

Special Soldier 2091

Chapter 2091: There seems to be some special feelings

Qin Yuan, after hearing what everyone said, he didn't have any other feelings.

He has never recognized his own charm, and he doesn't even think about how many people he can win.

However, this is not important to him, he just hopes.

Being able to quickly complete this task and return to country H is the task he wants to complete most now.

"I don't quite understand what you guys think. I just want to hear what you have to say."

"Miss Sophia, there is no need for you to continue to pester us.

The attitudes of Qin Yuan and An Ran were already very obvious.

Even if it is Norman Karim first, let him come in person to take advantage of Akun and Amin's betrayal.

Saying these words to me is completely unimportant to me.

You should know very well in your heart that I don't care about this, and I don't want to know this.

Therefore, many things are completely unnecessary for me. You should stop pestering me. I have already said so much.

We are all very tired and exhausted.

Just give up immediately, sow discord between us, and give Qin Yuan some time.

Let him think about it carefully, and if he really thinks there is no problem, he will be willing to stay with you.

However, if he has a problem with this matter, he will never join in with you.

Of course, I know that the question and the word collusion may not be particularly suitable for you, but I still hope you can understand what I mean.

There are so many things, and we don't know what would be a better answer to you now.

At least, a lot of things make absolutely no sense to me.

If you continue like this, then all of us can only look at the problems in front of us with peace of mind, but this is not a good result for us after all.

I don't want to care whether so many behaviors are reasonable or not.

I just want to tell you, Mr. Noman Kalim, he is a very smart man to be able to do what he is today.

Moreover, we have already solved all the problems he foresees for him.

He also knows very well in his heart that none of us care about the rest, as long as you can solve this problem perfectly.

Qin Yuan himself thinks it's okay, and he will do it without your persuasion. Wait, if he thinks it's not okay, it won't make sense no matter how much you say. "

After Qin Yuan listened to Jason say so many words, he did not express any other opinions.

Sophia is a very smart person.

Seeing that the people in front of him had already said so much, there was no need for him to continue talking.

He just said it slightly sarcastically from the side.

"Jason, sometimes I really can't imagine that being betrayed by others can lead to so much experience. I really admire you to the extreme.

Akun and Amin, these two people have encountered these problems now.

Everyone can know what is going on.

If that's the case, then don't dwell on this matter anymore. I've already accepted it with you many times.

Your two men, A Kun and A Ming, are not talented people.

Moreover, they are not reliable people. If this is the case, then you should stop talking. This is really meaningless. "

He Chenguang sneered from the side and said.

"Miss Sophia, people say that when you drink water, you know whether it is warm or cold.

After all, Akun and Amin have been with Jason for so many years. No one knows what kind of people they are like better than Jason.

Although, they have now joined Mr. Norman Karim.

However, I think if you are just naive and look at them with the eyes of a traitor.

It doesn't seem appropriate. After all, you know the people around you best. If you don't know anything, don't talk nonsense.

Let everyone feel that you are a very inarticulate person.

By then, if everyone has any misunderstandings, I'm afraid there will be no way to resolve them quickly.

This matter is not easy for any of us. "

He Chenguang suddenly hurt Sophia with some words, which made Xiaolan next to him very happy. He thought that the other party did this because of him.

"He Chenguang, I just thought that you were a person who didn't like to talk much. Maybe you have been with Qin Yuan for too long, and his brilliance has already covered you up."

"Don't ever say that to me. I didn't think Qin Yuan had any kind of brilliance that covered me up.

Each of us has our own unique place.

The friendship between us boys is different from that of you girls.

If you girls engage in female rivalry, then everything between us boys is a very real brotherly relationship. Don't say so much and make everyone unhappy.

Because we all know very well that this matter is more important to us than anything else.

I just hope that you can comment more after understanding this.

Otherwise, none of us would be able to agree with what the other person said.

Now that these issues are like this, then I have nothing to say. As long as you are willing, then we all naturally want to talk to you about this casually.

If not, then we can only deal with it in obscurity.

Mr. Norman Kalim, it is true that special medicine is coming to threaten the safety of our Professor Fang.

None of us have ever denied this.

I don't think he did anything wrong. If we think about it from another angle, we will handle it in this way, so we don't blame anyone. "

Chen Jixiang, after hearing these words, couldn't help but nod beside him. He always thought that He Chenguang was an unreliable guy, but he didn't expect that he was really extraordinary.

Qin Yuan stood there without saying anything. He just took out his mobile phone and checked the time.

"I took a quick look just now and found that the time has almost passed, so I have nothing to explain.

Sophia, I know that even if you are not paying attention to Mr. Norman Karim, you have given us these anticipated questions.

We all have nothing to explain. I know exactly why you did this.

However, I still have to tell you. "

"Qin Yuan, if you want to say that, then I am really interested. I also want to know about the best people from H country, the special forces.

What kind of earth-shattering things can be done on our territory?

Mr. Norman Karim's ability is very strong, and his energy is also very powerful.

We have a lot of resources in our hands. If he really won't let go of you, you should know very well that you have no excuse.

So, it's better to just give up on this matter and don't let all of us have anything to do with it. "

Sophia said these words triumphantly. He seemed to have determined that he had control of all the resources and channels, as long as Qin Yuan was unwilling to surrender and surrender.

It is absolutely impossible for them to let the other party get anything related to special medicine.

If he really thinks this way, he really underestimates Qin Yuan's abilities and methods.

An Ran looked at Qin Yuan from the side. He was very tired now and knew that everyone had not rested all night.

"You go back and rest first."

"You shouldn't say that now. You should be the one who should go back and rest, An Ran, because we have paid so much, and many things are not expected, and we can see it.

We did have a lot of entanglements and questions just now, but after dealing with so many things, everyone is relieved.

If you are still dissatisfied with anything, you have to tell us in time.

We will not let you have any thoughts of grievance. Under this situation, as long as I can do it, I will not make you feel unhappy. "

After Qin Yuan finished speaking, he looked back and glanced at Jason.

Jason understood immediately, the unspoken feeling between good brothers.

"Qin Yuan, according to the relationship between the two of us, you should stop saying these things. You have already said what you should say to me, and I don't really care about these things.

I have told you the truest thoughts in my heart.

A Kun and A Ming indeed have their own choices.

And I'm the same as them, I have my own choices they want to choose, and there's nothing wrong with following Mr. Norman Karim.

I want to choose to follow you, and there's nothing wrong with that.

I know that you will use all your thoughts and abilities to help me save my daughter, and that is enough, Mr. Norman Karim.

He does have a lot of resources, but Fan Tianlei will definitely help us.

After all, he didn't serve as chief of staff for so many years in vain.

I believe that you will give everything for me, and that very mysterious and powerful woman.

Du Bingbing, since he can control all this behind the scenes.

That is enough to show that these things are under his control, and he is definitely not an ordinary person. I am very relieved about the arrangement between you. "

An Ran was really completely moved by Jason's words. He never expected that the other party could actually say these exciting words.

"Jason, I'm really embarrassing you. I know that your daughter has congenital heart disease. I didn't even know you had a daughter before. I really don't deserve to be friends with you."

"An Ran, Qin Yuan.

You two must not feel that you are sorry for me in any way.

You have all paid enough for me. Now I choose to stand on the same front with you. It is my own opinions and thoughts that no one can change.

If that's the case, you don't need to persuade me anymore.

After going through these problems, I have been able to fully understand what I should do.

In the first half of my life, I may have been running for survival and escaping for the sake of escaping.

However, the second half of my life will be different. I hope that I can do something I like upright, even if Lao K is threatening me behind my back. "

Sophia seemed to have grasped something again.

"Jason, it's because we know that you used to be together with Old K. That's why I advise you now. You should know very well what kind of person he is.

He is a ruthless person, and under his training, Efit has turned into a cunning and disappointing killer.

He will not let you go easily, including your daughter.

But do you think he would give it to you if he has a lot of resources at his disposal?

The United States has very advanced medical resources.

Part of it is in the hands of Norman Karim, and the other part is in the hands of old K. Once you have offended these two people, do you want to drive your daughter to a dead end? "

An Ran walked to Sophia with a smile.

Sophia tilted her head and her eyes moved for a moment, as if the subtext was, again, I am the kind of person who can do anything to me.

An Ran didn't say anything, He directly stretched out his right hand, raised it high and slapped Sophia **** the face.

Sophia has now been completely fooled by An Ran.

Including Qin Yuan and Jason, who were watching this situation from the side, they were completely confused. On the surface, An Ran had always been a gentle girl.

Why was he so angry all of a sudden? He even slapped him hard regardless of his own image.

Sophia was not very angry. Instead, he smiled and turned the other side of his face to An Ran.

"What do you mean?"

"An Ran, good fight. When I saw you reaching out to hit me just now, I was really surprised. It seemed that the girl with the personality I knew was back again, instead of seeking perfection for others.

You have already paid too much for Qin Yuan, and just now you were able to let me see that you have a little bit of blood.

Don't turn yourself into a canary at the mercy of others. Don't you want to hit me? Are you satisfied with me sticking out the other side of my face and spanking it for you? "

An Ran stared at Sophia closely and just said a few words lightly.

"You are really hopeless."

Qin Yuan was very confused next to him. He saw that the relationship between An Ran and Sophia seemed to be very special. What he didn't understand even more was.

What is the relationship between these two people, and why do they always seem to be entangled.

Chen Jixiang said softly and hesitantly beside him.

"Sister An Ran, the relationship between the two of you is really mind-boggling, and it still makes people very uncomfortable. I don't know why, but if you two weren't both girls, I would have doubted you two. There is some kind of special feeling between them."

Chapter 2092: An Ran, no one will force you anymore

Qin Yuan is very confused now. He knows that Norman Karim will not let them go easily. He must think of other ways now.

However, these methods may not necessarily have a good result in his mind.

Now, there are only two people he can turn to, one is Efit, who is also his old rival, and the other is Hassan.

But it is still unknown whether Hassan has walked out of the unfinished building in the deep mountains and forests. Even if Deng Chao believed that he had such ability, he did not see him in person.

I still don't know what kind of accident will happen.

After all, there were a lot of wild beasts there. If they were really attacked by wild beasts, Qin Yuan might be partly responsible.

He was still a little worried and felt very guilty about this matter.

When Chen Jixiang saw Qin Yuan, he felt very sad now, and he couldn't help but feel at a loss when he was around.

"What happened to brother Qin Yuan?"

Why have you become so serious all of a sudden? Are you forgetting something? "

"I'm thinking about Hassan."

"Huh? What do you want him to do? This guy wants to deceive us and bring us all into this deep mountain and old forest, and he also traps us there."

After Jason thought of this incident, he felt very sad.

He Chenguang was also beside him, continuing Jason's words.

"Yes, he locked us up in a shabby building and wanted to use this method of mental torture to make us succumb to him.

This is not an aboveboard method at all.

Even if he is in any danger, he has brought it upon himself and suffered the consequences. "

Qin Yuan shook his head helplessly.

"You all should stop talking so much, Hassan. He doesn't know what the consequences will be. He committed suicide. I and he shouldn't have done this, but we are also the cause of all this."

Chen Jixiang recalled that when they first docked, he ran away early and was hiding on the shore.

As for Qin Yuan, they were taken away by Hassan.

Chen Jixiang was very nervous at the time. He was thinking about what he should do if they really couldn't contact Qin Yuan.

And what kind of method can we use to get to them?

This is a very philosophical question anyway, at least, it is not so easy to solve in their eyes.

After An Ran listened to their descriptions, there were some colleagues Qin Yuan beside him, who told them about their experiences and encounters.

"Qin Yuan, what I heard you say just now makes me a little worried now.

