

Special Soldier 511

Chapter 511: Philippine Egret Flower

Needless to say, this Scorpion Boxing is like Qin Yuan's Mantis Boxing, it is a kind of pictographic boxing, and its power is absolutely not bad.

Moreover, the mantis is ruthless and the scorpion is poisonous. This trick of the tail hook is very famous.

But Qin Yuan already had a mantis fist, and he was not very urgent for this kind of trick.

And this scorpion toxin is not bad, not only has neurotoxins, but also hemolytic toxins. If this kind of thing is hit, it will be dead!

Qin Yuan also understands the third super adaptability. Scorpion has strong adaptability and can survive wherever it is. However, Qin Yuan already has the ability to resist drought, so he is not very anxious about this choice.

Therefore, Qin Yuan thought for a while, and directly chose the second item!

"System, I choose the second item!"

"Ding Dong, the host chooses successfully and obtains world-class scorpion toxin!"

And with Qin Yuan's choice, there was an extra vial in his backpack. Qin Yuan smiled, the previous cactus toxin was good, so I don't know if these scorpion toxins will taste better.

"Captain, I caught some more!"

At this moment, Qin Yuan suddenly heard He Chenguang's voice, and immediately shouted:

"Wait for me, don't do it, see if I can open a meat today!"

Taking advantage of the cool night, many small animals also came out directly, and Qin Yuan and others have gained a lot!

Even Yang Rui had good luck and caught a sand snake!

Everyone cheered at this moment. Although there was Qin Yuan's reason, they did not lack water, but when they could eat meat, they were naturally extremely happy.

"Okay, it's almost done, everyone find some fuel, let's cook a snake soup!"

At this time, Qin Yuan directly ordered that he knew that those people behind were still more than ten kilometers away, and it was impossible to find them, so he didn't worry that the fire would reveal their location.

After hearing Qin Yuan's order, several people immediately went to find firewood together happily.

There are not many plants in the desert, but dry weeds and dead cacti can be used to start a fire.

But at this moment, Qin Yuan, who was devoting himself to dealing with snake meat, suddenly heard Li Erniu scream:

"My mother, what is this!"

Everyone was shocked and rushed over, thinking that Li Erniu had encountered some danger, but when the result arrived, they discovered that Li Erniu had just found a strange plant!

"What is this, piranha?"

At this moment, Li Erniu looked at the strange-looking flower in front of him, his face full of horror.

"Oh, let me go, my brain, Brother Niu, can you not be so surprised, we are about to scare you to death!"

At this time, Wang Yanbing slapped his head suddenly and said to Li Erniu, and Li Erniu also gave a embarrassed smile:

"I, I haven't seen it before. Besides, I have seen piranha on TV, and I saw it with my own eyes this time, so I have to call you over, it's rare."

After Yang Rui saw this flower, he smiled helplessly and said directly to Li Erniu:

"This is not a piranha. The piranha basically grows in the rainforest. Especially the piranha that is big enough to eat people in the movie will not exist in the desert. Don't worry about that. ."

"Then what is this?"

At this time, Li Tang who was on the side asked curiously, but Gu Shun said softly:

"If I am not mistaken, this should be called the Philippine Egret Flower. It looks like a piranha, but it is basically not the same thing. Although it also emits a scent that attracts insects, it does not. These insects will be eaten directly, but like flowers, they will be used to pollinate."

"That said, maybe this flower is pretty good?"

He Chenguang, who was on the side, also had a hint of interest, but when Qin Yuan heard this, he shook his head and said directly:

"This is a parasitic plant. It does not rely on itself to produce energy at all. Instead, it gains enough water and energy by parasitizing its own roots on the roots of others, but this is a good thing for us, after all. Its fruit should be edible."

After saying these words, Qin Yuan directly stretched out his hand to pull the thing away, and as expected, he found this strange-shaped fruit from inside.

However, following Qin Yuan's movements, the Philippine Egret Flower exudes an extremely intoxicating smell.

"I'm going, this is a biological weapon!"

"My god, hot eyes!"

"It's too stinky, Captain, are you sure you can eat the fruit of this thing?"

And Qin Yuan directly held his breath, and then said to the crowd:

"Of course it can be eaten, and it is said that the fruit of this thing is not bad, who of you dare to try?"

Try?

Hearing this, these people immediately shook their heads like rattles. If there was no food, they might have closed their eyes and ate the food.

But didn't they have no food. They caught a lot of bugs and a sand snake tonight. Who would ask for trouble and try this kind of plant that smells like baba?

Seeing the crowd, Qin Yuan shook his head and said to them:

"You don't want to eat it now, and you will regret it later."

"Forget it, Captain, I still don't have such a good appetite as you. I'd better go there and start the fire. You can eat these things by yourself."

After saying this, Yang Rui took his prey directly and ran to the fire. He decided to use the fire and boiled the snake soup.

The other people also laughed twice, and quickly stayed away from Qin Yuan' This smell is really horrible.

Qin Yuan couldn't help rolling his eyes. There was no good person in this group of bastards.

But looking at the fruit in his hand, Qin Yuan had a hint of interest. Although he had heard of this plant before, he saw it for the first time. So Qin Yuan thought for a while, and received the fruit directly into the grid.

I don't know what abilities these things can give him.

"Ding Dong~ The system was successfully recovered, please start the selection!"

With the prompt sound of this system, three options suddenly appeared in front of Qin Yuan!

"1. Get world-class stench attraction!"

"2, get world-class parasitic ability!"

"3, get world-class trap technique!"

But at this time, seeing these three options, Qin Yuan's eyes stared, dying of anger, Nima, what the  is this stinking attraction?

Chapter 512: Trap

Although Qin Yuan knew that this ability was possessed by this Philippine Egret Flower, Qin Yuan could never let his body become stinky, right?

This is not to attract others, this is obviously mocking others, it is estimated that on the battlefield, you will get a little more bullets than others!

As for this parasitic ability, Qin Yuan also shook his head slightly. This parasitic ability may allow Qin Yuan to obtain certain nutrients from some biological plants, but he is not an immobile tree. He wants to obtain this. Nutritional ingredients, why not just eat them?

However, seeing the third option, Qin Yuan's eyes brightened. The trap technique is not bad, and it seems to be very useful in the current situation!

So Qin Yuan quickly made up his mind!

"System, I choose item 3."

"Ding Dong, the host chooses successfully and obtains a world-class trap technique!"

With this voice, Qin Yuan suddenly had a lot of thoughts about arranging traps in his mind.

Looking at the techniques of these traps, Qin Yuan's brain suddenly set off a stormy sea.

