Chapter 2291: It's just a mockery

Inside the nurse station of the Central Hospital.

Shen Man looked around at his workstation. He still couldn't let go. He watched the bullet being collected by the attending doctor. It would be difficult to steal this thing after the dean came back.

While he was thinking about it, the attending doctor came out of his room.

"You haven't rested yet?"

Facing the other party's concern, Shen Man smiled and said.

"Yes, the colleague who changes my shift hasn't come over yet, so I can only stare here for a while. You also know that there is an important person inside, and I don't dare to leave casually."

The attending doctor glanced in the direction of Hassan's ward, and then smiled meaningfully.

"That's right. If this important person has any trouble with us, Mr. Norman Karim probably won't let us go."

"Are you getting ready to get off work?"

"Yeah, I've been busy all night and just had an operation. I'm really exhausted. Please don't spread the word. It's because I'm not dedicated. Today is my wife's birthday, so I can only go back early. It's been a while."

Shen Man is a very perceptive person. After hearing these words, he immediately realized that his opportunity had come.

"Oh, it turns out it's my sister-in-law's birthday, so I should go back early.

Having said that, our profession is usually very busy. We rarely have time to spend with our families. We must not delay such an important event any more when it comes to birthdays. If I remember correctly, you have been married for several years. . "

"No, after five years of marriage, I really rarely spend time with him on his birthday. Today is a special day. The dean is not here, so let me be lazy for a while.

But I'm not really lazy. If there is a special situation in the hospital, you will definitely call me to inform me. Life is more important than anything else. I can't delay rescuing patients because of my own affairs. "

"I can understand the kindness of doctors. Don't worry, I will keep an eye on your return here."

"Yeah, I always feel relieved when you are here."

After a while of pleasantries, the tissue doctor left his office, came to the parking lot, and drove home.

Shen Man has been keeping an eye on the situation of the organization doctor. He is a relatively famous doctor in this hospital, so he usually has his own office. In his absence, there should be no one in the office.

Now is a good opportunity for him to steal bullets, and while the dean is away, if this thing is really lost in the hands of the attending doctor, he may not associate it with himself.

The first responsible person, the attending doctor, will definitely be found first. Shen Man can also be perfectly invisible.

While thinking about him, he tentatively walked into the office.

Recalling what Qin Yuan had said to him, he stopped immediately, thinking that there must be surveillance in the office and he could not enter rashly.

At this time, Shen Man thought of a good idea.

Under normal circumstances, he does not have a key and cannot enter the other party's office, but if a special situation occurs, it is normal for him to find someone to break in.

When the time comes, there will be too many people and no one may be able to care about the situation inside the hospital. It is normal for something to be lost or missing.

Shen Man was thinking about how to solve this problem. During this period, he received an important message.

The other party urged him to hurry up and steal the bullet. After seeing the message, Shen Man shook his head helplessly, with a slight complaint.

"I don't know how to hurry up. This kind of thing is not something I can do just by saying it. I have to be careful and not let all my latent achievements for so many years be destroyed. Of course, I have to clean myself before I can act. "

On the other side, inside the embassy.

While Wang Xin was talking to Qin Yuan and the others, she was sending messages on her mobile phone.

Liu Mei knew very well that he should send a text message to his colleague and ask him to solve the problem quickly.

"Wang Xin, what are you doing?"

Qin Yuan's sudden question made the other party a little confused.

"I'm not doing anything, just taking care of business. Where did you talk about it?"

"It's still a question of how to arrange a vehicle to leave here? Jason's place shouldn't be able to wait too long. If that doesn't work, I'll have to do it myself. I decided to go back to the hospital to see what's going on and whether I'm needed. "

An Ran was still worried when he heard what Qin Yuan said.

"Qin Yuan, I said that I wanted to go back to the hospital alone to check the specific situation and help you deal with the basic problems. If you said you were worried, I would go back alone. Now you have to go back to the hospital alone. I I feel even more worried.

Mr. Norman Karim must be itching with hatred when he sees you and wants to kill you directly. If you really want to take action, just the two of us will go together. "

"An Ran, I can understand that you are very worried about my safety, but I don't have any better solution in this situation. You should be very clear about my strength. If you go back and do such a small thing, there will be no problem.

And I believe there will be results soon, so I just went back to see how Jason and the others were preparing. At such a critical time, it is easy to have some fear, which will lead to loopholes in our plan. "

Liu Mei heard the two of them talking and felt that the two guys were too naive.

"I remind you, don't go back rashly. This is not a joke. This involves life safety. It's not a big deal for you to go back now, but the key is not to implicate us. We don't want to be enemies with Mr. Norman Karim."

"Liu Mei!"

Wang Xin saw that Liu Mei was so excited and quickly stopped her.

"Wang Xin, I really don't understand why you always help them do these dangerous things?

We have to report our every move to our superiors. You are now just making a decision to help them privately. If there is any mistake that affects our international status, we will be committing a serious crime."

"Liu Mei, I know you have always been concerned about me and the overall situation here, but I still want to tell you that no matter what I do, I am mentally prepared.

Don't worry, we will not let us be in the vortex, let alone make us the center of contradictions, and we will not give them the opportunity to catch us. If I can't even do this, I've been a consul for so many years in vain, and I've failed my superiors' expectations and requirements of me. It's our responsibility to assist our colleagues to complete these tasks. " "Everyone can say nice words, but it's not as simple as we think when it comes to real time. No matter what I say, you always think I'm unwilling to help, but in fact I'm not that kind of person. I only tell you this after considering many specific situations. " Qin Yuan and An Ran saw the two of them and felt a little guilty because of their quarrel. "Okay, we all know about this matter, so let's not discuss it any further.

There will be no result if we continue to talk about it, and it will affect our overall judgment. However, we are also very clear in our hearts that if this matter cannot be resolved, it may be a problem for everyone."

"By the way, how is the preparation for Wang Xin stealing the bullet?"

"Don't worry, Qin Yuan, you saw me sending a message just now, which is a signal to our special forces members hiding in the dark, let him let go and do it. No matter what the price, we must get this thing back. After all, this bullet is of great importance."

"Since this bullet is so important, I believe the attending doctor must have kept it after the operation. Can ordinary people really get it? This bullet you planted in the hospital How capable are the members of the special mission? "

"Qin Yuan, are you questioning my ability or my judgment of people?"

"Wang Xin, I think you really misunderstood. I didn't mean to question you, but this matter is really important to us. If there is any mistake, it may have a counterproductive effect."

"I have tried my best to urge him just now. As long as the conditions allow, he will make a decision as soon as possible. I believe that his ability will not disappoint me, let alone everyone else."

After hearing these words, Qin Yuan and An Ran were still very worried. They thought that this person did not seem as reliable as they imagined. According to the normal action cycle, he has now missed the best time to act.

"We are all doing special tasks, and we all understand the importance of this matter.

I don't know what the specific situation is at the hospital. Their security measures should be very strict. If this is really done, it is very likely to affect his next plan, and it is more likely to cause his identity to be exposed.

Otherwise, you should notify this colleague in time and arrange for him to return home after completing this task, or go to a safe place, and don't let him stay here.

Don't let him stay in the hospital any longer, which is completely putting him in a dangerous situation."

What An Ran said is still very reasonable. After all, as an executor of a special task, he is very experienced in this regard.

"Every time I complete a mission in another country, I have to change my identity and remain anonymous for a long time before I can continue a new operation. This time I really kindly reminded him. Of course, if he is a well-prepared person, just ignore what I said."

"An Ran, don't say that. In fact, we know very well how much you have paid for everyone. These words are also from the heart. I will listen carefully.

After he completes this mission, I will arrange for him to go to other safe places. It would be even better if he can take a plane back to China with you."

Wang Xin knew very well that Shen Man was a particularly stubborn girl. She was never afraid of evil forces. Once she made up her mind to do something, she would never give up easily.

He also made up his mind to stay, so this mission was still very dangerous for him. It was really difficult for him to complete it alone. It would be better if someone could go with him.

Qin Yuan saw that Wang Xin seemed to be a little hesitant, and asked nervously.

"Wang Xin, what are you thinking about? Is there anything you want to tell me or something you need my help with?

It doesn't matter, you can just say that you have encountered difficulties. We have to speak out and we can solve it together. Don't worry about face issues and be embarrassed to speak up. On the contrary, you will miss the best opportunity. "

"Qin Yuan is actually like this. I think it is indeed a little difficult for him to complete this task alone, but I can't do it myself. If you go out now, you may become the direct target of Mr. Norman Karim. This is what I Very worrying. "

"Wang Xin, seeing the way you hesitate, I know there must be something important to say.

If that's the case, why didn't you tell me earlier? I'm going to look for him now and go to the hospital for another trip, just in time to see Jason. It would be better if they could pick them up and take them directly to the dock. "

"Jason and the others must have had a very hard time waiting in the hospital. If there is any problem, of course it is better to solve it as soon as possible, but I am also afraid..."

"Wang Xin, no matter what, I hope you don't be afraid. As long as I am here, there is no problem that cannot be solved.

Although Mr. Norman Karim has been lying in wait, and so many people want to take me back, he still needs more experience to take me back. A capable person like me is not something he can easily touch me. of. "

When Liu Mei heard what Qin Yuan said, she thought this guy was talking nonsense, and then sneered.

"Hmph~ Is it really what you said? If you are so powerful, you still need our help. You should not have chosen to sneak here in the first place. Now you can't explain anything clearly."

"Liu Mei, I know that you have always been a little dissatisfied with us for bringing you so much trouble, but many things have passed.

Even if I think that smuggling is wrong, now that we have come here, we can only go on with no choice but to go on. You can't let me go find someone from the maritime patrol force to surrender, right? "

"I said you are really helpless. When did I say such a thing? It was just a kind reminder, but you didn't take it seriously."

"For me, this is not a well-intentioned reminder. You are mocking me. Forget it. For the sake of other people, I don't want to argue with you."

Chapter 2292: No clues in the surveillance video

Qin Yuan was about to find an opportunity to communicate with the system first to see if the system had deleted all surveillance videos containing himself, An Ran and the others.

Qin Yuan knew that he couldn't do this in such a conspicuous manner, he had to stay hidden.

An Ran looked at Qin Yuan from the side and seemed to have something on his mind.

"What's wrong with you?"

Wang Xin thought it was because Qin Yuan never got the bullet back, and there was always a big knot in her heart.

So, Wang Xin quickly walked to Qin Yuan and gently patted his shoulder to comfort him.

"Don't worry so much. I've already told you that no matter what, I will find a way to help you get the bullet back. I have already begun to urge them. You are always so frowning. I really don't know. What should we do?"

"Wang Xin, I'm not unhappy because of this matter. I want to go to the bathroom."

"Uh... So that's it. Then you go ahead. We'll wait for you here."

"Mmm Good."

Qin Yuan left the office directly and was going to go to the bathroom. At least he had to find a corner where there was no one around so that he could communicate with the system.

Qin Yuan always kept this matter in mind. After all, the system told him at that time that it would take a long time to completely delete all surveillance videos.

Seeing that Mr. Norman Karim has already sent people to watch outside, it would be really disturbing if this matter is not solved.

Then Qin Yuan came to the bathroom door and found that there seemed to be no one. He stood at the door and shouted.

"Is there anyone in there?"

After a few seconds, Qin Yuan found that no one answered, so he asked again.

"Is there anyone in the bathroom?"

After waiting for a few seconds, there was still no answer. Qin Yuan was basically sure that there was no one in the bathroom, so he walked behind the door and took out a temporary cleaning sign and placed it at the door of the bathroom. It can prevent others from breaking in.

Qin Yuan came to the bathroom door and couldn't wait to start communicating with the system.

"System, system, come out quickly."

In an instant, the screen in front of Qin Yuan lit up, and he could see a virtual screen in front of him.

"Dingdong, hello host, what do you need?"

"I asked you to delete the surveillance video. How did you do this?"

I have been waiting for so long, and there is no news at all. I am just worried. The situation here is already very urgent. If you don't delete all the videos and Mr. Norman Karim gets the clues in advance, we will be in a dangerous situation. A very passive position. "

"Ding dong, host, please don't worry. All surveillance videos have been deleted."

Qin Yuan finally breathed a sigh of relief when he heard the system's words.

This can eliminate all evidence of his presence here. Even if Mr. Norman Karim finds people from the maritime patrol force and accuses them of smuggling over, there is no substantive evidence. This can completely free him from such a situation. Great psychological pressure.

"Didn't I tell you about your system? Once this matter is resolved, you have to notify me in advance. Why didn't I receive any news? You want me to take the initiative to come and ask you."

"Dingdong, host, your phone has run out of power and has been shut down. Even if I send you a reminder that the video has been successfully deleted, you can't see it."

