

Special Soldier 2221

Chapter 2221 Finally arrived in a hurry

After Sophia heard what Qin Yuan said, he was a little shocked now.

"I think this matter may be more complicated, but it is far from what we imagined. No matter how stupid he is, he will not do it to himself. You know that people have the instinct of self-protection."

"Sofia, sometimes you must not be too naive. People do have the instinct to protect themselves, but it depends on the situation. A situation like yesterday's is much more complicated than we imagined."

"Xiaolan, did he commit suicide?"

Sophia said doubtfully while shaking her head helplessly.

He still couldn't believe that this thing was true, and in his heart Xiaolan was a very optimistic person. Even if he knew his identity as a spy, he didn't do anything excessive.

"I think you are a little too optimistic now. Let's just let this matter go and don't think about anything else.

If there is another opportunity in the future, we will think about other issues. Anyway, our situation so far is not optimistic, so we still need to be more careful. "

"Xiaolan holds a lot of secrets in his hands. If he does anything wrong, these secrets may have to be shut up with him forever."

"Of course I can understand the importance of this matter, but with our current medical resources in Pakistan, I'm afraid his treatment may be delayed. Otherwise, what if we consider sending Ta back?"

"Where to send?"

"America!"

Qin Yuan felt that what Sophia said was a bit too bold. No matter what, he could not send Xiaolan back. This was simply the behavior of a fool.

"Sofia, I know that maybe you and Xiaolan have been together for so many years, and there is still some sisterly affection between the two of you. Even if you know his special identity, you have to think about it."

"The two of us do have quite a sisterly relationship. I just treat him like a little sister. Even though I know that his status is quite special, I haven't done anything excessive."

If there is something you don't want him to know, just hide it from him and prevent him from knowing it.

I originally thought that he was just a spy in my heart, but now it seems that it is not that simple. People always have feelings after being together for a long time. Seeing him like this makes me feel quite uncomfortable. "

Sophia couldn't help but feel a little sad as she spoke.

After all, the two of them had been together for several years. He couldn't bear to see Xiaolan like this.

While they were talking, Azhe hurried over in a car.

Qin Yuan pushed Sophia with his arm.

"Who do you think is coming?"

Sofia looked up and saw the familiar car, and was finally able to calm down a little.

"I've been contacting you for so long. Why did you come here? You still know that we have something going on here."

Sofia's mood was full of complaints and accusations, and Azhe had no choice. He knew that he was late and would be scolded by Sofia.

"I'm sorry, Sophia, I really have a lot of things to deal with over there. You also know that Mr. Norman Karim has been busy with a lot of things recently, and I can't leave."

"Xiaolan is already like this. If we don't plan carefully, I'm afraid that I will be the one lying in the hospital next time."

When Azhe heard what Sophia said, he frowned and quickly stopped her.

"Can you please stop saying such depressing words? As long as I'm here, I will definitely protect you. How could I possibly let you end up like him? He just met someone unkindly, and that's why he became like this!

If it weren't for that guy Efit, I believe he would still be quite happy now. "

Qin Yuan didn't have much time to listen to them.

After considering the situation in front of him, he had nothing to say. The key was to think carefully about how to solve the problems in front of them. That was the most important thing. After all, it would not be as simple as it is now.

"Azhe, how is the situation over there?"

"I'm almost ready here. The main thing is to see when you are willing to send me the money."

"Is money so important to you?"

"Qin Yuan, I think you have stayed in the army for too long. Why are you starting to live in a different world now?"

"I don't have much to do with this in the army. I just think that all you talk about now is money. Isn't it a bit too philistine?"

"People like you simply live in an ivory tower and don't understand our suffering at all.

With Mr. Norman Karim, if you want to survive, you need a lot of resources and a lot of money.

Anyway, I have already told you the importance of these things. If you are reluctant to part with the money, then we can only avoid talking about it. "

"I have already prepared the money for you, but now due to emergencies, I cannot give you the money for the time being. I have to wait."

"I don't care, I have a lot of time anyway.

What's important is whether you want to return to your own country quickly, and I'm not trying to scare you. I'm just kindly reminding Mr. Norman Karim that you already have Effit and your good brother Jason by your side.

Maybe you should be able to know what kind of earth-shattering things the two of them can do together if you think about it. It would be better for you to take people away from this place of right and wrong as soon as possible.

Next, they may have to move around.

I'm afraid the next place is the United States. If they really want to go to other countries, Professor Fang De and these two students probably won't take them with them. Mr. Norman Karim will think of a good place for them by then. "

"You are not reminding you at all. This is a naked threat. Do you mean that if Mr. Norman Karim wants to leave, will he kill these two people?"

"I don't know about this. It depends on how you measure it. Anyway, these two guys are useless.

In the eyes of people like Mr. Norman Karim, leaving useless people in the world is a waste of resources. It is better to send them to where they should go as early as possible.

If these two people are Professor Fang De, there may be a glimmer of hope. "

"I understand what you mean? But there is a very important thing. I want to tell you about Ai, did Feit sneak out in the middle of the night?"

"How could I possibly know such a thing? I'm not their personal bodyguard, nor their follower.

I have my own things to deal with, and he can't be under my surveillance 24 hours a day. It would be easy for him to slip out and do bad things. "

Azhe said this and it was obvious that even he suspected that all this must have something to do with Efite.

However, because he is tired and sleepy now, he is relatively tired, and he was scolded by Sophia just now, so he must be in a bad mood.

"Azhe, Qin Yuan is also working hard to help us now. We are in the same camp, so don't make it difficult for yourself."

Sophia was also trying to persuade Azhe, hoping that it would be better not to cause any embarrassment between him and Qin Yuan.

"How's Xiaolan doing?"

"He has written too much and is being rescued inside. Qin Yuan also gave him a blood transfusion just now. I don't know what the next step will be, but we'd better be careful. His current situation is not too optimistic."

"This American spy has been with us for many years, and we have never been able to catch him. Now we finally have the opportunity to know the bad things he has done. In fact, there is no need to save him."

"At any rate, he is considered a human life.

Although we work with Mr. Norman Karim, we cannot be as bottomless as he is.

What's more, after all, Xiaolan and we have known each other for so many years. It's really pitiful to see him lying in a pool of blood. It's impossible for us to just die without saving him. "

"Sofia, I can tell you firsthand that Mr. Norman Karim will know about this very soon.

However, he didn't seem to have much thought about Xiaolan's life and death. If Efit wanted to kill him, Mr. Norman Karim would not refuse.

After all, in his eyes, Xiaolan was just a useless spy. He kept him with him because he would go to the United States in the future, and maybe keeping him would be of some use.

However, raising him in vain for so many years has no use, and he cannot be reused. He can only be placed in the club. Naturally, Mr. Norman Karim is a little disgusted with such a person.

I'm afraid he won't blame Efit for this matter, because Efit is now the popular person around him. "

After hearing what Azhe said, Qin Yuan sneered beside him.

"I never expected that this Efit is really so powerful. He has already gained the attention of the boss just after joining the club. It seems that this kind of person can eat well wherever he goes."

"Qin Yuan, the reason why Mr. Norman Karim re-employs an insidious and cunning person like Efit is because he likes you very much, but you don't want him to be your boss.

In desperation, he had no choice but to settle for Efit.

Moreover, this time it was Efit who took the initiative to send him to the door. He lost the batch of arms, and Old K would not let him go. Only Mr. Norman Karim could save him.

Coupled with Jason's joining, now there is no place for me in the group. I have to find a way out for myself quickly. "

"The United States will be the next battlefield, but these have nothing to do with me.

Because, I will take Professor Fang De with me soon, and these two students will go back. In fact, these two students don't have too many secrets at all.

They have no skills. Now I finally understand why Professor Fang De took them two back, and this is the condition for him to help our H country troops. "

"Professor Fang De is probably old and confused.

He is unwilling to help Mr. Norman Karim, but he must take these two useless guys back. It is a waste of your time. I even sympathize with you now.

Qin Yuan, you are obviously an excellent member of the special forces, but you are still ordered to come to such a far place. What should you do next? No one knows.

In my opinion, don't think too much about it. If you have any other ideas, I'm afraid you won't be able to save your own life, so why bother with him?

Leave these two people here and go back by yourself. "

"Professor Fang De was afraid that we would not come to rescue his two students, so he lied and said that these two people had a lot of secrets and could help him do experiments together.

Because he had brought these two people up since he was a child, they were just like his own children. This feeling was very special.

Therefore, he will risk everything to let us bring these two people back, if I cannot successfully complete the task this time.

Even if Professor Fang De dies and takes all his research into the coffin, he will never help us.

This is why I must take these two people back.

Why not, let me negotiate with Mr. Norman Karim and see if he is willing to release these two people.

After all, these two guys have little use value. It is impossible to ask them to help research arms and weapons. Without their teachers, they can't research anything. "

"Qin Yuan, you also know that some people are born to do things that harm others and do not benefit themselves. The relationship between Mr. Norman Karim and Fan Tianlei is very subtle. We don't know what happened when they were young. "

"This doesn't have much to do with me. Anyway, I have already told you about this matter. I know it in my heart. I will definitely give you the money, but not now."

"Okay, I told you just now. It's not that I force you to give me any amount of money, but that the current situation is not up to you to make your own choice."

"Azhe, you don't need to explain so much to me. Of course I know what you are thinking, but let's just look at it later."

"Everything I do now is for Hassan.

My relationship with him is also very special. I don't know if you can understand it, but I hope you can agree to this, because Hassan has now become a disabled person, which is inseparable from you. relation. "

"It has nothing to do with me. If you want to find someone to take revenge, you should go to Efit. If it weren't for Efit, Hassan wouldn't have become a disabled person and lost a leg."

Azhe gritted his teeth and said.

"Of course I know who is the instigator of all this, of course it's that guy Efit, and there's no way I'm going to let him go, but it's never too late for a gentleman to take revenge.

As long as he is still in the group, I have plenty of ways to deal with him, and I will not let him live so comfortably. "

Chapter 2222 Pakistan feels like a quagmire

Azhe said this very angrily, which made Qin Yuan feel a little at a loss.

"Aren't you already ready to leave and run away?"

Why do you still want to stay and deal with Efit? I think this person is really the most shameless and cunning person in the world. There is no need for you to tell him so much. "

"I may still have some opinions about the other things you said, but your judgment of Efit is exactly what I expected.

Yes, I also think that he is indeed the most shameless and stupid person in the world. "

"madness?"

"Yes, in my mind he is a shrewd and stupid person. Only he thinks he is shrewd. In the eyes of others, he is a stupid guy."

"Perhaps he is wise and foolish?"

"Qin Yuan, what are you kidding me here? People like him are worthy of such advanced vocabulary, so it's better not to say so much.

The key point I want to tell you is that now that this guy has reached this point, he has to think of other ways. Moreover, this guy has a lot of scheming ideas, so we must be careful. "

Sofia also nodded beside her.

"We never expected that this guy Efit would take the initiative to join Mr. Norman Karim's group, and that Mr. Norman Karim would even accept him. This is really incredible to me. "

"What's so incomprehensible about this.

The two of them are just using each other, and we can also see the relationship between them. In this case, we have to find a way to make the relationship between them not so strong. "

"I think you'd better forget it.

Now that we have said this, we still advise you to go back to your country as soon as possible. Staying here will do you no good.

Qin Yuan, if you regard us as friends and what we say as sincere advice, then go back quickly. There is really no point in staying here.

I don't mean to force you.

I simply want to tell you that the current situation is very pessimistic.

Your staying here will have great disadvantages for your personal development, and the current situation is like this. Do you really think that anyone can understand your situation? "

"Sofia, sometimes I really don't understand what kind of person you are.

You may have had some thoughts and ideas about this in the past, but I never thought that you would become like this. The current problem really has a great impact on you.

Moreover, you deceived Enron because of some of your own interests at that time, and he now has a big opinion against you. "

"Of course I can understand his opinions about me, but I can't help it.

Everyone has their own helplessness, and I also have a lot of helplessness. Even if he doesn't think my idea is right, I can't make him change anything.

Moreover, I was helpless against his deception at that time.

I believe you can understand my feelings. If you can't understand, I have nothing to say. You have no choice when it comes to Mr. Norman Karim. "

"In other words, the things you did to Enron before were all because of Mr. Norman Karim and he didn't ask you to do it?"

"Qin Yuan, you can understand it this way, but I have to tell you about many problems. I also have difficulties and ideas. If you can't understand me, forget it.

It's better to think about other things. It's better to think about other issues, otherwise it won't make sense for me to tell you this. Hassan is also here. Do you want to go out and take a look. "

When Sophia mentioned Hassan, Qin Yuan suddenly remembered the little nurse Shen Man just now.

Logically speaking, his sneaky visit to see Hassan that day would not attract anyone else's attention, but the young nurse insisted that he had seen him at the nurse's station.

From this point of view, this little nurse is probably someone who specializes in taking care of Hassan.

