

Special Soldier 2101

Chapter 2101: Use the system to create viruses

Qin Yuan had to say that his wishful thinking was very good.

He basically wants to use his one-click recovery system to quickly complete the problems he encounters. As long as these can be solved, this is simply not a problem for him.

He now had this thought in his mind, and when he was about to talk to a recycling system, he unfortunately was discovered by the other party first.

"Ding dong, the system has detected that the host wants to use this system to create some viruses to invade country H and the spy system. Does the host think so?"

Qin Yuan felt a little embarrassed now that his true thoughts were exposed. He silently lowered his head and did not answer.

"Ding dong, the system has detected that the current host is a little shy."

"Your system doesn't work when it should work, and when it shouldn't work, it makes its own decisions."

"Dingdong, please adapt to the current situation in advance. The current system is detecting relevant information for you. The spy system of country H is still repaired. Does the host have any other requirements?"

Qin Yuan thought to himself that since the other party had detected his truest thoughts, it would probably not be appropriate if he refused to admit it.

"System, I don't want to tell you now, these are useless, I just want to tell you that many problems are completely different from what we know.

You want to tell me now that you have detected the truest thoughts in my heart.

However, what I want to tell you is that you must be cautious and careful.

As for whether to create a virus, I don't know how much security the current system can absorb.

Under such circumstances, I would not dare to act rashly.

You also know that Thor has been punished so severely because of all of us. If we have some unpleasant emotions because of these things, then we all really don't know what we should do.

In Country H, the senior officials are still very cautious.

Especially, each of them has some own ideas about this matter.

Based on the situations we have encountered so far, I still want to think clearly with you about what should be done next.

As my destined system, you should think of a good way for me. "

"Ding dong, the system currently detects that the host is still under a lot of psychological pressure. If this is the case, what can the system do for the host?"

"System, you have been in my body for such a long time.

Without you, I wouldn't have been able to rise to prominence so quickly and gain everyone's trust.

Based on our current situation, we would probably have some other ideas, but what on earth have the two of us done so far? "

Currently, the system has detected many things that are completely different from what they know.

He didn't quite understand why Qin Yuan, as his host, had to create a dangerous virus and put it into the spy system of country H.

This is something he has no way of understanding. As an AI intelligent system, he does not have human emotions at all.

"Ding dong, the system has detected that the host wants to invest some viruses. Some people don't dare to believe it and want to ask the host whether to make further execution instructions for the current action."

Qin Yuan, he is also very confused now. He knows that in order to save Fan Tianlei, he should not resort to any means.

However, in a sense, he shouldn't do this.

Qin Yuan let out a long sigh.

"Ding dong, the host doesn't need to sigh over this matter.

The current problem will be solved if the system can help you solve it. By the way, I forgot to remind you, the system is being upgraded recently. "

"oh..."

"Dingdong, is Suzhou not interested in system upgrades at all?

Don't you want to know what happens next? "

"To be honest, I'm not interested in any of this at all. I just want to know how we should deal with the next problem in the most appropriate way.

I've been thinking about these issues with Fan Tianlei and Noman Karim for a long time.

I know that I cannot violate my inner moral values, let alone join their camp casually.

If this is what we see before us, then what can we say?

However, there may be many problems. Your AI systems simply don't know what the most real emotional thoughts in our hearts are like.

When I first came to the army, I wanted to be a soldier with all my heart.

I don't want anything like fame and fortune at all. I just want to fulfill my truest beliefs and thoughts. "

After Qin Yuan said this, although he is a one-click recovery system, he is an AI system and has no human emotions.

At the same time, Qin Yuan could also feel a trace of despair in his heart.

"Ding dong, the system has detected that the current host's mood is not high, and there is still some sad feeling. The system reminds the host that there can be a solution to everything. Please relax, the host."

Qin Yuan is really dumbfounded by his one-click recovery system.

"I said, what on earth do you know? You are just a system in my body, but I am still very grateful for your concern for me, and I am also very touched.

The most important thing is that I really don't have any trustworthy friends around me now, and you are the only one who can give me a good idea.

To be honest, even if I don't have so many good brothers, Fan Tianlei is the only one I care about for so many years. He was indeed implicated today because of my affairs.

Otherwise, he should have a bright future if he can stay in the position of chief of staff. Although he is quite straightforward, many senior leaders in the army do not particularly like him.

He has been able to reach the position of chief of staff today because he has sacrificed a lot.

Under this situation, I really couldn't bear to bother him, and he couldn't bear to ask him to do more for us. "

As Qin Yuan spoke, there was still some disappointment in his eyes.

"System, you have already helped me so much and you don't care to help me again. Now that the spy system in country H has been repaired, we can only test the next series of problems.

I have told you just now.

There should be a process before we understand these things. I hope that you can make the most authentic decision in my heart based on these thoughts in my heart. "

"Dingdong, if the host has any instructions, just tell me."

"System, please help me test the spy's system now to see if some viruses can be implanted. Only in this way can Thor be properly protected."

"Dingdong, the system was developed to protect the safety of the host. If a virus is implanted, it can only be said that this is an unqualified system."

"How can you say that?"

I have already reported the relevant issues to you, and you should not seem a little unhappy because of this matter. I hope that you can clearly understand the problems between us. "

"Ding dong, host, the system is currently reminding you that you cannot use the virus system to attack the spy system of country H under any circumstances. Once discovered, it is likely to cause the internal system to be paralyzed."

"What did you say?"

Qin Yuan, he couldn't believe that the spy system of country H was so advanced.

Some anti-virus attack software has been implanted in their system. If a virus enters, there may be a reverse attack, which may harm Qin Yuan, his own one-click recovery system.

"Don't be anxious, everyone. Speak slowly. According to our understanding of this matter, there are indeed many things that we have not thought carefully about. If this is the case, then we can only slowly think of solutions.

System, I hope to get the truth from you. If you really use this virus attack method to invade the spy system of country H, is it possible that it will harm you? "

"Ding dong, host.

This one-click recovery system has been with you for such a long time, and it has never encountered such a big crisis. If this method is really adopted, it is indeed not a very suitable choice.

However, the problems we are encountering now can be easily solved, if the host is really determined to intrude some viruses into the spy system.

Even if the one-click system is for the host, it will try its best.

Suppose that if the system is really attacked by a reverse virus, it is likely to be paralyzed and there will be no chance to see the host again. "

Qin Yuan still hesitated a little after hearing this. This one-click recovery system, which has been with him for a long time, has no emotions, but Qin Yuan does.

"Wait a minute, if you say that, I'm still a little reluctant to let you take risks.

Even if you are just an AI system that can help me a lot, my hesitation is not that if you are attacked by a virus, you will not be able to help me anymore.

I just feel sorry for you. I think there are still some things I say about feelings between us that are too funny.

You are just a high-tech system without emotions.

But, I am different, I have been with you for such a long time.

Very, I understand this true feeling in your heart.

Once, if we have any other problems, I also hope that you can be more tolerant of me.

Since this is the case, there's nothing more I can say.

Only by solving the problems we are facing can we move to a new stage.

If, if you are confident, let's give it a try together. I am also willing to do it for Thor. "

After Qin Yuan finished speaking, there was a trace of tears in his eyes.

"System, what I just said to you is completely from my truest thoughts. There is no need for me to play the emotional card with you, because you have no emotions.

Well, even at the risk of you being harmed by the virus, I want to give it a try. Apart from this, I can't think of any other way.

Fan Tianlei has helped me a lot over the years. I really don't want anything to happen again that will affect the relationship between the two of us.

Although, Fan Tianlei has never openly said that he is willing to accept me as his apprentice.

However, this person has long been no different from my teacher in my heart.

System, just think of it as me begging you. Please help me test it again and see if I can see if the virus can be reversely implanted in the system again, making them think that the virus that invaded the spy system is an American virus.

Remember, it must be an American virus.

Only in this way can all of us be cleared of suspicion and all the dirty water can be poured out on our long-standing hostility to the United States. It would be even better if this matter could be linked to Efit. "

The system was not quite able to understand what Qin Yuan said, but it was just following orders. In this case, he could feel relieved.

"Ding dong, currently no host has detected it. Some related problems are being solved for you. will definitely be able to help you as long as it finds this method.

Host, please don't worry. After solving this problem, Chief of Staff Fan Tianlei should be able to come out normally. The system's big data application has already calculated it for you.

Through the method you just used, what are the chances of Chief of Staff Fan Tianlei coming back?

After Qin Yuan heard this, he was very shocked.

"System, no wonder you said you had upgraded just now. I almost didn't have any idea. If it comes to this, it is really like this. I almost forgot that you also have big data analysis application functions.

If under this situation, you help me analyze the probability of using my current method to save Fan Tianlei, it means that we will succeed soon. "

"Ding Dong, please host, please continue to select the following link questions according to the questions on the screen. After the answer is completed, the system will officially calculate the probability of completing this task."

Qin Yuan now saw a series of questions appearing in front of him. He was thinking about how this was like an exam, but there was no way. As long as there was a glimmer of hope, he would never give up.

"Well, I can't care about other things so much anymore, so naturally I don't care.

Unless we all have some ideas about how to formally resolve this matter, it is really not appropriate to put everyone in a bit of a quandary because of this matter. "

After Qin Yuan finished speaking, he began to answer the questions displayed on the screen by the system. There should be no better way for him. As long as he can solve it, that is the optimal solution.

"Having your system really helped me a lot. Enron outside, and Chen Jixiang are waiting for my answer. I can't hide in the room for too long."

Chapter 2102: Reverse implantation of system viruses, success rate is 40/0

Qin Yuan's psychological planning was quite perfect, and he also felt that this matter was similar to what he imagined.