After hearing this, Qin Yuan realized that there was something wrong with his mobile phone. He quickly took out his mobile phone and took a look. Sure enough, the mobile phone had no power, no brightness at all, and there was no way to turn it on.

At this time, Qin Yuan suddenly thought that his phone was out of battery, which meant that Jason and Sophia had already lost sleep with him. Would the other party mistakenly think that he had abandoned this group of people, and thus make some impulsive actions? Woolen cloth?

"It turns out that the phone is out of battery. Have you confirmed that all the videos have been deleted? If they use some high-tech means, is it possible to restore them?"

"Ding dong, don't worry, Master Su. The system was deleted using data clearing and formatting. It has invaded their big data system and emptied all the recycle bins. Even if they use high-tech means, it is impossible for them to delete it. Recover information that is not in the Recycle Bin."

"With your words, I feel relieved, and I won't be so nervous. In this case, I have nothing to say. At least I have figured out this matter, and I can feel relieved. But at this moment I have more important things to deal with."

"Dingdong, does the host have any other instructions?"

"There are no other instructions for now. You should go back first. I will think of other solutions after I charge my phone."

After Qin Yuan said this, he saw that the screen in front of him immediately went dark, and the system had been temporarily logged out. However, Qin Yuan was worried that Sophia could not contact him, and he might be a little anxious at the moment.

Sure enough, it was in the pavilion of the Central Hospital.

Sophia and Jason waited for a long time but did not receive any news or reply from Qin Yuan. Everyone was already very anxious.

Huang Mao was even more anxious and scurrying around, mumbling incessantly.

"What's going on with this guy Qin Yuan? Are you planning to leave us alone just by leaving us here?"

It's better to call him again and see if he has any specific measures. We can't wait here all the time. This is really a waste of our precious time.

What if this guy really doesn't care about us? The troops can take him away with a plane shot, but we are different. If Mr. Norman Karim really wants to chase us, we will How could anyone be Mr. Norman Karim's opponent? "

Akun and Amin could see that Jason was also very upset at this moment, and Huang Mao's chattering was even more upsetting.

"You'd better shut your mouth quickly. Since our boss has already said it, he believes that Qin Yuan will not have too much doubts about him."

Huang Maocai couldn't care less. He used his mobile phone to secretly dial Qin Yuan's number. What made him even more uneasy was that Qin Yuan's mobile phone showed that it was turned off.

Huang Mao directly set his phone to hands-free and walked up to Sophia angrily, put the phone against Sophia's ear and said.

"Listen to it for yourself. His cell phone is turned off now. What this guy just said to us is to let us not be impulsive for the time being and not to disturb his plan to leave. It's okay now. Maybe he has already What if we are left here on the plane back?"

A Kun and A Ming were a little panicked after hearing Huang Mao's words.

The two of them looked back at Jason uneasily.

"Boss, what...what should we do?"

Jason was full of confidence in Qin Yuan as a friend, and he did not believe that Qin Yuan would do such a thing.

"After all, a mobile phone needs to be charged. It's normal for Qin Yuan to forget to charge his mobile phone after struggling for so long. Don't make a fuss about it."

"How is it possible? He is a member of the special forces. For the members of the special forces, they are required to be on call 24 hours a day. Doesn't he understand this?"

I would let my communication tool run out of power. I don't think it's possible. Even if it's out of power, it's all too coincidental. We're not filming a TV series. How could there be such a coincidence? Why wouldn't you all be willing? Face the reality, is it Qin Yuan who lied to us? "

No matter how many doubts Jason faced, he never doubted Qin Yuan for a moment. He did not believe that his good brother would do such a thing.

Sophia looked back at Jason with some confusion.

"Actually, you don't have to look at me like this. I have never doubted my good brother. Even if his phone is turned off now and you have a lot of doubts about him, I have never had any special thoughts. I believe him. It's just that the phone is out of battery."

Sophia shook her head helplessly.

"People always believe something they want to believe. Even if it may be a lie, don't you question it? Now you have put your own life on the line."

"Aren't you guys risking your own lives just to trust a member of the special forces?"

"Jason, what I hope you can understand is that Azhe and I are in different situations than you are.

Our cooperation with Qin Yuan is entirely for our own interests. Even if our own interests are harmed, it is because of our greed, and we cannot blame anyone.

But you trust Qin Yuan completely emotionally, and he won't betray you. Isn't it a bit silly? You have been on the road for so many years, how can you still be so simple? "

Akun and Amin already know the character of their boss.

"Miss Sophia, please stop asking so many questions. Since our boss chooses to believe Qin Yuan, he has his reasons. No matter what the final result is, we will never blame anyone.

What's more, all of this is your own choice. Miss Sophia, I hope you can understand that although the situation we are facing is complicated, there will eventually be a solution. "

At this time, Sophia's mobile phone received some signals. He gently opened the phone and saw that it was originally from Mr. Norman Karim.

The video displayed on the mobile phone shows that Mr. Norman Karim has led a large number of people to surround the place.

"Oops, Mr. Norman Karim seems to have some problems here, but no matter what, don't panic so much."

Jason asked immediately.

"What went wrong? How could we not panic?"

"As expected, things did not exceed my expectations. Mr. Norman Karim has led his people to block all the surrounding passages. It seems impossible for us to leave here."

After Huang Mao heard this, he was a little scared and a little angry.

"I told you a long time ago, don't put all your hopes on one person. The situation is getting better now. What are you going to do?"

"What else can we do? Now stay in the hospital and don't go out casually. Since Mr. Norman Karim has sent people to guard outside, it is enough to show that he has begun to doubt us. It is impossible for him to let us We cannot escape even if we leave the hospital."

"No, we can't just sit back and wait for death. We have to think of a way."

"What else can we do? Azhe is currently lying in the hospital and has just undergone surgery. He is completely unconscious and cannot leave the hospital casually. He is still watching in the intensive care unit.

It's impossible for me to leave him alone and take you with me. If you really think there is danger here, just leave here alone and don't worry about other things. "

After Sophia said this, he turned around and prepared to walk towards the ward.

"What are you doing?"

"Instead of us being in a stalemate here all the time, why don't I go check on Azhe's condition first? He is lying alone in the intensive care unit of the hospital without anyone to accompany him. It's quite pitiful."

Huang Mao was really speechless at Sophia's every move.

"Azhe, he is out of danger now. We don't need us to keep an eye on you. It's better to think about how to get them out first. How about just staying in a stalemate here?"

"The result of the matter is already like this. It was Azhe who communicated with Qin Yuan before. We just assisted him to do some work. Now we have to wait for Azhe to wake up before we can make the next plan and see what he does. Do you still choose to believe Qin Yuan?"

"Azhe, when will he wake up?"

"I went to the hospital just now and asked the doctors and nurses, but they didn't give a definite time. First of all, he was in shock caused by excessive blood loss, and the anesthesia from the operation has not yet recovered. It will take a day or two. It takes time to fully wake up.

Fortunately, he didn't hurt his leg. When he wakes up, he can choose to leave here. We have to take action before all this starts. I went to watch Azhe to prevent someone from plotting against him at this stage. "

After Sophia finished speaking, Huang Mao was able to understand a little bit. At least he knew to start taking action, which would be much better.

"Okay, Sister Sophia, I misunderstood you just now. You should go and look after Azhe first. Jason and I will stay here to see if there is anything else I need to do."

"Huang Mao, Qin Yuan said he would take you away from here and return to his own country. I believe he will not lie to you. Don't blame him too much. You have known him for a relatively short time. For this person Don't know much about it.

As time goes by, you will understand people's hearts and spend more time with them. "

"Since you all say this, I have nothing to refute, so let's wait and see. Maybe his phone is really out of battery."

Chapter 2293 Accusing the other party of acting on their own

Shen Man was thinking about it in his mind, and he was not sure whether the final plan was feasible, but he knew more clearly that he couldn't stay here and do nothing. At the very least, he had to go back to the embassy to report to Wang Xin first.

So, Shen Man looked up at the time on the wall.

"It's already this time, and no one should come here again."

Then he casually took off his nurse's uniform and hung it on a hanger nearby. It happened that a young nurse came over to take over his shift.

"Shen Man, you haven't gone back yet?"

"Aren't you planning to change your clothes and go back? You came at the right time."

"You are the only one who is the most dedicated in the entire hospital. You are usually more active than anyone else at work, and you are not in a hurry after get off work. You and I are different. When I get off work, I run faster than the wind."

After hearing this, Shen Man thought that he also wanted to go home from get off work early, but he had a special task after all. This was equivalent to working two jobs. Who could know how hard he had worked?

"By the way, I'll go back and take a rest before coming over to join you on duty."

"You've already attended two classes in a row, and you still want to come over with me. Are you desperate for your life?"

"If you can't work in our industry, you won't have time to rest. It just so happens that the dean is away during this time, so our work tasks are a bit heavier. When the dean and head nurse come back in a few days, we can relax."

In Hassan's ward, you have to observe him carefully, but there are no special circumstances. This is a very important person. "

"Yeah, don't worry, Shen Man. I know the importance of this person and I don't dare to take him lightly. Go back and rest quickly. Eat more delicious food. I see you have lost weight during this time."

Shen Man smiled, took the car keys and prepared to leave.

By chance, he walked outside and saw A Kun and A Ming, who were standing next to them with confused faces. He could basically detect what happened.

"Shen Man?"

"What are you two doing here?"

"Come here first, we have something to tell you."

Akun and Amin, while talking, pulled Shen Man to the pavilion. As soon as he saw Jason and Sophia, they all had sad faces, and he knew something must have happened.

"You guys look solemn. What do you want to say to me? I have to go home from get off work."

"You are going home, but what about the things you promised us?"

"Sofia, please take a closer look at the diamond bracelet where you have it. I didn't confiscate anything, but I didn't say that I would help you complete this matter. Indeed, I promised you, but I didn't say anything. time to do it."

"Shen Man, I know you can't lie to me. How is the situation over there? Since your dean is not here, it should be easy to get the bullet left after the operation."

"Yes, I just saw the attending doctor driving away in the parking lot. This is a great opportunity. If you don't go to his office and steal the bullet, you are still hanging around here and getting ready to get off work. Go home."

"I said you guys are so brave. You can unconditionally trust anything I say. It's so naive for you to believe me when I say I'll help you."

When Sophia and Huang Mao heard this, they knew that he was just talking angrily and didn't take it to heart.

Seeing that Shen Man seemed a little anxious to leave.

"Maybe you have something to do, so you should leave first. We still have to study the plan here."

"Mr. Norman Karim has sent vehicles to block the area. Are you still here preparing a plan? Are you waiting for him to come in person and take you back for torture?"

Hearing what Shen Man said, Sophia was a little surprised.

"How do you know Mr. Norman Karim's car is outside?"

"Anyway, I've been working in this hospital for several years. You don't know this. This happens all the time. I don't think it's any surprise at all."

Shen Man didn't want to talk nonsense with them here. He was very anxious. He had to go to the embassy to report the plan before leaving here. He couldn't make any dangerous decisions without authorization, as this would not be conducive to the overall plan.

"By the way, didn't you say you wanted to contact Qin Yuan? Why did you wait so long? Didn't you see any movement from Qin Yuan? Has he run away?"

"I didn't expect that your observation skills are quite careful. We are indeed preparing to contact Qin Yuan, but it's hard to predict this kind of thing. He shouldn't run away, right?"

"Are you asking me? Qin Yuan and I are not familiar with each other. How do I know if he will run away? You guys are really funny."

Huang Mao said sadly.

"But Qin Yuan and I have only known each other for a short time. He had already turned off his cell phone when I called him just now. I don't know if he really left us here and didn't care."

"What did you say, Qin Yuan's cell phone was turned off?"

When Shen Man heard this, he immediately realized that something was wrong. He had to go back and check the specific situation first.

"Well, I can give you the key to my office. It's not an option for you to stay outside. We happen to have a conference room that's empty. You go and stay inside the conference room. You're looking at the sky outside. It is going to rain."

Shen Man originally wanted them to stay in the office, but this sentence came out of his mouth.

Thinking that there might be something in his office that would expose his identity, he immediately took back his words and prepared to let them stay in the conference room. He had to go back to find Qin Yuan first.

"We appreciate your kindness. The conference room is a relatively private place after all, and it is not convenient for us to go there."

"Oh, what's the big deal? Usually we also have some patients' families in the conference room, and we hold seminars together to study the treatment plan for patients. It is not a private place. I will take you there now."

Sophia glanced at Huangmao. He thought that having a fixed place to provide them with rest was also a good choice.

"Okay, in that case, let's go to the conference room with you. It's better than waiting here."

Shen Man looked at the time and saw that it was still in time, so he took these people to the conference room on the office floor of the hospital.

"You guys stay here honestly. There is an employee elevator at the end of the right side of the corridor. If you want to see Azhe, you can take the employee elevator and go directly to the intensive care unit.

