

Special Soldier 2081

Chapter 2082: Help system, recovery without knowing it

Although Sophia doesn't know what kind of medicine Qin Yuan is selling in his gourd, there is still a good solution to this matter for him.

"Okay, Qin Yuan.

Since you have said this, you should order all the seafood dinners.

Then I can only prepare well.

After all, it was all Mr. Noman Karim's idea.

He also hopes that he can have the opportunity to entertain you well.

It may not necessarily satisfy you, but at least it must ensure that your visit is not in vain.

You may have never seen a lot of expensive food.

That's fine. I'll take this opportunity to let you have a good feel for what it means to live a rich life. "

Qin Yuan sneered helplessly.

"Sofia, I have to say, I think you are a little weird girl. Don't take advantage of others."

After these four words were spoken, everyone present was a little shocked.

They didn't expect Qin Yuan to be so direct.

An Ran couldn't stand it any longer. Looking at Qin Yuan, he quickly stretched out his hand and pulled the corner of his arm.

Qin Yuan disagreed.

"An Ran, I know Sophia.

After all, I used to be your good sister, but you still feel a little uncomfortable when I say this to her.

However, I must warn you.

You can't be too kind as a person. If you are bullied by others, you will be ridiculed immediately.

The situation we are encountering now is like this. It's okay for them to have any ideas, and we don't care.

The most important thing is what these * guys think.

Do they really think that you are so easy to bully and deceive?

If I find an opportunity and want to deal with you, I have to tell you to give them a hard slap on the face to let them know that you are not so easy to bully or deceive.

We know better than anyone what these guys are thinking.

The more critical it is at such a critical time, the less we can be manipulated by them. We have our own ideas and judgments to control them. "

An Ran glanced at what Qin Yuan said for herself. It was from the bottom of his heart that he really cared about his good friend. This undoubtedly made An Ran feel very warm in his heart.

"Qin Yuan, thank you for saying this at this critical time, but I don't want to affect the relationship between us so let's forget it and stop thinking so much."

Chen Jixiang had almost eaten now and quickly closed his mouth.

"I feel like I still don't want to eat anymore. Isn't there a seafood dinner tonight?

In this case, I will stop it for the time being. You can tell me individually what you want to eat. "

He Chenguang said with a smile.

"Chen Jixiang, let me tell you, you kid, you don't know what you are thinking about.

It turned out that I was thinking about this meal in the evening, but it doesn't matter, as long as you feel happy, none of us felt anything was wrong.

Especially your brother Qin Yuan, he simply regards you as his best brother.

No matter what you say, he is willing to listen. That is why we are able to get to where we are today, isn't it? "

Xiaolan finished cleaning up the fragments of the special medicine on the ground and glanced at the synthetic light. After the two of them looked at each other, they both felt a little embarrassed at this time. Neither of them was embarrassed and looked at each other directly.

Qin Yuan, with such a strong observation ability, didn't find anything wrong between the two of them.

He simply felt that many things were completely different from what he imagined.

The more he is in this situation, the more he must control his inner situation and never let himself be coerced by these special powers.

Qin Yuan now hopes to contact the system quickly.

See if the system can help repair the spy system that they have invaded.

After all, this is direct evidence that Fan Tianlei was accused.

As long as this matter is resolved, they will no longer be afraid even if they have a huge handle.

If the other party doesn't understand anything, how can he handle this matter well?

So Qin Yuan now hopes to contact the system as soon as possible.

Solve this matter first and then talk about it. This is what can really reassure him.

Thinking of this, he couldn't help but prepare to stand up and go to the room first to let them discuss it slowly.

Contact the system yourself first.

Let's see if there is anything he can do. If this omnipotent system has no solution at all, Qin Yuan will not know what to do at all.

He had to think of other ways. Anyway, there was no need to worry about these. At least it was an adaptation process for them.

"Qin Yuan, where are you going?"

"An Ran, please leave me alone. I have my own very important matters to deal with. Please wait here for a while. I will come back after I have handled this matter."

"Wait a minute, Qin Yuan.

Maybe, Mr. Norman Karim didn't explain it clearly to you just now.

I hope you won't go anywhere else for the time being.

Just wait here. As long as we are all here, no one can leave casually.

Of course, the same goes for you. I hope you can think carefully and don't walk away casually. This is a very important thing for us. "

While Sophia glared at Qin Yuan to avenge him just now, she reminded him that it was actually a side effect. Regarding Norman Karim threatening him, Qin Yuan didn't accept this, and he didn't care about it.

"Miss Sophia, I know that you obey Mr. Norman Karim's orders. In this case, you don't have to worry, I won't embarrass you.

This matter is similar to what I imagined, and I know how to handle it. I will not leave your house. "

"Yeah, that's good.

As long as you don't leave this club, you can lie down in any room you want. We won't have any ideas or opinions. "

Qin Yuan thought in his heart that he had finally made these guys have differences.

Finally, I can leave here with peace of mind.

Now, for him, nothing matters. The most important thing is to quickly find some emotional loopholes in the other party.

Then, no one was following him, which was the perfect thing.

"If there are no other questions, I'm going to go back to my room and sleep.

I hope none of you will bother me, especially at such a critical time.

If someone disturbs me, I will be very unhappy.

At that time, if I am angry in any way, I have to ask you to bear with me, but you have made me anxious. "

Xiaolan saw Qin Yuan walking away.

He stood there thinking that he finally had a chance to sow discord between them.

"If that's the case, that would be great.

I have been thinking about when I can let Qin Yuan go to bed. He didn't sleep for such a long time last night. He must be very sleepy. "

"What do you mean by that?"

"It doesn't mean anything special, I just want to remind you.

Don't feel unhappy because of such a trivial matter. We all take great care of your emotions. Don't say these unpleasant words casually.

Last night, Qin Yuan never returned to his room to sleep.

Who does he live in the same house with? Do I need to continue talking?

This is simply a very ridiculous thing. What on earth do they have over there?

I don't know, anyway, how should you solve it? Only you know in your heart that others don't care about this. "

An Ran, now there is no way to explain what the relationship between him and Qin Yuan is.

The two of them do have some feelings, but if they talk a few more times, it may not be what it will be like.

Enron, I don't actually worry about anything else now.

What he was most worried about was whether Du Bingbing could realize what he said to him.

Especially at this critical moment, Du Bingbing is not a worry-free person, and he doesn't know what methods he will use to embarrass the other party.

"Qin Yuan has gone to bed. Let's just stay here. If there are any problems, we can talk about it later. It's too late to talk about it now anyway."

Qin Yuan returned to his room. He deliberately left the door half open so that he could find out at any time whether anyone outside was eavesdropping on his words.

"System, system, come out quickly. I have something important to do with you. Hurry up. Don't wait any longer. I can't wait any longer."

"Dingdong, hello, master, I haven't seen you for a long time. Why did you come to see me again? It seems that you must have encountered some problem."

"Of course I have encountered a problem, otherwise I wouldn't have come to you.

However, I still hope you will listen carefully to this matter.

It's very important to me and I don't know if you can solve it.

Although you are a universal system in my heart and can solve everything, this matter still needs to be discussed carefully. "

"Dingdong, master, if you have any requirements, you can give me any instructions. As long as I can do it, I won't delay it."

"That's good!

Recently, I have encountered a particularly troublesome thing. In our country H, there is a secret spy system. This system was broken by us by chance.

I don't know if you have the ability to repair it. "

"Ding dong, the system just checked and found the spy system that the master mentioned. How does the master want to fix it?"

"Is it possible to eliminate the record of someone hacking into this system and act as if nothing ever happened?"

"Dingdong, Master, this task is still very difficult."

"I didn't tell you whether the other difficulties are difficult. Of course I know that this matter is difficult. After all, this is country H, the ultimately important national espionage system.

Is it a bit too stupid to mess up this problem without thinking about it? I don't want to implicate Fan Tianlei.

You help me eliminate this thing. I want to ask you how many merit points you need, and I can solve it. "

"Dingdong, Master, it is still not certain how many merit points this system requires. I hope you will think it over carefully."

"How do you think clearly?

I don't have so much time now to accompany you to solve these messy things.

No matter how many merit points are required, I have to solve this thing as soon as possible.

Why don't you understand? "

"Dingdong, Director, I now understand what you said. I just checked the system.

The specific merit value has not yet been found out, because it will take about twelve hours to repair this indirect system. I don't know if you are willing to wait. "

Qin Yuan was completely stunned now.

Twelve hours was too long for him.

Normally in their army, all messages are only valid for six hours.

If it exceeds six hours, they will have to solve it in their own way.

Twelve hours is really too long, at least for Qin Yuan, it is an unattainable height.

"System, please help me check how many merit points I have left that I haven't used yet."

"Dingdong, hello, the master system is checking the current remaining merit points for you, master, please wait a moment."

"Hurry up. I don't have much time to waste here. There is already a group of people outside watching me."

"Dingdong, hello, the director has completed the inquiry for you. The current remaining merit value is 6,000,000 points."

"That's all that's left?"

Qin Yuan knew very well that it would be impossible to complete such a large amount of work in a short time. If he wanted the system to speed up the time to help him complete it, he would need a lot of merit points. Now he has only the remaining 60,000 points you placed are definitely not enough.