Unexpectedly, there are so many trap techniques, then this ability is indeed very useful.

Therefore, Qin Yuan did not hesitate to directly retrieve all these fruits, and raised these trap techniques to the universe level in one breath!

"Ding Dong, the host chooses successfully and obtains the cosmic trap technique!"

However, after obtaining the cosmic trap technique, Qin Yuan's eyes were wide-eyed!

Because he didn't expect that his cosmic trap technique would be combined with the desert survival skills he had obtained before, forming an exclusive desert trap technique!

At this time, Qin Yuan was naturally more excited!

really! The group of people behind is unlucky!

"How is the captain? Are those fruits delicious?"

At this time Li Erniu He Chenguang shouted at Qin Yuan from a distance, and Qin Yuan heard this, with a smile on his face, and said to them:

"It's delicious, it's so delicious, otherwise you guys will try it too!"

After that, Qin Yuan directly took out these fruits and walked towards them again! Then, when everyone was not paying attention, he just stuffed it into Yang Rui's mouth!

Then everyone laughed and squabbled, expressing the pressure of the day.

But what surprised everyone was that the taste of this fruit seemed to be really good?

The night passed quickly.

Qin Yuan and others had a very good life, but the rebels pursuing them were not so comfortable anymore.

They didn't rest for too long last night, they wanted to use the night to walk a little longer, and wanted to catch up with Qin Yuan.

But this effect is not very good.

When they found the fire that Qin Yuan left behind, Qin Yuan and others left for a long time.

However, Jadra Khan did not feel any frustration. Although he did not directly catch Qin Yuan, it proved that they took the right route. As long as they did not take the wrong path, Qin Yuan would be overtaken by them sooner or later!

"Keep going!"

Jadra Khan looked at the somewhat sleepy look of his own players, but he let them go on.

After all, the rest time has passed. If they sleep here under the sun, they will only be grilled into barbecue!

If they catch up with the Yan countryman earlier, they will be able to rest earlier!

These people are tired and thirsty, but they all understand that now that there is a place to rest, they can only drag their tired body to move on.

So when they found a small piece of jujube tree, they were immediately extremely excited.

Although the helicopters had delivered a lot of supplies to them before they came in, they had a total of two hundred people. After all, the carrying capacity of the helicopters was limited, and their material level was not very sufficient.

There are not many jujubes here, but the food in the desert represents hope, and it is a place to rest!

Moreover, another group of people also yelled loudly:

"There is a small water hole in front of you! Prepare something to fetch water!"

This desert is not an imagined Jedi. Because it is a saline-alkali zone, there are some water pools in many places. Although the water in these water pools cannot be drunk directly, it is not difficult for them to be born and raised. People who survive in the desert.

They first checked the jujubes and the water pool for poison, and then divided them into two parts. Some people beat the dates by hand, and the other people took the sheepskin bags from their bodies and put some gravel on them. Some charcoal was cleaned out, and then a layer of charcoal was sprinkled with a layer of fine sand. In this way, some very simple but effective filters were directly made.

Seeing the continuous appearance of Danshui, their hearts were also very happy.

At this time, seeing this situation, Jadra Khan also showed a smile. Sure enough, the people of Yan Country are not children in the desert. It is impossible for them to be able to accurately find the fruit and the source of water. The people of Yan country are already even more hungry than them.

Afterwards, a person directly gave this pot of fresh water to Jadra Khan, and Jadra Khan also smiled and drank two sips before passing the pot of fresh water.

However, this person shook his head and said to Jadra Khan: "Boss, we have a lot of fresh water now. You should drink all this pot of water."

They have been chasing for a whole day and night, but Jadra Khan did not drink much water, and now his lips are white. As Jadra Khan's guard, he looked a little distressed.

But Jadra Khan shook his head, ' said to the guard:

"We still have a long way to go, and we don't know how long it will take to catch that group of people from Yan country. We can't drink such a waste of water, so we should save some."

Hearing this, everyone nodded. Although Jadra Khan is a cold-blooded soldier, after all, Jadra Khan has always been setting an example and drinking no more water than them. They are naturally convinced. It is also for them to survive longer in the desert.

So they are also careful to drink from their own kettle, this taste is definitely not good water.

It's just that this pot of water, some frail young soldiers will be taken away by the veterans before they drink a few sips.

These soldiers just murmured, but didn't say anything.

Seeing this situation, Jadra Khan frowned slightly, but did not stop it.

Although this water is considered a public asset, it is after all these veterans made it by themselves. Those who do not work cannot eat it. This is also fair.

Chapter 513: Trap in the desert

At this time, the soldiers also brought those jujubes and gave them to Jadra Khan graciously.

However, Jadra Khan frowned slightly when he looked at these dates, and he felt something was wrong.

They have been tracking the people of Yan country. If they can find these jujube trees, the people of Yan country should also be able to find these jujube trees.

And jujube is a rare good thing in the desert. Although it is sour and unpalatable, the people of Yan country shouldn't even be able to bear it.

So Jadra Khan yelled directly:

"Be careful, these dates may be poisonous!"

However, at this time, Jadra Khan saw that one of his subordinates had already eaten the jujube. Although his face was irritated by the smell of the jujube, he was still fine.

At this time, the guard on one side said:

"Boss, we have verified before eating. There is nothing wrong with these dates. The first half of the dates are all tested by those Earls. They have nothing to do, so I will give this thing. You send it here."

After hearing this, Jadra Khan was relieved.

In this two-hundred-member team, although all elite players have fought, they come from different places.

Among these people are the surviving subordinates of Zhaka, Abdullah's close associates, and of course, the subordinates of General Sharaf who originally belonged to the rebel army.

Where there are people, there will be disputes, so the people in the first two are naturally some third parties who look down on surrendering.

It is a pity that General Sharaf's men are relatively young. Although there are a large number of them, they are much worse than the previous two in terms of combat effectiveness. Therefore, even if they are excluded, they can't do anything. Effective measures.

As the leader, Jadra Khan should have put an end to such things, but he is only a deputy team. If Herley still has this ability, Jadra Khan is not, even if it can be thought that such a practice is wrong, but Jadra Khan didn't want to do this.

"Don't let those people bully the new brothers, everyone is Mr. Abdullah's subordinates, all for a better new world, do you understand?"

At this time, Jadra Khan said with a sullen face, and then turned his head to the side. When he heard this, the soldier nodded and smiled, but he didn't even bother to convey it.

And Jadra Khan didn't say much, anyway, the order had been given, and the soldiers under his command were unwilling to comply. What could he do?

However, at this moment, something happened...

The veterans who grabbed the water bottle just now covered their throat, and the water bottle in their hands fell directly to the ground!