Hassan is already a very experienced guy. It is still unknown whether he served as a spy in our Country H, and part of it is just our guess. "

"So, haven't we invaded the spy system before?

After checking his past experience, there are some things that may be related to this spy system.

However, nothing good has come out, and most of the results are our own guesses.

No one dares to say that this matter must exist or not exist until it is official. We should rely on evidence in everything we do.

Hassan's meaning is very obvious. He hopes that we will not interfere in this matter.

He believed that it was related to the series of questions they asked me. If we all continue to investigate, it is very likely that they will cause some public outrage.

Of course, this is not the result they want, and it is not the result we want.

We just hope that we can quickly investigate where the two students, Professor Fang, are. I don't want to participate in anything else.

As for the underlying trading system, Fan Tianlei has followed it for so many years. Until he gives orders, everything can only be his private actions.

Although we regard Fan Tianlei as a good comrade, brother and superior, if he wants to use us to investigate some private topics of interest to him.

That is absolutely impossible, and it violates some of the principles and methods of our army.

Many people are unwilling to accept it. Under this situation, we have nothing to say and can only bear it silently before our eyes.

After going through these things, there is only so much we can do and say. Fan Tianlei, he has already been investigated by his superiors because of our affairs.

Therefore, these matters can only be handled according to our own ideas and principles.

No matter what unexpected situation happens, no one will be responsible.

At least, before this trouble started, we were no longer qualified to ask Fan Tianlei what the outcome would be.

If he doesn't want to answer, that's his business.

If he is really willing to answer us, he will naturally be happy and willing to help her do many things.

However, Fan Tianlei now has no way to give us orders directly.

We can only bear this silently. Mr. Norman Karim has arrived just now. I always feel that being caught in Tianlei has something to do with him that he can't seem to explain.

However, this is not important to us now. The most important thing is to quickly find a way to save Fan Tianlei.

It is absolutely impossible for him to bear all this for us in prison alone like what we encountered before. That is impossible.

I, Qin Yuan, am not that kind of person at all, and I dare to act alone.

Now that I've done it, I won't let everyone carry it for me. After knowing so many problems, I also understand that Fan Tianlei has indeed endured too much for us.

I shouldn't let him continue like this, so after thinking about these issues until now, we have nothing to argue about and can only consider them in our own way.

As long as everything is enough to save Fan Tianlei, no matter what the price is, I will be willing to pay.

I know Thor has been very good to us.

Even if he is willing to pay so much for us, I absolutely cannot do this.

We must not put all the responsibility on him alone. This is an unfair act, and we cannot do such a thing.

Therefore, after thinking about it, I now understand very clearly that only when the problem of the spy system is settled can we save Fan Tianlei.

Otherwise this is all just empty theory.

He will not agree to it or consider it, but until all the problems are solved, we can only watch it all.

We don't know what the top management thinks about matters, and we don't know that we are just some unknown people who follow their arrangements.

Even though each of us has our own abilities, there is still room for us to use them even if we are not reused by our superiors.

Now, after telling you so much, I hope you will be able to understand most clearly how we should solve this problem. Fan Tianlei is not willing to face it.

And no matter how the organization presses him, he will not betray this about us.

After much thought, I strongly believe that only we ourselves can solve these problems. Relying on others will not work after all. "

An Ran, after hearing what Qin Yuan said, he now feels more at ease in his heart. At least this is trustworthy for him.

"Qin Yuan, now I finally understand that you have paid so much for the God of Thunder.

We all have a common goal and regard her as our good friend and brother. If this is the case, then we have nothing to say. Only by solving this problem can we rest assured. "

An Ran looked at Qin Yuan with a smile. He knew that as long as Qin Yuan was by his side, he was very relieved and he didn't need to worry about anything.

"I've known it for a long time. In fact, you have been under a lot of pressure recently.

Pakistan is indeed a mixed place, but it is completely different from what we imagined, and this is not the reason for us to be proud of it.

Country H, since they sent us out, they must not do anything embarrassing. Now Mr. Nokari is looking at us like this.

Suppose that we really agreed to join Mr. Norman Karim's camp when he betrayed our country H in this operation.

That really shocked everyone, and even made us, country H, embarrassed in front of the entire world.

Thor is really so disappointed in us. We have no hope at all. I don't want him to have such a result in our hearts.

Chen Jixiang, He Chenguang.

I can guarantee here today that even I, Qin Yuan, am not in any danger to myself.

I will never put you in danger. Once this problem is not solved, none of us will think about it.

However, I will definitely give you a good idea once it is resolved.

At least, it's definitely not that simple in my mind.

I have already described it to you at the beginning, and none of us are willing to see it. We can't do anything until the purpose is solved. "

Chen Jixiang, this kid is so excited by Qin Yuan that he doesn't care so much. He only cares about whether he is really facing all these troubles.

"Brother Qin Yuan, I really didn't know anything about the Thunder God before you told me. Now that you have told me, I really understand that we have endured so much alone.

All this is because who can do anything if it is not you.

Anyway, we all know and understand what the problem is by now. We can already clearly understand why Fan Tianlei was arrested.

It seems that the superiors will not release him until they find out.

Moreover, this matter has a lot to do with us. At least in our hearts, it still has a big problem with us because we are too impulsive.

Of course, don't blame yourself too much. "

He Chenguang, although he is a spy for the United States, he and Thor have been together for so many years, and they still have some feelings for each other.

"Qin Yuan, please don't tell me these words."

"Then what is this for? I have told you many times, but you have never taken what I said to heart. But so far today, we have been able to get what we wanted.

Thor, although he was arrested, they did reveal a little bit of information about us, including the fact that we came out to complete the mission this time. Many people don't know, but Thor knows.

Instructor Gong Jian is now our liaison officer in Leishen. Before he is released, everything must be left to us to contact him. "

Chen Jixiang shook his head helplessly after hearing this.

Sophia and Xiaolan were nearby, watching them discuss things in the army.

"Qin Yuan, how dare you keep Mr. Norman Karim's people here discussing your secret missions. It seems that you really don't care about us. Is it Ruowuwu?"

Qin Yuan looked at Sophia with a smile.

"To be honest, you are nothing in my heart, and you are just Norman Karim's lackeys. Although these words are a bit unpleasant, I know that they should not be used to describe you girls.

It's just that you know better than anyone else what you have done. The reason why we were all in such trouble just now is because you have been forcing Anron behind his back. "

An Ran was very moved when he heard what Qin Yuan said.

"Qin Yuan, you..."

"Even if we don't say anything, we can still have a tacit understanding. I can understand that they have been forcing you with the special medicine. I will call Du Bingbing soon."

"Why are you calling Du Bingbing? Should you contact him in person? Or you should be concerned about other issues. If you don't understand anything, you can ask the instructor directly."

"No, An Ran, don't worry, I absolutely cannot let Du Bingbing continue to force you to ask about Professor Fangde's physical condition, and let him force you to help her all the time.

In fact, you should have told me about this a long time ago. Don't be afraid. I will do something that violates my inner principles because I am anxious. I am not such a person.

There has always been a bottom line in my heart. As long as I don't break through this bottom line, I can do anything, but betrayal is my bottom line.

Don't worry, no matter how difficult our mission is to complete, even if the mission fails, I will never join Norman Karim's camp just to save anyone.

I don't want to become the second He Fei.

Although he can now do anything he wants here with his hands and eyes wide open, I think he still misses the special forces soldier in the H country army.

Even if he doesn't have any special rights, even if he may be squeezed by his superiors, that period is still a time he can never go back to, no matter how much money he has now.

Those can only become some beautiful memories in his heart. "

Chapter 2093: No one can command me, Qin Yuan

They all know Qin Yuan's temper very well.

As long as he said that he was dissatisfied with something, they could all watch from the sidelines, and no one dared to study what should be done about these problems.

However, at least for them, it is not a good solution. In their eyes, many things are relatively difficult.

Especially at this critical time, amid the issues that all of them are confused about.

Qin Yuan himself didn't know how to deal with it, which was the most appropriate thing.

Until now, this is still a bit too difficult for him, and he has not figured out what to do specifically.

"I thought a lot just now. No one knows how to deal with the problems we are encountering now.

Mr. Noman Kalim also gave us some time to deal with these issues clearly.

However, this is definitely not that simple for me.

First of all, it is impossible for me to betray Fan Tianlei. I hope you can understand clearly. Secondly, I will not betray my own heart and principles.

Over the years, I have had many opportunities to make a fortune and move up in the Army of Country H, but I can tell you calmly.

Many things have nothing to do with financial interests at all.

As long as you don't violate your own conscience, it's okay. Therefore, after I have thought so much, I must also make you understand that the current matter must be explained clearly to Mr. Norman Karim.

I want to have a good talk with him, not with any reason, but with this idea. "

Chen Jixiang must have some thoughts in his heart about what Qin Yuan said, but for many things, he just needs to follow Qin Yuan.

Looking at Chen Jixiang, the boy's eyes were full of firm confidence, and Qin Yuan seemed to have found the confidence to complete the task again.

"Brother Qin Yuan, don't worry, no matter what happens, as long as you are willing to take me and trust me, I will be with you.

We have known each other for such a long time, and I will not let you feel disappointed in me. After going through the test of these things, I have already thought about it.

No matter what happens to us next, even if we are locked up in Pakistan forever, we will never betray our hearts, at least that's what I think.

Ever since I met you, I knew that the two of us would be able to handle things well together, because our goals are the same. "

An Ran looked at Qin Yuan with a very admiring look.

"Why are you looking at me like this?"

"Qin Yuan, really, I have to tell you the truest feeling in my heart. As long as I am with you, it gives me a special feeling of peace of mind. I don't have to worry about anything."

"now it's right."

Qin Yuan looked back at An Ran, Chen Jixiang, He Chenguang and Jason.

He felt that no matter what, he would definitely not be able to collapse. All the people he saw in front of him were counting on him to deal with these problems.

Therefore, he doesn't want to say anything anymore.

"You all have been following me for such a long time. I can understand what these situations are like. An Ran, please give me Du Bingbing's contact information now."

"Are you going to confront him yourself?"

"Of course, so far, these things are easy for us and we can find solutions.

The most important thing is that I have already understood in my heart that Du Bingbing is forcing you and me behind your back. "

He Chenguang, facing Du Bingbing, had some doubts about this girl.

"Qin Yuan, I still remember that we met Du Bingbing during the mission to rescue Professor Fang in Country H. He is a very decisive person. We were together back then.

He can directly make up his own mind about many things.

Just last time, when we were surrounded and chased by others, this girl was able to make a quick decision and let the two of us escape from the underground passage.

You know, normal girls will definitely not do this, and they will hate dirty and smelly places like underground passages. It is disgusting.

However, he gave me a very unusual feeling. I could tell from the beginning that he was a very ambitious person.

Now we were fine at that time, and these issues can all be clarified.

Maybe from that time on, he was deliberately approaching you.

Because he knows that he can be promoted quickly by following you. He has his own goal and simply wants to go further and reach a higher position.

Du Bingbing is a very goal-oriented person. He knows what he wants to do, which is different from those of us who purely contribute to our ideals.

So I think that even if you go to him, he won't let go.

Not to mention saying anything, you probably think that your charm can persuade him to help us without hesitation.

That seems impossible to me. He is a very sober person and he knows what he wants, no matter how charming you are.

You definitely can't convince him to change his mind on this matter. "

Generally speaking, He Chenguang's analysis is very reasonable. Qin Yuan also knows it, but Qin Yuan must remind him carefully.

Don't go too far with some things, and he is not the kind of person Qin Yuan can take advantage of casually. He is a person with a good temper and a lot of ideas.

An Ran, seeing Qin Yuan so angry, knew that the other party should have done this to help him out, but he didn't want to make this matter a big deal.