Then he will know more information. If he is found, he might be able to learn what kind of unknown relationship and secrets Hassan and Azhe had before? This thing might be much better.

Qin Yuan smiled beside him while thinking about it.

Seeing him like this, both Azhe and Sophia were a little confused.

"Qin Yuan, what's going on with you? We are here to discuss the next plan with you, but you are here laughing. Is your good brother, Jason, reliable?"

"What kind of situation Jason is in, I can't guarantee you now. He has already told me that he sincerely wants to stay in your group.

In this case, I'm afraid that Hassan might actually be in danger.

Why don't you think of a way to take him away first, keep Hassan as far away from the hospital as possible, or secretly transfer him to another place.

At least, keeping Jason from discovering his traces might keep him safe. "

Azhe looked at Qin Yuan in disbelief.

"You're not kidding me, are you?

You told me before that Jason is your good friend, and you are willing to help me explain this matter to him, and you also promised that he will not hurt Hassan.

Now you have taken the initiative to ask me to transfer people away. I really can't trust a partner like you, let alone believe that we can have good cooperation with you. "

"Azhe, please don't be so excited. Many things are completely different from what we expected. I can't guarantee you the next step. It's just as optimistic as we imagined. Can you stop being so anxious? "

"Maybe I'm just too optimistic, so I believe what you say.

If Jason really dares to hurt Hassan, don't blame me for being rude. I don't care whether he is your good brother or a popular person next to Mr. Norman Karim. "

When Sophia saw Azhe angry, he was very afraid that there was some conflict between Azhe and Qin Yuan.

So, he patted Ah Zhe gently.

"Qin Yuan has always been a very confident person, and it is absolutely impossible for him to give you a definite answer.

Now that this matter has come to this point, it means that we will face many risks next. Mr. Norman Karim now has this guy Efit beside him.

We must not create any more conflicts within ourselves. Giving them a chance will make them laugh. "

Azhe listened to Sophia's advice and did not want to have any conflicts with Qin Yuan.

Azhe turned his head away angrily, and the others fell into silence, with no one willing to speak.

Under the cool moonlight, morning will soon come.

Generally, the wind in the early morning can always make people feel more awake.

Qin Yuan stood under the tree and blew the cold wind of a foreign country. Suddenly he missed his previous days in the army. He knew that he would complete the mission soon and would go back soon.

Everything he is doing now is just preliminary preparations. As long as these are prepared, his return will be just around the corner.

At the club, after Sophia left with Qin Yuan and Xiaolan in an ambulance, only An Ran and the other three were left.

He Chenguang was very uneasy now. He was worried that Xiaolan would be safe.

What he was even more worried about was that after Xiaolan went through these things, she might have a profound change.

If he told Qin Yuan all the truth, his identity would be completely exposed. He now urgently needs to report Xiaolan's situation to his superiors.

If that doesn't work, extraordinary measures will have to be taken.

Generally speaking, if spies like them really fall into the hands of the enemy, they have an unspoken rule and can take extraordinary measures with the permission of their superiors.

In other words, the spy should be silenced openly and openly.

This is also the agreement that everyone must sign when they first joined the spy organization.

Signing this agreement means that they have also acquiesced in this behavior. If anyone falls into the hands of the enemy, it is equivalent to death.

An Ran looked back at He Chenguang.

"What are you thinking about standing here blankly? Are you scared by this scene?"

"Stop joking here. After all, I am also a grown man. How could I be frightened by such a small scene?"

I just didn't expect that Qin Yuan would follow Sophia to Sophia. This woman has always been very cunning. I was very worried about Qin Yuan's safety. "

Chen Jixiang sneered from the side and said.

"Brother Chen Guang, I didn't see that you were worried about Brother Qin Yuan at all. Why do I feel like you have something in mind?"

"You brat, don't always speak with your feelings. What can I think of you?"

Now these situations have become more complicated. After all, Xiaolan is also a person close to Mr. Norman Karim, and now he has become like this inexplicably.

I'm afraid that the other party will use this matter as a reason to detain us here. "

"It shouldn't be possible.

We have always been under his control, and we are all from the army, brought out by Fan Tianlei, how could we do such a thing.

We have a bottom line. What he should really be suspicious of are unreliable people like Effit.

How could he possibly focus on us? Although this Mr. Norman Karim is not a good person, I can see that he should have a bottom line.

And he is also very smart and will not be so stupid that he will wrongly accuse us. "

"Yeah, your analysis makes sense, but we definitely can't take it lightly now and think everything is impossible."

An Ran is very worried about Qin Yuan now. He is very afraid that Mr. Norman Karim will really take some extraordinary measures against Qin Yuan after learning about the situation tonight.

"I think we should analyze carefully now, why Xiaolan became like this, and who has such a deep hatred against him?"

"I think you are just thinking too much about the deep hatred. We ourselves have no say in this kind of thing, it still depends on other people."

"Xiaolan, his identity should be quite special."

After An Ran said this, He Chenguang became even more nervous now.

He was very afraid that everyone would be able to guess Xiaolan's identity. This would be of no benefit to him, and would also affect their overall plan. The more he tried to do this, the more nervous he became.

"I think we should forget it. Since these problems have been discussed here, there is no need for us to think about other things. Let's quickly consider what to do about the next problems."

Chen Jixiang was a little impatient.

"Pakistan is like a quagmire."

"What did you say?"

"I said we seemed to be in the wrong place, Pakistan was like a quagmire."

Originally, we thought we could easily take the two hostages back and complete the task. Who would have thought that we wasted so much time here and lost our troops. "

"How can it be possible to lose troops and generals? Not all of us are intact."

"Jason, as a good brother of Brother Qin Yuan, has now decided to join the other party's camp. Whether he will betray us is unknown."

"When you have begun to doubt whether the other party will betray you, perhaps the trust between you no longer exists.

Don't place all your hopes on him, no one is reliable.

Even though I met Jason first, and I know he is a good person, there is no way I can assure you that he will never betray Qin Yuan and us. "

"Sister An Ran, it seems that you are somewhat certain about this matter, but we can't think too much. We should think about things in a good direction."

"We all don't want to think about the worst.

However, when you make plans, you often have to consider the worst-case outcome, so none of us are pessimists.

It's just better to calm down more, and after what happened today, I feel that our club can no longer stay here.

Qin Yuan has already started contacting the embassy.

He said hello to Du Bingbing. Although we don't know when we will have a definite result, there is still hope.

We can leave this suffocating place soon. "

Chen Jixiang was very happy when he heard An Ran say this.

"Sister An Ran, are you trying to comfort us?

Can we really leave this hellish place soon? Is Du Bingbing reliable? "

"After all, he is also our team leader's commander now, and should be responsible for all our actions. We have completed the task, and he is also good. If we fail, he will have no face."

Chapter 2223 Facts have proved that this club is no longer safe

He Chenguang simply became more and more anxious as he listened.

He had to quickly find a place without people and report the current situation to his superiors, but he could also feel that the atmosphere was tense.

Perhaps out of a spy's sense of smell, he believed that his identity was now on the verge of being exposed.

He Chenguang fell into deep thought.

When Chen Jixiang saw his dull look, he knew that there must be something on his mind.

"Sister An Ran, look at him."

An Ran looked back at He Chenguang. This guy was already in a daze. He just didn't know what he was thinking. How could anyone know if he wasn't the roundworm in his stomach?

"Qin Yuan is not here now. We have to be more cautious. If Mr. Norman Karim comes here suddenly, we have to find a way to explain to him."

"Is there anything to explain? Xiaolan is one of them in the club. Now he almost bled to death. It was Brother Qin Yuan who saved him. Is there anything else they can say?"

"Maybe Mr. Norman Karim knows better than anyone what kind of identity Xiaolan is."

After He Chenguang heard this, he thought everyone was testing him, so he quickly pretended to ask.

"What is Xiaolan's identity?"

"do not you know?"

"How could I possibly know? Could it be that he is from country H like us?"

An Ran could clearly see that He Chenguang was deliberately causing trouble. It was more like he was pretending to be stupid and deliberately pretended not to discover the other party's identity.

It can be seen from his reaction that he must have begun to doubt the identity of the other party.

"We can also see that the current situation is not optimistic. We are always a little worried if Qin Yuan is not here."

"Why don't we contact Brother Qin Yuan now? He has been gone for a while. He must have arrived at the hospital by now. Xiaolan should also be in the emergency room, so we can ask what the situation is."

Chen Jixiang's proposal was quite good. They did not wait any longer and contacted Qin Yuan directly.

Qin Yuan was just thinking about negotiating with Azhe at this moment.

Try to let Hassan take the money and leave as soon as possible, so that he can basically be safe. Without a disabled person like him to drag them down, it will be easier to move.

Qin Yuan received An Ran's call and said with a smile.

"Sofia, you see that An Ran is really a kind girl. He knew that we had already arrived at the hospital, so he was worried, so he deliberately came over to make a phone call to ask."

"An Ran is indeed a very kind person. Then you should answer the phone and talk to him first. Don't make him worry too much."

So, Qin Yuan answered the phone and said.

"An Ran, you don't have to worry so much. We have arrived at the hospital. Xiaolan is undergoing first aid. I just gave him a blood transfusion."

"Did you give him a blood transfusion?"

"There is no way, Pakistan is a relatively backward country, and their medical resources are limited, and there is no blood in the blood bank. It happens that my blood type is the same as his."

Saving one life is better than building a seven-level pagoda. Just think of it as another good deed from me. "

"Blood transfusion is not a trivial matter, and one must pay attention to medical hygiene."

"An Ran, don't worry. You don't have to think too much about such trivial details. I know you must be worried about Xiaolan's condition. He has lost too much blood now and is still being rescued with no results."

The nurse also told me that his current situation is very dangerous, and he is likely to become brain dead or directly become a vegetative state. "

"Vegetative state?"

An Ran didn't have any other ideas now. He just felt that Xiaolan was still in her prime at a young age. Wouldn't it be a pity if she turned into a vegetable now.

Even if he is an American spy, he should not have such a fate. An Ran, a fellow girl, still sympathizes with him.

Chen Jixiang said next to him.

"It would be a pity if Xiaolan turns into a vegetative state. I feel that he should have a lot of secrets."

"They are all secrets about Mr. Norman Karim's group. Even if he knew it, he would not dare to tell us. Don't even think about it."

He Chenguang was eavesdropping but never spoke or made any sound. When a person is thinking, he cannot be distracted.

Qin Yuan didn't hear anyone else's voice and asked quickly.

"Where is He Chenguang? Why didn't I hear him?"

"I am here."

"You were right next to me and you didn't make a sound. You scared me. I thought something had happened to you."

"What can I do as a boy with a background in special forces?"

Don't always have these unnecessary worries, but to be honest, I was really frightened by this guy. Even in the army, we have never seen scenes of rivers of blood. "

"Oh, I'd say you guys are a little too petty. Why can't you think too much about this kind of thing? Have you notified Mr. Norman Karim?"

Chen Jixiang, this kid is not that scared. Even though he was the first to find Xiaolan lying in the bathroom, he was quite courageous.

"Mr. Norman Karim has not been notified yet, but I think there is such a big commotion here, and it is impossible for him to know nothing about it.

Qin Yuan, I think it would be better for you to inform him quickly, so as not to cause any trouble again. "

"Don't worry An Ran, I've already informed Azhe to come here.

He is next to me now. He serves as the personal assistant of Mr. Norman Karim. If he knows, it means that Mr. Norman Karim knows.

Anyway, I don't have any opinions. If he wants to report, he can just say so. "

Azhe shook his head beside him.

"Qin Yuan, you are such a shrewd person, leaving all the problems to me alone."

"Don't get me wrong, I just gave you the right to make the decision. As for whether you want to do something or not, your affairs have nothing to do with me.

Originally, I was able to send Xiaolan to the hospital today, which was considered a good person and a good deed. If I hadn't seen that there was only Sophia as a girl at night, I would definitely not have interfered with such nosy matters. "

"I think you shouldn't say so much. Since the current situation is like this, we have to inform Mr. Norman Karim as soon as possible, tell him earlier, and maybe prepare him earlier."

"Qin Yuan, what caused his wound? Has the hospital given the results?"

"No results have been given yet, but Shen Man said that his wounds don't look like they were caused by someone else. They look a bit like suicide."

"Who is Shen Man?"

"It's a little nurse from the Central Hospital."

"I really have to admire your social skills. You were able to get in touch with the nurse in the hospital so quickly. It's really not easy for him to tell you the truth."

"There's nothing I can do about it. Since I need help from others, I have to communicate with them more. I'm a social worker by nature, and what I'm best at is communicating with others. Otherwise, Fan Tianlei wouldn't have sent me here to perform the task."

"Since this little nurse said that his wounds did not seem to be caused by others, then this matter is even more suspicious. What is on his mind? As for him heading towards death at such a young age."

"We have to wait until he wakes up to ask him about all this, but I do have an idea that this matter may have something to do with Efit."