"System, this matter is very important to me, even if all the credit merit points and the current remaining merit points have been maxed out.

I also have to ask you to help me repair this spy system. Fan Tianlei must come out safe and sound. He is a very important person to me.

No matter what, I cannot let Fan Tianlei have any trouble. In the final analysis, it is caused by my lack of thoughtful thinking, so I hope you can help me think clearly. "

"Ding dong, master, you don't have to worry, the one-click recovery system exists.

Just for you to solve various problems.

Now that you have made your own decision on this matter.

The system also senses your desire to keep the other party safe.

If it has become such a result, then we have nothing to say. Even if it is free, we will definitely help you. "

"That's great, tell me quickly.

Apart from this, I am willing to contribute any amount of merit, even if you assign other tasks.

As long as I can do it, I can accept it as if it is to make up for Thor.

Chapter 2083: System first attempt to repair

After Qin Yuan said these words to the system, he still didn't think about how he should solve it better.

However, he is very clear now.

This system should still be somewhat difficult to solve.

Although his system is omnipotent and he is like a cheat, many things are not as simple as he imagined.

At this critical time.

The system's beep sounded suddenly.

"Hello Dingdong, the master has just sorted out the indicators you need for repair. So far, the system will make the first repair attempt based on your request."

"When I hear you say this, I feel that the pressure on this matter must be great.

It seems that repairing this system is indeed a very difficult thing.

However, I still hope you can give it a try for me.

This matter is very important to me, and it is also very important to Fan Tianlei.

If Fan Tianlei has any shortcomings, I'm afraid I won't be able to solve this problem well.

After all, it is really too dangerous for me and I have to solve it quickly. Otherwise, I don't know what to do. "

"Ding dong, master, you don't have to worry. The system will do its best to repair it for you.

However, we are still not sure when exactly it will wait. I hope you can stabilize your emotions for the time being and not worry too much about this matter.

The arrangements on the system side are processed based on all the results you have thought of.

For the time being, it takes a lot of time.

So far, the first attempt to fix your request will be made. If there are any problems, the system will bring it up with you again. "

Qin Yuan just closed his eyes. He had no better way. He could only wait for the repair of the system to be completed before he could take the next step.

"Oh well.

I don't have any good solution, other than asking for help from your systems.

There really aren't any other good ideas for this thing for me.

It is indeed necessary, especially Fan Tianlei, who is very cautious now.

If any of these problems are unclear or have other disadvantages, I'm afraid we all should find solutions quickly.

The function of your system is very critical, and there are many dangers on my side.

Let's not talk about this to each other anymore.

If you have any other ideas, you have to think carefully about what can be solved.

Anyway, these things are very difficult for me to solve so far.

Each of us must be careful and never let others see these thoughts. "

"Ding dong, please master, please wait patiently.

System is in progress, first attempt at repair. "

Qin Yuan now puts all his strength on this system.

Assuming that if there is any problem with this system, he has no way to solve it himself.

"Dingdong, the current repair attempt takes about twelve hours. Does the master need to wait here forever?"

"No, I told you just now, this time is a bit too long.

Can you please increase the repair speed for me? If the repair time of this system is too long, it will not be of any benefit to Fan Tianlei's investigation.

It should take a long time for the other party to solve this difficult problem. "

Qin Yuan knew very well that if, according to the time planned by the system, he wanted to solve the problem of system repair.

Even if he can repair it, the expiration date on the other side has passed.

"Dingdong, we are urgently working for the master."

"By the way, hurry up and hurry up. This matter is very important to me. Apart from this problem that you can solve, I can't think of anything else."

"Ding dong, Master, please rest assured, we are currently 80% urgent for you. The current system repair time will be approximately 9.6 hours."

"Can we go faster and try to compress it to within six hours? It's morning time now, so we can solve it in the afternoon.

Only by minimizing the time on your side can I arrange the next step.

Otherwise, everything everyone is doing will be in vain. "

"Ding dong, master, we've been working hard to speed you up.

However, in Country H, the spy system is really the most advanced security system. If you want to break it, it will probably take a long time to repair it, and it will also take a long time.

It is basically impossible to compress within six hours. I hope you, the master, can understand the difficulties of the system. "

Qin Yuan looked at the time. He was very anxious now.

Maybe, eight hours?

"System, please help me compress the time. I will be able to solve this problem within eight hours. At worst, I will delay it for a while."

"Ding dong, the system often performs time compression for the second time."

Normally, being in the room and observing the situation outside while trying to find time will definitely not give them any chance.

The more this happens, the more careful he has to be, not knowing what the other person is thinking.

Qin Yuan knew very well that Instructor Gong Jian's arrangement for this matter should be very difficult. It would not necessarily be possible if he had any other ideas.

"Then what are you going to do next?"

"Dingdong, please wait patiently, Master. We are shortening the system repair time for you. It will take about 10 minutes."

"10 minutes?"

Qin Yuan thought in his heart that even if he was forcing the other party, he would not have more time and could only do this.

"Well, no matter what, you must deal with it quickly, otherwise this matter will be a very difficult matter for me to solve.

An Ran and Chen Jixiang were waiting outside. "

Qin Yuan has been back in the room for a while.

The group of people outside were also speculating on what Qin Yuan was doing alone in the room.

Sophia said quickly after watching Qin Yuan return to the room.

"An Ran, you two lived together last night. Are you not interested at all in where he goes now?"

"Sofia, I really don't understand what you mean by that.

Chapter 2084: Under repair, urged again

After talking so much to Sophia, An Ran found that this woman didn't think about others at all.

He only thinks about what to say for himself.

After letting himself get the special medicine, he gave up saving Professor Fang De's two apprentices.

He is not a person who came out of the army at all, and he has no idea how important it is for a special forces soldier to complete the mission.

All of them are from the army, so naturally they have military orders.

Sophia couldn't understand this feeling at all.

Just tell them unscrupulously that they must give up this matter. Why can they say such things to themselves?

An Ran was very dissatisfied when he thought of this. He knew that if he had any problems, he would never give up.

In fact, I don't care about what the other guy wants.

Whatever he wants to do, he can think whatever he likes.

The more he was in this situation, the calmer he had to be.

Because they knew that Qin Yuan didn't know what he was doing now. Anyway, after this matter had been going on for a long time, he had nothing to say at home.

Chen Jixiang glanced at Sophia next to him and felt that what she said was indeed a bit too much.

"Miss Sophia, Anron has always regarded you as his best friend, but you always deceived him over and over again. Do you think this behavior is appropriate?"

We now have our own planning on this matter, and we have many arrangements of our own.

There is no need for you to tell us anything here.

Anyway, we already know most of these things. The more we are in this situation, the more careful we have to be.

What the * you think, we don't care.

We don't care what kind of problems we will encounter in the future.

In short, after this matter is resolved, we can all rest assured.

Please don't say these words to us again. We are all very careful and cautious.

Brother Qin Yuan, as long as you know how to deal with it, it has nothing to do with you. As long as you stop interfering in our affairs, everyone will be very grateful.

You have your own work to do here and we have our own things to deal with.

Brother Qin Yuan, he is not here now. We can't decide whatever you say.

Regarding Professor Fang De, you don't need to go on. Anyway, it's impossible for any of us to give up. This is a task assigned to us by our superiors. "

After Sophia heard what Chen Jixiang said, he lowered his head and smiled helplessly.

"Miss Sophia, do you think there is anything funny?"

"No, I think you may have misunderstood my idea. I don't think there's anything funny about it, I just want to tell you.

Mr. Norman Karim, he has also fully mastered the channels for these special medicines. Even if you disagree, there is nothing you can do. "

He Chenguang didn't say anything.

He just silently glanced at everyone's reactions and now felt that everyone was a little unhappy.

It was under this situation that they felt they should pay more attention.

"Sometimes I really don't understand, what on earth do you all think?

Is this really not worth the wait for you? "

"He Chenguang, let's not continue talking nonsense with them. Qin Yuan, he has his own matters to deal with. After he has dealt with the problems in front of him, we don't need to say anything more."

"By the way, what on earth did Qin Yuan do?

Did he go back to sleep, or did he go to rest unknowingly?

We don't know these things.

However, I can understand him if he wants to go back and have a good sleep and rest. This is an unprecedented challenge for him. "

"Yeah, it's true that the pressure he is under is too much.

Many times, none of us can understand.

Anyway, at this time we all have to listen to Qin Yuan's arrangements.

Let's not put too much pressure on him.

At such a critical time, he had already endured too much alone.

There is no need for us to continue to have any trouble with him. Anyway, after I said these words, I don't know if you can understand what kind of pressure the other party has put on us.

We all have to properly complete the tasks assigned to us by Fan Tianlei.

Even though Fan Tianlei is in big trouble now. "

Chen Jixiang and He Chenguang were originally very calm, but after hearing that Fan Tianlei was in some trouble, they were now very uncalm.

Chen Jixiang quickly stood up and asked anxiously.

"What's wrong? What's wrong with Sister Anran and Fan Tianlei?

Is it because our secret intrusion into the spy system had a great impact on him?

That's why he is like this now.