Seeing such a situation, the people around were suddenly shocked. How could these people look like they had drunk some poison!

"This...water is poisonous!"

An old soldier said in horror, and at this time, everyone who shared the last bottle of water covered their necks and fell to the ground!

Jadra Khan also looked shocked, what is going on, why are these people poisoned?

But how come those people who drank water at first have nothing!

"What exactly is going on!"

At this time Jadra Khan was extremely angry, because of the poisoning, including the soldier who treated him well!

At this time, a veteran with dexterous hands and feet looked at the bottom of the water pool and suddenly discovered something. He rushed in and took out a syringe from the water pool!

"Boss, I found this!"

"what is this?"

Jadra Khan's brow furrowed, and an old soldier carefully smelled it, but his face changed drastically, and he tremblingly said:

"This is... cactus toxin!"

"what?"

Jadra Khan's eyes widened. How could this happen?

At this time, the satellite in the sky directly transmitted this scene. In a military base in the lighthouse country, a lip-translation expert just translated what these people said, and there was a wild survival master on the side. Just say:

"This is feasible. The cactus toxins are generally neuropsychedellic toxins, which are colorless after molding, but the quality is heavier than ordinary saline-alkali water, so the cactus toxins will sink to the bottom.

And because of the large number of these veterans, they got all the water in the entire pool, so at the last time, they would absorb the cactus toxins that had sunk at the bottom, and the poisoner was very cunning. In the syringe, even at the beginning, the toxin will spread out, but it will not be fatal, but in the end, it will be incurable poison..."

Hearing this, a man with the appearance of an instructor said in a deep voice:

"Let's take a look, learn a little, if our people also chase this kid, will we be caught in this kind of deception?"

But hearing such words, the blonde players standing behind him were all unconvinced and said directly:

"Sir, we will carry enough detection equipment, and will not use this simple water filter instrument."

But when he heard this, the instructor frowned and said directly:

"Then what if your device breaks?"

"Then we can also call for support and let people send supplies directly! No matter how bad, we have the best biological experts. It is impossible not to discover this kind of trick!"

Henry said disdainfully.

Qin Yuan's technique looks very clever, but it seems very rough, so in Henry's eyes, it is a small trick.

How can the people of their sea dog commando be involved in such a small conspiracy?

But at this moment, an expert next to him was extremely surprised and said:

"What's the matter? Why are those who didn't drink water ' are also poisoned?"

And this voice immediately attracted the attention of these people around!

At this time in the desert, Jadra Khan looked at the already painful stomach, and the soldiers who could not help rolling, shouted angrily:

"What the * is going on, why these people are also poisoned? Didn't they have time to drink water?"

But the veteran just checked it, but sat on the ground with an incredible ass, and said to Jadra Khan in surprise:

"Chief, they are not poisoned because of drinking water, but because they ate dates."

"Eat dates?"

After Jadra Khan heard this, his eyes suddenly stared. How could this date be poisoned?

He also ate some jujubes just now, but nothing happened. Although there are a lot of jujubes in it, most of them are on the same jujube tree, so this half is not poisonous, and the other half is not poisonous!

Chapter 514: Cleverly arranged

Jadra Khan frowned and asked the veteran:

"How did this happen? Did he smear poison on every date?"

"That's not the case, boss, there are hundreds of these dates, but there are more than 20 poisoned people, and we didn't carelessly wipe them when we ate them, even if he If the poison is really poisoned, it is impossible to directly poison us to death with the weight of the date applied!"

"Besides, he is still on the run. He doesn't have much time to put the poison on these dates."

Hearing this, Jadra Khan gritted his teeth, grabbed the veteran, and said to him:

"Then you are going to talk about how he did it, so that he is really the spokesperson of the gods, and can make half of the dates poisonous and half of them non-toxic!"

"Chief, it's the syringe just now!"

This veteran also gritted his teeth. He only reacted at this time. Normally, the general toxins would be packed in a fixed container, so they wouldn't be placed directly in a syringe.

Moreover, this syringe does not yet have a needle.

It's not obvious, what did he do with this syringe!

Soon, the veteran found an extremely small needle eye directly from the trunk of the jujube tree, and also found a piece of bark that had been sawn off but was glued to the trunk!

And seeing this, this veteran understood everything instantly!

What a clever way!

At this time, the veteran said to Jadra Khan with a calm face:

"The leader, he injected the toxin from the cactus directly into the trunk, and the toxin was absorbed along the trunk's veins. On the other side, because he had cut off the bark, the jujube tree's plant veins had been Cut off, you can only use the remaining veins to absorb water. The absorbed water will carry the toxins of the cactus, so that half of the dates in the south will be poisonous, and the dates in the north will not be poisonous!"

All of them were stunned when they heard this. The reason they were sure that the date was not poisonous was because they had just seen some ants and other animals on it looking for food.

But who would have thought that this Yan countryman could be such a chicken thief, so that half of the dates are poisonous and half of the dates are not poisonous!

Hearing this, Jadra Khan suddenly took out his gun, and it was aroused to the sky:

"This bastard!!!"

In the observation room of the Lighthouse Country, Henry also sweated his forehead.

If he could still see the problem of the water source before, he really didn't see the date.

This Yan countryman has such thoughts?

This made Henry's heart a bit of thought.

I don't know what will happen when I fight this guy...

The fate of these rebels also followed the satellite and spread directly to all parts of the world, which shocked the hearts of all soldiers.

As the saying goes, seeing the small and knowing the work, seeing the big from the small, this alone is enough to show the strength of this Yan Nation soldier.

Maybe, this Yan countryman can really get out of the desert alive!

After this period of time, Jadra Khan's team was completely in a panic, because they found that the method of poisoning by this Yan nation was simply impossible to prevent!

What you eat is poisonous, and what you drink is poisonous. Even if it is a cactus standing for a while, it is still poisonous. Even if you find a water source, even if you don't drink it, the distilled poison is still choking to death.

Moreover, the toxin of the cactus is a psychedelic toxin. Once it is poisoned, they will fall into hallucinations. These people have weapons on their bodies. Under this depressing environment, as long as they fall into the illusion, almost all of them will open. Gun shot!

So in Jadra Khan's team, everyone is panicked. They don't know if their companions are poisoned or not. They don't know if they are poisoned. What they see is true. Yes, it's still an illusion!

In this case, Jadra Khan was also completely desperate. He could only ask everyone to seal up all their weapons and put magazines in bags. Only a few people contained bullets in their weapons.

But even so, someone will fall into madness from time to time, but Jadra Khan has no choice but to kill this person directly!