There are only a few people on duty in the hospital at this time. Try to be quiet and don't alarm too many people. The most important thing is not to alarm the security guards."

Sophia saw all the arrangements made by the other party, and he was very grateful in his heart.

"Shen Man, thank you so much for arranging all this for us. Don't worry, we will never make trouble and cause you trouble."

"That's good. If you are really grateful, do as I say. After all, I am not the person in charge of this hospital. If there is any problem, they will definitely hold me accountable."

"Understood!"

After arranging everything, Shen Man left the hospital with peace of mind. He came to the parking lot, made several turns, and walked to an inconspicuous black car.

This is not the sports car he usually drives. This black car has no license plate.

Shen Man put on a hat and a mask, sat in the car, stepped on the accelerator and left the parking lot.

On the road, Shen Man looked around to see if there was anything particularly suspicious. After all, Mr. Norman Karim had arranged people to ambush around here, and a car might appear at any time to follow him.

Shen Man has been working in the hospital for so many years and has never exposed his identity. If he exposed his identity this time to help Qin Yuan, it would be a bit of a loss.

Through the rearview mirror of the vehicle, he observed that there was a suspicious vehicle behind him, as if it was following him.

"Want to follow me? No way!"

Shen Man saw that the traffic light had reached the time, so he deliberately drove the car into a small alley and then came to a fork in the road. He knew that the traffic light at this intersection was relatively short and could only allow one car to pass.

Although he was not sure whether the other party was really following him, he did not dare to take the risk, and finally turned and got rid of the vehicle behind him.

"Fortunately, there was no danger!"

After more than ten minutes, he finally drove to the gate of the embassy.

This license plate is different from the usual ones. When he arrived at the gate of the embassy, he scanned his virtual license plate directly through the electronic laser and immediately confirmed his identity and drove directly to the parking lot of the embassy.

Wang Xin was with Qin Yuan and received the message of the vehicle entering on his mobile phone.

Liu Mei's observation ability is still very meticulous. He saw that the other party's expression was a little wrong.

"What's wrong?"

Wang Xin said to Qin Yuan with some vigilance.

"I have something here, and I may be in a hurry to deal with it. You can chat slowly here first. Don't worry, I will come over later."

Qin Yuan was also uneasy when he saw the other party like this.

"What happened? Do you need my help?"

"Nothing, you don't have to be so nervous. It's my own work arrangement. There are some emergencies. I will come over in a while!"

Liu Mei knew very well that it was their own people who came back, but seeing that Wang Xin did not mean to tell Qin Yuan about this matter, he chose to remain silent.

An Ran said anxiously.

"Wang Xin's face seems a little wrong. I don't know if there is any emergency, but we have waited for so long and there is no news from the army. Do they plan to help us dispatch an airplane?"

"I believe Du Bingbing will definitely help us."

"Du Bingbing replaced Lei Shen as our command leader, but I think he is too young and lacks experience in this position.

There may be problems with communication within the army, and coupled with the cooperation between departments, many people may not give him face, so it may take a little longer."

"There is no way. The rules within the army are strict. Everything must go through the process. There will never be any special procedures. We should also be able to understand and believe that the arrangements made by our superiors will not put us in danger.

This is the safest place. Even if Mr. Norman Karim has great courage, he can't chase us here and take us away."

After Wang Xin received the signal, he immediately came to a secret room in the embassy.

As soon as he opened the door, he saw Shen Man.

"Didn't I tell you? Don't come back unless there is something special. The situation is so complicated now, do you dare to come back casually?"

Wang Xin frowned and said with a slight complaint.

"Don't worry, I must have a reason for doing things. I hope you can give me enough trust. I must have my reasons for choosing to come back this time. You don't even listen to my reasons for coming back and you just complain to me. Isn't it a bit inappropriate?"

"Shen Man, then you tell me, what is the reason for your return this time?"

"I have successfully mastered where the bullet is."

"You know I only look at the results of anything. It doesn't matter what action you take in the end. I just look at you being able to bring this thing back to me. This is considered that you have completed this task."

"Wang Xin, I came back this time to discuss this matter with you. I need your cooperation, so I came here specially to seek help."

"Is there anything you can't say on the phone? You must come back in person, in case someone is following you "

"You don't have to worry about these things. The car I drove is our hidden car, without a license plate number, and I came out after I was dressed up, so they couldn't find me.

Can you not be so timid, I am not afraid of being exposed, so what are you afraid of? You don't trust me at all, which really makes me sad. "

"Forget it, don't mention this matter, let's talk about serious things, how can I assist you?"

"The dean is not here recently. Under my mobile operation, this bullet has been placed in the attending doctor's room. It is relatively easy to successfully get this bullet.

But I need some cooperation, such as water, electricity or some lines in the office. Find someone to come and repair it. When there are too many people and eyes, it can't be blamed on me if something is lost. "

After listening to this arrangement, Wang Xin smiled knowingly.

"Shen Man, your idea is really good. This method can completely exclude yourself and will not arouse anyone's suspicion."

"Finally, I see some smile on your face. If I don't tell you this plan, are you going to treat me coldly today?"

"I don't want to give you the cold shoulder, but in the current situation, Mr. Norman Karim has already made a move. We must be more careful and may fall into the other party's trap at any time. He is such a cunning old fox, you know it!"

Chapter 2294: So you are actually this kind of person

Shen Man saw that Wang Xin was really a little angry this time, but he could understand it. After all, he did come back from the adventure, and this was a helpless move.

"Wang Xin, we are all here for Qin Yuan to complete this task. I hope you can understand me and stop talking coldly to me all the time. This also makes me feel very uncomfortable."

Wang Xin was also a soft-hearted person. Seeing the other party's sincere attitude, he couldn't say anything else.

"Shen Man, I hope you can understand that I am not blaming you. I just think you are a little too impulsive in doing this. Not only are you afraid of affecting our overall layout, I am also afraid that it will affect your safety. The hospital is a public place. There are many people with mixed eyes."

"Don't worry, I have arranged everything in advance when I come back, and I changed this car. They don't know where I am going, but there is a vehicle suspected of following me on the road."

When Wang Xin heard this, his whole body became tense.

"What did you say? There was a vehicle following you on the road. Why didn't you tell me earlier?"

"It was just once. I'm not sure if they were following me so hard. Maybe I'm being sensitive."

But in our line of work, we must be cautious. I have already gotten rid of the vehicle that was following me and made a long circle before I came back. Otherwise, I would have reached a safe place long ago and there is no need to wait until now. Come in. "

"What you said makes sense. Now that you're back, what are you going to do next?"

"I want to create some emergencies so that the bullet can be taken away without anyone noticing. What do you think of this idea?"

"Yes, you just told me that this plan is feasible, but where are we going to find trustworthy people to pretend to be workers?"

Shen Man was silent. He knew that he should not send anyone from the embassy again.

Just as the two of them were talking, Qin Yuan suddenly knocked on the door outside.

Wang Xin was very confused, how could Qin Yuan find this hidden room? He has not yet decided whether to tell Qin Yuan Shen Man's true identity.

"Wang Xin, please open the door. I have something important to tell you."

Shen Man looked at Wang Xin with some confusion.

"Why is this guy Qin Yuan here? Do you want to tell him everything? Including my identity and all our plans, this is really too risky."

"Why do you think so? Qin Yuan is not a person who cannot be trusted. He was photographed by the God of Thunder himself, and Du Bingbing also trusts him. I believe that the people Du Bingbing can be optimistic about are definitely not unworthy of our trust."

"So, you don't believe in Qin Yuan at all, but you believe in Du Bingbing's vision. It seems that after so many years, you still miss this old classmate in your heart."

"Where did you say this?"

"Du Bingbing, he really doesn't treat you well, but you have always helped him without any care. No matter what kind of difficulties he encountered, you never wanted to back down. This is what I admire very much about you."

"Stop talking so much, let's tell Qin Yuan all this. By the way, we can ask him to come over and help us think of a solution together. He is a very flexible person. Sometimes we may not be able to think comprehensively, but It's better to have one more person and discuss things together than to hold it in here by ourselves."

Shen Man didn't say anything, so he could only acquiesce. After all, Wang Xin was the consul here and had to listen to him alone for all plans.

Then, Wang Xin walked directly to the door and opened it.

He looked at Qin Yuan with a smile and asked.

"Didn't I tell you to wait in the office? Why did you come here? This is a hidden office that you can find. It seems that I won't be able to arrange some important matters here in the future."

"Wang Xin, don't you feel angry about my self-assertion?"

"Why should I be angry? I know you are an impatient person. The reason why you are here is just because you are worried about me and want to come over and see what I am up to."

"Wang Xin, I must have misunderstood you. It's not that I'm not worried about you, but the current situation is too critical and we can't wait any longer. You must be meeting someone in such a secret place. Bar?"

"You came just in time, I want to introduce you again."

"Re-introduce me?"

When Qin Yuan was confused, Wang Xin invited Qin Yuan to the office. He immediately saw the little nurse he had seen in the hospital and immediately understood.

Qin Yuan smiled in relief.

"Shen Man, it turns out to be you."

Wang Xin was not surprised when he saw Qin Yuan's reaction. The two people must have met in the hospital.

"Since you two already know each other, I won't say more. I just need to get acquainted again. When you met each other in the hospital before, you didn't have your true identity. Everyone has more or less something to hide."

"Actually, it's not a secret, it's all to perform the task, and there is nothing we can do.

In order to ensure the progress of our overall plan, even if we meet one of our own, we cannot say a word, but his inexplicable help to me has made me have some doubts.

To be honest, I have already thought about this, but I am not sure. Today I saw Shen Man here and my hanging heart was completely relieved. I had also suspected that he was Mr. Norman Karim's person before. "

Shen Man smiled and said.

"Qin Yuan, when I saw you, I already had some plans in my heart and I felt relieved.

The task Wang Xin gave me was to cooperate with you as much as possible in the hospital to do something. On the basis of ensuring my own safety, he later became really anxious and gave me a death order.

Even if my identity is exposed, I must help you, so I came back regardless, even if my identity may be exposed, I don't care. "

Only then did Qin Yuan realize that Shen Man's desperate return from the hospital must have something very important, otherwise he would not have come back at the risk of being exposed.

Therefore, Qin Yuan asked quickly.

"Since you are back here, it means that there are special circumstances at the hospital, so you took the risk to come back. Tell me quickly what happened and why you took the risk to come back? Is it Norman Karim? Sir, has there been any action taken by the hospital?"

Seeing Qin Yuan's anxious look, Shen Man knew that he was not an irresponsible person, and he could finally breathe a sigh of relief.

Even if he suffers some damage in order to help Qin Yuan, it is absolutely impossible for him to only care about himself. In this situation, Qin Yuan is worth helping. Otherwise, if he is a selfish person, he is not worthy of his own money. Help.

"Don't worry yet. There is nothing special at the hospital. It's just that I thought of a good way to get the bullet back. I also know that the situation is very urgent.

I saw a lot of vehicles on the way back. It must be Mr. Noman Karim who has taken action.

I don't need to say much about his sphere of influence here. You should also be able to understand that it is best not to offend this person. His ability is so powerful that we can't even imagine it.

Therefore, we can only choose a relatively safe and conservative method to get the bullet back. Fortunately, our director has been on a business trip recently and he is not in the hospital. It will be relatively easy for us to do this. It's also more certain. "

"Your dean is on a business trip. This is really a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity, so don't tell me."

"Otherwise, your life is pretty good, and you catch up with the director on a business trip. If he finishes the operation in the hospital, put this bullet in his safe immediately, and you won't have a chance to get it.

It's better now. The bullet was placed in the doctor's office. There is a safe in his office, but for people in our profession, the safe is not a hidden place. It can be cracked open. "

Hearing this, Qin Yuan became even more confused. If according to what he said, it should be very simple to get the bullet. Why did he come back to ask for help from his companions?

"Then you encountered some problem and wanted to come back to us for help? Do you need help?"

"Nonsense, you seem to be the most efficient person when it comes to my work. I don't want to waste more time, so I came here to ask you for help.

Because I have thought of a relatively conservative method. As long as I implement it, it should be able to be done without anyone noticing, and at the same time, no one will be harmed. "

Wang Xin looked at the little girl like a little pepper, and he didn't dare to say anything.

"Shen Man, you have said all the words alone, so why don't you explain your overall plan to us and see if it is feasible? I happen to be here to help you with your reference. I don't think I am such a person. Smart people, at least I won't hold you back."

"Qin Yuan, please don't say that. You are a little too humble. Our consul Wang Xin appreciates you very much and he also approves of you.

He said that you are a very smart person and can help us find a way here, so he opened the door and let you in and told you everything.

In other words, my identity is very hidden. I have been lurking in the hospital for many years. No one has ever discovered me. It is very likely that I will not be able to continue working in the hospital after being exposed because of you. "

"I think it's a good thing that you don't work in the hospital. Why do you care so much?"