If it really goes as planned as they imagined, then they will succeed soon.

"System, you should have detected the truest thoughts in your heart with what I planned just now. I just want to tell you.

Many things may be different from what we expected. What we are planning now is a relatively perfect one. We are not sure what kind of changes will occur.

Just like the two of us said just now, if it is because of something wrong on our side.

affects the operation of the entire system.

Then, it is very likely that the gain will outweigh the loss.

Although I don't want to encounter this situation, I must remind you that many problems are completely different from what we imagined.

If we can't solve this situation properly, no one can tell clearly what the next step will be.

So my current idea is that you should quickly test the spy system of country H to see what the situation is like in this regard.

It doesn't matter to all of us, we won't waste time.

I can understand that you are a very capable system, but in this case, I can't guarantee anything.

We can only think according to our own advance thoughts.

Especially at this critical time, I can't say anything to you, I can only bear it silently.

In fact, deep down in my heart, my thoughts are very simple. As long as I can save the hotel, nothing else matters to me. "

After the system heard what Qin Yuan said, he was also able to understand that it was an auxiliary AI system.

What he can do now is to help the host fulfill any of his wishes. This is his greatest meaning.

"Dingdong, hello host, the system has memorized what you just said. If there are no problems, I will help you solve them now.

It has been testing just now. If the H country spy system pointed out the virus in reverse, the success rate would be only about 40%. "

When Qin Yuan heard this, he definitely couldn't accept it. This was completely different from what he expected.

"What did you say?

The success rate is only 40%. Are you kidding me? "

"Dingdong, we must remind the host that this is already a very conservative figure. If we go by basic estimates, it will not reach this value."

Qin Yuan is sweating profusely now. He really can't imagine how to solve the problem if he encounters it in this situation.

"System, I have already thought about what you just said.

If this is the case, then I can't force you to do anything. As a very intelligent AI system, if you feel that the success rate of this problem is too low and you are unwilling to help me, I have nothing to say. Yes, I can't force you to take risks. "

"Dingdong, host, you were right just now. We as a system do not have any emotions, so as long as you give the order, we will definitely complete it."

So far, Qin Yuan still has a lot of tangles with this idea in his heart. He has already thought that if he fails, he will simply lose his wife, lose his troops, and lose his wife again.

"Forty percent is still a conservative estimate."

At this moment, Qin Yuan suddenly thought of a plan.

Ask Fan Tianlei what the situation is like so far.

For a long time, this has been an unimaginable problem for him, especially after they have anticipated many events, it is even more impossible to make a rough estimate.

"Instructor Gong Jian, he has been with Fan Tianlei for so many years and has very rich experience. He is usually a bit arrogant, but there is no problem with his ability.

Now, I can basically confirm that Du Bingbing is not trustworthy.

He is too difficult to control. He is completely different from what I imagined. I can't let myself take risks, let alone give them the opportunity to hurt Fan Tianlei, especially when there are so many conflicts of interest between him and Fan Tianlei. How can we guarantee that he will help us selflessly? "

Qin Yuan, thinking that he was going to contact instructor Gong Jian,

This time was different from usual. This time he contacted the other party secretly and alone. I believe he would still tell the truth to him.

"System, please wait here for a moment, I'm going to contact instructor Gong Jian."

After Qin Yuan finished speaking, he did not hesitate.

"Dingdong, would you like to ask the host if you plan to contact Instructor Gong Jian in the address book?"

"You are already able to control the address book, so your system is too smart now."

"Dingdong, we are contacting the host, Instructor Gong Jian in the address book."

Qin Yuan took out his mobile phone and checked the time. They should be working there now, so normally they would not be disturbed.

"Qin Yuan?"

Instructor Gong Jian answered his words in a cautious voice. He could feel that he was answering him in a relatively closed and hidden place.

"Instructor Gong Jian, I'm sorry to disturb you. I don't know what you are busy with now. I am particularly concerned about Fan Tianlei and I don't know how he is doing now."

"Qin Yuan, if you, the Ba Kingdom, can complete the mission entrusted to you by the God of Thunder, you are worthy of him, and so far, he has been assigned a time and place.

There is no way for me to see him. You also know that at my level, I have no right to speak.

I can only follow other people's arrangements. I also want to help you, but I am unable to do so. "

After Qin Yuan heard this, he felt very sorry in his heart.

He knew that the brotherhood between the two people was very good, and on the surface, there was no conflict in status and position. Even if Fan Tianlei really came down, the instructor would not be able to directly achieve the position of chief of staff.

"Instructor Gong Jian, I really feel very sorry for Thor right now.

He really gave everything for us, and now he has to bear the consequences for us, which really makes us feel very uncomfortable.

If this is the case, then I really have nothing to say.

We can only choose the current situation and consider it slowly, but these issues are not something that all of us can decide. "

"Qin Yuan, you took Chen Jixiang and He Chenguang with you to complete the mission there. They are already exhausted mentally and physically. Don't choose the time to say anything for me. Among the situations we have encountered now, Fan Tianlei's situation is no longer the best. It's the worst."

"I can understand. To be honest, what I'm more worried about now is Professor Fang De. Until now, we don't know exactly what he is like. If these things make everyone feel troubled.

That's really not worth the loss. Du Bingbing, he refused to follow us. To be honest, I always felt that he seemed to have taken a fancy to the position of Thor. If there was any problem with Thor, he would definitely add insult to injury immediately. "

Instructor Gong Jian shook his head helplessly at the side.

"Qin Yuan, you have been out for such a long time, let me tell you the truth. In fact, Du Bingbing, this child is not as sinister and bad as you think.

He still has a lot in mind, especially in our current situation.

To be honest, have you never felt that everything Du Bingbing did was just to attract your attention?

After Qin Yuan heard this, he was now in a very confused state. How could this be possible? No matter how charming he is, he can't attract such an iceberg beauty, can he?

"Instructor Gong Jian, please stop making these jokes with me. I did have a relatively good friendship with Du Bingbing, but if you said that he would do something for me, it would be absolutely impossible. How can I have such great charm?"

"Hahaha, Qin Yuan, you really don't understand your own charm. Not only Du Bingbing but also the girl An Ran are fascinated by you. Everyone is doing everything for you.

Chen Jixiang is a young man. He is willing to be a little follower by your side and can do anything for you. If he were a little girl, he would have been fascinated by you by now.

Please put some of your charm back on yourself.

By the way, don't let the local people have any kind of feelings for you in Pakistan, otherwise you are likely to become the second Noman Karim. "

"the second?"

Qin Yuan smiled helplessly.

"Instructor Gong Jian, you really think too highly of me. How could I be so charming? I have also seen Mr. Norman Karim.

I discovered that when he was young, he was probably really a handsome guy with extraordinary temperament.

Not to mention when he was young, even now he has an elegant and handsome look, without the greasiness of a middle-aged man at all.

There are also all kinds of little girls around him, and many of them must be very envious of him. "

"There's nothing you can do about it. In fact, people's charm is destined by heaven, and it's not something you can do whatever you want.

By the way, Professor Fang De has been keeping an eye on the situation.

Maybe it's not as serious as Du Bingbing said, but they are indeed trying every possible means to find a special medicine. If you have relevant information, please explain it to them quickly. "

"They are looking for special medicine, and I know that Du Bingbing has forced Enron more than once.

He told Enron, a definite time.

Within this specified time, the special medicine must be brought quickly.

Otherwise, the two of them are really likely to be in danger. I don't want to see this situation so I tell them directly. If this is really the case, then I don't know what to do. . "

After Instructor Gong Jian was silent for a while, he looked back and saw that there was no one else around, so he asked slowly.

"Qin Yuan, I want to ask you, what kind of situation are you in now? Are you sure you can escape from this place quickly?"

"To tell you the truth, this guy Noman Kalim has us under control.

It would be impossible for me to run away in a short time. He has always wanted to cooperate with me.

I am not willing to go against what I think in my heart, nor am I willing to be someone who goes against what I really think in my heart.

Therefore, it is impossible for me to agree to him. In this case, you also know that if we do not agree, we will definitely be in a very passive state. "

"Qin Yuan, if you say that, I will understand your current situation.

That's true. You should worry about Thor. If he can come out, he will help you a lot.

His inability to come out now has also caused you a lot of trouble, which means that you really need to use all your strength to save Thor first. "

"Yes, I contacted you today mainly to tell you.

Can you think of a way to see Thor and tell him that must not take all the responsibility on yourself.

Even if it is, what kind of substantive evidence the other party has, he can only insist that he doesn't know. Don't take these responsibilities just to protect us. In fact, it has nothing to do with him in the first place. It's all my fault. . "

"Qin Yuan, I hope you are more awake now. This is not a time to blame yourself or to be addicted. You should be able to understand that everyone is counting on you. If something goes wrong on your side, everyone else will be responsible. What to do.

Thor, he is indeed a person with a strong sense of responsibility. I could already feel it when the top brass of the army took him away.

It is understandable that he will take all responsibilities for you, and he will definitely do so.

However, the problems we are facing are definitely not easy to solve.

Fan Tianlei, he is now the chief of staff. You should know how important this position is to many people.

Especially after the situations we encountered, it will never be that simple.

Therefore, I thought about it a lot at the beginning. If you want me to convey some news to him, then I can only tell you that it is unlikely. "

After Qin Yuan heard instructor Gong Jian give him a definite answer, he was still a little disappointed.

However, these disappointments were also expected by him. He knew how important the position of chief of staff was. Once he was investigated by the higher-ups of the army, he would definitely be stipulated that no one would be allowed to see him at a time and place.

