

Special Soldier 261

Chapter 261: Ducha

Of course not, the things on the bright side are over, but in the dark, things are still spreading!

A bright light flashed through Qin Yuan'er's eyes, and then disappeared directly into the darkness.

That night, in a villa in Mianguo, the official of Mianguo met during the day was in a basement, smashing the porcelain in front of him to pieces!

At this moment, a large fragment was placed in front of him, and it was obvious that this person had been angry for a long time.

"Tmd! tmd! I've spent all these years of investment in vain, and a cash cow is gone."

The Burmese official yelled at him and then smashed a plate severely.

This person is another informant of Nuoka, code-named boss, and is Nuoka's umbrella.

He is Song Ge's boss. This time it was he who sent Song Ge over. He originally wanted to kill Nuoka, and then take all the money in Nuoka's hands as his own, but who knows that it is to let those Yan The Chinese cut Hu directly, and now Song Ge and his subordinates are all involved in this incident, and Nuoka's line is also directly broken, which is a big loss.

"People of Yan Country!"

The boss gritted his teeth and said that he must now continue to support a new Poison King during this time and continue to provide him with money.

And the boss has made up his mind. Although he can't do anything to Yan Guo in the open, he can secretly increase the amount of ice in Yan Guo. At that time, someone will inevitably take risks for the money, the anti-drug police, There will inevitably be a lot of trouble, and the misfire is probably expected!

Thinking of this, the boss suddenly showed a crazy smile on his face!

But at this moment, the boss heard a voice suddenly, and he became alert. He picked up the pistol from one side and walked slowly outside.

He saw a figure and slowly walked over from a distance. The boss suddenly pressed a switch, and the headlight outside instantly illuminated the incoming person, but the boss was surprised that this person was actually Brother Song!

At this time, Brother Song was full of mess and looked very miserable. The boss immediately felt happy when he saw Brother Song. He quickly let Song Brother in and said to Brother Song:

"What's the matter with you? Why is there no news at all this afternoon? Why was Nuoka taken away by those Yan people?"

But the boss hadn't finished speaking, but he saw Brother Song walking towards him as if he had lost his soul. The boss immediately noticed something wrong, and said to Brother Song:

"What's wrong with you? What are you saying?"

But at this moment, Brother Song actually jumped directly at the boss, his whole figure was like a beast, he opened his mouth and bit the boss directly in the throat!

Suddenly the boss let out a scream, panicked in his heart, and fired the shot directly, hitting Brother Song twice!

However, Brother Song didn't evade, he was shot in his body, and he still didn't react at all. Instead, he opened his coat directly!

When the boss saw what was on Song Ge, he was so frightened that everything under his clothes was bombs.

"Do not!"

The boss let out a desperate scream, he could only watch Brother Song directly unplug the switch of the bomb, and with a bang, the entire villa instantly caused a group of fireworks.

At this time, a few hundred meters away, Qin Yuan watched the farce in the villa with his night vision ability, spat out casually, and turned away.

The identity of the boss prevented Qin Yuan from easily attacking him, but Brother Song could do it. In this situation, even if someone else checks it out, this boss and Brother Song will die together!

Qin Yuan didn't expect this hypnotism that had reached the cosmic level to be so effective. It only took him a short time to completely destroy Song Ge's humanity and turn Song He into a beast.

Then he put some bombs on Song Ge, and gave instructions to Song Ge, as long as Song Ge saw the boss directly unplug the bomb.

That's why there is a scene like today.

The serpent must be killed, or else he must be victimized!

But this matter was not over yet, Qin Yuan sneered and left directly in a motorcycle.

While in a prison, Kun Sha lit a cigar in trouble. He didn't expect Nuoka to die so easily. It seemed that he had to find a new home.

Kun Sha is very satisfied with his current life. Although he lives in prison and sounds like just a spouse, his rights are not small, and others will not care about him very much!

What's more, he was the Poison King 10 years ago, everyone will respect him, but now Nuoka is dead, I am afraid he will have to be silent for a while, and he can only rely on the new Poison King when he is on top. past.

After all, who can refuse such an experienced connector?

The prison guards outside are still respectful to Kun Sha, because they don't value Kun Sha's status, but the banknotes in Kun Sha's hands. Although the Nuoja is gone, Kun Sha still has a lot of banknotes in his hands.

But at this moment, Kun Sha suddenly heard a voice coming from outside, and Kun Sha's heart was shocked. He stood up and said to the prison guard outside:

"what happened?"

"Oh, Mr. Kunsha, it's okay, it's just a crack in the outer wall of the prison. We are calling for workers to repair it."

Hearing the prison guard's answer, Kun Sha was relieved, but at this moment, he suddenly saw an infrared laser, a stimulus, and quickly wanted to hide, but his fat body is hindering his vitality!

Puff~

A soft sound A bullet directly opened Kun Sha's brain!

The prison guard saw this situation, but he was not surprised at all. Instead, he opened the stove in Kun Sha's room, broke a few bottles of wine, and poured it directly on Kun Sha's body. There was a hint of heartfelt anger and relief.

Seeing the flame in the stove ignite the liquor directly, this guard shouted loudly:

"Fire! Fire! Mr. Kunsha burned to death!"

At this time, one kilometer away, Qin Yuan slowly put away the sniper rifle in his hand, with a smile on his mouth.

It seems that Garuda is still somewhat capable, at least he bought these prison guards.

Thinking of this, Qin Yuan directly took the gun and left.

And now, there is one last goal.

That is the fifth force in the Silver Triangle, Ducha!

Chapter 262: Put your hands up

At this moment, Qin Yuan frowned slightly while looking at the information in his hand, and said to Garuda:

"This is Ducha's information?"

At this time, Jialou Luoman said to Qin Yuan seriously:

"Yes, this is Ducha's information. Ducha spends most of the time in that building, and the inspection of this building is very strict. It is not so easy to kill Ducha. This time I let my people go with you and see if you can bring Ducha out."

At this time, as soon as Garuda finished speaking, Qin Yuan suddenly heard a voice in his mind:

"Ding Dong, the system releases the task. It's a man who goes up to the top floor. The host enters Ducha's building, climbs to the top floor from the first floor and rewards two grids!"

Hearing this voice, Qin Yuan's eyes lit up. He originally thought that killing Du Cha would only be rewarded with a grid, but he didn't expect to release such a task. As a result, the benefits would be huge.

So Qin Yuan interrupted Garuda's words directly and said directly:

"Bring it out? No, it's troubled now. If you can bring him out, I'm afraid he would be dead already."

Qin Yuan shook his head and said, while Jialouluo frowned when he saw his appearance:

"If we don't lead him out, what should we do? Can't we just rush in?"

"Why not?"

Qin Yuan said directly.

"what did you say?"

It seemed that Jialouluo hadn't heard Qin Yuan's words clearly, his face was full of disbelief.

But Qin Yuan smiled and said to Garuda:

"Why not? It doesn't need to be so troublesome at all. We can just rush over and kill him."

"Are you crazy, this is simply impossible. You have to know that the building has ten floors and there are hundreds of people living in it. There are hundreds of people under him alone, and they also With geographical advantages, we cannot use heavy firepower. How can we deal with each other?"

