

Special Soldier 481

Chapter 481: scream

And what shocked Qin Yuan most was that there were now three grids that could receive rewards behind this task!

This is not because Qin Yuan feels too much, but too little!

You must know that Qin Yuan was a great help this time. Not only did he kill Xhaka, but also the white bear. More importantly, he took this batch of yellow cakes. Without the yellow cakes, these people's hands One very important weapon is missing!

As a result, after so much effort, Qin Yuan only had one more grid in this task. Is this a joke?

Looking at the corpses around him at this time, Qin Yuan was a little bit painful.

Myself...did the system give me a prostitute?

But if you think about it carefully, how can Xiaohua be saved, it's not a loss... right...

Thinking of this, Qin Yuan was suddenly a little tired. Although he knew that the last group of people had not been killed, he didn't want to move!

After thinking for a while, Qin Yuan dialed the phone directly and asked the same how he should go back. Now the warship may have already left. If he wants to go back, it is estimated that he will have to go another way.

At this time, Qin Yuan took out his mobile phone and started to make a call to Xiaotong, but Qin Yuan's satellite phone only rang, and was immediately connected by the person on the opposite side, and then the phone came directly to Xiaotong. A slightly impatient voice:

"Qin Yuan, are you okay?"

Hearing this, Qin Yuan rolled his eyes and said to Lei Tong:

"How do you listen to you, it feels like I'm dead?"

And the same paused, Qin Yuan knew that this guy must have been a little embarrassed when he heard what he said, but the same quickly said:

"I really think you are dead. You know, I watched the artillery wash the floor with my own eyes, and even the signal was interrupted. Now that I say this, I am curious, how did you survive?"

"Cut, do you know that he has an air-raid shelter here? I just had better luck. I found the entrance of the air-raid shelter. Okay, I won't tell you more about these things. I have got the yellow cake now. How should I go back?"

Qin Yuan also didn't dare to make more explanations with the same, after all, saying less and making more mistakes, not saying that it was good.

The same guy is an old fox, if he finds any flaws, it would be bad.

"What! You found the other half of the yellow cake. This is great. You'd better find a place to pretend and I will send someone to pick you up, but it will take a certain amount of time, I'm afraid it will take a day or two."

Hearing such words, Qin Yuan was taken aback, and then asked the same:

"What's going on? Why does it take so long?"

Qin Yuan knew that although the warship had already left, it didn't take much effort for the warship to send a transport plane over.

Moreover, even if it came from a domestic and foreign transport plane, it took less than two days, not to mention that the same thing had to hide himself. Although Qin Yuan killed a lot of people, it was not to the point where everyone was scared. Right.

Qin Yuan felt that as long as it was to find the personnel of the government army, then it would be fine to repair it.

But after hearing such words, the opposite person hesitated a little, and then said to Qin Yuan:

"Something happened, so we can't go directly to Ivia now. We have to turn around and use other identities to get there."

Upon hearing this, Qin Yuan immediately frowned:

"What is so serious, there is no way to come directly."

And Xiao Tong took a deep breath and explained gently:

"General Sharaf was killed. The one who is now in power is a figure from another faction of Ivia, whose name is Abdullah. And this guy has more powerful methods than General Sharaf. A lot of high-tech weapons have been lost, so if a transport plane is sent over now, it may be shot down directly by the opponent."

Damn it!

At this moment, Qin Yuan was completely stunned when he heard such words.

He really didn't expect that he had just heard that the boss behind Zhaka was going to kill General Sharaf, but after a few hours, he had almost reached this point!

Does this general Sharaf eat shit? With so many troops, you can't even save your own life?

In fact, what Qin Yuan didn't know was that because of the theft of the yellow cake, this Abdullah took the first step and directly tried his best to attack General Sharaf, and this Abdullah, the gentleman behind Zaka, these People are famous for their terrorist attacks and assassinations. If you deal with an unsuspecting general, wouldn't you be able to catch them!

And Qin Yuan calmly asked the same:

"Then why are the government soldiers no longer good? Didn't they fight against General Sharaf before and after?"

But the same is full of speechless words:

"That's because this Abdullah himself is a relatively high-status figure. He is eligible to run for the prime minister. Therefore, this time the battle has changed from a rebellion to a political battle. The soldiers are not very much. If they want to fight, even if Abdullah becomes prime minister, they will not lose a lot!"

Hearing this, Qin Yuan was also speechless. He really did not expect that the situation here would be so complicated.

And the same replied somewhat helplessly:

"This Abdullah has a relatively close relationship with the lighthouse country, and has a bad relationship with us. If he is really allowed to become prime minister, I am afraid that everything we have done in Ivia will be wasted, but we have not Ways to intervene in the internal affairs of other countries, this time sending you, is already considered a violation, and the government soldiers can't count on it, so now they can only wait."

Hearing this, Qin Yuan frowned slightly. He also knew that Zhaka had a good relationship with the people of the Lighthouse Nation, and many of the equipment was obtained from the Lighthouse Nation, and even the Lighthouse Nation would give them out. Instructors, train their staff!

Those who are heavily armed, with skulls on their faces, and dagger and skull symbols on their armbands, are all trained by the lighthouse nation!

But at this moment, Qin Yuan suddenly thought of something, his eyes widened suddenly, and he asked Li Tong:

"If now, the last prime minister of Ivia is still alive, and he now stands up and presides over the overall situation, is there any relief for the current situation?"

"What? Are you talking about Basandu? He is already dead, but if he can really live, then the situation will be reversed in an instant. We have an excuse to intervene in their affairs!"

At this time, the same Tong screamed, as if he had heard something incredible!

Chapter 482: Masked man

And when he heard this, Qin Yuan immediately became excited, he finally knew why his grid was only added by one, it turned out that it was because the matter was not done completely!

Now that he knows the crux of the matter, he must solve this problem completely!

"Okay, I'm going to do something else now, and I'll contact you later. Oh, yes, think about what you should do if this guy is still alive!"

After saying this, Qin Yuan directly hung up the phone.

At this time, the same person who was on the other side looked sluggish when he hung up the phone. He really didn't want to understand what Qin Yuan meant.

But soon, a light flashed in the same eyes, planning to make a record first, after all, Qin Yuan had already given him a lot of surprises!

"If this person is really alive, then it will be fun!"

At this moment, a smile appeared at the corner of the same Tong's mouth, and then he began to give orders.

On Qin Yuan's side, he also stretched, and then began to trace the traces around him.

He clearly remembered that a group of people fled directly from here, and Xiaohua said before that there was a group of mysterious people in the dungeon, guessing it was Basandu!

And now, Qin Yuan just wants to verify if this person is!