If this is really the case, then aren't we all sinners? "

An Ran realized that what he said was indeed not quite right. He didn't know what these two guys could bear. Anyway, he shouldn't have said these things in front of this group of people.

"Chen Jixiang, don't be anxious. Just calm down and listen to me tell you slowly.

Many things are completely different from what we imagined.

Thor, he did encounter some troubles, but it has nothing to do with you, so don't put too much pressure on you.

Qin Yuan, he already knows about this.

He is trying his best to solve it, and all of us can just wait slowly.

Is it okay not to cause trouble for everyone?

You just need to follow the two of us to complete the mission, I know that Thor is very important to you. He is your teacher.

However, he is also important to both of us. "

Chen Jixiang stood there helplessly and sighed.

"Sister An Ran, you probably don't know much about the relationship between us. In fact, Thor has always been very important to us. He is a very powerful person.

He was a great help to us.

If, because of this matter, we implicate him.

Then we all really have no face to face him.

Under this situation again, we have to be careful. Since we don't know what the other party is thinking, we have to rely on our own efforts to solve it, right? "

He Chenguang, he doesn't have much trouble about this matter now. In the final analysis, he is just a spy.

He now feels that the more chaotic they are in H country and the top brass within the army, the better.

Chapter 2085: Sophia's temptation is also ineffective

Qin Yuan was still staring at the system in the room.

When will the records of the spy system that it has destroyed be repaired?

People are not aware that he has invaded the spy system.

Without authorization from superiors, this is very difficult for the system.

However, Qin Yuan still has to give it a try. Only after this problem is solved, Fan Tianlei will definitely not have any major events happen again.

The more he was in this situation, the more he had to think carefully.

How important this matter was to him.

Qin Yuan said to himself in the room.

"Thor God, I'm really sorry for you.

I know that you don't care about the position of chief of staff, but it took you more than ten or twenty years of hard work to reach your current position.

But I plundered them all without your permission.

But don't worry, I won't let you suffer in our relationship.

I will definitely think about how to do this. I am very sure now.

Someone must be setting you up behind your back. The spy system was discovered so quickly.

This is enough to show that someone is always watching you.

I feel very guilty when I think of this. As long as this system can help you, I should do whatever I am told.

I'm really sorry, Thor, and I hope you won't blame me for this situation.

I also felt very helpless because I was too impulsive this time.

I have to admit that after this incident, I will definitely change my mind.

As long as it allows you to keep your position as chief of staff, otherwise, I really feel very sorry for you.

Even if I really complete the task you gave me, I will still feel very guilty.

Therefore, I hope Thor will do well. "

After Qin Yuan finished speaking, he sat on the bed. He knew that it would take a long time to repair the system, and he didn't know what the situation was like outside.

Norman Karim has left this club, which is enough to show that Mr. Norman Karim should be very confident about his matter.

After all, He Fei was once a comrade who fought alongside Fan Tianlei. Could he really bear to see Fan Tianlei lose his position as chief of staff?

Outside, in the lobby of the clubhouse.

Sophia looked at An Ran, and then said these words to Jason maliciously. This was really a very big challenge for Jason.

Jason stood silently and said nothing to Chen Jixiang and He Chenguang. The two of them had been watching the situation.

"What are you going to do next?"

Sofia said to Jason with a smile.

"Jason, he who knows the current affairs is a hero.

Your men, Akun and Amin, have desperately joined Mr. Norman Karim's camp.

You have also seen it since following Mr. Karim.

The resources they have access to now, as well as everything in front of them, are so impressive.

Jason, actually Mr. Karim, he thinks that as the boss of Akun and Amin, and you have also worked with old K, you are worth much more than them.

What I told you just now is definitely not a joke. Fan Tianlei and Qin Yuan, he can indeed take care of your daughter and take good care of her.

However, I still want to tell you where the problem lies in this matter.

Your daughter is in the army of country H. Do you think there are really many people who devote some of their energy to taking care of her? There are only a few doctors with the most superb medical skills there, and there is also Du Bingbing, whom Qin Yuan trusts very much. "

Chen Jixiang was listening to this, and now he was a little frightened.

Unexpectedly, this guy knew so much about Du Bingbing in detail. He even knew about Du Bingbing.

Chen Jixiang sweated beside him.

"Sister An Ran, how did they know? Who leaked so much of our internal information to him?"

An Ran looked at Chen Jixiang with a smile.

"Good boy, you have nothing to worry about these things. I can assure you that even if no one leaks the secret, they will know about it.

You should know what money can do. They are a group of powerful people, so what does it mean to bribe a few little people? "

"Sister An Ran, I have already told you these things.

However, Brother Qin Yuan, he is still a little careless now. All our information has basically been exposed to them. If Jason really joins..."

"Shh~"

After saying this, everyone was in the room, looking at Jason quietly.

Sophia thought he had succeeded quickly.

He stood up slowly, his high heels jingling, walked to Jason step by step, and whispered in his ear.

"Jason, not to mention that all your men have betrayed you, this is what they call choosing the right direction.

However, what you should consider is not whether these are loyal or not.

I think the most important thing you as a father should consider is the safety of your daughter. Your daughter has already encountered so many dangers.

Are you just willing to watch him continue like this?

The H country army is indeed a very safe place, but your enemies are not just the diseases your daughter encountered.

Your enemy is Old K. He now knows through Efite where you are and what is going on with your daughter?

Do you know why your daughter has been unable to find a cardiac resource?

That's because all this is due to Lao K, who intervened behind the scenes to cause this situation to happen today, so I hope you can think clearly and we will not harm you. "

An Ran knew that under various circumstances in the past, he would definitely advise him to get married. He must not listen to them and join these people's camp to harm Qin Yuan.

However, this time it was a completely different situation. This time it involved the life safety of his daughter.

An Ran, there is no way to make the decision for him.

As long as he agreed to join Norman Karim's camp, he had a private hospital in the United States.

I will do my best to help her heal.

After all, for Jason, his daughter is more important than anything else. In fact, Qin Yuan would not blame him if he knew about it. This is a father's choice and it is too normal.

He Chenguang, of course, didn't really want Jason to join their camp.

After all, the enemy of the United States is not only Country H. This old K has also been entangled in the United States for many years.

He has been operating an underground arms trading system.

Chapter 2086: If you are not trustworthy, there is no need to stay around.

Qin Yuan is still in the room waiting for the results from the system.

However, he seemed to have heard the noise outside, as if they were saying something to let Jason join the camp of Mr. Norma Kalim.

Qin Yuan had no other thoughts at the time. He just felt that Jason had no responsibilities and obligations.

Always by his own side, he should have his own choice.

However, he has already agreed to the issue regarding his daughter, even if he provides Norman Karim with some information about himself.

Qin Yuan would never blame him, after all, there was no choice for them.

When Sophia said these words outside, he thought this was already a sure-fire move.

Jason, no matter how much loyalty he had, could not compare to his responsibility as a father.

Sofia believed that she had a sure chance of victory now. Under this situation, if he persuaded Jason to join their camp, Norman Karim would definitely treat him badly.

Chen Jixiang was originally a person who cared about loyalty very much. He thought that Jason would have nothing to do if he really chose his daughter.

Immediately afterwards, He Chenguang said.

"Jason, many things are completely different from what we imagined. What I want to tell you is that the more you are in this situation, the more you have to think carefully.

Qin Yuan, he really treats you well. I hope we can have some new ideas and don't always limit ourselves to the ones in front of us.

Sophia, you seemed to have said a lot just now about wanting him to surrender.

You even hesitate to take advantage of his daughter. I think such behavior is very despicable, not worth promoting, and not aboveboard. "

Sophia smiled, but he didn't take it to heart.

"Anyway, I don't care about that. I only care about the final result. As long as it's the process of getting the result I want, I don't care at all."

An Ran looked at Sophia and asked very seriously.

"Is it possible that you have always thought like this for so many years?

If anything is different from your expectations, you will not agree to it.

You always hope that they can make a particularly correct choice, but if you do this today, it will always give people a particularly bad impression.

You can say this in front of us. If you leave us, will you say more? This is really unbelievable. "

Sophia doesn't think this matter is important. Anyway, he has been wandering in the gray area for more than a day or two. He has been living in such an environment all year round.

I have long been accustomed to the arrangement of these things, especially saying something bad about another person in front of others. These things are no longer much different from what they used to do.

Sophia sneered.

"An Ran, don't you think it would be more reliable if I said these words in front of you?"

An Ran didn't say anything, he just shook his head helplessly.

At this time, Chen Jixiang was still a little curious.

"Sister An Ran, according to my senses, you and Sophia should have known each other for a long time. Why is there such a reaction between the two of you?"

How did you two meet? It seems that you two are also good sisters. What caused you to become like this? I really don't understand.

If there is any conflict between me and Brother Qin Yuan.

I definitely wouldn't have persisted until now.

The most important thing between the two of us is trust, especially in such a critical situation.

No one can tell, we can only bear this silently.

Under such conditions, who can be in charge?

Anyway, we are all very honored.

In this case, it is better for us to take one step at a time.

Brother Qin Yuan, he is a very persistent person.

If he was asked to make a good judgment based on this matter, most people would definitely not be satisfied.