Jialouluo frowned tightly, but Qin Yuan said:

"You can't handle it, it doesn't mean that I can't handle it either. I'll help you solve this matter. You just need to be ready to take over Ducha's chassis."

Qin Yuan's eyes showed a trace of hideousness. This time he was not only for Garuda clearing obstacles, but because he had already suspected that Ducha might have some connection with Minden, this time naturally he had to ask carefully. Ask Du Cha, look for evidence!

At first, he couldn't be cloned because of Nuoka's affairs. Now that Nuoka's affairs have been done, he naturally has to deal with these things properly. Helping Jialouluo is just incidental.

Garuda looked at Qin Yuan like a lunatic:

"You are really crazy, although Du Cha is the lowest among our five poisonous rice, but this is because Du Cha never goes out to cause trouble, and always hides in his one-third of acre.

So the site is the smallest. This doesn't mean Ducha is easy to provoke. He also has many murderous masters. At least I have seen two people, and the strength is not much different from my uncle Hu."

"Then there is no problem. Okay, no need to say anything. I'm in a hurry. If I fail, you will be treated as a partner without me, and you will not be delayed in doing things, right? ?"

Qin Yuan was really in a hurry. After all, he couldn't tell when he would give them an order to retreat. Then there would be no chance to do such a thing.

After saying this, Qin Yuan stood up and walked outside.

Looking at Qin Yuan's back, Jialou Luo's face was ugly, but she also knew that she had no qualifications to ask Qin Yuan.

She could only pray for Qin Yuan to change her mind, because she really couldn't see how this man could deal with hundreds of people alone.

Qin Yuan went straight to the destination at this time, glanced at the building in the distance, a smile appeared on his mouth.

Qin Yuan first changed his clothes, then messed up his hair directly, pretending to be a local, and walked directly toward the building.

There are a lot of people coming in and out of this building, but at the door, there are several people with guns playing cards. These people have a bad face and watch everyone who enters the building vigilantly. Qin Yuan followed a middle-aged man wearing glasses, pretending to be a friend of this man behind him, and followed into the building together.

Qin Yuan recalled his task. The task was from the first floor to the top floor. Although this house had an elevator, it needed to swipe a card. Qin Yuan had bad luck. The man who followed was actually a resident on the first floor. No need to take the elevator.

But Qin Yuan was worried that these people would find out, so he went straight up the stairs.

He has seen the information here before. The apartment in this building is in the shape of "□". It has ten floors. The five floors below are rented out to residents. The sixth and seventh floors are owned by Du Cha.

The eighth floor is the factory, the ninth floor is the warehouse, and the tenth floor is Ducha's own residence.

Moreover, most of the residents in this building are poisonous insects. In addition to dealing with Du Cha's subordinates, Qin Yuan also needs to consider the existence of these residents.

After all, in order to prevent others from attacking his territory, Ducha recruited some poisonous insects and poor people to live here at a low price.

Most of the people here rely on Ducha for their meals. Once something happens, Ducha will naturally help, and at the very least, they will help Ducha to inform him.

So if Qin Yuan didn't want to fight all the way, he could only take advantage of his identity to go up a few more floors and catch Du Cha earlier.

But at this moment, Qin Yuan suddenly heard his mobile phone rang, took it out and took a look, only to find that Garuda sent him a message:

"I can't stop your actions, but I can help you cut off the other party's surveillance."

When Qin Yuan saw the news, he was not overjoyed, but rather helpless. This stupid woman, why didn't he say such a thing earlier, and sent the message now. I guess the other party has noticed someone invaded.

"let's start."

Qin Yuan directly replied, and then threw away his mobile phone!

Sure enough, Qin Yuan had just thrown away the phone when he heard a series of sounds from behind him. He raised his head and glanced at the camera in the corner, realizing that he had attracted the attention of those people.

Since there is no way to hide secrets, Qin Yuan's eyes are cold, so he has to kill him.

At this time, several people rushed upstairs with guns, and saw Qin Yuan staying alone on the stairs, directly yelling in native language:

"Raise your hand!"

When Qin Yuan heard this, there was also a sneer on his face, and then he raised his hand accordingly, but the moment he raised his hand, his eyes flashed directly, and he rushed towards these people!

Chapter 263: little mouse?

Puff!

Following Qin Yuan's movements, the bodies of these people suddenly became stiff, but in the end they could only fall to the ground in all directions.

Qin Yuan looked at these people and sneered. Just now, Qin Yuan flew out a bunch of playing cards directly from his waist. In such a small place, the power of playing cards is even stronger than that of ordinary bullets. There is no sound yet.

At this time, Qin Yuan glanced at the camera and found that the light of the camera had been extinguished. Obviously, the news sent by Qin Yuan just now was useful. Now it is estimated that the monitoring information on all floors has disappeared. good chance!

At this time, Qin Yuan directly turned on his thermal imaging capabilities and radar capabilities. He predicted that two hundred people would come over. Qin Yuan understood that he must hide now. If he shoots, he will attract those people, these people. Will inevitably pursue it!

Although Qin Yuan was not afraid, Qin Yuan's goal was to catch Du Cha, not to fight these little brothers!

Looking at the directions from both sides, Qin Yuan immediately hid in a room behind him, activated the unlocking technique, opened the door directly, and dragged the bodies of these people into the door. With a click, the door was closed.

Qin Yuan used playing cards just now, so it didn't cause a lot of blood stains. What's more, this is an old community, and the lights in various places are relatively dim. If those people don't pay attention to it carefully, they won't notice the strangeness here.

And if they wanted to know which room Qin Yuan had entered, they had to pat the door one by one to find them. With this skill, Qin Yuan had already rushed upstairs.

When Qin Yuan dragged all these corpses into the door, he looked back and found that there was a woman standing among the corpses. When he saw Qin Yuan, he just wanted to scream, but Qin Yuan was directly. The hand knife passed out!

Qin Yuan had already realized that there were people here, so he was not very panicked about the appearance of this woman. He looked inside at this time and found that there were not many people living in this family, but they were all women. All of his body is black, and there are various kinds of sores on his body. Obviously, these people are users of ice surface.

Especially seeing the appearance of these women in disheveled clothes, Qin Yuan quickly understood the value of these women in this room.

At this time, another woman staggered out of the crowd. She saw Qin Yuan and the pile of corpses in front of Qin Yuan, but she didn't have any fear. She smiled slyly, and then nothing. He stretched his thighs scrupulously.

Obviously, this woman's consciousness is not clear anymore. He regarded Qin Yuan as a guest who wanted to patronize. Qin Yuan frowned slightly when he saw this situation. This was the only way to press these women's necks. These women fell asleep!

The women in this place have completely lost the space to be treated. They are either intentionally or forced by guests. Contaminated with ice, and once they live here, it means that they will never be able to get rid of the control of the ice.

Qin Yuan took a breath, and if the baby soldiers in Norka's hands seemed a little shocking, these women would be able to clearly show Bing's destruction of people.

After Qin Yuan cleaned up, he followed the windows outside the building and turned to the third floor, completely avoiding the chase of those people.

With the operation just now, how could he give himself a little extra time, so after Qin Yuan went up to the third floor, he was a little relieved.