But at this moment, a voice suddenly sounded in Qin Yuan's mind:

"Ding Dong, the system issues a reminder to rescue Basandu! There will be major changes to the self-care tasks!"

And hearing such words, Qin Yuan immediately became excited, and sure enough, that guy was Basangdu!

"Hey, wait for me!"

Qin Yuan quickly found a trace of escape, and immediately activated the burst speed and long-distance running speed, and directly chased in this direction!

...

On the other side, Moika looked back at the small town of Bassem that had been turned into a pile of ruins, and felt sad:

"leader!"

However, he soon recovered from his grief. After all, he still has an important bargaining chip in his hands. As long as he can send these people to the husband, then the uncertainty will be very important to the current situation. Change!

At this moment, Moika took out a phone and began to dial the phone number on it.

While waiting for the call to connect, Moika's heart was extremely excited. He knew that on the other end of the phone was Mr. Abdullah, who was their true leader.

And thinking about being able to communicate with their true leader, Moika's hands trembled!

What a glory this is!

Soon, the phone was connected, and an extremely low voice came directly from the other end of the phone:

"Hey, Zhaka, you are not dead?"

Hearing this voice, Moika was extremely excited, and somewhat at a loss, and said to the person on the phone:

"Sir, the leader is dead. I am Moika. I am calling you instead of the leader. I still have a group of people on my hand. They are all the prisoners who were kept here. The leader asked me to bring them out. Do you want to bring these people to you? These people are very important bargaining chips and will definitely play an important role!"

But upon hearing such words, the person on the other side fell silent and made a relatively low voice:

"Moika, you mean these people are all Xhaka who asked you to stay?"

"Yes, these people were brought out by the leader, and he asked me to contact you!"

At this moment, Moika hadn't noticed the tone of the other side, and had changed a little, still speaking very excitedly.

Moika didn't know what the current situation had become, he was just continuing his original mission.

After hearing Moika's words, the person on the other end of the phone also made a strange noise, and then said directly to Moika:

"Well, in that case, you go directly to the abandoned factory, and I will send a group of people to meet you over there."

Hearing such words, Moika immediately agreed with excitement, and then made a gesture to the person under his hand and headed towards the abandoned factory.

But after hearing what Moika said, those who were captured behind Moika opened their mouths:

"Is your name Moika? I think you might have been fooled by your husband. The tone of his speech just now didn't seem to need us, but he felt that we were going to be killed, and the people under Zhaka were dead. , You are just a caught fish under his hands, and the final result will only be for you to accompany Xhaka to hell!"

The person who talked had a headgear on his face, so Moika didn't know who these people were. After hearing this person's words, she gave a cold snort and slammed the **** on the person's body. :

"I don't need you to teach me to do things! Wait for death!"

After saying this, Moika continued to move towards the abandoned factory!

The abandoned factory was not far from Moika, so after a while, they arrived at their destination quickly.

The whole area here is burnt and blackened buildings. It used to be a chemical factory, but since the civil strife, it was also bombed to ruins by shells. Normally, no one came here at all. The geographic location is marked.

At this time, Moika brought people here, got out of the car, and began to wait.

And the person wearing the headgear noticed Moika's situation and shook his head directly. He knew that Moika would definitely not have any good results in this position, and they might be better than Moika's. The result is even worse!

"I hope that God can bless our people in Ivia At this time, the man wearing a balaclava bowed his head and prayed. When he heard this man's words, Moika frowned. He did not I thought that this person turned out to be a believer of God.

"Hey, who are you? Why are you so valued by the leader?"

"It doesn't matter who I am. The most important thing is whether you will be fooled by Xhaka. Xhaka tells you that after this battle, you will have a better life, but you look around. Have you had a good life?"

The masked man said bitterly, and Moika frowned, wondering what this guy wanted to say.

Only seeing Moika did not refuse, the masked man continued to say:

"My dear brother, you have to understand that struggle does not make life better. If you want to live a better life, you can only rely on our hands, our feet, our brains, and we all unite together. , Isn't it better to work hard to develop our country? Why do we have to fight to death?"

Chapter 483: Good afternoon

"Look at how beautiful our country was before. Although we need to rely on a big country to survive, but backed by Yan Nation, we can at least get better things, and then use what Yan Nation wants to develop. Dongfeng, we can take advantage of our geographic location to cut a piece of this big cake. When the time comes, the entire Eurasian continent will be connected. As a transit station, our economy will inevitably take off by a large margin!"

"It's a pity that all of this is over. Zhaka, an idiot, has become a gun in the hands of the enemy. No matter who he finances to become the new prime minister, he is the target of cleaning up."

But after hearing such words, Moika yelled:

"Impossible, Mr. Abdullah, he will never betray the leader. You don't know that the leader has given his life for this holy war!"

But when he heard such words, the masked man sighed and said to Moika:

"Zhaka is indeed a believer, but he is definitely not good at being a good politician and leader. He is only a destructive person. He is not qualified to be a leader. Abdullah did find a good one. Agent, but now your usefulness is over."

At this moment, the younger brother on one side said to Moika:

"Captain, we received a message on the public screen that General Sharaf is dead, and now Mr. Abdullah is leading General Sharaf's men to fight the government forces, and Mr. Abdullah said it was for We helped the government forces to make such an action. We have become insurgents!"

Hearing such words, Moika's eyes suddenly widened. If Mr. Abdullah said that they have become insurgents, then I am afraid that they will have no room for survival in the future, and they will once again return to the previous time!

"No, no, it's impossible! Mr. Abdullah! You can't abandon us!"

At this moment Moika yelled, but at this moment, he suddenly watched a helicopter flying towards here in the distance. Moika was extremely excited at this moment and directly greeted the helicopter. Past.

But at this moment, he saw that a missile was suddenly launched from the helicopter, and it flew towards this side suddenly!

Looking at this missile, Moika was completely desperate. He understood that this helicopter really wanted their lives!

In other words, what the masked man said was right, Mr. Abdullah really betrayed the leader!

"Do not!"

At this moment, Moika Yangtian yelled, and the masked man also sighed!

Now that I know all this, it is too late!

But at this moment, there was a gunshot from a distance, and the missile in the air did explode suddenly.

boom! boom!

Two violent explosions directly attracted everyone on the field!

At this moment, everyone was extremely surprised, especially Moika. Of course he knew that this extremely terrifying marksmanship was only the sniper of Yan Nation!

It was this guy who completely destroyed everything about them.

Moika thought that it was right. The person who shot was Qin Yuan. He hurried to catch up. He saw a helicopter launching a missile towards this side. He fired a shot and detonated the missile. !

And this time, Qin Yuan lurked near the abandoned factory, directly activated his super hearing ability, and picked up all what these people said just now!

