going to elementary school is the same. As long as you go to elementary school and can learn enough knowledge, some people will serve the country well, and some people will stand out.

Get them to contact me.

There is no direct party, you are asking you to ask Qin Yuan, the person who listens to the four trigrams, which one he thinks is less efficient, and now your ship is about to dock.

Qin Yuan saw if Fan Tianlei had spoken, and I immediately asked:

It is a person who gets along with us on an equal footing, so Xiaojia treats me naturally in an equal way. "

As for Jason, I am very stupid, whether it is reading or studying, I am very stupid. You suspect that I gave up the opportunity to go to elementary school and chose to go to the army because I was bad at studying. "

"Tang Li, what happened to him? Did he remember something? About being with Norman Tang Lixiu when he was young."

"You know that there is no story between the two of them when they are young, but for someone as cautious as him, it is absolutely risky.

"Yeah, it's a bad idea Tang Li, you're not too excited, he said! He said!"

Fan Tianlei, I didn't say anything to that eldest son.

Yes, you still want to tell him that although I am very egoistic, I am definitely a good person in the traditional sense, and he should be very pleased that I can get to where I am today.

"That elder brother was right that time, and you thought that way at the beginning, but you didn't trust me too much, because when I came to be right, I was older than you.

So, when I came here, I was sallow and emaciated, so there is no nutrition, and you guys all looked at me very pitifully, and you were also very bad to me. "

Now I don't have a group of super powerful hands in Pakistan.

Moreover, my eyesight is spread all over the country, and I have not been occupied by myself when I was young. Now I am Norman Chen Jixiang.

"He Fei, what he meant was, Tang Li, the reason I told him when I came here was because I was bad at studying, so you wanted to be a soldier?"

If everything in front of you is nothing to do with me, does he think I will let you go?

"Handsome and handsome, this is what happened two years ago when I came to the army.

"Yeah, let's talk about it, you are all ears, and it's still not some time before landing."

"I really didn't expect that Tang Li didn't have so many stories. Let me tell you a story quickly. You also want to know. It's strange. What did they go through when they were young? Feel free to ask me to help you.

"It's bad, since he has learned any useless information from Qin Yuan, you can tell him something about when I was young, he is also very familiar with all kinds of things when I was young Judging by my behavior, what kind of person I am.

Back then, I was white, thin and big. One can imagine that the orphanage is a bad place, not to mention the kind of orphanage with expensive resources outside the deep mountains and old forests. It's not wrong for us to be able to eat. .

For Tang Li, who has no relatives or friends, I really envy the relationship between Karim and Tang Li.

"Don't interrupt you first, he asked you to talk!"

When I was young, you still didn't treat me a little bit, kindly.

"Norman Chen Jixiang?"

Tang Lixiu nodded in agreement.

You know it might be too appropriate for you to say that, without any suspicion of speaking for me.

"Well, since they want to hear so much, you should tell them a few things first."

"That's what he said was so right, and that's what you admire the most about me. I was able to mingle with these people who have no money or power, and I'd still be our pawn.

Karim said in a doubtful tone outside the phone:

In fact, when you were young, when the two of you were together.

So, I quickly helped Fan Tianlei and said:

Lei Shen shook his head resignedly and said:

As Leishen watched, Karim kept admonishing Fan Tianlei.

Karim raised his wrist and checked the time.

It involves my personal interests, does he think I will let you go? "

"Yes! There is a mistake!"

But after all, I don't know as much detail as he does. When they were young, they were comrades in arms in the army. What they experienced together is far less than your brats.

Thor's words made Karim seem to be enlightened.

Thor didn't have any doubts when he heard that.

"Yeah, I'm not the person I was when I was young. When I was young, I was decisive and ruthless, let alone the person I am now."

Before Lei Shen heard that, I turned my head and glanced at Qin Yuan next to me.

You have a bad temper and often offend people. On the contrary, I am always by your side to help you communicate with these people who have no right or nothing. "

I will definitely remember that little favor, even if it touches my own interests, I will definitely let them go because of that little bit when I was young, so they don't have to worry about that little bit. "

I treat everyone the same. As long as they are friends, I would rather sacrifice some of my own interests than do anything to them. That's why you are so unsure, give them my contact information.

What you need to know now is less and more detailed content, but to listen to other people's four trigrams, does he understand? "

"Thor, what's the matter with you? Why did you talk about the letter suddenly? Did you remember something again?"

Looking at the relationship between the eight of us, master and apprentice, Tang Li felt very relieved. Didn't he expect that the relationship between us would be so smooth. Get along like friends.

You think I haven't finished being honest with him by then. "

Moreover, when I get along with everyone, even the children of these aristocratic families, I always think that I am superior to others.

"Yeah, if he said that, you will understand what he means. You really should describe to them all the things you did when you were young, so that they will not be prepared."

I don't care whether I deal with my partners or enemies. I don't have my own unique way of doing things and treating my friends.

"Since I saw that person's name, I have told you something about Norman Chen Jixiang. Just like what he said, I can hear a small part of it when I travel between the two countries.

Why did I choose to come there?

"Why would I think that way? If you want to stand out outside the army, this is the result of fighting with your own life.

Thunder God nodded when he heard that, I laughed at Karim and said:

"By the way, Qin Yuan, I was so young when I traveled between country h and Xiao country. He told me that I should have heard of Jason! Did he delay getting to know Qin Yuan? He just called and questioned you."

Fan Tianlei was beside him, and interrupted again:

That time on Raytheon, I deliberately called Jason Norman Don Lixiu. My purpose was not to change this idea outside of Kareem's heart and tell Kareem that the person behind my eyes is not him for a long time. I met this Jason when I was young.

Because at that time, your little family enlisted in the army according to their first year of age, but not me according to their false age. I should have planned to find a stable place for myself as soon as possible when I was 18 years old and an adult, so as to wait until I was kicked out of the orphanage.

"What did he say? What about their lifeless friendship? When did he save my life?" "Tang Li, he saw that he was telling stories to Brother Tang Li in a nasty way. How did he hear you?" The voice is going to reprimand you? Have you offended him? Really, he can treat one another like that."

