Chapter 2271 Everyone is curious about how he did it

At this moment, Chen Jixiang and Qin Yuan have successfully left the club. Everyone can't believe that they were able to leave so smoothly? Is Mr. Norman Karim really able to let them go so easily?

When everyone was distressed, Liu Mei told the truth.

"Qin Yuan, you left just like this, are you really not worried about them contacting the people who returned to the patrol unit? Once they really do this, do you know what the consequences will be?

I looked back just now, and they didn't follow me out at all, which means they must have other plans. If they contact the people who returned to the patrol unit, your identities will be exposed by then. You came here smuggled in, and I'm afraid Fan Tianlei won't be able to save him. you.

Not to mention that Fan Tianlei can't protect you, can he continue to be the chief of staff? It's all unknown. "

An Ran saw that Liu Mei was so worried about them. In fact, although the other party was cold, she could feel that he was sincerely caring for Qin Yuan. They were worried that Liu Mei was also a person who was cold on the outside and hot on the inside.

"Liu Mei, thank you for sincerely considering us, but I believe Qin Yuan must have a better way."

"I know my attitude just now may be a bit serious, but we are all members of the same country, and we should all consider Qin Yuan for the interests of the country. You are a member of the special forces, and you should know that the interests of the country are above all else."

"I didn't expect that you are still a passionate young man."

"We are already at this time, so please stop teasing me, okay? Is there anything else important at this moment for passionate young people? What is important is how to deal with your own problems.

Mr. Norman Karim is not a person who will suffer losses. He suffered such a big loss in front of you today. Aren't you afraid that he will wait for an opportunity to retaliate? "

"I have been in the Amy Dynasty for almost a month and have been controlled by him. I am finally able to come and go freely. Do you think I am still afraid of him?"

"I think you are determined to fight to the death. You can't compete with him. You should know very well what kind of person he is."

"Of course, it's because I know Mr. Noman Karim that I did this. It's impossible for him to notify people at the embassy in a short time, because I have hacked the surrounding communication systems and his mobile phone. It's just a brick now."

When Liu Mei heard this, she couldn't believe it. Qin Yuan gestured with his eyes to take out his mobile phone and take a look. Liu Mei subconsciously took out his mobile phone. Sure enough, his mobile phone had a black screen now and was completely frozen. Can't move.

"Hello?"

Liu Meicai couldn't care less, so he used the walkie-talkie again, but unexpectedly the walkie-talkie also worked.

"What's going on? Do you know how to hack the system?"

When Chen Jixiang heard what they said, he was very excited and very curious.

I don't know how Qin Yuan did it. I have known Qin Yuan for so long, but I have never heard that he knows how to hack into other people's systems to disable their phones. What a big project this is. How did Qin Yuan do it?

"Brother Qin Yuan, you are so amazing. I have said enough about my admiration for you. You are my god. Please tell me how you did it. Can you teach me? Me? I'm just too curious."

He Chenguang has known Qin Yuan for a long time, and they are no longer surprised by his behavior. Everyone knows that he is not an ordinary person, and the things he can do are simply trivial.

"You don't need to make such a fuss. Qin Yuan and I have known each other for such a long time. I have never seen all his operations before. Sometimes, although I can't explain it myself, I can only blame it all. In metaphysics.

Maybe this kid was born here with a cheat, otherwise how could Fan Tianlei have spent a lot of money to invite him to join the army, even if he spent half his life's savings to let him join. "

"How come I don't know about this past incident? How much money can Thor have in his savings in half his life?"

Chen Jixiang knew that they had escaped the control of Mr. Norman Karim at this moment, so everyone relaxed a little and had the heart to joke.

At this time, Liu Mei discovered that his walkie-talkie had completely failed.

At this time, their embassy's car was driving on the road, but Liu Mei was very worried. Their walkie-talkie failed. How should she contact the embassy and quickly inform the embassy Qin Yuan that they had been successfully picked up.

"When will the phone be restored? I have to report it to the embassy immediately."

"Don't worry about it now. What you have to do now is to seize all the time to take us out of this area. We must ensure safety. This is a problem with the mobile phone system. We can't hold on for long. We will arrive as quickly as possible. The embassy is the one that can ensure everyone's safety."

"I knew this thing was time-sensitive. Now that you've blocked the signal, they can't contact the people in the maritime patrol force. But what will they do after the signal fails? You're just trying to stop the boiling water. To completely solve the problem, we have to get rid of the problem completely."

"You know quite a lot. Since you know that this is just a matter of time, you must find a way to solve the problem quickly. I have already told you that I don't have so much time to waste on the embassy. There must be an understanding."

"Then what should I do now? Inform Wang Xin?"

"Oh, Liu Mei, are you confused? Is there any way you can inform him? The situation here is so complicated, what should we do? We don't understand very well."

At this time, An Ran seemed to have remembered something very important, and he said to Qin Yuan.

"How are the two students, Professor Fang De? Mr. Norman Karim was here just now. I really didn't dare to reveal any information at all. Now I finally can't help but ask."

Qin Yuan smiled at An Ran's nervous look and said to him.

"Don't worry, everything has been solved and is under my control. Professor Fangde. These two students have also successfully escaped from danger. They have gone to a safe place. At this moment, We have arrived at the embassy and it is officially time to rest.

Wang Xin safely arranged them at the embassy. After a while, we will be able to see the two of them when we arrive at the embassy. If nothing else, Du Bingbing should be contacting us about our return flight. We will definitely be able to make it within the stipulated time. go back. "

An Ran knew very well that they should be safe when they arrived at the embassy.

However, there is still no solution for the maritime patrol force. Although the people from the maritime patrol force do not dare to go directly to the embassy to arrest people, if they really have substantive evidence, it will be very bad if it is disclosed to the public. thing.

It is unbearable for them, and they will be held accountable by the higher-ups of the army when they return to the army.

He Chenguang thought that everyone had ignored his identity, so he remained calm and said nothing.

"Why don't you speak? We finally got out of danger and have entered a safe area. The way you are now makes me a little worried. You are usually a talkative person."

After He Chenguang heard Qin Yuan's words, he couldn't help but complain next to him.

"Qin Yuan, we have known each other for such a long time. I don't think it is necessary to accuse you, but I still want to say it."

"It's okay, just say what you want to say."

"Okay, this is what you asked me to say, so I won't be polite. Do you think we can be completely safe now that you have gotten rid of Mr. Norman Karim?"

"I have already guessed that you would use this reason to come and talk to me. Of course I have my own plans."

"Qin Yuan, it's not that I don't believe you, I just want to know what plans you have?"

The current situation has exceeded our expectations. You have temporarily blocked the signal. Although I don't know how you did it, you never thought of it.

Once they know what's going on here and block the signal, it will only be temporary. They will notify the people who are still on patrol to come over quickly. Isn't it the same as deceiving others? What's the point? "

An Ran looked at He Chenguang's excited look and knew that there might be some conflicts between him and Qin Yuan, so he quickly stepped forward to stop it.

"He Chenguang, please don't do this first. These things are not what we want to see. Qin Yuan has obviously helped us solve a lot of problems. No matter what, we have to face it alone. You can't One person can wipe out all the credit of everyone.

For such a long time, we have been hiding in the club. Qin Yuan has done everything alone. It is not easy for him to do what he is now. Are you still coming to accuse him?

I know that everyone is in shock and excited now, but we can't have too many conflicts in front of the embassy people. On the contrary, we will make others laugh.

We all come out together and complete the task together, which means that we are trusted by our superiors. Even so, we can never have any conflicts because of these things, what do you think? "

Liu Mei was nearby and quickly turned her head to look out the window.

At this time, he was also very embarrassed. It was neither listening nor listening here. He couldn't cover his ears and pretend that nothing had happened.

"An Ran, I know that you have a very good relationship with Qin Yuan. No matter what the situation, you will not hesitate to stand on his side and accuse others. Another problem I am talking about now is Jason.

As early as when we were on the boat, I could tell that he was not a good person. Qin Yuan was still willing to trust this person without hesitation, which was really the biggest joke in the world. "

When Chen Jixiang heard this person, his expression changed a little.

"Brother Qin Yuan, I can help you with other matters, but to be honest, I really don't know how to refute this matter. How can Jason be such an ungrateful person?

He is actually willing to work with Mr. Norman Karim to embarrass us. I know you respect his choice very much. What he did as a father for his seriously ill daughter is not easy.

But he can't just betray a good brother like you. You have given him enough trust, what else has he given you? Isn't this just the farmer and the snake? "

"Don't worry about blaming Jason yet. In fact, there are always many things that people are helpless to do when they live in this world. Maybe he doesn't want to betray us, maybe he has his own difficulties, and we should understand him more."

"Forget it, you are always willing to be considerate of others, but others may not be willing to consider you. Aren't these things obvious enough? He is clearly deliberately trying to embarrass us here.

After saying this, you are still willing to refute him. This is really stupid. Didn't you see how he looked in front of Mr. Norman Karim just now? He was like a pug.

Looking back, I really feel cold in my teeth for all the things he did in front of us. "

"Jason, there are many difficult places. I just didn't expect things to develop to this point. Of course, everyone is helpless. Who is willing to face these?

And he himself has no responsibility or obligation to help us do anything. Now I am very grateful for all this. People should always have a grateful heart and don't always think about complaining. This way you will also be unhappy. "

Qin Yuan's words are indeed very moving.

It's a pity that He Chenguang and Chen Jixiang who were present could not understand what Qin Yuan said at all. Everyone also fell into a state of emotional breakdown. An Ran saw this situation and felt bad. He quickly changed the subject.

"Yes, Qin Yuan, how did you do it? Temporarily block the signal. How long can it block it? Can we get to the embassy smoothly? "

Qin Yuan knew that An Ran was just trying to change the subject.

"This is a long story. I don't know how to explain it to you in a short time, but this signal can only be blocked for 15 minutes."

When Liu Mei heard 15 minutes, he immediately turned around and looked at Qin Yuan very nervously.

"15 minutes? Are you kidding me here? In 15 minutes, we can't reach the embassy at all. You know Amy Dynasty very well. Their traffic is very chaotic. From time to time, a person rushes out from the middle of the road.

In order to ensure driving safety, we must be careful. If Mr. Norman Karim sends someone to create traffic chaos, let alone 15 minutes, even if it is an hour and a half, we will not be able to reach the embassy smoothly. "

As Liu Mei said this, he really felt it, very nervous, and felt that Qin Yuan's arrangement of all this was a bit unreasonable, and he didn't consider the local situation at all.

This is a problem for himself!

Chapter 2272 Everything is under Qin Yuan's control

Qin Yuan himself knew that his 15 minutes might be too short.

However, he had already expected that he would be able to reach the designated location within 15 minutes. After all, Qin Yuan gave him the ability to live map through the system.

"You don't have to consider the traffic factor. Since I chose to run out within 15 minutes, I will definitely not let you get involved."

"Qin Yuan, I think you must have misunderstood.

I don't mean to say that you might get involved with us. I am considering you. After all, you don't know the traffic environment here, and you don't know the specific return route. Isn't it a bit too hasty to rely on your own ideas?"

Chen Jixiang smiled and said to Liu Mei.

"Ms. Liu, you don't have to think so much. I can tell you that this matter must be more thorough than you think."

"Why do you say that?"

"Before, when we were kidnapped by Hassan and taken to an unfinished building in the wilderness, Brother Qin Yuan was able to drive out quickly along the correct route. Just think about it, he can find such a place. I believe in his ability to identify directions."

When Liu Mei heard Chen Jixiang say this, he was even a little stunned, thinking that this guy was just bragging without thinking.

"Qin Yuan, have you been to Amy Dynasty before?"

"Of course not, this is my first time here, what's wrong?"

"The first time you come here, you can get familiar with such a complex terrain. You have to know that we are surrounded by some forests and wetlands, and our city is also winding and winding.

Even people who have lived here for three to five years may not be able to find the right way. You can do it so quickly, which is really incredible."

"There is nothing to worry about here. Sometimes there is an ability that is innate, and even acquired learning may not be able to catch up. Maybe this is my own ability. Don't compare someone else's ability with a person's talent."

Qin Yuan thought to himself that I have a plug-in system on me, and you can't catch up even if you chase for a lifetime, but Qin Yuan can't tell them all these things, so he can only hide them in his heart, which is quite painful.

While Liu Mei was talking to Qin Yuan, she looked outside and seemed to have really found no suspicious vehicles chasing after them.

"After such a long period of observation, there should be some results."

"I did not find any suspicious vehicles. Could it be that Mr. Norman Karim really gave up? This is not like his personality."

"Mr. Norman Karim will not give up so easily, but he must have other ideas. We can't relax like this. When can we reach the embassy to ensure the safety of everyone?"

Liu Mei received a call from Wang Xin, the consul of the embassy while speaking.

As Liu Mei received the call, Qin Yuan knew that 15 minutes had passed. The system should be deleting the data in the city's related monitoring equipment, but this may take more time.