"Qin Yuan, forget it. Don't take the initiative to contact Du Bingbing. He has always been a very persistent person. I don't think he would do such a stupid thing.

Moreover, in our hearts, he has always had his own ideas. If it were to be like this, we could not say anything.

If I had known it would be like this, I should have been prepared in my heart. I shouldn't have told you that you would be very unstable after I told you.

Leave these issues to me alone, and you should not go with me. "

Chen Jixiang walked to An Ran with a smile, patted his shoulder and said.

"Sister An Ran, don't worry.

Brother Qin Yuan, he will protect you by your side and will never let anyone bully you, including this Du Bingbing.

In the past, I didn't think Dr. Du was a bad person overall.

It's not like he is very cold, he just has some introversion in his personality. I didn't expect that he would be such a person, taking advantage of us to complete his own promotion.

So now we have just become some tool people being used by him. Anyway, I will never worry about doing this. We must stand up and resist. "

He Chenguang also nodded beside him, and he agreed with this point of view.

"Chen Jixiang, I finally see that you are a ghost. Everything you analyzed just now makes sense. We must not have any ideas on our own.

It is absolutely impossible to let him take advantage of us, so the question we should consider now is how to get them to agree.

Instructor Gong Jian, he must have always wanted us to get along well with Du Bingbing.

I always feel that his background is very complicated, not as simple as what we see now. Maybe there is someone behind him who is supporting or protecting him. "

After these words were said, no one else could understand them.

"An Ran, you'd better give Qin Yuan Du Bingbing's contact information quickly and let them think about it carefully. At least for him, this problem is enough for us to solve quickly.

At the beginning, I also thought he was a very innocent girl.

Unexpectedly, his thoughts were so complicated.

If he was the one who treated us badly first, then whatever we did would be reasonable. So, I have thought about it a lot just now, and I hope you can listen to me. "

"He Chenguang, what do you want to say?"

"Let's call him now, give him a blow, and tell him that you can't boss anyone else."

"Even if I didn't make this call to him, he should know very well that I have always had this kind of temper and would not give them any chance to boss me around.

I only listen to Fan Tianlei, and I must tell them that these things already exist in our hearts.

No one can command anyone except Thor. When the time comes, I will let them know the importance and irreplaceability of Thor, and let them understand what kind of person Thor is. "

After Qin Yuan finished speaking, he looked sadly at the side with a worried look.

"Qin Yuan, please don't get excited. Your superiors have a lot of worries about you. They are afraid that you will be valued by others because of your higher abilities.

Therefore, if you stay with Mr. Norman Karim, even if you successfully complete the mission this time, you will definitely be investigated by your superiors after you return. "

After Qin Yuan finished listening, he sneered beside him.

"Sometimes, I really don't know why the world is so magical.

We risk life and death problems to complete tasks and help them do various things.

But they actually wanted to investigate us after we returned, thinking that we might have been influenced by others.

This is simply the funniest thing I have ever heard since I was a child. We came out to complete the mission regardless of the risk of our lives.

They sit in the office and give us various instructions.

After coming back, we will still be investigated. Do you think such a thing could happen in this world? "

Qin Yuan is simply at a loss now.

"I have to tell Du Bingbing not to use his thoughts to measure me. If I get angry, no one can stop me."

An Ran is actually very afraid that Qin Yuan's temper will offend Du Bingbing, because everyone doesn't know what kind of person he is and whether he will hold a grudge.

"Qin Yuan, I think you should forget about this matter and stop talking about it. We have all thought about it a lot just now. So far, no one can say anything about this issue."

"An Ran, maybe you just don't understand this, that's why we are so entangled now, don't be anxious to listen to me just yet, as long as this problem is solved.

Du Bingbing, he will definitely not force you anymore, nor will you bully you anymore. I must let him know how powerful we are, otherwise, he will always think that all of us are easy to bully. "

An Ran was beside him and nodded silently.

At this time, Sophia also completely realized that Qin Yuan was definitely not a soft persimmon.

Not even a person who is easy to bully.

Under such circumstances, it would be a very difficult problem for him to complete the task assigned to him by Norman Karim and bring Qin Yuan back to him.

Sophia sneered beside her.

"Qin Yuan, I really didn't expect that you are such a **** person. I really underestimated you before."

"Miss Sophia, I have told you long ago that people cannot be judged by their appearance, and sea water cannot be measured.

All the situations we encountered today were readily available, and I told you after thinking a lot about them.

You should be able to see what my temper is like.

I am not so easy to mess with, so after we have verified these things, no one knows what is the most appropriate thing to do. "

Sophia smiled thoughtfully beside him. He did not show his fear and fear of Qin Yuan.

"Qin Yuan, it's completely useless for you to tell me all this now, and I don't particularly care. Anyway, I still admire you very much since I found out about this matter, so you don't have to be embarrassed.

In my mind, these problems have already been solved.

Therefore, I hope you can think carefully with me about what to do about this matter.

These two students of Professor Fang are very powerful arms experts.

If you can't even solve this problem, it only means that you can't complete the task assigned to you by Fan Tianlei, and you feel sorry for him. "

"Thor, he is very dangerous now. If you plan to let me do this, it will be your command.

Sophia, maybe you just underestimate me, Qin Yuan. I can listen to anything, but I don't listen to other people's inexplicable instructions to me.

Even Mr. Noman Karim, he cannot completely control me.

Chapter 2094: I'm officially warning you today

After Qin Yuan said these words to Sophia, he was now very sober.

He hoped that An Ran could realize that no matter what happened, it was right that he would always stand behind him.

As long as Enron can realize all this, everything else is actually fine.

He can also prove that even the problems being dealt with now are not particularly suitable, and everyone always feels that they are very powerless.

An Ran didn't care about these things. He knew that as long as he was willing to do anything for Qin Yuan's good, it would be fine.

However, the situation on Qin Yuan's side is also very difficult.

On the one hand, he has to take into account everyone's mood, and on the other hand, he has to take into account the interests of many people.

Generally speaking, many things are not that easy for him.

In fact, Qin Yuan was still a little embarrassed. He knew that Du Bingbing's position was still very important, and there was a very important person behind him to support him.

Du Bingbing also has some background, otherwise he would not have reached this position for no reason.

If I offend him for the sake of An Ran, it will most likely cause some bad effects.

However, Qin Yuan seemed to be able to control everything in front of him.

At the very least, he didn't think that he should give in to others because of such a trivial matter.

Therefore, after Qin Yuan thought so much, he didn't care anymore.

As long as he can find a little solution, he will not give anyone a chance to hurt him. The more he is in such a situation, the more he has to think carefully.

How can you make the other party convince yourself?

In short, this will definitely not be an easy solution for him.

Judging from the current situation, they can only remain silent and continue to watch from the sidelines, especially at this critical time.

Many people believe that these problems are not enough to support their nervousness in completing tasks outside.

However, Qin Yuan seems to have such a stubborn temper. As long as he does not agree, no one can control his truest thoughts.

Including Du Bingbing and instructor Gong Jian.

Anyway, to him, all this is the most real existence of Qin Yuan.

He has thought so much, and has studied all kinds of things thoroughly, almost.

However, he still didn't want to think too much. He just wanted to warn Du Bingbing quickly not to threaten anyone with his own affairs, especially An Ran.

The reason why he is doing this now is entirely because he is willing to give in considering everyone's emotions. Otherwise, he is also a girl with a very hot temper and a very personal personality.

The concession now is entirely for Qin Yuan.

In fact, to be honest, Qin Yuan felt very moved by this. He had never thought about how he could have allowed An Ran to treat him like this.

But now that everything has happened, there is nothing he can do.

Chen Jixiang watched for a long time. He was really afraid that Qin Yuan would lose his temper over the smallest things, which would affect the relationship between him and Du Bingbing.

When they came out to complete the task, they still had to rely on Du Bingbing to deal with and arrange many things.

If she was completely offended because of such things, they would be alone here.

In fact, Qin Yuan understood this, but in comparison, he hated other people's forced command of him even more.

He will not give Du Bingbing any chance. If he gives in this time, Du Bingbing will definitely get worse in the future.

Because of this, Qin Yuan must make up his mind to solve these problems before him.

In short, many things cannot be decided by him alone.

After resolving these matters, Qin Yuan could rest assured in the country of Ba to rescue the two disciples of Professor Fang.

At least for Qin Yuan, these two apprentices of Professor Fang are still very important, and this is a task assigned to him personally by Fan Tianlei.

This also shows that Fan Tianlei trusts him.

If Qin Yuan does not do well, he will not only let down Fan Tianlei, but also let down his truest thoughts in his heart.

Norman Karim also figured out that Qin Yuan had to complete the task, so he forced him to cooperate with him to deal with Old K.

Qin Yuan still knew very well that if he cooperated with Norman Karim to deal with Old K, there would only be one result in the end.

Old K will definitely not be able to escape. He is already in decline.

But Norman Karim is different. He is in a state of vigorous development.

He is now reaching deep into the United States, which means that he very much hopes that he can take over all of Old K's business, including the underground arms trading system.

The most important thing for them now is to find a very powerful person who is also a very key person.

This person is none other than Efit.

Because he has been with Old K for so many years, and all the resources in his hands are now clearly known to the other party.

And the things mentioned are all related to him.

Under this situation, these people had nothing to say and could only judge based on their own ideas. After all, this was a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity for Qin Yuan.

As long as you think of a way and are willing to solve it, the other party will definitely give you such an opportunity.

However, he was unwilling to cooperate with Efit again.

This guy has always been a very cunning person, and he has been strategizing for such a long time. If he really doesn't have a good result, he will not follow his own arrangements.

If, if you arrange something for him, you have no way to control someone like him. Sooner or later, he will become a very formidable opponent.

You don't know what he's thinking, and you can't completely control his truest thoughts.

Including people like Qin Yuan, who have the same mentality towards Norman Karim.

After Jason heard these words, he was still a little worried about Qin Yuan.

I feel that Qin Yuan is still too anxious. At least for this matter, they should find a better solution.

Especially when they discovered so many things were wrong at the critical moment.

I always feel that I have a lot to do with this matter.

Jason, although he has experienced the betrayal of his good brother, he still will not give up following Qin Yuan. This is his own choice.

It is also the choice that is most loyal to his own heart. Qin Yuan also knows very well that he cannot let these good brothers separate or conceal themselves from him in any sense.

They are willing to stay and follow because of their own face.

Under this situation, as long as they are willing, Qin Yuan will be worth whatever he pays for them.

After all, they are all his good brothers, and Qin Yuan has systematic blessings in his hands.

It can be exchanged for anything, including in front of Norman Karim, who has a great say.

Therefore, Qin Yuan himself has never worried about how this aspect will be handled.

He just needs to follow his inner thoughts and decisions.

Qin Yuan didn't care about other things so much. After thinking about it for such a long time, Qin Yuan could only sit by silently and didn't know what to say, which always gave people a very embarrassing feeling.

An Ran held Du Bingbing's contact information tightly in her hand.

"Sister An Ran, since Brother Qin Yuan wants this contact information so much, then give it to him quickly.

If there is any kind of conflict between you, you should resolve it as soon as possible. Don't make everyone sad just because of such a trivial matter. "

"No, Chen Jixiang, you kid doesn't understand anything.

Before we encounter these problems, we cannot deal with them in a hurry.

Du Bingbing, his current status is very unusual.

There are many people who are by his side and have been supporting him. If this is the case, we can only bear it silently. "

He Chenguang, looking sadly, felt that this matter was not so important, and felt that what Qin Yuan said was quite right.

If they really give in again and again, then it will only make the other party worse.

"An Ran, you don't want to bear this alone.