"What? I turned out to be an orphan?"

"So you think he should tell you even if he knows a little bit about me! Instead, talk about it like now, and you have been keeping it from your side. You know that the two of them had a bad relationship when they were young, which is very special , They are comrades-in-arms and friends with special feelings. After all, they have not passed such a young age, and people in will change.

They should also know that children who are young in the orphanage, once they reach the age of fourteen, the orphanage will no longer take care of our food, clothing, housing and transportation, and we need to plan for our future.

I was afraid that Tang Lixiu would stop scolding himself after hearing his own voice outside the phone.

"When you first joined the army, the age difference between you and them is at least fourteen years old.

Now it is convenient for him to tell you what they experienced when they were young. "

I can win the favor of a small number of veterans and leaders. I must not have my own way. That is what you are very envious of, and it is a point that you know how to learn. "

"First of all, if you think about it so little, Tang Li should tell you that I didn't have any problems with him when I was young."

Hearing that, Tang Li was even less surprised.

But my elder brother is also very talkative. I heard that Karim was so silly when he was young. I really want to know the world. I also controlled my emotions and hurriedly talked on the phone. said:

Fan Tianlei was silent for a while, he felt that although he didn't want to tell them about his youth, they were now on the Baguo Road, He Fei's territory.

"That's right, at the very least, he can't let you know what kind of person I am in terms of bad analysis from my various behaviors when I was young."

"Why does his elder brother always have such four trigrams? He just can calm down for a while."

At that point, you were also very unbelievable and envious at the time, because if special people definitely want to hurt the veterans, they will always do us some harm and help us do something. As a child who walked out of the orphanage, I have little money and money. There is no way for the children of these aristocratic families to compare.

Chapter 1947: it's all in the past

Chen Jixiang, this kid is only listening to gossip now, because he is also very curious about what secrets Fan Tianlei and He Fei had when they were young, and there must be a lot of things that happened between the two of them.

Although it cannot be said that they have such a deadly friendship, but this is for sure, the two of them must not have been simple when they were young.

Qin Yuan is naturally very curious. Now he wants to know what kind of relationship the two of them had when they were young.

If there is really any fatal friendship, then it should be made clear.

Let Qin Yuan weigh for himself whether this life-threatening friendship is worth letting go. Now Norman Karim is willing to let Du some benefits to save them?

So, Qin Yuan said:

"I said Thor, you don't want to talk about it here. What secrets did you two have when you were young? Why is it so difficult to tell? You can say it if you want to, what's the matter?"

Did you mean it? You want to embarrass us here, now it's time to dock, if you haven't told us clearly, wait until we get to the shore.

Once we met Effiete and the others, we were really overwhelmed. "

Fan Tianlei has actually been on the phone all the time. Since he is not sure, can the current Norman Karim be like He Fei, the comrade-in-arms he knew when he was young, and the relationship between the two is desperate?

It's just a very special poisonous snake. If you want to officially say that a cobra is a poisonous snake, I'm afraid I've lived until now.

"Affectionate person?"

Since what I said at the beginning, I should definitely mean what I said. I just said it to Gong Tao, even if I use my life to repay He Fei's kindness.

"His eldest son's focus is indeed the same as that of the abnormal man. If you had healed me, would I have survived to this day? Whether it was bad or bad, what kind of poison was the poisonous snake that bit me at that time.

And it is you who are by my side, the two of you depend on each other for life. At this time, there is light rain on the mountain, and mudslides will soon occur, and it is still late, so you can find the direction to go out.

But you still think that if you are special, you can do it as well as I do.

Although, for someone with high emotional intelligence like you, it is very but very rare to be able to do what I do.

Just to say, everything I can accomplish is something special people can do, especially you, you can do it, and you doubt Thor, a bad-tempered and cheerful person like him.

From now on, every day I live less, I think it is your kindness.

I am willing that now Xiaojia wants me to pay for my life again, just to let me give up some great benefits, and you are still sure that this matter has nothing to do with me.

"Thunder God, do you think he is not too naive, does he really think that Norman Chen Jixiang, I still remember those feelings between He Fei and him back then?

And I'm a very affectionate person in front of others saying my wife died so young and I never got married to any man again.

"Qin Yuan, you haven't thought much about it. The things he told you are going around in circles outside your mind once, thinking that you might risk the lives of the people under the boat.

When Lei Shen saw Qin Yuan's sudden desire to speak, he knew that I should be very happy, so he remembered something about Norman Chen Jixiang.

In fact, you came here to inquire about whether the poisonous snake has such a weak poison.

You still carried it up the mountain desperately.

Although, you know what kind of method I used to talk to these veterans, which made them very suspicious of me.

When the two of you were together when you were young, I had very specific goals, and I made it clear that every time I set out on a mission, I had to set a goal for myself.

As a result, there are not many poisonous snakes at the foot of the mountain. I was bitten by a poisonous snake just because I was a big heart.

"There will be nothing at that time, the other is not you. It seems that there is no legend in Pakistan."

That's too scary! "

Both of you were also saved. I remembered your kindness that time. I once told you that I owed you my life when I was joking.

Sister Gong Tao, while eating, said very vaguely:

It's just that, in this situation, I don't remember, your feelings for me, I think since you have never given up.

"Actually, did you tell them when you were young? I'm an orphan and don't have any relatives, so what?

"Yes, it must be because my wife passed away a long time ago, how can I control such a small group by myself, all the places in Pakistan are within my sphere of influence.

But you saved me, I'm afraid I'm not dead yet.

Qin Yuan, I feel very worried now.

He really admires you so much, it must be because the two auspicious people have no natural appearance, I am afraid that both of them would have been bitten to death by poisonous snakes at the foot of the mountain.

The root of the step-by-step is the appointment of the subordinates.

What makes people feel amazing is that no one bullies me outside the army. Xiaojia treats me like my own brother. Could he think that person is actually terrible?

Get what you want.