"What's wrong?"

"Wang Xin, don't worry.

We have successfully left Norman Karim's territory and are on the way back to the embassy, but this guy has turned hostile. He said he would contact the patrol and might accuse Qin Yuan and others of sneaking in.

We have to arrange for Qin Yuan and others to go back in advance. We must not continue to waste time here.

If people from other countries really know that Qin Yuan sneaked in and took important people away, I'm afraid our image in the international community will not be very good, and it will affect the entire Da Ai Chi Dynasty."

"I have long thought that Mr. Norman Karim might have this trick, but don't worry, wait for me to slowly think about what to do, but this matter is indeed more troublesome for us. How to do it specifically depends on everyone's attitude."

He Chenguang has always been thoughtful. He did not focus on the conversation with Qin Yuan, but was always thinking about his own things, and Qin Yuan could see it.

It's just that Qin Yuan is unwilling to expose the other party at this time. He can only pretend to be stupid and wait for a while. He must return to the army and discuss with Fan Tianlei how to deal with He Chenguang's problem.

"Don't think too much about it. I have arranged everything.

If there are any problems, I should be able to solve them in time. Mr. Norman Karim is now at odds with us, which is also what I expected, and our troops have arranged a plane to go back.

It won't be long before we can go back smoothly, and the things here will be completely solved."

"Qin Yuan, do you really think this matter is as simple as you think?"

"Wang Xin, don't worry, I will never affect your normal work. You can just continue to operate the embassy according to the usual procedures."

"Qin Yuan, what are you talking about? How could I be afraid of you influencing me?

If I was afraid of you influencing me, I would never have agreed to help you at the beginning. This matter was decided by us together, and it cannot be solved by one person.

All problems must be borne by us together, not just by you saying that you can pass the exam.

If something really goes wrong at that time, do you really think you can solve these things alone?

Don't be too naive. Besides, since I have told you everything, I hope you can take it to heart and think of a solution in advance.

Norman Karim is not a person to be trifled with. If we really let him destroy our specific plan, then no matter what we do, it will be in vain. "

Qin Yuan talked a lot to the other party on the phone, and he knew that they didn't believe in his ability now.

He couldn't tell everyone that he had a plug-in system that could help these people, but he had to quickly find a way to make everyone believe in him. The only people who could believe in him unconditionally were An Ran and Chen Jixiang.

"You two, stop arguing here. Let's talk about what you have to say until we get back to the embassy. So far, I have not found any suspicious vehicles, but Qin Yuan also said just now that the signal shielding can only last for 15 minutes.

Now that I have received your call, it means that the signal blocking has ended. Mr. Norman Karim must have other arrangements, and we are prepared in advance.

The embassy also needs to find a solution. If reporters or other suspicious people really come to the embassy to check the situation, we will never allow this kind of problem to happen. If there is any problem, we will take it on and solve it together.

Wang Xin, if you call me, I can tell you directly that you should be mentally prepared in advance to maintain the image of our country and never cause trouble to the country. "

Chen Jixiang watched Liu Mei speak these words righteously and sternly, and couldn't help but have some admiration for him. It is not easy for a girl to think of the country's interests first at all times. It can be said that Women are no longer inferior to men.

"Okay, I understand, you can just arrange it like this for now and see when you can come back."

"It will take about 20 minutes before we can reach the embassy."

Wang Xin nodded on the phone. He understood what he should do. After all, he had been stationed here for many years and knew the customs and specific conditions here very well.

Even without anyone reminding him, he knows what can be done and what cannot be done. Being aware of it is more important than anything else.

He Chenguang watched Qin Yuan arrange all this tightly without any loopholes. To be honest, he admired Qin Yuan very much in his heart. He once again saw what kind of ability the man in front of him had.

"We can leave here and return to the army soon, and I'm so excited right now.

I don't know what's going on with Thor. I miss him a little. We also caused him a lot of trouble when we came out this time. I hope that when we go back, we can restore him to the position of chief of staff. If he doesn't become chief of staff anymore, , there will be no one to protect us in the future. "

"It's the same with Du Bingbing as chief of staff. How can you think like this?

Of course we don't want to implicate Thor, but some things are really helpless, and we didn't do it on purpose. No one wants to see this happen.

But in fact, even if it happens, there is nothing we can do.

Fortunately, each of us has our own plan. Even if we really lose contact this time, we can go back quickly through the plan we made in advance without worrying anyone.

Fortunately, this matter finally came to a close, and so did we. The two students of Professor Fang De were rescued, which is more important than anything else.

If Thor knows, he will also be happy for us just to prevent things from leaking out. He is no longer our commander. If there is any matter, he must report it directly to Du Bingbing. "

An Ran said while patiently explaining to the boy Chen Jixiang.

"Sister An Ran, you don't need to tell me so many of these things, I already know them all."

An important thing that Qin Yuan recalled at this time was that he didn't know what the situation was like on Azhe's side. Fortunately, he was now able to contact the outside world. He had to contact Sophia first.

"I've experienced so many things along the way that I can't explain them to you in just a few sentences, but Azhe is indeed injured, and now I'm about to reach a safe place.

In order to prevent Sofia from arousing the suspicion of Mr. Norman Karim, we have to do a very important thing now, which is to let Sofia report all this to Mr. Norman Karim and tell him that the hostages have been successfully taken away by me. gone. "

When Liu Mei and An Ran heard what Qin Yuan said, they felt that he was a little too risky.

Everyone knows that Mr. Norman Karim has already broken up with them. If you tell him such a thing at this time, I believe Mr. Norman Karim will be very angry. If you really offend this person, wouldn't it be worth the loss?

"Qin Yuan, have you really thought about doing this? Azhe is not a good person to begin with, and you have discussed all this with him. He is also willing to do these things for you. If there is any danger There's no need for you to worry so much."

"He Chenguang, do you mean to ask me not to inform Sophia, and then watch Mr. Norman Karim doubt them?

You can't be like this as a human being. Even if they are not good people, they have done a lot of bad things.

But now, after all, it is with their help that we can successfully escape from danger. If we don't care about the life and death of others now, wouldn't it be too unethical? "

"What is the code of conduct? What can you argue with these people?

Anyway, I think they are all people who can be used. We don't need to think too much. If we anger Mr. Norman Karim again at this time, it will be more difficult for us to complete our plan. I don't support you doing this.

But you are our team leader after all, and we must obey your orders for all tasks.

If you really want to do this, we have no choice, but between friends and we are a task force, I have the responsibility and obligation to remind you not to do anything wrong."

What He Chenguang said did make Qin Yuan feel a little uncomfortable.

He felt that the person in front of him had completely changed. He was no longer the same person. Since he came here, he seemed to be cursed and slid himself into the abyss step by step.

It seems that he must deal with his problem first when he returns, otherwise leaving such a person in the army will become a scourge sooner or later. It can basically be confirmed that He Chenguang is the mandarin duck of the Barley Dynasty.

It is indeed helpless for such a person to stay.

Fortunately, Qin Yuan discovered his identity in time, but Lei Shen didn't know that he was such an identity yet, and he didn't know what kind of reaction he would have when he returned.

However, the identity of the flounder cannot be determined by suspicion alone, and it must be based on real evidence.

Qin Yuan felt that he had successfully brought back the two students of Professor Fang De. The next step was to find relevant evidence to prove that the good brother who lived with him day and night was the flounder of the Barley Dynasty.

Although it was cruel to do so, he had to do it for the benefit of the country. At critical moments, he must always put the national interest first, and everything else was secondary.

An Ran was a very considerate girl. She also saw the hesitation and helplessness in Qin Yuan's heart, and could guess what he was thinking.

"You don't have to think so much. I know your concerns now, but I also believe that everything is in your control. Focus on doing one thing well, and the rest will naturally be solved."

Chapter 2273: Fury, Emergency Plan

An Ran looked at Qin Yuan as if he had something on his mind, and he certainly couldn't bear it.

And they knew that they couldn't wait any longer at this moment and had to inform Sophia quickly. Qin Yuan had his own plan, and they were not qualified to interfere with Qin Yuan's original plan.

He can do whatever he wants. Anyway, as long as it can ensure the safety of the hostages and ensure the smooth progress of their mission this time, it is the best choice not to implicate Fan Tianlei.

As long as it can be solved, it is not a problem, so An Ran said to Chen Jixiang from the side.

"Chen Jixiang, I know you are very worried about Qin Yuan now, but you should believe in his ability. It has been nearly a month since we came here.

Qin Yuan has never done anything to disappoint you, let alone anything to disappoint us all.

Whenever there is an opportunity, he is always unwilling to let it go, and we are about to arrive at the embassy. If we can ensure the safety of everyone, we cannot completely ignore Sofia's safety.

Although he lied to me again and again, and I was very angry, it did not affect the cooperation between him and Qin Yuan. Maybe he was sincere to Qin Yuan. "

He Chenguang heard what An Ran said to Chen Jixiang, and he also understood that in a side sense, he was telling these words to himself, so that he would not completely ignore other people's thoughts, which was a bit too selfish.

He Chenguang thought for a while and said nothing more, and no matter what he said, there was no way to influence Qin Yuan's decision. He was such a stubborn person.

Liu Mei was listening to a few of them saying that they had already been completely confused and had no idea what these guys were doing.

However, one thing he knew very well was that these guys were by no means obedient. They had an adventurous spirit, but if this adventurous spirit was used inappropriately, it would only hurt their companions.

"Qin Yuan, I don't know why you know so much about our place and a place that you have never been to. But looking at your current situation, I can deduce it pretty well."

"Based on the current situation, the fact that you are able to deduce almost everything shows that you are also a very smart person. If you have anything to say, can you tell me directly? Are you also opposed to me contacting Sophia now?"

"Qin Yuan, you should know that I don't really agree with your dangerous behavior, but we are two systems after all, and all I can do now is help you complete your mission.

I am not qualified to know what your next plans are, let alone to stop your plans.

Because if something goes wrong and you put all the mistakes on me, I can't bear such responsibility. I won't be able to take charge of the embassy by then.

I am afraid that I will lose something that I have worked hard for for so many years. This is not worth the gain. I am protecting myself wisely from a side perspective. I hope you can understand. "

"You are the only one who can say that you are fair and honest."

Liu Mei smiled.

"I always like to be straightforward and don't like these roundabout things. I just want to be what I am. I don't need to lie. No one is a fool. The really stupid people are the smart ones."

When He Chenguang heard this sentence, he felt for a moment that he seemed to be the kind of smart-aleck fool Liu Mei said.

"We will reach the embassy in about ten minutes. I have asked the driver to leave here as quickly as possible. That's all I can help you.

Mr. Norman Karim, if you catch up soon, I can help you fight back. Well, I still have a few body armors in my hand, which is just enough for the few of you. "

As Liu Mei spoke, she took out several body armor vests from a small box in the car and distributed them to Qin Yuan and the others.

"Did you prepare all this in advance?"

"Of course, I have prepared all this in advance. It is impossible for me to pick you up without any preparation. I know that Mr. Norman Karim's territory is simply a dragon's den and a tiger's den.

Since this is a dragon's pond and a tiger's den, I must be fully prepared so that I can be worthy of you. "

"You had already prepared your body armor before coming here. It seems that you were ready to shoot."

"This is just the worst plan. No matter what I do, I have to consider the worst consequences. Of course it would be better if I don't have to use it. Once it really comes to this step, I can't let you... Let's get shot."

As Liu Mei spoke, she handed the body armor inside her hand to An Ran and Qin Yuan. After putting it on, they finally felt a little bit safer.

Chen Jixiang, this guy was still talking while wearing it.

"Wearing this thing, I feel like I have armor. I am not afraid of anything. To be honest, I was still a little trembling in my heart before. If a gun is really fired, I may not be able to dodge by stretching out my hand like this. But now that I have a body armor, I feel more at ease.

After hearing what Chen Jixiang said, Qin Yuan could be considered sincere.

"You kid actually has a little fear in your heart, why didn't you say it earlier?"

"Oh, what else can I say? Besides, this can't be considered fear. People must be a little uncomfortable when facing these things. As a member of the special forces, how can I express my feelings? What about fear?

Especially at such a critical time, wouldn't this be holding you back?

I can no longer provide you with more help, and I must not show my fear at this time and make you worry about me.

It will be a joke when word spreads out, will you be so scared that you wet your pants when you first perform a mission? Even if I really died heroically, I can't have any hesitation or doubt. "

Chen Jixiang's attitude also made Qin Yuan look at him with admiration. In the past, he only thought that this guy was a smooth-talking guy with a little cleverness, but he didn't expect that he was also a bit righteous.

"Okay, now that we are fully armed and are about to arrive at a safe place, I should inform Sophia about the next step of the plan, so that our bitter plan can proceed as usual.

