

Special Soldier 501

Chapter 502: Unknown problem!

Finally, this resolution passed...

At this time, Lei Tong saw the signed document, with a smile on his face.

Qin Yuan, what I promised you has been done, now it's up to your performance!

At this time, Qin Yuan, as if feeling the same words, looked up at the sky, and then directly said to the people behind him:

"rest!"

Hearing Qin Yuan's words, these people did not hesitate, and quickly found a shady place, sat down and rested.

Although they still had a lot of physical strength left, Qin Yuan had already stipulated that they would find a place to rest as long as they walked for half an hour.

After all, this is a long-distance race and you must maintain your own state.

And looking at these people, Qin Yuan's black gauze face also showed a smile.

The reason why he has the confidence to lead these people directly into this desert is because Qin Yuan now has a lot of grids, and with grids, he can do a lot of magical things!

And if Qin Yuan kills all those who are chasing behind, then the previous task will definitely be completed! There are even more grids.

However, Qin Yuan's main purpose is to show the majesty of Yan Nation, using this method to give these terrorists a heavy blow!

Qin Yuan knew that the Abdullah organization had existed for a long time, and Qin Yuan knew in his heart that no matter how powerful he was, it was impossible to kill everyone in this organization directly.

The best way is to use this method to combat the reputation of this organization and completely cut off the source of the organization's hematopoiesis.

As long as everyone is not optimistic about this terrorist organization, even if Qin Yuan does not kill anyone, it is equivalent to killing the organization himself!

This is the so-called killing is as good as Zhu Xin!

Before entering the desert, Qin Yuan had already received a handful of sand directly into his grid, and the system at that time also gave Qin Yuan three skills directly.

"1, get world-class glass manufacturing!"

"2, get world-class desert survival knowledge!"

"3. Get world-class geological knowledge!"

After seeing these three options, Qin Yuan naturally did not hesitate, and directly chose the second item, and he did not hesitate to raise this world-class desert survival knowledge to the highest cosmic level!

After Qin Yuan's body trembled a little at that time, his whole person had become a master of desert survival!

But while Qin Yuan was pondering, Li Erniu directly raised his hand.

"speak!"

"Brother Yuan, I would like to ask, why do we have to wear this scarf? It feels a little inconvenient, and I can't breathe. Isn't it more physical exertion?"

Hearing such words, Qin Yuan suddenly smiled.

Now each of them has a black veil on their face, looking like those Sling women.

"That's because, in the desert, it is actually somewhat similar to the snow, and it will form a situation similar to snow blindness. If you look at the same color for a long time without any change, it will have a great impact on your vision. Big damage, normally we should wear sunglasses, but I don't have sunglasses now, so I can only use this black cloth instead."

Hearing such words, Li Ernew instantly understood, nodded and stopped talking, and then took the time to rest.

But Qin Yuan didn't stop his mouth, and said directly to everyone:

"In fact, when walking in the desert, the most comfortable time should be after nightfall, but now there are a group of people behind us chasing, so we can't stop. From now on, everyone should work hard to save everything in their bodies. A drop of water, we have to completely consume the * behind!"

At this moment, hearing the murderous aura in Qin Yuan's words, several people all responded in a low voice, and their eyes became firmer.

But at this time, Qin Yuan took out a lipstick that he didn't know where he got from himself, threw it directly to Li Erniu, and said to Li Erniu:

"Well, don't lick your mouth all the time. It won't do any good except to make your lips more chapped. Use this thing."

Hearing such words, Li Erniu took this thing directly and put it on his mouth without any hesitation.

The last few people took turns to paint this lipstick. After a 15-minute rest, Qin Yuan gave an order and the group started to move on.

...

At this time, at a place five kilometers away from Qin Yuan, Herley looked at the car that Qin Yuan had thrown away before, and some weapons, but his face sank.

If they continue to move forward, their car can no longer be driven and can only move forward on foot.

And their helicopter has run out of fuel. Although they can fly over and look for the traces of these people, the effect is not great.

In this desert, it's almost impossible to hide the traces of the helicopter. When they saw the helicopter coming, they just need to lie in the desert, cover it with a canvas, and put a little sand on the veins, then the helicopter will not be able to find it. these people!

And once you can't find your target, no matter how many weapons are installed on the helicopter, it is just a target, and it may be hit by a bullet that does not know where it came from.

Herley thought for a while, and finally gave up the idea. They only had two helicopters. Although they could still ask for help from the rear, the more helicopters came the greater the logistics pressure, aviation fuel It's not so easy to add.

At this time, Herley thought for a while, and still dialed Abdullah. The call was soon connected, and then Herley directly reported to Abdullah what happened.

"Sir, although these people have entered the desert, they definitely don't have enough water and food. As long as we block this desert, we will be able to catch turtles in an urn. There is no need to worry about these people in the desert. What storms are happening!"

However, Abdullah's face sank after hearing what Heley said, and he said directly to Heley:

"No, we have to press up now with all our strength and use the most beautiful technique to catch this guy!"

There is nothing wrong with Herley's thinking in terms of military affairs, but in terms of politics, it is too far behind. Now Abdullah has sent reporters to publicly kill Qin Yuan through live broadcast, but if Qin Yuan They died in the desert. It was impossible for them to find Qin Yuan's body in the desert. Then, did they kill Qin Yuan? This is simply an unknown problem!

Chapter 503: 1 bite

But what Abdullah wanted was to grab Qin Yuan quickly and neatly, and make the first move! Only in this way can they show their power!

Therefore, Abdullah at this time said directly to Herley:

"I don't care what method you use, you want to see people in life, and corpses in death! Even if they are eaten by vultures and only a few bones are left, that is to bring them back to me! As for what you need, I use the helicopter to give you a steady stream of empty heads, and all you have to do is to send me back these hateful people from Yan country!

Having said this, Abdullah took a deep breath and said to Herley again:

"Do you know? I thought you were able to kill these Yan Chinese people quickly, so I let the reporter go with you, but I didn't expect you to drag it so long!