In case I really repent at the time and am willing to help you, are you going to sit and wait for death? "

By the way, since I was bitten by a poisonous snake, did he ***** it out for me? Just like the TV show said. "

"Can Thunder God give you a chance to say something?"

What kind of tasks will be completed at that time, and I can complete them every time. I never overfulfill, and I will definitely procrastinate.

At this time, you are comrades-in-arms, and there are only two of you.

Therefore, even at the risk of no wild beasts and venomous snakes, you have not yet resisted the pursuit of you by criminals.

"Yes, He Fei, he is right. I have never forgotten how he took care of me this night."

I have always kept it out of my mind, so the boy has not forgotten it. "

Everything is just waiting, you cast yourself into the trap.

However, I myself have never denied that matter.

Thinking of that, Qin Yuan was so shocked that his back broke out in hot sweat.

He is yes and he dares to guarantee that he can do it.

I thought I almost died outside this mountain. I told you to throw me up there, leave me alone, and let you run for your life.

It's not that young and we have met each other, who knows that I am still the person I was back then, and I haven't forgotten the original promise?

Treating it as one of my own has always been bullying me.

So, you need to be worried first, and temporarily doubt my friend He Fei, he should be able to keep his promise. "Everything Qin Yuan said was within the scope of Karim's hall. I have been secretly listening to Qin Yuan outside the phone, everything about Norman Chen Jixiang.

"Qin Yuan, did he think of something important? If he has no clues, tell him quickly, and you guys discuss it together."

However, you think I must be a complicated character.

I am a person who knows what I want very well, and once I determine that the goal is to achieve it, I will definitely let it go, even if I left country h at that time.

Maybe I should have done it since the moment I was invited to Pakistan to perform a mission, but it was a bad plan.

Before Thunder God listened to Karim's description, I now face Karim in awe, on the contrary.

Thunder God, I have been thinking about what Gong Tao said more than once.

Thor shook his head, I smiled and said:

Moreover, the more people like me, the crazier they are when they encounter things, how can I be sure that I still remember that little bit of great favor back then?

Are you able to make fun of the lives of so few people, or should you be more cautious? You can definitely put all the bets you don't have on me alone.

When Raytheon heard that, I asked in a puzzled tone:

In fact, I have always believed in that thing outside of my heart, I am just sure.

But I really regard me as a brother, so I have always remembered your kindness since I was so young, even though they are going to Pakistan today.

Although, what I just promised is more uncomfortable, but you still have to be defensive.

Sent to the hospital, I was saved first.

Although Qin Yuan didn't hear what we were saying outside the phone, I knew from Thor's expression that we must be discussing something.

What have I become now, you suspect that I should also forget what happened between the two of you at the foot of the mountain that night.

So after listening to their description just now, if you think that even if the ground munitions matter has nothing to do with me, you suspect that I will let you go. "

"What legend?"

Moreover, I have said in front of future generations that if I have my wife, I don't have everything I have now. "

It's really hard to be sure, Jason is still the young man who remembered that Kareem killed me under him.

What surprised me was that it had nothing to do with Norman and Chen Jixiang, and at this moment, I had to express my true thoughts.

Now, I can always be a full-time wife to help Norman Chen Jixiang. Do I have any rights? "

"What? He said my wife died a long time ago?"

You think that's not what I'm talking about! "

I didn't find the opportunity to fight for it myself, maybe I haven't planned it out yet, how to attract the attention of the group's daughter, and finally stay there should be a conspiracy when I was young. "

No matter what the situation is, as long as you need it, even if you want my own life, I will return it to you without hesitation, because at the bottom of the mountain.

Was Thor, I still doubt it.

Fan Tianlei was also in awe of Gong Taomei, and I never thought that Karim, who usually laughed and scolded us, would be so young when he was young.

Even if I still remember what I said to He Fei back then, but not so many teenagers have passed away now, have they never had a bad time?

Am I really going to keep my original promise because of my own interests?

"He Fei, did you say that you have never misjudged anyone? When he was young, he was so unconfident and powerful. Even in such a cold environment, he would give up his brother alone. run.

So, I was looked down by the group's daughter, definitely because of my looks and appearance, you think it's because I have nothing to plan for.

"Did I ever mention to you what happened to them when they were young? Just by calling me, I knew you were introduced by Karim, and I would help you without hesitation. Didn't even ask what it was.

Yes, you suspect that the country is easy to change, but the nature is hard to change.

Even if you throw me down the mountain, I will definitely die.

But no matter what kind of person I am, I am your brother.

"He Fei is really a role model for you to learn from, the reason why you came to the army is not to become a tough guy like him.

So, the more you think about it now, the more you feel that when I came there, I planned it myself.

At that time, Fan Tianlei's intentional words reminded everyone of a terrible thing.

If you suspect that it must be as the daughter of the group, I should be absolutely stupid, if I don't have the ability to control the power of the entire group.

"Thor, what did he say? Why is he so if? Have I never forgotten it? Did I mention it to him?

"Norman Chen Jixiang's wife has not passed away as early as seventy years later!"

I think Thor is not too simple? For people at the level of Norman Chen Jixiang, the benefits I control now are endless.

"Actually, I don't care what kind of things I do. You think it's the person you expected, because you haven't said anything to him just now?

You definitely will, leave me alone and run for your life.

"It's not about the anime Chen Jixiang and my wife. Everyone laughed at me for being a bad guy who got down because of my wife.

No matter what position I am in or where I am, I will definitely be able to realize the ideal I want.

Rather than saying that, you should think that I was still very poor when I was young.

Yes, I'm sure I mentioned it to him, he will come to ask you about what happened when you two were young. "

Moreover, have you heard that there are no men around me, so everyone thinks that I am a very affectionate person. "

"It must be the case. You want to know about Norman Gong Tao's sister, but Gong Tao was very young. My wife is as powerful as the daughter of the group. What about my wife now.

As for me, the two of you are friends by fate. In fact, the situation is that when you were young, the two of you went to the mountain to carry out a mission. At that time, you were catching a group of prisoners.

You suspect that a person with my personality will definitely not do anything, I am not a thing in the pool.