If I insist on letting others deliver the news to Fan Tianlei, I will only drag another person into the water.

Chapter 2103: Okay, let me think of a way

Instructor Gong Jian didn't mean to accept the rejection directly, but he also made it clear that he was not prepared for this matter.

Qin Yuan thought in his heart that if he was always in trouble because of this matter, other people seemed not suitable either, and he still felt a little embarrassed.

"Instructor Gong Jian, I also understand that you still have some obstacles in your mind regarding these things.

Don't worry, Fan Tianlei's matter won't embarrass you.

If you are embarrassed about your own position in this aspect, none of us can say anything.

Especially at this critical moment, we have already lost Thor, so we cannot lose you for the time being, otherwise no one will really be willing to stand up and speak for us. "

"Qin Yuan, do you think I'm too selfish?"

"Of course not, I wouldn't think so.

Everyone has their own range of abilities. Without such abilities, there is no need to do such things. At the beginning, we all thought a lot about this issue before we came to this point.

If there are others, we may naturally say some more.

In case, there are more, we have to decide according to our own thoughts.

Anyway, having said all this, it is not easy for everyone. We cannot do such selfish things. Let's put the Thor issue aside for the time being.

If there is a chance in the future, I will contact you again to pass on the news.

You alone cannot decide this kind of thing. Anyway, it is quite difficult for all of us. "

Instructor Gong Jian still felt a little uncomfortable. He felt that he had gone too far in not helping Qin Yuan.

"Qin Yuan, let's do this. What kind of news do you want to convey to Fan Tianlei? You can tell me directly.

If I can find an opportunity to help, I will definitely not hesitate. If there is really no other way, then I can only do more than I can do. "

"No need, instructor Gong Jian.

Just do your part and don't make everyone unhappy because of these things.

It may not be appropriate, especially after we have said so much and there are no other good results.

Anyway, we don't care anymore.

As long as you can let us complete all the things in front of us, the rest will definitely not matter. "

Instructor Gong Jian still felt a little uncomfortable. He felt that Qin Yuan finally asked for help, but he was unable to help. It was really unreasonable.

Especially in this situation, he didn't want everyone to be in trouble, but everyone's abilities were limited.

"Qin Yuan, let's face it, I can't guarantee you that I will be able to complete the task you entrusted to me.

Under the current difficult situation.

Fan Tianlei is already so serious. If all of us are unhappy because of these things, what will be the consequences next?

Everyone can basically imagine it. Therefore, after telling you this, I am still in a dilemma. I also hope that you can think clearly. "

Qin Yuan, he no longer knows what to say. If the other party is not willing to help, then forget it. The system is testing the possibility of reversely implanting a virus into the system.

It was detected just now, and it was probably only 40%.

Qin Yuan was still very uneasy. He felt that once he did something, he had to complete it well.

If he couldn't complete it, he wouldn't take such risky behavior if he wasn't sure of victory.

"Thor, he has been locked up by the top management now.

Who could be in contact with him secretly? We are also unsure here. "

Instructor Gong Jian seemed to have thought of a better question, and he suddenly felt that he might be able to help in this regard.

"Qin Yuan, don't be so anxious and disappointed. I just thought about it. I may not be able to help you deliver the news, but I can help you find out who is responsible for Thor's surveillance in the army.

Even if he couldn't move around at the prescribed time and place, he would still have to eat and drink. There should be someone dedicated to bring him food and water.

Assuming that we find a breakthrough, the next thing will be completed.

What scares us the most is that we don't know who to look for, what specific means are needed, and it doesn't matter how much money we spend, as long as we can find a way. "

"Not at all, we think it's that simple.

Anyone who can take care of Fan Tianlei in the army will never be easily moved by the conditions we offer.

It is still very difficult to persuade them.

I don't have much hope. Let's think of other ways. We can't hang ourselves from a tree.

Many problems may be because we think too complicatedly, and when they are actually implemented, they may not be what we expect now.

So, don't be anxious for now. Let me consider this matter slowly.

Let's talk about it after we find a suitable breakthrough, otherwise Fan Tianlei may be charged with casually exchanging information with the outside world.

I don't want him to take any more blame. "

"Okay, Qin Yuan.

I will carefully investigate this matter for you. In addition to helping you, I am also helping Thor. "

"Instructor Gong Jian, if you can say that, then I would really like to thank you very much."

"There's no need to say it like that, I am the same, and I do it as a last resort.

Okay, Qin Yuan, I won't tell you anymore. I have some other work here. If I have time, I will contact you again. You must protect yourselves in Pakistan.

Do pay attention to Noman Kareem, he is not a person who scares us.

There are still many issues on his mind now, and they are also very complicated. We cannot make other decisions casually. "

"Yeah, I understand. Instructor Gong Jian, you should also take care of yourself."

After cutting off contact, Qin Yuan sat blankly on the bed alone, not knowing how to save Fan Tianlei. Now his system seemed to have encountered an unprecedented problem.

Chapter 2104: Efit: You have to learn to use your strengths

Outside the Pakistani Parliament, Xiao Lan is secretly preparing to contact Efit.

He carefully took out a cell phone from his pocket specifically for contacting Efit. This was something the two of them knew.

Except for the two of them, no one could know the existence of this mobile phone. It was specially made into a relatively hidden small mobile phone that no one else could see.

As Xiaolan looked around, he knew that Qin Yuan was a very smart person. It would not be a problem to contact him secretly without the other party's knowledge.

If Qin Yuan discovered it, the consequences would be disastrous.

"Efit, it's me, what are you planning to do here?"

"Xiaolan, you really scared me.

There are indeed too many things that have happened recently, didn't I say?

Don't contact me secretly without anyone seeing it. No one can know about our relationship.

Especially Qin Yuan, and An Ran.

Even though they are not following you, each of them has several eyes.

If you let them know that the two of us are so closely connected, you will be worried. Mr. Noman Karim is not a good man.

If you let him know that there is such a betrayal by your side, neither of us will survive, not even Old K. Do you understand? "

Xiaolan, before he said anything, was scolded by Efit.

In my heart, I must still feel a little uncomfortable. I originally thought about telling him more information, but I immediately chickened out when I thought about it.

"Efit, we have known each other for such a long time.

Could it be that I would contact you for no reason? Why don't you believe me at all?

To be honest, the reason why I am contacting you is not about the love between our children. I just want to tell you that Qin Yuan has started contacting you to help Fan Tianlei escape the crime.

I don't know what you think.

I once heard you say that Fan Tianlei is a capable person, and he has always been behind Qin Yuan to protect him and help her comment on many things.

If Fan Tianlei comes out, I don't know if it will affect your plan.

I don't know if you want to use some method to intercept them.

Anyway, I have already informed everyone who needs to be notified. If you feel that I have really affected you, we should have less contact in the future. "

Xiaolan, after saying this, he felt a little sad.

Efit didn't want to say anything against Xiaolan. He mainly wanted to lose Lao K's batch of arms recently, and he didn't know how to explain it to them.

Qin Yuan's messy things happened here again, and he was a little overwhelmed for a while.

"Wait a minute, Xiaolan, don't worry, we have known each other for such a long time, there is nothing we can't say clearly.

I admit that my attitude just now was indeed quite bad and made you suffer. I apologize to you. Since this matter concerns Qin Yuan, we have to think about it carefully and make a long-term plan.

"Efit, I really miss you. The two of us have been together for such a long time.

You have always been sneaky. You always asked me to help you find some useful information around Norman Karim. I didn't say anything. Even though I knew this was a very dangerous mission, I didn't refuse you.

However, you have never considered my mood. I live under multiple pressures all the time.

You also know that since I came here, Mr. Norman Karim, who is not particularly trusting, has kept me isolated.

Everything is solved by me alone. If you come across some other ideas, I naturally won't be able to help you quickly.

However, if you have other questions, I will be cautious and help you with it carefully.

The two of us have been in this state for a long time.

I have never been discovered by others. After all, I am also a spy from the United States. You should believe in my abilities. "

"I'm sorry, Xiaolan, I did underestimate your ability. I must apologize to you. You can also understand my recent mood and let's stop talking about each other.

You said that Fan Tianlei is very likely to come out. This is unlikely. He has already entered the first-level secret espionage system of H country.

The top brass of the army over there will definitely not let him go.

In addition, he usually has a bad temper, and many people are already dissatisfied with him. Being able to take him away this time can be regarded as an opportunity through the spy system.

I think you all don't need to worry so much. Qin Yuan, even if he has great abilities, he probably can't do it. "

Effit is still confident of his thoughts. He believes that it is impossible for Qin Yuan to successfully bring Fan Tianlei out.

"Efit, don't be too proud. If you are arrogant, you have not experienced Qin Yuan's abilities once or twice. You will suffer some losses at his hands every time.

Although he is thousands of miles away now, he basically knows everything about Country H.

I think he is very determined in wanting to save Fan Tianlei.

If he wasn't very sure, he wouldn't have made such a stupid decision.

Besides, he still has many secret missions to carry out, so naturally he won't do the impossible.

Of course, this is my own analysis.

If you think there is any problem, you can reconsider it. I just want to inform you, Efit, you should be very clear about my feelings for you. I don't want to see you disappointed. "

"Xiaolan, no matter what, thank you for helping me think so much. You also know that I have been busy with arms recently. Norman Karim has seized this batch of arms.

No matter how capable I am, he doesn't want to see me.

Since I came here to escape my life, I have given him some gifts every year or even every month, but Norman Karim has never been able to meet me once. "

"Norman Karim feels that you are a person who cannot be trusted.

Naturally, he won't waste any more time on you, besides, you have been following Old K for so many years.