As a result, everyone in Ivia now knows that we are hunting down those Yan people, and we haven't succeeded. The surrender agreement that was originally signed has now been shelved. Therefore, this time it's not just your business. This is already related to the victory or defeat of our entire holy war. I say this, do you understand? "

Hearing Abdullah's angry words at this time, Herley's eyes also changed, and he made a guarantee directly on the phone:

"Yes! I see! We are all children born in the desert, and we can definitely dig out these people and kill them!"

After that, Herley completely spared no effort, completely regardless of the loss, and began to pursue Qin Yuan and others!

At this time, the helicopter swayed endlessly in the desert over and over again, where it looked like a desert in the white ocean and dropped the bullets in vain, and then waited until the helicopter ran out of fuel before flying back!

It's a pity that such an approach is completely useless. If you can't find the right way, you can't do it.

At the beginning, Qin Yuan and others would be a little nervous when they saw the helicopter coming, but after a long time, they didn't care at all. Instead, they had a little expectation and even thought about what the other party used this time. How long can the weaponry last?

Soon Herley also understood that this approach was useless at all, so he made up his mind and let his deputy, born in the desert since he was a child, led the team into this desert by Jadra Khan, who has nine years of war experience!

This time, the people led by Jadra Khan are all veterans who have experienced many wars, and most of them were born in the desert. How to survive in the desert is just like instinct!

So Jadra Khan was extremely confident and promised Herley:

"Captain, don't worry, this group of Yan Chinese must have never survived in the desert. I will be able to capture all of these people soon!"

Hearing such words at this time, Herley also felt relieved. He knew Jadra Khan's abilities very well, and was almost on par with him, so he said directly to Jadra Khan:

"Jadra Khan, this time the task is left to you. You have survived here since you were a child. You must be more suitable for this action than me. I have to take into consideration that yellow-haired dog. Okay, I must win beautiful. At that time, I will let that yellow-haired dog take some handsome photos of you!"

"Haha! Okay, that's it!"

Jadra Khan agreed very happily, and then this group of more than two hundred people entered the silver desert called the silver cemetery together.

At this time, on Qin Yuan's side, it's a completely different situation. The sun in the sky is almost like drying people out. Qin Yuan is standing at the very end, following behind his team members, and , Within an hour, he would let these people drink a sip of water.

Walking in the desert is a very boring task. Although there is enough rest and water, Yang Rui and others still consume a lot of physical energy.

Yang Rui raised his head and glanced at the sun in the sky, but he heard Qin Yuan say once:

"Well, I found a place to rest again, rest."

"En? Rested again?"

At this moment, these people looked at each other, and each of them was full of helplessness. Although the weather is very hot, they are not ordinary people. They are all elite fighters with many battles, especially the three of He Chenguang. After Qin Yuan's rigorous training, even running dozens of kilometers is not a problem, but now Qin Yuan allows them to rest so frequently, it is really difficult for them to accept.

And more importantly, at this time, Qin Yuan never had a rest, and he drank very little water. He was carrying equipment heavier than them, still like a groundhog, unable to live around. Walking around to collect all kinds of things.

"My God, wouldn't he feel tired?"

At this time, Yang Rui couldn't help but exclaimed. You should know that Qin Yuan had been attacked for a long time when he was in the jungle before, and this kind of confrontation that requires people to concentrate their energy is very exhausting. Although they rescued Qin Yuan, Qin Yuan had never experienced a decent rest, and when he saw Qin Yuan's spirited look, Yang Rui couldn't complain.

"Hey, my captain's physical strength is invincible. I have never seen my captain when he is tired. Even this ghost place is too hot. Just after walking for a while, I was sweaty."

At this time, Li Erniu also said, while He Chenguang and Gu Shun, who were on the side, were exchanging sniper experience.

To be honest, for Li Erniu and the others, although the weather was a little hotter, it seemed that it was not much different from going out for an outing?

At this time, Qin Yuan was excited because he saw a good thing.

This thing is green with thorns, it is a very common plant in the desert, cactus!

After seeing this cactus, Qin Yuan's eyes lit up. This is a good thing.

The cactus in the desert is not only able to fetch water, but also edible, and can even be used as a weapon.

However, Qin Yuan did not have the impulse to cut down the cactus and drag it back. After all, although the cactus is edible, it is poisonous to eat directly. It can produce illusions in people's minds. If the place is poisoned, it is regarded as one foot stepping into the ghost door and closing it!

But after Qin Yuan stripped off the thorns, he bit on it.

Chapter 504: World-class cactus toxin!

These toxins may be terrible to others, but for Qin Yuan, who has anti-toxin ability, it is drizzle. After all, Qin Yuan is not even afraid of the Ramanra virus, and can be injured by the alkaline poison of this little cactus. To?

After eating the cactus, Qin Yuan added some water, but at this time, Qin Yuan was moved in his heart.

I don't know, what would happen to this cactus if it received it in the grid.

Thinking of this, Qin Yuan glanced at his system list and found that he had two grids left.

However, it was getting dark now, and Qin Yuan's previous task was to attract the attention of the rebels for 24 hours, so Qin Yuan had never fought against the chasing troops behind him.

After all, what Qin Yuan has to do now is to make things bigger and attract more Abdullah's attention, but if Qin Yuan's shot is too ruthless, he will kill all the people behind, I'm afraid it's actually It would make Abdullah feel scared and gave up Qin Yuan directly.

And in order to expand his influence, Qin Yuan even gave Lei Tong such an idea, so Qin Yuan must do this thing well!

Therefore, Qin Yuan intends to lure these people into the desert temporarily, and after these twenty-four hours have passed, Qin Yuan will let these people know what is truly cruel!

But Qin Yuan also knew that by that time, they had already entered the center of the desert, and they would definitely be in a dilemma by that time, so Qin Yuan must now prepare in advance and bring his brothers alive from this desert. go away!

Thinking of this, Qin Yuan's heart moved and he received this cactus directly into his grid!

"Ding Dong~ The system was successfully recovered, please start choosing the host!"

With the prompt sound of this system, three options suddenly appeared in front of Qin Yuan!

"1. Get world-class drought resistance skills!"

"2, get world-class cactus water extraction ability!"

"3, get world-class cactus toxin!"