An Ran, if it's convenient for you, go and adjust the surveillance around the club to see if this guy Efit has been here. I always feel uneasy. "

"Hasn't Efit already joined Mr. Norman Karim's group and is negotiating with him, how could he be here? He's so busy."

"We can't guarantee this at the moment, as their negotiations have already ended."

Azhe most likely told us the ins and outs of some things here. I also feel that it is still a bit suspicious. No matter what, we have to be careful and careful to avoid any serious consequences. "

"The consequences now are very serious."

I think it's better for us to get away as soon as possible. The longer we stay here, the more incidents will involve us.

Besides, after all, we are also special forces, and we are not allowed to do many things. After we go back, we will have to undergo endless investigations, which is very annoying just thinking about it. "

"An Ran, please go back and have a good rest first. There should be nothing else going on in the club now, and I think there might be some ulterior secret between the two of them."

At this time, Sofia said next to Qin Yuan.

"There is indeed surveillance in the club. If you want to see it, I can tell you the login password.

But I have to remind you that even if you watch the surveillance, it's probably useless. There are still blind spots around the club.

After all, this thing is dead, not alive, and it is different from human eyes. Even if it is in every corner, there are still blind spots. "

Qin Yuan could feel it through Sophia's words. It seemed that he was deliberately reminding these people.

Maybe there is some kind of relationship between Xiaolan and Effit. Qin Yuan is now more and more sure that the relationship between them is not simple.

Moreover, this guy Effit also knows a lot of information. Let's see now whether he really wants to join Mr. Norman Karim's group, or whether he is working as an undercover agent here for Old K.

"Effit has always been a very cunning guy. It's better for us to be careful."

"From country H to country B, this annoying guy is like my shadow. He is there no matter where I go. It seems that the two of us have to give it a good trial.

Maybe this is where the victory between the two of us ends, otherwise he is always worried, he always refuses to admit defeat, thinking that his own ability is not much worse than mine, but our two camps are completely different, and there is nothing to compare with. sex. "

"Qin Yuan, have you told Azhe what's going to happen next?"

"The two of us just had a simple communication, and Azhe's attitude was very obvious.

Only after I took out the money could he tell me where the two students, Professor Fang De, were. Otherwise, don't even think about it. He wouldn't tell me first. "

"Then what do you think now? While Azhe is here, why not just give him the money directly."

“That’s not okay, I definitely can’t take advantage of him so easily.

Although the money is not a lot, it is still not a small amount. If he doesn't do anything after taking the money, where will I find it?

Do I still have to ask him to sign a receipt for me personally?

If there is any problem, we will also have a lot of trouble here.

Besides, even if he signed the receipt, I wouldn't be relieved. After all, Pakistan is a mixed place. What laws are there? "

"There should be more trust between people."

Azhe saw that Qin Yuan was deliberately speaking here to mock himself. He couldn't help it anymore and just said this.

"Since you said people should trust each other more, why can't you trust me more?

After all, I am also a special soldier, and I cannot break my promise just because of such a small thing. Why don't you tell me where the two hostages are, and then I will give you the money. "

After Qin Yuan said this, Azhe fell silent, and the atmosphere between the two became awkward again.

"Okay, An Ran, I won't tell you anymore, I saw this little nurse coming out.

I asked him what the specific rescue situation is like. If there is any news, I will inform you at any time. However, you have to be cautious at all times. It seems that the club is not a safe place now. "

"Yeah, I understand, Qin Yuan, you have to be careful in the hospital. There is no safe place in this area now. We have to protect ourselves."

After finishing speaking, Qin Yuan hung up the phone and walked directly to Shen Man's side.

"I saw you coming out and I hung up the phone in a hurry. Do you have any good news for me?"

"Qin Yuan, please don't be so anxious. He is still being rescued. He has lost too much blood and his brain has entered a deep coma. It is not that simple to wake his brain up.

Please be more patient. After all, our medical resources here are limited, and you know that many of the equipment are not very advanced. "

"Oh, Pakistan is really a place that eats people. I shouldn't have come in the first place."

"I feel a little regretful when I hear you say this."

"I regret it. I regret it so much. Unfortunately, there is no regret medicine in this world. I have no choice but to bite the bullet and wait here."

When Shen Man heard what Qin Yuan said, he thought this guy was quite humorous and couldn't help but cover his mouth and smile.

"why are you laughing?"

"I just think you are quite interesting. Since you have regretted it, why don't you go back to your own country? Why are you staying here?"

Chapter 2224 Attempting to bribe the little nurse with a diamond bracelet

After Shen Man finished speaking, Qin Yuan felt very incomprehensible.

"Why are you trying to persuade me to go back to my own country?"

Although this is not the place I should stay, and I don't want to waste too much time here, but are you controlling a little too much? You live by the sea, and you are controlling so much. "

"Qin Yuan, don't be ignorant, I am sincerely advising you."

"You, a little nurse, can just do your job well. I would be very grateful if you could help me keep an eye on the rescue situation inside. As for my personal problems, I don't need you to care so much."

"I think I can chat with you more easily, and I don't want you to do such unnecessary things here."

The more Qin Yuan looked at it, the more he felt that this little nurse was strange, and he didn't want to tell him too much. He just got close to him, mainly because he wanted to know Xiaolan's rescue situation and the true extent of his injuries at any time.

"Sofia, I think it's going to be dawn soon. Why don't you find a place to take a good rest? Do you two need to decide whether Mr. Norman Karim should inform you two?"

"Pakistan is not a big country, and everything is under the control of Mr. Noman Karim.

I believe that even if we don't tell him, he will definitely know the situation here. He will definitely come before long, but I don't feel safe with only An Ran and the others in the club. "

"The two of us thought of going together.

I also feel that the clubhouse is not very safe, but there is nothing I can do and I can't leave safely. I can't leave even more now. If Xiaolan's rescue situation is not resolved in one day, I won't be able to go back. "

"We can't always wait here for Xiaolan's rescue results."

The reason why Qin Yuan is reluctant to leave here is that besides wanting to know Xiaolan's situation as soon as possible, he is also afraid that someone will take this opportunity to persecute Xiaolan.

"Xiaolan's identity is quite special. I don't think there will be many people who want him to come here. We have to keep a close eye on him."

Shen Man looked at Qin Yuan seriously, with a strange feeling in his eyes.

"I asked you, little nurse, why are you looking at me like this? Please help me go in and stare at me for a while. We don't know much about the rescue situation now, and we can't enter the emergency room."

"Today is the first time the two of us have met. Why do you believe me so much?"

Is it okay if I go to the emergency room and keep an eye on you?

I am an ordinary little nurse. I don't want to participate in the struggles of your groups. Don't bring me into it. We know very well what kind of person Mr. Norman Karim is. I can't afford to offend him. "

After hearing this, Qin Yuan nodded beside him.

"What you said makes sense. Who would want to offend someone like Mr. Norman Karim? It is reasonable for you to refuse. I have nothing to say."

Shen Man smiled after hearing Qin Yuan's words.

"It's not impossible for you to want me to help you, but..."

"Hey, you want money again, right?"

"Who wants to take the risk of offending someone like Norman Karim when there is no benefit?"

"You are angels in white. Isn't it your duty to save lives and heal the wounded?"

"What era are we in now? What's the use of talking to me about chicken soup for the soul? Either give me some benefits, or forgive me for not being able to tell you the specific situation inside."

After Sophia heard this, he took out a wad of money from his wallet.

Qin Yuan didn't know what the currency circulation rules were in Pakistan, but looking at this pile of money, it shouldn't be too much.

"What's the meaning?"

"You can take the money and help us keep an eye on Xiaolan's situation. Don't let anything happen to him."

"You two are such fools, and you want me to risk your lives to help you keep an eye on it. I'm sorry, I can't do it. This little money is not worth my monthly expenses."

Shen Man looked at the people in front of him with some arrogance.

Qin Yuan walked to Sophia, took the wad of money from her hand and counted it.

"It seems that Miss Shen is the second generation of rich people. This money can cover your two months' salary, but it's not as much as your one month's expenses?"

"I don't dare to be a rich second generation, but I can tell you directly that I am not very short of money."

"If you weren't short of money, you would still be blackmailing us here."

"Just because I'm not short of money doesn't mean I don't like money. Anyway, this is the only benefit you have, so don't expect me to help you deliver the news."

Azhe and Sophia looked at each other.

Qin Yuan originally thought that Azhe would be very angry and take action against the little nurse. He also wanted to protect the girl.

Who would have thought that Azhe didn't say anything, Sofia paused, and he took off a diamond bracelet from his wrist.

Then he hung the bracelet on his index finger and shook it.

"What do you think of this thing?"

After Shen Man saw this bracelet, his eyes shone a little.

Qin Yuan is a boy. He is not very sensitive to these things. He simply thinks that they are like decorations and do not think they are anything valuable.

However, after thinking about it, he could understand how the people around Mr. Norman Karim could be short of money. It seemed that Sofia could proudly take out this bracelet, which must be valuable.

"This is indeed a good thing. I'm afraid Miss Sophia might be reluctant to part with it."

"I can give it to you, but you also know that this valuable thing is definitely not so easy to get, and you have to pay the relevant price.

If you are really afraid of offending Mr. Norman Karim and are timid, I think you still can't get this bracelet. "

After Sophia finished saying this, Shen Man stared directly at the diamond bracelet.

"I understand, you get what you pay for. I will naturally contribute as much as you are willing to pay."

As Shen Man spoke, he stretched out his hand to catch the diamond bracelet. As soon as Sophia was about to put the diamond bracelet in his hand, Qin Yuan snatched it away.

"What do you mean? Miss Sophia has already taken out the bracelet. Is there anything you can't bear to part with?"

"I don't know much about these jewelry, but I can tell that this is a good thing, and it can be considered expensive."

"This bracelet can buy half a hospital."

Qin Yuan's eyes widened immediately when he heard this. He couldn't believe it himself, and then he carefully held the bracelet in his hand, for fear of falling to the ground and he couldn't afford to pay for it.

"Sofia, you are a bit too generous. You gave him such a valuable bracelet. You'd better take it back quickly. I don't think Xiaolan is worthy of your affection."

"It's okay, Qin Yuan, you don't have to feel for me. Unfortunately, these things are all external to me. What can I really take away?"

"This bracelet was awarded to you by Mr. Norman Karim before."

"I didn't expect your memory to be so good."

"Once I accompanied Mr. Norman Karim to an auction, and I gave you this diamond bracelet that he paid a lot of money for. I believe he was also very impressed by this. If you just gave it to someone else, , I'm afraid Mr. Norman Karim will not be happy."

After hearing this, Shen Man smiled and said.

"Do you want to use this method to scare me so that I don't dare to accept this bracelet? Miss Sophia, I think since you have decided to use it as a bargaining chip, don't feel bad."

Qin Yuan asked with some confusion.

"Shen Man, Azhe just said that this diamond bracelet was specially bought by Mr. Norman Karim at the auction. It should be very valuable. Do you really dare to accept such a valuable thing?"

"Why wouldn't I dare?"

This thing is the result of my labor and it is what I deserve. Besides, people like Mr. Norman Karim will not be stingy just because of a diamond bracelet.

Since he has given this thing to Sophia, it naturally belongs to Sophia, and he is free to deal with it how he wants. "

"It seems like your girl is quite courageous."

Sophia took the bracelet out of Qin Yuan's hand and placed it on Shen Man's hand.

"This thing belongs to you now, but you must do something to receive the money. There are rules in the world on this day. If you break the rules, I will take away the bracelet and your life."

"You don't need to scare me here, just tell me what you need me to do for you."

"Xiao Lan, his status is very special. He must have offended many people like me in the group over the years, so many people want to kill her."

"I know very well that few of the people in your group lying here are safe."

"So I need you to stay awake and help me keep an eye on the situation in the hospital. If there is anyone suspicious, tell us immediately."

"Is it that simple?"

You took out this diamond bracelet as a bargaining chip for me to help you. Are you asking me to do such a simple thing? If you say so, I seem to be a little afraid to accept such a valuable thing.

This is completely out of proportion to my efforts. There is no free lunch in the world, let alone a time when the pie falls.

Forget it, I'd better return this bracelet to you. I don't dare to continue the mission. Money is a good thing, but it's useless if you don't have life flowers. "

As Shen Man spoke, he desperately took the bracelet off his wrist and gave it back to Sophia.

"Since you have accepted it, you shouldn't give it back, right? Don't you feel moved by looking at such a good thing?"

"I have told you just now, a gentleman loves money in a proper way, and the most important thing is when there is no pie in the world.

I don't believe that a simple task costs so much. You are all smart people, but don't say that you are rich and don't care about it.

The richer the person, the more they will scheme. I dare not accept it. You should go out quickly. I will tell you the rescue results later. "

After Shen Man finished speaking, he was about to turn around and leave. When Qin Yuan saw this situation, he immediately realized why Sophia had to take out such a valuable bracelet to bribe her.

It's definitely not because of Xiaolan. It seems that this matter should involve Hassan. Shen Man is a nurse who specializes in taking care of Hassan. If he is bribed, he will know more information.