This is Qin Yuan who understands what happened, and Qin Yuan once again confirmed that the person wearing the balaclava must be Basandu!

At this time, Qin Yuan stood beside Basangdu, pointed his gun at Moika and several of his men, and said with a smile on his face:

"Several people, can you talk about it?"

Qin Yuan was fully prepared. As long as these people dared to do something, Qin Yuan would be able to take advantage of the climax nerve response ability to kill these people first!

And these people didn't expect that Qin Yuan had touched their side. At this time, looking at Qin Yuan, his heart was full of complexity.

These people are not fools. After all, they can be elite team members. All of them are smart people. It can also be seen that those helicopters are not here to make peace with them, but to kill them, but Qin Yuan It saved them, which made them a little wondering how to face Qin Yuan.

Especially when they heard what Qin Yuan said, their hearts were even more entangled. Regardless of their large numbers, their lives were all in Qin Yuan's hands!

"Captain, you decide this time!"

"Captain, what should we do?"

At this time, everyone looked at Moika who was kneeling aside, and decided in their hearts that this time let Moika decide.

If Moika wants to talk, then they will naturally follow Moika, but if Moika wants to go to war, then they will fight back and see if they can kill Qin Yuan!

Hearing what his team members said, Moika also slowly stood up from the ground, then turned his head directly, looked at Qin Yuan who was standing on the side, sighed, and threw the gun in his hand. Above ground:

"We surrender."

Seeing Moika's actions, several people around were taken aback for a moment, but soon followed Moika and threw their weapons on the ground.

And Qin Yuan also felt relieved, and then lifted the masks of these masked men.

"Oh, the prime minister, the chief of finance, the chief of agriculture, and the chief of foreign affairs! This is putting your group together!"

At this moment, seeing the face of this masked man Qin Yuan was a little surprised, because these people were all senior officials of Ivia that Qin Yuan had seen before.

It is estimated that only one of this group of people, Mohadi, has escaped and became the acting prime minister. Under this circumstance, he can still support for so long, which proves that Mohadi's methods are not low.

And hearing Qin Yuan's words, these people also showed an awkward smile. After all, as the leader of a country, he was rescued by foreign personnel. This is an indescribable feeling.

Moika and others were also a little surprised. Although they knew that there were people in the cellar, these people were wearing headgear. They didn't even know who these people were, but now they often see them on TV. The face that can only be seen, the heart is also extremely shocked.

At this time, Basandu saw the appearance of Moika and others, and shook his head, and said directly to several people:

"Everyone, I'm really sorry to meet you in this situation, good afternoon."

Chapter 484: revenge

At this time, not only I saw Basandu, but the few people behind also showed their true colors. They were all important people who would only be seen on TV.

Hearing what Basandu said, Moika was also full of shock and asked Basandu:

"Um, Prime Minister, haven't you already died?"

"We are not dead, but we were arrested. I guess Zhaka originally wanted us to come out at a critical time and completely defeat the confidence of the government army, but now so many things have happened. It's dead, the plan can't keep up with the changes."

At this time, Ba Sangdu said this, but he looked at Qin Yuan who was on the side. They thought they were dead, but they didn't expect that Qin Yuan would save them directly.

"Okay, stop talking nonsense, there is only one thing next, and that is how do you think you should handle yourself?"

Qin Yuan looked at this group of people with a smile on his face, and said straightforwardly.

Now Qin Yuan can be regarded as knowing why he didn't get too many grids in his previous self-care task, and it was nothing to kill a Zhaka for half a year. Only by saving this group of people would it be considered a complete change of form.

Just a Mohadi is already on par with the resistance army, if this group of people are put back, then the resistance army may not be able to hold it.

At this time, Basandu heard this, his face was a little heavy, and he said directly:

"Now Abdullah must have known that we are not dead, so someone will definitely be sent to arrest us, so the top priority is to leave here first."

"Then where are you going?"

Qin Yuan looked at Basandu with a hint of playfulness. The current situation is very difficult to handle. Although the rebels only occupied one third of them, they cut off the command of the government army and added the government army. The group of dragons has no leader, and there is only one Mohadi left, and one who can't fight.

If this fails again, it is possible that these government troops will directly surrender. After all, Abdullah can also be regarded as a candidate for prime minister. In addition, Abdullah used the excuse of countering the rebellion to directly kill. General Sharaf, this made the hearts of the soldiers and civilians under the government army's treatment of Abdullah full of complexity.

After all, he is a good person, these people are not fools, knowing that this matter must have something to do with Abdullah.

But if he is a bad guy, he can be regarded as a leader. If he really surrenders, then the war may really be over.

And the people of these Ivia countries really don't want to experience war again.

But this is a very terrible choice for Basandu. He must do two things now. The first is to survive. Abdullah will definitely send someone to chase him and die. Now, it will naturally stop everything.

Second, we must seize the time to regain control of the government and control the government forces that can really fight. If the referendum is over and Abdullah will directly come to power, even if Basandu will live, it will be because of some crazy gunman. , The out-of-control car kills.

The first and second are probably in conflict. The government forces currently under Mohadi's control live in the east of Ivia, and were lifted and beaten by Abdullah's troops.

The border guards that can really fight are in the west, with Abdullah's army sandwiched between them.

This is like a hamburger, with bread on both sides and meatloaf in the middle.

According to normal thinking, that is to rush to the eastern region and directly control the government forces under Mohadi. After having a leader, you may be able to stabilize the situation. As long as you hold it, you have a bargaining chip and you can fight with Ah. Abdullah played slowly.

It's just that Qin Yuan's location is farther from the east, and they don't have any means of transportation now. They want to go there, and time is afraid.

But if you want to go to the west, you have to directly penetrate the western defense line, which is equivalent to directly confronting Abdullah.

However, in comparison, it is safer to go to the east. After all, in order to defend the frontier army in the west, Abdullah's line of defense is relatively perfect. If you want to rush over, I am afraid it will be extremely dangerous.

Hearing Qin Yuan's words at this time, Ba Sangdu also understood his current form and said to Qin Yuan with a calm face:

"We need to discuss it."

Qin Yuan shrugged casually, and then asked them to discuss directly.

Taking advantage of this time, Qin Yuan directly opened his system and found that it was the same as he had guessed. Sure enough, Qin Yuan saw the previous self-care task, and the available grids became four, and there were still faint The fifth development trend.

"That's right!"

Qin Yuan nodded in satisfaction. It is estimated that as long as these people can be safely sent back, then he may be able to get more grids!

Now Qin Yuan has 4 grids, send these yellow cakes back, there are two more grids, and coupled with this self-care task, how can I get more than ten grids.

Such gains are still acceptable to Qin Yuan!

"Hey, hurry up and finish your work and return to China!"