Although we may not be able to deceive Mr. Norman Karim, we still have to give it a try. We can't just surrender like this. It's always right to give it a try. "

Liu Mei and An Ran looked at Qin Yuan's firm attitude and nodded beside them. Supporting Qin Yuan's decision was the most correct one.

So, Qin Yuan directly took out his mobile phone and dialed Sophia's number.

Sophia, who was with Huang Mao at this moment, finally received the news from Qin Yuan, and he couldn't wait to ask.

"Qin Yuan, you finally have news.

I just want to ask you, how am I sorry for you? I have done so many things for you, but you let Azhe take these risks. Are you really worthy of the sacrifices I have made for you?

Even if you two had any plans, you should have told me in advance. I was still waiting stupidly in the hospital, but I didn't expect that what I was waiting for was the bad news that Azhe had been shot.

We can't do anything now. We can only wait here for news from you. I thought you had forgotten us. I thought you had rescued the hostages and accomplished your purpose, so we would have no use value. It's over. "

Qin Yuan had already been mentally prepared to listen to Sophia's complaints. After all, Azhe was injured. Although his life was not in danger, Sophia was also distressed. Moreover, they had indeed done too much without telling Sophia this time. Qin Yuan was willing to bear it. Sophia's accusations.

Sophia's excited voice on the phone was heard by An Ran and them, and everyone lamented Qin Yuan's difficulty.

"Now you should have finished venting your negative emotions."

Qin Yuan did not refute, nor did he blame Sophia. He just said this calmly to Sophia, and then she recovered.

"You should always let me discover some negative emotions. I thought you would have some rebuttal."

"When I was in the army, even our chief of staff didn't say anything to me as emotionally as you. This is the first time someone has said that, and I feel quite strange."

"Qin Yuan, it's already this time, you should stop showing off your superiority.

I know you are a very good special forces member, but I still have to tell you that I am very dissatisfied with what happened today. No matter what Azhe does next, I will be cautious when we cooperate with you in the future. Be cautious. "

This was the first time Huang Mao saw Sophia being so impulsive. He was even dumbfounded and didn't even have the courage to persuade her.

At this time, Sophia calmed down, and Qin Yuan said to him slowly.

"How is Azhe?"

"You just remembered to ask about him. What if he died?"

"No way!"

"Are you that confident?"

"Of course, I am the best member of the special forces. Every time I compete in the army, I get first place in target shooting. I have never lost."

"Every time you hit a target, it's not a living person. The situation of a living person is very special. The distribution of organ locations, coupled with the distribution of blood vessels, you are not an X-ray. You can see it with your naked eyes alone. Did you judge that there was no harm to his body? Did you know that when Azhe arrived at the hospital, his body was already soaked in blood?"

"Sofia, please calm down first and don't be too emotional."

I can assure you that Azhe's life will not be in danger. Do you really think that as a member of the special forces, I have to risk a life just to complete the mission?

After all, we are people from the special forces. If we really complete the mission outside, do you know how many investigative reports we have to write and how many hearings we have to undergo when we return home if it involves human lives? "

"It turns out that a human life in your heart is just some boring investigation, so I have nothing to say."

Seeing that Sophia was so nervous and had too many negative emotions, Huang Mao took the phone over and said to Qin Yuan.

"Qin Yuan, don't worry too much, Azhe has been successfully sent to the hospital."

The emergency room of the hospital is currently undergoing surgery. I believe it is not life-threatening, but there is indeed too much blood and it looks a bit scary. Azhe's situation was something Sofia did not expect.

You should be able to know how he will feel when he sees this situation, and it is within your expectations. "

"Hmm, I didn't expect that Huang Mao, you were quite calm at the critical moment."

It is indeed a more correct choice to ask you to come and help Sophia this time. I am about to arrive at the embassy, and Sophia can report to Mr. Norman Karim.

No matter how many negative emotions he has, I hope he can collect them and vent them in front of Mr. Norman Karim.

This will make our plan progress more smoothly. All his anger towards me can be vented in front of Mr. Norman Karim, which can make our fake show come true and make it easier for the other party to believe it. "

"I understand, Qin Yuan, do you have anything else you want to explain?"

"It's nothing, it's just that he must seize these opportunities, and try to be as angry as possible in front of Mr. Norman Karim, so that our plan can go smoothly.

Mr. Norman Karim is not an easy person to cheat, and we should also make some preparations in advance. "

Sophia had completely calmed down at this time. After hearing Qin Yuan's arrangement, he took the phone over and said calmly.

"What should I tell Mr. Norman Karim? Just say that you suddenly appeared and took away these hostages. Azhe is innocent and was implicated by you?

Do you blame Effit for Azhe's injury? "

"This guy Efit has run away now, and he should have made up his mind that he will not come back again. It may be more reliable to blame everything on him.

Once he loses the trust of Mr. Norman Karim, no matter what he says Mr. Norman Karim will not believe it.

But I still believe that he will not doubt that I personally did it to Azhe. Your testimony, coupled with Azhe's words, are enough to convince Mr. Norman Karim that Efit was responsible for all this. All I did was simply take away the hostages. "

"Qin Yuan, you are really a smart person.

But I can predict that Mr. Norman Karim is furious now, so you should try your best to ensure your own safety.

Otherwise, if he catches you, even if Fan Tianlei comes to intercede with him in person, he will not give you face. What he hates most in his life is being manipulated by others, and you have to do this. Don't blame him for being too harsh on you. "

"Don't worry, since I dare to do such a thing, I also dare to bear the corresponding consequences."

Chapter 2274 This bullet must be found

After Qin Yuan finished speaking, Sophia was able to calm down temporarily. He immediately sorted out his thoughts and also set up a way to communicate with Mr. Norman Karim in his mind.

"Okay, Qin Yuan, I know. I have already thought about how to talk to Mr. Norman Karim. That is, put all the responsibility on this guy Efit, that is, he injured Azhe."

"During the operation, Azhe must take the bullet out of his body."

"Must you take the bullet out of your body?"

"Of course, the bullet in the body can be professionally identified. Once the tools are used to find that the bullet in his body does not belong to that guy Efit, but was shot from the barrel of my pistol, my responsibility will be washed away."

This is a very important piece of evidence, and it is favorable evidence. If you want to make our play more realistic, you can't miss this important clue."

Sophia was in a hurry and actually forgot such an important clue.

However, he couldn't rush in and tell the doctor in the emergency room to save the bullet. Logically, they would definitely take out the bullet and keep it separately.

However, once these people saw such an important thing, they would probably find ways to hand it over to the relevant department, and might not give this important clue to Sofia.

"Thanks to you for reminding me, Qin Yuan, otherwise I would have really forgotten about the bullet. Let me inform Mr. Norman Karim first, and then I will find a way to get the bullet."

"As long as you report this to Mr. Norman Karim now, he will definitely think of the bullet. He is a very smart person. Don't try to play these tricks in front of him."

"So what you mean is that I am not suitable to report to Mr. Norman Karim now?"

No, Azhe has been missing for such a long time, and Akun and Amin have not replied for a long time here. Mr. Norman Karim will also be anxious.

He will find ways to investigate. If he takes the initiative to investigate these things, your position will be more passive."

Qin Yuan was also a little hesitant when he heard it. He himself didn't know how to deal with it. It might be better.

He could only take one step at a time. Seeing that they were about to arrive at the embassy, Qin Yuan also had other things to deal with. Now he had to solve the matter of Sofia. Besides, it would affect their subsequent plans.

Liu Mei and An Ran were listening to Qin Yuan's words and seemed to be able to guess almost everything. They believed that Qin Yuan had encountered some difficulties.

"An Ran, you have known Qin Yuan for such a long time, you should know what kind of person he is. This time, you can be considered to have made some mistakes."

Chen Jixiang listened to Liu Mei's words, fearing that Qin Yuan would be more nervous, and quickly explained on behalf of Qin Yuan.

"Liu Mei, don't misunderstand that the bullets are trivial. I believe there must be a chance to get them. Besides, there are several people there. So many eyes and so many hands can't get the bullets. These people are really useless."

"Don't think about things so simply. I don't know what the specific situation is with Qin Yuan.

However, most people dare not betray Mr. Norman Karim. They cherish their lives very much. Everyone here knows what kind of person Mr. Norman Karim is. There will be no good end if you offend him. Someone would be so stupid. "

"You are really good now, starting to talk bad about your teammates."

"I am not talking bad about my teammates, but I know clearly how powerful the other party is. You will not end up well if you insist on doing it this way."

"Chen Jixiang, don't continue talking. Liu Mei is right. She is reminding us. Let's not discuss too much for now. It will put a lot of pressure on Qin Yuan."

Qin Yuan is now thinking about what to do with the outside world. He must take the bullet back and hold it in his own hands, but at this moment he has to go back to the embassy.

First arrange An Ran and Chen Jixiang, and then Qin Yuan will decide how to steal the bullet back.

If Mr. Norman Karim gets the bullet, he will have substantial evidence. Even if the relevant video materials are deleted, there is still a handle in the other party's hands. This is something Qin Yuan cannot tolerate.

"Sophia, you should report to Mr. Norman Karim first. As for the problem with the bullet, you can only say that you don't know and wait until the operation is over before you find a way to get it."

"Then what?"

"Now I don't know what Mr. Norman Karim will say. I'm not a fortune teller. How can I guess what Mr. Norman Karim's attitude is, and I can't guess what the specific direction of the matter is.

Sophia, you just have to make do with it for the time being and do what I say. I believe I won't let you down. No matter how Mr. Norman Karim treats these things, I always believe that there will be a way to solve the problem."

Huangmao listened to what Qin Yuan said and felt that Qin Yuan was a little irresponsible.

"Qin Yuan, you can't say that. In fact, this matter is still quite troublesome. I hope you can think about it carefully and don't cause us too much trouble.

And Sophia is completely panicked now. Faced with Azhe's injury, he is also a little overwhelmed. You can't put all the pressure on him alone, and then you hide in the embassy and ignore everything.

As long as you ensure your own safety, do you completely ignore the safety of others? "

Chen Jixiang heard Huang Mao's words on the phone. He was angry and confused. Who could talk to Qin Yuan like this?

"Who is this ungrateful guy on the phone? If I see him, I won't let him go easily."

"Shh..."

Sophia looked at Qin Yuan and seemed to have no confidence.

"Don't just focus on self-protection at the critical moment. We are here to help you. We should be trustworthy. This is what you said. This is your traditional virtue. Don't forget it. "

At this moment, Qin Yuan suddenly thought of a candidate who might be able to help them take out the bullets. This person was the young nurse Shen Man.

"I do have an idea, there is someone who can help."

When Sophia heard Qin Yuan say this, he seemed to have found new hope and asked hurriedly.

"Did you think of anyone who could help, A Kun and A Ming?"

"It's not these two people, it's the little nurse Shen Man."

"she?"

"Yes, it's her."

"You can see his attitude. He didn't even accept the diamond bracelet today."

"Didn't he take away the diamond bracelet? I put it in his hand forcefully. He should have taken it away."

"You forcibly put the diamond bracelet into his hand. He did take it away, but he came back just now and gave the bracelet back to Sophia."

"So that's it, but I believe he won't refuse us. Just go and tell him. This is a small favor. He has always been a very willful person."

The words may sound a little unpleasant, so you should bear with his sarcastic words for the time being. After all, they are for the sake of our plan. "

Huang Mao shook his head helplessly and said.

"Don't call it a sarcastic comment. As long as he is willing to help us, even if he rides on my head, I am willing to do it any time now. As long as he can save everyone's lives, it is more important than anything else. Do you still care so much? "

"I believe he will definitely help us. You should find a way to find him now. I will arrive at the gate of the embassy soon and there are many things to deal with."

Let's keep in touch at any time, preferably by message. If you call me, I will assume that the situation on your side is already very urgent.

Let's do this for now, okay? "

"Okay, I understand, but Qin Yuan, you have to ensure your own safety at all times. I still have many important things to ask you. If you have problems here, I'm afraid no one can help me. "

"Don't worry. I'm very clear about these things in my heart. I will never make it difficult for you. But whenever I have the opportunity, I will definitely help you solve it as soon as possible. I won't wait until now."

After saying that, Sophia and Qin Yuan hung up the phone.

At this moment, they didn't know what to do, but the situation had indeed become very complicated so far, and they had already arrived at the gate of the embassy.

Qin Yuan knew that he could not contact anyone easily, but it might cause some trouble to the embassy. This was not something Qin Yuan wanted to see, but if there were any problems, it would probably cause more trouble.

In this way, there is no guarantee that they can go back smoothly, and there are still a few people around who are not worthy of being trusted. If he can now, he should contact Jason.

Maybe Jason can let Akun and Amin think of some solutions. After all, they have experienced these things, and they have to have some plans anyway, and they can't just take it one step at a time.

Qin Yuan also arranged for them to deal with the problem themselves out of desperation. Otherwise, if there was nothing urgent, Qin Yuan would not dare to leave everything to them to arrange themselves.