"Shen Man, wait a moment."

"Miss Sophia, is there anything else you can do?"

Shen Man was also a very proud and difficult-to-manipulate girl. He didn't look back at all when he was talking. Instead, he stretched out his hand easily and casually smoothed the bun on his head a few times.

"You'd better turn around and let's have a good talk. There's no need to fall out if the business is not done with justice."

"Are you still embarrassed to say this to me?"

You are not sincere at all in wanting to do this business with me. You didn't tell me the truth just now. You can just tell me what exactly this diamond bracelet needs from me.

If it has something to do with Hassan, I can accept it.

I just can't accept your concealment. Even if you sign a contract, you have to read the terms in the contract clearly, let alone a relationship like ours. "

After Shen Man said this, Sophia walked quickly and came to Shen Man and looked at him with a smile.

"It seems that Miss Shen is really a very smart girl. You already know the purpose of my giving you the diamond bracelet."

"I knew from the beginning that you were doing it for Hassan, otherwise why would you pay such a high price for just a little girl?"

I'm not a fool, it's impossible to fool me easily. "

Qin Yuan also stepped forward and asked curiously.

"Logically speaking, for a person like Hassan, the hospital must assign him the most experienced doctors and nurses. It depends on how you were able to get this assignment at a relatively young age."

"Can't you be more professional at a young age?"

"If you talk like this, there is no need for us to continue talking."

"Originally, this task was assigned to my master, but he accidentally burned his foot, so he had to go back and rest quietly.

Apart from my master, the most experienced person in this hospital is also on a business trip and is not in the hospital.

So this task naturally fell on my head. Although I am young, my professional ability is not bad at all. I have learned a lot from following my master for so many years.

Therefore, the task of taking care of Hassan naturally falls on me. What do you think of this reason?

"It seems that it was not an accident that your master burned his foot."

"Qin Yuan, does this mean that I deliberately let my master burn his feet and then took over from him to do the job?"

"Taking care of a special person like Hassan is definitely profitable. Under the trend of interests, anything is possible, no matter who the other party is."

Chapter 2225 The news finally reached the boss's ears

From the first time Qin Yuan saw Shen Man, he felt that this girl was very unusual. She looked relatively young and lacked some experience, but she was very courageous. This was for sure.

Qin Yuan has always believed in his own feelings. People say that women's sixth sense is more accurate. Qin Yuan believes that his sixth sense is also very accurate.

"Sofia, did you lose a diamond bracelet like this?"

Sophia smiled and looked back at Shen Man.

"A diamond bracelet is nothing to me. Generally speaking, it can be regarded as an extraneous possession."

"I also see that this thing is valuable, otherwise it wouldn't be able to impress me. This is a bit interesting."

"Shen Man, you have to do things with money, and I gave you such an expensive diamond bracelet. How do you plan to repay us?"

"Then tell me what you need me to do?"

"This diamond bracelet should be enough to stimulate your subjective initiative and make you do some more dangerous things. I think the price is enough to make you risk your life."

Shen Man held the diamond bracelet and smiled beside him.

"Am I so worthless in your eyes at my age?"

You want me to sacrifice my life for you just for a diamond bracelet. This is absolutely impossible. I can only provide you with clues of the corresponding value. Just wait. If anything happens to Xiaolan, I will notify you as soon as possible. Yours. "

Azhe stepped forward and took Shen Man's arm.

"Men and women don't have sex, so don't talk to me about anything. Miss Sophia is still here. He will be jealous if you do this."

Sophia said in a helpless tone. It seemed that the little nurse they met today was really not an ordinary person.

"Shen Man, why have I never seen you when I came to this hospital before? Are you pretending to be here and deliberately causing trouble for us?"

"You don't need to test me with many questions here. I won't be able to tell you directly. It all depends on whether you have a pair of eyes that can discover secrets.

As I said just now, I was not the one to take care of Hassan.

I won it through my own efforts, and I also have strong enough professional ability to be qualified for this position. Mr. Norman Karim should also know about me. "

"You said Mr. Norman Karim also knew about you?"

Qin Yuan didn't believe it and was confused.

"I'm not here to scare you, I'm telling you this from the bottom of my heart.

If you don't believe it, you can go to Mr. Norman Karim now and ask him if he knows a little nurse like me. Otherwise, how could he agree with me to take care of Hassan? "

"You don't have to raise the flag here and try to hide the tiger's skin. Since Noman Karim supports you first, you can do whatever you want. No wonder you dare to accept this bracelet. It turns out that you are with Mr. Noman Karim." It's relevant."

"All the industries in the entire country of Pakistan are under the control of Mr. Norman Karim. Even if you think about it with your toes, he knows everything we are doing now."

After Qin Yuan heard this, he felt that this was indeed the case. Suddenly no one continued to talk. They also knew that this secret could not be kept secret for long. It seemed that Xiaolan's matter was Norman Cary. Mr. Mu already knew this.

Azhe also reacted immediately.

"I will tell Mr. Norman Karim now that before he comes over on his own initiative, I will tell him the news first and it will be regarded as our voluntary surrender."

"Yeah, yes, you tell him now."

Later, Azhe and Sophia made a phone call directly next to them, preparing to inform Mr. Norman Karim that this matter could not be delayed any longer. After watching the two of them walk away, Qin Yuan turned around Ask the little nurse.

"Shen Man, why did you deliberately remind them two?"

Shen Man pretended not to understand and asked doubtfully.

"What deliberate reminder? I don't understand what you mean by this."

"Shen Man, don't act stupid here.

If you hadn't reminded me just now, how could the two of them have thought of notifying Mr. Norman Karim in advance and taking the initiative to make this matter clear.

I see that you are not a simple person. What is your identity? Why do you know so much information, and why do you deliberately remind the two of them? What good does it do to you? "

Shen Man was very calm and said expressionlessly.

"Qin Yuan, I think you are a little nervous now. Don't think of everyone as if you have a special status. I don't have any special status.

The two of them gave me such a priceless bracelet just now. Naturally, I have to remind them. Is there anything suspicious about this? "

"If you say that, I really have no reason to refute it. Since that's what you think, then so be it."

On the other hand, Azhe quickly informed Mr. Norman Karim.

"I'm sorry to disturb you so early, Mr. Karim."

"I'm already very old, so I don't sleep that deeply. I get up very early every morning. You should know my routine.

Is there something you want to tell me? I see you looking a little panicked so early, Azhe. No matter what happens, you have to be as calm as a rock. "

"Mr. Norman Karim, I am in the hospital now, the Hassan Central Hospital.

An incredible thing happened in the club last night. Xiaolan was found lying in the club bathroom with a neck injury.

Sofia and the others were a little panicked, so they called an ambulance and took him to the central hospital where Hassan was located. "

"It's not that big of a deal. The Central Hospital is the hospital with the best medical resources here, and every time an ambulance is called, it is directly assigned to this hospital."

Mr. Norman Karim did not care about Xiaolan's injury, nor did he react in shock. Azhe seemed to understand, and it seemed that all this was within his plan.

"Mr. Norman Karim, I don't think you are surprised."

"There's nothing surprising about this. Xiaolan is an American spy and he will end up like this sooner or later. It's just that what happened today was a coincidence."

"It seems that you already know about Xiaolan's situation. I still reported it a little late."

"Azhe, no matter what happens, as long as you can report it to me truthfully, I will be very relieved and happy."

As for whether you report it sooner or later, it doesn't mean much to me. I want to take the initiative to listen to you tell me about this matter.

How about it? Is Qin Yuan also in the hospital? "

"Yes, what happened last night was too sudden. Sophia couldn't handle Qin Yuan by herself, so she came with him. Now there are only An Ran and the three of them in the club."

"Qin Yuan is still a very kind person. Even though he knows that this matter has nothing to do with him, he is still willing to come and provide unconditional help. It is true that the subordinates trained by Fan Tianlei are as kind-hearted as him. "

"Mr. Norman Karim, don't you want to ask about Xiaolan's situation?"

"The people at the Central Hospital will take the initiative to report to me, and Xiaolan is injured in the neck. Even if he doesn't die, he will have too much blood. It is not certain whether he can be rescued."

For so many years, I have allowed him to stay in the club without giving him any tasks, mainly because of his special status.

You should also know very well in your heart that I just saw that he was a young girl and couldn't bear to hurt him.

Even knowing that he is a spy and letting him stay here is already a thorn in my side. "

"Then it's Mr. Norman Karim that he's in this situation now, do you mean?"

"That's not what I meant. Didn't I just say it? I already knew his identity, but I couldn't bear to hurt him. How could I possibly cause trouble at this juncture?"

"If it wasn't your order, then someone was deliberately doing something behind your back when you weren't paying attention.

This guy has caused so many things just after he joined the group. It seems that you should reconsider whether to keep him. "

"Are you talking about Efit?"

"Sure enough, nothing can be hidden from Mr. Norman Karim."

"Azhe, I know that Efit's sudden joining has put a lot of pressure on you, but I can assure you that no one in the group can match your status.

At least that's the case around me, and I watched you grow up, and I taught you step by step. Many of your styles of doing things are exactly the same as mine.

You are also the person I value most. Even if Efit joins him, it will not affect your status. You don't have to face a powerful enemy. "

"Mr. Norman Karim, you really misunderstood. I don't have any other thoughts or ideas. As long as they are good for our group, how dare I have such thoughts?"

"Efit, he is the person who follows Old K. You should also be very clear about our group's next business plan. All the focus will gradually shift to the United States.

This means that the next step is for us to annex Old K's properties, so now we need someone who knows ourselves and our enemies. "

"Okay, I understand, but I don't have any other thoughts or ideas about Efite.

I simply think this person is very unreliable. If you keep him around, maybe he will bite us back. This guy is like a poisonous snake. "

"I have a very good eye for seeing people. Since I already know that he is a poisonous snake, I must keep a safe distance from him.

As long as he can provide us with relevant and useful clues, this kind of person cannot be reused, let alone let him know the clues within our group.

Whether he sincerely joins or not is unknown. How could I trust him unconditionally?

Azhe, I know that what you said to me is quite reliable, and I am also very touched.

Don't worry, I take every word of your words to heart. I have told the hospital about Xiaolan and asked them to do their best to treat her.

Just pretend you don't know about the things that happened today, and don't sneak up and cause trouble for Efite. "

"If these things today were really caused by Effit, it is impossible for him to allow us to pretend to be stupid, and it is even less likely that he would allow Xiaolan to wake up."

"Since Efit doesn't want to let this silly girl Xiaolan come over, then you can just let him sleep forever without anyone noticing. That'll be fine."

Azhe didn't hear clearly at first. He thought that Mr. Norman Karim still wanted to shut up Xiaolan forever, so this matter could be completely concealed.

"Mr. Norman Karim, Qin Yuan is still here, and he has been focusing on first aid matters. I'm afraid it's not easy to do things under his nose."

"Azhe, why didn't you understand what I meant?

I am not saying that Xiaolan is the only one who should give up. You will still try your best to save him and then move him to a safe place. As long as you keep his life, we will have the opportunity to use him in the future, but what we have announced to the outside world is At that time, it was said that he had died. "

"What you mean is to put on a show in front of this guy Efit, letting him know that Xiaolan's problem has been solved, and he will relax."

"Yes, people like him can only reveal some useful clues and information when they are truly relaxed. If he knew that Xiaolan was already well, I'm afraid he would run away in a panic now."

"Mr. Norman Kalim, you are indeed very thoughtful. I really admire you."

"Stop praising me here, don't flatter me here, and do as I ask."

It doesn't matter that you can tell Qin Yuan about this matter. He came to the hospital with him anyway. However, Sofia's handling of this matter today really did not satisfy me. He should not have let Qin Yuan come with him. "

"This was the first time Sofia experienced this situation, and he was indeed a little numb."

And in the club, Qin Yuan and his group are all there, and you know that they are the most nosy."

Sophia, even if you don't let Qin Yuan follow you, I'm afraid it won't work. Don't blame him for these things. In fact, he has always been very capable. "

"You should stop speaking for Sophia. Now I can see that he is a girl after all, and he still can't compare with you in some abilities."

From now on, I will focus on cultivating you between the two of you. As for Sophia... I will arrange a field suitable for him in the future, so you don't have to worry about this. "

Azhe understood completely. It turned out that Mr. Norman Karim had known all this for a long time and had been waiting for their voluntary report."

This is indeed something that Azhe did not expect. He himself was a little panicked. Fortunately, the little nurse reminded him, otherwise it would be really difficult to talk about these things today.

Chapter 2226 After rescue, hide the person

After Azhe heard Mr. Norman Karim's order, he looked back at Qin Yuan.

What he was thinking at this moment was that if he agreed, Qin Yuan might not agree with this idea. He still had many things that he wanted to know from Xiaolan's mouth.

"Mr. Karim, Qin Yuan is also here. You can't blame Sophia for this matter. Qin Yuan shouldn't care too much. After all, he is from the H country army."