Qin Yuan whistled at this time, and said leisurely.

But at this time, Basangdu finally made his choice over there, his face full of solemnity, pointing to a Fang Xi on the map in his hand, and said to Qin Yuan:

"This gentleman, we have already chosen, take this path!"

At this time, seeing the direction that Ba Sangdu had chosen, Qin Yuan's eyes also flashed with a faint light. Unexpectedly, they would choose this direction.

Sure enough, everyone who can be the prime minister of a country is not a fuel-efficient lamp.

"Well, do you think of any way of the past?"

"There is no way can only rely on luck, even people who contact the government forces may not be able to help us, so I can only take a gamble!"

Basandu said with an ugly face at this time, but Moika, who was standing aside, said coldly when he heard Basandu's words.

"I will send you there!"

"what?"

At this time Basangdu looked at Moika in surprise. Although Qin Yuan didn't directly kill these people, these people were Zaka's men after all, so he betrayed like this?

"We were all deceived, and the leader was also deceived. If the person who came this time was not me, but the leader, I am afraid a cannonball would fly over, and no one would allow us to survive. I want revenge, I want Let Abdullah pay the price!"

At this time, Moika looked like a demon who came out of hell. Although Zaka also lied to him, Zaka was dead, and Qin Yuan saved his life. Now he wants to get revenge. Abdullah has a goal.

Chapter 485: Let's go

At this time, Qin Yuan saw the appearance of everyone, but he smiled and said directly:

"Okay, if that's the case, I have an idea, this leader, are you sure you are going to the west?"

"Yes, even if you go to the east, there is no good way. It's better to go directly to the west, and then let the soldiers stand up and fight together, then you can easily solve Abdullah!"

At this time Ba Sang Du said solemnly, and when he heard such words, Qin Yuan also smiled slightly, looked at Ba Sang Du with a trace of scrutiny, and said lightly:

"You are so sure that you can move those people, maybe these people have been bought by Abdullah, and you just stand on the other side."

"I can only give it a try. If these people don't make sense, then it will really be over. The entire Ivia is going to be trapped in the quagmire of war, and the economy may go backwards for 20 years!"

At this time, there was a trace of anxiety in Basandu's eyes. What he wanted was not only to win, but to win quickly. Peace is a hard-won thing. If it can be done in a short time, If these things are done, Ivia still has hope, but if the battle is really big for a year or two, even if Basandu has the resources, it is impossible to develop the economy under such circumstances.

At that time, I'm afraid Ivia can only become a puppet of those big countries.

At this moment, Qin Yuan smiled directly when he saw what Basangdu said, and then said to him:

"If you people have this kind of courage, I might be able to help you."

"Yep?"

Hearing what Qin Yuan said at this time, these people were all stunned.

Although Qin Yuan rescued them, they did not think that Qin Yuan would act with them. After all, this was their battle, not Qin Yuan's. It was like this kind of mission from birth to death, Qin Yuan was a crooked nut. No need to join!

Qin Yuan looked at these people with a smile on his face, but in Qin Yuan's mind, there was a voice:

"Ding Dong, the system will release the mission to bring Basandu safely to the western theater and reward two grids!"

Hearing this task at this time, Qin Yuan's eyes brightened. Sure enough, there are rewards for doing these things.

"Sir, if you can take us over, then I will definitely cooperate with Yan Guo in depth in the future! We..."

At this time, Ba Sangdu was extremely excited, but he had already seen how powerful Qin Yuan really was. If Qin Yuan could really help them, the possibility of them achieving their goals would definitely increase!

"Okay, all these things you said are nonsense, wait until you really survive, let's talk about it."

Qin Yuan directly waved his hand, indicating that Ba Sangdu should stop painting these pie.

Between nations, unlike people, there are only eternal reasons, not eternal friendship.

"To help you with this matter, I need to apply with my superiors. As for whether it will work, I will talk about it then."

At this time, Qin Yuan walked directly to the side, and then began to call Lei Tong.

For Qin Yuan, this kind of thing is not tempting, but for Yan Country, Ivia has a lot of minerals and the port is also good, and it still has a certain value.

Soon, Qin Yuan answered the same call.

"Hey, Qin Yuan, you can be regarded as contacting me. Now Ivia has been messed up into a pot of porridge. It is estimated that the task cannot be completed. You should find a chance and come back directly."

At this time, Lei Tong asked Qin Yuan with concern. Although he was able to call Qin Yuan, he did not dare to do it directly because he did not know Qin Yuan's situation. If it disturbed Qin Yuan, that would be shit.

And the current situation of Ivia is not something Yan Country can take.

"I can't go back. I want to protect a few people. I guess it will take some time to go back. By the way, the thing I told you before is done. The yellow cake is in hand, and Basandu is still alive. I'm going to send him back now, you see, is there any benefit in this matter?"

At this time, Qin Yuan said to Lei Tong with a smirk. Sure enough, he heard the same exclamation:

"What! Basandu is still alive?!"

Although I have been mentally prepared, the similarity is still shocking. Although the yellow cake is still very important, no matter how much yellow cake Ivia has, it will not be directly hit now. Yan Guo's head.

But Basandu's things are a little different. Once it helps Basandu to regain his original position, the benefits will be very close!

"Alive, you can talk to him."

At this time, Qin Yuan directly gave the satellite phone to Basangdu, and he still needs professional people to negotiate such things.

After coming over for a few minutes, he didn't know what condition was promised, his face was a bit ugly, and then he gave Qin Yuan the phone again.

At this time, the same voice, the tone was also a lot more cheerful, and he said directly to Qin Yuan

"Qin Yuan, we have already said that you can help him as much as possible. At that time, we will be able to rely on Ivia to purchase a large amount of ores from neighboring countries, and even rely on the name of Ivia from the lighthouse. China buys some things that we cannot buy."

"Okay, just negotiate!"

Qin Yuan doesn't need to know how many benefits he has gained. After all, these are incidental. With these grids alone, Qin Yuan will not give up this task. It is enough to get these benefits now.

"However, you still have to be careful. I already know your situation. The people sent to support you are already on the way. Be careful. It's really not good Give up Basandu, and you will come back by yourself. Yes, and even though your current status is a soldier of the Yan Nation, we cannot give you a lot of help in the face. You have to understand this."

"I know, that's all right, it will be fine when I go back."

At this time Qin Yuan hung up the phone directly, and said to a few people on the side:

"Now to find a few cars, we must start to act immediately. Abdullah probably has already sent someone over!"

Hearing such words, everyone acted nervously, but seeing so many people, Ba Sangdu frowned and said to Qin Yuan:

"There are so many of us, and the goal is probably too big. Abdullah will definitely not let us go. Let's go together, I am afraid that all of us will not be able to go. We must find a way."