Chapter 1948: That's right, a kind reminder

Jason and Chen Jixiang looked at the reason why Qin Yuan made such a decision, which means that he should have completely believed what Fan Tianlei said to him now, and there is actually no better way now.

You can only, choose to believe Fan Tianlei's words, you can only, choose to believe He Fei.

So, Qin Yuan said with a smile,

"Jason, I know you have been doubting whether Norman Karim is reliable, but we have no choice now.

We can only choose to believe him, there is nothing else we can do.

I was talking to Fan Tianlei just now, and you have been by my side. Listening to the current situation, we have no choice. We must believe what he said.

Moreover, we have already contacted He Fei and the others, and he has promised to help us, if he suddenly regrets again now.

I'm afraid it's also not conducive to the credibility issue between us. If he finds out and we repent temporarily, I'm afraid he won't help us sincerely.

As far as I know, the most annoying thing about people like him is not being believed. We should think about this issue carefully. "

When Qin Yuan and Jason were talking these words, they did not expect that the phone would not be hung up. Fan Tianlei was listening to the conversation between the two of them. After thinking for a while, Fan Tianlei said to Qin Yuan:

"I know you still have doubts, wondering if you should trust He Fei now.

Although I can't promise you that I trust a person 100%, but I know very well in my heart that for people like them.

The thing I dislike the most is being distrusted by other people, so I think you should be more cautious 0,000,000 so that they don't think we doubt them very much.

This is really not conducive to the cooperative relationship between us, don't forget it.

Now you are doing things in a foreign country, and you have to look at other people's faces in everything. It is definitely not as simple as you, you can do whatever you want.

Moreover, after you get there, you speak different languages. If the offended person sells you, you will not know.

It's a bit too stupid to count money for others. "

After Chen Jixiang heard Fan Tianlei's words, he smiled beside him and said:

"Raytheon, what you said is really interesting. Can we still be sold by others? Are we still counting the money for others? We are not such stupid guys. I know you are very worried about us completing the task.

But I think you should still choose to trust us, shouldn't you?

We have already faced so many difficulties, no matter what happens, we must face it well, even though we are in a foreign country to see us now.

Don't worry, everyone knows what they know, we will never let you down, we will definitely rescue the two apprentices of Professor Fang safe and sound, so don't worry.

We will never forget what our mission is this time? As for the rest, we don't waste time on useless opinions, we know what we should and shouldn't do.

Moreover, although we are young people, we will not be impulsive, so don't worry, especially when Brother Qin Yuan is here, don't you feel relieved when she is here?

He can protect all of us. When we all mention him, we are very relieved that nothing bad will happen.

Although, as you said, after we arrived in Pakistan, we couldn't speak the unfamiliar language.

But isn't Jason on our side? He will definitely help us face these difficulties, and we are all very relieved.

Jason, he has been going back and forth between country H and Pakistan for so many years, even if there are many things he doesn't know, we can always solve them through discussion, so don't worry.

Don't worry too much about us putting your heart in your stomach. You are so old and you still worry about us, how bad it is! "

After hearing what Chen Jixiang said, Fan Tianlei said with a smile on the phone:

"You kid is obviously saying that I am old and I am not suitable to be with you, right? But I can hear it, and the way is still not that harsh. I can understand what you are saying. I am not as knowledgeable as you. , what you say is what you say.

But there is one thing, I hope you can do well, remember!

No matter what the situation is, you must remember that you must never learn from He Fei.

No matter what kind of benefits he gives you, you should stick to your heart, and don't be coerced by the interests in front of you. At that time, it will only be you who will be hurt. This is the biggest advice I can give you as a senior. "

Qin Yuan was listening to Fan Tianlei's warning to them. Although he could understand Fan Tianlei, after all, he had experienced the betrayal of his teammates and comrades-in-arms once when he was young.

So he was very afraid that he still had Chen Jixiang, and he would betray the organization because of his immediate interests.

Originally, Qin Yuan had almost forgotten about He Chenguang, but now Fan Tianlei suddenly mentioned that they should not betray Qin Yuan, and seemed to remember it again.

"By the way, Thor, there is one important thing that I haven't asked you yet?"

"What's the matter?"

"It's about He Chenguang."

In fact, Fan Tianlei had already guessed that Qin Yuan would definitely ask about He Chenguang. He himself didn't know how to answer now. He Chenguang was clearly trying to trip them up.

Fan Tianlei sighed and said on the phone:

"I knew you would definitely ask me this question this time, just say whatever you want to say!"

"At the beginning you asked Chen Jixiang, this kid to spy on the two of us, we naturally have nothing to say, but have you ever thought about it?

Why don't you trust the two of us? This is a reason I have never figured out.

The two of us have followed you through life and death. We have experienced many things together for so many years. What makes you doubt the two of us? Can you tell me, I am really curious. "

"You kid has started to question me now?"

Well, since you asked I'll tell you!

That's right, I have always been very skeptical, He Chenguang, this is not my own speculation, let alone any other reason, I am just very suspicious of this kid, the reason why I let Chen Jixiang secretly monitor you from behind Two because I think both of you should be kept under control so that you don't find out.

We've been looking for spies inside all this time, you know that but isn't it suspicious that we've been looking for spies for so long and we still haven't found one?

The spy has been hiding in our interior, if we don't find it quickly, it will undoubtedly make us more unbearable.

So now that I have started to doubt you, naturally I must tell you clearly, what is going on? "

"Raytheon, don't play sloppy with us here. Since you have already started to doubt us, then tell us quickly, what is the reason that made you start to doubt the two of us?"

"I don't doubt you two, I mean He Chenguang alone!"

"Well, then tell me what made you doubt him. I have never had any doubts about him. I have always believed in him. Even if you told me, I have no idea , but what I want to know most now is does all this really have something to do with He Chenguang? I can't believe I've always regarded him as my best brother and now you suddenly tell me that he might be Our internal spies, how is this possible? I can't believe it and I don't want to believe it."

Jason looked at Qin Yuan, who was very disappointed now, and he didn't know what to say, but the current situation was like this, no matter what, they should hurry up and face their own governance matters.