Let's leave this issue to a few of us. In fact, when we first learned about the news, we thought it was incredible.

Du Bingbing shouldn't be such an arrogant and unreasonable person, but these words are more credible when they come from Anran's mouth. "

"It's all my fault for talking too much. If I hadn't told you, you might not know about Du Bingbing and these issues until now.

It was only after I said it that all of you became a little nervous.

I shouldn't have done this. Just think that I said something wrong. Don't take what I said to heart.
"

Qin Yuan looked at An Ran with a smile.

"Professor Fang, we don't know what the situation is now.

Perhaps, there have been relevant orders from above, and we must maintain a high degree of confidentiality.

Therefore, we don't know anything now, and most situations can only be inferred based on our own guesses.

Du Bingbing, he obviously has a lot of information, but he is unwilling to tell us anything.

Don't you think what he did is extremely excessive?

On the surface, it seems that they want to join our team and cooperate with us, but psychologically they never regard us as their own.

It has always been a very selfish state. If this is the case, then we have nothing to say and let's resolve it through normal channels. "

Sofia watched from the side as they started to have internal strife because of such a small thing.

Not to mention how happy he was now, he even felt that the task assigned to him by Norman Karim would be completed soon, so he also arranged his task intensively beside him.

"An Ran, I think what Qin Yuan said is quite reasonable.

Regarding the current situation, we can't judge anything and can only listen to Qin Yuan's arrangements. You should quickly give him Du Bingbing's contact information and let him contact him personally. "

An Ran looked at Sophia seriously.

"Sophia, what on earth is going on with you?

Could it be that the slap I just gave you was not enough to wake you up?

Until now, you still don't give up.

Still, regarding these tasks of ours, to express the degree of your own intervention, I must tell you that this is a matter for our country H.

It has nothing to do with you, so don't worry about it in front of us.

If you are dissatisfied with anything, you can say it directly.

Let's all deal with it together, don't be weird around us, and don't let us find anything wrong with you.

Otherwise, we won't let you go. "

An Ran finally toughened up, and Qin Yuan saw how charming he was in the past.

Yes, that's what it feels like.

When I first met him, he was so cool, and if he disagreed, he would definitely make the other party pay the price. Now he is really asking for perfection for himself, and he has already changed a lot.

Qin Yuan didn't feel anything was wrong, he just felt that because he had changed Anran, he still felt a little guilty.

Chen Jixiang, after seeing An Ran's performance, the boy beside him was happy and a little excited.

"Sister An Ran, I have to say that you have really made me see a brand new self now. When I knew you, I always thought you were a very gentle person. Now I realize that I was wrong."

He Chenguang also shook his head helplessly.

"Chen Jixiang, you kid still knows too little information. What we told you before was all the truth, but you didn't take it seriously."

"What about Du Bingbing?"

"An Ran, now that we have talked about everything, I must still tell you the truest thoughts in my heart.

Du Bingbing, I must find him, and I must formally warn him not to interfere with my affairs from now on. He will hand over all the things he is responsible for. "

An Ran knew Qin Yuan's fiery temper, but still wanted to dissuade him.

"Du Bingbing is not a very important person.

However, except for him, we have no one we can contact above. If Fan Tianlei hadn't had some problems, we wouldn't have been able to rely on Du Bingbing to deliver the news to us.

Therefore, endure the calm for a while and take a step back to open up the world.

We are now in a foreign country, and there is no more reason to have any kind of duel with him. We will settle all the accounts together when we return.

Du Bingbing, he does not threaten your status or safety. He just wants to have some thoughts about Fan Tianlei.

Chapter 2095: Qin Yuan, you misunderstood me

After Sofia was sarcastic for a while, he also felt that what he said now was of no use at all.

In fact, he himself is like a clown, no one cares about his feelings or what he thinks in his heart.

He is always helping Norman Karim to deal with the people in front of him without any hesitation.

In fact, he had never thought about it, based on what others knew about him.

He had nothing to do now and could only say one or two words casually, which seemed to be very philosophical, but no one listened to what he said.

No one cares about his feelings, and more people always feel that he stays next to Norman Karim like a lackey.

Moreover, the two of them still maintain some kind of illicit relationship.

This made An Ran, who prided himself on being noble, very disdainful.

An Ran felt that he was hopeless and walked further and further away from desire.

Qin Yuan looked at An Ran's disappointed expression and knew that in fact he still had a glimmer of hope for the girl Sophia.

Chen Jixiang can't control so much everywhere.

"Miss Sophia, please don't continue to say these words in front of us. In fact, we have already understood it very clearly in our hearts.

If you really don't want to give up, then none of us can say anything, but in this case, you always don't take others into consideration.

Do you think we are fools?

In fact, no one of us wants to go against you, and no one wants to listen to you. The facts you said are nothing more than a joke in front of us.

Especially in front of our Brother Qin Yuan, he has completely seen through you.

Under such circumstances, if you do something unbelievable, then don't blame us, everyone will be rude to you. "

Sophia sneered beside her.

"I really don't understand, what on earth are you thinking? Have you never thought of some way to break through this predicament?"

An Ran doesn't care about this.

"Sofia, we have known each other for a long time. In fact, you should be very clear about these issues even if I didn't say them.

You can also understand what kind of people Qin Yuan and I are.

We are not interested in the results of these benefits that Mr. Norman Karim has given us, and we have never thought that such good things will happen to us.

If you die, don't continue to persuade us with this intention.

If you really don't want to make a deal like this, you can go back and have a good discussion with Mr. Norman Karim.

At least regarding this matter, we still have a lot of plans and ideas of our own.

If there is really something you can't do, then just tell us directly. We have nothing to embarrass you.

It doesn't matter who can do the things in front of us well, who can't do it poorly, and what can be done?

In fact, we all have said so much to you, and we hope you can understand.

Following Mr. Norman Karim, maybe you do have a conscious view now.

If you want to stay in these unfair industries forever and never see the light of day, I don't think it's necessary.

Sophia, you are still young and you have many paths to choose from.

There is no need to hang yourself on this road. Maybe you feel that some of what we have said is too much, and you won't be like this.

However, we have been thinking about it for such a long time, and so far we have not got any definite result. I have told you so much, and I hope you can understand.

How should we solve these difficulties we are encountering now?

Many times, your own ideas are different from ours. What we can tell you, you may not be able to figure out. "

Xiaolan remained silent because as long as Sophia was around, he had no room to interrupt.

"Sofia, I have made it clear what An Ran should say to you. I understand. If you have nothing to do, go back first. We don't have to let you continue to waste our time here."

"Qin Yuan, I think you are really too persistent sometimes.

According to our current understanding of everyone, many problems are completely different from what you imagine. Under such circumstances.

I hope you can think clearly about what we are all pursuing.

We have never felt that anything was wrong, but we just want to tell you that many times, what we think now is completely different. "

Jason quietly walked to Qin Yuan's side.

"Let's not talk nonsense with him here, this guy is simply very persistent.

Based on what I know about them, this guy really makes us feel very troubled.

Maybe, he already has his own thoughts and judgments by now.

If we continue to indulge it, it will only cause us great confusion. "

At this moment, no one expected that Chen Jixiang would receive a message from someone he had never expected.

After Chen Jixiang picked up the news, he was stunned and didn't even know what he should do.

"what happens?"

"Brother Qin Yuan, come here and take a look. I don't know why Du Bingbing sent me a message asking what we are doing now and how the plan is going."

Qin Yuan still had a lot of dissatisfaction with Du Bingbing.

After seeing what Chen Jixiang said, he was already furious and furious.

In fact, he was already very angry. He hoped to find a solution quickly so that Du Bingbing would not continue to bother him.

"Chen Jixiang, give me your contact information quickly. I'm going to find this guy Du Bingbing now. I want to know what he is thinking and how he could do such an outrageous thing."

He Chenguang stopped Qin Yuan directly.

"Don't stop me!"

"I don't want to stop you, I just want you to know that you need to wake up now. Don't you know it well?"

"I am very sober now, and I never feel that I have done anything wrong."

"Qin Yuan, I am convinced by you now. Don't have any conflicts with Du Bingbing casually, but Fan Tianlei once told us."

Obviously, He Chenguang had no other ideas. He just deliberately used this matter to suppress Qin Yuan.

Chen Jixiang asked blankly beside him.

"What were you talking about just now? Why have I never heard this before? Fan Tianlei, when did he say anything about Du Bingbing?"

Qin Yuan is now sweating profusely. This is not a suitable opportunity for him.

"I can't control that much.

Even in the past, Thor told us not to provoke this Du Bingbing unless there are special circumstances.

In the past, I thought he was just a simple and cold person.

I just didn't expect that he would be such a guy. Is he planning to take advantage of others when they don't understand? "

Sofia stood nearby.

He has no intention of leaving here. No matter what the other party has to say, he doesn't care.

"Miss Sophia, we are all here discussing this matter.

I hope you won't stay here anymore in front of us. It doesn't seem appropriate for you to stay here. Why don't you go back first. "

"Qin Yuan, everyone says that guests can do as they please.

The territory you are on today is not Norman Karim's, but a place he has given me full authority to handle.

This means that you are now on my territory.

Under such circumstances, if you still want to drive me away, is that going too far? "

Qin Yuan has so many problems. As long as he is dissatisfied with this matter, he will definitely stand up and stop it as soon as possible.

Xiaolan was also a little embarrassed next to her.

He kept looking at He Chenguang with his eyes.

He Chenguang naturally discovered that this guy had been looking at him, but he had no intention of paying attention to this guy from beginning to end. After all, this was not a good result for him.

Sofia has always refused to leave. Even if he tries all his strength, he still has to make a good bet with these people.

"Qin Yuan, we have all told you these words just now.

If you are dissatisfied with anything, you can just say that over the years, is there anything we have done that makes you dissatisfied?

In fact, under this situation, I also hope that you can explain it clearly to us and think clearly about what should be done about this problem.

Under such circumstances, the more unhappy you are, the less we know how to deal with it. "

"An Ran, sometimes I'm really curious about how you met such a powerful woman like Sofia. He really surprised us all."

"Qin Yuan, you don't have to mock me here openly or covertly.

Since you want to contact Du Bingbing secretly, I don't have any other ideas.

I just want to tell you.

In fact, this matter has nothing to do with us.

If you are really dissatisfied because of such a trivial matter, then we will all be very disappointed and shocked by you. "

Qin Yuan, he doesn't care.

Without saying anything, he directly picked up Chen Jixiang's contact information.

Go talk to this guy first, lest this guy goes too far and no one can control it.

"Du Bingbing, it's me, Qin Yuan."

"It turns out it's you, the person I contacted just now is this guy Chen Jixiang.

I didn't contact you to tell you what happened. I feel flattered that you contact me personally. "

"I'm not very clear. Our team is all under the command of Thor, even though he has some problems now.

Logically speaking, it should be Instructor Gong Jian who should be in charge. It won't be your turn at any time. "

Du Bingbing must not be outdone. He had already thought of how to deal with Qin Yuan since he dared to contact Chen Jixiang.

"Qin Yuan, please don't blame me for speaking mercilessly to you. In fact, this matter has nothing to do with Chen Jixiang. I think so too, but our thoughts are different from your problem.

At the beginning, I also thought about a lot of questions.

How should we deal with this aspect may be more appropriate.

However, later I changed my mind and thought about it a lot. Regarding this issue, I mainly thought that people should not be so rigid. "

"I just want to know where you stand and why you come here to command me?

I feel that there is not much contact between us, and we should not do this. "

"Qin Yuan, I think you really misunderstood me.

You should understand that I have always been a quiet person and don't like to meddle in other people's business.

This time I actually took the initiative to help you. Not only did I not feel grateful to me, but it made a lot of assumptions about me, which really made me feel very uncomfortable.