Even if you have the idea of changing the court, a suspicious person like Norman Karim.

He will never believe you. On the contrary, he values Qin Yuan very much now.

He is already willing to do whatever it takes to get Qin Yuan to join his camp. I don't particularly understand people like Qin Yuan. Even if he stays, who can control him? "

Efit, after hearing these words, he still felt a little sad. He really didn't know that he couldn't compare to Qin Yuan after working hard for so many years.

"Xiaolan, do you know what method Qin Yuan plans to use to help Efit escape from the detention of high-level officials?"

"I do not know then."

"this..."

"Efit, you don't have to feel so embarrassed about this matter.

Qin Yuan, he is a very cautious person, every time he is alone with him.

They are all watching very closely. Even if I eavesdrop from outside, it would be impossible.

He will not give me such an opportunity, and the problems we are encountering now are all expected. I hope you can think about it carefully.

Don't get too hasty, especially now that we've come this far.

We must stay calm. None of us know what kind of tasks Norman Karim will arrange for us.

Therefore, it depends on how we deal with it ourselves. Don't be impulsive.

Let's wait and talk about Lao K's situation slowly. It's possible that he will give us some other inspirations. "

After Xiaolan said this, he must still feel a little uncomfortable in his heart.

"By the way, how is your contact with He Chenguang? Has he admitted that he is also a spy for the United States?"

"No, he is a very cautious person. No matter what tricks I use against him, he still refuses to admit his identity. This is one of the reasons why I feel very confused. Are you really sure about him? Is he an American spy?"

"Xiaolan, He Chenguang, I'm very sure about this guy's spy identity, and it's even more impossible for me to come here to deceive you into taking risks because of this matter.

Before, when I was in country H, I was already very sure of his identity.

Especially, after I learned about his experience, I became even more certain that as a senior spy, he had his own professional qualities and career plans.

Every time you test him, he will definitely not tell you the truth.

So, I hope you can think of some ways to avoid making everyone unhappy because of these things.

We all know clearly that these problems are not so easy to deal with now.

It was even more difficult for him to understand that he had been with Qin Yuan for so long.

We have learned a lot more insidious and cunning things. I think we should be more careful and not let them take advantage of us. "

Efite is already so sure, and Xiaolan has nothing to say. He never takes the initiative to doubt anything. As long as Efite tells him, he will believe it.

"Efite, don't worry.

He Chenguang, I will definitely help you verify your identity. I don't believe how long this guy can hide it. As long as I use some means, he will definitely not be able to withstand it. "

Efite, said with a wicked smile.

"Xiaolan, a charming girl like you just needs to walk in front of him.

I don't believe he would be able to hide such important information with just a few tricks on him.

He is sure that he can't stand it anymore. As long as you let him feel your charm, he will definitely give up. "

"Efite, are you trying to get me to use a honey trap?"

"Xiaolan, don't speak so harshly. I know that we need to use different methods to treat different people. This is called prescribing the right medicine.

The beauty trap may not be of much use to Qin Yuan. He is a very persistent guy, but it may not be useful to other people.

As a woman, I think you need to understand your strengths at all times and use them to your advantage.

Just hold them tight, and when the time comes, they will come over just by twitching their fingers, so you have nothing to worry about. "

"Have you never considered my true thoughts? I have used this trick with Mr. Norman Karim before, and it didn't work at all."

"That's because you're not his type.

He Chenguang, unlike Mr. Norman Karim, eats abalone and ginseng wings every day.

He Chenguang has been in the army for so many years. He has to report every step he takes. He has seen many good things and several beautiful women.

As long as you have a little thought towards him, his identity will definitely be exposed in front of you.

I am very sure of this. The most important thing is that I believe in your charm. "

Xiaolan sneered after hearing this.

"Efit, since you have determined He Chenguang's identity so much, why do you need to wait for him to come and ask me?

He is also a very persistent guy, and it is impossible for us to allow us to make many guesses about him.

I feel that these things are completely useless, and it is impossible for him to allow us to proceed successfully.

You'd better find another way. With Qin Yuan by his side, even if he has the heart, he doesn't have the courage. "

"Xiaolan, the friendship between us means you don't plan to help me anymore, right?"

"Efit, since I came to Norman Karim, you have been talking to me about this, and you have been talking about taking me away all day long.

However, I don't see that you have this idea in your body.

On the contrary, I always feel as if you are taking advantage of me. Of course, I shouldn't think so, but your behavior really makes me feel a little chilled.

Since you are so sure of He Chenguang's identity, I think if you go to him directly and ask for some conditions, it may be easier for him to accept it. Sometimes some people only love benefits and not beauty.

With Qin Yuan by his side, he might have transmitted a lot of thoughts in this regard to him.

It is impossible for all of us to control him. I advise you to think about it again. I have no other ideas. I think about it all for your sake. "

Efit, after hearing what Xiaolan said, he clenched his fists and gritted his teeth on the other end of the phone.

He wanted to bite his teeth into pieces. He already hated Qin Yuan and his group to the bone.

Chapter 2105: Hassan: I finally came back

After Qin Yuan heard these words, he was very confused now.

Instructor Gong Jian is also sincerely doing his own good. If he disagrees with anything, it is difficult to guarantee what will be done next.

At this time, the conversation between Xiaolan and Efit had also ended.

The two of them have been outside all the time, and I don't know what they were discussing. Anyway, there must be some conspiracy for them.

At the door of a central hospital in Pakistan, a middle-aged man staggered to the door of the hospital, covered in tatters. He looked as if he had not eaten for days and nights, and was very skinny.

One of the nurses saw this situation and quickly pulled it to her side.

"Old gentleman, are you okay? What happened? How did you become like this?"

"I just came back from a distant suburb. I haven't eaten or drank water for several days and nights. Send me to the emergency room immediately. I'm from the maritime patrol force.

You can contact the maritime patrol force now and ask them to come over and send some medical expenses. I can't hold on anymore..."

Hassan, in Qin Yuan, after they stole these cars, he stayed outside alone for a long time.

Finally, after all the hard work, I climbed back.

This time, he came back determined to settle the score with Qin Yuan and Efit.

The raging anger ignited in his heart could no longer be extinguished.

Hassan muttered something before he fainted.

"I...I finally crawled back. You two, just wait for me. I'll talk about cooperation with you. No one takes me seriously. In this case, don't blame me for being ruthless and unjust to you."

After saying that, Hassan fainted directly in front of the hospital.

At this moment, Qin Yuan and Efite have not realized the seriousness of the matter and do not know what to do next.

Anyway, this will definitely not be a good outcome for the two of them.

The more this happens, the more they have to think carefully about how to deal with the problems at hand.

At least, many things are not a good outcome for them.

This group of people should not walk out casually no matter what.

Now that it has appeared, it will be a very difficult decision for them.

Every time he thinks of this, Qin Yuan must feel a little uncomfortable.

Xiaolan, after talking to Efite, he still feels a little uncomfortable after the current situation.

At least, this will definitely not be a difficult problem for them to solve.

Especially, after they all understood the consequences of what was happening before them.

If, for such a small reason, all of them feel sad, then the gain outweighs the loss.

Hassan, who has successfully come back from the outside, doesn't know what to do.

He has taken several people with him until now, but he is the only one who has successfully come back.

The pressure in his heart must be very great. He already hates Qin Yuan and Effit to the core, and it is absolutely impossible for him to forgive them.

In this case, I will definitely choose revenge on them without hesitation.

However, this is not an option for Qin Yuan.

Qin Yuan, if he could choose, would not be willing to answer such a question. Qin Yuan still had some difficulties for him, and he didn't know how to explain it to the people in front of him.

Hassan, the news that he has returned successfully has been received by the patrol force, and they have now begun to head to the nearby area. As long as there is a chance, he will definitely not give up.

The maritime patrol force has received some news, and Norman Karim has also received some news. He will definitely choose to intercept Qin Yuan and the others now.

Norman Karim, after knowing this news, he was wondering whether to inform Qin Yuan, because this would be an unprecedented challenge for him.

He values people like Qin Yuan very much and naturally wants to do everything possible to keep him by his side. If there are more and better ways, he will definitely think of it himself.

The men said to Norman Karim.

"Hassan has returned successfully. I now believe that he must have a lot of hatred for Qin Yuan and his group. If we can take advantage of it..."

"Hassan, this guy, has always been causing destruction around us for so many years. I am not willing to forgive him easily. If we choose to cooperate with him to force Qin Yuan, it will not be a good choice for us.

Qin Yuan, the reason why he would do such a serious thing to Hassan.

It's just because Hassan has been forcing him to cooperate with him. "

"But Mr. Norman Karim.

What should we do next to satisfy everyone's ideas?

I know that you value Qin Yuan's talent very much, but now he is really unwilling to consider the problem from our side.

Once, if he successfully goes back and investigates clearly.

With these things around us, we will be in a very passive position. If you don't think about it carefully, you don't know what the next problem will be.

You must not give them such a serious opportunity.

What do these people think? We don't have a number in mind. "

Norman Karim, the only thing he is focusing on now is the annexation of the United States and the underground arms trading system. He knows better than anyone else whether the people around him can be of some use to him.

"By the way, after telling you these words, you still can't stick to the end. Many issues are different from what you imagined. You all have to think carefully about me."

"understandable."

"I don't know how well prepared Sofia is. I always feel that this woman is still a little unreliable. He actually dares to do many incredible things without telling you when he is around you.

In the United States, at a private hospital, he actually secretly gave this kind of special medicine to others. This is something you have personally confessed. If he betrays you because of such a trivial matter, it is really too much.