"For a special task executor, his identity is exposed. Do you think this is a good thing? I don't know how to explain it to my superiors when I go back. I can only pass the responsibility to you, saying that I exposed my identity to help you. Yes, this way I can avoid punishment from my superiors."

Qin Yuan didn't understand something.

He also knows how hard it is to work in the hospital. It is equivalent to working two jobs. On the one hand, he has to take into account his true identity and mission, and on the other hand, he has to work in the hospital. He should get rid of such tiring things as soon as possible. , of course it's a good thing.

"What did you just say? In order to help me expose my identity, you may be punished by your superiors?"

"Otherwise, do you think I'm joking with you? I think what you are saying now is called eating minced meat."

"That's not what I meant, I didn't mean to mock you, I just don't understand something.

Logically speaking, people like you who perform special tasks should be encouraged and rewarded. How can you be allowed to bear some punishment? Who made this rule for you? I will have a good talk with them after I get back. "

Shen Man saw that Qin Yuan was sincerely thinking about himself and was not deliberately mocking him. He was not as angry as before, so he softened his tone and spoke.

"The situation here is completely different from that in China. We live in dire straits every day. If our identity is exposed, it is likely to affect our overall layout.

These tasks of ours have targets. Exposing your identity is equivalent to not completing the task. No matter what the reason is, I will be punished. I am afraid that I will not be able to stay here, and I may even be sent back to the country. "

Wang Xin shook her head helplessly, sighed, and said nothing. Seeing his attitude, Qin Yuan knew that Shen Man was not exaggerating, lying or venting his emotions.

"If you are sent back to the country, it means you have not completed the mission and your status will definitely be downgraded. Then all the hard work over the years will be in vain."

"Yes."

Qin Yuan was very unbearable when he came here. He knew that it was very hard for these two people to work here for many years. If they were implicated simply to help him, Qin Yuan would be very embarrassed.

He didn't know how to express his feelings, but he just didn't want these two people to continue to help him.

"Shen Man, if that's the case, you should go back quickly and stop getting involved in this matter.

I know your difficulties. Once you are sent back to your country, you may not be able to keep your current position, and all your hard work over the years will be in vain, because it is really not worth it for me to do this alone.

I will figure out the bullet thing myself. You just need to ensure your daily work. I did not expect that my coming here would cause so much pressure and harm to all of you. I am really sorry. "

Wang Xin saw that Qin Yuan truly felt sorry for the two of them. How could he just watch the other person in trouble and not care about anything?

"Qin Yuan, although we have known each other for a relatively short time, I know that you are a very loyal person. Don't talk to us about this at this time. It is also within the scope of our responsibilities to assist you in completing your tasks."

Chapter 2295 This plan is indeed risky, but it is feasible

Qin Yuan just looked at Wang Xin, and he had an indescribable feeling in his heart.

"It's all said and done."

Wang Xin also smiled knowingly, and everyone understood it tacitly and agreed to this plan.

Shen Man saw that these two people did not seem to oppose his plan, so he could make the overall arrangements for the next step.

"Qin Yuan, Wang Xin, looking at your attitudes, I can understand that you both agree with my plan. Instead of this, let's hurry up and make detailed arrangements. Qin Yuan is going to do it himself, which is indeed a better choice."

Even if Wang Xin agreed to this risky plan, he did not want Qin Yuan to go out and execute it personally.

"No, Qin Yuan has a lot of things to deal with now. It's safest for him to stay here. I'll send other people to help you. Don't let Qin Yuan go out. It's too risky."

"If Qin Yuan can't go out, what about the others who came with him? I believe the people around him should be very safe and reliable. It's much better than hiring some real workers outside. Don't forget that this hospital is Mr. Norman Karim's sphere of influence."

"Shen Man, don't be so afraid of Mr. Norman Karim from the bottom of your heart. If you are so afraid, then I really don't know what to say. I think you have already begun to have such a strong fear of this person from the bottom of your heart, so you will be timid when doing things."

After Shen Man heard what Wang Xin said, his face changed immediately.

"What do you mean by that?"

Do you think I'm a coward? Or do you think my idea is unreliable?

Mr. Norman Karim has been here for so many years. His power is so complicated that we can't easily resolve it. Why do you have to force him?

I want Qin Yuan's people to help because I think this plan is very reliable. Only when Qin Yuan's people come out to help can we successfully complete the mission and send them back to a safe place."

"Shen Man, that's not what I mean. Don't rush to refute me. We have many people from the special forces here. It doesn't necessarily mean that Qin Yuan is indispensable."

Qin Yuan saw these two people quarreling because of him, and he also deliberately didn't go. He didn't understand why Wang Xin was so opposed to letting him go on the mission. Could it be that he didn't understand his true strength?

Qin Yuan smiled awkwardly and explained.

"Wang Xin, I know that what you are doing now is for my good and for my safety."

"It's enough for you to understand. Don't worry about other things. I have my own arrangements."

Shen Man sneered at the side, and he exposed the other party's thoughts.

"I know why you are so opposed to Qin Yuan's mission, but it's just for Du Bingbing.

It was Du Bingbing who gave you an order, asking you to ensure Qin Yuan's safety, so you didn't care about anything for Qin Yuan's safety, even if it was risky and let your people's latent results for so many years fail completely.

Is Du Bingbing so important to you?

You treat his words as a set of rules and regulations. He is just a personal suggestion, and he didn't give you an order from the perspective of his position. Why should you obey him?"

Wang Xin was afraid that the other party had exposed his thoughts, and he was suddenly unhappy.

"Shen Man, I hope you can be careful with your words and not always say shocking things."

"I know the relationship between you and Du Bingbing very well.

But I have to tell you, don't just care about your personal feelings and ignore other people's ideas. Even if I can make some sacrifices, I have to protect the interests of other people in our team and can't let you do this alone."

"Shen Man, calm down first. You can tell you about this slowly for me. Du Bingbing didn't say anything. We have been waiting for news on when to send a plane to take us back. We have been waiting for a long time.

I can prove that the two of them have no contact during this period. Why do you think so arbitrarily that he opposes your plan for Du Bingbing?

It doesn't matter. No matter what he thinks, I agree to go with you to carry out this mission. You are so angry now, but it will affect your overall judgment of the matter."

Shen Man grew up in a wealthy family. He was able to choose to come to this place to carry out special tasks because of his love for the motherland and his interest in these adventurous work.

In fact, he can live well even if he is not in this position, so he has a kind of arrogance and a little bit of a lady's temper in his heart.

Wang Xin knew that Shen Man was a girl with a strong personality. No matter what she said to him, if he didn't agree with it in his heart, he would definitely not be able to get through it.

"Since we all have a consensus on this matter, I won't explain so much. Next, I will go and talk to An Ran first. I'm afraid I have to convince him of this plan. He is also a very stubborn person and may not be willing to let me take risks alone."

Shen Man paused and said to Qin Yuan.

"Qin Yuan, you are the leader of this special task force after all. I don't believe they will not listen to what you say. This is simply impossible to happen."

"Do you want me to speak to An Ran in an imperative tone? You don't understand the relationship between us."

"What special relationship do you two have? If you two really have some special relationship, and Fan Tianlei still asked you to complete the task together, then I think he must be old and confused."

Qin Yuan was not very angry at first, but when he heard this girl slandering the Thunder God casually, he suddenly felt unhappy.

"Shen Man, do you know Thor, too?"

"Of course I don't know such a famous person, but the name of Thor is very famous in the army. Of course, I have heard of him a little bit. He is a legendary figure, so I said that if he arranged it like this, he would be really confused."

"So you don't know Thor. If that's the case, then don't speculate about a person out of thin air."

He has the same reason for making such an arrangement. In addition, I must tell you that there is no special relationship between An Ran and me. We are just comrades who have known each other for many years.

He came to help me this time because he is very familiar with the environment here, and he has been performing field missions for so many years. There is no problem with his personnel transfer, and there is no personal selfishness or emotion.

If you are not convinced, you can write a report to the top leaders of the army and let them conduct an in-depth investigation of this task."

Wang Xin looked at Qin Yuan solemnly talking about this matter and could clearly feel that he was really angry and took the other party's words seriously.

"Qin Yuan, don't get so excited. He just said it casually. How can he investigate you if he didn't mean it? I'm really at a loss if you say that. It's because I didn't manage my subordinates well that he said that to you."

"Wang Xin, you don't have to come out to smooth things over for her. In fact, I can see that she is a girl with a strong personality. If that's the case, then I have nothing to say.

I just want to tell you two that no matter what happens, don't create conflicts from within. This will be a fatal blow to us."

Wang Xin said slowly in order to quickly change the subject and make Qin Yuan not so angry.

"Shen Man, I think your plan is feasible. If you need any assistance, you can just tell us. We will all do our best to help you complete this task."

"Wang Xin, I hope you can pay attention to your words. It's not to help me complete the task, but the order you issued. This is something we have to face together. When did it become something I have to do alone?"

"Okay, okay, I didn't use the right words. What do you think we should do?"

"I think Qin Yuan is worried about Jason and Sophia anyway. Why not let him go back to the hospital and help me complete this task.

At that time, they will only think that Qin Yuan planned everything, and I can get away with it.

I know that my arrangement may be a bit selfish. I have cleared myself very cleanly and pushed all the things to others. I didn't blame Qin Yuan, but I was also thinking about the overall situation.

After all, we have been lurking here for many years. If we fail because of such a small matter, I would feel very sorry. I hope Qin Yuan can understand and don't underestimate me. I think my arrangements are selfish.

If you have any opinions, you can also report to your superiors. I will write an investigation report to explain the situation myself. "

"Shen Man, when did you become so serious?

You write an investigation report at every turn. No one wants to investigate your affairs. Don't scare yourself. I have said this. Even if you don't ask so many questions, no matter what the reason is, at least there is a chance to solve it. "

Qin Yuan heard that the two of them quarreled because of him, and he must feel bad, but he didn't say anything else.

"Shen Man, since the plan has been arranged, you should hurry back to the hospital.

In addition, I see that your eyes are full of bloodshot, and you probably haven't rested for a long time. It's better to go home and have a good rest, and then you can go back to the hospital.

We will arrange the rest of the things online, and it's best not to meet again easily.

It's also easy for your identity to be exposed. At this sensitive time, Mr. Norman Karim has reason to suspect anyone, including you.

So it's better to be cautious. By the way, you didn't tell Sofia your identity, right? He shouldn't have a chance to know your true identity, right?"

"Sophia doesn't know my true identity. She just gave me a diamond bracelet and asked me to help her steal the bullet back and keep an eye on Azhe's situation at all times."

"Diamond bracelet?"

When Wang Xin heard the diamond bracelet, his eyes lit up immediately.

Shen Man shook her head helplessly and explained.

"Wang Xin, please don't get so excited when you hear about the diamond bracelet, okay?"

I can tell you directly that I didn't accept his bribe. This diamond bracelet looks very valuable, and I have already returned it to him.

And even if I didn't return it to him, I would definitely include it in the list of items to be handed in, and I would not keep such a valuable thing privately."

"Am I also afraid that you will violate discipline? This place is really a riot of wealth. There are too many good things in the colorful world. I am afraid that you will lose yourself because of this. It is also for your own good. This is our mission."

"Anyway, I am a girl from a relatively well-off family. I won't be moved by anything, let alone a diamond bracelet. Even if he puts a 10-carat diamond in front of me, I will never be moved. "

"I'm willing to believe what you said. It's true. You are a girl who is used to seeing good things."

"Shen Man, you didn't take the diamond bracelet. I can prove that when Sophia gave him this diamond bracelet in the parking lot, he was not ready to accept it."

"Now you heard it, even Qin Yuan spoke for me, so there is no need to have any doubts about me anymore."

Wang Xin smiled awkwardly and said.

"Originally, I didn't have any doubts about you. In that case, you should go back first. Qin Yuan saw that you seemed very tired just now. He asked you to go home and have a good rest first, and don't rush back to the hospital.

According to the normal hospital schedule, you can't be there all the time to keep an eye on him. The longer you stay in the hospital, the more likely Mr. Norman Karim will look suspiciously.

Being like you is not good for your future work. Go home and have a good rest.

We will take advantage of this period of time to plan our next actions. We may need a lot of time to perfect the entire action plan, which is enough for you to have a good rest. "

Shen Man also heard the two people's concern for him, and he was not so angry anymore.

"Then I won't be polite to you two. To be honest, I am really tired. It would be better to go home and rest for a while. Once a person reaches the limit of fatigue, he may not be in a better state. Go to work."

"Yes, that is indeed the case, but I would also like to thank you for providing us with this plan. Although this plan seems a bit risky, it is still feasible. I still want to thank you for thinking so much for us.