Seeing that he had returned to the embassy gate, Liu Mei could finally breathe a sigh of relief. This meant that he had successfully brought Qin Yuan and the others back, and there was nothing more to say.

"I finally brought you back. You don't have to go into my dragon's den. Let's go in first. Soon you will be able to see these two students of Professor Fang De."

This was the first time for Chen Jixiang to come to a place like the embassy. He was like Grandma Liu entering the Grand View Garden.

When he got out of the car, he kept looking up at the surrounding environment, because he knew that he was safe at this moment, and there would be no danger even if he rolled around in the yard, so he immediately wanted to take off his body armor.

Liu Mei took Chen Jixiang's hand.

"Men and women don't have sex, so it's not good for you to hold me back like this."

"I said you are quite ugly, but I think you are quite beautiful. Don't take off your body armor yet."

"Why? We have already arrived at the embassy. It is so safe here. Do I still have to wear a bulletproof vest?

Is it possible that your embassy cannot guarantee the safety of a few of us?

This body armor is so tight and constricting that I feel uncomfortable wearing it. I have already returned to the embassy, which is equivalent to returning to my own home. Do I still need to be fully armed at home? "

"There is no 100% safety in this country. I promise you to just listen to me and do whatever I tell you to do. Don't go against my ideas."

He Chenguang was also very cautious. He knew that there must be a reason for the other party not to let them take off their body armor.

"Chen Jixiang has to listen to other people's orders when he comes to someone else's place. In this case, don't be so willful. Just put on your body armor obediently. It might be better for you to take it off when they ask us to take it off. , don't cause trouble to others."

He Chenguang had already said this, and Chen Jixiang looked back again. It was obvious that An Ran meant the same thing.

"The guest can do as he pleases."

"Well, if that's the case, then I have nothing to say. I can only listen to you. Anyway, as a member of the special forces, the body armor is the same as my vest, so I am used to wearing it.

I originally thought I could relax a little in such an environment, but I didn't expect you all to be so cautious.

This situation seems to make me quite nervous, so let's put on the bulletproof vest first, and then take it off when I get the chance. You won't have to make me wear this thing when I take a shower. "

"Logically speaking, the embassy should be the safest place here. Is it possible that you have to wear body armor when you work here? Isn't this a bit nonsense?

We love to eat as powerful as the Dynasty. If we can't guarantee the safety of our own people in such a small place, isn't it a bit ridiculous? "

"Of course not in normal times, but now is a special time. You also know what kind of person Norman Karim is. In order to avoid complications, you should wear body armor for a while. There is no harm in it."

"Who says there are no disadvantages? I'm already straight now. I can't even bend down for a while. I have to stand straight. My waist is too tired to lift up."

"Chen Jixiang, please stop talking nonsense here. Let me ask you, do you want to be more tired or do you want to save your life?"

"Hey, don't say that if you ask me to make such a choice, then I will definitely save my life. I'd better wear the body armor for a while. I will take it off when you say you can take it off. That's enough."

Chapter 2275 The bullet is the real evidence

Qin Yuan had said everything he needed to say, and let Sophia sort out the rest herself.

Huang Mao looked at Sophia's current dilemma, and he also vaguely heard some of Qin Yuan's arrangements, so he quickly stepped forward and said.

"Are you willing to help Qin Yuan do what he just said?"

Although it is not a particularly difficult task to take out the bullet, it is likely to arouse Mr. Norman Karim's suspicion.

Don't forget that this hospital is invested by him, and many doctors and managers are Mr. Norman Karim's people. They will not listen to you at all and choose to conceal this matter."

After Huang Mao finished speaking, Sophia fell into deep thought.

"Actually, I don't know what to do now. Qin Yuan and the others are out of danger and will soon return to their country.

It's normal if he chooses not to help us. Although I will have resentment towards him, I can understand that from another perspective, if you are already safe, why take the risk to help irrelevant people?"

"I didn't expect you to be so considerate and understand Qin Yuan in this way, but I don't think he is that kind of person."

"Huangmao, how long have you and Qin Yuan known each other? It's less than 24 hours in total. Humans are the most complicated animals. You can't Based on the short time we have known him, we can't judge whether what he said is true or false. "

"What should we do now? I know that you are most worried about Azhe. The key is not to let Mr. Norman Karim have any doubts. You should report the current situation to him first and tell him that the hostages have been taken away by Qin Yuan and others."

After Huangmao's reminder, Sophia suddenly thought that the most urgent thing now should be to report to Mr. Norman Karim, and he couldn't waste any more time, so he took out his mobile phone and tremblingly prepared to call Mr. Norman Karim.

Just when Sophia was about to make a call, Shen Man came out of the hospital. He saw Sophia preparing to make a call, and fearing that he would not have enough time, he took a few steps quickly and ran to Sophia to snatch the phone away.

"What are you doing?"

"I want to ask you what you are doing."

"Azhe has done such a big thing, we must report it to Mr. Norman Karim, don't stop me."

"Before reporting to Mr. Norman Karim, I think you should think about how to answer his doubts. Do you really think that he will believe you just by making up a lie?

You have been with him for so long, he is a suspicious person, you must know that?

If you want to put all these things on Efit, you have to think of a good way to deal with it. You can't wait for him to ask you and be speechless. This will undoubtedly expose your weaknesses and flaws, and make you look guilty."

Shen Man should have expected that Sophia would do such a thing under Qin Yuan's drive, so he couldn't wait to run out of the hospital.

"You, a young nurse, just do your own thing. Why bother with other things? These things are not your business, and you can't manage so many things."

"Don't tell me tongue twisters here. At such a critical moment, I dare not make any decision. It's all to help you."

"Who will believe you? I gave you a diamond bracelet today, but you didn't accept it. How could we believe what you said? If there is no benefit, we will not believe you if you say you will help us."

"I don't want to waste too much time with you, Huangmao. I just want to say a few words to Sofia."

After hearing this, Sofia looked back at Huangmao.

"Let Shen Man talk to me alone if he wants to. You don't need to ask so many questions. Anyway, many people know our identities, and we don't need to care so much."

"Okay."

Shen Man smiled and looked at Sofia.

"It seems that you are also a very smart woman. You should know that I will not really hurt you. What I am saying to you now is all the most correct. I know that you are facing a very important and difficult problem that cannot be solved."

"I find that you really like to keep people in suspense. Just say what you want to say. You should have guessed that I really want to get the bullet in Azhe's body after the operation. This is very important evidence. If I can get it, I can solve many problems."

"It seems that I am quite smart and can guess what you are thinking. I knew you wanted to get this bullet, but when I entered the emergency room just now, I helped you check it. The surgery It's over, and Azhe is out of danger, which is good news. "

"It's good news for me, but not for others."

"Don't worry, it's too early to be happy. It's good news for you that Azhe is out of danger.

But I also want to tell you that although he is out of danger, the bullet was collected by the doctor in the emergency room. In such a special place, Azhe is Mr. Norman Karim's right-hand man. You should know the seriousness of this matter, so I don't need to say more. "

"I know the seriousness of this matter, so what are you going to do next? I heard that you took the initiative to come to me, and it is likely that you can help me get the bullet. "

"Looking at your panicked look, you may not be able to remember the bullet. If nothing unexpected happens, it should be Qin Yuan who told you."

"I didn't expect you to know Qin Yuan so well. It was indeed because he notified me and reminded me that I remembered the bullet. But now that it has been collected by the doctor, what are you going to do? Is there any way?"

Shen Man looked at Sophia's questioning eyes and smiled.

"If there was no way, I wouldn't come to you today. Since I have come to your door, it means that I have a way to help you solve it. It depends on whether you are willing to believe me."

"Don't say these roundabout words to me. Just tell me what benefits you want. As long as it is within my tolerance, no, as long as it is within my tolerance, I will definitely help you solve it."

"It seems that you are really willing to do anything for Azhe. I know that you have some savings after being with Mr. Norman Karim for so many years."

"How much do you want?"

"Well..."

Shen Man pouted and did not give an answer. His failure to give an answer is the best answer.

Sophia could see that this guy was quite greedy and probably wanted all her savings, but the stakes were too high and Sophia didn't dare to agree easily.

"Looking at you, you probably want all my savings. In fact, I really haven't followed Mr. Norman Karim for so many years, and he hasn't given me much benefit. You may not believe me, but that's the truth. It's a critical moment, and I don't need to lie to you."

Shen Man looked at Sophia like this, and he didn't want to scare her anymore. In fact, he was just joking with him.

"You don't have to be so nervous. I don't have any other ideas. I just want to ask how much savings you have accumulated over the years. I'm just curious."

Looking at your arrogant look, you should be quite rich.

And I think there should be no lack of benefits to following Mr. Norman Karim, otherwise he wouldn't have won over so many people around him and helped her do these things without hesitation."

Huangmao watched the two of them talking here. After talking for a long time, there was no solution. He was naturally anxious in his heart, afraid that they would waste precious time.

"Shen Man, you have been here for a long time, but you still haven't given us a good solution. Are you deliberately stalling here to let them transport this bullet as evidence?"

If you tell Mr. Norman Karim, you will probably get more benefits. Everyone knows how to choose."

"There is a saying that a gentleman loves money and gets it in a proper way. Although I like money and want to get a lot of money, I will not do such an immoral thing."

"But you are threatening Sofia now. If he doesn't give you the money, you may not help us, but you are really too greedy. You actually want all of Sofia's savings. Do you want him to work for nothing for so many years?"

"I don't want to talk too much nonsense with you. I just want to ask you one question, money or life?"

When Shen Man said this, the two people didn't know how to answer. It was true. If you keep a life, you still have the opportunity to make money. If you don't even have this life, then what's the point of keeping all this money?

"You are just talking nonsense. Of course life is more important."

"That's enough. Since both of you think life is more important, why do you mind what I say?"

This bullet is real evidence. If I get it, I believe Qin Yuan should be willing to spend a lot of money to buy it. This is to erase the only evidence of his presence here, so as not to lose the right to speak in the international community."

"It seems that you know a lot of things. Just tell me how much you want."

Shen Man pretended to be deep and looked at Sophia and Huangmao.

"It's just empty talk to say how much I want now. You just wait here. After the matter is done, I will negotiate with you with the bullet. Now even if I say how much I want, it's just empty talk. It will only make sense when I get the evidence."

Huangmao sneered at this time.

"You are quite courageous. Aren't you worried that after you get this bullet, we will kill you and take the bullet away, and you will get nothing."

"Killing and robbing?"

"You are asking for death!"

"It doesn't matter. Since I have the courage to do this, I am definitely not afraid of your threats. If you can take anything from me, it will be my own incompetence. Even if it means I have to die, I have nothing to say."

Sophia looked at the little nurse and thought she was too arrogant.

Now she has a lot of doubts about his identity. She always feels that this girl is not simple, but she doesn't know who he is. She can only let him control her. Who let this guy hold this substantial evidence now? Who dares to do anything to her?

It's also very uncomfortable to think about it. It's not something Sophia can tolerate to watch others threaten her but be powerless.

"Since you all agree with my plan, then I have nothing to say. I will go and get the bullet back for you now.

When you report to Mr. Norman Karim, don't mention the bullet for the time being. You only know that Azhe was seriously injured. You don't know how seriously he was injured. Do you understand? "

“What should we say if Mr. Noman Karim asks about the bullet?”

"The doctor in the operating room just now has collected the bullets. He will most likely report to Mr. Norman Karim whether there is a name on the bullet. Only after getting it to the laboratory for identification will the owner of the bullet be known. who is it.

And even if you know whose pistol this bullet was shot from, you may not be able to find the real murderer. There are many opportunities to refute. Tell Qin Yuan not to be so anxious, but he panicked first, and everything happened instead. Can't be solved. "

Shen Man just left here and returned to the hospital after saying a few words.

"How is Hassan?"

"At this time, you can still take care of him and still have the energy to take care of this person. You just need to know that he can't die."

When Shen Man answered Sophia's words again, he didn't look back at all. This little nurse was indeed not simple.

Thinking of this, Sophia had nothing to say. He was going to report to Mr. Norman Karim, but he was afraid that after his report was completed, Mr. Norman Karim would send his most trusted person to the hospital to check the situation.

It's really inconvenient for Huang Mao to be here, and Sophia doesn't want to get him involved.

"Now that everything has been resolved, you should go back first. Don't stay here. It is really too dangerous to stay here."

"Do you want me to leave now? But I really want to stay and help you."

"Huang Mao, you wanted to join the group before, but there was no result. Mr. Norman Karim may still have some impressions of you. If he sees you here, I don't think it is good. On the contrary, it may be implicated. You, you'd better go back first."

"No, if Azhe and the others are injured, it wouldn't be a big deal if I go back. But Azhe has become so serious now, I have to go back to help you. I can't just watch you suffer here alone. Too much pressure."

Chapter 2276: Capture these people at all costs

God knows how nervous Sofia is now.