Mr. Norman Karim, this Sophia has been with you for so many years. Could it be that you have always been thinking about this. "

"There's nothing else. I just think that this girl Sophia is very smart. If she can stay with me, it will be a very good choice for me, and I don't want to embarrass him.

It's just that he has been by my side since childhood. If this time he had other thoughts because of Qin Yuan's incident, then I would have no way to forgive him. I cannot allow others to do this.

In the United States, have you contacted private hospitals?

This kind of special medicine is very rare for us, and the cost of each special medicine is very high.

Of course, now that I have reached my level, money is no longer so important.

The most important thing is that I can use these resources to do my own things well. This brat Qin Yuan can be regarded as leaving a deep mark in my heart.

I would really feel it would be a pity if it couldn't be brought to my side to help me do things. Fan Tianlei, I heard that something happened to him. "

"Yes, Mr. Norman Karim.

Fan Tianlei, he is involved in the leakage of secrets of some H country's spy systems, which is very serious.

Internally, they regard this kind of thing as more important than anything else.

Now that he has been caught, I think that means we will have to take the next step here soon.

I don't know what you think, but I think you must not give him more opportunities. If they all know about it, it will be difficult for you to do anything here. "

"Fan Tianlei, after all, is a good friend who has been with me for so many years. If there are any problems between the two of us, you don't need to remind me here.

He was inexplicably involved in the spy system incident. Although I don't know why, I think it is probably related to Qin Yuan, a brat.

To be honest, I have always felt that Qin Yuan, this kid is like a time bomb. Anyone who gets too close to him is likely to be hurt. "

"Then you still value him so much?"

"No, you don't understand many things.

One thing comes to another, Qin Yuan, even if this kid like him can cause trouble again, for me, I still value him very much.

So, please don't continue to talk to me about this. I already know it very well.

I can understand even if I don't know what I should do.

This kid is determined to do things for Fan Tianlei wholeheartedly. As a result, we are indeed in some trouble. "

"These two students of Professor Fang De have been with us all this time. I don't know what you plan to do with them."

"Can't handle it. Although these two guys are on our territory and don't say a word, they are also rare talents for us.

Especially, after all the mess that happened.

I'm becoming more and more attracted to these two talents. It's their business if they don't want to speak. As long as they don't die, one day the knowledge in their heads will be able to contribute value.

Their teacher, Professor Fang De, couldn't hold on much longer.

In this case, we are not just picking up the slack, but we are also able to make them understand themselves clearly.

As long as their teacher dies and there is no one to restrain them, it means that they will be able to help us soon. I don't believe that there are people in this world who can't be moved by money, power and beauty. "

"Mr. Norman Karim, I can also see that Qin Yuan is a very persistent person. He insists on bringing back Professor Fang De and these two students. When the time comes, let's not stop him and make the effort in vain.

Also, these two guys have been following Professor Fang De for so long and have learned the same bad temper from him. This is not a good result for us.

I think it's just me asking, are you really not going to hand over the special medicine to them? Professor Fang De is one of the best talents in the world. If he dies because of this incident, I don't think the research he has learned throughout his life will be of much use to his two students.

Maybe, not even one-tenth of his level.

If you really lose such a good talent, it will be even more difficult to study the problem of making fire in the future. We can't miss this opportunity. "

Noman Karim, he is also a very smart man and would never kill the goose that lays the egg.

"I understand that Professor Fang De is the real core master of all technologies, and his two students are just his puppets.

To be honest, these two guys are not of much use if they stay here with us. Compared with Professor Fang De's research achievements, they are simply not worth mentioning. is worthless.

However, Professor Fang De is now under the control of Country H, and it is impossible for him to come out casually.

This will be an unprecedented problem for us.

How to solve this problem is what we should think about most now, and it is also what you people should share my worries and solve problems for me.

Don't leave me alone to think through all the problems so clearly.

Let me solve all the problems by myself.

I want all of you to go out and let them all brainstorm and think of some solutions.

Now if Qin Yuan, this kid is not willing to cooperate with us, I won't be able to let him take advantage.

Even if they don't give up for Fan Tianlei's sake, the lives of these people still have to be stripped of their skin before they leave. "

Norman Karim is really a very cruel guy. No wonder he has reached this position and pretends to admire Qin Yuan very much.

However, as soon as he said these words to the other party about not cooperating with him, he immediately turned serious. If it weren't for Fan Tianlei's face, he might not have forgiven them at all.

"But Sofia and the others have been trying to convince Qin Yuan. I don't think it's necessary. Sofia has already angered these people and betrayed them many times. No one will feel good."

"I see that Sophia is already wholeheartedly trying to help this group of people. If that doesn't work, please notify Sophia quickly and ask him to get out of here.

If you have nothing to do, don't get involved in Qin Yuan and their affairs. I always feel that this woman is still very unreliable, even though I am usually very angry with him. "

Chapter 2106: Intimidating a little girl

After saying these words to Norman Karim, his subordinates now felt the ruthlessness of the leader in front of them.

They must be unwilling to say anything, but Mr. Norman Karim has given them a definite answer.

"Sofia has actually been loyal to you for so many years. He has never been against your wishes when he has been by your side. I believe he will not dare to do it this time."

"What's wrong with you?"

You've been speaking truthfully lately. Do you think you have some thoughts about Sophia? "

"No, Mr. Norman Karim, you really misunderstood. How dare I think about Sophia? I know she is your woman."

"As long as you know!"

However, even if you are serious, I wouldn't necessarily blame you if you have any thoughts about him.

The graceful lady and the gentleman are so jealous.

Oh, by the way, you may not understand what this sentence means.

However, you just have to remember to do things by my side. As long as you can satisfy me with anything, I can satisfy you. Everything is possible.

It is also relying on this principle that I have been able to reach today with my brothers.

By the way, what will happen to the two traitors next to Jason now? "

"You mean Akun and Amin?"

"Even the two of them, who betrayed me for so many years with just a few words, stay with me. I don't dare to use them. As for how to arrange them, you can just think about it yourself and find a suitable reason to send them away. ."

"Mr. Norman Karim, shouldn't he want to get rid of the two of them?"

If other brothers saw it, this would be the result after surrendering.

I'm afraid no one will dare to say anything in front of you again.

These two guys can be regarded as talented people who understand current affairs, so why not give them a chance. "

"Azhe, I see that you are becoming more and more rash with your words. When I used you to be by my side, I thought you were a prudent and appropriate person.

No matter what kind of task is given to you, you can complete it well.

Under this situation, don't let me disappoint you. Doing your own thing is more important than anything else. Do you understand what I mean? "

"Mr. Karim, don't worry, I have been an orphan who was bullied since I was a child.

If you hadn't always been by my side to help me, I wouldn't be in such a good position today.

I would never dare to betray you, but I feel that if A Kun and A Ming really die, others will feel a little frightened.

This is not powerful for you. I hope you can understand it well.

It's best not to hurt the two of them yet. I think they may still have some use if they stay here. "

"Azhe, being cautious and appropriate is your advantage. Carry it carefully and don't lose it.

Akun and Amin have surrendered to me, and I will definitely treat them well.

However, for such insincere people, we cannot place heavy responsibilities on them and just arrange small things for them.

Don't let them get in touch with the core business. Now is the time for us to fight with this guy, Old K.

Inexplicably involving Qin Yuan and his group was already a very difficult thing to accept.

If we let them continue to have access to the core business, it will be a very difficult problem for us.

So, after thinking so much, I also want to tell you.

Don't let them seize any handles or opportunities, especially at this critical time.

Many things just need to be left to us to do.

I don't care what other people think.

I don't want to think about these things either. My biggest worry right now is how to deal with the contradiction in front of me.

I don't care about anything else, these guys are always around me, saying these useless things.

It's really, really annoying.

I don't want to give them more opportunities, and I must find opportunities to help me keep an eye on Sophia.

Don't let him cause any extraneous matters for me. The situation in the United States is particularly complicated, and our private hospitals may have been targeted by Old K for a long time.

His underground arms trading system has always been by our side, and he has not taken any advantage.

Therefore, we are both equally powerful now.

Generally speaking, if anyone can get a little better, it means that they are not far from victory.

Under this situation, I don't want others to cause any extraneous things for me.

Qin Yuan, the sudden appearance of his group really caught me off guard.

But no matter what, there will always be some special situations in a person's life. "

After Norman Karim finished collecting these, the most loyal Azhe beside him also nodded.

However, at this moment, Azhe and Sophia are probably already plotting some other things for Norman Karim.

If the two people he trusts the most around him are united, he will face very big problems.

He had already seen that Azhe still had some other thoughts about Sophia, and he had to quickly cut off the connection between the two people.

Otherwise, one day you will overturn.

Outside the Pakistani parliament.

Xiaolan had just contacted Efit, but the other party still insisted on asking him to prove He Chenguang's identity. Xiaolan knew very well that he didn't have that many contacts with the organization now.

Many tasks assigned to him by the organization were not completed by himself.

Unlike Country H, the espionage system in the United States is very strict. As long as any spies are found to have the idea of treason, they will be sniped at all costs.

"Efit, I know Qin Yuan is a very difficult problem to solve in your heart.

But, have you never thought about myself?

I have long forgotten my identity as an American spy, and will even leave the organization soon. Now you want me to use this identity to testify against He Chenguang.

At the very least, I can now basically confirm that he is a very qualified spy who has been strictly fulfilling his responsibilities for so many years.

If he found out, I would have already betrayed the organization.

I'm afraid, the United States will definitely punish me. Do you really think you can protect me?

Or, in your heart, I am no different from a tool man. You have been close to me for so many years just to let me help you with things around Norman Karim.

Now I feel like a huge failure.