Qin Yuan sneered helplessly from the side.

"Du Bingbing, I really can't believe that you can actually tell lies to this extent.

I did think that you were a calm person who was unwilling to get involved in these things between us, but I didn't really discover it until now. "

"What did you find?"

"I found that you are really a very unreasonable guy. At the beginning, you asked An Ran to come over and let us help us deal with certain things.

That's because you know that I have a good relationship with Enron. If you take the initiative to ask me for help, I will definitely not agree. Only through Enron can I do my best. "

"No, Qin Yuan.

So I actually have such a status in your heart? I think the two of us have a very good relationship, and you can agree to anything I ask for help. "

"No, we don't have a very good relationship, and I'm not very familiar with you.

Everything I do is for safety.

If it weren't for his sake, do you think you can command me?

Still bossing around in the army's office.

You don't really think of yourself as Fan Tianlei's successor, and you don't even look at how many qualifications you have.

Even if Fan Tianlei has something to do now, it's not your place to do it. "

Du Bingbing, after hearing this, he still didn't feel any anger. He had already seen that Qin Yuan fully understood his inner thoughts and calculations.

"Qin Yuan, actually we have known each other for such a long time, and we don't think there is anything bad about each other. I admire you very much.

You care about Fan Tianlei just because he can help you. In fact, it would be the same for me. "

Chapter 2096: Know your identity clearly

Qin Yuan talked a lot with Du Bingbing, but the other party didn't seem to understand how angry Qin Yuan was now.

After all, the two of them had only known each other for a relatively short time, and he was a rather arrogant girl.

Qin Yuan had already used the most serious tone to tell the other party that he was very unhappy now.

I hope he won't do anything wrong and embarrass everyone.

But the other party still didn't seem to understand what he was thinking and meaning.

An Ran, looking at Qin Yuan's face face to face, could clearly feel that Qin Yuan was very unhappy, but he still dared not say anything.

Sofia could also see it.

Du Bingbing paused.

After thinking for a long time, she said slowly.

"Qin Yuan, I don't have any other ideas, I just want to remind you that the things you want to know now are definitely wrong.

Fan Tianlei is already so serious that it is impossible for you to rely on Fan Tianlei.

If you have other questions, I can only tell you, don't think too much.

Fan Tianlei, he can no longer control you. He is currently under investigation from above, and you should know better than me why he is under investigation specifically. "

Qin Yuan, when he mentioned this matter now, he became very angry.

Generally speaking, he was very unhappy, because he knew very well that this matter did have a lot to do with him, but he didn't want others to know.

"Du Bingbing, I don't need you to come and tell me what happened to Fan Tianlei.

Moreover, I know exactly why he was investigated by his superiors.

I don't need you to remind me. You should find your own position and don't come out casually to cause trouble to others. I think this may be more appropriate. "

Du Bingbing was also unconvinced. He felt that he no longer needed to be afraid of Qin Yuan when looking for a position, let alone anything to worry about.

"Qin Yuan, I must remind you three that you are in a foreign country to complete your mission, and the most important thing in your hand now is how to find Professor Fang De's students.

Pakistan is a mixed place. If you want me to help you, I hope you can clearly understand where your advantages lie.

I told you all this in the beginning.

That place was originally a mixed bag of fish and dragons, and many people had never seen what the situation was like at that time.

If you suddenly want me to tell you so much.

I'm afraid, it's not appropriate either.

No one should make the current situation too rigid. No one is alone and there is no way to turn to anyone for help. "

"Du Bingbing, I don't quite understand what you mean by saying this, but I still want to tell you that many problems are completely different from what you think. Don't be too self-righteous.

Moreover, your current identity does not have a definite position in the army.

Even if your superiors make some promises to you, as long as they are not fulfilled, we are all rated. Don't say these things to us in a condescending manner. "

Du Bingbing now thinks that Qin Yuan is really angry, and she is also very worried.

"Qin Yuan, I am really convinced by Fan Tianlei now.

His ability to tolerate you for such a long time is really not what ordinary people can do. At the beginning, I thought you were just a temperamental and stubborn person. I didn't expect you to be in such a situation. Now it seems to be quite good. Not ordinary. "

"The relationship between me and Thor doesn't require you to interrupt here.

I can tell you that Fan Tianlei will be out soon. You should stop thinking about this.

Thor's position will still be that of Chief of Staff Fan. You will never be able to catch up with him. It took Thor decades to get to where he is now.

If you could take his place with a little trickery, then I think our troops in Country H should have fallen long ago. "

After He Chenguang understood what he said, he still felt a little uncomfortable in his heart. He tried every means to destroy everything in front of him, but he has not succeeded so far.

Xiaolan, watching He Chenguang from the side.

He is now very confident and has confirmed the identity of the other party, but the other party is unwilling to state his identity clearly on the certificate.

The more this happens, the more he has to think clearly about what is the most appropriate thing to do.

However, in Yu Xiaolan's view, there must be other reasons for He Chenguang's concealment, and it was not just for him to successfully complete the task.

Du Bingbing, looking at herself at this time, really couldn't defeat this guy Qin Yuan.

He hopes to use these resources in his hands to control Qin Yuan. At least, he thinks that as long as he cracks this resource.

All of them will have more things to do, and he hopes that Qin Yuan's success in completing the mission this time can be attributed to himself.

Du Bingbing clearly knew that Qin Yuan was contacting him now.

And after talking about so many serious topics, I did this because I was dissatisfied with myself.

However, he still hopes to have the opportunity to cooperate with Qin Yuan. He values Qin Yuan's ability very much and believes that Qin Yuan is capable enough to help him.

Even if the other party disagrees, he will definitely try to do it, because he has always been a person who wants to climb up. His first goal is the position of Chief of Staff Fan Tianlei.

If he could become chief of staff in this position.

From then on, it was almost as if he could do whatever he wanted. He no longer had to worry about these things. Thinking of this, Du Bingbing decided to give it a try.

So, Du Bingbing softened his tone.

"Qin Yuan, we were both a little too excited just now, why don't we calm down and think about it carefully.

What should be the most appropriate thing? We shouldn't have any conflicts now, after all, regarding this matter.

In fact, I don't want Thor to get into any trouble, and his current troubles are not caused by me. I just took advantage of the situation to get to where he is today.

I've told you so much, and I don't have any other ideas.

I just want to remind you that many things are completely different from what we imagined. The more we are under such conditions, the more careful we have to be in the army.

But I'm not the only one who wants to keep an eye on Fan Tianlei's position, there are others.

Therefore, I have to think about it carefully. I am still easy to talk to and deal with. After all, I am still very young and there will be many opportunities for advancement in the future.

This time I am not so interested in Fan Tianlei's position. If you want Fan Tianlei to return, I can also help you.

In fact, I am where I am today entirely because of Fan Tianlei's promotion of me. I know that a person should not be ungrateful.

I am willing to help you rescue Fan Tianlei together.

However, I have a condition, we can cooperate with each other, and I can't end up with nothing just because Fan Tianlei comes out.

Okay, let Fan Tianlei give me some other benefits.

I don't have any big ideas about the position of chief of staff for the time being, but if Fan Tianlei doesn't come out, what if the position of chief of staff falls on me.

I'm afraid no one can refuse the pie-in-the-sky thing.

Although your attitude towards me is very bad, until now, I don't feel that you are threatening me, nor do I feel that there may be something missing between us.

I just hope that we can calmly think clearly about what we should do most.

This is the most correct choice, and I told you at the beginning that there are many topics in this regard.

At the very least, many things so far are different from what we expected.

I hope you can think carefully about all this and what is the most appropriate thing to do, especially now that we have encountered this situation.

I have explained so much to you, just hoping that you can agree to a cooperation between us.

In common, just save Thor.

Thor has a very special meaning to us. He is both a teacher and a friend to you, and he is also a better teacher and senior to me.

He is not a bad person, and he has no ambition.

He really wants to work for our country H troops wholeheartedly.

If this is the case, then we should support him and not add insult to injury just because he has been in trouble for a while.

I'm not one to add insult to injury, and I don't wish that on anyone.

So, I thought a lot just now and that's all I have to say to you. Please think about it seriously.

Of course, for me, it is simply a very good choice.

But if you don't want to, then I have no chance to refute you. I have to remind you of many things.

In my opinion, it may be very different. The more this happens, the more cautious we must be.

Don't let anyone catch you. What I said just now came from the bottom of my heart.

You can think about it carefully if you are willing to cooperate with me.

We can do many great things.

If you are not willing, then I can only say that this matter still needs to be verified. I am not afraid of others threatening me. You can say whatever you want, and I don't care. "

After Du Bingbing said these words in a gentle and gentle tone, everyone discovered that these things are not that simple, and Du Bingbing is not a very simple person.

An Ran, the guy standing nearby broke out in cold sweat. Now he has started to threaten all kinds of people.

An Ran pulled Qin Yuan to the side and whispered to him.

"Qin Yuan, Du Bingbing, what I said just now is indeed somewhat uncomfortable, but I still have to tell you.

Regarding this matter, we can see less, and others may see more. As for how I understand it, it is not particularly clear. "

Sophia sneered with a crooked mouth.

"An Ran, after hearing what you said just now, I feel that you guys are really unreliable. Can you still tolerate threats to yourself at such a critical time?

If it were me, I might not be able to bear it anymore. "

"Sophia, I hope you can understand that this is an internal matter within our army and has nothing to do with you.

You just need to complete the tasks given to you by Mr. Norman Kalimshek.

As for how to choose in our army, you don't need to interfere with Qin Yuan, he will have a process of weighing the pros and cons. "

"An Ran, I think you two are quite smart people. I just didn't expect you to be so clumsy in this matter."

Qin Yuan was a little curious after hearing this.

"how do I say this?"

"Du Bingbing has been threatening you until now, don't you think that this matter is actually likely to cause some kind of damage because of this little reason?

He didn't want to do anything to you at all. Maybe he never thought about taking Fan Tianlei's position.

An Ran, what he has been forcing you to say is that he hopes you can quickly get these special medicines about Professor Fang De, but you have never understood what he meant.

Du Bingbing, as a doctor, what he really wants is the sense of accomplishment of treating diseases and saving people. He doesn't particularly care about other things.

Only we can provide you with this kind of special medicine. The one you should cooperate with most is us, not the military doctor who has been threatening you.

Du Bingbing, we don't know exactly what kind of person he is, but from the communication with him, we can see that he is a person who knows what he wants and has a very clear goal. "

After hearing this, Qin Yuan nodded silently beside him. In his heart, Du Bingbing was indeed such a person.

"Sophia, I seem to have discovered it too.

No matter what kind of difficulties we encounter now, you will always associate our difficulties with special medicines, just to make us bow to you. "

Sophia tilted her lips and smiled.

"Qin Yuan, you are indeed well-deserved. No wonder Mr. Norman Karim appreciates you so much. It must be related to this aspect.

There is nothing wrong with what you said.

The special medicine is in our hands, and you are like being strangled by the throat.

Qin Yuan, I have to tell you that Mr. Norman Karim appreciates you very much. It may be more appropriate for you to cooperate with us. This is simply a good opportunity to kill two birds with one stone.

If you can rescue Fan Tianlei, you can also get special medicine, and you will definitely be promoted after you complete the relevant tasks and go back. "

Chapter 2097: System prompts, estimated 15 minutes

Qin Yuan was thinking about how he could have a good breakup with Du Bingbing.

At the very least, he must not be allowed to manipulate his own mentality. This is something Qin Yuan absolutely cannot bear.

For a long time, he believed that everything he did came from his heart.

Du Bingbing said this as if he did all this just for fame and fortune. That is absolutely impossible to happen. At least, Qin Yuan thought that he would not be able to live with his heart.