"Azhe, you guys are really a little too careless in handling this matter. I can't say whether this matter has anything to do with Qin Yuan. I can only say that you are just being careless."

"Mr. Norman Karim, I can understand what you mean by these words now, and I can understand your mood even more. If you hide Xiaolan, you can indeed hide some secrets."

"Xiaolan can't die for the time being. Notify the hospital that they must do their best to rescue her, no matter how much it costs, no matter how much it costs."

"Nian has been placing her in the club for so many years, and he has done nothing.

It's hard to say how many secrets he has, and he has lost too much blood now. The hospital has said that he will most likely become brain dead or in a vegetative state when he wakes up. "

"Vegetative people also wake up sometimes, and some people are more rigorous in doing things. If they know some terrible news, I'm afraid they will really die.

I know who did this, but we can't have any reaction now because this is a wise choice for us. "

After pressing it, I understood what Mr. Norman Karim meant by standing still.

"Efit is too arrogant. If you keep him by your side, I don't know how much trouble he will cause you. He may not really want to join our group."

Mr. Norman Karim thought about it for a long time and then said slowly.

"Azhe, I've already told you, he can't take your place."

"Mr. Norman Karim, you really misunderstood. I didn't mean to be jealous. I just think that the current approach is indeed unwise."

"Don't worry so much for now, let Qin Yuan settle down. He should have a lot of plans now."

"Qin Yuan has been waiting here. He has already said that if Xiaolan doesn't wake up, he will not leave.

You also know how persistent he is. If you send him back to the club now, he may not be at ease. Sophia and I are both here, and no one in the club is watching. "

"What happened last night was really too sudden. I'm going to go to the club today."

When Azhe heard that Mr. Norman Karim was going to the club in person, he knew that the matter might not be that simple.

Normally such a small thing would not alarm Mr. Norman Karim, but he has already said this, which means that he must have a lot of suspicions and wants to go to the club to check it out in person.

"The clubhouse site is now protected."

"I know the scene has been secured, so what?

I'm not here to cause sabotage, so you don't have to be so anxious, and what happened today is obvious to all of us.

As for Hassan, you have to be more careful. In order to prevent this guy from escaping, you have to watch him carefully, otherwise this matter will be difficult to handle. "

"ok, I get it."

Qin Yuan and Sophia watched from the side as Azhe's expression became more serious for a while and more relaxed for a while, and they didn't know what Mr. Norman Karim said to him.

"Azhe and you have been following Mr. Norman Karim for so long, don't you still understand his temper?"

"Of course we know him very well, Mr. Norman Karim, he has always been like this.

And it was very serious. We didn't dare to say anything to him. This time something so sudden happened in the club.

He will definitely be angry, why should I let you participate in this? After all, it is a secret within our group, and you are also an outsider after all. "

"There are really too many secrets in your group. Even if I don't get involved, they still exist. And I'm going to leave immediately."

"Do you wish to let Mr. Norman Karim know about your departure?"

After Qin Yuan listened to Sophia's question, he hesitated and didn't know how to answer. His departure should indeed be a secret and no one should know.

"Sofia, please stop asking so many questions. This is just a guess.

The specifics of what to do will have to wait for all of us to make arrangements together, and if I say I want to leave now, I may not be able to leave.

I haven't found those two hostages yet. If I were to go back now, I would be a little unwilling to do so.

I think there are still some questions, so don't ask so many questions. I am also a little hesitant. Let's take it step by step. Many things are not as simple as we think. "

When Sophia heard Qin Yuan's ambiguous answer, he shook his head helplessly.

"Qin Yuan, it seems that you don't regard us as your own. You just said these words casually. What are you going to do specifically? We're not sure yet."

"Sofia, please stop asking so many questions. Knowing too much will not do you any good. If you really want me to leave quickly, ask Azhe to quickly tell me where the two hostages are."

"How do you know I want you to leave?"

"It's called man's intuition."

"Men's intuition? I have never heard of it. No one else has such a strong intuition and sixth sense. How come you are the only one who has it?"

"This is because I am different. Ever since the two of us met, you should be able to tell that I am a different person."

"What you said is true, and I won't refute it.

It's just that you have to tell Azhe and Mr. Norman Karim that I can't decide what to do. "

"Sofia, you just need to tell me what you are doing without so much money? Isn't the money you have received from Mr. Norman Karim over the years not enough for you two to start your own business?"

After Sophia heard Qin Yuan's question, he suddenly became serious.

"This is a private matter between the two of us, I hope you won't ask too many questions.

There is a saying that business cannot be done without justice. If you agree with the plan, just take the money. If you don't agree with the plan and think the price is a bit expensive, you don't have to make a bid.

You can't kill people just because their watermelons are expensive. "

Qin Yuan smiled after hearing this.

"Okay, Sophia, you don't need to say any more. I also know what you are thinking, but we have to study it in detail on how to deal with this matter.

I can't guarantee you what the consequences will be, but I hope you can understand that many things are indeed completely different from what we imagined.

You think Norman Karim is a good film first, I think so too.

But that's not the case. He is an old fool. If you two want to escape from his grasp, you have to see if you have the skills to dig out Wuzhishan. "

"Qin Yuan, you are pretty good at judging people, but that doesn't mean anything. Don't think that the two of us are easy to bully."

While the two of them were talking, Azhe had already finished the phone call and returned to the two of them. After looking at the two people, Azhe said helplessly.

"Are you two still embarrassed to joke around here? The situation is very serious now, and Mr. Norman Karim already knows about it."

"This is all expected, so you don't have to be surprised."

"No, you'd better stop talking so much. Xiaolan is the situation here that we should know the most. If there is any problem, just say it directly and don't make us anxious."

"Okay, I can understand. Does Mr. Norman Karim have any instructions for Xiaolan?"

"Mr Noman Karim said nothing."

Qin Yuan could tell by observing Azhe's expression that this guy was obviously lying. If Mr. Norman Karim hadn't said anything, he wouldn't have been able to talk for such a long time.

"Azhe, if you want us to work together well, you have to tell the truth. Don't treat others as fools."

"Mr. Norman Karim said that he did not do anything excessive to Xiaolan. What happened today was just an accident. He also informed the hospital that the hospital needs to give full treatment."

"Let the hospital do its best to treat you?"

Qin Yuan couldn't believe it. He felt that Efit should not be so courageous to do these things behind Mr. Norman Karim's back, but he had no way to guarantee what should be done.

"anything else?"

"It's nothing, just don't think too much."

The key to the problem is when will you be able to solve the troubles in front of you? Mr. Norman Karim has already said this.

Xiaolan's problem was not an order given by him, but someone was probably up to something. And hadn't Shen Man already said that Xiaolan's wound didn't look like it was caused by someone else, it looked a bit like suicide. "

"Does Mr. Norman Karim have no other instructions?"

Qin Yuan looked at Azhe in a deep tone, his eyes slightly evasive.

"Even if there are any other instructions, it is an internal matter within our group and has nothing to do with you."

Qin Yuan, don't ask so many questions. Your people are still waiting there at the club. It's not particularly safe for them to stay in the club.

Mr. Norman Karim said that he planned to go to his club today to see the situation in person and see what happened. If you want to protect your own people, you should go back now. "

Qin Yuan still couldn't believe that Mr. Norman Karim would be indifferent to this matter. He must have some other instructions, but Azhe didn't say it.

At this time, Qin Yuan felt that he should inform An Ran quickly, because he had no plans to return to the club for the time being, and he had to keep an eye on Xiaolan.

Qin Yuan took out his cell phone while thinking, preparing to call An Ran.

Sophia asked immediately after seeing it.

"Who do you want to contact?"

"If I remember correctly, I have the right to contact others at will. Do you want to ask so many questions? Or is this also an order from Mr. Norman Karim?"

"If you want to contact An Ran, give up as soon as possible. You can go back to the club and watch them in person. That's better than anything else. Why do you need to remotely control it?"

"It's impossible for me to return to the club until Xiaolan's problem is solved."

"Xiaolan has nothing to do with you. He is a spy from the United States and you are a special soldier from Country H. Is there any connection between the two?"

When Qin Yuan thought of this, he suddenly realized that He Chenguang should be very nervous now. He was also worried about whether this spy like himself was dead or alive, but the other party must have hoped that he would not save him.

"Okay, I can tell you directly what Mr. Norman Karim's order was just now."

Qin Yuan finally breathed a sigh of relief when he heard Azhe suddenly change his tone.

"Then just tell me what's going on?"

"This matter is still very simple. It's just that the situation we encountered is not very optimistic, and I must remind you that no matter what happens, you cannot let others notice that something is wrong."

"Azhe, we have known each other for such a long time. If you have anything to say, just say it directly. There is no need to beat around the bush here. What instructions did Mr. Norman Karim give?"

"He has already said that he is going to transfer Xiaolan after she recovers. It is best to transfer her to a safe place where no one knows."

"This means that Mr. Norman Karim has no other ideas. He just wants to hide people. Why is this?"

"Then I don't know. Anyway, these situations are not very optimistic. If you have anything, you can say it directly, otherwise it will have a big impact."

"I think it's better to forget it. It's useless what I say now. Didn't Shen Man already say it just now? The probability that Xiaolan can be saved is very small.

Moreover, Pakistan's medical resources are relatively limited, and there is no ability to treat her unless she is transferred to a hospital. "

"Transfer?"

After hearing Qin Yuan's words, Azhe had some doubts. He thought that although Xiaolan was a spy, he had not gotten any useful information for so many years. He just kept her in the club for no reason to avoid alerting the snake.

"I don't think it's necessary at all, he doesn't have such value.

I would say forget it and wait until you have time to think of other solutions. It won't be as troublesome as it is now. Xiaolan's problem will also cause us a lot of trouble. "

Chapter 2227 Want to take the opportunity to transfer these three people

Mr. Norman Karim's private club.

An Ran was spinning in circles anxiously. He didn't know how to deal with today's matters. He could just feel that he was very anxious now.

Because Qin Yuan was not here, he had an unspeakable fear.

Chen Jixiang couldn't stand it anymore.

"Sister An Ran, you are a person who has seen the world after all. Such a small thing happened today and you are restless. Is it because Brother Qin Yuan is not here and you think you are not capable of handling these things alone.

If this is the case, you have nothing to fear.

What do you have to worry about when I'm here? Although I'm not as good as Brother Qin Yuan, I can still be considered a boy and can stand on my own.

Besides, Brother Qin Yuan has already left, and Mr. Norman Karim should not make things difficult for us. What do you have to worry about? "

He Chenguang is the really anxious person.

Although he pretended to be calm and nonchalant on the surface, he was already panicking in his heart.

"Brother Chenguang, are you right?"

"What?"

"Sister An Ran has been worried that Mr. Norman Karim will come and cause trouble for us. I think his worries are completely unnecessary. You should also try to persuade him."

He Chenguang was thinking that he was already extremely anxious, so how could he be in the mood to come and persuade An Ran?

"Chen Jixiang, Qin Yuan told us so much before he left, and he also handed over all these things to you. Just try to persuade Sister An Ran not to make him so anxious and nervous. There is nothing wrong with it at all. use."

"Yes, Sister An Ran, what do you have to worry about now?

Are you a little worried after seeing the miserable situation of the girl Xiaolan? Don't worry, this kind of thing will not happen to you.

As long as we are all here, we will protect you. You are a girl. Even if there is danger, we will get you to a safe place first. "

An Ran smiled and said.

"How could I be frightened by this little scene? I just feel that we are in a very passive position now, even though Qin Yuan has always said that he wants to take us out of here.

However, after all, there are many things that have not been arranged. Think about it, I have been alone for so many years and have come into contact with so many people outside. How could I be afraid of anything?

I am not afraid that someone will attack us, and I am not afraid of becoming like Xiaolan. While I am dealing with problems outside alone, you are still training in the army.

What I'm more worried about now is Xiaolan's problem. The time of appearance is actually too coincidental. Maybe someone wants to use this time to cause damage, which is also possible. "

Chen Jixiang gritted his teeth and said after hearing this.

"Efit, it must be this guy. He has been against us all the time. Now he finally has the chance to take action. How could he give up so easily?"

He Chenguang was particularly worried about Xiaolan's condition now. He hoped that the girl would not wake up.

So, of course he thought of a good idea.

"An Ran, I feel a little worried about Qin Yuan being alone with Sophia. Why don't you two wait in the club while I go to the hospital to see what's going on."

"No, Brother Qin Yuan said that he still wants us to wait here, so you can stop running around."

"Qin Yuan is a person who likes to show off his talents. Don't you know him well?"

Even if there is any problem, he will bear it alone and will not bring all of us in.

Rather than this, we might as well take the initiative ourselves and don't let him bear all this alone. I can't bear it. "

"Brother Chenguang, just wait here.

As for other things, let's take it step by step. Anyway, the current situation has become very complicated, and we can't leave here easily. This is unrealistic. "

"Are you two trying to spy on me now? Or do you mean you don't believe me at all?"