There is no place for me in the United States. After helping you, Mr. Norman Karim will no longer trust me, so he has always placed me in this club.

Generally speaking, he is quite polite to me, and that is because I am a girl.

Efit, I really want to ask you something today. Do you want to take me far away and leave these messy things behind?

You leave Old K, and I leave the American spy organization and Norman Karim.

We two have lived our own lives, why do we have to get entangled with them here? They clearly know that we are all their tools and everyone is just their pawns. "

After Efit thought for a long time, he said to Xiaolan with a queasy look on his face.

"Xiaolan, can you stop thinking about me so much? Am I this kind of person in your heart? I have already told you that as long as you complete this task.

Old K, he has already promised me that after successfully transporting this batch of arms, he is willing to let me leave the organization because I am already old.

It's impossible to be out there forever, helping him fight * battles.

Moreover, if these problems about Qin Yuan can be solved this time, I believe that Old K will definitely give me some important rewards. When the time comes, I will directly propose and take you far away.

Isn't it better for us two to be let go by him openly than to run away?

You can also see now what kind of fate Jason has fallen into. This is the fate of being a traitor next to old K. Look at how miserable he is now.

It was simply a matter of wives and children being separated, and families being destroyed.

The good brothers around him left him one by one. If Qin Yuan, the only remaining person, was not by his side, I think he might not even have the courage to live.

I can't be a second Jason.

We are going to live a good life in the future, Xiaolan, if you think about it carefully, the two of us have lived a life of knife-edge licking blood, and it is not easy for us to have a chance to live a good life in an honest and upright way.

You have to cherish it. "

Xiaolan is still very sober in her heart.

He knew that Efit had basically used him, but he was still willing to go through fire and water for this person.

"Well, I can't resist your charm. I will believe anything you say. Even if you lie to me, I am willing to believe that it is a white lie.

I have basically been able to confirm He Chenguang's identity, even if he is unwilling to admit it.

I have to say that he is a very qualified spy. Over the years, he has never forgotten his mission, which is very admirable to him.

If I could be half as loyal as him, I'd probably go back and get promoted and make a fortune.

It is because of meeting you that I failed to do everything well. I admit that I am not a qualified spy. Even if I die one day, I will have no face to return to the United States to face my former comrades.

While Xiaolan was talking, crystal tears flowed from the corners of his eyes.

He seems to regret it now. When he was young, he really shouldn't have been bewitched by this guy Efit. He has followed him for so many years, but he has never gotten what he wanted.

Xiaolan already knows that when a spy has feelings, it means that he is not far from death.

"How do you plan to deal with Qin Yuan's matter?

He is now trying his best to save Fan Tianlei. I have just told you that Fan Tianlei is a very important person to him.

If these two people reunited, Norman Karim might not be his opponent, let alone you. "

After Efit thought for a long time, he smiled and said.

"Xiaolan, if Norman Karim is not your opponent, that would be great. At the very least, this will be a potentially rare opportunity for us.

I have thought about it very clearly and understood that since Qin Yuan has the ability, let him use his ability.

In front of Norman Karim and Old K, give them a painful blow. When we find the opportunity to take the lead, no one can stop us. We can do whatever we want.

Have you never imagined that one day it would be like this? I don't know how many times I've dreamed about it in my dreams.

No matter what, I will never give up. At least this will be a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity for us. Go back and stick to Qin Yuan and He Chenguang.

Whenever we find a little opportunity, we cannot let them go. We must let them bear half of the grievances we have suffered. "

Xiaolan nodded silently.

After hanging up the phone, he went back and turned around and met Sophia.

"Xiaolan, who are you secretly calling?"

"No, Sofia, you must have misunderstood me. How could I secretly contact other people? You must have misunderstood me.

Today, too many things happened. As I told you just now, I didn't want to see the daily necessities in our club run out, so I ordered some outside. "

"Oh, you used to order the daily necessities after I ran out, and I've never seen you make such a long phone call.

I don't want to doubt you. Qin Yuan and An Ran are both here. How important are these people to me? I believe in you. You should be very clear.

Mr. Norman Karim, you should know better than anyone else why you are placed in this club and not reused. You should find some opportunities to perform well.

Don't let them continue to disappoint you. If Mr. Norman Karim knew that there was a cheating person around him, I believe you should know what the consequences would be.

After following Mr. Karim for so many years, I believe you have seen the fate of many traitors. You should also have some thoughts about Qin Yuan. They are in the house and may escape anytime and anywhere.

Don't think that because our surveillance system is so powerful, they can't escape. Don't ignore Qin Yuan. He is a very capable guy, and he has countless evil intentions in his heart.

I'm afraid none of our families can be his opponent.

Quickly cheer me up, and monitor the other party well. Mr. Norman Karim will reuse him later. He will transfer you out of this club and will not let you do anything you don't want to do again. "

Chapter 2107: Who cares about this kind of thing

After Norman Karim said this to Azhe, he did not feel that the other party might betray him. He just felt that the problems in front of him were completely different from what he expected.

Just hope that you can get a good result.

At the very least, many things should be sorted out in his mind.

For a long time, he now felt that some of these problems were too much compared to him.

He himself didn't know how to go about it, it was more appropriate to do it.

Every time he thought about this, he still had some trouble in his heart.

The more this happened, the less he knew how to answer.

Generally speaking, these problems will not be a good one for them, and they don't know what kind of situation they will face as a result.

Azhe also knew that A Kun and A Ming's sudden surrender might not necessarily serve as a good inspiration to everyone.

However, there is no doubt that Norman Karim will not trust the two of them.

What Norman Karim wants most now is Qin Yuan.

This person can help me a lot.

He will definitely not be the kind of person who is willing to listen to other people's words for no reason.

Therefore, every time he thinks about this, Azhe actually knows it very well.

It was probably a fluke that he was able to gain the trust of Mr. Norman Karim.

It cannot be said to be a fluke, it can only be said to be a blessing among misfortunes.

In fact, he himself still has a lot of considerations in this regard.

There are too many problems that are impossible to think about.

Every time, these can cause him great doubts and harm. It is this kind of situation that can make them all particularly nervous.

Norman Karim looked back at Azhe with a rather sinister look.

"So I've already told you what I should say to you. It's up to you what you should do next. You shouldn't let me arrange many things for you step by step, right?"

"Yeah, don't worry, Mr. Karim, I can understand what you said, but we will still encounter many problems in the future, at least in this aspect.

I'm still not sure about where A Kun and A Ming should be placed, and I'm not very clear either.

I also hope you can give me a clearer instruction.

In this case, what should we do. "

Norman Karim shook his head helplessly.

He felt that Azhe was a little too timid. Even after following him for such a long time, he trusted him and was able to make decisions on many small matters.

"By the way, as long as we take good care of these two students of Professor Fang De, we will be sure of victory. If these two people disappear, we really don't know what to do."

"Mr. Norman Karim, don't worry, as long as these two people are in our hands, everything else will be fine.

I know, that's what you think.

In fact, I also have this idea in my heart, but in this case, we cannot discuss some more detailed issues casually. "

"Don't worry so much now. These things are in our hearts, and there is no need to argue anymore.

I heard that Hassan has returned and has gone to the hospital for treatment.

I believe that he must have hated Qin Yuan deeply.

If we can make good use of this opportunity to sow discord, the relationship between the two of them may have a good chance of winning for us. "

"Mr. Karim, Hassan has indeed returned. However, I think he is a relatively dangerous person. We should not contact them too much for the time being."

"Don't think too much about it. He is a dangerous person. There is nothing to doubt. He has not wanted to cooperate with us to do anything for so many years."

He really went through a lot of hardships when he was a spy in Country H. I also saw with my own eyes that this silly boy Qin Yuan actually tried to find out step by step whether he was the spy back then.

I didn't expect that Fan Tianlei would be so stupid.

A spy at that time should be able to spot it at a glance.

Not only did he not see it, but he actually got involved in it, which really made me feel very speechless and even a little disappointed with him. "

"Mr. Karim, you must not say that.

Fan Tianlei is indeed quite old, and with Qin Yuan coming to our place, it is understandable that he is under great pressure and cannot recognize him.

Moreover, Hassan has been relentlessly changing his appearance over the years. Not only has he changed his body shape, but he has also undergone plastic surgery. He is no longer the same energetic and handsome young man he was back then.

If you hadn't been chasing him for so many years, I'm afraid he would often do something around us. Fortunately, you were able to discover it in time. "

Norman Karim, after hearing this, he said proudly.

"Of course, there is no doubt about it.

No matter what situation we encounter, it is impossible to have other troubles and thoughts. I have already told you that these problems are nothing in our hearts. "

"Then what is Qin Yuan planning to do?

This guy is just too persistent, no matter how many nice things we say to him.

He has always been unwilling to join our camp, which indeed caused us a lot of doubts.

If he continues to be allowed to indulge in this way, we don't know what will happen next, and we don't know.

I don't want this to happen.

We are even more unwilling to face such a problem. Therefore, everyone is not clear about these things before starting a business.

I also hope that all these can be solved quickly.

This is a good result for us, but Qin Yuan has always been very persistent.

Even if you give him any benefits, he will not agree to join our camp.

He is just for those so-called beliefs and the results in his heart.

In fact, sometimes, I also think that he is quite stupid.

For the sake of the real results of his so-called beliefs and pursuits, he can ignore everything.

It is really unnecessary to just indulge in it in front of us.

You have given him so many opportunities, but he still doesn't know how to cherish them.

I think you might as well forget it and give up on him.

We still have a lot of things to deal with, so why should we put all the focus on him alone?

I know that you value this talent very much.