"I have already figured out the way, let's go!"

At this time, Qin Yuan gave a smirk, and then drove the group of people into the desert with Moika and others.

Chapter 486: Chase

At this moment, in the distant city of Ivia, a man with a round hat and a big beard was looking out the window.

This person is the person behind Zhaka, the candidate for Prime Minister Ivia, Abdullah!

Now Abdullah is holding General Sharaf's fault, as well as the elite personnel under Zhaka. The combination of these two is simply unfavorable. Those government soldiers have been beaten and retreated.

There is even news that members of the government army have planned to give up resistance and surrender directly to Abdullah.

In this way, it is estimated that Abdullah will be able to take down the entire Ivia directly without blood!

It stands to reason that in this situation, Abdullah should be very happy, but at this time, Abdullah's face is full of coldness!

Abdullah looked at the news from his subordinates, frowned tightly, and asked directly to one of his subordinates:

"The helicopter sent to hunt down that traitor crashed?"

"Yes, it is estimated that more than an hour has passed, so we can't continue to look for them, this traitor, not only betrayed the leader, but also betrayed the sir!"

But this man said respectfully, and when he heard these words, Abdullah's face became completely gloomy.

Others don't know exactly what is going on, but Abdullah knows it all!

In the hands of this traitor, there is such an important bargaining chip as Basandu!

Originally, Abdullah was very happy when he heard that Basandu was still alive and was caught by them.

At the beginning, he planned to let General Sharaf beat the government soldiers to death, and then he stood up and led the people to defeat the rule of General Sharaf, a tyrant, while Basandu and others. It is an important bargaining chip in his hand, at a critical moment, it can prove the legitimacy around him!

This can also unite the personnel of the government army and prove that Ivia is still the former Ivia, and it is only the warlord General Sharaf that is wrong!

However, because of the loss of the yellow pie, Abdullah thought that General Sharaf had obtained the yellow pie.

This made Abdullah unable to bear it.

After all, when he first helped General Sharaf, he wanted General Sharaf to be his shield in front!

But now if you really have these yellow cake and dirty bomb technology, this shield will directly become a cannibal beast, and it will really be possible to eat all of them!

Therefore, Abdullah directly mobilized his power lurking next to General Sharaf, and directly stripped General Sharaf's authority!

But I can only think that Basandu, who used to be an important bargaining chip, is now a hot potato. Originally, he wanted to completely dispose of Basandu and others, but he didn't expect this incident to have an accident!

"Send everyone out and we must kill this traitor!"

This was said in a deep voice in Abdullah, and when this little brother heard such words, he nodded directly, turned around and walked out.

However, at this moment, a person rushed in and said to Abdullah with a smile:

"Oh. Sir, what activity are you going to participate in? I wonder if this activity can't let me participate?"

When Abdullah looked at the blond man in front of him, he frowned and said in embarrassment:

"Mr. John, this is our internal activity, there is nothing to look at."

"Hey, Mr. Abdullah, I am a true war correspondent. I just heard that you said to deal with a traitor. I guess this kind of thing is not an important thing for you. It just happens to be able to pass this way. The way to show the strength of your army, the public opinion in the international arena has been a very good improvement for you!"

The reporter named John was obviously an old fried dough stick, and he knew what to say to get Abdullah to agree, and when he heard the words of John, Abdullah's brows suddenly frowned.

He is not a terrorist or a warlord now, he is a leader, and no matter what a leader does, he doesn't actually need to cover up.

Abdullah can also reject John, but based on Abdullah's understanding of the person in front of him, it is extremely clear that if this guy cannot go, he will definitely write some messy things to slander him!

But this matter still needs to be kept secret, so Abdullah pondered a little, and then said to John:

"I'm really sorry, you can't participate in this operation, but if my soldier has achieved the goal, then the target's body will be brought back, and you can take a few photos at that time."

Abdullah said to John that, anyway, the people of Basandu were already dead. Even if it was taken by John, it would not have any impact. On the contrary, it would prove that Abdullah's methods were superb. With the help of the power of public opinion in John's hands, he shouted to the opposing government army to let the opposing party surrender earlier. This is also very good for Abdullah!

But when he heard such words, John immediately cursed the old fox in his heart, but he couldn't help it. Although he was a relatively famous war reporter, these people did not dare to attack him casually, but it was still possible to restrict his actions.

However, John rolled his eyes and said directly to Abdullah:

"If this is the case, then I will not go, but can you give me a guarantee that if there is a similar action next time, can you take me?"

Abdullah frowned slightly But he also understood that he had already rejected John once, and if he continued to reject it, he would probably offend the man known as the war hound.

"Well, if this is the case, then I promise you that if the next action continues, I will take you."

When Abdullah said this, he cast a look at the little brother who was on one side, and the little brother nodded his head with comprehension. It is estimated that what he brought back to John would only be a ball of coke.

At this time, seeing this situation, John frowned, but he couldn't say anything to Abdulado, and went straight out!

"Oh, God, no matter who you are dealing with this time, I hope you can hold on for longer."

At this time, apart from losing, John can only look forward to it in his heart.

I hope that regardless of the enemy Abdullah wants to deal with, he must persist for a longer time. After all, in this way, he can have news to write about.

Chapter 487: For revenge

You must know that as a war hound, if you can't take the real first-hand and stimulate the reader's picture, then John will never get the position today.

Many people, especially the rebels in the world, love and hate John. What they love is that this man can pass their needs directly to the world, which is equivalent to advertising them for free.

The hate is that once they encounter any difficulties, this man will not hesitate to ridicule them and accelerate their demise.

This war hound is a double-edged sword. If you use it well, you can get twice the result with half the effort, but if you don't use it well, you can only kill yourself!

But John looked at the hundreds of soldiers and several armored vehicles in front of him, and he felt that his idea was a bit absurd.

I heard Abdullah's statement just now. He knew that this time he was going to deal with only a few traitors. Even if these traitors are relatively strong, can they be able to withstand this full 10-fold gap?

"Oh, it seems that this time is doomed to fail!"

At this time, John sighed, wondering whether he was worried about the traitor's experience or because he couldn't write a manuscript.

At this time, on Qin Yuan's side, a group of people drove several cars and moved forward quickly, but when Qin Yuan saw a location, he gave an order to stop these people.

Seeing these weird trees that looked like mushrooms, Qin Yuan showed a trace of curiosity on his face, and then said directly to Basandu:

"What kind of tree is this, why does it grow so strange?"

"This is the dragon's blood tree, the reward given by the Holy Lord to us Ivia. As you know, our place is arid and rainless, so the only thing that can survive is this kind of drought-resistant dragon's blood tree that can store water."