Seeing these three options at this time, Qin Yuan's eyes suddenly brightened! These three abilities are obviously very useful!

This first option can strengthen Qin Yuan's ability to resist drought. Although Qin Yuan can obtain a certain amount of water by eating cacti, to be honest, the cactus is really unpalatable to death. Qin Yuan just endured it. Eat these things.

And when Qin Yuan gained this ability and gained drought resistance like a cactus, at that time, it was estimated that Qin Yuan didn't need water at all, and he didn't need to eat this unpalatable cactus!

Needless to say, the second option is not to mention. Although Qin Yuan knew the technique of taking water from the desert, this method was very difficult, and it took a long time to take water.

With this ability, it must be able to speed up a lot. Such a skill is naturally more beneficial to He Chenguang and others.

As for this cactus toxin... Qin Yuan saw this, and a glimmer of cold light flashed in his eyes. Although Qin Yuan could not directly attack the people behind, he set a point on the way these people were going forward. Small obstacles are still possible!

It's a pity that Qin Yuan now only has two grids, even if he uses both grids, he can only gain two skills! This is really a pity to Qin Yuan.

But in this situation, Qin Yuan has no choice. He can't finish his previous self-care tasks first, right?

So Qin Yuan thought for a long time, that is, directly chose the 2nd and 3rd items. Although this drought resistance ability is very useful, if you can get water from the cactus, then maybe Qin Yuan can also drink water happily. , Don't go to bite the cactus miserably!

At this time Qin Yuan directly said to the system:

"System, I choose the second item."

"Ding Dong, the host has successfully chosen to obtain world-class cactus water extraction ability!"

With this voice at this time, Qin Yuan suddenly felt that there was something extra in his grid!

After that, Qin Yuan took this thing out directly, and found that it looked a bit like a funnel.

Then Qin Yuan directly inserted the funnel-like thing on the top of the cactus without a teacher. At this time, Qin Yuan was extremely surprised to find that the cactus in front of him had instantly become dry and shriveled. In the middle, a small glass of water appeared!

"So amazing?"

At this moment, seeing this small glass of water, Qin Yuan's eyes suddenly brightened. If there is such a thing, I guess he would never have to use a plastic bag to fetch water stupidly!

Just looking at the water on it, Qin Yuan was slightly dissatisfied. After all, this cactus is so big, but in the end there is only such a small glass of water?

It is estimated that this small glass of water is only enough for a person to drink several times.

And in this desert, although cacti are not rare, they are not everywhere. Thinking of this, Qin Yuan's face suddenly collapsed. He felt that he might have to eat cacti, or other messy things.

Qin Yuan sighed, and then he directly found another cactus. After recovering it, he chose the third one.

"System, I choose item 3!"

"Ding Dong, the host chooses successfully and obtains world-class cactus toxin!"

And when the sound of the system was upset, a small syringe was suddenly added with a little milky white liquid inside, which seemed extremely dangerous.

But Qin Yuan knew that this thing is the so-called alkaline toxin of cactus, A small amount of injection of will cause a certain degree of hallucinogenicity, but after a large amount of use, it will directly die!

Looking at the things in his hands, Qin Yuan suddenly showed a sinister smile.

With these things, then some operations can be done!

Moreover, all of this must be hidden. Qin Yuan looked up at the sky, wondering if someone was already staring at him now.

However, even if someone is watching it, it doesn't matter. I guess there are not many people who have noticed this, right?

Qin Yuan's mood is still free and easy, but what he didn't expect was that he was wrong about this. If it was only Abdullah who released the news, then few people really knew it, but now he is following Abdullah. But it is John, the famous war reporter who is known as the hyena on the battlefield.

What's more, today's Qin Yuan's performance in the jungle was seen clearly by John from the helicopter, and then he broadcasted it plainly, and in John's extremely provocative words, there was enough. A hundred million viewers, remember this Yan Guo boy who looks very "lucky".

Chapter 505: Who is it

Yes, in the eyes of those viewers, in addition to being powerful, Qin Yuan's series of operations can only be described as lucky. After all, they really don't think that Qin Yuan can escape the bombardment of helicopters. Said that Qin Yuan was so lucky that he was still alive under such circumstances.

Therefore, the biggest highlight of the current program is that everyone is waiting enthusiastically, waiting for this lucky Yan Guoren team, when will they lose the favor of the  of luck and be caught by those behind!

But at this time, people in the Southeast Military Region looked at Qin Yuan in the video with a look of worry. They saw Qin Yuan facing so many people alone, so people who knew Qin Yuan only stopped. I can't help but worry about Qin Yuan!

Especially Fan Tianlei, he now saw He Chenguang's three-person team, which had already accepted Qin Yuan, and he was a little relieved, but he felt a little bit unclear in his heart.

The reason why he established this red blood cell squad is to hope that this special forces squad can lurch under the water silently like a red blood cell.

But now it has caused such a situation. Half of the members of the team have been exposed to everyone. It is estimated that the name of the special combat team of the red blood cell team will soon disappear. After all, it is impossible to have any special team. The battle team, with such a high profile, can continue to perform tasks.

After all, with such a high profile, the possibility of exposure is greatly enhanced when performing tasks!

And Fan Tianlei's heart is also extremely worried, this time things have been so big, when Qin Yuan comes back, will he be criticized by his superiors?

In any case, Qin Yuan is also his soldier. Although this matter may have reached a point where he can't manage, he still has to bear the responsibilities he should bear.

Therefore, Fan Tianlei went directly to the headquarters at this time. Sure enough, when Fan Tianlei arrived at the headquarters, he found that the meeting room was brightly lit. Obviously, the people in the headquarters were also discussing this matter. After arriving, Fan Tianlei directly said the matter:

"General, are we going to send people directly to support Qin Yuan, and then interrupt this time, if something happens, we can't afford it!"

Fan Tianlei felt extremely uncomfortable in his heart. Although he knew that Qin Yuan was very capable, it did not mean that it would not be accidental, especially now that countless people are paying attention to this matter. If Fan Tianlei put himself in the position of Qin Yuan, Think about it, I will get goose bumps.

After all, the person who should be hiding in the shadows is now invisible from the light. This is a panic in everyone's heart.