He knew that Azhe was injured and Qin Yuan had gone to a safe place. At the critical moment, no one would care about him. If Huangmao was there, he could provide him with some help.

At least now Sofia felt that she was really helpless.

"I can see that you are so nervous now. Azhe, although you are out of danger, it is hard to say what will happen next. If you are afraid that I am not safe, I will hide in the corner. If Mr. Norman Karim's people come, just don't let them find me."

While the two of them were talking, Akun and Amin had already walked out of the bathroom.

They didn't come out for so long, just to hide, and also to give Sofia a private space to let him think about what to do with the next plan, but hiding all the time is not a solution, so the two of them can only come out openly.

Huangmao looked at Akun and Amin walking out of the bathroom and sighed helplessly.

"You two just came out. Do you know what happened just now? What we need now is your attitude."

"Our attitude?"

A Kun and A Ming looked at the domineering look of Huang Mao and were a little confused. They didn't know what was going on.

"Oh, we need everyone's help now. Did you hear any news when you went to the bathroom just now?"

"Who would tell some secrets when going to the bathroom?"

We didn't hear anything, but the pressure is really high now, so have you thought about what to do?

Have you told Mr. Norman Karim about what happened today? We need to inform Jason in advance and tell him to say a few words for us, so that he won't say anything that is not good for us without knowing the truth."

"Jason is indeed someone who can help us. He has a close relationship with Efit. We must throw all the dirty water on Efit and tell him This guy just listened to Old K and came here to make trouble. "

"That's for sure. The two of them have hatred.

If it weren't for Mr. Norman Karim's reconciliation, they would never have a peaceful situation. They would definitely fight to the death when they meet.

Now it's like this. No matter whether he did it or not, all the dirty water will be thrown on him. It must be him! "

"With your words, I feel relieved. Then I will report to Mr. Norman Karim. You must help me speak. "

"That's a must!"

At this time, no one disturbed Sophia, and he reported directly to Mr. Norman Karim.

"Hello? Sophia, what's the matter?"

"Mr. Norman Karim, Qin Yuan left the hospital..."

Before Sophia finished speaking, Mr. Norman Karim interrupted him directly.

"I know this guy has left the hospital. He just came back to the club and took An Ran and the others away. I think he should have reached a safe place by now."

"So that's the case, but there is another bad news to report to you. I am in the hospital with Azhe at this time. He just had surgery."

"What? Azhe had surgery. What happened to him?"

"He was shot and should have been injured by this guy Afit. And I heard from Akun and Amin that the hostages had been taken away by Qin Yuan. This guy Afit also fled when his plan failed.

Now only Azhe is injured and is being rescued, but he is out of danger now, so I must report to you at this time and hope to hear your next instructions."

Mr. Norman Karim looked at Jason with a puzzled look while talking to Sofia on the phone.

Based on Jason's understanding of Qin Yuan, he should have expected that Qin Yuan's return this time was unusual. Under the condition that the plan did not progress, he would not act rashly.

"What happened?"

"I didn't expect the place where the hostages were held to be in such a mess. Aifet injured Azhe and lost the hostage."

Jason must have been thinking about his good brothers at this time. The first thing he thought of was Akun and Amin, whether they were in any danger.

"Aifite? This guy is really restless and did such a thing. I really disappoint you. How are Akun and Amin? Are they not injured?"

"Don't worry, Jason. Your two good brothers are not injured. They are still safe and sound. You don't need to worry so much.

It's just that Aifite ran away. Qin Yuan has left the club now, taking all his friends away, and taking the hostages away. I think he should have found a way out and is ready to return to his country.

Could it be that I really lost to this kid this time?

I have been in the underworld for so many years, but now I have lost to this kid. Could it be that I am really too old? I will never let it go like this.

Sophia, stabilize the situation at the hospital now and come back to report to me immediately. I want to hear the cause and effect of this matter. I always feel it is very suspicious."

Sophia heard what Mr. Norman Karim said. He was really sweating now. He was not a good liar, especially in front of his boss.

He knew very well that if he went back to report now, some of his lying behaviors would most likely be exposed.

"Mr. Norman Karim, I know that you are very dissatisfied with this situation now, and you are also very anxious to let me go back to help you deal with it. These problems are not enough, and you cannot leave the hospital now."

"Didn't you just say that Azhe is out of danger? Why can't you leave the hospital yet?"

What's going on over there? We have been in too much trouble recently, Qin Yuan, since he came here. It would be good to send this plague god away as soon as possible.

But you can't let it go just because you know me like this. When I was young, I couldn't compare to Fan Tianlei, but now that I'm older, I can still lose to his apprentice.

Just thinking about it makes me angry, and I have to fight for my breath even if I don't steam the steamed buns.

I have to alleviate all these grievances at least. If I don't catch these guys, it will be hard to get rid of the hatred in my heart. "

"I can't tell exactly what happened in front of these two hostages, and I really don't understand the current situation.

It's better to let Mr. Norman Karim wait until Azhe can communicate normally and let him tell you in person, otherwise there will be too many loopholes and troubles.

If I had conveyed these words on Azhe's behalf, I would probably misinterpret the cause and effect of the whole matter, which would affect your judgment. After all, Azhe is the first party involved, and it might be more convincing for him to tell you. "

Sophia's lie is quite reasonable, and Mr. Norman Karim thinks it's okay and makes some sense.

If he misinterprets the cause and effect in Sophia, it will affect his judgment.

It's better to wait for Azhe, but he also knows that Qin Yuan has completed the mission and will go back soon. If he doesn't act quickly and just let Qin Yuan leave in vain, he will definitely not let it go. This will become his A lifetime of heartache.

"Sofia, aren't Akun and Amin here with you? Are they injured?"

"They are all Xiao Shang. It's not too serious. It's just that Azhe lost too much blood and was just pushed out from the emergency room. I haven't listened to the emergency doctor's report yet.

I just wait for Azhe to be out of danger, and I will tell you these things as soon as possible. I don't dare to delay too much for fear that it will affect your overall plan. "

"Yeah, you did a very good job and you thought carefully. It was the best thing that you didn't delay.

It's just that I urgently need to know the specific situation now. I can't just let Qin Yuan and the others run away in a daze. Since A Kun and A Ming are not injured, let them come over and report to me. "

A Kun and A Ming felt very nervous after hearing this. They did not dare to lie in front of Mr. Norman Karim.

"What should I do?"

Huang Mao was afraid that the two of them would be too nervous and expose some bad news about Sophia and Azhe, so he directly covered their mouths.

"They all have skin injuries now. They will be fine after going to the hospital and bandaging them properly."

"Well, I think it's inconvenient for each of you now. In that case, I can only go to the hospital in person to understand the situation. Anyway, I can avoid causing trouble to you."

Sofia could tell that Mr. Norman Karim was not satisfied with what he said now. He was already very angry. He would gradually become suspicious of these people's refusal.

So, Sophia looked at A Kun and A Ming and winked wildly.

"Sofia, there is no problem for the two of us. We can go back and report to Mr. Norman Karim."

Akun really couldn't let things get worse. He could only bear these risks alone. Amin saw that his good brother was going back to face these risks, and he was unwilling to do so, so the two of them discussed it and decided Face it together.

"Mr. Norman Karim, don't be angry. Akun and Amin just said that they don't have much to do anymore. They can bandage the wound and go back to report the matter to you. But you must be careful. If this guy Efit runs away, he will most likely take revenge on us. "

"Forget about this guy, he dared to lie to me on my territory. What I hate most in my life is being deceived by others. What I hate most is being played like a monkey by others.

This guy cheated me and caused me such a big loss. I won't let him go easily. I'm going to gather all the people in the group now. Anyone who can catch up with this guy will be dispatched to deal with it. This guy, it would be better if he knew my interests. "

Jason heard that Mr. Norman Karim was going to deal with Effit. He was now more happy than having a chicken blood shot. This was simply a great opportunity for revenge, and how could he be willing to miss it.

"Mr. Norman Karim, I apply to take the initiative to seek revenge on this guy. I will lead a group of people to chase him first. As soon as I find him, I will bring him back."

After Jason finished saying this, Norman Karim looked Jason up and down.

"What's wrong? You look at me like this, I'm still a little flustered."

"Jason, you don't have to be so anxious. I know you have just joined the group and have finally made a big move. You also want to show off. But I have other arrangements for you. You don't have to interfere. I will find out Someone else did it."

When Jason heard this, he immediately understood. It seemed that Mr. Norman Karim was afraid that he would take revenge on Efit, but if he caught this guy, he would deal with it directly, or even Kill him directly and silence him, so that he himself may not get any effective information.

This is also human nature, but no one will remain calm when looking at his enemy.

"Well, Mr. Norman Karim, don't get me wrong. I just want to express myself well. Since you already have other arrangements, I can't say anything. I can only listen to your arrangements.

In that case, let A Kun and A Ming come back first. Staying in the hospital will be of no use. Instead, it will cause you more trouble. "

"Let Kun and Amin stay in the hospital first. It's not safe for Sofia to be alone in the hospital. What if Efitt does something else? By the way, Efitt is not injured?"

"He is not injured. He is very safe now, and there is a gun in his hand. It is more dangerous for us. It would be a good choice for the two of us to stay here to protect Sophia. After all, Efite is considered a He is a dangerous person, we must take precautions in advance."

In fact, Mr. Norman Karim was quite worried about Sophia. After hearing this, he did not refuse. Instead, he asked Akun and Amin to stay there to protect Sophia.

"Then you two just stay there. It's useless to worry about these things now anyway. For a powerful person like Qin Yuan, even if we want to stop him, it's unlikely that we can only take one step at a time.

There is really no way to coerce him. He can only let him return to his own country. That is because this boy is lucky and it is his unrelenting efforts. We have accepted it. But this guy Efit will never let him go easily. Dare to play tricks in front of me, which is really disturbing Tai Sui's head. "

Mr. Norman Karim was really angry. As he spoke, he gritted his teeth and wished he could crush the bracelet in his hand. The sound.

Fortunately, it is a hard Bodhi seed bracelet. If it had been made of other materials, I am afraid it would have been crushed by him by now. (End of chapter)

Chapter 2277: About to face a round of questioning

Even on the phone, Sofia seemed to hear the gnashing of teeth of Mr. Norman Karim. He knew that the other party must be furious now.

"Then we'll wait here at the hospital?"

Sophia felt a little guilty, and his voice obviously lacked confidence.

"There is no better way now. Qin Yuan and these guys are too cunning. Just wait in the hospital. When Azhe can accept my cross-examination, I will find a way to understand the situation with him. .

As for Kun and Amin, just let them stay in the hospital to protect you. I'm also afraid that Efit will come back and do some bad things to you. "

"Thank you Mr. Norman Karim for your concern."

Norman Karim was so angry that he was dizzy. He didn't have time to talk to Sophia, so he hung up the phone and looked back at Jason.

"What happened? I didn't hear clearly just now. Seeing how angry you are, it must be Qin Yuan. What new tricks have they come up with?"

"Jason, I really doubt your attitude towards me now."

"Why do you say that?"

I have never had any thoughts of betraying you, and I have made it clear to Qin Yuan.

Although there is some brotherhood between the two of us, I have decided to join your group now, so naturally I will not help Qin Yuan anymore. You must not lie to you because of this guy Efite. Take your anger out on me. "

After hearing Jason's words, Mr. Norman Karim became calmer. He knew that he could not anger the people around him casually, otherwise he, the boss, would lose all his prestige.

"Jason, I was a little too excited just now. I was so angry with these two guys, Qin Yuan and Efite, that we have to leave this club now."

"Then where should we go next? You have to deploy quickly. Why not notify the maritime patrol force now?"

Mr. Norman Karim stretched out his hand and waved it twice gently.

"It's all about the world."

"You mean not to notify the maritime patrol force, so what you just said to Qin Yuan were to scare him?"

"If Qin Yuan and the others had been controlled by me in the club, it would be normal to notify the maritime patrol force to take them away, but now they have successfully escaped and went to a relatively safe place.

This place is relatively sensitive. If I call people from the maritime patrol force here now, I'm afraid they will have many things to investigate.

Jason, don't forget that you were in the smuggling business before, and I have to try my best to ensure your safety.

It's quite troublesome to think about it. I'd better solve this matter by myself. I don't need to be a member of the patrol force. I was really pissed off by the brat Qin Yuan just now to say such a thing. "

When Jason heard Mr. Norman Karim say this, he could be considered relieved. In fact, although he had decided to join Mr. Norman Karim's group, he still had brotherly feelings for Qin Yuan. Jason is also relieved to be safe and sound now.

"Efite is really not a human being. You are so kind to him, but he still chooses to betray you."

Norman Karim heard Jason's words and sneered.

"Betrayal? He didn't sincerely join our group at all, and he didn't sincerely want to do things for me. He always listened to Old K and planned to pretend to surrender, so naturally there was no betrayal towards me. It's just that I'm old and I believe his lies."