However, it is different for us. We still hope that he can be there at the critical moment.

Think carefully about who is in your best interest.

Brother Qin Yuan is not here now. I have no one to help him make the decision regarding Jason.

This can only be left to him to decide, especially at this critical time, what can we all do to solve it?

I hope you can think it over carefully.

As long as you don't regret it, everything else doesn't matter.

I never know how to answer these questions in front of you, I just want to tell you.

We really have no better choice. I hope everyone can have a friend who will never be sentenced to death. "

Sophia heard Chen Jixiang, and this boy seemed to be hinting at something.

"Chen Jixiang, what do you mean by that? I really don't understand what you mean by never betraying one's friends? Are you saying that I betrayed my friendship with An Ran?"

"Is not it?

Sister An Ran has always regarded you as a very good friend, and she also believes in you especially since he just came to Pakistan.

No, to be precise, he believed in you very much until last night. Until this morning, Mr. Norman Karim took the special medicine and smashed it in front of us.

I have heard a saying before that it is the capitalist's milk, and I would rather throw it away than give it to others to drink.

However, Mr. Norman Karim's performance is the same as what I imagined. I would rather break it than give it to us.

Is it really just to threaten us?

Professor Fang De is an internationally renowned arms expert. Over the years, he has studied many things. He himself is also a Person Without Borders.

It is precisely because of this that each of us has a reason and responsibility to save him. I hope you can understand how to solve this matter.

The people over there were really anxious and needed this special effect to save his life.

Saving one life is better than building a seven-level pagoda.

Doesn't this sentence apply at all in Pakistan? You just let an old professor die like this, and he still has so much evidence and research in his hands.

Even if Mr. Norman Karim is detained, he will be of little use to Professor Fangde's two students, because the real core technologies are in the hands of this old professor.

Although, if the old professor's life is really in danger, his two students are the only two people in the world who can master all the research technologies during his lifetime.

Perhaps, of course, this is a lucky situation, and he can continue his research and do some new research.

We do not rule out that there may be some breakthroughs, but I think the real technology is in the hands of Professor Fang De. Are you really willing to watch him die like this?

I don't believe that a doctor studies special medicines just to make a lot of money for himself.

He should also have a heart to treat illnesses and save people.

What if, the doctor researching this special medicine knew about it.

You are actually using his research in exchange for money, and you are threatening the lives of others.

What do you think he would think? Did he feel that all of this was in vain? "

Qin Yuan was already standing behind them all at this time.

This means that he has listened to what Chen Jixiang just said.

"Good boy, what you said is really good. I never expected that you have such excellent language and expression skills."

"Brother Qin Yuan?

Why did you come out? We always thought you were sleeping in your room. "

"No, I'm just taking a rest in my room.

Moreover, I heard all the words you just said, and I think what you said makes sense.

However, they couldn't figure it out and I had already made up my mind on this issue.

Sophia, you can go back now and tell Mr. Norman Karim.

This special medicine is indeed what we need.

However, I can exchange other things with him. He doesn't always want to defeat Old K and obtain the resources he currently has.

Then, he spread his arms system to the United States, completely covering the old K underground arms trading system. "

Sofia said disapprovingly from the side.

"Yes, I have to say Qin Yuan, you are really a very smart person. What you are saying now is indeed what Mr. Norman Karim wants to do most."

"That's fine.

Professor Fang De, we really need special effects like yours to save lives, and we need them urgently.

As long as you are willing to help, I have completely thought about this matter.

We all have our own ideas on how to solve it.

As long as you are willing to help, I will leave these things to me.

I will help you find a way. Old K has always been our enemy.

Moreover, Fan Tianlei has been fighting against his low-price arms trading system for so many years.

Just think of it as being for Thor, and I will definitely help you. This can be regarded as an exchange of equal value. "

An Ran, after hearing what Qin Yuan said.

He didn't quite agree with this idea.

"Qin Yuan, I don't agree with your idea. Even if it is to help Mr. Norman Karim, we can also think of other ways. If it is to be exchanged for Old K's resources, I don't think it is worth it.

Old K, what kind of business is he in? We all know very well how many bad things his Efit has done in our country H over the years.

How many people have been harmed by these arms sales and how many wars have been caused.

We cannot turn a blind eye to all of this.

If you use this resource in exchange, it will be the death of old K.

Mr. Norman Karim will also become the new Old K. How can he guarantee that the arms resources he smuggled will not flow to our country H?

Our country does not allow such transactions to exist, but many people still want to conduct these transactions in our country even if they hold their heads high.

I don't care what others say, I just want to tell you that I am very guilty of this matter, and no one is more opposed to it than me. As long as you are willing to believe it, I can do anything.

Even if it is, to take a step back.

These arms resources will not flow to our country H. Should those innocent ordinary people in the United States bear such danger and responsibility?

We cannot turn a blind eye to the safety of other people's lives just because we want to complete a certain task.

I will never agree to this, Qin Yuan, and I hope you will never use this method to do business with them. This is indeed too inappropriate. "

Qin Yuan finished listening to what An Ran said.

How could he not understand this truth, and it also violated his own principles. He just wanted to use this method to make a fuss.

He hopes to deceive Norman Karim.

After all, Fan Tianlei's safety is more important to them now than anything else. Under such circumstances, they can only choose this way.

On the other side, Du Bingbing has been urging for special medicines. Qin Yuan doesn't know about this issue yet, but he can already guess it because Du Bingbing is a very anxious person.

The most important thing is that he has a very strong ambition. It would be reasonable for him to force An Ran to do something he doesn't want to do.

At the very least, this is his right and his privilege.

If you want to be calm, let others take risks. It is very easy to say this. As long as you don't take risks yourself, it doesn't matter.

Sophia glanced at Xiaolan who was silent.

"Xiaolan, you've heard it from the side. We've all talked so much. Do you have any opinions of your own that you'd like to express?"

Xiaolan has always pretended to be very good in front of Sophia. Generally speaking, his abilities are not as good as Sophia's, and he is still a renegade spy.

He Chenguang, has basically determined that Xiaolan's identity is the same as his.

However, according to his own professional standards, he does not allow himself to do this, and he must not expose his identity in front of others, even if they are the same person as him.

Xiaolan seemed to have been testing He Chenguang intentionally or unintentionally.

Qin Yuan, now he has to observe everyone carefully, especially with Jason's current situation.

Qin Yuan, he is not worried about anything else now. What he is most worried about is that Jason is unwilling to join Norman Karim's camp on the surface, but secretly he is the same as A Kun and A Ming.

As the saying goes, it is easy to hide from an open gun, but difficult to guard against a hidden arrow.

I'm not worried about anything else. What I'm most worried about is that the people around me are not trustworthy. If that's the case, it's better to be alone around me. At least he won't doubt himself.

There are only two people Qin Yuan trusts the most now, one is An Ran and the other is Chen Jixiang.

Chapter 2087: Another failed attempt

Qin Yuan, now that he has returned, he has been thinking that there are only a few people around him that he can trust.

Other reasons are indifferent to some people.

Every time this happens, he always hopes that An Ran and everyone can bring him some encouragement.

Jason looked at Qin Yuan. The two of them were facing each other and didn't know what to say to each other.

Qin Yuan didn't say anything, he just smiled slightly.

"Qin Yuan, they told me a lot of things just now. Now I have completely thought about it and figured it out clearly. Don't worry about what I should do next. I won't have any conflicts with you.

I have made up my mind about this matter, even though they all advised me to solve it based on these problems.

However, after thinking about it for a long time just now, I realized that many things are not as simple as we thought.

Judging from the current situation, even if you were trying to persuade me, I wouldn't be able to do this. "

"Then what are you going to do now?

Anyway, everyone should know these things, and the following questions will be very difficult.

Even after it happened, no one could figure out a solution.

When I think about this, I always feel that we all still have a lot of problems and are not very happy. If this situation continues.

No one can have a good outcome, but I hope you can think about what happened today from the bottom of your heart.

I don't mean to force you, I just want to tell you.

I give you enough freedom, as long as you are willing to make any decision for the sake of your daughter, I can understand it.

There is no betrayal or betrayal between the two of us.

At the very least, I can make myself feel at ease, and all these entanglements are enough.

If you feel any psychological discomfort, you must tell me what difficulties you have, and I have promised you to tell me about your daughter.

I will no longer regret and let you down. Regarding your daughter, we all don't want to see any special events happen, so after going through so much, we can talk about it openly.

Regarding this matter, after going through these things, I hope you can also think carefully about what you really want from me.

We can't let others sow discord in our relationship just because of trivial matters.

Now Fan Tianlei has indeed had some problems.

However, I can still assure you.

Your daughter will not be in any danger. At least, now that we have seen these situations, it is very certain that your daughter will be in any other danger.

Even if I pay compensation for my own life, I will definitely solve this matter. "

Xiaolan, after listening to Qin Yuan's words, he whispered beside him.

"Sometimes, what you say is just too easy.

Now this is an issue involving his daughter's life safety.

Although you are sincere and want to tell him that you sincerely want to protect his daughter, have you ever thought about this important issue?

In other words, if his daughter really encountered any danger.

So what if you lose your life?

I'm afraid, it will never help.