However, he did not treat us differently as important people. Under this situation, we all felt very sad indeed.

We might as well give up quickly. All this is actually excusable and traceable.

So far, these situations have presented some big challenges to us.

The more cautious we are in dealing with them, the more ignorant they will be.

I don't know what they are thinking.

An Ran has always been by Qin Yuan's side. They are plotting how to leave us quickly. This is indeed making it difficult for all of us. "

Norman Karim shook his head helplessly.

"Sofia, sometimes things are really unlucky. I asked him to deal with the Enron problem properly, but he didn't give me a good result."

Azhe heard Norman Karim's unsatisfactory evaluation of Sophia, and he was also a little nervous and afraid that Norman Karim would really have other thoughts about Sophia.

"Don't worry, you have trusted Sophia very much for so many years.

I believe he will not betray your trust.

Moreover, he should also know what he should do and what he should not do.

Keep this bottom line and he won't let you down.

Moreover, the situations we have encountered now can prove that these things are caused by many people behind the scenes.

It has nothing to do with Sophia, so don't be so anxious and sad. "

After Azhe finished speaking, he became very worried. He didn't know what Sophia was thinking. Did he really dare to betray Norman Karim.

"Mr. Karim, these two students of Professor Fang De are actually a little anxious now and want to return to country H.

I think, generally speaking, our information blockade on them is basically quite qualified and successful.

They probably don't know about Professor Fang De's current physical condition, so they probably won't be too excited. They don't know why the two of them had to leave us.

Actually, I still have some doubts in my heart about where it is.

Could it be that the news leaked out and they knew Professor Fang De's true physical condition, so they insisted on leaving?

If this is the case, it may be difficult for us to keep them.

This group of people is generally quite cautious.

Moreover, we are very careful not to let them discover any clues.

In particular, regarding Professor Fang De's issue, this is all we can do now. We cannot let them all become anxious. These two guys are also considered geniuses.

As far as I know, most geniuses are somewhat stubborn.

After knowing these things, we will definitely not stay here willingly. If there are other troubles, we may not know how to deal with them.

They are also very stubborn. If they really find out about Professor Fang De, they will plan to kill you or threaten you in other ways.

The two of us are a little bit bad. You can't be threatened by these two little guys.

They said that they did hold some resources inside, but the real core technologies were all in the hands of their teacher, Professor Fang De.

In their hands, these are simply not worth mentioning.

Why don't you give them both to Qin Yuan in exchange.

If Professor Fang De has any technology, he can give it to us in exchange. Otherwise, if we keep these two people, there will really be no technical breakthrough.

I also think it's a waste of our time.

Of course, these are just my thoughts. If you think I have something wrong, you can correct me in time.

After all, I have been with you for so many years, and many times I am still relatively immature, and I always depend on your arrangements.

Without your guidance, I would never have thought of these things.

Mr. Karim, you must never give up on my stupid apprentice.

As long as you are by your side, I am willing to do anything. This has been my thinking for a long time.

Qin Yuan, it is really an honor to have Fan Tianlei by his side. It is really an honor for me to have a teacher and superior like you by my side. I don't care about anything else.

Only after experiencing these things can I truly understand.

Compared with them, what is the difference between us and them?

Anyway, I think it is impossible for this kid Qin Yuan to surrender easily.

If you really like him as your subordinate, why don't we look for someone else? His character is very stubborn like Fan Tianlei.

You have known Fan Tianlei for so many years, so you should know him very well.

Unless something unexpected happens, no matter what kind of good things we say.

They will definitely not be tempted. Instead of doing this, it is better for us to leave them quickly and find the next target. Wasting time on them will only cause great inconvenience to ourselves.

These are my suggestions. I wonder if you are willing to adopt them.

If you think there is any problem, you can tell us in advance.

Anyway, I know it, and I will definitely correct it properly, so that you won't have any problems.

The more critical real opportunities are planted now, the more we have to think clearly about what the other party is planning in his heart.

Qin Yuan is a very cunning guy.

Even if he agrees to join our camp, he may regret it one day, and you cannot fully trust him.

Instead of wasting time with his suspicion like this, we might as well just change the target.

In fact, I think Sophia is very much like you.

Over the years, you have been very good to him, and you seem to have a feeling that you want to leave important things to him. "

After watching Norman Karim for a long time, he felt that Azhe seemed to be helping Sophia speak all the time.

"Azhe, you always deny Qin Yuan's value, and then raise Sophia's value.

You must have heard something, right? Do you think I am the kind of person who is desperate? "

In fact, Norman Karim, although he has a lot of resources in his hands, and for so many years, he has not had a child of his own.

Many people are wondering who these inheritances will be given to when he gets old.

Chapter 2108: Qin Yuan is a qualified successor

In fact, Norman Karim is actually quite pitiful. The reason why he actively pursues subordinates like Qin Yuan is simply because he is attracted by the thoughts in Qin Yuan's heart.

He could know that no matter what angle he looked at, this child was a rare talent.

Staying with Fan Tianlei is indeed a waste.

Only by being with someone like him can he realize all his value, he thought so, but Qin Yuan didn't think so.

He always felt that Norman Karim was all crooked, and his real ideal and goal was to become a qualified member of the special forces.

For so many years, he has been with Fan Tianlei purely out of this consideration and has no other requirements.

Therefore, every time he completes a task, it comes from his truest thoughts.

What he got was a sense of accomplishment, which Qin Yuan couldn't make up for with money and power.

And, no matter what the circumstances.

Qin Yuan will not break through his own bottom line and agree to impossible things.

Thinking of this, they all don't have to worry anymore.

Only after this problem is solved, this group of people can rest assured and ask Qin Yuan and the others to do something every time they think about this problem.

In fact, Qin Yuan still felt a little uncomfortable.

He felt that there were indeed some discrepancies and gaps between these issues and what he thought.

He originally thought that when he came to Pakistan, he could just take these two people back.

I didn't expect that after so much hardship and pain, without any of them knowing, there would definitely be some trouble.

It was this situation that made them all very nervous.

No one knows what kind of problems we will face next, and no one is willing to deal with them.

No one wants to think about these troubles.

Azhe looked at Norman Karim's dazed look, and he knew that the words he raised must have aroused the other party's suspicion, so he quickly changed the subject.

"Mr. Karim, let's be honest. What I just said was indeed inappropriate. I apologize to you.

Sofia, he doesn't have any other ideas. It's all my own guess. You must not doubt what he thinks about your position. It is absolutely impossible.

For so many years, he has been loyal to you and has never had other ideas. You must trust him. "

Norman Kareem smiled and nodded.

"By the way, Hassan, he finally crawled back from such a far distance, and his physical condition must be very weak now.

How about this, you go find some better special medicines and send them to him.

Let him recover quickly. Maybe this time he has completely changed and his thoughts will be willing to cooperate with us. "

Azhe suddenly didn't know why Norman Karim arranged it like this.

"Mr. Karim, this guy Hassan wanted to cooperate with Qin Yuan and Efit to deal with you, but they didn't agree.

Assuming that you really helped him this time, I think it is very likely that it will be a thankless task for you. I think that under such circumstances, you should not continue to interfere with their affairs like this.

Doing your own thing quickly is the most important thing, isn't it?

Especially under this kind of problem, there is nothing to say. I just hope that we can solve Hassan quickly. This is really more important than anything else. I also feel a little uncomfortable when encountering these situations.

In fact, this guy Hassan is like a dog-skin plaster, always following you to mess up your plans, it would be better to take advantage of this opportunity to solve it. "

How could Norman Karim not think of this? The reason why he made such a decision was entirely because he had his own arrangements.

"Azhe, don't worry about this matter. Qin Yuan and the others are still in the club.

If this is the case, we have nothing to say to hurry up. Letting them leave is more important than anything else. We have nothing to say.

Hassan has always been a guy who doesn't know what to do. If you give him some respect, he will easily fall into the trap. "

"Azhe, don't worry about this matter.

It makes sense to leave it to you alone, especially since our situation is quite tense now.

After this discussion, there is no reason to continue.

Just do what I asked you to do. If you solve this problem, I can consider it as a great achievement for you. "

Azhe had nothing to say. He would go out to handle his own affairs and had to contact Hassan.

In the club, Qin Yuan just contacted the army, but he didn't get any definite result.

He still felt a little uncomfortable. This would definitely not be a good feeling for him.

"An Ran, are you looking for me for something important?"

"Qin Yuan, you have been alone in the room for so long. We don't know what you are doing. I am still worried about you, so I came here to see if there is any problem. Don't hide it from us. Okay."

Qin Yuan knew that the person who cared about him the most among all people was An Ran.

"You don't have to worry so much. I contacted instructor Gong Jian just now. He was also in a bit of a dilemma. I don't want to give him more problems, so we will think about this matter before doing it. Something else."

"What happened?"

"I hope that he can help me find out about Fan Tianlei's current situation, but the results we got are not so satisfactory. He said that it was not convenient for him to ask about Fan Tianlei's situation, because generally speaking, he is still under very little surveillance. Strict."

He Chenguang, after hearing this, he sighed helplessly.

"Qin Yuan, no matter what, I really don't think you should continue to be involved in Fan Tianlei's matter.

You'd better complete your mission. Fan Tianlei was taken away by the senior management. Do you have such great ability to influence the senior management's decision-making? "

Chen Jixiang was silent beside him. He knew that he was only supporting Qin Yuan. No matter what choice Qin Yuan made, he would follow him without hesitation, even though he also knew that this matter might not be so reliable.

"He Chenguang, please stop trying to persuade me. No one can change what I have decided.

In particular, the situations we encountered today must still be noticed.