As long as I can successfully retrieve this bullet, I can go back without hesitation. All tasks will have a good ending and I won't leave you with too much trouble. "(End of chapter)

Chapter 2296 Found that all the images were gone

On the other side, in the study of Mr. Norman Karim's villa.

He suddenly remembered that there was something he hadn't dealt with, so he immediately called his men in.

"Mr. Norman Karim, what can I do for you?"

"Go contact the people from the Cyber Security Bureau now and ask them to bring all the surveillance videos in the city to me as soon as possible. I have something important to do."

"Is Mr. Norman Karim looking for someone?"

"Don't ask so many questions first. Call their director immediately. He will understand what I mean. Don't ask so many questions. Hurry up and do it. I'm afraid that the longer the time is delayed, the bigger the mistake will be."

"Okay, I understand."

After Mr. Norman Karim arranged this matter, he suddenly remembered that if he could get some evidence of Qin Yuan's existence in this city, then he would have a reason to inform the people of the maritime patrol force.

With solid evidence like this, Qin Yuan couldn't solve it even if he had great ability. I'm afraid that even if Fan Tianlei came in person, he couldn't do it.

After about ten minutes, the subordinate had brought all the things Norman Karim wanted.

His subordinate took out a small USB flash drive from his pocket and handed it to Mr. Norman Karim.

"Just now, the people from the network security have transferred all the surveillance videos. I roughly guessed what you are looking for, so all the security surveillance videos within the past month are in this USB flash drive."

"Okay, well done, you go out first and give me the USB flash drive."

Mr. Norman Karim got the USB flash drive and put it on his computer, ready to start looking for the target. He vaguely remembered the specific time when Qin Yuan came here, so he went to look for the content he wanted to see around this time.

It was strange, but when he looked through the content of the past few days, he found that he didn't find what he wanted.

The most important thing is that there is nothing in it, and all the content is normal, except for the part about Qin Yuan and his companions. What happened? Could it be that the people from the network security dared to deceive themselves?

Mr. Norman Karim only thought that the other party was deceiving him. He never thought that it might be Qin Yuan who arranged all this. After all, this was not something a normal person could do.

He didn't know that there was a system behind Qin Yuan that was helping him deal with these things all the time. He only knew that there must be an error in some program, so he quickly took out his phone and called the people on the network security side.

Because he could be very sure that his subordinates did not have the courage to deceive him, and he was doing things under his nose.

"Hello?"

"Mr. Norman Karim, you actually called me in person. Your subordinates were just transferred from me just now. I have given him all the surveillance of the network security department. Didn't you receive it?"

Mr. Norman Karim said calmly.

"How could I not have received it? It was because I received this surveillance that I found out that there was a problem and came to you specifically."

"Problem? What problem?"

"A man came here these days. I wanted to find some clues about him from the surveillance, but I found that in the surveillance videos within the past month, this man did not appear in every street corner, and even his companions did not appear.

I want to ask, what is going on? You are not playing tricks on me, deliberately deleting the identity of this person and the content of the occasions he appeared before giving it to me. Are you deliberately playing tricks on me? Or are you challenging my patience?"

Hearing Mr. Norman Karim's stern questioning, the man opposite was already trembling with fear.

"Please don't misunderstand me. How could this be possible? I don't even know who you are looking for. How could I do something here? Even if you give me some courage, I wouldn't dare to do this. There must be some misunderstanding here."

Mr. Norman Karim looked at the man opposite him and his voice was shaking with fear. He thought that he probably didn't know the details of this. If he really wanted to use the surveillance equipment to cause trouble, it didn't seem likely. Could it be that he was really overthinking it?

"You really didn't do anything?"

"No, no, I don't dare. How can I be so brave? If you really think there is a problem, I will send one of our best network security personnel to see if he can help you try to restore the content. It is likely that someone deleted it."

"Someone deleted it? How can you be so decisive in judging that someone deleted the content? I don't see any signs of editing."

"Our video system seems to have been attacked by hackers a few days ago. Maybe something here is related to the problem you encountered."

If you want to confirm whether someone manually deleted it, the content here can only be determined by a network security personnel, so I will send someone to see if he can help you."

"If it was really deleted manually, do you have any way to restore it?"

"Let me try to find our recycling bin first to see if there are any related videos in the recycling bin."

At this time, Mr. Norman Karim seemed to have discovered a detail problem. He felt that it was unlikely to be deleted manually, because the videos in it were complete.

The time jumps on each video were normal, and there were no errors or omissions. It was just like a ghost, and Qin Yuan and his companions were missing.

Assuming that someone deleted it, it was impossible to delete only Qin Yuan and the few people he was looking for. There must be something wrong. Maybe Qin Yuan has some special means.

It is best not to publicize it, let alone let this matter continue to spread, so Mr. Norman Karim paused, and he softened his tone to let the other party try not to be so scared.

"No, you don't need to send anyone."

"Did you suddenly think of something? Mr. Norman Karim, don't worry, I dare not go out and tell you about your affairs even if I have the courage of the sky."

I have never heard this call today. Whether you need it or not, I will try my best to provide all my help."

"Don't be so timid. Maybe I missed some important information. Let me take a closer look. Just like you said just now, you must keep your mouth shut and keep it secret. Don't let anyone know about what happened today."

"Okay, I understand."

Just like that, after Mr. Norman Karim hung up the phone, he sat in a chair and kept thinking about the ins and outs of this matter. Maybe there was something he missed, but it was probably Qin Yuangao's ghost.

"This guy actually had the ability to delete all the surveillance videos. It's incredible. It seems that I underestimated this stinky boy."

He originally hoped to find some evidence that Qin Yuan had smuggled here, and then arrange the next step, but now it seems unlikely.

"Since Qin Yuan is able to solve this thorny problem, it can be regarded as his ability. I really don't know how he did it. He doesn't look like a network expert.

But no matter how he did it, it can be regarded as his ability. Since this method doesn't work, I can only think of other ways."

So, Mr. Norman Karim carefully unplugged the USB drive from his computer, and then put the USB drive on his desk. Next to it, he picked up the ashtray and smashed it hard. In an instant, the metal USB drive turned into a piece of scrap metal.

He picked up the damaged USB drive and threw it into the trash can next to him.

"It's really a waste of my time."

Qin Yuan has already discussed with the other party and will take action next, but this must obtain An Ran's consent.

"Shen Man has gone back to rest. If this matter is not resolved for one day, I believe he will not sleep well."

"Yes, his attitude just now is indeed problematic. I apologize to you on his behalf."

"Wang Xin, don't say such things to me. In fact, it is me who has implicated you.

If I hadn't appeared here, your life would have been normal for a few years. I am afraid that your superiors would have transferred you back. Now my appearance may affect your normal promotion and slow down your pace of returning to the country."

"Qin Yuan, please don't say that. We are all people of the same country. We should face more difficulties together. I don't think you have implicated me.

So are you really determined to complete this task in person? You have finally come to us after returning to the hospital. For you, the embassy is the safest place.

In fact, you don't have to worry about those people. Just wait for the rescue plane with peace of mind and you can leave here smoothly. After returning, you will be rewarded by your superiors."

Qin Yuan lowered his head and smiled after hearing this.

"Wang Xin, I know you are saying this for my sake and it's all true, but I have to tell you that I can't abandon them no matter what. Jason has come this far for me, and I consider him my good brother."

"What about An Ran?"

"What happened to her?"

"I see that he has a special feeling for you and doesn't want you to take risks. He would rather take on these things himself than let you continue this mission. In fact, he has been performing field missions all the time, and it would be more appropriate for you to let him do it."

"How can that be possible? I'm a man, how can I let a girl take these risks instead of me? Moreover, from the initial planning to the subsequent completion, all the situations are under my control Mr. Norman Karim should have discovered some details within the scope. "

"What details?"

"The reason why I can stay here so openly is entirely because of Mr. Norman Karim. He has no way to prove that I came here illegally. I have deleted all the surveillance videos about us in this city."

"What did you say? I thought you were joking. You really deleted all the surveillance videos. I didn't expect you to be a network expert."

"Not a network expert. This is just a basic operation. You don't have to be so surprised.

Before I came here, I knew that smuggling was unreliable and it was likely to affect the reputation of our troops.

Therefore, I have thought of this method to delete all the surveillance while we are escaping, and it will not affect the reputation of your embassy. You can rest assured about this. "

"How could I possibly worry about this?"

It's just that for you, there is indeed some risk in doing this. Mr. Norman Karim, he is a very smart man and must have known this detail, so that you will completely piss it off, and he will come at it from all sides. Block you. "

"That's why I'm so anxious. If I want to find Jason and the others, there's nothing he can do to me. Naturally, I'll vent my anger on other people."

When Wang Xin heard what Qin Yuan said, he nodded in agreement. Only from this moment did he truly understand what kind of person Qin Yuan was. He was a good brother who was worthy of being entrusted and was willing to take risks for his friends.

"Jason, he is so lucky to have a good friend like you. You didn't leave him here, but allowed yourself to take risks again for him."

"Then what can be done? After all, this is something I did myself. I can't let others take responsibility for me. I think there is a fine tradition in our special forces, which is to dare to take responsibility. This is what Thor taught me. one thing."

"Qin Yuan, you are indeed an extraordinary soldier led by the God of Thunder. No wonder Du Bingbing cares so much about you. At first, I thought he was judging people by their appearance and liked your handsome appearance. But now it seems that he is not. Such a superficial person."

"My handsome appearance? Haha, it is nothing compared to you. If others praise me, I will accept it happily. But when these words come out of your mouth, I still feel a little guilty after being praised by you. Comparing me with you He's not a particularly handsome guy, but his temperament is what makes him better."

Qin Yuan is very funny and can make the other person relax by just saying a few words.

At the same time, it can also resolve the embarrassing situation between the two of them.

After all, Qin Yuan knew very well in his heart that Wang Xin was willing to pay so much for himself because of Du Bingbing. Although he didn't know what kind of relationship the two of them had before, Qin Yuan was sure that the relationship between the two of them was definitely not the same. Simple!

Chapter 2297: Camouflage Squad

As soon as Qin Yuan returned to the room, he saw He Chenguang and found that he seemed absent-minded and seemed to be thinking about something.

Qin Yuan walked forward silently and patted his shoulder gently, but unexpectedly he was shocked.

"Oh my god~"

"He Chenguang, are you making such a fuss? I was just joking with you, but it actually scared me."

"Don't you know that people are scary and can scare people to death?"

"If you still feel scared in a place like this, then I really have nothing to say."

"Let's change the topic. Did you go to bed just now? What did Wang Xin say to you alone?"

Qin Yuan could feel that He Chenguang seemed to be deliberately testing him, hoping to hear some useful information from his mouth.

"Nothing, just chatting with him about the next plan."

"Next plan? What's your plan? Haven't we already completed the mission and are waiting for the plane to go back?"

Qin Yuan paused and said.

"Um... don't forget that we are in a foreign country. Even if we have completed our mission and are ready to go back, we still have to go through some planning. We can't just walk away just by saying we are going back."

"That's right, we still have to wait here for the plane to come and take us back. In that case, you can just have a good rest and recharge your batteries while waiting for the news of our return."

The more uneasy you are, the uncomfortable I feel. Besides, it has been so long since I came here from the army, and I really haven't provided you with any help at all. I also feel uncomfortable. We are all the best comrades-in-arms. "

"He Chenguang, please don't say that, but you came out to help me, not to give you some impossible problems. As long as we all can go back safely, my mission will be considered complete. "

"Then what are your plans for the next step? I always feel that there may be something that we haven't finished yet."

The other party's purpose was too strong, and Qin Yuan could feel it, so he definitely wanted to remain silent.

"Don't ask so many questions. I just had a casual chat with Wang Xin. He and Du Bingbing are college classmates. I always feel that there may be a little naughtiness between these two people."

Qin Yuan thought that he could arouse the other party's interest by talking about some gossip.

If Qin Yuan usually said these words in the army, He Chenguang would have been particularly excited after hearing it, and then would have pricked up his ears and asked. Today, he said these things, but the other party had no intention of listening at all.

"Oh, the two of them are college classmates, you have already said that before."

"As we were talking just now, I think the two of them may have been boyfriend and girlfriend before, but Du Bingbing has a pretty good eye, and Wang Xin looks like a young and promising person. I think in a sense, He is much better than me."

Qin Yuan tested the other party again.

"Oh, don't tell me these gossips here. I'm not interested at all. What does Du Bingbing's matter have to do with us? His ex-boyfriend or current boyfriend has nothing to do with our task. We are just classifying it. That's all. Don't ask so much about other things."

"Why are you so cold? It was just a joke."

"Qin Yuan, what should I say so that you can understand?"

You are completely unaware of the seriousness of the matter. Mr. Norman Karim has started to send a convoy to surround our place. It is not so easy for us to leave. This guy is really easy to jump over the wall. Don't you think so? Are you in a hurry? "

"He Chenguang, I think you haven't had a good rest during this period, and you may be a little nervous. What's the use of worrying?"