Jason whispered to Chen Jixiang next to him:

"You see that Qin Yuange is not as good as you are now. He can't believe all this and we have to make him believe that all of this is real. It is absolutely different from what he imagined.

Even if you believe in a person, you can't fully believe it 100%, let alone such a major event involving interests. "

Qin Yuan was very curious, and he followed up by asking:

"I'll just ask you one last question. Please, you must know that I will die clearly. What's going on with all this? What is the reason why you don't believe He Chenguang? I Never doubted him."

Fan Tianlei sighed and said on the phone:

"Just because you don't doubt him doesn't mean he hasn't done it, this is a fact you have to face!

Let me tell you, ever since the two of you went out to complete the mission, someone often leaked and was known, I have already begun to suspect this kid, he is definitely not as simple as we imagined, he knows everything, in fact, he has been They are the ones behind all this planning.

If we don't know what tricks he has, how can I hang around in this position?

In fact, I didn't want to suspect that all of this had something to do with him before, but the facts have proved all of this. Even if we don't think about it, we will know that all of this has something to do with him.

In fact, many things can be found in our daily life. Even if you can't believe it now or don't want to believe it, you should still be able to feel it a little bit.

All of this is not as simple as we imagined, the reason why someone told us all this at the beginning.

But it is because, when many secrets are leaked, only we know them.

And our own people include He Chenguang, if he really has a clear conscience, why is he unwilling to tell us many things?

In fact, if you think about it carefully, you can clearly understand that all of this is definitely not that simple, and it has something to do with everything you have come into contact with. "

In fact, Qin Yuan, didn't he never doubt He Chenguang, he also had a lot of low points in his heart, what could he do?

Faced with such doubts and discussions, he himself has no way to do it, and he doesn't know how to deal with the various processes in the past.

He himself seemed to have suspected all this in his heart, and it seemed to be related to He Chenguang, but so what?

Qin Yuan lowered his head and thought in great pain. After a while, he said to Fan Tianlei on the phone:

"I know that you have been suspecting that everything has something to do with him, but we should calm down. Now there is no evidence. Without evidence, we can't casually suspect anything. morning light.

I know that although many things seem to have something to do with him on the surface, we shouldn't doubt a person so ignorantly and fearlessly. We should think about what's going on. "

After hearing Qin Yuan's answer, Fan Tianlei still felt very helpless.

"Okay, Qin Yuan, I knew that you kid wouldn't give up until you saw the evidence. I'm just skeptical now. I'm trying to get Chen Jixiang to help me with an outside contact. The two of you every move.

I didn't expect that this kid was so useless that you found it out easily. It is conceivable that you have already found out. Then He Chenguang, he should also know about this, so he didn't hide it from the two of you. any sense anymore.

You can discuss the rest by yourself. If you can find evidence but you can't find evidence, you should be careful, and you must be defensive. "

"Thunder God, after all, you still don't have any evidence. Although I don't want to doubt He Chenguang, I can't trust him 100%. Doubt him!"

"You kid just won't cry when you see the coffin! Well, you can do whatever you want, and I will be able to see An Ran soon.

I seem to see their ships approaching.

I don't know if there is any problem with his cargo. You should discuss it yourself first. I guess you are about to land.

After a while, you can do whatever you want after the exam.

Study it carefully, but you still have to take my words to heart. You must be on guard against others, so don't forget it! "

"Yeah, okay, I get it, Thor, don't worry, I understand that all you told me is for my honest words."

Then Qin Yuan hung up the phone.

He looked at Jason and Chen Jixiang who had been watching him.

The two of them have been staring at Qin Yuan with very surprised eyes.

"You two don't have to look at me like that!"

Chapter 1949: This is the electronic communicator

Now only Chen Jixiang, Qin Yuan and Jason himself were left in Jason's room.

They also talked to Fan Tianlei on the phone, and they didn't know what to do now, and there should not be much time left to press the button. At this time, there was a knock on the door.

Jason yelled loudly:

"Who is it? You came to knock on the door so late?"

"Boss, it's me!"

It turned out to be Jason's subordinates. It seems that he should have completed the task that Jason entrusted to him, to deliver the remaining food and water in the ship to the people in the underground cabin. What he had just promised should have been completed. Reported to myself.

"What's the matter? Come in and talk about it so late."

After hearing Jason's voice allowing him to enter, the subordinate gently opened the door and walked in.

"What's wrong? What's the matter?"

"Boss, everything you asked us to do has been done, the rest of the food and water in the cabin have been distributed to the bugs in the underground cabin.

I can see that they are eating happily and want to get to their destination quickly. This is all their trust. They are just taking this opportunity to find trouble with us. These people really deserve to die.

They have caused us so much trouble, and they are ashamed to be our food. I really want to throw them all in the sea to feed the sharks! "

Jason's subordinates have always been very irritable, not to mention they were very irritable to Qin Yuan before, but now they are naturally even more irritable to He Chenguang.

I looked down on it, so he felt such disgust. It was because Qin Yuan among the lovers was so angry when he saw Jason's subordinates in front of him. He then persuaded the other party to calm down.

"I know that the brothers have worked hard, and many things are done unwillingly by you, but you also have to consider the overall situation. Since Jason has asked you to do this, you should listen to him .

By the way, how is the situation in the underground cabin? Nothing else is going on with them, is there? "

"Qin Yuan, I'm really convinced of your brother, what is his origin?"

"What's wrong? Do you mean He Chenguang?"

Qin Yuan was at a loss for what Jason's men said so suddenly, and now he was afraid that He Chenguang would come up with some monster again.

As long as the situation under the cabin was mentioned, Qin Yuan's heart would break out in a cold sweat.

Jason's subordinates spread their hands, and then said with a sigh.

"I think your buddy is really not a simple character. All the people in the underground cabin of his cave have made such a fuss with us, and now he is able to be alone, eating and drinking in place and getting ready to disembark. "

When Qin Yuan heard this, he seemed to sense that there was some useful information.

"Brother, what do you mean? What do you mean he's ready to disembark?"