Therefore, I have realized the seriousness of these problems.

Please stop talking. There is nothing for any of us to speculate on.

You should think very clearly about these issues yourself and understand them.

If this situation continues, we can't solve anything and can only bear all this silently.

Based on the current discussion of this incident, I think it would be better for you to think carefully about what to do next.

So much has happened, and no one wants to see it in this situation.

Everyone has many difficulties that need to be solved. I hope you can think about these problems carefully. We all need to face these problems intuitively.

Mr. Noman Kalim, I have given you many promises.

However, you have never considered his ideas sincerely.

He is not trying to deceive any of you, he really wants to cooperate with you.

In fact, have you never thought about it, is this a good channel for win-win cooperation?

In fact, Mr. Noman Kalim, he has a lot of medical resources in his hands.

Saving Professor Fang De shouldn't be a big problem.

Moreover, he has just brought the special medicine, and you have all seen it.

As for the issue of Jason's daughter's congenital heart disease, for Mr. Norman Karim.

It's just a piece of cake, he won't have any concealment or difficulties.

As long as you think carefully about what you should do about this matter.

He will definitely be able to solve it for you clearly and clearly, and will not let you have any disappointed emotions or reactions.

Under such circumstances, I hope you can think about it carefully and don't give anyone a chance to make things difficult for you. "

An Ran and Chen Jixiang, they listened to what Xiaolan said.

"Xiaolan, I know you are the agent of this club.

However, this club also belongs to Mr. Norman Karim. I may put it harshly, but what qualifications do you have to dictate here? You should know what I mean. "

Xiaolan, when she heard Chen Jixiang say this, she must be dissatisfied. He felt that Chen Jixiang was just a follower, so what qualifications did he have to evaluate his status.

"Please go back and take a good look at yourself in the mirror. The place and position you are in now is not your country H.

This is Pakistan, this is the territory of Mr. Noman Karim.

He treats you as guests and hopes to take good care of you.

However, I hope you will know your identity clearly and don't give it to your own family casually, okay?

The situation here is so serious, everyone has some thoughts.

Based on our discussion on this issue, the result is already obvious. If this continues, there is nothing that any of you will do.

Therefore, these things are all waiting for us to deal with them slowly, and many of the things that can be solved are completely different from what we imagined.

Under such circumstances, we still have to figure it out.

What should I do next will be better? I hope you won't always say something that makes me uncomfortable just because you are Mr. Karim's guest.

It is true that I am not as good as An Ran and Sophia in terms of position, but I also have my own dignity.

Many times, the evaluation of a person is very objective regardless of what you want.

You all have really misunderstood me. I don't all think this way.

Please, think about it carefully, I will not give you any chance to slander me.

We all should understand what our responsibilities and obligations are in front of Mr. Noman Karim.

He has told you so much that if he wants to cooperate, you have never cared.

I just said this to you casually.

You think this matter is very serious, and it really makes me unable to accept it.

Therefore, after a lot of thinking just now, I hope you will seriously think about what I should do, right? This seems more appropriate than what you think. "

He Chenguang looked at Xiaolan, a woman who seemed a little crazy.

"You all should discuss it slowly. I'm full and want to go to the toilet."

"Where to go to the bathroom?"

"Then it depends on where you have the bathroom. You can continue to argue here. I should at least go there and calm down.

After seeing what you said, I really can't accept it, and I can't believe that I saw all of this with my own eyes. "

He Chenguang, after eating, left the hall alone and prepared to go to the bathroom. He had to calm down and think clearly about what would happen if the other party cooperated with him.

He Chenguang, he had just come to the bathroom to wash his hair and calm down, because Qin Yuan still had some doubts about him. He Chenguang felt it himself.

"Why did you follow me here?"

He Chenguang just lowered his head and was about to wash his hands when he looked up at a familiar figure in the mirror. Yes, it was Xiaolan. He followed him sneakily.

"Mr. He, I want to see what you are doing in the bathroom. I am also very interested."

"Aren't you talking nonsense to me? You must be doing some personal things when you go to the bathroom. Am I supposed to drink water and eat here?"

"I just want to tell you to think carefully about what I told you today. The two of us should cooperate well, shouldn't we?"

"I don't understand what you are talking about at all."

"We are all spies of the United States. You should already know this very well. People say that thieves have a guilty conscience. Don't you have a guilty conscience at all?"

"What do I feel guilty about? I think you are really funny. You said you are some kind of spy.

That's all you admit. What does this have to do with me?

I hope you won't drag me along to say these useless words, which are simply an insult to me.

I am a member of the special forces from country H.

Moreover, following Qin Yuan, he trusts me very much. You must not sow discord between the two of us.

If there is any negative impact on my side, I will not let you go easily. I hope you will think about it carefully and don't drag others into the water. "

Xiaolan, this woman really didn't know how to choose to be a spy.

The senior officials who chose him as a spy really had no vision at all. Do Americans only have this little sense of judgment?

Maybe, he had been with Efit for a long time.

Now he has become a love brain. He wholeheartedly wanted to live a normal life with Efit, but he did not expect that the other party would not make any promises to him and just wanted to deceive him.

Deceive him to get close to Noman Kalim, deceive him to get close to Qin Yuan.

Efit and Xiaolan have no other purpose together.

This guy just wants to take advantage of the residual value in him, but he still has no idea that he is willing to do anything for the Effie District. It is really ridiculous.

Xiaolan is also single-minded now and just wants to complete the task assigned to him by Efit. He wants to find some clues about his spy status from He Chenguang.

"No, we are both the same people. We both came here from the United States. We all shoulder our own tasks."

He Chenguang knew very well that in addition to not being able to contact Xiaolan casually, more importantly, he must not have any reaction.

He must not let anyone know that this matter has something to do with him casually.

Even before he dies, even if he dies in someone else's arms, he cannot reveal his identity. This is the most basic principle of being a spy.

"Miss Xiaolan, I don't know why you suddenly said these words in front of me like crazy.

I don't understand at all what you are trying to say or what you want to express.

What about spies?

If you really want to admit your identity, then you should go to the relevant departments of Pakistan to check it carefully.

What kind of problems do you have? Maybe if you comply in advance, they can give you leniency.

What you said in front of me makes no sense at all. Do you want me to take you back to country H? "

Xiaolan walked up to He Chenguang coyly. He was already doing everything he could to prove the identity of the other party, even if he used any method to prove that the other party was the same as him.

"American spy, you are really a person who keeps secrets very well, but only the two of us know about this matter.

Heaven knows and earth knows, you know and I know.

What if you admit it in front of me?

Do we two still need to talk about this? I have told you many times, I will not expose your identity. I just want to confirm my identity with you and then the two of us can work together. "

He Chenguang slowly turned around with blurred eyes and gently placed his right hand on Xiaolan's waist.

Xiaolan, this guy almost thought that his conspiracy was going to succeed.

He raised his head slightly, his eyes still filled with pride.

"What, do you want this method to prove that we are both the same person?"

He Chenguang, with some ambiguity in his eyes, said softly.

"Miss Xiaolan, could you please give in?"

I have washed my hands now and plan to go back to the room and have a good rest.

Don't say these weird things to me again. After I go back, I have found out that I will have a good talk with you about your identity, and I will tell Qin Yuan.

Chapter 2088: Qin Yuan: I noticed something was wrong

He Chenguang saw Xiaolan in front of him and felt that there seemed to be a lot wrong with this guy.

I don't want to have too much entanglement with him anymore.

After all, this matter is very different for him, especially at the critical moment, he doesn't want to be seen clearly by others.

Xiaolan, what kind of relationship does she have with herself?

Anyway, every time he thought about this, he would behave in some unhappy ways. Under such circumstances, he became more and more at a loss.

I can only bear it silently. In fact, when I see this Xiaolan, I always ask myself about this secret again and again.

He already felt that something was wrong.

It's just that I haven't solved this problem yet.

When he thought about this, he was generally very unhappy.

In this kind of situation, no one can explain clearly what the problem is. The more this happens, the less they like it.

Xiaolan still put her hand on He Chenguang's shoulder, not feeling particularly happy.

"I don't understand why.

I have disclosed my identity to you, don't you want to say something to me?

However, I show my full sincerity to reveal these secrets of mine to you.

Tell you, what is my true identity, we should cooperate.

He Chenguang, I know that you are very stressed about the problem of Professor Fang De and these two students.

The task given to you above should be to solve the two of them as soon as possible. No matter what, you can't let them return to country H safely, right? "

He Chenguang didn't say anything. He just smiled helplessly.

"I have to tell you, I've told you this many times, and I don't understand what you're talking about.

American spy?

Miss Xiaolan, I think you are really ridiculous. I can't understand what you are telling me. If you are really a spy sent by the United States.

I hope you'd better make it clear to the people in Pakistan as soon as possible. This may give you more benefits. If you explain your identity to them, they will definitely give you a lot of money.

Or, you can tell Mr. Norman Karim that your true identity may be able to help him deal with Old K. In this way, you no longer have to worry about your identity and will always be inferior to Sophia. "

Xiaolan still stood in front of He Chenguang.

"I don't care about these things. They are not as good as Sofia's position in front of Norman Karim. I am indeed very uncomfortable. I think I am worse than him.