And more importantly, these people have already developed a sense of fear for anything in the desert, no matter whether this thing is trapped by Qin Yuan's subordinates, they dare not approach it again.

But they are a huge team of 200 people. Originally, the materials they carried were not enough. If they were in the desert and did not work hard to cherish any resources that could survive, they would never be alive. Get out from here!

Fortunately, their number is declining. They can use the water bottle on the dead to get the water to continue living!

Jadra Khan raised his head and glanced at the sun in the sky. He couldn't help but feel desperate. He finally understood why before he came, Herley told him that he must be careful, because they had to deal with it. The person turned out to be such a shameless and terrible bastard!

This guy simply doesn't have any bottom line, and he doesn't look like a normal Yan Nation soldier at all. As long as it is a useful method, as long as it can kill them, no matter how shameless, no matter how despicable and clever, this  can think of it. !

But Jadra Khan could only sigh in the end' said something to his brothers, and he also had some words that he couldn't believe:

"Persevere, we will definitely catch that guy in the end, and then cut him a thousand times and avenge our dead brothers!"

But the person who responded to Jadra Khan was silent like death. Such words are no longer enough to cause their reaction. The only thing they can think about now is how to get out of this place alive!

They have been chasing these people for seven days. In these seven days, they will be left behind every day, some of them are poisoned to death, some are killed by landmines, and some commit suicide because of heat exhaustion and cannot bear it!

Of course, the bigger hidden danger lies in the food!

In seven days, their fresh water reserves had reached a very dangerous level, and what was even more frightening was that they had no food.

There are still 150 people left of them, but these 150 people are like starving ghosts running out of hell, completely disregarding everything they saw, eating everything they saw!

Chapter 515: Mirage

These one hundred and fifty people, like mad dogs, ate everything they saw!

At this time, they don't want to care about the Yan Country, no poison, no bomb, they just want to be able to stuff everything in front of them into their stomachs.

But even at this time, Jadra Khan still did not collapse, his eyes were red as if he was fished out of blood, no matter what disturbance he saw, he would directly raise the handful in his hand. Desert Eagle, killed the rioting soldiers with one shot!

It is precisely because of Jadra Khan's high-pressure policy that these talents can maintain the formation without collapsing. Although they are dying every day, they are still moving forward and on the way to chase.

Jadra Khan said hoarsely to the veteran named Dongdan who had previously advised him to become his new guard.

"Where are we?"

When Dong Dan heard such words, he also weakly took out a map from his body and said to Jadra Khan:

"Boss, we have now walked through 2/3 of this desert, and in three days, we will be able to go out directly."

Hearing this, Jadra Khan's heart was shocked, but he soon calmed down, showing a hint of laughter.

The more at this time, the more likely it was to fall behind. He looked back at the swaying soldiers behind him, who were about to lose their feet, and his heart became more desperate.

You know, what they are chasing is not a rabbit who can only run away, but a super soldier who has killed more than 50 of their companions.

But Jadra Khan still said in a deep voice:

"From now on, we need to call others uninterruptedly. Whoever finds us can contact them and let them send us supply resources!"

Although Jadra Khan does not know what the external situation is, according to their previous plan, I am afraid that their Mr. Abdullah has already become Prime Minister!

But Jadra Khan didn't expect that, because of what Qin Yuan did, the amount of this win and loss has already involved tens of billions of dollars, plus the pressure from Yan Nation, although no one I dare to give Qin Yuan any support, but again, no one dares to give them any support!

Even the decision of the leaders of the entire Ivia Republic depends on the decision of this time!

So even if Abdullah and Herley were extremely anxious, because they couldn't borrow satellites, there was no way to determine their location, let alone any support for them!

At this time, hearing Jadra Khan's words, the information soldier was also a little excited, and began to call the surrounding signals.

However, observing the movements of these people through satellites, the general instructors in front of the screen shook their heads, knowing that these people are all wasting their efforts.

But Jadra Khan just doesn't know this, he has always been waiting for the response from others!

At this time, Jadra Khan hid in a shady place to rest, drinking the little water left in the kettle, and even facing the eyes of those around him with a trace of anger and hatred.

On the way, as long as the soldiers were poisoned, they were all executed directly by Jadra Khan. Among those who died, naturally there were brothers and friends of the living.

What's more, he, the commander, has never come up with any good ways to take them away from adversity, so Jadra Khan also understood the anger of these people.

But to understand, Jadra Khan raised his muzzle gently. His current mission has not been completed, so he can't just die.

But at this moment, suddenly a soldier stood up, his eyes widened, looked into the distance, and said in surprise:

"My Holy Lord, the Holy Lord has manifested!"

Then a group of soldiers were all cheering, they ran towards there frantically, and Jadra Khan was also attracted and looked directly towards the east.

At this time, he was extremely surprised to discover that a small island appeared in the distance with dense scenery, full of various plants, and there was a sea around the island!

They have reached the edge of the desert, have they seen the sea?

impossible!

Jadra Khan shook his head abruptly. If he was really at the beach and still so close to the ocean, he wouldn't be able to feel the sea breeze. Why can he only smell the extremely dry wind and sand in the air now?

So Jadra Khan suddenly fired three shots into the sky and said loudly:

"Don't rush over, it's all an illusion, it's a mirage!"

But these soldiers, who were hungry to the limit and thirsty to the limit, did not listen to Jadra Khan's orders. They are now completely stunned by the mirage in the distance. As long as they can reach that place, they can. There is a way to get enough fresh water and enough food to live well!

Seeing such a situation, Jadra Khan's face sank, and he grabbed a handful of Akka 47 from the hand of one of his men. After loading the bullet, he shot in the front direction suddenly!

Da da da!

The bullet flew over and hit the front man directly. The man jumped and stopped. At this time, Jadra Khan continued to speak loudly:

"Listen to my orders. If you don't follow my orders and dare to take a step forward, I will kill him directly."

Everyone was stunned for one ' but one person still ran forward. Jadra Khan's wink, the muzzle turned, a bullet was directly excited, and suddenly this person Blew my head!

Now everyone calmed down. They looked at the island and ocean in the distance, kneeling helplessly on the ground.

In fact, people who live in the desert don't know about mirages, but in the current situation, they would rather believe that these are true.

At this time, Jadra Khan saw that the situation was under control, and said to the veteran Dongdan on one side:

"Dongdan, take someone over and have a look."

At this time, Dong Dan was also experiencing tremendous vicissitudes. He nodded and called a young guy who looked like a teenager directly from the team, and the two walked towards the direction of the mirage together.

Dongdan has not had a good time these days, because although he is now a personal soldier of Jadra Khan, Jadra Khan is now being hated by everyone, and these people dare not vent their grievances on Jadra. Khan, then Dongdan is the best punching bag.