After Chen Jixiang heard what Du Bingbing said, he couldn't stand it anymore.

"This Dr. Du is really like this, why would he go so far?"

Brother Qin Yuan has already said that there is no way he can cooperate with him, and it is absolutely impossible for him to do so.

However, he still didn't hear what he was thinking, and we all felt very helpless.

We don't have any definite answer as to what should be said about this matter.

Dr. Du, he still wants to cooperate with us. It is not easy for us in this regard. He never understands us but asks us to understand him.

This is so funny.

I don't think this is a good idea or decision, and I won't support it anyway. "

He Chenguang looked at Chen Jixiang's complaining look, and he couldn't help but laugh.

"Boy, I have to remind you, don't let Du Bingbing hear what you said, otherwise he won't let you go easily. He is not an ordinary person, he is a guy with a background."

"What's his background?"

"Even Qin Yuan doesn't know, and it's even less likely that I will know, but this is just a polite reminder from myself.

After telling you these words, we have nothing to be confident about. "

Sophia sneered beside her.

"Qin Yuan, do you think that it is something that you have always spared no effort to protect.

To have a connected person take care of all of you so easily. I think it's not easy for all of you, so why don't you give up on these things.

Qin Yuan did not answer. He was still pulling at Du Bingbing.

What he really cares about is his truest inner feelings.

As for the decisions of the higher-ups in the army, he had no right to interfere.

"Dr. Du, do you mean that you want to cooperate with me, so that we can deal with Fan Tianlei together?"

I still have to remind you that this is absolutely not allowed, especially for us, many people think this is unreasonable. "

"Qin Yuan, I have to say that I can understand the relationship between you and the God of Thunder, and I have never wanted to interfere with the master-disciple relationship between you.

Yesterday, Mr. Norman Karim came to me more than once, but I did not promise him anything.

Even though he gave me a lot of benefits, he always hoped that I could join their camp to deal with the old K from the United States.

However, I clearly know that this is what Fan Tianlei hopes to achieve most, and I have never wavered in the slightest. Do you know why? "

Du Bingbing said coldly.

"Qin Yuan, what you are telling me is just to tell me that you will not cooperate with me. No matter what the reason is, I can understand your thoughts, but I must also remind you. .

I want to cooperate with you now just for Fan Tianlei, and it doesn't make any sense if you continue to be so persistent.

For the two of us, although we have known each other for a short time, I have always been in a state of trusting you. I don't want to talk about these useless things. I also really want to tell you these problems. What exactly is the importance.

It makes no sense for you and me to be stubborn here.

Can you help Fan Tianlei get out of the high-level investigation quickly?

That is absolutely impossible, and he will never do it.

If you are really still so persistent, then I can only say that all of us have been in vain, and you have even failed to live up to Fan Tianlei's hopes for you. "

"Of course the friendship between Thor and I is, as you said, the feeling between master and disciple.

If I want him to know that I have obtained benefits that I should not have obtained due to various reasons, he will be very disappointed with me. Under such circumstances, I can only say that I am very sorry for him. No matter what, I will not Can't bring myself to do this. "

"Then you mean you don't want to cooperate?

Then we will work on our own. You should know very well about Fan Tianlei by now. He has no way of accepting anything from you, and he can't help you with anything.

The only person who can contact you, besides me, is instructor Gong Jian.

His status is still relatively limited. Even if he can help you, how much can he help you?

I advise you not to be so confused and think more about it.

Think carefully about the difficult things about yourself and don't refuse me again. I am also giving the two of us a chance together.

When the time comes, you will be able to complete your tasks even if I get promoted.

Why not do it?

Why, it really doesn't make much sense to have to be persistent here.

If I advise you, I still hope you can think about it carefully.

When this situation is very unclear, we cannot stick to our hearts for no reason. We should learn to be flexible as a person, what do you think? "

Just when Qin Yuan was about to refute, he suddenly heard the system prompt in his mind.

"Ding dong, the spy system currently requested by the host to be repaired has been 98% completed. It is expected that the spy system will be fully repaired in fifteen minutes."

When Qin Yuan heard the system prompt in his mind, his eyes suddenly lit up, as if he had become completely enlightened and no longer afraid of any situation.

He was indeed just now, and there was a little thought flashing through his mind. If he could cooperate with Du Bingbing, this would indeed be a very good choice for him.

However, Qin Yuan is really a bit too arrogant, and he will never allow himself to do such an excessive thing.

"Du Bingbing, don't worry, I called you today just to remind you.

No matter what, don't play tricks in front of us, and it's at this juncture when I'm about to expose you.

What you say makes no sense at all.

At first, I really didn't understand why you would do this.

However, now I feel that everything is a little clearer.

You just want to use us. After completing this task, you can rise to the top. In this case, I think it is really funny and there is no need.

You don't need to get entangled here. Regarding the situation we have learned now, I still have to teach you a lesson.

You just came to our army, not long ago.

If you are so anxious and want a promotion and a salary increase, then I can only tell you.

This is simply wishful thinking, and there is even no reason. Let alone the relationship between brothers, there may not even be much relationship between comrades.

If you directly use these to kidnap me morally, there is no hope.

I won't let you do this either, and you should know this most clearly.

The relationship between An Ran and I is not something you can control so easily. The pure love between the two of us as comrades has nothing to do with you, and there is no need for you to say these things to me.

I just want to tell you that the only answer is that none of us need to continue to struggle.

You too, just don't tell me so much, I don't care about these things, and I hope you don't care too much.

As for how to complete the task, that is my own business and has nothing to do with you.

You don't have to worry too much, just worry about Professor Fang De's illness.

As for other problems that we can naturally solve on our own, that is the problem of my ability, just forget it. Don't tell me these things again, I won't care. "

An Ran, listening to what Qin Yuan said to Du Bingbing, felt somewhat relieved.

Because what Qin Yuan said was so heartless that he didn't even leave any room.

Although Chen Jixiang could understand the consequences of Qin Yuan and Du Bingbing talking like this, he never had any hesitation or resistance to this.

"He Chenguang, look at Brother Qin Yuan, he is so handsome.

What he said just now was really a painful blow to Du Bingbing, a obsessed guy.

Let him know clearly that we will not listen to him no matter what.

Not to mention not being commanded by him, I simply admire Brother Qin Yuan even more.

Although I know that the situation we will face in the future will be more difficult, I don't care at all. As long as we can solve this problem, I don't care about the rest. "

As an American spy, He Chenguang's first reaction after hearing these words was not happiness or joy. Instead, he felt a pity for Qin Yuan, who could obviously do better.

On the contrary, he spoke so decisively in front of Du Bingbing, a close relative, without saving any face for the other party. I am afraid it will be even more difficult for them to cross paths in the future.

Therefore, no matter whether Fan Tianlei can come out or not, Du Bingbing will not stand on the same front with them again. Even if Fan Tianlei can come out safely, just think about the possibility of this?

After Sophia heard what Qin Yuan said, he felt a sense of admiration for him beside him.

"An Ran, you are indeed right about Qin Yuan.

He is a guy worth trusting for life. Having said so much, I also admire him very much.

The more we are in this situation, the more we have to think clearly about why he made such a choice. It seems that he is really impeccable with you. "

Du Bingbing also discovered that what Qin Yuan said to him meant that he was extremely ruthless. Since the other party is like this, he must show his tolerant and generous attitude.

"It's okay, Qin Yuan.

From what I just told you, I can predict that there will definitely be some situations between us that will embarrass others. If this is the case, then I have nothing to say.

By the way, I have to remind you, no matter how interested I am in the position of Chief of Staff Fan Tianlei.

I will do my own job well, which means that my own job is to be a doctor. Since I am a doctor, I must treat illnesses and save people.

We can all clearly feel these words just now.

It doesn't matter if we have some big opinions on this matter.

As long as I can hear your true thoughts, you can quickly let me give up, so as not to always have other thoughts about you.

Since you can tell me openly, this is also a very good choice.

I have nothing to explain, I just want to tell you that there may be some differences in the various situations we currently understand.

I didn't want the other professor to attack me, I haven't been degraded to this extent yet.

Although, I really want to be in Fan Tianlei's position, that's just because people are motivated.

I don't believe that you are not motivated, so don't blame me for speaking too harshly.

This matter is nothing in my heart. I hope to get your support, not your endless doubts.

As for Fan Tianlei, whether he can come out or there will be a not so good result.

You all need to be mentally prepared in advance. Professor Fang De's situation is not too serious.

I admit that I do have a persuasive mentality and thoughts about Enron.

But I didn't mean anything else. I just wanted to remind him that no matter what, he had to remember what the mission was. "

"Du Bingbing, An Ran is an excellent and professional spy.

He knows what his real mission is, and there is absolutely no way he will be hindered by anything.

If you are worried about the relationship between the two of us, I can tell you that we do not have any excessive feelings other than the simple feelings of comrades-in-arms. "

Du Bingbing didn't know why he felt very relieved when he heard Qin Yuan say this.

Moreover, he was still a little happy. He thought that his feelings for Qin Yuan were relatively single. Unexpectedly, he became happy after knowing that he and Du Bingbing had no other problems.

"By the way, I still have to leave the situation of Professor Fang De to you. In addition, I hope you can pay attention to the condition of Jason's daughter.

This child was born with congenital heart disease. I give it to you to reassure you.

Maybe when I say this, you still feel that there is a kind of moral kidnapping, but it doesn't matter, I don't care so much.

Chapter 2098: Spy system repaired successfully

Since Qin Yuan had also received the system just now, he no longer wanted to waste energy on Du Bingbing regarding his prompt.

He wanted to end this conversation with Du Bingbing quickly.

Because I know that no matter what happens to the other person, he is always pretending to be confused.

The more this happens, the less time and space we can give him to think about it.

Chen Jixiang looked at Qin Yuan who seemed a little embarrassed, and couldn't help but urge him.

"Brother Qin Yuan, we still have many important things to deal with, so don't waste time here with Dr. Du. He also has to deal with Professor Fangde and Jason's daughter."

Qin Yuan said with a smile.

"Dr. Du, the two of us were a little unhappy just now because of this matter.

I also apologize to you. This is my temper.

You have known me for a long time, and you should know me well, so I won't talk to you anymore. I just want to explain it to you.

Just forget about the situation just now, and I hope you can think it over carefully.

Regarding the problems we are encountering now, what should we do more appropriately?

In addition, I must tell you again about Jason's daughter.

Of course, this is not to worry about you, but I feel that many problems are not what we expected. "

Qin Yuan reminded him like this because he just wanted to tell Du Bingbing that it was better to be careful.

"Qin Yuan, you don't need to keep reminding me. I understand what you mean. Be careful with Wannian Ship. Although the two of us still have some differences due to cooperation issues, after considering so much, I still think what you said. Makes sense.

Mr. Norman Karim, he is not a despicable person, but this does not mean that everyone has some moral bottom line like him.

Efit, this guy hasn't shown up for a long time. Moreover, he still has some ideas about this in our H country. Some of his people have been ambushing us here to find opportunities. "

"Du Bingbing, you are indeed a very smart person. Since you can understand my reminder, I won't say anything anymore. I am still very relieved about you. Thank you."

"Oh, why are you so polite to me now?"

Qin Yuan, I have explained to you many times. In fact, I do not want to force you. I just hope that we can maximize the efficiency of the task.

I don't mean that Fan Tianlei's question will definitely gain the understanding of the higher-ups. I just want you to be mentally prepared in advance.

After all, he was involved in the leaking of secret spies, which was no small matter.