But in the room on the third floor, I saw a family of three.

These three are obviously much stronger than the women downstairs, at least one man can rely on, and the hostess is still pregnant.

At this moment, Qin Yuan saw these three mouthfuls and motioned for these people to hide by themselves.

And this family of three was so grateful that they rushed to the bedroom and locked themselves up.

Qin Yuan opened the door and went to the corridor on the third floor!

At this time, Qin Yuan glanced around and also took out his pistol.

He didn't bring any new weapons this time, just a pistol with a silencer and some magazines.

That's enough!

Through the thermal imaging function, Qin Yuan saw that some people around him were converging here, and understood that he had to rush out of the way before the other party had found himself!

Qin Yuan left here directly, and continued to move upstairs.

At a corner, Qin Yuan used his thermal imaging ability to look at the people who were about to appear at the corner, but the pistol in his hand was stimulated one after another, directly piercing the wall! Kill these people!

Seeing these people directly fall to the ground, Qin Yuan also showed a sneer at the corner of his mouth. After all, his bullets were 7.62 millimeters, and ordinary walls simply couldn't resist pistol shooting.

Now the monitoring in the room has been blocked, and only an old-fashioned radio connection can be used between floors. This is Qin Yuan's opportunity.

Taking a look at the corpses of these people, Qin Yuan saw the direction and continued to move upward!

At this time, Du Cha was on the top floor of this room, looking at a snowflake under the surveillance, his heart sank slightly.

Here is his safe house. The surrounding decorations are extremely low-key and luxurious, with bookshelves, computer weapons and everything else. There is also a round table in the middle of the living room with different dishes. The surrounding walls are made of steel plates. Reinforced, ordinary bullets simply cannot be broken, the generator is also placed indoors, and there is enough fuel.

And there are more than two dozen bodyguards here, these are Ducha's loyal men.

So staying here is enough to protect Ducha's safety.

But at this moment, seeing the surveillance that had turned into snowflakes, Du Cha still felt a little uneasy, but he said to a man who looked like a thug:

"Mengka, this person seems to have reached the fourth floor..."

And this man named Mengka, When heard this, there was a hint of mockery at the corner of his mouth, and said to Ducha:

"Okay, just stay here honestly. It seems that a new friend has arrived with us. I will bring this new friend over and let him have a little more fun here!"

After saying this, the man named Mengka suddenly showed a cruel smile on his face, and then walked out with a group of people.

Seeing Monka being so unkind to him, Du Cha was not at all unhappy, but he was relieved in his heart.

He operated the monitor a few times, and finally returned the monitor screen a few minutes ago. Looking at Qin Yuan in the screen, Du Cha also showed a smile on his face.

Although he is just a superficial boss here, when he is happiest, he sees others coming in.

At that time, he could see a good show, watching how this new invader was slowly consumed by the subordinates and the guests here!

This is Ducha's favorite sideshow!

Chapter 264: Lurking

And today Du Cha also thought that this guy must have come to spy, and he was unintentionally discovered by himself, so Du Cha was full of excitement and said to the radio:

"Dear tenants and friends, now we have a cute little mouse in our building. If anyone can catch this little mouse, I will exempt him from his three-year rent and provide 100 copies. Goods, a rare opportunity, see who has the better luck!"

At this time, Qin Yuan, who was hiding in the dark, heard this sound, and was shocked in his heart. For the poisonous rice and civilians living here, exempting 100 cents of living creatures from rent for three years is a huge sum of money. Of wealth.

What they had to do was to take up weapons, either to report Qin Yuan's location, or to kill Qin Yuan directly and send it to the top of the top.

More importantly, in this way, Qin Yuan was completely plunged into the vast ocean of people, and there was no way for the people here to provide any help!

Sure enough, after hearing this sound, Qin Yuan immediately felt a sound outside. These people all heard Du Cha's broadcast, so they came out to try their luck with their weapons.

Now if Qin Yuan reaches the corridor, he will definitely be discovered by these people.

At this moment, Qin Yuan suddenly heard a scream from behind him. It was obvious that someone followed the women downstairs and found the family of three. The family of three would definitely not keep Qin Yuan's secrets. Qin Yuan knew he couldn't stay here any longer.

A trace of perseverance flashed in Qin Yuan's eyes, it seemed that there was no way to continue lurking, and now he could only do his best to rush forward.

After understanding it, Qin Yuan also took out two dogleg knives directly from his waist, and then walked out from where he was hiding.

The corridor was already full of young people who wanted to take advantage. When they saw a stranger, they immediately understood that Qin Yuan must be their target, and he shouted excitedly and rushed towards Qin Yuan directly.

And seeing these people, Qin Yuan also sneered at the corners of his mouth, and then rushed towards these guys.

Most of these people are young people in their teens and twenties. They feel that they have the strength to get this reward. Are they all defying death? They rushed towards Qin Yuan.

But the machete in Qin Yuan's hand flew up and down, and the blood was constantly splashing over these people!

These people just have a passion, and they have not received any serious training at all. How could they be Qin Yuan's opponent?

So it only took a minute for Qin Yuan to walk directly to the end of the corridor. Looking back, he found that all of these people had missing arms and legs, covering their bodies, and wailing.

It's just that this wailing also attracted Du Cha's real men. When Qin Yuan just yearned forward and continued to charge, he suddenly felt a burst of danger. Qin Yuan stopped abruptly and hit directly with a bullet, Qin Yuan's position just now. !

Qin Yuan hid in the corner at this time, glanced at the direction of the bullet, and understood that there was a sniper upstairs opposite.

Obviously, they will come here from time to time to investigate, so Ducha's defense is very complete, and a sniper is set up on the opposite side. As long as they come in, they will die directly under the attack of all aspects!

At this time, the sniper on the opposite side stared at Qin Yuan's position, but the corner of his mouth was cruel. He liked to do this kind of work the most, watching people like Qin Yuan struggle in his hands.

Anyway, at his current position, Qin Yuan couldn't fight back against him!

The quality of this little prey is good, and he can actually escape his own shot!

The sniper licked his chapped lips and said excitedly:

"Little sheep, just struggle more. Struggling just adds a little bit of fun to me."

But at this moment, the sniper suddenly heard a sound of breaking through the air in the distance, and he was very familiar with this sound. As long as he fired a gun, the bullet would make this sound of breaking through the air, but he Before I had time to see where the sound was coming from, suddenly my entire head burst out!

Meteor pendant!

Qin Yuan just took a pity at his own dragon pecking cone. He only brought 10 of them. He had used two of them before, and now he is using one of this sniper. It seems that after returning, he needs to take good care of it. Add it!

However, the death of the snipers outside at this time made the hearts of these Du Cha's men tremble. After all, the snipers were killed outside, wouldn't they be more dangerous?

So they did not continue to take the initiative this time, and directly established a line of defense on the 6th floor. They didn't know where they got some sandbags to block the most critical entrance from the 5th to the 6th floor.

Because from the 6th floor is the place where Ducha's subordinates are active, so in order to prevent people from going upstairs to make trouble, there is only one entrance and exit from the 5th to the 6th floor in the entire floor, and even the windows are completely sealed. , Is to prevent others from sneaking up.