Chapter 516: father

Anyway, Dongdan is already old. Even if they dare not * Dongdan's water and other things, all kinds of cold talk are indispensable.

I don't know where I learned that there was a young man who was Dong Dan's son, so they often bullied the young man. There was no way, Dong Dan had to pull out his own son and act as his assistant.

"Damuel, follow me closely."

At this time, Dongdan said to Danmuer with concern. To be honest, even if Dongdan knows these deserts very well, Dongdan is not sure if they can get out of this desert alive.

Dan Muer is his son. For Dongdan, this is the obsession he has been able to hold on to the present. In any case, he always wants to take his son out of this desert alive.

At this time, Dan Muer also had white lips, and his whole body was in a state of severe water shortage. He looked at the blue sea in front of him, and he couldn't stop sighing:

"Abba, can we survive? With this sea, we can all live!"

But Dong Dan shook his head helplessly, and said to Dan Muer:

"This is the miracle of the Holy Lord. He is able to reflect the distant scenery before our eyes, but it can only be seen by us, just can't be touched, and this scene will not last long, we still have to find Own water."

"But...but..."

Dan Muer looked at the blue sea in front of him. Even though he was willing to believe in his father, he did not want to move his eyes away from the blue sea.

Seeing the appearance of his son, Dong Dan sighed softly. He knew that if he didn't expose this fantasy to Dan Muer, then Dan Muer would not be able to calm down and find his way quietly with him. And find water.

"Come on, I will show you."

After saying this, Dong Dan looked around and found that there was only one place nearby, with a small sand dune about four or five meters higher than the flat ground.

With Dan Mul, Dong Dan slowly climbed up a small sand dune.

The mirage is only the refraction of light, so as long as they stand at a relatively high place, they will pass the change of light to avoid the deception of the mirage.

But at this time, Dong Dan and Dan Muer had just climbed to the top of this small sand dune. Suddenly Dong Dan heard the sound of a spring bounce, and after hearing this sound, Dong Dan's eyes suddenly became the boss, because of this The sound is very familiar to him, this is the sound of the bomb being pulled away for safety!

Thinking of this, Dong Dan, a veteran who did not know how many times had escaped from the dead man's pile, yelled badly in his heart. He lifted a kick and kicked Dan Muer out, and then the whole person was rushing towards him. With a previous flutter, he shrank his body into the smallest sphere and rolled down the sand dune!

"boom!"

A bomb suddenly exploded on the top of the sand dune, and countless fragments, some bullet shells, and countless yellow sand on the sand dune were splashed out by this force.

Dong Dan's reaction was not unpleasant, but even so, because he wasted some time to take care of Dan Muer, he had not had time to roll off the sand dune, and his body was already hit by two shrapnel!

Dong Dan, who was hurt, endured the pain of his body and let out a painful moan. When he fell to the end, he barely stretched out his body, otherwise he would have been shot in the back. Suffered more serious injuries.

But Dongdan just fell from this sand dune to the flat ground, before he had time to stretch out his body, he felt pain in his feet, suddenly felt his body crooked, and fell uncontrollably on the sand!

However, this piece of sand made Dongdan feel even more pain, because under this piece of sand, there was an extremely sharp tiger-tooth dagger!

The position of this dagger is extremely tricky, as if he just calculated that this position would drop a heavy object weighing more than one hundred kilograms, just enough to press this piece of soft sand to reveal the blade.

At this time, Dong Dan, resisting the pain from his body, tightly covered his wound.

Although his abdomen was stabbed by this sharp tiger-tooth dagger, his body subconsciously supported it when he landed. So the wound of this knife is not very big, he still has a chance.

But at this moment, Dong Dan felt his wound, and suddenly a strange feeling came out, and it didn't hurt! At this moment, Dong Dan's eyes widened. My heart is more desperate!

Because he is 100% sure that poison has been applied to this tiger-tooth dagger!

Moreover, the toxicity of this poison was obviously more powerful than those of the cactus toxins left behind. Now Dongdan can only feel the constant blood loss of his body, but there is no sensation on the wound.

A sense of desperate fear slowly flooded Dongdan's heart.

When he climbed this small sand dune just now, he knew that he had been caught in the trap of the people of Yan country. Just now he had escaped the explosive landmine on the sand dune and felt that he was able to survive, but he did not expect this. The real ultimate move of Qunyan people turned out to be a tiger-tooth dagger buried under this sand!

This is a serial killer move specifically aimed at his survivability, a veteran with rich experience in battle!

And at this moment, Dan Muer, who was kicked out by Dong Dan just now, also ran over. Seeing Dong Dan's appearance, Dan Muer was helplessly holding Dong Dan in his arms. Then he hurriedly took out his few medicines and wanted to bandage Dongdan.

But no matter how hard Dan Muer tried, he couldn't stop the wound, and patches of red blood continued to show through his fingers.

And Dong Dan's trembling hand, at this time, gently held Dan Muer, shook his head at Dan Muer, and signaled him not to do such a waste of effort. Looking at the son in front of him, Dong Dan showed a reluctant expression and said to Dan Muer:

"My dear son, there is no need to grieve for me. I died in the hands of a master, and it is dead without regret."

At this moment, Dong Dan looked up at the blue in the sky, and couldn't stop thinking of his youth.

But looking at it, Dong Dan suddenly felt a strong murderous aura, and directly pulled him back from the fantasy.

Chapter 517: Wolves' counterattack

At this time, Dong Dan tightly held Dan Muer's hand and said to Dan Muer:

"In this round of battle, those Yan people won, we lost, and I'm afraid we will lose completely, but you have to help me accomplish one thing, you have to go back alive and help me bring you my scimitar. My grandma, say sorry to her, I failed to take all her sons back..."

"Wait a while after I die, you will put my body on the sand dune, I know, I am afraid they have not gone far. Now you take my water and various resources, and go south, don't look back. Don't join the big army, run out from here, and don't take revenge on me. You will definitely not be the opponent of those Yan people."

Hearing Dong Dan's words, Dan Muer couldn't help it anymore and let out a howl that didn't sound like a human voice. The extremely precious water in the desert flowed out of Dan Muer's eyes.

Damur's heart hate! I really hate the people of Yan country, and want to tear them up completely and eat them!

But seeing his father Dongdan's pleading eyes, Dan Muer couldn't say anything he wanted to take revenge. He knew that he would never be the opponent of those Yan Guoren, but he also knew that his father, The biggest wish in my heart is that he can live!

Seeing Dan Muer nodded and agreed, Dong Dan's eyes also showed a trace of relief, and finally, slowly closed his eyes.