Everything must be done step by step. Sometimes things go wrong while busy. We have also experienced it. I don't want to do anything impulsively and implicate the entire embassy. Can you understand?

They had been working peacefully here, and they could all be transferred back in a few years.

But if there are any mistakes in our mission this time, it will be equivalent to hindering their ability to return to the country and causing trouble to others. I have no way to do it."

"For members of our special forces, completing the mission is more important than anything else. This is a huge deal. Don't always act like a woman when you are not suitable for it."

When Qin Yuan heard his radical thoughts, he had nothing to say based on his true identity, and he did not intend to argue with the other party again.

"It's not enough to talk about it. Let's not quarrel at this time. Let's go in first and talk about it later. I have a plan that requires Chen Jixiang to cooperate with me."

"Do you just need Chen Jixiang? What about me?"

"I see that your condition is not very good. You should just stay in the embassy."

This mission of mine needs to be completed quickly. It would be inappropriate to bring too many people with me. You also know that Mr. Norman Karim has led people to surround the outside. The more people I bring, the better the goal. The more obvious it is, isn't this coming to your doorstep? "

When He Chenguang heard Qin Yuan's words, he sneered, thinking that the other party didn't trust him.

"Do you have any doubts about me? We are usually brothers in battle."

"If you have any intention of doubting my attitude towards you, you might as well reflect on what's going on with your recent state. You always do some very inexplicable behaviors that I can't understand."

For our special forces members, obeying orders is more important than anything else. Now I am the leader of our task team, and you should obey my orders. "

"There will be some disobedience to foreign military orders."

He Chenguang muttered quietly.

Qin Yuan has completely heard what he is saying? But I don't want to have any conflicts with him at this time, otherwise it will make people in the embassy laugh.

So, Qin Yuan walked back to the office without caring. An Ran and Chen Jixiang heard the two of them arguing in the room and did not come out.

Qin Yuan opened the door and walked into the office and saw the awkward expressions of these two people. They must have heard everything that happened outside. Chen Jixiang had already heard about it. This guy deliberately changed the subject.

"Brother Qin Yuan, we have been waiting for you here for a long time. How are you doing there? Is there any news about the plane? When can we leave here?"

Qin Yuan looked at Chen Jixiang. The boy had an innocent look in his eyes, walked to him with a smile, and gently patted his shoulder to comfort him.

"I know you are anxious, but you still need to wait patiently. And I have a task that I need you to carry out with me. I don't know if you are willing."

Chen Jixiang, this kid came out just to study with Qin Yuan. When he heard that there was a mission, he was really excited. He didn't consider his own safety at all, let alone the actual situation here.

"Of course I am willing. Do you need to ask? I came here just to learn more from you. I have a mission to learn more. This is an opportunity for me to learn and make meritorious services. How could I not be willing? I am not a fool. "

An Ran shook her head helplessly, smiled and said.

"I think you kid doesn't know how high the sky is and how high it is.

Have you ever thought that it is very dangerous to follow Qin Yuan here to complete the mission? Many people who are timid and afraid of getting into trouble do more harm than good. You actually want to take the initiative to join in. You are so excited when you hear Qin Yuan say, It's like following him to pick up a gold ingot. "

"Sister An Ran, you can't understand my mood.

As a new recruit, I had just joined the army. It didn't take long before I had the opportunity to go on missions with an outstanding member of the special forces like Brother Qin Yuan. I had already gained a lot of knowledge, and it was enough for me to brag about for a year after I returned. Half a year old. "

Qin Yuan knew that this boy was trying to comfort himself and not put him under too much psychological pressure. After all, Qin Yuan was a little nervous about taking a newcomer on a mission.

Chen Jixiang, the more positive and excited this kid is, the less psychological pressure Qin Yuan will feel. He can think about so much at such a young age. This kid will definitely have a bright future in the future.

"Chen Jixiang, since you trust me so much, I will never let you down. As long as you stay with me, I will not put you in any danger. You go with me to perform a mission. Just now I went to talk to Wang Xin This is what was discussed."

"What kind of mission is Brother Qin Yuan? It's so mysterious. The more you talk about it, the more curious I become."

Qin Yuan was just about to say that An Ran gave him a look, indicating whether it would be convenient for He Chenguang to tell him the plan while he was still here.

Qin Yuan felt that it didn't matter at all, because he was completely mentally prepared and could handle it calmly no matter what happened.

Qin Yuan closed his eyes and nodded slightly. An Ran understood what he meant and felt relieved.

"When I brought these two arms experts back, I didn't play a trick with Azhe and the bullet was still in his body. Now that the operation has been completed, I have to find ways to get the bullet back. I can't Leave any evidence to Mr. Noman Ka Li."

Chen Jixiang, this guy responded very quickly.

"That means we have to go back to the hospital. I've never been to this place before, so I'll get to know it in person."

"As long as you are not nervous, and I have cooperated with some special force members of the embassy to formulate a plan, I believe the results will be achieved soon."

"what's the plan?"

"The bullet was temporarily placed in the attending doctor's office, so we tried our best to recruit maintenance personnel to go to his office and retrieve it without anyone noticing."

He Chenguang felt that Qin Yuan's idea was too risky. He didn't think about it so much now, he just thought about it for the sake of his companions.

Although He Chenguang is a person with a special status, he does not want Qin Yuan to be in any danger. He still regards Qin Yuan as his good brother. After all, he has known him for such a long time, how can he bear to see him have any trouble? What about danger?

"Qin Yuan, although the two of us had some unpleasantness outside the door just now, I still have to remind you if you can stop doing such a dangerous thing. You should also know that Mr. Norman Karim sent people to surround the people outside. .

If you think about it, the distance from the embassy to the hospital is already very far. It is not a place you can reach casually. If you continue to think like this, I can only tell you that the chance of success is very small. "

"He Chenguang, I can understand your mood, but I still have to tell you that no matter what, I have to get the bullet back."

"Where's Wang Xin? Isn't he the person in charge here? Just let him send someone to do it. Why do we need to do it ourselves?

You keep saying that he is a young man with potential. I don't think that if he really has such potential, how could he allow you to do such a dangerous thing? He should be the first to stand up and oppose it. "

An Ran slowly persuaded He Chenguang.

"You have known Qin Yuan for such a long time. When have you ever seen someone who can persuade him? Once he decides something, no one can persuade him. We are both the same, let alone him alone. What about outsiders?"

After He Chenguang heard this, he acquiesced.

"It's still dangerous if you two can't go. I'll go with you. One more person counts as one more person to take care of you."

"Didn't I explain it to you just now? The fewer people who go on this mission, the better. Too many people will attract other people's attention.

What's more, we already look like the locals, and there are some subtle differences that can still be seen. It is best not to go there with too many people, but it will attract attention. You and An Ran stay here, I will take Chen Jixiang with me. Just go. "

He Chenguang has cooperated with Qin Yuan for so long, and he knows that once the other party decides on something, he will never give up easily.

"Well, since you have said so, as your team member, I can only obey the command. I will obey your order and An Ran will wait here. I will leave the rest to you two. You still have to be more careful. Don't make us worry."

Chen Jixiang said nothing more and looked at Qin Yuan.

"What should we do if we want to dress up like workers?"

"The first thing is to find the work services of some workers. I have left this matter to Wang Xin and discussed a plan with them. Then the two of us will go to the hospital pretending to be workers repairing air conditioners.

We went to the doctor's office to get the things, then got in a specially prepared car and returned here quickly without anyone noticing.

Even if Mr. Norman Karim knows about it, it will only happen after we complete the mission, and there is nothing he can do. "

"That's great, Brother Qin Yuan, your plan is so perfect. I really admire you more and more."

"Don't say it too early. It won't be too late to flatter you after the mission is successful."

Chapter 2298 Reestablishing contact with the other party and stabilizing the mentality

An Ran heard that Qin Yuan and Chen Jixiang had already started planning the next action. He knew that no matter what he said, he could not stop these two people, so he could only choose to support them.

He Chenguang looked at An Ran and said.

"The person you care about most is Qin Yuan. Are you going to allow him to do such a dangerous thing now?"

An Ran said with a wry smile.

"I don't want our companions to do anything dangerous, but you have seen the current situation.

It's not that I say that stopping will be useful. What kind of character Qin Yuan has, maybe you know better than me. Instead of singing against him, it's better to wait in the embassy with peace of mind."

So, He Chenguang didn't say anything more.

"Wang Xin will help you prepare clothes for the workers, but what about the vehicles?"

Qin Yuan hesitated and said.

"The vehicle is the most important thing. So far, Mr. Norman Karim has controlled the surroundings. If we can't find a safe vehicle to leave here, we will be stopped by them as soon as we go out."

"Since you want to pretend to be a worker repairing air conditioners, you must find a car driven by a repairman."

"Wang Xin is a very prepared person. Just leave such a small matter to him. Chen Jixiang and I should study the plan for a while."

As Chen Jixiang went out to perform a mission with Qin Yuan for the first time, he was nervous and excited. He did not consider that Qin Yuan would choose to take a newcomer like him to perform a mission. It was really a bit unbelievable.

"What do I need to do?"

"You don't have to do anything, just listen to my arrangements. You must be smart when you get there."

An Ran thought of a very important thing at this time.

"Qin Yuan, I won't tell you much about the rest. I just think if you want to go to the hospital now, do you need to say hello to Sofia in advance?"

So that they know your next plan, and they can prepare themselves mentally before you arrive at the hospital, or inform you of some important news."

"Yeah, An Ran, you are right, I also think so. In this case, I will contact Sofia first."

Unexpectedly, Qin Yuan just took out his mobile phone and found that his mobile phone was out of power and turned off.

"Oh my God, how could this happen?"

"What happened?"

"Just now, I was busy making plans with you and didn't notice that my mobile phone was turned off."

He Chenguang realized the seriousness of the matter and said it quickly.

"Sophia has been contacting you through her phone. Now your phone is turned off. Maybe she will think that you have left them alone after reaching a safe place. She must be very anxious now."

Qin Yuan, you should charge your phone quickly and contact them. Otherwise, if these guys think that you have abandoned them and gone to a safe place alone, they may do something desperate."

"Yeah, what you said makes sense. I think so too. In this case, go and charge your phone first."

Chen Jixiang watched Qin Yuan busying around, but he could not help at all, and he was also anxious.

An Ran walked up to comfort Chen Jixiang.

"I know you really want to help Qin Yuan, but you can't be so anxious about many things. He has his own arrangements and will come to you when he needs you."

"Sister An Ran, sometimes I wonder if it's a wrong decision for you to bring me, a newcomer, out?"

"Why do you think so? It's not us who asked you to come here, it's Thor who arranged it. You came here with us. Do you have to question Thor's ideas? You should believe in his vision and your own abilities."

"When I was arranged to come here with you, I had some doubts. I'm not a particularly careful person. Maybe you should have brought Li Zheng with you instead of me."

"The person recommended by Instructor Gong Jian is you. After you and the consultations with a few of them, the final result is that this task falls on your head. Don't back off temporarily, which will disappoint everyone even more."

"Okay, then I know."

Qin Yuan hurriedly found a place to charge his mobile phone. As soon as he turned on the phone, he found that there were many messages in it from Sophia.

Qin Yuan didn't have time to open the messages and check them one by one, so he decided to call the other party first to communicate more directly.

At the hospital, they left messages to Qin Yuan but got no results, and they couldn't get through by phone. They were really panicked. When Huang Mao was complaining, his phone rang suddenly.

"Yes... it's him who called..."

Huang Mao's excited heart and trembling hands were simply unable to control themselves. When he saw Qin Yuan calling them, he knew that this matter could be resolved.

"What's wrong?"

"Qin Yuan called. It seems that his phone was turned off just now because of some force majeure, not because he wanted to abandon us."

"Why are you still talking so much? Answer the phone quickly, otherwise Qin Yuan will hang up the phone in a while."

Sophia took out her phone and said calmly.

"Hello, Qin Yuan."

"I'm really sorry, Sophia, I accidentally turned off my phone just now, and made you all anxious with me."

I have to explain that I do not want to abandon you, nor do I want to ignore you just because I have reached a safe place. I am not this kind of person, and I hope you can believe me. "

"To be honest, I do have some doubts about you, but there is one person who has never doubted you and still chooses to believe in your decision. Therefore, we did not act rashly here. Even if we knew that the danger was approaching, we did not take any measures. "Excessive behavior."

"I understand that Jason's trust in me is unquestionable. I have thought of a good way. I will come to the hospital to find you in a moment."

Everyone really thought of all possible scenarios, but they didn't expect that Qin Yuan would come to find them in person. When Jason heard this, he quickly stopped him.

"Qin Yuan, I know that you couldn't get through on your phone just now, it was just a misunderstanding."