This time they prepared 10 machine guns and even a rocket at this intersection. As long as Qin Yuan dares to come over, they can directly beat Qin Yuan into a ball of meat sauce!

And at this moment, they heard a burst of footsteps. The sound of these footsteps was almost like stepping on the hearts of these people, making these people extremely nervous, staring at the entrance with all their attention, always ready. shot.

But they didn't realize it at all. On the dim ceiling above , a dark shadow had already touched him. At this time, Qin Yuan used the gecko's crawling ability to attach his entire body to the wall. Latent mode is turned on.

Looking at the nervousness of these people at this time, Qin Yuan was also unambiguous, and threw a grenade directly!

With a bang, the grenade exploded directly in the crowd, and I didn't know how many people were killed!

Looking at the rockets they had installed, Qin Yuan was speechless for a while. Using rockets in such a place, wouldn't these people be afraid to blow the floor directly?

But when Qin Yuan saw the appearance of these people, he also understood that these guys must be poisonous insects that had sucked the ice, and what they thought in their minds was very normal.

Qin Yuan once heard the news that after a certain person ate too much ice noodles, he fell into a hallucination and cut off his heirloom, then put it on his head, said he was a unicorn, and finally bleeds Too many hung up.

After all, ice has irreversible damage to the human brain, so most of these people who love skating are not very smart.

Chapter 265: Crazy

Qin Yuan saw these people explode, came down directly from the ceiling, picked up a gun casually, and solved the pain for these people.

Although Qin Yuan's grenade blasted all these people up, it clearly revealed his own strength. It is estimated that these poisonous rice will have no brains, and they will not rush over like this.

But this is not important to Qin Yuan. His goal has never been to kill many poisonous rice, but to go directly to the top and win the head of Du Cha, the fifth power of the Silver Triangle.

Killing now is just a process!

At this time, Du Cha, who was on the top floor, said to a younger brother on one side:

"How much time can the monitoring be fixed?"

"Immediately, boss!"

The little brother replied profusely, then slapped it suddenly, and the monitoring screen on one side suddenly became clear!

"Hey, these people use software to control the system, just restart it!"

Seeing the results of his actions, the little brother cried out with excitement, but he didn't wait for his boss to praise him. He looked up and his face suddenly became extremely shocked.

I saw that half of the monitors in front of me had already turned black, and among the limited monitors, there were also corpses lying on the ground, and in the middle of the monitor, Mengka's immortal eyes The corpse is among them!

"Boss Monka is dead?"

At this time, the little brother murmured, but as soon as he finished speaking, he saw Du Cha sitting on the side raise his hand and directly killed the little brother!

"I know, I don't need to remind you. Munka is the boss's cousin. He is dead, and we are no good. Okay, now that Munka is dead, we must also use all our strength."

At this time, Du Cha, as if he was a different person, looked at the phone on the table and dialed slowly.

"Hey?"

"Hey?"

At this time, on the eighth floor, a group of people are working in a hurry.

This is Ducha's drug manufacturing factory, and here, an entire floor is directly opened up, and it seems to be extremely wide. The concrete wall on one side is already a bit dilapidated, there are no windows, and there are only two entrances and exits, only the dim light. , To provide a little light to those below.

At this time, a group of middle-aged women and half-year-old children wearing masks are busy nervously. They can't help walking back and forth, crushing and purifying some raw materials, and finally produce some white things, which are weighed and packaged. Very professional.

It's just that from time to time, some people will have blood coming out of their noses, but these people are not in a hurry, just say hello, and soon someone will replace them, and they will sit on the side and take off their masks to rest.

In the entire room, people with machete are constantly patrolling, looking at the powder that has been packed, there is also a trace of greed in the eyes.

These are all money, as long as it is a small package, it is enough for them to eat and drink.

However, when they saw the person standing at the door, they completely dispelled the idea.

This person does not look tall, at most about 1.65 meters, but this man who does not grow tall looks like a giant beast, with a pair of thick and thick arms, his hairline is already quite high, but He still had long hair, and there was a silent light in his eyes, as if there was no difference in his eyes.

This person's name is Mad Dog, and he is Du Cha's right-hand man, someone who can truly be trusted.

More importantly, Mad Dog is the best fighter under Ducha. He learned the martial arts class Kasura since he was a child. He once leaned on a pair of fists and a knife to rush out of hundreds of gang thugs, and rushed out. At that time, there were no serious injuries on his body.

It is said that for those hundreds of gang thugs, at least they are going to kill dozens of mad dogs. Such a record is enough to make people stunned.

And for this reason, Ducha asked Mad Dog to guard his most important drug manufacturing factory and would not easily mobilize Mad Dog.

But at this moment, the phone suddenly rang in front of the mad dog. The mad dog directly connected to the phone, heard the sound inside, and then nodded, and finally a light flashed in his eyes. Hang up the phone.

After the mad dog hung up the phone, he greeted both sides and said to the thugs:

"I'll go out in a while, you are optimistic about this. Zappa, the goods don't need to be pretended for the time being, you call all the people who can hit, and the women here let them rest first."

"Brother Dog, is there something going on below? I heard it just now, there seems to be an explosion below."

At this time, a thug was also a little curious and asked the mad dog, but the mad dog glanced at him and said faintly:

"You talk too much, do whatever you want to do."

After saying this, the mad dog turned around and left, but the thugs broke out in a cold sweat.

When he was watched by the mad dog just now, it was as if he had stuffed his head into the tiger's mouth, and he could clearly feel a coolness flashing through his throat.

Although the man in front of him was called a mad dog, he was a real wolf.

The mad dog stepped aside at this time There is a small display screen, which can monitor the situation of the two floors downstairs. He saw a figure rushing towards this side, but his heart was full. calm.

He had already known that someone had arrived upstairs, but the mad dog thought that this person would be dealt with soon, who would have thought that this person had already reached the sixth floor.

This is already quite astonishing. The last time a heavily armed special squad rushed to the third floor, it was completely wiped out by the residents downstairs.

It seemed that things were unusual this time. Mad Dog thought for a while, picked up the phone directly, and said a few words to Du Cha on the top of the building. It's best for Du Cha to be ready to escape at any time, and he himself wanted Go and see, who is the one who can directly rush to the 6th floor alone.

Looking at the gloomy light in the corridor at this time, walking here is like the esophagus of a crazy beast, but a crazy smile appeared on the face of the mad dog.

His name is a mad dog. He is not barking for nothing. He is Mr. Ducha's dog. Anyone who threatens Mr. Ducha's safety is his enemy. He will directly bite him into pieces!

Chapter 266: Change the trick!

At this time, a group of thugs had already gathered behind the mad dog. These people were guards of the drug manufacturing factory. After hearing the mad dog's greeting, they naturally surrounded themselves. This group of people walked down the floor in a mighty manner and arrived directly. The seventh floor.

At this time, Qin Yuan also threw the corpse of a poisoned rice aside. He was directly hit on the way, except for the bombing of the group of people at the entrance of the 6th floor. There is no decent resistance.

It's just that when I got to the seventh floor, Qin Yuan's mouth showed a smile when he saw the crowded people!