If we talk about beauty, I don't think he has it. I am good-looking.

In terms of ability, I didn't get the corresponding opportunity. "

"It makes absolutely no sense for you to tell me this. Norman Karim has never said a few words to me. Do you want me to say a few nice words for you in front of him?

Let him trust you more, even more than trusting Sophia. I think your brain circuit is a little too strange, and I can't help you. "

"He Chenguang, we are not asking you to help me now. We should be helping each other. Don't you understand? Is there anything else that needs to be explained about the relationship between the two of us?"

"I really can't figure out what you want to say to me.

However, I still want to tell you not to block my way.

After a while, Qin Yuan saw that the relationship between the two of us was in a mess. He would probably write a report about me. I don't want our H country troops to have any doubts about us coming out to complete the mission.

I don't even want him to suspect that my relationship with you and other people is related to it.

Originally, we ate better and drank better here in Norman Karim, but this was considered a violation of the regulations and principles of our army.

If you continue to pester me, it will only make my future bleak, and I will not let you go. "

Xiaolan smiled and nodded.

He felt that he wanted to use a method of sowing discord to affect their relationship, which might allow him to connect with him faster.

"What about Qin Yuan?"

"Isn't he resting in the room? If you want to find him, there is no need to waste time here with me."

"Qin Yuan is a very capable person."

"Do you still need to tell me?"

"No, He Chenguang, I mean, since you are a spy of the United States, I have to tell you that you want to lurk here for a long time.

You must first let Qin Yuan always be under you before you can handle the problems between you. He is a very capable person. As long as he is still there, you will not be able to get ahead.

Could it be that since you have been with him for such a long time, you have never had any jealous behavior or mentality towards him? If he were not here, maybe Fan Tianlei would pay more attention to you.

By then, your status in Pakistan may be higher, no matter what your thoughts are, and it will also be very beneficial to your espionage activities. "

He Chenguang, after hearing this, he was indeed a little moved, but he preferred to regard Qin Yuan as his best friend, not as an opponent.

He has come to Country H for so many years, and he has never had any other thoughts. He has even regarded himself as the same person as them.

He has always lived in pain and entanglement. Now that he knows Fan Tianlei's problems, he is also a little worried, even if these things are beneficial to his mission.

"I don't know what you're talking about.

Please don't sow discord. The relationship between Qin Yuan and I has always been very good brothers. If you keep talking like this, I really don't know how to help you. "

"I don't have any other ideas, I just want to tell you.

Regarding these matters, we already have our own ideas and responsibilities.

If you don't agree, then I have nothing to say, but if you agree, we can think more.

As long as we can work together well, we don't care what other people think.

Our country, the United States, has sent so many spies, don't you have any idea of trusting me?

I don't want to lie to you anymore. After going through so many things, you should also know very well what kind of character I am.

I am not one of those with corrupt moral character, so I told you this and hope you can seriously consider it, if this is the case.

There is no point in us being together.

I still hope you can understand clearly how important this matter is to us.

Norman Karim particularly trusted Qin Yuan.

I hope that we can complete the mission well with Qin Yuan, but I must remind you of an important thing: ignore Qin Yuan.

We all have to have our own ideas and responsibilities about what he thinks about here, and he is also not a good person for Qin Yuan. "

"Miss Xiaolan, I have completely taken care of everything here.

I hope you won't waste my time anymore, okay? I don't understand what you are saying to me at all, which makes me a little bit at a loss. "

After He Chenguang finished speaking, he gently pushed Xiaolan away with his hand.

After walking out of the bathroom, he saw Qin Yuan standing outside as soon as he went out.

I don't know how long he has been here, let alone whether he heard the conversation between the two people just now.

However, He Chenguang still pretended to be calm, as if nothing had happened.

He would not admit that he just wanted to tell Qin Yuan some issues about himself.

Even if you hear something wrong, it has nothing to do with me.

"what happened?

He Chenguang, I just saw something strange about you.

I don't think there's anything wrong now, but I still need you to explain what's going on.

Why did you stay in the bathroom for such a long time? Could it be you and this Xiaolan..."

He Chenguang, after seeing Qin Yuan's doubts about him, was now a little at a loss and didn't know how to explain it. After all, they still had some ambiguous feelings in the bathroom just now.

"Qin Yuan, shouldn't you be resting in your room?

How could it happen that it suddenly appeared here? This scared me. "

"People say that if you don't do evil things, you won't be afraid of ghosts knocking on your door.

Just now, I said so many things to you, but you didn't answer me a word.

So far, I'm still hesitant.

Can't you tell me what you two are doing?

If you need my help or if you need me to explain something to you, I can understand it, but what I need more is for you two to explain it clearly to me.

What happened to all this today? I just discovered that there is a lot wrong with you two, but I have never exposed it to you.

This woman named Xiaolan is indeed very strange. In this case, I have nothing to say. I still have to remind you of many issues about him.

No one can deal with it in time, so don't say any more. The more you deal with it in this way, the more everyone can only explain that all this is unnecessary.

So, after seeing these situations happen, let's not say anything else.

You'd better hurry up and explain to me these issues about yourself.

What should we say? What did you say in the bathroom? There was no response at all for such a long time.

It seems that you should explain it to me.

Otherwise, I really may not know how to help you. I saw just now that this guy named Xiaolan is indeed a little excessive.

It seems like he said something to you that he shouldn't have said.

However, I still think that if you deal with it seriously, these may be more appropriate.

Don't give others too many chances and don't let them know something is wrong.

We only need to deal with it according to our own situation, and no one else can do so much. "

Qin Yuan asked these words very seriously.

At least, so far, they have not seen any problems or results worth solving.

The occurrence of this kind of situation is not something they are willing to discover, nor is it something they are willing to bear.

"It's better not to say so much now, we should have enough time to solve the problems we encountered just now.

Qin Yuan, I hope you don't misunderstand the relationship between me and this Xiaolan. He has indeed been pestering me. "

"What is he pestering you for?

Could it be that you want to tell me that he fell in love with you at first sight and wants to do something with you? Is it because your personality charm is too strong?

He was so relieved that he was able to get over it all at once, so much so that he even forced you to talk with you in the bathroom. In this case, I don't think it's really necessary. "

He Chenguang, faced with Qin Yuan's doubts, was a little confused now. He didn't know what he was saying, and he didn't know how to lie.

After all, if he said that it was Xiaolan who touched him just now.

Well, Xiaolan is still in the bathroom, and it would be bad if she comes out and exposes herself to her face.

However, if he doesn't say anything, it will arouse the other party's suspicion. Qin Yuan, since he has asked this, does it mean that he has noticed something?

"I don't understand what you want to say."

Qin Yuan didn't want to alert the snake now. He could only deal with this problem emotionally. He looked away, smiled slightly, and did not continue talking.

"I saw that Xiaolan is quite beautiful.

However, He Chenguang, I must remind you now that when we encounter these problems, we should still deal with what happened.

Just now, if you had any behavior with this Xiaolan in the bathroom, I think you should control your emotions.

After all, we are in Pakistan.

He is from Norman Karim. Even in our H country, I have never heard of any confidante around you, let alone coming here.

This guy is probably a beauty trap given to you by Norman Karim. In this case, I have nothing to say, I can only tell you well.

Don't let him catch you. There is no weakness. If he sees that you have any problems with this person named Xiaolan, then we all will not have a good life. "

At this moment, Xiaolan walked out of the bathroom shaking.

"Qin Yuan, you are here too. It seems that it is quite a coincidence that we can meet here.

Just now, He Chenguang had a good breakfast and then went back. Until now, we thought he was feeling uncomfortable in some way.

I saw him going to the bathroom, and I thought he was acclimatized, so I quickly chased him out to take a look. Don't misunderstand the special relationship between the two of us.

Not to mention, Norman Karim deliberately asked me to come over and involve him in some useless topics.

Chapter 2089: System repair time is coming

Qin Yuan looked at He Chenguang. The two of them must have had some questions just now, but no one had answered them so far, but he himself was unwilling to face them.

"He Chenguang, what I just said to you is from the bottom of my heart.

You must not think that I am reminding you or saying something inappropriate.

I just want to tell you that many times, some things are different from what we think.

We cannot make the decision, nor can we discuss these matters.

If you feel that something is wrong, I can only tell you that unfortunately, I have never heard of any loopholes in your handling of emotional problems before.

Because of this matter today, if others find out, I am afraid it will be difficult for all of us. In this special period, we must not let others take advantage of us. "

Of course, He Chenguang could hear that Qin Yuan was actually beating him.

He looked back at Xiaolan and smiled maliciously beside him.

"Qin Yuan, I know that there is probably no way to explain the behavior of the two of us just now, but I still want to tell you that you are different from what you thought, and you are not what you thought.

Indeed, he came over and said something to me, but we are all trapped here by Norman Karim. You should know what kind of words he would say to me without even thinking about it. "

Xiaolan said lightly with a smile beside her.

"He Chenguang, he is really a gentleman, I can assure you of this.

Just now, I offered him a lot of generous offers, but he still didn't intend to respond.

That's fine, I don't have anything to say.