"It seems that all this was indeed instigated by Old K."

"Without Old K, I believe that Efit would not have such courage. He would not dare to offend the two bosses at the same time. Doesn't he not want this life? But this matter cannot be entirely blamed on others. I blame myself for being too vigilant.

It's because I'm a little too anxious and want to replace old K.

I didn't expect that Efit would be so loyal to him. I originally thought that this guy was a villain who could act according to the circumstances, but I didn't expect that he also had some confidence and sincerity, which made me look at him with admiration. "

"Three Days of Farewell should be viewed with admiration. To be honest, I have some changes in my opinion of Efit. He was really not like this before. In fact, when I wanted him to go with me when I was escaping, he had already strengthened his belief. I won't leave Old K's group."

"Jason, if you want to say that, you are not as good as him?"

"Mr. Norman Karim, you don't have to worry so much. Now that I have gotten rid of Qin Yuan and decided to join your group, I will never betray you for the second time.

And on the premise that you promised me that you won't use Qin Yuan to threaten me, the two of us have already negotiated the terms, so naturally we don't have to worry about this. "

"Of course. The biggest advantage of me is that I keep my word. I will never go back on what I promised you. I can also leave this to others. You can go back and have a good rest for a while."

"What about Hassan?"

"Originally, I gave you this task to test your loyalty. Now that everything has been proven, I have nothing to say. You can just go do your own thing. You don't have to worry about the rest. too much."

"Qin Yuan and the others may not be long before they leave here and return to their troops."

"Don't even think about it. We can't have any ideas about Qin Yuan now. He has successfully completed his mission and is only one step away from returning home. If we want to do something to stop them in the process, obviously It's unlikely."

Jason looked at Mr. Norman Karimu who seemed to want to give up on stopping Qin Yuan, but he also had some doubts in his heart.

Is it possible that he is really willing to let Qin Yuan go so easily and then suffer the loss of being dumb? Jason couldn't believe it, but he couldn't do anything else for Qin Yuan.

The other side is here at the hospital.

Sophia's heart was pounding. He just told a big lie.

"Sofia, don't be so anxious yet. I believe Qin Yuan will not ignore us, but we should quickly find a way to resolve Mr. Norman Karim's suspicion of us."

"Yeah, that's what I think in my heart, but no one can say for sure about this kind of thing. Mr. Norman Karim is a person who keeps his emotions and anger secret, and he will not let everyone know his thoughts. .

Azhe and I have been following him for so many years and have never seen him so angry. It seems that Qin Yuan really pissed him off this time. "

"Qin Yuan is indeed a courageous person, and I admire him for this, but even so, we can't just sit back and wait for death. The bullet has not been found yet.

Mr. Norman Karim will not give up easily. He will definitely try his best to let us solve the bullet problem. I don't know if this little nurse will help. "

Huang Mao didn't have any hope for the little nurse Shen Man'ao? He felt that this guy was a typical liar who just wanted to deceive them and was not worthy of belief at all.

"Sofia, if you want to resolve this matter quickly, I hope you will leave it alone. I don't know what you think, but this situation is really troublesome for us now."

"Akun and Amin are here, so I feel relieved. Efite will not come to the hospital.

He should hurry up and leave this land and return to Old K. Otherwise, Mr. Norman Karim will definitely hunt him down. Once a pursuit order is issued, he will definitely not be able to return alive. . "

When Akun and Amin heard Sophia's words, they were both sweating.

After all, they are also insiders about this matter and must follow Sophia to deceive Mr. Norman Karim. Now every move they make is related to their own lives. At this critical moment, no one dares to act rashly.

"Why don't I go to the hospital first to see where they put the bullet."

Sophia took Huang Mao's arm, hoping that he would not act rashly.

"This hospital is under the control of Mr. Norman Karim. You must not act rashly. If you are not careful, Mr. Norman Karim will suspect you.

It's not that I don't believe what you mean, I just don't want you to take risks. In fact, you have been following Azhe and I for so long. We never want you to get involved in these dangerous things. Can you understand? "

"Oh, Sophia, I know that you and Azhe have always taken good care of me, but I still want to let you know that although I, Huang Mao, am not a powerful person, I am also very good at sneaking around when doing some petty thefts. Door lock picking is my strength. As long as I take action, I can find a way to help you steal this bullet. "

"I know you really want to do something for me, but I can't hurt you. If Azhe wakes up, he will make the same decision as me. Let's wait for now.

Looking at what Shen Man said, I think he also has a good impression of Qin Yuan. The matter of stealing bullets may not be just for us. Maybe he does it for Qin Yuan, which is also very possible. "

Inside the hospital, Shen Man watched several of them come out of the emergency room. Everyone was wearing masks, and every doctor and nurse had some blood on their bodies. He knew that this operation was indeed a waste of time.

"You have worked hard."

"It's okay, it's not too hard. After all, this incident is expected, but the person who fired the gun is really extraordinary. He can accurately avoid all the arteries and hearts in the body.

It looks scary to have a lot of blood, but in fact it will not endanger his illness. As long as he replenishes his blood in time, he will not go into shock due to excessive blood loss. "

When Shen Man told the surgeon, he knew that he would be able to quickly extract the bullet, take it out and put it somewhere.

"Then you are working very hard. After all, even if their lives are in danger, the bullet must be taken out of the body. You cannot leave the bullet in his body. Sooner or later, it will be a disaster and will also endanger him. Life."

"Shen Man, it seems that you have made a lot of progress. It is indeed the case. Even if his life is not in danger, bullets cannot remain in the human body."

"Bullets are unusual. They are different from ordinary knives and other tools. This thing must have a bottom, so you must put it away."

"Thank you for the reminder. Of course I know that this thing is of great importance, but we have never been exposed to these and can't tell what type of bullet it is and what type of pistol it was shot from. We can only wait to take it. Leave it to the relevant departments."

"Then you must keep it well and don't let it change."

By the way, did you touch this bullet during the operation? I heard that they rely on the ballistic scratches on the bullet to verify the source of the bullet. If your scalpel accidentally touches it, it may affect their identification results."

"Is there such a saying? Why have I never heard of it? I didn't expect you to know so much. It seems that you don't work seriously at the nurse station every day. You always see these messy things. Have you watched too many movies?"

"Oh, don't tease me here. I'm just reminding you in a friendly way."

"All important things are in the dean's safe. Someone has sent it to the dean's office."

Shen Man heard this and looked back at the time on the wall.

"Oh, the dean is not in the hospital at this time. If you send the bullet over now, he won't be here and you can't open the safe."

After listening to Shen Man's words, the doctor suddenly realized.

"Oh, you see, I am really old now. I am dizzy after just over an hour of surgery. It may be because I didn't eat lunch. I almost forgot that the dean was not in the hospital today."

Then I have to go up and tell them to bring the bullets to my office first. I can only guard this important evidence without eating or drinking, and hand it to the dean in person after he comes back."

When Shen Man heard the other party say this, he knew that the opportunity had come.

"Don't worry so much. You look tired after just getting off the operating table. Go back to your office and have a good rest. Drink some water and eat something to replenish your energy. I'll go upstairs to tell them to take the things down for you."

"Why are you so kind?"

"We are all colleagues. Of course I have to be nicer to you. We nurses usually have to look at the faces of you attending doctors. You can just be less rude to me and give me fewer patients in the future."

"Thank you for your help."

Shen Man smiled slightly. After sending the doctor away, he was ready to take action and ran quickly to the elevator entrance. He knew that time waits for no one and he must find the person who sent the important evidence as soon as possible.

Chapter 2278 I can finally have a good sleep

Who would have thought that Shen Man pressed the elevator button for a long time but still didn't come down, which made him very worried.

I don't know what happened. Normally, this situation would not occur in the hospital's employee elevator at this time, and it did not appear to be in need of repair. Someone should have done this deliberately.

"Forget it, let's climb the stairs."

After Shen Man muttered to himself, he looked down at the shoes he was wearing. What's worse, he came back in such a hurry that he forgot to take off his high heels and put on the cloth shoes he usually wears for work.

Shen Man felt that it would not be appropriate if he continued to waste time, so he ran towards the stairwell in high heels, not caring so much.

The stairwell of the hospital was empty and quiet. The sound of Shen Man running up the stairs in high heels was all the sound of him running step by step.

Shen Man didn't want to disturb too many people, but he was also afraid that wearing high heels going upstairs would sprain his feet.

So, he took off his high heels and threw them in a corner, ready to run upstairs with bare feet.

However, the top management of the hospital usually has offices at the top of the hospital, and the director's office is also on the top floor. If you have to climb more than ten floors, it would be a bit overwhelming.

Shen Man knew the importance of this matter, so he didn't dare to delay for a moment and ran upstairs barefoot.

After about ten minutes, he finally ran upstairs in a hurry.

"Wait...wait a moment..."

Shen Man was panting while looking at an intern doctor in front of him, wandering at the door of the dean's office carrying a mysterious box.

One look at this guy's dazed look, and he knew that his plan would be completed soon. He must be very easy to deceive, so he wouldn't have too many doubts even if he said anything to him.

"Nurse Shen? Are you doing numbness?"

"I came here specifically to find you."

This person looked at Shen Man's bare feet without shoes, and then panted again, which really made the other person feel a little confused.

"Did an emergency happen? Why did you run up here without wearing shoes?"

I took a look at the elevator and it seemed like there was nothing wrong with it.

"Looking at you, you probably came up the stairs. Why don't you use the elevator? What are you anxious about?"

Shen Man took a breath, calmed down, walked up to him and said calmly.

"I just heard your surgeon said that you came here specially to deliver something. I just remembered that the dean is not here at this time today. You'd better take this thing back quickly."

"No wonder I kept knocking on the door for a long time but it still didn't open. I thought the dean had gone out to eat or go to the bathroom and was going to wait here for a while."

"Look at how you can't figure it out? You know this thing is very important, but why don't you show off with it and go back to me first?"

"Okay, then I'll go back and take this to the doctor and let him keep it for himself."

Shen Man was thinking about how he could find an opportunity to swap this thing.

It's quite simple when you think about it. After all, the dean doesn't plan to come back these days, so they can only keep it themselves. In this way, he will have plenty of opportunities to change the contract.

And now he doesn't have another bullet that can be swapped with this bullet. He can't just steal this thing without any reason. On the contrary, it will easily attract others' attention. Now he can only calm down and don't panic. good.

"Then let's leave now."

"You...your feet..."

"I have nothing to do in our line of work. I often forget about food and sleep and don't care about my body. I can't even care about my body. How can I care about my feet? You don't have to worry about so much. I left my shoes downstairs, we can just take the elevator down and find them later."

"Well, luckily this is a hospital where there are no sand or stones, otherwise you would be in trouble."

"Thank you for your concern."

Afterwards, the two people took the elevator and came downstairs. At this time, they did not notice anything wrong with the elevator. On the contrary, it was running normally. What happened just now?

This made Shen Man have a lot of doubts, which was a very annoying thing for him.

After putting on their shoes, the two of them came to the lobby of the hospital together and saw Sophia.

Sophia also saw that Shen Man didn't seem to be successful. When he brought this thing over, he showed some worry on his face.

"Why are you guys still here? Azhe is out of danger, but he is still in the intensive care unit and cannot be transferred to the general ward. You should eat and rest, and there is no need to continue to guard here. "

"Despite this, there are still many things we haven't done yet. How can we go back to rest with confidence?"

Sophia's words were obviously a hint to the other party. After all, this was something Qin Yuan had told her. No matter what, she had to find ways to complete it.

"I understand what you mean, but there are some things that you shouldn't be too anxious about. You can go and rest first. I will inform you when there is news."

Shen Man also expressed his thoughts in a relatively obscure way, and A Kun and A Ming completely understood it.

Huang Mao took Sophia to prepare and asked him to rest for a while. After last night until now, Sophia has never closed her eyes.

He should be allowed to rest for a while, but he shouldn't feel comfortable leaving the hospital.

Just let him lie down briefly on the corridor of the hospital first, which can relieve him a little. His fatigue is better than holding on here all the time and the upper and lower eyelids are about to fight.

"Sofia, please go there and lie down for a while. If there is any news about Qin Yuan, we will notify you as soon as possible.

There are so many people here to help you and see that there won't be any problems. You should also have more trust in us. If you don't trust others, you will treat yourself like a cow and horse, and you will tire yourself to death. "

"Okay, since you all said so, let me take a rest first. Only after I have recuperated my energy can I have the energy to deal with these troubles."

"Do you need something to eat? There is a cafeteria over there in the hospital. There probably won't be much food left at this time, but to save trouble it's better for you to buy it outside."

"Shen Man, thank you for worrying about so many other things for us. You don't have to worry about it. As long as we can handle it, we won't trouble you."

So, Sophia and the others went to find a place to rest for a while, because he knew that he had to stay awake and alert at all times. Seeing that the current situation was about to usher in a new round of changes, he could never continue Get tired.