At this time Qin Yuan was on this end of the corridor, and the group of poisonous rice and mad dogs were on the other end, staring at each other, both eyes were full of killing intent!

"Go! Kill him!"

These dozens of poisonous rice rushed directly towards Qin Yuan, but Qin Yuan's eyes did not change, but stared at the mad dog standing still.

Qin Yuan's ability to perceive danger clearly told Qin Yuan that this person should not be underestimated!

"Kill!"

At this time, a tall and strong poisoned rice with a machete in his hand, he slashed directly at Qin Yuan, but Qin Yuan was too lazy to do anything to this guy, and his two hands became a bunch of butterflies. , The poker in his hand, like a snowflake, flew directly towards the crowd!

It's just that this snowflake, once it meets these people, it will directly become a blood flower!

And seeing Qin Yuan shooting, these poisonous rice shots were also shot directly, but Qin Yuan's figure had rushed into the crowd, shooting randomly, not only could not hit Qin Yuan, but would hurt their own people!

Even the mad dog who had not moved at the end suddenly tilted his head and avoided a bullet, but the hair was interrupted by a few.

Seeing the appearance of these people, the mad dog shook his head, then ran slowly, rushing towards Qin Yuan!

At this time, Qin Yuan was also out of interest. He directly caught a poisonous rice, using this guy as a shield, and then hooked his hand, and the pistol on this poisonous rice had already reached Qin Yuan's hand!

Pop!

Qin Yuan fired one after another and directly shot all these people headshots, and seeing so many of them, these poisonous fans could not deal with a Qin Yuan, and he became scared in his heart, and he did not dare to continue rushing towards Qin Yuan, but Hiding directly in the surrounding rooms!

At this time, Qin Yuan directly snapped the neck of the last person who dared to rush over to the poisonous rice, but he felt a burst of danger from behind him, and directly swung the poisonous rice in his hand back!

With a bang, a positive kick with incomparably powerful power kicked the poisonous rice straightly. Qin Yuan could even clearly hear the bone fragments that sounded from the poisonous rice that was already a corpse. Cracking voice!

And this force also spread to Qin Yuan's body, Qin Yuan did not resist, but took advantage of the trend and rammed into a room directly!

At this time, seeing the demon Qin Yuan, he finally suffered a little injury. The poisonous rice was cheered and looked at the mad dog with great admiration.

Just now it was the charge of the mad dog that kicked Qin Yuan away directly, and all the weapons on Qin Yuan's body had fallen out, and this kid had become bare-handed!

But the mad dog didn't have any joy, but walked directly into the hut with a calm face.

As soon as he entered the house, a bullet rushed towards the door of the mad dog, but the mad dog shook his head suddenly, and flashed the bullet incomparably quickly!

Although Qin Yuan's weapon was gone, he still had the corpse in his hand. After falling a while ago, Qin Yuan was also a little angry!

Although Qin Yuan is strong now, he is not invulnerable. If he is seriously injured, he will still die.

Bang bang bang!

Qin Yuan fired one after another, and the world-class pistol couldn't help being excited, but the head of the man in front of him seemed to be opened, it was simply not shot!

Finally, the mad dog walked directly in front of Qin Yuan and kicked the pistol in Qin Yuan's hand directly! Then he took out a gun directly from his hand and pointed it at Qin Yuan!

Qin Yuan's eyes instantly condensed into needlepoints, he directly opened his 21x dynamic vision, and just wanted to fight back, but at this moment, he saw the mad dog in front of him actually put down the pistol in his hand. .

At this time, the mad dog looked at Qin Yuan calmly, kicked the pistol that Qin Yuan threw on the ground and kicked it under the sofa, then threw away his own magazine directly, and dismantled his entire pistol into pieces, neatly. On the table, this is what Qin Yuan said:

"I don't like to use guns. It's too simple and too easy to kill. As long as you gently touch the trigger, even a child can kill a strong man without any aesthetic feeling."

At this time, the mad dog directly placed the last part of his pistol on a side table. This was when he turned his head and said to Qin Yuan:

"So we can use a little more interesting way."

Having said this, the mad dog took off his coat directly, revealing a strong upper body, put on a posture, and waved his hand at Qin Yuan.

And seeing the appearance of a mad dog, Qin Yuan also showed interest. He didn't expect to meet someone like a mad dog in this place.

Since mad dogs like hand-to-hand combat, of course Qin Yuan will satisfy him.

The two quickly took a posture, and then the mad dog groaned and rushed directly at Qin Yuan!

Ban Ka Sula is also a martial art that has been spread for hundreds of thousands of years. It is the same as Muay Thai, but it is not the same as Muay Thai. It is small and fast. With the weight of Muay Thai, it is powerful in actual combat!

The mad dog combines all the advantages of Bancasula together. It is a black boxing fighter who has fought in the underground boxing circle for ten years. His hands are stained with the blood of countless people, and he has a powerful and terrifying actual combat experience!

Head-to-head combat with others is just a little way for a mad dog to dispel loneliness, and no one will be able to suppress him in hand-to-hand combat!

Not to mention, the person in front of me looks like a young man, which is even more impossible!

Unfortunately, he didn't know that it was Qin Yuan who he met!

boom!

At this time, the two directly ran into each other, and Qin Yuan's cosmic mantis fist was instantly excited, and his two hands were like two long knives, slashing fiercely towards the mad dog!

And the mad dog had already felt the power of Qin Yuan's hand, and changed his move accordingly, hit a straight fist directly, and smashed it directly into Qin Yuan's stomach!

Of course Qin Yuan would not be hit like this, and he would change his move directly!

In this way, the two people fought back and forth, and for a while, none of the tricks fell on each other!

Chapter 267: the host?

At this time, the mad dog's face was a bit ugly. He seemed to underestimate the person in front of him. He had a hint of foresight in the previous fight. No matter which of the moves of the two of them fell on each other, I'm afraid the next thing is A set of combos can directly solve the opponent completely!

However, there was a glimmer of excitement in the eyes of the mad dog. He hadn't encountered such an opponent for a long time, and the person in front of him made him very satisfied!

The mad dog screamed and rushed towards Qin Yuan again. At this time, the poisonous rice outside heard the sound here, and they all hid at the door, listening to the sound inside.

They have seen the power of the mad dog. They remember that a special team rushed here. In the end, eight people were caught by the poisonous rice. At that time, the mad dog directly confronted these eight people and attacked them with bare hands. Killed all individuals!

Although the man in front of him is also very powerful, they are naturally willing to believe in a mad dog!

At this time, although they couldn't see what was happening in the house, they heard a roar, like the sound of a sacks made of fleshy skin falling to the ground!

Such a sound is familiar to these poisonous rice, it is the sound of a person falling to the ground!

Mad Dog must have won!

The poisonous rice cheered for a while, but the mad dog inside touched his forehead with a cold sweat!

He didn't expect this guy in front of him to be so tricky. Not only was his hands and feet neat and tidy, but he was even so skilled in grabbing and strangling. This guy looked so young, even if he started practicing martial arts from his mother's womb, he shouldn't have reached this point. !

At this time, Qin Yuan, with a sneer on his face, beckoned to the mad dog!

The mad dog was extremely angry. He roared and greeted Qin Yuan once again. This time he naturally did not dare to use grappling techniques anymore, but continued to use boxing.