To be honest, this kind of thing is just a big or small matter in the eyes of the senior management. If you are willing to provide some concessions, it can be reduced to a big or trivial matter in their eyes. "

"Du Bingbing, the two of us just had a big quarrel about Fan Tianlei.

Now, let's not bring up the subject again.

Especially, after what I said just now, I also hope that you can think clearly. I don't mean to reject you alone. I have many ideas. "

"All right.

Qin Yuan, I am explaining this to you just because I hope you will never be disappointed in me. I have been very nervous because of this matter for such a long time, and I also care about your thoughts.

However, Jason should be by your side. You can help me tell him about his daughter's problem so that he doesn't have to worry. Just keep it in your heart. I won't have any thoughts about his daughter.

I once studied abroad in the United States and studied some issues related to congenital heart disease.

Moreover, my mentor is also a very powerful person. Anyway, after I have told you so much, I just hope that you can feel more at ease with me. After all, this is not a big deal, and I will try my best to help you there. You go find the resources.

As long as we have found some relevant resources, you will not be disappointed. "

"Doctor Du, if you say that, then I will be relieved, but there are some things I still don't understand, since you have so many resources in your hands.

Why couldn't we reach a tacit understanding with them earlier? "

"Qin Yuan, sometimes I really don't understand what you want to say to me. Are you talking about Professor Fang De's special medicine? I have reiterated this to you many times. .

Professor Fang De, his special medicine is not something we can solve here.

In the United States, I have also asked many experts in this field for help, but they have not given me a definite answer, because this specific medicine is still very scarce, just like you said.

Only Mr. Norman Karim could be found in their private hospital, and it would cost a lot of money.

Assuming that spending some money can save Professor Fang De, not only our senior leaders will not hesitate at all. Even if I let myself take the money personally, I will not hesitate.

It's just that Mr. Norman Kalim, he has a good eye for everything and already knows some of our plans on this matter, so he will prevent us from getting the special medicine no matter what, unless you negotiate with him openly. "

Sophia was also vague, as if she heard Du Bingbing mention the issue about special medicines, and he immediately showed a triumphant expression on his face.

"An Ran, you two should have seen that these things have nothing to do with me. I have tried my best to deal with you.

In the United States, at a private hospital, I have an assistant named Harry.

He has also helped me contact some special medicines, but I swear I have never told Mr. Norman Karim about this matter. As for how he knew about it, I don't know very well.

I hope you two don't blame me. We are all in the world and can't help ourselves. "

While Qin Yuan was stalling for time with the two of them, he looked at his watch.

About ten minutes have passed. As long as there are no other problems on their side, the indirect system will be repaired soon.

Qin Yuan is very happy now. As long as the spy system is repaired, he will immediately be able to contact the higher-ups to deny that Fan Tianlei once leaked secrets.

He Chenguang, as a spy, has very strong observation skills, especially in this situation. When he turned around, he saw a slightly proud expression on Qin Yuan's face.

"Xiaolan, our recent situation is indeed quite special. You should be careful when you go out and have a look. Don't forget to put up the sign that we are not accepting customers now."

"Sophia, don't worry.

I've already thought of what you're talking about, and I've already put up the sign saying we're not accepting customers.

They also know the regular customers across the street who often come here.

We may have some big moves recently, but they don't dare to do it in casual scenes. Even if Mr. Norman Karim is not around and gives them some courage, they won't dare to do it. "

Sophia nodded with satisfaction.

"Xiaolan, I know that I may have wronged you a little after living in this club for so many years, but I still hope you can feel wronged."

"What do you mean? Sophia?"

"Anyone who follows Mr. Norman Kalim doesn't want to strive for the top.

We have always arranged for you to be in this club.

Maybe you feel that you have a lot of psychological dissatisfaction, but I still remind you.

None of us mean to look down on you, and no one wants to force you into anything because of this matter. We all have our own ideas and judgments.

Especially, Mr. Norman Karim, in any case, it is impossible for him to let you have any entangled thoughts. "

"Sofia, please stop talking. You can explain to me today. All this has moved me very much. I never thought that such a situation would happen.

If we can make some great achievements today, we can make Qin Yuan hurry up and submit to us.

Maybe, Mr. Karim will be more satisfied with me. Then I can do whatever I want. The reason why I haven't been promoted is simply because I haven't done well enough. "

"If only you could think so."

After Qin Yuan chatted with Du Bingbing for a long time, he also felt that Du Bingbing was still very sad about Jason's daughter. At least he didn't use this matter to tease anyone.

"Doctor Du, I originally thought that by handing Jason's daughter to Fan Tianlei, I wouldn't have to worry about anything anymore, but I didn't expect that Fan Tianlei would be implicated because of me.

I will also try my best to find a way to get him out as soon as possible. "

Du Bingbing, although relatively indifferent, also wanted to replace Fan Tianlei as chief of staff.

However, he also cared about Fan Tianlei, who had been kind to him once and was considered his half-teacher. He couldn't bear to see him sink. As long as there was a way to save him, Du Bingbing would not hesitate.

"Qin Yuan, let me tell you the truth.

Our senior management attaches great importance to this matter, so please don't get involved casually.

If they find out that you are related to this matter, it is very likely that they will have to transfer you if you fail to complete the task. "

"Hmph~

I have already seen through some of the ideas of the senior leaders of the army.

All along, under the guise of doing good for us, they actually ask us to complete difficult tasks. If we fail to complete them, they will definitely impose various punishments on us.

If the senior leaders of our army could transfer me out of Pakistan now.

That also shows from the side that they were able to save me without letting me live in the shadow of Mr. Norman Karim until now.

We have been put in a club by him. As long as we don't cooperate with him, we will not get a good result. I am also mentally prepared, so don't worry about me. "

"I have already guessed that this might be the result, so it's normal. What I want to tell you is that you should leave Fan Tianlei alone. I can understand your unwillingness.

However, I still want to remind you from the front, in fact, you all really guessed it wrong.

Instructor Gong Jian comes to command, and the same goes for us. He has always spared no effort to treat us well. Don't let the higher-ups of the army think that you are unreliable just because of trivial matters.

In the past, it was Fan Tianlei who had to bear the pressure from all sides for you. Even if you did many unreliable things, Fan Tianlei could protect you well.

Now, we are relying on instructor Gong Jian. His status is not as high as Fan Tianlei, and it is absolutely impossible for him to do what the chief of staff can guarantee to us. You should not have any hope anymore.

Forget it, even if I tell you so much, you may not be able to understand my good intentions.

You will only think that I am just deliberately deceiving you. In this case, I have nothing to say. When you figure it out by yourself, come to me again.

I have always been here waiting for you to change your mind. "

Du Bingbing, now really feels a little anxious and disappointed with Qin Yuan. At least for him, this will definitely not be a good solution.

"Chen Jixiang, if you have nothing to do, go back and rest quickly. Don't stay with me here."

"No, Brother Qin Yuan.

Even if we don't know about Thor, forget it. Now that we all know everything, if we still continue to evade, then it will really be unworthy of Thor and he will care about us in vain. "

Qin Yuan gently touched Chen Jixiang's head.

"Boy, I'm not wrong. What you said today makes us all feel very happy. It's good that Thor is not wrong about you either."

"Brother Qin Yuan, I really feel like a waste now, I can't do anything.

I can't help you very well. I even have some doubts about Thor. He shouldn't let me come here and it will only drag you down. "

He Chenguang was also comforting the boy Chen Jixiang.

"Since you believe so, Thor should believe in Thor's vision even more.

He will never misjudge anyone, especially when all of us are out, we, the big brothers, should protect you.

Qin Yuan, he has said so much, what do you have to worry about. "

An Ran did the same, patting Chen Jixiang on the shoulder.

"You kid, don't think too much. When I talk to you, you never pay attention to me, but after a while, you start to doubt yourself.

Well, don't let us down! "

At this moment, the system's repair time has arrived, and Qin Yuan has heard the system's prompts in his ears.

"Ding dong, the spy system vulnerability has been repaired!"

Chapter 2099: Blame it all on the new recruit Danzi

After Qin Yuan said so much to Du Bingbing, he basically had an explanation.

Regarding the fact that the other party wanted to cooperate with him, he basically gave an answer.

As long as he doesn't drag his feet, in fact, Qin Yuan doesn't care about that much at all. All he cares about is what he sees in front of him.

"Du Bingbing, I will leave Jason's daughter to you. I don't care about anything else. I just need you two to take care of this matter.

Jason's daughter has congenital heart disease, and he must take good care of her.

Of course, you are a doctor, so you must be more professional than me. What you say is natural, but it is better than what I say. "

An Ran, when he saw Qin Yuan, was so concerned about Jason's daughter, he was also very moved.

"Jason, you should be relieved now. Even if Fan Tianlei has been investigated by senior officials, his influence is still there.

Instructor Gong Jian will also help you take care of your daughter.

You don't need to worry about this at all. With Qin Yuan here, we will all discuss this matter with you. "

Jason nodded with satisfaction.

"Qin Yuan, I really don't know how to thank you. For such a long time, what I have been thinking about most is my daughter. In fact, A Kun and A Ming's betrayal.

Although it caught me off guard, fortunately, I could already predict the cause and effect of these things.

I don't care about anything else. As long as my daughter can live well, I will do anything you ask me to do. "

Chen Jixiang, seeing Jason caring so much about his daughter, felt a little homesick.

"What's wrong? Brat?"

"nothing."

"Nothing? Looking at you like this, I know you must be homesick. You are different from people like me who have no worries. Hurry up and hurry up. After completing this task and returning home, I will ask Fan Tianlei for leave to go back and see you. Parents."

Chen Jixiang expressed his gratitude to Qin Yuan while sobbing slightly.

"Qin Yuan, thank you for caring so much about my feelings. I thought no one had ever thought about my feelings."

Sophia said coldly from the side.

"If you want to go home to see your parents now, you have to hurry up. Many things are completely different from what we expected. If you don't go back quickly, we don't know what will happen next."

“Sophia, don’t always take advantage of other people’s weaknesses.

If I find out about you and threaten us with your family, don't blame me for being rude to you. "

Qin Yuan said these words to Sophia with a solemn expression. In fact, he knew very well that the other party would definitely not do this and Norman Karim would never allow it.

Don't look at the fact that Norman Karim holds so much power in Pakistan, but he still has a bottom line. At least for his family, he has never done anything excessive in this regard, let alone use his family to do it. force.

He Chenguang, thinking of this, he seemed to think of his family.

Thinking back on it, it has been almost ten years since he came to country H, but he has never seen his parents at home, and he doesn't even know if they are still alive.

For a spy who completed such a secret mission, the US military must have told his family that he should have been sacrificed.

Xiaolan looked at He Chenguang.

He seemed to know how to impress the other party and admit his identity as a spy.

Xiaolan is also a very smart person with some bad ideas. He immediately thought of this point. Family members are the most vulnerable for everyone.

Just inform Efit of this matter.

When he kidnapped He Chenguang's family, he couldn't refuse to cooperate with him even if he insisted. This was simply an idea that only a genius could come up with.

Xiaolan, thinking of this, he was ready to take action immediately.

"Sofia, you guys can chat here now, I'll go out for a while."

"Where to?"

"Oh, haven't we been receiving other people in our club recently? But there are some daily necessities that should be ordered. I will call them now to talk to them."

Sofia did not doubt Xiaolan's motives. He had been under her nose for so many years, and overall he was relatively honest.

"Okay then, hurry up and order these daily necessities.

Don't wait until you use it up and find that Mr. Norman Karim will be angry if you don't have it anymore.

By the way, Mr. Norman Karim always likes to book one of these. It is different from the one used by ordinary guests. Remember, don't make a mistake. "

Xiaolan said to Sophia with a smile.

"Don't worry, I've been with you for so many years. If I couldn't handle even this little thing, Mr. Norman Karim would never keep me here until now."