But Gao Shiwei shook his head and smiled and said directly to Fan Tianlei:

"You think so well, this time, we estimate that it is impossible to support Qin Yuan at all!"

"why?"

Fan Tianlei's eyes widened at this time, and when he heard this, Gao Shiwei directly threw a piece of information to Fan Tianlei. When he saw the information on the information, Fan Tianlei's eyes were about to stare, and his voice was like Distorted like a crow:

"You said he saved Ivia's former prime minister?"

"This is not the former prime minister, but the current prime minister. It's just that he has lost his power. So what Qin Yuan is doing now is to buy time for the prime minister of Basandu, and once Basandu can succeed, we will gain The benefits are incalculable!"

At this time, Gao Shiwei said with a smile on his face, but after hearing these words, Fan Tianlei's expression was very ugly:

"But... you are interfering in other countries..."

"Yes, so, even though all of us know that Qin Yuan is a soldier of our country, we cannot admit it, let alone send people to support Qin Yuan. Even the few people who are following Qin Yuan are all To forge one, even if everyone knows it is fake, they can't recognize it."

Gao Shiwei's face is full of weirdness. In fact, Yan Guo has never done such a blatant thing in the world. At most, it was a trick behind the scenes, but this time it was for Qin Yuan. Up.

Seeing Fan Tianlei's face, Gao Shiwei comforted:

"Don't worry, when they come back, their identities will not change, at most they will be silent for a while."

"I know this, but, don't we still have no way to support them?"

Hearing this, Gao Shiwei showed an extremely strange expression on his face, and said lightly:

"We soldiers can't support, so can others go?"

"other people?"

Hearing this, Fan Tianlei's eyes widened. Just when he wanted to ask clearly, he saw Gao Shiwei directly turned to the large screen to one side and released a photo.

"But in any case, Qin Yuan did at least one good thing, and that is to reverse the image of our soldiers from the Yan Kingdom in the world."

At this time, Fan Tianlei turned his head to look, and he was also taken aback, because at this time, it was a picture of Qin Yuan on the big screen!

Moreover, even Fan Tianlei, a soldier who doesn't understand aesthetics, thinks that this photo is really good!

At this time, a round of moon was hanging high in the night sky, and countless moonlight was scattered on the ground. The originally silver-white desert was shining brightly under the moonlight.

But the most eye-catching thing is that under this moonlight, the man covered in red fruits, bathing in the moonlight sand!

He should be following the residual warmth of the daylight to complete the final cleaning for himself. The stalwart body of 1.5 meters is like a mountain. The muscles on the body show enough lines without deliberately. , Showing the irresistible power!

Of course, what is more noticeable is the scars on this man. These scars are only left with some shallow marks, but these lengths and the deposition of these pigments are clearly showing to these people, the man in front of him. How many battles have you endured, giving people a sense of shock from the inside out!

Fan Tianlei looked at this painting, but said helplessly:

"This is Qin Yuan?"

"Of course, although he is painted with oil on his face, but you don't recognize it?"

"But how did this picture come out?"

Fan Tianlei's face was embarrassed, and he didn't even know what to say.

But upon hearing this, the female staff officer on the side said:

"Of course it's on the Internet, you don't know, this picture is going crazy, everyone is sighing, who is this nearly perfect man!"

Chapter 506: As long as you can live

Hearing this, Fan Tianlei couldn't figure it out, couldn't stop scratching his head, and asked the female staff officer:

"Ah? Isn't this just a picture? What's the use?"

And this female staff officer also flushed a little, and said to Fan Tianlei:

"In fact, not only men are lustful, women are also lustful. In the eyes of our women, such pictures are more tempting than the most advanced celebrities. After all, those celebrities may be fake, but what this person did What he did is a tangible proof that this is a real man."

"Now many women have launched alliances on the Internet. I love the Yan Nation Corps, the man who resembles God, the * of the sun, the best bed partner in twenty years, and for this soldier's crazy woman, conservative It is estimated that it has exceeded half a million."

Hearing this, Fan Tianlei grew his mouth incredibly:

"With this picture, this kid has half a million fans?"

This kind of thing is really too magical. You must know that at most they Yanren are well-known in Yan Country. No matter how they promote it in foreign countries, those people will not buy it.

And now Qin Yuan just posted a photo, can he directly move the ideas in these people's hearts?

Is this kid too lucky?

But after hearing Fan Tianlei's sigh, Gao Shiwei shook his head and said to Fan Tianlei:

"Five hundred thousand, you underestimated him. This is just a picture of a storm. With this picture, even people who did not pay attention to the military before will now care about what happened to this kid now, and don't Not to mention, this kid did a good job, so this 500,000 will only be the beginning, and I don't know how many people will be in the future!"

"This is a great thing. As you know, the foreign media, for the soldiers of our Yan country, most of them think that they are black and thin savages, brainwashed war puppets, but with this picture, Although those who can't understand us, they still can't understand it, but our publicity people at least have a breakthrough and are qualified to fight back."

Hearing such words, the expression on Fan Tianlei's face was also a little weird. How could this kid make moths everywhere?

"Then, we have to keep him even more so, and we must not let him break in Ivia."

Fan Tianlei said in a deep voice, in fact, he doesn't care about what achievements Qin Yuan has achieved or how much attention he has achieved. There is only one thing he thinks about now, that is, Qin Yuan can safely return from Ivia.

But when he heard such words, Gao Shiwei sighed softly and said to Fan Tianlei:

"But you also understand that in this situation, we can't directly send people to support him. We can only rely on himself and the team under him."

"why?"

Fan Tianlei's eyes were instantly staring at the boss. With this situation, Qin Yuan is already very dangerous. Why can't he provide large-scale support to Qin Yuan yet?

"That's because we have received the attention of the world now, and you know that what Qin Yuan is doing now is different from the principles we have always followed internationally. Although we will not stop him now, we can't face him. There is no protection for him, but you don't have to worry too much. Although we can't send people to help him directly, my team is still nearby, as long as it detects other people's missiles and other irresistible weapons to attack him. , Our warship will directly help him stop! In other aspects, I believe he can do it himself!"