There is no need for you to come here in person in order to prove that you are true to your word. The vehicles outside are already surrounded by vehicles sent by Mr. Norman Karim. If you come here now, aren't you taking the initiative to hit the muzzle of a gun?

There is absolutely no need for you to prove these things, I believe you."

To take a step back, even if you really only care about your own safety, it is understandable. After all, you have to consider the overall interests, not yourself. "

"Jason, please listen to me first. I came back to the hospital not only for you, but I have an important unresolved matter, which is the bullet left behind by Azhe after his operation. I have to get it back." "

"Hasn't this matter been left to us?

Don't worry, we are thinking of a way. The little nurse just came over and told us that the bullet was in the attending doctor's office. While the director was away, we planned to wait a few days and sneak into his office when it was darker.

It is not difficult for us to open a safe. You don't have to come in person. You can just wait in the embassy. "

Huang Mao heard what Qin Yuan said, and he immediately had a strong admiration for Qin Yuan.

"No wonder Jason is willing to risk his life for you. It seems that you are really a person worthy of our trust. Being with you gives us an inexplicable sense of security.

You will always step forward to protect us at critical moments, even for an inconspicuous guy like me. "

"Huang Mao, how can you say that? No matter what happens, I never think you are an inconspicuous guy. Everyone is equal to me and everyone is the same."

"I was really a little suspicious just now. You left us here and waited for Mr. Norman Karim to come and take care of us. I thought that we were too narrow-minded.

I have decided now that I can leave everything behind here, even my car dealership, to go back and develop with you. "

"The decision has been made so soon. You can think about it carefully and don't regret it. It will be a bit difficult for you to come back when the time comes."

"Of course I have already thought about it. If I stay here, I will be a burden and may cause trouble to Sophia and Azhe.

However, if I go with you, you will have to take care of me in the future, and I will become a burden to you. It is you who should consider whether you want to take me back with you. Will the army agree? ? "

"I won't let you go back to join the army. You don't need to go through arrangements with the army. I also have friends in my hometown. When the time comes, I will arrange for you to go to my friend's place and you can help me be an informant when the time comes.

Of course, assuming you really don't want to live such an adventurous life anymore, I can also help you arrange some small businesses. If you want to buy and sell, it's the same as here, and you can continue to drive. "

"Can I continue driving? But I don't have much capital. All my investments are here. After following you to your place, I became completely naked."

"I can't promise you much about other things, but I can promise you about driving. I can invest with you."

"Really? You can invest in me?"

"Of course it's true. There's no need for me to lie to you over such a trivial matter. I've already made everything clear to you.

I am calling you now just to tell you that I will drive to the hospital in a while. I hope you can keep in touch with me at any time. If anything happens at the hospital, you must tell me in time. I have to go back in person. Just one trip. "

"Well, since you have already decided, we will no longer advise you.

What we can do for you now is to help you check the surrounding situation. Mr. Norman Karim may not have special arrangements for the hospital, and perhaps he did not expect that you would have reached a safe place and return to the hospital again. It was completely unexpected and stuff like that. "

"This is the kind of effect I want. It needs to be unexpected to have a miraculous effect."

Sophia nodded. He also confirmed that Qin Yuan was a very reliable person, so he could rest assured.

While they were talking, they suddenly noticed something going on at the hospital.

"It turns out to be Shen Man."

"The little nurse who helped us just now is back. There is a saying that you can't be early without profit. I think it is more appropriate to give this diamond bracelet to him, otherwise he is likely to regret it at any time, and maybe he will come over later. I'll give him the diamond bracelet."

Qin Yuan knew very well that Shen Man was arranged by the embassy, and he was unlikely to accept the diamond bracelet. However, if he did not accept it, the other party would have many doubts, which would be detrimental to their continued cooperation.

"In fact, it is not particularly important to give him this diamond bracelet or not. Perhaps he is not a person who is short of money. Otherwise, forget it. You have given it to him many times, but he did not accept it. This can just explain the problem."

"Qin Yuan, I hope you can understand that for me now, diamond bracelets and money are all external things. As long as they can get us out of danger, it will be fine.

Azhe is lying on the hospital bed and has no ability to take care of himself. At this critical moment, I cannot allow him to be in any danger.

If Mr. Norman Karim chooses to deal with us at this time, the consequences will be disastrous. I hope that you can quickly get the bullet back and leave here quickly, so that everything has nothing to do with Azhe."

"Sophia, I know you are very worried about Azhe, but I ask you to believe me. I will not let Azhe be in danger, let alone let Mr. Norman Karim hurt you. This matter is my I promised.

I will never go back on my promises, and after getting this bullet back from the hospital, our arrangements are almost complete, so I will go back. "

"Are you going back so soon? You have already completed your mission, so there is no need to stay here. There should be a lot of benefits after you go back."

"Everything I do now is for our country, and there is no personal benefit. I will do it."

"I can understand your noble behavior. Well, in this case, I won't say anything. You should get ready quickly. I will help you keep an eye on it at any time.

Mr. Norman Karim's people are not near the hospital. If you want to drive here, it is best to take the side road. I think you are very familiar with the routes in our city, so I don't need to tell you which side road to take."

"That's completely unnecessary. I am indeed very familiar with your place."

Chapter 2299: Putting on maintenance worker's clothes, no sense of disobedience

Qin Yuan thought that she was very familiar with the city. After all, he was a person with the system. He was more familiar with the roads in the city than the map.

"You don't have to worry about the route. I know how to go. But I still have to thank Sophia for reminding me to take the path near the hospital, but..."

Qin Yuan hesitated a little when he said this. What he wanted to say was that if he could know which roads Mr. Norman Karim arranged the people on, he could avoid them perfectly.

He didn't believe that Mr. Norman Karim would surround all the roads in the city, and there would be more or less loopholes for him to drill.

It's just that he can't be sure how to find the other party's vehicle. Maybe Sophia can know what kind of vehicles Mr. Norman Karim arranged, so he can find the system to search and avoid risks.

Yes, this is a very thoughtful plan, and you can try to implement it, which will make them safer.

"Sophia, I want to ask you, where will Mr. Norman Karim place vehicles to intercept me?"

"Qin Yuan, what are you kidding?"

How can I know? I don't have the ability to predict the future, not to mention that I don't have a third eye. How can I know how many people he has placed on the entire road, unless I drive out for a walk and try it out."

After hearing this, Huang Mao hurriedly stopped him.

"No, Sophia, if you drive out now, it will be too conspicuous. Mr. Norman Karim has some doubts about you. If you drive out at this juncture, he will know immediately.

Once he arrives at the hospital, all the situations may become very complicated. I will never allow you to drive out and take risks like this. If it really doesn't work.

You can tell me what kind of vehicles are arranged by Mr. Norman Karim, and I will drive out to help you check it out."

Huang Mao always comes up with some solutions at critical moments, which makes Sophia very relieved.

"You clearly know that this matter is very risky, but you are willing to do it for me. I am really touched.

But you are not in the group, and you don't know Mr. Norman Karim.

He will arrange people in unexpected places. According to his rigorous work, he will not allow himself to have any loopholes and mistakes to provide Qin Yuan with opportunities again."

After listening for a long time, Jason said slowly.

"If this is the case, then I have nothing to say. The key lies in what we should do next.

Many things have exceeded our expectations. If this continues, it will only waste all the good time."

A Kun and A Ming have been with Jason for a long time, and they certainly understand what Jason is thinking.

"Boss, it seems that you want to do this. If you need, the two of us can go with you."

"You two definitely can't go. Now we don't know which vehicles are arranged by Mr. Norman Karim, which means that we may all become Mr. Norman Karim's targets next.

Especially in this situation, the enemy is in the dark and we are in the light, so we have to be more cautious.

Why not let me drive around to find it? After all, I am also someone around Mr. Norman Karim. Maybe he doesn't have too much defense against me.

It's understandable to drive around and help you check the situation. Theoretically, he won't blame me."

Qin Yuan knew that doing so was really too risky. If he insisted on agreeing with Jason's idea, he would push the danger to others.

At this moment, Qin Yuan suddenly thought of a good idea.

In theory, all vehicles purchased by a group will be registered at the vehicle management office, which means that most of their license plate numbers should be found at the vehicle management office.

If he wants to hack his system into the vehicle management office's filing system, he can get the relevant information of these vehicles.

In this way, if he wants to know which vehicles belong to Mr. Norman Karim, he can avoid it perfectly. This is really a good idea. Qin Yuan was very relieved when he thought of this.

"Sophia, all the vehicles of your group should be under the name of an individual. Who purchased them at the beginning? It shouldn't be Mr. Norman Karim who bought them personally. These vehicles can't be under the name of one person."

"Qin Yuan, you are really a smart person. I understand what you mean. You can try to find out that some of the vehicles are under my name, some are under Azhe's name, and some are in the hands of people in our group.

If you can easily check the filing of the vehicle management office, maybe you can know which license plate numbers are in our group, and you can avoid risks perfectly. You are really too smart. I don't know how to praise you."

Qin Yuan thought to himself that this was not his own idea, but he just considered this, there was no way.

"If that's the case, then it's easy to explain. I can try to check. Generally, vehicles like yours will not be registered with the group but will be registered as private vehicles.

In this case, I can only check how many cars each of you has under your name. At any rate, I can avoid it, which is much better than being in a very passive state without any information. "

Sofia was also pleased and nodded.

"But won't our time be very tight now? It's probably a very time-consuming task for you to check the license plate number or whose names it is under. I'm afraid I won't be able to make it in time."

"You don't have to worry about so much Sophia. You just need to tell me who may have a vehicle registration. Leave the rest of the inquiries to me. Don't forget where I am now. The staff here will Cooperate with me to complete this work."

"Well, anyway, I have always thought that you are a person who is like a god with help. You can give us something unexpected every time. I believe in your arrangements. Go check it out. We will try our best to help here. You delay, it is best that you can get the result before dawn."

"Before dawn? You really underestimated me for two or three hours. I will definitely be able to solve this matter."

When Sophia heard Qin Yuan's words, he felt it was really incredible. For two or three hours, how could it be possible that he was just bragging?

"Stop joking with me here, how could Qin Yuan do it in two or three hours? This is almost impossible."

"It's impossible for ordinary people, but for me everything is possible."

"I just like your arrogance."

"Okay, since that's the case, I won't tell you anymore. I'm calling you just to reassure you that you can leave everything to me and give you peace of mind.

Don't let you think that I left you here on purpose and ran away alone. In a cooperative relationship like ours, the biggest fear is mutual distrust. "

"Qin Yuan, even though I have been a little disappointed and suspicious of you, but Jason has always chosen to believe you without him. No matter what others say, there is no way to shake his mind."

"Jason is indeed the one who touches me the most, we have only known each other for a short time.

Perhaps it can be said that I am the reason why he is in such an embarrassing situation now, but she has never complained. On the contrary, she has never looked back and has always helped me. There is no need to say this between good brothers. "

"That's right, Qin Yuan and we are good brothers, so don't say these polite words to me. Go quickly, we don't have much time."

"Okay, let's keep in touch with Mr. Norman Karim at any time. If there is any change, remind me immediately."

After saying that, he hung up the phone. Qin Yuan thought that he should be able to query all this information in two or three hours, not at most one hour according to the efficiency of the system.

Moreover, the DMV is not a high-level secret place, and it is not particularly difficult to hack into their system. This is much stronger than the national security system.

An Ran and Chen Jixiang were listening when Qin Yuan called them just now. When they heard Qin Yuan's promise to them, these people felt a little incredible. After watching Qin Yuan hang up the phone, An Ran reminded him .

"You were silent when you spoke just now. You didn't want them to think that this matter was impossible, which caused some negative emotions. Now I have to remind you.

The idea you just put forward is indeed a very good one, but it is really difficult to query all the vehicles owned by their group in a short time to avoid risks.

How can you guarantee that we have such powerful hackers or such advanced technology that we can query it?

Qin Yuan and the others have placed all their hopes on you. Once you fail to complete the task within the specified time, you will have no choice but to risk leaving the embassy. It is very likely that you will meet Mr. Norman Karim on the road. car. "

"An Ran, there is no need for you to be so anxious. I know you are doing it for my own good, but I ask you to believe that since I have agreed to this matter, I will definitely be able to do it.

Otherwise, I wouldn't have taken the risk to agree to their request. I knew this was a very dangerous task, so I had no choice but to do it. "

Chen Jixiang was also made a little restless. He quickly stood up and was about to find Wang Xin.

"What are you going to do, you brat?"

"Do you still have to ask? Of course I'm looking for Wang Xin."

"Why are you looking for him?"

"Brother Qin Yuan, you have already made a promise to others. Of course I have to find a way to ask them if there are any powerful hackers here who can invade their vehicle management system in a short time. If this cannot be done, It's going to be a huge loss."

"You brat has a lot on your mind. I didn't say you had to ask him for help on this matter."