Seeing his father slowly closing his eyes, Dan Muer also let out a silent howl. Following Dong Dan's instructions, he directly dragged Dong Dan's body onto the sand dune.

Finally, he took a nostalgic look at Dongdan, and then left here without looking back!

At this moment, the veteran, even though he was dead, still had his eyes widened and looked straight ahead, as if he was telling something.

In the distance, Gu Shun, who was holding a sniper rifle in his hand, looked at Dan Mul, who was fleeing in the sniper scope, but couldn't pull the trigger anyway.

At this time, Qin Yuan also said softly:

"Okay, let him go, and let yourself go. Take a closer look at the veteran's eyes. He has already discovered that we are nearby. The reason why he is looking here is not to take a look at his last enemy. , But begging us to let his children go."

Hearing such words, Gu Shun's heart trembled and directly asked Qin Yuan softly:

"Then shall we let him go?"

And hearing such words, Qin Yuan also sighed softly.

To be honest, even Qin Yuan had to admit that the elderly soldier in front of him was a real soldier.

The reason why this veteran dragged his corpse onto the sand dunes was to let Qin Yuan see that he had given up the dignity of all his soldiers and only begged Qin Yuan to spare his son and his teammates.

Then Qin Yuan's eyes slowly became firm, and he said directly to Gu Shun:

"We really want to let him go. It's just that he is alone. Whether he can walk out of this desert alive is an unknown number..."

After saying this, Qin Yuan suddenly clenched his fists and said to the others:

"Well, now everyone is cheering up, we are going to fight back!"

As the leader of a pack of wolves, Qin Yuan certainly wouldn't just run away like this. Now he has dragged down this group of people, tired, and it is time for them to start a counterattack!

At this time, Jadra Khan looked at the mirage on that day, but his heart became more and more restless. He squinted his eyes, and Jadra Khan said directly to one of his men:

"Why hasn't Dongdan come back? Go and take a look."

Hearing what Jadra Khan said, the subordinate nodded directly, packed his own things, and then wanted to follow Dongdan's direction and follow that location.

And Jadra Khan also stood up directly, but at this moment, suddenly a sense of crisis broke out in his heart!

"Boom!"

There was a sudden gunshot in the distance, but Jadra Khan was directly at his side!

"Sniper! Concealed!"

Jadra Khan lay on the ground and shouted loudly, and everyone around him became extremely flustered and began to look for shelter.

There was a hint of excitement in Jadra Khan's eyes. He was not afraid of these people attacking him, but instead was afraid that these Yan people would continue to escape!

After all, as long as they dare to launch an attack, there are a total of 150 of them, and they can crush the opponent to death!

But if they keep running, Jadra Khan really doesn't know how long he can maintain the team!

And at this moment, another bullet suddenly rushed over from an extremely tricky angle, exploding Jadra Khan's head!

Snapped!

The strong impact of this bullet suddenly smashed Jadra Khan's head into a rotten watermelon, and the faces of the soldiers around Jadra Khan were full of blood splattered by Jadra Khan! There was a cry of horror!

They were not terrified that blood was splashed on their bodies, but terrified that their leader was gone!

At this time, the gunshots in the distance continued to sound again, throwing them at a parabolic angle, killing some soldiers who had not had time to escape, further intensifying the panic!

"Don't mess, don't mess, hurry up, get down and find the other person's position!"

At this time, a person with the appearance of a small captain spoke loudly, but he hadn't finished his words yet ' There was another gunshot, and his head was completely open.

And seeing such a situation, this time I didn't dare to be commanded. Everyone was lying on the ground, like a tortoise with their heads shrunk, completely afraid to have any idea of counterattack.

After passing the satellites in the sky and seeing this scene, the people in each observation room sighed in their hearts:

This chasing team is completely finished.

There is nothing to look forward to next. Wolves and guerrilla tactics are what Yan people are best at. In this situation, we can only see when these Yan people killed all the people. .

Although everyone knows that there are not too many bullets on the people of Yan country, the courage of these people has been completely destroyed by the people of Yan country.

The most experienced guides are dead, and the leader who can hold people's hope and persecute them is also dead, and has lost all hope. They are no longer humans, but become pigs who can only bark!

For soldiers who can't even fight back, death is only a matter of time.

Chapter 518: Wolf pack tactics

Qin Yuan and several people were like wolves dealing with deer, blooming on all sides, and these people didn't even have the strength to run, and they finally formed a defensive formation, but they were headed by two sniper rifles.

In fact, if these soldiers did not lose their morale, they would still be able to make a decent counterattack. After all, they were not recruits. When an attack was encountered, the body naturally knew what to do.

But now everyone is running and hiding, and those who work hard to organize people will soon be caught headshot by snipers!

At this time, through the satellite video, those people saw Qin Yuan only a few people, but they could not find the north after hitting a full 150 people, and they were all sighed.

This is the terrible consequence of losing morale!

This team of Yan Country has clearly demonstrated the horror of the elite team, especially Qin Yuan. Although he does not know his name, they have given Qin Yuan a very loud code name. Called Death Demon.

And in an extremely luxurious room, a man saw everything on the screen and threw the wine glass in his hand angrily!

"Trash! Trash! All trash! Why are more than a hundred people being crushed and beaten by a few people!"

However, no matter how angry this person is, it is impossible to directly change the situation of the battle, but thinking about the consequences of this Yan Country kid's victory, this person suddenly has his teeth, but he has no choice but to drop his head!

This person is naturally Thomas of the Las Vegas Casino. Now that Qin Yuan and others have the upper hand, he feels that he is going crazy.

Now the amount of betting that Qin Yuan can win is a full 300 million US dollars. Although Thomas can win back some in other markets, if the biggest odds loses, then he will lose a full 5 billion in cash!

The money is enough for Thomas to jump directly from his own building!

"No! No! I have to find a way! Find a way to survive the chasing troops that are like waste!"

At this time, Thomas directly picked up his mobile phone and wanted to let the team he hired directly rush into the desert, to deliver supplies to these people, and bring these people out. Even if he could escape a few, he would still earn money. !

But when he called and said a few words, he suddenly dropped the phone to the ground in anger!

This group of  mercenaries are unwilling to go!

After all, even though these mercenaries are people who make money with their lives, they have no idea after seeing how powerful the people of Yan Guo are.

What's more, there are now a lot of people in the border zone of the desert. If their group dares to pass, they will fly a missile from somewhere and blow up their helicopter directly!

Even if they are lucky enough to enter this desert, they don't even know where the group of people are now. How could they be searching for the desert. If one is so good, they might have given these supplies to Qin Yuan. .