He Chenguang was obviously a little anxious. Perhaps he was too excited, which made the atmosphere between the three people very tense. While they were talking, there seemed to be some movement outside the door.

"Don't talk yet."

An Ran was very vigilant and stopped the two of them from continuing to talk, but the group of people opened the door and walked in.

They were wearing black suits and strutting around the house unscrupulously. When An Ran saw this situation, he knew something was wrong. It should be Mr. Norman Karim.

"Who are these people? How could they break in so openly and so casually?"

"If nothing else, they should be Mr. Norman Karim's bodyguards. Don't worry so much. Mr. Norman Karim must have asked them to come here. Otherwise, how could they have such courage?"

"Mr. Norman Karim should already know about Xiaolan's injury. He didn't come here specifically to investigate."

"It's not necessary to raise an army to investigate the crime. They probably don't care much about Xiaolan's identity."

After He Chenguang heard this, he asked nervously from the side.

"What is Xiaolan's identity?"

An Ran was a little wary when he heard this, and then he deliberately smiled and said relaxedly.

"Who else could he be? Of course he belongs to Mr. Norman Karim. Is there any problem with this?"

When He Chenguang heard what An Ran said, he breathed a sigh of relief and then said.

"So you said he is Mr. Norman Katim's man. Isn't this something everyone knows? Why is there any identity involved? It really scares me."

"I think you're just a little too nervous. This doesn't involve any secrets at all. It's all public and we all know it!"

The fact that He Chenguang can say these words now is enough to prove that he is already panicked. If he continues, it will only have a great impact on him.

"Brother Chenguang, what's happened to you recently?"

I always feel that you seem to be reckless. This is completely different from the usually modest and cautious person. Is it that the influence on you here is too great? Don't lose those advantages you had in the past. "

"Chen Jixiang, you brat, just take care of yourself. It's not your turn to come and teach me a lesson."

While they were talking, Mr. Norman Karim walked slowly to the room and saw a few of them standing nearby, and then the room was filled with the smell of blood.

Mr. Norman Karim came in and smelled the smell of blood, and subconsciously covered his nose with his hand.

"It's really unlucky to smell this kind of smell so early in the morning. Why don't you ask someone to come over and clean it up?"

When the men heard what Mr. Norman Karim said, everyone was panicked and hurried forward to find Sophia.

"Where is Sophia?"

"You people are also too careless around Mr. Norman Karim.

There is such a strong smell in this room. Without asking what is going on or what caused it, you start looking for Sofia. As the person in charge of this club, he is not here now. "

"Sofia is the person in charge of this club. If anything happens, we will naturally go to him first, but I also want to know what you are doing here."

"What are we doing here? You should ask Mr. Norman Karim, he left us here. In fact, we don't want to bother him here. If possible, we want to leave as soon as possible."

"You still can't leave for the time being. Now that Xiaolan's incident has happened, I think it's necessary for you to explain the reason."

"Mr. Norman Karim, we have always respected you enough. You should know very well that Xiaolan's matter has nothing to do with us."

"How about this. Let's ask professional people to come over and take charge. We will check the situation in the club and know if it has anything to do with you."

"Pakistan's police force? I think it's better to forget it.

It is very troublesome for them to deal with these things and they have little experience. It is really not worth wasting time on them. If you want to know so much, just wait for Sophia to come back and ask him personally.

He is the most beneficial person around you. Sophia and Qin Yuan are not here. They have gone to the hospital. I believe Mr. Norman Karim, you should have known it for a long time. There is no need to deliberately embarrass us here.

Is it because Qin Yuan is not here that you think the three of us are easy to handle? Whatever you ask, we'll just tell you the truth. "

An Ran is not someone to be trifled with either.

"An Ran, why didn't I see that you looked like a little pepper before?"

"I didn't want to speak or express my opinions before, because with Qin Yuan here, he would protect us well.

We are not allowed to come into contact with these unsavory things, but since Qin Yuan is not here today, all things can only be left to me to handle.

I am willing to bear this for him. If you have anything to say, you can ask me directly. As long as I know everything I know, I will tell you everything. "

"I believe you don't know much about Xiaolan's injury."

"Since you believe these words so much, there is no need to say anything in front of us. Xiaolan has been injured, and it has nothing to do with us. If you ask me, you should think about it yourself first. What should we do? What can I do."

Mr. Norman Karim took out a white handkerchief from his suit and put it on his nose, trying to block the unpleasant smell of blood.

Then he walked to the bathroom door carefully step by step, wearing patent leather shoes that were polished to a shine, as if they were spotless.

I saw a lot of blood stains on the bathroom floor, but some of the surrounding blood stains had begun to dry.

Mr. Norman Karim didn't even want to open his mouth for fear that the smell of blood would get into his mouth.

He covered his mouth with a handkerchief, then turned his head and said to An Ran.

"I think the current situation is indeed not optimistic, and it doesn't look good for you to see.

How about this, you pack up and leave here first, and I'll find a new place for you. The smell of this house is really too great, and there's no way to live in it. "

When An Ran heard this, he completely understood that Mr. Norman Karim wanted to take all of them away while Qin Yuan was away.

"Mr. Norman Karim, we appreciate your kindness.

But living here is quite nice, and we may not be able to live here for long. Xiaolan is still uncertain about his life and death, so we may not think that he is dead, so this place is not considered a haunted house. "

"I'm not saying this room is a haunted house, I just think it's not suitable for you to live in, especially for a girl like you. Living in this kind of environment may have a great impact on people's mood."

Chen Jixiang also retorted after hearing this.

"Mr. Norman Karim, Brother Qin Yuan is not in this club now. It would not be appropriate for him if we leave like this.

If he comes back from the hospital and cannot find us, he will definitely have some conflicts with Mr. Norman Karim. I think this is not worth the gain, so why don't you leave us alone.

If you feel that the air in this room is not circulating and it is inconvenient to live in, you can leave first and we can go back to our respective rooms.

And if you don't want to pursue it yourself, you can come over now and find a cleaner to clean up the place, then open the window and let it sit for a while. There will be no smell at all. "

"I must find someone to tidy up this place first. What will it look like?"

"Then there's no problem. It's the same wherever we live. We never care about these things. This room is relatively quiet. We're used to living here.

Mr. Norman Karim, you don't have to worry about us. I know that you are very busy as the boss of the group. You should go about your own business when you have time.

Presumably, Brother Qin Yuan will be back soon. When Xiaolan is out of danger, he should be able to come back. "

"Does he still want to wait until Xiaolan is out of danger before coming back?"

"He always has a beginning and an end to everything he does. Since he has already accompanied Sophia, he must wait until Xiaolan is out of danger before he comes back.

To put it bluntly, if Xiaolan can't get out of danger, she has to wait until he is completely dead before coming back. Anyway, there is always a certain result. "

"It's really not nice of you to speak at such a young age."

"There's nothing you can do about it. I'm a straightforward person. Please forgive me, Mr. Norman Karim."

"An Ran, I know that now that Qin Yuan has gone out, you are now leading them as the temporary team leader.

Well, I have a villa in the western suburbs. The environment there is very elegant, much better than here, and it is my private place. I have never lived there since I bought it. I invite you to stay in that villa temporarily. "

Chapter 2228 We can't afford the new villa in the western suburbs

Mr. Norman Karim has never been a harsh person. Every time he speaks, he is very gentle and kind, but he also gives people a sense of oppression that cannot be resisted.

An Ran smiled and replied.

"It turns out that Mr. Norman Karim wants to take us all away while Qin Yuan is not here. This seems to be a bit of a predicament."

"I never meant this, An Ran, please don't misunderstand me.

I just think that this environment is not suitable for you to live in now. Look at the gloomy inside of this house, and Xiaolan's life and death are still uncertain. This house is not very auspicious to live in. "

Chen Jixiang sneered from the side.

"snort.....

Mr. Norman Karim, we young people have never cared about these things. These are all subjective ideas. If you believe it, you will have it. If you don't believe it, you will not have it. "

"Well, let's not talk about this. Just talk about the current environment. You should come with me. This room is not suitable for young people to live in."

An Ran has always been a decent person, even though he knew Mr. Norman Karim's tough attitude when he came here this time, just to let them go.

However, as long as the other party doesn't take action, it is absolutely impossible for them to fall out first.

"Qin Yuan is not here, and we can't leave casually. We agreed to wait for him here."

"I know Qin Yuan is not here, and you can't make the decision on many things, but he, Sophia, and Azhe are all in the hospital. If anything happens, they can notify each other directly. Don't worry, pack your things and follow me. Bar."

When Chen Jixiang heard this, he immediately became unwilling.

"We have clearly rejected you just now and are unwilling to leave here, so don't force us anymore. Do you think it will do you any good if we leave here?

Or do you want to capture us all and use them as hostages to threaten Brother Qin Yuan? "

"Looking at your age, you are quite courageous.

It sounds like I have done something outrageous. Please don't misunderstand me. I have no other thoughts. I just want to entertain you guests.

And hasn't Qin Yuan already rejected me? If he doesn't want to help me do something in a gray area, I won't force him.

After all, you are also people sent here by the God of Thunder. After all, I have been comrades with the God of Thunder for several years, so I want to give the God of Thunder some face. "

"If you really want to take care of Thor's face, don't force us to leave."

Mr. Norman Karim saw that this situation was not good, so he directly brought his trump card.

"Since you are so opposed to it, why not let you meet your old friends first? Maybe it can help you relax."

"What old friend?"

"Jason, come in, you've been standing outside for a long time, why not come in first and see them. Although Qin Yuan is not here, at least the others know them."

"Jason is here?"

Jason wore a black suit and walked in slowly from the outside. An Ran saw that his whole person's energy and demeanor had completely changed.

"Jason, we didn't expect to see you here. We are really surprised."

"I haven't seen you for several days, An Ran."

"Looking at your whole person from head to toe, you have changed. It's true that you are different from before when you follow Mr. Norman Karim."

An Ran's words are also very obvious. He should also be able to see the changes in Jason now, which shows that he is fully ready to join Mr. Norman Karim's camp.

It used to be just an act, but now it's become real.

An Ran didn't know how to describe this feeling. He felt like he couldn't laugh or cry, and it was not something he could have expected. It all happened too suddenly.

The key is that Qin Yuan is not here, and he can't make decisions on many things by himself.

"Jason, are you here just to see us? Or do you want to help Mr. Norman Karim take us to a new place?"

"Both possibilities are possible. Moreover, the environment of this club is indeed relatively ordinary and cannot be compared with the villas in the western suburbs. Why do you have to suffer here when there is a good place to enjoy it?"

"We came to Pakistan to perform a mission, not to enjoy life here. It is the same everywhere. We will have to prepare to go back in a few days. Is it necessary to find a new place?"

Jason was a little surprised when he heard this.

"How many days will you go back?"

"Yes, there is no eternal feast in the world, and we don't belong to this country. We are here. It's just a short stay. You don't have to care so much.

Judging from your appearance, you probably won't go back with us. Are you prepared to stay here for a long time? "

"Of course, I have made this matter clear to Qin Yuan, and he supports my decision."

He Chenguang saw Jason's betrayal, and now he had a reason.

"An Ran, I have told Qin Yuan a long time ago not to trust people like them casually. He just doesn't listen to me. It's okay now. Jason has betrayed us. I want to see what Qin Yuan will do then. manage."

"He Chenguang, please stop making sarcastic comments here. What does Qin Yuan's misjudgment have to do with you? Is it good for you?

Jason can't say he betrayed us. He just made his own choice. It seems that you two came here today with other ideas. Is it for Jason's daughter? "

"Yes, you helped me arrange for my daughter before. I am very grateful. Now Mr. Norman Karim is taking care of her. I hope you can contact Thor and bring Yaya back."

"You are really trying to destroy the donkey and cross the river. Now that you have a new backer, you don't need Brother Qin Yuan anymore."

"Chen Jixiang, you have to be careful with your words. That's not what I meant. Since I have decided not to go back, there is no need for my daughter to stay in country H.

Please tell Thor to send her out. Mr. Norman Karim has arranged for someone to pick him up at the gate of the army. All you need to do is send her out. "

An Ran couldn't believe what anyone said now. He felt that these were unreliable. Unless Qin Yuan came back to solve the matter in person, they would not agree.

"Jason, let me tell you the truth. These things seem to be quite troublesome now. Your daughter Yaya has been in the army all the time. Mr. Norman Karim suddenly wants to take her away. I'm afraid it will This aroused Fan Tianlei's suspicion.

What's more, Qin Yuan is not here now, so we have no way to make the decision on these matters. It is better to wait until Qin Yuan comes back and let him contact the God of Thunder in person to help you pick up your daughter. "

Mr. Norman Karim just wanted to take advantage of Qin Yuan's absence and deliberately embarrass them here. Unexpectedly, An Ran dismissed these people with just a few words. He was indeed a powerful character.