"Hehe, okay, don't be so serious, we should trust him, oh yes, he is now estimated to have involved tens of billions of assets, and now the casinos in Las Vegas have opened according to his situation. A bet was placed, and countless gamblers made bets. These red-eye gamblers were all waiting for the result. It is said that the odds for him to come back alive safely have reached one to twenty. I dragged a few to do it outside. Business friends bought some, but the pensions are not generous, but they are about to be seen."

And when he heard this, Fan Tianlei also sighed for a long time. As long as there are no irresistible weapons of large-scale destruction, then based on his understanding of Qin Yuan, he feels that this guy still has a chance to survive. Pretty big.

What's more, it is obvious that he can no longer make a decision on this matter. Then, he can only use this method to support Qin Yuan!

So Fan Tianlei said directly to Gao Shiwei:

"Then, Lieutenant General, your friend, can you also buy a few bets for me? In my bank card, the allowance and salary in the past few years has also been saved more than 200,000, 20 times. It is estimated that I can also finance all at once. Freedom! This is an opportunity to fall from the sky to stalk the wool. Naturally, I have to seize it!"

Hearing this, Gao Shiwei also smiled slightly and sighed softly:

"Okay, okay, as long as you can come back alive, that's good..."

...

At this time in Las Vegas, the casino boss, Tolkien Thomas, was watching the group of soldiers of the Yan Kingdom who were in the desert in the desert, lit a cigar comfortably, and said The bunny girl who massaged him behind her body asked:

"Oh, my dear, how likely do you think this man will survive?"

But after hearing this, the bunny girl hesitated a bit, not knowing what to say.

"Haha, dear, you don't need to be so nervous, although I know you also participated in the League of the Sun Gods, you can be regarded as a fan of this man but I am not a petty person, I don't mind this One point, I just want to hear your opinion."

Hearing this, the bunny girl was relieved, and said directly to Thomas:

"Sir, although I think this man is very handsome and very masculine, I don't think anyone can survive the hands of those terrorists. What's more, so many people in the world are watching him now. Then the chance of him surviving is even smaller."

"Oh?"

Hearing what the bunny girl said, Thomas was also a little surprised. He turned his head and glanced at the woman who had climbed into his bed, and asked softly:

"This is a bit of a surprise to me. I thought that since you are so concerned about him, I hope he will survive."

But the bunny girl sighed softly, and then went on to explain:

"Naturally hope that he will survive, but we know that he can't survive. What's more, don't you think, sir, that moths appear more brave when they rush towards the lights?"

Chapter 507: The odds?

"Hehe, that's right, it makes me look at you a little bit admiringly. By the way, my dear, what's your name?"

At this time, Thomas spoke directly to the bunny girl, but the bunny girl hadn't had time to answer. He was suddenly interrupted by the ringing of the phone on the table. Thomas was a little unhappy. He planned to talk about life with the bunny girl.

However, the phone rang continuously, and he directly picked up the phone and whispered to it:

"Jack, if you can't give a proper reason, I'll twist your head off in a while."

"Boss, the option you asked me to set has already been placed, and the amount of the bet is quite large, and the person named by name and said that he wants to see you, you should come out and have a look."

Heard this. Thomas frowned slightly and asked inside:

"How much did he invest?"

"More than 5 million, and it's still a US dollar!"

"what?"

Hearing this, Thomas' eyes were staring at the boss. You know, the reason why this option has such a high odds is equivalent to throwing money in it for nothing, and the chance of winning is simply too small. Small, even if some gamblers are attracted by such high odds, they don't put all their net worth on, at most they will only cast 100200.

But this customer who didn't know where he came from, actually threw in more than 5 million US dollars. This is completely regarded as a bayonet hit, and he wants to go head-to-head with him.

After all, more than 5 million U.S. dollars, if you win 20 times, it will be 100 million U.S. dollars!

Such a loss, even Thomas, may not be able to bear it easily!

"Well, wait for me, I'll go see who this person is!"

After speaking, Thomas put on the jacket directly, patted the bunny girl's buttocks, and said to her:

"Wait for me here, I'll be back soon."

Then Thomas left the room directly.

Soon, Thomas was in the VIP room. He wanted to see what this guy who dared to throw more than five million dollars into the water was.

But as soon as he entered the VIP room, Thomas' eyes fell. He really did not expect that he came from such a person.

This is a woman who looks more than 20 years old with a veil on her face, but has a large tattoo on her body, sitting at the table.

"Wow, I really didn't expect that our respected guest turned out to be a lady. I don't know what you want to see me. What are you going to do?"

"It's nothing, I just want to see how big a head the Thomas boss, who has such a bold and direct opening, has grown."

The woman looked at Thomas with an intriguing smile in her eyes.

However, since Thomas dared to open this market, he was naturally not afraid of being troubled by others, and said with a smile on his face:

"Madam, you see now, what do you want to say?"

But the woman hadn't spoken yet, but the door suddenly opened from the outside. Two men rushed in directly, followed by, and a few bodyguards who wanted to stop!

Seeing this situation, Thomas frowned and asked:

"How is this going?"

"Sorry, boss, these two wanted to come in, we didn't stop,"

The two bodyguards said in panic, after all, they didn't stop people, this is their mistake!

"Haha, what? Can the big boss of this casino just drive out the rich guests?"

At this time, a man with a cowboy hat and ripped jeans with a beard said wildly.

The man who followed him had a black face and said nothing, just a cold face, looking straight at Thomas.

And Thomas frowned when he heard this. Are these two also guests?

"What are you betting for me for?"

Thomas had a very bad premonition in his heart. He always felt that today's things seemed to be slowly out of his control!

When the cowboy heard this, he threw a large backpack on the table, and then revealed a large amount of banknotes, gold bars, and various paper materials, and said to Thomas:

"Of course I came to you. I like you very much. I think it makes sense for you to say something, like us who are gamblers. If you want to play, play a big game! If you want to play, I'm scared to play, I don't know. Mr. Thomas, would you like to play a big game with us?"

At this time, the cowboy's eyes were full of aggressiveness, and Thomas couldn't help frowning.