Fists, feet, knees, elbows, all the places that the mad dog could use to attack, were all greeted by Qin Yuan, but unfortunately these attacks were blocked by Qin Yuan one by one. Any effect!

What makes the mad dog feel even more frightened is that the person in front of him has almost no limits in his physical strength. It is bottomless. After the mad dog has attacked for so long, he has been a little out of breath, but the guy in front of him is like a monster. There was not even a trace of sweat on his forehead.

At this time, the mad dog is also a little urgent. He knows that if this continues, he is very likely to be exhausted like this. He must seize the opportunity to directly defeat the opponent in front of him!

So the mad dog turned his eyes and took advantage of this opportunity to directly lock one of Qin Yuan's arms. As the mad dog had guessed, his locking skills were not as good as Qin Yuan, and Qin Yuan directly countered it. With a mad dog, his wrist is like a poisonous snake, directly climbing on the mad dog's arm!

Seeing that the mad dog's arm was about to be shattered by Qin Yuan directly, but the mad dog yelled and hit Qin Yuan's forehead with a direct blow!

The mad dog's eyes are full of confidence, his skull is inherently hard, so when he punches in the black market, the heavy blow that can make others pass out is just a little dizzy for the mad dog. Later, the mad dog discovered this and directly This heavy skull has become a killer!

He didn't believe it anymore, the young man in front of him, no matter how good he was, he could still practice his kung fu to his forehead.

At this time, Qin Yuan looked blankly at the mad dog hitting his head with his forehead. To be honest, although the other moves of the mad dog did not do much harm to Qin Yuan, Qin Yuan At least there is a certain hint of danger perception ability.

But the mad dog's head hammer, in Qin Yuan's perception of danger, the degree of threat was like a light fist!

Bang!

It was too late, and the hammer of Mad Dog hit Qin Yuan's head straight. The eyes of Mad Dog were filled with excitement. He was expecting Qin Yuan to pass out with his eyes rolled.

But what made the mad dog look dumbfounded was that Qin Yuan in front of him was like an okay person, his eyes were full of clarity, let alone fainted, not even any dizziness!

"impossible!"

At this time, the mad dog shouted madly in his heart, but the fact is that, on the contrary, the mad dog's head was a little dizzy. Qin Yuan seized this opportunity and directly activated the iron head power, hitting the mad dog's head with one blow!

The mad dog received this blow, feeling like his head was hit by an iron rod, an unprecedented feeling of dizziness, directly filling his whole body!

The mad dog took two steps back unbelievably, and finally sat limply on the ground.

Qin Yuan looked helplessly at the mad dog in front of him at this time. To tell the truth, if the mad dog continues to fight like this, even if Qin Yuan can win, it will take several minutes, but who can think of the mad dog, Compete with Qin Yuan for the head hammer!

You know, Qin Yuan's head has been strengthened by iron head skills, even ordinary pistol bullets can be blocked, let alone the head of a mad dog!

Qin Yuan looked at the mad dog, shook his head, and walked out slowly. Although he knew that mad dog may not be a good person, it is not easy to meet people like mad dog in such a place, so he plans to let him go. A way of life.

But Qin Yuan hadn't walked out of the gate, he just felt that his feet were being held by someone. He looked at the mad dog bleeding out on his forehead, but grabbed his calf with his hand.

Qin Yuan frowned. He knew that the mad dog had no resistance at all. He knelt down and said directly to the mad dog:

"Why are you so persistent? Do you know if you are stopping me now I might kill you?"

"You can't... hurt me... Master!"

A trace of firmness flashed in the eyes of the mad dog, and he said to Qin Yuan tremblingly.

Hearing such words, Qin Yuan's brows frowned suddenly and he said to the mad dog:

"Who is your master? Is it Du Cha? Do you know that Du Cha is just a poisoned meal? He killed how many people. You take him as the master. He doesn't know if he regards you as his own. "

"I don't need to know who my master is. Since I was about to die of starvation, my master fished me out of the slums. When my father was sick, my master helped me treat my father. When my sister got married, my master helped me give my sister a dowry. At that time, I had already determined that my life was given by the master!"

Although the mad dog has never read a book, the simpler the person, the more he recognizes this dead truth.

Qin Yuan heard what Mad Dog said, but he was full of helplessness. He knew that a person like Mad Dog had no way to persuade him. He could only use facts to make Mad Dog wake up.

Chapter 268: Wronged?

"Hehe, okay, I didn't want to take care of you, but now it seems that your dog is pretty good. Come with me!"

At this moment, Qin Yuan directly lifted the mad dog's leg and pulled the mad dog out of the room abruptly. He knew that with the mad dog's vigorous vitality, such injuries would not cause the mad dog to die.

Now he is going to take the mad dog to meet Du Cha to see what kind of person the owner of this mad dog is!

Seeing that the powerful mad dogs were all lost in Qin Yuan's hands at this time, the poisonous rice around naturally did not dare to have any hostility towards Qin Yuan, and directly acted as a bird and beast, and hid.

Qin Yuan was too lazy to chase these people, he directly pulled the mad dog towards the top floor.

"That's it."

Qin Yuan stood on the corridor on the 10th floor at this time, watching Du Cha build a safe house.

I don't know how afraid of death this Du Cha is. He actually built a safe house. Qin Yuan turned on his radar ability at this time. He wanted to see what kind of settings are there, but Qin Yuan Yuan was a little surprised to find that this house could actually block his radar detection!

This proves that this safe house is at least in accordance with the construction standards of the bank vault. Whether it is floor tiles or ceilings, the walls are all sandwiched with several layers of steel plates. This strength cannot be penetrated even by a machine gun, and even a bomb has to be blown up. For a while.

This is the real copper wall and iron wall!

Qin Yuan directly hit the wall with a fist, and the power of the ant broke out in an instant. Although there was a muffled noise on the wall, he could only smash a shell of the wall to reveal the steel plate inside.

Seeing Qin Yuan's movements at this time, the mad dog lying on the ground also breathed a sigh of relief, and said to Qin Yuan with a hint of mockery:

"You can't get in from this place. This is a safe house that my master spent a lot of money to cast. Unless you use a lot of bombs and heavy weapons, you can't get in."

In fact, this sentence is not right. After all, once a lot of bombs and heavy weapons are used, it is not the safe house but the building that cannot be supported first. If you have this skill, it is more cost-effective to blow the building down.

Qin Yuan was also scratching his head at this time. His task is to stare directly at the top floor. Although he is already standing in the corridor on the 10th floor, according to the system's prompts, he should go through the normal way and reach the 10th floor. Above.

If the building is blown down, who knows if this task is considered complete?

Du Cha, who was staying in the house at this time, heard the sound outside and was also relieved. When he saw the mad dog lose, he was completely shocked. He didn't expect that his strongest master would also Not Qin Yuan's opponent.

And those poisonous rice actually died directly in Qin Yuan's hands, which made him understand that simple human-sea tactics had no meaning to Qin Yuan, and now he could only escape by hiding in this turtle shell.

But Du Cha didn't know what Qin Yuan's purpose was here. If Qin Yuan wanted to take his own head, he would live a little longer if he left here.