When Jason heard what An Ran said, he was too embarrassed to refuse. After all, he was in desperate situation, and Qin Yuan and the others arranged her daughter's escape and took good care of her daughter.

Now that I have a new backer, I have to pick people up. It really feels like burning a bridge when crossing a river, not to mention that Fan Tianlei and the others are not untrustworthy.

The key issue is that Mr. Norman Karim hopes to let Jason take his daughter over, not only for the sake of their father and daughter, but more importantly, he hopes that a hostage can stay with him so that he can go with peace of mind. Take advantage of Jason.

Although An Ran didn't quite understand Jason's sudden decision and had some complaints, he still had to consider it for this girl.

Even if he can contact Thor now, he cannot make a decision easily, because everyone knows very well that Mr. Norman Karim wants this girl just to threaten Jason.

"Let's wait until Qin Yuan comes back. As for the villa in the western suburbs, we are really not lucky enough to enjoy it.

Mr. Norman Karim, if you feel that it is not appropriate for us to stay here, we can leave now and go anywhere. There is no need to bother you with going to the villa. "

If An Ran was angry, it would be really stressful, and even Mr. Norman Karim would be a little at a loss.

"If you are afraid of any danger in following me, then it doesn't matter if you wait for Qin Yuan to come back, I have plenty of time.

But do you know what the situation is like with Xiaolan? Do you know why he became like this? "

After Chen Jixiang heard this, he felt that he was deliberately threatening them.

"Mr. Norman Karim, you must understand that Xiaolan's current situation has nothing to do with us, even though I was the first to discover him.

However, you can't slander us here without any evidence.

It is unknown whether he can be saved or not. At that time, it will become a case of death without treatment. You can deal with us as you like, but you cannot do such immoral things. "

"You, a young man, seem to be too immature to talk to me about morality. I have no intention of threatening you. The fact that you were able to save the little girl next to me at all costs shows that you are a kind-hearted person.

For these kind-hearted people, it is impossible for me to disappoint you, and it is even less possible for me to threaten Xiaolan's life to make you stay.

I know what it means to be forceful and forceful. Qin Yuan is unwilling to help me. It makes no sense for me to force him to stay here. You can leave at any time and I will not stop you.

However, the premise is that you cannot take away the people around me. "

After hearing this, An Ran smiled beside him.

"It seems that we are back to the old problem now. Our mission is to take away the two students, Professor Fangde, but Mr. Norman Karim is always unwilling to let them go."

"I have already told Qin Yuan that if he has the ability to take these two people away, I have no objection, but it is impossible for me to take the initiative to release them.

Unless you have the ability to take them away, this is your ability and Fan Tianlei did not train you in vain. "

He Chenguang had too many things on his mind and had no energy to listen to them.

"He Chenguang, what's wrong with you? I've never seen you look so distracted before."

"nothing."

An Ran also knew very well in his heart that he must be thinking about Xiaolan's affairs and now he was uneasy in the dormitory. He wished that Xiaolan died quickly and no one discovered what he had done.

"Well, originally I came here today just to let you go to the villa in the western suburbs to stay for a few more days, but now it seems that I am just being kind and treating you like a donkey.

You all don't appreciate it either. Instead, you think I might want to take you as hostages to threaten Qin Yuan. "

Jason looked at An Ran and said guiltily.

"I hope you don't blame me."

"If you have different ideas, it's actually good for you to make your choice early."

There is no need to let yourself be so entangled. Everyone has their own choice. It doesn't matter what is right or wrong. Everyone is just considering the problem from different angles.

Everyone has their own difficulties, why do we need to say so much? It doesn't matter. It can last a lifetime and just get to know each other once. "

Seeing An Ran say this, Jason was obviously disappointed with himself, and he also felt a little uncomfortable. In fact, he himself was unwilling to do this, but now he was really desperate, and this was something he had no choice about.

"Mr. Norman Karim has promised that if I join their camp, he will not force me to do things I don't want to do, such as betraying you."

Chen Jixiang looked at Mr. Norman Karim in surprise.

"Can he still say such a thing?"

"Do you think I am such a shameless villain who takes advantage of others' danger?"

"Isn't it? Otherwise, how could you keep us here and not let us leave? What does this mean?"

Chen Jixiang has always been straightforward, and he has never been timid about people like Mr. Norman Karim.

"Mr. Norman Karim, we have already told you. The problem now is this. If you are willing to let us go, you can let us leave at any time. If you are not willing to let us go, we can also Can't take it off."

"Don't worry, you guys. Qin Yuan will find a way to take you away, but whether you can take these two hostages away depends on your ability."

"Xiaolan has been following you for such a long time after all. You know that his life and death are hanging by a thread, so why don't you feel anything at all?"

"He is just the most inconspicuous little character around me. If I feel sad for everyone who is injured or in danger, then I will not become a mourner."

"It is no ordinary person who can achieve the position of the group leader. It seems that Mr. Norman Karim has already been tempered into steel. His heart is harder than steel. It is useless for you to tell him this."

Chapter 2229 Go to the embassy next

An Ran was very worried now. He wished Qin Yuan could come back quickly to protect him.

But he knew very well that Qin Yuan's side would not be over for a while, and he had to stand up alone to protect these talents around him.

However, this was too challenging for Enron.

He could see that Mr. Norman Karim's intention was very clear, which was to forcefully transfer them, which was absolutely not possible.

"Jason, have you told Qin Yuan about your matter? What does he think of your current decision?"

"An Ran, I have found an opportunity to tell Qin Yuan. He respects my opinions and choices, and hopes that you can cooperate in sending my daughter back."

"Jason, I understand your feelings very well now, but I still have to remind you that your daughter's matter should be treated with caution. This is a very important decision for you.

If there is any problem, I must communicate with Qin Yuan as soon as possible before I can tell you the result. Otherwise, I cannot easily return your daughter to you so far.

Moreover, he has a congenital heart disease and has been receiving treatment recently. You should know this very well. For the safety of your daughter, don't be too anxious. "

Mr. Norman Karim could also see that Enron was stalling for time.

"An Ran, either you discuss it with Qin Yuan now, or you come with us now. How do you plan to choose?"

"Mr. Norman Karim, I hope you will never force me. This is already your territory. What else do you want? What good does it do to you to force us like this?"

"I just think it would be better to give you a different environment. It's much better than here. Why don't you three appreciate it?"

After He Chenguang heard this, he lowered his head and smiled.

"Mr. Norman Karim, we appreciate your kindness, but we have to wait until Qin Yuan comes back."

"He Chenguang, can't you make the decision on such a small matter?"

"What do you mean?"

"Qin Yuan is with my people now. If you have any news here, he will be notified as soon as possible. He will not be completely unknown.

Don't worry, he will know immediately if there is any trouble here, so why do you have to be so cautious? Can I still sell you all? "

"But we have agreed now after all. If we leave here casually, it may disrupt Qin Yuan's plan.

Mr. Norman Karim, I hope you can still understand our feelings and don't always force us like this. This doesn't seem to be good. "

They say so much here and Mr. Norman Karim has nothing to show for it.

An Ran could tell that he must be a very persistent person, and he would never give up until he took them all away.

So, Chen Jixiang said next to him.

"Well, I think Mr. Norman Karim also has good intentions. He hopes to provide us with a good environment, so we should be respectful rather than obey.

Why don't I go talk to Brother Qin Yuan now and see what he thinks. If he agrees, of course everyone will be happy, and we can let him know. "

Mr. Norman Karim was somewhat satisfied after hearing what Chen Jixiang said.

"It seems that this boy knows more. Very good. Let's arrange it like this. You go and inform Qin Yuan first and tell him that we are going to a new villa in the western suburbs. Azhe and Sophia can find that place."

Immediately afterwards, Chen Jixiang quickly called Qin Yuan.

Qin Yuan is preparing to go to Shen Man at this moment, because he knows a lot of useful information, and it seems that he can learn more about Hassan from his mouth.

As Qin Yuan was walking, he noticed that his mobile phone started to vibrate. When he opened it, he saw that it was a call from a boy called Chen Jixiang, using the secret communication mobile phone given to him.

"What's wrong?"

"Brother Qin Yuan, when will you come back?"

"Xiaolan hasn't woken up yet, and the rescue efforts have yielded no results. I have to wait until the results are obtained before going back. Is there any special situation happening over there?"

"Mr. Norman Karim is here."

Qin Yuan was obviously not surprised when he heard the news. This was all what he expected.

"That's fine. I already knew that Mr. Norman Karim would come. What's the purpose of his coming this time?"

"It turns out that you already knew it. No wonder you don't feel surprised at all. Mr. Norman Karim came here this time hoping to take us to a new place."

"Going somewhere new?"

"He said that because of what happened to Xiaolan, this room was no longer suitable for others to live in. It felt unlucky and had a strong smell of blood.

For our consideration, he planned to let us go to a villa in the western suburbs. He said that it was a newly purchased and renovated villa that he had never lived in before, and it was most suitable for distinguished guests like us. "

After hearing this, Qin Yuan looked back at Azhe and Sophia, and then he said loudly on purpose.

"Mr. Norman Karim wants you to live in a villa in the western suburbs?"

Azhe and Sophia also felt something was wrong after hearing this.

"The villa in the western suburbs is newly renovated, and the road there has not been repaired. It can be said to be a very remote place. Mr. Norman Karim has never lived there himself. Now, what is the reason for arranging for them to go to this place? What's the meaning?"

"Shh~"

Sophia muttered a few words beside her, but was stopped by Azhe.

Normally, it can be seen by observing the expressions of the two of them that the villa in the western suburbs is definitely not a good place.

"You must have refused."

"Of course Sister An Ran can't accept it, because after all, this villa is newly renovated and must have cost a lot of money. The owner, Mr. Norman Karim, has never stayed there himself, so what does it matter if we go?"

"Yeah, you made the right decision."

"It's just that Mr. Norman Karim is too kind to refuse. He must invite us, so I'll call you now to discuss it and see what you think."

Qin Yuan understood immediately. It seemed that the other party must have forced them to move their positions.

"If you want to say that, I understand, so be it. Just wait a moment. Azhe, Sophia, I will understand the specific situation, and I will get back to you later."

After Qin Yuan finished speaking, he hung up the phone, and Chen Jixiang was caught off guard.

An Ran walked forward anxiously and asked.

"What did Qin Yuan say?"

"He must have disagreed, because we rashly went to Mr. Norman Karim's villa.

However, he said that he would have a good understanding of the specific situation with Sophia and Azhe before giving me an answer. How about we wait here for Mr. Norman Karim first? What do you think? "

"Of course I have plenty of time to wait for you, so just wait here."

He Chenguang saw Mr. Norman Karim's attitude, and he was also a little uneasy.

"An Ran, what did Qin Yuan say? Are you just going to leave us here?"

"He Chenguang, don't worry first. As Qin Yuan's good brother, you should know him well.

How could he leave us here? We still have to think about this matter slowly. Don't be so anxious now. Qin Yuan will notify us after the results are available. He will not leave us alone. "

"That's right, Brother Chenguang, aren't you afraid that Brother Qin Yuan will leave us here and go back to Country H alone after he leaves?"

"I've never thought about it this way. I'm just worried that it's not safe for him to be alone outside."

"It doesn't matter, Qin Yuan is full of ideas and methods, we can just wait here.

In this case, we only need to trust our companions, and we don't need to think so much about other things. If you don't even trust your companions, then who can you trust in this strange place in a foreign country? "

"What you said makes sense."

After Qin Yuan hung up the phone, he knew he had to contact Du Bingbing quickly and ask him to contact the embassy quickly. The only one who could save a few of them now was the embassy.

As long as the people from the embassy show up, Mr. Norman Karim has no reason to keep them here.

After all, he used to be a member of the H country's special forces. Even if he took some face into consideration, he would never have any conflict with the people in the embassy. He doesn't have the courage yet.

After Sophia saw Qin Yuan hang up the phone, she quickly got up and asked anxiously.

"I know what happened to you and why you made me confused. Is Mr. Norman Karim going to take them away to a villa in the western suburbs?"

"Hmm, he has brought Jason to the door, but he didn't hear them say they saw Effit."

"This guy is like a poisonous snake in the grass, always looming. Mr. Norman Karim also knows this person's attributes very well, and must have arranged other jobs for him.

However, now I remind you that it is best not to go to the villas in the western suburbs. The transportation there is not developed at all, and it will be difficult for you to even think about it.

Putting you in a villa in the western suburbs is equivalent to putting you all under house arrest. Whether there is signal or contact with the outside world is two different things. "

"Sofia, I won't talk about other things, but thank you for reminding me."

"There is nothing I can do. After all, all we can do now is to cooperate with you alone. If you have any problems, it will not be easy for us to deal with it."

Qin Yuan looked back at Azhe. He had to confirm this person's attitude before he could contact Du Bingbing.

"You don't have to look at me like this. I have no objection to this matter. It's up to you to do whatever you want."

"What I want is your words."

Then Qin Yuan quickly turned around and started to contact Du Bingbing.