Even if they take a step back and they are really successful, then their action will be directly displayed in front of the whole world. These mercenaries are animals hiding in the shadows. This time they can make money, but they will pay back in the future. Who dare to invite them?

Thomas' heart is already full of despair. He feels that this is the current international situation. It's not enough to make him do any tricks.

He is dead!

Thinking of this, Tumas took out a pistol from the drawer with a little trembling.

But at this moment, the phone that had just been thrown out suddenly rang a bell. Thomas froze for a moment, or walked over, and picked up the phone with the broken screen again.

Seeing an unfamiliar number on the screen, Thomas frowned slightly, but still connected the call:

"Hey, who are you?"

"It doesn't matter who I am, but I can give you a message now. Would you like to cooperate with us?"

Hearing the strange English on the other side, Thomas' eyes flashed slightly, but he asked the other side:

"How to cooperate?"

"We can get you the coordinates of those people now, and you can leak this coordinate information, but this coordinate information has nothing to do with us. Do you know what it means?"

Hearing such words, Thomas' mind was spinning rapidly, and he soon understood!

The person on the phone is obviously using him as a gunman!

You know, although these Yan Guo people seem to have only one team, behind him, there is a powerful country standing.

They used the unspoken rules to prevent Yan Guo from directly rescuing, and they have reached their limit. If they break the rules set before and directly kill the army agents that Yan Guo has finally appeared, then the matter is really big!

No one wants to be targeted by Yan Country, a superpower with a population of over one billion and the second largest military power!

Everyone understands that once they interfere in this battle, they will be treated as a thorn in the eye and thorn in the flesh. Even if they can survive, they can only live like a mouse.

But in this situation, Thomas really has no choice but to gritted his teeth and said:

"Well, then I agree."

"Very well, then we will formally cooperate now. I will use satellite coordinates to feed back the location of these people to you in real time. You should know how to do it."

Soon, a coordinate was sent from the other side. After a glance, Thomas slowly hung up the phone.

...

At this time, in the desert ', a large number of rebels died, and some people even began to be unable to withstand such pressure, and had already aimed their guns at their heads.

After all, death sooner or later is death, and if you die now, you don't have to bear the terrible pressure.

But at this moment, the communication soldier on the side suddenly received a message. At this moment, he said with excitement:

"We are saved, we have contacted the captain!"

At this time, in the high-powered walkie-talkie in the hands of this communicator, there was finally an intermittent sound. After they lost contact with the base for a whole week, they were finally able to contact again!

When they heard this voice, everyone else's eyes lit up, because they knew that once they contacted the commander, it meant they had a chance to survive!

Sure enough, they soon heard the familiar voice of their leader Abdullah from this walkie-talkie:

"Children, you have worked hard!"

Chapter 519: Die before dawn

At this time, Abdullah's words were extremely gentle, and he did not ask about the results of the battle, and was not angry because of the heavy casualties they were beaten by this group of Yan Guoren, but he was extremely concerned about these people:

"I know it's very difficult now, but you just live, just live."

Hearing such words, everyone present was taken aback, warm tears appeared directly in everyone's eyes, and after a period of silence, everyone directly uttered a burst of crazy cheers.

Soon, they elected a man with the highest rank to answer the phone. This man cried on the phone and yelled frantically:

"Sir, we need support now, we need water, food, ammunition, doctor..."

Having said this, the newly appointed commander could no longer speak, and pleaded with choking:

"Sir! Please! Send these things quickly, if it's late! Those of us are really going to die!"

At this moment, Qin Yuan, who was almost empty of bullets, looked at the situation in the distance, but his face became gloomy, because he had seen the commander holding the satellite phone and could not talk.

Associated with a very terrible situation, Qin Yuan's face was as dark as the bottom of the pot. He knew that it would not take much time for more than one armed helicopter to fly over their heads!

At this time, Qin Yuan stood up directly from the sand dune he was hiding, and said in a deep voice to the surrounding people:

"You don't need to save water now. Drink all the water, throw away all the weights except the weapons, and rush directly to kill these people. We absolutely can't let them join the reinforcements later!"

After speaking this sentence, Qin Yuan suddenly let out a stern roar, his whole person was like a bison, and a shadow flashed out in the desert!

In the current situation, they were almost exhausted, without support and weapons, even Qin Yuan could not protect his teammates under the chase of a few helicopter gunships.

Qin Yuan's heart was extremely angry, he only now knew that the closer to victory, the more dangerous it was!

But at this time, hearing Qin Yuan's order, several people around him gritted their teeth, until now, when they were really desperate, they rushed towards this group of people like Qin Yuan!

Looking at the group of Yan people, they launched a charge towards more than 100 soldiers. Those people who watched through the satellite couldn't stop taking a breath.

They really couldn't think of why the soldier in front of him could burst out such a murderous aura at this time.

What's more frightening is that he has now given up his defense, as long as the opponent leaves a secret whistle in their direction, it will do a very terrible lethality on them.

But there was nothing. The group of militants on the opposite side was completely desperate. If they hadn't had this phone call, they wouldn't have resisted, they would only be killed by this group of Yan Chinese!

And the newly appointed commander, watching the group of Yan Chinese rushing over frantically, his eyelids were constantly jumping!

It was only then that he understood why people like them couldn't deal with each other, because what they had to deal with was not someone at all! But a group of wild beasts!

Although it is still far away, this commander can clearly feel that the other party's murderous aura has spread over his head!

However, he glanced at the soldiers around him, and he knew in his heart that they could not escape. The cheers just now had consumed the last bit of energy on them. If they were to order to retreat at this time, it would be a battle. An irresistible rout!

So he gritted his teeth and stood directly at a high place, completely ignoring that there would be snipers in the distance, and said directly to the group:

"Brothers, I know you are all very tired, but you can see clearly, this is our place, our home, we are now irresistible, and as long as it can stop the devil for an hour, By attacking, we can survive, for ourselves and for the apprentice behind us, let's fight hard!"

Hearing such words at this time, everyone's eyes flashed with determination, and even a divine light slowly rose. The person who was unable to sit on the ground just now stood up again, with an unprecedented momentum. Slowly condense from them.

But seeing this situation, the commander just wanted to say something, a gunshot banged, and a bullet directly pierced his throat, but the commander smiled. He knew that his goal had been achieved. !

Seeing that the commander was dead, another person in the distance shouted directly:

"From now on I will command and guard. The opponent has only one team, and we still have more than 100 people. We will definitely be able to hold on for an hour, and let these people of Yan Guo see how we are!"

"Boom!"

There was another gunshot, and the speaker fell directly to the ground, but on the other side, a person said:

"Establish a line of defense!"