"This kind of tree, as long as it is cut, will give out a blood-like juice. It is not only drinkable, but also a very good medicinal material. It has a certain effect on diarrhea, dehydration, and trauma. It's the blood of the dragon, a very precious plant."

At this time, Ba Sangdu saw how interested Qin Yuan was, and directly helped Qin Yuan introduce it.

Hearing such words, Qin Yuan narrowed his eyes and said directly:

"This place is very good. After counting the time, it seems that Abdullah's chasing soldiers are about to catch up."

But Moika, who was on the side, said in a deep voice:

"I'm afraid we don't have much time to spend time here. Abdullah is definitely going to kill us, so he may send armored vehicles or helicopters over. By then, we will not be able to escape with these few cars. So we have to take advantage of this time to open a greater distance."

But after hearing such words, Qin Yuan smiled and said directly to everyone:

"What if their car and helicopter are not available?"

Yep?

Hearing this, both Basandu and Moika frowned, especially Moika. Hearing Qin Yuan's words, they asked coldly:

"What do you mean? Are you going to ambush in this place?"

"Yes, what you just said is very good. We must hurry up and get a distance, but you must not forget that no matter how fast we run, we can never run fast on the opposite side. And now Abdullah In his hands, there must be something like radar and gps. It is impossible to rely on your feet to be faster than the opposite, so if you really want to run away, you must stop and fight this battle!"

But Qin Yuan's face was full of solemnity, and Basangdu was still hesitating when he heard this, but Moika nodded and agreed, and said directly to Qin Yuan:

"What you said makes sense. If you want to escape, you can only use this method. Only if the person on the other side hurts, the person on the other side dare not chase too closely!"

After all, Moika is a veteran with rich combat experience, so he agrees with Qin Yuan's statement very much. He looked at his men and said directly to them:

"Now you are divided into two teams, one team protects Basandu and others to move on, and the other team stays for me to fight."

Hearing what Moika said at this time, these little brothers looked at each other. They were all very clear. With them, it is simply impossible to block the chasing soldiers from behind.

So as long as they choose to stay, they must be dead, and leaving here with Basandu might still have a chance of life.

However, these people are also elite terrorists with more conviction after all, and they don't value their lives as much as they thought. Soon the two people are divided into groups, and even more people stayed than they left.

Seeing such a situation, Qin Yuan laughed and said directly to Moika:

"What are you thinking about? I didn't plan to let you stay and fight with me at all. What I said was fighting and blocking, but I was the only one, those of you who had not experienced serious training, and there was only one dead end left. "

At this time, hearing Qin Yuan's words, these people suddenly became angry. Isn't this an insult to them Hong Guoguo?

But at this moment, Qin Yuan suddenly revealed his murderous aura!

These murderous auras in Qin Yuan's body were almost condensed into substance, just like the demon **** who popped out of the Nine Nethers, unceasingly spitting cold air in the necks of these people!

This one really made these people shiver. After feeling Qin Yuan's murderous aura, these little brothers who were originally full of resentment completely settled down.

My god, how many people did this guy kill? Why is there such a strong murderous aura in ?

Even Moika looked at Qin Yuan in surprise. To be honest, although they killed a lot of people, they always felt like a little bit of a witch compared to Qin Yuan!

Like this kind of means that can make people stop breathing, and even suppress the strength of others, Moika is beyond the reach!

But Basangdu, who was sitting on the side, had a question and said directly to Qin Yuan:

"I know your strength is strong, but why do you want to stay here? You must know that you are not a member of our country, just for a promise, you won't get to this point, right?"

At this time, Ba Sangdu stared straight at Qin Yuan, always feeling that Qin Yuan was doing things a little bit beyond their imagination.

But after hearing what Basangdu said, Qin Yuan laughed completely, and finally said with a gloomy face:

"I have to say more, of course for revenge!"

Chapter 488: Keep going!

revenge?

At this moment, when he heard what Qin Yuan said, Basangdu and Moika looked at each other immediately, and Basangdu asked Qin Yuan with some curiosity:

"I remember you said before that you are here for the first time, and I heard that before, there seems to be no casualties in your team, so why do you say you want revenge?"

But after hearing such words, Qin Yuan smiled contemptuously and said directly to the two of them:

"Of course it is revenge. I know that this fellow Zhaka, who dared to destroy our warship, was also helped by Abdullah, and this fellow, Abdullah, did not know how many Chinese people were harmed during the riot. Overseas Chinese, these are all human lives, I naturally want to retaliate against them one by one!"

Speaking of this, Qin Yuan paused for a moment, and then said:

"What's more, even if Abdullah did not do this, so what, as long as I say revenge, then it must be revenge. Even if Abdullah didn't do anything, as long as he blocked our way, , It must be finished!

What does the so-called destroying you have to do with you! This is a great country behind me, giving me confidence!"

At this time, Qin Yuan's words were extremely domineering, and seeing Qin Yuan's appearance, the eyes of Basandu and Moika were full of envy, and they really wanted to say it one day. Words like Qin Yuan.

Only a truly great country standing behind can have such confidence.

Even at this level, Qin Yuan is still thinking about resisting. This is the spirit of a person, and there are millions of soldiers like this in Yan Country!

"No wonder the country of Yan is known as the invincible army. If people like Qin Yuan make up a few thousand, then the army of the country of Yan, even the most elite people in the world, will be hard to resist!"

Upon hearing this, Qin Yuan also agreed, and then directly addressed Basandu and Moika:

"Okay, you two don't stay here anymore. Take the time to walk through this forest and throw your car away. As long as we can break it into pieces, we won't be caught by the GPS on the opposite side!"

Hearing these words, Basandu and Moika glanced at each other, feeling mixed.

They all know how powerful Qin Yuan's strength is, but no matter how strong Qin Yuan's strength is, there is only one person. They don't know how many chasing soldiers there are. They want to stop all these people, but it's not one thing. Easy thing.

Moreover, this is still very dangerous.

I have to say that although Qin Yuan is not their friend, they really admire Qin Yuan.

"If this is the case, then we will go first, you take care."

At this time, Basandu and Moika stopped lingering, and left here quickly.

And this group of people glanced at Qin Yuan and made a gesture full of admiration to Qin Yuan. This was the way they walked directly into the Dragon Blood Forest.

Looking at the back of these people leaving, Qin Yuan was about to start acting. He looked at the distance, smiled coldly, and said softly:

"Come on, come on, let you know that Yan Country is not an existence that can be easily utilized."

After saying this, Qin Yuan directly opened his ammunition box ability and took out all the weapons in it.

Qin Yuan looked at these weapons in front of him, the smile on his face became even harder, and then he started to act.