Finding that his phone call could not be reached made Qin Yuan very anxious. What on earth is going on with this guy? Could it be that he was escaping?

"How could this Du Bingbing slip up at the critical moment?

We can't wait any longer here. Mr. Norman Karim is not an easy person to deal with. Now he is just using a polite method, in case he kidnaps the three of them by force. "

What Qin Yuan is most worried about now is that Norman Karim will use coercive means to take them away, which will be troublesome.

Now he is the only one outside, which just shows that An Ran and Chen Jixiang are in danger.

Mr. Norman Karim may have sensed Qin Yuan's threat, so he took the initiative to find his companions, hoping to control Qin Yuan's behavior by controlling his companions.

This was absolutely unacceptable to Qin Yuan. When he was struggling, he saw Du Bingbing's phone call.

"I said, why are you so unreliable? I contacted you just now, but I couldn't get through your phone. Do you know that I have a very urgent situation here?"

"Of course I know you are anxious, but I am also handling the matters you have assigned to me and helping you contact the embassy."

"That's what I want to say. How is your contact?"

"The person in charge of the embassy, Wang Xin, has already given me an answer. He said that if you need help, he can help you at any time. This is all within his scope."

"Is Wang Xin so easy to talk to?"

"Of course not, he is my college classmate, we are relatively familiar with each other.

Only I can do this so quickly.

While helping you solve the problem first, I will also go through the procedures in the army first, but the process must be indispensable, otherwise you will not be considered legitimate. "

"Of course I know that procedures are essential in the army, but the current situation is very urgent, and Mr. Norman Karim has already taken people to the club.

To take An Ran and Chen Jixiang away is a kind of blatant kidnapping. "

"Can Pakistan be so lawless? You are members of the special forces sent to perform a mission. How dare they kidnap you in broad daylight?"

"Norman Karim is simply covering the sky with one hand in Pakistan. You know very well what kind of place this country is. Of course he can do it and he dares to do it."

"If it were in our country H, this would definitely not happen. Even if we lend him some courage, he wouldn't dare to do this and he would take them down in minutes."

"It's useless to say this now. After all, people can't help themselves in the world. Du Bingbing, please help me find a way to bring An Ran and the others back as soon as possible."

"Aren't you with them?"

"There is an emergency here. I have to come out and help them deal with it first. There are only three of them left in the club. If you don't help me, then I really have no choice."

"Qin Yuan, please stop joking with me. People like you can have things that you can't handle. Why don't I believe it?"

Chapter 2230: What status requires the embassy to come to pick someone up in person?

Qin Yuan no longer wanted to explain so much to Du Bingbing at this moment.

"Since you said you have arranged for people from the embassy, can you ask them to go to the club in person to pick you up?"

Du Bingbing was surprised.

"Qin Yuan, do you know what it means to push beyond the limit?"

What kind of status do you have? Don't you think it's a bit too much to ask people from the embassy to greet you in person?

In fact, I did not follow the prescribed procedures. I had discussed it with the people at the embassy in advance, and it was already a violation to let you go there in advance. "

Qin Yuan knew that he had finished talking to Du Bingbing, and the other party was also embarrassed by what he said.

"Du Bingbing, of course I know that all this is not according to the procedures, and you are in a very difficult situation under this situation, but I still want to ask you for help.

Because I'm not in the club now, I'm outside. If I were here, maybe they wouldn't have to be so panicked, but I'm not here, and I'm afraid An Ran can't handle it alone. "

"After all, you are still worried about An Ran."

"No matter who you are worried about, they were brought out by me and they are all our comrades-in-arms. Please be accommodating and talk to the people in the embassy.

Please ask them to come and pick the person up in person. I believe Mr. Norman Karim cannot refuse. No matter how courageous he is, he would not dare to openly conflict with the people from the embassy. "

"Wang Xin has been stationed in Pakistan for many years. I remember that he came here when he just graduated. I must be acquainted with Mr. Norman Karim."

"That would be better. It might be easier for them to talk if they knew each other."

"Wang Xin has always been a cautious person, and I feel that even after I told him, he might not agree."

"Whether he agrees or not, help me tell him first. After all, I really can't leave here."

"Qin Yuan, what happened to you that you couldn't leave?"

"The American spy was inexplicably injured in the club, and his life hangs by a thread now. If I don't figure it out, if this matter finally falls on us, we won't be able to explain it."

When Du Bingbing heard what Qin Yuan said, he knew that this was a very serious matter, so he was no longer embarrassed.

"You are so careless, how could you be tainted by American spies? The problem of Professor Fang De and these two students has not been solved yet, but instead it caused another layer of trouble."

"Du Bingbing, don't worry, help me tell Thor about this matter. I won't let him down. I will definitely be able to solve this matter when I find the opportunity."

"Stop talking nonsense here, Thor doesn't particularly believe you now. After all, the problems we encounter are very difficult."

"Impossible, Thor will definitely not doubt my ability, let alone my plan. This was all discussed with him before I came here, but I didn't expect that the plan would not keep up with the changes."

No matter what, I have promised you.

Within the stipulated time, all the people I brought out and the people I want to take back will be brought back to you unscathed.

Make sure you can complete the mission. This is the first important thing after you are promoted to chief of staff. I will never let you down. "

When Du Bingbing heard what Qin Yuan said, he was finally relieved. He believed in Qin Yuan's ability.

"I've already stepped up the process to get them to start the process. Then I'll discuss it with Wang Xin first and see if he agrees."

"Thank you then!"

Then Du Bingbing hung up the phone, and he hurried to discuss with the people at the embassy.

Qin Yuan is also worried about the situation of An Ran and Chen Jixiang, because he knows that He Chenguang will definitely cause sabotage behind the scenes, and he doesn't know what he has in mind.

At this moment, what he should be most worried about is Xiaolan's situation. If Xiaolan wakes up, she might see through many things after going through the test of life and death and expose the secrets between them.

Seeing Qin Yuan hang up the phone, Azhe and Sophia stepped forward and asked.

"I don't know who you contacted just now, and we didn't eavesdrop on your phone calls. I just want to tell you that once Mr. Norman Karim determines something, he will not give up so easily.

Even if Enron and the others are stalling for time now, I'm afraid Mr. Norman Karim has a way to take them away. You have to think of an idea quickly. "

"Yes, Sophia is right. Why don't you go back first? It shouldn't be a big deal with the two of us guarding Xiaolan."

Qin Yuan stood outside the hospital. He was not sure what he should do in the end, but he thought that since he was already here, he could not leave easily.

Maybe both things were not completed, so he could only guarantee that one task was foolproof.

He could only choose to stay. As for An Ran, I believed that with An Ran's ability, he could survive for a while. After the people from the embassy left, they would be safe and sound.

"I believe in Enron's capabilities."

"Qin Yuan, stop being so stubborn. What's the use of staying here? Aren't you going to leave until Xiaolan's matter is resolved in one day? This will only consume you for no reason."

"I believe there will be results soon."

"Mr. Norman Karim has already said that if Xiaolan is rescued, she must be taken back no matter what the outcome is.

This was the request of Mr. Norman Karim, and he took her to a hidden place to prevent more people from identifying him. "

Qin Yuan nodded after hearing this.

"I understand why he did what he did. It's because of this that I can't let my guard down so easily.

Don't forget about Efitt. There has been no news about him recently, and An Ran just said that he saw Jason but not Efitt in the club. "

Azhe was surprised when he heard what Qin Yuan said.

"What are you talking about? I didn't see Efit in the club. What's going on?

Probably not. If Mr. Norman Karim took Jason with him, it would be impossible for Efit to be left alone in the group. "

"This is what An Ran told me. I believe he will not misunderstand that Efit is a very sensitive person. He did not appear in the club, which means that he himself should not have come. It should be Mr. Norman Karim who gave the He has other tasks assigned to him."

At this moment, Azhe suddenly thought of something not very good, and he didn't dare to tell Qin Yuan.

However, Qin Yuan could already tell that Azhe must be very nervous as he was sweating profusely, and there was something he was not saying.

"Azhe, the weather is not hot now, why are you sweating so much? Are you nervous about something?"

"No, it's nothing. Don't get me wrong."

"I hope you won't hide anything from me, I am a very discerning person.

I can see that you are getting nervous, which means you do have a problem. I advise you not to deceive me here, because I see all these things. "

Sofia saw Azhe sweating profusely and could feel the tension in Azhe's heart.

"Azhe, Qin Yuan has already asked you this. Just say whatever comes to your mind."

While Azhe was hesitating, Qin Yuan suddenly thought of a very important thing, that is, Mr. Norman Karim must have asked Efit to move the two students, Professor Fang De.

"Azhe, are you thinking of these two students, Professor Fang De? No matter how Sophia asked you, you didn't say anything. There must be something very important."

"Qin Yuan, it seems that nothing can be hidden from you. You are right. I did think of these two students, Professor Fang De. Efit did not go to the club with Mr. Norman Karim and the others. .

He must be on a separate secret mission, which means that everyone must be kept in the dark about this matter, even me.

I don't know where Efit went, which means that his mission must be hidden from me. It seems that Mr. Norman Karim really has other ideas. "

"Then what are you doing standing around here?"

"Sofia, Mr. Norman Karim has new arrangements, what else can I do?"

"Then we can't just wait here. Now that Qin Yuan has realized the seriousness of this matter, you should go to the residence of Professor Fang De's two students and take them away first.

Or to arrange other things, the headquarters can ask Efit to take these two people away. Then we will be in a very passive position. "

Azhe looked at Qin Yuan with a look of help. He was now waiting for Qin Yuan's opinion.

"You don't have to look at me like this. Anyway, my mission is to bring Professor Fang De and these two students back safely. I have already prepared the money you want.

If the hostages are gone, you won't be able to get the money. Anyway, these interests are related to you. "

"It seems that sometimes being greedy for money is not necessarily a good thing."

"What's going on?"

"I'm not coveting the money you have, and I won't be as nervous as I am now."

Now that I have decided to make a deal with you, if there are no more hostages now, I will be a guy who breaks my word, and I believe you will not let me go.

Then I can only go to the place arranged by Mr. Norman Karim first. If I go there late, I'm afraid these two people have been moved. "

"Without further ado, you go now. Leave the affairs here to me and Sophia. I won't be able to leave after you leave."

"Then you don't care about the situation at the club at all?"

Qin Yuan did not leak the content of the call with Du Bingbing just now to Sophia and Azhe, he just said it lightly.

"I believe in An Ran's ability, and I also believe that this guy Chen Jixiang will never let me down."

Azhe nodded thoughtfully, and then left the hospital.

Sofia looked at Azhe's leaving figure, and he was a little worried.

"Qin Yuan, isn't it a bit too risky for Azhe to deal with Efite alone?"

"Efite has just joined the group, so he definitely won't dare to attack Azhe, and even if he has some brothers around him, they may not listen to Efite."

They had all been with Azhe for so many years, how could they easily listen to a newcomer? It didn't matter no matter how many important tasks Mr. Norman Karim gave him. "

"It seems that you are quite thoughtful."

"It's not that I'm thoughtful, it's that you care about things, and I can see that you care about Azhe's mood, but you also have to consider that Azhe is not that easy to mess with.

This group of brothers are not raised in vain. The strongest among your group should be profit, especially a shameless villain like Efit, who will definitely not win the hearts of the people. "

"But there is Mr. Norman Karim behind him. This matter is hidden from Azhe. Even after Azhe passes away, I am afraid there is no way to change the direction of the matter."

"I asked Azhe to go there without thinking of anything else. At the very least, he needs to know where these two people have been transferred. As long as you know where these two people have been transferred, it will be valuable and meaningful to you. "

"How can it be for the two of us? It should be valuable and meaningful to you. You won't trust anyone so easily. All of this is within your expectations."

"Okay, Sophia, you can say whatever you want, but you have to calm down in the current situation and don't panic.

Although Azhe has left, at least I am still here. Mr. Norman Karim also knows these things, so you don't have to worry about whether he will implicate you. "

"Now I don't know whether saving Xiaolan is a good thing or a bad thing."

"Saving one life is better than building a seven-level pagoda. How can it be a bad thing?"

"I hope so."

Qin Yuan looked at Sophia who seemed to be giving up on herself, and suddenly thought of a good way to threaten Effit.

"Sofia, tell Azhe now that if he sees Effit and he doesn't give in, and refuses to listen to him, you can use Xiaolan to threaten him."

"Didn't you always suspect that Xiaolan's matter was related to him?"

"Because of this, if you don't do bad things, you won't be afraid of ghosts knocking on your door.

If Effit was really involved in Xiaolan's matter, it meant that he had done something wrong. Naturally, he was very afraid that Xiaolan's rescue would have a good result. He wished that Xiaolan would never wake up. "

Sophia smiled in realization.

"Qin Yuan, you are really a master at deceiving people. You can fool this guy into confusion with just a few words."

"You can't blame me for deceiving others. You can only blame Effit for being too stupid. Just tell Azhe exactly what you said, and he will know what to do."