"It's not just after the turmoil of the proof, the ship will arrive at the destination soon, and they all know what's going on.

Your brother has already started to pack his things, I think he should also know that this ship is about to reach its destination. "

Another subordinate of Jason next to him also said very angrily:

"It's because they knew that the boat hadn't been played for a long time, but after such a long time of turmoil, they really don't know what they are doing. Are they trying to fish in troubled waters?"

As the saying goes, the speaker has no intention of listening, but the listener does. After listening to Qin Yuan for so long, he seemed to feel something was wrong.

He looked at Chen Jixiang next to him with a surprised look.

This kid could naturally feel that there was something wrong with the brother next to him, so he hurried to Qin Yuan, and whispered to him beside him:

"How is Brother Qin Yuan? Did you feel it too? What's wrong?"

"How did you know?"

"I can see what's brewing in your heart just by looking at you. I've been with you for so long, don't I know you? Once you make that expression.

It must be thoughtful, have you thought of something. "

Qin Yuan thought to himself that this time it was just his own guess, and he himself was not sure what was going on.

"I have nothing, think of you boy, don't wrong me."

Chen Jixiang knew that Qin Yuan had always been a dead duck with a hard mouth, and the fact was clearly in front of him, but he still didn't want to believe that it was exactly the same as Fan Tianlei's evaluation of him.

"You really came here according to what Fan Tianlei said."

"What do you mean? Fan Tianlei? What did he say to you again? Why does he always whisper to you in private?"

"He didn't say anything to me. This is just my guess based on her evaluation of you. You just don't cry when you don't see the coffin.

Obviously, you already have a lot of doubts and guesses in your heart, but without evidence, you just don't give up. "

"What's the matter? Is there anything we can do now?"

At this time, Jason said next to him:

"Qin Yuan, I know that you don't want to believe many things now, and we have to face them quickly.

I think there are basically a few hours before we reach our destination.

There are many things that we haven't planned yet, so why don't we go to our respective places now and plan carefully, and we will know what kind of things we will encounter after we press the button. "

Qin Yuan, he naturally knew what Jason was talking about, he was talking about the munitions left on their ship.

Suddenly, Qin Yuan seemed to think of something important.

He dragged Jason to a corner of the room, where he whispered to Jason:

"By the way, Jason, so much ammunition on your ship was given to you by Effiete, did he tell you how to hand it over to him after arriving at the destination?

With so many things, I think if he wants to send people over to respond, you should also need a lot of manpower and material resources. "

"He gave me something like an annunciator earlier.

Just before you reach your destination, launch it on the boat and blast it like fireworks.

They will be able to know that we are about to reach our destination, and they will send people over to meet us as soon as possible.

However, there is no signal on the sea, and we cannot keep in touch with them, although we are not late for a long time, but according to the agreed time.

We have been late for a long time, and I believe Effiete and the others can't wait. "

When Qin Yuan heard this, he was full of doubts.

"What Jason? What did you say?

Did Effiete give you a communicator?

Then why have you never mentioned this matter to me before?

You almost left out such an important thing as an important message.

We don't know that it seems that it is indeed close, and we missed a lot of things. Can you show me your communicator, and I will see what it is and how it is made.

I believe that Effiete, they should not have reached a particularly high-tech level, otherwise they will give us a mobile phone that can communicate with the outside world like a heaven-shaking one.

It seems that Effiete and the others still have a lot of things that are not satisfactory, but let's not think too much about this matter, Jason, you should give Effiete and the others to you first.

That communicator that exploded like fireworks first, let me have a look.

I don't know what it is. I think I still need time to study it to see if there is anything else that can be studied in his signal. "

After listening to Jason, he is a little stunned after what Qin Yuan said to himself. I don't know why Qin Yuan is always worried about Effiete and the others. This is just a very ordinary communication with the outside world. device only.

He wants to see it. Could it be that Qin Yuan doesn't believe in himself?

Thinking about it this way, he probably wouldn't have come here. He had known Qin Yuan for so long, and he knew very well what kind of person Qin Yuan would marry.

He won't doubt him, so Jason turned his head and said to his subordinates:

"Go to my drawer now and bring me my thing."

Chen Jixiang was listening to what Jason said to his subordinates, and now he was in a daze.

"I said, Jason, if it wasn't for the lack of experience, I really don't know what you are talking about when working under your command. You have been talking for a long time without a single useful information. How do they know what you want? What?"

Jason smiled, and I said helplessly to Chen Jixiang:

"You don't know me now, these men of mine know what I'm talking about very well, and they can help me get it in a while.

You don't know because you don't have a tacit understanding with us.

If you are willing, give up everything now and follow my words in the future.

I believe there is also a very tacit understanding, you can also hear what I am talking about, and you can often sail on the sea with us.

Do you think this is not more interesting than your current job? "

"I don't think it's that interesting anymore, and I like my current job very much, I don't want to change my current life, and I'm with your subordinates, they always bully me, it's better to choose to follow Qin Yuan now. "

Qin Yuan laughed beside him and said:

"I said you, Jason, are at this time, and you still want to poach my corner, Chen Jixiang, this kid was brought out by me.

No matter what, he has to follow me.

However, the relationship between him and me is definitely not as simple as the current ordinary comrade-in-arms relationship, you just want to poach it away.

I think it should be impossible, because his loyalty to me is quite high. "

"Of course I know that this kid is very loyal to you, so I'm just talking casually, and he probably won't listen to me."

After a while, Jason's men came over with the communicator that Effiete gave him.

Jason got the result from his subordinates, this communicator, and then handed it to Qin Yuan and said:

"Look at it, it's this communicator Effie told me at the time, as long as you see the landmark buildings in Pakistan, you can release this communicator, just like fireworks."

Qin Yuan picked up the communicator and looked at it, but there was nothing special. He said that he was a firework, but he was not a firework. It seemed to be something similar to an iron pipe.

"Is there anything special about this? There is a button at the bottom, just pull the button to launch the communicator?"

Jason shook his head and said:

"I don't know if you ask me about this, it's also the first time I've come into contact with this thing, anyway, that's what Effiete told me.