However, when Qin Yuan took a dagger and plunged into a dragon's blood tree, he found that the sap of the tree was as bright as blood, and looking at the sap of the dragon's blood tree, Qin Yuan's thoughts moved. Put this thing back into the space.

After all, Qin Yuan already has a lot of grids. If Basangdu can be sent back, there will be more grids. Qin Yuan wants to try it. If this dragon blood tree is in the space, what will happen Kind of ability.

With this thought of Qin Yuan, a branch of dragon blood disappeared directly into Qin Yuan's hands.

"Ding Dong~ The system was successfully recovered, please start the selection!"

With the prompt sound of this system, three options suddenly appeared in front of Qin Yuan!

"1. Get world-class drought tolerance!"

"2, get world-class dragon blood spirit!"

"3, get a world-class totem technique!"

Looking at these three options at this time, Qin Yuan couldn't stop his eyes widening!

"World-class drought tolerance allows the host to absorb a small amount of water, reduce water consumption and evaporation, and save a lot of energy."

"The spirit of the world-class dragon blood can increase the speed and strength of the host after killing the enemy for a period of time."

"World-class totem technique, to obtain a totem, if the enemy's blood is put on the totem, the enemy will develop fear after seeing this totem, lose 30% of the combat ability, and erect an invincible in his heart. Image."

Looking at the explanation of these three skills at this time, Qin Yuan's eyes were shining, and it was true that the Dragon Blood Tree was a rare good thing, and he was able to produce these three useful skills!

But now Qin Yuan has 4 grids, which still cannot be used indiscriminately.

For Qin Yuan, the first and second abilities are not very urgently needed. Now Qin Yuan still has a lot of space, water and food are still enough, and this dragon blood spirit skill, Although it can increase Qin Yuan's speed and strength, when dealing with these people, relying on Qin Yuan's current physique, it is enough, even if it is increased, it does not make much sense.

And this totem technique has a certain meaning. After all, the reason why Qin Yuan will deal with these people is because these people dare to use Yan Nation, even against Yan Nation's warships, so as long as Qin Yuan gives them this time The profound lesson makes them feel fear when they think of this totem.

Then they would no longer dare to do such a thing to Yan Guoren Thinking of this, Qin Yuan suddenly showed a smile on his face, and directly chose the third item!

"Ding Dong, the host chooses successfully and obtains a world-class totem."

At this moment, Qin Yuan saw that a strange-looking white chess piece appeared in his grid. Qin Yuan directly took out this flag and found that the white flag looked quite big.

Qin Yuan touched this chess piece, and suddenly there was an extra progress bar in his mind, which was still empty now.

Qin Yuan directly smeared some of the sap of the dracaena, and sure enough, the sap was quickly absorbed.

It seems that as long as this chess piece is filled with red blood, the progress bar will end.

Looking at this flag, Qin Yuan continued to act with a smile on his mouth!

Chapter 489: Domineering

At this time, the chasing soldiers sent by Abdullah in the distance had already known the direction in which Qin Yuan and others had fled through the instrument in their hands. They looked at the dense forest in the distance. At this moment, they suddenly heard a series of gunshots. !

Hearing this voice, a terrorist team member wearing a grimace mask suddenly narrowed his eyes and said directly:

"What does this mean, is it a provocation to us?"

"Captain, what shall we do? If we catch up right now, we may be ambushed by the opponent."

At this time, a little brother asked directly, and upon hearing this, the captain-like figure immediately sneered, and said lightly:

"What's that? How many people do they have? Less than 10 people! And we have hundreds of people, and all of them are well-trained elite fighters! Are you afraid of them?"

Having said this, the captain immediately made the front car turn in the direction of the gunfire, and soon they came to this wood!

Looking at the lush dragon blood tree in front of him, the captain immediately let all his subordinates get out of the car, prepared the equipment, and then stepped carefully into the forest.

Although the words are relaxed, the captain is a relatively elite soldier after all, so he is still very careful.

And at this moment, a little brother suddenly reported to him:

"Report to the captain, there seems to be a message in front."

Hearing these words, their group immediately ran over, and then the captain saw that on a dragon blood tree, the bark had been scraped off, but there was nothing left on the trunk. Additional provocative statement:

"You people who eat ***** can't keep up with the heat. You can only deal with the waste of the old, the weak, the sick, and hurry up to deal with me. Grandpa is waiting for you in front, and is facing you. If you run faster, point to Maybe you can pick up a hot one!"

This passage was written on it with a dagger, and it was also very considerate. At the same time, it was written in the language of Ivia and the language of Yan country to ensure that these guys could understand it.

But even if this group of people couldn't understand, looking at the vigorous and powerful words on this piece of tree, they could feel a kind of oncoming ridicule and domineering!

At this time, looking at this series of texts, all the terrorists around were gasping for breath. You must know that they are the most elite fighters. They are the members who protect their leader Abdullah and have experienced the most stringent. Training, and even learned tactical skills from the Lighthouse Nation, is completely different from those who really got up from the militia, and they carry immense pride.

But now this Yan countryman actually ridicules them so much, is this tolerable?

And they had already heard that a group of people from Yan country came directly to them and killed Zhaka directly, which made them extremely angry with the people from Yan country, and now the people from Yan country still leave such language. To taunt them, it is natural to make the anger in their hearts like a barrel of gasoline poured into it, and it burns up!

And a group of red sap slowly spread from the Dragon's Blood Tree, forming a very funny, smiling face symbol, just like the hateful Yan Guoren standing in front of them mocking them!

So one of the soldiers finally couldn't stand, walked directly in front of this tree, picked up the gun to tow, and hit the tree with one shot!

"Fuck you, Yan Chinese, hurry up and die!"

The strength of this soldier is not small, and the ***** of this rifle is also full of momentum. It is directly because the dragon blood tree that hits can't help shaking, and at this moment, the captain and the soldier who stood aside suddenly became wide. Eyes, because they saw something falling from the branches of the Dracaena!

A dragon's blood tree can grow to 8 to 10 meters normally. Although the one in front of you is not so high, it is about 7 meters.

So when they first started, they didn't care if there were other things on the branches of the dragon blood tree!

And the thing on it fell directly on the head of the impulsive soldier. The soldier didn't wear a helmet, and the thing that fell from it was not light, weighing more than five or six catties.

Five or six kilograms of things fell directly on a person's head from a height of seven or eight meters, and the person's eyes were smashed!

However, when the soldier saw clearly what hit him, his eyes widened and he made a heartfelt humiliating sound!

Because the five or six catties in front of me is just a bunch of tape, grenades, grenades, and a few rifle cartridges. They are all in a mess and look like things that don't look similar. Together, it is almost bigger than a detonator.