On the other side, Qin Yuan waited for Anran and the others to arrive at Wang Xin's place.

"This is a place for you to stay. Now take a good rest."

Chen Jixiang looked at Qin Yuan and the others. They were not in the mood to have a good rest here at this moment. They just wanted to return to their place quickly.

"When can we return home?"

Wang Xin heard Chen Jixiang's words, and he hesitated a little at this moment.

I don't know how to explain it to them, because this matter cannot be handled by him alone. He needs to wait for the above procedures to be completed before he can arrange it one after another. It is really difficult to help them solve this matter now.

"You should have a good rest now. After such a long time in Mr. Norman Karim's club, you have never had a good sleep. Your body has reached its limit. You must consider your own health problems. "

He Chenguang said with a sigh from the side.

"Wang Xin, you are right. We are indeed very tired this time and need a good rest. I didn't expect you to be quite considerate. The surrounding environment has been arranged very appropriately. We are very grateful. of."

"You're already here, so don't say these polite words to me. We are all from the same country, and we should support each other in a foreign country. Needless to say, everyone understands this."

An Ran glanced at Qin Yuan, fearing that he would be too tired to continue.

"Qin Yuan, you don't have to worry so much about other things. We are not sure what the situation is with Mr. Norman Karim.

However, no one of him has been seen near here so far. He will probably not take any other actions in a short period of time. Just close your eyes and take a good rest.

Don't let your body be tense all the time, as this will not be conducive to your next plan, and I think many things are indeed more troublesome than we think. The more nervous you are, the less well you can do it. "

"Now that we have arrived at a safe place, should we tell Du Bingbing first?"

After Wang Xin heard what Qin Yuan said, he smiled and said.

"Don't worry, I contacted him immediately when I came back.

He also knows that you have arrived at a safe place, and you still have to wait for instructions from the higher-ups of the army on what to do, so just wait patiently, it won't take long.

The instructions from them have come down, and there are specific plans for how to arrange your return to the country. Now there is nothing you can do if you just wait.

How about this, I will go and arrange some delicious food for you first. Do you want to eat something from your hometown or something local? "

Chen Jixiang began to drool after hearing this.

"Let me tell you the truth, whether it's hometown delicacies or local delicacies, as long as it can fill our stomachs and let us have a good meal, I will be very happy.

I was really too cautious in Mr. Norman Karim's club for so many days.

If you can avoid eating, try not to eat. If you can eat less, try to eat as little as possible.

After all, this guy is really cunning. I am afraid of being plotted by him, so I dare not do anything rashly. I have been hungry these days, otherwise I would not be so weak. "

"I didn't expect that you are quite cautious at your young age, so let's do this. I'll help you arrange some delicacies from my hometown. I haven't had them for a long time, so you must be craving for them."

"Whatever. We call it a guest's stay. We can do whatever you want. The most important thing is to have a good rest."

Wang Xin nodded after hearing what Chen Jixiang said, then turned around and said to Qin Yuan.

"You guys should have a good rest here now, and then just wait for your meal. I know you guys may have to chat alone for a while, so I won't disturb you here.

I am monitoring the situation outside all the time. Once any special situation occurs, I will come over and notify you immediately. I will protect your safety at all costs. Please believe me! "

Qin Yuan patted his shoulder.

"Wang Xin, you've worked so hard on this journey. By the way, I didn't even bother to ask you just now. You should be fine, right?"

"Of course not. I'm the consul here after all.

Although I can't compare with you special forces members, my skills and marksmanship are not much worse. Moreover, I didn't encounter any surprise attacks along the way, so I'm not injured.

By the way, I've also found a few doctors to help Professor Fang De's two students check their bodies. If there are no special circumstances, I'll wait until they are safe and sound before handing them over."

Qin Yuan looked at the person in front of him. He thought about everything very carefully and did things in an orderly manner. He also admired Wang Xin more and more.

"Wang Xin, you really have a promising future."

"Qin Yuan, why are you suddenly praising me like this? I feel a little embarrassed.

It is my duty to assist you in doing some things. You don't need to say these things to me. Moreover, many things are also instructions from superiors. I have nothing to say. The key is whether you can accept them."

"After we complete this task, it can be regarded as some gains. When we go back, I believe that the superiors will reward us. You can tell me what you think and ask. If you want to return to China to work, I can also help you."

When Wang Xin heard what Qin Yuan said, his eyes immediately brightened. Qin Yuan is really a master at controlling people's hearts. He knows what the other party wants.

However, as the consul here, Wang Xin is still relatively calm. He put away his emotions at the first time, and then smiled calmly and said calmly.

"Qin Yuan, thank you for arranging these for me. You are very thoughtful. To be honest, who wouldn't miss home in a foreign country?

It is true that people miss their families more during the holidays. I really want to go back, but the specific work arrangements still depend on the decisions of the higher-ups. I dare not do anything rashly, so I will just listen to their arrangements."

"It seems that you have a good vision and a big picture."

"No way, this is called being in a position, you have to do your job.

Since I am in this position, I can't do things according to my own temperament. If I really miss home, I might not come here at the beginning. Choosing to come here is to serve the country without hesitation."

Chapter 2279 Qin Yuan is also thinking about the missing evidence

Qin Yuan couldn't sleep peacefully thinking about the bullet that had been shot out of his pistol.

Although he had been comforting An Ran and Chen Jixiang on the surface, he was also a little anxious deep in his heart. After all, this was solid evidence.

If it was not taken back, there would be a great risk.

Qin Yuan was a cautious person. He would not allow himself to ignore the huge risks when he knew they were huge. Qin Yuan understood that he had to find ways to change the status quo.

An Ran looked at Qin Yuan's worried look, and he was also worried.

"We have arrived at a safe place. You told us to relax and have a good rest, but why are you so nervous?"

Qin Yuan smiled pretending to be relaxed.

"An Ran, who told you I was nervous? I'm just quite relaxed now."

"Don't lie to me. I can feel your emotions. We've known each other for such a long time. If I can't even see this little detail, then I'm not suitable to come out to perform these special tasks."

"An Ran, I know you're very smart. I can't hide it from you."

He Chenguang and Chen Jixiang were listening to them talking like a puzzle.

"What are you two talking about? Can you speak more clearly? We can't understand a little bit."

"Oh, this situation is really troublesome now. Even if we have reached a safe place now, some things have not been solved and there is still a tail left. I'm always worried."

Chen Jixiang was immediately anxious after hearing this. Qin Yuan knew that this kid's emotions were not very stable. Although he had some cleverness and could perform the task neatly, he was too young and inexperienced. Once he encountered some emergencies, he was indeed easy to be confused.

"It's okay, don't be so scared.

It's just that I shot Azhe in order to perform a self-torture trick when I was saving Professor Fang De and the two students. This means that there is a bullet left in his body, which was shot from my pistol.

Once this bullet is obtained by Mr. Norman Karim, it means that he has substantial evidence, and then we will have no say in the international community."

He Chenguang heard Qin Yuan's words, and his heart skipped a beat.

"How could this happen? You know the seriousness of this matter and you did something so careless. No wonder you are so anxious now. What should we do next?"

"He Chenguang, don't panic. You have followed me out so many times. If you shout and scream when you encounter a little thing, it will make Chen Jixiang even more anxious.

I didn't plan to tell you these things at first, fearing that you would worry too much.

But you saw that I seemed to have something on my mind. If I didn't tell you clearly, you would feel uneasy, so I decided to tell you.

I didn't expect everyone to be so panicked. If I had known, I wouldn't have told you to deal with these things alone."

"Fortunately, you told us clearly in advance, otherwise it would be a real trouble. What should we do now? Where is this bullet?"

"Azhe has been sent to the hospital. I just contacted Sofia, and she said that Azhe has completed the operation, which means that the bullet is likely to have been taken out and is in the hospital. "

"Is it the hospital in Hassan?"

"Yes, in their small place, only this hospital has advanced medical technology, so anyone who is seriously injured will be sent to this hospital."

"But this hospital is Mr. Norman Karim's territory after all. The doctor must hand over such a critical thing as the bullet to Mr. Norman Karim. Have you ever thought about it?"

Facing He Chenguang's questioning, Qin Yuan was also speechless. Of course, he thought about it, but the situation at that time was too urgent. He could not have too much hesitation. He could only deal with the bullet in this way first, and could only wait to find a way to get it back afterwards.

"Don't worry so much for now. I think there is a chance to change the result of everything before it is concluded."

An Ran nodded with relief beside him. He always believed in Qin Yuan's ability, and he believed that Qin Yuan would never do anything that would harm the interests of the entire army.

"He Chenguang, Chen Jixiang, don't be so anxious. I believe Qin Yuan has the ability to handle crises."

"Only you can trust me unconditionally, which really touched me."

"Because we have known each other for a long time, every time we perform a mission, it is a matter of life and death, but you can also resolve it. This is also slowly giving me a lot of confidence in you. This trust in you is not overnight, but accumulated over time."

"An Ran, if you say that, my heart is really warm, but I have to think about what to do next."

"We have arrived at a safe place, just waiting for the army to send a plane to pick us up, we can go back, do we still need to get involved with them?"

After listening to Chen Jixiang's words, Qin Yuan lowered his head and fell into deep thought.

"I said this not because I don't believe Du Bingbing, but it is not an easy thing for him to arrange a plane to pick us up. This requires a lot of communication links, and not every department has to give in to our plan."

"What should we do then?"

"But fortunately, you don't need to be too anxious. Even if they get the bullet, the pistol is in my hand after all, and they have no way to conduct ballistic identification."

"There is some truth in what you say, but this pistol was given to you by Fan Tianlei after all. You can tell which country designed and manufactured it."

"This pistol belongs to Professor Fang De. His previous work is already a very old pistol. Many people in the world may have this pistol, and they cannot conduct ballistic identification.

If you only rely on one bullet, there is nothing to say that the benefits are mine, and it is impossible to prove that they are mine, so you don't have to worry so much, I still have many ways to solve it. "

An Ran breathed a sigh of relief when he saw that Qin Yuan was so confident, but this was definitely not something that could be solved so easily. They had to slowly consider other aspects.

"Wang Xin is the person in charge here, and many things need to be communicated through him. We have to let him contact Du Bingbing first."

"Let him rest for a while first and follow us out to complete the task. The success of bringing back Professor Fang De's two students this time also depends on his help.

Judging from his appearance, he probably wanted to return home.

After we return, we will report it to our superiors to see if we can transfer him back. In fact, I think he is a person with a bright future.

If he only holds a small position here, it would be a bit unfair to him. Such an outstanding talent can be given more important tasks. To be honest, it would be beneficial for me to let him join our army and follow us. Let's do great things together. "

When An Ran heard what Qin Yuan said, he understood that Qin Yuan should admire Wang Xin very much.

"I can also see that he actually misses his hometown. Life in a foreign country is difficult. Whether it is the customs, food environment, or other aspects of life here, it is quite uncomfortable.

It's just that this matter is not something we can decide. You must not agree to it in front of him first.

If I can't give a definite answer to one thing, don't give others hope first. If we can't do it, what they are waiting for will be disappointment. "

"Yeah, An Ran, you're right, so what I told him just now was just to test the situation, and I didn't give him a definite answer."

"Then let's wait here next?"

"Chen Jixiang, you kid has been with us for a long time. I don't want you to be too anxious about this kind of thing. You go and have a good rest first. If something happens, I will let you know and let me calm down here alone." For a moment, I have to plan my next actions first.

We can't sit here and wait for death, and we have to monitor the situation outside at all times.

To prevent Mr. Norman Karim from jumping over the wall in a hurry, he should really inform the maritime patrol force to investigate. We did not come here through regular channels, which would be troublesome. "

"What about Jason? He is living proof. It would be terrible if he followed Mr. Norman Karim to testify that we came here smuggled in."

He Chenguang has never truly believed in Jason at any time, and the relationship between the two of them has always been in a very awkward state.

"Although Jason is already with Mr. Norman Karim, I don't think he will betray me. This is also the promise he made to me. We should trust him."

After He Chenguang heard what Qin Yuan said, he frowned beside him.

"Don't look at me with such an expression. No matter what you say, I will not doubt the things he has done. Since he has promised, he will definitely do it."

"Qin Yuan, I know that you are a very confident person, including what you think of others. You always feel that you can't see the wrong person, but I must remind you that there are many facts that show that you trust someone too much. It's not necessarily a good thing to be human."

"Jason's daughter is still in Thor's hands, so she probably won't do anything excessive."

"Do you really think Thor would use his daughter to threaten him? This is the way of those villains. Thor is an aboveboard man and he also cares about his reputation."

It is impossible to use your daughter to threaten the other party. Now we rely on the word conscience to cooperate together, but a person's conscience is the least trustworthy. If you betray, you will betray. "

He Chenguang knew that his identity would be exposed soon, and he didn't care so much anymore. The more chaos he could make here, the better, but even though he had a special identity.