So Du Cha has directly called the police department in the Silver Triangle, hoping that the police department will come to rescue himself.

It's ironic to say that, as the fifth force in the Silver Triangle, one of the five bigwigs now has to go to the police to ensure his safety, which is really a funny thing.

However, Du Cha really couldn't help it. The person in front of him was obviously not a policeman. In this situation, the police in the Silver Triangle can only save him.

To be honest, if it hadn't been for Ducha to be sure that the mad dog would not betray him at all, he would doubt that all his subordinates had been bought by the other party.

At this time, Du Cha wanted to break his head, but also couldn't understand, when on earth did he offend Qin Yuan and even provoke this killing god!

Qin Yuan also scratched his head in distress at this time. Standing in front of the hole, he gently tapped the steel plate. He could clearly understand the thickness of the steel plate. Obviously, this was not an ordinary one. Means to break the wall.

Seeing Qin Yuan's movements, Du Cha hiding inside also felt a tremor in his heart. He directly used the broadcast function and said to Qin Yuan:

"Sir, although I don't know who you are, there are tens of millions of ice in the factory below me. I don't need these things. You can take them all."

Qin Yuan shook his head directly when he heard Du Cha's words. What is the use of him asking for these things? What he wants now is to establish Garuda's position in the Silver Triangle, as well as the tasks issued by the system, or maybe Get Minden's information from Ducha's verbal.

As for whether Du Cha is dead or not, Qin Yuan doesn't really care as long as he can accomplish his goal.

Since the other party intends to negotiate, Qin Yuan also directly said aloud:

"I don't want the ice below you. Coming here is just to find a way for the people behind me. In the future, a new poison king will appear in the Silver Triangle, so I hope you can be honest."

Hearing such words, Ducha hiding in the house was immediately relieved. He was not the number one force. He had been mentally prepared for this incident when he heard that Nuoka was killed. .

To be honest, Du Cha didn't want to fight for the No. 1 Poison King at all, but now that Qin Yuan has killed so many people, he feels a bit wronged.

"Dear sir, I have no objection to the person behind you as the king of poisons. No matter who is the king of the silver triangle, I will give him a tribute. The ice noodles below are my tribute to you, , you can send someone to take them away, as long as you can spare me this time, I will never betray you in the future."

Hearing such words, Qin Yuan also nodded. Although he knew that Du Cha would never betray him, it was pure fart, but since the other party was willing to discuss it, Qin Yuan didn't have to kill him.

"Okay, then you open the door, the two of us have a talk, and then you let me pass through your room, and I want to go to your top floor to see."

What Qin Yuan said was his true intention. After all, the system did not say that Du Cha must be killed, but it was just to get Qin Yuan directly to the top of the building.

To reach the top floor, one must pass through Ducha's safe house. This is the only way to go, even if Qin Yuan wants to go around.

But after hearing this sentence, Du Cha inside was silent, and finally yelled directly:

"You tmd thought I was a three-year-old kid. Use this method to tell me to go out. I tell you, if you are willing to talk to me, then we will make peace. If you use this method, I have already called the silver triangle. The police, you have the ability to kill them all directly!"

Chapter 269: factory

Although the dark forces of the Silver Triangle are already on the bright side, these poisonous fans do not dare to directly confront the police. If they really anger the state machinery and directly wash the ground with missiles, no one will benefit!

Hearing this, Qin Yuan also frowned and said to Du Cha:

"Are you sure you won't open the door, I tell you, open the door now, maybe I can spare your life, if you let me break open the door and fight in, then your life might be gone!"

But after hearing Qin Yuan's answer, Du Cha said with a sneer:

"Who are you scaring? You can't open this wall at all now! If you could open this wall, you wouldn't stand here and talk to me, right? Fool!"

Hearing this, Qin Yuan's eyes suddenly shrank to the point of needles. Sure enough, there is a reason why these people are not good people.

Since this guy is looking for death, then Qin Yuan can't just get used to him, so Qin Yuan seriously thinks about how to break this turtle shell thing!

And seeing Qin Yuan's appearance, Du Cha also said with a mocking look:

"Idiot, I advise you to accept it as soon as you see it. The ice below will be treated as a gift to you. It can also be worth a lot of money. I will agree with the person behind you. Everyone is best. The water in the well does not invade the river. I will avoid him in the future, but if you insist on killing them all, when the police arrive, I will be safe. At most, I will lose a little cargo, but you are going to confront a boss and fail to complete the task. , I see how you explain to your boss!"

"Your crazy dog is still in my hands, don't you care about it?"

Qin Yuan didn't get angry when he heard this. In Qin Yuan's heart, Du Cha was already a dead person, and he couldn't be guilty and angry with the dead, but he wanted to verify whether Du Cha would put a mad dog. In mind.

"Huh, it's just a dog. If you die, look for it again. If you can help me get rid of it, that would be the best. To be honest, this dog has no effect except that it can fight better, but now that he loses It's useless in your hands, oh, and his sister tastes better!"

Hearing these words, the mad dog's body suddenly trembled. Although he knew that this was because Du Cha was afraid that Qin Yuan would use himself and want Qin Yuan to kill himself directly, but when he heard such words, the mad dog's heart was still a bit wrong. taste.

It's not impossible for his sister to be with the master, but the elder sister is already married, but the master did such a thing, which made the mad dog clenched his fists.

And Qin Yuan also looked like this, he had already guessed Du Cha's attitude towards mad dogs, just like Du Cha said, it's just a dog, not important.

Respect is mutual. One must first respect oneself before being respected by others. Since you have positioned yourself as a dog, don't resent others for treating you as a dog.

However, Qin Yuan is very interested in this dog. If it is done, he may be able to receive this loyal dog in his hands!

At this time, seeing Qin Yuan's appearance, Du Cha said hesitantly:

"Otherwise, my dog will be handed to you, so you go quickly?"

To be honest, Du Cha didn't want the police to come to his safe house. After all, all the policemen were blood-sucking locusts. Usually, Du Cha would severely scrape him a layer of oil. Not to mention that Ducha wanted first this time, not to mention, at least the ice surface of the factory below could not be retained.

And hearing such words, Qin Yuan immediately looked at the mad dog with a pity, and the mad dog also grabbed the ground fiercely.

Qin Yuan knew that the heat was almost over now, and if he continued, he might not be able to bear it, and it would be counterproductive.

So the most important thing for him now is to think about how to break this turtle shell!

"Iron gate...bronze wall and iron wall..."

Qin Yuan thought slowly at this time, but then suddenly he slapped his palm with his hand.

"Yes, you can do this!"

After saying this, Qin Yuan suddenly showed a confident smile, glanced at the location of the camera, and then directly picked up a bullet from the ground, threw it over and smashed the camera!

Du Cha saw the screen directly turned into a ball of snowflakes, and his heart was a little abrupt. At this moment, he couldn't observe the outside at all, but looking at Qin Yuan's situation, I am afraid it is not going to go, so he can only shoot angrily. He clicked the table, but he had nothing to do with Qin Yuan!

Qin Yuan went directly to the production factory below, and sure enough, there was something he wanted here.