I just want to tell you that there is nothing worth replying to these things for me. Qin Yuan, since you have seen it, I won't say more.

Please stop talking about this kind of question.

Under this situation, it is impossible for me to say anything to you. There is not much relationship between us. You should not continue to ask questions. This will not be good for any of us. "

After Qin Yuan looked at Xiaolan and talked for a long time, he didn't say any useful information, he just said it casually.

"Xiaolan, don't blame me for a lot of things. I also want to warn you, don't deal with other people's problems casually. You should also think carefully about what you need to do yourself."

Just when Xiaolan's expression seemed to have changed, Sophia came up from behind.

"You three, if you want to chat, you should find a better place.

Why is it at the bathroom door? Don't you think this place is inappropriate? "

An Ran came over with Sophia.

"Qin Yuan, what are you talking about here?

What happened? We were outside just now, and we seemed to hear some discussion among you. So far, there is no definite answer.

Then all of you, please don't say these words to me. If you have any problems, we will definitely help you. "

"We weren't talking about anything. Just now I saw He Chenguang and Xiaolan talking about some secret topic in the bathroom.

I'm still very interested in these things.

I also wanted to see what they were talking about, so I followed them out of curiosity, but when they arrived, neither of them wanted to speak. "

Although Sofia didn't know, the two people were secretly discussing something in the bathroom.

However, he is not particularly interested now. What he wants to know more is how to deal with the conflict between the two people.

"He Chenguang, if you two have nothing special to do, then don't talk about it here.

Follow me in quickly. We are all waiting for you over there. If there are other problems, we will deal with them. "

Qin Yuan didn't say anything, he just looked at the time.

The time for system repair is almost here.

He now wants to know whether the system has successfully repaired these vulnerabilities.

As long as he succeeds, he can immediately contact his senior management, and Fan Tianlei's matter will be resolved quickly.

In this way, he can feel more at ease and not lose some initiative by listening to others.

"An Ran, why are you here too, where is Jason? Why didn't I see him?"

"He is still under a lot of pressure now. Faced with the betrayal of his good brothers, we should also be considerate.

Let's not force him for the time being. Let us handle these matters ourselves. If he is dissatisfied with anything, we will talk about it later. "

Qin Yuan still sympathizes with Jason. After all, as his good brother, he is already in such serious condition.

He also faced betrayal from many people.

In this situation, he himself didn't know how to comfort the other person, which would be better.

It's just that the pressure from the other party is indeed great.

I was also a little panicked, and I didn't know what to think.

If Qin Yuan were to handle it alone, he would definitely want to get married, and all the good brothers around him would follow him, and no one would betray him.

However, he is not in a good mood now. Qin Yuan is afraid that if he gets married after such a trivial matter, he will have some disgusting emotions and psychology towards this matter.

will affect their relationship.

However, after thinking about it again, he felt that the words he just said were the most benevolent and righteous words, and they were all from the heart.

Even if he chooses to follow his good brother and seek refuge with Norman Karim, Qin Yuan will not say anything.

It's just that he did it out of a moral high ground.

He was just embarrassed to betray himself. Every time Qin Yuan thought about this, he felt very uncomfortable. After all, there were too many things that could be delayed.

If all of them don't seize this good opportunity, it will really make people feel a little regretful.

"An Ran, how was Jason's mood when you came out just now?"

"Qin Yuan, why do you ask like this? Do you still have some distrust in him? According to my principle of experienced people.

I just want to tell you, if you really don't have too much trust in a person.

Then, even if he stays with you, there is no point in it. You might as well let him leave here quickly, which may also be a good choice. "

"You really misunderstood, An Ran, that's not what I meant. I just wanted to say that I have been out for such a long time, so I should understand his mood and thoughts and see how he feels.

Facing Akun and Amin's betrayal, he must feel very uncomfortable. Let him rest for a while and give him some time to think about it again. "

Chen Jixiang was sitting next to him. He and Jason were the only ones here, looking at each other.

"Jason, why don't you go back and rest first? We are all taking care of things here, so you don't have to think too much."

"Chen Jixiang, how can I not consider it?

Now, Qin Yuan still has relatively little trust in me. Every time I think about this, I feel very sad. I hope to gain his special trust, but in fact, something seems to be contrary to my wishes. "

"Jason, the topics you mentioned just now are indeed very touching, but we still have some other ideas. I say this, so don't be unhappy."

"It doesn't matter, there are only two of us here, Qin Yuan and An Ran. If they are not around, just say whatever you want.

Perhaps, I have already anticipated what you are going to tell me, and I will not be unhappy. "

"Okay, Jason.

I can understand that the relationship between you and Brother Qin Yuan is very good, and you are also my brothers. I am not qualified to tell you what to do.

However, many problems are completely different from what we imagined.

I also want to remind you that you should seriously consider these things.

If you really don't want to betray your good brother, then there is no other better way. We can only wait until this problem is completely resolved before we talk. "

"What else is there to say?

It would be great if the things we are encountering now can be solved.

You see, we are all trapped here by Mr. Norman Katim. All things and tasks have reached a point where there is no way to solve them, and we are not willing to face such a situation.

Just like Qin Yuan, a smart person like him has no way to solve this problem, so what can ordinary people like us do. "

"Of course this is not the case. We have many solutions for things that cannot be solved. Everyone has some plans on how to deal with these problems.

Moreover, I hope you will think about it carefully and don't make everyone unhappy because of such a trivial matter.

If you really can't let go of your two good brothers, then you'd better leave quickly. Brother Qin Yuan and Sister An Ran will not blame you. After all, this is something they agreed to. "

Jason stood up slowly after listening.

He walked up to Chen Jixiang and patted his shoulder gently.

"Boy, look at me, I'm already this old and have been hanging out for so many years. Do you really think that I would betray my good brother over a trivial matter?

It would be really stupid to do so.

I will not do such a stupid thing, and I also want to remind you that based on the various situations I have learned now, they should not let us leave easily.

So, when Qin Yuan comes back, don't say anything about letting me go again.

He should also be very reluctant to let go of my good brother.

Don't tell me that I am a very self-righteous person.

In fact, this is also the case. Let's all think about it seriously and don't waste a lot of regular time because of mutual suspicion between us. By then, the gain will outweigh the loss. "

Just as the two of them were talking, Qin Yuan had already walked back from outside and saw Jason standing in front of Chen Jixiang, patting him gently on the shoulder.

"What are you two talking about here?"

Everyone had gone out just now, and you two were the only ones left here. "

"Brother Qin Yuan, we did talk a lot about this topic just now, but if you still want to clarify something, I will test it for you again, Jason."

"Oh? What are you trying to do, you brat? What did you say to Jason again?"

"No, Qin Yuan, please don't misunderstand, Chen Jixiang didn't say anything to me.

He is truly your little friend. He will consider you first in everything, so you should be able to think clearly about what he was discussing with me just now. "

"Then what are you going to do next?"

"I don't have any other thoughts. I just want to make peace with it now."

At this time, Sophia reminded casually from the side.

"Qin Yuan, I have to say, sometimes I really admire you, you can always have such a peaceful mentality.

Not to mention, your mission has been out for a long time, so you must hurry up and complete it.

The most important thing is, I think you should think carefully about Professor Fang De. Others can wait, but he can't wait.

People say that if the King of Hell wants you to die at the third watch, who dares to keep someone alive until the fifth watch?

It is indeed inappropriate for me to say this, it seems a bit like cursing other people's thoughts, but I have to tell you.

Professor Fang De, he is a rare expert and talent in arms manufacturing.

If he dies, I dare not tell the whole world. Even the people we know around us may not have any ideas that can appear again.

Are you really willing to watch such a powerful expert die without the help of special medicines? "

"Now, are you going to use this matter to tease us?"

"I'm sorry, Qin Yuan, don't be anxious yet.

We have all discussed this matter for such a long time, and we all know how to handle it next.

Then you shouldn't take this problem so seriously to your heart. "

"Miss Sophia, ever since the two of us met, until now, I have always thought of you as a very extraordinary girl. But you said these words today, which really makes me very sad. Uncomfortable.

At the beginning, I told you some topics about this before, but you were still unwilling to answer me.

You have been threatening me with the issue of Professor Fang De's special medicine.

Maybe you don't know much about my temper. What I hate most is being threatened by others.

If you keep talking like this, then I really don't know how to answer you.

I will have my own solution. I don't need you to come here to remind me, and I don't need you to threaten me. I hope you will think it over carefully.

"Everyone should take care of themselves and no one should make things difficult for anyone. I think this is the most important thing."

After Qin Yuan finished speaking, he was ready to turn around and go back to his room first.

Because, he has already felt that the repair of the system seems to be almost complete.

Chapter 2090: obsessive

Qin Yuan looked at An Ran and suddenly felt a little distressed.

He knew that the pressure this girl had been under recently was too much, and he was not able to handle these things alone.

It requires everyone's cooperation and arrangements to handle it well. After all, Fan Tianlei's affairs are more important to them now than anything else.

So, Qin Yuan turned around and said softly An Ran.

"An Ran, we were together last night and you didn't sleep the whole time. If there are no other problems, you should go back and rest first.

Mr. Norman Karim has also been here in the morning, and he probably won't come again today.