As long as the communicator can be launched by pressing the button below.

They can see it in Pakistan, and they will naturally send people to meet us when the time comes. "

Chen Jixiang walked to Qin Yuan's side at this time, looked at the pipe and said:

"Brother Qin Yuan, can you show me?"

"You have to take a look too, do you know what this thing is?"

"Don't underestimate me. I've seen the big world. Isn't this thing just a communicator? Take it here and I'll see it."

Qin Yuan was very surprised by Chen Jixiang's reaction.

"How did you see this thing?

It seems that there are many things about you that I don't know, and I know a lot.

Even I haven't seen this thing. "

Chen Jixiang said triumphantly:

"Sometimes, you must not underestimate me, this kid. I know a lot of things. As far as this communicator is concerned, his scientific name is electronic fireworks."

"What? This thing is really a firework."

"The scientific name of this thing is electronic fireworks, and the euphemistic name is that it is used to set off fireworks. However, many people want to prevent their secrets from being revealed.

They all use it as a covert communication device and put it in the sky like this, ordinary people can't tell whether it is a real firework or a communication device? "

"According to what you said, this thing is quite advanced?"

"Of course, this thing can only be produced in the United States. It was something they were proud of at the time."

"How do you know so much?"

"I was in a tech program bootcamp for a while.

This thing was explained to us by the teacher at the time, so I was very impressed with him. When Jason talked about the communicator just now, this thing flashed in my mind, so I wanted to come and have a look.

Unexpectedly, it turned out to be the same as what our teacher said at the time, this thing is called electronic fireworks, and it can transmit messages.

If you want to do anything to him, you can tell me, maybe I can help you? "

When Qin Yuan heard this, he had some doubts.

"What do you mean by that? What do you mean sitting on this thing and doing some hands and feet?"

Chapter 1950: Modify the communicator

Jason looked at Chen Jixiang, the kid had a bad expression.

You know, what is this kid thinking in his mind?

So, Jason smiled and said to Qin Yuan next to him:

"I think you really don't understand your little brother, you look at his bad expression, I think he should be thinking about something important.

From the time I knew this kid, I knew he was a ghost and he could think of many things in front of us, so I also had the idea of poaching the wall.

It seems that he wants to put some thought into this communicator! "

After listening to Jason's words, Qin Yuan looked at Chen Jixiang who was smiling smirkingly.

"What are you kidding here? Do you have any idea about this communicator?

Just now, I saw that you seemed to have a plan in mind. Have you seen this thing before?

If you don't know, don't talk nonsense, don't move!

In case, what kind of trouble is caused to Jason, it will be too late for us to trouble.

You also know that this communicator was given to them by Effiete.

Who is Effiete? You should be very clear in your heart, they are very cunning.

If you tamper with this communicator casually, it will be difficult to deal with it.

If the signal method of the communicator is changed, won't we become the target of public criticism?

It was immediately obvious to others that we have changed their things now.

When the time comes to make them mentally prepared, Jason will be in danger.

Our entire ship is in danger, you better be more cautious, kid. "

Chen Jixiang nodded after listening to Qin Yuan's words.

"Brother Qin Yuan, don't worry, don't you worry about my work?

I have always been very confident, and I will not do things that I am not sure about.

Didn't I tell you before?

I am very familiar with this thing, and I am also very familiar with the principle of this communicator.

This thing is not what we imagined.

However, it can also be compared with us.

I know very well how this thing works.

Also, I just had a rough look, and it's not a very complicated communicator.

The key to this is very clear to me. "

Qin Yuan knew that the grades missed this kid, although sometimes he was more glib, and he ran the train with his mouth full.

However, he is a boy with his own plans.

He is not even the kind of person who doesn't care about other people's life and death at will.

Since he said this, it means that he should be very sure that he can modify the communicator.

However, Qin Yuan is simply illiterate when it comes to communicators.

Not to mention Jason, he is just a big boss in the smuggling business.

He has never heard or seen these things, and he doesn't know why.

Both of them act like idiots.

Looking at the boy Chen Jixiang talking, I don't know what he meant.

However, the meaning can probably be heard.

Chen Jixiang wanted to modify the communicator, but everyone didn't understand.

Isn't this communicator just for releasing signals? What can he modify?

Qin Yuan walked to Chen Jixiang's side and knocked on his head, then said:

"You kid, don't come up with any bad ideas here. We all don't know his reasoning for this thing. If you make a mistake, the people on the ship will be buried with you at that time."

Chen Jixiang, looking at Qin Yuan, grinned and said:

"Brother Qin Yuan, don't you understand me? I'm a person who never makes up my mind.

Let me tell you about this communicator, they blow up a different signal, which means different meanings.

You see, the bottom button that can be turned around?

Every time he twisted, it represented a different meaning.

This also means that we can pass that step and rearrange the order of his gunpowder.

At that time, the firework g he blows up will definitely be different. At that time, we can change the meaning represented by this communicator, maybe it can really help us? "

After Jason heard this, although he didn't understand it, he was clear about the general principle.

"Boy, I know what you mean by that? But now we don't understand.

What is the meaning of the fireworks blown up by the communication equipment Effiete gave us? We don't understand what each pattern means? How can we all change? This is really not working!

I think, why not forget about it?

Besides, didn't Qin Yuan contact Norman Karim just now?

He promised to help us, but I think it's better to be cautious.

Don't worry about it, we are not their opponents. "

At this time, Chen Jixiang said with confidence:

"I told you that since I want to do this, I must have a way to do it well, why don't you believe it?

Let me tell you, in my bag, I have a drawing book.

The drawing shows what the patterns of various communication equipment mean. "

After Qin Yuan heard this, he was very surprised.

"You kid, what did you say that there are blueprints of communication equipment in your bag?

How did I never know?

Besides, we have traveled so far from country H to country Ba, what blueprints of communication equipment do you need to bring with you?

How come I never heard of it? "

"Hey~ If I let you know everything, how can I be so smart, don't worry.

For this matter, I have been studying the blueprints of communication equipment.