"Ah? If you don't ask him for help, who else can you ask for help?"

"Wang Xin is very busy now. He is helping to arrange the car to go out in a while. Don't trouble him with such a small matter. I can solve it myself. You just stay here and stay here. I have a way."

Everyone saw Qin Yuan and said this emphatically. They didn't quite understand what kind of solution Qin Yuan could have to solve this kind of thing. He was not a computer expert either.

He Chenguang didn't feel too surprised, and he didn't know what Qin Yuan would do, but after knowing him for such a long time, he could always give people some unexpected results at critical moments.

"You two, calm down first. Since Qin Yuan has agreed to this matter, I believe he can do it."

At this moment, someone suddenly knocked on the door. When he opened the door, he saw Wang Xin.

He personally brought two dirty and old work clothes.

Chen Jixiang asked, pinching his nose.

"I asked you to help us find two work clothes. Do you have to look for this kind of clothes? It smells like sweat, and it feels so dirty and smelly. Do you really want to wear clothes like this?"

"If you two don't want your secrets to be exposed, you have to wear this kind of clothes. How can a maintenance worker wear new clothes? This will make it less likely to be noticed. After all, you need to do a complete set for a show."

"Forehead....."

Qin Yuan took the clothes from the other party's hand without hesitation.

"It's okay. These clothes can be worn normally. I don't dislike it that much. You're right. If you wear new clothes, it will arouse others' suspicion. This brat is usually a bit mysophobic. He is used to being clean. You don't need to be familiar with him. , your idea is right."

Hearing what Qin Yuan said, Chen Jixiang felt uncomfortable. Even if he retorted, he reached out to take the clothes, endured the unpleasant smell, and printed it on his body.

He Chenguang watched the two of them put on their clothes and looked around, and said half-jokingly.

"These clothes look quite similar, but there's something wrong with you two."

"What's wrong with us two? What's the problem?"

"These clothes already look very much like those worn by maintenance workers, but your faces are too clean. You should also remove some oil stains and dust. Apply it on your face and make your hands a little dirty. This will make you look like a dedicated worker." Maintenance worker."

"Yes, what you said makes sense, but let's do this before we set off. It's better to keep it clean now. Wang Xin, has the vehicle been resolved?"

"Of course, these things are all matching, and the vehicles your maintenance workers drive will also help you solve the problem. They are also a little dirty and smelly inside, so you have to put up with it."

Chapter 2300 The system helps to check the vehicles under the group

It was the first time for Chen Jixiang to perform such a task. Even though he was wearing some dirty workers' clothes, he still felt very happy.

"Brother Qin Yuan, I have already changed my clothes. When should we set off?

Oops, I can't wait. I'm almost ready. I'm just waiting for your order. I'll go with you now.

By the way, are we the only two of us going out this time? If it's just the two of us, I can help you drive and show you how my driving skills are. "

He Chenguang looked at Chen Jixiang. The boy was so excited, and he shook his head helplessly.

"I said you should calm down first. I can understand your excitement about playing an important role with Qin Yuan for the first time, but I must remind you that many things are not as simple as you think.

This mission is very dangerous. It is very likely that you will encounter Mr. Norman Karim's people outside. If this happens, your danger will be doubled. Are the weapons in your hands ready? Never go out empty-handed. "

After He Chenguang's reminder, Chen Jixiang finally remembered that he really needed to bring some weapons with him.

"Oh, thank you for reminding me, otherwise I would have forgotten. The pistol in my hand has been given to Brother Qin Yuan, and I have nothing extra."

When Qin Yuan was in a very difficult situation, Wang Xin took out two pistols from his bag and handed them to Qin Yuan.

Liu Mei was very nervous after seeing it from the side and quickly persuaded her.

"Wang Xin, what do you mean?

You actually gave them two pistols. These pistols are all numbered. If Mr. Norman Karim gets it, we can't tell. It is very likely that they will be criticized by their superiors. Why don't you think about it yourself? Just for a moment. "

"Liu Mei, don't be so nervous. Since I took out the pistol today, I am mentally prepared. No matter what, I will help Qin Yuan and the others."

"No, I don't agree."

Chen Jixiang looked at Liu Mei in surprise.

"Wait a minute, don't refuse in a hurry. You are not the person talking here. What qualifications do you have to disagree? Even if you disagree, it seems that there is no way to affect the overall direction of the matter."

"You brat doesn't know anything about our system here, but any major decision-making must be decided after a meeting between us. This means that each of us has the right to vote and veto."

"So that's it. No wonder you've been coaxing all day long. You still have some rights in your hands. It doesn't matter. Even if you don't use a gun, you can use something else like a machete or a baton. I'm used to using them."

"You think it's quite simple. Now Mr. Norman Karim's men all have pistols. Can you still take advantage of these cold weapons?"

"There is no other way. If you don't agree with us taking the pistol here, we naturally have to think of other ways. We can't go empty-handed."

An Ran, who was nearby, also knew that this decision was somewhat embarrassing for everyone.

He stepped forward and returned the two pistols in Wang Xin's hand to him.

"You should take this back first. I know the system here. Any use of weapons must be decided through a meeting. In order to prevent accidents from happening and not to embarrass you, I will give Qin Yuan the pistol. Okay, let him use mine."

Wang Xin also felt a little embarrassed, but since he had already brought this thing, he had no intention of taking it back.

"Qin Yuan, just take it. Don't worry too much. I will take care of anything myself. The situation outside is so tense now. You have completely offended Norman Karim. This guy is going to catch you. It won't end well for you."

After Wang Xin finished speaking, everyone fell silent.

"I know that what I just said was a bit unpleasant and has put a lot of pressure on you. I just want to remind you to be careful and don't refuse my kindness. Even if Liu Mei doesn't agree, she won't. No way, after all I am the consul here."

Seeing that Wang Xin had given so much, Liu Mei had nothing to say and shook her head helplessly.

"Wang Xin, I'm really convinced by you. Why are you so stubborn? No matter how you say it, you are so indifferent."

"Liu Mei, we have worked together here for so many years, you should know my temper very well. In fact, from the first time I saw Qin Yuan, I admired him very much.

You always think that my unconditional help to Qin Yuan is for Du Bingbing. In fact, this is not the case. There is a saying that a scholar will die for his confidant. Maybe I think you can understand. "

When Liu Mei heard this, he fell silent.

"Forget it, whatever you want to arrange is up to you. I can't report you to my superiors. I hope Qin Yuan lives up to his expectations and won't waste our good intentions towards him."

Seeing that Liu Mei had relaxed, Qin Yuan said with a smile.

"Don't worry. Based on my personal strength, even if I am caught by Mr. Norman Karim, I will not leave him any excuses."

"I hope you keep your word."

Qin Yuan picked up the pistol An Ran gave him and gave it back to An Ran.

"I know this gun has been with you for many years. Although you are in the embassy and don't plan to go out, there are some fakes in your hand, so it is safer."

"So far, your safety is more important to me than anything else. I can make some sacrifices, but I don't want to see you in danger. As long as it allows you to complete the mission smoothly, I am willing to exchange my life for it."

"I don't allow you to say such things!"

Chen Jixiang has changed his clothes and is waiting to set off.

"When are we leaving? Since the problem with the pistol has been solved, can we set off now? If we don't leave in a short time, I will change my clothes first. To be honest, the smell of wearing this clothes all the time is really a bit unacceptable."

"You change your clothes first. I have to go out for a while. I have something to deal with."

Qin Yuan said that he wanted to leave here for a while to solve some personal problems when everyone was caught off guard. Everyone present was a little suspicious.

Especially Chen Jixiang, he thought Qin Yuan wanted to leave secretly and not take him out to perform the mission.

"It's already this late, where are you going, Brother Qin Yuan? You don't think I'm too stupid and want to leave me here alone to do the mission without me, do you?"

"What on earth are you talking about? How could I think that? That's not what I meant. You totally misunderstood. I'm really going out to deal with some personal issues. It will take about half an hour. You wait in the room now and don't be too anxious."

Wang Xin was also a little confused at this time.

"Qin Yuan, what personal mission are you going out to solve? Are you going to hide it from us? Don't go out and do something stupid?"

"Wang Xin, don't worry. How could I go out and do something stupid? I know that I can't tell any of you about my secret mission. You are also very curious. Please give me some time. Half an hour is enough."

When everyone was confused, He Chenguang stood up to help Qin Yuan speak.

"You all don't have to make such a fuss. When Qin Yuan and I went out on missions before, he would disappear for a while. I don't know what he was doing, but he has this habit."

"Why are you being so mysterious? Is there anything we can't know?"

"Oh, Wang Xin, everyone has their own habits and their own privacy. Don't make it difficult for me. Just wait here honestly."

After Qin Yuan finished speaking, he was ready to leave everyone here alone. He wanted to communicate with the system and let the system help him check all the vehicles under the name of Mr. Norman Karim's group.

After Qin Yuan walked a few steps, he suddenly realized that something was wrong and looked back at these people.

"I know you all may be a little curious about my going out this time, but I still have to tell you, don't follow me secretly, otherwise I will really be angry."

Wang Xin smiled and said.

"I won't follow you secretly, you can rest assured about that. How can a real man be sneaky?"

"I suspect you are implying something to me."

"Haha, don't worry, we will wait for you here, come back soon."

Qin Yuan nodded and went out. After Qin Yuan went out, these people were very curious, after all, everyone has curiosity.

"What on earth did this guy do? Does he have any hidden illness?"

"Hidden illness?"

"That shouldn't be the case. I think he is still quite healthy."

Wang Xin listened to everyone's discussion for a long time and said righteously.

"Forget it, we should respect Qin Yuan. He is right. Everyone has their own privacy. Even if we are curious, we have to respect Qin Yuan. Don't think too much.

Anyway, I believe he is a very reliable person and will never let us down."

Qin Yuan left the room and came to a hidden place, which was the backyard where he was just now. Here he can observe the situation in all directions and can see at any time whether anyone is following him.

It was a natural and good place, quiet enough to be able to see the surroundings at any time.

Qin Yuan couldn't wait to call out the system.

"System system, come out quickly, I have something important to tell you."

"Ding Dong, does the host have any instructions?"

"System, I need you to help me check all the vehicle information under the name of Mr. Norman Karim's group, including the license plate number. I need to get these in the shortest time."

"Ding Dong, remind the host that it will take a lot of time to query this information. Is the host willing to accept it?"

"How long will it take? My time is very precious and I can't delay it any longer."

"Ding Dong, it will take about an hour to query the information."

"One hour? One hour seems a bit too long. Can it be accelerated?"

"Ding Dong, I can remind the host, but it will consume a certain amount of merit points. Is the host willing to exchange the merit points for the system acceleration card?"

"Of course, I still have about 100,000 merit points now. If you can exchange them, please help me exchange them all. What I need is time."

"Ding Dong, are you sure you want to use 100,000 merit points to get the acceleration card? The information query time after obtaining the acceleration card is about 20 minutes."

"Great, help me exchange them all."

"Ding dong, the system reminds the host that if all the merit points are exchanged for the accelerator card, the merit points will return to zero, which may affect the host's subsequent arrangements."

After listening to the prompts from the one-click recovery system, Qin Yuan thought that the most important thing at the moment was to handle this task. If it didn't work, he could wait until he went back and slowly accumulate merit points. Anyway, after completing this task, he only needed to just wait quietly for the plane back.

After thinking for a long time, Qin Yuan gave a definite answer.

"System, I agree to exchange merit points."

"Ding dong, the host has used all the merits in exchange for the accelerator card. This will help the host query the information. After the query is completed, all the information will be sent to the host's mobile phone."

"That's great, you should do it now. I need to get this information quickly to really help me."

Qin Yuan has already achieved an unexpected result. He just needs to delay for a while. After receiving all the vehicle information, he can perfectly avoid Mr. Norman Karim's vehicle.

When the time comes, combined with the entire map system, Qin Yuan will be able to know which road these vehicles are hidden on, and he can perfectly avoid Norman Karim by driving. Qin Yuan's plug-in system.

"Perhaps this is called a cheating life and no need to explain!"

Qin Yuan was very proud at this moment. He knew that with a little effort, he could match the long preparation of Mr. Norman Karim. If this guy knew that he had a plug-in system, he would not be so angry.

After arranging everything, Qin Yuan was ready to return to the office and asked them to wait for about 20 minutes.

At this moment, Qin Yuan turned around and saw a person standing not far behind him.

This guy is one of Professor Fang De's students.

"Oh my God, you are so close to me. Could it be that he has heard all the conversations I had with the system just now? Oops, if this guy finds out that I have a plug-in system on my body, how can he repay it?"

Qin Yuan walked towards the other party fearfully, not knowing why he appeared here. Qin Yuan thought that he had been cautious enough when communicating with the system, but he did not expect that there would be a risk of exposure. (End of chapter)