However, he also cherishes the friendship with Qin Yuan, which makes him very troubled. Qin Yuan also understands his identity, but he can't go too far out of consideration for their former comrades-in-arms. We can't just watch his life in danger.

He Chenguang can only be brought back to the army first, and then the remaining matters can only be left to the higher-ups of the army to deal with Qin Yuan. While telling himself that he is not qualified to deal with him, he comforts himself that until the matter has no result, everything is just speculation. That's all, I hope he guessed all this wrong.

An Ran felt distressed and anxious looking at Qin Yuan, but there was no better way. However, they seemed to have some hunch that maybe this matter could be resolved soon.

"Wang Xin is indeed a very good person. He and Du Bingbing are classmates. If he really wants to go back, I believe Du Bingbing will help him."

While they were talking, Qin Yuan was also thinking about whether the system had helped him delete all the surveillance.

Qin Yuan took out his mobile phone, which was the medium of contact between him and the system when there was no face-to-face communication.

There was no display on the mobile phone, and Qin Yuan was a little anxious.

It was really too strange. After waiting for such a long time, there was no news from the system. Qin Yuan couldn't help but feel a little anxious. He knew that he couldn't delay more time. If the system really couldn't solve it, he would have to think of other ways.

However, Qin Yuan thought that his plan was perfect.

"What are you thinking about? You are just sitting here in a daze again."

"I am really tired recently, and I have a lot of things to think about. You don't have to worry about me."

Qin Yuan agreed casually, thinking about how to contact Sofia. He had handed over the matter of stealing bullets to Sofia, but it was obvious that Sofia was not particularly willing to do it. After all, there were many problems involved, and Sofia was not willing to take risks.

Qin Yuan was very sure that Mr. Norman Karim would not let them go so easily, because he knew that this person had been covering the sky with one hand from the beginning to now, and no one dared to resist. He, Qin Yuan, could be said to be the first person who dared to resist him and made him suffer a real loss.

"Mr. Norman Karim is not someone you can easily mess with. We'd better stay away from him and don't provoke him."

"I didn't want to provoke him, but now I have already provoked him."

Everything has its cause and effect, but I'm not worried that the person he really wants to deal with is Old K. Maybe he doesn't necessarily use all his energy to deal with us.

It's just that he has suffered a big loss now, and he will definitely not let himself go so easily. But now there is no news that he is chasing us, nor has there been any news that the maritime patrol has arrived here. It seems that everything has returned to calm."

"Sometimes being too calm is not a good thing. The calm before the storm always makes people more panicked."

Chapter 2280 The Calm Before the Storm

Qin Yuan ran away like this, causing Mr. Norman Karim to suffer a great loss.

"Jason, what do you think of this matter?"

Sudden questions are indeed more likely to make people nervous.

"Mr. Norman Karim, please believe me. Although Qin Yuan and I have a good relationship, I can assure you that he has not told me a single word of his plan this time.

And since I came to your villa to find you, I have not met Qin Yuan alone until now, and I have not even met A Kun and A Ming. Even if I want to do something, I don't have the opportunity and time."

Mr. Norman Karim was also very calm at this moment. He heard Jason's explanation, but he didn't say anything.

He took out a box of cigarettes from his pocket, opened it elegantly, and took out a cigarette at random. Then the men next to him were very observant, and quickly took out the guys and walked to Mr. Norman Karim to help him light the cigarette.

Jason could feel that the man in front of him was like an angry and calm tiger. He didn't react at all, but he could make people shudder.

Norman Karim gently pinched the cigarette with his middle and index fingers on his right hand, took a puff, and then exhaled a wisp of light blue smoke.

Surrounded by smoke, looking at Mr. Norman Karim's calm face, it was like the calm before the storm.

"Where were we talking just now?"

"I have never had any contact with Qin Yuan. His plan this time has nothing to do with me. I believe A Kun and A Ming should also be innocent. You asked them to stay in the hospital to protect Sophia. Don't you plan to let them come back and explain what happened as soon as possible?"

Jason felt a little tentative about Mr. Norman Karim's question.

"What do you want to say?"

"I want to hear A Kun and A Ming talk. They are innocent."

"I will naturally investigate whether they are innocent or not.

Today's matter is of great importance. I will not easily believe anyone to get married. Although you have been with me for a short time, you can also see what kind of temper I have.

Jason, you are anxious to prove your good brothers and want them to come back and explain to me as soon as possible. Haven't you ever thought that maybe the way I ask questions will be a little different?"

Mr. Norman Karim abused some provocations, and smiled slightly with the corners of his mouth, which made Jason feel a little scared.

"What do you mean..."

"If you want me to believe what they say, you must prove it with facts. I have seen too many things without evidence. If I can't prove that what they say is true, I will naturally not believe it unconditionally."

"Do you mean torture?"

Jason asked with a little fear, and he was not sure what the other party meant.

As a result, Mr. Norman Karim waved his hand and said.

"You don't have to be so nervous. This is not necessarily the way to do it, but I have my own way. I hope you don't get involved too much. They are both your good brothers.

I treat everyone who joins my group as my own brothers.

I don't want to be betrayed by my own brothers, so I have to use some extraordinary means. This extraordinary means is not acceptable to ordinary people. I hope you can avoid it and don't speak for others when you shouldn't, which makes it difficult for everyone."

Jason understood what Mr. Norman Karim meant in an instant?

He hoped that he would not get involved in this matter and give him autonomy to let him do whatever he wants to his brothers A Kun and A Ming. This is not acceptable to Jason.

"Mr. Norman Karim, I understand your style of doing things, but I still have to speak for them in this matter. No matter what method you use, I hope you won't hurt them. I have known them for so many years. A Kun and A Ming will never betray you."

"Everything has to wait until A Zhe wakes up. It's a bit too early to say these things now, isn't it?"

"A Zhe's injury must be related to this guy Aifite.

I even think this is all his conspiracy. He deliberately wants you to suspect A Kun and A Ming.

Otherwise, how can he explain that he must take A Kun and A Ming to complete the task, and now he has left others behind and ran away. He wants to take this opportunity to arouse your suspicion of me.

This guy Aifite hates me to the bone. He can do anything. I hope you can believe me."

Mr. Norman Karim did not give any answer to Jason's request. He threw the cigarette on the ground and stretched out his right foot to gently roll it a few times.

"Okay, I've almost rested now. You guys come back to the group with me first. I have a lot of things to arrange. As for A Kun and A Ming... forget it, let's wait for A Zhe to wake up and ask them to come to my office to find me."

"Aren't you going to go to the hospital on your own initiative?"

"They are all my subordinates. If I want to ask my subordinates some questions, do I have to take the initiative to find them?"

"But, A Zhe, he just had surgery. Although his heart was not injured, it will take about a week to recover. Can you really wait that long?"

Qin Yuan and the others have all gone to a safe place now. I'm afraid Qin Yuan may leave here and return to his own country."

"Are you scared? Shouldn't this make you happy?"

"Of course not. Now I am a member of your group, so I must consider your interests. Qin Yuan's affairs have nothing to do with me."

"Jason, you are a smart person, so don't get involved in this matter.

After all, you know too many people, and Efit is full of resentment towards you. Perhaps everything that happened today is also caused by the grudges between you two.

Just focus on helping me investigate Lao K. I will go to his territory once in a while.

Qin Yuan's affairs are no longer a big deal for me. It would be good to be able to get them back. If you can't get them back, don't waste your energy. Just think of it as a small gift from me to Fan Tianlei."

Jason looked at what Mr. Norman Karim said, and he couldn't even believe it. Could it be that the other party really planned to let it go like this? This didn't seem like his style of doing things.

After Mr. Norman Karim finished speaking, he left, leaving Jason alone.

Jason sighed deeply. He didn't know what to do next, whether it was a blessing or a disaster.

"Forget it. If it's a blessing, there's no need to hide. If it's a disaster, there's no way to avoid it."

Watching Mr. Norman Karim drive away from here, Jason also fell into deep thought. He felt that he should do something.

So, he tried to call Efit. Unexpectedly, the call was able to get through. It seems that he should have found a way to leave here.

"Jason!"

"Aifite, you are so brave that you dare to answer the phone? Do you know that Mr. Norman Karim is looking for you everywhere? If he finds you and breaks your arms and legs, you will be lucky."

"Hehe, you don't have to scare me with him. Since I dare to answer the phone, it means that I have the confidence in my heart.

And if he really wants to take revenge, he shouldn't come to me, he should find Qin Yuan. All this is caused by him. Qin Yuan took away the two students of Professor Fang De and made me half dead.

I should seek revenge on them. Azhe, this traitor, actually dared to join Qin Yuan to deceive Mr. Norman Karim. I think he really doesn't want to live."

"Aifite, don't slander me here. The information I got here is that you are The people sent by Lao K wanted to find out Mr. Norman Karim's confidence, and then planned this series of scams. Don't think of throwing dirty water on others. "

"Okay, it turns out that you have already thought of the next rhetoric.

Jason, even you dare to deceive Mr. Norman Karim. It seems that he is not that good. He usually exaggerates himself so much, but he was still deceived by you at the critical moment.

You don't have to be happy too early. A Kun and A Ming are also involved in this matter. Don't think you can stay out of it.

Although your daughter has always been under the protection of Fan Tianlei, do you really think that Mr. Norman Karim doesn't have the ability to bring your daughter to threaten you? "

Jason's only weakness is that his daughter heard someone threatening him with his daughter, and he certainly couldn't forgive her.

"Aifite, I warn you that this matter has nothing to do with my daughter Yaya. If you touch my daughter, I will kill you."

"Jason, I hope you understand that it is not me who wants to touch your daughter, but Mr. Norman Karim.

If you kill A Kun and A Ming now to silence them, maybe you won't be suspected by Mr. Norman Karim. Otherwise, it is hard to guarantee that they will not give you up after being tortured.

They took such a big risk for you and Qin Yuan. As a boss, you can't even protect the people around you. You are really a waste!"

"Aifite, we have pushed everything onto you. It was you who deceived Mr. Norman Karim and pretended to surrender, and then planned the betrayal. Don't think we don't know.

Norman Karim Mr. Mu has already guessed that you did all these things. You don't need to quibble. Anyway, everyone has a scale in their hearts. We don't need to do too much dialectic about your actions. "

"Bah! I have already guessed that you will put all the blame on me.

You are brave, but I can also tell you that I am ready to go back now. Old K said that he would not care about the loss of this batch of arms.

I can be regarded as making up for my mistakes. It doesn't matter if you make a mess here and put it on me. As long as Old K does not lose power, I will be safe and sound. There is no way to anger you to death. "

Jason heard these provocative words from the other party. He completely understood that the reason why Efit was not afraid of the matter being exposed was because he had already had room for maneuver.

"Qin Yuan is safe now, he has taken the hostages he wanted back.

It seems that your next confrontation will not be here, but in Lao K's territory. You don't have to be happy too early. Lao K is so old. If he really fights, he is no match for Mr. Norman Karim. You may have bet on the wrong horse."

"Qin Yuan, this hateful guy, has been through setbacks again and again, but he can still hold on until now. I admire him very much, but all this should be thanked to you. You sacrificed two brothers to help him.

Now you can only pray that your daughter is safe and sound, otherwise you will have nothing left, and A Kun and A Ming are likely to die soon.

Mr. Norman Karim knows very well that the person they are truly loyal to is you. Even if they did not participate in this incident, they only recognize you as the boss and will never help someone like Mr. Norman Karim unconditionally.

For him, it is worthless and meaningless. There is no point in keeping them. It is better to take this opportunity to get rid of them directly, which is better. "

After saying this, Aifet hung up the phone and turned it off, leaving Jason standing there alone.

After being reminded by the other party, he completely understood that A Kun and A Ming were in a very bad situation.

Mr. Norman Karim was originally very angry with Qin Yuan, but now he has calmed down and has no expression, which is like the calm before the storm. This is not a good thing for them.

Jason knew very well that he had encountered many difficulties since he met Qin Yuan, and he has been constantly bringing risks and pressure to the people around him.

"Aifet is right, A Kun and A Ming are indeed very dangerous.

But I can't let them get into trouble. Even if I sacrifice myself, I must protect them. The best way now is to send A Kun and A Ming away quickly, even if they go to Old K, they can't stay here. "

Jason muttered as he looked back at the surroundings. He knew Qin Yuan could help him.

But he had already decided to part ways with Qin Yuan. Although he had said that he would never help Mr. Norman Karim to frame Qin Yuan to do something bad to him, Jason was embarrassed to ask for help from him so shamelessly.

Jason walked out of the house, came outside, looked up at the sky outside, and couldn't help but feel a little uncomfortable.

"Mr. Norman Karim didn't arrange anything for me. After all, he probably still doesn't trust me. Well, I should take advantage of this time to arrange a way out for A Kun and A Ming. "