Moreover, I just took a look at this communication device, and it is made in the United States.

As far as I know, the communication equipment produced in the United States can be roughly divided into these types.

You can see the specific serial number and production date below.

I believe that as long as I compare it with my drawings, I will know which model this is and what the pattern means.

I believe that Effiete and his group are very stupid, and it is impossible to modify this communicator in private.

Moreover, it is possible to see that the communicator has been modified.

Just trust me, there will be absolutely no problems with this matter.

As long as I modify this communicator, I will definitely be able to help you.

I believe that Effiete's people are watching us on the shore from afar.

They should also want to see the communicator and what the fireworks exploded represent, so they will take different actions. "

Although Qin Yuan was skeptical, he felt that Chen Jixiang, what this kid said was very reasonable. They should just look at the communicator that exploded from the fireworks communicator. What does it mean?

Only then will different actions be taken according to the specific meaning.

So, Qin Yuan turned his head and looked at Jason. After all, this was Jason's property, and he should seek Jason's consent.

Jason also knew, Qin Yuan, he already had this idea now, and he was too embarrassed to reject him or deny their actions.

"It's okay, Qin Yuan, you don't need to look at me, as long as you think this matter is feasible, I will believe you.

I don't have to believe in anything, but I will definitely believe in you!

I believe you will not harm me, and you have helped me so much, I know you have your own ideas before everything you do.

If you think this communicator can be modified, then we might as well give it a try.

At least if it can't be modified to our useful information.

It's okay, put it back intact, isn't it also okay? "

After Qin Yuan heard this, he turned to ask Chen Jixiang.

"Chen Jixiang, tell me, if the modification is unsuccessful, can this thing be changed back?

Just like the original one? "

"Of course, I use my personality to guarantee that if this matter fails, he will definitely be able to change it back.

You won't be disappointed, and I'm not going to take anyone's life as a joke.

Please believe me, although I am very young, my qualifications are relatively shallow, and I have very little experience.

However, I hope you will take my word for it.

I am absolutely not joking about this matter!

If I hadn't been absolutely sure, I wouldn't have mentioned it to you at all. "

"Well then, since you are so confident in what you say, I will believe you once, and you must not let us down!

Jason, that's it, let him try, if it doesn't work, we won't be suspected by them if we return to our original position.

If we put all our hopes on one person, it is easy to be disappointed.

Moreover, we have not always believed that Norman Karim will help us.

Will help us without hesitation, so we also want to seek some other ideas. "

Jason nodded hard, and he said to Qin Yuan:

"Qin Yuan, don't worry, as long as you believe in me, I'm willing to believe in you too. Let's all give it a try. Anyway, our wealth and lives are all stuck in it!"

Qin Yuan also nodded.

"Okay, Chen Jixiang, hurry up and get it!"

Chen Jixiang, a little at a loss now, he widened his eyes and said to Qin Yuan:

"This thing can't be done just by saying, didn't I say it? My drawings are in my bag and my bag is in the underground spring hall. If I want to do it, I have to go underground now Cabin, take out my bag first."

"Why is it so troublesome? You have to go back to the underground spring grass now, do you want to see He Chenguang's face again?

And now that we all have doubts about him, we can't let him know more about our thoughts and actions.

If, let him know that you went back to the underground cabin to get your bag.

Let him know what's inside. What we do may reveal the secret again. It's better to keep it hidden. Don't say anything, let alone He Chenguang know about it. "

Chen Jixiang sighed and said:

"Can you all trust me? I'll go back and quietly take out my bag, and take out the blueprints inside. I'll just ignore the rest and don't look at it. Isn't that all right for He Chenguang?

As long as we all ignore him, it is impossible for him to do anything unthinkable. "

At this time Jason said:

"I think He Chenguang, he must be full of complaints towards you now.

If you go back now, I'm afraid you'll have to face his sarcastic sarcasm again. Why don't you ask my men to go down to the cabin and help you get your bags up? "

Qin Yuan shook his head and said:

"Jason, you really don't know He Chenguang when you say that, he can do anything.

Unless it is, the two of us go get the bag ourselves.

Otherwise, your men are turning the boat over.

It is impossible to take this bag out from He Chenguang's side. He Chenguang is a person who has moved a lot, and he is not in a good mood recently. He has experienced so many things just now.

Now he doesn't care about his image at all, and he is bound to drag us to the end. "

Chen Jixiang also said:

"Brother Qin Yuan, Jason, you guys think about the same as I do. I have to do it myself. I believe that if I want to go hot, He Chenguang will not be too difficult. Me, if he wants to see Qin Yuan.

He will definitely sneer at Jiayi with sarcasm, it's not certain what will happen then, I'd better get the bag myself. "

Qin Yuan smiled and said:

"Am I so unreliable in your kid's heart?

Is it just being ridiculed by a few words of his sarcastic remarks, I can't bear anything.

Moreover, I have known him for such a long time, so I shouldn't be too unfeeling, I'd better do it, if it were someone else, I believe He Chenguang would not let him go so easily. "

After thinking about it for a while, everyone felt that no method was feasible.

Therefore, Chen Jixiang said with a smile:

"Why don't we wait a bit, I believe they've eaten enough, drunk enough, and made enough noise by now.

After a while, they should be asleep, right?

When He Chenguang fell asleep, wouldn't it be okay for us to go back and take it secretly? "

Jason sighed and said:

"By the way, I forgot to ask you just now, kid, how long will it take you to modify this communicator .

It won't be long before we land.

Before docking, as long as we see the landmark buildings on the shore, we will release this communicator.

But don't wait until everything is gone, and when you have time to do it, you go back, but it won't be too good.

If it is too late to release the communicator at that time, wouldn't it cause us greater difficulties and dangers? "

Chen Jixiang smiled, patted Jason on the shoulder and said:

"I said Jason, don't worry, the time to modify this thing is very fast, I have already trained, and I will be able to complete the modification in about half an hour.

And I just took a look at it, and they haven't modified the communicator, they just need to make a slight modification according to the drawings, which is very convenient. "