It's not that he hasn't seen a look like this, but only a gambler can do this, but the man in front of him is obviously not such a person.

"How do you want to bet?"

"I'm stud!"

The cowboy directly poured out all the things in the backpack and piled a table full of them. After that, the cowboy said to Thomas frantically:

"I'll bet that Yan Ren, not only can he come out of the desert, but also kill all the * who dare to chase behind! On this point, you dare to bet!?"

Thomas was shocked. Although he didn't know how much money the table set up by this person was, it was clear that the money would also cost millions of dollars.

More importantly, now that the odds of these Yanren being able to leave the desert alive have reached one to 20, the odds are even more incredible when the cowboy said. how many?

Thinking of this Thomas is extremely nervous. Since becoming the boss, Thomas has always had a good run. This time he thought he had caught the wind again and could make a good profit. But the few people who appeared in front of him now made him feel that something was not good!

But in this kind of thing, he can't shrink back, otherwise these people will go out like this, it will be a devastating blow to his reputation!

"Well, I'll give you a fair odds, one pays 50. Since you are willing to throw money, why don't I dare to continue!"

"Freshly, I have capital, real estate, patents, cash, stocks, and all the mess together here. The total is 31 million U.S. dollars. If he can really come back alive, and all the chasers behind are enough. Kill me, then you will pay me 1.5 billion dollars!"

Hearing this, Thomas sneered coldly, and then planned to call someone to calculate the amount directly.

But at this time, the person standing next to the cowboy also said in a deep voice:

"I don't have as much money as him, so there are only two million dollars in total, but if it is done, there will be one hundred million!"

Chapter 508: Hurry up and pay

Hearing these words, Thomas looked at the black-faced man with a mocking expression, not paying attention.

"Me too!"

And at this moment, the masked woman who had been sitting without speaking just now also whispered directly.

Thomas looked at this woman, frowned slightly, and said directly:

"How many do you want to follow?"

"One hundred million... U.S. dollars!"

This sentence is like a Sidewinder missile, and it hit Thomas's heart fiercely!

This.....

Now the amount is close to 140 million U.S. dollars, and if Thomas loses, it is to compensate the other party with a full seven billion U.S. dollars!

Seven billion, which is enough to invest Thomas in all his life!

However, Thomas's head kept spinning, and finally he said directly:

"Okay, I'll follow it!"

After saying this, Thomas left here directly!

After an hour, everyone left the room, and those casino staff finally completed this large bet transaction.

The two men and the woman also left the casino directly.

But since the three met, they naturally started to chat.

"Two people, don't know what their names are? Me, that Yan Ren's friend, my friends call me Qifu!"

This cowboy is no one else but Fang Xinwu who disappeared from the silver triangle!

"Galuda!"

The masked woman also said softly, and Qifu's eyes narrowed and her heart moved, because this one is the current uncrowned king of the Silver Triangle, the new poison king Garuda!

"Yang Lei."

The remaining one slowly wiped the black oil off his face, revealing that face!

It is the same assistant, Yang Lei!

The money in his hands was naturally pooled by the senior officers. Although the army has a lot of funds for weapons, they do not have much money in the hands of these officers, and this time their behavior is silent, so Only got two million dollars.

Originally wanted to use this method to cheer Qin Yuan, but he met Fang Xinwu at the door.

Yang Lei had read Qin Yuan's materials, so he naturally knew Fang Xinwu's existence, so he naturally followed in with him, and Fang Xinwu threw 30 million directly!

But what made Yang Lei even more surprised was that he actually met Jia Lou Luo directly here. Now, Jia Lou Luo directly threw a hundred million yuan, completely smashing the casino owner!

"Well, everyone is his friend, so why not just sit down and relive the past?"

At this time, Garuda suggested, and upon hearing this, the three of them found a place to sit down.

"I don't know, it turns out that kid still has so many rich friends."

At this moment Fang Xinwu said with a smile, but when he heard this, Yang Lei shook his head:

"You have a lot of money, and many of us got it together."

"I am even more so, my money is more than one million yuan, and the rest are directly sent by a woman!"

Fang Xinwu also had a trace of doubt in his heart at this time, because after he received this incident, he received such a large sum of cash, which is more than 30 million yuan, and the incidental news was that Fang Xinwu was asked to bet, but the signature was There are only two "安" characters.

At this time, on the other side of the ocean, two women who were also surnamed Ann and smiled like foxes directly transferred the last bit of money on the account of this organization.

These two are naturally Enron and Anfisa. They are still stirring the trouble in the K2 organization. Otherwise, K2 has no reaction at all after knowing that the white bear was killed and the Ivia plan completely failed?

This is because there was a civil strife in K2, and the black cat directly launched a coup and gained most of K2's strength, while the remaining small part fell on Anfisa!

That's good, Anfisa, the undercover agent, has really become the boss!

And after learning the news, An Ran also came here directly to help her in order to gain greater benefits, and this was what happened when Qin Yuan was in Ivia.

After the two of them received the news from the casino, they were so angry that they wanted to use this method to directly teach the casino owner!

However, the two of them were not easy to get ahead, so An Ran directly transferred the money to Fang Xinwu.

Naturally, Fang Xinwu didn't know these things, but now that he was rich, Fang Xinwu naturally suppressed everything and completely crushed the casino owner.

"What about you, Miss Garuda."

At this time, Fang Xinwu asked Jialouluo directly, but he didn't know the relationship between Jialouluo and Qin Yuan.

"This is all his money, I just help him keep it."

Jialouluo whispered, what she said was not a lie. To assist Jialouluo's development, Qin Yuan directly gave his account to Jialouluo. At that time, Qin Yuan directly made 1 billion, although it was spent. Quite a lot, but there are five or six billion left, so Garuda directly pressed them all here!

At this time, when Jialou Luo was unwilling to say more, Fang Xinwu and Yang Lei looked at each other, and didn't want to ask more.

"One hundred and forty million U.S. dollars, if this is lost, it will be really bleeding."

Fang Xinwu said with a bitter smile at this time, but when he heard such words, Garuda said softly:

"Don't you believe he can come back alive?"