But just seeing this situation, Gu Shun in the distance also looked helpless, and said to Qin Yuan:

"Captain, I don't have enough bullets. It's no way to continue like this!"

And Qin Yuan also knew at this time that the other party's spirit was no longer lost, but they had no time' and couldn't delay any longer. He gritted his teeth and said directly:

"Then fight, and interrupt their just erected spine again!"

Hearing such words, Gu Shun also stood up directly and quickly charged toward the opponent's position!

This is a seven-to-a-hundred battle, but it has become a fortified battle from the lesser side to the more numbered side!

At this time, Qin Yuan's heart was also full of urgency. He knew that they had few weapons left, but the enemy's gunship did not know when it would arrive, so he had to hurry up and hold the opponent in his hands. Snatch all of his weapons, otherwise, once the armed helicopter arrives, Qin Yuan will have nothing to do!

Therefore, at this moment, Qin Yuan didn't dare to leave any leeway anymore. The whole person was like a real ghost, rushing towards the battlefield composed of a hundred people!

"He's coming! He's coming!"

At this moment, seeing Qin Yuan rushing over, these soldiers who had finally plucked up their courage flashed with incomparable fear once again in their eyes!

Chapter 520: Hand-to-hand

They had to be afraid of Qin Yuan, after all, Qin Yuan, a terrifying demon, had swallowed nearly 500 of them!

However, the newly appointed commander quickly calmed down and slapped himself abruptly. This was what he said loudly:

"Fight back! Shoot!"

And hearing this person's roar, these people also came to a sense of this murderous aura and fear. The ones without the magazines were reloading quickly, but the bullets were already loaded, they turned their muzzles, and suddenly moved towards Qin. Yuan launched an attack!

Boom boom boom!

Happiness!

Da da da!

At this time, all kinds of guns flew directly towards Qin Yuan, and when they saw this, countless people who followed Qin Yuan exclaimed.

Under such intensive attacks, can this Yan countryman survive?

But what surprised countless people was that Qin Yuan was like a catfish, bounced on the sand a few times, and disappeared directly behind a small sand dune!

And seeing Qin Yuan actually avoid it, these people are immediately excited, which is enough to prove that this guy is a human, not a devil, as long as they rely on the weapon in their hands, they can kill even this devil. Drop!

The hope of surviving at this time spreads in everyone's hearts, and they can stick to it!

However, the people in front of the screen did not feel the danger of these people leaving, because at this time Qin Yuan directly took off his clothes, and then dived into the sand, and then used a kind of arc. The angle of the line is slowly approaching those people!

"Idiot, look at the back!"

At this time, someone saw Qin Yuan's movements and couldn't help but reminded these rebels, but it's a pity that these rebels could not hear their words!

At this time, there was another gunshot from the other side. It was Li Erniu and the others. Their speed was not as fast as Qin Yuan. They had just arrived at this time.

At this time, Li Erniu was holding an m16 rifle in his hands, and directly attacked these people!

They knew that Qin Yuan shouldn't have any big problems now, and they knew that Qin Yuan would not be killed so easily, but they didn't have the same agility as Qin Yuan, so they could only use this method to disperse these people. His attention gave Qin Yuan a chance!

After firing the gun, the group of people also quickly turned the gun head, a large bullet hit Li Erniu's side, and the two snipers in the team also aimed their guns. Li Erniu.

The speed of the devil just now was so fast, they had no time to take aim, but this one was different!

Looking at the heads in the scope, the two snipers showed a smile, and they were finally able to hurt this devil's companion!

But their gun hasn't fired yet, touch it! bump! Two sounds sounded from both sides, and the bullet appeared instantly, directly hitting the heads of the two snipers.

At this time, He Chenguang and Gu Shun, who were on both sides, put away their guns and rushed out!

The two bullets just now are the only two bullets they have left, and now the sniper rifle in their hands has completely become a display!

So the two of them weren't hiding, they rushed out together.

Naturally, the rebels hurriedly shot at these people, but what they didn't expect was that Qin Yuan had no movement behind the sand dune just now!

At this time, Qin Yuan had already walked around two hundred meters behind this group of people!

The two sides fought fiercely, but unfortunately, it did not cause much casualties. At this time, the newly appointed commander, just now remembered Qin Yuan who had disappeared, his heart suddenly jumped, and he quickly looked back, but found 100 behind him. At the position of Duomi, there was something like a sand worm, suddenly crawling over here!

"Look back! That guy is going to rush over!"

At this time, the commander's voice was already deformed, he turned his head quickly, and shot Qin Yuan, but it was too late at this time. Qin Yuan suddenly leaped out of the sand and then directly Threw something at these people!

"Bomb! Lie down!"

At this moment, looking at the grenades-like thing in the air, the commander suddenly yelled, and this group of people wanted to avoid it!

The commander's heart could not help trembling, they are all surrounded by a sandpit now, if the other party really throws a grenade in, it will inevitably cause them heavy casualties!

But what surprised this commander was that when they had just had time to lie on the ground, that grenade suddenly exploded from the air!

But coming at any time, not all kinds of shrapnel, but a series of white powder!

"This is... a smoke bomb?"

The commander said in surprise, doesn't understand what it means for Qin Yuan to throw a smoke bomb at this moment?

But he reacted quickly, and said to the others excitedly:

"This guy has no bombs, we don't need to be afraid, kill it!"

But as soon as the commander finished speaking, he suddenly felt a voice rang from behind him, and a premonition of death suddenly appeared in his heart!

Sure enough, before he could turn his head back, he suddenly felt an unstoppable force on his neck. With a click, his neck was twisted by a big hand!

Before he died, he saw that black shadow out of the white mist!

It is the devil!

But at this time, the commander suddenly had a kind of understanding in his heart that they were going to die.

At this moment, Qin Yuan was like a real demon god, slaughtering in the smoke! Throughout the smoke, the desperate screams of the soldiers were heard everywhere!

Seeing such a situation, He Chenguang and the others were also shocked, as if they were rushing through the smoke!

Although I know that Qin Yuan is powerful, but this one can deal with a hundred people, even if he can't see it, there is still a gun in the other's hand, if one can't handle it, it really will be over! !

At this time, Qin Yuan has exerted his physical functions to the limit. The smoke resistance ability made these white powders have no effect on Qin Yuan. The universe-level mantis fist plus the power of the ant, plus the two of Qin Yuan With eleven times the dynamic vision, dealing with these people is simply death by knocking, and injury by touching! Really did it!

And hearing the screams of the surrounding companions one after another, these soldiers also completely collapsed, directly turned their guns, and fired them loudly!