Although it is a drug manufacturing factory, there is indeed a small chemical laboratory here. After all, things like ice surface also need to be upgraded with chemical methods.

Qin Yuan found some chemical tools, but finally scratched his head in distress. Although he knew what method to use, he was a little confused about some basic chemical operations.

In the end, Qin Yuan gritted his teeth fiercely and directly received a beaker into his grid!

"Ding Dong~ Please start to choose the host!"

With the prompt sound of this system, three options suddenly appeared in front of Qin Yuan!

"1, get world-class beaker making!"

"2, get a world-class chemistry foundation!"

"3, get world-class experimental skills!"

Seeing these three options at this time, Qin Yuan was also a little relieved, and as expected, he got what he needed.

Soon Qin Yuan decided on his choice and said directly:

"System I choose the second item!"

"Ding Dong, congratulations to the host for choosing successfully and gaining a world-class chemistry foundation!"

At this moment, with the sound of the system, Qin Yuan suddenly had a lot of chemistry knowledge in his mind. Looking at something in front of him, Qin Yuan's mouth suddenly showed a smug smile.

Haha, isn't it just an iron king?

At this time, Du Cha, who was upstairs, was also nervous. Although he didn't know what Qin Yuan was going to do, he also understood that Qin Yuan would not retreat so easily.

The unknown is always more terrifying.

However, the younger brother who was standing aside at this moment relieved Du Cha:

"Boss, we don't have any weapons of mass destruction inside. This kid definitely can't open the door. When this kid is gone, we will check the details of this kid. We may have nothing to do with this kid, but you Isn't there still a big boss? As long as all the losses are pushed onto this kid, the big boss will definitely be angry. Then, this kid will definitely let the big boss hunt down and kill him!"

Chapter 270: in stock!

Hearing such words, Du Cha's mood suddenly relaxed a lot!

Yes, Lao Tzu is organized, not working alone!

At this time, Du Cha completely let go of his mind, and didn't think about those outside things at all. Anyway, Du Cha was not the only loss.

Man is such a strange creature. If only he is unlucky, then he feels that he is really unlucky, and once someone else is unlucky with him, he will feel much better.

But he didn't think that the bad luck of others was still far away, and his bad luck was already in front of him.

Soon, Qin Yuan came back to the corridor with a bunch of things. This time Qin Yuan not only brought something he made, but also a blower, and also took out the ninth floor inventory.

Seeing the appearance of Qin Yuan with such a big bag, the crazy dog looked dumbfounded. He really didn't know what Qin Yuan was going to do?

After taking the ice, why not go, but bring these things up?

At this time, Qin Yuan seemed to be in a good mood, whistling, walked directly to the door, and directly glued a mass of batter to the wall.

When Qin Yuan just wanted to light this thing, he saw the curious eyes of the mad dog on one side, and he immediately smiled and said to the mad dog:

"Do you know what this is?"

"No... I don't know..."

At this time, the mad dog shook his head blankly, and when he heard this, Qin Yuan immediately looked at the mad dog with contempt and said to the mad dog:

"Sure enough, he is an illiterate who has no knowledge. The scientific name of this thing should be called the aluminum heat mixture. I just made it. I didn't expect that your drug factory would actually have such a good thing, so I made some more Something troublesome."

But when the mad dog heard Qin Yuan's explanation, he was still at a loss and said in a ignorant expression:

"Thermite...what is it?"

Now Qin Yuan was completely helpless, walked directly to the mad dog, carefully pulled out a lead, and said with a smile:

"Then I'll change the name, maybe you've heard of it, this thermite mixture, after my transformation, can be called the thermite combustion bomb again!"

Having said this, Qin Yuan directly ignited the lead wire in his hand, and the lead wire ignited extremely fast, directly burning on the thermite mixture Qin Yuan had just placed!

Then this thermite mixture suddenly burned from a distance, emitting a dazzling light!

The so-called thermite is to mix aluminum powder and ferric oxide iron powder in a certain proportion, and then add the combustion-supporting oxidant to high temperature heating, which will produce an oxidation reaction to obtain aluminum oxide and elemental iron!

In this process, a lot of heat will be released, this heat is as high as 3000 degrees Celsius, even steel can easily melt!

At this time, this iron wall is naturally no exception. Being baked by the heat released by the thermite, the surrounding steel plates and concrete begin to melt and slowly pass in!

And Qin Yuan also used his previous knowledge of bomb modification to develop a delay device that would penetrate this iron wall little by little!

After a full half a minute, the heat of the aluminum heat mixture was released, and the indestructible iron wall in front of him had been forcibly melted into a fist-sized hole!

At this time the mad dog was stunned. As a rough man who only knows martial arts, he really doesn't know much about this knowledge!

He didn't even expect that Qin Yuan would make a hole in this indestructible iron wall so easily!

At this time, Qin Yuan glanced at the hole and found that it was indeed penetrated, so he yelled directly into it:

"Listen to the people inside. Now that you come out, there are still talks. Be lenient in frankness and strict in resistance!"

But the person inside was not a fool, and the answer to Qin Yuan was an extremely precise bullet!

Qin Yuan shook his head abruptly, and directly avoided the bullet, spreading his hands helplessly:

"Okay, I see, the negotiation broke down! Then we can only use some more special methods!"

At this time, Du Cha and the others in the house were so scared that their hearts were pounding, and they did not expect that Qin Yuan would open the wall so easily.

Ducha carefully asked the bodyguard beside him:

"This kid wouldn't use this method to melt down the entire gate directly, would he?"

However, the bodyguard said to the inspector with a smug look:

"No, boss, there are not many raw materials in our laboratory. I guess they were all just now. If he brought the raw materials from other places, I guess the police would have come long ago!"

Although they couldn't see what Qin Yuan was doing outside, they could hear it. When they heard that Qin Yuan had actually made the thermite, they were all scared to death.

But now that he heard these words, Du Cha was relieved. Only this small hole was acceptable to them, and Qin Yuan couldn't directly drill through this small hole.

Although they knew that Qin Yuan would definitely not just let it go, but there is a good saying that when soldiers come to cover up the water, they can only see who has higher skills.

At this time, Du looked at the small hole, but his heart was cold, thinking that after the guy left, he must find out who this guy was.

At that time, this guy and the forces behind this guy must pay the price! Really thought that Ducha was the fifth poisonous fan, so he had no cards in his hand?

But at this moment, Du Cha suddenly heard a noise coming from outside , and after a closer look, they found that a white tube had stuck in the hole just now.

And this white tube is constantly spraying out some smoke, which looks very strange.

Du Cha asked the bodyguard beside him, who was headless at this time:

"What is this guy doing? What is that?"

The bodyguard touched it cautiously at this time, took a puff of white smoke, and said with some excitement:

"Boss, this is our inventory. This kid didn't take all these things away, but instead wanted to use these things against us. Doesn't he know that there is only a ventilation duct in our room?"

But as soon as the bodyguard finished speaking, the fan in the air conversion system stopped running, and on Qin Yuan's side, the power of the blower was increased to directly turn the ice surface of Ducha's inventory into a brainstorm. Instilled in this iron house!

Du Cha laughed right now. He didn't expect Qin Yuan to be so stupid that he wanted to use the ice to poison their poisonous rice.