And thinking of the time when he was performing tasks with Qin Yuan before, Fang Xinwu showed a slight smile on his face, and said confidently:

"I believe it! That guy, it's impossible to fall down so easily!"

"Then it's over, we just need to wait for the news!"

At this time, Jia Louluo had a smile on his mouth. suddenly saw a new set of handicap on the big screen of the opposite casino, and said in surprise:

"Does this Thomas have the guts to explode this handicap?"

In the new handicap, there is naturally a super odds of 50, but after the gamblers around looked at it, they laughed a few times and left directly.

Isn't this obviously deceiving!

Few people who choose this guy can come back alive.

Isn't it nonsense that this person can kill the people behind?

But what these gamblers can't think of is that in this market, someone has bet a full 140 million US dollars, and there is a steady stream of people betting on this market!

At this time in Yan Country, after learning the news, a girl said directly to a man:

"Can you? Is it a man! Hurry up! I bought the car for 12 million and sold it to you for 10 million. I want to pay me quickly!"

Chapter 509: Beat the cold front!

"Damn, Miss, this is buying a luxury car. Although you have not bought this car for a few months, this is not a grocery shopping. I need at least some time to turn around! If you are a soldier, you won't be so resolute, right?"

At this time, a young man said to this heroic woman in disintegration,

"No! If I am not in a hurry to spend money, will I come to you? What! If you think the quality of this car is not good, you can come back to me! I think Ye Cunxin's name is still worth a lot Has the money?"

"Okay, I'll take it, then I will sell iron and make money for you, even if I borrow it, I will also lend it to you, okay?"

"It's almost the same!"

At this time, Ye Cunxin directly sold the Maybach that she had just bought, and after receiving the transfer, she directly called her mother:

"Mom, do me a favor quickly and help me put all the money into the fifty times the handicap!"

And after Zhang Haiyan received Ye Cunxin's notice, her eyes widened in surprise. She really couldn't understand what this girl was going crazy and would do such a thing!

But when she figured out what was the reason, Zhang Haiyan also smiled, and then called her secretary directly:

"Xiao Li, how much is left in our account?"

"Mr. Zhang, there are about 13 million left in our account."

"Well, just help me raise 10 million, I'm useful."

Although most of Zhang Haiyan's assets have been closed, the people above still left her with a lot of start-up funds, and because Zhang Haiyan's identity has not been exposed, Zhang Haiyan's contacts can still be used.

With these, coupled with Zhang Haiyan's abilities, Zhang Haiyan will soon make a comeback. Although he is not as wealthy as before, it is still not a problem to spend 10 million!

But hearing such words, the secretary Xiao Li was a little surprised and said:

"Mr. Zhang, what is the use of this 10 million? Can you withdraw the funds? After all, we will use this money next month."

"It doesn't matter, it doesn't take next month. I'm afraid there will be results in a few days, and it will give us dozens of times the benefits!"

There was a smile in Zhang Haiyan's eyes. She felt that it was impossible for a man like that to die in the desert!

The rest of the Fire Phoenix are also doing their best to make money, not to take advantage of this, but to cheer for their instructors!

They absolutely didn't believe that their devil instructor would die in the desert like this, and they had to use this way to make those who look down on Yan people regret it, and let them know that Yan people are invincible!

At this time, Thomas was constantly sweating cold on his forehead, after he let out those handicap just now. I thought that there would be no bets, but these few hours passed, but there were more or less people betting!

Now the amount of this handicap has been met by 200 million, and the odds of 50 times, once this handicap depends on thunder, then he will compensate 10 billion!

100 billion dollars!

Even if he sells Thomas, he cannot be repaid. At that time, he has only one way, and that is to commit suicide!

Looking at the amount of money above, most of them came from Yan Country, but there was a trace of fierce light flashing in Thomas' eyes.

"Although I don't know what these people have to do with that guy, if you guys remember it, I won't be knocked down!"

After saying this, Thomas directly recruited a subordinate and whispered to him for a while. There was endless coldness in his eyes, watching Qin Yuan in the video, full of murderous aura.

...

In the southeast military area camp of Yan State, Mu Qingmei and Leng Feng quietly left the military area camp with a suitcase on their backs.

"Leng Feng, are you sure you want to do this? If you do, you may be punished! If it doesn't work, let me go alone."

At this time, Mu Qingmei looked at the cold wind with some worry, and said in a low voice.

"I can't look at the master and fall into such a situation, but do nothing. If I really watch the master die like this, then I won't be able to raise my head in my life. What kind of soldier will I protect! Home defense, home defense, if you can't protect your loved ones, then what are you talking about protecting your home and country?"

At this time, Leng Feng's eyes were full of murderous aura. He really regretted, why didn't he pass in the first time? Even if he is eating sand in the desert with Qin Yuan now, he is as sweet as he is, and it is better than now. It was much stronger to watch Qin Yuan being surrounded and attacked by people behind!

It was at this time that Mu Qingmei secretly left the barracks, but was caught by the cold wind. At first, Leng Feng wanted to come and stop Mu Qingmei directly. However, after seeing Mu Qingmei's appearance, the cold wind was suddenly After changing his mind, why can't he go there with Mu Qingmei to find Qin Yuan?

Even if they can't directly enter the desert, they can at least meet Qin Yuan at the edge of the desert!

Therefore, Leng Feng left the barracks with Mu Qingmei directly. As for the consequences, let Qin Yuan survive first!

But at this moment, a voice suddenly sounded behind them:

"Where are you going?"

Hearing this voice, Leng Feng's heart suddenly trembled. This was the voice of Long Xiaoyun.

But when he turned his head back, when Leng Feng just wanted to explain to Long Xiaoyun, he found that Long Xiaoyun had brought all the people from the Wolf Warriors team had changed into casual clothes.

"Idiot, even if we leave from here, we can't walk away with weapons. If we want to meet Qin Yuan, we need to find weapons outside by ourselves!"

At this time, Long Xiaoyun directly slapped Leng Feng, and the cold wind was dizzy:

"Also! This time you seriously violated discipline, let me see how I go back to clean up you!"