More importantly, these things are emitting a trace of gunpowder burning smoke. They are all very familiar with this smell. At this time, the soldier only had time to raise his head and found that there were a few grenades hanging on it. Pull ring...

"Lie down and run!"

The captain finally reacted and yelled frantically at everyone, and the others around him also recollected and fled towards the surrounding frantically.

It's a pity, can they get past Qin Yuan's carefully prepared gift?

"boom!"

"boom!"

"boom!"

At this time, a series of explosions gradually reminded me of everything around me, it was almost frozen, these countless grenade fragments, grenade fragments, and various bullet fragments were all affected together. In order to stimulate, even Qin Yuan still added some broken stones to it. These things mixed together, like a large-area shotgun, suddenly blasted toward the surrounding!

And those rebels who were extremely fearful, no matter what actions they made, no matter what howls they made, they could not avoid being hit by these fragments and bullets. His whole person was like Like breakdancing, the whole body was shaking constantly, and then he was beaten into a sieve!

From around this dragon's blood tree, within a radius of 10 meters, there was a terrible scream, and there was a combination of blood and meat that could not be cleaned.

The entire forest suddenly turned into a hell, and the surrounding dragon blood trees were also constantly flowing out of juice, matched with the half of the message left, it seemed even more terrifying!

Chapter 490: 1 start

At this moment, the captain, who was far away, finally ran away, staring dumbly at what was happening before him.

He really can't imagine that just one face-to-face, he has already lost nearly 20 hands. Although these people in front of him did not die directly, but in this situation, with regard to the large-scale injuries on them, the best The way is to shoot them directly and let them end the pain.

And this captain did the same. He directly took out his pistol and shot the wounded man in front of him who had been blown off a thigh. He looked at the panic all around, and those on the ground who were still groaning. Chen Sheng said:

"What are you still doing? The people we are going to pursue are extremely cunning bastards. Send them on the road to save them from more pain. All this is for jihad. They work for jihad and they will inevitably go to heaven after death! "

Hearing such words at this time, the faces of the surrounding players all showed a trace of sadness, thinking about the teammates who spoke and trained before, they will soon become corpses, thinking about everything they have experienced together, filled with unbearable heart. .

But looking at the painful expressions of these wounded men, they gritted their teeth and fired directly to help their companions end the pain.

But at this moment, the branch above his head seemed to have fallen something again. The captain was an agitated spirit, with a backhand shot, and suddenly knocked this thing off!

The surrounding team members were all too scared to lie on the ground, but after a while, they realized that what had fallen from the tree was nothing but a piece of iron!

At this time, a team member climbed over cautiously, took the iron piece back directly, looked at the bullet hole that was punched out on the iron piece, and said to everyone:

"It's okay, it's just a piece of iron!"

But when the captain heard this, he said vigilantly:

"Is there anything wrong with this thing?"

And the soldier looked carefully at the iron piece, and found some scratches carved out by bullets on the iron piece, and the scratches contained the same notes as before, in the same mocking tone:

"I was upset when I was bombed, saying that you are a bunch of waste who can't keep up with life after eating shit. You are such waste, dead teammates. Do you still have the courage to chase me? I tell you the truth, I am only one person. Before your last bit of courage disappears, come and kill me? Come and kill me!"

After writing these, there is a small print on the iron sheet:

"If you don't dare to chase me, just lick this iron piece. I've pulled papa on this before. As long as you dare to eat shit, then you won't use it to chase me!"

Just seeing the words, the soldier was shocked, and suddenly he threw the iron piece aside in his hand, but when the people around heard what the soldier said, they were cold all over, and I don't know if it was scared or scared. Angry.

But the captain gritted his teeth and saw the appearance of the players around him, knowing that they were all hit, and they had to catch this person. If they didn't catch this person, not only would they not be able to complete Abu. Du La's order is more of a loss of confidence. Even if he meets this person in the future, they will never be opponents!

So the captain said directly to the players at hand:

"What are you afraid of? You are the greatest warrior of the Holy Sect. Think about the training we have received before. This kid just caught our first effort to underestimate the enemy, so it caused such a big damage. Let's be careful, they only have a few people, can they kill us all?

Set off, kill this guy, complete the order of the husband, avenge our leader, chop off his head, and make it into a hip flask, dedicated to our leader! "

At this time, hearing the words of the captain, as to these soldiers, his eyes finally became firm, and he cheered loudly:

"Make this guy a hip flask!"

"Make this guy a hip flask!"

"Make this guy a hip flask!"

It's just that when the captain heard such words, an extremely proud smile appeared at the corner of his mouth. He looked at the iron piece in front of him, and his heart was extremely cold.

Although they were put together by this guy, Qin Yuan suppressed the confidence of these players, but the captain knew that if they could kill Qin Yuan, they would undergo an unprecedented transformation. Become a more elite soldier!

There are few opportunities like this, so although Qin Yuan is a great humiliation to them, it is also a catalyst for their growth!

At this time, hiding a few hundred meters away, Qin Yuan heard the cheers coming from a distance, but there was also a slight smile on his face.

He is not at all afraid that the captain will mobilize the morale of these people, because a group of sheep always needs a leader, and the leader will take these sheep to graze, take the sheep to drink water, and even help resist The wolves, but, in the end, the leader must also lead them into the slaughterhouse!

As for Qin Yuan, as long as he was the captain, he wouldn't let this group of people flee directly in embarrassment. It was enough to leave this forest.

After all, no matter how powerful Qin Yuan was, he wouldn't know how to do it, so it was impossible to chase hundreds of people alone.

As long as these people stay in this forest, it proves that their lives have always been in Qin Yuan's hands!

So Qin Yuan directly raised the gun in his hand and fired a burst into the air, shouting loudly at the distance:

"Come on, come on, you guys who have no eggs, come and catch me!"

At this time, Qin Yuan not only fired a few bullets, but also directly boarded the branches of the dragon blood tree, waving the flag in his hand, the whole person twisted like twists. Jumping, jumping and screaming at these people, and constantly pointing the middle finger!

Qin Yuan knew that this group of people must be wearing binoculars, and he would definitely be able to see his trail, but the more so, the more excited he became, and finally he patted his **** directly at this group of people. It was extremely excited that he jumped off the tree and headed in another direction!

At this time, the captain in the distance was just like Qin Yuan had guessed. Using the telescope in his hand, he had already seen this extremely arrogant appearance of Qin Yuan!

He also understood that this fellow Qin Yuan was definitely trying to lure the enemy deeper!

But even if he understood this truth, he still couldn't restrain his anger, and said to his surrounding men:

"Kill this guy, if we don't get rid of this person, we will lose all our faces!"

"Leave a few people to take care of the wounded, others, come with me!"