After Qin Yuan heard this, he seemed to have found some opportunities.

However, I don't know why, maybe out of a sixth sense, Qin Yuan always looks at Xiaolan as if something is wrong, and it seems that he also has some ideas of his own.

"Xiaolan!"

When she heard Qin Yuan suddenly calling her name, Xiaolan still felt a little panicked and turned around to look at everyone.

"what happened?"

"Nothing, I just want to remind you that we all have some allergies recently.

I hope you don't order those sensitive hand sanitizers or toilet paper. I'm afraid we may not be used to it. Everyone is a little acclimatized when we come here.

Also, An Ran, he doesn't like the smell of roses. "

After An Ran heard this, he was very moved now. He didn't know when Qin Yuan wrote down his habits.

"Qin Yuan, how do you know that I don't like the smell of roses?"

Sophia was also a little surprised. No wonder there were so many people pursuing An Ran, but no one had ever sent a rose. He was still puzzled.

That's how it turned out to be.

In fact, as a spy, An Ran never dared to reveal to others that he was allergic to roses.

He can only tell the outside world that he doesn't like the smell of roses. This may be a better way to hide his identity from people with bad intentions.

Knowing that I am allergic to the smell of roses, they will definitely use this idea to attack me when the time comes, and An Ran will not be able to accept it.

Chapter 2100: The army's espionage system is indeed sophisticated and rigorous

Chen Jixiang's words really moved Qin Yuan.

"You brat, if Fan Tianlei had heard you say this, he would have been so moved that he would have cried bitterly.

I can know his mood without even thinking about it.

Actually, I don't have any other ideas. I just want to tell you that I will handle the matter of Thor, so you don't have to worry about it so much. "

He Chenguang always knew that Qin Yuan was a man with great supernatural powers, but he did not expect that Qin Yuan would want to take this matter on himself.

"Qin Yuan, please don't say that. When you invaded the spy system, it was your decision alone. There is nothing wrong with that.

However, we all agree, and no one blames you for this matter. You don't want to be under such great psychological pressure. "

"He Chenguang, I don't have any psychological pressure. I just want to tell you about Thunder God. I can solve it by myself, and I want to talk to you in advance."

An Ran asked with some confusion.

"Can you ventilate with us in advance?"

"That's right, what I want to tell you, if the higher-ups ask us, everyone will insist that we have never invaded any spy system, nor have we obtained any information. It's just that there are loopholes in their system.

It has nothing to do with us. "

Chen Jixiang, with his mouth open and his eyes wide open, couldn't believe what Qin Yuan said. It was obvious that he was being a rogue.

If the trick of playing rogue is used against the gangsters in the market, it will definitely still be useful.

But whoever is opposite is a high-ranking member of the army.

Isn't this a clear indication of treating others as fools? Qin Yuan couldn't do this even if he had the means. This really went against the feeling between them.

"Brother Qin Yuan, no!

The method you mentioned simply won't work, and Thor doesn't come out for a day or two. He has already explained it to us.

What if he had already admitted it to the higher-ups while he was inside? What should we do? "

When Qin Yuan heard Chen Jixiang say this, he suddenly realized.

Why didn't I think of that?

It is possible that Fan Tianlei took on everything in order to protect them. If this was the case, then they would really drag Fan Tianlei down.

"Thor, he shouldn't be able to, right?"

He Chenguang curled his lips and said.

"Qin Yuan, I don't mean that you are irresponsible, I just want to tell you that I think the God of Thunder will definitely do this. We have been with him for so many years, but we still don't know him well.

I have told you many times that this issue cannot be taken on by one person.

What's more, Thor has indeed helped us a lot, which is completely understandable.

If he admits in front of the higher-ups of the army that he hacked into the espionage system, even if we insist that it has nothing to do with us, we will only be getting rid of our own responsibilities.

These responsibilities will eventually fall on Fan Tianlei. I think his position as chief of staff will definitely be lost. Let's think of other ways. "

An Ran was also very distressed next to him.

"Qin Yuan, you usually have a lot of ideas, but this time I have to admit that you just have a bad idea."

"Why do you say that?"

"Look, we have explained to you many times, what should we do about this problem? The most appropriate method is the most appropriate."

However, the top brass of the army were not as relaxed as we thought.

They are also very complicated internally. Everyone has considered these issues more than once. Moreover, according to my speculation, we still have to think about this issue. "

"Although, I don't quite understand what we should do next, but I will tell you in advance."

If a question comes from the top of the army, we will just say we don't know."

How can we find a way to inform Fan Tianlei so that he doesn't admit it? "

Sofia smiled beside her.

"Qin Yuan, I know you don't like me very much, but with some things, no one may be able to help you except me. Don't you want to think about it carefully and see if there is anything I can do to help you?"

Sophia is here again to find a sense of presence at this moment.

However, he is not necessarily looking for presence and wants to highlight his abilities. He does have some abilities in this area and Qin Yuan also believes that as long as the other party can bring it up, he will help him.

"Miss Sophia, when you say you can help me, you mean you can contact Fan Tianlei who was taken away by our senior leaders?"

I only saw this woman, with a triumphant smile on her beautiful face.

"Qin Yuan, I may not dare to guarantee you about other things, but I can still guarantee you about Thor. I may be able to do it."

"perhaps?"

Qin Yuan shook his head helplessly, and then smiled bitterly.

"Sofia, I know that you have been with Mr. Norman Karim for many years, but the way you deal with problems within a group is completely different from our army.

Do you think that if you just lock it up casually, you can find someone to go in and deliver the message? Then our army has become a big colander.

The army, especially the army of country H, has always been like an airtight city wall. Not to mention passing news, not even a fly or a mosquito can fly in.

You know that after they are taken away, the time and place must be specified. "

"How to say?"

"That means locking Thor in a room alone. Under this situation, we can't do anything, can't say anything, and don't dare to do anything.

I've already told you that you shouldn't have any thoughts about this. "

"What are you thinking?"

I don't dare to think about anything now. Even on this critical issue, everyone still feels a little uncomfortable. For a long time, we have known exactly what to do.

It's just that, Qin Yuan, you have explained so much to me, I am not particularly interested in how strictly your H country army manages a person who has made a mistake, even though I don't know much about the operating procedures in your army.

However, for us, Pakistani troops can come and go at will. We can find whomever we want and do what we want, as long as we have money.

There is no one in this world who doesn't like money, and there are other things that can be bought. As long as they are not prepared enough by me, they will definitely be able to accomplish what I want to accomplish.

I can also see Fan Tianlei, you still have very deep feelings for him.

In fact, we, Mr. Norman Karim, also admire him very much.

I can't promise you this alone. If it can work, I also need to report it to Mr. Norman Karim. "

An Ran has been tricked by this woman Sophia several times, and he no longer believes it anymore.

"Sofia, don't think that your little cleverness can deceive Qin Yuan.

He is also a very shrewd man, and we will never trust you again.

In any case, no matter how many sweet words you say, we will never believe it because we already know you too well and are too disappointed. "

"An Ran, please don't be so excited now, okay? I've told you a lot about this, and I've also explained it to you.

The special medicine will never be provided by me and Fan Tianlei. I just contacted Harry from the private hospital.

Maybe, there were some mistakes in the process, and Mr. Norman Karim caught us.

But I ask you to believe me, this will never be revealed by me.

No matter what Mr. Norman Karim thinks, I will definitely not betray you casually what I promised you. This is the bottom line of being a human being. "

An Ran, after listening to Sophia's words, now he simply doesn't want to hear a word and doesn't believe a word.

"We have known each other for several years, and I have always regarded you as my best friend, but I never expected that you would stab me so hard in the end.

I don't want to pursue the issue of Professor Fang De's special medicine anymore. No matter how you explain it, it will be a useless explanation. "

Chen Jixiang, looking at this woman Sophia, felt that he was sinister and cunning.

"Sister An Ran, I don't think you should believe him anymore. Let's handle it ourselves. Brother Qin Yuan has already said that no one has ever invaded the spy system. I believe in his plan."

He Chenguang smiled from the side.

"Chen Jixiang, I see that you have turned into a little fanboy.

Qin Yuan, no matter what he says, you think it is right. Don't you have the idea of thinking independently? Use your brain to provide us with some meaningful suggestions. "

"Forehead..."

At this time, Qin Yuan suddenly discovered that there was no rhythm of talking beside him. He had nothing to worry about now, because his daughter had already been promised by Du Bingbing to take care of him.

As for the two good brothers A Kun and A Ming who betrayed him, he no longer has any hope, as if he has been disappointed in the world.

Qin Yuan quietly walked to Jason's side.

"Jason, please don't be so melancholy. Many things are different from what you imagined. Don't think that when you are a little frustrated, you will be disappointed in the whole world."

Jason smiled and nodded.

At this moment, Qin Yuan suddenly felt that he should contact the system.

It's a good idea to ask the system if the repair has been completed.

Only if they can't find any traces and insist that they have never done it before will it be more convincing.

Otherwise, if there is any fault on the part of the system, all their explanations will be useless, and the higher-ups of the army will not believe them.

"You all should stop talking about it for now. Just leave this matter to me alone. I want to go back to my room to contact the outside world secretly.

I have some friends in the army and I want them to help me find out. "

He Chenguang was still a little curious.

"What kind of friend is in the army? When the two of us were in the army, we were inseparable every day. Why didn't I know that you had such a reliable friend? I should help you inquire about the Chief of Staff."

"He Chenguang, just stay here honestly.

Not everything needs to be told to you. Moreover, my friend only listens to such confidential things from me. He definitely doesn't want more people to know about the issue of the Chief of Staff as you said. Who dares to reveal it easily. "

After Qin Yuan finished speaking, he walked straight back to his room.

After quietly closing the door and making sure no one was eavesdropping outside, he quickly contacted his one-click recovery system.

"System, system, come out quickly."

"Ding dong, the system reminds you that the current repair task of the owner has been completed, please check it!"

"Have all the loopholes in the spy system really been repaired? You must not play tricks. If there is a problem with me, we will all die without a burial place."

"Dingdong, please rest assured, director, the system has been repaired a long time ago. Please check and accept it in time."

"How should I check it?"

"Ding dong, the system is now simulating the operating principle of the spy system for you. You will know it at a glance at

Qin Yuan thought that he should solve this problem quickly. Fan Tianlei's matter could not be delayed any longer. He had to quickly check and accept the repair of the system. After it was confirmed that there was no problem, he could then find a way to communicate with the higher-ups of the army. connect.

At this moment, some screens suddenly appeared in front of Qin Yuan's eyes.

The above shows the time when he invaded the spy system and what items he viewed.

It seems that the settings of this system should be very perfect. Fortunately, I have such a cheat.

Even Qin Yuan couldn't help but sigh.

“After all, it is a system created by the top brass of the army, and it is indeed precise and rigorous.

No matter what kind of project we see, he has already shown it here. No wonder it will take you several hours to repair it.

My system, you have worked so hard!

Fortunately, with you as a cheat, I have a golden finger. "

"Ding dong, the repair process of the current system has been demonstrated to the master. Now you can believe that the system has been completely repaired, and the vulnerability of the spy system intrusion has been completely repaired."

After Qin Yuan saw that the spy system was repaired, he finally let out a long sigh, but the string still had to be tightened.

"Even if the loopholes in the spy system have been repaired and there are no traces of our intrusion, how can we convince the top brass of the army to believe it.

We didn't invade. Is everything they saw just an illusion? "

Qin Yuan, a smart little guy, decided to use his one-click recovery system to create some viruses in the spy confidentiality system of the high-level army.

In other words, there is a problem with their own system and it has nothing to do with anyone else.

This pot is thrown well...