However, in the heart of Old Lengfeng, there was a happy flower, and he said directly to Long Xiaoyun:

"As long as I can come back alive then, whatever you do!"

After that, Leng Feng directly removed all the equipment on his body and found the warehouse.

But just as these people were about to leave, a helicopter came directly to the Wolf Wars base. The black-faced Shi Qingsong held a document in his hand and said directly to everyone:

"Okay, just now the superior has approved your application and promised you to act as a member of the Dango peacekeeping organization in the neighboring country of Ivia."

Chapter 510: Recycling scorpions

And hearing this, the eyes of the people in the Wolf Warriors team suddenly brightened. They saw Shi Qingsong coming and didn't know what to do, but they didn't expect that Shi Qingsong came to send them information!

They said they were going to Danguo, but as long as they were there, who could control where they went?

Seeing how excited these people were, Shi Qingsong said softly:

"What are you still doing? Don't act quickly? Someone is already waiting for you."

Leng Feng heard this and looked inside the helicopter, and it was not Xu Tianlong and Song Kaifei who were left in the red blood cell team.

At this time, the eyes of both people were flushed, seeing Leng Feng, they directly said in a deep voice:

"Come on, save the captain with us!"

"Save Master!"

"Save Qin Yuan!"

At this moment, everyone's hands are held together!

...

At this time, Qin Yuan certainly didn't know how much trouble he had caused.

Although he knew that his every move might be seen by others, Qin Yuan didn't care.

Anyway, the elders, there is no dew point, which is not a disadvantage.

In the desert, keeping clean is a very important thing. They can no longer brush their teeth, but if there is any gangrene in the body again, it will be over.

Moreover, the warm sand with the residual temperature during the day is perfect for sand bathing. This is already one of their few enjoyments.

However, Yang Rui looked at Qin Yuan, but said to Qin Yuan curiously:

"Qin Yuan, why don't we pick all the jujube trees we met before? This is one of the few things we can eat in the desert."

"Also, what were you doing when you fetched water?"

But after hearing this, Qin Yuan smiled and said directly:

"Of course it is to give those people a little surprise behind, otherwise it would feel a little boring to keep them following us?"

After saying this, Qin Yuan directly glanced at the progress bar in his system, and found that the progress bar had moved forward slightly, which was enough to prove it. The things that I have arranged have already begun to work!

The reason why Qin Yuan brought Yang Rui and others into this desert was that it was easier to avoid here, and more importantly, he wanted to completely wipe out the team behind!

Now that they have been walking for a day, the people behind have also consumed a lot of physical energy. Even if they have supplies, they will inevitably eat them when they see them.

And Qin Yuan had already arranged the extracted cactus toxin on it!

This is why Qin Yuan chose cactus toxin!

He knew that he might be seen by the satellite, so he couldn't be too ridiculous.

However, who can't say that they can't kill others?

But at this moment, Qin Yuan suddenly heard a voice from the system:

"Ding Dong~ The host's reputation reaches 1000 points, and a grid is awarded!"

"Ding Dong~ The host's reputation reaches 10,000 points, and a grid is awarded!"

"Dingdong~The host's prestige reaches 20,000 points, reward a grid!"

At this moment, when he heard the system prompt, Qin Yuan was stunned. He really didn't understand what was going on. Why did his reputation suddenly rise so much?

You know, it's not easy for Qin Yuan's reputation to increase. Before, Qin Yuan wanted to increase the reputation value to obtain grids, but after Qin Yuan's experiment, he discovered that only when a person is completely convinced by him, Will provide a little prestige.

Qin Yuan has done so many things with great pains and effort, and it is only a few hundred points of prestige. It is estimated that this is still a military broadcast, which gives Qin Yuan a chance to increase his prestige.

So now that his prestige has reached more than 20,000, doesn't it mean that more than 20,000 people have completely worshipped Qin Yuan?

What did those people do?

At this time, Qin Yuan glanced at the top of his head with an incredible expression. He didn't seem to have done anything unexpected. It was just that these people lived in the desert. Why did his reputation suddenly rise so much?

Even if Qin Yuan was killed, he did not think that he did so many things alone without gaining much popularity, but he took a bath with sand and showed his stalwart body, but he gained more than 20,000. A stupid fan!

Sure enough, creatures like humans are superficial animals!

But this is a good thing for Qin Yuan. He wasn't still worried before, and he couldn't get the drought tolerance of the cactus, so now that he had a grid, Qin Yuan didn't hesitate to find some cacti directly. Grab this drought tolerance ability.

"Ding Dong, the host has chosen to succeed, and has obtained world-class cactus drought resistance!"

At this time, with the sound of the system, Qin Yuan immediately felt that his body was a lot easier. No matter how much water Qin Yuan drank before, there was a feeling of dryness in his mouth. Qin Yuan knew this was because of the environment. the reason.

But with this drought resistance ability, even if Qin Yuan didn't drink water all day, there would not be too many abnormalities.

But at this moment, Qin Yuan suddenly heard a voice.

This is a sand scorpion?

Damn, this is a good thing!

At this moment, Qin Yuan rushed directly, and suddenly grabbed a scorpion who wanted to hide in the sandpit.

"Wow, this is a good thing!"

The surrounding players all sighed, but Qin Yuan smiled and said directly to them:

"Look for it and see if there are any more around. Since one has already appeared here, there may be other small animals. After walking for so long, we can also add some protein!"

"it is good!"

At this time, these people cheered, and to be honest, now it's just cooling off, and they can't speak for a whole day. Even if they can bear it, they still feel a little depressed, so Qin Yuan is not only trying to survive with them, but also to deal with their emotions.

Seeing that these people had already begun to act, Qin Yuan changed hands and received the scorpion directly into the grid.

The scorpion in this desert is still relatively rare. He wants to see what skills this scorpion can give him.

Dingdong~The system recovery is successful, please start to choose the host! "

With the prompt sound of this system, three options suddenly appeared in front of Qin Yuan!

"1, get a world-class scorpion punch!"

"2, get world-class scorpion toxin!"

"3. Get world-class super adaptability!"

Seeing these three options at this time, Qin Yuan's eyes suddenly brightened.

This little scorpion seems to have given him good abilities.