Or, he would come with us for dinner in the evening and continue to discuss how we can cooperate with him.

However, we have not thought about these things well, and we hope that Miss Sophia, you can go back and tell Mr. Norman Karim not to come here again in a short time.

On our side, after we have considered it, we will take the initiative to find him. If we do not find him, it means that we have not considered it well.

Moreover, he is not in a hurry. He is a very busy person and should be in a hurry.

But the two of us don't have any other ideas about these. We just hope that everyone can think about it calmly.

I don't have any time. Many times this is definitely not a good idea or result for us.

At least, that's not what we think,

We all have a lot of fantastic ideas, and we hope that he can seriously consider these things, even after such a long time of strategizing.

Mr. Norman Karim doesn't seem to know us particularly well.

Therefore, please give him some time to think carefully about how we should cooperate. Maybe he will think about it after a few days.

Maybe, you will feel that this idea between us can be reacquainted, and it may be more appropriate to give each other more opportunities and time.

Although I said this, I also hope you can help me convey it. After all, this is not something I can make the decision on my own. "

Before An Ran could answer, Sophia said with a smile beside her.

"Qin Yuan, what you just said, I have a very clear understanding and plan in my heart.

However, I also want to tell you that in many cases, we are not able to do what we think, and I alone have no say.

You should ask Mr. Norman Karim as to how it should be implemented specifically. I have no way of making the decision. "

"Sofia, you have been here for so long and none of us would believe you if you said you had no rights over Mr. Norman Karim.

As long as you are willing to say a few nice words for us in front of him, we will definitely get a good result. "

"Enron, people say that if there is no profit, you can't afford it early.

It's not like I haven't considered what you just said, but it's still a big challenge for me.

Because Mr. Norman Karim has given me more benefits, if I help you speak in front of him.

He may think that I want to deal with him alone with you.

In this case, I think it is not very good for me. "

"Is there anything else you want to say?"

"There's nothing more. That's all I can think of. Miss Sophia, if you are not willing to help, we can accept that everyone is in trouble.

An Ran, he needs to go back to rest now. If there are no other problems, let him go back to rest first. Let's talk about it after he has rested. "

Chen Jixiang, this kid looked at An Ran's face from the side, and it seemed that he was really not well, and he was also a little worried.

"Sister An Ran, I saw that your face looked a little blue just now."

"Really?"

"That's true. Maybe girls are more concerned about their appearance, so you must not feel unhappy when I tell you this."

"You silly boy, I don't care about this. I just want to say that you don't have to worry about me. Maybe it's because I didn't sleep well last night."

Just go back and take a rest in a while. Mr. Norman Karim has already discussed the issue of special medicine today, and he also gave me a warning.

In this case, Sofia, you probably have nothing else to tell us, in which case we will leave. "

Sofia looked at these people and was a little too persistent.

"Qin Yuan, I advise you to think about it carefully. If you really want to leave here quickly, stop doing the right thing with us."

Qin Yuan looked at Sophia with a smile, he had nothing to say now.

Just like that, Sophia didn't want to get entangled with them anymore. Just now, he suddenly remembered that these people seemed to be talking about something at the bathroom door.

"Xiaolan, when He Chenguang went to the bathroom just now, did you say anything to him?"

"No, why do you ask that?"

"I saw you sneaking behind him and following him furtively as soon as he went to the bathroom. Can you really guarantee me that nothing happened to you in the bathroom?"

Xiaolan looked back at He Chenguang.

"No, Xiaolan, she just followed me to the bathroom and wanted to ask if I was feeling uncomfortable. Suddenly she went to the bathroom and had a good meal.

He thought that I was acclimatized and that my health might not be very good here, and he was afraid that I might suffer from nausea and vomiting.

After seeing that nothing happened, he came back without saying anything to me.

You don't have to worry too much. The most important thing is that there is really no inappropriate relationship between the two of us.

How could someone we just met yesterday develop into an inappropriate relationship?

None of us are open-minded people, you should be able to understand.

What's more, we in the H country army must be strictly disciplined and should accept investigation and supervision from above. Even if he has any ideas, I have to take care of myself.

If nothing unexpected happens to the two of us, please stop talking like this.

It will only cause some great difficulties for all of us, and it will seem like an insult to others. "

He Chenguang actually helped Xiaolan to catch someone off guard.

Xiaolan, after hearing these words, he was very happy, and even thought that his opportunity had come. If he waited any longer, he would soon be able to convince the person in front of him.

Sophia walked to Qin Yuan and said to him softly.

"You should already know about Fan Tianlei's matter. How are you going to solve it? He is your best superior, and he is very tolerant of you.

Suppose, if he has any problems, your status in the army will not be as good as before. I don't want to sow discord, I just want to remind you.

I hope you can distinguish between reality and current problems, and don't make people think there is anything incredible. "

"He Chenguang, Fan Tianlei has indeed had some problems recently.

None of us know how to answer it better. If, indeed, there are other questions, I still hope that we can talk about it carefully. "

"Qin Yuan, please stop saying that. I don't think there's anything wrong. I'm just more curious about what should be done about these things.

Fan Tianlei, no one wants to see that we are caught by others because of our loopholes. If this is the case, then we can only find a solution ourselves. "

Chen Jixiang is also very worried about Fan Tianlei, but his child has no status.

I can only stand by and watch their ideas, but there is no way to realize them.

"Then what do you plan to do next?"

"I don't know if there are any good ideas. As long as there is a good way, we will definitely do it, but the problem now is that everyone is in trouble because of this matter.

Instructor Gong Jian has now become our direct superior. If you have any questions, you can go to him directly. "

An Ran was very nervous next to him because he received another urging from Du Bingbing.

"What's wrong? An Ran?"

Qin Yuan was a very observant person, and he saw An Ran's expression change drastically.

"nothing."

Sophia said mockingly from the side.

"How can you say it's nothing? I saw An Ran just now. Your face became so serious only after you received some news.

You don't need to guess, it should be your side urging you to get the special medicine as soon as possible.

Professor Fang, he can't hold on for a few more days. If his condition worsens, none of you can help him. "

Qin Yuan turned his head and looked at it. This was an unprecedented challenge for him, and he himself had never thought about how this could be the result.

"Did Du Bingbing rush you again?"

"It's not a push, he's just describing the facts to me. This task has been given to me. If Professor Fang does anything wrong, all of us may be dead.

You must not cause anything to happen to him, otherwise, these two students will become the only condition.

Now, we can also choose not to take these two people back. If Professor Fang really dies, all his research will be encrypted.

Perhaps, only his two students can solve it.

These two people became very important. At that time, we were strangled by Mr. Norman Karim's throat. We had to do whatever he wanted us to do.

Otherwise, it is impossible for these people to come back safely, and we all have many difficulties, even though we are unwilling to cooperate with him.

However, if we are really forced to do anything, there is nothing we can do.

If it doesn't work, we can only ask our superiors for some special actions and behaviors. Only after these problems are solved can we all feel at ease.

Don't worry about others following us, but we can't let Professor Fang De just like this. "

Qin Yuan knew that An Ran was just trying to comfort himself.

"Give me Du Bingbing's contact information and I will tell him personally.

Don't always stand and talk without back pain, just know how to stand on a high place and force others. It is not easy for all of us to complete tasks outside.

If you keep listening to him, I'm afraid you won't be able to accomplish anything.

Don't let him do these things where laymen guide experts. We know how to do our tasks ourselves and don't need him to urge or remind us.

Others used chicken feathers as arrows and told him that this matter would not work here.

An Ran, since he has arrived in Pakistan, it means that he is with all of us, and his mission should be under my command and control.

It has nothing to do with him, so don't let him take this opportunity to force you.

The relationship between you two has always been relatively subtle, and we should all handle it carefully. After so many things and tests, we have all been able to fully understand it.

Whatever you do is the best result.

However, none of us can quickly solve these problems now.

You should know it well, if there is anything unhappy about it again.

I'm afraid everyone will be nervous.

Therefore, it is better for us to think about these things slowly.

It is An Ran who is delaying me now. Please give me Du Bingbing's contact information so that I can talk to him properly. It is also time to let him know.

Don't always take yourself too seriously. We just don't want to care about many things with him.

If this guy keeps talking like this, don't blame us for being rude to him.

What happened to these guys was what made him so proud.

If the few of us really complete the task, wouldn't it all be his credit?

In the past, when I was in the army, I didn't realize that he was such a person.

All I know is that he is a very cold and ruthless person.

I didn't expect that he would use such despicable means to force you to complete the task and help him get promoted.

He is really a woman with a vicious heart.

No wonder he was able to get to where he is today in such a short period of time and does things so unscrupulously. Who can compare to him who has no bottom line. "

An Ran heard that Qin Yuan had been speaking for him, and he must be very happy in his heart. At least, with Qin Yuan, he was facing himself and not Du Bingbing, which was satisfying to him.

Sofia said casually beside her.

"Qin Yuan, I have to admit that you are really a very charming guy.

I am really impressed that such a powerful girl like An Ran can sacrifice so much for you.

As for Du Bingbing's treatment of An Ran, it must have something to do with you. Both of them have other ideas about you.

Just don't do something like this that makes two women obsessed with you.