Chapter 2109: Experience stimulation and change your mentality

After Azhe heard what Norman Karim said, he had to rush to the club to see what the situation was like at Qin Yuan's place.

"Mr. Karim, now that you have left this matter to me.

Then I hope you can completely trust me,

How about this? When I go to the club, can I take A Kun and A Ming with me? Would it be better for them to go with me? "

After hearing this, Norman Karim hesitated for a moment. He felt that it was not appropriate to bring Akun and Amin. After all, these two people had been following Jason for a long time.

However, for Mr. Norman Karim's mentality.

There is nothing wrong with bringing the two of them along. Perhaps, when the use of the two of them can reach its peak, it will not be in vain and let them join his camp.

However, now Norman Karim is still very defensive about Akun and Amin.

At least, I feel that the two of them are not strong enough to take on more important tasks now.

Especially at such a critical time, their mentality has already changed a lot. If they are given important tasks to the two of them, it is likely to affect Qin Yuan's decision-making.

In fact, Qin Yuan is also a very cautious person.

He would not believe what others said just because of something, even if it was A Kun and A Ming, they had already gone so far away.

For them, this is definitely not something they can tolerate.

A Kun and A Ming, after thinking for a long time, didn't know how to behave better. They felt sorry for Jason.

Jason really helped them a lot at such a critical time.

There's literally nothing they can do, which is going to be very distressing.

Just like that, A Kun and A Ming actually had nothing to say.

The two of them believe that as long as these immediate interests are protected, nothing else matters and their problems can be solved slowly.

As long as they had some time here, many topics would definitely not be unbearable for them.

Qin Yuan, he is a very cautious person.

In order for him to sincerely believe in what everyone is doing, everyone has taken great pains.

I don't want to touch other issues anymore, after thinking about it so much.

Be it Jason or Norman Kareem.

None of them is a winner, and they will all make some changes because of this incident.

However, the more this situation happened, the less they knew how to deal with it. Many problems were different from what they imagined, and the two of them also felt a little uncomfortable.

Norman Kalim thought about it carefully, and he felt that in fact Akun and Amin might not sincerely surrender to him.

Although it is said that everyone is on the road, it is really not a suitable choice to doubt other people because of certain things.

At this moment, Azhe suddenly received a message from someone else.

He looked down at the message on his phone and expressed that he was still a little shocked. He never expected that Hassan had woken up in the hospital.

He had to report such important news to Mr. Norman Karim quickly.

"Mr. Karim, I just received news from these companions who were watching in the hospital. They said that Hassan has woken up."

Norman Karim smiled and nodded.

"I didn't expect that this guy was so lucky that he could wake up so quickly.

For us, this is really a surprise.

It is not easy to run back step by step from the wild. I hope to see a better result.

Also, according to my opinion, Hassan should have changed his mentality towards Qin Yuan now, and maybe he can cooperate with us. "

Azhe expressed some doubts about Norman Karim's words.

"Mr. Karim, I think we are taking this matter too simply.

You see, according to our understanding of this guy Hassan, for so many years, we have always given him any benefits in front of him again and again, and he will not accept it.

How could it be possible that his mentality suddenly changed because of this incident.

I think he might also blame us for his hatred of Hassan.

He has always been a very strange guy. In fact, it was really not easy. Ever since he was discovered by Fan Tianlei as a spy in Country H and caught him.

I think he is no longer the same person now. He should be full of hatred towards Fan Tianlei and them.

If nothing else happens, I think these people don't know what they will do next.

Anyway, we should be more careful.

At least, this is quite serious for the problem we are facing. I don't think they will agree to something easily.

Only when we have solved these problems will they be willing to find ways to understand the pain we have experienced.

Hassan, this guy, has indeed gone through a lot. Even if he hates us a lot, everyone can basically understand it. "

Norman Karim knows deeply that Hassan's life is really difficult. She was originally a high-spirited young man who was ready to go to country H to be a spy.

He really wanted to make some very important contributions to the country of Pakistan. In fact, he had already had the opportunity to come into contact with the core circles and some high-level secrets.

However, Fan Tianlei and He Fei, who was not Norman Karim at that time.

The two of them cooperated and caught the spy, and both of them received rewards from their superiors. But at this moment, the gears of fate began to turn.

After Hassan was transferred back to his country, he not only failed to get forgiveness from his superiors.

Instead, he began to suspect that he was discovered after making some kind of deal with Country H. After all, he was the best among the most outstanding spies trained by Country H.

How could they suddenly discover and catch him, and the other party also used this matter as a threat? Pakistan basically suffered a loss, and its reputation also lost a lot of substantial benefits.

For a normal person, after completing such a dangerous mission, even if the mission fails, he should get what he should have when he comes back, but he didn't get anything. Instead, he was suppressed by his colleagues and superiors.

Chapter 2110: We can help you deliver the message

Inside the club, Sophia received the message that Azhe sent to him. Azhe secretly sent it to him, and he could not let others know at this time.

Sofia actually already knew that Azhe still had some thoughts about her, secretly or openly, and would often give her more help.

However, these times are not a good opportunity for Sophia, and he hopes to rise to the top.

He must have many goals, and they are definitely not limited to the immediate interests.

He hopes that he can be in the position of Mr. Norman Karim in the future.

However, his appetite is really too big. Many people may not be able to do what he does. How could he have such great ability?

Thinking of this, he still felt a little unhappy.

Seeing Azhe telling herself that Hassan had come back, Sophia didn't know whether she should tell Qin Yuan about this. Anyway, this was still a relatively difficult problem for them to solve.

Especially at such a critical time, many of them don't understand what is the most appropriate thing to do next.

An Ran saw from Sophia's expression that there seemed to be some changes on his face.

"Sofia, what happened?

Why are you so nervous all of a sudden? Did you receive some news? What did Mr. Norman Karim tell you? "

"No!"

Sofia was a little embarrassed and forced out a smile, trying not to let others see the nervous emotions on his face.

"I don't have any ideas right now, I just hope you can listen to me.

Surrender quickly to Mr. Norman Karim.

I think this is a very good choice. There is no point in persisting like this. On the contrary, it will slow down the progress of completing your mission. "

Qin Yuan looked back at He Chenguang and Chen Jixiang's expectant eyes.

He must still feel a little uncomfortable in his heart. He feels that if he surrenders, he will be sorry for their two good brothers. Thinking of this, Qin Yuan did not make any decision.

He just hopes to take it one step at a time. After all, the spy system of country H in front of him has been completely repaired by himself. He wants to save Fan Tianlei. This is the number one task. All other things should give way to this task.

"Sofia, you clearly know what we are thinking, so you don't need to persuade me here. In fact, this is completely useless to you, and I will never listen to it.

Mr. Norman Karim, he still has some regard for me, I am still sure of this.

However, when I think of other issues, I don't have any good ideas that I can tell you.

Mr. Norman Karim is completely different from us. Even if I stay, I will never be able to help you.

After all, my heart and yours are completely different. "

Sophia saw these messages that Azhe sent to her. He had no way to judge what they meant. He also didn't know what to do next. He was mentally tangled. He knew that he had to make the appropriate choice as soon as possible.

After Xiaolan received these instructions from Efit, he was now a little nervous.

"He Chenguang, if you all have nothing else to do, please rest here quickly. Mr. Norman Karim said that he is going to give you a few more days."

Chen Jixiang, this kid is a little out of control.

"Miss Sophia, please go back and tell Mr. Norman Karim. We are also very curious about what he is thinking.

Why are we locked here?

It is impossible for us to listen to him and do those things with him. He should give up this idea as soon as possible. "

Mr. Norman Karim has been thinking about Qin Yuan all the time, and he is unwilling to let go of their situation.

"Qin Yuan, Mr. Norman Karim has an assistant beside him, his name is Azhe.

Under normal circumstances, you should have never met him. He just sent me a message. I think it should be very unfavorable news for you.

Although I shouldn't tell you, I think for the sake of An Ran, I'd better reveal this news to you.

It also allows you to prepare in advance so that if something unexpected happens, you may still be caught off guard. "

Qin Yuan thought that the guy in front of him was just deceiving him again. He didn't take it to heart at all, and even thought he was joking with him.

"Miss Sophia, please stop telling me this.

In fact, I know very well in my heart how these problems should be dealt with. Everyone knows it very well. There is no need for me to tell you so much. You should stop making any excuses to scare us. "

Sophia shook her head helplessly.

"As I said just now, this matter is for An Ran's sake. I definitely won't care about anything else, and I believe you won't care so much either.

But how should we solve the problems you are facing? No one knows for sure, but I still hope you can be mentally prepared in advance. "

"Is it about Efit?"

Sophia looked back at Xiaolan.

His inadvertent action has basically exposed it. He basically knows everything about what happened between Xiaolan and Efit, but he has never revealed it.

He hopes that one day this can become a resource for him to utilize. It is still too early to reveal everything now.

"It has nothing to do with Efit.

I dare not say that this matter has anything to do with him. I can only tell you that it has more to do with you, Qin Yuan, and I don't want to sell anything to you.

Hassan is back..."

Jason and He Chenguang were very nervous after hearing this.

Because they knew what happened in the unfinished building in the suburbs, Hassan did not attack him under normal circumstances.

However, there were so many wild beasts in the wilderness, how could he come back safe and sound?

This is something that is unlikely to happen and something that surprises everyone.

The boy Chen Jixiang looked confused and looked back at Qin Yuan.

"Brother Qin Yuan, what happened? Why are you two so nervous? Who is Hassan?"

"Have you lost your memory, you brat?"

Hassan was the leader of the maritime patrol force when we docked. He led a group of people on the boat and took Qin Yuan and others away.
